CLIMAX OF THE BRADLEY CASE IS REACHED TODAY

Mrs. Bradley Goes on Stand to Testify for Herself.

The Fatal Interview With Senator Brown to Be Told of -- Entire Sitting Today Will be Taken up by Prisoner -- The Court Room Again Crowded.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The climax of the Bradley trial was reached today when Mrs. Bradley, testifying in her own behalf, related the particulars of her final interview with former Senator Brown in the Raleigh Hotel in this city last December and gave all the details she could remember of the shooting which followed.

She was present as usual in entering the court room and if any one had believed that yesterday's ordeal would render her unfit to proceed with her narrative, it must soon have become evident to such person that he had not taken into sufficient account the reserve power of the woman. She had yesterday related practically all of the details of her life with Senator Brown during their intimacy of nine years and it was understood that after a few preliminary statements concerning that time, just preceding the entrance of both parties to the trial in Washington she would be led up to that affair which she is the only possible witness to the story.

She shall be brief," said Judge Powers, as Salt Lake attorney, "in dealing with this phase of the case. Do not take Mrs. Bradley long to give us all she remembers of it."

District Attorney Baker thought the cross examination of Mrs. Bradley should last three hours so that it was apparent from the beginning of the day that the same sitting would be consumed by Mrs. Bradley. The court room was again crowded and more unable to gain admission than got in.

Judge Stafford had no sooner taken his seat than Mrs. Bradley resumed her place in the witness chair. She was first asked to identify a number of letters written her at different times by Senator Brown from 1891 to 1898 and were presented for the purpose of showing the relations between Mrs. Bradley and Mr. Brown, but not effort was made to read them as they were introduced.

There were more than a hundred of the letters and when their presentation had been concluded, Judge Powers said that some of them would be read to the jury at a later date. He then called upon the prosecuting attorney to produce letters in his possession written to Brown by Mrs. Bradley, which was done. There were not many of them and the judge said that they covered the same period of time. The witness read each letter deliberately and admitted that she had written them.

FARMERS COMPLAIN
The farmers along the river are viewing the prospects of but one more week of navigation with alarm. On the Gagetown rapids the wharves are reported as piled up with produce, much more than the majestic can handle. Some of the stuff has been brought many miles, which means that if there is no improvement on present conditions, that is, another boat is put on the route, they will be put to the trouble and expense of hauling the products back to the farms. The present state of affairs has been caused by the delay in getting in crops. When farmers should have been coming to market vegetables were being taken out of the ground. It has been suggested that the Elaine might be placed on the route to relieve the situation. It is pointed out that a having a steel hull, she would be in a position to break through the ice in any case something will require to be done, as the farmers complain loudly.

WHOLESALE MERCHANTS AGREE WITH MANUFACTURERS' OPINION OF THE YEAR'S BUSINESS

reported that the volume of business done by his firm in the past year had been very good. They had foreseen, however, that there was likely to be a depression and were shortening sail. Goods were being shipped out in smaller quantities and preparations made for a dropping off in the trade. Collections have been very fair.

There is, however, a feeling that the coming winter will show the effect of the depression in the money market, though the view that it will be a good thing for the merchants. Many point out that there has been too much of a speculative desire in buying goods in larger quantities than necessary in order to take advantage of the market changes and now that money is tight and the banks are retrenching, there will be a return to a more conservative standard of business.

One prominent dealer remarked that he had had a period of six years and now that there was likely to be some lean years there should be no complaint. It could not always be favorable to the business men. So far collections are reported to have been very good, but in some cases there is evidence of a slackening of the request for a longer time and the renewal of notes. The following reports from merchants in various lines of business give an idea of the situation:

Hardware, Stoves, Etc.
Mr. Coates, of the S. Hayward Co., hardware dealer, said business had been about the average with them this year and during the present month it had been first rate. Collections had been good and in many cases where they expected to have to make renewals of notes, they had been paid in full, which was a pretty good sign. The financial depression, he thought might of course have some effect but he did not anticipate anything serious. The hardware dealers are still expecting difficulty in getting shipments of goods from the manufacturers, which is also a good sign, as it shows that there is no glut in the market. This condition of affairs exists alike in England and on this side. Goods are being sold at a profit, but the next month we may likely to reach here before spring.

Wholesale Groceries, Etc.
W. C. Cross, of Hall & Fairweather, reported that his firm had had the biggest year's business in their history, and things were in a fairly healthy condition, but at the same time it was quite necessary to be a little cautious just now.

Local Wholesalers. He thought, were beginning to feel the effect of the tightness in the money market in their collections, and more people than usual were asking for renewals. The fall business, he added, had been quite up to the average, but the prospects for winter were not so bright as usual. The merchants have some back-some wheat, dried fruits and other commodities had slumped half-a-cent, peanuts are OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 20.—(Special).—The Grand Trunk Railway Company has made application to the board of railway commissioners for a ruling as to the interpretation of the Lord's Day Observance Act, with regard to the rights of railways to switch cars out of freight on Sundays. The question came up recently in Toronto in a case of prosecution of the Grand Trunk for switching freight cars on Sunday, but after correspondence between the attorney general's department and the railway board the case was dismissed pending the decision of the board on the whole question. The matter will be taken up shortly by the board and a formal ruling made as to the extent to which railway companies will be allowed to move traffic on the Lord's Day. Meanwhile the department of justice has been asked to give an opinion as to the interpretation of the act.

GIRLS ALLOWED TO GO TO BOSTON
Two Newfoundland girls aged 16 and 18 respectively, by the name of Devanna left last evening for Boston after a detention here by the United States immigration officials of about three weeks. Tired of life in the island colony they left their home in the suburbs of St. John's to seek their fortunes in Boston. Arriving here, however, they were awakened from their dream by Uncle Sam's immigration officers who found that the fair maid had but a few cents over and above their tickets. Their explanation that they were going to visit their aunt in Boston had little effect on the officers and they were told that it was no use and a return to the old conditions started them in the face. With considerable pluck and determination they appealed to Washington. As it takes time to surmount red tape three weeks had gone before they had realized it.

The Pickpocket's Scarab.

BY CHANNING POLLOCK.

Mrs. Duncan Oggood, being a woman of great presence of mind, did not scream when she felt a hand, probably the hand of the street car passenger sitting beside her, crawl stealthily into her pocket.

Mrs. Oggood was intelligent as well as self-possessed, and she knew that a cry would instantly project the thief to the street platform, whence he might easily step to the pavement. Considering the emergency, Mrs. Oggood did the very best thing that could have been done under the circumstances. She dropped her own hand to her skirt and clasped the intruding digits as firmly as she was able. Instantly the digits loosened and were wringed free and the young man on her right hurried out of the car.

Mrs. Oggood held her pocket for a few moments while she decided to hold her peace. She could feel that her purse was safe and she realized that by this time the young man must be in the same happy condition. Since nothing had been lost, nothing was to be gained by creating a disturbance. Mrs. Oggood remained on the car until it reached Seventy-second street, where she alighted, and then, her self-satisfaction showing in every movement as she walked home.

That night, while she was dressing for dinner her maid remarked: "I put your new ring in the jewel box, madam."

"My new ring?" inquired Mrs. Oggood.

"The one in your pocket," replied the maid. "It wasn't wrapped; just loose like."

"Ah!" quoth Mrs. Oggood. "Let me see it."

It was a curious trinket of the sort known as a burial scarab. Doubtless hundreds of years before it had adorned the hand of some spiced Egyptian gentleman and consigned to a polytheistic paradise. More recently Mrs. Oggood felt certain it had slipped from the finger of another gentleman bound to a place remote from any paradise whatever. In fine the ring unquestionably was the property of the pickpocket, and its present possessor had pocketed a thief only to become a thief herself.

"The funny part of it," said Mrs. Oggood while the fish was being served, "is that I can't bring myself to hope this young man will ever claim the thing. It's the most extraordinary scarab I ever saw."

"I shouldn't think of wearing it," returned Mr. Oggood. "It might be infected, or, for all you can tell, it might be a symbol to identify you as a member of some criminal society."

"Oh, that's too good," exclaimed his wife, and attacked the fish.

A few days later she advertised in a paper that the owner of a fine Egyptian scarab lost on a Columbia avenue car might have the same by the simple process of describing his property. The notice also contained the reassuring information that no questions would be asked. Notwithstanding this promise of consideration for a tender conscience, no one ever called to claim the ring, and after a while Mrs. Oggood began wearing it herself. "I have a strange partiality for things out of place," she commented, "and a 2000-year-old beetle bound to the third finger of one's right hand may certainly be said to be out of place."

"Don't be surprised," her husband admonished, "if some snatches of ruffian stop you on the street and seize for the counterfeiter."

Mrs. Oggood laughed again. Deep in her heart she did feel a little uneasiness, but, as she wore the ring evening after evening and the prophecy of her lord and master was never fulfilled, even this slight fear left her. On the first night of the 'leaved season she selected the ornament

Daily Fashion Hint for Times Readers.

THE DEBUTANTE'S GOWN.

Since simplicity is the keynote of the season's fashions and maid and matron alike are following this latest trend of fashion, there is little difference in the designs of costume worn by the younger members of society. Practically the only difference in their open toilets is the absence of jewelry in that of the debutante. She may wear a string of pearls, a simple neck chain or a pretty pin, but none of the brilliantly attractive jewels with which the matron is privileged by the rules of fashion to adorn herself. Those fashionable paillette nets which match such brilliant scintillating trimming for simple costumes, made up in a measure offer do his duty!" she concluded dramatically, glaring a stony defiance at Mr. Oggood. Despite the fact that all the persons concerned were some distance from the route to the exits, an interested crowd had gathered and the affair was becoming more embarrassing every moment. Mr. Oggood was roused to action.

"It is perfect idocy to cease my wife of theft," he said with dignity. "Your brooch probably came unfastened and fell to the floor. Doubtless it has already been found and turned in at the box office."

The dowager smiled, looking in the process, uncommonly like a Japanese pug dog.

"That being true," continued Mr. Oggood, "and this scene being most humiliating, you will oblige me, either, by permitting us to pass."

The policeman waved. "There's been a lot of complaints this evening," he objected. "I don't know just what to do."

This was so obvious that immediately everybody began making suggestions. Mrs. Oggood, however, had come to herself in the interval. Her presence of mind returned.

"Wait!" she commanded, the iciness of her tone instantly silencing those about her. "We will put a stop to this foolishness at once. The lady says she saw her brooch on my cloak. Now she can examine the cloak herself and see her mistake."

With a gesture of superb disdain, she pulled the garment from her shoulders and held it up for inspection. There was a click of gears. Mrs. Oggood glanced at the cloak and then fell back against her husband. The chiffon interlacing of the scarf was fastened with a brooch. Not only was the missing brooch visible, fastened securely near the collar, but there were diamonds and emeralds and pearls, wings and stickpins galore. Diamonds shone along the hem, opals clung lovingly to the lace ruffles and emeralds peeped out of the folds.

Mr. Oggood was the first of the astonished group to recover his senses and to realize that the latest development carried the incident beyond him.

"It seems," he observed, "that Mrs. Oggood has been made the scapegoat of a lot of complaints this evening. I think we had all better accompany this officer to the station house until some conclusion can be reached."

He struck out determinedly for the door. Mrs. Oggood clinging to his arm, the dowager and her son following after, the policeman and the crowd, the knot of spectators in the rear.

On the sidewalk Mrs. Oggood felt some one jostle her and turned to look into the face of the thin, nervous woman whose behavior had been so intolerable during the performance. Having secured her attention that individual leaned forward until her lips almost touched Mrs. Oggood's ear.

"You squeaked!" she whispered. "If you didn't intend to get away with them, why did you wear the ring?"

An instant later Mrs. Oggood, comprehending at last, reached out for her she had disappeared into the night.

MONCTON WANTS A SHOE FACTORY

Ready to Offer Big Bonus to Secure Higgins Industry From Yarmouth.

Moncton, N. B., Nov. 19.—The board of trade tonight, after much discussion, decided to recommend the city council to offer a bonus of $15,000 in four per cent bonds to par. free water for the Higgins shoe factory in the event of its removal to Moncton from Yarmouth.

The meeting was a representative one and the report of the council of the board of trade in reference to the boot and shoe industry was discussed at some length. The city is asked to grant the promoters of the factory a bonus of $15,000 in four per cent bonds to par. free water for the factory, exemption of the factory from taxation and a grant of $1,000 per year for twenty years for light and power.

The promoters of the factory, for these concessions, are required to build a factory within the city limits to employ not less than 100 hands, to operate the factory at least nine months in the year and to give security to the city upon its lands and buildings to guarantee the payment of $800,000 in wages. There was some little opposition to such a large cash bonus but a check of the city records in regard to the five per cent bonds for a term of years, and a recommendation in favor of the proposition as outlined above was almost unanimously adopted.

The city council is now asked to get legislation to carry the proposition through.

"Its Only a Cold, A Trifling Cough."

Thousands have said this when they caught cold. Thousands have neglected to cure the cold. Thousands have filled a Consumptive's grave through neglect. Never neglect a cough or cold. It can have its own result. It leaves the throat or lungs, or both, affected. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is the medicine you need. It strikes at the very foundation of all throat or lung complaints, relieving or curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Sore Throat, and preventing Pneumonia and Consumption.

It has stood the test for many years, and is now more generally used than ever. It contains all the lung healing virtues of the pine tree combined with Wild Cherry Bark and other pectoral remedies. It stimulates weakened bronchial organs, allays irritation and subsides inflammation. It soothes and heals the irritated parts, loosens the phlegm and mucus, and aids nature to easily dislodge the morbid accumulations. Don't be humbugged into accepting an imitation of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, and price 25 cents.

Mrs. C. E. Bissette, Lombardy, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled with a hard dry cough for a long time, especially in the mornings, but after having used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, for a few weeks, I find my cough has left me. I can positively say that this remedy is well worth a trial."

ELECTION IN COLCHESTER

Tomorrow is Nomination Day and the Proceedings Are Expected to be Interesting.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 19.—Nominations in Colchester for the house of commons will take place on Thursday. It is expected that George W. Fowler will be present to speak in behalf of John Stanfield, the Conservative nominee, at the meeting to be held in the afternoon and evening. The Liberals will hold no evening meeting on Thursday. It will be held on Friday, when Hon. W. S. Fielding has promised to be present.

PORTLAND 'LONGSHORE CARPENTERS MAY STRIKE

Portland, Me., Nov. 23.—The Portland 'longshore carpenters have made a demand on the managers of the local agencies of the foreign steamship lines for an increase in wages from $3 to $3.50 per day. The agents have answered that the business will not warrant the increase and that furthermore the carpenters are receiving higher wages at this port than at any other place. The carpenters have already struck if their demands are not granted.

The congregation of Trinity church held a concert in the school room last night under the auspices of the Young Women's Guild and Young Men's Association. Harrison's orchestra played during the evening and other musical features were a piano solo by Miss Biederman and vocal solo by Miss Louise Knight and Mrs. C. E. Robertson. Rev. David Lang of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, delivered a short address. The congregation were received by Mrs. C. P. Clarke, Mrs. James H. McAvity, Mrs. Lee Harrison and Mrs. J. W. B. Stewart. The evening proved thoroughly enjoyable.

A turkey supper and fancy sale held under the auspices of the ladies' sewing circle of the Fairville Baptist church last evening proved very successful. There was a large attendance and everyone was delighted with the substantial menu served. The sale included fancy work, ice cream and candy and a good sum was realized. About twenty ladies acted as waitresses.

PROMOTERS COMING TO BOOM BLACKSOD PROJECT IN CANADA

They Will Address Meetings Here --- British Paper Has Words of Praise for R. L. Borden.

Montreal, Nov. 19.—The Star's London correspondent cables:

An influential Anglo-Irish deputation will leave on the Carmania on Saturday to interview the Canadian government and address Canadian meetings on behalf of the All-Red and Blacksod-Halifax proposal. Sir Thomas Trowbridge, bart, will head the deputation, which also includes Dr. Ambrose, M. P., representing the Irish Nationalist party in the commons; the Bishop of Sligo, and C. N. Armstrong. They will represent to the Canadian ministers the perfect practicability of their scheme for three twenty-five knot steamers making a weekly service of three and a half days between Blacksod and Halifax, at a cost in subsidies from the British and Canadian governments of $1,500,000. The delegates will address meetings in Montreal, Toronto, Quebec, Halifax and St. John.

Meanwhile Mr. Sifton is busy here pushing the proposals for an independent steamship scheme with himself and Lord Strathcona as leaders. He has visited Bristol, where great expectations of enlarged Canadian business have been awakened by the new King Edward dock. Mr. Sifton, it is understood, will contend that the service should have an English, not Irish port.

The British ministers argue the scheme should include a fast Australian service via Vancouver. The Blacksod promoters have, accordingly, submitted proposals for a service from Vancouver to New Zealand and Australia in conjunction with the Union Pacific line, and say they have the support of the New Zealand and Australian governments and only now await Canadian assent.

Echoes of Mr. Borden's tour are beginning to appear in English journals which, thanks to the recent journalistic tours organized by the Canadian and Ontario governments and the Canadian Pacific, are devoting much generous enlightened attention to Canadian affairs.

The Morning Post, whose editor, Fabian Ware, has just come back from Canada, today forecasts that Mr. Borden will be prime minister within five or six years, even if Sir Wilfrid Laurier wins the next election. It says:

"His solid integrity of character more than compensates for his deficiency in demagogic skill. Picturesque figures like Sir John A. Macdonald, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Mr. Parkes, Sir George Grey and Mr. Sifton, have just come back from Canada to the maturity of the British colony. The political life of the dominion must be preserved from the tyranny of the machine which has been perfected in the United States."

Mr. Borden also seems, according to the Morning Post, fitted to co-operate in carrying on the work of imperial unionism based on colonial nationalism such as Premier Deakin enunciated at the imperial conference.

GOOD BUSINESS YEAR

Following the series of interviews with manufacturers the Times today prints the statements of wholesale merchants in various lines. All of them unite in saying that 1907 has been a good year, with a very large volume of business.

THE HIGHWAY ACT

Premier Robinson has drafted a very bitter pill for his colleagues in the government. The Times not long since printed the fulsome eulogies of the highway act delivered by some of these gentlemen.

CIVIC REFORM

Montreal is having trouble with its city council. The Star says that there are frequent demands for enquiry into charges of mal-administration, but these are all set aside with a demand for "specie charges."

"One of the brightest omens for civic administration in this city is the steadily increasing interest among all classes in civic affairs. Years ago it was very seldom that business bodies and working-men's societies met and discussed the government of the city; while today it is a most common thing for the city council to receive resolutions from both these and other bodies suggesting intelligent reforms and making equally intelligent criticism.

THE VALUE OF SINGING SCHOOLS

(The Wesleyan.) A St. John exchange says: "The Every Day Club has secured the services of a choir-master to organize a large singing class of men to practice two evenings each week. It is anticipated that the club will soon have a fine male choir and chorus. This singing class should prove a great benefit, especially to young men."

THE CHILDREN

The Montreal Star tells of a very practical step taken by the Women's Club of Montreal, for the protection of children. None can feel so strongly as mothers do the need of action to save the children. In Ontario the Children's Aid Society is a most beneficent organization.

THE CHILDREN

In St. John no specialized effort is made to save the children who are peculiarly subjected to temptation from the perils of the street. In that smaller world of childhood that lies within the larger life of the community there are dangers and downfall, and many a life is ruined in the early years. The cause is one that should appeal to every man and woman, and shame the selfishness that marks the conduct of society. The depravity of many boys and girls seen on the street at night is a matter of current talk. Stories of ruin wrought that should rouse to resolute action, the latent manhood of men are retailed without a blush. The records of the police court tell but a small part of the pitiful story of boys and girls gradually drawn into courses of conduct that mean ruin to some and disgrace or death to others. This is no idle tale. It is the simple, undeniable truth.

MEN SEEKING WORK

Some provision should be made for looking after immigrants who have neither funds nor work. The winter is at hand and there will be many such persons in the city before spring opens. A strong looking young fellow called at the Times office today eager for work of any kind, but utterly without funds. He was directed to several places where there might be a possibility of getting a job out of town, and he said he was willing to go anywhere so long as he could get work. Some organized plan should be arranged to bring such persons quickly in touch with those who want laborers. It would be a great boon to the men and would relieve the community in many cases from being compelled to dole out charity. This matter might well be considered by the city council, board of trade and Associated Charities. It is probable that the Every Day Club will keep a record this winter of persons seeking work, but its opportunities for bringing employers and persons seeking work together would be limited compared with an agency provided by joint action of the bodies named.

Within a week two business establishments have been flooded, with serious loss, by what seems on the surface to have been gross carelessness on the part of somebody responsible for the condition of water taps or closets on the floor above. While it is too late to be of any service to the merchants affected in these cases, the loss inflicted upon them should serve to make people in large buildings with several tenants more careful in such matters.

Rev. D. Shearer, secretary of the Temperance and Moral Reform Branch of the Presbyterian church in Canada, has this to say about the province of Manitoba:—"The condition of the province has become so low that the ministers and a great many other men are now convinced that something must be done to raise the moral standard of the province."

The Toronto News says:—"The hope is still expressed that the new year will witness an end of the present financial stringency, and that money and credit may, early in 1908 become fairly free again. It is, moreover, still hoped that the incidental check to the commerce of Canada and the United States may prove a purely temporary one."

"The business situation in Canada is giving much anxiety. Business itself is in a healthy condition, but the lack of capital is felt keenly. While the industrial expansion of Canada has been unusually rapid, the banking capital has not increased in proportion."—Hon. Mr. Fielding.

James Schrum of Dartmouth

Makes Valuable Discovery Says the Most Obstinate Case of Stomach or Liver Trouble is Quickly Curable

Dartmouth, N. S., Aug. 19.—There is a strong moral in the statement of James Schrum, of Pleasant street. Like thousands of people, he was falling in health because his stomach and digestive organs were out of repair.

"I could not have held on much longer. I was wasting away simply because no remedy I used gave the tone and strength to my stomach that it craved for. The vital forces of my system seemed dead. I was advised to try Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

"What hidden weakness they searched out I don't know, but in a miraculous way they have made a new man of me. My stomach troubles are cured, rich blood now runs through my veins—clear skin and evidences of health and vigor I feel every day.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Sennertum are purely vegetable—all the ingredients coming from the great storehouse of Nature, they can't help but heal, strengthen, cure.

Winter Fun.

Playing in the winter, in a big snow storm, is better fun than playing in summer when it's warm.

Just wrap yourself up comfy, and let the cold wind blow. You'll never feel the weather.

While you're tumbling in the snow.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Sennertum are purely vegetable—all the ingredients coming from the great storehouse of Nature, they can't help but heal, strengthen, cure.

WAS A TOTAL WRECK FROM HEART FAILURE.

Heart disease is characterized by its stealthy approach and its variety of forms, yet in all its forms nature gives unmistakable signals which warn us of its presence.

One of the first danger signals announcing something wrong with the heart is the irregular beat or violent throb. Often there is only a fluttering sensation, an "all gone" sinking feeling or, again there may be the most violent beating, with flushings of the skin and visible pulsations of the arteries.

Mr. Darius Carr, Geary, N.B., writes: "It is with the greatest pleasure I write you a few lines to let you know the great blessing your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have been to me. I was a total wreck from heart failure, my wife advised me to take your pills, and after using two boxes I was restored to perfect health. I am now sixty-two years old and feel almost as well as I did at twenty."

A SPLENDID RECITAL

Clarence Eddy Provided Rich Musical Treat in Centenary Church.

Those whose privilege it was to attend the organ recital given by the celebrated Clarence Eddy in the Centenary church last night, heard what was undoubtedly the musical event of the season.

It is very much to be regretted that the attendance was so small, but on the other hand it is gratifying to note that those who were present enjoyed Mr. Eddy's work, a fact which was amply demonstrated by the hearty applause that greeted the performer at the conclusion of the programme.

Mr. Eddy was assisted by Mrs. F. G. Spencer and J. A. Kelly, both of whom were in excellent voice, and their work was most marvellous, especially in the programme was as follows:

ADDRESS ON INDIA TONIGHT

A fine audience greeted Mrs. Nalder in St. David's church on Sunday afternoon. Rev. A. D. Graham spoke warm words of welcome in behalf of the city and church. Mrs. Nalder has a most thrilling story to tell of the life and work of Punidita Ramabai. All present listened with rapt attention for an hour, as this remarkable life was depicted in a way which made one feel one could see the wonders being wrought. Mrs. Nalder has had a successful tour in England for two years, and now is touring in the maritime provinces. Everywhere hearts are touched and purses are opened to send financial help to Ramabai. The result of ten meetings the past eight days in New Brunswick is $115 to be sent to India. Every Day Club Decides to Go Steadily Forward and Business Men Give Assurance of Support

Subscribers to last year's fund for the establishment of the Every Day Club, including a number of leading business and professional men, met in the Times building yesterday afternoon to consider the affairs of the institution. The president of the club, on behalf of the executive committee, submitted a detailed statement of last year's receipts and expenditures from the time the club opened last January until Oct. 1, a period of nine months. This statement, summarized, shows as follows: Receipts. Subscriptions..... $328.50 Collections (Sundays)..... 153.34 Total..... $481.84 Expenditures. Rent, light, heat and janitor..... $288.71 Furniture..... 132.00 Piano rent and player..... 46.00 Sundry supplies..... 28.57 Total..... $495.28 Deficit Oct. 1, 1907, $11.50. The president referred to the re-opening of the club rooms on Oct. 1, and pointed out that the expenditure since then has been in excess of the receipts, as no effort had been made to solicit subscriptions, and the only revenue was from several voluntary subscriptions and bandy collections. The newly established singing class was not a tax on the funds. It was further stated that the club, in pursuance of the option clause in the lease, had notified the trustees that it would continue as lessees of the hall for another year from January 1 next. The president stated that the club had refused to rent the hall for a moving picture and vaudeville theatre from Oct. 1, though offered a very high rental. He spoke of the progress of the work this season and submitted a resolution passed at the weekly business meeting of the club on Monday evening, in which the working members expressed in the strongest terms their feeling that the club should be continued, in the interests of the city, and their determination to work for its welfare. After remarks by Ald. Bullock, Thomas McAvity, J. Willard Smith, Ald. Baxter, E. T. C. Knowles, W. F. Hatheway, W. S. Fisher, J. N. Harvey and F. M. Macure Scandlers, it was unanimously resolved to convey to the working members of the club the sympathy and support of those present. Assurances of like tenor were received by telephone or otherwise from T. H. Estabrook, W. C. Cross, Joseph Allison, R. B. Emerson, R. T. Hayes and other contributors who were unable to attend in person. This encouraged the club to renew its efforts to make the institution of greater value than ever to men. It should be stated that the club itself raised last year by the subscription of members and by concerts more than $250 of the amount expended during the summer, in rent and repairs and care of the Victoria grounds.

WILL BUILD A SCHOONER

Bay Shore Lumber Co. Will Have One Next Year.

Robert Connelly, of Great Salmon River, manager of the Bay Shore Lumber Company, is in the city. He arrived yesterday afternoon from Waterford, where he had been closing up some contracts for the winter's cut. He reports that all contracts are now awarded. The cut will not exceed that of last season, 3,000,000 or 4,000,000. Under construction at Great Salmon River, will be launched the schooner. The work on it will cease for a time in the winter. It is the intention to cut and bring out of the woods the frame of a schooner which the company will build on their own use next year, and will be employed in the transportation of pulpwood and also in carrying stores from this city. Mr. Connelly reports labor plentiful. He says he can hire all the men he wants for the lumber woods at wages ranging from $22 to $28 a month.

OBITUARY

Joseph E. Hachey The death of Joseph E. Hachey occurred at his home, Bathurst Village, on Saturday from heart disease. Mr. Hachey was fifty-nine years of age and was one of the section men on the I. C. R. at Bathurst for thirty-one years. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Nicholas Doucet, and two sons, Charles and Alphonse.

James Hinchey The death of James Hinchey occurred in Vancouver Nov. 18, aged twenty-seven years. The deceased was a logger, and a native of New Brunswick.

Elizabeth Kean The death of Elizabeth Kean occurred this morning at the home of her parents, Sand Cove Road. She was thirteen years of age and besides her parents, is survived by two brothers, Richard and William of St. John, and two sisters, Blanche of St. Louis and Louise, of this city. The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon.

MR. R. L. BORDEN (Victoria Colonist.) The Canadian Courier, which professes to be independent in politics, and probably is pretty near it, as near as any paper can very well get, thinks Mr. Borden is lacking in enthusiasm. We do not think the criticism is warranted by the facts. There may be more magnetic men than the Conservative leader. He wins rather by his evident sincerity than by his appeals to the feelings of those who listen to him. While many people have left Mr. Borden's meeting not particularly impressed with his faculty of arousing an audience to excitement, none can have done so without feeling that they have been listening to a sincere and honorable man in whom they could put every confidence. And it seems to us that such a man is the sort needed in Canadian politics, and that when the time comes and it cannot be long delayed, when he is called upon to accept the premiership, he will exhibit those qualities which will command the respect, esteem and trust of the people of Canada as few other men have enjoyed them.

J. R. Ayer, of Sackville, was registered at the Dufferin yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Rose, of St. Stephen, are at the Royal. D. P. Flannery, of Halifax, is in the city.
