CAMPBELLTON BOY KILLED IN ACTION

Blair Graham Son of Mr. D. F. Graham Makes Supreme Sacrifice.

Campbellton was again stirred to its depths on Sunday when it was known that Mr. D. F. Graham had received official word from Ottawa that his son Blair had been killed in action September 23rd.

Blair Graham was born at Campbellton and received his education here. When quite a young man he entered the service of the Bank of Nova Scotia here and by his ability and hard work he rose rapidly. From here he was transferred to the head office of the Bank at Toronto and was later transferred to Calgary and Edmonton.

At Edmonton he enlisted with the 96th Battalion in 1916 and passed through here enroute to England and the front over a year ago and was in the trenches for many months until Sept. 23rd when he was killed.

Deceased was one of Campbellton's most popular boys and this popularity followed him throughout his work with the Bank.

He belongs to a family with a record for patriotism that is rarely equalled. Out of eight there were five serving their country via; Blair, now deceased, Edgar and Fred with the armies in France, Ruby a nurse at the front and Lena who has lately been transferred to Texas for hospital duty. The three other members of the family are Frank, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Havana and Mary and Aubrey at home.

The sincere sympathy of all goes out to Mr. Graham and family in their bereavement.

Mr. William Anderson spent a few days here visiting friends and acquaintances.

Mr. Henry LaGresley of Cape Cove passed through our midst on Sunday in route for home.

Miss Irene Day has returned to Paspé to continue her work in the Bank of Nova Scotia.

Mrs. Wm. Pelan accompanied by Miss Calcease McDonald, teacher of Port Daniel West paid a short visit to New Carlisle on Saturday.

Miss Chicotte of Barachois is visiting her sister Mrs. Blason.

Mr. Oasie Jones of Grand River was to Port Daniel Tuesday on business.

HON. JOHN HALL KELLY SUES MONTREAL STAR

Asks For $50,000 Damages For Publication of Letter Signed "X"

(Special to The Graphic.)

The Hon. John Hall Kelly was in the city this week pleading before the Court of Appeal. As soon as his cases were disposed of he instructed the Hon. L. A. Taschereau of the law firm of Taschereau, Roy, Cannon and Parent to sue the Montreal Daily Star for the sum of fifty thousand dollars in connection with the letter published in the Star of last week signed by "X."

The letter signed by "X" stated that the Hon. Mr. Kelly was at the head of a movement to cause trouble at the present time in the Province of Quebec, in order to help Germany in the present war. By his action against the Star, Mr. Kelly says said statement is false and that by publishing and circulating said false statement that people have been led to believe that he is not a loyal British subject.

This he claimed is of a nature to injure his reputation and consequently he asks that the Montreal Star be condemned to pay him damages amounting to the aforesaid sum. The action was taken out in this city.

Interviewed by a representative of the Graphic Hon. Kelly stated that in justice to his friends his former electors and his clients he felt that it was his duty to sue the Star so that the Courts may have an opportunity to decide whether what the Star published was true or false.

It is now up to the Star to prove the truth of its charges. Hon. Mr. Kelly added that it was not for the money at stake that he was suing but only to have the Star condemned so that people may know that said charges were false.

TOWN COUNCIL IN REGULAR SESSION

Routine Business Transacted—Ratepayers Address Meeting re Streets, Etc.

A meeting of the Town Council was held in the Clerk's office last evening. His Worship Mayor Andrew presiding.

There were present Couns. Quinn, Patterson, Miller, Alexander, Evans, and McBeath.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

A letter from the town solicitor explaining that it would be impossible to get a deed of the street running through the Christopher property was read and placed on file.

S. Foley, driver of the fire team submitted a request for an increase of pay from $55 to $60 per month, also that he be paid twice a month.

This was referred to the Fire Protection committee.

A communication from P. M. Shannon, re sale of Wm. Copeland property was read. This asked that taxes and water rates standing against the property be written off so that a sale could be made. Referred to Assessment and Appeals committee.

The Dep. Minister of Justice wrote asking that the town supply a room for the use of the Military tribunals for from three to five weeks.

His Worship stated that a request had also been received for two rooms for the medical board.

Coun. Miller moved that the Dep. Minister of Justice be notified that the town would supply a room if at all possible.

A petition signed by twelve ratepayers living on the street running up to Doherty's pond was read. This asked for water, lights, road improvements and a sidewalk. After discussion this was referred to the Public Property and Streets committee.

The matter of Hillside street was again brought before the council by a communication from Mr. Maltais, but nothing was decided upon. However the Graphic understands that the chairman of the Public Property and Streets has made arrangements to have a sidewalk built along that part of the street owned by the town.

The McLennan Foundry & Machine Works also wrote asking for street lights along the street leading to their works. Referred to Electric Light committee.

A number of departmental reports were passed.

Upon recommendation of the Fire Brigade Capt. Squarebriggs was made a member of the Fire Brigade in place of A. McDonald who requested to be placed on the Fire Police.

The matter of exemption of the D. A. Stewart wood working factory was again taken up and after discussion the Harquail Co. agreement was passed.

COMMANDING OFFICER WRITES PARENTS

Mr. Peter McLean Receives Letter in Reference to Lt. McLean's Adventure.

Mr. Peter McLean yesterday morning received the following letter:—
Sept. 5th 1917.
France,

Dear Mr. McLean,
I have not had an opportunity to write you a letter before now but wish to let you know how delighted I am that your boy escaped from the enemy in our recent action.

You can be proud of him as one of the finest lads whom I have had the honour of serving with. One cannot imagine unless one has experienced the conditions of fighting here what he went through and still he came out of it cheerful and collected.

I have had a letter from him and he is getting along well and will live to further distinguish himself.

Yours faithfully,
VINCENT O. DONAHUE,
Lt. Col. Commanding 87th, Can. Inf.

TWO BONAVENTURE BOYS KILLED

Pte. Campbell and Pte. Sherar the Latest to Make Supreme Sacrifice.

Private William Demareq Sherar of New Carlisle was killed in action somewhere in France on August 5th at the age of 27. He was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Sherar.

Pte. Sherar enlisted in August 1916 with the 224th Battalion, Kitchener's Own which drilled in Montreal last winter and went overseas about the end of March. Since enlisting and on active service his letters to his parents and many friends were always cheery and his death was a sad blow to all.

Most of his life was spent in New Carlisle on the farm with his father as he had taken a course at McDonald Agricultural College. The year previous to enlisting he was employed in the Railway Offices at New Carlisle. He was a very popular young man and always ready with a kind word and pleasant smile.

PTE. SHERAR.
Killed in Action.

Besides his father and mother he is survived by one sister, Florence and to brothers, Octavius and Dan.

A very impressive memorial service was conducted at his home church at New Carlisle on Sunday, Sept. 23rd by Rev. George Anderson assisted by two former Pastors Rev. J. M. Sutherland and Rev. J. P. Tattre, who both spoke very feelingly of the deceased. His text was the comforting story of John 11: 4. The Church was well filled showing the respect and sympathy of all in this sad event.

The following letter has been received by Mr. Sherar from an officer of the battalion of which his son was a member in which he mentions the esteem in which Pte. Sherar was held by his comrades.

Sept. 6th 1917,
Headquarters,
14 Canadian Battalion
Royal Montreal Regiment.

Mr. J. O. Sherar,
New Carlisle, Que.

Dear Sir:—
You have probably heard ere this of the death of your son, 1054295 Pte. W. D. Sherar who was killed in action while proceeding to the trenches August 5th. He was given a Christian burial a few miles behind the line today. The Rev. Major Creggan being the officiating clergyman.

Although only with us a very short time your son had all of the qualities of a splendid soldier and I can assure you his loss is sadly felt by all of us, especially his close friends of whom he had many. Canada has lost still another good soldier and all of us a very brave comrade.

As time grows older and peace is again restored I trust the fact of your dear son who sacrificed all for his King and Country and bravely met a hero's death will somewhat assuage the anguish and grief you have to bear.

To you Sir, and to your family I extend the heartfelt sympathy of all ranks of the Royal Montreal Regiment.

Yours sincerely,
ALLAN POWELL,
Major,

MILITARY HOSPITAL REPORT.

A report of the Military Hospital Commission has been sent this paper by Charles Robinson, or St. John, Secretary of the Returned Soldiers' Aid Commission. There is a vast amount of valuable information in the book of 182 pages. The New Brunswick report shows that up to 1st of May last, 546 men had returned to the province. About 200 of these found employment through the Commission. 90 found work through other sources, 30 re-enlisted, 201 were still under pay, not discharged; and 25 men had not then found employment.

AUTO ASSOCIATION MEETING.

A meeting of the Restigouche Auto Association was held Tuesday evening. A number of new members signed on and considerable business was transacted. It was decided to have road signs erected throughout the county and a committee was appointed to interview the Municipal Council and ask that body to bear a portion of the cost. Road conditions were discussed and it was unanimous opinion that the Association's work had borne fruit. Better things were promised for next year. The Association appointed a committee to draft a resolution in reference to roads, the same to be forwarded to the local members and the Hon. Minister of Public Works.

BRITISH SAILOR IN GRAPHIC TALE OF GERMAN PRISONS

Men Worked and Starved to Death By Hundreds, He Asserts. Enemy Longs For Peace—Intolerable Conditions Described By Man Who Was Taken Prisoner By the Raider Moewe.

A British sailor whose ship was destroyed by the German raider Moewe and who was kept a prisoner on the raider for five weeks before he was landed in Germany, managed recently to get a letter out of Germany to his sister and brothers in England. In the opinion of allied officials who have seen the letter no more interesting information has come out of Germany in months as to the actual conditions in that country.

The writer, as a war laborer, was thrown much with German laboring men, and he says the suffering of these men is so great, that they would welcome any kind of peace, even one dictated by the Allies. Because of the shortage of food the conditions in the prison camps are described as terrible beyond words to describe, the deaths sometimes averaging more than fifteen a day for weeks at a time. The writer gives what is perhaps the first correct description of the Moewe yet printed, and makes the statement that this famous raider is probably the speediest of her type afloat, her maximum speed being thirty knots an hour.

The letter, which comes to The New York Times, from an official source, is as follows:—

"Just a few other lines to say I am still alive. I am not, in the best of health, but as good as can be expected under the circumstances. Of course there are worse cases than me, so thank God I cannot grumble. I hope you received my other letter. Any other way is censored by the Germans, that is the reason I am unable to write you all I could wish about this country. I have been across it and up and down it since I have been in it and I can tell you it is in a very poor state. Mind you it is a large, agricultural country, fine plots of ground but uncultivated.

Only Women at the Plough.

There does not seem to be any men around, only old and very young. Everywhere you look through a railway carriage window it is always the same sight—women at the plow and digging. If you do see any men at all they are the prisoners, French, Russian, and the British. Now I have mentioned the word prisoners. I will tell you as well as I can how Germany treats her prisoners; being one myself it gives me a chance to state the truth. I was aboard the raider five weeks, being chased around by cruisers. The treatment we received on the cruiser Moewe was decent to what we received after landing in Germany.

"For the last few days after the Moewe captured us we received three good meals a day, consisting of tea or coffee for breakfast; for dinner, rice or bean soup; supper, rice and prunes, or rice boiled with meat or salt pork, each day varied; also, we received a loaf for four men. We were proportioned out by messes, twelve or fourteen to a table. She was fitted out like a dockyard canteen, plates, dishes, and pint pot and spoon. Knives and forks were not issued, as we lived on spoon diet. Well, we were all satisfied with that until they captured the Emerald. Her crew was a very large one, 116 all told. She was a horse boat, with American cutters on board, but by good luck she was outward bound, so there were no horses on board. Well, after they reduced our meals to two per day consisting mostly of rice, and as we were getting more northerly every day we were getting into more dangerous routes, because we were closing in on the small boats, tracks, and at the same time we never knew the moment a prisoner would pop up and sink us, cruisers and Germans as well because the way they had with us as soon as any smoke on the horizon was sighted we were all chased below, all doors were locked, and we were given to understand that if one went to hell, well, we should all go, and that was the consolation we had.

Adventures of the Moewe.
"Well, to cut a long story short, we were landed in Germany safe and I, for one, was glad it was so, because, take it from me, she was the greatest floating mine I ever had the pleasure of being on, and it's experience I don't want to have again. When we landed at Kiel the Moewe's commander told our captain that we should consider ourselves very lucky, indeed, that we were off the ocean, as if he had to engage himself with a man-of-war he would have considered it his duty to have fought till it sank.

"I will now describe at the Moewe was like. First of all, you must understand this: she was a disguised ship, disguised to act as an old tramp. Her full speed was between twenty and thirty knots, but to look at her from a distance she would imitate a slow ship, smoke like a devil (she carried smoke consumers, which could be used if required.) When we were in the vicinity of war vessels she never smoked at all and always kept a sharp

FELT LIKE A NEW PERSON

After Taking Only One Box Of "Fruit-a-lives"

EARL SHIP HANCOCK, N. S.
"It is with great pleasure that I write to tell you of the wonderful benefits I have received from taking 'Fruit-a-lives'. For years, I was a dreadful sufferer from Constipation and Head-aches, and I was miserable in every way. Nothing in the way of medicines seemed to help me. Then I finally tried 'Fruit-a-lives' and the effect was splendid. After taking one box, I felt like a new person, to have relief from those sickening Headaches."

Mrs. MARTHA DEWOLFE.

lookout. The crew themselves boasted about being off Simon's Bay (Cape Town) one dark night, and they saw H. M. S. Glasgow coaling, with all lights lit. They reckoned that they could have torpedoed her, only that they were not sure but that some other cruiser might have given them chase, but at the same time they were on the lookout for commerce, not fight. That was three weeks before they captured us.

It was the Moewe which caught the George (White Star Company), the (Voltaire Lampert & Hot), and sent all the crews into Germany on a Glasgow ship called the Yarrowdale. I have spoken to all these crews since landing here. Their experiences are about the same as our own, so I will leave them for another time. I have also spoken to men who were captured at the Jutland battle, others who were captured by submarines. I have also seen the crew of the ship Brussels. You know the captain, he was shot up here (Captain Fryatt). I have seen where he is supposed to have been buried. We were sent to a receiving ship called Dülmen (pronounced Dillen) on the Dutch border. There we were bathed, fumigated, vaccinated, inoculated. We stayed there about ten days; for food we got nothing but soup—very weak stuff it was.

Prisoners Done to Death.

"While I was there I became acquainted with a soldier, a sergeant out of a Suffolk regiment. He belongs to Rochdale, and you should have heard his yarns about how the Germans treat their prisoners. In that camp alone 500 died within three months. The day we arrived there were fifteen funerals. Not disease, as you in England hear, but worked to death, at the point of the bayonet, then, when past all remedy, sent back to die. This Rochdale chap, he had only just returned from the firing line. He told about having to work on trenches on German soil, getting knocked down with a rifle if he asked for something to eat. You'll hear some queer yarns when this affair is over. This soldier's name is Sergeant Tom C. Murphy, 5 Wilson street, Mount Rochdale.

"We were informed while we were there that we should receive Red Cross parcels consisting of clothing and food. Others I have seen with them, but none of our crowd have seen or had any yet. We have written several times to the British Red Cross Society in Copenhagen (Denmark), London is the real headquarters. But Denmark is where we receive from. Well, as I say we have got none of them up to date.

"There are 300 of us here in Lubeck, working for the Hamburg-American Line for one mark a day and a half a mark overtime per hour. But if we have not worked during the day, the night only counts as a day. We have to work a full day before any night works as overtime. And I can tell you it is work. No cotton hooks or leather gloves, but bare hands. Steel plates like razors, rails, pig iron, barbed wire, coal, iron ore, general cargo, barrels, munitions. Our hands are like cut pulp. No cranes here like any modern port has, oh no, you lift it, you English-wise. It is a primitive style from 6 to 6. Coffee at 5 a. m., soup at 12, soup again at 6, a piece of bread per day and you cannot buy bread when you like. Germans are the same, everything that is bought, a permit has to be shown from the police. A German told me the other day that before he could buy a pair of boots he had to take the old ones to the police and notify them that the old ones were worn out, even to a penny worth of shoe nails.

"Soap is twelve marks a pound; tea and milk are things of the past; so if you want to eat, I have not tasted sugar and milk for two months. A cup of porridge, and that, all have to have a permit to buy any. That is the German. As for us, no one is allowed to serve us outside our own canteen. If they are caught giving us anything they are liable to a 175-mark fine or imprisonment. Now this is not hearsay, it is my own experience. How would this look in The Observer, or Unbiased, or Chronicle? Tell Ted to try it; it would be information for someone. Of course I cannot say what is going on at the German front, for, to tell you the truth, I don't believe anything I hear over here. I have heard a lot—something in particular. A German told me England is starving. I only laughed at him.

Serfdom in German Prisons.

"The German here is only a big slave. You can see serfdom written all over his face. And the Prussian, he is a real bully. I had some, so I know, and another. Although we are prisoners, some of us have shown fight, and they have left us alone. I cannot tell you all, as it would take a book to describe what I know. But, believe me, every sensible German is not only tired of this war, but they don't seem to care who wins or who loses. One told me the other day that he hoped England would win. He was in English ships, and he was sorry he was in a German ship. He was a ship's carpenter, receiving 120 marks per month. He showed me his dinner—one slice of black bread and a drink of coffee; no sugar. I told him it served him right; why didn't he clear out in Norway, same as I would if I was in his place. Of course, he had his reasons, I let him keep them. It was no business of mine. Well, if you wish to do me and others a good turn, ask whatever paper you put this in to shake up the British Red Cross and Order of St. John, Strand, Boulevard, 84, Copenhagen. Of course, they may be doing their share, but at any rate, we are receiving nothing.

"Since I have been in this country the only eatables I have had has been three pounds of Huntley & Palmers Emergency Biscuits, and they are champion. I could have done with more but it was not to be. You can tell them we are at Lubeck. We came here from Brandenburg on the 3rd of May Thursday old men over fifty, and the boys under sixteen, were left at Brandenburg. We are all told 300."

A FAMILY RECORD.
Hon. Mr. Marcell has been informed that one of his nephews, Emile Pearson who enlisted at Winnipeg was fatally wounded at Lens and died of his wounds two days later. He was slightly over eighteen years of age and had been in the service for nearly two years.

Mr. Marcell has another nephew at the front in the person of Private Radolphe Caisie, who enlisted at Montreal two years ago. Still a third nephew who also enlisted in Montreal some three years ago has also seen service and has been released owing to illness which developed in service.

Lieut. John G. Ahern, the son-in-law of the member for Bonaventure enlisted at the outbreak of hostilities and served several months in Canada but having been wounded in the hand by a gun shot was declared unfit for service and discharged.

SICK WIFE'S STORY SURPRISES CAMPBELLTON

The following has surprised Campbellton: A business man's wife suffered from dyspepsia and constipation for years. Although she dieted she was so bloated her clothes would not fit. ONE SPOONFUL buckhorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler's relieved her INSTANTLY. Because Adler's has emptied BOTH large and small intestines it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICKEST action of anything we ever sold. A. McE. McDonald, Druggist, Campbellton, N. B.

A mean case hints that maybe if the girls could see their elbows they wouldn't be so anxious to exhibit them to other people.

IF YOUR CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH, CONSTIPATED

Ask Mother! If tongue is coated, stomach full, bowels sore, "Calf" "Tummy" "Syrup" or "Pill."

"Mothers can you easily after giving 'California Syrup of Figs' because in a few hours all the discomforts, sour bile and fermenting food quietly sweep out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again."

BUSINESS MEN ARE INTERESTED

Employers, have been quick to see Practical Advantages of Military Service Act.

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—Canadian business men express themselves as highly pleased with the provision by the Military Service Act of Medical Boards for the early medical examination of men liable to be drafted under the Military Service Act. This introduction of system and order into the method of raising men for military service has commended itself to the country, according to all reports received here.

Hearty promises of co-operation in having an early report made by all men in the various classes are also coming to hand, and this co-operation promises to simplify the working of the Act. The vast majority of men in the various classes can be reached through the business houses where they are employed, so far as the cities are concerned at least. A new force getting behind the Act is the business instinct of the employers who, under the volunteering system, have had some unsatisfactory experiences thru the haphazard dropping off of their employees.

All the Military Service Act really does is to get the country's military system down to a business basis as well as to make it more democratic and satisfactory in every particular.

The October issue of The Canadian Magazine contains a varied assortment of articles, essays and short stories. The first article is by the well-known nature writer, Mr. Hamilton McLeung and is a delightful description of a summer passed in the company of little wild creatures in a Manitoba elm clump. Other articles are "Getting the Men", a review of conscription in England, by Lacey Amy; "The Influence of Ancestry in the Present War", a consideration of racial tendencies, by Professor John Cameron; "Pioneer Canadian Women," a sketch of Professor Carrie Derick, by Miss Emily P. Weaver; "Stories of the Redcoat Riders", by W. McEl. Tait, as well as several short stories.

RECEPTION AND PRESENTATION.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. James McDavid, Flat Lands, Sept. 11th 1917, in honor of the Rev. R. M. Brown and wife, by the members and friends of the Restigouche Baptist Church. During the evening Miss Pella Ferguson, on behalf of the congregation presented the couple with a purse of $81.25, and the following address was read by the church clerk Mr. Wm. A. Palmer.

The members and friends of your church take this opportunity of expressing their appreciation of your services among us. A little over a year you came to this field, and by your earnest, faithful Christian work, you have won the hearts of the people. Both in your pulpit efforts and pastoral relations, you have proved to be a good minister of Jesus Christ and your services have been blessed.

Since coming here the scattered interests of these communities have been gathered up and organized into a church, and you have been ordained a minister of the Gospel over this people.

In accomplishing all this you have manifested patience, taste and good leadership, and further in bringing to this field a pastor's wife to assist in the good work, you have both shown wisdom and greatly pleased the members of your congregation. And we desire to extend to Mrs. Brown a most cordial welcome.

To both pastor and wife we open our hearts and our homes. We shall try to be to you all a loving, faithful congregation should in every way, be both financially and spiritually to stand behind the work you are doing and will do in our midst, and we hope that these relationships, so pleasantly begun and now made stronger by the coming of Mrs. Brown may continue for many years.

As an expression of our Christian love and sincere appreciation of your work, we present you with this purse, and we ask you to use it in some way that will continue to remind you of your friends of the Restigouche Baptist church. We wish you and your good wife every happiness in the days to come.

Although taken by surprise the pastor in a few well chosen words, on behalf of himself and wife, thanked his friends for their kindness, and assured them that their gift would be spent in a way that would continue to remind them of their friends in the Restigouche Baptist Church.

After a pleasant evening spent in a social way, refreshments were served, after which the guests departed for their homes.

Military Service Act, 1917
Explanatory Announcement by the Minister of Justice

THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT has received the assent of the Governor-General and is now part of the law of the land. It will be enforced accordingly, and the patriotism and good sense of the people can be relied upon to support it. Resistance to its enforcement, however, by word or act must and will be repressed, as resistance to any other law in force must be.

Reinforcements under the Military Service Act immediately required.

It is the intention of the Government immediately to exercise the power which the Act confers and to call out men for military service in order to provide reinforcements for the Canadian forces. This is necessary since the military authorities report that the reserves available, or in sight for reinforcement will shortly be exhausted unless this step be taken.

First call limited to men between 20 and 34 who were unmarried or widowers without children on July 6, 1917.

The present call will be limited to men not in the schedule of exemptions who were unmarried or widowers without children on July 6, 1917, are at least twenty years of age, and were born on or after January 1st, 1883. Of this class all those will be entitled to conditional exemption whose services in their present occupations, agricultural, industrial or other, are essential in the national interest, and whose business or domestic responsibilities are such that serious hardship would ensue if their services be required. Considerations such as these, however, are not to be taken into account in the case of men who are not in the schedule of exemptions. The men first required to serve will consequently be those who can be called upon with the least disturbance of the economic and social life of the country.

Civil Tribunals to deal with exemptions.

Questions of exemption will be determined, not by the military authorities or by the Government, but by civil tribunals composed of representative men who are familiar with local conditions in the communities in which they serve, who will generally have personal knowledge of the economic and family reasons which those whose names come before them have had for not volunteering their services and who will be able to estimate the weight and importance of such reasons. Provincial Appellate Tribunals constituted from the existing judiciary of the respective provinces will be provided to correct mistakes made by Local Tribunals, and a Central Appellate Tribunal for the whole of Canada, selected from among the present Judges of the Supreme Court of Canada, will be constituted in order that identical principles may be applied throughout the country. In this way every man may rest assured of the fair and full consideration of his circumstances and the national requirements both civil and military.

Proclamation will announce the day.

A proclamation will issue calling out the backbone and widowers referred to and fixing a day on or before which every man must report for service to the military authorities unless he has before that day made an application for exemption.

How to apply for exemption.

Applications for exemption may be made by written notice on forms which will be available at every post office, and will be transmitted free of postage. They will not, however, be required to be made in this way but may be presented by the applicants in person to the exemption tribunals. The cases of those who have given written notice in advance will take precedence, and applications in person will therefore be likely to involve considerably more inconvenience and delay to the men concerned, so that it is recommended that advantage be generally taken of the facilities for written applications.

Exemption Tribunals in all parts of Canada.

The local exemption tribunals will be constituted with the least delay possible, consistent with the selection of representative individuals to compose them, and the instruction of the members in their duties. There will be more than one thousand of such tribunals throughout Canada, each consisting of two members, one of whom will be nominated by a Joint Committee of Parliament, and the other by one of the Judges of the existing Courts. Every effort will be made by the wide distribution of tribunals, and by provision where necessary for their sitting in more than one place to minimize the inconvenience to which men will be put in obtaining the disposition of their cases.

A Registrar will be appointed in each Province, who will be named by the proclamation and to whom inquiries may be addressed. Each Provincial Registrar will transmit to the appropriate tribunal the applications for exemption which have been submitted in advance of the sitting, and men who have sent those in will not be required to attend the tribunals until notified to do so. Other applicants should attend personally on the tribunal without notice.

How to report for service.

Men who do not desire to claim exemption will report to the military authorities for service either by mail or in person at any time after the issue of the proclamation. Forms of report by mail will be found in all post offices, and, like applications for exemption, will be transmitted free of postage.

Early report advantageous.

No man who reports for service will, although he may be medically examined and passed as fit, be required to go into camp or join a battalion until after a day fixed by the proclamation sufficiently late to permit of the disposition by the local tribunals of most, if not all, of the applications for exemption which may come before them. Thus no advantage will be gained by delaying or disadvantage incurred by prompt report for service on the part of those who do not intend to apply for exemption.

Facilities for immediate medical examination.

Immediately upon the issue of the proclamation, medical boards will sit at every mobilization centre for the examination of men who report for service or who, subject to their right within the time limited to apply for exemption, desire to have their physical fitness determined in order to allow any doubt as to their physical condition, or to know definitely and in advance whether there is a possibility of their services being required. Certificates of physical unfitness issued by these Medical Boards will be accepted without any further investigation by exemption tribunals when they sit. Men found physically fit who have not reported for service may nevertheless apply for exemption on any of the prescribed grounds, including even their physical condition if dissatisfied with the Medical Board's conclusion.

Notice to join the colors.

As reinforcements are required, notice to report to the nearest mobilization centre will be given from time to time to the men found liable and passed as fit for service. Disobedience of such notice will render the offender liable to punishment, but punishment for failure to report for military service, or to report subsequently for duty when called upon, will be imposed only by the civil magistrates; offenders, however, will remain liable for the performance of their military duties notwithstanding any civil punishment which may be imposed and will be liable to military punishment in cases in which civil proceedings are not taken.

Watch for the Proclamation.

Notice of the day appointed for the making of a claim for exemption or for report for military service will be published as widely as possible, but, as no personal notice can be given until the individuals called out have so reported themselves or claimed exemption, men possibly concerned are warned to inform themselves with regard to the day fixed, since neglect may involve the loss by them of important privileges and rights.

F. McKenzie, D. G. M. of Chatham paid an official visit to Campbellton Lodge No. 32, F. & A. M. on Monday night. A very pleasant evening was spent after which refreshments were ceived twenty-four quarts of hard liquor and then this latter shipment of twelve bottles came in, so it was seized and taken to the police storeroom. The inspector evidently knows when

WOUNDED SOLDIERS.
Several trains of returned wounded soldiers have passed through here during the past three days. There were from Dalhousie.

CARD OF THANKS.
The ladies of the Soldiers Comforts Association wish to thank all those who by their various donations made the "Sale of Days" a success. It would be impossible to name the numerous ones, who gave so generously, suffice it to say the amount made will be spent for our soldier boys.

G. W. V. A.
The first general meeting of the Great War Veterans Association was held in their hall last evening and was very largely attended. Members from out of town were present and a number of new members signed the roll.

His Honor Judge McLatchy spoke to the boys and his remarks were much appreciated. Considerable business was transacted. An unanimous vote of thanks was voted to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. for $23.96 and to H. B. Anslow for printed stationery supplied for their rooms.

GOOD POSITION FOR RETURNED SOLDIER.
A survey party under Mr. Leon Theriault, Road Engineer, has commenced to survey of the highway from Matapedia and is anxious to secure a chairman.

This is a good opportunity for a returned soldier. The wages are $30.00 a month and the work will last until the snow falls. Any returned soldier wishing the position can apply any time to Mr. Theriault at the St. Louis Hotel, Campbellton or to Messrs. Le Blanc or Currie, the local representatives.

DIPHTHERIA CASES.
Two more cases of diphtheria have developed during the past week. These are very mild cases and they have been quarantined.

BIG GAME PROTECTION.
All interested in the protection of big game agree that guardian Chas. Gray is doing good work in his district. As a consequence moose meat is very scarce in town this season. In former years cows were slaughtered and the meat sold, but not so this year. It is hoped that guardians will be kept on duty all winter, so that the lumber crews will have to eat beef instead of moose and deer meat.

The Filipino Players have proven themselves through out the maritime provinces to be one of the best attractions of its kind that has ever appeared in this part of the country. OBJECTIONS TO CURFEW ANSWERED.

Strange though it may seem, there are some apparently thoughtful, earnest people who, for various reasons, object to curfew laws and ordinances. Several city attorneys have pronounced the law unconstitutional, others insist that it is an infringement upon personal liberty, while others emphasize the fact that parents should look after their own children.

Let us consider these objections one by one.

1. "No constitutional." A law requiring children to be at home after a certain hour in the evening is no more unconstitutional than a law requiring them to be away from home after a certain hour in the morning. If it is not contrary to the constitution of our land to require children under a certain age to be away from home in school during the day, how can it be contrary to that constitution to demand that they be at home, away from the schools of vice during the night?

2. "Personal liberty." The state for its own protection, may deprive its citizens of certain liberties and privileges. For the protection of its future citizens the state may legitimately demand the relinquishment of street dissipation and night roaming.

3. "Curfew cannot be enforced." Curfew laws are enforced in many towns and cities, resulting in greater safety to the children. This, with no increase in the police force. What is done in these places may be done in others if reliable officers are put in charge. Once it is understood that the law is to be enforced, not ignored, little difficulty will be found.

No arrests are necessary for first offenses. Children found on the streets after hours should be sent or taken home, and the parents notified that they will be held accountable for further transgressions on the part of the children. Disgrace comes from wilful violation of law rather than from punishment.

4. "Parents should look after their own children." Certainly parents should look after their own children, yet we all know that a large number of them neglect their duty in this particular matter.

Where the parents fail to provide for the physical and intellectual care of their children the state steps in and says, "You must, or we will."

Where the parents fail to care for the moral welfare of the child by keeping it from the demoralizing influences of the street, shall not the state step in and say, again, "You must, or we will?"

In Portland, Oregon, a certain number of officers are charged with the responsibility of enforcing the curfew ordinance. They use their whistles as signals, and the children were not long in learning the meaning of this. In consequence, juvenile night roaming has materially decreased.

In some cities the fire stations give a prearranged signal at the hour designated, and all children under curfew are removed from the streets. In one city arrangement has been made with the electric company, and the street lights flicker a few seconds at curfew hour as a signal to all children on the streets. The signal is of great importance, and can be planned for without difficulty if there is a sincere desire to do so.

A rather startling objection to curfew has been registered by a Southern woman. She suggests that children are so much safer on the streets than in some homes that she questions the wisdom of an ordinance which would require them to stay off the streets at night. Rather far-fetched as an objection, it would seem, but suggestive of the fact that homes should be so attractive and safe that the streets would lose their lure.

DEE SIDE.

Miss Nellie Coull of Grand Cascadia motored to Matapedia accompanied by Miss Dora McNaughton and Mr. Willie and Cameron McNaughton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee McNaughton are receiving congratulations of friends on the arrival of a baby girl at their home on Sunday last.

Miss J. Flowers teacher of the day school here spent Saturday at Matapedia.

A pleasant evening was spent on Monday last at the home of Mr. Elias Falls by a number of the young people, with music and games, refreshments being served at the close.

Mothers and Fathers ATTENTION!

New Brunswick is losing untold thousands of dollars every year through the emigration of hundreds of her brightest sons.

Why?
Because the opportunities are not provided at home.

What is the remedy?
An organized effort to make our province prosperous by boosting our Province, by working harder, and by patronizing HOME PRODUCTS, HOME INDUSTRIES, HOME MERCHANTS.

Are Ye able?
For years there has been a steady stream of our finest men passing out of the Province to Upper Canada and to the United States. They have had thousands of dollars spent on them by their parents, thousands of other dollars in endowments have aided them in obtaining their degrees.

On graduation they have looked about them. They have found no opportunities in their native Province, they have found no united effort to expand the resources of the Province, and they have passed on to mines, factories, and commercial life of the big cities.

The loss to New Brunswick has been incalculable. New Brunswickers may be found all over Upper Canada, Western Canada and the eastern states. Everywhere it is the same story—Success. The finest school system in Canada, a wealth of universities and a most modern system of technical education have developed the brains of these New Brunswickers and this with thrift and industry has driven them to the top in every walk of life. They may be found at the head of banks, big business, factories, mines and colleges. They have become famous.

What wonderful things they could have done for New Brunswick had they remained on their native heath. One could hardly estimate what development these men could have initiated and carried through. But they did not have the encouragement, they did not have the chance. A policy of spending our money in the development of other lands has proven disastrous to New Brunswick.

It is difficult to imagine a more short-sighted or wasteful system than that which we have been pursuing. As stated above we have spent thousands of dollars on training our young men only to see them pass out of the Province. Surely there are two sides to education—there is the training in how to do something, and there is the provision of a chance to practise what has been learned.

It would be silly to train young men and women to be teachers and then not provide them with schools and pupils; it would be folly to train men in engineering if we did not provide an opportunity for the engineers to practice. We have developed our education to a high degree of efficiency, but we have failed in our second duty. We have been one-sided.

What is the remedy?

An organized effort to develop the Province by spending our money here and investing our money so that by the resulting commercial and industrial development men will step from schools and colleges to opportunities in our own Province. We must realize that the tempting baits of a few cents to make us buy abroad has behind it the deadly hook of commercial supremacy. We must realize that every time we send money away from our Province we are selling our birthright for a mess of pottage. We must patronize our own merchants. We must spend our money at home for then the money will be kept in the Province to provide the funds to develop our farms, our mines, our forests, to build ships, factories and commercial houses.

Are ye able?
Let everybody start to-day and buy everything at home.
