FRIDAY, JUNE 11th, 1886.

The Grand Old Man looks away above temporary triumphs or defeats. Home Rule is at Erin's doors, in spite of the adversary vote of Monday.

The Star has stopped calling Mr.
Cameron vile, names editorially, but it still hunts up brutal abuse of our member from the speeches of Haggart and others.

The Dominion elections are likely to be held this fall. Let Liberals and all lovers of good government and an honest administration of northwest affairs unite to oust the guilty Ottawa Government.

The Globe has the fairness to insert Mr. M. C. Cameron's charges and Sir John A. Macdonald's reply side by side.
The Mail has not dared to insert Mr.
Cameron's charge in full. What is the inference?

The members of the Conference like to read a paper with five news touching their work. About 120 extra copies of this issue of THE SIGNAL were ordered by ministers and delegates before they left for home. We commend their good taste.

The prohibitionist who is true to his principles will not vote for any man who voted against the salaried police magistrate, unless a more pronounced liquor candidate for the vice-presidency against him. Let Jane's business be remembered in January.

THE HOME RULE BILL has been defeated in the British House of Commons by a majority of 30, on a vote of 314 to 341. The day of Ireland's freedom and equality is near at hand, however. The principles of Home Rule is so just that it must prevail very soon.

THE Guelph excursion Scott Act case has been settled by the magistrate holding that the coupons trafficked for liquor were just as much a commodity of exchange and purchase as money, and fined the defendant, Tony Gillie, $50 and costs.

THE FOOT HORSE question is fast approaching a settlement. The more the matter is considered the more the feasibility, yes, the necessity, of the institution becomes apparent. Keep our jails for the criminals; let the poor and the unfortunate be cared for in a different manner.

THE Conservatives of West Huron held a meeting in town last week. It is to be hoped the proceedings were not of the style indulged in at Smith's Hill convention some months ago, which were of so strange a nature that even a synopsis of the speeches were not published. This hole and corner politics looks suspicious.

M. C. CAMERON, M.P. for West Huron, is getting full assurance of victory daily.
The Conservatives are feeling for a man to defeat him, and find themselves beat.
They are now sending the riding to see how J. M. Roberts, of Dundangoon, would run. Mr. Roberts is a nice little man, but he has too much sense to run the risk of such a beating as M. C. Cameron would give him.

IF THE SIGNAL were a whisky organ, and honestly believed that the Scott Act under a paid police magistrate would still be a failure, we would say: "Give them a police magistrate, and then when the vote on repeal comes we will say that those temperance folk have had all they wanted, and put us to the expense of an extra $1,000 for a salary for a police magistrate, and still the Act is a failure." We would be able to make more votes out of that fact than we could by refusing to ask for a police magistrate's salary. But the liquor party knows that with a paid police magistrate the Act can be much better enforced than without; hence the kick.
You can't win over temperance votes by refusing the Act a full and fair trial.

WHAT'S UP?

The Methodist Conference De- mands Attention.

Thoughts on the Sejour of the Visiting Brethren—Old Memories Revived.

—Well, the Guelph Methodist Conference for 1886 has closed its session, and the members thereof have betaken themselves to their homes and habitations, satisfied in their heart of hearts that, as Dr. Aylesworth remarked at the meeting on Tuesday evening, since the Conference was established no more pleasant larrying place than Goderich had been found in all these years. The week that has passed has been one of pleasant association all around in connection with the Conference, and it fairly warmed my old heart to see so many of the brethren doing the best they knew how to dwell in harmony together. Of course, every now and then the Old Adam would crop up somewhere, but a weight of good natured fraternal feeling quickly sat upon the Old Man, and effectually squelched him for the time being, and happiness, and joy, and peace and felicity again reigned supreme.

—The opening services, which were largely attended by spectators, will not soon be forgotten by those who witnessed them—the power of prayer will ever remain as a sweet incense, and the earnestness of the singing seemed to be a foretaste of that which is outlined in the Revelations of John the Divine. I have heard many of the great singers of the day; years ago I heard ten thousand voices welcome with glad acclaim to British North America the son and heir of our beloved Queen, God bless her! I saw the disbandment of one of the divisions of the Grand Army of the Potomac, and heard their "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," and "John Brown," raised and poured forth in earnest volume by 20,000 men who had taken their lives in their hands and gone forth to fight for their God, their homes and the Union; I have heard the pathetic song of the alien from the home of his fathers in praise of the land from which he was a voluntary or enforced exile; I have heard the rollicking song at the convivial feast when the flowing bowl had been the order of the occasion and artificial exhilaration had been attained; I have heard the song of rejoicing over the return of the prodigal —over the lost one found; I have heard the psalm of rapturous thanksgiving from lips moistened by the dew of death when the Shadow of the Dark Valley was lifting, and the expiring Christian was getting a glimpse of the Glory. But never, since at Mother's knee I heard her sweet voice attuned to the songs of Zion, and saw Heaven reflected upon her dear face and in the calm depths of her mild eyes, have I been so thrilled as when the Conference rolled forth its opening song the other day. It may be that those things effect me more than when I was a younger man, but then so does the rheumatism and lumbago and other ailments. And if the pains and aches, and sorrows and afflictions make their power more felt as the years roll by, why should our experience be different with regard to joy, and rapture, and thanksgiving and hope?

—There were men of all kinds and conditions present, from the man who, with power, is a ruler over thousands in the city congregation, to the meek and lowly minded brother who is submissive to the Master's behest and prepared to do His will in the most remote corner of the vicarage, where "two or three gathered together" comprise the entire following of the Saviour—the Christ. But joy was in their souls, happiness in their hearts, and inspiration in the peans of praise that rolled forth from their lips on the occasion. Oh! it was a grand chorus, and each and every one present felt, as did Peter at the transfiguration, "It is good to be here!"

—And then there was the reading of the stationing committee's report, which, after all is said and done, is the real test of faith that the itinerant pastor is subjected to. Here and there stands a man of great intellectual attainments, bright erudition, practical experience—a man of strong powers and full six cubits and span in height in the eyes of his fellows.
These are they who are looked upon with covetous eyes by the boards of one of the more wealthy congregations, who put forth strong claims and often make unusually wrangle to get them from their pastors. Yonder stands another brother. He has not received the careful nurture of his more fortunate colleague; he has had no college training, and his education is the product of weary vigils and enervating mental toil after full hours of labor had been exacted by other avocations to supply him and his with food and raiment. His library comprises a few books, which have been read so often by him that he can repeat their contents by rote; his periodical literature consists of the nearest local paper and the denominational weekly of his church. His circuit covers an area of one hundred miles square, is sparsely settled, and in many instances pedestri-anism only can be used for pastoral visits and preachings at widely separated appointments. His piety is beyond question, his faith is sincere, his zeal is fervent, but his has been an uphill fight in the service of the Master. Comparatively isolated and shut out from the fellowship and intercommunion of his more fortunate brethren, he trades the winepress alone, save that, by God's grace, Christ lends His presence to the laborer, and by-and-by his worth will be recognized fully, and "Well done good and faithful servant!" will be his portion. These thoughts glanced through my mind as the list of stations was read, and as I looked upon the brethren when their scenes of labor were finally allotted to them, I could easily discern an expression of "Praise the Lord!" upon the faces of some whose path was in the green pastures and by the still waters; and just as perfectly was outlined upon the faces of the saints who were called upon yet a little longer to bear the Cross in the barren districts, a calm resignation and an implicit trust which told more plainly than words, "Thy Will be Done!"

—There are a number of other points in connection with the services of the Conference that I would like to refer to, but I have been informed by my friend the editor that if my article is to appear this week it must err on the short side.
Willie I was seeing my old friends, Father Fear, L. O. Rice, Wm. Savage and others, and attending to the regular and special meetings, the weeds sprang up in my garden patch, and so that I may have an opportunity to resort to remedial measures in this behalf, I bow to the will of the local Archimedes, on the understanding that I may be privileged to re-open the subject on a future occasion, if I so desire.

—The Canada Presbyterian favors making elders eligible for the Moderator's chair. It says that such men as John Charlton and G. W. Ross could preside in the Commons or the Legislature, and that many elders could fill the Moder-ator's chair quite as well as some who have already occupied it. The Presbyterian is correct.

THE nearest village council in Ontario sits at Blyth. The lowest tender for the municipal printing was put in by the publisher of the village paper, the Advocate, but the job was sent out of town to Clinton to a higher tender.
And yet we have seen the mouth of the river of Blyth open like a mammoth cave while he shouted for "Protection to home industries."

THE feeling of the whiskey party over the vote on the police magistrate matter on Friday is summed up in the enthusiastic ejaculation of a touter for the liquor cause, who cried as he joyously wrung Reeve Johnston's hand: "Well, Fred, this is about as good as the wine and beer clause." M. G. Cameron, deputy reeve, is just as deep in the mire of this important moral question as is his colleague.

BENEFICENT CARMAN'S SETON on the gift of the Holy Ghost, which is given very fully in this week's issue, excited much favorable comment on Sunday. It is rather out of the line of the ordinary ordination sermon; but that makes it a rareness, about it there is a vigor, and those who like practical Christianity. We still call the learned Dr.
Carman "Bishop" on the principle of once a bishop always a bishop; and besides, that term is more scriptural and less clumsy than "General Superintendent." This may not be orthodox Canadian or British Methodist, but it is a practical view of the bishopric question.

REFORMERS ATTENTION.

Examine the voters lists which are posted up in your locality. If any names of Reform voters have been left off, make a note of the fact and send particulars to C. Seager, Goderich, P. O. The next Dominion election will be held on the voters' list of 1886. Hence the necessity for immediate action.

TOWN TOPICS.

"A chief's among ye, takin' notes, An' faith he'll print it."

George Stewart is still keeping up the style of his photographs, both album and cabinet size. See them.

The Conference has closed, but Salloves, the photographer, still keeps on doing excellent work in his line. Call and see his latest styles of pictures.

would be certain to order his pants from F.
& A. Prichard, the fashionable tailor.

was spending a week or two at her old Mrs. Geo. Parke has gone on a visit to friends in Belgrave. It is to be hoped that her health will be improved by the trip.

Remember the organ recital at Knox church by Prof. Clarke on Monday evening next. See program in another column.

Have you seen the big posterns for our game on Dominion day. They are the most attractive ever hung out in this section.

A wedding party on Wednesday got the usual amount of carriage whirled by a jodding couple to the station on their honeymoon trip.

Pullman & Co.'s show will exhibit in Goderich on Tuesday, June 22nd.
Prices are popular, and the press speaks well of the performances.

D. Casaday, of Richmond, Oxford county, has been visiting relatives in town during the week. He thinks Goderich a pretty place indeed.

The schooner Ariel, Capt. McKenzie, made port here last week and cargo this morning on Wednesday. After unloading the Ariel sailed for another cargo.

Wingham offers an attractive program for Friday, June 25th, at its Caledonian games. The committee has our thanks for a complimentary ticket.

come into Goderich from Parkhill and interior points on Thursday next.

riage painter, now travelling for a Monday or two, will be in town this week, as happy looking as ever.

Wm. Lee's vessel, the Rathburn, Capt.
McDonald, reached this port on Sunday evening with a cargo of coal for John Scobie. The Rathburn commenced unloading on Monday.

The Brussels Caledonian Games, which will come off on Tuesday, June 22nd, will likely attract a big crowd. The games in Brussels have generally given much satisfaction.

W. H. Kerr, of the Brussels Post, Mrs. Kerr and Master Leslie, were in town during the week. Bro. Kerr took in the conference, the pretty scenery, and THE SIGNAL Office.

The Steamer Ontario, of the Beatty line, reached the J. T. dock early on Friday evening with a cargo of twenty thousand bushels of wheat from Port Arthur. It was unloaded at the elevator by Saturday evening when the Ontario left for Sarnia.

Robt. Walker, formerly a compositor in this office, has gone to Cincinnati.
Mrs. Reynolds, daughter of Sheriff Gibbons, who has been very ill of late, is gradually recovering.

"The Gospel of God" will (D.V.) be preached by Mr. W. N. Blakely on Lord's Day evening next at seven o'clock in the "Meeting Room," Crabb's block, over Ridley's store.

M. Campbell, died in the Methodist of lumber arrived in port last Wednesday. After unloading at the G.T. dock, she left on Thursday for Thebesian river

Kinscane Firemen's Tournament on June 23-4 promises to be a big thing.
They generally do that matter in nice style up in Kinscane. We return thanks for a tasty press badge.

The Government tug Trudeau, with the dredge Challenge and barges in tow, left for Southampton on Saturday. The work of dredging between the piers of Goderich harbor has been completed, and not a bit to soon.

J. A. Mcintosh, of Port Arthur, a former resident of Goderich, was in town during the past week, combining business with pleasure. He is on his way to the old country, and bears with him our best wishes for a pleasant journey and a safe return.

Last week, at the meeting in Toronto of the medical association of Ontario, Dr. McDonald, formerly of Goderich, read a paper on the identity of croup and diphtheria, in which he expressed the opinion that membranous croup and laryngeal diphtheria are the same.

A KIND REMINDER.—The person who was soot enough to take an umbrella and circular not their own from the porch of Knox church lecture room at the Wednesday evening prayer-meeting, is requested to return the articles to the caretaker of the church, as soon as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sheppard have much sympathy in the death by accident of their youngest daughter Ethel Alberta May, which sad event occurred last week. The floral tributes were numerous and exquisite, and betokened deep sympathy for the afflicted parents.

During the thunder storm on Wednesday night about nine o'clock, a house occupied by Mr. Webb, near Salford, was struck by lightning. Mr. Webb was stunned, but not seriously injured, the stove was broken, and other eccentricities were played by the electric fluid. It was a close call.

Alex. Saunders is off on Forestry business, at several conventions. He is a good delegate, for he is always encouraging enough to talk right out in meeting, whether he be in a church court or a benevolent society convention. (The delegate from Goderich) will not cease to talk up this town as a summer resort while he is on the wing.

A heavy rain-storm prevailed on Sunday night and Monday morning. The rain poured in torrents, although but little trace of it could be seen by nine o'clock. A large tree in front of Mr.
Jordan's residence was blown down by the gale, having snapped off a few feet above the ground. On Wednesday evening another thunder storm prevailed.

STUDING A SOUTHERN RIVAL OF OUBA.
The Sarnia Canadian admits that Sarnia is "one of the handsomest towns in Canada." When it is explained that nobody who has ever seen the place has, heretofore, been brave enough to accuse Sarnia of being even passably handsome, the high degree of moral courage which the Canadian exhibits in making the admission will be universally admired.

Rev. J. A. McGillivray, B.A., who had been engaged to officiate in Knox church, Goderich, as an assistant to Rev.
Dr. Ure, will leave today and be absent for eight weeks, supplying the pulpit of Rev. Dr. Middlemiss, of Elora, during the absence of that gentleman. Mr.
McGillivray's place here will be supplied by Rev. Chas. A. Webster, B.A., during the next two months. Mr. Webster will preach his first sermon on Sunday next.

ORGAN RECITAL.—An organ recital will be given in Knox church, on Monday evening next by Professor W. M.
Clarke of the Royal Academy of Music.
A silver collection will be taken up at the close.

It will be of interest generally, not alone to wheelmen, but to the owners of other vehicles as well, to know that a farmer was fined in Stratford for running into a bicyclist. The right of the wheelmen to the road has been laid down in the courts, and the man with a horse possesses no rights not enjoyed by the man who furnishes his own motive power for his vehicle.

THAT INDIAN CEMETERY.—We are informed by E. Woodcock that there was an error in our account of the Indian necropolis along the river mouth. The burying-ground, he says, was not on the lower flats or the islands in the river, but on some seven or eight acres on the level about thirty or forty feet higher, on the point now occupied by Aittrill's sail derrick and other buildings. He and other old settlers have seen interments by Indians in these grounds, and watched them with interest as they deposited with the remains various little trinkets and relics.

SUCCESSFUL STUDENTS.—Our High School students have again been distinguishing themselves at the University examinations. The following gentlemen have passed their second year in the University of Toronto:—J. Elliott, standing 3rd in the 1st class in mathematics and 1st in the 1st class in English; E. S. Hogarth, with honors in English, history, French and Italian. J. D.
Swanson, who had to give up in the midst of the examination through illness, has been allowed his year's standing, with honors in mental science and logic.

Mrs. George Swanson, accompanied by her son, J. D. Swanson, one of the eldest students who have entered the University from our High School, have left for Quebec, to sail on the Sardinian for Europe. Mr. Swanson has been overstudying, and his health having become impaired thereby, his physicians have recommended an ocean trip and a rest. If he returns in good trim, we would not be surprised to see the University gold medal come to Goderich once more. Mrs. Swanson has been exactly 28 years absent from Auld Scotia. Her sister and a niece and a nephew accompany the party across the ocean.

A PAINFUL INJURY.—A number of youths, some of whom are said to have been under the influence of liquor, or pretending to be drunk, while furiously braving round the square Sunday school past, ran over Leclain Campbell, an old resident who was going to church, and kicked him in a dazed condition to the ground. Mr. Campbell was assisted to his feet, and his head bathed with cold water. He was painfully bruised about the head, shoulder and chest, and has been laid up for about thirteen days.
Some of the young fellows live in Goderich, and some were from Clinton. If Mr. Campbell's expenses are not paid, the young bucks should be prosecuted.
The old man ought to be treated in a decent fashion by the young fellows who injured him.

CRICKET.—Goderich vs Clinton.—The 2nd association cricket match of this season was played here Monday last between the above clubs, and resulted in favor of Goderich by 4 wickets. The home team won the toss and elected to bat first. The batting was not very good, a score of 67 before the last man was put out. A Kennedy and J. Harland contributed respectively 23 and 16 to this score. Goderich then went to the bat and were dismissed by a score of 43, the only person making a stand being Mr.
Drummond, who succeeded in scoring 21 not out. In its second venture Clinton was disposed of for the small score of 20. The bowling and fielding in this innings for Goderich was A. I. MacDermott and Holmes being the bowlers. This left 45 runs for Goderich to make to win, which they succeeded in making with the loss of 6 wickets, leaving them victors by 4 wickets. Mr. Drummond was also the batter in this innings, scoring 17 not out. Mr. Starke and Mr. Holmes batted well for their score of 17 each.
Turnbull and Kennedy bowled well throughout for Clinton. The batting of Mr. Drummond was the feature of the day, he having batted splendidly throughout, having only given one chance during his 21 innings.

SCHOOL BOARD.—The School Board met on Monday evening. Present, Crabb, Morton, Butler, Esli, Acheson, Nicholson, and the chairman. The minutes of previous meeting read and confirmed. The Principal's report read showing 394 boys and 1 3/4 girls on the roll and an average attendance of 330 boys and 278 girls. On motion, Miss Gordon was ordered to receive salary for the time she conducted Miss Blair's class.
The question of paying a substitute for conducting Miss Watson's class, during her sickness, was referred to school managing committee. The secretary's report showed the expenditure for April to be $376.01 and for May $346.81. The following are the estimates for the current year:—Bequests, Model school grant, Ont., $150.00; Model school grant, county, $150.00; Model school fees, $135.00; county rebate, $40.00; Government grant, $447.80. Municipal, $4,500.00. Total, $5,429.00. Expenditure, teachers' salaries, $5,500.00; extra salaries, $50.00; officers and caretakers, $58.00; printers and caretakers, $60.00; wood and cutting, $280.00; repairs and balance, $837.00.

The county councillors were photographed by Stewart last week. The group will be an historical one. All the members will never again be taken together at a June session. We expect to see great changes in next year's county council.

BY ADELINE SERGEANT. AUTHOR OF "JACOB'S WIFE," "UNDER FALSE PRETTICES," &C.

CHAPTER XVIII. GERALD'S WIDOW.

All through the sunny months of that early summer in which Bertie Douglas came back to Scotland, all through the time of roses and sunshine and fresh breezes from the purple hills, there were hundreds—ay, thousands—of men and women and little children who lived pent up in stifling alleys and murky lanes of great cities, never able to escape even for a day from the crowded streets...

The little boy, who sat on the bed beside her, always laughed and crowded with delight when she let him play with her hair. He liked to thrust his tiny hands into the soft masses and twist the golden threads round his fingers. Sometimes she would throw it round him like a veil—but this was only in her happier moods; of late she had been too sad and desolate to care even to play with Renaud.

"Was it in a house that they call 'Glenberrie'?" "Ay, was it!" said the old woman. "I mind it noo, Glenberrie! that was the vera name."

"Ye'll take me in, too, for Gerald's sake." "Ye'll have a bit writing to show them, maybe," said Mrs. Logan cautiously. Maggie paused for a moment. "Na," she answered at last, in a lower tone, "I've nae writing to show."

"Ten pounds to begin wi'." "Ten pounds! But that's a fortin! I hiban ten pounds in the world." "That's a lee," said Maggie, in an unmoved voice. "Ye've mair than twenty in the savings bank; and then there's the big bank on the stocking fut."

Prof. Low's Sulphur Soap is a delightful toilet luxury as well as a good corrective for skin disease.

BEWARE OF WORTHLESS IMITATIONS

As there are many inferior goods, corded with jute, and sold as Coralline by some unprincipled merchants trading on the reputation of our genuine Coralline, we warn the ladies against such imitations by drawing their attention to the necessity of seeing that the name 'CROMPTON CORSET CO.' is stamped on inner side of all Coralline goods. Without which none are genuine.

A Little Talk With Jesus.

A little talk with Jesus: How it soothes the rugged road; How it seems to help me onward; When I faint beneath my load.

When my heart is crushed with sorrow, And my eyes with tears are dim, There's naught can yield me comfort Like a little talk with Him.

I tell Him I am weary, And I faint would be at rest; That I'm daily, hourly waiting For a home upon His breast.

And He answers me so sweetly, In tones of tenderest love—"I am coming soon to take thee To my happy home above."

And this is what I'm wanting, His lovely face to see; And I'm not afraid to say it, I know He's wanting me.

He gave His life a ransom To make me all His own, And He can't forget His promise To me His purchased one.

I know the way is dreary To yonder far-off clime, But a little talk with Jesus Will white away the time.

And yet, the more I know Him, And all His grace explore, It only sets me longing To see Him more and more.

I cannot live without Him, Nor would I if I could; He is my daily portion, My medicine and my food.

He's altogether lovely, None can with Him compare, The chief among ten thousand, The fairest of the fair.

So I'll wait a little longer, Till His appointed time, And glory in the knowledge That such a hope is mine.

Then in my Father's dwelling, Where the "many mansions" be, I'll sweetly talk with Jesus, And He shall talk with me.

Seeing is believing. Read the testimonials in the pamphlet on Dr. Vanuren's Kidney Cure, then buy a bottle and relieve yourself of all those distressing pains. Your Druggist can tell you about it. Sold by J. Wilson, Goderich.

HEALTH.

The Hygienic Treatment of Pulmonary Consumption.

Dr. B. W. Richardson, has revived, in his "Asclepiad," certain rules for the hygienic treatment of consumption, which were first published as far back as 1856.

At that time they found very little favor, being regarded as the ideas of a dreamer, and that the fatal disease could be prevented generally, and treated specially hygienic measures. Today under a revival of the old animalcules speculation, and the origin of some diseases in living forms—the entity doctrine in dress—the conception of the hygienic treatment of pulmonary consumption has been accepted in name as well as in fact, as if it were new in word and deed, the height of practical learning and skill.

So ideas of one generation is the favored of another. But it matters not for whom it is borne, so long as the torchlight of truth makes its way.

1. A supply of pure air for respiration the first indication in the treatment of the consumptive patient.

2. Active exercise is an essential element in the treatment of consumption.

3. A uniform climate is an important element in the treatment of consumption.

4. The dress of the consumptive patient should be adapted to equalize the temperature of the body, and so loose that it interferes in no way with the animal functions.

5. The hours of rest of the consumptive patient should be regulated mainly by the absence of the sun.

6. The occupation of the consumptive patient should be suspended if it is indoor or sedentary, but a certain amount of outdoor work may be advantageous.

7. Excessive mental exertion should be avoided by the consumptive.

8. Cleanliness of body is a special point in the treatment of consumptives.

9. Abstinence from all habits of gross sensual indulgence is an essential part, both in the prevention and the cure of consumptives.

10. The diet of consumptive patients should be simple, and should contain a larger proportion of the respiratory constituents of food than is required in health.

Whenever distinct evidences of phthisis have set in an individual of either sex, while the marriage of two persons, both victims of the disease, is opposed to reason and humanity.

THE REMEDY.—For coughs, asthma, and all recent colds, Dr. Harvey's Southern Red Pine. Don't let a cough or troublesome chest be relieved and cured by this remedy at the small cost of 25c. Sold only at Wilson's prescription drug store.

It Was Just Like Him.

County Crown Attorney Lewis, of Goderich, tells this story of himself, so it may be true.

"By don't you put on a white tie, and go over to conference," said a friend to him the other day, "you'd pass for a minister."

"Well," said he in that bland manner peculiar to him, "to tell you the truth they don't let me in. My good friend Corbett and I did go over, but whether it was because my clothes were not orthodox, my face was too honest, or I was a doubtful company, I don't know, but I had to come out anyhow. You ask Corbett, and he'll tell you the same."

(New Era.)

I have used Dr. J. Wilson's Kidney Pills myself and in my family for a year or more, and find both of them so useful that I would be sorry to miss them out of my house.

The Voters' Lists.

The discussion on the items relating to preparation of the voters' lists still further goes to prove the importance of returning to the Provincial franchise. The Government voters' lists will cost from three to four times as much as the printing of the lists under the authority of the municipal councils. Mr. M. C. Cameron on Monday read the cost of printing the voters' lists in his riding, showing that the work done under the authority of the Municipal Council cost up to about $180, while the same work done by the revising officer under the Dominion franchise cost $620. It also came out that although the law provides that the revising officer shall control the printing of the voters' lists, that the Government undertook to advise the revising officers as to where the work should be done, and indicating the rates they should be paid. The revising officer of Hamilton was informed that he was to get the work done at the Spectator office. Judge Sinclair said, in reply, that Parliament had by legislation put the matter into his, not the Government's hands, and he would not consent to be dictated to by the Administration; that he had discharged his duty as the law directs; that he would advise for tender, and that he would have the work done by the party whose tender was lowest. This he accordingly did, and some of the other revising officers acted with equal independence. But the vast majority of them did as the law directed. The fact, however, remained that the work was done under instruction, and has consequently cost the country three or four times as much as the printing of the old voters' lists in the municipalities. [London Advertiser.]

Advice to Young Women.

A lady of intelligence and observation has remarked: "I wish I could impress upon the minds of the girls that the chief end of women is not to marry young. If girls could only be brought to believe that their chances for a happy marriage were better after 25 years than before, there would be much less misery in the world than there now is. To be sure, they might not have so many opportunities to marry as before, but as they do not need to marry but one at a time, it is necessary that that one should be satisfactory. As a girl grows older, if she thinks at all, she certainly becomes more capable of judging what would make her happy than when younger. How many girls of twenty would think of marrying the man they would gladly have taken at sixteen?"

At thirty, a woman who is somewhat independent, and not anxious, over-anxious, to marry, is much harder to please and more careful in her choice than one at 20. There is good reason for this. Her mind has improved with her years, and she now looks beyond mere appearances in judging men. She is apt to ask if this man who is so very polite in actions, spring from a happy, genial nature, or is his attractive demeanor put on for the occasion and laid off at home as he lays off his coat?

A very young girl takes it for granted that men are always as she sees them in society—polite, friendly, and on their good behavior. If she marries early the man who happens to please her fancy, she learns to her sorrow that in nine cases out of ten, a man in society and a man at home are widely different beings. Five years, at that period of life, produce a great change in opinions and feeling.

The Right Kind of a Man.

Referring to the lecture of Rev. Dr. Burns at Ottawa on Thursday night, the Ottawa Free Press of last evening says: "In character, Dr. Burns is a man of the widest sympathies, a careful scholar, and devoted heart and soul to the interests of his native land. His oratory is such as to entrance the most chilly and reserved audience, whilst his scholarship and true religious fervor appeal to the sympathies of all. Imbued with the genuine instincts of his nationality, it would be difficult to find a man with a kinder nature. As a man, a patriot and a minister, humanity, Ireland and the Methodist church have every reason to be proud of him."

At thirty, a woman who is somewhat independent, and not anxious, over-anxious, to marry, is much harder to please and more careful in her choice than one at 20. There is good reason for this. Her mind has improved with her years, and she now looks beyond mere appearances in judging men. She is apt to ask if this man who is so very polite in actions, spring from a happy, genial nature, or is his attractive demeanor put on for the occasion and laid off at home as he lays off his coat?

A very young girl takes it for granted that men are always as she sees them in society—polite, friendly, and on their good behavior. If she marries early the man who happens to please her fancy, she learns to her sorrow that in nine cases out of ten, a man in society and a man at home are widely different beings. Five years, at that period of life, produce a great change in opinions and feeling.

The Right Kind of a Man.

Referring to the lecture of Rev. Dr. Burns at Ottawa on Thursday night, the Ottawa Free Press of last evening says: "In character, Dr. Burns is a man of the widest sympathies, a careful scholar, and devoted heart and soul to the interests of his native land. His oratory is such as to entrance the most chilly and reserved audience, whilst his scholarship and true religious fervor appeal to the sympathies of all. Imbued with the genuine instincts of his nationality, it would be difficult to find a man with a kinder nature. As a man, a patriot and a minister, humanity, Ireland and the Methodist church have every reason to be proud of him."

HURON COUNTY COUNCIL

Proceedings of the June Session.

The council was opened on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, almost all the members being present.

The warden addressed the council, regretting the demise of Mr. James Hennings, the late reeve of Turnberry; also in relation to bridges, the office for the police magistracy, a house of refuge, and repairs necessary to the court house and registry office.

He also stated that he had been informed that a deputation of the County Temperance Association desired to have an interview with the council on Wednesday at 2 o'clock p.m.

It was moved by Mr. Johnston, seconded by Mr. Black, and resolved, that this council feel deeply the demise of our late colleague, Jas. Hennings, reeve of Turnberry, who has since 1875 represented his township in the positions of reeve and deputy reeve in so able and efficient a manner.

From his kind and unassuming ways he made friends of the councillors with whom he has been associated, and we desire as a body to place this resolution on the records of our council as a tribute to his worth and memory; and request the clerk to forward a copy of this resolution to his widow.

Whereas under the provisions of the Acts referred to no limited check of responsibility is provided. Whereas it is unwise to put such unlimited control of public funds in the hands of any body of men not responsible for such expenditures. Whereas no provision is made for properly auditing the accounts of the Board of Commissioners, and whereas any county in which the Canada Temperance Act of 1878 is in force could be compelled to pay large sums of money at the mere option of such Boards of Commissioners. Therefore resolved that the Warden and Clerk be instructed to memorialize the Attorney-General of Ontario, asking him to provide such legislation as will do away with liability by the county, or in case of non-liability to pass legislation to remove doubts, or else to provide such legislation as will put in the hands of the County Council the appointment of such commissioners and officers so that they will be responsible to the County Council, and can have their accounts audited and estimates properly audited and limited. County Court and General Sessions.

Judge Toms presiding. The court was a very small one, only two cases being disposed of.

GOLDER'S STATEMENT. At present there are 8 prisoners in jail, viz: 7 males and 1 female; of the seven males one is under sentence for illicit distilling; one as a vagrant under sentence, and one for contempt of court after lunatics; the remaining four are lunatics; two of them are of rather a dangerous class and require close and vigilant watching on our part; the other two are harmless, one of them being a frail old man 92 years of age, he is simply in his dotage, weak and harmless as a child. The female is also a lunatic, simple and harmless. These five lunatics have all been examined and reported upon to the proper authorities and are now waiting removal to the asylum. You will observe that out of the total number in jail, eight, five of them are lunatics and the remaining three are under sentence.

PRESENTMENT OF GRAND JURY. The jurors beg leave to present—

1st. That we concur in the remarks made by your honor concerning the satisfaction it gives to have a clean dock in the county, and hope that such a state of affairs may long continue.

2nd. That we have visited the gaol according to instructions, and the same neat and clean, and well cared for by the gaoler, the maron and turnkey. No complaints were made by any of the inmates as to their treatment, and are inclined to believe that though rigid discipline prevails, none of the prisoners have reason to say that justice is tempered with.

3rd. There are at the present one unfortunate confined in the gaol whose offence consists in the fact that he aged, infirm and poor. And we beg to put our voices on record on this point, that we do not consider poverty a sufficient merit to merit incarceration with the criminal classes, and for this reason we would suggest that all possible pressure be brought upon the county council at its next meeting to compel that body to take action in providing a House of Refuge or other such institution in which to care for the aged, infirm and unfortunate of our county. Trusting that your honor will agree with us on these points given above. We remain, T. N. DANCEY, Foreman.
