

TROTZYK STAFF ALL CAPTURED

He Escapes by Clinging to Car of Moving Train—The Russian Situation

Copenhagen, Oct. 25.—The entire staff of Leon Trotsky, Bolshevik minister of war and marine, in describing the Soviet counter offensive and captured of Pavlovsk, south of Petrograd, and the repulse of anti-Bolshevik forces in the Pskov sector, says: "The danger hanging over Petrograd has been driven back but not yet definitely removed, according to a wireless despatch received here from Moscow."

London, Friday, Oct. 24.—Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik minister of war and marine, in describing the Soviet counter offensive and captured of Pavlovsk, south of Petrograd, and the repulse of anti-Bolshevik forces in the Pskov sector, says: "The danger hanging over Petrograd has been driven back but not yet definitely removed, according to a wireless despatch received here from Moscow."

London, Oct. 24.—Military experts here say there is no cause for anxiety because General Yudenich's offensive has slowed down, declaring he is either resting or awaiting reinforcements. They call attention to the fact that every great offensive must have breathing spells.

There is no disposition here to minimize the determination of the Bolsheviks to fight for Petrograd to the last ditch, and it is believed there will be a fierce stand up battle before General Yudenich is able to capture the capital.

Latest advices indicate the Bolsheviks have some thirty thousand troops in Petrograd, and it is here that the hardest fighting is expected, since General Yudenich took their last formidable defense on this side of Petrograd when he captured Gatchina.

Tobolsk, western Siberia, is said to have been captured from the Kolchak army by the Bolsheviks. This report, if confirmed, would indicate an advance of the Soviet army in that sector, as last reports showed them quite a distance to the westward of Tobolsk.

A wireless despatch from General Denikin, the anti-Bolshevik leader in southern Russia, says that two Siberian divisions are proceeding through Odesa to support General Denikin's operations.

An official message received here tonight says that the Russian-German forces continued Friday to bombard Riga with light shells. Little damage resulted.

Reports are that the posse, led by Corporal Stanley of the late police, surrounded the trio in a field there and in a running battle, the one robber was killed and the others captured. Officials said the men secured more than $1,500 from the bank.

FIND SLAIN WOMAN IN BROOKLYN DUNES

New York, Oct. 25.—Huddled at the bottom of a fifteen-foot depression in the sand dunes that stretch along the edge of Flatbush, the murdered body of a woman, well dressed and of apparent refinement, was found by two boys at play. It was thought at first that the woman had been murdered where the body was found, but after an examination of the body it was decided there was little doubt that she had been killed at some other place and her body taken to the dunes where it was found.

The sand dunes are in a lonely place, where Winthrop Street crosses East 97th and 98th streets, a few blocks from a habitation. The body might have been unaccounted for days except for the chance discovery.

The lady who came across the body thought at first the woman was intoxicated. When they saw the wounds they can in alarm to the factory of the Stark Manufacturing Company, and told employees of their find.

On the body were six or seven pieces of jewelry, but neither on her neck nor any of the garments was there any mark to establish the woman's identity. Persons who live in the vicinity said the woman was not known in the neighborhood.

The jewelry found on her included a white metal ring with eight stones, a yellow metal ring with a diamond on the outer side, a yellow metal ring with three blue stones, a yellow metal ring with five turquoise stones and seven pearls, and an empty setting, a pair of yellow metal screw earrings with diamond chips, a yellow metal lavallere with three chip diamonds, a yellow metal bar pin with fourteen white stones, and a yellow metal pin chain.

OUR APPLS TAKE LEAD TO THE MARKET Excellent Report is Brought by Mr. Turney—Prosecutions For Game Law Violations

Frederick, Oct. 25.—New Brunswick apples arrived on the Montreal market in better condition than those of last season, and Quebec, this season, according to information received by A. G. Turney, provincial horticulturist, who has just returned from Montreal. He was pleased to find the fruit packed and shipped by members of the New Brunswick Fruit Growers' Association, arriving in perfect condition. It is essential that all apples sent to that market be properly packed and well packed.

Recently there was a drop in the price of apples at Montreal, due to heavy arrivals of Indiana apples from Ontario and Nova Scotia. These apples are about finished however. All season fruit from the trade of apples from this province as the best on the market is most gratifying. The market is capable of indefinite expansion if the high standard is kept up.

After Having Skull and Spine Fractured

New York, Oct. 25.—After being knocked down by a big motor truck last spring, the accident resulting in a fracture of the skull, and two fractures of the spine, and spending ten weeks in a hospital, and another ten weeks in a sanatorium at Bellevue Hospital, where surgeons despaired of his recovery, Captain Alexander E. S. Hamilton, who is fifty-seven years old, arrived in port this week in command of the White Star Celtic. He was described by T. W. Atkins, the ship's physician, as the surgical marvel of America and England. Several members of the International Marine Company met him at the pier and congratulated him on his return in command of the liner.

One of the first cabin passengers was H. B. Livingston, British Vice Consul at San Francisco, who had not been provided with a passport by the Foreign Office in London and had to remain on board all night until arrangements could be made with the State Department at Washington for him to land.

Another passenger was Lieutenant William G. Taylor of the 210 Squadron of the Royal Air Force, who was accompanied by his mother, the wife of T. C. Taylor, chief of the Bureau of Plant Industries, Washington, D. C. Lieutenant Taylor joined the Air Force in 1917 and saw service in France during the German offensive in 1918. After the armistice he was sent to England as an instructor, and on May 1, 1919, he had a fall at Salisbury Plain. He was unconscious for several days, and his mother went from Washington, to nurse him. The sight of her standing at his bedside restored his memory, according to the doctors.

EDUCATION.

President George D. Strayer, of the National Education Association of the United States, recently outlined a plan to make education in this country truly serve the purposes of democracy. He says:

"The United States must develop a system of public education (1) which will remove illiteracy; (2) which will provide for the Americanization of every foreigner who would continue to live among us; (3) which will include a programme of physical education and health service, providing for every boy and girl an opportunity for normal physical growth and development; (4) which will guarantee sufficient support for public education to make possible a well-equipped school in which a properly trained and adequately paid teacher will teach for a minimum of one hundred and eighty days in the year; (5) which will make compulsory education to eighteen years of age, on full time for boys and on part time, in daylight hours, on the employer's time, for those who work between sixteen and eighteen years of age."

This programme involves school attendance for every boy and girl; the replacement of boy and girl teachers by mature instructors thoroughly trained and well paid; and more attention to the health and the physical development of all pupils. It involves also the continuation school for boys and girls up to eighteen years of age. It strikes, as the New York Evening Post observes, at the fundamental defects of public school education as it exists today.

It is rendered the more timely and striking by the fact that investigation by a federal commission has shown that one-fifth of the adult population of the United States can neither write an ordinary letter nor read a newspaper. In Canada the Dominion census of 1911 showed 17,500 illiterate males of Canadian birth, over twenty years of age.

The great educational crisis in Winnipeg was not called too soon. A national movement is needed to arouse the people and ensure more attention to governments to a state of affairs which blocks the wheels of national progress.

NEXT WEEK'S DRIVE.

Canadian Finance thus reviews the record of previous Victory Loans:

"In 1916 a war loan was floated and the government asked for $50,000,000, and the people applied for $103,729,500. In 1916 a further call was made for $100,000,000 and the response was applications totalling over $200,000,000. In March, 1917, $200,000,000 was offered to the government when they only asked for $150,000,000. The first Victory Loan floated in November, 1917, secured applications amounting to $419,280,000, although the amount called for was only $150,000,000. Last November all previous records were shattered when the second Victory Loan campaign went over the top! Three hundred million was asked for by the Dominion government and the Canadian people rose to the occasion with the mighty offering of approximately $700,000,000."

Canadian Finance adds that "the 1919 Victory Loan must and will place all former accomplishments in the shade." Why? Because "upon the success of the 1919 Victory Loan depends the continuation of the business prosperity of this country. Its success will keep our manufacturers busy, our distributors active and our labor employed."

Next week St. John people will be asked to join in the nation-wide demonstration of patriotism by subscribing to the extent of their ability for Victory Bonds.

THE PORT OF VANCOUVER.

The people of Vancouver and of the neighboring municipalities are not satisfied with what the Dominion government is doing for that port. In June last $5,000,000 was voted by parliament to develop and improve the shipping facilities at Vancouver, so that foreign trade might be developed and employment given to returned soldiers and others. It is now declared that because of the government's failure to carry out the programme the port is suffering. A resolution forwarded to the government says:

"At least two large shipping and manufacturing companies have endeavored for some time to obtain wharfe facilities on Burrard Inlet, but so far have received no satisfaction; and as one of them has received inducements to locate in Seattle or Portland, it is absolutely necessary that facilities be at once provided so that said companies may be retained here."

Vancouver and St. John have a common grievance. The appeal of St. John for the facilities necessary to handle the traffic which rightfully belongs to the port favored by the short haul has not received the attention it deserved. The citizens must insist upon an end of the delay.

With more than nine thousand women registered as voters the politicians of St. John must hereafter reckon with a new and interesting element in political affairs.

FIZZLED OUT.

Don't recall the will commotion of a little while ago, when we had a sort of notion that the profiteers would go? We resolved to prosecute them and to prison them and to shoot them, and to treat 'em rough and boot them; where's that movement, do you know? Where are now the learned attorneys whom we often used to meet, as they made their dragging journeys to the court-house and repeat? How they used to roar and thunder, how they'd stamp the price hogs under, and deprive them of their plunder, in the name of Mike and Peter. Are the profiteers in prison, where we said we'd put them all? Is the hoarded getting his dragging, his chair and his bail? Is the market's greedy ruler resting in the muggy cooler, or is Justice, with his picture to the wall? I am overcharged with my dollars to the soulless profiteers; I am overcharged for collars and for wadding for my ears; I am overcharged for sweaters and for ink to write my letters, and no buccannier in fetters to my wistful gaze appears.

THE BATTLE OF CHATEAUGUAY

On October 26, 1812, in the war between the United States and the British in Canada one of the most brilliant victories won by the British was at Chateauguay, Que. On September 22 General Hampton, in command of Lake Champlain, had entered Canada at Odelltown with more than 5,000 men. Finding that he was opposed by the outposts of De Salaberry, the famous British fighter, he retraced his steps and made a fresh advance from his point of invasion by the roads leading to Chateauguay. De Salaberry with a small force of 400 Canadian Fencibles and Voltigeurs advanced again to meet him at Chateauguay fortifying the ground he chose with a block-house and an abatis. Here he was unexpectedly reinforced by the gallant McDonnell who had won great fame at Odensburg. He had been rushed from Kingston to the defense and had made almost a record rapid march to help his fellow commander.

On the 26th of the month the two forces of Americans, numbering more than 7,000 men, advanced to crush De Salaberry, being ignorant of the arrival of the fresh troops. While one column met and dispersed a small number of Beauharnois men, the second struck the Voltigeurs, who were driven back upon the second line in most places. But De Salaberry with a drummer boy sounded the advance in face of the enemy. McDonnell was ready, however, and by attacking the flank of the Americans he increased by the use of a light battery to smash the Americans. This feat was increased by the use of a light battery in the defense troop. The Americans broke and fled, and when the militia moved forward it was met by a furious artillery fire. The United States officers, who were engaged in organizing a great army and so ordered the retreat. The brilliant victory of the small French Canadian force ended the invasion of Lower Canada.

On Oct. 26, 1886, a monument was erected to the brave soldiers who fought the decisive struggle.

OCTOBER.

(Rev. George Scott.)

An amber mist on the hills,
Down in the vale a gauzy fold
Of silver fog the spaces fills,
Betwixt the purple and the gold.

And over all the sun shines fair,
The clouds sail in an azure sea;
The light winds come and go and bear
Faint whispers of far melody.

October's heart is sound and sweet,
October's heart is good and wise;
Such recollections can only meet
Where one that's fair and holy dies.

The leaves are falling yet so slow,
So quiet in the woodland lane,
So dimly seen you scarce can know
The droppings of the gentle rain.

A chastened feeling fills the mind,
That is not sorrow but regret;
So we recall the greetings kind
Of one but yesterday we met.

Oh, so fair summer comes and goes,
So fast the years steal on apace;
And summer into winter flows,
And winter into winter's grace.

October's heart is sweet and sound,
October's heart is wise and good;
Sing to our hearts her joyful mood.

LIGHTER VEIN

What He Thought.

A woman hailed a street car conductor in the excited manner customary with many of her sex, but the car did not stop until some of the people inside had called attention of the conductor to the fact that the woman wished to enter. As she got in she glanced at the man indignantly.

"Why didn't you stop the car for me?" she snapped.

"How was I to know you wanted to get on?" asked the conductor.

"Didn't you see me swinging my arms and jumping up and down waving my umbrella?"

"Of course. Could any one help seeing you?"

"Then why didn't you stop?"

"Because I thought you were dancing to that street organ!"

"I don't know what the young man of today are coming to," said Mr. Smith. "In my young days there wasn't any need for all this courting. The girls then—"

But he was cut short by the cool scolding which Mrs. Smith accidentally dropped on his toes.

"I was only going to say, my dear," he remarked when he had recovered his composure, "that I wish the young fellow who is calling on Christabel would go away, and get the house shut up, 'til his past midnight."

At that moment there entered the small boy of the household. He had been, for the last hour or so, behind the draft screen in the dressing room and vowed that he had enjoyed himself better than if he had been at a Punch and Judy show.

"Let's let his fault, pa," said the heir of the Smiths. "He can't go; Christabel's sitting on him!"

A NOTABLE CAREER

(St. Croix Courier)

Word has just been received here of the death in Cuba, on the 18th inst., of Frederick Shelton Maxwell, youngest son of the late J. Henry and Emily Maxwell, Maxwell's Crossing, Old Bridge.

The deceased, as was the case with so many of our young men, left home in youth for British Columbia, where he acquired varied construction experience with the Canadian Pacific Railway.

After fifteen years he returned to New York and became associated with the contracting firm of Snare & Triest, acting as superintendent of construction on many very large projects, such as the McAdoo tunnel, the New York subway, the Hell Gate bridge, and many others.

During the war he built the regular army encampment at Port Oglethorpe, Georgia, and the immense twelve million dollar munition depot at Mettchen, New Jersey.

At the conclusion of this work, he was sent to Cuba to build a railway to the interior for New York interests. Since his death took place at the construction headquarters far in the interior, no details are available. The remains are being brought to New York for burial near his home at Hollis, Long Island. He leaves a widow and family of three sons and one daughter, a brother, Maxwell's Crossing, and a half brother, Harry T. Maxwell, of Minneapolis, Minn. His parents passed away some years ago.

Like most of our Charlotte county boys who have fared forth to venture in other localities he had made good in a large way, both in his profession and as a man of standing in his community. He was a member of the Episcopal church, of the Masonic order, and leaves a large circle of friends and relatives to mourn his demise. He was forty-two years of age.

WHERE REFORM SHOULD BEGIN.

(Christian Science Monitor)

Red Terrors do not materialize in Anglo-Saxon states. But in any state all sorts of grievances are sure to find utterance, and there is a danger of social reform not keeping pace with normally advanced thinking. It is for the purpose of discovering and eliminating all such legitimate grievances, that the British government has set up its conciliation commission, and that the president of the United States has called the industrial conference, now sitting in Washington. If industrial peace is to be maintained, and this is essential to the well being of every country, then the conditions which make for revolution must be utterly exterminated. Therefore the whole world would do well to read, and to read carefully, the proceedings of the Washington conference. Not because there is a coincidence of conditions all round the world, for there is not, but because there is unrest all round the world, and the Washington conference is an honest effort to get at the root

ST. ANDREW'S MEN ORGANIZE.
Rev. F. S. Dowling was at home last evening in his study to all the young men of his congregation and also to many strangers who recently have come to the city. At 7 o'clock about fifty young men, with Mr. Dowling as host, sat down to a daintily served dinner. After the supper, speeches were made by several of those present. The host, in welcoming his guests, said that he hoped they would show the same spirit towards winning the world for Christ as many of them had shown on the battlefield. It was decided to start a Bible class and the following officers were elected: honorary president, Rev. F. S. Dowling; president, Marvin White; vice-president, A. Rankine; secretary-treasurer, W. Wetmore; teacher, A. F. Allen. It was decided to hold the first class on Sunday afternoon in the church study when all young men, and especially strangers, will be cordially welcomed.

TREE-LIKE GRASSES.

A lawn covered with grass higher than ordinary houses is an odd conception in the United States, but in the Journal of Heredity, David Fairchild calls attention to such a growth about fourteen miles from Savannah. It is a grove of bamboo, the planting of which in America has been so often urged. The species is said to be East Indian, but the importation is believed to have been from China or Japan and the first planting, several miles away, supplied the first plant for this grove in 1860. The bamboo grove is unlike any other. The dense deciduous tropical forests of Java and Sumatra, the evergreen fir and spruce forests of Canada, the date-palm covered plains of Australia, the rainy region jungles of Brazil, the date-palm groves of Egypt and the fern-forests of Hawaii are all different from each other, but all have trunks with spreading branches or leaves, agreeing with the conventional idea of a tree. The bamboo, however, is a giant grass. It forms a perfect sort of roots, in spring everywhere sending up new shoots, which come from the ground full sized or six feet high, when they send out their delicate branches of thin green leaves. It, chief claim to favor sets in its varied utility, as seen in the products with which the Japanese amaze foreigners.

Fine weather for the majority of Fall Fair dates this year added greatly to the attendance, which, doubtless, as a whole, was a record for Ontario Fall Fairs.

USE The Want Ad Way

THE BUSINESS COLUMN EDITED BY MANSFIELD F. HOUSE

"Mike" Writes Ads Just as He Talks

Twelve years ago M. H. Loeffler, known around Grand Junction, Col., as "Mike"—started his clothing store $14,000 borrowed capital and decided that he would rest his advertising case on personalized advertising. He would be himself talking to the readers of the advertising. If 1919 continues as it is his sales for the year will be about 1,000 per cent over those of the first year. Each Loeffler advertisement, usually a single column piece, is made up of "Mikograms," and so headed. Each is signed "Mike." There is no formal language in the body nor formal signature at the bottom. But, personal and interesting as they all are, each brings in the merchandise talk as forcibly as the most so-called efficient advertisement written in "undertaker's English." The proof is in the sales—for Loeffler sells wherever the local newspapers circulate. "I was influenced in selecting this style," said Mr. Loeffler, "by the simple fact that you can clip advertisements and when you cut off the name plates of them you cannot tell whose nine out of ten of them are. I believe that an advertisement should reflect the individuality of the advertiser and his firm. Especially in the smaller community." (Continued on page 17, second column.)

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1919

MRS. L. P. D. TILLEY CHOSEN PRESIDENT

Annual Meeting of The Women's Canadian Club Held Last Evening

Mrs. G. A. Kuhring, who has held the office of president of the Women's Canadian Club with the utmost success during the last five years of strenuous endeavour, was accorded a most hearty vote of appreciation on her retirement from office at the annual meeting of the club held last night in the Natural History Society's rooms. Votes of appreciation were also extended Miss Ethel Jarvis, retiring secretary, and Miss C. O. McGivern, who was re-elected treasurer by acclamation. Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley's election to the office of president was unanimous. Mrs. Tilley thanked the club, in a gracious speech, for the honor that had been conferred upon her, saying that she would endeavour to do her best to further its interests.

Mrs. Kuhring presided at the meeting, which was one of exceptional interest and showed that the club is as full of energy and enthusiasm as ever.

Miss Jarvis in submitting her annual report said that the past year had been a most gratifying one from the advancement of the club and 100 new members had been enrolled. She closed her fifth and last annual report as secretary with an original poem which expressed most beautifully the sentiments with which the club, having fought a good fight in lines of war, now looks forward to taking a leading place in obeying the call of Empire work.

Miss McGivern, as treasurer, reported total receipts of $2,283.74, expenditures amounting to $2,128.64, and a balance on hand of $1,055.10. A special contribution of $5 was handed in by Mrs. George McAvilly as an appreciation of a privilege the club had extended her.

Mrs. H. A. Powell reported on the Soldiers' Club work telling of its amalgamation with the Red Triangle. She explained how the club's furniture from the Red Triangle had been disposed of, some being given to the V. A. Ds, and the remainder being given to the Y. M. C. A. to use at summer camps on the understanding that if the club wanted it returned it would be given back.

New members received were: Mrs. Chesley, Mrs. A. P. O'Neil, Mrs. L. A. Conlon, Mrs. Williams, senior and junior, Miss Hunter, Miss McLaren, Mrs. B. Ginter, Mrs. Norton Olive, Mrs. George Drake, Mrs. Dowling, Miss Dowling, Mrs. Lueden and Miss Roberts Robinson.

The following motion, put by Mrs. Kuhring and seconded by Mrs. J. H. Doody, was carried:—"That as in other Canadian Clubs the retiring president be added to the executive as an active member, and that this motion be retroactive in effect." An amendment that the retiring president be a member of the executive for one year only, was lost.

Mrs. Willard Smith spoke of the detrimental effect upon the club of one person holding office for too long a consecutive period. Miss Leavitt spoke of the beneficial effect of having the guidance of experienced officers though she also deprecated the holding of office by one member for too long a period. On Mrs. Willard Smith's motion, a hearty vote of thanks was extended the secretary and treasurer, who have both served the club most faithfully.

By unanimous vote, Miss Grace Leavitt and Mrs. H. A. Powell were added to the executive in appreciation of their unflinching efforts on the club's behalf. Mrs.

There are five simple ways to tell good tea.

First, by the bright copper color of the tea when steeped.

Second, by the exquisite aroma.

Third, by the delightful, refreshing flavor.

Fourth, by the satisfying richness.

Fifth, by the economical strength.

Make a brewing and you will find all these qualities combined in Red Rose.

Red Rose Coffee is generally good as Red Rose Tea

Kuhring and Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, in accordance with Mrs. Kuhring's motion, automatically became members of the executive.

The following officers are nominated by the nominating committee, with convener, Miss Tingey, were then elected by unanimous vote: president, Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley; 1st vice, Miss Fitcher; 2nd vice, Mrs. W. E. Foster; 3rd vice, Mrs. W. H. Shaw; recording secretary, Mrs. Dearden; corresponding secretary, Miss Mary L. Harrison; treasurer, by acclamation, Miss C. O. McGivern. The members of executive elected by ballot were as follows: Mrs. George F. Smith, Mrs. T. H. Estabrook, Mrs. G. Ernest Barbour, Miss Ethel Jarvis, Mrs. S. E. Elkin, Mrs. R. T. Hayes, Mrs. James McAvilly, Miss Tingey, Mrs. F. C. Beattie, Mrs. Courland Robinson, Mrs. John H. Thomson and Mrs. W. P. Bonnell.

The incoming executive was authorized to deal with a request from the Women's Institute that hospitality be extended to its convention delegates next week and reference to the matter of arranging for an address from Mr. Jones of the Overseas Club.

Mrs. Kuhring's address as retiring president was a very real inspiration to the large gathering. She made special reference to the support given the club by the three patronesses, Mrs. Josiah Wood, Lady Tilley and Mrs. William Parsley, by Mayor and Mrs. Hayes, ex-Mayor Frink and the officers of military headquarters, especially Col. A. H. Powell. In concluding, Mrs. Kuhring expressed her heartfelt thanks, love and appreciation of the warm comradeship of her days of office.

Mrs. H. Lawrence moved a hearty vote of thanks extended to Mrs. Kuhring for her willing, gracious and sympathetic leadership. Mrs. D. R. Childs seconded the motion, which carried unanimously.

A pleasant social hour was enjoyed at the close of the evening and refreshments were served under the able co-operation of Mrs. W. P. Bonnell. Mrs. E. Fairweather, secretary-treasurer, reported receipts of $700 from the provincial Red Cross funds and $25 from the Y. W. P. A. and total expenditures of $2,465.72 for the year. Total receipts were $2,283.74, balance, $1,055.10; unrec'd bills, $42.55. Indents from the East St. John and Lancaster hospitals and one from Major Hooper were voted to be filled. The matron of the East St. John Hospital was present and asked that two suits of underwear be given each patient in her hospital. This request was granted and it was decided that the same quantity should be allowed the Lancaster hospital, if wanted. It was decided to ask General MacDonnell to lend military coats for the use of the men in the hospitals. The needs and requirements of the patients in the hospital for nervous diseases are to be ascertained, in reply to a request from Mr. Gage of the D. S. C. R., and, if necessary, visitors will be appointed to visit this hospital. It was decided to appeal for a gramophone and records for River Glade, in answer to Major Hooper's suggestion.

Mrs. H. A. Powell reported for the wives committee. Mrs. C. B. Allan, reporting for flowers sent, specially thanked Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson and several anonymous donors for generous gifts. Mrs. F. B. Ellis reported for the visiting committee, whose other members are Mrs. E. R. Taylor, Mrs. J. V. Anglin and Mrs. W. H. Shaw. It was reported that ice cream had been sent the hospitals at Thanksgiving and it was decided to remember Halloween by sending fruit and nuts. The sum of $25 was voted towards a piano in the East St. John hospital which is being arranged for by Miss Amelia Haley. The report of the Red Cross circle of the Stone church gave an account of generous gifts sent to the Lancaster hospital. Mrs. G. F. Fisher is convener of this circle. An excellent report of the summer's work of the Fredericton Ashburnham branch was received from the secretary, Mrs. Chestnut. It told of a large number of garments made and supplied to the hospital in Fredericton; of money amounting to more than $1,200 raised, including $150 given to the library in the hospital; and also referred to the fact that all men who had arrived in the city consigned to the military hospital had been conveyed from the station to the hospital by motors provided by the Earl of Ashburnham.

ORGANIZE MACHINE GUN BATTALION HERE

In the re-organization of the militia in New Brunswick a new unit is to be included, a machine gun battalion for which it has been recommended that Lieut-Colonel Sanson, of Stanley (N. B.), should become officer commanding and Major H. H. Donnelly, adjutant. The unit will be listed as a city battalion but will be divided among the towns throughout the province, with a membership of nearly eight hundred men and some thirty-six officers.

Headquarters and one company will be in St. John, one company in Fredericton, another in Moncton, and platoons in Woodstock, Newcastle, and in other centres, and in other sections. Training will be done in each of these places, with officers to be appointed from the various sections concerned, instruction in the use of machine guns forming the chief feature of the programme.

Names of other officers in addition to those mentioned have been submitted to Ottawa to form the list but no word has yet been received as to the selection. Colonel Sanson was in France with a machine gun unit as was Major Donnelly, who is at present acting as officer commanding the depot unit here. At a meeting of officers of the local district in the mess in the armories last evening preliminary steps were taken towards the establishment of a garrison officers' club. Much enthusiasm over the project was shown and it is expected that it will prove a successful and enjoyable feature of military life here. Committees were formed, representative of each unit in the local militia, to proceed with the work of organization and to report at another meeting on next Friday evening.

Lieut-Colonel B. R. Armstrong presided at the meeting, with Major S. S. Wetmore as secretary. It was decided to await the report of the committee on constitution and by-laws before proceeding with the election of officers for the year. Various suggestions were offered as to the methods of conducting the club, as to entertainment, furnishings and other matters. It is possible that the first social function may take the form of a dinner or smoker on the anniversary of Armistice Day, November 11, but this matter was left over for further consideration.

The meeting decided to make the club open to all officers in the city, whether B. E. F. or C. E. F., welcoming all as eligible for membership. The mess-room is being nicely and comfortably furnished and when once the club becomes active, the quarters will be found an attractive center for all who join.

Reducing the Staff. Within a few days, the members of the local military district will be reduced to a minimum. The depot unit, at present on duty in the armory cleaning up details attaching to demobilization and discharge of soldiers from the expeditionary forces, is to be discharged. The hospital and casualty units are to be merged and but a very few men will be left to "carry on."

Major Bertram Smith and Lieutenant Roxborough will be "demobbed" within a few days, while Major Donnelly and going on steadily for some time and has now reached about the final stages.

ON THE RIVER
Navigation on the St. John river will in all probability be brought to a close in another month. For the last few weeks the freights have been heavy, especially the upriver freights, and it is expected they will continue so until the steamers are withdrawn. Last fall the steamer Champlain made her last trip to Upper Slemish on Nov. 17. The Hampton came down from Hatfield Point, in the Belleisle, on Nov. 23; the J. Parry from Fredericton on Nov. 21; the Premier from Grand Lake on Nov. 21; the Ocean from Hampton on Nov. 26 and the Majestic from Carleton Place on Nov. 30. With the finding of the little row-boat in which Jacob Bailey of Cedar street set out yesterday morning from Marble Cove for his work at Pleasant Point there is provided more vivid realization of the fight which he put up against the swift running current of the falls in his struggle for life. The boat was picked up below the falls this morning.
The tholepins on one side, that on which he probably pulled his hardest against the strong flow of tide, were broken, both oars were missing and in the bottom were signs of marks from his feet where presumably he had braced himself in a last mighty effort to turn his little craft from the pitch.

THINK ELECTRICAL BYE-LAW DOES NOT FULFIL INTENTION
No Examination Required if Workman Has Five Years' Experience
Solicitor's Interpretation—Admendment is Required to Make the Letter of the Law Conform to Spirit
There is a doubt in the minds of some of the people in the city that the new bye-law which governs the licensing of electricians fills the purpose for which it is intended. The law was passed in order to protect residents against the dangers which might result from the work of inexperienced or inefficient electricians, but according to the interpretation of the city solicitor, all that a man requires to obtain, either an employer or a journeyman's license is to have spent five years or more at electric wiring, when no examination is required.
The following is a copy of a letter received from the city solicitor by the city engineer in reply to his query:—
October 25, 1919.
G. G. Hare, Esq.,
City Engineer, City.
Dear Sir—You and the other members of the board of examiners of electricians have today asked me whether a man who makes application for a certificate as a master or employing electrician in the City of St. John and who produces evidence that he has been working at the business or occupation of electric wiring for five years or more, can obtain such certificate, even though he has only worked at the business as a journeyman and not as an employer.
Reading the by-law I am of the opinion that the question is answered by a paragraph of section 2 which provides that any person who has been working at the business or occupation of electric wiring for five or more years shall not have to undergo such examination.
If it is intended that those who work as journeymen in this business are not to receive these certificates as masters the by-law should be amended to make clear, but as it stands it is a plain declaration that any person who has been working at the business or occupation of electric wiring for the period mentioned is entitled to such a certificate as he applies for without having to undergo any examination.
Yours very truly,
(Sgd.) JOHN B. BAXTER.

GERMAN FARMERS GOING TO MEXICO

Thousands of Immigrants Expected—Large Tract to be Irrigated

Mexico, Oct. 24—Concrete evidence of German colonization plans for Mexico was revealed here with the announcement of an enterprise for the irrigation of 200,000 hectares of land in the Puerte River Valley, in the state of Sinaloa, where thousands of German emigrants are expected to buy small parcels of land on a twenty-year payment plan.

The corporation is being floated by with the support of Gen. Ramon Iturbia, governor of Sinaloa. It is proposed to construct a dam at Saint Blas, securing from the government a concession for the use of enough water from the Puerte River for the proposed colony. The land is declared to be extremely fertile and the plan is being backed by German banks here.

Until a few months ago the water concession for the Puerte Valley was held by the United Sugar Companies of Los Mochis, Sinaloa, headed by Benjamin F. Johnson of Chicago. The concession of the Sugar Companies, granted twenty years ago, was for the use of 75 per cent. of the river's flow, but it is declared to have been decreased to eight cubic metres per second. Promoters of the present irrigation project declare the old concession was reduced because of the opposition of many landholders along the of the river to the companies controlling 75 per cent. of the water while only owning 5 per cent. of the land in that region which could be irrigated.

Strike Wanted. "My daughter practices five hours a day," said Mr. Cumros. "Surely she will become a great artist."

"I hope so. Anyway, I hope she'll soon get far enough along to join a musical union and strike for shorter hours."

THIRD-CLASS TRAVEL ON A CHINESE TRAIN

Guards Toss Passengers Lightly Off—Locust-Ravaged Lands as Desolate as Those Swept by Forest Fires

Our readers know all about cart traveling in China. As many missionaries often do, I was travelling third class, says a writer in the Honan Messenger (China). The reason for this, it has been said, is because there isn't a fourth class. But there is a fourth class now on some lines at least, and very humble men and very mean go by that.

It was pure stinkiness that made me go third class on this historic trip. I had seen away back in my days of study in Canada, and was now returning. It costs money to go to Shanghai and it costs more to stay there, so on the return trip I vowed I would travel third class and so save $16.20. You can do a lot with $16.20 in China, if you have it.

The first night journey to the Yangtze River was a pleasant one. The third class cars were, including the platforms, filled with Chinese passengers and their luggage. Before the train started, the kindly guard allowed me to travel in a second class car, which was very comfortable, especially on a third-class ticket.

On this part of the trip I made friends with a rather pleasant Irishman who was with me on the trip. He was an Irishman and he was with me on the trip. He was an Irishman and he was with me on the trip.

From there on third-class travel was third class. A long board seat ran along each side of the car, with room underneath for ordinary hand baggage. There were a few openings for air, and I secured a seat in the middle of one of these. A westerner needs more air than Chinese, and I was afraid there would not be enough for all.

At one station there joined us a well-to-do family of three with a waiting woman. The young son and heir of four years was evidently born to rule, and he liked it. In small bamboo cages he had two cecidias in lieu of canaries. He ever tried to rest or to study, but the weather with one or more cecidias holding concert beyond your reach is adjacent trees? If you miss the point of this incident, something stimulated those cecidias, and they chirped and sang and screeched louder and rasper than ever; when one stopped to tune up the other opened out "full organ."

To this point we had been travelling on the British-built part of the line, and when we reached the German-built part the guards were changed. It takes from four to six men in China to collect tickets on a train. First comes the shaker-up, then the guard proper who punches the tickets, then the man who watches the guard to see he doesn't cheat and an armed guard or two or three bringing up the rear. Our new guards were big strapping fellows, but very rough in their manner and they hustled him out of the car.

In a day and two nights journey food was a necessity. At many of the stations fruit and Chinese foods could be purchased, if one could only get to a door to get them. Apart from this, however, there was a restaurant car or wicker, and a man often came through our car, clanking as best he could over the mounds of baggage, selling boiled rice and scrambled eggs served on soup plates instead of bowls.

In another humble way the same man ministered or tried to minister to the comfort of the passengers. The dust and dirt of a third class box are indescribable, and a wash would give great relief. From time to time this man brought around small bath towels wrung out of hot water. Such a towel makes an ideal wiper, but also, the towels that day were working over-time, and the ideal had become lost.

At last the wearisome journey was over, and we had reached the haven of Tientsin, where a tub, inviting food, and a clean bed awaited us. We saved the $16.20, but we lost forever the joy of third class travel.

Brings Delegates. Halifax, Oct. 24—The Mauritania brought to the port today seven British labor delegates to the international conference at Washington. They were Stuart Bunning, M.P., C. W. Bowerman, M.P., James Scoble, M.P., Tom Shaw, M.P., Alfred O'Connell, M.P., Miss Mary McArthur, and Miss Margaret Bonfield. They proceeded to their destination tonight by special train.

HINT OF GREATEST INDUSTRIAL WAR

Washington, Oct. 24.—What may prove one of the greatest industrial battles in history was believed by some observers here to be forecast by the announcement today of Samuel Gompers, that a conference of the heads of the 112 international unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor would be held in Washington "in the near future" to discuss present and pending disputes.

Co-operation of the four big railroad brotherhoods and the farmers of the country as well as the labor organizations of Canada probably would be sought, it was said, in furthering what ever programme the union chiefs decide upon.

Mr. Gompers' announcement was contained in a telegram to the Illinois Federation of Labor at Peoria. His message was in reply to one in which the Illinois organization asked that a special convention of the American Federation of Labor be called to perfect an alliance of the international unions of the United States and Canada and the railroad brotherhoods "more effectively to fight out the life and death struggle of the workers now in progress." Federation officials also pointed out that the Illinois branch proposed that the aid of the farmers be enlisted and that assessments aggregating one-fourth of the net earnings of organized workers be made "until the objective of this drive be accomplished."

New York, Oct. 24.—Plans for assessing the organized clothing workers of the United States and Canada to support the steel strikers will be discussed tomorrow by William Z. Foster, secretary of the steel strikers' national committee, and officers of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, it was announced tonight by Amalgamated officials. It was stated that an assessment which will insure the strikers "great financial support for the duration of their contest with the steel trust, would probably be raised."

Ottawa, Oct. 24.—It is stated here that the Hon. C. W. Robinson will go to the International Labor Conference at Washington on behalf of New Brunswick. Only four Canadian National delegates are permitted, and they are to be Senator Robertson and Hon. N. W. Rowell for the government, S. B. Parsons for the employers and P. Draper for the employees. In addition the provinces and the various groups can send advisors. It is in that capacity that Hon. Mr. Robinson will be going.

FORD INVENTS FAST MOTOR STREET CAR

Seventy Miles an Hour, He Declares—From Detroit to Chicago Ahead of Wolverine Flyer

Detroit, Oct. 23.—An internal combustion engine to be used on street railway cars upon which Henry Ford has been working for several months has been completed, and with it he expects to revolutionize transportation by the street railway and interurban route.

It had its first try-out in the Ford experimental shops at Dearborn.

Both Mr. Ford and his general manager, Charles E. Sorensen, said they were delighted with the trial tests and confident that their conservative estimates as to power and speed will be considerably exceeded.

Henry Ford said: "I am convinced that this motor will make it possible for cheaper and faster transportation." Charles Sorensen said: "Mr. Ford and I have worked long and hard to get a finished job which will cut weight 50 per cent. We have won."

Present plans call for the sending of the first street car over the Michigan Central tracks at the speed of seventy miles an hour. It will leave just ahead of the Wolverine flyer, the fast train between Detroit and Chicago, and race it for a time record. The test will probably be made within forty days.

New Type of Motor.

The power unit which will move the car represents a new combination of functions. It is a motor, an air compressor, an electrical generator and a heating and lighting plant all in one.

All operations necessary for the control of the car are centred in the motor. And all this is accomplished with a 75 per cent. reduction in weight as compared with the power and control equipment of the ordinary electric car.

The motor is of the double opposed type and generates its own electricity for ignition and lighting. Opposing pistons are linked to the same throw and entirely new designs of linked rod are used.

The power that moves the car also compresses the air for the brakes, and generates electric current for the lighting and signal system, while a fan, bolted to the front end of the motor, draws air in through the housing of the motor, where it is heated and then exhausted through heating pipes to warm the car. This point—the heating of a car by motor exhaust—is very interesting.

Front and Rear Drive.

Another feature of the new car will be the front and rear drive, the power being transmitted by light flexible shafts to both the front and rear trucks.

The power plant of the new type of car weighs about 1,150 pounds. The whole car will weigh, when completed, about seven tons, as compared with the twelve to fourteen tons of the present type of electrically equipped car.

The rate of speed to be produced will depend entirely upon the rate desired. The car can make seventy miles an hour. It is a matter of gearing to reduce that to whatever rate of speed the regulations of a city or an interurban line may call for. There will always be excess power available.

Several cities which have street railway problems have invited the Ford people to demonstrate the cars on their streets.

A feature which will appeal to cities which have hilly streets is the hill climbing power of the car. It can ascend a 3 per cent. grade at twenty miles an hour on high. The car is equipped with both air brakes and foot brakes.

THE HOME-WORK PROBLEM

(Bosher City Star)

Some teachers complain that with the wide variety of the present day curriculum and the over-crowded classes in many schools home-work is absolutely necessary if the pupils are to be kept up to schedule. No doubt there is much in this contention, but the argument might be removed by a revision of the curriculum that would eliminate some of the more or less foolish subjects now taught. Many contend that children are loaded down with a number of courses that really mean little to them except over-work, and that could be dispensed with without injury to the scholar's chances in life.

With the curriculum lightened there would be more time in school hours for work on "regular" subjects. This, in itself, would be an important factor in cutting down the need for home-work now said to exist.

ANOTED artist, whose income is sufficient to provide him with a Rolls-Royce, took one look at the Post-War Maxwell and remarked: "It's a sun-down!" Which is art slang for saying, "It's a beauty."

This artist then went to the telephone and placed his order for one.

But the real great beauty of the Post-War Maxwell was hidden from the eye of this noted artist.

He did not know about the vast improvements made in the chassis, how the electric system has been made well nigh faultless, how a heavier and masterly rear axle has been used, how Hot Spot and Ram's Horn have given the engine a new efficiency, how the emergency brake has been set up on the transmission shaft, nor a score of others that would make a "mechanical mind" forget his dinner.

It's a greater Maxwell than any of the 300,000 of the same type that grace the highways of the world.

PREMIER FOSTER ASKS GOVERNMENT FOR A DECLARATION OF POLICY

Understood That Government Has Indicated That Only "General Instructions" Can be Given Regarding Use of Atlantic Ports, But that "Other Things Being Equal" Canadian Ports Will Get Preference—Feeling That This is Not Satisfactory.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 24—Hon. W. E. Foster, Premier of New Brunswick, now in Ottawa, is keeping in close touch with the developments in connection with the debate on the Grand Trunk Bill. His chief interest is to know how it will affect the prosperity of the Port of St. John, and other ports of New Brunswick, and to get assurances from the government of as positive a character as possible that Canadian Atlantic ports shall be used as much as they can be.

The government, it is believed, indicates that only general instructions of that character can be given to the new board to be appointed if it is to have the freedom as to policy and management that has been promised. Other things being equal, however, the Canadian ports will get the preference.

This, it is thought here, will hardly satisfy public opinion in the Maritime Provinces, and it is pointed out that Canadians in general should not be satisfied with it. The suggestion has been made that prompt steps should be taken—especially by the federal members from the Maritime Provinces—to get a clear and concise declaration of the government's policy in the matter.

HANDKERCHIEF IN EVIDENCE AGAINST LONG

Montpelier, Oct. 24—A handkerchief similar to the one tied around the neck of Mrs. Lusina Broadwell, when her body was found in a garden at Barre, on May 4, was given to George A. Long last February by Edward Barron, of Springfield (Mass.), according to Barron's testimony today in the trial of Long for murder.

Barron testified that some time later, when he was at his sister's home in Springfield, J. R. Wood, of Boston, a detective, showed him a picture of Long, and that witness exclaimed: "That's the guy I loaned my handkerchief to."

A laundry manager had previously testified that the handkerchief found on the body bore the same laundry marks as that on clothing left at the laundry by Barron in February.

VICTORY LOAN LITERATURE IN TWELVE TONGUES

Twelve different languages have been used, including English, French, Russian, Ukrainian, Japanese, Chinese, Polish and Hebrew. There are eighteen different posters, in English and French, covering all themes—inspirational, commercial, industrial and patriotic. There have been 50,000 of each of these posters placed.

Arthur Stringer, the well known Canadian novelist, has written a complete story entitled "The Stranger," which is calculated to prove an effective appeal to all true Canadians.

Three million copies of a leaflet "What you want to know about the Victory Loan," answers every question that might arise in connection with the campaign. Two million pamphlets, explaining how the 1918 loan was spent, have been placed. One piece of literature is entitled "No opposition to the Victory Loan," showing that it is non-political in character. Banners, flags, blotters, automobile transfers, stickers, Prince of Wales' crests, and buttons, will serve to advertise the Victory Loan, 1919.

WOMEN AND INSURANCE

To the Editor of the Times:—Sir, My attention has been drawn to an article which appeared in your paper, also the September issue of the Economist, re an address by Nellie L. McClung at the Life Underwriters Convention recently held at Calgary, Alta.

She said in part:—"The Insurance Companies do not want to insure women. They frankly tell us why. To them womanhood is a disease." Also, "the insurance risk need only to be healthy and of the male sex, to enjoy all the protection and privileges."

It is interesting to note that the insurance companies discriminate between male and female. Some companies insist on the information of the public, and the women particularly wish to state that one of the oldest and best of life insurance companies doing business, makes no discrimination between male and female. It is "equal rates for men and women," but grant absolutely the same privileges to both men and women.

It was very much surprised that the insurance men (?) at that convention did not put Mrs. McClung wise. Trusting you will kindly insert this article in your next issue, and thanking you for your valuable space. Yours truly, A. J. MACHIN, Manager, Union Mutual Life Ins. Co., Portland, Me. St. John, N. B., Oct. 23, 1919.

JUDGMENT IN AUTOMOBILE CASE

(Continued from page 15.) made to Thomas Bell and not the plaintiff. It appears that the plaintiff company, wanting car dealer, Thomas Bell, the vice-president, and Joseph Thompson, the manager of the company, to select one Mrs. Bell, gave evidence, testified that he had some conversation with defendant, who was a dealer in Ford cars, about a car, but mostly about the price, told him the car was for the plaintiff and that Mr. Thompson would have to pay upon it. Nothing apparently was said between them about a warranty.

Mr. Thompson testified that he did not see defendant till some time after the purchase that he went to defendant's garage early in August, 1918. There he saw a man apparently in charge. He did not recollect his name and could not identify the man among the four then employees, being all the then male employees of the defendant, each of whom were in court.

Mr. Thompson, in speaking to this man, was told by the man that he was no new Ford car for sale but on Mr. Thompson stating that Mr. Bell had been negotiating with defendant on the same day Mr. Thompson went again to the garage and saw the same man, who then told him the car was new and had not been used. Mr. Thompson asked him about the car, and a small projection in front of the car, the man pointed to it.

On Aug. 8 Mr. Thompson went to the garage. An employee of defendant took him out in the car as far as the One Mile House, and after proceeding elsewhere, the employee got out and Mr. Thompson took the car to plaintiff's machinery shop at defendant's call. Mr. Thompson then afterwards various minor troubles developed in the car. Sometimes repairs were made at plaintiff's shop, sometimes at the Ford Company's, sometimes at defendant's. Later a witness called by defendant, the price of the car, $672, to and in the plaintiff's name and afterwards sold the car to the defendant's call.

Mr. Thompson on the telephone and asked him to put through payment for the car. Mr. Thompson said there were some minor defects he would like put through before payment. To this the man replied, "Well, we are responsible, it will make no difference whatever by paying for anyone to make any warranty as to this car that Mr. Thompson did not speak to him of the shim till November when the defendant told him if it was really defective it should be fixed, that he called up the Ford Company and from that time they said Mr. Thompson was to go to them."

George Stackhouse, an employee of defendant, testified that the car was not fully assembled when Mr. Thompson took it. He was not mentioned when Mr. Thompson was taken out in the car and that he did not notice the shim till November. John Dickens, an employee, testified that Mr. Thompson had had some minor troubles in the car, but he did not mention the shim. James Milley, an employee, testified that he took Mr. Thompson out on the day the car was taken to the plaintiff's shop in good shape and that Mr. Thompson did not call his attention to the shim. That Mr. Thompson did not know how to fix it. Ford.

I find that the car was a new Ford car, that the sale was to the plaintiff and that the car was not mentioned to him before taking the car from the defendant. It was now that he was told that the car was not assembled, and that it was an obvious and not a latent defect.

he was relieved from doing further work on the car. On cross-examination, Mr. Thompson said he was not present at the car and he could not say that he had spoken to defendant before Sept. 1 on the subject of the car.

Mr. Thompson's son gave evidence that he had not seen his father since the first time he saw the car but did shortly after, soon after the car was got. He was not present when the car was negotiated for.

William Beatty, the only other witness for the plaintiff, spoke of the conversation with Mr. Bell in connection with the car, but he could not say that he had spoken to defendant before Sept. 1 on the subject of the car.

For the defence the defendant called the defendant in evidence at the time of the sale were called. The defendant in his evidence spoke of the conversation with Mr. Bell in connection with the car, but he could not say that he had spoken to defendant before Sept. 1 on the subject of the car.

George Stackhouse, an employee of defendant, testified that the car was not fully assembled when Mr. Thompson took it. He was not mentioned when Mr. Thompson was taken out in the car and that he did not notice the shim till November.

London Street Scenes. It must be difficult for people overseas to form any conception of the scenes in and about London while the strike was in progress. Those who were privileged to visit the battlefields in France while the war was in progress marvelled greatly at the manner in which the British army was provided with all its needs.

It stands somewhere about the six million figure, and the arrangements for provisioning this huge city had to be improvised, in a few days, but in a few hours. Every conceivable type of vehicle was brought into service, an ornate motor car with a pair of distal hung over all the roads leading to the metropolis.

Of course there was a great deal of criticism that the strike had had on the London crowd. It can be explained only on the basis of the fact that, as in the case of the air raids, we rather enjoy of crisis than the amazing good humor of the London crowd.

Hyde Park, as you will have heard, was immediately commandeered by the government to serve as a sort of supply depot for the nation's foodstuffs. The great gates were closed, and peering through the railings you saw astonishing scenes of rationing.

responsibility for all the troubles that now confront the world, poets justice reveals that by this theory, and I am pleased to hear on the best authority that it is anything but true.

The Germans are having a very stiff and lean time indeed. They are really hard hit, and anywhere you may meet a German soldier you will find a sickly sentiment. The country has weathered a bad storm, in the main, thanks to the patriotic and fearless services of volunteers.

Inspired paragraphs about the future of Earl Beatty have been going round the press and whispering everywhere that it turns out afterwards doesn't happen. Here's the truth. It is highly improbable that the admiral will ever go to sea in command again. He will be an old man before Germany or Austria can possibly create a fighting fleet again. Japan and America are unlikely so far as can be seen at the moment to want to fight them.

But Lloyd George wants him to be First Lord. But he isn't fitted for office work, and I think he knows it. The fleet command Beatty had after his marriage was a ship that to put it mildly was built slow. Under his orders she languished for a long time. It was a long time before she was ready to go to sea. They were the sailors. The third officer of their ship had been torpedoed three times, and the starboard side, but both were "quite cheerful."

How are the Germans faring? A question many people in England must be asking themselves, and one to which the foreign news in the daily papers affords little clue, is how the Germans are faring in these days. There is a sort of superstition, born of much empty talk about Teutonic efficiency, that the Germans are managing better than most people to overcome the post-war afflictions. As they are primarily

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM PERMANENTLY CURED. NEW BRUNSWICK LADY GIVES FULL PARTICULARS OF HER RECOVERY.

There are many types of rheumatism, but none more than influenza. It was this kind that almost killed Mrs. Edw. Warnam, of Kent Jct., N. B. Every known remedy she tried, different doctors gave their advice, but the disease increased.

Week and despairing, she was at her bed's end when the remarkable cure of Thos. Cullen was published. This gentleman was cured of rheumatism by "Perrosone." Consequently, Mrs. Warnam used the same remedy. Here is her statement:

"For five years I have been rheumatic. I tried various forms of relief without success. The disease increased, settled in my joints and muscles; these swelled, caused excruciating pain and kept me from sleeping. My limbs and arms stiffened, my shoulders were lame and prevented me from working. Week by week I was losing strength and despairing of finding a cure. It was a happy day I heard of Perrosone. Every day I took Perrosone I felt better; it eased the painful joints, gave me energy and a feeling of new life. Perrosone cured my rheumatism, cured it that not an ache has ever returned. Even damp weather no longer affects me."

Perrosone has power to destroy Uric Acid, neutralize and enrich the blood and therefore does cure the worst cases. Mrs. Warnam's statement prove this.

By removing the cause of the disease and building up a reserve of energy, Perrosone is certain to cure. So, before, isn't it about time to stop experimenting? Perrosone is a CURE, order today, 50c. per box, or $2.50, sold by all dealers or direct from The Catarthozome Co., Kingston, Ont.

Pains About the Heart

ANY derangement of the heart's action is alarming. Frequently pains about the heart are caused by the formation of gas arising from indigestion.

Relief from this condition is obtained by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Chronic indigestion results from sluggish liver action, constipation of the bowels and inactive kidneys.

Because Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills arouse these organs to activity they thoroughly cure indigestion and overcome the many annoying symptoms.

MR. JESSOP SPEAKS ON WORK OF Y.M.C.A.

Far East Calling For More Workers - Striving Incidents of the War

A very interesting lecture on the work of the Y.M.C.A. in the Far East and the accomplishments of our forces on the Eastern front was delivered last evening at the Y.M.C.A. by William Jessop, foreign secretary for the Y.M.C.A.

Mr. Jessop, a large number were present to hear him. George Warwick presided, and in introducing Dr. Jessop, said that the foreign secretary had spent two years in India and had served in Egypt and Palestine with General Allenby. He referred to the fact that money was necessary to carry on work in foreign fields.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

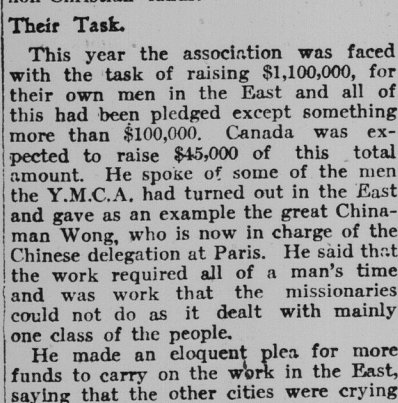

Common garden Sage and Sulphur makes streaked, faded or gray hair dark and youthful at once.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wright's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

MIKROGRAMS

It takes your friends to say horrid truths about you. For instance, I had to make a trip to Chicago to replenish my stock of Blank Brand Operating and to pick up a few snappy Ties, Sox and Shirts.

But my friends insist I went to bid one last farewell to a footrest in the shape of a brass rail, to blow the foam off the top of the last time, so say "I'll take the same" just once more. You know the meaning things your friends will say about you!

But, honest to goodness, I went to buy some new... Brand Clothing and besides I bought 40 to 50 cents per copy, there is a limit suitable to run for school director even on a pull-out ticket—if you don't believe it, ask Charlie Jones or Mrs. Galuppe. Never once have I applied for a permit (Again my friends say that I went after it in person. False again.)

But, my friends, I bought back a real swell selection of real pretty Summer Suits—the kind that always keeps this store of ours at the head of the procession. See some of them in the windows. I would like to see the moon, even though it were dry, if I knew I could buy something good for you.

Mabel McKinley--Niece of the Late President of the United States--Takes Nuxated Iron for Health and Strength

And Says She Regards It as The Ideal Tonic For All Weak, Run-Down Nervous Women

Miss McKinley has a voice of unusual quality and it was following her work singing for the soldiers that she became weakened and run-down. Miss McKinley says she is convinced that Nuxated Iron has no equal as a Strength, Health and Blood-Builder.

Dr. George H. Baker, Formerly Physician and Surgeon Monmouth Memorial Hospital of New Jersey, Explains Why Iron is One of the GREATEST OF ALL STRENGTH BUILDERS.

"I had always been prejudiced against tonic preparations which, for the most part, I found only acted as a temporary stimulant and usually left one more exhausted than when one started. However, when my own family physician insistently recommended that I give a fair trial to Nuxated Iron, I consented to begin its use, with a result that after a few days the weakness and exhaustion from which I suffered began to be replaced by a feeling of renewed strength and vitality. In less than three weeks' time my whole system was tingling with energy and power and I was overjoyed to find that I was once more in superb physical condition."

This contained nothing novel and is based largely on foreign credits, an issue of bank notes and generally increased taxation, both direct and indirect, together with the imposition of a compulsory contribution upon wealth.

VICTORIAN ORDER

Important Matters at Meeting Last Evening—Extension of Good Work

At a meeting of the directors of the Victorian Order of Nurses, held last night at the residence of Mrs. MacLaren in Coburg street, the following resolution was passed unanimously:

"That this Victorian Order agrees to undertake to extend its work in co-operation with the provincial board of health in the way that will best suit the needs of the community."

The meeting was presided over by Hon. J. G. Forbes and, besides a large representation of the board, there were present, Hon. Dr. Roberts, minister of health; Dr. Brown, district health officer; Mrs. R. J. Hooper, of the board of health; Mrs. J. C. Hanington, chief superintendent of the order in Canada, and Miss G. H. chief inspector of the order for Canada.

Mrs. Hanington spoke of the co-operation established between the Victorian Order and the various provincial boards of health in every province, except Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, in the arrangement being found preferable to a federal centralization. She said she had discussed with Hon. Dr. Roberts, who was in Ottawa, the desirability of establishing a provincial nursing service in New Brunswick but that Dr. Roberts had said funds were lacking as yet and the province would have to come to the Victorian Order to provide the personnel for such service. This she said had been done in Sackville and is about to be done in Fredericton.

Hon. Dr. Roberts advocated dividing the city of St. John into districts, each nurse being responsible for the health in her entire district, doing pre-natal work, caring for the mother at the time of birth and following up the child until school age, also keeping watch of all members of the family in the district.

Mrs. Hanington approved of this scheme and quoted eminent English physicians as considering it the best way to carry on such work.

Dr. Brown spoke of the great need of educational and preventive work in St. John and pointed out that the board of health is more or less powerless, with no nursing arm which to organize and carry out this work. He said that if the Victorian Order could be used as an addition to what it is already accomplishing in the city by it in nursing work could be organized and carried out.

It was reported to the police station last night that some Gypsies, who were camping near Kane's Corner, had stolen a horse owned by some of the residents there. The patrol wagon started for the scene but before arriving the missing animal had been returned and the Gypsies had gone.

In the case of John McLeod, being held by Sheriff Fernandez in the Bangor jail, a hearing was held before the emigration officer who will make his report of the case to the secretary of liaison.

The warrant upon which the federal authorities are holding McLeod and upon which a request is being made that he be deported to Canada, was that of Napoleon Paul Martin who has been held here pending action by the United States authorities. He was deported to Canada, Martin was refused admission at St. John on Oct. 17, on the grounds of being an illiterate and entered this country at Calais, Oct. 18. He was later apprehended in this city.

Mission Church Troop.

Troop No. 8 (Mission Church) held its regular meeting Tuesday evening, Oct. 21st, with eighteen boys in attendance. The examiner for Firemen's efficiency badges, Mr. Dismore, was with us, and examined four boys for these badges. He also passed Patrol Leader Verner Hoyt and Scout Thomas Mowry for their first class signalling. During the evening Scout Kenneth Mowry was presented a laundryman's badge and Troop Leader Clarence Hoyt a leather worker's badge; this makes nine proficiency badges presented since we opened this season on Sept. 9.

Centenary Methodist Troop.

Troop No. 15 (Centenary Methodist) held a meeting Friday night, the first regular meeting this year, and have now started their winter's work. The following are the patrols for the coming year: The Lion—R. Langstroth, patrol leader; R. MacKinnon, second; Scouts, E. Skinner, E. Walters, R. Kenney, K. McAlpine, G. Leonard, L. Smith.

The Panther—C. Barker, patrol leader;

The Wolf—S. Goodwin, patrol leader;

F. Gunn, second; scouts, H. Barker, D. Bostwick, T. Gunn, R. Patrick, G. Queen. Two new boys were enrolled, Edwin Walters and Bernard Beas, one being placed in the Lion patrol, the other in the Panther patrol, which now fills up the three patrols and completes the troop, unless there are enough boys to form another patrol. They have chosen their officers and formed their court of honor and are now ready to start work and all seem very enthusiastic as they are expecting to obtain a number of proficiency badges this winter.

Troop Leader Gordon Adams met with a very painful accident on Thanksgiving day, falling from a tree at his summer home at Ketepee where he went to spend the holiday, injuring his knee, and has been confined to his home most of the week. The boys are looking forward to having him back to the troop soon.

A number of the scouts spent two days this week in placing Victory Loan advertising in most of the shop windows.

17th St. John Troop (Trinity).

About the middle of last month the troop held their first meeting of the winter season and are now in full swing working most energetically in every phase of their training. A most successful year is anticipated.

We have been very fortunate in se## curing the services of C. E. Upham and

C. M. Belyea as assistants. Several promising recruits have also been added to the troop.

The following scouts have been elected for the ensuing year: King's Scouts, P. Walsh, troop leader; King's Scouts, P. Johnston, Seeds, E. Walsh, Gard, Whelpley and Scout Pritchard as patrol leaders. The last named is soon to qualify for King's Scout.

The younger boys, those under the age of twelve, have to link up with the movement, organized a pack of Wolf-cubs, and have up to the present an enrollment of sixteen. Of these Eric Clark, Victor Regan and Robert Kelly have been appointed sizers.

Thanksgiving brought a most delightful day for the scouts, who shared their glorious time with the little "cubs." A hike to Prying Pan Lake was their great treat and the cubs who for the first time tasted the joys and glories of such an outing were thrilled to the utmost and their little hearts were overflowing with much happiness. They are anxiously looking forward for another outing.

The harmony of color, richness of fabrics, taste in the selection of appointments denote the worthy craftsmanship of these distinguished cars.

So original in conception that their counterparts are not to be found in current design, they turn future ideals into present realities and stand as noteworthy additions to Cole's significant creations in advanced motor cars.

PLAY TESTIMONIAL FUND FOR CARDINAL MERCIER

New Yorkers of all Creeds to Contribute to Enable Him to Continue His Work

New York, Oct. 24.—Many prominent men of this city, embracing all creeds, have united for the purpose of raising a testimonial fund by popular subscription to be presented to Cardinal Mercier on the eve of his departure for Europe. The minimum amount in view is $10,000, but efforts will be made to raise a much larger sum. The testimonial is to express New York's admiration for the Cardinal as a man and appreciation of his work in the cause of humanity. It is also to enable him to liquidate obligations assumed in the conduct of his Belgian relief and rehabilitation work, and to finance his future efforts in the social reconstruction of his country.

It is known to the members of the committee that Cardinal Mercier has exhausted all of his own resources in ministering to the needs of the Belgian people. The large indebtedness which he has also incurred causes him to be apprehensive about the future progress of his work. His efforts in bringing material relief to great numbers of the Belgian people during the war are well known, but the public is not so familiar with his conduct of trades schools and other work of social reconstruction.

"The committee feels," said George L. Duval, of the executive committee in charge of the testimonial, "that a continuance of the Cardinal's work is not only necessary in Belgium, but is essential to the social welfare of the entire world. He and his labors are regarded as being pre-eminent moral forces. The Cardinal as a steady influence in his own country and in Europe really did a great work for civilization in holding together the moral fabric of the world. It is this recognition of his work that the testimonial will accord."

DISTILLERS' VIEWS OF THE ONTARIO VOTE

Ottawa, Oct. 24.—In the midst of prohibitionist rejoicings over the victory of the four "Nos" at the referendum upon the Ontario Temperance Act comes an announcement on behalf of the distillers of Canada that they are well satisfied with the result of the voting. Their counsel, T. R. Ferguson, K. C., of Winnipeg, points out that they advised their customers in Ontario to vote four "Nos" at the referendum, and says that the result should not be regarded entirely as a triumph for the "dry."

A large number of these who voted against the repeal of the temperance act and against "the sale of spirituous and malted liquors through government agencies," says Mr. Ferguson, were persons who were satisfied with the act, who favored the retention of the provision of the statute permitting importation of alcoholic beverages for domestic use, and who did not approve of the introduction of a new system of selling liquor over the counter. "The distillers of Canada interpret the result as a mandate to the dominion government to allow the Ontario Temperance Act to have free expression without further delay."

SAW WHITE CROSS BEARING HIS NAME ON BATTLEFIELD

N. Y. Boy Celebrates Anniversary of His Miraculous Escape

(New York Post.) This is not generally known to be a day of thanksgiving. But it is being joyously kept in one New York boy who, a year ago today, saw his name on a little white cross in France and knew himself to be still alive and with only a white bandage, instead of a halo around his head. This young man was 110 days in action with the 109th Field Artillery.

It was on a cross-road from Verdun to Damvillers, and he, with three others, was duelling with a German battery. The gun crew had been cut down by casualties from seven to four and all the rest of the battery had its eyes on this gun, the only one in action, and knew just what four men were manning it. A shell dropped and two of the men were blown to small pieces and the man who is today celebrating Thanksgiving was thrown twenty or thirty feet away with a little shrapnel wound in his head. Whitewashed crosses, with identification tags attached, used to rise immediately on the spot where men were so killed that only tags remained and in a few minutes after the bursting of the shell three little crosses had been put up there.

On only two of them that time were tags attached, for this man's tag was being borne off rapidly on a stretcher with him to a field hospital behind the lines.

Before the day was over he was back, but his battery had by this time moved on and the only remnants of it he could find were the three white crosses (faded with the black bow-lies, which most soldiers kept as souvenirs of training days when uniforms were ceremonious. And on one of the crosses was his name. Most people visualize in their mind's eye their final resting place—the kind of gravestone and what will be inscribed thereon. But few have the pleasure of being ghosts, returning to their batteries from the dead—on the run and with a ghastly, ghostly hand around their heads.

SEEKS LUMBERING COSTS. The commissioner inquiring into the high cost of living has addressed a questionnaire to all manufacturers of lumber in Canada. The lumbermen are asked to give information about cost of production, and the reason of the price advances since 1914. A statement issued by the cost of living commission was to the following effect: "Since the housing problem is one of the most serious in the country at present, lumber is one of the necessities which come within the scope of this investigation. The present high price of building materials is having a deterrent effect on building operations. There is a tendency to consider these prices abnormal and temporary. This inquiry aims to find out what increase has taken place in the price of lumber, and the reasons for such increase." The co-operation of the lumbermen is asked by the department in order to secure authentic data.

A MIGRATORY INDUSTRY. Economic waste can be minimized by a proper organization of forests and mines. The lumber industry is not yet one of forestry or "timber culture" as it is in Europe; it is still one of "timber mining." It is a tramp industry and therefore, a breeder of tramps. The migratory lumberjack, or "timber wolf" must remain a hobo until the logging camp is supplanted by the forest community. Forest and agricultural communities can often be organized to gether, writes Benton MacKaye, in a report to the department of labor.
