VIVIANI REVIEWS BALKAN SITUATION.

Bulgaria, from Outset, the Main Obstacle to Union of Balkan States, French Premier Declares.

Paris, Oct. 12.—In response to resolutions adopted by the finance committee and the Socialist group, urging the necessity of a complete and immediate explanation on the part of the government, Premier Viviani, in the Chamber of Deputies today, outlined the situation with respect to the Balkan States.

"The country, owing to the grave events now taking place," said the premier, "must be informed, and the government takes this opportunity to make a declaration of the situation and its policy."

"The Balkan question was raised at the outset of the war, even before it came to the attention of the world. The Bucharest treaty had left in Bulgaria profound heart burnings. Neither king nor people were resigned to the loss of the fruits of their efforts and sacrifices, and to the consequences of the unjustifiable war they had waged upon their former allies. From the first day the allied governments took into account the dangers of such a situation, and sought a means to remove it. Their policy has proceeded in the spirit of justice and generosity which has characterized the attitude of Great Britain, Russia and Italy, as well as France.

"We have attempted to re-establish the union of the Balkan peoples and, in accord with them, seek the realization of their principal national aspirations. The equilibrium thus obtained by mutual sacrifices really made by each would have been the best guarantee of future peace. Despite constant efforts, in which Roumania, Greece and Serbia lent their assistance, we have been unable to obtain the sincere collaboration of the Bulgarian government. The difficulties respecting the negotiations were always at Sofia.

"Bulgaria made claims upon her four frontiers at the expense of her four neighbors. We had hoped that Roumania, Greece and Serbia, to whom magnificent perspectives opened elsewhere, would consent to the sacrifices, in exchange for which they would receive large compensation.

"As to Turkey, which had thrown herself into the arms of Germany, there was no need for further consideration.

"Our efforts with Roumania were partially successful. Roumania, the people of which country frequently manifested French sympathies, was not unfavorable to the re-establishment of the Balkan alliance. Here partial mobilization permitted her to repulse any threatened aggression—defend herself against all German pressure, and observe with the closest attention, events along the frontier, both Austrian and Bulgarian.

"But without weakening our front, we have the further task of fulfilling duties which our interest and our honor imposes upon us. We are in full accord with the general in chief of the French armies. The understanding between the governments of Great Britain and France is complete, and I cannot better express it than in the following form, namely: From now France and England, in accord with their allies, are completely agreed to go to the aid of Serbia to the extent she has asked our aid, and to assure to the profit of Serbia, Greece and Roumania respect for the treaty of Bucharest, of which we are the guarantor. The British government and the French government are in accord upon the importance of effective conforming to the advice of their military authorities. Russia has decided to join with her allies to help the Serbian people, and tomorrow her troops will fight alongside of ours.

"Gentlemen, we have done our duty toward our ally," said the premier in conclusion. "Never has an accord been more direct and more complete between allies, and never have we had greater confidence in a common view." (Continued on page 2)

RUSSIANS SCORE A DECIDED VICTORY

Success in Counter-Attack Along 12 Mile Front Between Garbounorka and Lautzessghey an Important One and Will Interfere Seriously with Enemy in Moving Troops.

Petrograd, Oct. 12.—Although little stress is laid upon it in the official report, the success obtained by the Russians in a counter-attack on a front twelve miles long, from Garbounorka to Lautzessghey, was nevertheless a decided one. Garbounorka is now in miles west of Dvinsk, on the railroad from Dvinsk to Poniewesch. Lautzessghey is on the river Laukes, eight miles southwest of Dvinsk, close to Novo Alexandriev, which lies northeastward. The Germans were compelled to evacuate the territory around the highway from Dvinsk to Novo Alexandriev. The general staff regards the blow to the Germans in this district as a serious menace to the disposition of their forces between

FORTY SIGN SERVICE ROLL FOR THE 88th

Passed Medical Examination Yesterday — Tents Being Erected at Camp Sussex for the Battalion — Expected Ranks Will Fill Quickly.

Special to The Standard. Sussex, Oct. 12.—Recruiting for the 88th Battalion to be commanded by Lieut.-Col. Fowler began today. Forty men passed the medical examination and signed the service roll. A number of others are here tonight to join tomorrow and many more are expected during the day. Quartermaster Sergeant Murray Gambin was issuing stores today and tents are being erected for the 88th on the right flank of where the tents of the 64th are pitched. Col. Fowler's popularity will no doubt prove a great incentive in the campaign in the Kamerun was on Sept. 2 when a German defeat near Gaschaka was reported. The Germans were then said to be in retreat.

ANOTHER BRITISH VICTORY IN AFRICA

Capture German Town in the Kamerun After Thirty Hour Engagement—Following up Retreating Enemy.

London, Oct. 12.—Another success for British arms in the Kamerun, a German colony in Western Equatorial Africa, where allied troops have been fighting the Germans for several months, was officially announced today.

The statement says: "Wumbias, in the Kamerun, was captured by British forces after a thirty hour engagement on October 9. The enemy, in considerable numbers, is being energetically pursued.

"The last previous British report on the campaign in the Kamerun was on Sept. 2 when a German defeat near Gaschaka was reported. The Germans were then said to be in retreat.

ALLIES CONTINUE THEIR OFFENSIVE IN EAST AND WEST

JAPAN TO SEND TROOPS TO BALKANS?

Tokio to Consider Whether Latest Developments Justify Change in Her Policy.

Tokio, Oct. 12.—Bulgaria's participation in the war, and advice received here from London that British opinion, in some quarters at least, favors the despatch of Japanese troops to the Balkans, have suddenly re-opened the question in Tokio of what Japan's future course will be. There is a strong impression here that the return from Paris today of Baron Kikujiro Ichi, the recently appointed minister of foreign affairs, and previously ambassador to France, is likely to be followed by a full reconsideration of the international situation, with special reference to Japan's policy for the preservation of her own permanent interests.

Another factor in arousing discussion on this subject is the arrival of Hugues Le Roux, editor of the Paris Matin, who, although without official mission, comes, it is understood, with introductions from and the approval of M. Delcasse, the French foreign minister, to discuss military questions with prominent Japanese, with a view to determining whether the latest developments justify a change in Japan's decision not to send an army to aid her allies, and the likelihood of despatching troops to the Balkan States.

It is understood that Italy has decided not to co-operate with the Allies in the Balkans, the Italian government being of the opinion that troops cannot be spared for any campaign other than that in Trentino and Trieste. Now that Austria and Germany have entered on their Balkan enterprise, which it is believed in military circles here, would make the Bulgarian people less willing to fight against Russia, there being a deep veneration among the Bulgarian peasants for the Emperor of Russia and his family.

An Anglo-French force is known to be landing in Saloniki, but there is considerable speculation as to where Russia will enter the Balkan conflict. It is reported the Grand Duke Nicholas is to command the Russian Balkan army, which it is believed in military circles here, would make the Bulgarian people less willing to fight against Russia, there being a deep veneration among the Bulgarian peasants for the Emperor of Russia and his family.

NO WORD YET OF CONSCRIPTION

Premier Asquith Promises Announcement of Decision Regarding Recruiting Will Not be Long Delayed.

London, Oct. 12.—The eagerly awaited statement of Sir Edward Grey, the foreign secretary on the Balkan situation, was not made today in the House of Commons. It was deferred until Thursday.

Premier Asquith also announced that he was as yet unable to give the decision of the government on the subject of recruiting, but said that would not be long delayed.

Herbert L. Samuel, the postmaster-general, advanced the abandonment of the proposal to abolish half penny postage.

HON. MR. HAZEN ON VISIT TO HIS MOTHER IN FREDERICTON

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, Oct. 12.—Hon. J. D. Hazen, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, arrived here this afternoon by automobile, accompanied by Mrs. Hazen and Miss H. S. Smith. The Minister is here to pay a short visit to his mother and will return by motor to St. John tomorrow.

John A. Barry is at Barker House tonight en route to Burton, Sunbury county, where he will appear for Samuel Driscoll of Lorneville, St. John county, whose preliminary examination on charge of manslaughter as a result of a hunting fatality, will open tomorrow before Magistrate I. W. Stephenson.

Bulletin—Paris, Oct. 12.—In addressing the Chamber of Deputies today Premier Viviani said that Russian troops tomorrow would be fighting alongside French and British troops in the Balkans, France, Great Britain and Russia were in complete accord, he said, and ample troops were available without weakening any front.

London, Oct. 12.—Serbia is now being attacked from the north and the east. The Austro-Germans after their capture of Belgrade and Semendria, are advancing southward, while the Bulgarians have sent forces to endeavor to interrupt communications north and south of Nish, the war-time capital of Serbia, and attack the Serbs on the flank, if they are driven back by the German Field Marshal Von Mackensen.

The situation is admitted to be a very serious one, not only for Serbia but for the whole Allied cause. It is asserted that the Serbians are inflicting very heavy losses both on the Austro-Germans and Bulgarians, but with their army of about a quarter of a million men they are believed to have little chance of making any prolonged resistance against three or four hundred thousands Austro-Germans and probably 200,000 Bulgarians. They already are arranging for the transfer of the capital to Monastir, in the extreme southwestern corner of the Kingdom.

Greece, apparently, has decided to ignore the treaty under which she is supposed to go to the assistance of her Serbian ally in case of an attack, Premier Zaimis having said, when officially notified of the Bulgarian attack that Greece "remains in a position of armed neutrality."

The followers of the Quadruple Entente, however, have decided to take energetic action. As soon as the news of the Bulgarian attack on Serbia was received in London the Bulgarian minister was handed his passports and M. Viviani, the French premier, in the Chamber of Deputies today, declared that France, Great Britain and Russia had decided to take joint action, and that tomorrow, "Russian troops will be fighting by the side of ours."

An Anglo-French force is known to be landing in Saloniki, but there is considerable speculation as to where Russia will enter the Balkan conflict. It is reported the Grand Duke Nicholas is to command the Russian Balkan army, which it is believed in military circles here, would make the Bulgarian people less willing to fight against Russia, there being a deep veneration among the Bulgarian peasants for the Emperor of Russia and his family.

HORSES SAVED IN EARLY MORNING FIRE AT SUSSEX

Good Water System and Splendid Work of Firemen Prevented Serious Conflagration.

Special to The Standard. Sussex, Oct. 13.—Splendid water service and an efficient fire department saved Sussex from a serious conflagration caused by a fire which started at 1.15 a. m. in a shed at the rear of the residence occupied by E. H. Vickers on Court street, and owned by Mrs. O. P. King. The sheds in which the fire originated the carpenter shop of Walter Lutz with contents, and barn owned by Mrs. King were totally destroyed. Five horses belonging to Thomas Kincaid were rescued from the burning barn with much difficulty. The residence of Geo. S. Dryden caught several times and was quite badly damaged. The fire at 2.30 o'clock was under control and will be confined to the buildings now burning.

prise, which is interpreted as the first step toward an endeavor to secure a German empire in the near east, there can be no drawing back, but the Allies hope that with a vigorous offensive both on the east and the west, they will be able, at least, to prevent the sending of any large reinforcements to Field Marshal Von Mackensen.

The French in both the Champagne and Artois regions of France are continuing their offensive, but not on the scale of the recent attacks. The British after their success in repelling the big German attack, are preparing for another move, but at what point only the commanding generals know. Now that they have started, it is believed here that the British and French on the western line will give the Germans no rest.

It is much the same on the eastern front. The Austro-Germans have brought their offensive to an end, except in the region of Dvinsk. The Russians have recuperated wonderfully, and are striking back in their familiar way. The Germans claim another success west of Dvinsk, but they are still fighting to the west of Iloukast. They also announce that Russian counterattacks have been repulsed south of the Pripiet river, in Volhynia and in Galicia.

The Russians seemingly have entirely regained the initiative, especially in Galicia. Here it is reported from Petrograd that the Russians have won a victory on the River Stripa. The territory on which this battle was fought marks the extreme left of the Russian battle line. The Russia offensive on this front started several weeks ago when successes were won at Tarnopol and Trembowla. Austro-German reinforcements were rushed up and hard and incessant fighting has taken place since. Gen. Count Von Bothmer commands the Austro-German forces in this sector, and the German official report of today says that the position of the "German troops" with him is unchanged.

Greece ignores Her Treaty With Serbia

Bulletin—London, Oct. 12.—When the Serbian minister at Athens officially advised Premier Zaimis of the beginning of the Bulgarian offensive against Serbia, Premier Zaimis, according to a despatch to the Star from Athens, replied:

"Greece remains in the position of armed neutrality."

LAME EXCUSE OF BULGARIN WAR MINISTER

Says Nation Forced to Fight by Action of Serbia in Mobilizing on Bulgarian Frontier.

Sofia, Oct. 12, via London.—General Jecoff, Bulgarian minister of war, who has just been appointed commander-in-chief of the Bulgarian forces, said today in a statement to representatives of the foreign press:

"Bulgaria does not desire war. We mobilized only when the Serbians, instead of giving up Macedonia, concentrated troops on the Bulgarian frontier instead of compelling the Serbians to adopt a compliant attitude toward Bulgaria, demanding an immediate breach with the central powers. This would have meant suicide for us."

ENGLAND AND FRANCE WILL BACK SERBIA TO THE LIMIT

...M. Viviani spoke for just twenty minutes, applause frequently interrupting his periods. The Russian and Italian ambassadors joined in the applause. The moment the premier concluded, M. Klotz, minister of the interior, in behalf of numerous deputies, asked for an adjournment of the sitting until tomorrow, so that the members might study the government's explanations and policy. This was agreed to, and the chamber adjourned.

Serbia Nobly Agreed To Make The Sacrifice.

Roumania knew, moreover, that only victory on the part of the Quadruple Entente could assure her independence and satisfy her national aspirations.

In their considerate desire to give the Bulgarian people satisfaction in their aspirations, the powers of the Quadruple Entente did not hesitate to ask valiant Serbia to make heavy concessions. Despite the cruelty of such a sacrifice, and the desire of the Serbians to remain in the common independence, the Serbian people made this extraordinary effort, and resigned themselves, hoping for compensations that the victory of the Quadruple Powers would be able to give Serbia elsewhere.

The equivocal attitude of the Bulgarian government led the Greek government to maintain a waiting policy. Our diverse proposals received tardy response from the Bulgarian government, which asked for additional details, and at the same time carried on parallel negotiations with our enemies. Finally, at the moment when the Quadruple Entente informed Bulgaria of the important concessions Serbia was ready to make King Ferdinand signed an accord with Turkey and engaged himself definitely with Germany.

To our friendly question as to his intention, the response was Bulgarian mobilization, in connection with which the concentration of Austro-German troops on the Danube indicated united action against Serbia.

In the presence of this attitude we immediately declared null and void the advantages and guarantees that we had announced and were ready to offer Bulgaria, and we have resumed, with the other Balkan states, our policy of action toward them. On its side, heroic Serbia, whose three successive glorious wars have not had the effect of diminishing its courage, silently prepared to meet upon two fronts the concerted attacks of Berlin, Vienna and Sofia.

From a moral standpoint, and from the standpoint of military consequences, we could not accept the isolation of Serbia and the rupture of our communications with our ally and friend.

Our action must be energetic in order to meet the efforts of our enemies, who are dominated on the western front, checked on the eastern front, and who now try to obtain on a new front, with the aid of Bulgaria, a success thus far impossible to realize either in France or Russia.

Serbia's Generosity Must Not Go Unrewarded.

In order to succor the Serbians we must go through Saloniki, and from the outset of the Bulgarian mobilization we have conducted negotiations toward that end with the president of the council at Athens. These negotiations are most natural, in view of the definite treaty concluded between Serbia and Greece after the second Balkan war, in the event of Bulgarian aggression.

"They say," continued M. Viviani sarcastically, "that we are violating the neutrality of Greece, and they even dare to compare our action to that of Germany in violating the neutrality of Belgium, perverting her signature and plunging that noble country into fire and bloodshed. The conditions under which we went to Saloniki; the conditions under which we departed; the welcome we received, suffice to demonstrate the stupidity of these accusations.

"This energetic action Great Britain and France, in accord with their allies have undertaken. They have weighed the difficulties. Our principal pre-occupation is the defence of our front, the liberation of our territory by mighty efforts, to which we owe the victories already won upon our soil, with the valorous support of our heroic allies, with the forces, sacrifices and our blood. No government could do otherwise in a duty so tragic, but so simple.

Montreal, Oct. 12.—The Liberals of Hochelaga county decided definitely today not to oppose the new minister of inland revenue, Hon. Mr. Patenaude, who will be elected by acclamation next Friday.

CANADA HAS UPHELD IDEALS OF THE EMPIRE

Lord Reading Pays Tribute to Canadians on Battlefield.

HAS STOOD TEST WHICH WAR HAS IMPOSED.

British Flag, Tri-Color and Stars and Stripes Hang Side by Side in Banquet Hall.

New York, Oct. 12.—Lord Chief Justice Reading of England, Basil Blackett, Ernest Mallet and Octave Homberg of the Anglo-French loan commission, were the guests of honor tonight in the Hotel Baltimore. C. Clive Bayley, the new British consul-general in this city, Sir Arthur Herbert, founder of the British American War Relief Fund; Capt. Gaunt of the Royal Navy; Sir Henry B. Smith, Ernest Thompson Selon, T. Kennard Thompson, Charles Harding, the distinguished English actor and Royal D. Tracy of the Canadian Military Contingent, were also seated at the speakers' table. About 300 members and guests attended.

Behind the loan commissioners hung the flags of this country and Great Britain and the tri-color of France.

J. Emery McLean, president of the Society, proposed a toast, "To His Excellency the President, and His Majesty the King," after which the diners sang "America."

President and toastmaster J. Emery McLean introduced Lord Reading, who was wildly cheered for several minutes.

"It is difficult enough," said Lord Reading, "to address a meeting of Americans who manifest their sympathy for us to this time of stress and it would be much harder to express my love to an audience of Canadians. Looking at the flags and faces about me I am indeed in my home."

"In the presence of this attitude we immediately declared null and void the advantages and guarantees that we had announced and were ready to offer Bulgaria, and we have resumed, with the other Balkan states, our policy of action toward them. ITALIANS BOMBARDING THE AUSTRIAN OF GORIZIA FROM FIVE POINTS

Geneva, Oct. 12, via Paris.—The Austrian city of Gorizia, twenty-two miles northwest of Trieste is about to fall, according to a telegram received here today from Brescia. The Italians, the despatch says, have brought up a large number of heavy guns and are bombarding the town from five different points. At the same time the Italians are attacking the inner defences of Tolmino, while on the Carso the Austrians are said to have been forced to abandon several miles of trenches.

Heavy snows in the Carnic Alps are reported to have buried the Austrian gun positions in deep drifts.

Official Report.

Rome, via Paris, Oct. 12.—The official statement from the Italian general headquarters dated Oct. 12, and made public tonight, says:

"Attacks and counter-attacks follow each other continually in the zone of the plateau situated at the head of the Astico and its tributaries. An enemy raid in the Direction of Malga Secondo Posto, to the north of Monte Coston, at the approach of dawn on the eleventh, was repulsed. In the Upper Valdausa our troops have made further progress.

"On the rest of the front, particularly in Carnia, the enemy has, as usual, been ineffective with his artillery fire.

"On the Carso front during the night of the 11th after an intense artillery and rifle preparation the enemy made an extended attack against our positions east of Vermeigliano and on Monte Selbun. He was immediately stopped and thrown back with heavy losses."

on to the south of the Somme, in the region of Tilloy and Plessies, and on the Aisne front; the plateau of Noyon. The enemy having again dropped shells on Soissons, we replied effectively against his trenches and batteries.

"In Champagne our progress continues in the direction of the gully of La Goutte, which we dominate to the west, on a somewhat extended front. The enemy resumed the bombardment of our positions in the direction of Maisons De Champagne and to the north of Massiges.

"An attempt at an offensive in Lorraine against one of our advanced posts near the Pont De Manhoux was completely checked by our shelling and barrages fire.

"In the Vosges, after an intense bombardment with shells of all calibres, a violent infantry attack was delivered against our positions at Linze and Schrammelle, but was completely repulsed.

"Some groups which had taken foot in one of our trenches were driven out by an immediate counter-attack.

"The Belgian official communication reads:

"After a quiet night and morning, the enemy artillery displayed activity in cannonading Furnes, our trenches in the outskirts of Dixmude, and Oostkerke, as well as Nieuwepelle.

"There has been an engagement with some of the direction of the 'Ferryman's House,' in addition to our sustained retaliatory fire. We directed our fire on several of the enemy's works."

Russian Report

Petrograd, Oct. 12, via London.—The following official communication was issued today:

"On the west front German sea-planes flying over the Gulf of Riga were driven off by our destroyers. In the Vinsk region desperate fighting continues. Northwest of Iloukset, the Germans succeeded in occupying part of our trenches. The fighting has not ceased.

"Near Lautzohel, northwest of Novo Alexandrovsk, our artillery dispersed the Germans. The fire of our artillery also forced the Germans to abandon their trenches and the village of Jorkok, south of Lake Demnyak.

"Near Greshal, north of Lake Dristilata, we gained a success, also taking prisoners. Our aviators, also taking the field, threw three fifty bombs on the enemy lines on the front of Lake Medun and Dristilata.

"Southwest of Pinsk the Germans were attacked and dislodged at the point of the bayonet from the village of Komora. They fled in disorder and suffered heavy losses from our machine gun fire."

Austrian Statement.

Vienna, Oct. 12, via Paris, Oct. 12.—The Austrian official communication made public today says:

"Russian war theatre:

"There is no change in the region south of Burkanov (East Galicia). We repulsed a fourth attack which was directed against a front of from two to three kilometres (1.24 to 1.56 miles).

"On the Kormin and north of Rafalovka on the Svir the enemy made unsuccessful attacks.

"Italian war theatre:

"There is no change in the situation. German Report.

Berlin, Oct. 12.—The text of the official statement as given out today by the German headquarters follows:

"In the western theatre:

"North of Arras the French continued their attacks. Two local attacks made against the trenches which we recaptured to the southwest of Loos on October 8 were repulsed.

"Strong attacks against our front from the northeast of Souchez to the east of Neuville broke down in places with severe losses to the enemy. Only at places did the French reach our first line.

"In the Champagne French attacks on both sides of Tahure ended in a serious setback for the enemy.

"In spite of strong artillery preparation the enemy yesterday afternoon nowhere succeeded in gaining ground.

"An attempt made by him early this morning to break through at the same place also failed.

"The western theatre:

"Group of Field Marshal Von Hindenburg: On our western front at Dvink our attack led up to the storming of an enemy position west of Iloukset over a front two and a half kilometres wide. Three officers and 287 men were taken prisoners and one machine gun captured.

"Russian counter-attacks were repulsed.

"Group of Prince Leopold of Bavaria: There is nothing to report.

SIR EDWARD HOLDEN WILL LIKELY GET SEAT IN CABINET

London, Oct. 12.—According to a report in circulation the parliamentary vacancy in the Heywood division of Lancashire, caused by the death in the Dardanelles of Capt. Harold Thomas Cawley, second son of Sir Frederick Cawley, probably will be filled by Sir Edward Hopkins Holden, who held the seat in the interests of the Liberal party from 1906 to 1910, and who will be given a seat in the cabinet.

Sir Edward Hopkins Holden is managing director of the London City and Midland Bank. He is a member of the British financial commission which arranged the recent Anglo-French loan of $500,000,000 in this country.

BRITISH U BOATS PLAY HAVOC WITH ENEMY IN BALTIC

Copenhagen, via London, Oct. 12.—The Politiken says that British submarines in the Baltic Sea are causing the German mercantile fleet great losses.

"Five steamers are now known to have been sunk," says the newspaper. "How many British submarines have got through the narrow sound is not known, but it is evident that Germany was too late in laying the Baltic mine fields."

Traffic across the Baltic, the Politiken adds, is in a state of disorganization.

Submarine Base Found In Gulf of Nauplia

Athens, Oct. 11, via Paris, Oct. 12.—A British agent has unearthed a submarine base in the Gulf of Nauplia, southeastern Greece, from which it is believed the submarines which recently sank allied transports have received their supplies. The discovery was reported to the Greek authorities, who immediately seized large quantities of petroleum and other supplies at the base.

ACROSS CANADA OVER THE C.N.R.

First Express Train Over Line Leaves Quebec With Party of Parliamentarians and Newspaper Men.

Ottawa, Oct. 12.—The first express train across Canada over the Canadian Northern Railway left Quebec at half past one o'clock this afternoon carrying by special invitation of the president of the road more than one hundred and twenty-five members of Commons and Senate together with newspaper men from all leading eastern cities, as well as New York and Chicago.

From Prince Edward Island came Senator Proxse and Hon. Donald Nicholson, bringing with them three barrels of those famous oysters of which the island is so famous.

From New Brunswick were Senators Thorne, Daniel and McSweeney, and Hon. T. A. Hart and Frank Carvell with H. V. MacKinnon, of the St. John Standard. From Nova Scotia were Hon. Clarence Jamieson, Donald Stewart, G. W. Kye, A. S. Davidson, William Chisholm, Mr. Tremaine and others with Andrew Merkel of the Halifax Chronicle and Echo.

A general assortment of parliamentarians from all sections of eastern Canada joined the train en route and leaving Caprot Junction fourteen cars were well filled with men going to see that section of Canada never before thrown open to railroad traffic. The management feel proud of the line which has been built. They have been seeking assistance from the federal parliament and have been borrowing money in the United States. On the occasion of the opening of the transcontinental line for traffic they feel it fitting that representative men from all sections of the east should be given opportunity to see what has been done on this new route from east to west which will open for traffic on November 1st.

This train will stop for one day in Winnipeg. On invitation of Premier Scott and the Regina Board of Trade a stop will also be made in Regina. Premier McBride and a party from the British Columbia legislature will meet the excursionists at the boundary and a couple of days will be spent in Vancouver and Victoria, while the return trip will be made according to a time schedule which will permit the easterners to see in daylight that portion of the country through which they pass at night on the way west.

Sir William MacKenzie with W. W. Moore, secretary of the company and others of the staff accompany the party.

KAISER MOVES TO SCENE OF ACTION IN BALKANS

GERMAN BASE OFF MEXICO?

British Agents Suspect Yachts Being Outfitted to Attack Steamers Carrying Oil from Mexico for Britain's Navy.

Washington, Oct. 12.—British agents are investigating operations of certain yachts, which they suspect have been prepared, or are being outfitted, for use against ships carrying oil from Mexico for the British navy. Information has been gathered from Norfolk, Pensacola, and from the Gulf of California.

Recent reports of an attack on a British tanker bound from Tuxpam in the Mexican oil fields strengthen the belief of the agents that the attacking ship was manned by Germans and carried one gun.

96, Great Breat Britain Half of One per cent. et Rate.

London, Oct. 12.—The bill authorizing the loan which has been resolved in the United States, passed all stages in the House of Commons today.

In the course of the debate on the bill today there was some criticism of the rate of interest. John Dillon, supporting the terms, declared the success of the loan was an index of popular sentiment in America toward the Allies.

"It was a business transaction, but more than that," he said, "and six, seven or eight per cent. would not have succeeded in obtaining the money if it had not been for a deep wave of sympathy in America in favor of the Allies. It is therefore a mistake to criticize the loan to which we are now committed, as if the people of the United States had taken advantage of our necessities."

Sir Henry James Dalziel thought Mr. Dillon's interpretation of criticism of the loan unjustified.

"We are all one in our sentiments towards the American people," he said "and the criticisms made are honest, and based on financial considerations alone."

Imports Jumped $292,500,000 in First Six Months of 1915

"The loan," said Mr. McKenna, "is for the purpose of paying our trade debt and maintaining an exchange in the United States. Our imports from North America have largely increased since the beginning of the war, and our exports have diminished. The increase in imports for the first six months of 1915, excluding government supplies not included in the customs returns, amounted to £58,500,000 ($292,500,000) and the reduction in exports during the same period was £12,000,000, thus making the adverse balance £70,500,000.

"Some relief for this balance against us may be obtained by the sale in America of securities held in this country. Every effort has been made to obtain relief from this source, but of itself this will be insufficient.

"We should not be doing our duty," continued Mr. McKenna, "if we neglected to take other means of maintaining the normal level of exchange, and assure the House will desire to express its thanks to the commission. Its members accomplished their task with skill and success.

"The American people are not accustomed to large external loans, and I believe this is the first of any magnitude in the whole history of the United States. We must not overlook the fact that there are many strong currents of opinion in that country.

"Although the transaction was purely for the purpose of meeting liabilities already incurred, no little opposition was raised by some parties whose sympathies were not on our side. I hope the existence of these parties will not be overlooked during the debate, and that care be taken to avoid the use of any language that might be twisted by a hostile opponent to its advantage and to the detriment of the Allies.

Terms Fair and Reasonable

"The loan is a trade transaction, its terms are fair and reasonable and I confidently recommend its acceptance to the House."

Mr. McKenna pointed out that when interest was generally paid in America, the terms of the loan were not more onerous than could reasonably have been expected. When the country was at war it could not hope to borrow in a neutral country on as easy terms as at home. He thought that the argument that the freedom of the loan from the income tax was equivalent to paying an additional one per cent. was fallacious. Pointing to the sum that Great Britain owes the United States today for trade engagements at £50,000,000 sterling, he said the amount could only be paid by the export of capital, presumably American securities.

"But," he added, "we said to our American creditors, 'allow us to defer payment, upon such terms as can be arranged.' They agreed, and we were thereby enabled to retain £50,000,000 of capital which we must otherwise have exported, and when we retain that capital we get the income tax on the dividends from it."

Mr. McKenna said the public had received the proposition more favorably than he had expected, as for the nation to pay six per cent. for an American loan at any time was startling, but when the members remembered the circumstances, he thought they would agree that the commission had done extremely well. It had been said that the Americans got an exceptionally good bargain, he continued. They were offered double the bargain, and they would not take it.

"We tried," said Mr. McKenna, "to

Terms Fair and Reasonable Considering Loan Made in War Time and in a Neutral Country, Chancellor McKenna Points Out.

As American Underwriters Took the Loan at 96, Great Britain Merely Paid One-Half of One per cent. More than the Market Rate.

GREEK RESERVISTS CALLED BACK TO UNITED STATES

Were only two hours out from New York on way to Greece.

New York, Oct. 12.—The Greek steamer Vassileffo Constantines, which sailed with 2,000 reservists for Piræus today, was recalled two hours later by a wireless message from the local office of the Greek line. When the vessel put back just after reaching Ambrose Channel lightship it caused considerable comment in shipping circles.

Officials of the line explained later that a message had been received from the main office of the line at Athens ordering the steamer and reservists to be held here for further orders. No reason for holding the reservists was given in the message from Athens it was said.

BRITISH AND FRENCH AMBASSADORS WERE ARRESTED BY MISTAKE.

Just as well looked after in any other hospitals at the front, although naturally the nurses and doctors of the Canadian hospitals would like to get as many of their own men into their wards as could be managed without giving any unnecessary trouble to the field hospitals in the matter of distribution of patients. The chief thing noticed in the wards, apart from the extreme cleanliness, comfort and airiness, was the fact that so many men appeared to be asleep. This was rather a marked trait in these hospitals, where the conditions are so ideal that the wounded sleep into convalescence.

We made a short visit to one of the flying grounds and saw a number of the many extremely delicate scientific instruments these machines contain. Every day improvements of one kind or another are being made which increase efficiency or give a few extra miles an hour in speed. The British machine is now standardized so that it would be well if Canadians who have so generously supplied all immediate requirements for machine guns and night vision to present the Canadian contingent with a fleet of airplanes which should see that they are built according to the accepted standards and thus avoid trouble in duplicating parts. The air service of the British expeditionary force, as everyone knows, has quickly pushed itself into the front rank and is now superior to the Boche in the air. The photographs obtained by the flying corps are of extreme value to the staff and are extremely interesting even to a civilian. It would be a fine thing for Canada if it could have a large and well-equipped flying corps of its own.

NOVA SCOTIA MAN REFUSED TO HELP MAKE SHELLS FOR GERMANS

Lorne Higgs, War prisoner in Germany, forced to exist for several weeks on bread and water rations.

Marysville, Oct. 12.—Mr. Albert Higgs of Nappan, N. S., accompanied by Mrs. Higgs, their daughter, Miss Pearl, and two sons, Lloyd and Max, arrived here by auto Friday evening. They made the run in twelve hours, a distance of over 225 miles. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Eno. Mr. Higgs and family resided here for several months while he was building the Methodist church. Mr. Higgs has a son, Lorne Higgs, who was a member of the 17th Battalion, now a prisoner in Germany. At one time he was on bread and water rations for several weeks for refusing to assist in making munitions of war for the Germans. He was taken prisoner at Langemark.

Rev. Dr. Hazelwood, superintendent of the Social Service and Evangelistic Society of the Methodist church of Canada, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church Sunday evening. Dr. Hazelwood, who is a very eloquent speaker, was heard by a large and appreciative audience.

Mr. Wm. Bliss of Dorchester, Mass., spent the week-end with friends here.

Mrs. Fred Youmans of St. John is here for a few days, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bubar.

Mr. G. F. Inch has about recovered from his recent injuries.

Mr. Joseph Wheeler of Galatia, Me., is here, having been called by the illness of his three-year-old daughter, who with Mrs. Wheeler has been visiting here.

Mr. Thos. McElwain and Mr. Wm. Macpherson left yesterday for St. Stephen's to spend a few days.

Trelleborg, Sweden, via London, Oct. 12.—The crew of 34 men of the Hamburg collier Gutruene, which was torpedoed yesterday off Meland, has been landed here.

A despatch from Copenhagen last night said that a German coal steamer had been sunk in Laimar Sound, Sweden by a submarine, presumably British. The foregoing apparently alludes to this incident.

CANADIAN HOSPITALS AT FRONT SECOND TO NONE

Contain Everything Necessary to Ensure Rapid Recovery and Comfort of the Wounded — Nurses from Canada Have Won Highest Praise of British Surgeons and Hospital Experts — England Leads in Aviation.

Visitors to the Canadian camps in England have been able to acquire some idea of the complex and extensive organization which Canada has provided in order to adequately equip its Expeditionary Force. But how large and complete this is is not fully realized until one has made a visit to the front. In motor lorries alone for the supply of food and munition to the lines the Dominion has spent huge sums. In the daytime, passing along one of the main roads one sees, drawn up by the side of the pavé, long lines of great grey motor lorries, each marked with its autumn maple leaf which will remain there until the evening and then take up supplies towards the fighting lines. In the hospitals one sees Canadian efficiency and alertness displayed to the best advantage. These huge canvas camps contain everything which is necessary to ensure the rapid recovery of the wounded, everything to enable the skilled surgeons to carry on their work under the best conditions and for the nurse to keep their charges comfortable and cheerful. The light blue uniform of the Canadian nurses is especially striking and certainly more becoming than the British uniform. We saw no other nurses so attractively dressed as the girls from Canada, who have won the highest encomiums from visiting British surgeons and hospital experts for their ready adaptability to circumstances and their unflinching cheerfulness and general ability. The great medical schools of Montreal and Toronto have been largely depleted to supply the staff of these Canadian hospitals which maintain 400 to over 1,000 beds. One result of the war will be that on the return of these nurses, physicians, and surgeons to Canada, the Dominion will possess a far more highly experienced medical and nursing profession than could possibly have been obtained under ordinary peace conditions. The open-air hospitals seemed in the full blaze of the September sun to look quite like their best. Situated on the lightest soil, these hospital tents seemed ideal places for the wounded, especially as the paths and surroundings have been so attractively decorated by the convalescents. Some of the Canadian hospitals have made use of the huge cotton tents used in India during the great Durbar. These are far more elaborate than

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF U.B.M.U. WILL OPEN TODAY AT SUSSEX

Over two hundred women expected for meetings — Mrs. David Hutchinson, of St. John, president.

Special to The Standard.

Sussex, Oct. 12.—A large number of ladies from different points in the maritime provinces arrived here today to attend the annual convention of the United Baptist Missionary Union, which is to be held in the Church Avenue Baptist church on Wednesday and Thursday. Sessions of the executive board were held today at 9:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m., and tonight the registration of delegates was carried on. About two hundred delegates are expected to be present at tomorrow's session.

A number of missionaries will be present, among whom will be Mrs. Churchill, a pioneer missionary whose furlough after fourteen years of successive service in India has brought experience of suffering as well as joy. Also Misses Newcombe and Harrison, now on their way eastward across the continent. The women of the W. M. A. societies of Sussex have made most careful and generous preparations for the entertainment of the delegates. Mrs. David Hutchinson, of St. John, president of the union, presided at the meetings of the executive held today. Tomorrow morning's session will be opened at 9:30 a. m. with an intercessory service led by Miss Ida Newcombe, and at 10 a. m. after roll call of delegates, and address of welcome, the general business of the convention will be taken up. The vestry of the Church Avenue Baptist church presented a busy scene tonight while the registration of delegates was being carried on and those in attendance will no doubt enjoy a time of good fellowship as well as spiritual uplift.

In which the Harwick was disabled. The Nova Scotia Sch. Katherine V. Mills, from Turku's Island for Boston arrived there on Wednesday, having been out forty-three days. Captain Sabean reported continuous heavy gales and hurricanes the entire passage, but the schooner suffered no material damage.

WAR COMMENT.

Last night's despatches from the war zones were encouraging. Premier Viviani of France told the Chamber of Deputies that Russian soldiers would be able to co-operate at once with those of France and Britain in the fighting in the Balkans. This will materially increase the power of the armies arrayed against the Teutonic allies in that area of conflict, and will also be of assistance to the Serbians who, now facing attack on two sides, are in sore case. Greece continues to declare that she will maintain an armed neutrality, and it may be necessary to adopt energetic action to cause her to make a more definite pronouncement of her position.

It is semi-officially announced that Roumania will side with Great Britain and her allies, but there is no indication as to when she will exchange her position as an observer for that of an active belligerent.

Italy, apparently, will take no part in the conflict in the Balkans, pleading as an excuse that troops cannot be spared from the operations on the Austrian front. This is not likely to allay the agitation in France, which has now reached considerable proportions, and which is based on belief that Italy is not helping to the limit of her ability.

The British forces have met with further successes in the campaigns against the Germans in Africa, inflicting what is said to be a serious defeat on German troops.

The Russian success in the vicinity of Dvinsk is held by Petrograd to be of more importance than at first indicated. The Czar's troops are said to have made substantial advances on a front of more than twelve miles, and to have secured positions which will prevent the Germans from attacking Dvinsk or the important railway lines in that vicinity. In fact the claim is made that the Russians have neutralized the effect of the gains previously made by the Teutonic armies.

On the western battle front, where the Canadians are in action, preparations are being made for another advance by the Allies. In Champagne and Artois the French are continuing their offensive, but the fighting so far is said to be but a preliminary to what is to come.

In fact from every area of war the story tells of hard and determined fighting of such a character as to emphasize the necessity for speedily sending more men to the Empire's armies.

THE LIBERALS AND THE NAVY

In spite of the fact that Sir Wilfrid Laurier, when in power, refused to submit his permanent naval policy for approval of the Canadian electorate, the Telegraph continues to argue that Sir Robert Borden should have asked for a vote on his emergency proposal which, after all, was not intended to be taken as a permanent measure and in no sense committed Canada to the policy of annual contributions.

Sir Robert Borden's policy in power was absolutely consistent with the course he adopted in opposition. Like Sir Wilfrid Laurier's "independence of Canada" speeches, this can be absolutely proven by Hansard.

When Sir Wilfrid Laurier advocated his measure in 1909, the leader of the Conservative opposition, on the first reading of the bill, said as follows:

"Lay your proposals before the people and give them, if necessary, opportunity to be heard, but DO NOT FORGET THAT WE ARE CONFRONTED WITH AN EMERGENCY WHICH MAY SEND THIS EMPIRE ASUNDER BEFORE THE PROPOSED SERVICE IS WORTHY OF THE NAME. In the face of such a situation immediate, vigorous, earnest action is necessary. We have no Drednought ready; we have no fleet-unit at hand. But we have the resources, and I trust the patriotism to provide a fleet-unit, or at least a Drednought without one moment's unnecessary delay. Or, and in my opinion, this would be the better course, we can place the equivalent in cash at the disposal of the Admiralty to be used for naval defence under such conditions as we may prescribe. In taking this course we shall fulfil not only in the letter, but in the spirit as well, the resolution of March last, and what is infinitely more important, we shall discharge a great patriotic duty to our country and to the whole Empire."—Hansard, 1909-10, page 1761.

Thus we find that Sir Robert suggested that the people be consulted on the permanent policy, but also advocated an immediate provision of Drednoughts to strengthen the Empire's naval forces.

Again, on February 3rd, 1910, when the bill was before the House for its second reading, Sir Robert Borden said:

"What the people of this country want, as far as any man can judge who has observed currents of public opinion, which is immediate and effective aid to the Empire and to have any proposals of a permanent nature very carefully considered and matured before any such policy is embarked upon, because there are a great many considerations that must be taken into account."—Hansard, 1910-10, page 2988.

But, although Sir Robert opposed the Laurier policy on the ground that it could not be effectively carried out and that, by it, the Canadian navy would not be under the control of the British Admiralty, Sir Wilfrid had sufficient majority in the House of Commons and the Senate to carry his measure. But it is not on record that he took further steps to make it effective.

On April 27th, 1910, when the measure came up in the Senate, the Conservative leader moved a resolution in opposition to it which was voted down by the Liberal majority. That was more than one month before work was commenced on the Australian battleship Australia. Yet, from April, 1910, until February, 1911, the Laurier government took no action. In the latter month they called for the tenders upon which they did not decide, although both Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Pugsley made the call for tenders an opportunity to catch votes by the promise of shipyards to Montreal and St. John.

When the Borden Government came to power Sir Robert did just what he had pledged himself to do. He went to England, consulted with the British Admiralty, and introduced a measure designed to give effective assistance to the Empire. He never receded from his position that the people should be consulted on any policy of a permanent nature, but his emergency bill did not involve such a policy, and, consequently, it was not necessary that he should go to the country on it.

The Liberals, at that time were smarting from defeat and, naturally, were anxious for any chance that might afford another opportunity. They had everything to gain and nothing to lose. Already the people had pronounced against them, and a similar verdict at a later date could carry no added sting. But, will the Telegraph or the Liberals of today subscribe to the doctrine that Sir Robert Borden should now appeal to the country on the two questions of his naval policy and the reformation of the Senate? Not for a minute. The Liberals of today know how the people regard their action and do not dare to make the test.

From first to last the Laurier policy was vacillating and inconsistent. Sir Robert Borden pursued the statesmanlike course, and if his measure for emergency aid had been adopted Canada today would be represented in the Empire's fighting lines, not by a separatist navy of the Laurier type, but by three "of the largest and strongest ships of war which science can build or money supply."

That is the one essential fact which cannot be hidden no matter how the Liberal party and the Liberal newspapers may try to screen it.

After the War

(After the battle of Arques—in the wars of the League—Carillon, who was an adherent of Henry of Navarre, but was not at the fight, presented himself on the following day before the King. When the King saw him he cried out not in anger but in reproach: "O, Carillon, you may go and hang yourself; for ye fought a great fight at Arques, but you were not there!" Ponsdrol, brave Carillon, never again combatted a Arques, mais tu n'y etais pas.)

We hear our mother calling from afar:
"Come over, O my children, to the war!"
And home again wear proudly every scar,
For we were there,
Yes, we were there,
But you (stand up and answer) were you there?

It was a fight of fury, West and East;
The Kaiser clawed brave Belgium like a beast;
We choked him off; we dragged him from his seat.
For we were there,
Yes, we were there,
But you (stand up and answer) were you there?

Sea-dragons, too, we hunted night and day;
We held those murderers of babies at bay,
And guarded gloriously the world, they say.
Were you not there?
Were you not there?
Hold up your head and answer, Were you there?

Don't you remember those who fought and fell
At Mons, the Marne, the Yser, Neuve Chapelle?
Have you no story of the fight to tell?
Were you not there?
Were you not there?
Stand up and give your answer, Were you there?

Did you not see at Stamboul or Sues
The German helmets or the Turkish Fez?
Surely that chap is lying when he says—
"You were not there!"
Say, if you can, he's lying—You were there!

The war is over; battle flags are furled;
The Great Betrayer from his throne is hurled;
It was a glorious fight for all the world,
And we were there;
Yes, we were there;
But you (stand up yourself!), you were not there!"
R. STANLEY WEIR.

Senator Thorne Appeals for the Patriotic Fund

St. John, Oct. 4.
To the Editor of Daily Standard:
The committee of the "Canadian Patriotic Fund," is about to appeal to the citizens of St. John for contributions to augment their funds, and make ample provision for the wives, families and dependants of those who have gone forward and are about going to fight for Canada and the Empire.

I am afraid a large portion of our citizens do not fully realize we are at war, and feel the necessity of doing all that lay within their power to bring it to a successful issue at the shortest time possible.

Everyone can help and should be prepared to make some sacrifice in order to provide for the families of those who enlist for overseas service. We are using every effort to get men to enlist, and we are pledged to support their families and dependants during their absence. Those that remain behind, secure in their homes, should pay liberally in support of those who join the colors and risk their lives in the cause of liberty and freedom.

Let every man who has an ounce of patriotism give liberally and be prepared to make great sacrifices for those who are fighting in the trenches. St. John has done well in contributing to various Patriotic Funds, few have, however, up to the present time made any great sacrifice. There are many in this city who have not yet done their duty in this respect, and to them we appeal for such cash assistance as will provide for the necessities of the fund, until the war is over. It would be an everlasting disgrace to the citizens of St. John and New Brunswick, if they did not come forward for those dependants without outside assistance.

In this greatest war the world has ever known, the Patriotic Fund has done a noble work throughout Canada and without one dollar of assistance from the central government. The Fund has been administered chiefly through voluntary effort, and our local committee meets every day in considering the many cases that come before it. We court fair criticism, and invite any citizen interested, to call at the office in Prince William street, and our worthy treasurer, Mr. C. B. Allan will be pleased to give information as to the system and methods of distribution, as well as the expenses involved in connection therewith.

Whatever contributions are made for other patriotic purposes the "Patriotic Fund" should be the first consideration of our people, and I have no doubt a liberal response will be given by the citizens of St. John, as well as the province generally.

Canvassers, in the interest of the Fund, will visit every household, and it is most desirable that subscribers agree to contribute monthly, until peace be declared, such an amount as will provide for the demands (which are steadily increasing) on the committee.

Yours etc.,
W. H. THORNE,
Chairman.

A Monopoly Fixes Diamond Prices

The London Syndicate controls absolutely 95 per cent. of the world's Diamond output in the rough. This method of marketing the rough stones has been in effect for a couple of decades, and since the Syndicate was formed every shipment of Diamonds has brought a higher price than the one before it. The Syndicate has figured out to a fine point the increase in mining cost, decrease in production both as to quality and quantity, and increase in demand, and fixed a steadily increasing price for rough stones based on these economic facts. Even a world war was taken into consideration by the Syndicate. Although the present year has seen big price advances, it is not reasonable to suppose Diamonds will ever be cheaper than now. Come in and look over our Diamond Rings. You will find good values and reasonable prices.

There was a barouche full of beautiful floral tributes from many friends, showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held in the community. Among these tributes was a ladder from the ladder companies in the fire department; a helmet from the St. John Fire Corps, and a wreath from No. 4 Engine company.

The funeral procession was one of the longest that has been seen in the city for some time. Preceding the hearse was Chief Simpson and the members of the police force, the City Cornet Band, No. 1 and No. 2 Salvage Corps under command of Captains MacRae and Thornton, Commissioned McLellan and Chief Blake with the members of the fire department. In all there was well over a hundred men in uniform and their excellent appearance was highly commented on.

The route of the funeral procession was from the home to Paddock street, thence along Waterloo street to Hay Market Square where the police and firemen lined up on either side of the road as the hearse and mourners passed through. Interment was in Fernhill.

TWO GOOD MEETINGS WERE HELD IN CITY LAST NIGHT

Recruiting Campaign Continued With Unabated Vigor—Glad Tidings Hall and Office at Mill and Union Streets Centres of Patriotism.

In Recruiting Office. A well attended recruiting meeting and entertainment was held last evening in the Mill street office. Edward Sears presided and was assisted in his remarks by L. E. D. Tilley, M. L. A. Those present in khaki were given a royal reception. During the evening they were called to the platform and three hearty cheers followed the words of praise given them by Mr. Tilley. He told of their fine work done in the aid of recruiting and how they had stuck to their task with patience. Quartermaster Sergeant Lemmon replied for the men in khaki and said they only had done their duty. They appreciated the interest that was shown towards them. Throughout the evening numerous applicants passed through the hall on their way to and from the doctor's office. Each man or group of men was applauded heartily which showed the feeling of the gathering towards these men who were offering all to their country. There were more than twenty applications for the Siege Battery now being formed by Lt.-Col. B. R. Armstrong in this city. Three signed on yesterday for the 64th Battalion.

They were: Paul Reid, Red Head. H. G. Clowes, Fredericton. R. J. Connell, St. John.

An orchestra of three pieces gave selections during the evening and received much applause. Steve Matthews was present with a good store of his funny jokes and songs and very obligingly responded to the calls for "more." Frederick J. Punter also gave a number of comic song selections which were much enjoyed. Rocco Bond rendered the necessary music.

Edward Sears, chairman, gave a few opening remarks on the need of recruiting and who should go. His address was that of the Empire's defense. He said that conscription takes the humanity out of men. H. W. Woods, M. L. A., for Queens County, gave a few words about recruiting and who should go. His address kept him from joining but should he have the chance of the younger boys he would gladly go.

He told of the people in his district, Queens County, who give freely towards the patriotic auction in this city last week. It was mostly farm products but the people gave so willingly that all deserve credit for the success obtained.

The many friends of having three nephews at the front. He said that some mothers when asked to give consent to their boys going to war would ask why the chaps standing around the corners did not go. This sounds alright but these boys also have mothers who want their sons as much as any other does.

Before the close of the meeting Mr. Sears spoke a few words in regard to the Tobacco Fund. He said that criticism had been very marked in respect to this particular fund but everything could be denied. The French and British governments have made arrangements to the effect that all tobacco bought by this fund will be at cost price.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem and three cheers for the King.

The recruiting and entertainment smoker will be continued for the remainder of the week at the Mill street office.

In Glad Tidings Hall. A recruiting meeting under the auspices of the East End Recruiting Committee was held in the Glad Tidings Hall, Brussels street, last night. Geo. H. Waterbury presided and a good programme was provided. Two pipes and a Stewart. They played from King Square to the hall and furnished selections during the course of the entertainment. The speakers of the evening were Joseph Harrington and Lieut. Teed. A. W. Baird gave a patriotic recitation "Kitchener, French and Jellico," which met with the hearty approval of the audience. Pipes and cigars were supplied by the committee. Thomas McAdoo sang a song and told many stories. After the social end of the programme had been attended to the chairman announced that the meeting had been called for the purpose of securing recruits for the 64th Battalion.

In introducing the speakers, Mr. Waterbury said: "Great Britain has always stood for the protection of the weak and oppressed, and she has always kept her word."

"Now the fact that Great Britain is in this war makes it our war, and if we do not rally to the assistance of the motherland in this national crisis, and she should be defeated in the struggle, then Belgium's fate will be ours."

"The province of New Brunswick has not sent many men to the front, in proportion to her population, as any other province in the Dominion. Now I do not think this can be because the boys of our province are afraid. I think it is due to the fact that they have not begun to realize that this is our fight. We are holding these meetings to get the people thinking, and I feel sure that when the young men of our province wake up to the seriousness of the situation there will be no scarcity of recruits."

Joseph Harrington, the first speaker, he said in part: "No man who is of military age and physically fit can conscientiously hold back his services to his country at this critical time. Canada as part of the greatest Empire the world has ever seen, has a duty to perform. Her duty is to supply men to assist the motherland in this her hour of great need. Canada is at war. It is necessary at this time to defend, not England alone, but Canada as well. This fight is to protect the freedom of our country and the honor of the nation."

"By helping ourselves now we are helping the motherland. It is only just, that we should help her if only in payment for the protection she has afforded us in years past. Britain has protected Canada when Canada was not able to look after herself and, if she had not given us that protection, where would we be today? Certainly not a part of that great British Empire of which we are so proud."

Lieut. Teed, the next speaker. He is leaving about the end of this month to rejoin his comrades on the firing line. He told of the actions that the boys who went overseas at the first call for troops had taken part in. He said the need for men could not be exaggerated. It was imperative to have more men to back up those now engaged. Lieut. Teed paid a great tribute to the boys of the 28th Battalion. He had seen them at Shorncliffe, and said they were regarded over there as one of the finest battalions in the world.

He spoke of meeting St. John boys all over the battlefield and mentioned meeting Major "Tommy" Powers with a company of signallers mostly all from St. John.

He spoke interestingly of the trip across with the first contingent, and of the reception accorded them on their arrival in England. He said there was no doubt that if St. John was attacked, every able bodied man would get out and do his best to defend his home. "It would be too late then," said Lieut. Teed. This question has got to be thrashed out over there in France. We have got to have more men. If the Germans break through the British lines over there God help Canada.

You have heard how the Germans hate the English. Well, they hate the Canadians worse than they do the English.

"If you had seen some of the sights that I have, you would not hold back. I have seen a little boy nine years old with his hands cut off, and a little girl of six with a bayonet wound through her cheek. If the Germans ever get to Canada, and it is possible, then look out. The treatment these children received will be duplicated on your children. So you see you are asked to fight, not for England, but for your own home. This war is going to last for a long time and will only be won by a constant supply of men. We expect you to come along and do your part, with those boys who have gone before you, and are depending on you to back them up."

A vote of thanks was extended to the pipers for their participation and the meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Tomorrow night there will be another meeting in Temperance Hall, Marsh Road.

CHRISTMAS TREAT FOR THE CHILDREN

Families of soldiers will be remembered at the holiday time.

A Christmas tree and entertainment for the children of men who have joined the colors in defence of the Empire was the subject discussed at a special committee meeting of the Soldiers' Wives' League held at Mrs. Walter W. White's city residence yesterday afternoon.

A number of ladies, including the president, Mrs. George F. Smith, were present, and officers were nominated to take charge of the various details. The entertainment committee is composed of Mrs. Walter W. White (convenor), Mrs. David B. Pidgeon and Miss E. Skinner, Miss Ethel Jarvis and Miss M. Harrison, Mrs. W. H. Purdy, Miss J. Hunter White, Mrs. J. W. Daniel, Miss Maud Addie, Mrs. Clarence De Forest, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Alfred Morrison, Mrs. Curran, Mrs. Alex. Fowler, Mrs. W. H. Harrison, Mrs. J. E. Moore and Mrs. Sherwood Skinner.

December 21st is the date decided upon and it is hoped that the Knights of Columbus rooms will be available. Every effort is being made to guarantee the gathering being successful. After the children have partaken of ice cream and cake Mrs. E. A. Smith is arranging that a number of interesting and amusing lantern slides will be shown, followed by music and other attractions, concluding with the dismantling of a large heavily laden Christmas tree by Miss Helen Sydney Smith who will impersonate Santa Claus.

Toys to decorate the tree are being solicited and the generous public are asked to send boys' toys, etc., to either Mrs. D. B. Pidgeon, Douglas Avenue, or Miss Skinner, 24 Coburg street, and girls' dolls, etc., to Miss M. Harrison, 153 Sydney street, or Miss Ethel Jarvis, 143 Duke street.

Subscriptions are also asked for. The presents will be put into Christmas stockings which are now being made by members of the committee. It will interest the scores of young workers who are now busily engaged in collecting money and gathering toys etc., towards Uncle Dick's toy fund, in connection with the Children's Corner of The Standard, to know that the result of their arduous efforts will be distributed through the above channel.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the food, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

MORE HELP NEEDED FOR THE BELGIANS

London, Oct. 12.—The Lord Mayor announced at the Mansion House today that the fund of the national committee for the relief of Belgium had reached 1,000,000 pounds, the committee having been formed in April to assist the American commission. Of that amount 700,000 pounds was contributed from overseas, Australia leading the way. The cost of feeding the people of Belgium is over 200,000 pounds weekly. A meeting was called for the purpose of pledging the city of London to systematically support the national fund. Earl Curzon and Sir John Simon made eloquent speeches, reiterating Belgium's heroic and need, and the allies' obligation to her. The treatment of Belgium by the Germans, said Lord Curzon, was, without exception, the greatest crime in history. Sir John Simon declared that it was Belgium's stand which united Great Britain in its determination to fight.

BOTH CAPTAINS FOUND GUILTY

Special to The Standard
Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 12.—Captain Demers, Dominion wreck commissioner, in giving his decision regarding the collision between the "Sir Hugh Allan" of the Montreal Harbor Commission and the "Delvly" of the Quebec Harbor Board in the St. Lawrence, near Pointe-au-Loup, that both were at fault in not observing the rule of the road requiring vessels when approaching to signal by whistling which way they were going to pass. Captain R. Chevrier of the "Sir Hugh Allan" has his master's certificate suspended for one year, but is recommended for a mate's certificate on inland waters. Captain J. B. Blair of the Delvly is found unfit to command a vessel and his certificate is cancelled. Leon Crepan, engineer of the Delvly also has his certificate permanently cancelled for leaving his post andumping to the "Sir Hugh Allan" without stopping his engines.

KNOX COLLEGE NOW REPUDIATES MAN IT HONORED FEW DAYS AGO

Toronto, Oct. 12.—The senate of Knox College, at its regular autumn meeting held this afternoon, ordered to be placed on record a resolution repudiating the views of Rev. Prof. G. L. Robinson, of McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago, who, on the same day that he received the D. D. degree from the college, stated, in an interview that Great Britain was as much to blame as Germany for the war. His remarks were characterized as offensive, unjustifiable and extremely discourteous. The question of rescinding the degree was not mooted.

NOT SATISFIED WITH SIR JOHN SIMONS REPLY.
London, Oct. 12.—Sir John Simons reply to recent criticism is generally regarded as most unsatisfactory. The Pall Mall Gazette says that the most sinister features are its utter indifference to the destruction of public confidence, and the characteristic determination to pass on the responsibility to other shoulders.

THE STANDARD has secured, at a price which will appeal to all, a number of very fine portraits of SIR ROBERT L. BORDEN

THESE are beautifully made engravings, said to be the best likeness of the Premier in existence, and are printed on a heavy paper suitable for framing.

THESE Portraits may be secured from The Standard on payment of thirty cents, by mail, or twenty-five cents delivered at this office. They will also be given, as long as the supply lasts, as premiums for bona fide new subscriptions. The shipment is limited, and any desiring these portraits should apply at once.

CHANGE REGARDING PRESS TELEGRAM RATES

London, Oct. 12.—A picture postcard known as "Thumbs Up" reached the newspapers today from Raphael Tuck & Sons, announcing the withdrawal of the proposal to abolish the half penny post. This announcement was subsequently made in the Commons, but Tuck's action indicates the quarter which influenced the chancellor. Many trading interests would undoubtedly have suffered by the abolition of the half penny stamp. Another modification is promised in respect to press telegram rates. As this proposal has not met with much criticism, it is evident that the government prefers not to add to the burdens of the press. Probably it is a sop offered to allay the growing irritation in connection with the censorship.

J. S. BACHE & CO. ON OUTLOOK OF THE NEW YORK MARKET

For two days this week, the market was the scene of a spirited contest for control of the speculative spirit which bolstered up by unlimited faith in the future had promised to carry prices beyond bounds. This faith is all right and many dreams will probably be realized, but some of them could not possibly reach fruition in years, while the endeavor seemed to be to commandeer profits, that can only be gradually worked out, by presupposing delivery in 24 hours.

The market for some time has been so inflated, that it was vulnerable to any very bad news, unexpected or unusual, but no such news materialized.

Consequently, rather than allow expansion to go to the point of excessive danger where an explosion would have not only injured the innocent people who were groping blindly in an intoxicating atmosphere and themselves unconsciously doing all they could to make possible such an explosion, but would also have extended the damage widely outside, the expedient was adopted of raising margins. This proved effectual, breaks of 5 to 10 points following on the first day, and from 5 to 16 points on the second. Large selling resulted and lower prices were obtained.

This did not prevent a vigorous uprise on the third day, but much good had been accomplished, and the rise was distributed among the safer stocks.

With money so abundant and many basic conditions so favorable, it is difficult to restrain the spirit of optimism, but after the experience of the week, it is to be hoped that the action will go on in safer channels.

Optimism has strong arguments for existence.

The government crop report this week establishing a record yield for the year for nearly all crops, puts a golden crown upon the season's agricultural effort.

We appear to have passed out of the danger zone of foreign complications with every prospect of remaining neutral until the end. This places a high premium upon our great resources, and clears the way for enormous additions to the nation's wealth. These will come first to the larger concerns engaged directly in war manufacturing and war supplies, and to concerns like the steel and other metal companies contributing material, gradually extending to other concerns and individuals.

There are good stocks to be bought outside of the speculative war area, but which will be helped by the activity which is gradually developing from the effects of war enterprises. Some of these, like the better railroads have not yet materially reflected the new light of better times, and are selling around or not far from the old range of prices. Union Pacific perhaps, leads these, with Atchison, Great Northern, preferred, Northern Pacific, Northern Pacific, etc., following, also New York Central, New Haven, and others in the Southern and Eastern groups.

Of the war stocks still carrying on their regular business without alteration of equipment, steel, which supplies all the others, must be given first consideration. If the domestic demand quickens appreciably, steel capacity will be far outrun at high prices, and unprecedented profits should result. Westinghouse Electric and

AMENDMENTS TO STOCK EXCHANGE CONSTITUTION HAVE BEEN APPROVED

All Stocks will hereafter be quoted in terms of Dollars instead of Points—Charge of $12.50 per hundred shares for buying or selling stock quoted under $10 a share.

New York, Oct. 12.—When the stock exchange opens tomorrow certain favorite stocks will apparently be halved in value, although in reality there will be no change in their worth. Thus Reading, Pennsylvania and Westinghouse, selling Monday at 161, 117 and 138 will be listed at 80 1/2, 58 1/2 and 69, respectively, unless there be the usual variations in quotations over a holiday.

The reason for this is found in an announcement, made at the stock exchange today, asserting that certain amendments to the constitution had been approved, almost unanimously, by the members. One of these amendments provided for quoting all stocks in terms of dollars, instead of points, as heretofore. Reading, Pennsylvania and Westinghouse, together with a number of other issues, are of $50 par value, but have been quoted on a hundred point basis in the past. In future they will be quoted in terms of dollars which apparently halves their values.

Another amendment provides for a charge of one-eighth of one per cent, or $12.50 per hundred shares, for buying or selling stock quoted under $10 a share.

On these issues, which include Missouri Pacific, Kansas and Texas, American Malt, Rumely, St. Louis and San Francisco, Wabash, Iowa Central, Wheeling and Lake Erie, the broker's fee hereafter will be $6.25 per hundred shares.

ANOTHER BOSTON H AND CONF AT PHIL

Yesterday's Game Less S day's and Red Sox Nos Margin of 2-1—Alexan Again Today — Played $144,899.50.

Boston, Oct. 12.—Only one winning game stands tonight between the Red Sox and the baseball championship of the world. For the third successive time they defeated the Phillies of the National League today by the same score that has marked all of the Red Sox victories—2 to 1.

Tomorrow the scene of battle shifts back to Philadelphia, where Alexander undoubtedly will be called upon to pitch his third game of the series in an effort to stem the tide of Red Sox success. The two teams left for Philadelphia tonight, the Phillies fairly deep in gloom and the Red Sox confident that the championship is but a step away. If Alexander should prove a winner in his own ball yard tomorrow the sixth game of the series will be played here on Thursday.

Alexander is the last hope of the Phillies. He is ready and anxious to go back in the box tomorrow, and is sure to give a good account of himself. He won from the Red Sox last Friday and was defeated yesterday only by a fierce batting rally in the last of the ninth. The Phillies themselves feel that if they can give "Big Alex." any sort of offensive support he will put across a victory tomorrow that at least will give the National Leaguers a fighting chance in the series.

Red Sox Never Headed.

The Philadelphia batters took rather kindly to Shore's offerings today and made more hits than they had registered in any one of the three previous conflicts. The power to drive in the runs was lacking, however, and eight of the visitors were left on the paths. But "Gavvy" Cravath sent Lewis back to the left field fence again today to catch a drive that on the Philadelphia grounds would have been a hit into the stands and good for the circuit. A little luck in placing those long hits tomorrow would make all the difference in the world behind a pitcher of Alexander's ability, and there are many students of the game tonight who do not share the confidence of the Red Sox that tomorrow's contest will be the last.

Differing widely from the two sparkling, blood-tinging games of Saturday and Monday, today's contest was decidedly common-place. The Red Sox got away in front and were never headed. Their margin never was very wide, but it seemed at all times sufficient and there was little to stir the crowd to the high pitches of excitement that marked the struggle of yesterday. The Phillies made a threat in their half of the eighth because "Tris" Speaker again had trouble with the sun and let Cravath's single bound over his head, the runner pulling up at third with a three base run to his credit. Two were out at the time and the fans were not inclined to fence against the situation by stealing second. Whitted, with a single, might have tied the score but his fast liner went directly at the Boston pitcher, who gamely knocked it down and threw the Philly left fielder out at first.

Presentation.
Miss Gladys Fowler has accepted a position with the Imperial Oil Company. She has been in the office of Waterbury & Rising, Ltd., King street and on leaving Saturday was presented with a beautiful mauture set and an address read by Richard Ington.

Caused Excitement.
James and Mary Reynolds were arrested on Main street yesterday afternoon charged with being drunk and making general nuisances of themselves. The woman seemed to be the manager of the household, for it was she who carried the money and booze. Half a bottle of whiskey was taken from her as well as some money, but the man did not carry any money or liquor.

Three Chinamen Out.
The case against the seventeen Chinese charged with keeping and being inmates of an opium and gambling den kept by Hop Lee and Sing Lee on Mill street, will be taken up on Friday morning, and it is the intention of the court to try and finish up the case on that day, even if an evening session is found necessary. The bail has been fixed so high that only three of the number have been bailed out and the other fourteen were still in jail last night.

Two Brothers Enlist.
Oland C. Bisill has received word that his brothers, Clifford E. Bisill, district manager of the Canada Life Assurance Co. and Dewart M. Bisill, associated with his brother in the management of the Kingston branch, have volunteered for active service in the 41st Regiment, Kingston, Ontario. Both these young men have been active in military matters in times of peace, and are proving that they are not merely fair weather soldiers. D. M. Bisill was at one time officer commanding the Brockville, Ont. College Institute Cadet Corps, while his brother served with the 41st as provisional lieutenant.

Accidentally Shot.
Arthur Lynch, the fourteen-year-old son of Dennis Lynch, Bridge street, was accidentally shot on Monday morning. Young Lynch and a chum of his named Ballard, were, at the time, examining a 22-calibre rifle, and participating some target practice. The gun was loaded, but failed to discharge as the boys expected it to. Consequently, they started to examine it when it went off unexpectedly. The bullet struck Lynch in the fleshy part of the thigh. Fortunately it escaped contact with the bone, and passed out. Medical aid was secured and the wounded member attended to. The injury the lad sustained is not regarded as being serious, although painful.

ARE TO ASSIST THE RED CROSS

Local Association will aid plan suggested by Lord Lansdowne.

A special meeting of the local branch of the Red Cross Society was held yesterday afternoon to consider methods of joining in efforts to respond to the appeal for an Empire-wide campaign on October 21 in behalf of the Red Cross Society. The plans outlined by Lord Lansdowne in a recent cable despatch were considered and the meeting expressed sympathy with the object in view, but it was decided to defer action until the next regular meeting of the local branch to be held on Monday, October 18.

NIGHT SCHOOL BEGINS SOON

POWER BOAT CLUB UNVEILS ROLL OF HONOR

Fourteen members now in Empire forces—Club doing its bit.

The regular meeting of the St. John Power Boat Club was held at the club house, Marble Cove, last evening with Commodore S. P. Geow in the chair, and a large number of members present. The executive's report was submitted and showed the club to be in a splendid condition. The season has been a most successful one. The Commodore, in his remarks, referred to the prosperous year, and the freedom from accidents, as well as the great improvement in the equipment and handling of the boats.

An interesting feature of the meeting was the unveiling of the Honor Roll of the club members who have enlisted and gone to the front. Attorney-General Baxter was to have unveiled the tablet but was unable to be present.

The Commodore, in unveiling the roll referred to the loyalty of the members now in the trenches and impressed on the meeting the necessity of keeping up the good work by further enlistments, or if the members were unable to go themselves, to help by keeping those at the front supplied with all the necessaries for bringing the war to a successful issue. He told the members that the bed which was donated by the club to Dr. Murray MacLaren's Military Hospital had been duly installed and intimated that this should be only the beginning of the effort of the club to serve the Empire.

The Honor Roll, which is beautifully gotten up in Old English letters, and set in a handsome frame, contains the following names:

Major Fred T. McKean.
Captain Frank H. Elliott,
Lieutenant Cuthbert J. Morgan,
Lieutenant Percy D. McAvity,
Lieutenant Thomas E. Ryder,
Lieutenant Andrew G. Rainnie,
Lieutenant David B. Pidgeon,
Private Maurice E. Bronsan,
Private James A. Myers,
Private James Gaulton,
Private James H. Brown,
Private Walter Jones,
Private James Bond,
Private Otty Morgan.

The club will hold a smoker early in November, at which a handsome billiard table will be sold at auction and the proceeds will be given to the Canadian Patriotic Fund.

THE CANADIAN PREMIER HERE ON TUESDAY

The announcement was made last night from Ottawa that Sir Robert L. Borden would leave Ottawa Monday night on his way to St. John where he would address a patriotic meeting Tuesday evening. THE LOCH LOMOND FAIR AND PATRIOTIC DANCE

Large crowd expected to attend this afternoon and evening—To aid soldiers

It is expected that there will be a large attendance at the agricultural fair to be held at Loch Lomond today. A member of the society yesterday said he expects that the entries for the different classes will prove the largest and of a higher grade than ever before.

The Carleton Cornet Band had offered their services for the day but as this organization has offered their services to their King and Country and have been accepted by the 88th Battalion they received word yesterday to report at Sussex today and will therefore be unable to attend the fair. The committee in charge of the ball have arranged for other music and a good time may be expected by all who attend.

CANADIAN FRUIT PARTICULARLY GOOD

Government report No. 5 has much valuable information concerning fruits.

The October report of the fruit crop received from Ottawa, indicates that the condition of the crops throughout Canada is good.

In Nova Scotia the fruit is said to be of a good color. Wind storms have blown at least 75 per cent of the crop off the trees. The packing houses are all busy and the chief fruits being picked are the Blenheim, Ribstone and Kings. No. 1 Gravensteins are reported scarce. No. 1 and No. 2 grades are selling for $3 and large No. 3's at $2.

Father and Mother Dead.
Mrs. W. A. Smith of 115 Duke street west and her son returned on Saturday from Albert county, where they were called some time ago on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Smith's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Marks. Both died within three weeks of each other, and are now sleeping side by side in the Methodist churchyard at Curryville, Albert county. The many friends of Mrs. Smith will extend to her and family their sympathy.

NOT GUILTY WAS THE VERDICT

Marseline Thibodeau freed from charges made against her.

At yesterday afternoon's sitting of the Supreme Court, presided over by His Honor Justice Barry, Attorney-General Baxter addressed the jury in the case of the King vs. Marseline Thibodeau, accused on the one count of not having provided proper medical care on childbirth, and on the other with concealment of birth. The jury stayed out for upwards of an hour and returned a verdict of not guilty. The prisoner was forthwith discharged.

MANY TICKETS FOR DRAWINGS

Parade of prizes through streets yesterday afternoon—A fine array of goods.

A large number of tickets for the patriotic drawing to be held on or about November 1, for patriotic prizes was sold yesterday as a result of the parade from St. Andrew's rink in the afternoon. Most of the prizes were displayed on motor trucks and carriages, which, with a number of automobiles, proceeded through the principal streets of the city.

The procession was headed by the Bugle Band from Partridge Island, the route taken being along Charlotte street, south side of King Square, where photographs were taken, Sydney street, Union street, Brussels street, City Road, Pond, Mill, Dock, King and Charlotte streets, back to the rink. In the line of procession after the bugle band was the car won by L. V. Price last week. Then came the car given for the drawing by William C. Allison. Members of the Daughters of the Empire and others interested in the project report that there was a large sale of tickets during the day.

NEW BRUNSWICK'S PART IN RECRUITING

Six hundred and sixty-seven men from this Province enlisted last month.

The executive of the recruiting committee met in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday afternoon. Reports show that the total number of recruits obtained in the Maritime Provinces during September total 1886. Nova Scotia is credited with 1117, New Brunswick with 667 and Prince Edward Island with 102.

The executive of the Patriotic Fund committee also met in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday afternoon. Hon. Judge J. G. Forbes presided. The object was to decide about the invitation to be sent to the Hon. R. L. Borden inviting him next when he is passing through the city. The subject will likely be of a patriotic nature. A motion was made by Dr. A. P. Barnhill, K.C. and seconded by T. H. Estabrooke that a seconded by 7. The invitation would be sent from the joint executive of the recruiting and Patriotic Fund committees requesting the Rt. Hon. R. L. Borden to give an address on Tuesday evening, October 19th, in this city. A committee of Lt. Col. E. T. Sturdee, Thos. W. Bell, L. P. D. Tilley, C. B. Allen, Richard Sullivan, Hon. J. G. Forbes and R. E. Armstrong, secretary of the Board of Trade, was appointed to arrange matters. There is a possibility of securing the Imperial Theatre and the committee will look into this.

Tramp Dog Destroyed.
For some days a tramp dog has been quite a nuisance about the I. C. R. depot. The dog was without a license tag and as no person claimed the owner, the dog was destroyed by the St. John's Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Society. The animal was done away with. Accordingly a police officer was called on yesterday to shoot the dog.
