County Council Takes a Trip to the Tilbury Oil Fields.

THE DAY'S PROCEEDINGS

TUESDAY MORNING.

The County Council resumed this morning at eleven o'clock.

The first matter of interest that occupied the Council's attention was a number of complaints from farmers residing in the vicinity of Tilbury oil fields relative to damage caused by escaping gas, etc.

Councillor Ross proposed that the Council visit the oil fields this afternoon, and it was decided to act upon his suggestion.

Mr. Grant brought up the matter of transferring several West Kent schools to the East Kent inspector. The Clerk read letters from the school trustees of Cedar Springs, Charing Cross, Dresden, and school section No. 1, Chatham and Camden. All were opposed to proposed changes. Referred to committee on Education.

Moved by Chinnick, seconded by Grant, that whereas the Government at its last session amended the County Council's Act, thereby increasing the number of members, resolved that the Harrison Hall committee be empowered to provide sufficient seats and desks to accommodate the incoming Council members.

Moved by Haggart and Vester in amendment, that the Harrison Hall committee be instructed to provide something cheap, as the increased Council may not continue for very long, as a change in the Act will most likely be considered.

Councillor French moved in amendment to the amendment, seconded by Councillor Ross, that the matter be left over—Carried.

Before adjournment the Warden notified the Council that an invitation had been received from the ladies of the New St. Andrew's church, Baldoon, to attend a lawn social to-morrow evening. The Council unanimously decided to accept the invitation.

The Council are examining the Tilbury oil fields this afternoon and will not resume until to-morrow.

VISIT OF INSPECTION.

The County Councillors, in company with County Clerk Gosnell and County Solicitor Walker, and press representatives, drove out to the Tilbury oil fields yesterday afternoon and investigated the gas wastage which Mr. Ross had reported on Monday.

The party left the Rankin House a little after one o'clock and reached Tilbury at a few minutes to four. The sun was shining brightly, a cooling breeze came gently from the south, and everything at the start pointed to a beautiful outing. The journey was enlivened by good natured banter between the Councillors regarding the merits of their respective farms, general talk on crops, fences, stock and buildings, and an animated discussion on orchards in which Mr. Walker took an active part.

The oil wells on the J. Campbell, M. Campbell, Howard Marshall and Kerr farms were visited and proved very interesting to those who had never had the privilege of seeing them before. Besides these wells there were many others in the immediate vicinity which could be seen from the roadway. They were situated on the J. and A. Stevenson farms and were said to be yielding excellent oil in large quantities.

The thunderstorm which broke over Tilbury just after the Council's arrival drove them to shelter and curtailed the examination of the other wells. On the majority of the strikes gas was flowing freely and nearly all the machinery was worked by gas power. As Warden Sturgis remarked, while watching one of the exhaust pipes, "There is enough gas blowing off into the air out here to furnish nearly all Chatham with light."

Tilbury men are very enthusiastic over the good results obtained from recent drilling and it is evident that a great future is ahead of the township. Several wells are yielding from 30 to 40 barrels a day, and the oil men on the spot are expecting even better results than these.

Yesterday a new well on the Kerr farm turned up trumps at a depth of 1,420 feet, and from the signs it is giving it appears to be a rich strike.

Although the rain hindered the visitors it did not damp their spirits, and everyone was in a happy mood when the return journey was commenced at five o'clock, in a heavy downpour. Fortunately the weather cleared up when a couple of miles of the home stretch had been covered and the drive proved quite a pleasant affair. The rain had made the roads very heavy and Chatham was not reached until after eight o'clock, but conversation had never lagged and the whole party were in excellent spirits when they reached the city.

A representation to the Government regarding the assessment of the oil fields and some action in regard to the wastage of valuable gas from the wells, will most likely result from the County Council's visit to the scene.

END OF THE WORLD

Rev. J. J. Ross, of London, Says it is Very Near at Hand.

London, June 4.—The Rev. J. J. Ross, of the Talbot street Baptist church, last evening expressed the opinion that the end of the world was not far off.

The preacher took for his subject the parable of the ten virgins. In this parable occur the words, "Watch there, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of Man cometh."

Mr. Ross was of the opinion that the conditions referred to were close at hand. There never was a time in the history of the church when the truth and the false were not mixed. "There are men and educated men who believe that Christ is delaying his second coming and there are some who actually believe that Christ will not come at all. This is a sad mistake," said the Rev. J. J. Ross, "for Christ will come when least expected."

Mr. Ross was formerly pastor of the William street Baptist church here.

IT MAY COME HERE

Keystone Company May Make a Proposition to Remove Warton Factory to this City.

It is understood that the Keystone Sugar Company, whose by-law for a $75,000 loan from the city to remove the Warton plant to Chatham was defeated at the election, will make a new proposition to the city. It is not known definitely what this proposition will be, but it may be for a smaller loan or a small bonus.

Negotiations with Dresden could not have been successful, as it has been learned that no further steps have been taken to locate there. Those who desire to see the factory in Chatham still hope to see a satisfactory agreement reached with this city.

Promoter Fowler will likely arrive in the city to-morrow, when he will talk the matter over with the industrial committee and members of the City Council. The Keystone directors held a meeting in Toronto and it was decided to lay a new proposition before the city of Chatham. A committee meeting of the Council, at which some of the directors may be present, will be called and the plans formulated for the new proposition. Later, it is probable, that a citizens' meeting to discuss the matter will be called.

THE GRIM REAPER

Death claimed another old and highly respected Kent County resident in the demise yesterday of Mrs. Margaret Finn, relict of the late John Finn. Mrs. Finn passed peacefully away at St. Joseph's Hospital, this city, where she had been confined through illness for some time past. The deceased and her late husband were formerly residents of Raleigh, where they were engaged in farming on the 10th concession. She leaves a grownup family to mourn her loss.

The funeral will take place to-morrow morning from the residence of Mr. O'Mara, Head street, to St. Joseph's church and thence to St. Patrick's cemetery on the 10th concession, Raleigh.

There's little room in this great world of ours for the "Fat Woman." She's a hindrance to herself in street cars, flats, elevators; but what can she do, poor thing—take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.

MORE WELLS BEING STRUCK IN THE TILBURY OIL FIELD

Special Correspondence.

Stewart, June 6.—The well No. 1, on J. W. Campbell's farm, was shot yesterday and gives indications of being a good producer. This is the seventh well to be completed, and all are producing oil in paying quantities.

The Kerr No. 1, which was the first in the field, is still flowing about 20 barrels per day. The two wells on the J. W. Smith farm are each producing about 45 barrels per day.

On the Harwood Marshall farm the estimated output of two wells is

TOLD BY WRITING

Expert Witness says he Can Tell a Man's Age by his Hand-writing.

F. H. McPherson, handwriting expert, with offices in Chatham, Windsor and Detroit, was the star witness yesterday in the McIntyre will appeal case being tried before Judge Donovan. McPherson declared that the alleged copy of the will submitted could not have been written by Squire Smith, of Redford, as claimed. McPherson never had seen Squire Smith, but declared that the hand writing could not have been made by a man eighty years old.

Attorney Harrison Geer questioned the witness closely. "You say you can tell the age of a man by his writing," said Attorney Geer. "Here is the writing of a man of 80, who has never been sick a day in his life. How would that differ from a man of 40, who always had been an invalid?" The question proved a poser. The case is still in progress. —Detroit Free Press.

SOME NASTY ROWS

A Number of Residents on Raleigh St. Have Been Kept Awake At Night.

Some of the residents on Raleigh street have been complaining of the rows which have been going on, on that street for some few nights past.

The rows are not of a very serious nature and occur among some of the women on the street. One woman walked up and down in front of another woman's house Monday night and kept the neighbors all awake with her yelling.

Complaint was made to Chief Holmes and Officer Tom Groves went around to investigate. He found that things had become quiet again, but he took occasion to warn the people that they will have to be orderly in future.

One of the men from that vicinity called at the police station this morning and said there was no more reason for complaint. He said that Monday night, however, he did not get asleep until long after midnight.

MAKING IMPROVEMENTS

Mr. S. Stephenson, proprietor and publisher of the Chatham Daily Planet, is making extensive alterations and improvements to his office. A well lighted storey has been added to the press room, a new plate glass front has been put in on the ground floor and the floors above, and the whole building is being thoroughly renovated and remodelled. The printing plant is being enlarged and improved in a corresponding manner by the addition of the largest size Babcock regular press and a new folder from the firm of Miller & Richard. When completed Mr. Stephenson will have the finest and most up-to-date printing office in Western Canada.—Type & Press.

REPAIRS FOR THE SCHOOLS

Public School Board Hold a Busy Session of Routine Business.

AN EARLY ADJOURNMENT

The Public School Board meeting last evening was notable by reason of the business-like manner in which Chairman Paxton put through the various matters which came before the members.

The business done was not of a very important nature, it being mostly of a routine character. Adjournment was made about half-past nine o'clock. There were present at the meeting, Chairman Paxton, and Messrs. Drader, Robertson, Somerville, Morley, Brackin, Andrews, McArthur, Inspector Park, and Secretary Macnabb.

The account from the Hadley Company was referred back to the Finance committee. This was for repairs to the McKeough school fence. Mr. Morley thought the owners of the property next to the school should pay a portion of this expense. This will be looked after. The account of the Bell Telephone Company was left in the hands of the Finance committee with power. It was decided to instruct the principals that all non-resident pupils who do not pay their fees on the first day of the month be excluded from the school.

C. R. Atkinson formally resigned his position as solicitor for the Board. He has held this position since 1880.

Mr. Morley moved it be received. Mr. Robertson seconded it and expressed his regret that Mr. Atkinson has to resign. He was sure Mr. Atkinson feels it, too.

It was decided to acknowledge the receipt of the letter and express the Board's regrets.

The Dominion Radiator Company assumed all responsibility for the work being done by Watt & Sons in the Central School.

The managers of each school will advertise for tenders for painting all of the outside woodwork on the schools. Mr. Robertson and Mr. McArthur both pointed out bad evolutions on both of the schools. A glazed pipe sewer will be necessary for McKeough school. Also a cement floor for the basement.

It was reported that the contract for wiring the McKeough School had been awarded to Barfoot and Braddon, at $106.97. The other tenders were—Watt & Sons $126.00, and Chatham Gas Co. $147.09.

The action of the managers was confirmed by the Board.

Mr. Morley, for the committee on heating, reported progress in the work of installing steam heating in schools.

Mr. Noble, of London, applied for the position of inspector on the heating work. Mr. Morley will correspond with this gentleman, find out his terms, and engage him if his terms are found satisfactory.

The Finance committee were empowered to make any payments to contractors stipulated by contracts on the heating work.

Mr. Robertson reported that the old furnaces are now out of the school and the school is almost ready for the Steam Heating Company's workmen to install their heating.

It was decided to ask for tenders for the old furnaces, sold at the school just as they are.

Mr. Morley moved that $15 be do-

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 6, 1906.
EXTRAVAGANT EXPENDITURE.

Of late the Liberal press in some sections of the Dominion have been trying to defend Premier Laurier and his Government from the attacks of the people's representatives in the House with the plea that all charges made against the administration of public affairs in this Dominion should be substantiated with proof before they are considered by the Government. In the face of this when sufficient proof, which should warrant an investigation, is produced, it is deliberately shelved with a paltry excuse.

The little steamer Kestrel is a Government boat of 300 tons, which plies around the Pacific Coast in the fisheries service. She carries a pretty large crew for her size and the work she has to do. It numbers 22 officers, seamen and helpers. Some days ago Mr. Foster summed up the cost of provisioning this ship for the ten months she was in commission. It is found (page 145, Auditor General's Report, 1905) that the food sent on board of that ship in its raw state, cost $7,500. It will be seen that the food bill comes to about $8 per week for each man on the ship, which is probably more than the initial cost of the food supplied to the inhabitants of the Waldorf Hotel. If a sailors boarding house had to pay a grocer and butcher bill of $8 a week for its boarders, how much would the bill be for board, lodging and attendance? Twenty-two men on the Kestrel were supplied with over a thousand dollars' worth of preserved fruit alone, which is something like one case for every day she was at sea. It cost between $400 and $500 to supply her with eggs. The bill for chickens, turkeys and oysters is something which would startle an ocean liner. The account for sundries is quite large, and the reader will have to draw his own conclusions as to what this bill represents.

This is merely one of the many extravagant and unwarranted expenditures of public money, which are being traced to the various departments every day. This work has been, and is, going on under the very eyes, and with the apparent approval of Premier Laurier and his colleagues.

"CHRISTIAN UNITY."

Under the above caption the Montreal Herald advances the opinion that Christian Unity, by which special prayer is being made by some of the Christian churches, is a result ever to be desired by all Christians. It is the chief weakness of the Christian faith as it stands before the other religions and the irreligions of the world. It is all very well to say that, in essentials, there is Christian unity. The fact that there are a variety of Christian churches which are not sufficiently at union to work together under one powerful organization, is so practical a denial of this claim in its effect upon humanity that it can carry little weight.

The men who labor toward unity are men of tender consciences and great zeal. They may be so persuaded of the truth of their own position as to see no possibility of a World Christian Church except upon the ground which their church now occupies; but it is nevertheless true that it is the men who hope for unity who are the most zealous and optimistic champions of the Christian religion.

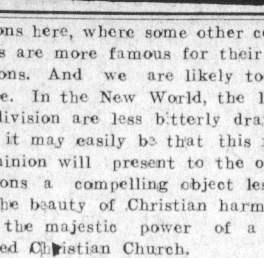

In many sections of the field, the spirit of unity is bearing fruit. Churches with little differences between them—and mainly differences in methods of government—are moving nearer together. Such a movement is bound to be contagious. Other churches will feel its forward impulse. There is no need to heed the counsels of despair in such a cause; and there can be no doubt that the Christian faith is itself "one and indivisible," and that ultimately it must come to a single expression if it is to survive.

Canada has some claim to be considered the champion "Christian Union" nation of the world. We have seen many successful church

WEAK KIDNEYS

Restored to Strength by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Bad blood is the cause of weak kidneys. The impurities of the blood clog the kidneys so that they are unable to perform their work of separating the waste matter from the blood, the bad from good. The symptoms of diseased kidneys are numerous. The dull, sunken eye, the coated tongue, the backache, weak, shaky knees, salivary, swollen face all show what is wrong. This disease must not be neglected. Every day delayed in finding a cure is a day nearer "Bright's disease"—that trouble is incurable. Do not waste time and money on a medicine which acts only on the kidneys. It may relieve, but it cannot cure you. The trouble to be permanently cured must be treated through the blood. Good blood makes healthy kidneys. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new, rich, red blood—that's why they cure when other medicines fail. Thousands owe good health—some life itself—to this medicine. Among them is Roy Davidson, who resides with his uncle, Mr. C. B. Maclean says, "My nephew, Roy, had weak kidneys. About a year ago he took the medicines and this left him in a bad state. His kidneys were so weak that they were incapable of performing their functions. He suffered from backache, weakness, and restlessness. For a time he had to leave school. Our doctor was unable to help him. In fact he told me that Roy might never get better; that the disease would probably grow worse. I then procured a supply of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had already used the Pills myself with great benefit and felt confident they would cure Roy. He began taking them, and continued their use until he had taken a half dozen boxes, which fully cured him. He is now stronger and better than he ever was and neither study nor work about the farm seem to fatigue him. I believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved him from a life of misery."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do just one thing—but they do it thoroughly. They actually make new, rich, red blood, which feeds and strengthens every nerve and organ in the body. That is why this medicine cures such common ailments as anaemia, general weakness, headaches and backaches, indigestion, palpitation of the heart, rheumatism, neuralgia, and the ailments which make the lives of so many women and young girls miserable. Don't take something else "just as good." If you can't get the genuine Pills from your dealer send to The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and get them by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.

DRESSING JACKETS.

Increasing Daintiness and Comfort of the Smart Peignoir.

In nothing is the advance of our love of pretty and dainty garments more delightfully shown than in dressing jackets. Up to quite a short time ago these were, as a rule, of a hideous description unless they were the product of Paris. Now we have charming jackets that the city of modes herself would be proud to have originated. The choice of materials is a large one, and even if one determines upon silk the actual cost is not great. Then there are so many attractive challoes and muslins that it seems a pity for the lover of pretty things to rest content with an uninteresting peignoir. Take the two designs shown in the illustration for instance. Both of them are of the utmost simplicity, requiring a small amount of material and easy to fashion by the amateur dressmaker. Indeed, except for the touch of hand work on one of them their manufacture is but the work of a few hours. The first design is quite original and is a development of the toilet cape. It covers one quite enough and can be slipped on in a minute and allows ample play for the arms and hands, while the old cape did not. The second illustration shows a jacket the body of which is formed of accordion plating. A collar of English embroidery finishes the neck.

UP TO DATE NECKWEAR.

Stiff Turn-down Embroidered Linen Collars Very Smart.

The turnover collar has not been put aside, but it is not so universally worn as it was at one time, and the touch of becoming white at the throat is supplied by a little chemise quite as often as by the turnover collar if not more often, yet the wrists still require a white cuff if the sleeve is long.

Turn-down embroidered collars of fine linen, shaped like the stiff linen collars so long worn, are very modish, and the smart thing to wear with one is either a plaid rabat of fine lawn and lace or a little lingerie tie two or three inches wide and scalloped and embroidered around the edges or scalloped and finished by a very narrow frill of real Valenciennes. This tie is just long enough to make a little bow, and, of course, needs laundering or at least pressing each time it is tied, but is particularly dainty and feminine.

Maple Caramel Cake.
Cream two-thirds cup of butter, add two cups of fine granulated sugar (powdered preferred), beating well. Add alternately two and one-half cups of flour sifted with three teaspoonsful of baking powder and one cup of milk; lastly, the whites of six eggs, beaten until stiff, and one teaspoonful of vanilla.

Cook until it threads one pound of maple sugar, broken in pieces, and one cup of hot water. Pour in a fine stream on the stiffly beaten white of one egg, beating all the time. Pour on top and between layers of the cake.

To Prevent Burnings.
In cooking by gas to keep bread, cake or roasting meat from burning lay over the top a thin sheet of aluminium. One can buy a package of these aluminium sheets for a very small cost at a hardware store.—Delta.

Useful Tricks For the Nursery.
Any useful novelty is always acceptable in the nursery. The idea of the feeding bottle cover is French, and it has the merit of solving that most difficult problem, how to keep baby's milk warm out of doors.

The cover is quite easily made, being cut in one piece with the exception of the flap at the side, which is sewed on the cover before the cord is put on. Linen is the material used for the outside. It is lined with wadded satin and has an artistic monogram worked in silk on the center of the outside. The flaps fold over the bottle and are then fastened down by button-holed silk loops to a neat pearl button. An edging of fairly thick cord gives a finish to this useful little article.

When passion is on the throne, reason is out of doors.

A man talks about owning his business. But, as a matter of fact his business owns him. His whole life is regulated by the demands of the business. The time at which he rises, his breakfast hour, the time given to meals, are all determined by business obligations. He rushes through lunch because he "can't spare the time from business" to eat leisurely. He won't take a rest because he is needed at the store or office. He is in fact an absolute slave to business. The results which follow this slavery are to be seen every hand. Men dyspeptic, irritable, nervous, with drawn faces, and hollow eyes, sit at the desk or stand behind the counter until they collapse in a fit of sickness, or are taken away by heart failure. Those who cannot escape the exactions of business will find a friend in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the stomach, increases the action of the blood-making glands, increasing the vitality and physical vigor. It makes men strong and prevents those business breakdowns which so often terminate fatally.

HIT ON THE HEAD

Henry Bessant of Highgate Has A Narrow Escape From Death

Henry Bessant, of Highgate, had a narrow escape from death while at work on a drill near the village yesterday afternoon. He now lies in a critical condition in the General Hospital, this city.

Mr. Bessant was engaged on the drilling machine yesterday afternoon, when a fifty-pound weight fell from the top of the derrick, striking him on the head. Dr. Russell, of Highgate, was hurriedly called, and he had the injured man conveyed at once to a Chatham surgeon, who found that the unfortunate man's skull had been shattered by the blow. Although the injuries are very painful, they are not as serious as was at first thought. Mr. Bessant's condition was improved this morning.

The injured man's wife came to the city last evening and has since been at his bedside at the hospital.

For 25 cents you can enjoy six hours sail on the boat, Friday, June 8th.

COUNTY POLICE COURT

Two women residing in Dover South had little difference recently and the result was that one of them, Mrs. Laprise, charged the other, Mary Therien, with assaulting her. Magistrate Houston evidently thought that an assault had been committed and fined Mary Therien $2 and costs. The case came up in the County Police Court.

THE BAND CONCERT

On account of the threatening aspect of the weather the band concert given at the Eau by the Regiment Band last evening, was not as largely attended as it otherwise would have been.

Everything came off quite nicely, however, and a good program was supplied.

The concerts at the Eau will be continued every Tuesday and Friday evening.

BARGAINS IN REAL ESTATE

Chatham is Experiencing Boom in This Line at Present

MANY SALES BEING MADE

So much has lately been said about Chatham's growth and development during the last few years that authentic information on the state of its real estate business is always welcome. This morning The Planet learned some interesting facts concerning the city's prosperity in a short interview with E. E. Parrott & Son. Although this thriving firm have only been in existence for a little over three years, at the present time they are in a most flourishing condition.

Questioned as to the amount of business which has lately been done, Mr. E. E. Parrott replied: "Well, we have no reason to complain. Real estate matters are in first class shape, as far as we are concerned, and just lately we have closed several good deals. You see, during the last few years Chatham has been rapidly filling up her vacant lots and thus reducing her taxation. When a city is dotted all over with vacant land which yields very little return for the expenses of building and maintaining the roads and sewers in front of it, the taxes must necessarily remain high. When buildings are erected on these lots the assessment value of the city is increased and, as greater returns are obtained from the taxation of the newly developed property, things are evened up and the general tax rate drops.

"This is just what has been happening in Chatham. During the last three or four years buildings have been going up at a fast rate and now there are not very many vacant spaces left within the city limits. Quite a number of deals in real estate have been brought off during the last few days and two fairly large deals in the city were closed today. Many people have written, and are still writing, to real estate men in this city asking for information as to taxes and general living conditions here and expressing their desire to reside in Chatham. Things all round, real estate prospects are very bright and the value of city property can be expected to keep on increasing."

Mr. Parrott's views on real estate values and prospects in Chatham are fully substantiated by the action of Rothwell & Co., the great real estate dealers of Windsor and Detroit, in opening up the beautiful residential district on King street west, known as the present times as "The Elms." One hundred and fifty building lots in the finest part of the city will be offered for sale next Monday under surprisingly generous terms. The grounds are beautifully laid out in avenues, with shade trees and electric lights, and the approach to the park-like district will be under a magnificent arch designed by J. L. Wilson & Son, architects.

The terms are easier than have ever been offered to Chatham buyers, viz., $10 or more down and $80 or more (to suit convenience of purchaser) per month, until payment is completed. It is the chance of a lifetime for the wide-awake investor, or, and there is scarcely a doubt that those people desiring a home in Chatham's finest residential district will be only too ready to snap up Messrs. Rothwell & Co.'s lots under such advantageous circumstances.

GOOD GAME PROMISED

The baseball game to be played off of Tecumseh Park to-morrow evening, between the Chatham nine and the Bothwell team, should prove very interesting.

Dugman will pitch for the locals, and Davis will be in the box for Bothwell.

The game to-morrow evening will be commenced with the ball which Rube Waddell, the famous south-paw, used when he won the 20-innings game from Boston two years ago. This ball was presented to Bandmaster Harry Philp, of the Regiment Band, by Mr. Waddell on the occasion of their meeting in Detroit some time after the game. Mr. Philp has very kindly loaned the ball for to-morrow evening's game.

PASSED THEIR EXAMS

Among the successful candidates in the recent Toronto University examinations, the results of which were published in the Toronto papers yesterday, appear the names of several local young men.

C. D. Farquharson, son of Chatham's customs officer, has been very successful in obtaining fourth position in classics for the final year in art; J. G. Crookshank, of Blenheim; J. X. Robert, of Chatham, and A. A. Tibbodeau, also of this city, has successfully passed the final exams in medicine. J. N. Harmer, of Thamesville, has obtained the degree of Pharmaceutical Bachelor, and R. O. Miller, who is taking the combined medical and arts course, has passed his third year Biological and Physical exam.

The Planet extends its congratulations.

PASSING OF A PIONEER

The death took place on Monday at the home of her son-in-law, L. J. Hummel, Ridgetown, of Mrs. Lettice A. Turner, widow of the late Judson Turner. Deceased, who was 75 years of age, had lived for a number of years with her daughters, Mrs. Hummel, Mrs. Rickard and Mrs. W. E. Smith, now of Chatham. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon, Rev. Dr. Cook conducting service at the house and the remains being interred in Greenwood. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Jno. Smith, Sr., Geo. Hunter, Fred. Ennor, H. M. Green, Wilbur Mitton and M. S. Simpson.

Preston's refusal to answer questions addressed to him by the committee respecting the persons who composed the North Atlantic Trading Co., and ordering his appearance, for contempt, at the bar of the House on Wednesday afternoon. He quoted many authorities in support of the motion.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier admitted that there was no doubt about the power of the House. But, was it advisable to exercise it? The policy of the Government was to support the rulings of the various standing committees. But apart from that, what was the issue? Mr. Preston had received certain information in confidence. He had pledged his word not to reveal this information. Should we compel him to violate his pledge? In making this bargain with the promoters of the North Atlantic Trading Co., secrecy had been insisted upon and promised. He challenged some member of the Opposition to put his seat in jeopardy by making a formal charge.

He finally offered an amendment to Mr. Monk's resolution reciting that secrecy was justified in the case of this contract by reason of the exceptional circumstances and conditions surrounding it.

Apple Offered Borden, Who Won't Bite. The Premier offered to furnish the list of names to R. L. Borden in confidence.

Mr. Borden waived this offer. If the Premier was bound in honor not to reveal these names, how could he offer to make an exception?

At any rate, the country, who paid the money, was entitled to the information.

As to a charge, had not Mr. Jury, an officer of the Government, insisted that Preston was interested in the North Atlantic Trading Co.? If this company was not violating the laws of these foreign countries, its members need not fear publicity. If they were violating these laws, then surely they deserved no protection from Parliament.

There was nothing in the contract with the North Atlantic Trading Co. which obligated the Government to secrecy.

Mr. Fielding repeated his argument, that the honor of Canada was at stake. It was immaterial what were the merits or demerits of this contract. Whether wisely or foolishly the sacred word of this nation had been pledged by a Minister of the Crown.

"A Fraudulent Myth?" Mr. Northrup (East Hastings) recalled the House to the pending question. What were the undisputed facts? In 1889 a contract was made with parties unknown. We were asked to believe that Mr. Sifton stipulated and the contract should be kept secret. Since then this contract had been changed repeatedly and always in favor of the company and to the disadvantage of the Government.

Why these changes? Who were the beneficiaries? Does not one question suggest the other? Is it not suspicious that this "company" turns out to be a fraudulent myth?

"What would be accomplished," Mr. Northrup asked, "by giving these names to the leader of the Opposition? He would be bound in honor not to reveal them. How would this advance the enquiry?"

"$300,000 Disappears." Dr. Sproule (East Grey) resumed the debate at the evening session. He declared that Preston's sworn denial was not conclusive. Jury, who knew all about him, declared that he would not believe him under oath.

At any rate, Preston was our hired man. $300,000 of our money had disappeared. He knew where it had gone, and yet he was protected by the Government in defying the Parliament and people of Canada. Carvell (Carleton, N.B.), Colonel Sam Hughes, Mr. Miller (South Grey) and Hon. John Haggart continued the debate.

Sifton's Pledge. Hon. Clifford Sifton said the entire matter had been referred to the Speaker as Minister of the Interior. He had approved the contract and agreed to treat as confidential the identity of the agents who were to constitute the company. He considered himself and the Government bound by that pledge.

Mr. Bourassa (Labelle) considered that this was a matter upon which the House was entitled to information.

Upon division, Sir Wilfrid Laurier's amendment sustaining the Government's position of secrecy was sustained. Yeas 85, nays 47. Mr. Bourassa, Armand Lavergne (Montmagny) and Mr. Verville voted with the Opposition.

In response to a question by Mr. Borden, Sir Wilfrid Laurier stated that the Government intended to amend the pension grab of last session.

Cures Rheumatism

"I had an attack of Rheumatism—pains near my heart—which increased to such a degree that I became very anxious. I lost my appetite, and an intense itching or heating of the head made life miserable. I asked a druggist, was there nothing he could suggest that would help me, and he replied 'Why not try ABBEY'S SALT?' I did so, and can now state positively, and without solicitation that the Rheumatism has disappeared—my appetite is grand—and the itching of my scalp has ceased."

LOANS TO EMPLOYES

One Canada Life Servant Still Carries $17,000 Debt.

Senator Cox Admits He Knew the Employee Was Playing Stocks on Margin—Does Not Approve of Such Methods and Canada Life Has Now Stopped Them—Gave Rebates While an Agent, But Considers Practice Wrong—Waste's Court's Time.

Toronto, June 5.—If "Cox can't wait" the Royal Commission on Insurance can. Not only that, but yesterday morning the Royal Commission on Insurance did—for half an hour, until the president of the Canada Life have in 15 minutes at the afternoon session; pretty expensive waiting at $140 an hour, which the commission costs the company.

Why Cost Has Gone Up.

At the morning session, Senator Cox explained to Dominion Counsel Shepley why the ratio of expenses had grown so large. Twenty or thirty years ago agents used to get ten per cent commission and seven and a half on renewals. Now their commission goes as high as 65 per cent. The hunt for business is so keen that agents have to be paid that. One of the reasons for the keenness of the hunt for business was the invasion of the Canadian field by American companies. He modestly disclaimed the honor for the Canada Life of leading the van against the Yankee invasion.

Rebating Wrong.

Rebating Senator Cox considered wrong; so wrong that it ought to be punished, although he pleaded guilty to it as an agent.

This "rebate" is the throwing off, by the agent, of part of the first year's premium, when he is inducing a new man to come on in.

Suppose the premium is $100, and the agent is getting 65 per cent on it. He says to the insured-to-be, "We'll make it $75 if you let me write the policy now."

He has to turn over $35 to the company. He does that, and has $40 himself instead of $65. Maybe he has lost $25, you think. No, for Mr. Agent only gives the rebate when he finds he can't make the grade any other way. Instead of losing $25 he has made $40, where he would have made nothing.

Why They Don't Like It.

But the "evil" of it? That the company feels in this way: Mr. Insured "comes on in," tickled at saving $25. But next year his premium is $100. The agent can't give him rebates for ever. Mr. Insured feels the thing as an increased expense, and perhaps he drops his policy altogether. And the life insurance people say there is no profit at all on first year policies, the expense of getting them is so high. So if the insurance lapses at the end of the first year, the only man who is making money out of it is the agent.

The Kind They Want.

"Persistent" insurance—on a kind which the insured goes on paying his money year after year, paying salaries and running expenses, and, indirectly, the loss on other fellows' lapses and rebates, until he dies—is the only kind that pays the life insurance companies. That is the kind they want. Senator Cox said he preferred the Canada Life's growth, from $4,000,000 of business to $12,000,000, because the most of this was persistent. If strenuous method had been adopted, $25,000,000 or $30,000,000 of business might have been corralled—temporarily.

Sensor Cox denied that, even with voluntary insurance, contrasting with the strenuously hunted business of this continent, insurance was cheaper in England than in Canada.

The bulk of Mr. Shepley's examination yesterday morning was based on Senator Cox's speech at the last annual meeting of the company.

At the afternoon session Senator Cox said he had conceded to arbitration Imperial Co. shares owned by the Canadian Life, L. & S. Co. and Messrs. Ames & Bradshaw, under an agreement between the latter and the witness.

Mr. Shepley asked if this arrangement did not make the 7,300 shares practically one vote, and Mr. Cox admitted that it did.

"It might result in the control of a joint stock company by an arbitration which strikes me as being rather unusual," commented Mr. Shepley, and the Senator admitted that such was practically the case.

Then there was an interesting discussion as to how the agreement mentioned was disposed of. Mr. Cox said Mr. Bradshaw was anxious to get rid of the agreement on account of other financial matters.

"What was paid to get rid of it?" Mr. Shepley asked, "and how did it come about?"

Sensor Cox: "They got over $68,000 for it." He had no doubt whatever the agreement could have been forfeited without that payment. The stock has not advanced, but it is well worth the money.

Wanted to Help Them.

"There was $7,750 really paid on the purchase money?" asked Mr. Shepley, and the Senator said, "Yes."

The repayment of that would have meant the repayment of the actual purchase money?" the examiner urged, and again Mr. Cox agreed.

Mr. Shepley asked, "Why it was Mr. Cox paid the larger sum, and for their benefit when they wanted him to take back $40 to help them and could not carry out their agreement? Why didn't you drive a harder bargain?" he asked.

"I wanted them both to get out of their financial difficulties. I was dealing with two men. I was not trying to drive a hard bargain with them. I wanted to help them. I wanted to retain Mr. Bradshaw's services when he was entirely relieved from embarrassment. If he wanted a thousand shares of that stock he could get it at what it cost me," replied Mr. Cox.

Mr. Shepley: "It was not that Bradshaw refused to hand over the stock unless you paid him that sum?"

Mr. Cox: The cancellation of that agreement was entirely satisfactory to everybody concerned.

When Mr. Shepley broached upon the cash loan to the Dominion Securities

Co., Mr. Cox produced a document which he announced was the statement of all the facts and that it gave information as to all of his personal holdings, but he was adverse to it going to the public. "I would like you read it," he said, to Mr. Shepley, "and if you think it is necessary the information should go to the public, I am willing, but it is not fair to other institutions. However, it is for you to decide."

"This is a public body, Mr. Cox," said Mr. Shepley. "I know that," agreed the Senator. Commissioner Kent: Let Mr. Shepley see the statement.

Wallace Nesbitt: It is Mr. Cox's personal affairs.

After a little further argument Mr. Shepley accepted the document.

After several minutes' conversation with Mr. Nesbitt, the Dominion counsel said that in the meantime he would read over the statement and see what should be made public.

Mr. Nesbitt addressed the commission. He said: "I submit that the statement is not public interest, and that my learned friend has no right to make it public. I take all responsibility for the Senator's hesitating in answering."

"Please let me read it. I brought it here to read it," said the Senator, "I have nothing to hide."

"That is for you and your counsel to decide," answered Mr. Shepley. "If the press want it, you had better read it," said Mr. Nesbitt.

"Yes, yes, let me read it," again asked the Senator.

"No; I'd rather not," suggested Mr. Shepley. "I think I would like to ask these question and let you answer them."

To Clear Up Things.

Sensor Cox again asked the Dominion counsel to read it himself and examine it.

"I wanted to read it at my leisure," said Mr. Shepley. "But I think, with that in your hands, Senator Cox, you should be able to answer the questions I am going to put to you."

The examination proceeded. Mr. Shepley stated that the Provident Loan and Savings Co. had purchased 3,000 shares of Dominion Cpl at 43 1/2-2. "Can you read that on your paper?" asked Mr. Shepley.

The Senator said that he was not a director of the Provident at the time of this purchase of stock.

Mr. Shepley then took up an agreement between the Dominion Securities and Central Canada as purchaser, and Canada Life as lender, with this result:

The loans made by the Canada Life enabling transactions of this stock to be handled were as follows: $4,850 on 100 shares on Feb. 14, 1902; $20,000 on 200 shares on Sept. 2, 1902; $11,000 on 100 shares on Sept. 19, 1902; $50,000 on 500 shares on March 2, 1902; $11,000 on 100 shares on March 3, 1902; $2,000 on 25 shares on June 3, 1902; $7,500 on 100 shares on April 23, 1903; $3,260.25 on 700 shares on April 23, 1903; $7,339.35 on 100 shares on June 17, 1903. From March 18 to Aug. 4, 1903, on $3,030 shares, and on March 17, 1903, on 1,458 shares.

Loans to Employees.

"Was there any loans made to officers or employees of the company?" asked Mr. Shepley.

"Oh, yes, there were some small loans made, and are entered in the statements which you held where of."

"What were these?" asked Mr. Shepley.

"On June 2, 1903, we lent $2,000 on 25 shares; on June 15, $17,083.50 on 210 shares, and $7,339.35 on 100 shares respectively to servants of the company," was the answer.

"Do you know whether these same servants had been margining these holdings elsewhere?"

"I think they had," said Mr. Watt, answering for the Senator.

"Was it a common thing to lend to employees?" asked Mr. Shepley.

"That was the only time it ever occurred," said the Senator.

"The larger loan is still being carried," said Mr. Watt, "but the others have been paid off."

To Strengthen the Market.

Going back to stock transactions it devolved upon Mr. Watt to explain the purchase of Twin City stock, Mr. Cox, assisted by Mr. Watt, said the Canadian Bank of Commerce and the Canada Life had jointly purchased 2,000 shares of Twin City, and 2,000 shares of Dominion Coal.

"Tell me the circumstances," requested Mr. Shepley.

Mr. Cox said the stocks had been bought at good prices.

"Didn't you buy the stock to strengthen the market?" he was asked, and Mr. Cox replied in the affirmative.

"Do you look upon the strengthening of the share market as legitimate for a life insurance company?" Mr. Shepley asked.

"We were quite justified in protecting our holdings, and the market generally," answered Mr. Cox.

"You could still have sold at a profit, but you wanted to sustain the market?"

"We had 1,000 shares of Twin City already," explained Mr. Cox, who said that it had been sold in deference to the Insurance Department.

"Read that statement," asked Mr. Cox, referring again to the list of transactions. "It will show you that the Canadian Life has never been misused. It's a statement of the facts we are going over, and it gives dates and detail I cannot give just from memory."

The Making of Investments.

In 1904 the Canada Life purchased a holding of stock in the Sao Paulo Railway, of which Mr. Cox is a director. When the Canada Life bought the stock it was paying 8 per cent, and it is now paying 6 per cent.

"We have heard you had got rid of the bonds, but did not find that you had disposed of the common stock?" submitted Mr. Shepley.

"The stock went with the bonds. I showed that on Saturday to Mr. Edwards," explained Mr. Morrow for Mr. Cox.

"A general question, please," said Mr. Shepley. "In the case of your financial transactions, which you undertake from time to time by way of indemnity, are you, apart from what the market may offer, remunerated for financing large matters? Do you get any advantage in respect to that indemnity?"

Mr. Cox: Our share in the indemnity.

Mr. Shepley: No commission?

Mr. Cox: There may be half a dozen

He said there were no cases where the Canada Life got any.

In Michigan.

Then Mr. Shepley launched into the history of the Michigan branch. Mr. Cox said that with Mr. Ramsay's consent he had purchased the interest in the branch for about $5,000, which had been placed as a debt against the branch, and profits according since had been applied on that debt to reduce it. Profits had been shown for a few days, but became a debt again in 1905.

Numerous cases were cited where of the company had been retired on substantial annuities. The cost of running the concern was taken up by Mr. Shepley.

Mr. Cox's salary.

When you became president you took a salary of $20,000 a year? "Yes."

"And in some instances, directors' fees?" added Mr. Shepley.

"I'm not sure, but I think I did," replied the Senator, but Mr. Watts corrected him, and he said there had been one case of $100.

He had purchased interests in branches and had given his son, H. C. Cox, $40,000. Mr. Ramsay was retired on an annuity of $20,000 a year after forty years' service. In 1895 H. C. Cox got $40 a month. He was raised to $60 in 1897, and in 1898 to $54.50. Then he acquired his large interest in the business.

"The net result of your becoming president was to add $26,000 a year for your own family?" said Mr. Shepley.

"We took up the additional duties," said Mr. Cox.

FAULTY DIGESTION

Causes Physical And Mental Break-down. Mi-o-na Will Strengthen Stomach.

Few people realize the intimate relation between the mind and the stomach. Worry and excessive mental work react on the digestive system, while on the other hand, the greatest cause of nerve and brain impoverishment is a weak or faulty digestion.

When the stomach does not assimilate the elements of strength and nerve force that are in the food we eat, the energies we expend in the active processes of life are not replaced, and physical and mental breakdown results.

If the stomach does not have action, it soon becomes unable to act, just the same as a muscle that is not used becomes weak and valueless. Just as soon as you find that your food is not properly digested, that you taste it after eating, that the tongue is furred, the breath heavy, the appetite poor, the head occasionally dull and aching, begin the use of Mi-o-na.

This reliable remedy contains no poison, and is an absolute strengthener of the digestive system. In fact, it is a guaranteed cure for all diseases of the stomach, excepting cancer. It is not a patent medicine, and its formula is furnished to physicians, druggists, and all intelligent people who may desire it. Mi-o-na differs from any other remedy on the market in its lasting effects.

If you cannot obtain Mi-o-na of your druggist, it will be sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of price. Write us for advice on your case from a leading stomach specialist which will be sent free. The R. T. Booth Company, Ithaca, N. Y.

POLICE AFTER HIM

Detroit Authorities Would Like to Get Dykes in their Custody.

The Detroit police would very much like to get hold of a man now living in Wardsville, Ont., but find themselves unable to secure the co-operation of the Canadian police.

Some time ago Wm. Tilley, an Essex farmer, was robbed of $1,700 in Detroit. The money was the proceeds from the sale of Tilley's farm and C. M. Dykes was suspected of obtaining the wad. He escaped to Wardsville where his father, the champion checker player of Canada, resides.

The constable at Wardsville was notified and is said to have wired this reply: "Dykes here. Hands tied. Cannot arrest him." Failing to get their man by this means, the Detroit police department tried to get the local provincial detectives to hunt him up, but they refused.

"Unless we get orders from the Attorney General to proceed in the case," said Charlie Mahoney, "we would have to pay our own expenses."

The Detroit police have about decided to give the case up.

A PRETTY CITY

"Chatham is an up-to-date city," said a visitor the other day. "It is one of the finest that I have visited this year. It is seldom a person sees so many fine residences, pretty lawns, and well kept boulevards. It is worth a special visit from anyone just to see the pretty surroundings everywhere. I think there were only two boulevards that I saw that were unkempt. One was on Murray street, and the other was on Sixth street, just opposite the fire hall. The owners of these properties should keep up with the rest of the city and improve their boulevards, so that there will be a uniformity to the beauty."

The trouble with our changeable climate is that we can't change it for a better one.

THE COUNCILLORS GET SOAKED

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

When the County Council resumed their deliberations at 10.15 this morning; a beautiful flower graced the Warden's desk. It was presented to Mr. Sturgis by Mr. Haggart, and throughout the morning County Clerk Gosnell was continually casting envious glances over his shoulder to where the bright red peony reared its head above the tumbler of water which contained it.

A communication from A. H. White, Secretary of Raleigh Agricultural Society, asking for a grant of $150 for the advancement of agricultural matters in Raleigh, was referred to the committee on Agriculture.

Moved by Somers and Stewart, that the Council grant $300 for the repairing of the Wallaceburg bridges. The Warden referred this motion to the committee on Bridges.

It was moved by Mr. French, seconded by Mr. Haggart, that the County request the County Treasurer to furnish a statement of the county's debenture debt and when it expires, and that this statement be printed in the June minutes.—Carried.

Moved by Vester and Haggart, that a grant of $500 be given to Harwich Township to assist in building a bridge over the McGregor Creek.—Bridge committee.

It was moved by Mr. Haggart, seconded by Mr. Grant, that a grant of $15 be made to the Public General Hospital at Chatham to apply on the expenses connected with the treatment of Wm. Ansley, the unfortunate who attempted suicide. This motion was referred to the Finance committee.

A by-law authorizing the Council to raise $25,000 for county expenses of 1907 was read a first time, on the motion of Vester and Haggart.

At eleven o'clock the Council adjourned until 3.30 p. m. to enable them to inspect the House of Refuge.
