Superintendent B. r. s., of N w York, has nipped in the bud a gigantic scheme of colonisation of voters. A large number of negro abovers had been brought from Philadelphia and quartered throught their expenses being paid thirty tays in advance. Many of them have already registered, but is an attempt to vote any one of them will be followed by his arrest. Steps will be taken to prevent the registry of any more of the colonizers. It is aid over 1,000 warrants are already in the hands of the police.
