SWEARS STEWART SAID THAT HE HAD SHOT ROSS

At the trial here Friday of Millet Stewart, charged with the murder of James Ross, Victoria Latulippe swore that the accused had told her that he had shot Ross.

A great deal of interest is being taken in this case, the court room being crowded day after day.

Among those who attend regularly are Stewart's wife and four children; also the widow of the murdered man and her small children. The crown has several more witnesses to call, including Fred and Joe Latulippe, and it is expected the case will be finished on Tuesday of next week.

At the morning session, John Savoy was subjected to a long and grueling cross-examination by Daniel Mullin, K. C., counsel for the prisoner, but his story was not changed materially.

Afternoon Session. At the afternoon session the crown called Victoria Latulippe. The witness testified she had worked as a domestic at the house of the accused at the time of the murder. On the morning of the murder she heard that her family was being put out of their property, and she went down and saw Ross there. She took a stick and hit Ross on the head twice with it. He shoved her away and carried her out of doors. Stewart was across the road and showed the witness a knife and wanted her to go to the house and drive them put. He picked up a stone and wanted her to hit them with it, which she refused to do.

She went back to the Stewart place and, after supper, the accused wanted her to come on down to the shore. "We will go and put Ross out of the house," he had said. The witness could not go at first, but later said that she would. She started for Ross's place with Stewart and John Savoy, driving in the wagon. Stewart had a gun. They met the witness's brothers, Fred and Joe, on the road and Stewart asked them to go down and help put Ross out. The Latulippe boys did not want to go and said they would not go down if there was going to be any shooting. Stewart said there would be no shooting done. They went down and, before they got to Ross's gate, the accused gave the witness a long bar of iron and wanted her to break into Ross's house, saying he would follow behind. She refused to do this. Stewart then got out of the wagon about fifty yards before reaching Ross' gate, while the others stayed in the wagon and drove on down the road.

When they got to the turn in the road the witness heard two shots, and about five minutes afterwards Stewart came up to the wagon and put the gun in the wagon and got in and said: "I shot him". The witness said: "For G— sake, what did you say?" The accused said "Yes I got him". The witness said: "Did you see him?" Stewart said "Yes he was standing by the gate and I fired at him, and I saw him fall." All the way home Stewart kept saying to witness: "Save my life, save my life and don't tell on me." That night the accused came to the witness door after she was in bed and said: "Do you think I killed him." The witness said: "I don't know; go to your bed". At the inquest next day, the accused had said to the witness: "What are you going to say this morning?" She said, "I am going to tell the truth; I am going to tell what I know." Stewart said "By G—, if you do you will get all that is coming to you." He then said he was going to swear he had no rifle. The witness said: "If you do it will be a false oath, because you know you did." Stewart said, "I don't give a D— for a false oath."

DELEGATION MEETS WITH GOVERNMENT

A delegation composed of C. J. Morrissey, John S. Martin and Fred Fowle representing Northumberland County in the provincial legislature appeared before the Government Wednesday morning and made requests concerning matters affecting the county particularly. A request was made concerning the Town of Chatham and the unemployment problem there at present. The Government was asked to take action toward relief of the situation. The delegation asked that a change be made in regard to the regulation concerning land settlement. Many of the settlement lots are located in sections devastated by the spruce-bud worm. Applicants are confined to the clearing of ten acres of the hundred acres in each lot. The delegation requested that the regulation be altered so as to permit of cutting timber damaged by bud-worm on the balance of the acreage. The request opened the entire question of colonization which was discussed by the government and delegation.

THE OPTIMIST

Sometimes when things seem worse they are really much better. I know from the touch of things and from the sight of things, and by comparing them today with a year ago and the year before that again, that they are gradually getting better.

All the same, we are not quite through, and we must pull together. Britain is the Mightiest, safest and truest of all lands. I do not see any thing that can take its place at the present moment.—Mr. Lloyd George.

- RULE I. Don't lie, it wastes my time and yours. I am sure to catch you in the end, and that's the wrong end.
- RULE II. Watch your work, not the clock. A long day's work makes a long day short, and a short day's work makes my face long.
- RULE III. Give more than I expect and I'll pay you more than you expect. I can afford to increase your pay if you increase my profit.
- RULE IV. You owe so much to yourself that you can't afford to owe anybody else. Keep out of debt, or keep out of my factory.
- RULE V. Dishonesty is never an accident. Good men can see temptation when they meet it.
- RULE VI. Mind your own business and in time you'll have a business of your own to mind.
- RULE VII. Don't do anything which hurts your self-respect. The employee who is willing to steal for me is capable of stealing from me.
- RULE VIII. It's none of my business what you do at night, but if dissipation affects what you do the next day and you do half as much as I demand, you'll last half as long as you hoped.
- RULE IX. Don't tell me what I'd like to hear, but what I ought to hear. I don't want a valet to my vanity, but I need one for my money.

WILL TRY FOX FARMING

ANIMALS TAKEN OVER TO ENGLAND FROM CANADA.

Experts Believe That the Ranches Will Succeed In the Old Land as Well as In the Dominion—Fortunes Have Been Made Very Rapidly Here by Men Who Started the Industry.

An interesting experiment, which is expected to lead to the establishment in the British Isles of an important new industry, has just been begun in East Ross-shire, Scotland. A number of silver foxes have been taken over from Canada to form a nucleus of a farm devoted solely to the breeding and rearing of these valuable animals.

Unlike most experiments, this one will not be regarded entirely with indifference by the majority of people. The woman who hitherto has been precluded from buying silver fox furs on account of their high price will be keenly interested.

The capitalist who is always on the look-out for new investments will watch the venture with a favorable eye. The experiment's greatest claim to attention lies in the fact that it is likely to be successful. Experts say that there is no reason why Scotland and certain parts of England should not have their fox farms, just as they have their dairy, fruit, and poultry farms.

For the stock they look to Canada, where within the last seven years or so fur farms have become an industry of great importance. This is proved by the recently-published official figures, which show that there are now more than four hundred and thirty of these farms in this country.

The value of the land, buildings, and stock on these fox farms exceeds $5,000,000. Every year thousands of foxes are born in captivity, while many thousands are killed. In the first days of the industry, investments yielded dividends of 1,000 per cent. Since then the returns have naturally declined, but even so the profits are enormous, and big fortunes are being made.

One fox farmer in Canada has made $50,000 clear profit in five years. He started with a capital of not quite $500. Prince Edward Island, where there are over two hundred of these farms, can boast many romances like this.

Fox-farming, however, is not a game for the novice to play. Foxes are not creatures to be reared in close confinement you need to understand them thoroughly. Mother foxes are extraordinarily timid; they will frequently carry their young in their mouths for days, depositing them first in one place and then in another, until the little ones die of exposure and exhaustion.

For this reason the fox farmer must keep a strict watch on his charges. Keepers often have to sit up for nights on end during the breeding season in order to protect the young from the restlessness of the mothers. The actual breeding of the animals, it is to be noted, is attended with few difficulties; it is the rearing that occasions most anxiety.

What are the foxes fed on? Their dietary is a varied one, ranging from mice to birds, and from insects to wild berries. Meat is given in considerable quantities, together with table scraps, dog biscuits, and milk. The danger lies not so much in the kind of food given as in the amount. The fox is a prodigious eater.

The silver fox in captivity is inclined to be treacherous towards its owner or keeper. A fox rancher in Nova Scotia not long ago lost his left hand through being bitten by one of his animals. They do not like being handled. Often they will fight among themselves, the strong ones combining to stamp out the weak. A fight in a pen of silver foxes frequently means the loss, in a single half-hour's combat, of hundreds of dollars' worth of animals and fur.

Fox farmers have one great enemy to guard against—the fox poacher. This individual goes to work in an original fashion. Instead of stealing a fox straight from the pen—a difficult matter—he contrives to release, generally at night, one or two of the animals, and then shoots them when they are in the open. In doing this, he is fairly safe, as it is naturally not easy to prove the ownership of an escaped fox in a country where wild foxes are fairly numerous.

An instance of this, and of the same manner in which the thief was discovered, is given in the following true story:

A fox rancher recognized a fine pelt in a Hudson Bay Company store as being that of a fox which had mysteriously disappeared from his farm some time before. He communicated his suspicions to the storekeeper, at the same time inquiring the source from which the company had obtained the pelt. In the interests of common honesty the storekeeper agreed to co-operate in a scheme to trap the thief.

A live fox was secured and placed in the drawer where the pelts were usually kept. The suspected person—a ne'er-do-well trapper—was then sent for. He arrived on the scene, fuddled with drink. The storekeeper then explained that a remarkable thing had happened. The pelt which the trapper had sold him, he said, had disappeared, and a live fox had taken its place. It looked as if the skin itself had come to life!

Completely bewildered, the superstitious trapper went to the drawer. Opening it, and seeing a wide-open jaw and two eyes flashing at him from the darkness, he rushed yelling out of the store. The local parson happened to be passing, and to him the terror-stricken man at once confessed his guilt.

Until 1555 farthings were made of silver.

NEW BRUNSWICK BONSPIEL PLANNED

FREDERICTON, Dec. 13—The Scottish curlers, who are coming to Canada on the tour of the Royal Caledonia Curling Club of Scotland next winter, will be asked to include New Brunswick in its itinerary.

Judge Walter Limerick has been chosen as the Fredericton Curling Club's representative to attend a Royal Caledonia branch meeting in Moncton, and among other things will report on preparations for a New Brunswick bonspiel here in January when the Blair Cup—donated some years ago by the late Hon. A. G. Blair and indicative of the provincial curling championship—will be played for.

TRUE BILL RETURNED BY GRAND JURY

The December sitting of the Supreme Court opened Tuesday morning, before Chief Justice McKeown, with the following criminal docket:

King vs. Millet S. Stewart, murder of James Ross.

King vs. William Stewart, attempted rape.

Kings vs. Hachey, theft.

The following grand jurors were sworn: Jerome A. Morris, foreman; Howard Bell, Michael Jardine, J. W. Russell, Arthur Attridge, W. B. Jones, J. A. Morrison, James McGiath, George Delano, A. G. Russell, and R. J. Gill.

The first case on the docket is that of Millet Stewart. Hon. W. P. Jones of Woodstock, is the prosecuting attorney, while the prisoner is represented by Daniel Mullin, K. C., St. John, and George M. McDade, Chatham. The crime for which Stewart is being tried is for the murder of James Ross, of Tabusintac, at Neguac on the night of August 2nd last.

About 25 witnesses have been summoned by the Crown, and, according to Robert Crawford, who has been gathering the evidence, some new evidence will be introduced.

A coincidence in the court is that William Stewart, who recently came here from the United States to assist in the defence of his brother, will also, face the court on the next serious case, that of attempted rape.

After deliberating for about half an hour, the grand jury returned a true bill against Stewart.

I'm So Tired

Fatigue is the result of poisons in the blood. So when the kidneys fail to purify the blood one of the first indications is unusual and persistent tired feelings and pains in the back.

Neglected kidney troubles lead to years of suffering from rheumatism or develop into such fatal ailments as Bright's disease.

The kidney action is promptly corrected by use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills—the best known regulator of kidneys, liver and bowels.

Mrs. John Ireland, R.R. No. 2, King, Ont., writes:

RATHER LOVE THAN HAVE

While mourning for the dishonor, Northumberland County and the Dominion of Canada in general has sustained, in the recent election, yet we, along with the majority of the reputable people of this constituency have the consoling thought that we would rather love what we cannot have, than have what we cannot love.

THE KING OF FESTIVALS

"Hark! the herald-angels sing,
Glory to the new-born King"

Away back in the misty past, in the land called "Holy" while Shepherds guarded their flock by night; the glory of the Lord shone round about them, and an angel revealed to them, the fact of the birth of Christ, giving them this sign; "ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And the message delivered to a multitude of the heavenly host, joined the Angel, in joyful praise to God, and this was their Anthem:—

"Glory to God in the Highest,
On earth peace;
To men of good-will"

The Shepherds witnessed the flight of the angels back to heaven and went with haste, "and found Mary, and Joseph; and the babe lying in a manger."

Such is the story of the first Christmas. No worldly pomp surrounded the greatest birth the world has ever known. It tells not of waiting servants, royal palaces, and lordly halls, and yet a child of the House of David was born; the King of Kings, and Lord of lords came forth to life in a manger. His name, above every other name, cannot be forgotten but will remain while earth lasts and be ever remembered and worshipped throughout the eternal hereafter.

It is nigh two thousand years, since that first Christmas was added to the world history; and during all the centuries since; wherever Christians dwell, year after year, it has been observed and celebrated as "the King of festivals."

Wise men of the East, were also deeply interested in this wonderful Birth. They had heard a King of the Jews was born; but not just then did they think of a spiritual kingdom. The change came at sight of the Babe. A star appeared in the heavens—the star of Bethlehem. Gazing upwards they watched and wondered inspired by a sacred spirit, they wended their way of Jerusalem. They told their story of seeing his star in the east, and asked, where is he that is born king of the Jews? and there they learned that their guest would be satisfied in Bethlehem of Judea. They departed on their journey, the star their guide, going on before them, 'till it came and stood over where the young child was. They rejoiced with the great joy of a mighty faith. They worshipped him, the Emmanuel; God with us, bowing before the Son of God, and with their prayers; they poured out their worldly wealth, as they opened their treasurers, and presented to him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

Various countries, celebrate it in various ways. Christians hold it as a festival of worship, and of joy, and of love. In lofty cathedral, and humble village church, glad anthems; wherever the sacred name is revered, will arise to join the hosannas of the angelic choir. And this is a service all can join in, as brethren, and soldiers of the same King no matter by what other name they may be known.

In the family too it is a season of joy. Reunions take place around the festive table. The joy may be mingled with sorrow; as memory turns back to some bereavement and we see a vacant chair; but in that sorrow, the 'Man of Sorrows' has joined and his healing love, makes whole the broken heart. We still have a Christmas joy.

And the 'Kiddies' too. See them romp, and hear their merry laugh, as their little hearts are made glad by the kindness and love of Father and Mother, and loving friends. Ah they know it is Christmas, by the gifts which have poured in upon them, and the story of Bethlehem's Babe.

The needy, the poor, the afflicted where are they? Christmas to them may bring little of earth's joy unless others better off in worldly goods, reach out with hands of love, to bring some joy to their homes. Poor they are, but not so poor as to have been born in a manger; poor but not so poor as to have no where to lay their head, but yet it is for those, who are really not poor, to help make their Christmas happy, and to shower out on that sacred, happy, merry day, their gifts "of gold and frankincense and myrrh." The Babe of Bethlehem sees it all.

The Advocate extends to all, the wish, that they may have a Christmas day of good things, and real happiness.

BATTLE AT PETRA.

Stirring Episode of Col. Lawrence's Arabian Campaign.

One of the most stirring episodes of Col. Lawrence's Arabian Campaign says Mr. Lowell Thomas in the Asia Magazine, was the battle fought at Petra, the ancient rock city that, until the war broke out, had been asleep for almost two thousand years.

The battle took place in October, 1917. The Turkish commander, Djemal Pasha, sent out in three columns from Maan more than seven thousand men and several units of light artillery, accompanied by a squadron of German airplanes. On October 21st, the columns were to converge on Petra, where Lawrence and his Bedouins were safely lodged. Lawrence had only two mountain field guns and two machine guns, but with them for more than six hours he held the first ridge five miles south of Petra. Vacating it, he set half his men to a little ridge on the opposite side of the valley.

Elated at having captured the trenches on the first ridge, the Turks were certain that they had decisively beaten Lawrence's forces. Thinking that the Arabs had retired all the way into Petra, they charged enthusiastically down into the valley. Lawrence let at least a thousand of the enemy's troops rush headlong between the two ridges. When he had the Turks wedged into the narrowest part of the gorge, one of his aides fired a rocket into the air. A moment later pandemonium broke loose in the mountains of Edom. The Arabs poured a stream of fire from all sides; the crack of rifles seemed to come from every rock. With shrill screams the women and children tumbled huge boulders on the heads of the Turks and the Germans six hundred feet below. Utterly bewildered, the invaders became panicky and scattered in all directions.

A few minutes before the sun sank behind the rose-colored mountains, Lawrence and Mair Bey again sent up rockets. At the signal their followers swept down the ridges into the valley. They captured the entire Turkish transport, a complete field hospital and hundreds of prisoners.

Where Florins Came From.

Most of the names of British coins are very old, and many have changed considerably from their original form.

The pound, for instance, was at first not a coin at all, but simply a measure of weight. Before the use of gold coins it was probably sixteen ounces of iron or copper. The gold coin represents the equivalent of these unwieldy amounts. For centuries the Scottish pound was a small silver coin worth only a shilling or two.

The word shilling means a division. In fact, the silver coins were called twentieth shillings, or divisions of a pound. This was too long a name, and only the word shilling survived.

The crown and half-crown receive their names from the fact that in early days they bore the king's arms and crown on their reverse side.

The florin is really a Florence piece. At Florence coinage was made of very pure silver, and, therefore, had a high value in the eyes of men. Edward III, resolved to produce an English coin of equal purity and value, which, when it appeared, at once received the name of Florence piece, florin, or florin.

Penny comes from a Saxon word penning, meaning a "pledge." The original meaning of the word is seen in the phrase "binding penny," a pledge given to seal a bargain.

The farthing is really a fourthing, or fourth part. Saxon pennies had grooves cut in them for the purpose of a cross so that they could be broken at will into four fourthings.

"Stone Age" Men In 1921.

The least visited island in the Pacific, is Rennell Island, 120 miles south of Guadalcanar, in the Solomon group. There are only about 500 inhabitants, and because of their virtual isolation, through lack of ship's anchorage, even their dialect has never been studied. They are almost cut off from the outside world by walls of coral limestone, 300 feet high, and are said to be still living in a manner "before the Stone Age." Dr. Northcote Deck has recently made a series of visits to the island. On first landing he established friendly relations with the natives, who appeared heavily armed. "They bought every article for sale," he says, "to obtain the much-coveted iron. All were smeared with turmeric, giving them a bright yellow color, and were tattooed in regular patterns according to rank." They were seen swimming with flying foxes, whose teeth seem to form the only currency on the island. Dr. Deck says the natives seemed to feel keenly the monotony of their isolation, and showed a settled melancholy, both in their faces and the cadence of their voices. Their only sort of music, to which they dance, consists in the tuneless beating of a log.

Peru's Independence.

Peru has recently been celebrating the centennial anniversary of its independence. Lima, the Peruvian capital, was for centuries the centre of Spanish dominion in South America, but its people followed the lead of rebellious Chile and Buenos Ayres in establishing independence at the end of the second decade of the nineteenth century. The constitution of 1860, by which Peru is now governed, is very similar to the American Constitution. Nominally, the people are free and have sovereign rights in the choice of representatives, but in reality the poverty and ignorance of the masses leaves them helpless.

Inhabitants on the Globe. There are about 1,500,000,000 inhabitants on the globe. Of these 40,000,000 die every year, 157,735 per day, 6,500 per hour, about 90 per minute, or three in every one second.

SIR SAM HUGHES LEAVES $800,000

Sir Sam Hughes "the Kitchener of Canada," and former minister of Militia, when he died, left an estate worth $800,000. A year before his death, he liquidated all his stock holdings and invested in victory bonds, so that by far the largest portion of his estate, is represented in that way. He also held real estate and coal lands in the West.

The whole estate is divided among Lady Hughes, the son, General Garnet Hughes, now in England, and the two daughters, Mrs. Byron Greene of Toronto and Miss Aileen at home.

The history of his work during the Great War, placed him in the front rank, as a Military Organizer. His loyalty to Canada, and the Empire remains as an Epitaph, which will keep his name unforgotten in the annals of the Dominion. The name of "Sam Hughes" is stamped forever on its pages. Canadian History would be incomplete without it.

RUSH OF TRAVEL AT XMAS SEASON

Heavy Travel Looked for by Canadian National Railways

Western People for the Old Country.

The Christmas Season is the time of travel. "Home for Christmas" is a custom that has come down to us through the ages. In the old days it was the stage coach. Now it is the solid steel trains of our great Transcontinental Railways that annihilate distance and make a long journey a period of comfort and pleasure.

The Christmas rush to the old country is already over. A few days ago a special train of tourist cars and standard sleepers passed through Moncton en route to Halifax, filled with people from Western Canada, who sailed from Halifax for England. Nearly all were British born Canadians, some of whom were making their first trip to the old land since they left it. From Winnipeg this special carried them to Halifax over the lines of the Canadian National Railways—the "National Way from Ocean to Ocean." The train equipment was of the finest—the tourist cars being of most modern type and the standard sleepers the acme of comfort. They had made the journey in record time and all were delighted with the fine train service afforded them.

Christmas this year happening on Sunday, with Monday observed as a holiday, gives an opportunity of an extra day for a week-end trip, and this is being taken advantage of by many. A large flow of local travel is being looked for, and the Canadian National Railways are making every preparation to handle the expected rush.

Enquiries at ticket offices and consequent reservations also show that there is to be considerable travel between East and West, and from coast to coast. The through services of the Canadian National offer splendid opportunities for those who desire the quickest and most comfortable journey. From the Maritime Provinces the finest of train service is afforded to Montreal, where connection is made with the famous "Continental Limited" leaving Bonaventure Station at 9.00 p. m. daily, for Ottawa, North Bay, Cochrane, Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Edmonton and Vancouver.

At Montreal connections are made by the Grand Trunk train for Toronto and at Toronto with the famous express "The National" for Parry Sound, Sudbury, Port Arthur, Fort William, Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Edmonton and Vancouver.

Connections at Quebec are made with the Transcontinental train which connects at Cochrane with the Continental Limited. All these through trains are the very finest in their appointments and assure the traveller of the most delightful journey.

What is therefore more fitting for Canadians than a trip through Canada—across Canada's National Highway, by the trains de luxe of the Canadian National Railways.

MANY GLAD HEARTS

On Saturday morning Captain and Mrs. Goodwin of the Salvation Army commenced their collection for the Christmas program. Up to date the collection has been most gratifying, and as a result many troubled hearts have already been made glad. One poor little fellow received from Captain Goodwin a pair of felt boots and it did one's heart good to see the expression of appreciation which this little fellow's face carried. This is the kind of good work the Salvation Army is doing and it is deserving of the public's patronage. On Saturday the collection amounted to $50.40.

NOT SO EASY

The Liberal press is joining their denial that MacKenzie King has a free hand in selecting Cabinet members. The people are quick to note Quebec domination, and are not to be misled by effusive despatches to the contrary. It is understood that Mr. Meighen has already notified the Governor-General that he is ready to relinquish office, but has been asked to continue in office until Mr. King is ready with his cabinet. Apparently Mr. King is not having such an easy time of it as the Liberal Press would like the people to believe.

ANOTHER FIGHT COMING

Carpenter is getting ready again, time for a bout with George Cook, on January 12. As far as Carpenter's condition is concerned, Descamps declares that there is nothing to the rumors that he was so badly punished in the Dempsey bout that he will never be able to reach top form again. But only Carpenter and his immediate official family really know the truth of his condition. The fight with Cook will tell the story.

TWO REAL WORKERS

The many friends of Capt. and Mrs. Goodwin of the local Salvation Army Corps are pleased to see them once more, able to attend to their many duties, after their severe shaking up received in the overturning of their sleigh near the railway crossing a week ago. The genial Captain and his wife since making Newcastle their home have made many admiring friends and the good work done by them since coming here is appreciated by the entire community. The calls for assistance and help, demanded of them make the local officers two of the busiest people in our midst and the sincerity and promptness in which they go about their work speaks most highly for them in doing their Master's work. On election day a drum head collection was taken at the Court House and the substantial sum of $50.01 was collected. Last week the Lord Beaverbrook Chapter I. O. D. E. subscribed the handsome donation of $50.00 to these two officers to assist them in the work which they purpose doing at Christmas for the poor and needy. Donations of this kind are most gratefully received and coming from an organization such as the I. O. D. E. proves beyond the shadow of a doubt that the local officers and the Salvation Army are recognized as being better fitted in more ways than one to dispense moneys for those in need. During this week a collection for Christmas charitable work is being taken up by the energetic Captain and his wife and no doubt they will receive the hearty cooperation and help of all good citizens. Captain and Mrs. Goodwin have a heavy program mapped out for Christmas and in order to make a success of it will require the public's assistance. We bespeak for them the hearty co-operation of all, knowing that the local Salvation Army officers will put every cent received to a useful purpose, which in turn will further help to roll the old chariot along.

NO PROVINCIAL GENERAL ELECTION

Hon. W. E. Foster stated at Fredericton on Tuesday.

"There is no foundation for reports of a provincial election. It is only a little over a year since the government was returned with a mandate to carry out certain policies and do certain things. There has not been time to do much more than initiate some of these policies, and talk of a provincial general election is ludicrous under the circumstances."

MISS AGNES M'PHAIL WILL NOT WEAR HAT

CEYLON, Ont. Dec. 9.—The civility of "knee and hat and hand," or at least, of hat, will be observed by Miss Agnes McPhail, the first woman member of the Parliament of Canada.

Certain of the gentlemen members of Parliament have begun to fuss concerning Miss McPhail's probable action with regard to rule 15, which declares that "every member desiring to speak shall rise in his place, uncovered—" but Miss McPhail had solved that difficulty long ago.

"I had determined that I would not wear a hat," she declared today. "I think it far more sensible. I don't want to grow bald," in horrified remembrance of the effect that parliamentary life has had upon the locks of a number of statesmen.

Lady Astor, it will be remembered in sympathy with rules, wears a small black hat in the British House of Commons.

BIG FIND OF PIRATE GOLD IN GERMANY

An enormous amount of hidden treasure has just been discovered near Cuxhaven, Germany. It is valued at 20,000,000 marks and is believed to be the biggest find of its kind in history. It was buried by the famous pirate, Stortebeker and people have been searching for it since 1890. It was found in a chest which at first, was thought to contain pieces of brass. Tests proved these objects to be of the finest gold. According to German law the finders are entitled to one-tenth of the treasure. As it is believed there are other chests buried in the neighborhood, the searchers will reap a rich reward. Stortebeker was the great est pirate of the fourteenth century, and was the terror of the North Sea. Finally he was captured and hanged at Hamburg.

HAVE STARTED THEIR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

That a large number of citizens have already taken time by the forelock and started their Christmas shopping, was evidenced by the increased purchases made in most of the stores in the city during the last two days. Practically every shop window, displays attractive gifts in various lines which would satisfy the most fastidious, and, within the shops of the different merchants, the atmosphere is permeated with the Christmas spirit by reason of the decorations and the Yuletide arrangements of many articles from the ornamental to the more essential ones.

Several stores were opened yesterday evening so as to afford an opportunity to citizens, who are unable to shop during the regular hours, to make their Christmas purchases. Business has been particularly brisk since Monday, and following the usual custom, practically every business establishment will be open each night this week.

Only four more shopping days remain, however, before Christmas, and the advantages of early purchasing are fully apparent when one considers the vast assortment from which to choose at the present time. Members of the public who postpone making their purchases for no good reason, do so to their own detriment, as they have not the same variety from which to select as those who buy early.

Hitherto, there has been a tendency to procrastinate in the buying of Christmas gifts but this year a marked change appears to have taken place. The indications, during the past two days, are that there will be no repetition of last minute purchases, which, as a rule, do not produce the same amount of satisfaction to the donor or the recipient, as the former has little or no choice in the matter of selection, but merely purchases, what appears to be the best to his mind, of the remnants left by the early shoppers.

MINE BOSS SAYS HE WAS HELPLESS

Arizona Man Was Simply Down and Out and Couldn't Even Move Himself—Feels Fine Now.

Harry E. Scott, a well-known mine boss, whose address is Box 683, Tombstone, Arizona, writes: "I was down and out nearly all the time with rheumatism and finally got to where I couldn't move, even to feed myself. My wife thought I would never get well again, and she knew my condition better than anyone else.

"I was absolutely helpless when my wife started giving me Tanlac and in four days I ate a hearty meal for the first time in many months. Tanlac put me on my feet and I'm back on the job working hard and feeling just fine. I have gained eighteen pounds in weight, too."

Tanlac is sold by all leading druggists.

MAKING THE CHANGE

Under the above caption, the St. John Globe says editorially:—"On the first of January at 6 o'clock in the morning British Columbia will adopt the drive-to-the-right rule of the road, leaving the Maritime Province the only section of Canada following the old world plan of driving to the left. The change is made, as it should be made in New Brunswick in the interest of public safety. Each succeeding season brings a number of accidents, the direct result of lack of knowledge or failure to remember that the rule of the road here is not the rule in the United States, in Quebec, in Ontario. That we follow a different rule made no difference until the ever-widening use of the automobile brought so many strangers on our roads that the danger menace has become very real and very serious. To reduce to the limit the danger which might result from local failure to observe the new rule the British Columbia Government has adopted a number of practical suggestions put forward by the Vancouver Automobile Club. The government will provide auto windshield stickers in the form of an arrow, with the words, "Keep to the Right". Signs with same legend for the back of motors will also be provided and given every traffic officer with authority to place these upon motors which lack them. In addition, the government is having new road signs made bearing the legend, "Keep to the Right," which will be put into place on all provincial highways between midnight and six a. m. January 1. Large banners bearing the same caution will be strung across the principal streets of the cities and towns, and street cars will carry both front and rear signs to the same effect. As a further precaution, the Automobile Club will notify all its members of the change. The Maritime Provinces should follow the British Columbia example and inaugurate the keep-to-the-right plan for street traffic as a measure of public safety, made practically imperative because of the increasing number of foreign cars which come here, and because the general run of cars are equipped with that plan of street traffic. The separation of the two drivers by the full width of their cars constitute a measure of danger."

"Cold in the Head"

is an acute attack of Nasal Catarrh. Those subject to frequent "colds in the head" will find that the use of HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE will build up the System, cleanse the blood and render them less liable to colds. Repeated attacks of Acute Catarrh may lead to Chronic Catarrh. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is taken internally and acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.
All druggists. Circulars free.

TWO CARLOADS OF LIQUOR RECEIVED

FREDERICTON, Dec. 12—Two carloads of liquor have been received during the past few days by the N. B. Board of Liquor Vendors from the Canadian Drug Company, St. John. It is part of the quantity coming into the commission's warehouses as a result of the final closing out of the stock of the Canadian Drug Company, said to be the last of the former holders of wholesale licenses, with which a settlement has been made by the board of vendors.

It is understood that the first financial statement from the Board of Liquor Vendors has been about completed. It may be submitted to the government at their meeting this week, but it is doubtful if it will be available to the public until the legislature meets. The statement covers the period up to the close of the fiscal year on Oct. 31, and may be published with the other provincial accounts late in January.

What is YOUR Condition?

Ill health is no one's fault but your own. "Pep energy, the spirit to be up and doing, all follow in the footsteps of good health. Loss of weight, loss of appetite, grouchy spirit, loss of energy, ambition and nerve force as well as dyspepsia is man's nemesis. They make men and women feel homeless, despairing, despondent and blue, struggling and rebelling against fate—a failure in their chosen work. Few people realize the terrible agony caused by the depletion of nerve force and poor blood. Many suffer its tortures. But thousands of people are escaping its terrors, are restored to the unlimited joys of youthful health by REDMAC the great tonic of herbs, roots and bark. Both a blood and nerve force, it feeds strength to your body and brain cells, restoring these forces to you like electricity to a storage battery. Positive in its effect, proven in its benefits—it is acclaimed throughout all Canada—as a boon to men and women. Make yourself fit to take your rightful place in life's work, be a weakling no longer, right this moment GO and secure a bottle of REDMAC. Sold in Newcastle by The Rexall Store Dickson & Troy.

BEAVERBROOK'S VISITORS
London, Dec. 21—Lord Beaver, brook's week-end visitors included Lord Birkenhead, Lord Chancellor, and Sir James Dunn, Premier Lloyd George also was a caller on Lord Beaverbrook, the Premier's appearance being regarded as specially interesting in view of assertions having been made that the former had become politically estranged from the Premier.

TEMPERANCE WORKERS
Last Wednesday evening a meeting of Temperance Workers was held and the general situation existing in the town was discussed. Many matters of interest were brought up. A committee of three was appointed and certain matters placed in their hands for immediate attention. No doubt we will soon hear further from the committee, which is determined to have the matters placed in their hands rectified at once.

SINGING TO BE TAUGHT IN SCHOOLS
According to the Sackville Tribune at a recent meeting of the Sackville School Board it was decided to teach singing in the schools there. The matter was brought up at the Board by Trustee Fawcett who told of her recent visit to the Moncton Schools where she had found that the teaching of singing was being carried out satisfactorily. Is there any reason why music should not or could not be taught in the Newcastle schools? We have suggested it on many occasions but no action has been taken in its connection. If parents, and the public generally demanded it the School Board no doubt would consider taking the necessary steps. Let us try it.

In praying and praising, in giving and receiving,

In patient waiting, sweet contentment, generous cheer,
God bless us every one, this day, with the blessing of Jesus.

NO RELAXATION
The third New Brunswick Baptist district in quarterly session at Temperance Vale, York County, have passed a resolution declaring itself "opposed to any relaxation of the prohibitory act of this province for revenue or any other purpose." The resolution, it was explained in a preamble, was the result of "reports which are being freely circulated throughout this province whether as propaganda or as rumor, that some change is contemplated that will give New Brunswick an act similar to those of Quebec and British Columbia."

MAJORITY REDUCED IN PREMIER MEIGHEN'S CONSTITUENCY
Portage La Prairie, Man., Dec. 1—With three polls not yet officially reported Harry Leader, the successful Progressive candidate in the constituency of Portage La Prairie has a majority of 177 over Premier Arthur Meighen. The figures are Leader, 4,314; Meighen, 4,137. This is a reduction of 79 from the first majority of 256 announced upon unofficial returns. Official declaration day, it is expected, will be Friday.

POLITICAL TREACHERY
Quebec Chronicle: The sordid and not easily to be forgiven fact is that the Montreal Star deserted to the enemy in the crucial moment of the battle. The cure, we are told, for the ills from which the erstwhile Government party has been suffering, is "to get back to Conservative principles" and the Chronicle will not quarrel with that diagnosis but only add the suggestion that its leaders keep a closer watch upon the movements of fairweather, time-serving friends. There are usually means of making headway against the foe without, but no skill of courage is proof against his assaults when combined with treachery within. Even if there is no place like home that is no reason why a man should loaf around there instead of looking for work.

BISHOP RICHARDSON MUCH IMPROVED
