The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

D. B. Weldon Library;
University of Western Ontario
(Regional History Room)

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

D. B. Weldon Library
University of Western Ontario
(Regional History Room)

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

Evenings.--Doors open at 7.30, and curtain rises at 8.15 p. m. sharp.
Tickets can be reserved two days in advance without extra charge.

Office open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Seats can be secured by mail, telegraph or telephone. Telephone 732.

Seats ordered by Telephone or in Person, and not called for by 7.30 o'clock on the night of performance, will then be sold to avoid loss to the Theatre.

Physicians are requested to register at the Box Office, leaving seat number, as this will enable Ushers to find them, if called for, without disturbing the audience.

Children in arms not admitted to evening performances. Children three years old or over, full price.

Patrons will confer a favor by reporting to the management any incivility or inattention on the part of the employees, and annoyances of any nature.

If the individual members of an audience would stop to think for just an instant, they would undoubtedly appreciate the fact that the habit of rising from their seat and leaving the theatre before the curtain falls, is a most annoying one, and one that should be stopped. We therefore beg our audiences to kindly remain in their seats until the close of the performance.

Electric Cars will be waiting on Richmond St. for all parts of the City, at the close of each performance.

Carriages can be ordered at the Box Office or of the Chief Usher.

For all lost articles, apply at Box Office.

It is strange, but there is a class of people that seem to take an intense delight in bespattering the floor with tobacco juice, and in being boisterous and using profane language. These people should know at once that the courts authorize their immediate expulsion, should the management see fit to exercise its rights.

THE GREAT AMANN.

Europe's greatest impersonator, introducing life-like reproductions of world-famous men, including America's greatest statesmen. The management desires to call attention to the remarkable work of this truly great artist. Having devoted a life-time to the study of character impersonations, he is able to produce life-like representations of the world's most famous men. The inspired look of the poet, the thoughtful mien of the statesman and the determined countenance of the victorious warrior, are given with such startling fidelity that it is difficult to realize that it is all the face of one man. Special attention is called to Mr. Amann's impersonation of Svengali, without the aid of any artifice except wig and beard. Mr. Amann makes up for this character in less than half a minute, the time required by Wilton Lackays being two hours, and his portrayal of this character has astonished all artists.

BILLY VAN, Comedian.

Curtain will drop one minute to allow for setting the stage for Sandow.

Performance concluding with

!! SANDOW !!

THE MONARCH OF MUSCLE.

Mr. Ziegfeld offers $10,000 to any athlete duplicating Sandow's Performance. Mr. Sandow will select his programme from the following superhuman feats:—

Physically perfect. Acknowledged by anatomists to be the strongest man in the world. History does not record among the great gladiators of ancient Rome a man with such muscular developments as Sandow.

His 400 wonderfully developed muscles are exhibited in the following manner:

Muscular repose (all the muscles relaxed).

Muscular tension (all the muscles firm as steel).

Abdominal muscles when tense, producing the wonderful checker-board arrangement of fibers, existence of which modern anatomists deny, being plainly visible at a distance of 300 feet.

The Biceps (muscles of the upper arm), the Triceps (muscles of the back of the arm), the Deltoid (muscles of the shoulders), the Trapezino (muscles which raise the shoulders).

The muscles of the back, showing plainly all three layers.

The action and uses of different muscles.

The chest expansion. Sandow's chest measurement is 47 inches; expanded it is 61 inches—an expansion of 14 inches. The greatest expansion known at the Olympian Games in Rome was 6 inches.

Sandow will exhibit his extraordinary command over his entire muscular system by making his muscles dance.

NEW.

The world's greatest acrobats have found it almost impossible to turn somersaults landing on the same spot they spring from, and only a few have accomplished it, and to perform this feat with weights has never been attempted. Mr. Sandow stands alone in accomplishing this feat with 56 pounds in each hand.

The audience will hardly realize what the announcement that Mr. Sandow will turn a complete somersault from the knees means, and it is only his enormous and unequalled strength that enables him to perform this feat with 56 pounds in each hand.

Lifting with One Finger 750 pounds Dead Weight from the Ground.

The Muscle Dance still further demonstrates the absolute control Mr. Sandow has of his muscular system, and the enormous strength in his individual muscles. He will compel his Biceps to dance with 90 pounds attached to each Bicep.

Resisting the dropping of 90 pounds attached to a chain from each hand, arms extended, weight doubling at the drop of each foot.

Holding Out at Arm's Length, Mounted Bicyclist in each Hand.

Resting only on neck and heels and holding four men on body. Those who do not appreciate how difficult this feat is, can easily convince themselves by attempting it without any weight resting on the body.

Mr. Sandow concludes his performance with his new feat entitled the TOMB OF HERCULES.

Mr. Sandow bearing upon his body all the weights and paraphernalia (about 3,200 lbs.) used in his performance, including his attendants.

"To Mr. Henry E. Abbey, of New York, and Mr. F. Ziegfeld, Jr., of Chicago, great credit is due for providing the American public with such entertaining and valuable stimulant to encourage physical development as Sandow's performance produces."—Inter-Ocean, Chicago, October 6th.
