Arrival of the Steamship

Niagara.

The steamship Niagara arrived at Halifax at 5 o'clock on Tuesday morning, in about 9 1/2 days from Liverpool. Her dates are to the 15th inst. The Express Mail reached the Post Office last evening. The news continues satisfactory.

Flour and Corn were dull of sale, and prices receding. The prospects of the coming harvest continue to be of the same cheering character noticed by previous arrivals.

Cotton had declined 1-8 per lb. Provisions were without change. Coffee had declined 3s per cwt, and Sugar was also about 6d lower.

It has been officially announced that all Post-Office labour on the Sabbath is to be abolished.

M. Thiers has arrived in London, on a visit, to Louis Philippe; the object is stated to be an endeavour to effect a reconciliation between the two Bourbon houses.

The application of the French President for an increase of salary, has been objected to by the committee to whom it was referred.

In Parliament, the Ministry have again signally defeated upon a motion for a Committee to inquire into the mode of levying duty upon home-made spirits in bond. The Chancellor of the Exchequer protested strongly against the motion, but there was found a considerable majority in its favor.

Lord Stanley was to bring in some resolutions on the affairs of Greece on Monday the 17th inst., and the opposition boasted of having majority in their favour.

The Liverpool Journal says:—If they are beaten, it is likely enough that they will make some show of going out.

The Case of Ala. Smith O'Brien.—Sir L. O'Brien called the attention of the government to the state of health and the treatment of his brother Mr. Smith O'Brien, the convict, upon Maria Island, Van Diemen's Land.

The honorable baronet stated that his brother's health was suffering much and described at some length, the regulations under which he was placed in consequence of having refused the indulgence of a ticket of leave.

Sir G. Grey stated, that Mr. Smith O'Brien having positively refused a ticket of leave, the governor of Van Diemen's Land had no other course left open to him than to adopt the regulations which he had taken, without neglecting his duty; but, at the same time, he had indulgence of which the other convicts were deprived. In fact, every indulgence had been shown him which the governor had in his power.

Sir H. L. Bulwer is understood to have officially notified to Mr. Clayton that a secret treaty exists between the British and Spanish governments, by which the former is bound to protect the sovereignty of the latter over her West Indian possessions.

THE GREEN QUESTION.—The Journal Pays says, it is expected that everything will be arranged, and be terminated before Monday next, in order that Lord Palmerston may be able to reply victoriously by facts to the threatened motion of Lord Stanley. As the Pays has always been violently opposed to Lord Palmerston, this statement is considered significant. The Globe's correspondent writes that General Laing's party appears to be waiting for more favourable advices from Russia; it is, however, still probable that the Government may come to some conclusion in the course of the week.

IRELAND.
TENANT RIGHT.—A great tenant right meeting was held in Belfast, on Wednesday. A writer in the Freeman describing the scene, says: "Ulster has unreservedly pledged herself to a union with the rest of Ireland, and we may now confidently expect that the approaching conference in Dublin will represent an amount of power of which even the repeal agitation, in 1843, will fall short. I rejoice to tell you, that Catholic and Presbyterian clergymen met in brotherhood on the platform to day—a happy prelude to what we are destined to see in Dublin in August next. The resolutions were eleven in number. Among the movers and seconders were—10 Presbyterian, two Catholic clergymen, and 10 laymen."

Sergeant Murphy is in the field for the representation of Cork—about to be vacant by the retirement of Mr. Fagan.

The Armagh Gazette says the county was never freer from the influence of the mischievous ribbon system than it is at present.

REPEAL ASSOCIATION.—The rent, for the week ending Monday last, including 11s from Wigan, in Lancashire, was only £4 19s. St. Mr. O'Connell has issued his last appeal or threat to close Conciliation-hall, and promises that he will not come forward again unless the association is allowed to have its own hall. He threatens to sell the whole place, goods, and chattels.

The Pope has sent, as a present to the President of the French Republic, a superb medal enriched with paintings. In the center is a gold cross which belonged to Charlemagne. On the first page of the Moniteur is the following inscription, in the handwriting of the Pope—Dieci-stano Rio Lodovico Bonaparte.

INSOLENT NOTE BY RUSSIA.

The Russian Government has addressed a pointed note in the English Cabinet, repudiating the notion that British subjects, living in Turkey or Naples during the late revolt, have any just claim to indemnity for the losses they incurred during those disturbances. Should such unjust demands be forced by arms, Russia will find itself compelled to vindicate, in the most precise manner possible, the conditions upon which it will grant to British subjects the right of residence and of property within the Emperor's dominions.

The Russian minister observes, that the St. Petersburg cabinet completely identifies itself with the principles which have served as the basis of the conduct of the cabinet of Vienna.

Slacking Outrage.—Mrs. Brown, a woman of the venerable age of 63 years, while returning to Musquodouan from Halifax with a wagon-load of family supplies, was last evening assaulted with a bulgeon, by a Negro, named Lynch, on Wednesday last, near the entrance of the new road to Guysborough. A traveller discovered the poor woman stunned and weltering in blood, shortly after the perpetration of the crime.

The inhuman ruffian beat her on the head so unmercifully as to shatter the skull most frightfully in different places.—On the victim being raised, several persons started immediately in pursuit, and soon overtook the wretch, his fight being doubtless impeded by a bag of meal that he had taken from Mrs. Brown's wagon. When apprehended the victim's blood was discernable on his clothes. He was brought to town, and committed to Gaol on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Brown remained senseless until Thursday morning, when, having partially recovered, she was able to identify the perpetrator, and relate the particulars of the outrage.

Landlady's Accident.—Mr. W. H. Coker, a young gentleman, who was highly esteemed by a very large circle of friends and acquaintances in this city, for his social good qualities, lost his life, by drowning, while bathing in the Delaware, near Riddell's Ferry, on Thursday last. The place at which the melancholy event took place is considered perilous for inexperienced swimmers, as the river-bed, after a gradual descent for some distance, becomes suddenly precipitous; and it is supposed that Mr. C., after having got beyond his depth, was attacked with cramp. Young Mr. McMichael, of this city, who was bathing with him at the time, made every possible effort to save him, even at the hazard of his own life, but unhappily without success.

Mr. Coker was the son of a most respectable gentleman of Halifax, N. S., and was temporarily residing in Philadelphia as a student of law, under the care of John Codrington, Esq. The talents which he exhibited gave promise of high success in the professional career to which he was destined, and it is within our own knowledge, that his personal accomplishments and amiable disposition had made him a general favorite.

The body of the unfortunate man was recovered on Saturday.—[Philadelphia U. S. Gazette, June 24.]

A "Down East" Joke "screed out."—Mr. Spirit, "I never wrote a story in my life, yet, with your permission, I will chronicle one through the columns of your ever welcome paper. The story is true, and set the particular crowd to whom it was related in a roar. Thus it is:—

A M. D., in the town W., in this State, was applied to by an Irishman for the loan of his gun for a day. Pat was unacquainted with his use, and enquired of Mr. D. how to load it. D. supposing that he was quizzing, said he generally put in about two feet of powder and shot altogether! The Irishman took the gun and started for the field; when he was cleverly cut off right by the commencing charging his gun. "By the powers, no! I pity the man that finds game a plenty" was his soliloquy as he emptied the contents of the powder-bag into the barrel. He found on putting down the wad that the "two feet" were coming short. Next he emptied his shot pouch into the barrel, and found that a full ammunition made only a foot and a half of lead altogether. As luck would have it, Pat did not find anything in the shape of lawful game to "empty at," so he brought up at M. D.'s with the gun in prime condition. No question being asked honest Pat respecting his luck, the gun was laid aside and forgotten.

A few days after D. had occasion to use his gun, being in a hurry he glanced at the lock, and seeing that it was capped he pulled the trigger at his object; but no explosion may be imagined. The gun burst into pieces "two hundred yards distant," and the unfortunate Irishman found himself, after an indefinite space of time, looking at the ruins of his gun, as well as his wound, with one eye "banged tight," and his nose, capturing the way over his shoulder, that his first thought was vengeance on the Irishman. When he found him by commencing enquiries as to what the devil he had been doing with his gun—you guessed the answer, you put in powder enough to blow up all the castles in Mexico!

Pat not understanding him, and supposing that he had not put in powder enough, replied "And safe, I put in all the powder and shot I had, and it was full eighteen inches long; if that was not enough, sure, I couldn't help it. Faith, an' you'll be pleased to load your own gun next time!"

Poor D. shut his other eye and left for Canada—the States couldn't hold him.

HOPE OF EARTHLY HAPPINESS

It was a lovely summer day; the sun shone brightly, and the sky was of a deep blue, and all below was joy and gladness; the songs of the birds mingled with the music of the brooks, with the hum of the honey laden bees, and with the gentle rustle of the soft wind, carrying upon it the sweet breath of the homely and the rose. Amid all this beauty and gladness and beauty, a little boy was seen playing in a meadow which was covered all over with buttercups, primroses, and gowan. But their child did not seem pleased; his restless and uncertain steps showed that he wanted something more to make him happy, but what that was he could not tell. As he grew still more unhappy he saw a large butterfly, whose beautiful wings glittered with sparkling gems. No sooner had his eye lighted upon it than he uttered a cry of joy, for he thought he had now discovered what his own longed for. For a moment he gazed with delight on the gorgeous insect, and as its shining wings dazzled in the sunbeams, he bounded forward, that he might seize it. The butterfly was not to be so easily caught; it spread its speckled wings, alighted on another and more distant flower, and the child followed. And thus did it weary him, now flying and now alighting on some tall flower, as if waiting to be taken, but as the eager boy stretched out his hand, certain of making all his beauties his own, it was suddenly up and away! The child continued to follow it with urgent haste and parted tips, and glistening eyes, and growing keener and keener in the chase; for, though he, could I but imagine his beautiful butterfly my own, oh how happy I should be! At last when almost wearied he sought the insect; and in his fear lest it should again fly from him, he rudely pressed it in his hands. And now, having gained his utmost wish, overjoyed, he sat down on a bank of primroses and violets, that at leisure he might examine the really beautiful thing he had caught. But, alas, when it opened his hand, all his hopes were disappointed, and all his labor lost, for the sparkling creature he had so wearied himself in catching, was only an ugly worm, whose gilded beauties soiled his hand. Disgusted, the disappointed child flung it away, and wept himself to sleep.

A burning sun is gleaming upon the scorched sands of Africa, and a lone and weary traveler is crossing that silent region of desolation and death. His supply of water has been for some time at an end, and now he parched mouth and burning thirst he seeks water. Water! Ah he has in the world he now gladly exchange, for one cooling draught, that the intense agony of his parched throat might be appeased. And now as his fatigue and torture make even death desired, there suddenly rise up before him the orange tree laden with its golden fruit, the tall palm, and the graceful acacia, and the ground, far as his ravished eye can reach, is carpeted over with a covering of the freshest verdure, and all around, the delightful landscape there flows a limpid stream of living water, and its murmurs, as it glides over its pebbly channel makes sweet music in his ears. He rushes forward that he may plunge into the stream and live. But, lo! as he thus hurries on this Canaan of his soul flies before him! and yet, as his eyes and his ears could not have deceived him, still does he pursue his pursuit. And now with the fierce sun glaring upon him, trembling with fatigue, with blood-hot eyes, his tongue on fire, and a burning heart, the victim of despair, he throws himself down to die. Alas, foolish traveler, thou hast been chasing the shadowy mirage of the desert, for no grateful trees, no shady glades, no enamelled meads or silvery brooks were there.

And thus, dear children, does it happen to every one who expects to find happiness in the things of this vain world. Like the child chasing the butterfly, earthly happiness

AN INCIDENT OF TRAVEL.

Females often boast of their power to rule and govern mankind, and, indeed, we are inclined to believe there is more truth in the statement than the moon will, as a general thing, admit; but still, little doves, you must do it by smiles, and not by pouts. But to our story.

The cars left Boston at half past five o'clock, P. M., to the minute—for they have to be punctual on this road, as there are over one hundred arrivals and departures per day in Boston depot—the seats in every car were full, and many persons were standing; but as some of them were weary, they were leaning back, and a few miles out of the city, they, as a general thing, voluntarily gave up their seats to the "rough passengers," as they were called, of those going through Worcester, for which, in every instance, they received thanks for their kindness. Arriving at Newton Corner—a little love of place, situated seven miles from Boston—the train stopped into the car, a very fine, manly appearing lady of about thirty-five years of age, but as every seat was crowded, we knew that unless some one should have the politeness to offer her his seat, the fine-looking lady dressed in silks and satins, would have to try her hand—we mean feet—for a time at standing, so immediately rising, with one of those original graceful bows (for which Mrs. Stephens gives us great credit) and a smile that would have done credit to Richard the Third, we very politely asked her if she would accept of our seat.

Well, what do you think she said? She didn't say a thing—but not a thing! But with a strong and will, like a turkey among the weeds, and a saucy pout of the lips, she anchored herself in our seat as though it had been her property for the last two centuries, and she should yet call us to account for our presumption in placing ourselves there at all.

Of course, we felt mighty glad that we gave her our seat, we couldn't help it. It's human nature you know.

The cars, meanwhile, went buzzing along, as though they had been enjoying a Fourth of July ever since they started, and while we were yet to king very affectionately at our lady friend, the Conductor announced Abundant, ten miles from Boston, and here we had another addition to our already crowded load, and among them, a fine, blooming Miss of sweet seventeen, dressed with a fairness that must have given great pleasure to dress-makers in general, and wholesale dealers in cotton particular. Passing into the cars, some three or four seats from the door, she suddenly turned round to a poorly dressed and aged farmer, and exclaimed, in a tone of authority—

"Will you give me this seat, sir?" Of course, the old gentleman could not do otherwise than rise. Not a thank-ee, however, was given, a smile, or even the nod of the head, in acknowledgement of the obligation, but the lovely countenance, that ought to have been to the window to a lovely heart, retained a cold and Indian-like expression of a rovingness—a perfect "I don't care for nothing nor nobody's expression." Noticing that the old man's limbs trembled from long wear and age, and the rapid motion of the cars, we gave a young man twenty-five cents to give him his seat, and we were soon after engaged in a mathematical calculation on the future price of bridges.—[Cor. European Intelligence.

ARRIVAL OF THE U.S. STEAMSHIP PACIFIC.

We are indebted to the Courier Extra, for the following summary of late English news, which was received from the U.S. Steamship Pacific, and transmitted by Telegraph from Halifax to St. John on Saturday last. The Pacific left Liverpool on the 19th June.

The Europa arrived at Liverpool on the 15th and it was expected the Asia would arrive there on Friday night.

ENGLAND.—PARLIAMENTARY.

The House of Lords was the scene of an exciting debate on Monday night, growing out of Lord Stanley's motion relative to the conduct of Government on Greek affairs. Lord Stanley prefaced the introduction of his resolution, by a speech of near three hours duration, in which he contended that he contended that the leading characteristics of the whole transaction with Greece, were prevarication and dishonesty on the part of the Ministry. At the conclusion of his speech, which was loudly cheered throughout its delivery, he made a vigorous appeal to the House not to allow the mighty powers of England to be prostituted in oppressing a weak and almost defenceless power. The Marquis of Lansdowne undertook the defence of Lord Palmerston, but with poor success, as on dividing, the Ministry were left in a minority of thirty-seven in a House of upwards of three hundred.

We have telegraphic advices from London of Wednesday afternoon, at which time nothing was definitely known as to the intentions of the Ministry, but the belief was very general that they would resign.

The Times of Wednesday says, from the silence of the Ministry last night, we are to infer that no notice whatever will be taken of their complete defeat on Lord Stanley's motion.

The second reading and passage by a large majority in the Commons, of the bill for the abolition of the Lord Lieutenantcy of Ireland, leaves no doubt of the final consummation of that measure, should the Ministry not speedily resign.

There is a growing belief that the great exhibition of all nations at London will fail for the want of funds. It is rumored that the Bishop of Exeter, in disgust at the termination of his controversy with the Rev. Mr. Gorham, is about to secede to the Church of Rome.

The Royal Mail Steamship Company have been defeated in the action brought against them by the owners of the "Charles Bartlett," run down at sea by the "Europa" last year.

The growing crops throughout England and Ireland are said to look unusually promising.

FRANCE.

The announcement made on Friday that the Russian Government had protested against the manner in which the Greek affair was terminated by Mr. Wyse, is fully confirmed by accounts subsequently received. M. de Bismarck protested against the forced solution effected at Athens, the moment it was known in London, and that protest has been approved and ratified in a formal manner by the Emperor Nicholas.

The correspondent of the Times, writing on Monday, doubts whether the negotiations between Lord Palmerston and the French Government have advanced to the desired point, the former not having yet agreed to the pure and simple Convention of London, as anticipated.

M. Thiers has returned to Paris from London. Louis Philippe is considered dangerously ill.

The committee appointed to examine the bill for increasing the salary of the President, is session on Saturday, adopted the following resolution:—"An extraordinary credit of 1,600,000 francs is opened for the Minister of Finance, for the expense incurred in 1849 and 1850, for the installation of the President of the Republic. This expense to be allocated half to the credit of 1849 and half to the credit of 1850."

Paris, Saturday evening.—The news of the adverse decision of the committee on the President's salary bill, caused a great sensation in the Assembly on Saturday.

The Globe's correspondent is assured that the President will not accept of any modification in the sum he has demanded, and that he regards the whole as a Legitimist intrigue, got up with the view of provoking a crisis.

Paris, Monday.—At a Cabinet Council held to-day, it was resolved that the Ministers should resign, in the event of the President's salary bill being rejected in the Assembly. The funds were animated. Fives opened 95.15, closed 93.1. Paris Tuesday. The debate on the President's salary will not come on during the present week, to allow parties to come to an understanding. Fives 93.65.

The Tuscan Minister at Paris left for London to advise Lord Palmerston, and to draw the claims of indemnity in favour of British subjects who suffered during the siege of Leghorn.

GERMANY.

The German Journals express considerable apprehensions at the preparations for war, by land and sea, reported from Denmark. They state, that if Denmark marches troops into Schleswig, Prussia will immediately occupy Holstein.

AUSTRIA.

An ordinance for the abolition of the Customs duties between Austria and Hungary has been published; the Government do not, however, propose to relinquish their present monopoly in the tobacco trade.

INDIA.

A terrific hurricane occurred in the Bay of Bengal on the 27th April, which was felt a distance of 1,200 miles. The banks of the river were overflowed nearly as far up as Calcutta, causing immense damage in the destruction of vegetation.

London, 2 o'clock, P.M.—(By Telegraph to Liverpool.)—We have dates from Paris to 7 P.M. Tuesday.—Funds higher—fives closed 95.15, closed 93.1. The understanding that Government and leaders of the majority in the Assembly have come to an understanding on the President's salary, and also upon a rumour that the English Cabinet had been beaten in the House of Lords on Lord Stanley's motion.

It is rumored in Toulon that reinforcements to the number of 3,000 troops, and three steamers, are to be sent to join the expedition of Lepanto.

Marseilles, 12th.—News of the defeat of Lopez caused considerable rise in the funds.—The American steamer Mississipp, and Frigate Independence, sailed for Lisbon in all haste, owing to difficulty between the American Minister and the Portuguese Government relative to the execution of the commercial treaty between the two countries.

London.—The impression on the Stock exchange this afternoon is, that the Ministry cannot let the matter of their defeat in the House of Lords rest in its present state.—Consols for account opened at 95.5, subsequently advanced to 95, but closed at opening rate.

FIFTEEN DAYS LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

The mail steamer Crescent City, arrived at New York on Monday morning, with 15 days later news from California, having left Chagres on the 14th inst. She brings $250,000 in gold dust, in the hands of the passengers. Total number of passengers, 156.

The steamer Ishmus arrived at Panama on the 10th inst, having left San Francisco on the 15th of May.

Another most destructive fire occurred in San Francisco on the morning of the 4th of May, which reduced full one third of the City to ashes. The loss is set down at over three millions of dollars. It is thought to be the work of an incendiary, and a reward of $5000 has been offered for his apprehension.

In consequence of the fire, lumber had risen from $40 to $100.

An extra Alta California says:—"The loss of property is very great, variously estimated at from three to five millions of dollars. If we take into consideration the great extent of property destroyed, covering an area more than three times as large as that of the Decker fire, we do not think the estimated loss of four millions of dollars is exaggerated. There is no doubt whatever that this fire was the work of incendiaries, and we are happy to hear that there is a prospect of their arrest. Suspicion has already attached itself to three persons, we learn, and the police are upon their track. One of them has been arrested. It is stated that two ladies sleeping in the basement of the Empire—in the bowling saloon—perished in the flames. Several persons were injured by the discharge of fire arms caused by the heat, but none of them dangerously.

The San Francisco Journal of May 15th says:—"The work of re-construction goes bravely on. Already some forty four new houses are in progress of erection, some of equal dimensions with those that were destroyed by the fire, and not a few nearly completed. In a few days more, the wreck of the late conflagration will be cleared away, and scarcely a vestige of devastation will remain to mar the general aspect of spirit and prosperity which characterizes our unusually fair city. The energy and alacrity—the expedition and resources, which distinguish the Anglo-American population of California are conspicuously evinced in these rapid and cheering operations."

There arrived at San Francisco in six days 76 vessels, with full cargoes for a market. The Indians have committed depredations on the miners at North Fork, some twenty miles above Auburn. Two miners were killed and one wounded. A trader travelling with his team was surrounded by Indians, he receded, and finally succeeded in escaping. They took his coat with $600 in gold dust, rifled his wagon of valuables, and killed several of his oxen.

The Indians were pursued by about twenty men, part of whom were mounted. They were fired upon in a valley near Illinoistown. It was thought the Indians were one hundred strong; they were armed with bows and arrows. The loss of the Indians is not ascertained—twenty-five bodies were found, and it is supposed that others were carried away and concealed.

It is believed that white men are among them inciting them on. It is certain that a German doctor has been leading them in several of their attacks.

From the Mines.—The reports from the mining portion of the country, both north and south, continue to be of the most favorable nature. The general state of health at the placers was good.

The Pacific News of May 15, gives a letter from Yuba city, from which the following is an extract:—

According to the extensive preparations now making, there will be more gold taken out of Feather River alone this season, than from the whole of California during the last. Nearly the whole river, and its branches are claimed by companies who have made preparations on a large scale for making dams on the new French method, which is by filling sand bags, made of drillings, about one yard square. This makes a good dam with the tenth part of the expense of the old method and time of digging a race.

Auburn Dry Diggings.—The miners in the village of Auburn, near the North Fork, are doing remarkably well. The ravine running through the town is being dug up, even to the doors of the stores. Six men working a lead in front of Mr. House's store, took one morning $300 in coarse gold, and have averaged $100 each daily, for the last week.

The ground under this store is undoubtedly very rich, as the largest day's work was interrupted only from the fact that the proprietor of the store claimed a right to the land on which his building is situated. One party in the ravine near the village took out $1000 on Wednesday last.

ENLARGEMENT OF SOCIETY.—We are pleased to notice by the arrivals from Saturday, the appearance of some fifty or sixty of the apex in full bloom. They are from all quarters—some from Yankee land, others from John Bull country, and quite a constellation from merry France. One Frenchman brings twenty, all, they say, beautiful! The bay was dotted by flotillas of young men, on the announcement of this extraordinary importation.—(California paper.)

IMMIGRANTS FROM THE SALT LAKE.—A party of several hundred Mormons, from the Salt Lake, arrived at Stockton in the latter part of April. They report a winter of fearful severity, lingering in the valley of the Great Salt Lake.

FROM NEWFOUNDLAND.—The steamer Falcon at Halifax has brought late dates from Newfoundland.

The Ledger of the 7th inst. says:—"We understand that a terrible onslaught upon the deer near the Bay of Exploits has lately been made by the Indians, who are stated to have killed no less than 300 of them in their passage to and across a river which they had taken in pursuance of their migratory habits at this season of the year. The carcasses were left on the ground for the purpose of attracting and trapping wolves and foxes; the former under a belief that the Act offering a reward for the destruction of wolves is still in force, and the latter, for the high price which is commonly given for the skin. So many as 34 deer are said to have been shot by one young man, resident at Exploits within 24 hours!"

St. John's Harbour is fast being thinned of shipping. The Courier says many have been sent off with the valuable products of the Seal Fishery—others for the black diamonds of C. Breton—some costing—and others to the wild and cheerless coast of Labrador.

Sir G. Le Marchant has sent a person to Harbor Grace with a loan to be used in learning young women to weave. The Wesleyans are rebuilding their chapel at that place. It is to be a plain edifice, larger than the last. A new Catholic chapel is also to be erected forthwith.

Quebec June, 24

Another Fire.—Melancholy Loss of Life. A fire broke out at half-past 12 o'clock last night, in the two story brick house forming one corner of St. John's Suburbs, and destroyed into two tenements, occupied by Mr. Francis Milligan, Piano-forte Manufacturer, and by the Misses Back. The fire, it is the general opinion, broke out in Mr. Milligan's work shop, which is a small back room on the ground floor. The interior of that portion of the house occupied by Mr. Milligan is completely destroyed, and the inside of the Misses Back's portion nearly so. Nothing was saved in the shape of furniture. Mr. Milligan perished in the flames. He was seen hanging over the back window and entreated to come out of the house, but as his remains were found on the second story, near a window, in a front room, it is imagined that he must have failed in attempt to save some valuables.—(Chronicle.)

The Pilot's Toronto correspondent says that the reductions in the salaries of the Governor and Speakers are not to take effect while the present incumbents hold office. If such be the case, sometime will elapse before a saving to the Province is effected, for Lord Elgin is saved, and the Speakers are saved, and will save no doubt for the seeming far off rainy day as long as they can.

Vessel on Fire.—Goodwin & Co's Eastport Express brings us the following report: Yesterday, on board steamer Admiral, from Eastport for Boston, about 10 miles East of Boon Island, saw a vessel on fire, with masts gone, and men visible on board. Two schooners were near the burning vessel, apparently rendering assistance. Name of the vessel could not be distinguished.—(Boston Daily Mail.)

ELECTION.—SUNBURY.—We learn that George Hayward and William Scoullar have been elected for Sunbury County.

Restigouche.—The old members, Barbe and Montgomery, have been returned for this county by a show of hands.

COUNTY NORTHWEST.—The polling in this County took place on Wednesday last, and we shall have the result in our next.—The Hon. Alex. Rankin is again a candidate and will probably be returned. The other candidates are, Messrs. J. A. Street, Good fellow, John T. Williston, J. M. Johnston, Jr., John Hea, Richard Sutton, and Martin Cunnay.

Gloucester.—In this County, Messrs. End and Reed are opposed by Dr. Gordon and Mr. Dawson, and it is expected that there will be a sharp contest.

The present appearance of vegetation along the River St. John, stands perhaps unequalled, for the season. There is now more grass on many of the fields than the whole quantity of last years produce. The weather has been exceedingly fine, but somewhat variable; for three days past, the thermometer stood at 100 in the shade.—(Fredericton Reporter.)

NAVIGATORS.—Navigators passing through the Gulf Stream, on their passage to ports in Cuba, or the Gulf of Mexico, should be on their guard, as false lights have recently been exhibited on the Benini Islands, by some atrocious scoundrels, for the purpose of misleading navigators, and running the ships ashore!

Boston, 28th.—Death of Capt. Josiah Sturges. Capt. Josiah Sturges, of the Revenue Cutter Hamilton, died on board his vessel this afternoon, at half past five. He had been in ill health for some time, but was but as at Burlington yesterday, and returned with us in the cars.

He was on change at 2 this P.M., and expired immediately on reaching his vessel.

FROM CARDENAS.

New York, June 29. Dates from Cardenas to the 17th state that the inhabitants are free from all anxiety relative to another invasion. Business was progressing as usual.

Arrived.—Steamer City of Glasgow, from Glasgow. General Lopez embarked in coo, on the 28th ult., from Norfolk, on board the schooner Frank, for New York.

Disaster to the Steamer Viceroy.—We regret to have to announce a disaster to this fine steamer, which will perhaps prevent her ever crossing the Atlantic again. By intelligence received from Halifax, we learn that on Monday night the 24th June, she ran ashore on Sag Island, to the westward of Cape Sable, at the entrance to the Bay of Fundy, and that she makes a good deal of water, having bilged. The Surveying Steamer Columbus is alongside of her, rendering assistance. The Doctor of the Viceroy, and Mr. Delaney, the pilot, arrived at Halifax in the tender of the Columbus.—The Acadia Recorder says, the weather was exceedingly thick, and she narrowly escaped greater danger, having nearly struck a ledge, which might have dashed her into pieces, and caused the death of all on board. To account for her running so far out of the usual track from New York to Halifax, notwithstanding the fog, it is alleged that her compasses must have been greatly out of order. Indeed it is stated, that, on the passage from Galway, owing to the misguidance of the needle, she deviated at least 150 miles from the direct line, having run into Manchester Bay, and so prolonged the distance to that extent.

We are informed that the pilot, Mr. Delaney, was deprived of the charge of the vessel from New York, and consequently, though he was on board at the time, is completely free of any connexion with her loss.—(New Brunswick.)

ARRIVAL OF THE EUROPA!—The New Brunswick says, that the telegraph of Monday evening announced the arrival at Halifax of the steam-ship Europa. She has accomplished the passage in a little over 9 days, beating the Pacific about a day.—Her news has not been received here.

ST. ANDREWS AND QUEBEC RAILROAD.—We are happy to notice that this important undertaking is really "going ahead." The indomitable perseverance and energy of the contractors, the Messrs. Myers, overcome every obstacle, no rock is too hard or too large, they disappear like magic before their powerful agents—in fact to use a homespun phrase, these gentlemen are the right sort of material! possessing the knowledge, skill and means, to carry on a great work. From the point at the lower end of the Town to Chamcook a beautiful level road has been made, and between Chamcook and Barletta the line is now nearly cleared and in many places graded. We expect that the ten miles contracted for will be completed within three months, and we hope to be able in the course of a few weeks, to lay before our readers some further important and satisfactory information respecting this work. In the mean time we heartily congratulate our friends on the bright prospects before them.

LARGE OXEN.—Mr. James Haley, has imported two large Oxen weighing 3000lbs. each. Those desirous of enjoying that good old English dish—"Roast Beef"—can suit themselves to some fine fat cuts. Call and examine at Healy's, Shop, Market Wharf.

EXCURSION.—The Steamer Nequasset is advertised to leave Calais to-morrow morning, at 8 o'clock, touching here. She will take parties to witness the celebration of the 4th July at Eastport. The Forest Queen, with a large party from Fredericton and St. John, will also visit Eastport to-morrow, and return the same day.

THE HARMONICONS.—This pleasing and popular troupe of Singers, we understand, will visit St. Andrews during the present month, and give some of their Concerts which were so well received when they last visited this Province.—Mr. Pike, leader, with Messrs John and James Power, Lynch and Prendegast, constitute the party—and from our United States exchanges we learn, that they are much improved. They will receive a hearty welcome.

THE DECLARATION

OF THE NEW MEMBERS FOR THIS COUNTY took place this day, when Messrs. Robinson, Thomson, Porter, and Fitzgerald, were declared duly elected for this County, they having the majority of votes.

After the declaration of the members elect, having been made, the parties returned thanks in appropriate speeches, which were cheered. Mr. Ellis demanded a scrutiny of the votes of the members elect.

Mr. Boyd demanded a scrutiny of the votes given to Mr. Fitzgerald.

The following is the state of the Poll at its close from the official returns:

Robinson	942
Thomson	724
Porter	699
Fitzgerald	620
Boyd	613
Nesbit	379
Street	315
Wetmore	345
Ellis	235
Eastman	349
Knight	476

It is with pleasure we state that a more peaceable and quiet election, never passed off in this County. Some of the Candidates complained of being deceived by false promises, and in justice to them we must say, that in their own parishes, where they were best known, they were well supported.

BOYS CLOTHES,

In drawing attention now, at the commencement of the Spring Trade to our Large Establishment, CORNER OF KING AND CROSS STREETS, we wish briefly to enumerate the advantages which we offer to our Customers and the Public. We have always studiously avoided claiming to ourselves any power of selling at thirty or forty per cent. under others in the trade, but simply rested our claims on our extensive experience—buying our Goods direct from the Manufacturers at Cash Prices. In commencing the Clothing Business some time ago, in St. John, in addition to our large Custom Trade, we introduced a scale of prices little known previously to the respectable class of the public; this we were enabled to do, by entirely rejecting the long credit system, and supplying first rate articles at a moderate scale of Profit for cash. Our theory has invariably been, that improvements can always be introduced. This year we endeavored to do better than last.

And by thus continuing to progress during the few years we have been in business, we apprehend we have now brought our business to a point surpassed by none. The superiority of our style of Cutting is well known. The newest Paris and London Styles are introduced as early as in New York or Boston, and every improvement is at once adopted. In alluding to the large Stock of Clothes in our Establishment, we may merely state that it comprises the best assortment of FRENCH and GERMAN TWILLED, CLOTHS, and DOESKINS, of every shade and colour to be found. Having thus alluded to the general arrangement of our business, as far as regards the Order Department, we wish particularly to draw attention to the other very large and increasing branch of business, viz.:

THE EXTENSIVE READY MADE DEPARTMENT. Of this branch, we may say that every article in our Establishment is made up as carefully as if ordered. No workman is too good to be employed by us. We make all descriptions of Garments, up to the highest priced Coats. Numbers have proved and acknowledged the value of being at once fitted.

Some idea may be formed of the system pursued, when we state that in Coats we keep thirty-six sizes, so that all shapes and heights may exceed the limits of an advertisement, but To enumerate the varied Stock would far exceed the limits of an advertisement, but our customers will find on visiting the

PANTECHNETHECA,

Corner of King and Cross Streets, that all their expectations will be fully realized.

A SUIR OF MORNING at five minutes notice.
St. John, May, 1850.

Holloway's Ointment.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE

OF A CASE ABANDONED BY GUY'S, THE METROPOLITAN, KING'S COLLEGE, AND CHARING CROSS HOSPITALS, LONDON.

This Affidavit was sworn to before the Lord Mayor of London.

WILLIAM BROOKE, of No. 2, Union Street

Southwark, London, Messenger, maketh Oath and swears that he (this deponent) was afflicted with FIFTEEN RHEUMATISM on his left Arm and Ulcerated Sores and Wounds on both Legs, for which the deponent was admitted an out-patient at the METROPOLITAN HOSPITAL in April, 1841, where he continued nearly Four Weeks—Unable to receive a cure there.

THE DEPONENT sought relief at the three following Hospitals—KING'S COLLEGE HOSPITAL, in May, for five weeks; at GUY'S HOSPITAL, in July, for six weeks; and at CHARING CROSS HOSPITAL, at the end of August, for some weeks more; which the deponent left in a far worse condition than that in which he had quitted GUY'S when Sir BARNARD COOKE, and other medical Officers of the Establishment told the deponent, "that the only chance of curing his life was by Loss of his Arm."

THE DEPONENT, thereupon, called on Dr. BRIGHT, chief Physician of GUY'S, who, on viewing deponent's condition, kindly and liberally said, "I am utterly at a loss what to do for you, but here is a half sovereign, go to Mr. Holloway, and try what effect his Pills and Ointment will have, as I have frequently witnessed the wonderful Effects the have in Dependent Cases! You can't see me any more."

THIS UNPREJUDICED advice was followed by the deponent, and a PERFECT CURE was effected in THREE WEEKS by the use of Holloway's Pills and Ointment, after THREE HOSPITALS had failed! When Dr. BRIGHT was shown, by the deponent, the result of his advice and chastity, he said,—"I am both astonished and delighted! for I thought, that if ever I saw you again, it would be without your Arm—I can only compare this cure to a charm!"

Sworn at the Mansion House, City of London, this 5th day of March, 1842.

Deponent, J. PIRIE, Mayor

of the City of London this 5th day of March, 1842.
