Survivor Tells Tale of Aerial Tragedy.

Lieut. Mann Rescued From Humber River -- Girders Broke Cutting Ship in Halves -- New Dirigible Will Be Constructed.

STATEMENT OF SURVIVING OFFICER.

HULL, Aug. 25. Most of the members of the crew of the ill-fated dirigible ZR-2 were killed by the explosion, which followed the bucking and snapping of the great amidships, declared Lieut. Mann in command of the airship, and the officer at the time of the disaster, in a statement to the Associated Press to-day. Lieut. Mann said the ship had run beautifully at sixty knots an hour, and that he had reduced speed to fifty knots, when there came a violent cracking sound. He thought several of the girders broke. The whole thing happened in five seconds. "There was no sign of anything wrong when we passed over Hull," he added, "but everything happened afterwards. I was in sole control at the time. Before the moment of the accident the craft had been sailing perfectly. She had been passing through various difficult tests and speed had been reduced, when suddenly while crossing the broad estuary of the Humber I heard the grinding and cracking of girders, and the airship pitched forward from an even keel. As soon as humanly possible I emptied the water ballast to enable the craft to resume its normal position, but at this instant a tremendous explosion occurred. The great ship seemed to halt for a moment and then it dropped like a rock. The explosion threw me down in the navigator's car, where I was pinned by the wreckage. The section of craft in which I was riding remained above water, after the ship plunged into the Humber, and I was rescued after being imprisoned for fifteen minutes, that is all I am able to say." Lieut. Mann denied local reports that he had heroically plunged the ship into the water, rather than on shore, which was crowded by thousands of spectators. The disaster occurred so quickly, he said, that any action was impossible.

GIRDERS BROKE.

HOWDEN, Aug. 25. The cause of the disaster to ZR-2, according to best information obtaining here in Howden, the base of the destroyed dirigible, was the breaking of the longitudinal girders amidships, made of aluminum alloy, cutting the airship in halves. Explosion of either hydrogen or petrol occurred immediately after the girders gave way and the flames burst through the structure, but the explosion, it is declared, was not the cause of the breaking of the airship.

BUCKLING SEEN FROM BELOW.

LONDON, Aug. 25. Britain was profoundly stirred by the greatest disaster that has ever befallen human efforts to conquer the air. The impression made upon the public was reflected in the newspapers this morning, all of them expressing profound sympathy for the relatives of the men who met death, regret over the loss of the majestic vessel, and thankfulness over the narrow escape of the town of Hull from a terrific calamity. Pending the inquiry, which, it is assumed, will be of a searching character, attempts to account for the tragedy are merely speculation, but it is recalled that during the nine hour trial trip on July 17 some of the girders in the middle of the ZR-2 showed weakness, which necessitated reinforcements. This work was done immediately at Howden, and experts believed that the weakness in structure of the airship had been remedied. It is now regarded as significant, however, that observers below have declared that there was a buckling amidships, which seemed to precede the explosion which sent the ZR-2 flaming to earth.

ZR-2 INVESTIGATION.

LONDON, Aug. 25. The Air Ministry to-day summoned a court to investigate the wreck of ZR-2. It will sit at Howden at ten o'clock on Saturday morning. Air Vice-Marshal, Sir John Salmon, will preside. The United States Naval attache has been invited to attend and has consented to send a representative to sit on the Court.

ONE U.S. SURVIVOR.

HULL, Aug. 25. Norman C. Walker, rigger, was the only United States member of the crew to escape from ZR-2 was destroyed here last evening. It was reported early in the night that he had died, but inquiries have established the fact that he is still alive. His home is in Commerce, Texas.

DISMAYED BUT NOT DAUNTED.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25. Expressions of deep sympathy were voiced by Government officials yesterday over the disaster of the great airship ZR-2 with its heavy loss of United States and British lives. Pride in the acquisition of the new queen of the air, and hopes of tremendous development in military and commercial aeronautics, had lent interest to the planned for trans-Atlantic flight of the British built airship, even beyond that which it normally would have. Secretary Denby immediately forwarded to the British Air Ministry a message expressing the sympathy of the Navy Department. Far from being discouraged by the disaster, naval aviation officials immediately prepared to seek authority for constructing a new airship of the ZR-2 type.

DAIL EIREANN'S REPLY.

LONDON, Aug. 25. The reply of the Irish Republican Cabinet to Premier Lloyd George's letter of August 13th, in which Mr. Lloyd George denied Ireland's right to secession and declined to offer the question of relations between Southern and Northern Ireland to foreign arbitration, was received at No. 10 Downing Street, the Premier's official residence, at one o'clock this afternoon.

VICEROY IN LONDON.

DUBLIN, Aug. 25. Viscount Fitzalan, Lord Lieutenant and Governor-General of Ireland, was summoned to London to-night to confer with the Cabinet.

U.S. AND GERMANY AT PEACE.

BERLIN, Aug. 25. The Treaty of Peace between Germany and the United States was signed here at five o'clock this evening.

INFORMATION FROM ABOARD.

MONTREAL, Aug. 25. Sir Richard Squires, Premier of Newfoundland, is in Montreal for a few days seeking a little relaxation after a very strenuous session of the Newfoundland Legislature. He is accompanied by his wife and a party of friends and will proceed shortly to New York for a brief visit. He will also visit Toronto. Speaking of unemployment in Newfoundland, Sir Richard remarked that while considerable unemployment did exist, reports of conditions had been grossly exaggerated. "While Newfoundland has been suffering from the wave of financial depression which has swept every part of the world," he said, "she has not suffered as greatly as the continent of Europe, the United States or even Canada."

TINO IS ILL.

PARIS, Aug. 25. King Constantine of Greece, who has been visiting the battlefield in Asia Minor, is ill from intestinal trouble at Esch Shehr. He fainted yesterday and was unconscious for twenty minutes, it is said, and he is confined to his room.

RIOTS HEAVY TOLL.

LONDON, Aug. 25. More than one thousand lives, it is feared, have been lost in rioting in the Malabar district of British India, says an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Bombay, received to-day. Anxiety is felt for English women and children in the outlying districts.

WELSH BYE-ELECTION.

LONDON, Aug. 25. As generally expected the bye-election yesterday in the constituency of Caerphilly in the mining districts of Wales, resulted in the return of Morgan Jones, Laborite, whose vote was 18,699 as compared with 8,958 for W. R. Edmonds, Liberal, and 2,592 for Robert Stewart, Communist. The bye-election in Caerphilly was made necessary by the death of Alfred Onions, Laborite, who in the last general election was elected by vote of 11,496 against Edmonds' vote of 9,482.

CERTIFICATES SUSPENDED.

MONTREAL, Aug. 25. The Court of inquiry into the standing of the steamer Mins Brea in the St. Lawrence recently to-day announced judgment, suspending the certificate of Captain T. R. Owens for two months, and of Chief Officer Jones for six months. They were in charge when the ship grounded at Malane, below Fatherpoint Pilot Station. Coming up the river in charge of Pilot House the ship again grounded at Sorel. The Court fined the pilot one hundred dollars holding that he made an error of judgment.

FIGHT IN WEST VIRGINIA.

CHARLESTOWN, Aug. 25. H. W. R. Mullins, Prosecutions Attorney of Boone County, located at Madison, reported this evening that Sheriff Dan Chaffin of Logan County is now engaged in battle with a large body of armed men at Blair in Logan County Line. Mullins said that "Authentic reports" he has received were to the effect that residents of Blair, including old men, women and children, are fleeing the town in the direction of Madison.

NOTHING TO EQUAL

For Sprains and Bruises. The first thing to do when you have an injury is to apply Minard's famous Liniment. It is antiseptic, soothing, healing, and gives quick relief.

Household Notes.

- Wet a mildewed article and rub on it a mixture of equal parts of soap and chalk. Place in sun.
- Paint the inside of your linen closet with blue enamel and your linens will not turn yellow.
- A glass vase is best for growing slips of vines indoors. This allows the sun to be on their roots.
- One needs to buy little lard if all trimmings, drippings and skimmings from soup are saved.
- Add a sprig of mint to string beans when you first put them on to cook. This gives a nice flavor.
- Jelly bags and strainer cloths are

Why Not Arbitrate?

There is indubitably a strong desire on the part of the public to see the end of the trouble between the Employers Protective Association and the Labor Unions of St. John's interested, properly, amicably and definitely adjusted. The season is advancing, and soon the first cargoes of new fish will be brought in from Labrador and the Northern part of the island. Every such cargo brought in means more labor, and it is a great pity that a settlement of the labor differences that exist at present, cannot be brought about by negotiations between the parties involved. Only four months of the year 1921 are left, and it will mean a poor outlook for the winter if some kind of agreement—even a makeshift would be better than none—is not reached. There surely must be a happy medium to which both sides would agree, and if neither party to the dispute can discover that way out, why not have an impartial arbitration. Not so very long ago when a corporation and its employees were mixed up in labor difficulties, the Government appointed a Board of Arbitrators, who enquired into all the matters of the grievance, took evidence and made a finding, which was accepted. Cannot a similar procedure be followed in the present situation? A deadlock has been created between employers and labor and much correspondence has been exchanged, but so far as we can gather nothing concrete has resulted, and it is evident that either one side or the other is about to present an ultimatum. Should this happen, a deplorable condition of circumstances will be brought into existence, and matters will not be improved or eased thereby.

It is not within the province of the press to dictate in matters that concern individuals only, but it is the duty of the press to direct public attention to imminent danger, and surely danger will ensue unless a fair agreement is reached in the serious question now filling the minds of Employers and Labor Unions alike. Both sides have apparently reached the last word in the conduct of negotiations. Both sides prefer to believe that they have adopted the correct attitude, and neither are inclined to give way. The Labor Unions claim that they cannot maintain their families on the proposed rate of wages offered by the Employers, because the high cost of living has not decreased in anything like the proportion that the submitted scale of pay contains. The Employers on the other hand contend that the cost of living has decreased in certain measure, and that they are justified in reducing wages. They also plead that conditions have become so changed with regard to fish and the marketing thereof that it is impossible for them to enter into any long engagements concerning shipments, the price and terms not warranting large outlays. For this reason and the decision that prevails regarding prospects abroad they find themselves in such a position that they have necessarily to scale down their working staffs and pay sheets to meet immediate contingencies. At the rate of wages demanded by the workers, they find it impossible to carry large labor expenditures. Various other reasons are set forth in the correspondence which we publish, on another page to-day, for the information of the whole body of laborers and the public at large. Notwithstanding the locking of horns on the question at issue, we are of opinion that if both parties would agree to arbitration on this vexed matter, an equitable solution could be reached easily and quickly. We recommend it for consideration.

Travelogue Series.

Beginning with to-morrow (Saturday) the Telegram will commence the publication of a new series of Travelogue articles (local) from the pen of that most interesting of contributors Mr. Isaac Morris. The series will contain about twelve articles and will be captioned "Week End Notes." Those who are constantly on the lookout for something new in journalism are bound to have their literary appetite whetted by careful perusal of this novel feature.

The Ill-Fated X R-2.

AMERICA'S AERIAL BATTLESHIP WHICH EXPLODED IN MIDAIR—A DESCRIPTION OF THE GIANT DIRIGIBLE.

The ill-fated airship ZR-2 was originally the R-38 and was built in England for the United States navy. It completely dwarfed the huge R-34 which crossed the Atlantic in 1919. The ZR-2 had incorporated in it many improvements, the necessity for which had been gleaned from experiments on the R-34. The ship was 694 feet long. The outer framework was built of lattice girders rigidly bolted together. These were made of duralumin, an aluminum alloy, which whilst almost as light as aluminum is nearly as strong as steel. This outer framework was reinforced by thousands of guy-wires. The outside was covered with three-ply canvas and rubber, laced on and doped to render it waterproof. The whole of the vast hull was coated with aluminum paint. There were fourteen gas bags which extended from the nose to the rudder and elevator joints. The two forward ward sections were 49 feet in diameter. All were fitted with an elaborate system of valves. The gas bags alone cost $200,000. The ZR-2 had seven cars, six of which were "power eggs" whilst the seventh was used solely to house the controls. The ZR-2 had unique rudders which were made in the shape of fins following the designs of the latest seaplanes. By means of the six 350-horsepower engines a speed of 65 miles per hour could be attained. It had an armament of 14 Lewis guns, and one one-pound automatic. Besides this it carried in its bomb racks, four 520-pounders and eight 230-pounders ready for instant release. Such was the great air ship which on Wednesday was completely destroyed. For much of the above information we are indebted to the Popular Science Monthly for September.

Cadets Defeat C. L. B. The League football game between the Cadets and the C.L.B. played last evening on St. George's Field was won by the former, the score being 3 goals to 1. The game was a poor one, very little football being seen. Wild shooting and lack of combination were too much in evidence throughout. Galgley and Callahan did the scoring for the Cadets, whilst Snow obtained the only goal for the C.L.B.

We know the composition of this remedy and can thoroughly recommend it for its purposes. Price 30c. a bottle.

EVADING THE LAW.—We learn that because of the intention of the Civic Commission to prosecute all those motorists who have not yet paid the 1921 tax, several car owners are garaging their machines in the hope of evading payment for the season. The Commission, however, has a list of these, and unless they stump up, legal action will be taken.

Wise Decision Necessary.

The Longshoremen are meeting again to-night in their hall to discuss the labor situation. The outcome of to-night's meeting will be awaited with interest, as on the action of the rivred it will depend the action of the employers. It is generally conceded that the latter will curtail their fish business in the city should the Union refuse to accept a decrease. To this end it is learned that Messrs. Barr, Hickman and another fish firm have rented premises at Carboner for the packing and export of fish.

Further Correspondence Between Employers' Protective Association and Longshore- men's Union.

RE LABOR RATES.
St. John's,
August 25, 1921.
Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—I send you herewith a copy of further correspondence that has been exchanged with the L.S.P.U. regarding the above, and shall be pleased if you can find space for same in the Telegram, as it is a question of prime importance to the whole country and particularly to the citizens of St. John's. We have so far had no reply from the L.S.P.U. to our communication of 19th inst.

For the information of the public, the rates at present in force are:
For steamboat labor, 58 1-2 cents per hour.
For wharf labor, packers and barrowmen, 37 4-5 cents per hour.

Ordinary labor, yaffing fish, etc. 31 1-2 cents per hour.
The agreement made with the L.S.P.U. in May last provided that the rates on and after 1st July should be:
For steamboat labor, 50 cents per hour.
For wharf labor, packers and barrowmen, 35 cents per hour.
Ordinary labor, yaffing fish, etc. 29 cents per hour.
The employers are merely insisting upon the carrying out of this agreement.

The agreement contained the following provision:—
"That it must be understood that should there be any great change in the cost of living between July 1921 and May 1922, either party shall be at liberty to ask a reconsideration of wages."
As a matter of fact there has been a still further reduction in the cost of living since the making of the agreement and this in spite of the increased duties.

Yours truly,
AVALON T. GOODRIDGE, Secretary.
St. John's,
August 9, 1921.

Mr. James Caul,
Recording Secretary, L.S.P.U., City.
Dear Sir,—With reference to our letter of 6th inst. and to our suggestion for a meeting with the delegation from your body, we have heard from your delegate, Mr. Coady, that it is not convenient for you to send a deputation to-day, and we think that under the circumstances it is just as well if we write you to express the views of the members of our Association so that you can place same on record. If they have considered same they wish to meet a deputation from our body for further information we can do so at any time in the near future. Otherwise we assume you will call a meeting of your body and place our letter before them.

The main point we wish to place before you is that the members of our Association are very firm in their belief that a reduction of wages to the scale existing between May 1921 and May 1922 is imperative. We base our claim to this on the ground that the cost of living is considerably less than the cost between May 1919 and May 1920. We have never been very clear as to whether you admitted this fact or not, but it is certainly one that can be proved by independent parties, if necessary. Apart, altogether, however, from the question of the reduced cost of living, the truth is that the business of the country as it exists to-day cannot stand the present high rates of labor in St. John's. This is applicable both to the question of steamers and to the fish handlers. We are quite certain that unless wages are reduced the quantity of fish handled in St. John's will be very much reduced and that the conditions of unemployment here will in consequence become even worse than they are at present. We have been very considerate in temporising with your Union over this question of wages, but the fish handling season is now commencing, and it is absolutely necessary for employers to know how they stand with regard to the future cost of handling fish. We hope therefore, that you will be able to call a meeting of your body at an early date, say not later than next Monday evening, and we shall hope to hear from you definitely on the question by next Tuesday.

Yours very truly,
AVALON T. GOODRIDGE, Secretary.
August 16th, 1921.

The Employers' Protective Association, City.

Dear Sirs.—I am directed by the Longshoremen's Protective Union to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 9th inst. The subject matter of the communication has had the attention of the members. After giving the matter careful consideration the Union has decided that it cannot agree to any reduction in the present scale of wages. The question of the cost of living cannot be taken into consideration in dealing with the question of wages, because 95 per cent. of the members of the Union do not earn enough under the present scale to keep body and soul together. Were it not for the fact that the wives and children of the members supplement the earnings of the household, a very large majority of the members would be compelled to seek able-bodied pauper relief.

It should not be necessary to point out to the association that in very many homes of members, the common necessities of life are wanting; the reason being, as you are well aware, scarcity of employment. To ask under these circumstances a reduction of the wage scales is, the Union submits, not just and reasonable.

Yours very truly,
(Sgd.) JAMES CAUL, Recording Secretary, L.S.P.U.

St. John's, Newfoundland,
August 19th, 1921.

Mr. James Caul,
Recording Secretary, L.S.P.U., City.
Dear Sirs.—We have before us your letter of 16th inst., and are very much surprised at the position taken in this letter which shows an entirely new attitude to any you have previously taken. As you are aware the large increase in wages claimed by you and granted by Employers from time to time, have been justified by you and acknowledged by ourselves entirely on the grounds of the increased cost of living, and your representatives have over and over again during your negotiations with us, intimated that you were quite prepared to reduce wages whenever the cost of living was proportionately reduced.

We do not doubt that there is at least some truth in your claim that in many of the homes of your members, even the necessities of life are wanting, owing to lack of employment, but this is unfortunately a world wide condition of affairs, which is all the time being made worse by the very fact that efforts are made to maintain wages beyond the point at which employers are able to engage laborers freely. The only way in which an article that is not very much wanted can be forced into consumption is by reducing its price and thus tempting purchasers. Similarly when the cost of labor is at too high a figure to warrant Employers utilizing it freely, the only remedy is to reduce its value, and thus induce Employers to use it more freely. The economic law of supply and demand works exactly the same in the case of labor rates as in the case of commodity prices, but it is unfortunately the case that the laboring population do not appear to appreciate this.

We feel that our previous correspondence must have convinced your Executive, and probably your body, of the undoubted fact that the cost of living to-day is actually much less than it was between May 1919 and May 1920, as otherwise you would not change the stand you have previously taken, and put forward an entirely new reason for refusing to accept the reduction already positively agreed to in writing, so long ago as May 1921. The Employers' Association have always treated your Union as a reasonable body, and would very much regret to have to treat it in any other way, but if, as it appears, matters have reached a dead-lock between the Employers and you, we have no other course open, but to take an entirely different stand with regard to the laborers they employ.

We think perhaps that you do not fully realize the fact that the excessive wages rates now in force, are more than the business of the Country can stand, and that the whole fishing industry, and every other industry in the Country, as well as the public generally, are suffering from this fact. We have already pointed out that if Employers allowed matters to remain as they are at present and continued to pay the wages now in force, one of the inevitable results would be that there would be little or no Produce handled in St. John's. It is perfectly clear that this produce would be largely handled in the Outports and shipped from there direct to the various markets. As however, the whole population of St. John's, even more than that of the Outports, would be seriously affected by this, the Employers do not for one moment, intend to sit down and accept such a situation, as they consider it their duty, not only to themselves and a large population of St. John's (whose trade would very seriously suffer from the absence or reduction of fish products) but to the members of the population of the Dominion, to take such means as will inevitably result, at an early date, in the reduction of the cost of handling fishery produce, and important importations by steamer. If your members can see this and are disposed to act as reasonable men (the position is that the reduced wages will in the long run be a blessing to them and their families, and not, as they imagine, a curse, as it will certainly relieve the unemployment now existing.

On the other hand, if your Union forces Employers to seek other laborers, outside of those at present employed, the consequences must be serious and disastrous for those members of your Union now employed. The position is that the produce of the country must be exported, and necessary commodities must be imported, and that if the wages demanded by members of your Union are unreasonably high in relation to values, as they are at present, and higher than the wages which others (not members of your Union) are prepared to accept for doing the work, all this work will go to others.

In conclusion we have to state definitely that the members of the Employers' Association are not prepared, after Saturday 27th inst., to pay more than the rates in force in May 1919, and that if members of your Union are not prepared to work on such terms, steps will be taken to secure other employees. If you have anything further to discuss with us in relation to this matter, between now and Saturday 27th inst., we shall be pleased to meet you. We would like to impress upon you that owing to the high rates of wages and the fact that these rates are altogether out of proportion to the values of fishery produce, employers have been forced for some time past to recruit with regard to the number of men they can employ, and until this matter is settled and wages reduced, this state of affairs must of necessity continue. It is therefore most desirable in the interests of your members, if you are able to persuade them that a reduction must come, (and it certainly must), you inform us of your agreement to the reduction at the earliest possible moment, as you will find that the merchants will not purchase fish in St. John's, or for delivery in St. John's, until the question is definitely settled. The continued delay in settlement is only adding to the difficulties already facing the community as the result of unemployment.

We shall hope to have an answer from you by Wednesday next, although we are prepared to go on paying present wages until Saturday, August 27th, to the limited number of men whom we employ. If we do not hear from you by Wednesday next, we propose to publish, for the information of the public who are so largely interested in this question, all the correspondence we have had with you. As a matter of courtesy to your Union, we are withholding publication in the newspapers until then, in order to give your members time to consider this letter.

Yours very truly,
AVALON T. GOODRIDGE, Secretary
Employers' Protective Association.

Threat to Boycot
Belfast, Aug. 22.—Interruption here attributed to the Donagh, of Dublin, an Eireann labor party, the economic pressure designed to bring about peacefully to what they would regard as a more attitude, will result in the shutting off shortly of the goods from Belfast, Ireland.
"The boycott will grow every day, and very soon look forward to the complete area," said Donagh is quoted as saying. "This will give Belfast partition it does not want. Some rabid politicians have speech that Belfast was the duty of all decent people to make Belfast as barren as Gibraltar."

An All-Important Question.

The hoary Merchant, grave and grey springs, the journals of the day, asks himself in frenzied way—
"What is the price of Fish?"

The Fisher in his little skiff glides the waves and breezes still,
and wonders, as he floats adrift—
"What is the price of Fish?"

The Exporter, suave and argumental works out the price so much per cubical and makes decisions monumental—
"All on the price of fish."

The Infant in the nurse's arms, the children's youth and ancient matters
All seek to know, with anxious qualms,
"What is the price of fish?"

The seafarer from shore to shore, from Caplin Bay to Labrador, from Harbour Grace to Port aux Basques, all solemnly this question ask—
"What is the price of Fish?"

And nobody seems to know by gum, and nobody seems to know.

Premier Takes Motor Drive at North Sydney.

The steamer Kyle was gaily bedecked with bunting on her arrival in port this morning before 5 o'clock says the North Sydney Herald of August 24 in honor of Sir R. A. and Lady Squires and party who were on board. The Premier and party, owing to the early hour of arrival of the steamer, which docked more than two hours before the departure of the eastbound express, did not arise until shortly before the time of leaving, and therefore did not see much of North Sydney, or allow even an interview.

However, the Premier and Lady Squires and party enjoyed a motor trip in Mr. P. J. Grant's Studebaker and joined the special car in waiting at the railway depot. Besides Sir Richard and Lady Squires, there were Miss Squires and friend, Miss Saunders, a young Newfoundland nurse whose distinguished conduct in the war zone during the whole term of that desperate struggle, was not exceeded by any of her sex throughout the whole campaign.

The fifth member of the party was W. H. Transfield, manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company at St. John's.

Owing to the early hour of the arrival of the steamer, it was impossible to see the Newfoundland Premier, but it is understood his mission is in connection with business of the colony, and before returning he will visit Montreal, Toronto and then New York.

Threat to Boycott Ulster

Belfast, Aug. 25—Interviews printed here attributed to Alderman MacDonagh, of Dublin, of the Daily Freeman labor department declare the economic pressure against Ulster designed to bring northern Ireland peacefully to what the Sinn Fein would regard as a more reasonable attitude, will result in the complete shutting off shortly of the movement of goods from Belfast for northern Ireland.

"The boycott will grow more rigid every day, and very soon we may be forward to the complete stoppage of all goods out of Belfast and the hinterland area," Alderman MacDonagh is quoted as saying.

"This will give Belfast a kind of partition it does not want. One of its more rabid politicians has stated in a speech that Belfast was the Gibraltar of England in Ireland, so long as this attitude is indulged in, it will be the duty of all decent Irishmen to make Belfast as barren as the rocks of Gibraltar."

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

OFFICIAL IRISH REPLY.
LONDON, Aug. 26.
Dail Eireann "Cabinet" has made reply to a letter, which Premier Lloyd George sent to Eamonn De Valera, Irish Republican leader, on August 15. It was in this letter that the British Prime Minister informed De Valera that there could be no compromise on the question of the right of Ireland to secede, and also attempted to make clear conditions of the proposed peace settlement. While the text of the Republican letter will not be published until it is agreed a joint communique is issued, it is understood that it makes no mention of a Republic, but enunciates the principle of independence and expresses aversion to a resumption of warfare. Thus, it is considered, there still is a wide opening for a continuation of peace negotiations, a fact which has caused widespread satisfaction and feeling of optimism.

ANOTHER CANADIAN DISASTER.

PORTLAND, Oregon, Aug. 26.
The freighter "Canadian Importer," disabled at sea since Friday, is still afloat, and is in no danger, according to a radio message received by the Associated Press, from the rescue ship Cordova. A message from the Cordova to-day said most of the crew had been taken off.

UNANIMOUSLY REJECTED.

LONDON, Aug. 26.
The British Government's peace proposals were laid before Dail Eireann, which rejected them unanimously, but is willing to negotiate on the principle of "Government by consent of the governed." Eamonn De Valera says in his reply to Mr. Lloyd George, British Premier. The letter proposed that Great Britain and Ireland appoint representatives with plenary powers to negotiate details of the principle. "We have not sought war, nor do we seek war, but if war be made upon us we must defend ourselves, and shall do so," says Mr. De Valera's letter. "We long to end the conflict between Great Britain and Ireland," he adds. The text of the letter, which bears date of August 24th, reads, "The anticipatory judgment I gave in my reply of August 7 has been confirmed. I laid the proposals of your Government before Dail Eireann, and by unanimous vote it rejected them. From your letter of August 13 it was clear that the principle we are asked to accept was that the geographical propinquity of Ireland to Great Britain imposed a condition of subordination of Ireland's right to Great Britain's strategic interests, as she controls them, and that the length and persistence of efforts made in the past to compel Ireland's acquiescence in a foreign domination, imposed a condition of acceptance of that domination."

WILL GO ON DOCK.—S.S. Sagona is shortly going on dock to have several necessary repairs effected. She will also undergo a fairly complete overhauling, which has been made necessary after the frequent trips she has made in the Labrador service. Whilst the Sagona is on dock she will be replaced by the Meigle.

BUILDING A GANGWAY.—Large coal poulders are now being made on the front of Hickman's steamship premises, whilst a number of men are engaged in building a gangway about 200 yards in length leading from the wharf to the front of the premises. It is understood that the firm intends to engage in the coal trade on a large scale.

City Team Chosen.

The City team to play against Great Britain in the football game arranged for to-morrow night is as follows—Goal: Walsh; backs: M. Churchill, E. H. Fatt; halves: W. Burke, J. Dwyer; A. Galsgry; forwards, W. Young; Chas. Quick, Walter Callahan, F. Phelan, E. G. Ewing.

The Great Britain team is not yet known but it is expected that it will have a strong line-up and will include some men from the navy team which played the City Wednesday.

Loading Government Fish.

S.S. Nystrand, which recently brought 1000 tons of coal to the Shipping Department is now loading Government fish at the Furness Wharf premises where it is stored. From there the Nystrand will go to Port Union where all the remaining Government fish in the country will be taken on board. It is to be hoped this fish is not being sold on consignment.

The Krakatoa Volcanic Eruption.

One of the greatest eruptions in the world's history was that of Krakatoa, which occurred in August, 1883. Krakatoa was a small island, situated in the Straits of Sunda, between Sumatra and Java. In appearance, from the surface of the sea, it was an island with one small mountain upon it 3,000ft. high; but, in reality, this was only a small portion of the craters of a huge volcano, situated under the sea, and, although it had not shown its power within the memory of man, it was still alive, and ready to burst forth in fiery fury. Early in 1883 the white-hot lava began to swell up under the sea, which caused the water to boil and clouds of steam to arise. Gradually the volcano grew more ferocious, and by Sunday, August 26 the whole crater was in full force—a burning hell of molten lava upon the surface of the sea. Then commenced a battle between fire and water. Thousands of tons of seawater poured into the crater in glistening floods, only to be repelled and converted into vapour by the fire. Every time the water came into contact with the heat, it caused an explosion, and towards the end of the battle these explosions merged into one deafening roar. This continued until the next morning (Monday), when the fight ended with one triumphant explosion, which was heard as far as the island of Rodri-guez, 3,080 miles distant—and the sea had won. During the battle, the stupendous collisions between fire and water caused fearful tidal waves, which dashed upon the shores of Java and Sumatra, on each side of the Strait of Sunda. Every village and town upon these coasts was destroyed, and about 40,000 human lives were lost. At one place, the water caught hold of a war vessel lying at anchor, and threw it upon a high hill, where it landed in a forest. Within a radius of 100 miles from Krakatoa, the sea was covered with lava, dust, ashes, and debris, rendering it almost impassable to ships, and the different aspect of the landscape after the eruption was extraordinary. The contour of the coasts on each side was completely changed, whole islands sank under the waves, and new ones arose where none had stood before; mountains changed places with lakes, and vice-versa. The war of the elements then ended for the time being, and the crater of Krakatoa is under the ocean; but whether extinct or merely dormant is unknown.

The Battle of Crecy.

During the first French war, when Edward III was King, Philip of France, leaving Abbeville at sunrise on Saturday, August 26, 1346, toiled with his soldiers to Crecy, where the army of Edward awaited his approach. The men, 30,000 in number, were drawn up in three lines, the Prince of Wales, then only 15 years of age, commanding the first, the Earl of Arundel the second, and Edward the third line. The falling back of his vanguard, when it came within view of the English, disordered Philip's army; but he contrived hastily to throw his force of 120,000 men into three lines. The first consisted of Genoese crossbowmen, the second was led by the Count of Alencon, and the third by Philip in person. As the armies faced each other the sky grew dark, and rain and thunder followed. The sun, however, shone again at five o'clock in the afternoon, when the Genoese, armed with cross-bows, advanced to the attack in a huge mass. But all at once a shower of arrows began to pour upon them with a force that neither shield nor armour could withstand, so they fled. Vainly the cavalry of Alencon strove to stem the flight, while the French King tried to pierce the phalanx of arches which stood between him and his routed horsemen. The loss of the English was very small, although eleven princes, twelve hundred knights, and thirty thousand common soldiers are said to have fallen in the battle, and in the carnage of the next day, John, the Blind King of Bohemia, was among the slain, and his standard, on which were embroidered in gold three ostrich feathers, and the motto "Ich Dien," was seized and given to the Prince of Wales in memory of that remarkable day.

MASSEY GIVEN SEND-OFF.

LONDON, Aug. 24.
Premier W. F. Massey, who sails on Thursday for Canada, enroute to New Zealand, was given a farewell dinner to-night by the New Zealand community in London. A souvenir perial Air Fleet Committee, in commemoration of the presentation by New Zealand of aeroplanes in 1913 and 1917. Lord Milner, speaking in reference to the Imperial Conference, said that amid many things which were going wrong, the Imperial Conference went distinctly right. He paid a tribute to the work of Dominion Premiers, but he considered however, that an imperial constitution was necessary, and he declared a constitution in some form would become absolutely inevitable. It might not be written legislation, but it would certainly be something more tangible than the present arrangement. Premier Massey declared the conference had laid the foundation of a great imperial structure, which would be a blessing to millions yet unborn. He declared the conference constituted a definite partnership of British Nations, with the King as the common head. Decisions of the conference had, been so framed, that they could only be put into operation by the King.

The Horseless Carriage.

(A weekly column devoted to the interests of the Motoring Public.)

As there seems to be considerable dissatisfaction among some small car owners, who think they are entitled to a rebate on the taxes paid last year, we have succeeded in obtaining the following explanation covering the matter:

The Rebate on 1920 Taxes for Motor Cars.

"The intention of the Act was to place all small cars in one class that would pay $35 license, then to make another class that would pay $50, and a third class that would pay $75. When those who were responsible for the drafting of the Bill were considering how to place the various cars, they made an enquiry from the Municipal Council as to the Horse power of such cars as the Ford, and were informed that the Ford was under 20 Horse power. Because of this, the Bill was drafted that cars "up to 20 H.P." would pay $35." Later it was discovered that the actual horse power of the Ford was in excess of 20 H.P. and the Ford owners, who comprise a large proportion of the motorists in St. John's, were compelled to pay $50, which they felt to be an excessive tax and which they were given to understand was not in accordance with the intention of the Act. A recommendation was therefore made that a rebate be given in each case so as to carry out the spirit rather than the letter of the Act, and, after repeated efforts on the part of the Motor Association, their request in this matter has been acceded to. It is understood that owners of other small cars feel that they are entitled to some reduction of the tax paid in 1920, but the foregoing explains the intention of the original Act when drafted; first, that the motorists should be taxed so as to provide the necessary money for road improvements, and secondly, that the cars should be grouped into three distinct classes paying taxes of $35, $50, and $70 respectively."

A well intentioned motorist has suggested that we advise parents in this column re the desirability of keeping their young children off the public streets and thereby lessen the risk of their being run down by motor cars. We think not. Seventy-five per cent. of the children of this city simply have to play on the street, because there is nowhere else for them to play, and we think anything in the nature of advice that might keep even one child confined to the house on the few fine days we have in summer, would be most selfish. Of course the youngsters might play in the Parks, but what healthy kid wants to play in a place where he has to "keep off the grass," keep out of the flower beds, etc., etc. The grown up athlete is well looked after with St. George's Field, and now the Parade Ground, but it is the youngster of between six and fourteen, who has to find his own playground either in a vacant lot or in the middle of the street. If some of the money that is wanted in other things in this city was employed in providing two public playgrounds for young children, similar to those conducted during the summer months in all Canadian towns of importance, from Halifax to Vancouver, with a superintendent in charge to organize different games, results would certainly be shown in the health of some youngsters of this town, who at present spend the summer months inhaling the dust and dried dirt of the back streets. Till some such scheme is started the children simply have to play on the street, and it is up to the motorist—even if he has to crawl through the city streets,—not to run over the youngsters. Any advice we can give parents in regard to educating their children to look out for approaching cars and to cut out the silly game of running across the street towards an approaching car, turning around half way, and running back, would, however, be well advised.

We made a resolve when this column was started that we would not slip in any free advertising. Subject, however, to editorial sanction, we are this week going to deviate a little from this rule to give a "boost" to an ingenious device which was recently brought to our notice, and which we think will be a perfect Godsend to most motorists, especially those who look after their own car. Everybody knows what a disagreeable job it is washing a car especially in cold weather. This device (which is an inexpensive outfit known as the "Wonder Mist," and consists of a sprayer and a can of some harmless liquid), does away with all slopping around with a sponge and cold water. You simply squirt the liquid over the car (body, cushions and all) with the sprayer, give it a rub off with a soft rag, and immediately all mud, grease, dirt, etc., is removed and you have apparently what is a new car. We suggest to the agent for this device that an advertisement in this paper calling the attention of motorists to it, would probably sell a gross of them, especially if it were arranged to give car owners a demonstration.

The Newfoundland motorist, in nine instances out of ten, is the most good natured individual existing. For instance, suppose Mr. Motorist has a misfortune to run over a hen, sheep, cow or other of the farmyard animals that parade our country roads, in nearly every instance he will stop and settle up for the deceased animal, notwithstanding that the price asked is usually "blood money" in all the meanings of the term. As a matter of fact we should be very interested in hearing from one of our legal friends exactly what liability (if any) a motorist incurs when he runs over an animal that is grazing in the public road. Are not horses, cows, chickens, etc., left on the public roads, wandering there at their owner's risk? If they get damaged, is there any liability on the part of the motorist to settle up, or does he do so just from good nature. Take a cow, for instance. We have yet to see the cow that can make up her mind which side of the road she wants to occupy when a car is approaching, and, however careful a driver may be, it is sometimes impossible to prevent charging the bovine in the southwest corner. Well, the public road is the correct place for the motorist—it is certainly not the correct place for the cow. In the case of a collision between the two, should the motorist be liable? (A witty driver with whom we discussed the point, during the week, suggests that we advocate a campaign to supply cows with "tail lights". We might think of this if our friend will undertake to go around and see that they are lit up each evening.)

We call the attention of whoever's business it is to look after Manuel's Bridge, to the disgraceful condition of same. On one side, over half the railing is down, and if a skittish horse should meet a car at this particular point, the team would be extremely likely to land down in the river, with a very considerable risk of loss of life or injury to the occupants. A few dollars spent on this bridge would be money very well invested. "MR. DUNLOP."

Trepassey Notes.

When Rev. Father O'Flaherty left here several months ago, universal regret was felt by his people, as during his sojourn here of 5 years he had endeared himself to all, and his departure caused much sorrow to his parishioners. His successor, Rev. Father Wilson, has been here three months and during that time has won the hearts of all. His sermons are most edifying and his cheering words have infused new life in his people, who in him have an adviser in their troubles and trials. In Father Wilson we have a noble priest of whom we feel proud. We pray that God may spare the Rev. gentleman many years to labour amongst us as a loyal son of our Holy Church, and that his labour in God's vineyard will be productive of much good. His determination to put down strong liquor is most commendable and deserves the strongest support. The trap fishery here has been very poor. In the early part of the season a few good hauls were made, but unfortunately the success was of short duration, and the summer's voyage turned out much below the average. We believe that had fishermen been fitted out a week earlier that much more fish would have been procured, and we have no doubt that had supplies been issued a week sooner, many hundreds of quintals of fish would have been secured.—COR. Aug. 24, 1921.

For twenty hours this food is baked—one reason you like it—another reason why it digests so easily.

One of the important things in connection with any cereal food is to have it thoroughly baked or cooked. For baking or cooking changes the starch of the grains.

Grape-Nuts is the longest baked of all cereal foods. It is scientifically baked at carefully regulated temperatures for 20 hours. This is one of the reasons why Grape-Nuts digests so easily; why it agrees with many people who cannot take any other form of cereal without producing fermentation.

A goodly part of Grape-Nuts is converted into dextrose, ready to be immediately assimilated by the system, and yield strength and energy. A further portion has partially undergone this change, while there remains sufficient unchanged cereal to strengthen the digestive organs. It is then in a condition to meet the various requirements of the digestive system.

If you want to eat a most strengthening and nourishing food, and one that will digest more readily, go to your grocer today and get a package of Grape-Nuts. Eat it with stewed fruit or as a cereal with milk or cream; or make it into an appetizing pudding.

Every member of the family will enjoy its delicious flavor and wholesomeness.

THE CHILD WHO FAILS TO THINK

A Letter Friend has a plaint to make to-day. It represents an experience which she and a friend both had and she wants to know if I think it is a common one, and if it ought not to be avoidable.

This Letter Friend gave some money to some of her young friends who were graduating from high school to buy themselves graduation presents. She is a woman in moderate circumstances and the gift was not large, but it did represent a sacrifice and this is how the sacrifice was rewarded.

The Very Things She Went Without—These girls out of a class of mine at High School did not acknowledge the money we gave. The girls would make their own selection and there is where a part of the hurt comes in—sheer bought the very things I went without to be able to give.

"Now if these little gifts at graduation are not worthy of recognition it is time the custom of gifts was omitted."

All these girls are the cream of the valley. We are proud of them. One had credits enough for college entrance. But why, oh why, are they not "ought courtesies?"

Why, indeed? I suppose because their parents simply do not realize how they label themselves and handicap their children by neglecting such teaching. The Will of Human Kindness Seated, Nothing sours the milk of human kindness more quickly than failure to show gratitude for gifts and courtesies.

My Letter's Friend's reaction is typical—"If these little gifts at graduation are not worthy of acknowledgment, then it is time the custom was discontinued."

One gives not for gratitude, but because one likes to give, one does favors because one likes to help, but there are always plenty of directions in which one can send one's gifts and service, and one turns naturally to those directions where one receives the encouragement and stimulation of acknowledgment and appreciation. Children are thoughtless about these things and are likely to be neglectful unless prodded, and that is what I mean by the parents labelling themselves by the child's discourtesy.

I sent a steamer present to a little girl who is going away on a sea trip. I have never heard one word from her.

A Grateful Letter.

Some days after that I sent two little girls some ten-cent store vanity cases. (I had heard that they were displaying envelopes with bits of glass and rough towel as their vanity cases, and thought it an opportunity to give much pleasure at small outlay.) I have already received two grateful letters thanking me over and over for the "lovely vanity case and powder puff and powder."

Yet the first little girl is just as nice as the others. Only she has not been made to realize that such small courtesies should be acknowledged.

This is the day of the child. In many homes children are so thoroughly accustomed to being constantly considered and never asked to make any return that they get the take-it-for-granted habit. It is not a good habit. It will not stand out into a grown-up world. Wise is the parent who tries to overcome this tendency.

WELL ENOUGH ALONE.

Old Bill, who once was kaiser, now runs his sawing mill, and had he acted wiser, he might be kaiser still. A gift - bespangled sinner, he ruled a mighty realm, and Prussia seemed a winner, with Wilhelm at the helm. He might have kept on ruling, before the awe-struck crowd, till he was old and drooping, and ready for the shroud, had he cut out the scheming that proved to be no good; but he was fond of dreaming—and now he's sawing wood. Alas, no wizard, gnome-eyed, approached the monarch's throne, to hand him out this bromide, "Let well enough alone!" No prophet or fore-caster, no seers in double teams, explored the royal master to can the hopjont dreams. So Wilhelm went on planning—and now he's whackig aim. With rusty saws and axes he lays the hemlock low, and he must pay his taxes like John or Richard Roe. But few of us are kaisers, and few of us have thrones; we're mostly early risers who rustle for the bones. But many are disgusted with "well enough," I know; and some day they'll be busted, and full of shrewd woe, because some fool ambition has led them far astray; the "well enough" condition can't please the hophead jay. Old Bill, that outcast critter, might still be on his throne, had he known when to twitter, "Let well enough alone."

The air over the white sand is as light and feelingless to my skin as complete, comfortable clothing. On one side it the dark river; on the other the dark jungle full of gentle rustling, low, velvet breaths of sound; and I slip into the water and swim out. Then I turn over and see along with the almost tangible sunlight flooding down on face and head.

Suddenly the whole air is broken by the chorus of big red balloons, which rise and tumble toward me in masses of sound along the surface and tremble, echoing on over shore and jungle, till hurled back by the answering chorus of another clan. It is one to the marrow, for there is no more in it than mere moaning of misery; and I turn wearily and surge back toward the sand, panting now, making companionable mistakes.

And then again I stop, treading water, with face alone between water and sky; for the monkeys have ceased and very faint and low, but muffled in wonderful minor harmony comes another chorus—from three spots down the river; the convicts sing hymns in their cells at midnight. And I ground gently and sit the silvered shadows with little be-whorled shrimps flicking against me, and unlanguage smiles, too poignant phrases to be stopped and fettered with words, and I am neither content nor man nor naked organ, but just mind.

With the coming of silence I look around and again consciously take in my surroundings. I am very glad to be alive, and to know that the possible dangers of jungle and water have not kept me from and indoors. I feel, somehow, that my very daring and gentle slipping off of all signs of dominance and protection on entering into this realm had made friends of all the rare but humble serpents and scorpions, sting and peril, vampires and electric eels. For awhile I knew the happiness of being.

And I think of people who would have more loyal lives in dense communities, who would be more tolerant and more certain of straightforward friendship, if they could have a background a fundamental hour of being such as this, a haven for the soul of what, in comparison, seems so insignificant.

"Laugh and grow fat" is an old maxim. We advise the use of good tonic, named "Brix's Tonic." Price $1.00; postage extra—$0.25.

Harbor Grace Notes.

We note, with interest, the good work which is being done by Amos Martin, a former Harbor Gracian, but now residing in Sydney, N.S., and since becoming Inspector under the N.S.T.A. for that city is certainly accomplishing much, as the following shows:—Tom DeVoe of Charlotte St. was arrested recently by Inspector Martin on a charge of bootlegging. DeVoe has been suspected for some time about the public highways. Martin followed him about for several hours on Thursday evening and finally obtained the goods which he sought at DeVoe's place of business. He found in the back shop a suitcase, to all appearances specially constructed for juggling about a gallon tin of liquor. The receptacle inside the bag contained a quart of overproof rum and this the Inspector seized, he declares. DeVoe was halted before court and is now out on bail of five hundred dollars. On the same evening Inspector Martin says he made a seizure of liquor at the premises of Tom Striker, a colored man residing at the Coke Ovens. Striker is out on bail of three hundred dollars and will appear in court on Monday, as well as DeVoe. Inspector Martin now has nine cases pending in court. In the five weeks he has acted as an inspector he has secured 14 convictions, obtaining fines amounting to $2,700." Harbor Grace is always pleased to hear of the success of their sons in the land of their adoption and to Mr. Martin we extend our very best wishes, that his efforts may still continue to prove worthy of mention.

With the Rod.

The water in the Humber River is now very low.

Harold Braks, of Humbermouth, caught three grise at Hard Scramble last week.

W. J. Boland caught a twenty pound salmon at Little Rapids one day last week.

Rev. H. Petley returned home last week from a fishing trip up the Humber, having caught several splendid salmon, the heaviest weighing about 29 pounds.

Alex. Dunphy went up the Humber the latter part of last week on a fishing trip and returned Monday with two very fine salmon. He was fishing at Little Rapids.

O. Brown and W. McCarthy had a day of good fishing at Hard Scramble and Little Rapids, Humber River, last week and landed five fish weighing 8, 14½, 15½, 20 and 22 pounds respectively.

Dr. Clayton, who is staying at the Log Cabin, Spruce Brook, had good fishing at Harry's Brook last week. On Wednesday he caught 2 fish weighing 6 and 8 pounds respectively, and on Thursday he landed two others, weighing 6 and 14 pounds respectively.

Parties on Curling, who visited Hard Scramble on Sunday, found the fish very scarce. They were informed by persons camped there that at mid-night on Saturday some unknown parties arrived and swept the oxbow, with the result that on Sunday the fish had all moved off into deep water.

His Excellency the Governor had splendid fishing one day last week on the Terra Nova River, and landed two very fine fish, and had several other tries. He saw numerous salmon in the pools and the day was all that could be desired. He never thought salmon were so plentiful in any river in this country.—Western Star.

Wm. Griffiths asked that attention be given to drain, Power Street. This was referred to the City Engineer for inquiry.

Application of T. Barrett, Bellevue Street, for sewerage installation was referred to the City Engineer.

Permit was ordered to be given W. H. Ebsary to erect garage on Mundy Pond Road.

Joseph Ryan will not be permitted to continue further with erection of dwelling, Mill Bridge, as it does not conform with street line.

The arrangements made by the Committee of Council with the Newfoundland Amateur Athletic Association for the Parade Grounds were confirmed.

In connection with the request of the St. John's Gaslight Company, that they be exempted from the tax on gas coal (raw material) for manufacturing purposes, it was unanimously decided that recommendation be made to the Government that the Company be relieved from the said tax for two years, beginning September 1st, 1921.

The Committee, appointed to consider the financing of a loan for Civic improvement, reported having gone into the matter carefully, and found that the Council could not, under its Charter, raise money by bond issue for the purposes mentioned. They also pointed out that certain sections dealing with the raising of loans were somewhat inconsistent, and that while in one section, powers were given to the Council to raise money for certain purposes, they were debarr'd by another section from doing so.

The reports of the City Engineer, Health Officer, and other Departments were read.

After disposing of several minor matters and passing the Payrolls and Bills, the meeting adjourned.

WEEKLY MEETING.

The weekly meeting of the Municipal Council was held Thursday evening at 4 o'clock. Mayor Morris presided, and Commissioners Vinland, Foy, Jackman and Collier were present.

The Minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed, after which the following business was disposed of:

The City Engineer stated that, during the week, he sent some of the hose, used in connection with night testing of water mains, to the Central Fire Hall, to have some slight repairs made to couplings, as the only instruments for this work were in the possession of the Fire Department, and the work could not be done otherwise in the City. Chief Dunne of the Department, refused to allow any of the men to repair the hose. In view of the fact that the work of night testing of mains is a most important one, it was thought, from a public standpoint, the refusal of the Department to assist the Council was most unreasonable.

Communications were read from the Newfoundland Motor Association, as follows: (1) in reference to the practice of transferring numbers from one car to another, without authority of the Council, and also using one set of numbers for two cars, this is a violation of the Motor Car Regulations, and will be taken up with the Police Department; (2) Drawing Council's attention to the danger of "blind corners" at Bennett's Mill and Clever Roads, King's Bridge and Forest Roads, and that, in order to prevent accidents, the matter should be immediately attended to.

The Secretary of the T.P.U. called attention to the condition of the Water Street pavement near the car rails. The Street Railway Company will be communicated with regarding same.

Mr. Walter Clouston, Secretary Treasurer, General Provisions Commodity Committee, wrote in reference to land taken to widen the Topsail Road, for which he contended—no arrangements had been made as to purchase. Mr. Clouston will be asked to call at the Office and see the arbitration record, in connection with this matter.

DO YOU SELL SUGAR?

We say that if you retail sugar out of a barrel you should figure 1 cent per pound cover cost of bags, twine, time, tear and wear on your scales, loss of 2 or 3 ounces, and there.

If your clerks are human they will make mistakes, they will waste a bag or two and then, they will waste a little sugar here and there. Why, even you make mistakes.

Tell your clerks to weigh up 30-1 lb. bags, 30-2 lb. bags, 30-7 lb. bags; see how long it takes to do this, count the bags spoiled, figure on the twine used, note what other work is being held up whilst the weighing and parcelling is being done.

Note how many customers leave your store because your clerks are too busy to attend to them. Compare the weight turned out with the weight you paid for. You'll find that 1 cent per lb. is a fair estimate of your loss in retailing sugar out of a barrel.

Lantic Sugar in yellow packages costs you less than 1 cent per lb. over the price inrels and you don't have to guess at your cost. You know it.

C. L. B. Cadets.

Last night Avalon Battalion paraded under command of Lieut. Col. R. G. Ash, with the following officers:—Major Williams, Quartermaster; Captains Herbert O'Connell, Frank Miles; Lieut. Col. R. G. Ash, Phil B. Reynolds, R. G. Ash, Fred Reid, Harold A. Mott, Fred Reid, Harold A. Mott, and the following:—Adjutant, Brian Henry. (Adjutant, Brian Henry). The Battalion marched down the railway track and returned to the barracks at the Armory, where the parade was held. The parade was not on duty. The parade was held to discuss the final tactics generally was posted at the barracks next Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. sharp—when every member of the Battalion was expected to attend unless granted exemption. The Brigade Band unfortunately "has gone out of business" and is waiting re-organisation. It is expected that the Brigade Band, expert Sergeant Major Bursell, and other members of the Band, will be re-organised. The Brigade Band are now organizing a Company at that progress—two ex-Army officers have volunteered their services for the movement—the H.Q. of the "new baby" health and professional Private Bartlett of A. C. has been selected as Quartermaster of the Battalion for duty with the Army. Capt. Henry and his wife have been busy lately, having been a heavy welcome to Cambridge who is home from Headquarters and London. The Brigade are indebted to the ladies for courtesies which they have given in England. The Honorary Treasurer, Capt. G. G. Fletcher, has given the Honorary Treasurer, and Lieut. Perkins is appointed Assistant Adjutant. Lt.-Col. G. G. Fletcher has noted in orders his appreciation of the valuable services rendered by all ranks at the Annual Sports recently—special congratulations, as well as to the H. Willis on being awarded the Cross of St. George in September, the "Crack" squad" under the command of Sergeant Major Randell will give an exhibition of their skill in pyramids to those attending the Garden Party of the Royal Bandmasters' Association. The Brigade are also to go along. News from the Brigade under Captain G. G. Fletcher is very satisfactory. The Brigade are very successful in their hand of their own—wishing good progress and wishing more of them later.—Q.

WATCH YOUR FEET!

Dr. Scholl's Foot-Eazer "EASES THE FEET"

Hurting, burning, tender foot, cramped toes, "rheumatic" foot and leg pains, are often due to weakened or fallen longitudinal arches. In all such cases, Dr. Scholl's Foot-Eazer can be depended upon to give immediate relief.

It springs up the arch, bridging the weight from the heel to the ball of the foot and induces solid foot comfort. Worn in your regular shoes—no larger size or "freaky" shape required. In fact, it materially improves the appearance of the shoe and foot, and enables one to wear the smart, well-fitting shoes of the present styles without the slightest discomfort.

There is a Dr. Scholl Appliance or Remedy for Every Foot Trouble

If you have corns, bunions, calluses, enlarged joints, flat-foot, weak arch, cramping toes, run-over heels, weak ankles, overlapping toes, perspiring feet or any other foot trouble, it can be quickly relieved and corrected.

"Watch Your Feet"

C. L. B. Cadets.

Last night Avalon Battalion paraded under command of Lieut. Col. R. F. Goodridge with the following officers on duty—Major Williams, Quarter-master, Captains Herbert Outerbridge, Frank Miles, Lieutenants Lance, Edward R. G. Ash, Phil B. Rendell, A. Moty, Fred Reid, Harold Hayward, and the following in music, Captain Henry (Adj.) and W. Norman. The Battalion marched on the old railway track and returned via Freshwater Road to the Armoury. The Band was not on duty. The Officers' meeting was postponed to Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock sharp—when every member present unless granted special leave. The Bugle Band unfortunately "has gone out of business" and is waiting re-organization. It misses the expert Sgt. Major Bursell now in charge of Topsisal detachment, who one time made famous "Bursell's Bugle Band." We hear that the Church at Grand Falls are now organizing a Company at that progressive town—two ex-Army officers having volunteered their services to help the movement—the H.Q. wishes the "new baby" health and prosperity. Private Bartlett of A. Co. is expected to be Lance Corporal and is attached to the Quartermaster's Department for duty with the Armourer Sgt. Capt. Henry and his duty squad have been busy lately, having the entire interior of the Armoury scrubbed and he has had a good job of it. We extend a hearty welcome to Captain Outerbridge who is home from visiting Headquarters and London. Several of the Cadets are indebted to him for their briefs and whatnot abroad, on their behalf. Lieut. Fletcher, retired, now resides in England, has been given the Honorary rank of Captain and Lieut. Perlin is appointed Assistant Adjutant Lt.-Col. Goodridge has noted in orders his appreciation of the valuable services rendered by all ranks at the Annual Outdoor Sports recently—especially to the Sgt. Major Rendell and the grand squad. Serjts. Best, Hooker, Corp. Rees, F. Roberts, "Old Guard," gate officials and Committee. The prizes won at the Orphanage have now arrived—including the "Jack Ball" and Lieut. Perlin will arrange shortly for their distribution at the Armoury. Corp. W. Field has been awarded a five year long-service medal for good conduct, and we extend to him our congratulations, as well as to Drum Major H. Willar on being awarded his year good conduct medal. On the 24th September, the "Crackerjack Athletic squad" under the command of Sgt. Major Rendell will visit St. John's to give an exhibition of their gymnastic feats to those attending the Queen Party of the Rev. John and Bismarck Morris. It is hoped that some of his musical experts also to go along. News from Bay Sports Company under Captain-Jack's leadership is very encouraging. They have recently and recently killed a full size band of their own—which is a big step forward and we hope to see more of them later.—Q.

Memorial Poems.

We thank Mr. Henry Polk Lewenstein of Kansas City, Missouri, for a copy of his little volume of memorial poems. The poems contained in this volume are of varying merit, some of them being indeed excellent. His answer to "In Flanders Field" is Mr. Lewenstein's best known poem. To the title with you've kept and settled with the foe; stream of life by you we've slept where poppies blow, the blinding hands we've bravely held to guard you thro' the night, at the Dawn to guide you to the light, you awake from Flanders Field."

Personal.

Mr. W. J. Power of Amherst, N.B., is present in Carboneau on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Jas. Goff, whom he has seen for 62 years. Mr. Power is President of the Amherst Club of Trade.

Mr. Ray Harvey is now in New York City and will probably be away another month.

Mr. Canon Jones arrived by yesterday's express from Brooklyn, B.B., where he had been spending his vacation.

Mr. Percy A. Holmwood, director of the well known firm of London, Toronto, Montreal and St. John's, is at the city. Mr. Holmwood is accompanied by his wife, who is staying at the Croble-Hotel and will remain here three weeks.
