

PROTECTION IN DOMINION IS REQUIRED

Policy Necessary if Laborers Are to Be Employed and Country Developed.

MACKENZIE KING RATHER INCONSISTENT

Makes Many Contradictory Statements on Tariff, Says Premier Meighen.

Sherbrooke, Sept. 21.—The Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, Premier of Canada, inaugurated his campaign in the eastern townships today, which included visits to Lennoxville, Compton, Stanstead, Coaticook and Waterville, winding up the day's programme by addressing a gathering of some five thousand here this evening.

Premier Meighen was loudly applauded when he arose. The chief theme of his address was relative to the tariff question. "You have two kinds of tariff and only one," he said. "You can have a tariff founded on one principle, that of protection, or on another principle, that of free trade. Great Britain had a free trade tariff for sixty years. She collected large revenues, but she put a tax on nothing except on goods that could not be made in her own country. That was a free trade tariff.

There was no protection about it. A protective tariff places a duty on imports, not only for the sake of revenue, but as well to encourage production of goods at home instead of their importation. The tariff Canada has had for 42 years; has such a tariff the United States has had for 131 years, and such a tariff every great nation in the world today has except Great Britain. The tariff in Britain is now protective and encouraging her home industry by a dozen or more different devices, and, according to Hon. Dr. Beland and other authorities, just as good, many soon be using the tariff for protection as well."

Protection Necessary. "Now I have set before you the two principles. If protection is right, then the latter tariff should be adopted. In the opinion of the Government protection for this country is right and, indeed, essential, and the adoption of any other principle would be false to the teachings of the past and would soon spell unemployment, hard times and a smaller and weaker Canada. That is the principle of the tariff policy the Government stands for," said the Premier. The Farmers' Party proposed the free tariff. Sometimes when talking in Eastern Canada they pretend they don't but their platform says they do. Their leaders say they do, their fathers and I have lived among them in Western Canada for twenty years and right well I know they do.

Farmers and Free Trade. The leader of that party is Mr. O'Leary. He has been preaching free trade doctrines for twenty years and is preaching them today. The success of his platform as well as in the Commons, he has preached that industries that require the protection of a tariff are of no value to a country. A man who believes these doctrines is a man who wants free trade. Furthermore, the leaders of the Mackenzie King Liberal Party, knowing they can do nothing alone, are getting in behind the Farmers' group and making common cause with the extreme farmer free trader.

SIR JOSEPH COOK MAY BE AUSTRALIA'S LONDON MINISTER

London, Sept. 21.—The Times Melbourne, Australia, correspondent says that Sir Joseph Cook, Navy Minister, will succeed Sir Andrew Fisher as Australian High Commissioner in London. Recently a special correspondent of the Times wrote: "Confusion and uncertainty rule the Federal politics of Australia. The party in power, the National Party, is the survivor of a coalition formed by Premier W. H. Hughes, in the days when the conscription controversy tore him from the bosom of Labor and flung him into alliance with his lifelong opponents, the Liberals, led by Sir Joseph Cook. With the war over, the bond of that union seems to grow increasingly tenuous."

WINNIPEG TO APPEAL AGAINST TRAM FARES

Government Friends Flooding The Capital With Congratulations

Hundreds of Friends of Rt. Hon. Mr. Meighen Elated Over By-Elections.

Ottawa, Sept. 21.—Messages of congratulations on the by-election successes in Cochester and St. John, N. B., are pouring into Ottawa today from supporters of the Government. Gratification is expressed particularly over the success of Hon. F. B. Wigmore in St. John city was conceded from the outset.

HON. TWEEDDALE PUSSYFOOTING IN VICTORIA CO.

His Party Flirting With Farmers, Seeking Endorsement of Minister of Agriculture.

Special to The Standard
Grand Falls, Sept. 21.—Hon. J. P. Tweeddale, Provincial Minister of Agriculture, has been "pussyfooting" about Victoria County the last few days endeavoring to patch up his party's political fences, which are, to say the least, in a very dilapidated condition. The Minister carries a worried look and the situation here, apparent to all, cannot inspire the loquacious member of the Cabinet with any degree of confidence for the success of his Government in the forthcoming election, or his own success in seeking re-election.

Flirting With Farmers
The Government, through its emissaries, is flirting with the Farmers' Party. It is madly in love with the new organization and is anxious to become its everlasting friend. It is so greatly interested in its welfare that it is desirous of naming the candidates who would fitly represent it in the New Brunswick Legislative Assembly, and then sacrifice its own feelings, to take to an election the only drop of bitter in the cup of wine is the Government proposal that the farmers endorse the Government. The Government is making two blades of grass grow where one grew before, and enable him to introduce more of those "sheep" which are proving a worry to sheep breeders. The good sense of the farmers of Victoria will not countenance any such proposal and they are not falling for any such sop. They will not stand for another term of Mr. Tweeddale, and will pin their faith to men of their own party who must stand squarely on the platform of the Farmers' organization and be strong enough to withstand the flatterings and courtesies of the Government.

EXPECTS LOSS OF $1,500,000 DURING YEAR

Bell Telephone Company, at Rate Hearing, Declares New Rates Will Give 7.13 p.c.

WAR AND WAGES MAKE WORK HARDER

Company Cuts About Four Million Dollars off Estimated Expenditure for Year.

Ottawa, Sept. 21.—That the granting of the complete application of the Bell Telephone Company for increased rates would provide but 7.13 per cent. on the book value of the plant, working assets and working capital was the statement made by E. Palm, Controller for the Company, during the course of the first day's hearing of the application. Mr. Palm placed the net profit most important thing the company had a deficit of $482,206, after meeting its interests and dividend requirements. He estimated that it would have a deficit of over $1,500,000 by the end of the year. The company had failed to cover a depreciation of slightly over six per cent. by $76,700 in 1919, or the emergency rate for depreciation allowed by the Railway Board, by $390,000.

Mr. C. F. Sise, vice-president and general manager, told the Board that increased rates are necessary because the service is impaired as a consequence of war conditions, and also in consequence of rapidly increasing wages, cost of operations, maintenance and renewals. He stated that the most important thing the company has to do is to finance the deficit. As it is impossible for the company to do its financing by the usual means, he stated that it should be put in a position to make the stock sufficiently attractive to bring in new shareholders. Mr. Sise stated that the annual requirement of the company for some years to come will be approximately ten million dollars.

Cut the Expenditure.

Mr. W. H. Winter, general superintendent of the plant, said the estimated expenditure for the present year had been reduced from $14,733,072 to $10,876,852, because of the cost and the delay established in procuring equipment and material.

His volume is a long conversation with Wilhelm after the Reichstag passed resolutions in favor of "peace by arrangement."

"I knew for certain that England and the United States have formed an alliance to square accounts with Japan after the war," he quotes the Kaiser as saying. "Japan and Russia will be allied in a counter offensive. The present war is not to end with defeat but when it is ended we shall have a far-reaching understanding with France. ## THE BY-ELECTIONS.

The disappointing endorsement of the Dominion Administration by the electors of St. John-Albert and Colchester on Monday is not at all pleasing to the press supporting the Opposition in Parliament, which professes to regard the result of the polling as due entirely to local and personal considerations. One of the members of this press avers that the constituency opened were deliberately hand-picked as the two safest ones to open; that Messrs. Wigmore and McCurdy were given places in the Cabinet simply because of their personal popularity with their constituents, who could be relied upon to reject them without any trouble. This will strike most people as rather a shallow sort of excuse, but it will doubtless serve the cause of the agitator as well as any other.

Messrs. Wigmore and McCurdy are popular with their constituents, there is not the slightest doubt about that. But their popularity would have been of very little practical benefit to them if they had been championing a cause which the public generally had not sympathy. Parliamentary elections are not fought on the lines followed in party contests by any means. The issues involved in these by-elections were of the greatest national importance, and it was upon these issues that the electors voted. They were asked to say by their votes whether they were in favor of a Government that is pledged to a continuation of the sound, practical policies that have been followed in Canada for many years now, and which have resulted in bringing to the country the gratifying degree of prosperity and greatness it now enjoys, or whether they preferred to turn the direction of public affairs over to a party led by an irresponsible enthusiast who is in favor of trying a series of experiments in fiscal matters that to no one on earth can conceal the result of. This was the issue before the electors on Monday, and they spoke their minds in an unambiguous manner. This same issue will be presented to the electors of Canada as a whole in the not distant future, and it is to be doubted that the result will be the same in the vast majority of the constituencies in the Dominion. It is sheer nonsense to say, as some newspapers are saying, that these two constituencies were not in any sense representative of public opinion generally in Canada or even in the Maritime Provinces. The same results would have been obtained in any other British-occupied constituencies in Eastern Canada at any time.

THE CHICKENS COMING HOME.
That there should be considerable increases apparent in the ranks of the Liberal party in this constituency is the result of Monday's polling is perhaps only natural. The incorporation of Dr. Emery has served to re-open the breach created in 1917, just when the leaders of the party were hoping the breach would be healed; and the indications are that the breach now reopened will only become wider as time goes on. And it is apparent, also, that it will extend to provincial affairs. The Premier Government is in that position where it needs all the support it can get in this city, and although the attitude taken by the Premier towards the candidature of Mr. Wiggins was undoubtedly the most sensible and proper one to take under the circumstances, there is a very large number of his political friends and former supporters who are very sure of him on that account, and was accused by him of forgetting that he left them when they needed him, and in return they will leave him on the 26th October, when he will need them. They don't understand why Mr. Foster worked so hard for the party opposed to the Premier Government in 1917, but failed the same party on Monday. And they are sure.

There is another reason why they are sure. The newspapers that are so falsely sounding the praises of the Premier Government now, had not a word to say in favor of Dr. Emery's candidature all through the campaign; in fact they did not appear to know that a campaign was on. As Premier Foster was not supporting Dr. Emery, therefore his newspapers will be asking Dr. Emery's friends to support the Premier Government, when Mr. Foster refused to support Dr. Emery. The attitude of Dr. Emery and his friends is reasonable; they feel that Mr. Foster left them in the lurch when they wanted all the help they could get, and the Premier's position naturally gives him a certain amount of prestige which would have helped them very considerably. The discussion now existing between the two members of the Liberal party in this constituency one such that will test all the diplomatic ingenuity of the Premier to adjust satisfactorily; in fact it is openly hinted that, rather than support the Government ticket in the city, the majority of Dr. Emery's friends will hold aloof altogether, or else bring out a candidate of their own. The Premier will find the chickens coming home to roost all right.

MORE PROGRESS.

There is an old saying, "Take care of the pence, and the pounds will take care of themselves." The Premier Government does not believe in these unqualified maxims; they are old-fashioned and out-of-date. They don't take care of anything—except their own interests. An instance of their disregard for small things is shown in the amounts spent for contingencies during their time. Contingencies, like charities cover a multitude of sins, and the Government is able to hide under this somewhat elastic head, many things that they would not care to openly provide money for. In the last year of the late administration, 1916, the total contingencies of the Legislature and Departments amounted to $20,934. In the next year, the first under the present administration, they rose to $25,934. In 1918 they swelled still further to $30,769; and last year, 1919, they had reached the tidy little sum of $41,468. There is no use denying the fact that in some respects the Premier Government is the most progressive of modern times; but their progress is, like the Duke's, not along very creditable lines.

THREE-DOLLAR WHEAT.

The demand in the Canadian West for a three-dollar minimum on wheat is probably based on the need of a profit on production. But what does it actually cost to grow wheat? Before the war, when wheat was 80 or 85 cents a bushel, the Saskatchewan Government ordered an enquiry, which showed remarkable differences in cost on various farms. The average cost was placed at about 60 cents. Three-dollar wheat has been an increase of four times that cost, whereas even the extreme increase in the cost of living is not figured at more than 150 per cent.

According to the Mail and Empire, the present cost of wheat is an unknown quantity, because the factors entering into it have all varied in value, like everything else. But there is one factor the West freely will admit has much to do with the case. That is, consecutive poor seasons. The Western farmer is said to figure that one really good crop in four or five will put him on his feet, economically, and average up well with the system of "mining the soil" simply pouring in the seed over an immense area, and gambling on the result—leads to poor crops in seasons of only average weather, should the deficit be made up by landing onto a good crop an extra price? The question is interesting theoretically, but not practically. Even if the Canada Wheat Board were still in control, the selling price of what could not be determined by it, when the United States wheat is decontrolled, shipping is plentiful, and other countries have large crops. The exceptional markets in foodstuffs that gave the Canadian farmer so excellent a profit partly came from great war prosperity in Canada, and partly from Europe's insistent need for food. The price was paid, because the supplies could only be obtained here. But the new Australian crop is a record, the United States has again almost a record, what yield, the European yields are heavy, and buyers are able to sit back, with deliberation, before they buy. In this situation, therefore, further control of wheat prices in Canada, except to what on a minimum in case of a disastrous slump, would be largely ineffective. The Western farmers have been having abnormal price returns from their crops, as a whole, and, as Premier Meighen said at Kingston, the large increase in the value of farm land shows that the farmer's economic position has not been injured by the unusual course of events.

ALONE.

A grim and ironic light is thrown on the policy of Sinn Fein by the plight of the Dublin Corporation. This body, in its fine republican frenzy, defied the decree of the British Government that compensation should be paid to the relatives of murdered policemen. The British Government had the audacity to request by a resolution of grants from the British Exchequer to a corresponding amount. What is the result? The Dublin Corporation cannot pay its way. All sorts of expenditures for the benefit of Dublin have been retroached. Tuberculosis treatment, sanitary improvements, local hospitals are suspended, and a quarter of the wages of the corporation's employees is to be withheld after the end of this month. One member has said bluntly that the corporation will become a laughing stock. We doubt, however, whether the workers who receive only three-quarters of their wages will find much to laugh at. They will, however, find material for new reflections on the teachings of Sinn Fein. They may even contemplate ruefully the Irish Republic of their dreams without any money from England. "Our-selves alone" is well enough—so long as the "alone" is well very small.

A few days ago we referred in these columns to the unfortunate incident that took place at Woodstock in which Liquor Inspector McAlmish figured rather prominently. Our criticisms were based upon the statement sent us by Chief Inspector Wilson, and were, we think, fully justified if such statement truthfully represented the facts. We have since ascertained, however, that the statement sent by Mr. Wilson was not prepared by him, but was sent to him to get published by a Woodstock resident, and is a grossly distorted version of the incident. It is much to be regretted that statements such as that referred to are offered for publication, as the truth or falsity of them must very soon become apparent. There appears to be no ground whatever for supposing that the town officials were in any degree wanting in their duty, as the statement would lead the reader to suppose; but that if any blame is to be attached to anyone it must be to the inspector, who took himself too seriously in view of all the circumstances.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

The Lambeth Conference.
(The Bishop of Peterboro in the Daily Herald, London.)

There is an old saying that the soul of an improvement is the improvement of the soul. This sounds harsh and narrow at first, but in its deepest and deepest sense it is profoundly true; for it only puts in pitiful language that the ultimate thing in life is not material but spiritual, that no capture of life's gains can bring a man permanent satisfaction apart from the capture of his own personality, and that no fellowship can reach its true height and depth unless it is based on interests which can neither be weighed in the scales nor measured in terms of cash. The Man who said "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness" and no ill dreamer, but the Man above all others whose outlook on the world was healthy, hearty, and true. For it is obvious that if his principles were acted upon our problems, international and industrial, would be solved, and we should be free to throw our energies into the development of the human family in the whole vast range of its activities which is the aim of all true reformers.

Great Social Worker's Visit.

(Social Welfare, Toronto.)
Mrs. Barnett, widow of the late Canon Barnett, founder of the famous Toronto Hall University Settlement, will spend three weeks in Canada, in September and early October. Tentative arrangements have been made for her to address meetings at Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and Hamilton. Other meetings may later be arranged. Mrs. Barnett will be accompanied by Dr. Helen Boyd, health officer. Mrs. Barnett is visiting Canada without any promise of payment. It is hoped, however, that hospitality will be provided in the cities which she visits, and that railway expenses will be met by the organizations securing her services. In view of Mrs. Barnett's eminence as a writer, social worker and speaker, it would be of great advantage to have her speak in many Canadian centres. Mrs. Barnett's chief lecture will be on the subject of housing, with special reference to her own important garden subject scheme in Hampstead. Every lecture will be illustrated.

THE LAUGH LINE

Why She Wanted It.
The house-surgeon of a big hospital was startled one morning recently by the request of a young patient for an extra allowance of butter.

"But why, pray?" he demanded. "Don't you get sufficient?"

"Well, sir," she explained, "my sweetheart is coming to see me to-day, and I want my hair to look nice."

A Slight Omission.

Bertie—Good heavens! What a sight you are!
Reggie—Just as I was leaving the house to come to the club my wife pulled me with flowers.

"But that doesn't account for your bruised and battered appearance."
"No, you see, she forgot to take them out of the pot!"—Edinburgh Scotsman.

Had Gone the Limit.

Mrs. Hicks is so painfully neat that she makes life miserable for her family. One of her rules is that all members of the household must remove their shoes before entering the house.

"Bill," she remonstrated one day with her husband, "I found a greasy spot on one of the dining-room chairs and I think it came off those pants you wear in the shop."
A brief silence ensued, the volcanic eruption: "Well, Mirandy, for the last fifteen years I have taken off my shoes every time I come into this house, but I'll be hanged if I'll go further."

Benny's Note Book

BY LEE PAZ

I woke up all of a sudden last night on account of a mosquitoer buzzing around my bed and landing on different parts of me such as my nose and my eyebrow, which every time I tried to hit it I hit the place on my face the mosquitoer had just got off of, probably being more pleasure for the mosquitoer than what it was for me, me thinking, Jimmy crickets, G, wizz, wat fums this?

And I went down stairs in my pajamers and took up pop, saying, Pop, I can't sleep, there's a mosquitoer up there and the more I try to sleep the more it wont let me.

And do you consider that sufficient excuse for coming down here and disturbing my rest? sed pop, and I sed, Well, G, goah, pop, how can I sleep with a big mosquitoer keeping on getting on my nose and getting off again?

What do you want me to do go up and speak softly to it? sed pop, and I sed, No sir, I just thawt I'd come down and tell you.

Which jest then I heard something buzzing around my ear, saying, G, pop, hear it is now, it must of followed 'me down stairs.

Well you follow your nose back up stairs, I'd like to get a little sleep tonight if you dont mind, sed pop.

Which I quick ran up to my room agen and shut door to keep the mosquitoer out in case it was the same mosquitoer, which it probably was because this morning at breakfast I looked at pops face and there was a fearsome bump rite on his eye, me saying, G wizz, pop, holey smokes, was that that mosquitoer?

I didnt ask it, eat your egg, sed pop, and I sed, Well G, goah, pop, do you think it was?

Shut up, sed pop.

Which I did.

MILITARISTS OF CHINA NOT MONARCHISTS

Only Object is to Protect Chief Executive and Further Republican Government.

(Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger.) Washington, Sept. 21.—Chang Tso-Lin Wan Chen-Yan Tsao Kun Li Chan and other Chinese military governors have formally denounced the monarchist movement, according to a report from Peking today, and have issued the following statement:

"It is perennially reported that there are two factions in China, one advocating the return of the monarchy and the other standing for a republican form of government.

"The monarchists report that the monarchists are in the ascendancy, but it is evident that the monarchists have been put into circulation by those who are bent upon our annihilation, so as to plunge the situation again into hopeless disorder.

"We hereby declare that our sole object is to protect the chief executive and to facilitate a true republican form of government, in accordance with the will of the people."

The signers were associated together in the overthrow of the Anfu club in Peking of which Marshal Tuan Chai-Jui, formerly premier, was the most powerful member and are now in control of the Peking government.

The advisers report no real progress in the negotiations between the north and the south and it appears that the southern leaders who heretofore have indicated a desire to come to an accommodation with the Peking government are apprehensive that the government of Chang Tso-Lin, the director general of the Manchurian province, will strengthen the monarchist after bringing the republican government of China into greater disrepute.

Chang Tso-Lin is believed to be opposed to the restoration plan for the financing of China by foreign interests on the ground that the conditions would limit China's exercise of sovereignty and tend to make it an international ward.

Marr, and Henry G. Marr, Plaintiffs, and Nelson E. Jack, Defendant, the lands and premises in the said decree and the plaintiff's statement of claim described as follows:

Home Branch Comforts Settlers

Women of Soldier Settlement Board Cheer and Help New Land Army.

A sheet of reports from the Home Branch of the Soldier Settlement Board gives very interesting accounts of what the directors and some counsellors of that branch are doing to assist the women settlers in improving the conditions surrounding them but their new homes. Unfortunately, there are numerous cases where, owing to ill health, the settler's wife is handicapped. The Home Branch, however, endeavors to meet such unfavorable conditions and bring comfort to stricken families.

In one family, in one of the Eastern Provinces, there is a little girl, six years old, deaf and dumb from spinal meningitis. The Home Branch has secured the active interest of the Patriotic Fund and the unfortunate child is to receive the benefits of a training in an institution.

At another home the wife of a settler was found to be suffering from tuberculosis. She is receiving the kindly help of neighbors and societies through the intervention of the Home Branch. In another family a little child playing in the field was run into by a mow and her foot cut off. The Home Branch arranged the necessary medical services and hospital treatment. Where there are sad features in connection with this home visitation work, there are many reports which show how well the wives of the settlers—many of them from the Old Country—are adapting themselves to their new conditions. One of these is described by the home counsellor as a lady of unusual intelligence. She knew nothing of housework when she married, but just worked along doing her best and the result is she is now described as a splendid housekeeper and housewife. She wished bulletins on cooking, poultry and buttermaking, which were furnished through the Home Branch.

This branch is doing a very fine work in lightening the burdens of the soldiers' dependents. They are welcome in the home and their efforts go far to improve the morale of the household and to bring about final success.

LONDON SEES HAND OF REDS IN BLAST

Evening Standard Prays Merciless Justice for Plotters in New York.

Copyright by Public Ledger. London, Sept. 21.—The Evening Standard in a strong editorial tonight on the Wall street explosion, expressed what one finds to be the general sentiment in England. Writing on "The American Crime," the Standard asks what the American Bolsheviks achieved, and answers the question as follows:

"Damage to the extent of about $1,000,000 was caused to buildings; and in human life a toll of thirty-five and 159 injured was taken. Not capitalists were victims, but men and women of moderate means. So it is always with these crazy plotters; they hit out blindly and inflict suffering and misery on the humble and then, having failed in their madness, they become even more revengeful and impossible.

Do it in Name of Love

A peculiar thing through it all is that their chiefs would have us believe they find an inspiration for those dreadful deeds in their love of the proletariat, in their desire to uplift humanity and to produce a new social order. Lenin and Trotsky descended to get the men out, but could not retain consciousness in the poisonous fumes. Oskett managed to reach the surface before being completely overcome, but Mays collapsed at the bottom of the dry well.

RUSSIA HAS ARMY WITHOUT ANY OFFICERS

(Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic.)

Berlin, Sept. 21.—How the Russian army is organized is described in an interesting despatch from the war correspondent of the Freiheit.

It appears there are no commissioned officers. A small or large platoon has a commander who is appointed if he shows ability, and degraded if he proves incompetent. His pay is 7,000 rubles monthly, but a loaf of bread costs 70 rubles in Petrograd. Each unit has in addition to the Commander a political Commissary, who decides jointly with the Commander how principles and military measures are to be carried out.

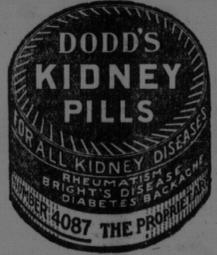

Owens a Library. The Commissary also instructs the troops and explains political questions. Each unit owns a library, has a social evening once a week, and political meetings and sports meetings. The number of illiterate soldiers is said to have decreased from 80 to 40 per cent.

The correspondent adds that this statement must be accepted with a grain of salt. The spirit of the army is good and it cannot be denied that enthusiasm for its aims prevails. But the ignorance about general politics in Europe is astounding. Everywhere in the Western countries will begin the lower political executive centres all its hopes on a "world revolution."

FORTUNES IN FISH. Victoria Sept. 21.—It is estimated that the salmon pack in British Columbia will be worth $12,000,000 this year. The runs have been particularly good in the Fraser River and in the rivers of the northern part of the province.

Elwyn Wilson—Potatoes, 92; Carrots, 72; Corn, 82. Samuel Wilson—Potatoes, 92; Beets, 88. Kenneth Wilson—Potatoes, 92; Carrots, 70; Corn, 62.

The prizes were awarded by Director A. C. Gorham. Addresses were delivered by the chairman, Councillor J. W. Gaskin and Director Gorham.

PREMIER OFF TO VISIT THE QUEBEC TOWNS

Visits Sherbrooke, Compton and Coaticook and Speaks on Many Occasions.

Shenbrooke, Que., Sept. 21.—Hon. Arthur Meighen, the prime minister of Canada, inspected his campaign this morning when he started his tour of the Eastern Townships, accompanied by Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, minister of marine and fisheries; Hon. C. J. Doherty, minister of justice; General D. C. Draper, Senator Geo. G. Foster, Senator Rufus W. Pope, Fred R. Cromwell, president of the Eastern Townships Liberal-Conservative Association, and several other supporters and friends.

The premier arrived at Coaticook this morning at a late hour last night and this morning Mr. and Mrs. Meighen were guests at "Eastview," the residence of Senator and Mrs. Pope, from where he left by motor for Lennoxville to pay a visit to Bishop's College.

There was quite a large gathering of friends of Premier Meighen on hand at Lennoxville to greet him on his arrival, and all proceeded to the Bishop's College School, where Mr. Meighen was the guest of Mr. J. P. Peck, the headmaster, who welcomed the prime minister in the Bishop William's Hall.

Addresses the Students. Premier Meighen addressed the students, referring to the fact that he himself was once a school teacher and stating that it was while at school or college that by perseverance and hard work the young men of today could build themselves up to take their place in the world.

Hon. C. J. Doherty also addressed the boys, stating that Bishop's College was one of the finest institutions of learning in this province, and explaining to the boys that it was while at school that they must prepare themselves for the problems which they would be called upon to face in days to come. He made the request that the students be granted a holiday, which was done by Headmaster Smith.

Visits King's Hall. Compton, Que., Sept. 21.—Hon. Arthur Meighen, premier of Canada, accompanied by Hon. C. J. Doherty and Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, arrived here this morning to pay a visit to King's Hall, where they were welcomed by Miss Jewell, the principal. After a short talk, the children were given a holiday in honor of the occasion of the visit of the premier.

From King's Hall, Premier Meighen and party journeyed to a pavilion on the main street when the prime minister addressed a rather small crowd. He said that it was not the first time that he had visited the Eastern Townships and he thanked the children of Compton for their kind hospitality towards him, expressing also his regret that his time was so limited that he was only able to pay them a short visit.

At Coaticook. Coaticook, Que., Sept. 21.—There was quite a large gathering present to welcome Premier Meighen on his arrival here this morning. The citizens' band played as the prime minister arrived and the Boy Scouts formed a guard of honor. The meeting was held in the armory, which was well crowded, the children from the schools also being in attendance. The premier was received on the balcony by Mayor Dupuis, the aldermen, representatives of the clergy, the board of trade, the engineers and other officials. Mr. W. R. Shurtleff president and Mayor Dupuis presented Premier Meighen with two beautiful illuminated addresses, one in English and the other in French, while Little Lois Lovell presented Mrs. Meighen with a beautiful bouquet of flowers.

Premier Meighen started to address the gathering in French, but soon broke into English. He expressed his regret that he was unable to address a gathering, the majority of which were French, in their own language and stated that he also regretted the hospitality of the citizens for a longer period of time than he was able to

FARMER VOTE IN COLCHESTER WAS MUCH SMALLER

McCurdy's Majority is Given Now as Exactly 1,500 Votes Over Opponent.

Truro, N. S., Sept. 21.—Analysis of the vote cast in the by-election yesterday, in which Hon. F. R. McCurdy, Minister of Public Works, was returned by an even majority of 1,500 over his Farmer-Labor opponent, Captain Hugh Dickson, M. C., gives some interesting results. The result of the Farmer-Labor coalition increased the vote given for Capt. Dickson in Truro over the vote cast in that town during the late provincial election for the two farmer candidates of that contest, while in the country districts the farmers lost very heavily of the strong support which they had received in the provincial election. The figures for that comparison are: Provincial election, Truro, highest farmer vote polled, 342. In the by-election, Captain Dickson obtained 831, an increase of 489. In the provincial election the farmers vote in the country districts was a majority of 1,275. Captain Dickson had in those districts a majority of only 610 yesterday, or a slump of 665 votes from the agrarian majority in July last.

More Votes Are Polled. There were 6,298 more votes polled in the election yesterday than in the 1911 federal election, which was the last contest for the House of Commons in Colchester, as in 1917, Hon. F. R. McCurdy got the seat by acclamation. The vote polled was the largest on record for this county, and exceeded the election of 1911 by more than double the figures for yesterday's election were 4,924 for Dickson and 4,424 for McCurdy, a grand total of 11,348. In comparison with the vote of 1911 showed only 5,650 cast. It is interesting to compare the recent vote with that cast in the general provincial election of this year, when the United Farmers first entered the field. The election was analogous to the recent one inasmuch as farmers' candidates were opposing Conservatives. The analogy ends there, however, for in the provincial election—the farmer candidates were successful. Mr. Smith, United Farmer, on that occasion obtained 3,589 votes and Dr. Dunbar, Conservative, 3,350, giving Smith a majority of 239. These gentlemen were the two highest of the contending parties and polled a total vote of 6,939.

Imperial Training For Farm Owners. Advance Guard from Britain Finds Prospects in West Encouraging. Ottawa, Sept. 21.—Charles Tomba, an ex-imperial soldier who has come to Canada to learn farming preparatory to taking up land of his own under the Soldier Settlement Board, writes the Board expressing his appreciation of the opportunity that he has in Canada. He says: "I arrived in Canada on April 6, 1919, and commenced training under the Soldier Settlement Board on June 1. I am pleased to be able to say that I find life, work and the opportunities for the future far beyond my expectations. Although a great change from my former life in the Old Country, I find the work most interesting and the prospects most encouraging."

Under the same misfortune. The prime minister stated that the Eastern Townships occupied a place in his heart, for it was a lady from Granby that won his heart. He stated that St. Andrew County was one of the first points in the country and one of the best in the Eastern Townships. He regretted that his time was so short and that he could not enjoy the hospitality of the citizens for a longer period of time than he was able to

REJECT REPORT OF ROYAL COMMISSION

Dislike Plan for Partial Advance in Wage and Also of Compulsory Arbitration.

Glouce Bay, N. S., Sept. 21.—Following an all day discussion of the Royal Commission report, the executive of the United Mine Workers last night unanimously decided against acceptance. They also decided to ask the locals to pass resolutions authorizing the executive to re-open negotiations with all Nova Scotia operators. Crystallized, the attitude of the miners is that they will wait for the $1 a day to all workers, and 24 cents a ton to contract men—and have conditions remain as they were laid down under the McKinnon award, which means that the chief stumbling block in the way of acceptance is that portion recommending the adoption of the partial advance and sliding scale scheme, suggested by the commission as a means of increasing production of coal.

The Situation. Briefly, the situation is this: The miners' executive reject the idea of the partial advance and sliding scale scheme, claiming the right to open negotiations with the operators every four months. They reject the principle of "compulsory arbitration," which they hold is contained in the idea of the body recommended by the commission to be set up between operators and men, which the commission held would go far to settle minor disputes and obviate the possibility of "vacations" and "lock-outs." They reject, international board members of the U. M. W., stated last night that if the operators did not grant the demands as outlined above a strike in all Nova Scotia mines would result.

BRIDE TOOK HIS CASH.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Henry T. Tucker, 72 years old, advertised in a "matrimonial" paper for a wife. He received thirty replies and selected one, Bukom and forty. He sent her a check for $100 and she came down and was captivated when he saw her. All arrangements were made for the wedding when the bride-to-be announced that in order to save her share in a large estate she needed just one thousand dollars. Tucker gladly lent it to her but is now sadly regretting it. For both the bride and the thousand have disappeared.

RETURNING PICTURES.
H. Flewelling, of the St. John Amusement Co., has been busy for the last few days packing the pictures which were sent to St. John for the Provincial Exhibition. It took forty-two cases to contain the two hundred or more pictures, some of which were very large ones. They were shipped yesterday to Toronto and Montreal.

GREAT SCHOOLS OF HEERING.
A large number of heering have made their way into Courtney Bay and were washed up on the beaches by thousands. Great schools were to be seen up the Marsh Creek and at Little River, and it was possible for the fishermen to scoop up hundreds of them into baskets at the Government station. Little River, the runways had to be cleared of the fish which were jammed into them.

For the past few days many fishermen with seines are reaping a harvest, so far as prices go, and the carriers from Eastport are kept on the jump night and day conveying cargoes to the factories.

Celebrate Feast Of Yom Kippur

Today the Jews all over the world celebrate the feast of Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement. This is the greatest fast of the Jewish year. From sunset of the 21st till sunset of the 22nd the observant Jew neither eats nor drinks, but devotes the day to fervent worship. Yom Kippur is distinctive among Jewish holidays, for it is not associated with nature or with history. It is a day for the searching of the heart to find peace with God.

The fast originated in Biblical times, and is described in the nineteenth chapter of the book of Leviticus. In those days the people fasted and afflicted themselves with the high priest made atonement for the entire house of Israel. This atonement was made in ancient fashion by sacrifices, and especially by the symbolic rite of driving the scapegoat into the wilderness to bear away the sins of the people.

Prayers today take the place of sacrifices. Jews devote the Day of Atonement to prayers for the forgiving of their sins. They avoid any ordinary and sordid interests on this Sabbath of Sabbaths. The fasting is abrogated, however, for children, old people and the sick, or in times of famine and pestilence, or such contingencies as are incident to the deprivations of war.

The aim of Yom Kippur is atonement through prayer and repentance. A feature of Yom Kippur is the memorial service. Men and women think of their dear departed and of

Plucky Work of Moncton Nurse

W. J. Quinn Tells How Catherine Clare McDonald Saved Lives in Train Wreck.

"It was the worst train wreck I ever was in, and I have been in several that were considered bad ones," said W. J. Quinn of East St. John yesterday in speaking of the head-on collision which occurred between the boat train to Cape Tormentine, and a work train at Vimy ridge, a railway siding near Sackville, "although the collision occurred three weeks ago I am still suffering from the effects of it, and I was considered to be among the fortunate ones." There was not a single person on the train who was not injured more or less severely and all of us received a terrific shaking up.

Plucky Work of Nurse

"There were no doctors on the train and the one trained nurse we had, Miss Catherine Clare McDonald of Moncton, notwithstanding her own injuries, performed wonders. I am convinced that had it not been for her ministrations several of the women on the train would have died from shock and others have died to death. "She had a kit bag containing some medical supplies and one of the passengers turned over two quarts of whiskey, which helped greatly to revive the prostrate women. "Those in the dining car suffered the most. The car was crowded and when it went up on one end, all the chairs and tables, passengers, china and silverware, were thrown in a heap at the lower end of the car. Two ladies, Miss Berna Heustis of Charlottetown and Mrs. J. M. Egan of Boston, were pinned beneath the wreckage and passengers who were sent toppling upon them and were severely injured. The chief had two ribs broken and his assistant had his head split open, one of the passengers had her nose broken and several were badly bruised. "Miss McDonald sustained a bad cut in the leg and a number of bruises but continued to attend to the injured until all had been seen to.

Saved Several Lives

"The passengers appreciated her pluck and devoted service and presented her with a purse. A petition was also drawn up, signed by the passengers, and forwarded to the government asking that Miss McDonald be suitably rewarded for her valuable services which were the means of saving several lives. "No steps have been taken yet to see that the courageous woman receives reward which is unquestionably her due.

"The crew and the parlor car men did everything in their power to assist the injured, but the railway management were not so considerate; the injured were not sent to the hospital until fifteen hours after the wreck occurred, and all the wreckage had been cleared up. "No assistance was sent from Sackville. A doctor came out but without any medical supplies, and had it not been for the torququets made by Miss McDonald several of the injured would assuredly have died to death before they reached the hospital.

How Accident Occurred

"The accident occurred on a curve. Our train was going at over sixty miles an hour as it was over thirty hours late. Driver Sherlock saw the smoke of the work train but thought it was waiting for us on the siding. As we swept around the curve he suddenly saw the freight train coming toward him, and traveling at the rate of thirty-five miles an hour. The distance between the two trains was not over fifty yards but he manfully stuck to his post and applied all his brakes. The trains could not be stopped in so short a distance however and came together with an awful crash. Both locomotives roared high in the air and the cars of the work train were thrown on end. The cars of the passenger train remained on the rails but the passengers received a terrific shaking up. Driver Sherlock himself was driven through the window of his cab for a distance of twenty feet, and was picked up unconscious. When revived it was found London, Sept. 21—in a Britpap that he was not seriously injured. The passengers considered he had saved their lives by sticking to his post."

FIGURES GIVEN OUT BY SHERIFF

According to the figures given out by Sheriff Wilson yesterday, subject to correction on Friday, declaration day, Dr. A. F. Emery, Liberal candidate, loses his deposit in the Federal by-election. It is possible that on the opening of the ballot boxes Friday some ballots may be rejected as spoiled, but it is not anticipated that they will have an appreciable effect on the figures which follow:

The great and good who served mankind. Services will be held all day today beginning at seven in the morning. During the first hours the services will be conducted by Rabbi Levine. At eleven o'clock Rabbi Fletcher will conduct the ceremonies and at one o'clock Dr. Press, D. D., Ph. B., will deliver an address. The service will continue until almost six o'clock. The new Rabbi, Dr. Press, D. D., Ph. B., graduate of the Hebrew college, Cincinnati has entered with enthusiasm upon his work in St. John. He is being made welcome by the Jewish people in the city with all their well known hospitality.

Politics Blamed For Mishap Stories

C. N. R. Directors Give Explanation Regarding Wrecks on the Government Road.

"Taking advantage of the presence in the city, yesterday, of President Hanna and the other directors of the C. N. R., The Standard endeavored to get from them some explanation of the causes of the numerous 'mishaps' which have taken place on the Government road within the past few weeks, and which have given rise to so much adverse criticism. The Standard representative was courteously received, and explained his mission to the President, who was accompanied by Mr. Brady and Mr. Hungerford.

Much of the criticism levelled at the C. N. R. is due to political causes, he was told. The road being Government property, opponents of the administration made a point of finding fault whenever possible, whether there was any real reason for so doing or not. That there had been some mishaps during the past few months could not be denied, but in only one case was the fault of the defective equipment or roadbed. In the other cases, the fault was that of the employees of the road, for which the management could not be held responsible. If an employee was found to be deliberately at fault, the management at once discharged him, which was all they could do.

The Moncton Case.

"Well, what about that defective rail that caused the wreck near Moncton last week? Was not that due to lack of proper supervision?" "That rail," replied Mr. Brady, "had been down for several years, and there was nothing in its appearance to indicate that it had a flaw in it. It was on all appearances a perfectly sound rail." Continuing Mr. Brady said that there was not a better built piece of road in the whole country than the line from St. John to Halifax, and it was also one of the busiest pieces of the road. Comparisons were frequently made between the Canadian National and the C. P. R., and, taking the two roads, mile for mile, the former was in better condition generally than the latter. There are now 16,000 miles of C. N. R. road in the country, and the number of accidents per mile are fewer than on any other road.

Better Than the C. P. R.

There are just as many accidents on the C. P. R. as on the C. N. R., but as the former is a privately owned road, the public does not hear so much about it. Comparing the equipment of the two roads, Mr. Brady said that the rolling stock on the C. N. R. was infinitely superior to that of the C. P. R. The former's best train was as good as the pilot of the engine of the latter on the engine of the rear car, and fitted throughout for comfort to the limit.

While accidents would, of course, occasionally happen, it was seldom through the fault of possible stock or track, but from personal carelessness on the part of the employees. "And then, if we discharge them, immediately a movement is set on foot to get them reinstated."

Concluding, Mr. Hanna said that criticism was of course to be expected, and as long as it was constructive criticism the road would welcome it, and where desirable would act upon it. But too much criticism was offered without proper cause, and from an imperfect understanding of affairs, and this was to be regretted, as it only led to misconceptions.

HAROLD McMANUS WAS BADLY INJURED

Run Over by Team Alleged to Have Been Driven by Juvenile.

While returning home from St. Patrick School, West St. John, at noon yesterday, Harold McManus, six years old, was knocked down and run over by a team owned by C. W. Goodwin, father of Rodney street. The little fellow was picked up and taken to his home, where it was found that he had sustained injuries to his legs and arms necessitating a call for a doctor.

It is alleged that the driver of the team causing the accident was a thirteen year old boy, and that he had knocked down young McManus while endeavoring to pass another team. It is also said that the boy driver, though aware that he had struck somebody, did not stop to find out the extent of the injuries that he had caused. In connection with this it may be added that many complaints have been heard of the recklessness of some juveniles driving teams in the city.

CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE.

The North End firemen were called out about noon yesterday by an alarm from box 132 for a blaze in the home of Robert London, 19 Merritt street. The fire started around a pipe leading from a tidy stove. The walls of the room and a clothes closet were badly scorched before the blaze was extinguished. There was no insurance.

Were Operating Illicit Stills

Inland Revenue and Prohibition Officers Find Many Stills on Caraquez Coast.

The Department of Inland Revenue, assisted by the prohibition department of the local government, has been combing the Caraquez coast district in the past few weeks, and as a result of this activity many have been taken to court for having liquor illegally and for operating illicit stills. The officers conducting the search were Inland Revenue Officer Mason of Quabec, and Sub-Inspector Blanchard of Grand Anse, Gloucester county.

A thorough search was made all along the Caraquez shore, as well as on Shippegan Island. Many illicit stills for the manufacture of liquor were found in operation. Some of them were located in the woods, but the majority were discovered operating in the cellars of private houses. It is said that fines amounting to over $4,000 have been collected as a result of this clean-up by the government officers. A number of the cases were tried before Magistrate Maxime Dupas of Upper Caraquez.

Edmundston Seizure

Chief Inspector W. D. Wilson was in the city yesterday afternoon. He stated that the liquor seized at Edmundston on Monday by Inspector Allan McLaughlin would arrive in Fredericton this evening. The liquor, which was valued at $8,000, had been shipped in a freight car along with 240 bags of oats, and had been consigned to St. Leonard's man named Rivers, who disclaimed all knowledge of the shipment. It is thought that those who owned the liquor intended to smuggle it across the border.

CLEANING UP THE DEBRIS AFTER FIRE

The work of cleaning up the debris after the Sea Coast Canning Co.'s Factory fire at Eastport, Sept. 6, which caused damage to the amount of $400,000, has begun. Nothing has been given out by the officials of the company as to the rebuilding of the cannery, but it is probable that a modern fire-proof cannery will be built on the site adjoining the wharf of the Eastern Steamship Co., which is within a short distance of the freight shed of the Maine Central railroad.

The 95 foot smoke-stack, set in a base of concrete on the beach, and the only part of the large plant left standing after the fire, will have to be taken down. There were many thousands of newly packed sardines in the cannery at the time of the fire, and it is thought possible that many of these can be salvaged for later consumption, as their contents would not be damaged on account of the cans being buried deep in the ruins.
