BAREFOOT ALL THE WEEK; BUT SHOES FOR SUNDAY

Trade Commissioner Writes of Fashion and Business in West Indies—Some Tips From Social Customs

Watson Griffin's trade serial on the British West Indies in the Weekly Trade Report of the Trade and Commerce department grows interesting. In the issue of April 18th, he emphasizes the fact that while many West Indians prefer to go barefooted the use of shoes prevents "hookworm" and that in consequence there is an increased market for footwear. On this point, Mr. Griffin says: "It has been discovered that those who wear shoes regularly are not so liable to catch ankylostomiasis or hookworm, which lurks in the soil. Andrew Carnegie has donated a considerable sum of money toward the eradication of hookworm in the British West Indies, and a vigorous anti-hookworm campaign is about to be started. The fact that the continual wearing of shoes will greatly reduce the danger of getting ankylostomiasis is likely to be brought constantly to the attention of the people and it may have an important influence on the shoe trade in the near future. At present the only influence is fashion and the place where fashion holds sway is the church. In Housay, Dominica, one does not see many shoes on week days, but wait until Sunday comes and go to church. There you will see that Dominica is not barefooted. On the contrary, nearly all the church goers wear to shoes and the churches are all crowded. I visited four churches of different denominations in Housay one Sunday evening, staying a little while at each. It was the same at every church and shoes were not the only thing. The whole appearance of these people was transformed. Young women whose only head dress was a large wooden tray, filled with vegetables and fruit, were hats bedecked with ribbons. Their mothers looked fine with colored handkerchiefs wound about their heads. There were Sunday-go-to-meeting dresses worn with the shoes and hats. Fashion is a great thing and if it held sway in these islands every day of the week as it does on Sunday, the sales of the merchants would greatly increase, for shoes and hats that are worn only on Sundays last longer than if they were worn every day of the week.

A woman interested in charity work was accustomed each day to pass by the door of a Chinese laundry wherein were employed two Chinese. Each day she passed the charity worker would stop for an instant and speak to the boss, "Hello, John." She would call out which salutation the Celestial would reply, "Hello lady." One day she saw only one Chinese where there had been two, and she asked: "Where is the other John?" "He is in hospital," said the laundryman, "Chinain gentleman struck him in the head with a brick."

"THE CALL OF THE BOY."

(By Charles G. Keith.) We have heard about tariff and taxes. And problems of ruling the state; We know all about parties and platforms. And politics little and great. But amidst all the din and confusion. Of struggle for riches and joy. Have you heard the new note that is sounding? "Yes, I have heard the call of the boy?"

Leader and leader we hear it. A cry from the home that we view. A call from the man in the making. Commanding attention from you. It tells of the training of leaders. And this is the call we enjoy: It tells of defeat at the outset, "This is a pretty grim call from the boy."

It shows us a home life real and true. With children existing, not living. When we conquer the price that is stubborn. And answer the call of the boy.

The scene of our story has shifted. It is night, and a boy has left home; He meets the gang down at the corner. Where evils unpeppable roam. Then actions take place that are tragic. Iron buckets, wire nails, cordage, paints. And souls that were white have been darkened. 'Tis a pitiful call from our boys.

And we who are grown must remember. That most boys who go wrong are not instructed how to behave. And all they ask is a chance. Just a chance to be a good in the bat-tle. Amid all the strife and the noise. They are pleading; for, "this will you grant it?"

Will you answer the call of the boy? —Boys' Clubs. Theatre Notes. Paris, April 19.—The Comedie Theatre in Madrid, one of the finest in that city, was closed by fire yesterday.

In Time of War Prepare For More War

(Prepared by G. F. ROBERT, MANAGER, Hamilton Advertisers' Agency, Limited, Hamilton, Canada.)

WHEN the treaty of peace is signed in Berlin, a new and free Germany will arise from the ashes. As a business competitor it will be more aggressive than the Germany of the Hohenzollerns.

After the war of 1870 France paid her billion-dollar war indemnity to Germany with a shrug of the shoulders and became one of the great creditor nations of the world. Will Germany do less? Is it not probable that with its enormous and efficient industrial system it will do even better?

Germany must gain its revival from its exports. It must produce for other nations and pay its debts in manufactured products. The "Made in Germany" label is not popular in Canada at the present time. How long will that sentiment last? What is the usual course in analogous cases?

A brutal criminal is not popular. He might be in danger of lynch law were indignant citizens able to lay hands on him. After his trial and conviction, however, our tenderly sympathetic people send comforts and luxuries to his cell and sign petitions for a commutation of his sentence, while the less emotional members of the community simply forget. This kindly human spirit that occasionally is misdirected denotes a tendency that it is well to note.

A favorite trick of some salesmen is to insult a prospective customer and then abjectly seek his pardon. In the fulness of his forgiveness, and to demonstrate that there is no ill-will, the unsuspecting prospect signs the dotted line on the order blank.

"Made in Germany" will not continue to be unpopular. The danger is that it may become too popular; that our sympathy for the "poor Germans" may affect our better judgment and our sense of justice towards the Canadian manufacturers, who have been ever true and faithful to British interests.

It is well to face frankly the peculiarities of popular sentiment. In fact, it is essential that this should be done by those who depend upon public approval for the sale of their goods. It requires only a slight knowledge of human nature to anticipate the indifference that will follow the present outburst of patriotic fervor.

Now is the time, when imports are discontinued, to get the Canadian people to acquire the habit of asking for Canadian brands; not because they are Canadian, but because the goods are right and the prices fair. Upright emphasis on the Canadian-made feature is to be ephemeral in its appeal. The present passionate patriotism is too intense to be abiding; but an acquired habit is more than second nature—it is nature. On the other hand, when the Empire is no longer in danger we will return to our old thoughtless ways. We will resume our criticisms of the tariff. We will do our best as individuals to buy in the cheapest market and sell in the dearest.

Now is the time to prepare and to give Canadian business an impetus that will carry it through the period of reaction, and overcome the sentimentalism of newly-awakened sympathies. A brand thoroughly established in public esteem on its merits and by its publicity is proof against the ebb and flow of the tide of impulsiveness or the stagnation of indifference.

Now is the time to entrench a business against the possibility of successful assault. Now is the time to prepare for more war, a war of aggressive competition, that will be quite as vital to our commercial interests as is the clash of arms in Europe.

THE WAR NEWS

One of the most significant signs of the time is the announcement by the Austrian war office that owing to the possibility that the war may last a long time the untrained Landsturm men between the ages of 18 and 20 will hereafter be liable for military service.

tion that the French and British continue to make slight gains. Further tributes are made by the British commanders to the steadiness of the Canadians in the trenches, and an official statement says "their conduct has been not only without reproach, but deserving the highest praise."

No doubt what is true of Germany and Austria in this respect is to some extent true of France, but Russia and the British Empire still have immense resources in men upon which to draw, and which must turn the scale of victory in their favor in the spring and summer campaign.

When the police made a raid in Chapel Street on Saturday night the lid was partly lifted upon conditions in this city which are the despair of the advocates of social reform.

The future attitude of Italy is still in doubt, but there appears to be continuous friction between her and Austria, and the war party in Italy is undoubtedly strong. Dr. E. J. Dillon recently contributed to the London Daily Telegraph a very interesting article on Italy in relation to this war.

The Germans having adopted deadly gas as a proper weapon in trench warfare, the British also appear to have made a successful experiment along that line. A book that would set forth in their nakedness all the horrors of this war would be of a sort to be read only by persons of a very strong mind.

The St. John Standard appears to be entirely satisfied with the results of the boot inquiry, and with the kind of boots served out to the soldiers of the first contingent and at least a part of the second contingent. The Standard would be satisfied with anything, so long as the Borden government remained in power and its rake-off friends continued to flourish.

The people of Canada owe it to the vigilance of the Liberals that the new war vote of $100,000,000 will be expended under the supervision of a non-partisan commission, if the Borden government really makes up its mind to appoint such a commission.

It was announced last week that a German submarine had sunk a Dutch steamer and now a Greek steamer has been sunk off the Dutch coast. Thus there is friction between Greece and Germany, as well as between Holland and Germany, and the ill-advised utterances of the German ambassador to the United States, practically charging that country with a one-sided neutrality, has called forth very sharp comment from the American press.

The Foreshore Bill has reappeared in a new guise. It comes in as a section of an amendment to the Highway Act. It gives supervisors the power to go anywhere on the foreshore and take gravel for road repairing. This is a very dangerous proceeding. It is very easy to say that supervisors will do no wrong, but it would be very easy for any supervisor who wanted to make it unpleasant for any owner of land fronting a beach to do so.

Germany's willingness to pay for Italy's neutrality in Austrian territory calls to mind Artemus Ward's willingness to sacrifice his mother-in-law and, if necessary, his wife's other relations on the altar of his country—Florida Times-Union.

Secretary Daniels, apropos of his teetotal navy, said at a Washington luncheon "The navies of the past were by no means teetotal. It is incredible how much those sea dogs of the past could drink. Why, they even mixed gunpowder with their grog! It is said that Lady Hamilton, at a ball in Naples, once nodded toward a rubicund sailor, and said to Lord Nelson: 'That gentleman is from the Arethusa. I believe. But just what is his official capacity?' 'Seven bottles,' Nelson replied."

"Did you notice that lovely girl in the pretty brown dress, waiting in the lobby?" he asked his wife as they took their seats in the theatre.

"What that drowsy thing with the false puffs, enameled face, gold teeth, made-over dress, imitation mink fur, and torn gloves? No, I didn't notice her. Why?—Puck."

Aunt—"Are you getting along nicely at school, Charlie?" Charlie—"Yes, aunt. I've got the best place in the class."

"I understand that you have called to ask for my daughter's hand?" "Oh, no, nothing like that."

"She and I settled all that. What I have called for is to be married."

Hokus—"What makes you think he is a vegetarian?" Poku—"I have smoked his cigars."

Lady Visitor—"That's a badly wounded soldier—what are you going to do with him?" "Oh, he's got back again to the front."

Lady Visitor—"Good heavens—what an Orderly!" "E thinks 'e knows who done 'em."—From London Opinion.

STRIKE ON I. C. R. IS THREATENED

Montreal, April 18—The Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Employees, of which A. R. Mosher, of Halifax, is grand president, has issued an ultimatum to the management of the Canadian government railways to the effect that they will cease work in a body by Friday next, unless the general manager, P. P. Gutelius, meets representatives of the brotherhood and settles to their satisfaction their alleged grievances. The grievances set up by the brotherhood of fact are: 1—Alleged failure of the I. C. R. management to carry out all the terms of the agreement of March 21, 1913, between the I. C. R. and the brotherhood.

Blood Thin and Weak Too Nervous to Sleep

Thin blood and exhausted nerves usually go together. A considerable portion of the blood is constantly consumed in keeping up the vitality of the nervous system. Once the blood is deficient, either in quantity or quality, the nerves suffer and bodily pains result. Headache, neuritic or sciatic pains are the indications in some cases, while in others weakness, irritability, and sleeplessness are the most marked symptoms.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR FEET.

Women are troubled with tired, perspiring feet. Nothing will affect the whole disposition so quickly, make one irritable, nervous and really ill, as a pair of aching feet which are hardy fit to stand on.

put on a pair of our Women's Easy Shoes to be found at our store, and spend the day in comfort.

Among the many lines of Easy Shoes to be found at our store, we strongly advise the "Red Cross," "Dr. Reed's Cushion Shoe" and our "Comfort" Shoe. These goods are made for absolute foot comfort.

Of course we have goods that are very much more stylish; but now that housecleaning and moving time are near at hand, a pair of these shoes would make life really worth living for the women folks.

GLASGOW DRINKING CLUBS WIDE OPEN

Closing of Saloons There Would Not Mean Much Towards Temperance. Glasgow, April 4.—(Correspondence)—Several of the labor delegations which urged upon Chancellor Lloyd George the advisability of total prohibition of alcoholic liquors during the war, made a particular point of the fact that such prohibition, to be effective, must apply to private clubs as well as to saloons.

While this was urged partly on the ground that any such prohibition should operate equally upon all classes, it was also observed that in many towns it would be futile to close the bar-rooms and leave the clubs open. Glasgow is the most striking example of this, for the workmen's clubs here are very numerous, and they practically all serve liquor.

These clubs, in fact, have completely defeated the object of recent legislation for the early closing of saloons in Great Britain. Early closing and Sunday Closing in Glasgow imply transfer of the drinking from the licensed houses to the clubs.

The membership fees of these workmen's clubs are generally nominal, and in many cases all depend with entirely upon the presentation of a form of receipt for money which has never been paid. The law requires that only members may be allowed admittance to a club serving liquor, but the enforcement in Glasgow is very lax, and a newspaper investigator last Sunday obtained admission unquestioned to a large number of clubs, although he was not a member of any. In several of them he found upwards of 160 persons seated around the tables.

THREATENED STRIKE ON I. C. R.

A Letter From Local Secretary—Action Taken in Halifax

Editor Times—Sir,—By the morning paper it is to be noticed that A. R. Mosher, grand president of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Employees (a union comprising railroad men) has threatened to call out the maintenance of way employees on the I. C. R. who may happen to belong to the Canadian Brotherhood in order to help him in his attempt to sacrifice their positions on the I. C. R. by complying with Mr. Mosher's ultimatum.

The policy of all international unions in Canada at this time is to present trouble while the war is in progress.

In connection with this, a Halifax despatch says that at the April meeting of the Halifax Trades and Labor Council a communication was received from G. W. Murray, general chairman of the Maintenance of Way Employees, charging that President Mosher of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Employees had been attempting to usurp the right to negotiate a schedule for the use of employed as general track work. It was stated that these men are now covered by a working agreement between the International Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and the management of the Canadian government railways.

Mr. Murray also charged that Mr. Mosher had the sole right to represent maintenance of way men, and letters in support of his statements were read from the minister of railways and from General Manager Guellet, together with copies of letters of warning alleged to have been sent out by Mr. Mosher.

The Halifax Trades and Labor Council endorsed the action of Mr. Murray, and the executive was instructed to draft a letter pledging him every support and to send copies of the same to Premier Borden, the minister of railways and A. K. MacLean, M. P.

POLICEMAN MARSHALL MAY HAVE TO FACE ANOTHER CASE

Frederick Gleason, Saturday.—As a result of his treatment of Abraham Zall, a local Jew, engaged in purchasing hides in the market this morning, Police Officer Charles Marshall, an ex-St. John policeman, will likely face a charge of assault in the police court. Zall had purchased two hides from a farmer in the market and had taken them into the market building to weigh them. He placed one of the hides on the scale and left the other on the floor, while he went out of the building to get the man from whom he secured the hides. Marshall met Zall near the door of the building and told him not to leave the hides on the floor. The Jew went on to explain but Marshall grabbed him by the throat and threw him down the stairs leading into the building. Zall suffered painful bruises about the knees, besides having his trousers torn. He made his way to the police magistrate's office, but Magistrate Limerick was just going into court and told Zall to see him in the office this afternoon. Zall said that he would lay information against Marshall.

Was Covered With Boils

Could Not Get Rid of Them Until He Used BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.

When the blood becomes impure the first symptoms which manifest themselves are a breaking out of the various forms of skin trouble such as boils, pimples, abscesses, ulcers, etc., and the only treatment you can use is some sort of a good blood cleansing remedy which will put the blood into a perfect condition, and thus eliminate all the different poisons from the system which cause these different eruptions to occur.

The best blood cleansing remedy on the market to-day is Burdock Blood Bitters. All we ask you to try it and be convinced. Thousands have used it during the past forty years, and have nothing but praise for its curative powers.

Mrs. John Fitzgerald, Plantagenet, Ont., writes: "I am an old woman who cannot speak too highly of Burdock Blood Bitters. I was covered with boils, and could not get rid of them. I was advised by a friend to try B.B.B. which I did, and I can truthfully say that it completely cured me. I have never had a sign of a boil since."

See that our name appears on both the label and wrapper as there are many imitations placed on the market which are said to be "just as good."

Immigration Invasion After War To Bring Problems and Dangers

The following is a portion of an address by J. S. Woodworth, secretary of the Canadian Welfare League, delivered before the Winnipeg Canadian Club, on "The Immigration Invasion After the War—Are We Ready for It?"

The phrase "immigration invasion," is no scare headline. So far as numbers go, the future of Canada lies, not with the native-born Canadians, but with the immigrants—possibly with our foreign immigrants.

At this time in the discussion of all subjects there is only one startling place—the world war. With every important topic two questions present themselves, "What is the relation of this to the war?" and "After the war, what?"

This war has clearly revealed to us what we had only begun to suspect—that we had in our midst large numbers of uneducated aliens who might at any time cause a serious disturbance within our body politic.

But now that registration of aliens is considered necessary, now that many Germans and Austrians in Canada are under guard, now that the mayors of some cities are apprehensive of foreign outbreaks—now we begin to realize the seriousness of our problem.

The danger now to be guarded against is that a sudden panic may lead us to take extreme positions and thus intensify and perpetuate racial bitterness and animosities.

From the political standpoint it is evident that there will be very great changes and very serious dangers. The recent civic elections reveal to us the strength of the foreign vote. Never before were the national lines so sharply drawn or were there greater bitterness.

From the social standpoint we must remember that each nationality brings with it its own social customs and ideals. Which will prevail? From the industrial standpoint, there is the serious question as to whether with such a rapid influx Canadian standards of living can be maintained.

From the religious standpoint, there is the serious question as to whether with such a rapid influx Canadian standards of living can be maintained.

year, 189,000, or a decrease of 22.54 per cent. From other countries the immigration was 184,720, as against previous years, 119,281, or an increase of 19.35 per cent.

You will notice that whilst there was a decrease in immigration, both from Great Britain and the United States, there was an increase in our non-English immigration.

Little in Common. While we superficially class all these peoples as foreigners, we must remember that in reality each is a foreigner to all the others.

Religious Standpoint. From the religious standpoint what will be the outcome? For it must be remembered that most of our foreign immigrants do not belong to the churches which are at the present time dominant in this country.

What Goodyear Means An Unusual Story of a Canadian Industrial Of Special Interest to Motorists, Truck Owners, Motorcyclists and Manufacturers

How it grew from a small room to a large plant. Four-man pay-roll is increased to 800-man pay-roll in five years. An investment of a few hundred dollars grows to one of millions.

THIS is not a story of old times. Modesty prevents us from claiming all we could. But we do believe you are interested in success stories such as this.

We think you will agree when you read this, that there is surely a business opportunity in Canada more law-abiding and honest.

When four Goodyear employees worked together in a 12x12 room at 85 Queen Street, East, Toronto, in 1910, little did they hold an enviable position in the Canadian manufacturing world.

Today the big factory at Bowmanville, thirty-two miles from Toronto, has proved that modest beginnings can lead to great success.

The public confidence in Goodyear products is such that the Goodyear plant at Bowmanville has a waiting list of orders for tires.

Today the plant is set in a tract of 35 acres, and has a floor space of 116,224 square feet. The pay-roll has reached a maximum of 718 employees.

Right Inner Tubes. Goodyear Laminated Tubes are built layer on layer. This prevents heavy tubes from porous rubber.

Economy for Truck Owners. For many years Goodyear engineers have been developing truck tires. Thousands of dollars have been spent in tests and investigations.

Goodyear Motorcyclist Tires Give Extra Mileage. Men thought no better motorcycle tires than Goodyear could be made.

"Blue Strak" Bicycle Tires Built for Rough Going. Goodyear "Blue Strak" Bicycle Tires are made in the same factory by the same experts who make the Fortified Automobile Tires.

Goodyear Mechanical Goods. The Goodyear plant at Bowmanville does not make tires alone. We manufacture Mechanical Goods for factories, mills and power houses.

Fortified Tires. In a few costly ways that no other maker has—Goodyears are fortified against all major tire troubles.

These are the five reasons why every Canadian motorist should use Goodyear Fortified Tires. These features can be found in Goodyear tires.

1. No-Rim-Cut feature combats rim-cutting in best way known. 2. Canvas elements are avoided by our "On-Air" cure.

3. Less weight and resistance by forming in the shape of large rubber rivets. 4. Security against blowing off the rim and tube pinching.

5. The AE Weather tread combats puncturing by being tough and thick. It resists chafing as no other tire does by its sharp-edged, building grip.

These are the reasons why Goodyear Fortified Tires excel all other makes. Every tire trouble brings you nearer to Goodyear. They have averaged best in every Province.

He will, however, also take the precaution of having them disinfected a second time. He has arranged for the programme of stake races in connection with the seven days' Exhibition meeting, and the purse races will be announced later.

"The Lily of the Valley"

This production has been thought of so highly by the General Film Company that it has been placed on the "MASTERPIECE" release list—a distinction well merited, for it is a compelling, pathetic story of fine photo-dramatic value, and is vividly produced. It depicts realistically the strife between the workers and the headstrong owner of a large factory, whose chief interest is centred in profits, little attention being paid to his employees. There are thrilling mob scenes and sensational clashes between them and the militia. There is strong love interest running through the story, which ends with a terrific climax. The depicting of the mob by the militia, who use a machine gun, is one of the most striking scenes ever taken.

REVEALS HOW FRANCE KEPT '73' GUN SECRET

Official "Traitor" Tricked German Spies With Another Cannon.

(Correspondence N. Y. Sun.)

Paris, March 18.—A very interesting account of how the famous "73" gun escaped being appropriated by the German spying organization maintained in France is told in Le Correspondant.

It was in 1898 that Commandant Depret, began and in 1899 that he finished his work of constructing the gun that has proved of incalculable assistance to the allies. The fear of German spies hindered, however, the process of the experiments, and the question of how to evade the strict eyes of the German spies in France was becoming of the utmost importance.

The duty of leading the Germans upon the wrong track fell to General Deloye, then head of the ordnance department. The plan he adopted was to order one of his own confidential employes to play the role of traitor.

This man entered into negotiations with a German colonel and was soon able to take to him the model of a new cannon which was then being constructed at the government works at Puteaux. General Deloye displayed a surprising carelessness in making experiments with a new gun, which it was loudly prophesied, would revolutionize the artillery equipment of the future.

Within a short time the German general staff became persuaded that they were in possession of France's greatest military secret, and began the construction of their "73" cannon; but the truth of the matter was that instead of the models and plans of the "73" the Germans obtained the so-called Ducros gun, while General Deloye proceeded to equip the French army with the "73's."

The true facts were kept in such profound secrecy that even in the budget of the war secretary the new cannon was styled an improved type of the Ducros gun.

The squirrel's son had just been ordained, and on the following Sunday he took the morning service in his native village.

He was a young man and very nervous. However, he did his best, and returned to the vestry having accomplished the service to his own satisfaction.

"If I got through the service without a mistake, John?" he remarked to the old clerk, who was helping him off with his surplice.

"It was first rate, Master Dick," said the old man, with enthusiasm. "I don't know as I ever heard it better done." After a pause he added: "But the old parson, he never gives us the evening service in the morning."

ST. JOHN BILLS

Division of City Into Five Districts
New Proposal

It is expected that the St. John bills regarding the proposed change in the assessment law and the petition for a plebiscite on the return to the ward system will be taken up by the municipalities committee in Fredericton tomorrow. There is but little time left before prorogation.
While it is generally believed that the assessment change will not be agreed to by the committee, there is no indication of their attitude on the other matter. Any proposal to change the form of the civic government is regarded by the committee as a very serious matter and they have been inclined to proceed slowly and with due deliberation.
In addition to the request of the petition for the return to the ward system and the counter-representations in favor of the commission form the committee has received communications from citizens who are in favor of neither and who want a change to something entirely different.
The committee has been inclined to receive any and all suggestions. So one of the proposals put forward is the division of the city into five districts with two or three representatives from each to form the common council.
It has been intimated that if the committee granted the request for a plebiscite that the vote would not be taken until the next city elections. The promoters of the petition are opposed to this, as they want a vote immediately.

SHOCKING CONDITIONS

REVEALED TODAY IN POLICE COURT CASE

In the police court this morning Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Peters, Ernest Peters, John McInnis alias O'Leary, Russell Baird, Kathleen Peters, aged thirteen years, Mary Peters, aged twelve, Bertha McDonald, aged fourteen, and Ida Peters with an infant child, all appeared to answer the charge of being inmates of a house of ill-repute. Peters pleaded guilty and the rest not guilty.
Sergeant Sullivan said he and other policemen went to the house and while standing near the windows heard cursing and swearing and angry talk inside. Later when one of the defendants went to leave the house they arrested him and went into the house. They found the father and mother, the son and the soldier O'Leary there under the influence of liquor. He said it was the dirtiest and worst looking house he ever entered during his experience on the police force. He said there were twelve in the family and there were only two old beds, a table and a few chairs. The father he said had not worked for months and had been drinking heavily.
Special Patrolman McBride corroborated the statements of Sergeant Sullivan and in addition said he discovered one of the soldiers hiding behind a door when he was searching the house. He also found fifteen or more empty gin bottles in one of the bedrooms.
Special Patrolman Barrett said he went to the house on three occasions and, being unable to get in, he crawled under the house and while there heard cursing and bad language. He also heard talk about drinking and in particular distinguished the woman's voice.
Sergeant Smith told about watching the house and having to go there on several occasions to quell disturbances.
He said the general reputation of the house was bad.
Mrs. J. Gullfoyle said she owned the house and occupied the flat above. She said that drunken soldiers frequently visited the house and created a disturbance; negroes also visited the defendants.
Kathleen Peters said that soldiers frequently visited her house and drank liquor. They sang and drank and sometimes got into a fight. Her father, she said, frequently went out and purchased liquor for the soldiers.
John Gullfoyle told of attempting to stop soldiers from fighting in his yard. He also saw women lying drunk in the Peters flat. Soldiers were also lying around drunk.
Russell Baird swore that he went to Peters house to get him to go to work. While there the place was raided. He said he knew the family having boarded there for several days. He was fined $50 or three months in jail, which was allowed to stand against him.
Fred Gotwa and Frank Vankeden, two Belgians, arrested on charge of fighting in Britain street, were remanded for witnesses.
James Poner, William J. Ritchie and Sergeant Caples testified regarding the trouble.
Charles Izard of Sheriff street, appeared to answer a charge of stealing a show from Frank Barrett. He pleaded not guilty. Witnesses will have to be summoned.
Mary Hickey, arrested on charge of occupying from the Evangeline Home and also for stealing some clothes, was sent to the Home of the Good Shepherd. Neither case against her came up in court.
