

SRC RECEIVES FALL BUDGET

by John Drew

Campus Nominations Submitted to the SRC

Nominations for the ten campus positions have been submitted to Ron Manzer, President of the SRC. They were: Secretary, SRC: Carol Ann Brewer and Margaret MacLelland; Secretary, AAA: Jim MacNutt, who was elected by acclamation; Chairman NFCUS: Joan Young, also elected by acclamation; Chairman, WUSC: Janet Hunter and Brian Kempster; Sophomore Representative, SRC: John MacLean, Carl Redstone, Finn Rimmer and Bob Soward; Freshman Representatives, SRC: George Albers, Douglas Bassett, Donald Hammond, Hugh Moore, Toby Rankin and Jane Trimble (two are to be elected); President, Freshman Class: Peter MacNutt and Fred Eaton; Vice-President, Freshman Class: Tom Sifton, who was elected by acclamation; and Secretary-Treasurer, Freshman Class: Toby Rankin and James Williams.

Many students had been under the impression that these nominations concerned the freshman class only. As a result applications barely met the last minute deadline.

All campus positions deserve careful attention if they are to fulfill their specific duties. This cannot be done if the elective requirements are left to conjecture.

Loss of Blood Not Felt At UNB

Thirty-four per cent of the student body, or 511 out of a total enrolment of over 1500 students, donated ten minutes and a pint of blood at the recent Blood Donor Clinic held on campus.

The percentage by faculties is: Forestry—50%, Science—38%, Engineering—35%, Arts—30%, and Business Administration—29%.

The percentage amongst the residences is: Lady Beaverbrook—86%, Jones House—51%, Aitken House

BILL BYRNE

Red 'n' Black Rehearsals

The 12th annual Red 'n' Black Revue, boasting a brand new format, has begun rehearsals in anticipation of the opening date. The practices are being held every Sunday at 2 p.m. in Memorial Hall.

As it now stands, a new opening number, a Student's Wives' skit, and seven other surprising routines will greet the public on opening night. The Company still desires non-musical routines and between-act fillers. Director Bill Byrne urged that anyone having an idea for a skit should come to the Hall on Sunday and audition.

Again this year the Revue will have the able assistance of choreographer Sheila Roberts and Ralph Campbell at the piano.

Red 'n' Black Notes

The Kick-Line goes to work soon and the co-eds are asked to watch for notices of tryouts.

An opening still exists for an experienced assistant producer, preferably a Senior next year.

Future Poets Being Sought

The American College Poetry Society has announced that an anthology of outstanding poetry composed by students in American and Canadian colleges and universities will be published this winter.

Contributions are now being invited and should be submitted to: Alan C. Fox, Executive Secretary, American College Poetry Society, Box 24463, Los Angeles 24, California.

Original Subject

The poetry must be the original work of the student and may deal with any subject. The Society cannot compensate students for the poetry published but literary rights for the material are retained by the author.

The student's name, address, and school must be included with the entry.

Forestry Meeting

The Forestry Association will hold a meeting Monday Oct. 27 at 7:30 p.m. in the Memorial Reading Room of the Forestry Building.

James Somerville became president of the College of New Brunswick in 1820. He was the first president of the college.

The presentation of Fall Budgets highlighted the SRC meeting Wednesday night. Among the campus organizations seeking funds were the Brunswickan which asked for $2751.00, the Year Book which sought $4712.50; and the SRC which requested $455.00.

Other organizations and the funds they desired are Debating Society—$402.93; Drama Society—$750.00; Camera Club—$129.31; Radio Club—$193.00; UNB Band—$400.00; the Social Committee—$693.00; and the Choral Society—$50.00.

NFCUS and WUSC received their funds from a two dollar fee levied on each student. This granted each of these organizations $1519.00.

Lord Beaverbrook

It was announced that Lord Beaverbrook has accepted the position of Honorary President of the SRC.

It was also disclosed that campus organizations are to be allowed to run the Saturday Night Dances. Applications, however, must be submitted beforehand. Kathy Hart was appointed students' representative on the Faculty Social Committee.

Other Highlights

Among the other highlights of the lengthy session was the report by Janet Hunter, temporary, WUSC chairman, on her trip to Vancouver for the National Conference.

It was also announced that Prof. MacAllister has again agreed to be Faculty advisor to the council.

APPLICATIONS BEING RECEIVED

Applications are now being accepted for the McGill Conference on World Affairs. The conference lasts from Nov. 12 to Nov. 15, and two students are to be sent from UNB. Travelling expenses and living expenses while in Montreal will be paid.

Applications for position of Assistant Campus Police Chief are now being received.

Both the above applications should be handed to the chairman of the applications committee or the "B" Box in the Arts Building before noon, Tuesday, October 28th.

Ski School To Be Held

Plans for a "Dry Land Ski School" were announced at the Ski Club meeting Monday night. Toby Rankine suggested the idea, and the majority of members have signed up either as instructors or as students.

The purpose of the school is to encourage skiing by students of the university. Those who have not skied before are especially invited, as well as those who have had skiing experience.

Classes will be commencing in the near future and will include an introduction to skiing, the different techniques, and instructions in everything from snow plow to racing. The school will entail a complete coverage of the sport for everyone, and films on skiing will be used in instructions.

Training Tonight

In the meantime, training for the Varsity Ski team gets underway tonight, from 6:30 to 9:30 in the Boxing Room of the Lady Beaverbrook Gymnasium.

Those interested in working on the ski hill are invited to contact members with cars who may be leaving at 10:30 Saturday morning.

Appointment yet to be made

The Canada Council grant of $5000 for a lecturing artist at UNB is yet to be awarded.

The fellowship is to be filled by an artist of any medium such as painting, music or writing. It is necessary that this person be doing mature and significant work.

The artist's role on the campus would include the continuance of his own work while providing an active stimulus to the lagging spirit in creative arts.

The university is to provide living quarters, work room and travelling expenses. In return, it is hoped that this artist would give approximately three lectures a year.

Barn Raising

The Drama Society will complete construction of the Society Workshop tomorrow. A party celebrating the event will be held in the evening. All students are invited.

Productions to be Featured

Students at U.N.B. are soon to be favored with productions by nationally famous companies.

On November 7, the National Ballet Company will present a program in the Lady Beaverbrook Rink consisting of the second act of "Swan Lake", a comedy entitled "Offenbach in the Underworld" and a few of their own compositions.

This is a one night stand and tickets are going rapidly. They may be purchased from Miss Elin Tychsen, housefellow at the Maggie Jean, and at the local YM-YWCA.

This is the first appearance of the National Ballet in Fredericton for many years.

Second Production

The second production is the Canadian Players' Company who are coming here for the third time in three years later in the month. The first appearance was a sellout and included Peer Gynt by Ibsen, and Hamlet. Last year they came shortly after Christmas and produced Man and Superman by George Bernard Shaw and another Shakespearean play, Othello, to a fair crowd.

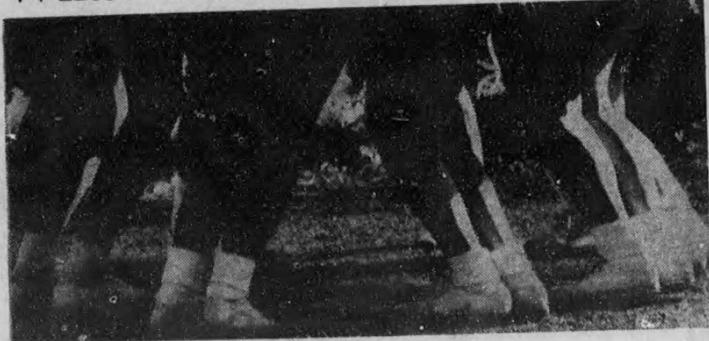

On November 16, the Canadian Players will present Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet and on the following night, Pygmalion, a Shavian comedy of high calibre. The hit Broadway musical My Fair Lady was adapted from Shaw's Pygmalion.

Tickets

The high school is the place to see these plays. Ticket prices range from $2.00 to $2.75 with special student prices of $1.00.

Tickets are being sold for the Canadian Players in the lobby of the Lord Beaverbrook Hotel. Get your tickets now!

ON HUNTING

By Jo-Ann Carr

Biggest Buck I ever saw!!

Hunting is an activity that has had a long and varied history. In present days, the activity has divided into a great many different branches.

There are still people who hunt because they have to, but this breed is, on the whole, down to earth and practical.

Then, there are the big-game hunters, who held such a grasp on the popular imagination just a few years ago. But Tarzan came along and proved white hunters to be dope and diamond smugglers, German espionage agents, or English imperialists. This gave the sport a terrible blow, from which it never recovered.

The English form of hunting foxes or hares deserves some mention. Anywhere from twenty to fifty horses and riders plus ten to twenty hounds plus a horn — whose sum weight would run into the thousands of pounds; chasing a two or three pound rabbit. Due to the fact most of the rabbits were eaten during the war, this sport has lost its popularity.

The form of hunting practised in New Brunswick deserves a small mention. Whereby some twenty hunters, clothed in bright red jackets and caps, with yellow buttons flashing, loaded down with compasses, maps, canteens, insect repellent, pipes, moose calls, knives, rifles and ancient Indian good luck charms (made in Japan) converge on one spot and shoot at each other. Every now and then a stray deer or cow happens to wander into the line of fire. If the former, the hunter gets his picture in the paper, if the latter, takes up tiddleywinks.

LES GIRLS

Marriage is an institution. Education is an institution. There seems to be a growing union of the two on the campus of UNB. Out of this amalgamation, has come a powerful group that is reaching the proportions of a faculty. Powerful is the correct adjective to describe the Student's Wives.

In addition to the normal work load carried by the normal housewife, these vigorous young women enter enthusiastically into campus activities. They take an interest in their husbands' campus affairs, and also have branched into a society of their own. To the list of dances and Winter Carnival, can be added their invasion of Red 'n' Black.

Biology Club Attracts Few

Tuesday evening, the Biology Club held its first meeting of the academic year. Those few who attended heard a talk on "The Teaching of Biology", by Mr. Melvin Moore, superintendent of schools of Oromocto.

In the future the meetings will be held on Monday evenings, which club officials hope, will improve attendance. The next meeting will be held Nov. 3.

Newman Club Has First Meeting

The organizational meeting of the Newman Club was held at St. Dunstan's Hall last Sunday. The meeting opened with a short prayer, after which the constitution of the Newman Club was read. The members of this year's executive were introduced and the various committees were appointed.

The members of the executive are: president, Dick Gallant; vice-president, Mary Lou Hughes; secretary, Marie Aube; Treasurer, Leon Leger.

The Committees and the Chairman of each are as follows: Spiritual, Larry La Violette; Constitutional, Al Brennan; Membership, Leon Leger; Entertainment, Jean Marie Poirier; Refreshments Terry McCluskey; Sports, Peter Kilburn.

The meeting concluded with a short talk by Rev. Maurice McGillvary, the Club's chaplain.

UNB CO-EDS SET TRAP

As everyone knows, the Fall Formal is being held one week from today; therefore, anyone can guess what is being held tonight. Yes, here at UNB it is Sadie Hawkin's Day, although the official Sadie Hawkin's Day is not until November 17. To mark the occasion, a dance is being held in the main hall of the Arts Building. It promises to be an evening full of fun, and at the same time it provides a means to an end. What end? That shall be left to the more imaginative souls on the campus. It would not be in proper taste to reveal the more ulterior motive of the coeds. They are merely putting into action the words of Oscar Hammerstein, "A Fellow Needs A Girl".

PLANS ANNOUNCED FOR FALL FORMAL

The annual Fall Formal is to be held Friday, October 31. Joan Young, the Chairman of the Social Committee, has announced that this year's theme of decorations is an old fashioned ballroom scene. The orchestra will be UNB's Collegians. The dance will run from 9 until 2.

Due to increased enrolment, attendance at the Fall Formal must be limited. Student passes will admit one couple, that is, one student and one guest.

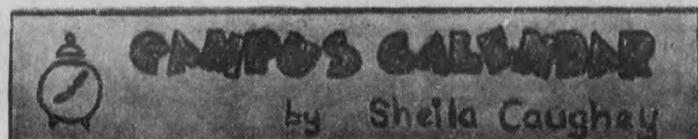

A limited number of tickets are available for guest couples. Tickets may be obtained at the SRC office next week at the following times:

Monday, October 27, between 1. and 2.30 p.m.

Thursday, October 30, between 12.30 and 2.p.m.

Tickets may also be obtained from Marg Corey at the Maggie Jean. The price of these guest tickets is $5.00.

Women were not permitted to enter the University of New Brunswick until 1885. Miss Mary K. Tibbits was the first woman graduate in 1889.

To prevent duplication of meeting times and places and to ensure a listing in THE BRUNSWICKAN, please report all campus events to SHEILA CAUGHEY, campus coordinator, at the Maggie Jean Chestnut House (Phone Granite 5-9061).

N.F.C.U.S. SCHOLARSHIP AWARDED

Last year UNB offered a new entrance scholarship. Under the sponsorship of the local N.F.C.U.S. Committee and with the approval-by-vote of the students, a fifty-cent levy was made at registration. This money was offered through the UNB Scholarship Board to a Maritime student entering this university.

This year the scholarship totaled $650.00 and was divided between two girls, Claire Martin and Margaret Dunn.

Claire Martin is from Springfield, Kings County, and attended Belleisle Regional High School. She was exceptionally active in student organizations and sports as well as excelling scholastically. At UNB, Claire has joined the Choral Society and the Canterbury Club, and plans to play basketball later in the year. She is enrolled in Science, and hopes to major in Chemistry here or transfer to McGill for Physiotherapy.

Margaret Dunn is from Hampstead, N.B., but took grades eleven and twelve at Saint John High School. Margaret's particular interest is music — she plays the piano and sang in the high school chorus. Like Claire, she was a top-ranking student. In Fredericton, Margaret has joined a Young Peoples Union and is a member of the UNB Choral Society. She is a Science student and intends to major in Biology.

We wish to congratulate Claire and Margaret on winning this scholarship, and thank the students for providing it.

WOMEN'S FOLLY

Too many of Canada's young women are no more than social parasites.

Underworked and overfunded, the average pretty young thing thinks all she has to do is appear before her man and demand: "Entertain me!"

It's about time she became adult.

The days are past when woman had the right to sit back and let man support her. She gave it up when she won her battle for other rights, such as the right to choose her mate, the right to go to school and the right to smoke and drink.

Still, today's woman talks about what she wants, not about her duty to become a better, more interesting mate. She thinks herself a goddess whose wishes are commands.

She's wrong. And what's worse, she is not even happy, for she wonders why man treats her as a commodity, something he desires in much the same way he wants a new car.

She might stop wondering and start thinking:

Woman will never earn man's true respect until she stops being his queen, and starts being his partner.—jos

'Capitalist Dilemma' Makes Good Comedy

Capital and Organized Labor conspired against Alec Guinness on Sunday in the UNB Film Society's first movie of the year, The Man in the White Suit.

Neither of the parties was successful, nor was the textile factory laborer played by Guinness. Defeat, however, did not come until the capitalist dilemma had been admirably stated: Is production for the good of the capital and labor concerned or for the consumers?

Sydney Stratton, the laborer, discovers a fabric that apparently will never wear out or even soil. If put into production, the new cloth would make many people very happy; but it would leave the factory owners and the textile workers without jobs and without money — and very unhappy. They, true to the form of human behavior, are selfish and decide that the invention must be suppressed. Thus, the profits and the union shop will continue.

No Solution

Ealing Studios do not attempt to solve the dilemma, only to exploit it. They do this in usual style, by visualizing the fantastic through reality. Alexander MacKendrick, the director, spares few illusions, yet does this in a way which allows his audience, if they wish, to believe that they are laughing at other people's misfortunes, not their own. Guinness is an epitome of the idea that comedy consists of laughter at the foibles of mankind. Until the closing scene, he is almost insensitive. Only when the stability of the fabric unexpectedly falls and it falls from his back do we see the tragedy.

The Man in the White Suit is a movie to make us laugh, not think. If we do think, then it has not helped us to arrive at any conclusions. A situation which must arise in a Western society has been used as the basis for comedy, and it is used successfully.—SF.

WUSC Holds National Conference

'Poor Nations Need Aid'

The 13th national assembly of the World University Service of Canada took place Oct. 10-13 at the University of British Columbia, Vancouver.

Representatives of 21 Canadian universities attended, with the national chairman, Dean James A. Gibson of Carleton University, Ottawa, serving as chairman. Among those on hand were Miss Janet Hunter, temporary chairman of WUSC's UNB Branch, and Prof. David McLay, faculty representative.

One of the major items considered was the role of the local branches. Most delegates felt that these groups should work harder toward removing the sense of isolation Canadian students feel in world affairs.

More Meaning

Delegates decided that the local units should develop programs which would have meaning and purpose for the average student, with the hope of engendering more interest in programs of mutual assistance among nations.

To create more interest, it was decided that the local committees should increase faculty participation, attempt to receive greater financial support from student councils and university administrations, and to improve regional seminars.

Already, students at eight Canadian universities make a per capita donation to WUSC. UNB is one of these. Others are UBC, Saskatchewan, McMaster, Mount Allison, St. Mary's, Prince of Wales and St. Dunstan's.

International Aid

A large proportion of funds raised through these levies goes toward supporting a program of aid on the international level.

Delegates felt that one of the contemporary world's greatest problems is the uneven distribution of wealth: "The West today faces the problem of how to avoid becoming a small, wealthy minority while most of the world's people remain without the basic requirements of life."

Southeast Asia was cited as an example of an underprivileged area seeking to find a way of improving its economic condition. At present, annual income there averages only $55 for each living soul while life expectancy is but 32 years, and 80 per cent of the people are illiterate.

Must Share

Many delegates believe that the West should consider how much of its wealth could be shared, rather than how much could be spared.

Only by helping the needy in Africa and Asia can Canada and the other Western nations help themselves, it was felt.

If the West does not meet its responsibilities toward the underprivileged countries, these nations will have no alternative but to turn to communism, delegates contended.

The West Indies was chosen as the site for the 1959 summer seminar program, which was held this year in Yugoslavia. Vietnam is the tentative site in 1960, with Australia the probable location in 1961.

Same Criteria

Delegates expressed the hope that further selection of delegates would follow the pattern set last summer. Criteria then were: high intelligence, maturity, the ability to meet peoples of diversified backgrounds, and a proven interest and knowledge in the territory to be visited.

Next summer, students making the visit to the West Indies will first discuss the area's social, economic and other conditions during sessions in Jamaica and Trinidad. Then they will scatter in small groups to make on-the-spot studies, before reassembling for the official seminar proceedings.

Seminar Report

May Keith, UNB's representative at the 1958 summer seminar, will give a talk on her adventures in Yugoslavia during the next meeting of the local WUSC branch. Slides will help tell the tale. The session is scheduled for the Oak Room of the Memorial Students' Centre at 8 o'clock Monday evening. Refreshments will be served.

Letters To The Editor

Unsigned Letters

Sir: It is deplorable that one should have to read certain columns and letters to the editor which are written under a "nom de plume".

This leaves the reader puzzled. If a person believes in his convictions shouldn't he at least sign his name to them?

Could the lack of a personal signature be attributed to the fact that a writer will be attacked both "verbally and physically" upon publication of his or her letter or column? If this is so, then we have lost the true meaning of democracy on this campus.

Sincerely,

Name Withheld on Request

Rings 'Monstrous'

Sir: What asinine idea did the SRC have in mind when they ordered such monstrous rings for the graduation class?

Were they intended to be a perfect substitute for brass knuckles? Not only this, they have no style or color and they remind one of something taken from a ten cent box of cracker jacks. Last year's rings at least had red 'n' black on them!

The ladies' rings are too masculine; the men's, too brutish.

They look unfinished, unpolished, and have no finesse.

Are these rings supposed to be something to be proud of or something at which to be laughed? True, they may be worth the price of a meal if one should pawn them, but even that is debatable.

Why couldn't the ladies' ring at least be small and have some semblance of femininity? The men's should be smaller without a doubt. Those rings are so top heavy because of the width of the shoulders and size of the setting that they would spend half of their time with the wrong side showing.

Can't something be done about these monstrosities?

Cafeteria Open Every Evening

The cafeteria in the Memorial Students' Centre is now open in the evenings.

According to J. C. (Jack) Murray, Alumni secretary and Centre director, the move has been undertaken on a trial basis.

He said the cafeteria is staying open each evening until 11 o'clock. On each Saturday night when there is a dance on the campus, the cafeteria will stay open until midnight.

Available during evening hours are short orders, beverages, ice cream, candy and cigarettes.

Formerly, the cafeteria closed after supper was served.

UNB Second in Maritime Track

Mount Allison University took top spot in the Maritime Intercollegiate track and field meet held at Wolfville, Nova Scotia last Tuesday, with a total of 48 points. The University of New Brunswick were runners up, counting a score of 41 points.

The host university, Acadia took third place. Acadia was finally toppled from their reigning perch after winning the title for the past four years. Dalhousie finished fourth with 24 points and Saint Francis Xavier fifth with 19 points.

Mount Allison took five firsts and four seconds in piling up their winning total. Vic MacLeod of Mt A broke the record for the mile run, clocking the distance in four minutes, 35.4 seconds, 4.2 seconds better than the previous mark.

Mounties football star Pete Smallman demonstrated his tremendous speed winning the 100 yard dash and the 220. Smallman's time for the 100 yard dash was 10.3 seconds.

UNB had two double winners. Robin Shearer won the broad jump and hammer throw in an outstanding display while Bill McMackin took the 120 yard hurdles and the high jump. Frank McHugh took the pole vault with a jump of 10' 6". Doug Howes finished second in both the mile run and the 880 yard run.

Coach Amby Legere headed the fourteen man team that came close to copping the title.

Bombers Set For Tommies

By Tommie Jarrett

The UNB Red Bombers take to the road once again this weekend as they clash with the St. Thomas Tommies in Chatham. Coach Nelson is hopeful that the weather man will co-operate a little better than last week as the team is hoping to try some new pass patterns.

To date the squad has but 18 aerial attempts to their credit while the running attack has been superb.

At one stage this year the team was injury plagued but have overcome this with Dave Fairbairn, Bob Walker, and Jim Ross being the only sidelined victims. The stonewall defensive team led by Tom Doyle, and Sonny Clarke is well intact. Offensively, Pete Madorin and Pete Rylander have their backfield running hard and strong. The Bombers, on a new winning road are looking forward to adding to their previous victories.

UNB Wins Soccer 5-4 Upsets RCAF in Overtime

The UNB Soccer eleven took over two hours on Wednesday afternoon on College Field to defeat R.C.A.F. Summerside by the score of 5-4.

This was a Summer Cup match and UNB will now meet Mount Allison in the semi-finals.

Mercer gave UNB an early lead scoring on a pass from Foerstel, but in reply the P.E.I. side banged in three opportunist goals in five minutes. Hans Foerstel reduced their lead to 3-2 on a pass from Hart.

Soon after half-time Summerside scored again but Baker set Cooke up to make the score 4-3. UNB tied the game up just on time when John Drew netted after a goal mouth scramble.

Thirty minutes overtime was played and near the end Hart scored the winner for UNB after the ball bounded off the cross bar.

Territorially UNB had an advantage throughout the game and should have won it in the first half hour but it was the R.C.A.F. who showed how to make full use of scoring opportunities. The UNB defence on the whole played well and Tony McGuire in particular played hard throughout. However, the forwards must learn to shoot and the wingers must cross the ball to give their insides a chance to shoot.

The team showed that they have the fight to come from behind; nonetheless they must play more constructive soccer if they are to cop the Intercollegiate title and the Sumner Trophy.

Takes Tennis Crown

Dalhousie University won the team standings and most of the individual honours in the Maritime Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament held in Halifax last Saturday. Teams representing Dalhousie, Mount Allison, UNB, St. Mary's and Saint Francis Xavier competed in the tourney.

Pam Dewis of Dalhousie defeated Barbara Cotts of Mount Allison 6-3, 6-0 to win the women's singles title. Miss Dewis is the defending Canadian Junior doubles champion, and the Nova Scotia junior singles, doubles, and mixed titleholder.

The women's doubles title went to Barbara Capp and Ann Ferguson of Mount Allison.

Ken McReynolds of Mount Allison won the men's singles title while the Dalhousie pair of Bill White and Bob Cunningham took the men's doubles.

Winnie MacPherson, Joanne Carr, Georgina Elton, Don Morgan, Arnold de Costa and John MacDougall composed the team representing UNB.

UNB team manager and player Don Morgan indicated that the competition was extremely keen this year and that most of UNB's matches could have gone either way, especially the doubles. Such individual players as Pam Dewis and Ken McReynolds, who was formerly ranked among the top five juniors in Canada, has raised the standards of Maritime Intercollegiate tennis to a much higher level. This is witnessed by the fact that UNB sent some extremely good players to Halifax yet they finished last in both men's and women's divisions.

Team Standings

Women—Dalhousie 9, Mount Allison 9, UNB 0.

Men—Dalhousie 21, Mount Allison 16, St. Mary's 9, Saint FX 7, UNB 7.

Beginning Tuesday an exciting new column, Campus Beat, will give readers the inside story on UNB activities.
