The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Metropolitan Toronto Reference Library
Baldwin Room

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Metropolitan Toronto Reference Library
Baldwin Room

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaît sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

THE HAND THAT ROCKS THE WORLD.

Poetry by WILLIAM EBBE WALLACE.

Musical by J. R. THOMAS.

Andante con moto.

1. Blessings on the hand of Wo-man! Ang-els guard its strength and grace,
2. In-fan-cy's the 'ten-der fountain; Power may with Bea-ty flow,
3. Wo-man how di-vine your mis-sion Here up-on our na-tal sod;

In the pal-ace, cot-tage, hov-el O, no mat-ter where the place!
Moth-ers first to guide the stream-lets; From their souls un-rest-ing grow,
Keep, O keep the child-soul a-pace Al-ways to the breath of God!

Would that nev-er storms as-sail'd it; Rain-bows ev-er gant-ly curled;
Grow on for the good or e-vil; Sun-shine stream'd or darkness hurried;
All true trophies of the A-ges Are from Mother Love im-peared!

For the hand that rocks the crad-dle Is the hand that rocks the world,
cres. f ten. ritard. ppress.

For the hand that rocks the crad-dle Is the hand that rocks the world!

Darling girls, with Eden music
Binging you in each young heart,
Learn and treasure household knowledge,
Precious in Life's future part;
When you'll too, scolding mothers,
Bravely boyed and gently girl'd;
For the hand that rocks the cradle
Is the hand that rocks the world.

Blessings on the hand of Women!
Fathers, sons and daughters cry,
And the sacred song is mingled
With the worship in the sky;
Mingles where no terrors darkness,
Rainbows evermore are curled;
For the hand that rocks the cradle
Is the hand that rocks the world.

CANADA'S DEFENDERS.

Adapted from an old Scotch melody.

Words by JOHN IRRLE, Toronto.

Home a - gain our vol - un - teers, Home a - gain 'mid ring - ing - cheers, Van - ish - ing our an - xious fears,

Can - a - da's de - fen - ders! From the scenes of strife and war, From the ri - fle - pits a - far,

True as steel or Pol - ar star, Can - a - da's de - fen - ders,

Home again our Volunteers,
Home again 'mid ringing cheers,
Vanishing our various fears,
Canada's defenders;
From the scenes of strife and war,
From the rifle-pits afar,
True as steel or Polar star,
Canada's defenders.

Back to home and kindred dear,
Back to lov'd ones waiting here,
Back from death and every fear,
Welcome brave defenders;
Ye did make a noble stand,
Under Middleton's command,
For the honour of our land,
Welcome brave defende...

Welcome back to your employ,
Welcome back to peace and joy,
Rebel thence no more annoy,
Canada's defenders;
Stretching wide from sea to sea,
Canada can boast of thee,
Soldiers' daring, brave, and free,
Canada's defenders.

Let us join the merry throng,
Welcoming with shout and song,
Singing praises loud and long,
To our brave defenders;
Ye have made the rebel shiel,
Cower 'neath your charge of steel,
Own thy pluck, and then appeal,
To our brave defender.

You'll Miss Your Mother When She's Gone!

Words by G. H. COOPER.

Musical by T. H. KELLEY.

The smiles that made your life so bright, In childhood's fair and sun-ny day, May lose their sweet and joyous light, Ere man-ny years have flown away! Her feet so weak, her weeks so dear, That great-ol' you can't shut out more, In your pain will wash them here: You'll miss your mother when she's gone!

Oh! watch her close with ten-der care! With kind-ness all her days a - care! No one to love is half so dear, You'll miss your mother when she's gone!

Oh! shield her with your kindest love,
And never slight her on life's way!
For like an Angel from above,
She shielded you in childhood's day!
Tho' other joys may claim you now,
Oh! let her not in sorrow mourn,
But enough she smiles from her brow,
You'll miss your mother when she's gone!

She watch'd above your cradle-bed,
And taught you childhood's little prayer!
Oh! never from her side to be led,
In age she needs your loving care!
But one sweet mother Heaven gives,
And soon from earth she may be taken!
Protect and love her while she lives,
You'll miss your mother when she's gone!

Words and Music by HAJ. J. BARTON

1. Gently down the stream of time, Floats our bark towards the sea, Sweetly

MOTHER'S LAST REQUEST

1. My moth-er lay up-on her bed, And weeping friends stood by, The col- or from her cheeks had fled, The end was draw - ing nigh; She clasped me kind - ly to her breast, And said, "My dar - ling son, Hear now your moth-er's last re-quest, Ere her life's sands have run; Hear now your moth-er's last re-quest, Ere her life's sands have run.

The day when she died, 'twas then
 That I saw her smile like my Mother when I knew your mother when
 Her hair is turning gray:
 Since then you've been my pride and joy,
 So many, brave and true;
 Then don't forget, my darling boy,
 The words I speak to you;

My journey here is almost done,
 Life's troubles nearly o'er,
 I'll meet your father soon, my son,
 To part from him no more;
 I feel death's dew on my brow,
 Farewell my boy,
 Receive your mother's blessing now,
 And keep my word in view.

Trusting in our God above!

Sons of Scotland! hark! historic
Song thy deeds of noble fame;
Let not tyrannic plottings
Turnish thy unsullied name.
History gives us what we cherish,
Ours to still maintain the right,
May that history never perish,
Though we perish in the fight.

Like the vesper from our mountains,
Giving strength to each and bone;
Like the shrike on our mountains,
Harshless, if not full above!
Ours to shield the needy stranger,
Ours to put the erring right;
Ours to stand in time of danger,
And, if need be, come to fight!

Dear old Scotia! Land of flowers,
Land of meadows, hill, and vale;
Land of mountains, shade, and showers,
Land of year, year, and dale;
Land of ever changing beauty,
Land of liberty and love;
Scotchmen! stand to death of duty
Till we reach the land above!

THE FALLS OF NIAGARA.

BY JOHN IMRIE, TORONTO.

O, Niagara! as thy brink I stand
My soul is filled with wonder and delight,
To gaze in those thy wonder-working hand
Where hollow hollows vent in balance light!

Worthy art thou to be a nation's pride,
A patriot's boast—thy waters rushing wonder;
Like some bold sailing to thy side
Sabbath break every wind in quest of thunder!

Deep to my soul thy greatness is imaged—
Thy wild majesty—thy mighty power—
Thy ceaseless onward and thy great name,
Like nations wending in some conqueror's hour!

Rainbows of glory sparkle round thy shrine,
Crossing thy waters with splendours bright;
And in thy foaming currents intertwine
Rare combinations of colouring light!

Like roar of battle, or like thunder's call,
Thy deep-toned echoes roll with solemn sound;
Like pillar'd clouds thy vapours rise and fall,
Like sparkling pearls upon the stony ground!

Rush on I rush out in thy unobscured career,
With avenging power thy course pursue;
While roaring waters speak as with mortal fear,
And stand in awe to let thy torrents through!

Nought but the hand of God could stay thy course,
Or drive thee back to Erie's peaceful bay;
Then onward press with thy plebeian force,
Till in Ontario's bosom I'll'd to sleep!

Emblem of Freedom! who will dare essay
To bar thy noisy progress to the sea?
Then onward press! while bounding nations pray
For strength and wisdom to be great and free!

"HOME!"

BY JOHN IMRIE, TORONTO.

The sweetest word on earth is "home,"
To loving hearts most dear;
Where'er our footsteps seek to roam,
Home thoughts are ever near.
The memories of last life's spring-day
Keep fresh and green forever;
Like fragrant flowers they scent the way
Adown life's winding river.

Our home may be where mountains rise
Like dark-green clouds to heaven;
Or where the valley-lily lies,
Our humble lot be given;
Or on an island of the sea
Oh by the sunset glow;
No matter where our home may be,
To each that home is blest.

The strongest love within man's breast,
Is love of life and home;
Like fledglings hovering round their nest,
Our thoughts encircle home.
Our years may reach three score and ten
And fall of chance be;
Yet some of home will haunt us then
When life was pure and free.

Where love hath cast her golden spell,
And kindest deeds are done;
Where loving hearts unite to dwell,
'Tis heaven on earth begun;
Then cherish home with jealous care,
And let not strife prevail,
Then for our "heavenly home" prepare,
Secure within the veil.

A KISS THROUGH THE TELEPHONE.

BY JOHN IMRIE, TORONTO.

THE Telephone,
In merry tone,
Rang "Tinkly-dinkly-dink!"
I put my ear
Close up to hear,
And what did I hear, do you think?

"Papa hello!
'Tis me, you know!"
The voice of my own little Miss,
"You wait away
From home to-day,
And you never gave me—a kiss!"

"It was a mistake,
I was not awake,
Before you went out of the house;
I thought that a kiss
Would not be amiss
If I gave it as shy as a mouse!"

"So here goes, Papa,
And one from Mamma,
Another when you can come home;
Just answer me this,
Is it nice to kiss
When you wait through the dear Telephone?"

"Hello!" I replied,
With fatherly pride,
"I've got them as snug as can be;
I'll give them all back,
With many a smack,
Whenever I come home to see!"

Air: - "I am lonely to-night, love, without you."

It's all right, I'm sure you'll be as good as I seem to be since I've married just fit my taste, as pretty as I could find. And now they call me a poor old maid, and I own that I'm 24.

CHORUS.

I'm willing to wait, you willing to wait with me,
Hence a bachelor born to wed, and I think there is one for me!

If so, what a nice little wife I'd make, and be as happy as I could be.

This Piano only cost me $20, and I can get a splendid Organ for $20, and the Star Sewing Machine for $20. All these things and wanted for five years, and now the only thing to complete my happiness is a husband.

OUR DOMINION FOR EVER.

Words and Music by

L. A. WENGER.

Our Do-min-ion for ev-er! our own dear land, The land of the heavens and the sea. Where our salvation was first bestowed, And here the all-powerful, The all-powerful Father, has ever ruled by land and by sea.

Thanking our Do-min-ion for ev-er, The red cross banner for ev-er! So evermore, by land or by sea, We'll sing our Dominion for ev-er. We'll sing our Do-min-ion for ev-er.

Our Dominion is over the world and our banner
 Will ever protect with our lives;
 Far and near and with kind words and
 Deeds for the banner,
 The red cross banner,
 In defence of our brethren and ours.
 Chorus—Then sing on.

Our Dominion is over God's own land
 Here our people's harvests have grown,
 So dearly bought they are ever combined
 To show the banner,
 The red cross banner,
 That triumphs for every foe.
 Chorus—Then sing on.

THE NIGHT CAME ON A HURRICANE.

Moderato.

Alto. "The Girl & Last Robert No."

The night came on a hour of calm. The sea was whispering
 And saying "Oh, what a night this is! What a night this is!"

And when the sea was calm, the wind was still. The waves were all in a row, and they were quiet, they were quiet.

The night was dark, the stars were bright. The moon was all in a row, and they were quiet, they were quiet.

The night was dark, the stars were bright. The moon was all in a row, and they were quiet, they were quiet.

The night was dark, the stars were bright. The moon was all in a row, and they were quiet, they were quiet.

Then as to those who are all day
 On business from their homes,
 And late at night are weary
 To sleep, and find themselves
 While you are in the city
 Are weary, and find themselves
 My eyes are weary, and find themselves
 About their business.

And when the sea was calm,
 The wind was still, the waves were all in a row, and they were quiet,
 they were quiet.
