WHITE'S BOLD SORTES PLAYED HAD LOG WITH BOERS

Anxiety in London is Now Much Relieved, Owing to the Reassuring News From South Africa—Are British Forces Again Occupying Colenso?

Reinforcements Now at Estcourt En Route From Durban to Ladysmith—Joubert Believed to Have Pulled in His Horns After His Reverses—Hand of Buller Now Seen—No Troopships Yet at Cape Town—Good News Expected.

There is more reassuring news from South Africa this morning. It is only a question of General White's being able to keep the British flag floating over Ladysmith for a few more days, when the public may be promised cheerful reading. General White's brilliant sorties to stand off the Boer hordes have caused Her Majesty to write to Lady White expressing confidence in the General. The hand of General Sir Redvers Buller is now being seen. His plans up to date have been kept secret, but it now transpires that within the last few days 3500 troops have arrived at Estcourt from Durban on their way to Colenso. In fact, it is believed in London that the British are now reoccupying Colenso and others are now advancing up the railroad to Ladysmith.

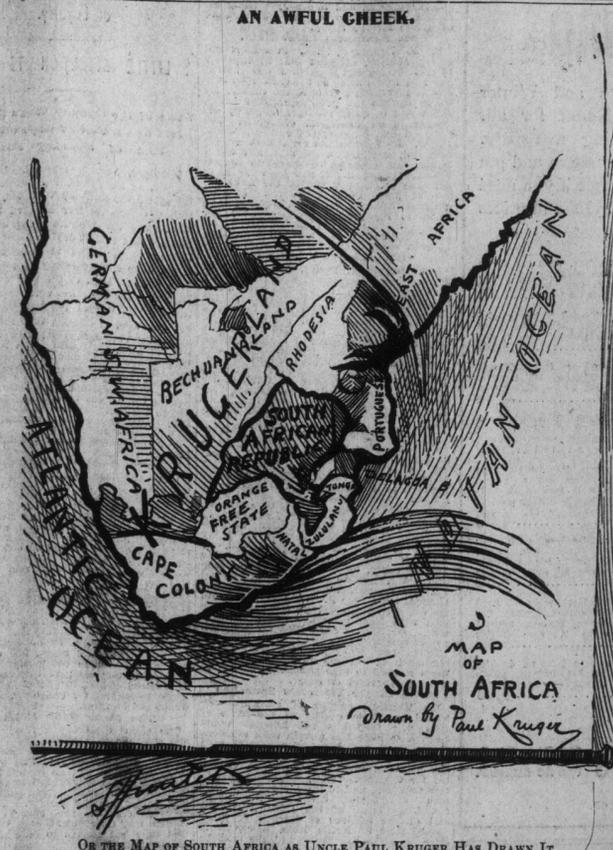

To pull through successfully. It is asserted that she has written to Lady White, expressing sympathy with her husband in the trials and difficulties he is now experiencing, and assuring Lady White of her own undiminished confidence in his generalship. The public report of this letter has been cabled to Gen. White by the Marquis of Lansdowne. Have They Gone to White's Relief? The most interesting news is a despatch from Estcourt, announcing the departure of a strong force of mounted troops of artillery for a destination not given in the despatches. To Retake Colenso. Another message announces the arrival at Estcourt and Pietermaritzburg within the last few days of reinforcements from Durban, and that 3500 troops are assembled ready for a re-advance to Colenso when the opportune moment arrives. The latter despatch throws light on the former, and the force which left Estcourt Monday last doubtless reoccupied Colenso and possibly is now advancing cautiously up the railroad towards Ladysmith. Gen. White's sortie of Friday arrived to the banks of the Tugela River, encouraging his commander in the hope of joining hands with him. Joubert Dreads His Horns. Gen. Joubert, the latest advices indicate, drew in his horns after Friday's engagement, and has since withdrawn the southern Boer contingents, leaving only outposts on the line from Ladysmith to Colenso. The Boers who occupied Colenso about the middle of last week retired without damaging Buller's bridge over the Tugela River, or the railroad as far north as the village of Nelthorpe, seven miles south of Ladysmith. Evidently they nurse a hope of eventually using both in their descent on Pietermaritzburg. Meanwhile the British are able to use both, as they have already done in winning by an armoured train, which may at the present moment be covering the advance of the Estcourt force. Defensive Works Strengthened. At Estcourt and Pietermaritzburg the defensive works have been greatly strengthened within the last few days, and they are now believed capable of holding their own against any Boer force which Gen. Joubert would, in the present juncture, risk sending. Both are likely to be strongly defended before the week is out by a further naval force, and even by the first detachment of Gen. Buller's army corps. No Troopships Yet. None of the troopships has arrived. The one which was expected might reach Cape Town at the earliest on Monday, is now unannounced, and even when it does arrive there, it will have three days' steaming to reach Durban, Natal. As many as six transports, with 4500 troops, were expected to be in Cape Town harbor by this time, but the War Office last evening issued a statement to the effect that the only arrivals at Cape Town were the Siamatra from Durban with wounded, the Southern Cross from Gibraltar, with mail and the collier Weavoo. May Go on to Durban. Of course, it is possible that despatch boats have been sent to meet the troopships, with instructions to proceed direct to Durban, and in that event the War Office statement that not one has arrived at Cape Town would be literally correct, even though several should be half way between Cape Town and Durban, brighter at Matieling.

The situation looks brighter at Matieling, where the Boers are apparently disheartened at the unexpected resistance, a cordon of their force having been detached to the south to assist in the investment of Kimberley, around which the cordon is drawing tighter. Evidently the Boers intend to make a concentrated effort to capture Kimberley and their arch-enemy, Cecil Rhodes. The reported departure of a Boer contingent from Pretoria with German artillery guns, moving southward, is taken to mean co-operation in the invasion of the northern portions of Cape Colony, an undertaking which, thus far, has not progressed very rapidly. Treacherous Use of White Flag. Reports of a treacherous use of the white flag by the Boers coming from native sources are not received with complete credulity, but at the same time their repetition is making an unfavorable impression. One paper has sarcastically whether President Kruger's reference in his message to America to "staggering humanity" meant the Boer use of the white flag. To Protect Pietermaritzburg. A despatch from Durban gives details which, though rather indefinite, seem to show that the Natal volunteers are moving the big guns, which are not sufficiently mobile for field use, from Estcourt to Pietermaritzburg to assist in the defence of the latter in the event of an attack. Destroyed the Calvert. A despatch from Natal, dated Cape Colony, dated Monday morning, says that, on learning that the Boers were relaying the rails at Natal's Point, the Railway Department, the previous day, destroyed the culvert between Arundel and Twendale. BOERS HOWLED FOR MERCY. Ladysmith is Crowded With Boer Prisoners and Wounded. After the Last Fight. Durban, Natal, Sunday Evening, Nov. 5.—Other information confirms the statement of native eye-witnesses respecting the severity of the fighting on both Friday and Saturday at Ladysmith. The natives assert that the Boers were so cut up that they howled for mercy on the field and covered their bodies. Ladysmith is crowded with Boer prisoners and wounded, the latter presenting horrible evidence of the swordsmanship of the cavalry. The Gordon Highlanders suffered severely in the fighting.

As yet none of the British troopships have been reported at Cape Town, but it is hinted that they have been intercepted under orders from General Buller and sent on to Durban for the immediate relief of General White at Ladysmith. NEWS MOST REASSURING. It is Now Likely That the Darkest Pages of the War Have Been Written. London, Nov. 8.—To the eyes of military experts the darkest page of the war is now being written. But even that is illuminated by bright passages, such as Gen. White's victorious sorties. If he can keep the British flag flying over Ladysmith until he is relieved the campaign will turn a certain ally of anxiety lest Gen. White should again make some fatal miscalculation involving a repetition of the Nicholson's Nek disaster. Her Majesty Backs Gen. White. Her Majesty does not share this anxiety, and, apparently, is sanguine of his ability to hold out.

TWO MURDEROUS BURGLARS WERE NABBED THIS MORNING

Mr. J. E. Varcoe, Grocer, 182 East Queen Street. Receives Two Bullets—Men Tried to Escape, and One Was Shot by P. C. Dickson—Both in the Toils—Professionals by Their Work.

Having between life and death in a ward in the General Hospital lies Mr. J. E. Varcoe, a grocer, who carries on a grocery business at 182 East Queen-street. The cause of the patient's precarious condition is two pistol shot wounds to his groin, which were inflicted by burglars at an early hour this morning. A Pistol in His Face. Varcoe was awakened about 2 o'clock by hearing noises in the hallway leading to his room. He called to his clerk, Noah Thomas, who was in the next room, and as he arose from his bed, a pistol was pointed in his face. Varcoe grabbed a chair which was near the bed, and was in the act of striking the thief when he received the two shots in his groin. He fell exhausted on the bed, and his assailant ran out of the door. A Second Man Armed. Thomas could not offer any assistance, because he was overpowered by another burglar, who also carried a firearm. After the shots were fired, the thieves ran down to the next flat and through a front room to the window. The sash was fastened, and the burglars, smashed the glass in their mad attempt to escape. Both jumped to the stone sidewalk below, a distance of about 15 feet. One Burglar Stunned. On the sidewalk, Thomas McIntosh, was stunned by the fall and was unable to rise. The other ran east on Queen-street. Constable Dickson, who heard the pistol shots, came up at this time, and seeing that McIntosh was in an unconscious condition, went after his accomplice, Henry Williams. The latter ran down Sherbourne-street, and despite the police-

YOUNG ANDERSON GOES FORTH FREE ON THE VERDICT OF TWELVE GOOD MEN

Judge Bain's Charge Was Impartial and Exhaustive—Jurors Were Out an Hour and Twenty-five Minutes and the Suspense Was Great—As the Words "Not Guilty" Were Pronounced, the Court Room Shook With the Cheers.

Winnipeg, Nov. 8.—(Special)—Motions Bank robbery case came to a close to-day. Throughout the judge's charge attention was given to the evidence of the chief witness, who leaned forward in the box and listened to every word. It could not be said, however, that his appearance was materially changed from what it was at the beginning of the trial. The ladies were largely in evidence, and there was a host of them about the prisoner's box, a number of whom stood the jury retired leaned over and talked with him. The judge's charge was regarded as very impartial. Suspense Was Intense. The suspense during the interval of waiting was intense, and at 12:30 p.m., after being out an hour and twenty-five minutes, the jury sent in word that they were ready to come. There was a few minutes' delay in waiting for Judge Bain to return, and the court room, into which since 10 o'clock no one had got without great difficulty, seemed choked with spectators. As the jury were about to come in, constables walked away the crowd of friends, several of whom were ladies, who had gathered about the prisoner's box. The prisoner was then seen leaning forward, his dark eyes glancing intently, and his fingers beating rapidly on the wire of the box. The Jury Filed In. When the jury filed in, it was seen that Joseph McGregor was the first in the front row, and it was instantly known that he had been chosen for the foreman.

The whole surroundings of the court seemed like a strangled instrument, keyed up to the point of snapping. The stillness was so intense that the noise of the jury men's boots, the squeak of the chairs and the breathing of the expectant audience seemed to stand out clear from a dead background. It is doubtful if ever in any murder trial here a prisoner's box was more quickly upon the words, "Not guilty." When the clerk read the usual question, "Guilty or not guilty, what say you?" the prisoner at the bar, he is guilty or not guilty? It seemed as if the crowd could endure no longer, and when the foreman pronounced the words, "Not guilty," the cheering that filled the building. Cheers after cheers rent the air, and in an instant the space in front and behind the box was filled with men and women, crying, "Give us your hand, Anderson!" "It's all right, old man!" "Not Guilty." When the clerk read the usual question, "Guilty or not guilty, what say you?" the prisoner at the bar, he is guilty or not guilty? Cheers after cheers rent the air, and in an instant the space in front and behind the box was filled with men and women, crying, "Give us your hand, Anderson!" "It's all right, old man!" How Anderson Took It. As the words were pronounced Anderson made that sudden forward movement of his head which accompanied the positive statement in his evidence, and which seems natural to him, as the acknowledgment of anything in which there could be no doubt. His face broke into a smile, his fingers beat more quickly upon the railing, and then he was taken from view. The Mother and Brothers. The effect upon Anderson's mother and brothers was much the same as upon himself. Their countenances showed that a great strain had been lifted from them. Cheering continued for fully three minutes, the court officials vainly endeavoring to restore order, and by that time Anderson was out of the box and half way across the court in the hands of friends. The cheering then subsided, and order

GOVERNORS BEAT BRANN.

Boss Croker and His Followers Are Still on Top as Regards Greater New York.

REPUBLICANS GAINED OUTSIDE.

Nash is Safe in Ohio, and Republicans Gained Assemblymen in New Jersey.

New York, Nov. 8.—The receipt of later returns from yesterday's elections in this city and the State show practically no change in the figures given out last night. In New York County the entire regular Democratic ticket was elected by pluralities averaging about 2,000.

In King's County (Brooklyn) the Democratic ticket was elected by pluralities averaging 14,000, except that Gray (Democrat) for Registrar was defeated by Howe (Republican) by 488 votes. This was due to the narrow margin in the party.

The result of the election in the State outside New York city shows Republican gains in Assemblymen and in the State Senate. The Republicans gained 10 seats in the Assembly and 17 in the Senate.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 8.—Unofficial returns have been received from all counties in Ohio, with a few counties still unreported. The footings give Nash (Republican) for Governor a plurality of 49,268.

The Senate stands 19 Republicans, 8 Democrats and 4 doubtful, including 3 from Hamilton County. The House stands: 53 Republicans, 34 Democrats and 17 doubtful, including 10 members from Hamilton County.

Fusion Victory in Nebraska. Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 8.—Additional returns received this morning only serve to emphasize the fusion victory in Nebraska at yesterday's election. The fusion plurality will not be less than 22,000 and may reach 28,000.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 8.—In this city yesterday the total vote was 122,338. The contest on the State ticket was over the office of State Treasurer, and Col. James E. Barnett (Republican) had 69,302 plurality over Metcalf (Democrat), but both were elected, as there were two vacancies in that body.

Utah is Somewhat Divided. Salt Lake, Utah, Nov. 8.—Thompson (Republican) for Mayor has a majority of 688. The Republicans also elected Recorder and Auditor, and the Democrats the Attorney, Treasurer and Justice of the Peace.

Result in Massachusetts. Boston, Nov. 8.—The fall returns carried Massachusetts by 65,000 votes, and the next Governor, Mr. Murray Crane of Dalton will be the next Governor. The regular party nominees being W. B. Chandler, Independent Democrat, for Governor, and John F. Chaney of Shawnee County and C. C. H. Nelson, Democrat, for Mayor, are over 6,000.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 8.—The returns show that the State Senate will be entirely Democratic. The only member of the regular party nominees being W. B. Chandler, Independent Democrat, for Governor, and John F. Chaney of Shawnee County and C. C. H. Nelson, Democrat, for Mayor, are over 6,000.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 8.—Election returns came in slowly today, but continued to be more favorable to the Republicans. Governor Shaw's (Rep.) plurality, which had to be 61,000, by the Republican Committee, the Democrats conceding 50,000. Several counties, however, have given good-sized Republican pluralities.

Republican Gains in Kansas. Topeka, Kan., Nov. 8.—The reports from the election in Kansas show Republican gains throughout the State. The votes cast were mostly for county officers. Very little interest was taken in the election, and the vote generally was light.

In New Jersey. Trenton, N.J., Nov. 8.—In New Jersey the Republicans elected their candidates for Senator, in seven of the eight counties choosing such officers. They, however, made no gain, so the Senate of 1900 will be the same politically as that of 1898.

The Petroleum Idea!

A Process of Education!

Toronto is at the beginning of a new enthusiasm. On top of all the claims and counter-claims of newspaper advertising we come with a new idea—new to the public, but not to physicians.

This has reference to the growing use of Petroleum in medicine, to its wonderful soothing and healing properties, and more particularly in the manner in which we prepare it. But everybody won't believe in a hurry all we say. It takes time to educate people along new lines. But the fact of success in England and success in the States is all the endorsement we need in Canada.

We commenced yesterday morning by introducing ourselves. To-day we want to hold this up for you to look at:

Angier's Petroleum Emulsion is not a "patent" medicine. Its formula is known and published, and physicians prescribe it in their regular practice. During the last 20 years we've sold millions of bottles, and almost all of them upon doctors' prescriptions.

The test of all proprietary remedies is this—what does your doctor say? We believe the physician is the best judge of what is what in regard to medicine, and our aim is to make Angier's Petroleum Emulsion a useful remedy in the hands of physicians. At the same time we want to educate the public along our line, partly because thousands of people prescribe for themselves, and partly because many of the old notions are too old to be safe.

To-morrow morning we will tell you what the Emulsion is and what it does. Watch the papers.

BRITAIN RECOGNIZES SAMOA. An Agreement Reached, Subject to the Approval of the United States.

THAT APPROVAL IS EXPECTED. Germany in Turn Renounces Claims on Tonga Islands and Other Territory.

Berlin, Nov. 8.—It was officially announced this morning that an agreement, subject to the approval of the United States, had been arrived at between Great Britain and Germany, by virtue of which the Samoa Islands and the islands of Upolu, Savali and the small adjacent islands fall to Germany as free property, and the island of Tutuila and the subsidiary islands go to the United States.

At the same time an arrangement has been arrived at between the two powers, by virtue of which the German colonies in the Hinterland of German Togoland and the British gold coast will be divided in a manner that leaves the boundary of the German and British territories will be formed by the Faka River up to a point where the Samoa cuto the north degree of latitude, thence north by a line to be fixed by a mixed commission. The countries of Mampuru and Gambia shall fall to Great Britain and the countries of Yendi and Chakosi to Germany. Finally, according to the decision of the Colonial Council, Germany renounces its claims to her extra-territorial rights in Zanzibar till the expiration of the commercial treaty of 1890 with the province of Tanganyika.

Regarding this agreement it is observed that the United States' assent is regarded as assured. A further agreement concluded between Germany and Germany when it was stipulated should be first submitted to the ratification of the United States. This was necessary, as the plan proposed would be only valid if the United States would require approval of the Senate.

It is believed that the arrangement proposed now will be satisfactory to the Department. The United States is not concerned with the amount or character of the compensation to be paid to the other nations. Besides retaining the cooling station of Pago Pago, acquiring the island of Tutuila, the harbor of Apia is located, and the three or four smaller islands in the vicinity. The United States continue to enjoy its stipulated privilege of trading with Apia under conditions as favorable as any other existing. The islands referred to are not of any particular importance from a commercial point of view, but they are of great importance politically in order to prevent smuggling.

WHAT WASHINGTON SAYS. An Intimation That the Allotments Will Be Satisfactory to the United States. Washington, Nov. 8.—Whatever plan Great Britain and Germany might agree upon it was stipulated should be first submitted to the ratification of the United States. This was necessary, as the plan proposed would be only valid if the United States would require approval of the Senate.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Whatever plan Great Britain and Germany might agree upon it was stipulated should be first submitted to the ratification of the United States. This was necessary, as the plan proposed would be only valid if the United States would require approval of the Senate.

Woman's World. Devoted Specially to the Interests of our Women Readers. Conducted by Katherine Leslie.

It is an odd thing that our Canadian women do not cultivate more generally the beautiful art of wood-carving. It is an art in which many women excel, and in these days when the arts and the crafts are beginning to join hands that should never have been separated, and when there begins to be a demand for hand-made furniture, etc., there seems to be no reason why women of artistic bent should not make a profession of wood-carving. It is an art much in favor with women in the old land, and I recall some rarely artistic work which I saw the last time I was across, all done by women. One young woman, the daughter of a very distinguished professor in Edinburgh, had turned out with her own hands nearly all the drawing-room and library of her father's house. Book cases, china cabinets, tables, great and small, mirrors, frames and panels had all been designed and made by this young artist in her workshop in the far end of the rambling old house. All these articles were chiselled of old oak, the shape as beautiful as the work itself, and the original and original of the artist. As this young woman had no occasion to use her own hands in the workshop, she had every opportunity of carrying on the work at her home embellished by painted oak chests or chairs exquisitely carved, all the work of this artist in wood.

Another girl I know, a Canadian, though resident in Glasgow, makes a very good income for herself by designing and carving in wood. A great many of the best painters nowadays have the frame made to suit the picture, and every bit of the picture is painted on the frame, and therefore set herself to design and carve frames for her brother-in-law, who is an amateur artist of her work. In her travels she has seen many of the frames in the galleries for hints and suggestions, and she has a special study of foliage and flowers, and she has designed many of the frames for her special work. She develops the frame in a way that is entirely new, and she has a special study of foliage and flowers, and she has designed many of the frames for her special work. She develops the frame in a way that is entirely new, and she has a special study of foliage and flowers, and she has designed many of the frames for her special work.

An American magazine has been making a collection of photographs of the most beautiful married women. One of the photographs is that of a woman who is a model of beauty and grace. She has a face that is a perfect work of art, and her eyes are as blue as the sky. Her hair is as black as the night, and her smile is as sweet as the honey. She is a woman who has captured the hearts of many men, and she is a woman who is truly a queen in her own right.

SLOW DAY AT THE CITY HALL.

A Rumor on Foot That Lieut.-Col. Oter Might Be Chief Fireman of Toronto.

The Assessment Commissioner has been busy employed lately in straightening out a tangle caused by a clerical error at the time a transfer of property was made. It appears that Aid. Denison and Mr. J. Ardagh own lots no. 30 and 29 respectively on Church-street, and a short time ago the former sold his property. The purchaser, however, when looking over the title deeds, which Mr. Ardagh gave him, discovered that they were for lot 29, and that that property was sold two years ago by Mr. Ardagh really belonged to Aid. Denison.

The County of York Law Association have written to the Property Committee complaining against the delay in fitting up their quarters in the new City Hall. Does Col. Oter Want the Job? Rumor has it that Lieut.-Col. Oter is a candidate for the position of chief fireman of the fact that he will be retired from his present position shortly, as he is almost reached the age limit, there is a probability that he will allow his name to stand.

A VISITOR FROM AUSTRALIA.

Interesting Talk With Hon. John A. Cockburn, Agent-General for South Australia.

WHO IS NOW TOURING CANADA.

Lines of Products Which Canada Can Sell Profitably to the Sister Colony.

"Do you want a good laugh to-night?" asked Mayor Shaw of a tall, dark man with rather long jet black hair, who, with hat in hand, stood in one of the Queen's parlors last night.

"Yes, I do." "Then we'll go to Shea's."

The Mayor's tete-a-tete was Hon. John Alexander Cockburn, Agent-General for South Australia, and now a guest in the city.

May Be Lord Jersey. Mr. Cockburn, who became a fellow at King's College, looks the clever man he is.

Who is to have the honor, Dr. Cockburn, of being the first Australian-General of Federated Australia?

What Canada Can Sell. Asked what lines Canada could profitably send over, Agent-General Cockburn replied: "More lumber, bicycles and agricultural implements. When I was Minister of Agriculture I imported a lot from the Massey-Harris works. There I visited today and got a lot of information."

A Curt Reply. "There has been an outcry in certain quarters in Canada, led by F. T. and G. W. Smith, that the sending of the contingent was unconstitutional, as Parliament was not consulted. What do you say to that?"

The Australian laughed, as he replied: "If you do not see your way to a pit, you do not stop to consider the cost or look up any law before you pull them out. No, they are sent to the Mother Country as 're-education' and the Agent-General's eyes now flashed, 'was no act of duty, but an irrepressible conflict throughout the Empire, and it was worth this war to see how magnificent this instinct is!'"

How does Australia stand on the idea of Imperial Federation?"

The Agent-General smiled as if it brought back pleasant recollections. "We had Dr. Parkin there and he stirred up the crowds in his enthusiastic way, but the question has never yet assumed a concrete shape. It seems a part of the Australian character to go on only step at a time, and all our energies have been concentrated on our own confederation. Our public men, however, are very strongly indeed, in favor of a preferential tariff with the Empire, and we have been in communication with Lord Strathcona with regard to fixing this with reference to Australia's wishes."

The Pacific Cable. Dr. Cockburn excused himself from speaking about the Pacific cable. He had seen a fighting man, but said that he now occupied a position where the wicked ceased from troubling, and the weary were at rest.

Self-Sacrificing Students. Little Charlie Cochrane, a patient in the Sick Children's Hospital, will be the result of a skin-grafting operation performed yesterday. Eighteen students volunteered and gave square inches of skin. The operation, which lasted nearly an hour, was a complete success. The Cochrane lad was burned severely at his home in Omnesse about six weeks ago, and was brought to this city to be treated.

November Weddings. While the City Yesterday. A very quiet wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. Justice Maclellan, 10 Murray-street, when his niece, Miss M. E. Maclellan of Port Hope, and Mr. Charles Maclellan of Toronto, Parke, Blackwell Co., were united in marriage. Miss Lillie Maclellan of Lindsay attended the bride, and Mr. Donald Maclellan, man of the Bank of Commerce, Montreal, acted as groomsmen. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Smith, formerly of Port Hope.

Miss Nellie Rolph. The marriage of Miss Nellie Rolph, only daughter of Mr. Frank Rolph, Sr., of Great Bond, was celebrated yesterday afternoon in St. Simon's Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Prof. Clark. Miss Edith Cresswell and Miss Ethel Adams acted as bridesmaids, while Mr. Herbert Adams assisted the groom.

Miss Lulu Dundas. In Sherbourne-street church yesterday afternoon Miss Lulu Dundas was married to Mr. Edwin T. Campbell. Mr. William Dundas gave the bride away. The bride's attendants were Miss Ada Dundas and Miss Ethel Campbell was groomsmen. Rev. James Hill, assisted by Rev. Dr. McFavish and Rev. Dr. Campbell, performed the ceremony.

THE CATHOLIC REGISTER

May Soon Be Straight Liberal in Politics, and There May Be a New Senator.

The misfortunes of that readable paper, The Catholic Register, were being discussed at a city cafe yesterday, when a prominent Torontonian who has been listening with interest to the conversation, remarked: "You gentlemen may not know it, but the cause of the trouble is the Register's office is a Senatorship which Sir Wilfrid Laurier has been taking as a bait to win that paper over to the Liberal ranks."

The group of talkers recognized in the speaker a man who has been going about with rather long jet black hair, who, with hat in hand, stood in one of the Queen's parlors last night.

"Yes, I do." "Then we'll go to Shea's."

Two Important Decisions. McMaster University Must Pay Taxes on Income Derived From an Estate.

Two important judgments in assessment appeals during the past week were handed out by Judge McLaughlin late yesterday afternoon. The first was the appeal of the trustees of McMaster University against the assessment of $23,925, being the value of the University's income, and, further, that the salaries paid to the staff out of this amount are already assessed as actual income.

The second judgment was in the appeal of the trustees of the University against the assessment of $23,925, being the value of the University's income, and, further, that the salaries paid to the staff out of this amount are already assessed as actual income.

The court also found, in disposing of the first contention, that personal property, which included the actual income, was not to be assessed as income, but as actual income.
