Parker Defeats Bryan Line-Up Is 579 to 510 Main Issue Undecided

Champ Clark's Followers Claim Victory, But Bryanites Are Undaunted and Whatever the Outcome, Reactionary Will Not Be Nominée—Bryan Talks of Sinister Influences in Both Parties.

BALTIMORE, June 25.—(Can. Press.)—The vote by which former Judge Albert B. Parker of New York was elected temporary chairman over Mr. Bryan—579 to 510—was interpreted to-night in many ways.

The Champ Clark adherents are openly claiming the nomination and there were many at the convention today who were inclined to agree that it would be either Speaker Clark or a "dark horse."

Talk of Mr. Bryan has not ceased by any means. Some of his friends claim that to-day's vote was no test; that many of his most ardent supporters were compelled by circumstances to vote against him as temporary chairman. They claimed, on the other hand, that the vote of 510 given to Mr. Bryan indicated that he held a "veto" power in the convention which put him in a position of dominance as to who should be the nominee.

The conservative element, it may be stated, is practically prepared to accept a radical or progressive candidate. They frankly admit that to name a conservative, or so-called reactionary, would result in strengthening the hand of Col. Theodore Roosevelt in his organization of a third party. This the leaders are anxious to avoid.

Wilson Men Back Bryan.

The straight-out Wilson delegates today threw their support solidly to Mr. Bryan in his fight against Judge Parker. This, the leaders figured, would make the conservative element choose Clark in preference to the New Jersey governor as the progressive candidate.

There was a report abroad to-night that the 40 votes of New York, a controlling factor in the situation, would go to Clark. This report was based largely upon the action of New York to-day in voting against Bryan. The fact that the Missouri delegation also gave Parker of its votes—22 to 14—

Still Hope for Reciprocity

"The temporary failure owing to the action of the electorate of Canada of the effort to effectuate reciprocity with that country is regrettable. In all probability, however, the sober, second thought of the people of Canada will induce reconsideration of the action of last year. The temporary reduction of the duty on cement by the Canadian opponents of reciprocity is significant of the results that may in due course be expected."—Judge Parker at Democratic convention.

HELPING THE NEW PARTY

The vote in the Baltimore convention by which Judge Parker was elected temporary chairman over Colonel W. J. Bryan by a vote of 579 to 510, would seem to indicate that the Bourbon are in control. If the great interests that controlled the Republican convention are now to control the Democratic convention the new progressive party will receive a great impetus, and a realignment of the people of the United States into two new parties—one progressive, and the other conservative—will be quickly brought about.

On account of the two-thirds' rule, Colonel Bryan and his friends cannot be flattened out by steamroller methods so far as the nomination of a candidate is concerned. But the platform of the convention may be such, and the spirit manifested by those in control may prove so reactionary, as to force Col. Bryan and his followers to ally themselves with Colonel Roosevelt and his followers in the formation of a new party.

With the conservative vote of the country divided between Tatt and a reactionary Democrat, the progressive party should be able to win the next election. One thing is certain: that Bryan and Roosevelt working hand in hand and side by side can whip what is left of the two old parties to a standstill, and compel the reactionaries of the country to cease using the old party banners, and frankly form a new political party of their own.

FOR ANNEXATION BUT AGAINST 2 TRACKS

North Toronto Ratepayers Hear Addresses by W. F. Maclean and D. C. Hossack, Who Prophesied Single Fares With Annexation and Great Industrial Activity.

A well attended meeting of the electors of North Toronto was held last night on Merton-street to discuss the two-fold proposition of double-tracking and annexation. Opinions on the latter were divided, there was no doubt that an overwhelming majority were against double-tracking.

The chair was taken by Mr. O'Brien, and just before ex-Commissioner Coombes was called upon to address the meeting, the arrival of W. F. Maclean, M.P., was the signal for an outburst of cheering.

When considering this argument, I ask myself what are the advantages which will accrue to North Toronto, and what the Metropolitan will receive in exchange. In addition to reduced fares and a quicker service, the company promise to restrict the carrying of freight to certain hours during the night. They also promise by a secret agreement to introduce these concessions immediately if the agreement is passed by the council and ratified by the legislature. Our experience in the past does not teach us to place any reliance on the Metropolitan's promises. On our part we should be handling over to an already too powerful syndicate an additional perpetual franchise on Yonge-street. Therefore I claim that it is a most one-sided bargain and ask you to turn it down on July 6.

With regard to annexation, the force of Toronto itself will bring it northward, and the city will be compelled in its own interests to provide those improvements for the development of North Toronto.

D. C. Hossack said: "While recognizing the genuine efforts of North Toronto town council to secure the best possible terms for the people, yet I contend that the company's concessions are miserably small when contrasted with the value of an additional perpetual franchise, which would be the net effect of supporting a double track proposition. No undue coercion should be used by the council, but the people should be left to act as judge and jury on the question. The bare argument."

Hon. W. J. Hanna Resigns To Accept Chairmanship Of Railway Commission

Provincial Secretary Has Decided To Accept Offer To Succeed the Late Judge Mabey, and His Resignation, It is Said, Has Been Handed to Sir James Whitney.

Having carefully considered the offer of the position of chairman of the Dominion Railway Board, and after serious and prolonged discussion with Sir James Whitney and the Ontario cabinet, the Hon. W. J. Hanna has, it is understood, resigned his portfolio in the provincial government in order to accept the position as successor to the late Judge J. P. Mabey.

On Monday morning, May 20, The World exclusively announced that the position had been offered to Mr. Hanna. This statement later was denied by Sir James Whitney. Hon. Mr. Hanna made no comment.

The World now understands that Mr. Hanna's resignation was placed in the hands of Sir James Whitney last evening, or will be to-day, and that he will at once proceed to Ottawa to enter upon his new duties.

Cabinet Reorganization.

A reorganization of the provincial cabinet will follow. Hon. I. B. Lucas, it is understood, will become provincial secretary, and E. J. Lennox will be taken into the cabinet without portfolio.

Mr. Hanna's loss to the province will be a hard blow just at this time. His prison reform policy, as well as his program for the better care of the feeble-minded, are pioneer movements in this kind of work. It was on account of the work he had in hand that he hesitated to accept the position. He had also under advisement the reorganization of the license department and the appointment of a provincial license board. Owing to this great work, Sir James Whitney was loath to lose Mr. Hanna's services, but the Hon. Frank Cochran's visits to Toronto and his interviews with Sir James and Mr. Hanna evidently have been successful.

WERE THREE MEN KILLED ON SUNDAY?

Witnesses Who Saw Fight Say That Another Man Was Shot and Fell, and Has Not Been Seen Since—Half-a-dozen Fights Were in Progress—Several Others Staged.

What became of the man who was shot down in the fight at the Humber Bay Hotel colony on Sunday evening? The police have a gun with one cartridge discharged, with which Napoli is said to have killed Gyra. The wounds on Gyra or Masternak, however, are not bullet marks, but those inflicted with a knife. Almost every member of the colony has a different story to tell in regard to the use made of the revolver. Tommy Masternak believes his brother was killed with the gun, but another man has been discovered whose tale takes in the possibility of a third crime.

Saw Whole Fight.

A very vivid and descriptive account of how the two Poles, Mike Gyra and John Masternak, were murdered was given to The World yesterday by probably the only English-speaking person to witness the fight from its start until the crime was committed. The eye-witness recounted the story of the battle between the two Italians, Frank Saettio and Napoli, and the Poles, leaving out none of the horrible details of the tragedy.

The point from which The World's informant observed the fight is undoubtedly the only place of vantage in the neighborhood from which the whole colony can be seen without the watcher being detected from the Lake Shore road.

Helped From House.

While the witness was taking in the surroundings from his position, a drunken Pole was helped from the house, nearest the hill and farthest north, to the middle house in the row. Shortly after three men came out to the house nearest the hill and started towards the railway track, about 300 yards north of the colony. The man in the centre of the group wore a light complexion, was of medium build, and the others were dressed in dark clothes.

When they had followed the path as far as the brow of the hill, a woman, who had been watching from the house, stepped forward and called to them. They turned back and she helped them to the house.

LITTLE GIRL KILLED BY CAR

Thelma Luck, Six Years Old, Tried to Cross Church Street and Was Fatally Injured.

Thelma Luck, the 6-year-old daughter of Richard Luck, caretaker of the Toronto Athletic Club, 40 Wellesley-street, was hit by an Avenue-road car on Church-street, at the corner of Maitland, at 5:30 yesterday, and died three hours later at the Sick Children's Hospital, where she had been taken immediately after the accident. She and her sister Ada had been sent on a message by their parents. Both had always been very careful about crossing streets where cars ran. Thelma was particularly timid and always watched very closely for oncoming cars. She had hesitated last night before crossing the street, but a little girl friend finally persuaded her to go over. While crossing an extra Avenue-road car, which was coming down Church-st. and which had stopped just previous to the accident, ran her down. She fell immediately in front of the car and before she could get up and away was beneath the wheels. The fender missed striking her up. When taken to the hospital she was unconscious and never regained consciousness up to the time of her death. She was the youngest child, and she and her sister Ada, two years her senior, were inseparable chums. They were always together.

CANOE UPSET NAGLE DROWNED

William Nagle, 42 Adams-avenue, was dumped from his canoe at Sunnyside yesterday afternoon and was drowned, since Lorne Mackenzie, who was with him in the canoe at the time of the upset, did his utmost to save his life. The drowned man had been employed in painting the Parkdale Canoe Clubhouse and had gone out in a canoe with Lorne Mackenzie, caretaker of the club. In some way the canoe was upset when but about 30 feet from the shore. Mackenzie could swim but Nagle could not. Mackenzie grabbed Nagle and held him until Walter Barlow, of 370 Crawford-street, came to his assistance. The man was then taken to shore and Dr. Griffiths was called, but life was extinct. The body was taken to the morgue for at the time his name was not known. Later it was identified.

Nagle, who had been married only six months, met his wife while they were coming to Canada from the old country and they were married soon after their arrival. He was 27 years old and his wife is a few years younger. He never had been in a canoe before.

SOIL IN NORTHERN ONTARIO FAR SUPERIOR TO ANY OTHER

Railway Facilities Will Place That Country Forty-five Years in Advance of First Settlements in Older Ontario, Says J. F. Whitson in Optimistic Report.

No one is more optimistic about the future of New Ontario than J. F. Whitson, who was recently appointed by the government to look after the work of road construction in the undeveloped territory. Mr. Whitson has been in the north only a few weeks, but this length of time has convinced him that New Ontario is exactly what it is reputed to be by the delegation which visited here last Friday. In a letter to T. Aubrey White, deputy minister of lands, he makes a few statements which will seem rather amazing.

His letter says that there is a large area of burnt land between Hearst and the Albany River which is almost ready for the plow. "The land certainly looks fine from the railway," he says. "The moss having been burned off, has given the land an opportunity of draining. Now that the settlers are making small clearings along the line of the railways, it is clear that much of the land that the surveyors have been classifying as semi-muskeg will eventually when burnt off and with a reasonable amount of drainage make the very best farming land."

"The surveys of the new townships that are being made this season along the N.T.R. will cover some of the finest territory along the line. It is not advisable to rush settlers in at present. The railway is uncompleted and there are no facilities for getting in. The railway rates on construction trains are almost prohibitory."

Much pulpwood. "I have to admit that there is a good deal more pulpwood in this country than I had supposed. The average is much higher than the department has ever estimated on. Twenty-five cords per acre is not too high, although the burnt area will reduce the average. With all the drawbacks there may be in this country for many years there will be no greater than in old Ontario. Railway facilities will place this country 45 years in advance of the first settlements in its native county, Grey. The soil is far superior. After the timber is cleared off you have no stones to gather and stumps are easily got rid of. From the improvements and small clearings that are now made in the townships around Cochrane I have no hesitation in expressing my opinion, as a farmer, that the man who lives to visit this country along the G.T.P. in the next 25 years or in the next 10 years, will see evidence enough to satisfy him that the clay belt has possibilities greater than ever the department anticipated. The country looks good to me."

Mr. Whitson says that he has not had any difficulty in cutting roads, although it will be several weeks before the timber can be burnt off. "He had no difficulty either in getting men. There are now five camps in the outfit of road builders, consisting of about 140 men."

HYDRO-ELECTRIC FOR THE EAST

Meeting Will Be Held at Uxbridge When Definite Plans Will Be Decided.

The board of trade of Uxbridge had a large meeting in the market hall last night and after a thoro discussion, in which Mayor Beal, ex-Mayor T. C. Nicholls, ex-Warden H. J. Gould, R. J. Moore and Major Sam B. Sharpe, M.P., and others took part, it was decided to call a meeting of the representatives from Scarborough Junction to Breckin to discuss the possibilities of hydro-electric power thru this district.

It is only by a united effort of these municipalities that anything can be accomplished, and if a Midland association were formed, information secured and a united front presented, cheap power might be secured. The mayor was requested to call a public meeting, and he has consented to do so for Tuesday, July 30, at Uxbridge is centrally located for such a meeting. At this meeting representatives will be invited from Scarborough, Agincourt, Markham, Stouffville, Goodwood, Uxbridge, Blackwater Sunderland, Canington, Woodville, Beaverton, Gamebridge and Breckin and from all the townships along the line.

Invitations will be forwarded to Hon. W. H. Hoyte, M.L.A., W. F. Maclean, M.P., John Armstrong, M.P., Alex. McGowan, M.L.A., and Major Sam B. Sharpe, M.P. It is also hoped that Hon. Adam Beck, M.L.A., will be present to address the meeting.

NOT HUMBER MURDERER.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., June 25.—Provincial and local police visited Sault Ste. Marie on arrival at 5:30 p.m., and found suspected man of being Sasitito, Humber murderer, to be a man named Sutherland, who had jumped on the boat to see a friend, and since has secured a job on the vessel as fireman.

NEXT MEETING FOR TORONTO

The first convention held in Canada of the Librarians' Association of America, was held in Montreal in 1904, the text is that to commence today in the City of Ottawa, and when again the librarians meet in a Canadian city, it will be Toronto. This was the hope and belief expressed by President John Turnbull of the Toronto Public Library Board, at a dinner tendered the members in the public reference library, College-st., last night.

Two hundred delegates to the Ottawa convention, together with about fifty Toronto guests, spent three hours from seven to ten o'clock last night, in the College-st. library, the first hour of which was devoted to showing the librarians, who are from all parts of the continent, thru the building.

The dinner was held in the art rooms of the library, the president of the board presiding. A big welcome to the members of the next Canadian convention for Toronto, probably in the year 1915, was the keynote of his address. He was followed by Geo. H. Loe, chief librarian, who described the Toronto public library system, Henry E. Legler, chief librarian of the Chicago public libraries, responded. Music was provided by Grattan's string orchestra.

The members were entertained yesterday afternoon at a garden party on the lawn of Victoria College. They also visited the parliament buildings, and were welcomed by Sir James Whitney. Last night the members left by a special G. T. R. train for Ottawa, where the international convention will be held from July 25 to 28.

BOSTON SPENDS SIX MILLIONS

While Toronto Gets Only One Million For Technical School, Lament of Committee.

Boston spends six millions on a technical school and Toronto has to be satisfied with one little million, was the lament at the industrial education committee yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Fairbairn said that Toronto had scarcely one public building fit to show visitors. Everybody was ashamed of the appearance of the parliament buildings.

Dr. Nobles: "Better put on the trimmings, give the girl a new hat, while you are about it."

The consensus of view, that while $500,000 was enough for the requirements of the new technical school, some regard should be paid to the appearance of the exterior.

The matter will come up again on the report of the architect.

It was decided to advertise for a consulting engineer.

RUNAWAY HORSES CAUSED DAMAGE

Two horses belonging to the Cumeo Fruit and Supply Company of 67 Colborne-street and driven by Michael Culletto, 12 Church-st., ran away last night and did damage that aggregates about $200. The horses were being driven along Chestnut-st. when they became frightened and broke away from the control of the driver.

He did all in his power to stop their mad flight and had his hands badly cut from the strain of the reins. The horses turned on to Queen-street and near the corner of Queen and York-st. dashed over the sidewalk and into the windows of the store of which Wing Hong Chong is the proprietor. The windows were smashed and considerable damage was done to various articles inside the window. The windows in the store of D. Davis, 131 Queen-street, were also broken. The horses were finally stopped. They were not injured.

KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN CONVENTION

PARKER SMITES COL. ROOSEVELT

In Scoring Republican Party, Chairman Singles Out T. R. For His Choicest Invectives.

BALTIMORE, June 25.—(Can. Press.)—Judge Alton B. Parker in his address following his election as temporary chairman of the Democratic convention, made a vigorous attack on Col. Roosevelt. He said:

"We meet while the hills yet echo to wild cries of their thir and traitors, and furious walls of fraud, bribery, treachery and corruption, and our ears are weary with the din of the articulate shrieking and passionate vituperation of the most shameful brawl of our political history."

"Our candidates, however, are without exception, men of such lofty mien that we meet, immune from the disrepute which clouded the Chicago convention and privileged to discharge a solemn duty calmly, deliberately, seriously."

"The cause of government by the people the world over has been materially checked by the disgraceful brawl which terminated in the bedlam of Chicago. Every good citizen has been put to shame by the brutality and the abuse which characterized this wrangle between a president and an ex-president. Gratitude, friendship, party loyalty, patriotism and common decency were forgotten in the tussle."

"The assault upon the unwritten prohibition against a third term made in the wild scramble for the Republican nomination, warns us of the sticky necessity of incorporating in our constitution a safeguard against repeated terms."

"The man who split his party at Chicago, once recognized the third term tradition and acknowledged its application to his situation. On the eve of his triumph, in 1904, he said: 'The use of a custom which limits the president to two terms regards the president and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.'"

"Wrong in this year of grace, he was right in that. Peradventure he was honest with his soul and he may have confessed to it that even a president may be tempted to resort to sordid devices and shameless importunities to gain his ambition."

"Would the man who threw his hat in the ring and sought to slug his opponent over the ropes in his fight for a third term, rest satisfied with its achievement? Clearly his lust of power would have brooked no such limitation. A third term would but have whetted his desire for more, and as its terms slipped away, each renewal would discover greater injury to our constitution, to the form of government established under it, and to every legal curb on his imperious will."

Lead Fight Against Third Term
"He who runs may read the danger that threatens the country ruled by such a man. Do we envy Mexico her thirty years of wedded life or the war, the divorce from Diaz precipitated the end of which no man may prophesy? The way to prevent a like series of terms is to prevent the present attempt to capture the office for a third term. One of our opportunities in this campaign is to lead the fight against a third term. That opportunity should appeal to every drop of patriotic blood flowing in our veins."

"The fact that the cost of living rose faster than incomes was chiefly due to the high tariff and in combinations restraining trade and competition, fostered by the Republican party, which had at its back great corporations."

"It is not the wild, swirling cruel methods of reared the office for a third term. That opportunity should appeal to every drop of patriotic blood flowing in our veins."

Cured of Shingles and Eczema

By Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Chest Raw, Bleeding and Itchy.

"I just want to say a good word for Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In November, 1909, I had what the doctors call shingles and eczema. My chest was raw and bleeding and itchy. I was that way all winter. It was not so bad in the summer. In September it got worse. I had the best doctors treating me, but did me no good, and I was all run down in health. In November, 1910, I got worse again. I sent for you for a sample of Cuticura Soap. You sent it to me and I got a box of Cuticura Ointment. I have used two boxes and on the third one I am cured of my shingles and eczema. I am delighted with them and do not feel pleased to find I have something I have confidence in. Should anyone be suffering as I did, I hope they will do as I did, and be sure of the results. I am recommending them from experience." (Signed) J. H. Jarvis, 7 Ann St., Kingston, Ont., May 20, 1911.

For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Ointment have afforded the speediest and most economical treatment for itching, burning, scaly and bleeding skin and scalp humors of young and old. A single set is often sufficient. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout the world, but to those who have suffered much, lost hope and are without faith in any treatment, a liberal sample of each with $2-2, booklet on the skin will be mailed free, on application. BIG STEAMERS SAIL TOO FAST

High Speed in Bay Is Dangerous to Small Craft and Will Be Stopped.

Capt. Ward of the Toronto Life Saving Station, took charge yesterday of the high speed launch which will this season be used to patrol the bay and enforce the harbor regulations. The crew is composed of twelve men, who will work in shifts of eight hours each.

One of the first duties of the crew will be to put a stop to the alleged high speed at which the large steamers travel when in the bay. It is charged that this speeding on the part of the steamers is a source of grave danger to those in launches, canoes and other small craft.

Chicago Desperado Was Arrested After Fusillade of Shots

SARNIA, June 25.—(Special.)—The Russian desperado, Frank Molton, who shot Police Constable Marshall last evening, was captured while trying to escape this morning near Blackwell, after a pitched battle, in which revolvers played no small part. The man put up a sure fight, and it required the combined efforts of three big policemen to put him in the handcuffs.

THE WEEK-END SPECIAL

Canadian Northern Muskoka Flyers Starts Season Saturday. Toronto people will greet with pleasure the announcement that the Canadian Northern will start their full week-end service to Muskoka points and Parry Sound on Saturday. The week-end special will leave the Union Station at 1:30 p.m., and will make its annual fast run in order that local people, contemplating spending the holiday in cool, beautiful Muskoka may have the greatest possible amount of time there. This 1:30 p.m. train, scheduled to meet the exigencies of the great army of office workers in Toronto, has already established an enviable reputation among city people who love to have a quiet hour or two of fishing on Saturday evening. Usually this train returns from Parry Sound to the city on Sunday evening, but on account of Dominion Day falling on Monday it will run on Monday night. This affords a special opportunity for a holiday.

EXCUSES OF MESSENGER BOYS

Mr. Herbert Samuel, the British Postmaster-General, related some amusing stories of excuses made by messenger boys at the prize distribution and display of the Brady-street Club for Working Lads, in the Pavilion Theatre, Mile End, London, recently. In his official capacity, explained Mr. Samuel, he employed about 14,000 telegraph messengers, and he heard a good deal about boys and their ways. The boys always tried to maintain a high standard of conduct, and if they fell away they were always very ready to "make up" for it. The postmaster in one town called upon Messenger Brown to "explain your conduct towards an old gentleman in George-street." The following reply came: "To the postmaster, Sir.—As I was passing thru George-street an old gentleman stood in the way. I am very sorry, and hope it will not occur again." "Messengers," continued Mr. Samuel, "written explanations offered by a boy messenger when there had been some disturbance in the office read:—'Messengers Smith called me a wood-eater, so I poured hot tar over his dinner and punched him on the nose.' Hoping this will meet with your approval."

The Only Really Illustrated BIBLE

Heretofore the word "illustrated," as applied to a Bible, meant merely a few allegorical "pictures" of Biblical events taken from any source and "conveniently" placed in, any part of the book, thereby as embellishment inserts, but not directly alongside and explanatory of the verse intended to typify or make plain; but our publishers, at an outlay of $50,000, prepared accurate illustrations DESCRIPTIVE OF THE VERSE which they accompany, and placed directly next to the verse of the scene described—the only place it can be looked for or found quickly—the only place the illustration is a help to you—making this the FIRST and ONLY complete ILLUSTRATED Bible.

$50,000 Spent for Illustrations

More than 600 beautiful art pictures, by the world's greatest artists, are printed with the type matter, where they at once explain the subjects which they accompany. These magnificent illustrations alone cost $50,000. In addition thereto are full-page plates of the world-famed Tissot collection in colors. These beautiful color engravings are also carefully selected, with the object of further making plain obscure passages in this greatest of Books. It can truthfully be said that never before have illustrations so vividly portrayed their subjects and embodied in them the spirit of living reality.

CAN ROOSEVELT WIN?

The fate of many third parties in the past may excite, it does not justify, the skepticism of those who see in the candidacy of Theodore Roosevelt merely a spiritual effort to defeat the man who defeated him for the Republican nomination.

Needless to say Sir R. P. Roblin denounces as anathemas and degenerates those who favor these reforms. Just now Manitoba and the Roblin Government are being widely advertised in the United States by a pamphlet setting forth the results of government ownership and operation of telephones and grain elevators in that province.

At present one-half, or more than one-half, of the voters in the United States are progressives. They believe in radical and far sweeping changes in the political mechanism of the country.

Republicans with progressive ideas, in view of the candidate and the platform adopted at Chicago, must find themselves out of place in the Republican party.

The Progressive party starts with the absolute certainty of carrying some states and unifying every other third party movement. It has nothing to fear from a dead heat.

The big factor in the life of the new party will be the success that it achieves in attracting to it progressives now in the Democratic party and especially those from the Southern States.

To name a so-called conservative at Baltimore—the kind of candidate Tammany and Wall-street are scheming for—is merely to divide the conservative vote with Mr. Taft.

The World is by no means of the opinion that the Democrats have a clinch. Certainly Roosevelt can beat Taft, and he may be able to beat the man who is pitted against him at Baltimore.

The Democratic politicians who are bragging that with the Republican party split any body can win are fools who are drunk with their own folly.

The tidal wave of progressive sentiment sweeping from west to east in the United States is rapidly flooding Canada.

In the matter of public ownership and operation of public utilities the western Canadian cities have gone far, and the principle itself has been successfully vindicated by the provincial governments of Saskatchewan and Alberta.

Juicy Peaches and Mealy Potatoes in North Toronto

Good Old Santa Claus! He owns 100 acres of park pasture land in the town and has always had it taxed as pasture; but at the same time it has grown into a quarter of a million dollars worth of vine sites, and if left alone will quietly grow into double that amount!

The Metropolitan Railway wants the privilege of moving its tracks into the middle of Yonge-street. It is unnecessary and it would be unwise for the Municipality of North Toronto to enter into any new arrangement with those who control that line.

HOME BANK'S GROWTH.

That snug institution, the Home Bank of Canada, has closed another very comfortable fiscal year and concluded business for the period with the annual meeting held yesterday afternoon at the head office. The outstanding feature of the annual report was a very plain indication of the steady growth of the Home Bank. Taking the two years together, 1911 and 1912, the deposits of the bank have increased one million seven hundred and thirty thousand dollars, this gain being nearly equally divided between the two business periods.

McGILL GRAD DECOYS FLIRTER.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., June 25.—Miss Marie Watson, a graduate of the 1912 class at McGill University, Montreal, daughter of a professor at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, told in the Municipal Court yesterday how Charles Blomberg tried to flirt with her on the street and take her to a dance hall.

Miss Watson, who is in Minneapolis studying sociological conditions, was detailed by Emilie Gloreaux, a police woman, to serve as a decoy to the flirt. Her conviction by the court followed her testimony.

Slippers of two-toned silk with hostery to match, are the finishing note to the changeable taffeta costume.

Many of the automobile bonnets are fastened under the chin by velvet ribbons. The effect usually is very becoming. When a veil is worn it usually contrasts with the hat.

Very smart motor coats of two-toned whipcords are quite fetching.

Socialist Assails Asquith for Treatment Given Suffragettes Premier's Statement That Women Will Only Be Released on 'Torturers and Murderers' Shouts Lansbury

LONDON, June 25. (Can. Press).—Intense embitterment has been kindled in England by the forcible feeding of the imprisoned suffragettes who declared a hunger strike while in jail.

This was reflected in an extraordinary scene this afternoon in the house of commons when George Lansbury, a Socialist member, denounced Premier Asquith and the government in such virulent terms that he was ordered to leave the house by the Speaker.

Timothy Healy, the Nationalist, had attacked the Premier's remark in releasing the women and the premier replied that they could leave prison this afternoon on giving an undertaking not to repeat the offence.

Asquith 'Beneath Contempt.' Mr. Lansbury immediately projected himself at the treasury bench, shaking his fist in the faces of Premier Asquith and others.

With his face only a few inches away from that of Mr. Asquith, Lansbury screamed: 'You're beneath contempt. You know the women cannot give such an undertaking. It is dishonorable to ask them to do so. Talk of Russian atrocities, why, you'll go down to history as the torturers and murderers of innocent women. You ought to be driven from office.'

Induced to Retire. The house was quickly in disorder. The Speaker, however, finally secured quiet and ordered Mr. Lansbury to leave.

He yelled this out in a loud voice and when the Speaker remained in his seat he would be forcibly thrown out unless he went of his own accord, the labor members gathered about their colleague and induced him to quit.

It seems as if the old-time way of eating strawberries with sugar and cream could not be improved upon. Yet at times it palls and something new or different is demanded.

Strawberry Parfait. Hull and wash a quart of red-ripe berries, then remain in the colander to drain. Whip a pint of thick sweet cream very stiff, add half a cup of powdered sugar and whip again a few minutes. Now add the berries and stir gently to mix thoroughly without bruising the berries. Put it into a mould that has a tight-fitting cover, seal the edges with a little softened lard or butter and put it into a cold place for three hours. Then it is ready to serve dip the mould for a moment in warm water, wipe it off and invert on a very cold dessert dish. Affix a small card to the mould and send the parfait to the table.

Strawberry Junket. Put a quart of milk on the stove in a suitable saucepan. When it is of the exact temperature of the hand mix in thoroughly a tablespoonful and a half of thick cream. Then pour it in a pretty mould. In the meantime arrange a quart of berries have been arranged. Place the junket near the ice to chill. When ready to serve cover the surface with a head of lettuce, dressing whipped very stiff and sweetened. Grate a little nutmeg over the surface of the cream and send to the table.

Strawberry Tarts. Sift together in the mixing bowl a cupful and a half of flour, a few grains of salt and a level teaspoonful of baking powder. Rub in with the finger tips a large tablespoonful of lard, add a yolk of one egg and about half a cupful of very cold water. Knead to a rather soft smooth paste, turn it out on the floury pastry board and let it rest a few minutes. Roll it out very thin and line small tart pans, pressing the paste into the shape of the pans. Fill heaping with washed and hulled berries, then pour the jamme-manger in and bake in the oven for ten to fifteen minutes. Whip the whites of three eggs taken from the yolk that was used in the paste and two others very stiff. Then mix four tablespoonfuls of sugar in gently. When the tarts have cooled in the pans, spread some of the stiffly whipped cream over each, dividing it equally between them. Sprinkle plentifully with powdered sugar and return to the oven for five minutes. When ready to serve, arrange them on a fancy paper, add on a pretty dish, and send to the table.

Jaune-Manger With Berries. Put three cupfuls of milk on the stove in a double boiler. Add to it two-thirds of a cupful of sugar and then when it is scalding hot, add a heaping tablespoonful of cornstarch, dissolved in a little cold water. Stir until it thickens and let it cook five minutes longer. Then add the beaten yolks of three eggs which were left over from the tarts, with a little milk and continue the cooking for five minutes longer. Rinse a suitable mould with cold water, then pour the jaune-manger in and put it near the ice to chill. Then when ready to serve loosen the edges of the jaune-manger from the sides of the mould, give the mould a deep dessert dish, give the mould a gentle shake, and it will drop out. Then pour over it a quart of crushed and sweetened berries and send to the table with a pitcher of cream.

Put two cupfuls of the mixing bowl, add two-thirds of a cupful of sugar and a few drops of lemon. Beat it thoroughly with an egg beater, then add a cupful and a quarter of flour. Stir it to mix thoroughly, then add again for several moments. Grease a

The Nursery

Traveling With Children. Older children will need some diversion planned for them if the journey is a long one and the mother wants to enjoy it as much as possible. Let these surprises wait until the novelty of the trip has partly worn off, then they will be of greater value than they would be at first.

Cardboard stencils, pencils and a box of paper will afford great pleasure for the children. They have never played with them at home. Making pictures with these or drawing them on a frosted glass pane over an outline is a favorite diversion. Colored pencils are also entertaining and easy to carry.

When you take children away you must go prepared for accidents to clothing, and a spool each of black and white sewing thread, a needle and some pins should be kept in your handbag. Some old, soft cloths that can be thrown away when soiled should be put in a frosted glass pane over an outline is a favorite diversion. Colored pencils are also entertaining and easy to carry.

Induced to Retire. The house was quickly in disorder. The Speaker, however, finally secured quiet and ordered Mr. Lansbury to leave.

He yelled this out in a loud voice and when the Speaker remained in his seat he would be forcibly thrown out unless he went of his own accord, the labor members gathered about their colleague and induced him to quit.

Strawberry Recipes

It seems as if the old-time way of eating strawberries with sugar and cream could not be improved upon. Yet at times it palls and something new or different is demanded.

Strawberry Parfait. Hull and wash a quart of red-ripe berries, then remain in the colander to drain. Whip a pint of thick sweet cream very stiff, add half a cup of powdered sugar and whip again a few minutes.

Strawberry Junket. Put a quart of milk on the stove in a suitable saucepan. When it is of the exact temperature of the hand mix in thoroughly a tablespoonful and a half of thick cream.

Strawberry Tarts. Sift together in the mixing bowl a cupful and a half of flour, a few grains of salt and a level teaspoonful of baking powder.

Jaune-Manger With Berries. Put three cupfuls of milk on the stove in a double boiler. Add to it two-thirds of a cupful of sugar and then when it is scalding hot, add a heaping tablespoonful of cornstarch.

Put two cupfuls of the mixing bowl, add two-thirds of a cupful of sugar and a few drops of lemon. Beat it thoroughly with an egg beater, then add a cupful and a quarter of flour.

Six Weeks' Honeymoon in Camp

The man and I settled it between us. In spite of protests from families and friends, we planned to spend our six weeks' honeymoon camping on a lake in the wilds of the Adirondacks.

You see, the man is athletic, and an expert canoeist and woodsman, and I prefer rapids to ruffles; so what more fitting than that we should seek a forest setting on which to stage our 'Midsummer Bridal Dream'?

We sent our 18-foot canoe and a box of 'casts' ahead, and followed, our backs to a trunkful of many blankets, some clothes, and still fewer pots and pans.

After a night at the only 'hotel' on the lake, we paddled forth to find an ideal site. Three miles out we came to an island—surely an island seen in dreams. It looked across at the sunset, it gave a three-mile view to the east, and it faced a chain of shadowy hills. Fine needles carpeted it thickly; it had a rude wharf—derrick of other campers—and resinous balsam and chinky birch covered it thickly.

At this covered it thickly. We landed our baggage; and in the spotlight of a dazzling August day, slowly raised our chief of camp, a 32x2 tent with a fly. A few more hours of work saw our two pneumatic beds with waterproof covers in place on the balsam floor. In one corner of the tent and our trunk in the other. To the upright pole of the tent we nailed a large shoe bag, which we made the best kind of a bureau; as it held shoes, hairpins, razor, pistol, brushes, etc., in a most compact way, free from damp.

The man at once began to exhibit his male prowess by getting and chopping firewood, mending the wharf so we could more easily land the canoe and building a kitchen cabinet.

As we were 10 miles from an oil tank, we faced the fire problem in the way of the humble redman. Four large flat stones set on edge, with a spooned-out hollow underneath, over which we placed three strips of grating, was our only stove for the whole period.

The man wore khaki, and I wore overalls. A bride's overalls may seem un-Madisonian for a honeymoon, but I plead for a practical dress. You do not need a dress for a honeymoon, but I plead for a practical dress. You do not need a dress for a honeymoon, but I plead for a practical dress.

It was capable of many available combinations, too; and still better. This list is figured for only two weeks, but that for the others is like unto it: 4 pounds prunes, 4 pounds whole puled figs, 4 pounds dried apples, 2 pounds of cheese, 4 boxes tricot, 2 pounds dried lima beans, 4 pounds yellow cornmeal, 4 pounds white flour, 2 pounds pancake flour, 4-cans of pretzels, 3 boxes medium noodles, 3 pounds spaghetti, 3 pounds navy beans, 2 pounds rice, 4 pounds sugar, 2 Erbs wurst sausages, 1 pound cocoa, 1 1/2 boxes dried eggs, 1 box raisins, 1 pound cottage cheese, 3 cans tomatoes, 1 can 1/2 bag salt, 3 pounds bacon, sliced ham, 8 cans condensed milk, 1 bushel potatoes; total cost, $7.22.—Suburban Life.

'Seven Days' at the Grand. The Phillips-Shaw Stock Company will present Harry Robert Rhinheart and Avery Hopwood's famous laughing comedy, 'Seven Days,' at the Grand next week. This is the comedy that ran for two years and shook New York with laughter. The story deals with members of New York society who meet for dinner and are quarrelsome and quarrelsome. The production is of special interest because it is the first time the comedy has been offered in this city at a price of a dollar-fifty scale of prices. During

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS

My Friend From India. H. A. Du Souchet drew all the characters in his farce, 'My Friend From India,' from people whom he knew in Kansas City. The story deals with a newly rich family and their strenuous efforts to climb into society by their wealth. The family is that of Erasmus Underholt, a retired pork merchant.

After many futile attempts to enter the 'smart set' in their native city, they decide to try New York and purchase a handsome residence in Manhattan. It is after their arrival in the eastern metropolis that the fun begins, and continues fast and furious until the end. They make some terrific at-

Brilliant things are in order for silk wraps of any color. Cornflower on the hat or burnt orange is a most effective trimming. The flower, when combined with a little green, used in the trimming, is especially smart.

Strings or ropes of pearls, either the seed pearls or the Roman ones, are quite the correct thing with the white satin gown. Usually the ropes are finished with tasseled ends.

Long chains of colored beads, matching the crystal buttons with which the gown is trimmed, is a fad of the hour.

A novelty in a hot weather fan is the collapsible kind. When closed the fan is hidden in the heart of a bunch of artificial flowers. Fans of all kinds are being used more this season than for a long time past, and this accounts for the large variety shown.

Both cotton and linens with the grille or flit mesh are among the smartest materials for wash frocks. Grays and tans, as well as colors flecked with white, and white itself, are among the most popular.
