VARSIITY AGAIN ARE CHAMPIONS

Though the Senior Team Loses to Queen's, the Championship is Ours.

R. M. C. DEFEAT VARSITY II.

In a Hard Game—The Intermediates Played a Much Better Game than in Toronto.

As far as the Inter-Collegiate Union is concerned, the season is closed, and the ending bears a striking resemblance to that of last year. As they went through the season last year winning the first three games, and losing the final game with Queen's, in Kingston, and such has been the case this year. It may be said that Varsity did not win the game against McGill, in Montreal, but we practically did, and the McGill men themselves admit that they were really beaten. On account of the unsatisfactory ending, however, it was left to the Executive to give judgment, and last Saturday night, at Kingston, it was decided that the game should be called a draw. Thus Varsity wins the championship by one point.

The following is the summary of the season: Varsity defeated McGill and Queen's in the first two games, and drew with McGill in the next; score, 5 points. McGill defeated Queen's in Montreal and drew with Varsity; score, 3 points. Queen's defeated McGill in Kingston in the second game, and Varsity in Kingston in their last; score, 4 points. Thus, Varsity are victors by one point, with Queen's second, and McGill third. A general discussion of the season will be found in another column.

Queen's and Varsity. It has become traditional that no matter how poorly Queen's may play away from home, when they are on their own grounds they are almost invincible. Whether from a sensitive deference to tradition or not, it is difficult to say, but at any rate, Queen's played fifty per cent. better football in Kingston than they did in Toronto against our men. Moreover, Varsity did not put up quite such a good quality of football. A long journey, sleeping at a hotel, the change of food, and lack of knowledge of the grounds, all contrived to deteriorate the quality of Rugby which Varsity has usually played this year.

An impartial onlooker, however, would likely say that the two teams were as evenly matched as two teams well could be, that in reality the game was a "toss-up" with Queen's the winner. There is not the least doubt but that both teams were of almost the same strength. Varsity however, played without that almost terrific spirit which Queen's showed at times. Our men had possession of the ball for the greater part of the match, but did not seem to be able to make scoring use of it, while Queen's, though for the most part on the defensive, certainly did not miss the least opportunity to score.

The game, on the whole, was a very hard one, and very beautiful to watch. There was some excellent running and kicking by both teams. Queen's were stronger in running, while McKenzie's long punts told heavily against the Scotchmen. Brown and the Biggs brothers did some splendid running, and twice it looked as if a score would result. Brown and Percy Biggs both got well away, only to be stopped when close upon their opponents' goal. Percy Biggs played a remarkable game, and bucked the heavy Queen's line for repeated gains. Once he got clear through from half way, and was only prevented from scoring by Queen's full-back, McDonald, who, by the way, saved Queen's the game time and again. McKenzie won the toss, and elected to kick with the wind, which was blowing stiffly down the field. The first half was a hard battle. Varsity, chiefly through McKenzie, made long gains by kicking in a vain attempt to score. It is true that two rouges were obtained, but that was the extent of our scoring in the first half. We were hardly ever on the defensive, but relieved well. So did Queen's, and it is safe to say that the excellent work of their back division saved them the game.

The second half was a repetition of the first to a certain extent, only that Queen's were not on the defensive. Our goal was repeatedly assailed, and finally a rouge resulted from a kick by Elliott. Shortly after, the play that lost the day took place. It was the old misfortune of two backs colliding when after the ball. Beal and McKenzie both attempted to catch a long kick of Elliott's, with the consequence that neither got it. The ball rolled back, and quick as a flash three Queen's men were on top of the oval. The try was converted, making the score now 7-2. Really only one point should have been scored.

Varsity, however, did not lose hope, but played a most aggressive game, so much so, that Queen's goal was in danger for the remainder of the half. Varsity retained possession of the ball for a long time, but could not score. Buck after buck was tried, but Queen's defence was magnificent, and warded off the danger. They once got away and obtained a touch in goal.

Shortly before 5 o'clock, the referee's whistle sounded the last call, and Queen's supporters went wild over the victory. Varsity had lost by 8 to 2. The officials were, referee, Mr. Sise, and umpire, Mr. McLea, both of McGill.

Taking the game as a whole, it was a magnificent exhibition of football. The play was fairly open. There was some excellent kicking and running, and the tackling was hard. The wings on both sides followed up well, and both played the keenest kind of Rugby. The wing-lines were evenly matched, and also the two quarters, with Varsity a little better there and in scrimmage. The two back divisions were also of equal strength, but Varsity's half-back division not playing up to their usual form. However, we were fairly beaten, and altogether we feel confident Varsity is a little better than Queen's usually would be.

The teams were:
Varsity I. Queen's I.
N. Beale Back T. McDonald
McKenzie Halves Weatherhead
Brown Elliott
G. Biggs Walkem
P. Biggs Quarter McDowall
Mallock Scrimmage Russell
Mullin Young
Isbester F. F. Carr-Harris
Telford Wings Hill
Meredith Devitt
Russell R. Carr-Harris
Barr A. McDonald
Gibson Young
Armstrong Etherington
Darling Williams
Fleck Spare Men
"Biddy" Barr's hand was not well enough to let him play. He, however, was ready to go on, should anyone be hurt.

The President of one of America's greatest Universities has advised the following general division of a student's day: Eight hours for sleep, ten hours for work, two for exercise, three for meals, and one for incidentals.

TORONTO MEDS ANNUAL BANQUET

Will Be Held in the University Gymnasium on Thursday Evening, December 7th.

NAMES OF THE COMMITTEE

A Very Interesting Toast list Being Prepared—Webb will Cater.

Considerable attention is being given around the Medical School to the approaching Med. Dinner, which is to be given on the evening of December 7th. The memory of last year's banquet is still fresh in the minds of those who were fortunate enough to be present, and the committee this year are determined to make the occasion next month equally as interesting as that of former years. A large number of prominent speakers will be present, and the toast list promises to be a very strong one.

The banquet will be held in the Gymnasium, and Webb will do the catering. The following committee is now engaged in arranging the affair: Hon. Pres., Dr. Primrose; Pres., A. J. Mackenzie; 1st Vice, Mr. Cerswell; 2nd, Vice, T. Wallace; Representatives from Fourth Year, Messrs. E. Carder, A. J. G. Macdougall, R. W. White, and Paul Scott; Third Year, Messrs. O. W. Colbeck, J. Moak, J. Wright; Third Year, Messrs. Frazer, Klotz, and J. Graham; First Year, R. P. McLaughlin, W. A. Woolner, E. Scarlett, T. W. Walker; Representative of Medical Society, Mr. J. Campbell.

On Monday evening last, Messrs. Mackenzie, Carder, White, Macdougall and Cerswell, of the Dinner Committee, were dining at Webb's, to sample the menu for the Dinner. Judging from reports, Webb will excel himself this year.

The Council Exams, commenced on Monday last. The fact that there are new examiners this year ought to prove auspicious to the candidates. In former years the Councils were held in October. This is the latest date they have ever been held.

Treble and Wright will play the winners of the Gordon-Smith v. Coater-Stanley set in the handball tournament. Cook and Revell are tipped to win the finals in the fourth year.

An exciting incident took place at the old school last Thursday morning. The lecturer had agreed to a general slope; but four youths, thirsting for scholarships, lacking class spirit, and seeing a good chance for a "scoop," demanded that the lecturer proceed. The lecturer proceeded, as requested. As a result, four heated brains were afterwards cooled in the aqua pura furnished by the T. W. W. Cheer up, boys, it was only a shampoo.

Unfortunately, Jack MacCallum was unable to play with Varsity at Kingston against Queen's, otherwise the score would have undoubtedly been reversed. Rumor has it that "Baron" Cleland was seen at a half-past eight lecture.

Time is divided these days between lectures and the Medical Handball Tournament, the greater part being given to the latter.

Congratulations are extended to "Jimmy" Smith. Be sure and make "Meds." of them, "Jimmy."

At a meeting held November 20th, a committee was appointed to interview the Faculty with a view to having a series of lectures given on the "Administration of Anesthetics."

The Senior Meds. will be glad to furnish free medical attendance to all partaking of the meals at the new Dining Hall. Let all hands turn out and prepare to capture the Mulock Cup, as of old.

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

Two games won in a week is not too bad work for a team which gets about a practice a month, outside of the matches played. Yet this is Pharmacy's record. On Monday, 13th, we went up to do battle with Varsity II., and on grounds a cross between the Slough of Despond and the places whereon the wicked stand, succeeded in getting them to take two of Pharmacy's best non-coated. It was touch and go for the first few minutes whether we would have to take one ourselves or not, but the forwards at length decided that the backs were sufficiently limbered up, and took the ball away up to Varsity's goal, putting it through for number one. The ball was quickly put into play again, and Pharmacy, giving heed to the exhortations of the rooters, scored again. This riled the young men of Varsity II.; so they started in to lay out the O.C.P. gang, but found that most of their bodies were fairly solid. Giving that tactic up, they took advantage of the more solid ground around Pharmacy's goal, and in the last half gave "Grandpa" Douglas and Rae some hot work to do, but, thanks to the efforts of these and Wright, Varsity failed to score, much to the chagrin of their windy supporters, and the joy of the Pharmaceutical contingent.

With Gerrard between us, we had fought our way side by side up to the top, and on Saturday had a go with the Normals for who was best man. Pharmacy expected every man to do his duty for this game, and he did it. The team played as never before, and the rooters made Peter put up his ear trumpet and resort to wads of cotton-wool. It was a lovely game from the start. The ball, on the kick-off, wavered over the field in an uncertain manner for a time, and finally settled in front of Pharmacy's goal, where it was kept moving in and out with due celerity and speed, but never went through. For this brief period hope beat high in every Normal heart, and their backs were awfully jolly, good-natured chaps. But the scene was changed. Baldy and Ev. thought they wanted a rest, so they suggested to Seyler, Shurrie, and Smith, seconded by Wright's earnest plea, that the ball be given to the forward line. It was done; and with the ball sticking to none of them, and touching all of them, Lee, Dickson, Messer, Gourlay and Wynn trotted down to the Normal goal, which they punctured just for once. While the goal keeper was trying to patch up the hole in the atmosphere between the stakes, the ball was put into play, and almost before he had time to wipe off his chin and pull down his vest, he had another hole to patch. At half-time our forwards took a little breathing space. The Normals, not slow to avail themselves, succeeded in putting the ball through one of the punctures previously made by Pharmacy. The team then took one more pull together and gave the, by this time none too genial, Normal backs something to do, eventually running the ball through again about five minutes before quitting time. The rooters coaxed and pleaded for "just one more," but the boys could not see their way clear, and all hands had to rest satisfied with 3 to 4.

CORNERS.

Messer takes the ball with either end. When Seyler grips his cap, he means business.

Shurrie can take a back somersault and come out with the ball.

Wynn had a nasty corner to play during the first half, but his work in it told. Gourlay is shy a half cig. Thanks to the whistle.

Dickson's runs down the side line made the Normal goalkeeper's heart throb.

Lee got a pretty hard check in the first half, but he never forgot his job a minute.

Smith says: "A touch to your partner is better than a drive to the other backs." He plays both ways.

Helmer's voice rose high above the din of battle, as he assisted in deciding the "throw in."

Emory and McKay wouldn't come down out of their hats.

Wright is to stand trial for magnetizing the ball.

Rae covers his share of the field with prostrate men and keeps it pretty free of the ball.

"The lack of natural cranial adornment," says Douglas, "enables me to think lucidly and kick judiciously." We're not doubting your word, old man, for seein's believin'.

The Junction had some representatives there.

We are glad to have Fred, back with us again, and are all delighted with his nearest-to-the-heart shake. He hopes to be able to deal out the other variety on his return after Christmas holidays.

Mr. Connolly, late of Paris, is having a look at us these days. He intends entering the May finals, having taken his Junior last year, and then retired for a season.

Falling stars may be pretty to look at, but stars fallen in examination reports are not so pretty.

Thompson has been heard humming: "Go to Sleep, My Little Picaninny." He offers a large reward for tack-proof slippers.

One of our number lately put into practice the advice, "Go West, young man." On returning, he was heard to mutter something about a pretty "damself."

Reuben says that the only way to avoid sleeping on an empty stomach, is to lie on your back.

Mr. Pratt addressed the Y.M.C.A. meeting Friday evening. Mr. Mesner was also expected to say a few words, but was unavoidably detained with other business. The meeting was well attended.

LIT DEBATE ON THE PRESENT WAR

Decides that Canada Should Not Assist in the Defence of the Empire.

'02 AND '03 DISCUSS IT

A Large Crowd Present and an Interesting and Profitable Evening Spent.

The meeting of the Lit. on Friday last was a good one, both in point of attendance and in enthusiasm. The "piece de resistance" of the evening was the debate between '02 and '03—subject, "Resolved, that Canada should not assist in the defence of the Empire without representation in the Imperial Parliament." As the question was one of the hour, and as it was '03's debut on the platform, considerable interest was manifested by those present. Messrs. Gillies and O'Leary, who upheld the affirmative side, represented '03, and they did it well.

Mr. Gillies opened the argument and based his belief principally on precedent and the fact that the step was contrary to the principles of representative government. Mr. Stewart and Mr. Phipps, of '02, upheld the negative, and both presented strong arguments in defence of the action Canada had taken. Mr. Phipps' speech, especially, was a very good one, and easily deserved the applause that followed it. Dr. Smale, in summing up, recounted the arguments on both sides, and concluded by deciding the debate in favor of '03, the affirmative. Preceding the debate, a very interesting paper on "Oratory" was read by Mr. Garvey, and Mr. Mason favored the society with a song, which was well received.

In the business part of the meeting, Mr. F. E. Brown was appointed leader in the coming Mock Parliament, in place of Mr. E. H. Watson, resigned. The Dinner Committee was approved of by the society, and Mr. R. J. Wilson was chosen to represent Varsity at the Victoria Conversation. The members of the society were also requested to meet at the Students' Union, Friday evening, the 24th, and attend the Inter-College Debate at Osgoode in a body.

ATHLETIC DANCE.

All Arrangements Complete for the Event Next Wednesday Evening.

The social season at Varsity opens on Wednesday evening next, when the Athletic Association holds its annual "At Home," in the Gymnasium. Everything is now in readiness for the event, and there is every indication that the occasion will be quite as interesting and pleasurable as of old.

As is the custom, the Gym. will be tastefully decorated, and since the number of tickets is limited to four hundred, there will be ample room for comfortable dancing.

As a College event, the Rugby Dance is one that appeals to every student, and there is every reason to believe that they will be present in large numbers next Wednesday evening.

The following are the lady patronesses: Miss Mowat, Mrs. Mulock, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. McPhedran, Mrs. Hutton, Mrs. B. E. Walker, Mrs. Galbraith, Mrs. Harcourt, Mrs. McCurdy, and Miss Salter.

THE BOER WAR

Mr. E. B. Biggar, of the "Canadian Engineer," has published a very interesting booklet on "The Boer War, Its Causes, and Its Interest to Canadians." It contains some 40 pages of very interesting matter on the Boers and their character, and gives a good description of the country, and the causes leading to the war. If anyone desires to get an excellent and concise account of the war in South Africa, he should obtain a copy of Mr. Biggar's book. It is issued for ten cents, and may be obtained by addressing the Canadian Engineer, Toronto.

TORONTO, NOVEMBER 24TH, 1899.

For many reasons, it has been deemed advisable not to issue "College Topics" until Friday morning for the rest of this term. One reason is that we want to give a report of as many of the Mulock Cup games as possible. There are other strong reasons which are sufficient to make us believe that it is to the readers' advantage that we should defer the publication one day.

THE RISE OF FRATERNITIES.

One definition of a Greek letter Society or College Fraternity might be as follows: A secret society formed of undergraduates of a University or a College for the promotion of good-fellowship and the cherishing of similar high aims. The Greek Letter Society is not an upstart by any means, and though not reaching back as far as Freemasonry, it had its origin about the time of the birth of the Republic of the United States. The minutes of the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity, the oldest of all, tell us that on December 5th, 1776, five students of the College of William and Mary, at Williamsburg, Va., met and organized a Greek Letter Society, "for the promotion of literature, and friendly intercourse among scholars." Thus, we have the origin of the first of a class of societies, which, if local fraternities are considered, would in all probability to-day number several hundred.

For forty-five years, Phi Beta Kappa, which is now an honorary non-secret society, had no rival, but then the second was organized and was soon followed by numerous others, up till the present time. The practice with the majority of the older fraternities has been to grant charters to other Colleges or Universities, until now some have fifty or sixty or even seventy branches of the parent chapter, in as many different institutions. The members of a fraternity are in full possession of all its secrets, and have certain means of making themselves known to any member of the fraternity. Each member wears the pin of the fraternity, and it is said that most, if not all, have a grip peculiar to the fraternity.

During the colonial days, when College life was freer and wilder than now, the constitutions and rituals of many of these early societies were stolen, and hence, it is known that a general resemblance exists between all Greek Letter Societies. The Greek letters are usually the initials of some motto. For example, Phi Beta Kappa are the first letters of three Greek letters meaning, "Philosophy, the Guide of Life."

The Greek Letter Society is an institution peculiar to American College life, and has nothing similar in the College societies of any other country. Some years ago a Chapter of Chi Phi was established at Edinburgh University, but it only lived a few months in the face of Scottish conservatism. In Canada, this has not been the case, and both at the University of Toronto and at McGill their growth has been as healthy and vigorous as at any American institution. There are now at Varsity (embracing in this term, Arts, Medicine, and the School of Practical Science), five chapters of American fraternities. These are given, as follows, in the order of their establishment: Zeta Psi, Kappa Alpha, Alpha Delta Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and the latest of all, Delta Upsilon. These are commonly abbreviated to: "The Zetas," "The Kaps," "The Alpha Deltas," "The Dekes," and the "D. U.'s." As a rule, it may be said that chapters are obtained by a body of undergraduates, who have existed as a local fraternity, and who wish to have the added advantages of being connected with some good fraternity on the other side.

The College Fraternity fills a peculiar place in College life. It unites together in life-long bonds of fellowship a chosen body of young men, who derive therefrom many of the best and most enduring influences of their life. In Toronto, as in the States, most fraternities have their chapter houses, wherein the members live and hold their meetings. Thus, the fraternity-house takes the place of the common boarding-house, and to those who are fortunate enough to live there, gives more of a home-life than even a good residence could offer. Moreover, it permits of more attention to studies than does either the boarding-house or residence.

Secrecy, though ever so harmless, always suggests evil intentions, to those who are not in the secrets, on the part of those who are. Thus, it was with the earliest of Greek Letter Societies in American Universities, and so it was with the first established at the University of Toronto. Many a hard election contest has been fought with the "pros" ranged against the "antis," and even now the opposition has not entirely, though it has nearly, died out.

The chief reason advanced against the Greek Letter Societies has been that they formed cliques and combines to run University affairs. "College Topics" does not believe this to be the case, and without discussing the question further would add that this is no argument at best. For in any institution, whether Collegiate Institute, College or University, whether in a Church Council, City Council or Athletic Club, there are almost certain to be cliques.

Having dealt with the chief argument against fraternities, we will close by quoting the opinion of a well-known man on this question, Anson J. Upson, on behalf of the regents of the University of the State of New York, recently said: "I believe most sincerely in College secret societies, so-called. I believe that the Greek Letter Fraternities are invaluable in the good influence exerted upon the members by each other, and in the ennobling friendships therein, which last forever. My conviction is deliberate, not altogether ignorant, but founded upon considerable experience, that these societies largely promote a loyal and enthusiastic interest in the College where they are; and that in College government and in University affairs they can be legitimately used to promote good order and manly ambition and honest work. If I were in a University Faculty, I should be the last to vote for their exclusion. I should rather be the first to urge their introduction."

Heard in the Halls.

A man who wouldn't allow a third-rate physician to probe his lung, should take his watch to a specialist also, to insure close time.—Proctor.

A picked team from the Inter-Collegiate League will play the Western Association on the Athletic Field, Saturday, November 25th, at 3 p.m. Admission, 15 and 10c.

Proctor, the watch specialist, 344 Yonge street.

Mock Parliament will replace the debate at the open meeting of the Literary Society on December 8th.

The Inter-Collegiate Debate, between Knox and Wycliffe, was a complete success, and augurs well for the future of the Union. W. Mortimer Clark was chairman. The decision of the judges was given by Mr. Willison in favor of the negative, which was upheld by Knox, represented by Messrs. Matheson and Munro. The affirmative was supported by Messrs. Carpenter and Cotton. The subject was, "Resolved, that the present expansion policy of the United States is not conducive to the best interests of that country."

The Ladies' Glee Club concert will be held on the evening of December 13th, in the Normal School Theatre.

"Ross" Gillespie, '00, returned this week from a five days' trip to Boston, New York, and other Eastern cities.

Alf. Caulfield, '02, has returned from a hunting excursion in Muskoka, bringing back lots of venison and no lack of stories.

Owing to the Rugby match on Saturday, November 25th, Class '01 will hold their reception on Friday, the 24th inst., at 4 p.m. An invitation is extended to all the ladies of University College.

The Classical Association meeting on the 21st was fairly well attended. The papers read by Miss Creighton, '00, and J. A. Martin, '02, were of a very high order. Miss Creighton's treated of "Roman Philosophy before the Empire," and Mr. Martin's of "Sophocles and the Greek Drama."

The '00 fall reception is set down for Friday afternoon, December 8th, and an innovation will be introduced respecting invitations. Contrary to the custom of previous years, the Executive have decided to issue special tickets this fall, in order to limit the number in attendance. These tickets, which shall be in the form of invitations, will be presented to all the ladies of the University, the executives of the different years at Varsity and Victoria and to the members of the class.

A. L. McCredie, '01, is spending the week with friends in Belleville.

Class receptions are now the order of the day. '01 hold theirs on Friday, Nov. 24th; '02, on December 2nd; '00, on December 8th, and '03, on December 16th. All will take the usual form of a promenade.

Report has it that G. W. Hastings, B.A., '99, has a story which he could unfold of the dark doings of some of Toronto's footpads.

A large audience was present at the lecture on "Journalism," delivered by Mr. J. S. Willison, Editor of the Globe, before the Political Science Association on Thursday afternoon.

The Harmonic Club has decided to postpone its annual concert until next term, in deference to the Ladies' Glee Club concert to be held next month.

A retired humorist one day ventured into a cotton mill, and while in an unguarded moment he was explaining some of his post mortem jokes to an innocent operative, he was drawn into the ponderous gearing and dreadfully crushed. They combed what they could of him out of the machinery, and spread the effects on the floor. "Who is it?" was the anxious enquiry, as the crowd gathered around. Nobody could answer. Then the eyes of the humorist slowly opened, and his lips moved. "There is good reason why nobody recognizes me," the humorist painfully whispered. A sympathetic bystander bent down his ear. "Why is it?" he asked. "Because," explained the humorist, seeing an opportunity to steal home, "because I have been travelling in cog." And then a smile like a summer cloud moved for an instant over his features, and he was gone. He never spoke again.

Students in the Cornell Graduate School of Railway and Mechanical Engineering are being placed in railway shops for practical work. No less than 60 spent the summer in the shops at $1.30 a week. The work has quickened the grasp of the students, and the railroad men co-operate heartily in the plan.

The University of Chicago has adopted a system of concessions calculated to draw students from foreign countries. So far it has been applied only to Japan. On the principle that one native tongue is as good as another, the University will accept a unit of study in Japanese for the same amount of work in English. Chinese, the classic for the Japanese, will be accepted in lieu of Greek.

The Modern Language Club held a very successful meeting on Monday, November 20th. The programme consisted of a comparison of Chateaubriand and Loti, with reference to their Descriptions of Palestine, by Miss E. M. Fleming, '00, and a comparison of 18th Century French poets with those of the 19th Century, by W. Elmslie, '00. Both papers were very exceedingly well prepared. Considering the extensive field which Mr. Elmslie had to cover, his paper was astonishingly exhaustive, the most praiseworthy parts being probably his style of comparisons.

The Chess Club are as enthusiastic as ever, and the fine points of the game are being taught to a number of novitiates. A Chess League has been formed between Varsity, the Y.M.C.A., and Athenaeum chess clubs. Messrs. S. F. Shenstone, R. G. Hunter, B.A., and F. E. Brown, represent Varsity on the committee of the league. A Tournament is being arranged in which twelve men from each club will be entered.

"Jack" Parry, '99, now in first year Medicine, is confined to his room, threatened with an attack of typhoid fever.

INTER-COLLEGE DEBATES.

The programme of the Inter-College Debating Union for this season has just been issued. The officers for this term are: Hon. President, Dr. G. R. Parkin; Hon. Vice-President, N. W. Hoyles, Q.C.; President, W. J. Knox, M.A.; Secretary-Treasurer, G. H. Wilson; Executive, J. H. Osterhout (Victoria); T. F. Battle (Osgoode Hall); T. H. Cornish (McMaster); Dr. Smale (Varsity); E. P. S. Spencer (Trinity).

Following is the programme: Knox College v. Wycliffe College, Nov. 22nd, at Wycliffe—Resolved: "That the present expansion policy of the United States is conducive to the best interest of that country." Affirmative—Messrs. W. F. Carpenter, B.A., and T. H. Cotton, of Wycliffe College. Negative—Messrs. H. Munroe, B.A., and H. Matheson, of Knox College. Judges—Mr. J. S. Willison, Professor Alexander, Professor Robertson.

"Gentlemen," said the learned prof., "the law of Conservation of Energy is one of the most profound in the whole universe; and it is upon this fact (that no energy is ever lost), that the whole science of to-day is based. Let me repeat, 'energy is never lost'; it may seem to disappear, but in reality it reappears in some other form." Such was the strain of his discourse for some time; then he continued: "Yes, it is also another remarkable fact that all forms of energy, such as motion and electricity, tend to be reduced to the

At this enjoyable prospect, the boys burst into a laugh.

The professor stopped, searched in the capacious recesses of his cranium for the cause of the uproar, and having found it, retorted: "Gentlemen, that prospect seems to touch a very resonant chord in your hearts."

Bunch of Interesting Notes About Men and Things.

The date for the Concert has not been definitely settled by the committee, but we are quite safe in predicting that it will come off this year, as formerly, toward the end of the present term, just prior to closing up of College before Christmas. Any gentleman, who knows of any first-class talent that might be secured for the Concert, will be conferring a great favor upon the committee by appraising them of the fact.

The several members of our Faculty, who left a couple of weeks since to hunt deer in Muskoka have returned with their full allowance of venison, and countenances expressive of the fresh vigor they acquired in the northern air.

Who said young farmers?—Hoops. The Athletic Society has commenced its work in the College by renovating and fitting up the Gymnasium. It is not being done before it is needed, for time has begun to tell on the apparatus, and there is plenty of room for the newly-inaugurated society to create an everlasting monument to its term of office by fitting up this room. Everyone realizes the importance of a Gymnasium, and all join in hoping that the society may receive sufficient aid from our liberal Faculty to enable them to make our Gymnasium what it ought to be.

The Primary Council—"We're up against the real thing now."—John Dryden, '01.

It is alleged that some underhanded game has been perpetrated upon one of our unsuspecting gentlemen of '03, the nature of which we are not aware, but as near as we can find out, it appears that some "shark" has collected the fee for "Topics," from the gentleman in question, of course without authority so to do, and failed to report the same to headquarters. We would be pleased to find out that the alleged "fake" was not inflicted upon our friend, and that it is simply a mistake on his part.

The many friends of Dr. McLennan, '09, will be pleased to hear that he is enjoying a good practice in the West. Mac's sterling qualities, that won for him the admiration of even those whose opinions were the exact opposite of his own, and his manliness in standing up for what he believed to be right, have certainly also won for him the respect and admiration of the people among whom he is practicing his chosen profession. We congratulate Dr. McLennan upon his success in his new home, and wish him long life and prosperity.

This third year is a "cinch."—"Brunette" Pierson, '01.

The smartest third year, we have in the College this year.—Dean.

Who peeked through the knot-holes at the Rosedale match, Saturday?—"Yellow B."

The Whisker Society will hold its first meeting of the year, some time in the near future. Further information, apply "Whiskers," Adams, President.

The familiar countenance of our old friend, Mr. J. D. Burns ("Bobby"), is again to be seen in the halls. He spent the summer teaching, several miles behind "sun down," at a place called Duhamel, on one of the "half-concessions" in Alberta. He reports a very pleasant summer among the descendants of "Riel." He spent his spare moments in the saddle mounted on a "hucking broncho." The country is a rich ranching district, and Mr. Burns predicts a glorious future for our Canadian North-West, where he is satisfied there are some good openings for live medical men. The professional fees are very high, and there are plenty of people to keep quite a number of doctors busy. Mr. Burns has returned to take up his studies in Trinity again, and will reside with his mother and sisters in the city.

Remember the meeting of the Medical Society Tuesday night.

Some malicious person is evidently bent on enlarging the truth around the College this year. Only the other day a report was circulated that since dissecting has commenced no less than seven or eight persons have lost their equilibrium, while gazing upon those vicious "fiends" in the second year disfiguring their "subs." Now, the report also stated that most of those, whose faces became "anaemic," were gentlemen of '03, and the rest were men engaged at work in the College. The latter may have given way and emptied their gastric contents, but as to the gentlemen of '03, who are implicated in the erroneous report, they wish it to be distinctly understood that they deny the allegation, and defy the "allegator."

It puts a man in a mighty mean position when his room-mate's "best girl" writes to him and asks him to kindly explain to her about her friend's actions and truthfulness, and asks him to keep it purely personal, and answer her as to the "circumstances and truth," of his case, and then in her next letter to the other fellow explains how she had written Mr. "So and So," and how he had answered her and explained confidentially what a fine young man he is. It puts a man between the "devil and the deep sea," and he certainly can't explain to the other fellow why he did it nor anything else—and what's the use of trying—the more you try to patch it up, the worse you make it. Why the "deuce" can't you tell the truth, "Billy," and then all this wouldn't have happened?

NEW RUGBY UNDER BURNSIDE RULES

The First Game of the Kind Ever Played.

THE GAME A SUCCESS.

A Picked Team from Varsity Defeats Ridley College in a Hard, Fast Game.

Varsity selected a light, fast team to meet Ridley College, under the new Burnside rules. The game worked out beautifully, and Burnside was greatly pleased at the results. His expectations were fully realized. Open play was certainly the rule, and passing and fast running were very frequent. Every facility was offered for kicking.

The three changes are, first: The snapping-back instead of scrimmage; second: the lack of scrapping on the wings; third: the change of the five-yard rule. All three worked out well, and Mr. Burnside deserves great credit for his work. The score stood 16-8. The following were the teams:

Varsity—Back, Macdonald; half-backs, Liggs, Brown, Beal; quarter, Chown; scrimmage, Mullin; wings, Hoyles, Gander, Rutter, Armstrong, Fleck, Patterson.

Ridley College—Half-backs, Harcourt, Hendry, Kennedy; quarter, Griffiths; scrimmage, Young; wings, Snively, Haverston, Stevenson, Treble, Trimmer, Hoyles. Referee, Mr. Burnside; umpire, Mr. Barr.

LIT. MEETING AT VIC.

The Boer Case Wins and the Government is Overthrown.

The open meeting of the Victoria Literary Society, on Saturday evening last, packed the spacious Alumni Hall to overflowing. The musical programme was contributed to by the singing of the Glee Club, and of E. B. Jackson, '03, and by A. J. Jackson's recitation of Tennyson's "Revenge," '02 and '01 then tested their argumentative abilities in a debate, "Resolved, that England was justified in going to war with the Boers." '02 were represented in the affirmative by Messrs. Helgason and Mortimer, while the '01 men, Messrs. Stewart and Wilkinson championed the cause of the Boers. Mr. N. W. Rowell's clear and concise summary of the debate, giving the verdict to the negative, was perfectly satisfactory to all. Then came the surprise of the evening—the vote of Want of Confidence in the Government, and after a hot cross-fire between Government and Opposition, the Government were overthrown. The fiery indictment by the Opposition won several votes from the Government benches, and even one from the Cabinet.

The Conservat. Committee intend to make Vic. see, on the night of December 1st, the most brilliant event in her history. The patronage of the following has been secured: Miss Mowat, Mrs. Treble, Mrs. T. Eaton, Mrs. Massey, Mrs. Kemp, Mrs. Fudger, Miss Coleman, Miss Aikins, and the wives of the members of the Senate and Faculty.

Last week the Y.M.C.A. held their annual week of prayer-meetings, being conducted by the students, each evening from 5 to 6 o'clock. The following took part: J. E. Hughson, W. G. Smith, B.A.; A. J. Johnson, A. T. Wilkinson, W. E. Gilroy, B.A.; W. J. M. Cragg, A. C. Farrell, C. L. McIrvine, H. G. Barrie, M.D.; F. C. Stephenson, M.D.

Proctor Burwash is working hard to get his Rugby team in shape; considering that only three played the game before last week, the team work is remarkably good.

A most unfortunate accident happened during Friday's practice, A. R. Chapman, B.A., by a heavy throw to the ground, received a backward dislocation of the shoulder bone. It will be some weeks before the shoulder is strong again, though "Chappie" is feeling but little pain, and is doing almost better than could be expected. Though but a novice at the game, his loss will be felt on the team. Bowles, Vic.'s star goal-keeper, tried in vain to rescue the Freshmen of Varsity from defeat at the hands of the Sophs. in Wednesday's game of Association. Rumble, Amy and Hamilton played with the victorious 2nd year.

'28-'28 was the result of Friday's game with the Dents. Proctor Burwash, Chapman, Fowler and Amy represented Vic., while with the Dents, were three old Vic. boys.

Amy, Fowler, Coulter, and Dobson on Saturday afternoon "did the trick," for the second year by winning the alley championship. Seven teams took part, but at no time were the Sophs. in danger—winning the final game by a score of 34-13.

J. Herman Beer, '01, has left College for a time, to practice his "intoxicating" eloquence in the London Conference.

Everyone reports the Freshies quiet. "The Bob" works well.

An eminent man was once asked what one thing influenced his life more than another, and he replied: "This motto which was told me by my first schoolmaster has been the maxim of my life: 'Be sure you are right, then go ahead; but go ahead anyway.'"

An Industrial Principle

"Semi-Ready" is the exponent of the organization principle in industrialism.

Industrial students all agree that production is cheapened and improved by organized, as against individual effort.

The "custom-tailor" worker is a constructor of a whole garment. He makes the sleeves, stitches the seams, makes his own collars, sews his own buttons and button-holes.

In "Semi-ready," experts on one of these departments of garment making do the work. They do nothing else. They are collar specialists, lining specialists, etc. The hand becomes exceedingly skilled, the work is finer, it is done in shorter time—consequently cheaper.

That is why "Semi-ready" is equal to or better than the best "custom-made" clothing can be, and is sold for at least a third less.

Made up to the "trying-on" stage.

SENIORS MEET JUNIORS

On the Football Field and Win 2-0.

Tuesday of this week saw the commencement of the Inter-Year Association football matches at Varsity. It was not a very large crowd which gathered on the campus to watch the opening struggle between '00 and '01. The enthusiasm displayed, however, on the part of the Senior rooters made up for lack of numbers, while the quietness of the Juniors was only equalled by the small attendance.

The game, despite the fact that many of the players had not apparently handled an association ball for a decade, was hot, swift, and interesting. But then it is not pure science we expect to see displayed in the year matches. It is rather the unparalleled enthusiasm displayed by the participants in the games which renders the Inter-Year contests entertaining.

In Tuesday's match the Seniors were represented by Cooper in goal, who, by the way, played a grand game, handling the ball three times by actual count; Harrison and Donovan at full back; Graham, Noble and Sinclair at half-back, and Wheelan, Armstrong, McLeod, Hume and Clare on the forward line; while the Juniors entrusted their honor to Gowland in goal; Wilson and McPherson at full back; Sissons, Eady and McPherson at half-back, and Cook, Burton, Smillie, Fisher and Ritchie on the forward line.

During the first half of the game, things were pretty evenly matched, the back divisions of both teams doing magnificent work for the salvation of their years. But when goals were changed, the affair seemed to take on a different color. The Juniors' forwards must have played too hard during the first half, for although Smillie, with the assistance of the wings, still continued at intervals to make brilliant rushes, the main portion of the work was left to the back line. These did their work nobly in withstanding the wild and impetuous outsets of "Sandy" and his colleagues. But the oft-repeated attacks finally proved successful. A hurried dribble by Armstrong, a swift pass to Wheelan, a second dribble, a swift pass to McLeod, who received and kicked surely and swiftly, and '00 had scored a goal.

The pig-skin had scarcely been faced off again when a somewhat similar performance, on the part of Clare and Hume, resulted in a corner kick for Century. This was successfully placed full on the top of "Sandy's" cranium, which deftly turning to one side, glanced the sphere beneath the tape, much to the joy of the Seniors and chagrin of the Juniors. This ended the scoring, and the game ended with the score standing 2 to 0 in favor of '00.

NEW BURSARY FOUNDED.

The Royal Commission for the Exhibition of 1881 Grant one of £70 a Year.

The Royal Commission for the Exhibition of 1881 has established a probationary bursary in Science at Varsity to the amount of seventy pounds a year. The bursary is to be granted in cases where applicants for scholarships have not shown sufficient promise to justify the Faculty in granting it. In such case, they may enjoy the bursary for a year in preparing themselves further for the scholarship. The object of the bursary is to assist students in pursuing post-graduate work, who otherwise could not conveniently do so. One of the requirements necessary is that the applicant must possess a B.Sc. or equivalent.

ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE

St. Michael's Debating Society held its meeting as usual at 5 o'clock, Saturday evening. A large number of outsiders and old members of the society were present, the most notable of whom were Messrs. Loughney, Dagnant and Torpey. The subject of debate was, "Resolved, that England was not justified in making war on the Boers." Messrs. Brennan and McGrath maintained that she was not justified, while Messrs. Duggan and Pickett upheld the honor of England. Mr. Brennan was the strong man for the affirmative, and to him all the honor of winning the debate is due. Mr. McGrath said a great deal, but proved very little, as all his eloquence was expended on things which had no bearing on the subject in question. Messrs. Duggan and Pickett put up very strong arguments in England's favor, but most of them were shattered to pieces in Mr. Brennan's second speech.

The second meeting of the year was held at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday evening, in the Auditorium of the College. The meeting was called to order by the President, Rev. J. A. Sullivan, C.S.B., and after the minutes were read, four honorable secretaries, Mr. H. Carr, they were proposed for adoption, by Mr. J. W. Kelley. This motion was seconded by Mr. Thos. J. Redmond, in a very able and forcible speech. The minutes were adopted without a dissenting vote, and then followed the most interesting part of the evening.

Mr. E. J. Moriarty read a very philosophical essay, entitled, "Character." He treated this very difficult subject in a fine manner, and earned much applause. Mr. T. J. Dixon's essay, "Pride," was well received by the society. Mr. Dixon is a new member, and will show his worth later on. Owing to illness, Mr. M. F. Meehan was excused from reading his essay. A reading, "The Well of St. Keyne," followed. Although notified a week beforehand, Mr. J. Luke Gibbons was taken ill, and arose from a sick bed to take part. His inflection was fairly good, and on the whole showed, by his manner of reading, that he could appreciate this masterpiece of Southey. The last essay of the evening, "Minstrels," by Mr. H. C. McGill, was a humorous and laugh-provoking writing. It showed that the society was slightly partial to the ridiculous, which must not be allowed to proceed too far. Mr. Shannahan read a selection from Goldsmith, and showed considerable ability in that line. His efforts were well and deservedly applauded.

The essayists for the next meeting were appointed by the Rev. President, and the meeting adjourned, to assemble on the evening of the 28th.

NOTES ON THE MEETING.

Mr. Carr deserves credit for the splendid manner in which he writes the minutes. Gibbons is quite an elocutionist. Redmond will make his "debut" as an M.P. very soon.

The College II. team played a game of Rugby football with the Parkdale Juniors on Saturday. The game resulted in a tie, neither side scoring. Malone, for the College boys, was the shining light.

"Jack" McKenna has sent his skates to get sharpened. "Jack" is talking hockey all day long now. "Lord" Hayes has been taking "Hutch" since the Trinity game, and is in good condition for the Mulock Cup Series. "Jack" Brothers lost his head the other day, and it took him a few minutes to recover it. Jack's all right, again.

Class B, of the College Handball Association, has begun, and already St. Michael's have polished off the Dents. In the two games played. The first game was on the Dents' alley, and resulted in favor of the College boys, by a score of 61 to 20. In the second game, the College boys repeated the trick, winning by a score of 59 to 10.

Most of our players have got their skates for the coming season, and now they are strapped. Dan O'Connor has decided to play Rugby for the boys in the Mulock Cup Series.

E. Luby played against Victoria on Wednesday, and did very well. Oh! what a beating we gave Victoria, 33 to 1. How sad!

The first part of the Handball League is nearly finished, and St. Michael's have it won by a long margin. On Thursday we played the Meds., and although beating them by a small score, we showed that we were their superiors in good, fast handball. Messrs. Powell, Shannahan and Pickett were our representatives in the League, and they did great justice to the task set down before them, namely, to lead the Handball League.

Our team of Association players have not come up to the mark this year, but maybe next year we will have a winning team.

"Say, Kel, I was asleep when you were knocking."

PROPOSED PLAN OF '00 YEAR BOOK

To Embrace Medicine, Faculty and the School of Science.

LOOKS QUITE PROMISING.

An Effort will be Made at Once to Carry the Enterprise Through.

The plans of the Seniors at Varsity are developing swiftly for the publication of a year book. The guarantee list, which has been circulated amongst the year, has been quite successful. A new plan is now proposed, which shows considerable enterprise on the part of the promoters, and should meet with hearty support in all quarters. It is thought that the year book should no longer be a production of the Arts students alone, but should extend its field and attempt to become a more truly University affair. Accordingly, the Century Class (in Arts), have appointed a committee to confer with the Medical Faculty and with the School of Science with a view to inducing the Senior years in those branches of the University to cooperate with Arts in the production of a year book which shall be a credit and honor to the University of Toronto.

The plan should be looked upon with favor. It is methods of this kind, which tend to draw the University faculties into closer touch, which are needed to give Toronto the university spirit which all would like to see there. Up to the present no such thing has ever been attempted amongst the Meds. and S.P.S. There is no reason, however, why, as faculties of the same University, the graduating classes there should not take as deep an interest in having some permanent remembrance of their life in Toronto University, as the Arts' students do.

It is certainly a step in the right direction, and the Century Class in Arts is to be congratulated on taking the initiative.

COMMITTEE FOR VARSITY DINNER.

Date Changed from December 15 to Either December 13 or 14.

The officers of the Varsity Dinner Committee, for the Dinner to be held December 13th or 14th, are: President, J. J. Gibson; Treasurer, Prof. Baker; Secretary, E. H. Cooper. The committee struck the following sub-committees:

Refreshment—E. P. Flinthof, convener; Prof. Fletcher, A. N. W. Clare.
 Decoration—A. McLeod, convener; Messrs. Burton, Cassidy, Hamilton, Millar and MacKay.
 Reception—J. F. M. Stewart, convener; Prof. Hutton, J. J. Gibson.
 Entertainment—H. Graham, convener; Messrs. Cassidy and Neelands.
 Finance—Prof. Baker, chairman; J. J. Gibson and the chairmen of the different committees.
 Invitation and Printing—E. H. Cooper, convener; President Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Dr. Wickett, T. A. Russell, B.A., and Messrs. Neelands, Clare, Ashworth, Hamilton, Allan.

SCHOOL WINS THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Hot Game With the Dents.

One of the fastest and prettiest games of Association football seen in Toronto this year took place on the Varsity Athletic Field, Thursday, between the School of Science and Dents. The Dents were backed to win the "Faculty Cup," hands down, after their swift game against Osgoode on Saturday last. But the School showed up in surprising form and fairly walked away with the Dental combinations. The final score was 2 to 0. S.P.S. (2)—Goal, Heron; backs, Campbell, Miller; half-backs, Barrett, McKay, Whelihan; forwards, Jackson, Gibson, Brereton, Depew, Taylor.
 Dents (0)—Goal, Scott; backs, Rudell, Macdonald; half-backs, Carswell, Douring, Armstrong; forwards, Dando, Gillilan, Amy, Robertson.

DENTALS' "AT HOME"

Will Be Held on the Evening of December 8th in Dental Hall.

The Dentals will be "At Home" to their many friends on the evening of December 8th. As usual, Dental Hall will be brilliantly decorated for the occasion, and a very interesting programme will precede the dancing.

The patronesses are: Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Mulock, Mrs. Stuart, Mrs. Primrose, Mrs. W. Earl Willmott, Mrs. Capon, Mrs. Clark (Woodstock); Mrs. Harold Clark, Mrs. W. Cecil Trotter, Mrs. J. F. Ross, Mrs. Mackenzie. Glionna's orchestra has been secured. The programme will comprise selections from Mr. Carnahan, baritone; Miss Boehmer, soprano; Miss Schofield, elocutionist; violin selections by Messrs. Ross and McLaughlin; Miss Hall, accompanist. Special attention is being paid to decorations, and everything promises that the Dentals will entertain their friends right royally on 8th December next.

The Play's the Thing!

Students of the French drama will have an opportunity next week of seeing three of Sardou's famous works—"La Tosca," "Fedora," and "Gismonda." The event will certainly be one of interest to students, and to the general theatre-going public as well.

Miss Blanche Walsh and Mr. Melbourne McDowell, with their company of players, will present the three pieces at the Grand, all of next week, and there is no doubt they will receive the patronage that they so well deserve. In her interpretation of Sardou's characters last year, Miss Walsh proved that she fully understood the ideal which the author wished to present, and her work withal was considered equal to that of her celebrated predecessor, Davenport, in every respect. The work of both Miss Walsh and Mr. McDowell in La Tosca is considered by many of the foremost critics to be their best. Miss Walsh's charming accent, her grace and vivid dramatic force, make La Tosca an unusually interesting and intense character. As Scarpia, Mr. McDowell is seen at his best. All the nice details in the character of the heartless Chief of the Roman Police, are adroitly brought out, and in an artistic manner. The supporting company this year is said to be even stronger than in former years, so that a rare treat is in store for lovers of the drama.

WYCLIFFE COLLEGE

Football practice on Saturday at 11 a.m., between the "Rag-tags," of the upper flat, and the "Aristocrats" of the lower. Everybody should turn out and pound the mud.

There was a peculiar result of the earthquake on Tuesday night, when nine beds were found piled up at the end of the lower hall, near the Ladies' Room.

In the Lit. on Friday evening, Kinder and Kidd, negative, and Savary and Wilkinson, affirmative, discussed further the ethics of the Transvaal war. The negative were victorious.

It is reported that on Saturday evening Savary was visited by four ladies; it is also rumored that he fled precipitately upon their appearance. Is Savary bashful?

The Dean has heard that James I. is troubled with indigestion, and it is feared that it is contagious.

The Inter-Collegiate Debate, held on Wednesday night, between Knox and Wycliffe, is reported in another column.

FOOTBALL.

It was with a forlorn hope that our Intermediate team journeyed to Kingston to play the second game in the finals with the strong R.M.C. team. It will be remembered that the game in Toronto ended with the Cadets 8 points ahead, and with this lead our boys hardly hoped to pull out a victory. Nevertheless they played a much stronger game than at home, and pushed the Cadets hard from the beginning till the end. The team, and especially Aylesworth, the captain, deserves great credit for sticking to it so well and so long, and for pushing the Cadets as hard as they undoubtedly did.

A heavy wind blew up the field, and it so happened that Varsity II. had to kick against this during the first half. Thus it was that the score at the end of the thirty minutes was 21-0, in favor of the Cadets. After half-time Varsity picked up, and died hard. The Cadets only scored another 4 points, while Varsity succeeded in obtaining 13. Thus, the final score was 25-13, and the Cadets came out champions by 20 points.

The Varsity II. team was: Back, McDonald; halves, Wallace, Aylesworth, Patterson; quarter, Chown; scrimmage, Stratton, Douglas, Rutter; wings A. J. McKenzie, McLennan, M. Telford, Henry, Sinclair, Gander, Hoyles; manager, "Doc" Wright.

"Big Alec" McKenzie won the gratitude of all by kindly consenting to play with the second team. They were a man short, so "Alec" offered his services, which were thankfully received.

"Feather" Aylesworth has worked hard and faithfully for the success of his team, and deserves great credit both for this and for the excellent game he has been playing at centre half.

Someone has said that the test of a student is not how much he knows, but how much he wants to know.

A journalist once wrote to forty eminent authors, asking their opinion of what was the object of the novel. Some half-dozen replied, "to realize life;" and the rest, "to amuse."
