CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION

Large Number of Delegates Here to Choose a Candidate—Elections may be Deferred to Next Year—Number of Nominations.

The convention of delegates to select a candidate to contest this constituency in the interests of the Conservative party is being held in the city hall today. There is a large representation from all parts of the constituency, and none of the delegates have come instructed or pledged to support any particular men, but they will discuss the situation as they should do and arrive at a decision. There is doubt as to when the federal elections will be held, but the party is preparing for it no matter when it comes. The following dispatch from Ottawa would indicate that there would be another session before a general election. Ottawa, Feb. 15.—A game of tactics is being played in the House of Commons. It is now fully evident that the government wants another session before the general elections, so now a waiting game is being played. The government is jockeying for a long session during which it is hoped that the opposition will table all their cards. Then will come Sir Wilfrid Laurier's trip west next fall, and afterwards a short session, probably lasting till April 1909. The general elections might then be held in the spring or fall of 1909. This is the government program but it has not been subscribed to by the opposition critics, who will have some say in the matter. Meanwhile there need be no general election till February 1910. There are delegates from almost, if not every poll in the riding and all are enthusiastic. It is a record Conservative convention as to enthusiasm and numbers. The chair was taken at 10.30 by H. W. Laird, president of the central Conservative association, who after a brief address of welcome opened the meeting. Committees on credentials, resolutions and organization and finance were elected, and met at one o'clock in the city hall. Nominations were then proceeded with and were as follows: J. F. L. Embury by J. F. Chisholm and Chas. Edwards; Dr. Cowan by A. Martin and J. A. Westman; H. W. Laird by W. Cullum and D. Donaldson; A. E. Whitmore by Messrs Cairns and Adams of Lang; T. Wilkinson, by J. A. Gosh and F. Nagel; J. K. McInnis by T. McKee and R. G. Fitzpatrick; P. McEira by H. Woodyard and C. Fahlanan; G. S. Houston by J. F. L. Embury and A. T. Hunter. Before the convention adjourned for lunch P. McEira and H. W. Laird withdrew their names.

UNIQUE SWINDLE

Forged telegraphic message to secure sum of $300

Edmonton, Feb. 24.—A few days ago a young man named Bridges Coates, who formerly resided at a Calgary office, dropped into the northern terminal city and decided to visit friends there. He was acquainted with one of the dispatchers at Strathcona and soon got into close touch with the office. He was given a minor job, copying messages, and in other ways handling dispatches received in the office. Shortly after he had been employed a message from a bank in the United States came to hand instructing the Canadian Bank of Commerce to pay to the order of Bridges Coates the sum of $300. With an ordinary degree of caution the bank wired back to ascertain if Bridges Coates had the necessary amount of funds at his disposal to allow of his being paid the sum named at Strathcona. The answer came back that he had no funds, but it did not reach the bank in that way. When the officials received the yellow bit of paper, it read to pay as directed, as his funds were ample to meet the payments, and the money was then forthcoming in crisp ten-dollar bills. Coates was handed the cash. His departure from the city was then just a question of leaving by the next train. In a short time the bank people and the C.P.R. began to get wise, and investigation revealed the fact that they had been victims of a unique scheme. Inquiries were at once put on foot, but Coates had gone, and the C.P.R. have come through with the money paid out by a forged telegraphic message.

IMMIGRANTS COMING Over Twelve Hundred en route to Canada—Steamship Companies Expect a Record Season. Montreal, Feb. 24.—Word was received by the C.P.R. this morning that the Empress of Ireland has sailed from Liverpool with over twelve hundred passengers. This marks the opening of the season's immigration business, and is the largest passenger list for some months coming to Canada, as most of those travelling have gone the other way. Steamship companies expect a record of immigration business this year.

Natal Act Inoperative Victoria, Feb. 25.—In giving their written reasons in support of Justice Hunter's decision that the Natal Act was not operative against the Japanese, Justice Clement said that the case of the province was so hopeless that he felt there should never have been an attempt to enforce it. He added "It smacks strongly of one province undertaking to over ride and render obsolete the will of the Canadian people constitutionally expressed under an act of parliament, and when they even make bold to forbid the honorable observation of our solemn engagements with a foreign power." Justices Irving and Morrison only dealt with the legal phases. The court granted the province leave to appeal to the privy council.

Free Readers The three western provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta have made arrangements with Morang & Co. of Toronto, for the publishing of a uniform set of readers to be used in the public schools. The set of books will consist of a primer, and first, second, third and fourth reader. These books when printed will be sold for the provinces, who will supply them free to the school districts.

Bishop Claims exemption from Civil Law

Chicoutimi, Que., Feb. 24.—That the Roman Catholic Bishops are above the civil law of the country, was the astonishing contention made here by Bishop LaRoque of this diocese. His lordship refused to obey the jurisdiction of the civil law. The case rose over a libel suit brought by a lawyer against three citizens, who were alleged to have sent a signed statement to the Bishop to the effect that he had traduced the clergy. It was necessary to have the document in court and Bishop LaRoque was subpoenaed in the ordinary way. The Bishop did not turn up and Judge Pelletier agreed that it was necessary for him to obey the law like any ordinary citizen. He accordingly wrote to the Bishop, who today, appeared in court, but when plaintiff demanded production of the offending document, the Bishop flatly refused to produce it. Asked his authority for contempt of court, the Bishop replied, "because it was handed to me as judge of an ecclesiastical court, and also because I do not occupy myself with your civil laws." His lordship was not committed for contempt, but the case was postponed until the judge decides whether the civil law can compel the Bishop to produce the documents in court.

Sympathy for Stoessel

Commander of the Japanese Forees Sends Brief Telegram

Cincinnati, Feb. 24.—General Nogai commander of the Japanese forces that captured Port Arthur, expressed sympathy with his defeated enemy in a brief telegram received here today. On receipt of the news that General Stoessel was sentenced to death, the Cincinnati Times-Star sent a telegram to General Nogai, stating the fact and asking for a statement of his views. In reply today, the Japanese leader said: "As a soldier I deeply sympathize with General Stoessel. Cannot bear to state my views."

INSPECTOR HORN ON GRAIN INSPECTION

Over Fifty Million Bushels Inspected This Year—Some Abuses That Have Crept In—Difficulty Over Oat Inspection.

At the convention of grain growers held at Saskatoon recently, David Horn, chief grain inspector read a paper, which the Saskatoon Capital reports as follows:

In appearing amongst you I am naturally expected to say something about inspection, as so much of the criticism of inspection is the result of misapprehension and misunderstanding. A grain inspector stands in a peculiar position, inasmuch as he can never expect to give satisfaction. He is in the position of an arbitrator, and in any other of the parties often as not, one of the parties is dissatisfied. He must do what he believes to be the right thing, no matter how assailed or beset. Every one is impressed with the good features and worth of his own property, and is more or less blind to its drawbacks and defects, so much so that I always tell grain men that their own opinion about their own grain is worthless.

The procedure and work of carrying on the inspection is as well carried out and safeguarded as seems possible under conditions as they exist at present. The modus operandi of meeting the trains and taking the samples has so often been explained that it is now familiar to all of you, and I hardly know how better to accomplish it. The change that is being made, sometimes, that a mistake has been made in the sample, has never been substantiated. My men never go out singly to trains; they go in gangs or sets, in charge of a foreman, and the work is checked systematically. I always have plenty of efficient and reliable help. My deputies are all men who have come forward under myself, and all have been familiar with me for many years. All are tried and trusted men.

There has been inspected this year nearly forty million bushels of wheat, over eight million bushels of oats, two million bushels of barley, and about a quarter of a million bushels of flaxseed.

The frost damage was the feature peculiar to the crop of this season, causing a third of the wheat to inspect below three northern, and sixty per cent. of the oats No. 3 white. On barley the damage was equally bad, whilst flaxseed was not much affected, the crop of this being the largest we ever had and nearly all of high quality. This frost damage made the work of inspection more than usually difficult, and necessitated the convening of the standard board to make standards for the wheat offered. The proportion of wheat with other grain has been less than for some years, but there has been quite a percentage of no grade for not being kept quite dry. This is partly accounted for by so much of the low grade being so hard to get into good condition.

The frostiest loss in this crop caused a serious complication. I had taken the position that these frosted oats should come under the No. 3 classification, by interests in the east immediately served me by legal process that I would be personally held liable for damages, as also the department, if oats carrying a No. 3 certificate proved to be frost damaged. On my taking legal counsel on this question I was advised that this was correct, and that I could be held liable.

Some years ago a similar situation arose in regard to Alberta oats, and although their oats had then a more desirable appearance and weighed very much more than the Manitoba oats, they could not be inspected in to the same grades on account of their being damaged by frost. The standards board that year made special commercial grades to meet the case of their oats, and two Alberta "one Alberta" rather than have them in this class rejected. Strange to say this action displeased Alberta very much. Their fine appearing oats, as compared with Manitoba oats, were discarded so much in comparison with Manitoba oats that in their exasperation they moved to have the making of standards for oats taken out of the control of the standards board and next time the act was up for amendment by parliament this was accomplished, and now oats are specially exempted from being controlled or interfered with in any way for you to write my office to send you the standard sample of the grade you believe your wheat entitled to, and yourself make comparison with it. If you, as the owner, are in doubt, then it is a moral certainty that your car is not that grade. This is a work on our part for which we get neither credit, remuneration, nor thanks, and is a work for which no provision was ever made or contemplated. From small beginnings it has grown into an abuse.

Selling on certificates is simply selling on sample, with a disinterested responsible guarantee that the shipment will be equal to sample. So much so has this been accomplished that any importer in eastern Canada or in Great Britain will now trade in and accept and pay for your grain promptly on presentation of the documents, the wheat unseen, knowing the key to everything connected with that car, and we are quite loath to they bought. You can see what effect this confidence has; it enables the importer to pay the very last cent the grain will bring, and this reacts back to the farmer.

I have often heard British dealers declare that they made less money handling Manitoba wheat than any other, because it was traded in on such a fine margin. Its value was so accepted and relied upon that there was no come and go, no room for reclamation or dispute, as is the case of parcels bought purely on sample. Over there they have professional arbitrators for cases of dispute, but I never heard of their being called in on Manitoba wheat that was inspected on certificates.

It is common to jump to the conclusion that it is the inspection that is at fault when everything is not as expected regarding a car. Only this week we had a car from southern Manitoba of which the two ends were entirely different to each other, but no partition separating. This car came right into Winnipeg positive that the inspection was at fault, but it developed that he had never seen the load as put into the car. Last week one of the elevator companies handed me a letter that had received from a traveller they had stationed in southern Saskatchewan. This man was denouncing his firm the grain inspection because the cars shipped by the farmers would always inspect better than cars shipped by themselves. On the other hand, the manager of the Grain Growers' Grain Co. complains that he is continually in receipt of complaints and charges that cars shipped to this company are inspected lower than other people's, and so on it goes. They lose sight of the fact that the inspectors have no interest in one more than another, do not care where the car comes from or who owns it. The one thought before him always is, can he make an unwilling consignee or purchaser take the wheat for the grade certified to? And so long as he feels he can do this, he is but too willing to give the certificate.

IDENTITY UNKNOWN

Imperial Pulp Co. Get Number of Timber Berths but Their Identity is Not Known.

Further returns in connection with the disposal of timber berths in the North-West brought down last week serve to deepen the impression which prevails throughout the country that tenderers, except favored ones, do not get a square deal in their transactions with the department. For instance, in November, 1902, Mr. W. A. Allen of Ottawa, asked that berth 1050 be put up to public tender. A month later, Dec. 22, Mr. Allan was informed that the department would not dispose of the timber "at present" and yet on Jan. 28th tenders were called for, McDonald Bros., of Ottawa, being the successful bidders for $13,125. They subsequently assigned the berth to the Saskatchewan Lumber Co.

Startlingly curious is the story of berth No. 1051, as it again brings into the limelight the mysterious Imperial Pulp Co. In September, 1902, Messrs. Foulger and Rowley, of Ponoka, Alta., asked that this area of 1181 square miles be offered for tender. The time mentioned in the advertisement was very short and many protests were entered. The following tenders were received: Wilber I. Crafts and Robert Lee, Edmonton, $8,015; K. McDonald and H. McDonald, G. C. Frith, Ottawa, $31,161; N. W. Lumber Co., Morningdale, Alta., $2,554; James Ross, Edmonton, $17,016.55; T. A. Burrows, M.P., $6,057; C. B. Boone, Toronto, $3,140. Imperial Pulp Co., of Toronto $31,575. The bonus offered by the latter company was thereupon accepted.

Identify a Mystery
On Jan. 19th, 1903, Mr. Keyes, secretary of the Interior Department, wrote to Mr. Burn, general manager of the Bank of Ottawa, as follows:

"I am directed to inform you that on the 2nd inst. a tender was received from the Imperial Pulp Co., of Toronto, enclosing cheques on your bank for the sum of $31,575, which they offered as a bonus for a license to cut timber on berth No. 1051. A receipt for the amount and also a letter advising the company of the acceptance of their tender were sent to them at Toronto, and both have been returned marked 'no such firm in Toronto.' It is thought possible that you were in a position to advise this department of the address of the company. I may add that a license cannot be issued for this berth until the rental thereon for the first year has been paid, viz.: $591.25."

Mr. Burn replied that the bank was not absolutely certain of the company's address, but would be in possession of it in a day or two. Later the department received a letter from the Imperial Pulp Co., per R. R. Pattinson, P.O. box 644, Winnipeg, and the transaction was closed. Subsequently the ground rents were paid for the company by the Ottawa legal firm of which Mr. A. W. Fraser is a member.

Five berths in all, 1031, 1037, 1038, 1118 and 1119, went to this mysterious company about the same time. The first three to the Imperial Pulp Co. were for bonuses, respectively $31,575, $1,000 and $2,500. The other two to W. H. Nolan, of Montreal, for $500 and $600, respectively. The two latter were subsequently assigned to the Imperial Pulp Co.

IMMORAL DAWSON

Rev. John Pringle Tells How the Law is Enforced in the Yukon--Prostitutes Apparently Immune from Conviction--Letters Stolen and No Investigation.

Rev. John Pringle, Presbyterian minister at Dawson City, Yukon Territory, in writing of conditions there among other things said:

"Has the law been enforced in the Yukon? Has it been enforced in precisely the same way as the law in other parts of Canada? Let us see.

1. There is, or it is generally believed that there is, a law forbidding the immigration into Canada of prostitutes and criminals. Has this law been enforced? We have a custom house at Summit, and a strong police force at Whitehorse—the door is thrown back the steady stream of prostitutes, with the collateral stream of male undesirables which has poured into this country for years? Absolutely nothing. The police are always ready to do their duty, but have not been instructed or permitted to prevent this shameful immigration. It is sufficient for my purpose to quote the words of the assistant commissioner of police spoken in the Yukon council last August, during the debate on dance halls: 'If the dance halls are closed, hundreds of these women will not flock to the city as they have in the past few years.' If there is any such law or regulation governing immigration, and its enforcement elsewhere has been on Yukon lines, it is a dead letter, dead as a coffin nail.

2. There is a federal Sunday law, passed after long and sore travail. I shall not argue whether it is good or bad, broad or narrow. It is a law for whose enforcement in unorganized territory the minister of justice is responsible. Has this law been enforced in the Yukon? Last April the assistant commissioner of police was advised that the law was in force and instructed to enforce, to the minister of justice's infraction of the law. He did so. Was the law enforced? Was there any pretence made of enforcing it? Absolutely none. The assistant commissioner was told that the police could do their duty, if they attended to complaints made by private citizens. And the constable saw the law broken—book stores, cigar stores, teams, wood sawing machines going on Sundays as on other days, and under orders, did nothing to enforce the law. The department of justice had forbidden action, and had thrust the onus, and the odium of prosecuting on the private citizen.

The Criminal Code forbids the business of prostitution. Has this law been enforced as in any other part of Canada? During the summer of 1906 the English church minister lived on the west side of Front street, in the little mining town of Conrad, in the southern part of the territory. Across the street from his cabin was my tent church. Thirty yards away on the street allowance was a nest of prostitutes who, and whose followers, kept up such a noise all night as precluded sleep, and used such language as they passed to and fro, from night till morning, as would not be good for the children or anyone to hear. After about two months' protest they were removed to a more conspicuous place, near the Montana mine trail, and directly behind the Presbyterian church. At night after night I was aroused from my sleep by men looking for the sporting houses; and one night saved the lock and hinges of my door, by using a pail of water to let a midnight visitor know that he had struck the wrong door.

It seems to me almost impossible to get a conviction against a prostitute as such. Fourteen poor wretches were segregated in Klondyke City. But twice as many of the same class are allowed to run loose in Dawson City. If their business is legitimate and cannot be reached by law, why should not be such discrimination.

Less than a year ago there were in two houses on Front street, within half a block, eighty of these women. The crown prosecutor reported to the minister of justice that, in his opinion, these were disorderly houses and could be proceeded against under the criminal code. The report of the police was stronger still. Was the law enforced? The minister of justice informed the authorities to take no action. A number of women have recently been fined for illicit liquor selling. But they are doing business in these places, in the same old way, right in the heart of the city. I have not been very much in eastern Canada during the last twenty-five years, and cannot speak from knowledge of eastern conditions. If the law against prostitution is enforced generally as it is in the Klondyke, the moral and social forces do their work out for themselves. 4. The criminal code forbids gambling. Has the law been enforced precisely in the same way as in other parts of Canada? To say here that it has is to raise an incredulous laugh. I have seen the police court, full of all the furniture of common gambling houses raided by the police—money taken from the table, cards and chips from the pockets. The best men in the police force swore to the facts. The stores

Crop Payment Plan

In view of a number of men who wish to acquire farms in Saskatchewan, but have not sufficient capital to purchase lands under the usual terms of one-quarter cash and the balance in four or five payments, we have decided to offer some of our choice lands in Saskatchewan for sale on the Crop Payment Plan, and submit the following as

Some of the Advantages To Be Derived by the Purchaser Under This Method:

Under the ordinary Agreement for Sale the payments must be made on stated dates, usually commencing one year from date of purchase.

This makes the second payment due before anything has been produced by the farm, and the third payment falls on the first year's crop.

By the Crop Payment Plan, the purchaser pays a small amount of cash down and agrees to break up and crop a stated amount of the land each year until the whole is under cultivation. All subsequent payments of principal and interest are made from a share of the produce of the farm, and so long as the agreement or cultivation is lived up to, the purchaser runs no chance whatever of having his contract terminated.

The outfit necessary for the proper working of a farm bought under this plan is that usually employed by a tenant farmer. The purchaser agrees to deliver One-Half the wheat grown on the land to the order of the vendor at an elevator agreed upon, and the amount received from sale of same is at once applied in reduction of the liability, and in event of a crop failure no payment is due (under straight contract a payment must be made no matter how good or bad the crop may be.)

IT IS A CASE OF NO CROP, NO PAY

The Tenant Farmer

Pays One-half the crop each year for the use of the land and at the end of ten or twenty years has not one cent's interest in the farm.

Purchaser Under Straight Agreement

May make four or five payments on farm and his liability to make the next payment

Purchaser Under Crop Payment Plan

Increases his interests in the farm each year by the amount the farm pays towards its purchase, and the land must eventually belong to him if he lives up to the cultivation clauses of agreement and delivers share of crop, be it large or small, as agreed upon.

Partisan Civil Servants

The Liberal government at Ottawa deem it no disgrace to the country to have the army of civil servants employed doing active political work for the Liberal party.

Mrs. Swaisland Passes Away

The death of Mrs. W. J. Swaisland took place at Cupar on Wednesday, Feb. 19th, after an illness of six weeks.

She had been married to Mr. Swaisland, manager of the Union Bank at Cupar and formerly of the staff of the Regina branch, for little more than a year.

The deceased lady had a host of friends in Regina to whom the news of her death came as a severe shock.

The West joins the many friends in extending sympathy to Mr. Swaisland as well as to Judge and Mrs. Johnstone and family.

The Report for 1907 atchewan's Grain Crop a Fair Average

The final report of the Saskatchewan for the year has just been issued by the department of agriculture.

The weather of 1907 is the report at considerable tables of temperature and in the province for the month of the last ten years are also rev comparisons of the year.

The weather, which is a farmer is always an interest, takes a secondary place when figures of yields are presented.

The average yields per acre in many districts are of may nevertheless, being fairly satisfactory the remarkable features son are considered.

The average yields per acre of wheat, which, while less than in previous years, is quite equal to the average of the last six years, and much better than the average of the last ten years.

1907 CROP

The Report for 1907 of Saskatchewan's Grain Crop Shows a Fair Average

The final report of the grain crops of Saskatchewan for the past year has just been issued by the department of agriculture.

The weather of 1907 is treated in the report at considerable length; tables of temperature and precipitation in the province for each month of the last ten years are given; each month of 1907 is also reviewed and comparisons of the year with previous ones are freely made.

The weather, which to the western farmer is always an interesting subject, takes a secondary position however, when figures of actual crop yields are presented. The completion of the report indicates that the grain production of the province last year was 53,767,251 bushels, which consists of wheat 27,691,601 bushels; oats, 23,824,903 bushels; barley 1,936,205 bushels; flax, 1,364,716 bushels; speltz 35,786. Compared with the production of 1906, the crop of last season shows a net decrease of 9,384,959 bushels, the difference being almost entirely in the case of wheat, although the quantity of oats threshed was not quite as great as in the previous year; all the other grains show an increase, which in the case of flax is 654,027 bushels, an increase over the figures of 1906 almost equal to the whole flax crop of that year.

The area in crop last year was 2,918,951 acres, an increase of 418,154 acres over the crop area of 1906. This does not take into consideration the area of unthreshed grains, which the department has been at considerable pains to ascertain, amounting to an additional 139,966 acres; the total crop area of last season, therefore was 3,058,917 acres. Each crop shows an increase in acreage over that of the previous year, the figures being as follows: wheat 1,971,099 acres; oats 744,187 acres; barley 77,120 acres; flax 125,029 acres; speltz 1,516 acres.

The average yields per acre, while not as large as the luxuriant vegetation in many districts gave promise of, may nevertheless be taken as being fairly satisfactory, when all the remarkable features of the season are considered. The average yield per acre of wheat was 14.04 bushels, which, while less than in recent years, is quite equal to the average of the United States in the last six years, and much better than Russia in the same period. The average yield of the other grains is: oats 31.34 bushels; barley 17.5 bushels; flax 10.91 bushels; speltz 23.59 bushels. The records of crops for the years 1895 and 1906 are tabulated, as well as the totals for the province since 1898 and afford a comparison of the production by districts as well as for the province.

An interesting reference is made to the quality of the wheat crop, and the tabulated statement that accompanies shows that the crop of 27,691,601 bushels would probably grade as follows: Numbers 1, 2, and 3 Northern, 9,206,332 bushels; numbers 4 and 5, 7,513,263 bushels; number 6 and feed 10,972,006 bushels.

In addition to a detailed description of the districts into which the province has been divided for statistical purposes, an index map is included in the report; a statement also shows, in tabulated form, some important facts regarding the area, acreage under cultivation, area in crop in 1907, number of farms for which reports of threshing have been received, the average size of each farm, the elevator capacity, and the number of threshing machines in each district.

The bulletin contains a reference to the marketing and prices of grain, and gives the daily Winnipeg cash prices since September 1st for wheat in store at Fort William and Port Arthur. Copies may be had upon application to the department.

Alexander-Reid

Ann Arbor, Feb. 20.—A pretty wedding occurred Wednesday, Feb. 15th, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Davin, when Miss Eleanor Ethel Ellard Reid became the bride of Mr. Andrew Clement Alexander.

The color scheme was pink and white roses and carnations, palms and ferns. At half after five, Miss Margaret Spell, a friend of the bride played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, while the bride party descended the stairs and took their places at one end of the parlor. Here in front of a bank of palms and ferns, the ceremony was performed by Rev. A. C. Grey, formerly of Toronto, Canada, and at present pastor of the Church of Christ, Ann Arbor, while taking up work in the University. The bride was attired in a gown of cream colored silk, trimmed with old lace, panne velvet, and pearls, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and maiden-hair fern. Mrs. Davin, who attended her sister, as matron of honor, wore pale green silk, with garniture of lace and velvet, and carried pink carnations. The bride was also attended by two little flower girls, dressed just alike in white silk; Miss Irene MacAfee of Vancouver, B.C., a niece of the bride and Miss Luella Kelley of Ann Arbor. Miss Irene carried the ring in a large pink La France rose, and Miss Luella Kelley, a basket bouquet of sweet peas. Dr. J. S. Jackson of Detroit, assisted as best man, and Messrs. William Reid, Weldon Reid, Arthur Davis and Charles Champness acted as ushers.

After the ceremony, the party sat down to a course supper, and were served by young ladies, friends of the bride. The wedding guests were limited to the immediate relatives and friends from Chicago, Detroit, Windsor, Toronto, Ottawa, and this city. The bride came from Ottawa, Ont., to Ann Arbor, two years ago to attend the university of Michigan, and the groom is from western Canada, where he has an extensive ranching interest and claims, but has spent several years in Alaska, where he has large interests in gold mines.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander left on the 10:20 train for Chicago, and will enjoy a prolonged wedding trip through those who say there must be an educated class for the thinkers and educated to build their fortunes on. Let us put behind education a conception of life that will make us anxious to work for others, that all roll up the heresy that it is more respectable to spend the money earned by someone else than it is to earn money for one's own needs, and too, in our national life there are rights governments never gave, and which governments cannot take away which tariffs cannot wall out, here is the right to set a good example that men may see our good works, and that most potent influence which goes out among nations on the upright life.

FAT STOCK SHOW

Prizes for the Winter Fair Over $5,000—Some of the Prizes Offered

The Canadian Shorthorn Breeders' Association, at its recent annual meeting, voted $150 to the prize list of the Provincial fat stock show for Saskatchewan to be held in Regina on March 18th, 19th and 20th. The executive committee thereupon decided that this donation should be allotted as follows: $50 in the pure bred shorthorn classes making the prizes as follows:

- Sec. 1. Steer or heifer calved in 1905. 1st $25; 2nd $20; 3rd, $12.50; 4th $5.
 - Sec. 2. Steer or heifer calved in 1906. 1st $25; 2nd $20; 3rd $12.50; 4th $5.
 - Sec. 3. Steer or heifer calved in 1907. 1st $25; 2nd $20; 3rd $12.50; 4th $5.
 - Sec. 4. Female calved previous to 1905. 1st $20; 2nd $15; 3rd $7.50.
- Specials.
- Best grade steer or heifer, sired by pure bred shorthorn (calved in 1906 or 1907) $25.
 - Best grade steer or heifer, sired by pure bred shorthorn, (calved previous to 1906) $25.
- Dressed Carcasses
- Purebred shorthorn, steer or female $25.
 - Grade steer from pure bred shorthorn, $25.
- This donation of $150 raises the amount of prizes for the Winter Fair to considerably over $5,000. While the entries for the Fat Stock Show closed on Feb. 20th this additional class shall be extended until March 15th.

PROVINCIAL NEWS

NEW INSURANCE CO.

The Ridgford Mutual Fire Insurance Company, is the name of a new insurance company organized a few months ago, with headquarters at Ridgford, Sask. The company is composed of prominent farmers of that district, and insures only farm property against fire and lightning. Being a mutual company, every farmer who takes out insurance on the premium note plan becomes a member of the company, and is entitled to take part in the meetings of the company. Under the above plan a note is given for $2 per $100 of insurance for three years, which note is assessable at any time during its currency by the board of directors, either to cover losses, expenses, or to establish a reserve fund.

There is also a cash plan, under which a rate of thirty-three and one-third cents is charged for every $100 of insurance for one year. The company being purely a farmer's company and provincial in character, will doubtless commend itself to those who believe in advancing the interests of the province in which they live, at the same time securing protection to themselves in the event of fire.

Following are the officers and directors of the company: A. Boyd, president; W. T. Grieve, vice president; O. L. Brevig, manager and secretary; Robert Grieve, M. Calder, Jonathan King and T. C. Grieve directors.—Davidson Leader.

A CLOSE CALL

Friday morning last Pete McEwen had a close call. The previous evening he started for his farm at Chamberlain with a team and a sleighload of requirements. While crossing the C.N.R. at Disley opposite Mr. Peter Ekits, the sleigh stuck to the rails. The team broke the tongue and the whiffletrees endeavoring to remove the load. It was about the hour the flyer was due at Disley. Pete could not life the load himself. For a moment he was in a quandary as to what to do. He heard the flyer sporting and tugging on the grade, so he ran down the track half a mile or more, and jumped up in the air, and made all kinds of movements to attract attention, which were not without effect for the engineer saw Pete and ascertained the cause of his frantic movements. The engine crew assisted in moving the load from the rails, and in a few minutes everything was moving on schedule time.—Lumsden News-Record.

WONDERFUL DEVELOPMENT

Col. Leslie of Toronto, accompanied by Mrs. Leslie, came up from Regina yesterday to visit Mr. J. Manley, who is an old acquaintance. Col. Leslie's mission in the west is to induce the governments of the prairie provinces to make an exhibit at the Toronto fair next August. He met Hon. W. R. Motherwell in Winnipeg a day or two ago, and was glad to find the Saskatchewan minister much interested. He will take up the matter with Mr. Motherwell when he returns to Regina.

COAL ON THE QU'APPELLE

Ever since the first settlement along the banks of the Qu'Appelle river, it has been the opinion of nearly every one who has studied the lay of the land that coal would be found there some day, and that the sloping hill sides, which appeared to be but barren waste would yield treasures to enrich some fortunate individuals and provide this part of the province at least with the necessary fuel for the cold seasons of the year. This dream has been realized at last, and, if reports can be verified, the fuel question has been solved, and a thriving town will soon spring up where today there is nothing but rocky hillsides and a dense growth of poplar bush.

To Chas. Lake, a Finlander, living in the settlement north of Wapella, goes the honor, if such it can be called of finding the first evidence of coal at the Qu'Appelle, and if the find proves as valuable as reported, the district is very much indebted to him for having taken the initiative in bringing to light the hidden treasure.

While strolling along the south bank a few weeks ago, Mr. Lake noticed what appeared to be a deposit of coal at the bottom of a ravine that had been washed away from a crevice in the hill side. Having had some experience in coal mining, he at once investigated and found a wall of the same material farther up, being the source from which the deposit had come. A quantity was taken home and tried in a stove, and was found to burn freely. Since then he has been working steadily at the mine the substance becoming harder to get further in, and a few days ago went to Whitewood for a supply.

of dynamite with which to continue the work. He is now fifteen feet in to the mine. The deposit was found on a quarter section owned by the government a short distance east of the meridian line and about 16 miles north of Wapella, and near the farm of Hugh Bartog. Should the find prove as valuable as it is claimed by those who have seen the mine and those who have tried the coal, it certainly will be a boon to the surrounding districts.—Wapella Post.

The Golden Lion Brewing Co., of Prince Albert, have rebuilt their brewery which was burned down last year. They will manufacture flavoring extracts as well as beer.

Mr. Shapley, Dominion lands surveyor, is sending an engineer north to do survey work in connection with the Green Lake roadway. This is the road expected to run north from North Battleford, between Jackfish and Murray Lakes, thence by Green Lake near which point the road will fork, one branch leading to Meadow Lake and the other to Green Lake, the last mentioned being the road which will run to Isle LaCrosse. This road will in all likelihood divert the trade of a very considerable northern settlement to North Battleford. Those who have tried this stage of it positively overcomes pain in the back clears the urine of sediment and regulates urination, especially at night, curing even the worst forms of bladder weakness.

Every man or woman here who feels that the kidneys are not strong or acting in a healthy manner should mix this prescription at home and give it a trial, as it is said to do wonders for many persons.

The Scranton (Pa.) Times was first to print this remarkable prescription in October, of 1906, since when all the leading newspapers of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and other cities have made many announcements of it to their readers.

KAID MACLEAN TORTURED

Sirs of the tortures to which Kaid Sir Harry MacLean, the Scotch commander of the Sultan of Morocco's military forces, was subjected during the period of his captivity in hand of Raisuli's hands have created intense anger in England. Raisuli had long been regarded as a courageous, high spirited chieftain, who, if somewhat unconventional in his methods, was at least a true patriot, man, bent on resistance to oppression, but generous to those in his power. Kaid MacLean's story is not like this at all.

After describing how he met the Sultan in the hope of inducing him to visit Fez for a conference with the Sultan concerning a settlement of the differences between them, MacLean recounts the pledges of safe conduct given him by Raisuli; his journey in the bandit's country and his final notification that he was a prisoner. A terrible journey followed into the regions of mountain passes, in which the chieftain made his headquarters. Here, though suffering from a high fever, MacLean was confined in a tumble down hut, without bedding or proper food, until he was reduced to a skeleton, and so weak that he could not walk.

All this time he was subjected to a systematic course of bullying, harder than even physical suffering to bear. To keep him from sleeping, the guard played constantly on the two-stringed fiddle of the country, often limiting the invalid to one or two hours' sleep in the 24. Mr. MacLean is 60 years old, with a constitution undermined with years of hardship, and the sufferings he has undergone has reduced him to a condition from which his physicians say it will take him months to recover.

Weak, Pale and Worn Out Women

Can be Saved from a Life of Misery by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

Women are called the "weaker sex" and yet nature calls upon them to bear far more pain than men. With too many women it is one long martyrdom from the time they are budding into womanhood until age. They begin to set their mark upon them. They are no sooner over one period of pain and distress than another looms up a few days ahead of them. No wonder so many women become worn out and old looking before their time.

THIEF CAPTURED

The local R.N.W.M. Police made a very important arrest on Friday, when, after a long and exciting chase R. S. Clark, a notorious horse thief was captured. This man was in July 1906 sentenced by Chief Justice Wetmore to two years for horse stealing and was released later on ticket of leave.

Clark was regularly reported here until a few weeks ago, when he stole a horse from Mr. Ferguson, of Wapella, and disappeared into the Moose Mountain country, some fifty miles south of this town. The police after making an effort to locate him, concluded that Clark was remaining in hiding, and last week that was Inspector Taylor sent out plainclothes men after him. Clarke was arrested, and it was discovered that he had traded the horse. There was also being another charge of horse breaking, against the prisoner, as it is alleged that he broke down to burn freely. Since then he has been working steadily at the mine the substance becoming harder to get further in, and a few days ago went to Whitewood for a supply.

Inspector Taylor took the train for Whitewood Friday afternoon to meet the detachment of police, and the prisoner, is now lodged in the Moosomin jail. Considerable anxiety was felt all through the district while this worthy was at large, but the Royal North-West Mounted Police have again demonstrated their usual vigilance, and this man's capture it is hoped, will be a warning to others of his kind.—Moosomin World.

Recipe is Easily Prepared at Small Cost, and Many Swear By it

Mix the following by shaking well in a bottle, and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. A local druggist is the authority that these simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at nominal cost from our home druggists.

The mixture is said to cleanse and strengthen the clogged and inactive kidneys, overcoming Backache, Bladder weakness and Urinary Trouble of all kinds, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease.

Those who have tried this stage of it positively overcomes pain in the back clears the urine of sediment and regulates urination, especially at night, curing even the worst forms of bladder weakness.

Every man or woman here who feels that the kidneys are not strong or acting in a healthy manner should mix this prescription at home and give it a trial, as it is said to do wonders for many persons.

The Scranton (Pa.) Times was first to print this remarkable prescription in October, of 1906, since when all the leading newspapers of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and other cities have made many announcements of it to their readers.

KAID MACLEAN TORTURED

Sirs of the tortures to which Kaid Sir Harry MacLean, the Scotch commander of the Sultan of Morocco's military forces, was subjected during the period of his captivity in hand of Raisuli's hands have created intense anger in England. Raisuli had long been regarded as a courageous, high spirited chieftain, who, if somewhat unconventional in his methods, was at least a true patriot, man, bent on resistance to oppression, but generous to those in his power. Kaid MacLean's story is not like this at all.

After describing how he met the Sultan in the hope of inducing him to visit Fez for a conference with the Sultan concerning a settlement of the differences between them, MacLean recounts the pledges of safe conduct given him by Raisuli; his journey in the bandit's country and his final notification that he was a prisoner. A terrible journey followed into the regions of mountain passes, in which the chieftain made his headquarters. Here, though suffering from a high fever, MacLean was confined in a tumble down hut, without bedding or proper food, until he was reduced to a skeleton, and so weak that he could not walk.

Weak, Pale and Worn Out Women

Can be Saved from a Life of Misery by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

Women are called the "weaker sex" and yet nature calls upon them to bear far more pain than men. With too many women it is one long martyrdom from the time they are budding into womanhood until age. They begin to set their mark upon them. They are no sooner over one period of pain and distress than another looms up a few days ahead of them. No wonder so many women become worn out and old looking before their time.

THIEF CAPTURED

The local R.N.W.M. Police made a very important arrest on Friday, when, after a long and exciting chase R. S. Clark, a notorious horse thief was captured. This man was in July 1906 sentenced by Chief Justice Wetmore to two years for horse stealing and was released later on ticket of leave.

Clark was regularly reported here until a few weeks ago, when he stole a horse from Mr. Ferguson, of Wapella, and disappeared into the Moose Mountain country, some fifty miles south of this town. The police after making an effort to locate him, concluded that Clark was remaining in hiding, and last week that was Inspector Taylor sent out plainclothes men after him. Clarke was arrested, and it was discovered that he had traded the horse. There was also being another charge of horse breaking, against the prisoner, as it is alleged that he broke down to burn freely. Since then he has been working steadily at the mine the substance becoming harder to get further in, and a few days ago went to Whitewood for a supply.

any benefit, and I began to feel that my condition was hopeless. One day a friend asked me why I did not try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and mentioned several cases in which she knew of the great benefit that had followed their use. After some urging I decided to try the pills, and had only used them a few weeks when I began to feel benefited, and from that time on the improvement was steady, and by the time I had used about a half dozen boxes of the pills I was again enjoying the blessings of good health. I cannot too strongly urge other discouraged sufferers to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure all troubles due to poor, watery blood, such as anaemia, general weakness, indigestion, neuralgia, skin troubles, rheumatism, the after effect of a gripe, and such nervous troubles as St. Vitus dance and partial paralysis. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail for 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

AN ASSURED CROP

Dennis Says Settlers Will Pay More for Irrigated Land Because It Gives An Assured Crop.

J. S. Dennis, who is in charge of the C.P.R. irrigation scheme, addressed the Canadian Club in Winnipeg last week. He is reported as follows by the Free Press:

Mr. Dennis thanked the club for the invitation they had extended to him and expressed his pleasure at having the opportunity of speaking to them on a subject which had been his hobby for fifteen years. It was his firm belief that the subject was intimately connected with the development of the west. They would recognize the importance of irrigation when he said that two-thirds of the food-stuffs of the whole world were raised by irrigation.

In Canada irrigation development was confined to western Saskatchewan, southern Alberta and southern British Columbia, but it had during the last fifteen years extended rapidly in these provinces until today there were 750,000 acres capable of being irrigated from canals and ditches constructed, and $6,000,000 had been invested in completed canals and ditches outside the C.P.R.'s scheme. The area of the C.P.R.'s irrigation block covered 3,000,000 acres extending 150 miles east of Calgary, and 20 miles on each side of the railway line. The block was divided into eastern, western and central sections. In the western section the water was conveyed from the Bow river through a main canal 17 miles long, and through three secondary canals, comprising a length of 151 miles, while 800 miles of distributed ditches carried the water to the boundary of every farm. The total waterway on this section was 960 miles, and when the three sections were completed they would have something like 3,000 miles of waterway. On the basis of a 100-acre farm to a family, they should be able to settle 70,000 people on the western block, and 150,000 or 200,000 when the entire irrigation work was completed. That they have sold and were selling land almost every day at $25 per acre. Although the settlers could get land in any farming district at from $8 to $10 an acre, they were willing to pay $25 an acre for this irrigated land, because it would give them an assured crop, and he hoped to see that district the home of the most thickly settled and prosperous mixed farming community in America.

Grippe is sweeping the country. Stop it with Preventive before it gets deeply seated. To check early colds with these little candy Cold Cure tablets is surely sensible and safe. Preventives contain no quinine, no laxative, nothing harsh or sickening. Pneumonia would never appear if colds were promptly broken. Also good for feverish children. Large box 48 tablets, 25 cents. Vest pocket boxes 5 cents. Sold by Regina Pharmacy Stores.

C. P. R. PRO-MOTIONS

E. W. Peters and W. B. Langigan take a Step Up—A Sketch of These Two.

F. W. Peters, the C.P.R. assistant general freight traffic manager of the western C.P.R. lines, has been promoted to the position of assistant to the second vice president of the company. His place as head of the freight department on western lines will be taken by W. Langigan, general freight agent of the western division. Mr. Langigan's successor has not yet been selected and Wm. Whyte stated yesterday that the details in regard to the reorganization have not yet been completed.

The powers which Mr. Peters will have as assistant to the second vice president have not yet been defined, but it is understood that they will be very wide, and that his jurisdiction will extend over all western lines. Mr. Peters has proved himself to be a smart efficient servant of the company and there are hints that even higher honors await him in the future. The news of his promotion will be gladly received, not only by railway men, but by the business men throughout the west, by whom he is well known.

Mr. Langigan is also a very popular official and has training which will enable him to fill the responsible position with which the C.P.R. has honored him. He will have the same powers as were held by Mr. Peters and his jurisdiction extends from Winnipeg to the coast.

There are many rumors as to who is successor will be B. W. Greer, general freight agent of the Pacific division has been in the city for the last day or two consulting with Mr. Peters and Mr. Langigan, but nothing definite is known as to his appointment.

These changes which have been announced are among the most important which have taken place in C.P.R. circles for several years, and more definite word as to the duties which will devolve upon Mr. Peters will be awaited with interest.

F. W. PETERS

F. W. Peters commenced railroad work with the Intercolonial in 1874, and was connected with that company as telegraph operator until 1880 when he entered the service of the Chicago Grand Trunk railway. Coming to Winnipeg in October 1881, he went into the local freight office and remained there billing freight until 1882, when he was made freight agent at Brandon. He remained in the Wheat City till 1889 when after spending a few months as agent at Fort William he came to Winnipeg as agent and remained there until 1896. In 1896 he was appointed to the position of assistant general freight agent of the Kootenay district, and occupied that position till 1900 when he became general freight agent of the Pacific division with headquarters at Vancouver. He was transferred to Winnipeg in 1902 and has since occupied the position of assistant freight traffic manager of all western lines.

W. B. LANGIGAN

W. B. Langigan commenced his career as a railroad man in 1878 as telegraph operator for the North Shore railroad at Yamaichebe. In 1879 he was employed by the Montreal Telegraph Co. at Montreal, and in Jan. 1881 joined the Grand Trunk as night operator at Upton and remained with that company till 1884. He then joined the old O. & E. railroad which was afterwards amalgamated with the C.P.R. and served there with Wm. Whyte as his general superintendent. After that he was night operator at Sharbut Lake Junction, and then successively relieving operator and relieving agent. Promoted to agent at Claremont it was moved to Myrtle, then to Dundas and then to Galt in 1888, where he remained as agent until 1891. At that time he became travelling freight agent of the Ontario division and in 1900 was appointed assistant general freight agent of the Ontario division. In January 1901 he became general freight agent of the Ontario division and in July, 1901, was moved to Winnipeg as general freight agent of the western division, which was extended from Fort William to Langigan and Fernie. This was afterwards split up into the central and western divisions of the former of which Mr. Langigan remained general agent.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS

SAVE A LITTLE LIFE

Mrs. T. Osborn, Norton Mills, Vt., writes: "I do not think enough can be said in praise of Baby's Own Tablets. I am satisfied that our baby would not have been alive today if it had not been for the tablets, as he was so weak and sick that he took no notice of anything. In this condition I gave him the tablets and they have made him a bright-eyed, laughing baby, the pride of our home. He is one year old, has nine teeth, and is now as well as any baby can be. He sits and plays nearly all the time and lets me do the work all without worry. I would say to all mothers who have sick babies give them Baby's Own Tablets as I did mine, and you will have healthy, happy babies." The Tablets will cure all the minor ailments of little ones and are absolutely safe. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 30.—General Sloessel was found guilty of surrendering Port Arthur and sentenced to death today. The court, however, announced they would recommend the death sentence be commuted to ten years' imprisonment in the fortress of Peter and Paul. Generals Fook and Peass were found not guilty and discharged. The court declared that the surrender was clearly unnecessary at the time.

A writ was filed in the local masters' court at Ottawa, on Feb. 14th by Herbert William Adcock, of Winnipeg, against Senator T. O. Davis, of Prince Albert, Sask., and V. Ratz, M.P., of Parkhill, Ont., asking for a declaration that an assignment reported to have been made by him to the defendants of one quarter interest in coal rights on the Dominion government lands in the west was by way of security only. He wants an assignment to him by the defendants of this interest. He claims $25,000 by way of damages for failure to comply with the original claim.

STOREY'S Gloves

Well Made Good Fitting

That we know how to make gloves that will pass with honors the most critical examination as regards quality of skins, pliability and strength, neatness of stitching, and all round perfection, you can prove yourself by asking for Storey's at your dealer's. That they will outwear your most sanguine expectations is our firm belief. Insist on Storey's—at all stores.

CANADA'S OLDEST GLOVERS

Washington, Feb. 20.—President Roosevelt was overridden yesterday by the House committee on coinage, weights and measures, when by a unanimous vote it was agreed to report favorably on the McKinley, Illinois bill requiring the restoration of the national motto: "In God We Trust," on the gold and silver coins.

During the discussion, Mr. Knowland, of California, moved that the committee further recommend the placing on all clearing house certificates, the biblical inscription: "I Know that My Redeemer Liveth."

The gross assets of the York County Loan is likely to amount to from 30 to 40 per cent. of the liabilities. This is the statement figured out after Referee Kapelle's decision. There are still four of the thirteen classes on which a decision is yet to be given, viz: Claims of permanent shareholders, Nova Scotia shareholders, those who had given notice of withdrawal, and those in arrears. Homer Smith declines to forecast the date of the dividend owing to the enormous clerical work involved in the 114,000 claims. The last judgment has materially facilitated the winding up process.

CANADIAN CLUB

Regina Launches One—Constitution Adopted and Officers Elected.

There was a full hall of business and professional men at the old city hall last Friday evening to form a Canadian Club. Mayor Smith presided and in opening the meeting delivered a short address on the objects and on the good such an organization could do. H. C. Lawson and J. Kelso Hunter acted as secretaries. A draft constitution which Mr. J. K. Hunter presented to the meeting was considered clause by clause and with a few alterations was adopted. The purpose of the club is to foster patriotism by encouraging the study of the institutions, history, arts and literature and the resources of Canada, and by endeavoring to unite Canadians in such work for the welfare and progress of the Dominion as may be desirable and expedient.

FEDERAL BUSINESS COLLEGE

Bank of Ottawa Bldg., Regina

One month's salary pays the entire cost

It is not necessary, nor is it wise for young people to spend years of the best portion of their lives in preparing for professions which are not so remunerative as is the work for which they may prepare in a few months. The majority of our graduates receive as much for their services in one month as would pay the total amount of their college fees. Our courses form a short cut to business success. During the last six months the Regina Federal Business College has placed more than sixty students in excellent situations; with initial salaries ranging from $50 to $80 per month. Every capable student is guaranteed a good situation upon graduation. The Federal Schools are open the year round and students may enter for instruction at any time. Free catalogue. Write today
