TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.
CREDIT VALLEY RAILWAY MEETING.
We notice that Mr. Geo. Laidlaw intends to hold a meeting in the interest of the Credit Valley Railway in Erin Village on Thursday the 7th.
The outgoing freight from Clifford for six days ending 22nd of February amounted to $2,866.16, and the passengers fares reached the sum of $275. Good for Clifford.
COUNTY LODGE.—The annual meeting of the L. O. L. County Lodge, North Wellington, met at Fergus on Tuesday last, when the following officers were elected: John Witters, Co. Master; Jas. Johnstone, Deputy Co. Master; J. W. Armstrong, Co. Secretary; W. G. Culloden, Co. Treasurer.

We learn that the Township of Nelson on Monday last, unanimously passed a petition to His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, praying him not to assent to the act amending the Credit Valley Bill which was intended to impose a tax on that portion of the Township which had given a majority, by vote against the By-law.
ACCIDENT AT THE GRAND TRUNK STATION.
—Mr. McLaren, baggage-man at the G. T. Station, had a very narrow escape yesterday from a serious if not fatal accident. When the afternoon express came in, he was going along the platform pushing a heavy truck filled with baggage, and when he got to the end of the station house a heavy gust of wind caught it and swept it on to the track in front of the engine, which was in motion. He ran after it, thinking the cowcatcher would throw it to one side, but got caught between the engine and the platform, and had his right shoulder dislocated. He is almost miraculously that he was not killed. He was attended to by Dr. Brock, and we hope will soon be able to attend to his duties again. The truck was all broken up and one end smashed into fragments.

CONVENTION OF BLACKSMITHS, &c.—The Harrison Tribune says:—A Convention was held in Mr. Allan's Hall, on Wednesday, 28th inst. Mr. Patmore was called to the chair, and B. Mitchell appointed Secretary. There were present from Mt. Forest, Swan, Honey, Murphy and Watt; from Harrison, Patmore Bros., Fisher & Irwin, B. Gihuly and B. Mitchell; from Clifford, J. Taylor and Jos. Andrews; from Wroter, James Orr. The Convention was called with the object of raising the prices, on account of the enhanced value of iron, agreeing upon a uniform tariff, and, if possible, curtailing the present excessive credit. The propriety of forming a County or North Riding Convention, with a subordinate Convention in each village was favorably considered. A large delegation will attend a meeting to be held at Mount Forest, on Friday, March 1st. It was the intention that a general price-list should be there drawn up, to be considered by the workmen of the various villages, and thereafter finally agreed upon by a general meeting to be called at a central point at an early day.

THE INSOLVENT LIST.—Says the Monetary Review reverting to the three score and ten Insolvents of this young year, named in our issue of last week, we have since seen a letter from the County of Victoria, pretty well north, which shows that their financial affairs are working pretty close up there. Says this gentleman, "All of us engaged in Dry Goods are suffering trials and troubles this winter; there have been several failures within a few months in this section, and the selling of bankrupt stocks has made trade very dull. Our merchants will nearly all to a greater or less degree require some consideration at the hands of their creditors. Those with capital may weather it through; those without it will not unlikely have to succumb."
Some intensely loyal inhabitants of the English country town of Kingston, Surrey, have been so much provoked by the delivery of Republican sentiments by Mr. Odger, the workingman candidate for Parliamentary honours, that they made an onslaught on the meeting he was addressing, smashed the windows, and caused the speaker to take safety in flight.

QUITE A COMOTION has been caused among the grocery trade of Toronto, by the announcement of the failure of Mr. Wm. Adamson who was doing business on Yonge street, and at the Market, under the style of the Toronto Tea Company. We have been shown a statement of the liabilities amounting to over $40,000, which are generally distributed among the best firms in the wholesale grocery trade of Toronto and Montreal. The assets are in the neighborhood of $33,000 to $34,000.

"Mind Your Own Business."

On Monday night Mr. S. Capper, the great temperance orator, appeared in the Town Hall and delivered an excellent lecture on the above subject, under the auspices of the I. O. of Good Templars. The attendance was the largest we have seen in a long time, the Hall being well filled. On the platform were the officers of the Lodge in regalia, and Mr. Brill being called to the chair, after the usual form of opening, in some flattering remarks introduced the speaker of the evening.

Mr. Capper, on coming forward, was received with great applause. In opening the lecture he made a laughable reference to that class of people who were continually prying into other people's business, and who went to a great deal of trouble to report their researches; and who, when people of their own class made enquiries of them, very abruptly would tell them to mind their own business. He divided his address into four parts, the first of which was, "The business of a Government." The duty of a government was to do the greatest possible good to the greatest possible number, and what was the wish of the majority was to be granted. The Government of Ontario had restricted the sale of liquor for the purpose, they said, of reducing evil. They had admitted that the sale of liquor was wrong, and we temperance men would go farther and say abolish the traffic from the land, and not leave one vestige of the evil—and how much better it would be. A person who wishes to sell liquor must procure a certificate of good character before he can procure a license, but how are they treated after they have procured this. This same government that asks for a good character before granting such a privilege, will not accept any statements emanating from them on any important particulars, and class them along with people of bad character. He then made a very striking comparison between the horrible ceremonies of some of the heathen nations—such as the drawing of the ear of Juggernaut, throwing the children into the Ganges, &c.—with the slaughtering of thousands by the sale of liquor every year. After touching upon the duty of citizens to their neighbors, the lecturer passed on to "the business of a parent."

Many parents were in the habit of loading their children with precepts, and showing them the road they should follow and which would carry them through safely. Without the force of example this advice generally proved useless, and yet parents would be blind to the cause of the ruin of their children. "The business of a Christian" was to abstain from the traffic and use of liquor, so as to live that no person shall mistake the indications of his profession. Between the Grace of God and strong drink there was a great difference, and they would never intermingle. A drinking Christian was like a false lighthouse which led many on to destruction. It was written that "no drunkard shall enter the Kingdom of Heaven," which was a fearful warning to all who indulged in the reprehensible habit. The fourth clause was devoted to the mind-your-own-business class of people, upon which he descended in laughable terms. Drunkards chiefly composed this class, and it is often said that a close application to business showed its effects, which saying obtained no significance in the appearance of a drunkard's clothing. These persons were always ready to tell people to mind their own business, and they would mind theirs, but how well they looked after their own business is easily seen. Mr. Capper then gave some beautiful and eloquent illustrations of the noble feelings which prompted people to risk their own lives for the preservation of those of their fellow-creatures. Temperance men should always be prompted by this noble enthusiasm, and make desperate efforts for the preservation of life and the furtherance of the cause. "With an eloquent appeal to all engaged in the cause to be up and doing, and to follow unflinchingly the banner they had unfurled, the lecturer concluded amid thunders of applause.

During the address Mr. Capper sang several pieces of temperance music in fine style to Mrs. Molton's accompaniment.
Mr. Howie, in a few complimentary terms, moved a vote of thanks, which was seconded and carried unanimously. Mr. Capper replied suitably, and stated that he might again have the pleasure of appearing before a Guelph audience before his departure for England. After singing the closing ode the audience dispersed, highly pleased with the discourse they had listened to.

ACCIDENT TO MRS. HARRIET BECHER STOWE.—A despatch from Jacksonville, Fla., of the 29th ult., announces that Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe has met with a very serious accident at her residence in Mandarin. She was standing on a high table arranging the drapery of her window, and stepping backward her feet caught in her hoop skirt and she fell to the floor, striking the base of her brain on the sharp edge of a bedstead, while her back fell on the table. Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher, Dr. Stowe, and a daughter of Mrs. Stowe ran to her aid. She was picked up insensible. The latest despatch from Mrs. Stowe announces a great improvement in her condition and the probability that she will recover.

THE GREAT GOLD DISCOVERIES.
Sioux City, Iowa, March 5.—The excitement over the recent gold discoveries is steadily on the increase. Major Pease, agent for the Crow Indians in North Western Dakota, arrived here to-day. He says the reports are far below the facts in the case. He brings several rich specimens, and says that the tribe over which he has charge have long known the location of rich deposits of gold, and have repeatedly killed white men who attempted to penetrate the territory for the purpose of exploring it.
Philadelphia, March 4.—The granite building on Chesnut street, below Third street, was discovered to be on fire in the rear, fronting on Carter street, shortly after 9 o'clock. The flames soon spread from the third to the eighth story. The fire commenced in the third story, and the private watchman is unable to account for its origin. Loss probably covered by insurance.
Limerick, 11:15 p.m.—The flames are now coming out of the sixth story windows on Chestnut street, and the prospect of saving this splendid block from total destruction is almost hopeless. The stories above, however, show no signs of fire.
Philadelphia, March 5.—It is estimated that one million dollars worth of stock was damaged or destroyed by the fire last night.

Town Council.
The Council met on Monday night. Present—the Mayor in the Chair—Messrs Snider, Stevenson, Crowe, Bell, Bruce, Stewart, Allan, Mitchell, Howard, Robertson, McMillan.
Mr. Stevenson presented a petition from Alex. Ogg, asking for aid as he is in a destitute condition. Referred to Relief Committee.
Mr. Howard presented a petition from a number of ratepayers praying the Council to grant relief to Wm Smith, an old man in a destitute condition. Referred to Relief Committee.
Mr. McMillan presented a petition from H. Darby, asking to be appointed hide and skin inspector. Referred to Market House Committee.
Mr. Snider presented a petition from John Thomas Cunningham, asking the Council to publish in a Town newspaper a detailed statement of the Town Finances for the year. Referred to Finance Committee.
Mr. Robertson presented the report of the Fire & Water Committee.
The Committee report that in consideration of the want of water for fire purposes in that section of the West Ward, in the neighborhood of Hatch's Block, the Committee recommend that two or more tanks should be put down.
From complaints having been frequently made that the firemen living in the West part of the Town have experienced great difficulty in hearing the fire bell on the Market House, the Committee have agreed to recommend that a fire alarm bell be erected in some suitable place.
The Committee also recommend the purchase of say 300 feet of leather hose, as the present rubber hose is not to be depended on when the distance from the supply of water to a fire is considerable. The estimated cost of above will be somewhere about $400. For two tanks $250, alarm bell and tower $75.—Total $725.
The report was referred to the Finance Committee.
Mr. Stevenson brought under the notice of the Council the fact that the Assessors were this year assessing property at a higher rate than in former years. Several ratepayers had complained to him. He thought it would be better to put on a higher rate than to raise the value of property, for in this way the County only was benefited, as the County rate would be higher.
Mr. McMillan said the Assessors were sworn to do their duty to the best of their judgment, and they could not interfere with them. But the matter could be adjusted at the Court of Revision if any property was rated too high.
The Council then adjourned.

The Orangeville Resolutions on the Narrow Gauge.
We published last week a set of resolutions professing to have been passed by prominent citizens of Orangeville in favor of the Narrow Gauge, and as a set off to the strictures on the road by the Orangeville Advertiser. It now turns out that these resolutions were "cooked" after being passed. The Advertiser of that village says:—"After long debate, several resolutions being prepared and rejected, the committee last agreed to report one to the effect that the Road had been a great benefit to this Village. This resolution being put to the meeting was carried. We were all somewhat surprised, however, when we received the Toronto papers, on Saturday, to find resolutions published in them which were not passed at all. In the resolution passed there was not a word condemning newspaper reports, for all admitted that our article was true in every particular; nor was there any approval of the management. We do not believe that Mr. Gordon or any of the Directors would be guilty of such a bare-faced forgery. It must have been done by some of the paid servants of the line; probably the 'penny-liner,' who has had some experience in getting up false reports. Such conduct is simply disgraceful, and is sure to have a contrary effect to that intended."
The Advertiser goes on to say:—"We believe we did the Company a service in bringing the matter to public notice. All ready we hear of improvements. Mr. Orr, traffic superintendent, has been dismissed, and every one who knows anything of the matter will say, 'Served him right.' Mr. Orr was utterly devoid of the executive talent necessary to manage a railway. Mr. Wragge, the general manager, is said to be without any experience in the working of a railway, and it seems very strange that he should be appointed to such a position. The people of these municipalities voted large sums of money to the road, believing that it would be conducted for the benefit of the community; but now when they find the management in the hands of a lot of incompetent snobs, who have been pitchedforked into situations for which they are utterly unfit, it is no wonder that there is a universal feeling of indignation felt towards the Company. One of our shopkeepers who seemed to be most anxious at the meeting to pass a favorable resolution, told us since that he had goods shipped at Toronto ten days before they arrived at this station. Certainly the Road must be admirably managed to bring freight from Toronto to Orangeville, a distance of fifty miles in ten days! Talk of an 'ox team express' after that! Five miles per day for a railway! There might be some excuse for a slight delay from here to Toronto for want of cars, but there could be none from Toronto, as most of the cars come back empty. Then is there any excuse for the delay of mails to Charleston and Mount Forest? There has been no snow storm this winter, between here and Toronto, to prevent any railway running regularly, if properly conducted, but it is well known that the trains are 'scarcely ever on time.'"

The estimated cost of above will be somewhere about $400. For two tanks $250, alarm bell and tower $75.—Total $725.
The report was referred to the Finance Committee.
Mr. Stevenson brought under the notice of the Council the fact that the Assessors were this year assessing property at a higher rate than in former years. Several ratepayers had complained to him. He thought it would be better to put on a higher rate than to raise the value of property, for in this way the County only was benefited, as the County rate would be higher.
Mr. McMillan said the Assessors were sworn to do their duty to the best of their judgment, and they could not interfere with them. But the matter could be adjusted at the Court of Revision if any property was rated too high.
The Council then adjourned.

The Orangeville Resolutions on the Narrow Gauge.
We published last week a set of resolutions professing to have been passed by prominent citizens of Orangeville in favor of the Narrow Gauge, and as a set off to the strictures on the road by the Orangeville Advertiser. It now turns out that these resolutions were "cooked" after being passed. The Advertiser of that village says:—"After long debate, several resolutions being prepared and rejected, the committee last agreed to report one to the effect that the Road had been a great benefit to this Village. This resolution being put to the meeting was carried. We were all somewhat surprised, however, when we received the Toronto papers, on Saturday, to find resolutions published in them which were not passed at all. In the resolution passed there was not a word condemning newspaper reports, for all admitted that our article was true in every particular; nor was there any approval of the management. We do not believe that Mr. Gordon or any of the Directors would be guilty of such a bare-faced forgery. It must have been done by some of the paid servants of the line; probably the 'penny-liner,' who has had some experience in getting up false reports. Such conduct is simply disgraceful, and is sure to have a contrary effect to that intended."
The Advertiser goes on to say:—"We believe we did the Company a service in bringing the matter to public notice. All ready we hear of improvements. Mr. Orr, traffic superintendent, has been dismissed, and every one who knows anything of the matter will say, 'Served him right.' Mr. Orr was utterly devoid of the executive talent necessary to manage a railway. Mr. Wragge, the general manager, is said to be without any experience in the working of a railway, and it seems very strange that he should be appointed to such a position. The people of these municipalities voted large sums of money to the road, believing that it would be conducted for the benefit of the community; but now when they find the management in the hands of a lot of incompetent snobs, who have been pitchedforked into situations for which they are utterly unfit, it is no wonder that there is a universal feeling of indignation felt towards the Company. One of our shopkeepers who seemed to be most anxious at the meeting to pass a favorable resolution, told us since that he had goods shipped at Toronto ten days before they arrived at this station. Certainly the Road must be admirably managed to bring freight from Toronto to Orangeville, a distance of fifty miles in ten days! Talk of an 'ox team express' after that! Five miles per day for a railway! There might be some excuse for a slight delay from here to Toronto for want of cars, but there could be none from Toronto, as most of the cars come back empty. Then is there any excuse for the delay of mails to Charleston and Mount Forest? There has been no snow storm this winter, between here and Toronto, to prevent any railway running regularly, if properly conducted, but it is well known that the trains are 'scarcely ever on time.'"

THE WORK OF THE SESSION.

Any one who looks over the long list of bills passed during the late Session of the Legislative Assembly, which closed its sittings on Saturday, cannot but confess that it performed a surprising amount of work in a very short time.

Although the members of the Government had but a short time to prepare for the work of the session, they met the House ready to proceed with the public business.

The great feature of the present Government is its strict adherence to its pledges, and to the principles by which it and the Reform Party are distinguished.

An Act to incorporate the Bowmanville, Lindsay & Bobcaygeon Railway Company. An Act to allow matters to be proved under oath for the purposes of the Legislative Assembly.

An Act to make further provision touching the appropriation of the Railway Fund. An Act further to secure the independence of the Legislative Assembly.

An Act to amend the Act passed in the thirty-fourth year of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-eight and entitled, "An Act to incorporate the Credit Valley Railway Company," and to extend the powers conferred upon the Company.

sending Lewis into South Grey, or that any Government influence was employed during the election in that riding in its favour.

The Government by its honest and consistent course during the late session has earned the confidence of the people. It had a large and ever increasing majority of the people's representatives in the House, and we confidently believe that when the Legislature meets again, it will be able to congratulate its members and the Province on the beneficial results which have followed the legislation of the session just closed, and to bring down other measures, prepared during the recess, which will give a still greater impetus to the prosperity of the country.

The price it will be offered will be kept at $13, the old figure, until the 1st of April, when it will be raised to $15 in consequence of the advance in Iron and Steel. We should therefore recommend our farmer friends to lose no time in procuring one at Mr. John Horsman's Hardware Merchant of this town.

LOVE AND HONOUR.

A TALE OF THE CLYDE.

CHAPTER XX.

DAVID BRIDGEMOUTH TELLS HIS STORY.

After dinner, the little party returned to the parlour, and formed there into an interesting group to listen to the story which David Bridgemouth had to tell. In the large easy chair, into which he was almost led, he formed the centre of the group who gathered round him, with eager, expectant, tender solicitude—the expression on the face of each being farthest removed from mere curiosity, showing rather intense, affectionate interest, full of pity, sympathy, and love.

Helen occupied the low stool at his feet, with her arms laid upon his knees, her two hands fondly grasping his left hand, while his right gently stroked her forehead and her hair, as she gazed up with a deep, deep look of tenderest commiseration to his warm and furrowed face, whose broad and sunken lines spoke so plainly of the sorrow and suffering he had known so long.

Mrs Allerton sat opposite in another large chair, over the back of which leaned Edwin, while Ritchie had drawn his seat to the other side of David, strongly conscious of the inferiority of his station to the rest of the company, yet feeling in his honest nature a strength of affection and regard which gave him a title to be present to listen to the narrative of the returned wanderer.

At length Bridgemouth broke the silence. "It needs not," he said, "that I should repeat that which you already know—the history of my love and marriage. You have amongst you, been able to make each other acquainted with the various particulars up to the time of my second return to Allerton Hall. My object in quitting Glenfruin was to secure a home for my young wife and myself, who was known to her as yet only by the name of Waldgrave Winthrop. I had taken that name when I went first from the Hall, not with any special or ultimate object in view—not even with the design of concealing myself or my whereabouts from my father and the rest. I had really no particular object in view in passing under another name, and still less had I a purpose in the selection of the name which I assumed, which was that of Violet's father, and which, being familiar, naturally occurred to me. Oh, could I have foreseen to what terrible results the taking of that name was to lead! This was, indeed, the source whence all the after evils flowed. But for that, the crime I committed would have been impossible. But that is a point in which I have not yet come. I mentioned it only to let you understand that when I entered Scotland under the name of Waldgrave Winthrop it was with no evil design. My first error was in keeping up that name at Glenfruin. But, having gained the affection of my Helen, who loved me for myself alone, and had no knowledge of my family or my birth, I never hinted that another name was more truly mine, intending some day to give her a glad surprise by disclosing it and the old English family to which I belonged. This was one of the pleasures I expected to realize on my return from England. I looked forward to being back to Glenfruin in a very short period, with all arrangements made for taking my young wife to one of my father's farms, and I pictured her delight on learning that the young English stranger in whom she had so unreservedly confided, though he had somewhat deceived her, had not done so to her hurt, by a deceit since it would raise her to a station higher than he had given her reason to expect. When, therefore, I left Glenfruin, known only as Waldgrave Winthrop, I expected soon to return under my true name of Edwin Allerton.

"I will not, dare not, dwell on my parting with Helen. In itself it was not peculiar, for we expected to meet again very soon; but to me, looking back across the gulf which opened immediately after it, it is full of untold, of indescribable agony. A thousand thousand times have I recalled it—her last word—the last kiss—the last look—and the final glimpse I had of her sylph-like form on the distant knoll as I turned the corner of the path in the glen which hid her from my view for ever. Oh, if the fearful thought had then crossed my mind that it was for the last time—but no; I went away all buoyant and hopeful, all unconscious of the desolation and despair that were to follow. Oh, my darling, my darling! little did I dream when I held thee in that parting embrace that my arms should encircle thee no more—that never again should my ears listen to the music of thy voice, or my eyes rest on thy beautiful and lovely face.

And Bridgemouth, having given vent to the impetuous outbreak of grief, uttered a deep groan, hid his face in his hand, and shook with the intensity of his emotion. Silently, tearfully, Helen raised herself and, gently twining her arms round his neck, laid her face against his cheek, sobbing there in the tenderness of her filial sympathy. There was soothing and solace in her touch, and the violence of his grief speedily subsided.

A NICE NEST EGG.—We are informed that the Messrs. Beatty, of Thorold, have sold their timber limits at Parry Sound for the very handsome sum of $200,000. The gentleman who purchased it, is said, immediately disposed of his interest for an advance of $20,000.

Niagara Falls Equalled in India. Col. Haig, in his account of his journey to discover the best road to Jugdulpur, in the Bastor country, thus describes the Falls of Indravati, which must very nearly come up to those of Niagara: "The Falls are certainly one of the grandest sights in India, though from their inaccessible position, few will probably ever see them. The river was in flood within ten feet (according to the people on its banks) of its extreme height. About four miles above the falls (which are a mile below the village of Chitrakoti) the Indravati is joined by the Naranyi, a river of about three-fourths its size. The united waters of the two, swollen by the heavy rains to a volume which I reckoned at about thirty million cubic yards per hour, descended perpendicularly a height of ninety-four feet over a ledge of sandstone rocks, about five hundred yards in length, and slightly curved in place at one end so as to give the fall something of a horseshoe shape. The rich colouring of the water, varying from a reddish brown at the crest of the falls to a brilliant ochre where more broken in its descent, adds much to the beauty of the sight. The lower part of the fall is hidden by the clouds of spray, and in damp weather, immediately after a shower, when the air is loaded with moisture, these rise even higher than the crest of the falls, fill the whole chasm below, and even hide the country on the opposite bank from view, disclosing only at intervals the final plunge of the immense mass of waters into the gulf beneath. The scene then becomes one of the wildest and grandest imaginable."

An editor whose subscribers were remiss in payment, lately published the following announcement in his paper: "To save our readers the trouble of sending their subscriptions by post, and to relieve two unfortunates, we shall send to each of our debtors, in the course of a few days, two collectors, one of whom has hardly recovered from the small-pox, and the other has just taken the itch." The delinquents did not wait to be called on but paid up promptly.

PHONETIC.—The New York Tribune comments favorably on a new system of teaching children pronunciation, introduced by a Dr. Leigh, and which it is stated has been successfully used for some time in schools in New York, Boston and St. Louis. It is carried out by means of a printed alphabet, which is said to convey accurately to the mind of the reader the elementary sounds which appear in the pronunciation. It is also claimed that this "pronouncing print" differs so little from that ordinarily in use that scholars pass from the one to the other without hesitation.

BREAKFAST—EPP'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL and COMFORTING.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctor bills.—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labeled "James Epps & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, London." Also, makers of Epps's Milky Cocoa (Cocoa and Condensed Milk).

We notice that the agricultural papers all over the country recommend the use of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders.—Exchange.

Farmers and others in this section have long known and appreciated the advantage of those powders over all others. We all consider in the embodiment of strength and power, but how few are aware that it is this same element, in the system, that gives us strength and vigor, and that an insufficiency of it causes weakness and debility. The Peruvian Syrup, a protoxide of iron, is prepared expressly to supply this vitalizing element.

There are probably a hundred or more persons in this and neighboring towns who daily suffer from the distressing effects of kidney troubles, who do not know that Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, is almost a certain cure. In severe cases, great relief may be obtained, if not a perfect cure.

Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites will speedily and certainly arrest the depressing influence of disease upon the nerves and muscles. It restores the appetite and induces a disposition to take on healthy flesh. It causes the formation of living blood, strengthening the action of both Heart and Lungs. It sustains the system under trying circumstances, and causes the healthy development of all the organs necessary to our existence.

Wife—I wish I could but speak to every mother in America, especially those who live in the country places, or far from a good Physician, I would like the parson's wife to read their little book of Perry's Pain-Killer. If they could not afford to buy, I wish I could present them with a bottle, but few very few indeed but could find a quarter of a dollar to buy if they only knew the benefits and comfort it would afford them.

Husband—For children the Pain-Killer is invaluable. Aches and pains are so annoying with them; if they have the Pain-Killer at hand it acts so quickly. For you, Physician, I would like the parson's wife to read their little book of Perry's Pain-Killer. If they could not afford to buy, I wish I could present them with a bottle, but few very few indeed but could find a quarter of a dollar to buy if they only knew the benefits and comfort it would afford them.

Wife—I must be sure and tell the Parson's wife what a blessing this Pain-Killer has proved and what a good work she is doing in telling its merits everywhere she goes.

25 cts per bottle. Beware of counterfeits. The Pain-Killer is an internal and external remedy for pain. For internal pain, Cramps, Spasms, Sudden Colds and Bowel difficulties, a few drops in water will give immediate relief. As a liniment it is without an equal; it stops pain almost instantly. Be sure and get the genuine, made by Perry, Davis & Son, and sold by Druggists and Grocers.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES

All life-endowed bodies, whether they be Beasts, Birds, Reptiles, Insects, or even Zoophytes, and subjects of the Vegetable Kingdom are governed by vital forces, which binds all the springs of existence, and as nothing can save them from destruction when this principle leaves them, the discovery of means whereby vitality may be sustained in the living body is indeed a boon to the world.

Modern Chemistry has ventilated the question and discovered the ingredients constituting the brain, muscles and nerves, and finds that by introducing these ingredients in proper proportions the brain and nervous system are strengthened.

The substance is the basis on which Fellows' Hypophosphite is built, its direct action upon the Blood, the Brain and Nervous System, and the Muscles, Strengthening the Nerves, it causes the rapid distribution of Vitalized Blood in the Muscular Organs of the Body.

It is adapted for all cases of Weakness and Enervation, whether arising from a Sedentary life, a tropical climate, from fever, or debility from any cause, and is efficacious in Pulmonary Consumption, many confirmed cases having been cured and all benefited, where its use has been continued over a fortnight.

In Bronchitis it is a specific, and in Asthma it gives relief where every other remedy fails. For Nervous Debility it stands unrivalled, and may be used with confidence in all cases. As this entire distinct and different from every other preparation of Hypophosphites, be careful to get Fellows' Syrup, and take no other.

HAIR

Nine years before the public, and no preparation for the hair has ever been prepared equal to Hall's "Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer," and every honest dealer will say it gives the best satisfaction. It restores GRAY HAIR to its original color graduating and preventing dandruff curing BALDNESS and promoting the growth of the hair. The gray and brassy by a few applications is changed to black and silky locks, and wayward hair will assume any shape the wearer desires. It is the cheapest HAIRDRESSING in the world, and its effects last longer, as it excites the glands to furnish the nutritive principle so necessary to the life of hair. It gives the hair that splendid appearance so much admired by all. By its tonic and stimulating properties it prevents the hair from falling out, and none need be without Nature's ornament, a good head of hair. It is the first real perfected remedy ever discovered for curing diseases of the hair, and it has never been equalled, and we assure the thousands who have used it, it is kept up to its original high standard. Our
