BRO. J. B. HALKETT,

PAST SUPREME VICE-CHIEF RANGER, AND HIGH SECRETARY OF ONTARIO.

Not only will the Order in Ontario, but the membership at large, be both pleased and interested in seeing the portrait, and reading a brief sketch of Bro. Halkett. There are few members of the Order as well known as the kindly and accomplished High Secretary of Ontario. As a member of the Supreme Court, and a Past Supreme Executive officer, he is well and favorably known outside his own High Court jurisdiction.

Bro. Halkett is in the prime of life. He first saw the light in St. John, New Brunswick, in Sept., 1845. His father was the late Rev. Andrew Halkett, at one time pastor of St. Andrew's Church, St. John, N.B., and for nearly thirty years minister of Brechin, Scotland. It will be seen that the subject of our sketch is a son of the manse, and, doubtless, from his childhood was familiar with those high principles that are so marked in his character.

For a good many years he has been in the civil service, at Ottawa.

In Forestry, Bro. Halkett is a veteran, entering the Order in 1879. He is one of a select few that have watched from small beginnings the phenomenal growth of the Order that now counts a membership of 40,000, and cash reserve of close on to half a million. When the Supreme Court was organized, he was chosen its first Supreme Vice-Chief Ranger. He has been High Junior Beadle, High Journal Secretary, High Vice-Chief Ranger, and was Recording Secretary for Court Ottawa, now the banner court in the Order; at present he is a member of Court Laurentian. He was elected to his present office in 1884, and has held it continuously ever since.

During these eight years he has discharged the duties of his important office with marked acceptance and ability. A natural aptitude for secretarial work has been developed by experience, and a scrupulous fidelity to the trust reposed in him. Successive High Chief Rangers and High Auditors have spoken in terms of unqualified praise of the manner in which the work of the High Secretary's office has been done. One of the pleasing incidents of the meeting of the High Court in Brockville, was the presentation to the High Secretary of a beautiful silver tea service, suitably inscribed. The presentation was made, amidst much enthusiasm, by P. H. C. E., Norman F. Paterson, Q. C.

Bro. Halkett is also prominent in temperance work. A Son of Temperance, and a Good Templar, he has done good work for both organizations as a Provincial Deputy. He is a member of St. Andrew's Church, Ottawa, and has filled the position of Secetary of the late Rev. Dr. Kemp, and the Rev. F. W. Halkett edited, some years ago, the "Journal" of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, a little volume that had quite a wide circulation. He has also, at various times, edited the "Foresters' Column" of several magazines and newspapers. In years gone by, before the duties of the High Secretary became so onerous, he was a contributor to the columns of the Forester. Bro. Halkett has been twice married. His present wife is a daughter of the late Rev. Thos.

Lightbody, and is well known as a writer for children, under the nom de plume of "Sister Belle."

Master J. B., Junior, was at Brockville last year, and was a great favorite with members of the High Court.

Bro. Halkett is an earnest Christian worker. As elder and session clerk for the Presbyterian congregation of Stewarston, Ottawa, he is rendering valuable service.

It falls to the lot of few men to count as many warm friends as Bro. Halkett possesses. A considerate regard for the feelings and opinions of others, along with a courteous manner in the discharge of the duties of his office, are of the elements that have secured for him, in a marked degree, the good will of his brother Foresters. That James Brooke Halkett may have before him many years of health, usefulness, and happiness, is a wish in which every Forester will join.

Children's Corner.

A Gentleman.

I knew him for a gentleman
By signs that never fail;
His coat was rough and rather worn,
His cheeks were thin and pale—
A lad who had his way to make,
With little time for play—
I knew him for a gentleman
By certain signs to-day.

He met his mother on the street;
Off came his little cap.
My door was shut; he waited there
Until I heard his rap.
He took the bundle from my hand,
And when I dropped my pen,
He sprang to pick it up for me,
This gentleman of ten.

He does not push the crowd along;
His voice is gently pitched;
He does not fling his books about
As if he were bewitched.
He stands aside to let you pass;
He always shuts the door;
He runs on errands willingly
To forge and mill and store.

He thinks of you before himself;
He serves you if he can;
For in whatever company
The manners make the man.
At ten or forty 'tis the same,
The manner tells the tale;
And I discern the gentleman
By signs that never fail.

Signing a Declaration.

BY WILLIS BOYD ALLEN.

"If I were you, boys," observed Mr. Melbourne to his Sunday school class, just before the end of June, "I wouldn't let the 'glorious Fourth' go by without drawing up and signing some sort of a declaration of independence."

"What do you mean by that, Mr. Melbourne? What sort of a one, sir?" clamored the boys. For the session was over, and they were just crowding around the teacher for the easy five-minutes' after-school talk they all liked.

"Oh! I must leave that for you to decide. John Hancock didn't ask his Sunday-school teacher what to write."

And that was all Mr. Melbourne would say. It was a way he had, leaving the boys to find out for themselves.

"What in the world did he mean?" they asked one another on the way home. They thought over the little unpleasantness with Chili, when the black headlines in the newspaper had induced them to form a militia company, which disbanded in warrior-like disgust on receipt of the news of that doughty little republic's dignified apology.

The Behring Sea dispute had raised their hopes again: but unfortunately England and America were too civilized to go to war over a drove of seals. Everything at Washington looked particularly peaceful.

"I've got it!" shouted Fred Russell, suddenly. "He means a sort of a moral independence, I guess."

"H'm! I knew 'twould turn into something like that," said Tom Marden, indignantly. "Might know."

After the first feeling of disappointment, however, the boys became rather interested in the idea of a declaration, and during the week Fred, encumbered by much advice from a volunteer "congress" of his classmates, produced the following document, with its heading neatly printed in Old English text, and his own signature below, leading the rest:

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.
July 4, 1892.

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary to dissolve the bonds which have kept a fellow in the habit of doing things he ought not to, and to assume among his fellow-citizens that condition of freedom from bad habits of all sorts to which he is entitled, it then becomes proper that such a fellow, and all the rest that want to join in with him, should declare themselves FREE AND INDEPENDENT BOYS. We hereby declare that we will not be servants to any wrong thing that shall hinder us from living the best and happiest and noblest life that we have a right to. We will throw off all allegiance to untruth, idleness, impurity, intemperance, and cigarettes. In witness whereof, we hereby affix our names and pledge our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor.

"That cigarette business is a dig at me," complained Tom. "I don't care, though. Mother hates to have me smoke 'em any way. Here goes." And down went Tom's name, in big, scrawly letters, under the rest.

On Sunday, July 3, the "Work and Win" class presented the declaration, neatly framed, to Mr. Melbourne. It was signed by every member of the class, and nearly twenty outsiders, who had so entered into the spirit of the thing that the "Workers and Winners" had to let them join.

As he read the document, and glanced around at the eager, half-laughing, half-serious, boyish faces looking into his, Mr. Melbourne was silent for a moment. Perhaps he was too much touched to speak. When he did, it was not in his own words: "Now, being made free from sin, and become servants of God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life." And, after another pause, he added, solemnly: "Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free."

Grandpa's Way.

My grandpa is the strangest man!
Of course I love him dearly;
But really it does seem to me
He looks at things so queerly.

He always thinks that every day
Is right, no matter whether
It rains or snows, or shines or blows,
Or what the kind of weather.

When outdoor fun is ruined by
A heavy shower provoking,
He pats my head and says, "You see
The dry earth needs a soaking."

And when I think the day too warm
For any kind of pleasure,
He says, "The corn has grown an inch—
I see without a measure."

And when I fret because the wind
Has set my things all whirring,
He looks at me, and says "Tut! tut!
This close air needs a stirring!"

He says, when drifts are piling high,
And fence-posts scarcely peeping,
"How warm beneath their blanket white
The little flowers are keeping!"

Sometimes I think, when on his face
His sweet smile shines so clearly,
It would be nice if every one
Could see things just so queerly.

Little Minnie's Prayer.

Let me tell you about the fruit yielded by the prayer of a little child. Her home used to be a very happy one; but her father had taken to drinking. This had brought them to great poverty, and almost broken her poor mother's heart. One evening he came home just as Minnie had knelt down to say her prayers. Hearing her little voice, he stood still a moment, as he entered the room and listened. The dear child was praying thus: "O God! make father leave off his evil ways; make him my own dear father once again. Make dear mother's sad looks go away, and make her old smile come back; but thy will be done!" Minnie's mother burst into tears, as she threw her arms around her husband's neck, and said "Oh, my husband, for the sake of that dear child let us all be happy again!" The poor man bowed his head and wept. Then, clasping his hands, said, "By the help of God, you shall have no more sorrow on my account." And he kept his word. Dear little Minnie's prayer saved her father from going down to a drunkard's grave.

The Good Time Coming.

'Tis coming up the steep of time,
 And this old world is growing brighter ;
 We may not see its dawn sublime,
 Yet high hopes make the heart throb lighter ;
 We may be sleeping in the ground,
 When it awakes the world in wonder ;
 But we have felt it gathering round,
 And heard its voice of living thunder.
 'Tis coming ! yes, 'tis coming !

'Tis coming now, the glorious time,
 Foretold by seers and sung in story ;
 For which, when thinking was a crime,
 Souls leapt to Heaven from scaffold's glory :
 They pass'd, nor saw the work they wrought.
 Now the crown'd hopes of centuries blossom !
 But the live lightning of their thought
 And daring deeds, doth pulse earth's bosom.
 'Tis coming ! yes, 'tis coming !

Freedom ! the tyrants kill thy braves,
 Yet in our memories live the sleepers ;
 And tho' doomed millions feed the graves
 Dug by death's fierce, red-handed reapers,
 The world shall not forever bow
 To things which mock God's own endeavor.
 'Tis nearer than they wot of now,
 When flowers shall breathe the sword forever,
 'Tis coming ! yes, 'tis coming !

Fraternity ! love's other name !
 Dear, Heaven-connecting link of being !
 Then shall we grasp thy golden dream,
 As souls, full-statured, grow far-seeing.
 Thou shalt unfold our better part,
 And in our life-cup yield more honey ;
 Light up with joy the poor man's heart,
 And love's own world with smiles more sunny.
 'Tis coming ! yes 'tis coming !
 —Gerald Massey.

Will I Be Like You, Papa ?

Papa had come home, and the children were glad to see him : for he played delightful games with them, and told them wonderful stories. He loved his family, and though he had learned to look upon the wine when it was red, yet he was a kind and tender father to his children.

The family was in the sitting-room, and little six-year-old Freddie climbed on his father's knee and asked him all sorts of questions, and talked of what he would do when he was a big man, and asked if he would be like papa then ; and finally, after looking long and seriously into his father's face, the boy inquired :

"Papa, when I grow up to be a man, will my nose be red like yours, and my face all swelled ?"

The reddened face flushed yet redder, the tears started from the father's eyes, as he drew his boy to his bosom, and said in tones that thrilled the heart of the wife and mother with a strange new joy :

"No, Freddie, please God, you won't be like me when you get to be a man ; and neither will your father, my boy, for from this hour he will lead a sober life."

A new light had dawned upon the father's mind. He had not thought of his little boy being like him ; and that thought stirred his heart as it had not been stirred by sermon or oration, entreaty or exhortation. And yet whose example should a child follow if not his father's ? Let fathers take heed to their ways, and walk in paths where their children may safely follow them. —Christian Safeguard.

Crossing The Bar.

[BY ALFRED, LORD TENNYSON.]

Sunset and evening star,
 And one clear call for me !
 And may there be no moaning of the bar,
 When I put out to sea.

But such a time as ocean seems asleep,
 Too full for sound or foam,
 When that which drawn from out the boundless deep
 Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
 And after that the dark !
 And may there be no sadness of farewell,
 When I embark.

For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
 The flood may bear me far,
 I hope to see my Pilot face 'o face
 When I have crossed the bar.

The Story of Rodgers.

A few years ago, on any sunny morning, a heap of filthy rags might be seen stretched on some of the lales of a paper warehouse in a neighboring city, with a strong smell of stale tobacco and whisky hanging about it. Turning it over, as you would a log, you would discover the swollen, purple face of what had once been a handsome young man ; but there was little hope that the bleared eyes, or thick tongue, would give you an intelligent answer.

The passing porters would push him aside, but not roughly. The time had been, when he had been a jolly, generous fellow, and a favorite in the office. "Young Rodgers"—some would give you his history in five minutes: "Taken to drink—no chance—poor fellow! Proprietor could not turn him out to starve, so still gave him a nominal salary, and suffered him to hang about the premises, lest he should take to worse courses." There were hints, too, of a widowed mother away off in the country, who had been dependent on him, and a sweetheart—a pretty, clinging girl—both of whom long ago he had abandoned. But there was nothing to be done. The end, through the usual horrors of delirium tremens, was apparently not far off.

One day as Rodgers was creeping to the nearest bar for his morning dram, a man, whom he barely knew by sight, took him by the elbow, and walked with him into a quieter street. "They tell me you are Richard Rodgers' son," he said. "Dick Rodgers was the only friend I had for years, and for his sake, I'd like to save his boy. Are you willing for me to try?" "Oh, you can try!" muttered the lad with an imbecile laugh. This nameless friend, nothing daunted, took him to his own home. There he and his sons kept watch, and guarded this poor wretch for months like a prisoner, keeping liquor from him, and trying to supply its place by medical treatment. A physician he employed, but he was not able to pay for a nurse. Any one who has had to deal with a victim of mania a potu, can guess how difficult and loathsome a task he had set himself. Ungrateful enough it was at first, for Rodgers struggled against his tormentors with the ferocity of—just what he was—a starving animal. As reason began to return, and his unnatural strength to vanish, he would beg them not to fail him, but to work out the experiment either to success or death. "It is my last chance," he would cry; "for God's sake be patient!" This friend, with his son, did work it out through all the foul, unmentionable details, and the end was not leath, but success.

"How soon," asked a friend of Rodgers afterwards, "were you trusted alone?" "Not for two years," he answered, smiling. "I was out of gaol, but in gaol bonds. Do you remember that lank, muscular young fellow that had a desk beside me in the office? He took it with the condition that he could leave it to dog me night and day—to my meals and to my bed. That was the son of the man who saved me. He was taken from a lucrative situation in order that he might become my gaoler! God bless him! How I used to curse him! Can't you trust my honor? I would cry. "I'm not convinced that your honor has not the consumption," was the playful reply; "we'll put no burdens on it until it has regained its health."

"Your friend was a wealthy man, no doubt, and so able to give both time and money to your case?" "On the contrary, he is but the owner of a small hat-store, and supports a family out of that. He is rich and noble only in the deed and spirit of friendship."

All this occurred a few years ago. Rodgers is now an industrious, sober, honorable man, married to his old love, with his grey-haired mother by his hearth, bringing to it the perpetual benediction of benignant old age. His friend continues to sell hats, and doing kindly deeds as before. Nobody has recognized in him a hero. Yet who for the sake of a dead or living friend would go and do likewise?

When and What to Read.

(From The Golden Censer.)

If you are impatient, sit down quietly, and have a talk with Job.

If you are just a little strong-headed, go to see Moses.

If you are getting weak-kneed, take a look at Elijah.

If there is no song in your heart, listen to David.

If you are a policy man, read Daniel.

If you are getting sordid, spend a while with Isaiah.

If you feel chilly, get the beloved disciple to put his arms around you.

If your faith is below par, read Paul.

If you are getting lazy, watch James.

If you are losing sight of the future, climb up to Revelation and get a glimpse of the promised land.

Of famous compliments paid to the fair sex, the supply is so large and dazzling, that it is a matter of no small difficulty to pick out the brightest gems; but if the following was unlooked for, it certainly deserves a place among the best. Fontenelle, when ninety years old, passed before Mme. Helvetius without perceiving her. "Ah!" said the lady, "that is your gallantry, then! To pass before me without ever looking at me!" The name INDEPENDENT FORESTERS is a good one to conjure with, we do not purpose to allow its appropriation by any rival organization.

We like the spirit of the brother who said, when proposed for a modest office that others had declined: "I came into the Order not only to get, but to give. If I can be of any service in any position, place me there, I am willing to serve." SUCH ARE THE MEN THAT BUILD UP THE ORDER.

One request does not always bring the desired information. Even two requests do not ensure an answer. Looking at the Court Directory for Ontario, it appears that a third request would need to be made before some blanks, where the night of meeting should be, are filled out, and yet the information was asked for early in March.

That a little relaxation should follow an unusual effort was to be expected. The additions to our membership during the past month, though in advance of any corresponding one in former years, is not up to the preceding month. Several High Courts are meeting this month, and we have no doubt one of the results will be a fresh impetus to the work of pushing the Order.

The Industrial Fair, from the 5th to 17th September, is the event of the year in Toronto. Not only in Toronto, but all through Ontario, thousands are looking forward to the pleasure of spending one or more days viewing the exhibits, and taking in the various attractions that the exceptionally able and energetic manager Hill has provided. This year, with enlarged grounds, increased accommodation, and added attractions, the great Industrial will be better than ever. It will be an excellent time for Foresters to visit Toronto.

August is the favorite month for High Court meetings. No less than five of the High Courts of the Order are meeting during the present month. The High Court of New York met at Oswego on the 3rd; that of Ont., meets at Barrie on the 9th; Quebec, at Coaticook, New Brunswick and P. E. I. at Summerside, on the 23rd; and Ohio, at Garrettsville, August 26th. The Supreme Chief Ranger and other Supreme officers are expected to attend, but as it has not yet been discovered how one can be in two places at the same time, the Chief will have to deny himself the pleasure of being at all these meetings. Deeper interest and still more rapid growth will, doubtless, follow these several High Court meetings.

In Forestry a member is not acting for himself simply. He is, to the extent of his interest and influence, acting for the whole Order. He is part of it, and as such, is a source of strength or weakness to it, as he is faithful or indifferent. He is also, in a sense, a trustee for the tens of thousands of women and children who are silent partners in the great organization; partners with a vital interest in the Order, but no direct voice in its management. Every member who realizes this great responsibility will not only keep his membership good, but will also desire to see the membership of others maintained, and will study to avoid and prevent whatever might endanger the interests of the wives and children for whose protection and benefit the Order was designed.

The courts have been holding their semi-annual election of officers. In a great many instances the names of the officers have been sent, with the request that they be published. A little reflection on the part of our readers will lead them to conclude this is impossible. We have at this date 1,111 courts. Did we publish the names of officers elect of each, we would have to add several pages to the FORESTER, and exclude all other matter. If, at the end of their term of office, the staff of any court has particularly distinguished themselves, it will be a great pleasure to give them the prominence that unusual merit deserves.

Circulars.

The S.C.R. has received a large number of letters from the subordinate courts, regarding circulars sent to them, asking aid for some distressed brother. We are told that in some of the courts as many as five or six of these circulars have been presented in one evening. A number of the courts have asked whether Section No. 188 was intended to apply to all circulars, and, if so, why the Executive Council do not take steps to enforce the law in relation to these particular circulars. The Executive Council does not lightly interfere with the actions of subordinate courts, and, as a rule, only does so when the interests of the Order seem to demand such a course.

Brethren of subordinate courts cannot be blamed very much, if, when they see distress and suffering around them, they are led to appeal to the Order at large for that help which they, perhaps, have time and again cheerfully given. But, howsoever laudable such benevolence of the heart may be, it requires to be regulated, and the membership at large are beginning to see the wisdom of having a brake upon the issuance of circulars, for even so commendable an object. For if courts are liable to be called upon night after night for special aid, nothing is surer than that in time they would get tired, and perhaps eventually shut their ears to all appeals.

Nothing, perhaps, is more difficult to determine than the character of the cases which should be permitted to go to the Order at large, but we are sure that the S.C.R. and the H.C.R. would always err on the side of benevolence than otherwise; and, therefore, no one will find fault if for the future the law regarding the issuing of circulars were more rigidly enforced.

Every circular issued by a subordinate court, and intended to be circulated among the courts, should have the approval of the S.C.R., or of the H.C.R. of the jurisdiction endorsed thereon, before the same can be legally presented to, or be considered by, a court. Court Deputies will, therefore, be justified if they withhold from their courts altogether any circular which does not bear the official endorsement required by the Constitution.

United, Prosperous and Trusted.

Every one who has watched the growth of the Order of late, and indeed since its inception, will admit that the words at the head of this article can be applied to it with absolute literalness. It has been the recognized policy of the INDEPENDENT ORDER OF FORESTERS to appeal to the public solely on its merits. To state the benefits it was prepared to give, and to state also, in the clearest and fullest terms the conditions on which they would be given. The advocates of the merits of the Order have never found it necessary to disparage or misrepresent other organizations. They believe in a policy of fair-play, and in the public discernment to whose intelligence, and not to whose selfishness or prejudice they have appealed. Some organizations with more showy promises, holding out impossible gains for the investments made, have had a short-lived season of greater prosperity, but like Jonah's gourd, many of them came up in a night, and in a night they perished. For very limited investments, they were promising almost unlimited returns. Some of these did not hesitate to say our Order charged too much, the benefits we offered could be secured for less. They offered them for less with the result that they are now, in some instances, in the hands of the receivers, and the members find that their treasure went into a bag with holes. We do not believe in taking up an ill report against a neighbor, no matter how well-founded it may be, unless the interests of our members demand our calling attention to it.

We have found a policy of frank, straightforward independence to pay, and we have not the remotest intention of departing from it. Stock Insurance Companies, whose rates are more than twice as high as ours, say on the other hand, we do not charge enough to be able to make good our promises. The fact that we do not charge as much by over 100 per cent. as they do, does not prove this. For fifteen years we have honored every obligation, and in addition to this, accumulated a reserve that, on the first of August, amounted to $479,710.40. For the year that ended 30th June, there were paid to the beneficiaries of deceased Foresters, $246,361.81. Notwithstanding this heavy disbursement, unusually heavy, owing to the prevalence of La Grippe last winter, the amount added to the reserve for the same twelve months was $124,374.74. This ought to be enough to convince any one that we are charging enough to meet ordinary claims, and to provide for any emergency. During the same period of twelve months, the membership increased 9,021, a number equal to all the new lives insured by six leading stock insurance companies doing business in Canada. We rest our claim to be considered prosperous and trusted on these figures; in argument they are much better than theories. That we are united is evidenced by the fact that the proportion of lapses is less than ever before, not one-half the number that have taken place in straight line companies. This speaks of the confidence of the membership not only in the permanence of the Order, but in the wisdom and efficiency of the Executive that administers its affairs. With such facts for their encouragement, the members can well afford to increase their efforts for the extension of an Order that occupies so secure and commanding a position.

What May the Order Expect from its Officers?

During the past month the one thousand, one hundred and eleven courts in the Order elected their officers. There are at least fifteen thousand men under a double obligation to the Order. The obligation they assumed when received into membership, and the further obligation that was laid on them at their installation in office. To the power that inheres in so many chosen men there is practically no limit. They might say, "We will during our term of office bring in new members to at least our own number"—that would only be one man to each officer for six months, but it would be 15,000 members to the Order. It can be done; it is easily within the limit of the possible. Will it be done? It will, if our brethren in office but loyally remember that it is both their duty and privilege:

1. "To do all in their power to spread the principles of our Order." Every one has power, and the power to do is to be used in extending our principles.

2. "To secure good and worthy men for membership in our Order." Only a very small percentage of such men are yet in the Order. Those that are in answer that description, but the fact is, that the great majority are not insured in stock companies or in fraternal societies. There is not a member of our Order but knows a dozen desirable men who are not carrying any life insurance. An officer in our Order ought to be very unwilling to declare, by his not securing any members, that he has no influence, or that he does not know the good and worthy men, who are the only men that we desire for members.

3. "To promote the welfare, peace and harmony of the Order." Just think of it. 15,000 men conscious of the responsibility of office, anxious to justify the good opinion of their brethren who called them to office, all working—and working together, and working continuously for the welfare, peace and harmony of the Order. What a mighty impetus would be given to the work! How the membership would grow, and the reserve mount up! Strife would be impossible, and perfect harmony would be everywhere maintained. These are reasonable expectations, for the realization of which not only officers but members will unitedly strive. The current half year will be the best in the history of the Order.

The Power of the Pledge.

Some object to a pledge of any kind in connection with any department of work. They say: "We can do just as well without a pledge as with it," and sometimes they say: "You will have to be content with such service as we can give. We will do what suits us; you can take that or do without." Such as these are usually suited with doing very little. When you remind them that more might be done and is expected, they answer that they are not under any promise, and consequently they are not obliged to give any definite amount. Doubtless there are earnest, conscientious spirits, whose high sense of duty imposes on them the fullest measure of service that it is possible for them to give. Unfortunately for the world these brave souls are in the minority. The majority are helped by a pledge given, they have spoken, and what has been said must be made good; if at times there comes the inclination to relax effort, the inclination is overcome by the thought that one is committed definitely to a particular course of action. There is not a relationship of life that has not been helped by a pledge; there are few relationships indeed into which one enters, without expressly stipulating what he will do. In FORESTRY the pledge or obligation can bear to be emphasized a little more; if it could be shortened without marring its clearness, a point would be gained. There is room for the fear that many members do not make their obligation a law of conduct in every particular. This need not be intentional; it often is the result of forgetfulness. Too many members are saying: "I have not been at a meeting since I was initiated. I joined for the insurance, and do not care for the fraternal and social benefits of the Order." Of the obligation that such members heard but once, they cannot have a very vivid recollection, and so its requirements may unconsciously be overlooked. Frequent attendance at court meetings would enable them to hear it often and to become familiar with its requirements. There are points in the obligation regarding personal conduct, devotion to the interests of the Order, and especially as touching what is due from one Forester to another, that no one can observe without being helped to a higher and truer brotherliness and citizenship. The more scrupulously members honor their obligation, the better men will they become, and the more will they commend to others the merits of an Order that demanded and received from its members conduct and service so eminently manly, upright, and Christian.

members in good standing, and one social member. This court stood fifth in the honor roll published in the May issue of the FORESTER, and won another prize by initiating the largest number of members in the S. and F. B. Department. The lithograph of our S. R. C. adorns the wall of our court-room and is greatly admired and pronounced a good likeness of our Chief by all those who have seen him.

Applications are coming in almost every meeting night, and we promise additions to your mailing list. All the members take great interest and pride in the growth of our court and the Order, and each meeting is well attended. On June 12th we celebrated the third anniversary of the institution of this court and of the introduction of Forestry in this State in union with the Sister Courts in this city, and on Sunday, June 19th, 1892, the 18th anniversary of the foundation of our noble Tabernacle.

Respectfully yours in L. B. and C.,
OTTO OCHS, R.S.

Condolence.

MARYSVILLE, N.B., July 12th, 1892.

To the Editor of the Independent Forester:

At a late meeting of Court Alexandra, No. 141, the following resolutions of sympathy were passed:

WHEREAS It has pleased Almighty God, in His infinite wisdom, to remove from us our late Brother James R. Murray; therefore, be it

Resolved,—That our court place on record our appreciation of the loss we have sustained in the early death of our brother, who was ever active and ready to assist in every work pertaining to our court and the welfare of our Order; and

Resolved,—That we take this opportunity of expressing our sympathy with his widow and the bereaved relatives, commending them to the care of Him who will give sustaining grace in every sorrow.

(Signed) } J. WALTER READ, C.M.
 } W. T. DAY, R.S.

At a meeting of Court Eganville, No. 279, I.O.F., the following resolution was passed unanimously:

Whereas—It has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the Universe to remove from our Forest home our beloved brother, Gilbert Black, a member of this court, thereby severing the first link in our fraternal chain;

Therefore—Resolved, that while we bow in humble submission to the Divine will, we cherish in our hearts the remembrance of our departed brother, whose voice was always heard on the side of suffering humanity, and whose energies were used for the extension of our noble Order;

Resolved—That we tender to his bereaved widow and sorrow-stricken relatives our heartfelt sympathy, trusting that they may find comfort and consolation in Him whose sympathy is far greater than humanity can offer;

Resolved—That this resolution be inserted in the minute book, and a copy sent to the INDEPENDENT FORESTER for publication.

JOHN D. McNAB, C.D.H.C.R.,
Court Eganville, No. 279.

AN INTERESTING BOOK.—"Wm. Lloyd Garrison, by Goldwin Smith," published by Williamson & Co., King St., Toronto, is an exceedingly readable and suggestive little volume. The subject afforded fine scope for the author's luminous style. The moral earnestness of the great liberator cannot fail to quicken the pulse of any reader. While the courage with which he struggled on to success against great and seemingly unsurmountable difficulties will hearten every one committed to a right but difficult task.

Personal Mention.

Bro. Rev. D. V. Lucas, who is at present in New Zealand in the interests of the Order, has delivered lectures on Imperial Federation, that have been well received by large audiences.

Judge Douglass, of the Probate Court, Greensburg, Kan., is an enthusiastic Forester as well as "a just judge." He is Court Deputy of his court, and takes pleasure in the duties of his office.

Bro. Dr. Groves, Past High Physician, will represent Court Carp at the meeting of the High Court in Barrie. Whether in office or out of it, Bro. Groves' zeal for the Order knows no abatement.

Bro. W. H. Henderson, M.D., of Kingstons, Past Supreme Physician and a member of the Medical Board, has, we regret to learn, been dangerously ill. His many friends throughout the Order will be pleased to hear that he is convalescing.

Bro. Frank Madill, M.P. for North Ontario, will represent Court Beaverton at the High Court in Barrie. Bro. Hodgson, who is a member of the Supreme Court, and represented Court Beaverton at High Court last year, declined nomination. Bro. Madill was unanimously chosen.

Bro. G. A. McElfresh, H.C.R. of California, is pushing the work of organizing in his State with unabated vigor. He is at present in San Francisco, and we have no doubt the same marked success will attend him there as in other parts of the State. Independent Forestry is taking a front place on the Pacific Coast.

High Secretary Isaacs of Wisconsin is an artist. In the office of High Secretary he gives play to his artistic fancy with a view to furthering the principles of Forestry. He has photographed on a card in an exceedingly neat way some of the leading principles and benefits of Forestry. The novelty of the idea, coupled with artistic merit, makes the card attractive. Forestry is booming in Wisconsin.

Bro. Victor Morin, High Treasurer of Quebec, and C.D. of Court Champlain, was presented by his brother of Court Champlain, on the evening of July 13th, with a gold watch and chain. Bro. Morin has served, not only Court Champlain, but the whole Order in Quebec, with marked ability, devotion and courtesy.

The genial presence of Bro. Robert Mathison, superintendent of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, Belleville, will be missed at High Court in Barrie. He has been appointed by the government to attend the convention of superintendents of schools for the dumb in Colorado Springs on the 6th of August. Much to his regret he must forego the pleasure of meeting with the brethren at Barrie.

The sympathy of the whole Order will go out to our esteemed Bro. Dr. Millman, Supreme Physician, in his bereavement. His mother died at Woodstock on the 2nd inst. She had been in failing health for some time. She had reached the good old age of 71. The deceased lady had a large circle of intimate friends, by whom she was greatly beloved for her many virtues. She was an earnest Christian worker.

Bro. Fitzgerald, of Buffalo, High Secretary of the High Court of New York, has, we regret to learn, been under the weather. He was sufficiently recovered to be able to attend the meeting of the High Court at Oswego, on the 5th inst. We hope the worthy brother will soon be completely restored to health. We have his promise, which is as good as a bond, to furnish a full report of High Court meeting for September issue.

The American Stock Keeper published at Boston has the following appreciative word of C. A. Stone, the accountant at head office: "When Mr. C. A. Stone, the efficient secretary and superintendent, takes hold of a show it goes, and the exhibition of this year will surpass in magnitude and general excellence any bench show ever held in Toronto." "Charlie" is an enthusiast, where well bred dogs are concerned, and a disposition to oblige, with the faculty for doing a thing about right, makes the secretary for the Bench show a general favorite.

From A. B. Caldwell, of Syracuse, comes a very interesting letter, full of all the zeal and enthusiasm of youth. Bro. Caldwell is a past supreme officer, almost unknown to the younger generation of Foresters. He was the Supreme Chief Ranger, and four times Supreme Secretary. Quite recently, he has resumed active work again, and is eager to be "where the fight is thickest." Of our Supreme Chief, he speaks as "his faithful friend and follower during his term of administration," and under him now he is not only willing but anxious to serve. Well, New York State is a splendid field to cultivate. It will afford "ample scope and verge enough" for the exercise of Bro. Caldwell's gifts and wide experience.

For Impoverished Blood.

B. Jardine, North Sidney, C. B., writes:—"I suffered from weakness and impoverished blood, and only found relief in Pink Pills. I heartily recommend them." All dealers or by mail at 50c a box or 6 boxes for $2.50. Dr. Williams Med. Co., Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N. Y. Beware of imitations.

Ontario.

High Court Meeting at Barrie.

The Brethren of Court Robin Hood, aided by the corporation of the town, and citizens generally, have done every thing to insure a pleasant time to the members of the High Court of Ontario, when they meet in the pretty county town of Simcoe. An excursion on the beautiful waters of Lake Simcoe has been arranged for the afternoon of the 9th. Bands have been engaged to furnish music for the occasion. The town is being handsomely decorated in honor of the visit of the High Court. The meeting will be the largest ever held. It is estimated that at least 400 Foresters and their friends will be in the town by the 9th. High Chief Ranger, Millar; High Secretary, J. B. Halkett; Senior Inspector, C. C. Whale, and others went to Barrie on Saturday the 6th. A large number of delegates are expected Monday, and at the opening of the High Court, Tuesday. It is predicted not one half dozen of the 430 Ontario courts will be unrepresented. The meeting promises to be an enthusiastic and successful one. Its members are expected to return to their homes to prosecute with a new zeal the work of extending the Order.

Court Eden Mills, No. 305.

On Sunday, 12th June, the members of this court, accompanied by visiting brethren from Guelph, Acton, and Aberfoyle, attended divine service, and listened to an earnest and appropriate sermon from Rev. Mr. Kitching, who took for his text, "Blessed is he that considereth the poor." The regular meetings of Court Eden Mills are well attended, the best of feeling prevails, and large additions to the membership are expected, as Forestry is attracting considerable attention in the locality.

Court Fitzroy, No. 6.

On Friday, July 3rd, 1892, this court held a picnic in Bro. Armstrong's grove. The weather was fine, the games inspiring, the refreshments gratifying, the whole a success—scoring $100 to help defray a balance on building fund of Orange Hall, Kinburn, where the meetings of this court are held. By a co-operation arrangement between the Orangemen and Foresters of Fitzroy, the Forester's Court enjoys the use of the hall, rent free, for a long period of years.

Court Wingham, No. 505

Stimulated by the offer of a set of officers' badges when the membership should reach 50, Court Wingham has been working upwards, and now they are in a position to tell Brother Whale, Senior High Court Inspector, that they are ready to receive the prize that he so generously offered. An increase of over twenty in less than six months is excellent. They should make their membership 100. Bro. Whale should continue to offer prizes.

Court Mississippi, No. 78, Carleton Place.

The Rev. Bro. McLaren, High Chaplain for Ontario, preached before the members of this court on the 3rd July. The High Chaplain took for his theme the parable of the Good Samaritan, and from it enforced the reason of brotherhood and benevolence. The Carleton Place Herald says that Bro. McLaren made many friends on the occasion of his first visit to the place.

Court Beaverton, No. 185.

The regular meeting of this court was held on the 29th ult. The semi-annual election of officers took place. There was a large representation of members present; all the officers were elected by acclamation. The H. V. C. R. of Ontario was present, presided at the meeting, and installed the officers. Court Beaverton occupies a fine field; earnest and united effort on the part of the members, can easily have a court a hundred strong.

Court Excelsior, No. 79, Almonte.

Dominion Day was observed by the Foresters of Almonte holding a picnic in Mr. Ramsay's grove. The weather was favorable, and the attendance large. Mr. A. M. Gregg acted as chairman. The speakers were Mr. P. Rosemond, M. P., Mr. P. C. McGregor, B. A., Deputy Supreme Chief Ranger McKee of Uxbridge; Bro. J. McLaren, Carp; Bro. Rev. R. Knowles, Ottawa. The glories of the Dominion and the benefits of Forestry were fully and forcibly set forth. Games of various kinds filled in the day's programme.

Court Ripple, No. 487, Sutton.

This is one of the most active courts in the whole Order, of recent origin, it has gone on adding to its membership at every meeting until at present it is one of the leading courts in Ont. The members are resolved to continue the good work, and bring the membership up to at least 100. The picnic on the 20th ult. was a great success. Sutton fixed its Civic Holiday for that day. Excursionists by rail and steamer came by hundreds, and the beautiful grove at Jackson's Point was alive with visitors. Representatives were present from Courts in Toronto, Uxbridge, Orillia, Beaverton, Barrie, Queensville, Zephyr, Woodville, Lornville, etc. Short trips were run on the water during the afternoon, and an excellent dinner was served in the grove. The Sutton Band discoursed sweet music, and addresses were delivered by the Rev. Mr. Fraser, of Sutton, who acted as chairman, the Rev. A. Macgillivray, of Toronto, Mr. Card of Uxbridge, and the Rev. Bro. Large of Queensville. The Brethren of Court Ripple are to be congratulated on the great success of their demonstration.

Court Amity, No. 39, Hamilton.

This court has been making history, and in a most satisfactory way. Nine additions were reported for July—seven by initiation and two by card. This indicates work, and work of the right kind.

Court Cambridge, No. 675, South Indian.

Court Deputy J. K. Meredith writes us that their court is in a very healthy condition. The membership is steadily rising in numbers. There is a handsome surplus in the treasury. The best of feeling prevails, and all are determined on promoting the high principles of the Order. So mote it be.

Court Newbury, No. 580.

Seven seems to be a favorite number with some courts. Court Newbury recently added seven to its membership. Well, seven is a perfect number, and we hope our brethren of Court Newbury will continue their perfect work of adding to their strength and that of the whole Order.

Court Thistle, No. 1002, Williamstown.

The Chief Ranger of this court, Bro. John Douglas, B. A., writes:—"We are now on the highway to success." The court, as its number implies, is of quite recent origin. Its name would indicate both the Scottish origin of its members and their independent character and kindness of heart. A public meeting held under the auspices of the court, on the 11th of July, was addressed by the H. V. C. R. of Ontario. There was a good attendance. At the close of the public meeting, five new members were initiated.

Court Kingsville, No. 9.

Foresters' picnic was held under the auspices of this court, on the 4th inst. The weather was delightful; the members of this court and their friends, together with visiting Foresters from neighboring courts, were present in large numbers. This was doubtless in a large measure due to the complete arrangements that were made, and the thorough manner in which the picnic was advertised. The Supreme Secretary, John A. McGillivray, and the High Chief Ranger, David Millar, were present, and gave instructive and eloquent addresses. We have no doubt that the result will be an increased popularity, and a still more rapid growth for Court Kingsville, and other courts represented at this successful gathering.

Court No Surrender, No. 791, Merrickville.

There is a good deal in a name. Our friends at Merrickville certainly have shown a disposition to hold on, and to hold out. Summer's heat did not exhaust their energy. They send us word of 10 good men and true added to their membership. Go on, brothers, and do not say no to making your membership 100.

Court Ottawa, No. 41.

Having attained the proud position of being the first in point of membership among the 1111 courts in the Order, Court Ottawa has organized a new court. The old forest home got too small for the household, so a swarm hived off and we have another court at the Capital. May Court Ottawa give the Order many such additions.

Court Selkirk, No. 235, Wallaceburg.

Some time ago this court issued a circular to sister courts appealing for aid for a brother in straitened circumstances. The appeal met with a very hearty response. Court Deputy, W. J. Badder, sends us a long list of acknowledgments in which appear the names of over 125 courts, representing an amount of $120.45. Even if space allowed it, which it does not, acting on the principle, "Let not your left hand know what your right hand doeth," we are unable to publish the long list of names, but we can say with very great pleasure that Court Selkirk, speaking through Court Deputy W. J. Badder, is deeply grateful for the liberal response, and for the aid given to the distressed brother, who is more than grateful for this evidence of practical benevolence that Foresters delight to manifest.

Court New Hamburg, No. 712.

It is always a pleasure to say "well done!" We are glad to have the opportunity of saying it to Court New Hamburg. A few weeks ago they had the modest number of fourteen, now they have thirty, and twenty-five applications are before the court, and doubtless in a short time these will be initiated into the mysteries and privileges of Forestry. We should like to hear from the court that can show a better record for the same length of time.

Court Meaford, No. 976.

The High Chief Ranger of this court, Brother Maxwell, met with sore affliction in the death of his wife. His brother Foresters passed a resolution of condolence, expressive of their sorrow and sympathy with their esteemed chief in his bereavement.

Court Westwood, No. 793.

On July the 17th, the members of the above court with visiting brethren from Hastings, Warsaw, and Norwood, attended the Presbyterian Church in a body. The central seats were filled with Foresters, and the rest of the building was packed to the doors, many being unable to get inside. The Rev. Mr. Thomson, of Hastings, Court Deputy of the court there, preached an eloquent and instructive sermon from the text, "Who is my neighbour." The sermon was received with marked attention, and made a profound impression. Court Westwood is united and prosperous, five initiations at their last meeting, two in waiting for the next, and more to follow; may this continue.

Court Victoria, No. 10, London.

The court with the queenly name had a royal time of it on the 22nd July. The occasion was the dedication of their New Hall. The ceremony was performed by Supreme Chief Ranger, Oronhyatekha. The Chief is a member of this court and naturally takes a special interest in its prosperity. It is one of the strongest in the Order, the membership being up in the figures. Added interest was given to the ceremony by the presentation by the Doctor of a handsomely framed portrait of himself. At the close of the dedication ceremony, the company were entertained at an ice cream social.

Court Prosperity, No. 668, Toronto.

Success waited on the efforts of this court in connection with their picnic to Wilson Park, New York, on the 27th of July. The day was all that could be desired for an outing. All the arrangements were successfully carried out. The brethren of the court are congratulating themselves on the success of their venture.

Court Brock, No. 242, Toronto.

The brethren of this court are given to hospitality. At their meeting on July 19th, they had for their guests members from a number of city courts. After the installation of their officers, they and their friends refreshed themselves with ice cream and cake. Some of the city courts are talking of copying their good example.

Quebec.High Court.

Our High Court meeting, which opens on the 16th inst., in the beautiful town of Coaticook situated on the Coaticook river, has every indication of being a large gathering, there being a great desire on the part of representatives to be present shows the warm interest taken in the affairs of the Order. We feel assured the various reports to be presented will show a substantial growth during the year.

The members of Court Coaticook, No. 341, are preparing for a hearty reception to the officers of the Supreme Court and to the High Court, and we feel satisfied that nothing will be lacking in the efforts of Bros. Woodman and Wallace to give all a cordial welcome. Brethren, come prepared to promote still further the welfare of our Order.

Court Fortune, No. 297.

We regret to learn of the illness of Bro. Lynch, a young and promising member of this court, taken ill on his way home from Chicago. Deputy Bro. Smith at once advised the H. C. R. of the brother being ill in Montreal, who immediately called to see the brother who is being well cared for, his mother and sister having arrived. At our date of writing the brother is progressing favorably and we hope for him a speedy recovery, and any assistance needed will be given by the Montreal brethren.

Court Desery, No. 421.

Deputy Gosselin reports this court progressing favorably. Court Desery possesses some good material, the great difficulty being to bring the members out. Brethren of Court Desery, you have only to pay a visit among our twenty-two courts located in Montreal, and suburbs to convince yourselves what a great organization we really are, when we feel sure you will be using every effort to make your own court a success. Give it a trial, brethren.

Court Belle Rive, No. 942.

H. C. R. Strathearn, along with Brother J. E. Leigh installed the officers of the above named court at their last meeting. This is one of our young courts located in the extreme East of our great city, all they want is a fraternal visit from brethren occasionally; they are well officered, chiefly composed of young men, and a little encouragement from older members visiting them would be of much benefit. Their Court Deputy, Finance Secretary, and Court Physician are devoted workers. Brethren let us give them a surprise.

Court St. Helene, 1019.

Court St. Helene reports steady progress and why not? Under the able guidance of Deputy Couttee, applications are coming in steadily, and that of good men; this is what we like to hear. We know the material is good, and that, with harmony prevailing, is sure to bring success. We will visit you again, be sure and have the honors down fine.

Court Champlain, No. 663.

We congratulate High Treasurer Morin on the expression of esteem shown by his court in presenting him with a fine gold watch and chain, he is right with them and for them every time, the H. C. R. seemed quite pleased at being called upon to adorn the breast of breezy Bro. Raymond, P.C.R., with a jewel, he is well worthy of. It's now for the next good man.

Court Gatineau Valley, No. 789.

In accordance with arrangement made, H. C. R. Strathearn, during last month, visited this court, located in the wilds of the Gatineau, after 160 miles travel by rail, and nearly one day's travel by stage, over roads best known to Foresters. Bro. Strathearn had the pleasure of being warmly received by (we must admit) heretofore neglected brethren. After resting, the H. C. R., with the able assistance of Bro. Gerdon, M. D., and the Rev. Mr. Paterson, a meeting was called (members coming a distance of fifteen miles to attend; don't blush, brethren of our city courts, it is true), Bro. Strathearn was asked to take the chair. He fully explained the position of the court; the brethren expressed themselves well pleased, and resolved that all indebtedness at once be paid the High Court, which was done. A thorough drilling was given the brethren in the unwritten work of the Order, and we feel quite assured that Court Gatineau Valley will now prosper, and that a foundation has also been laid for a court further up the Gatineau, which is now in the hands of Provincial Deputy C. M. Gordon, M.D.

Court Craig End, No. 543.

This court are at it like beavers, preparing for a grand excursion and picnic on Saturday, Aug. 13th. We are with them in their undertaking, and trust it will prove successful. This was formerly named a weak court; they have now asked to be taken off that list. An official visit and a public meeting were enough to rouse their enthusiasm, and now they are paving the way for their own court room. We sincerely hope their efforts will be appreciated by their brother Foresters. A grand programme has been prepared.

Court Maisonneuve, No. 901, Montreal.

This is one of the courts that does not believe in standing still. Ten additions to the membership recently bear testimony to the popularity of the Order and the zeal of the members, and, what is almost as good, no suspensions are reported. We hope the brethren will follow this up, and Court No. 901 will be in the van.

Honor Roll.

Winners in the Prize Competition given by the High Court of Quebec:

Court Maisonneuve, No. 901, 1st prize, 13 officers' sashes.

Court Jacques Cartier, No. 970, 2nd prize, 10 members' sashes.

Court Champlain, No. 663, 3rd prize, 1 set of officers' badges.

Court Memphremagog, No. 902, 4th prize, 10 members' badges.

Court International, No. 323, 5th prize, 1 C.D.H.C.R. sash.

Court Danville, No. 340, 6th prize, 1 black walnut ballot box.

Notes.

We are sure Bro. Douglas Mc DeCow, M.D., and Bro. John Marsh, J.B., of Court Cardinal will pardon the error in their names in our item from Court Carnival last month. Just a clerical error, brethren.

New Brunswick.

High Court of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island.

To all Whom it may or doth Concern:

Notice is hereby given that the above High Court is summoned to meet at the Public Hall, Summerside, on Tuesday, the 23rd day of August next, at 8 o'clock p.m., (local time.)

Each subordinate court is entitled to two representatives. Any court having more than fifty members is entitled to one additional representative for every twenty-five members over fifty. Only the officers of the High Court, past members of the High Standing, and representatives from the several subordinate courts, are entitled to vote in the above High Court.

A full representation is urgently requested. Courts which are unable to send their full representation will please send at least one (whether a member of their own court or not) who will be able to throw the full vote of the court.

Royal Foresters are requested to appear in uniform.

All Foresters will be welcome and will receive the High Court Degree.

Those going over the I. C. R. will pay one first-class fare to Point du Chene and get a standard certificate from the ticket agent at the starting point. Return ticket will be free. Those going over the C. P. R. will pay one first-class fare to St. John and get a standard certificate from the agent at the starting point. Return ticket at one-third to one-half fare, according to number attending.

The steamer from Point du Chene and the P. E. I. R. R. will grant return tickets free.

Will advise the several courts whose delegates have to travel over other R.R.'s as to the arrangements made on the other railroads.

Dated this 20th day of July, A. D. 1892.

Yours in L., B. and C.,

F. W. EMMERSON,

H. Secretary.

P. E. I.

Court Chautauqua, No. 202, Summerside, P.E.I.

The members of this court attended divine service on the 19th June. There was an unusually large congregation present, and the sermon from Bro. Rev. C. E. Turner was eminently practical and appropriate to the occasion; it has been published by the local press. The court is growing, no less than fifteen names having been added. This is an exceedingly good report.

N. W. T.

Court Alberta, No. 659, Lethbridge, N.W.T.

In the wide North-West, Independent Forestry is finding congenial soil. All over the Territories, in the centres of settlement, our courts are to be found. One of the most active is Court Alberta at Lethbridge. The anniversary service on the 19th June was well attended, our members being accompanied by the members of the Canadian Order of Foresters. Bro. Rev. Chas. McKillop, chaplain of Court Alberta, preached an admirable sermon from the text, "Provide things honest in the sight of all men." Officers for the next six months have been elected and installed. A career of great prosperity and usefulness seems to be before Court Alberta.

British Columbia.

Court Burrard, No. 347 British Columbia.

Like loyal Foresters, the members of this court attended divine service on the 19th June. The Rev. E. D. McLarin, B.D., preached. The sermon, the brethren say, was the best they ever heard preached to Foresters. The attendance of Foresters and others was large. Court Burrard, we are happy to learn, is steadily increasing its membership; before the autumn is past, they expect to make it a hundred. There is only one drop of bitterness in their cup of happiness. They do not think the sick benefit enough; the expense of living on the coast is higher than in the East, and when a member is ill the benefit of $3 and $5 weekly is barely sufficient for the bare needs. The Brethren see the difficulty of framing a law that will meet all the needs of all localities. At the next meeting of the Supreme Court, if the funds will admit it, the sick benefit may be increased to the old figure, if not a higher one.

New York.

Court Genesee, No. 387, Rochester.

This court stands in the very front of the courts in New York state. There are one hundred and six members in good standing. It is well equipped and officered, and will, doubtless, during the next six months give a good account of itself. Want of space alone prevents our giving the names of the recently elected officers.

Syracuse Notes.

Supreme D. C. R. George Whitworth, instituted a new court at Chittenango, Tuesday evening, with a large membership.

Bro. George Whitworth paid an official visit to Court West End, No. 54, on Thursday evening, and all present had a good time.

We regret to announce that Post Master August W. Bingham of Van Buren, Past Grand Master of Odd Fellows and Past High Chief of this Order, has buried his mother, who died at the ripe old age of 86 years. Bro. Bingham was never married, and his mother resided with him up to the time of her demise.

"There is no sorrow deeper,
More holy, undefiled,
Than when the grave hath parted
The parent and the child."

The Order has now 39,000 endowment members, all in good standing, worth more than "100,000" with perhaps one-half on paper only, some of whom are thus included where their lodges are defunct.

Syracuse Court, No. 958, held a good meeting at Good Templars' Hall, Oswego-street, Wednesday evening, Chief Ranger Howell presiding. The court has now a large membership, and is constantly adding to its fold. The R. R. R. is working finely.

Our High Chief Ranger, Judge Sterns, we learn is convalescent, and will be able to attend the High Court meeting the first week in August.

Ex-Alderman Jacob Levi, the well-known rabbi of this city, and once an active Independent Forester serving in the capacity of D. D. Supreme Chief Ranger, is dead. He was active also in various other benevolent societies, which showed great respect at his funeral Friday afternoon.

The High Secretary announces that the High Court of this State will be held on August 3rd in Pythian Hall, Oswego City. Dr. Oronhyatekha, our venerable Supreme Chief, will be there, certain.

Michigan.

Court Alpena, No. 293, Michigan.

The 4th of July was celebrated in Alpena by the societies and citizens generally uniting in a grand demonstration. Court Alpena took a prominent part in the proceedings, being in possession of the first Foresters' banner displayed in the city. It was presented, doubtless as a reward of merit, to Court Alpena by the High Court of Michigan in 1891. The court was, and is, and doubtless will continue to be, one of the leading courts of the State.

Court Uby, No. 722.

We have received from Bro. J. C. Ryan, Chief Ranger of this court, an interesting account of an entertainment given by the court, the evening of July 14th. That it was a success is beyond doubt, the attendance was large and thoroughly appreciative. The principle feature of the evening's proceedings was the addresses. High Chief Ranger Frise spoke eloquently of the benefits of Forestry, and gave convincing reasons why every one should seek to be a Forester. C. H. McGinly of Minden City, a Past High Officer, and one of the leading lawyers of Michigan, also spoke. His speech, we are assured, made many friends for himself and the Order. The musical part of the programme was of a high order. The net proceeds amounted to $53.

Ohio.

The High Court of Ohio convenes at Garrettsville, August 26th.

Court Buc-eye, No. 312, Cleveland

For the past six months this court has had an average attendance of from 50 to 60 at its meetings. This is an exceedingly creditable record. The brethren of Court Buc-eye know how to make their meetings interesting.

Bro. George H. Edwards, a member of this court, was killed recently by a fall from a scaffold. His brethren of the court have passed a resolution, expressive of their esteem of their late brother. They found him ever manifesting his belief in the principles of Forestry by his actions; they deplore their personal loss, but bow in submission to the will of "Him who doeth all things well." To the wife and family, their heartfelt sympathy is extended. As a mark of respect, the charter of the court is to be draped for 30 days.

Indiana.

The papers for incorporation of the Order in Indiana have been received. The Independent Order of Foresters is now legally and firmly established in this State. The work of organization is being vigorously pushed, and the prospects are very bright for rapid growth.

California.

Court Morris Vineyard, No. 532, Los Angeles.

This court believes in doing everything thoroughly. Their arrangements for their thanksgiving service were no exception to this rule. A committee had charge of the arrangements. A card of invitation, giving hour and place of service was addressed to every member of the I.O.F. in the city.

Court Los Angeles, 422.

That union is strength, was believed by Courts Ramona and Los Angeles—They recently united their forces. The union was a most happy one, one of affection as well as expediency. The officers of the new court were selected from among those of the two old courts. We expect that Court Los Angeles will, from the outset, occupy a prominent place in the leading courts of the Order.

Acknowledgments.

We find that the ever increasing demands on our space will not permit us to publish the many grateful letters we receive from the beneficiaries of deceased Foresters. We will give in each issue a limited number of such acknowledgments selected from different States and Provinces—Evs.

Small, Sweet Way.

There's never a rose in all the world
But makes some green spray sweeter ;
There's never a wind in all the sky
But makes some bird wing fleetier ;
There's never a star but brings to heaven
Some silver radiance tender ;
And never a rosy cloud but helps
To crown the sunset splendor ;
No robin but may thrill some heart
His dawning gladness voicing ;
God gives us all some small, sweet way
To set the world rejoicing.

WILLING TO WAIT.—A farmer entered a telegraph office in New York, and sent this message to a woman in Canada :

"Will you be my wife? Please answer at once by telegraph."

Then he sat down and waited. No answer came. He waited till late in the evening; still no answer.

Early the next morning he came in again, and was handed a dispatch—an affirmative reply.

The operator expressed his sympathy. "Twas a little rough to keep you so long in suspense."

"Look here, young feller," said the farmer, "I'll stand all the suspense. A woman that'll hold back her answer to a proposal of marriage all day, so as to send it by night rates is just the economical woman that I've been a waitin' for."

It doesn't make a lie any whiter to put it on a tombstone.

AN OAKVILLE MIRACLE.

THE REMARKABLE CASE OF MR. J. W. CONDOR.

A Helpless Cripple for Years—Treated by the Staff of the Toronto General Hospital and Discharged as Incurable—The Story of His Miraculous Recovery as Investigated by an Empire Reporter.

Toronto Empire.

For more than a year past the readers of the Empire have been given the particulars of some of the most remarkable cures of the 19th century, all, or nearly all of them, in cases hitherto held by the most advanced and medical scientists to be incurable. The particulars of these cases were vouched for by such leading newspapers as the Hamilton Spectator and Times, the Halifax Herald, Toronto Globe, Le Monde, Montreal, Detroit News, Albany, N.Y., Journal, Albany Express, and others, whose reputation placed beyond question the statements made.

Recently rumours have been afloat of a remarkable case in the pretty little town of Oakville, of a young man recovering after years of helplessness and agony. The Empire determined to subject the case to the most rigid investigation, and accordingly detailed one of our best reporters to make a thorough and impartial investigation into the case. Acting upon these instructions our reporter went to Oakville, and called upon Mr. John W. Condor (who it was had so miraculously recovered) and had not long been in conversation with him when he was convinced that the statements made were not only true, but that the "half had not been told." The reporter found Mr. Condor at work in one of the heaviest departments of the Oakville Basket Factory, and was surprised, in the face of what he knew of the case, to be confronted by a strapping young fellow of good physique, ruddy countenance and buoyant bearing. This now rugged young man was he who had spent a great part of his days upon a sick bed, suffering almost untold agony. When the Empire representative announced the purpose of his visit Mr. Condor cheerfully volunteered a statement of his case for the benefit of other sufferers. "I am," said Mr. Condor, "an Englishman by birth, and came to this country with my parents when nine years of age, and at that time was as rugged and healthy as any boy of my age. I am now 29 years of age, and it was when about 14 years old that the first twinges of inflammatory rheumatism came upon me, and during the fifteen years that intervened between that time and my recovery a few months ago, tongue can hardly tell how much I suffered. My trouble was brought on, I think, through too frequent bathing in the cold lake water. The joints of my body began to swell, the cords of my legs to tighten, and the muscles of my limbs to contract. I became a helpless cripple, confined to bed, and for three months did not leave my room. The doctor who was called in administered preparations of iodide of potassium and other remedies without any material beneficial effect. After some months of suffering I became strong enough to leave the bed, but my limbs were stiffened and I was unfitted for any active vocation. I was then hampered more or less for the following nine years, when I was again forced to take to my bed. This attack was in 1886, and was a great deal more severe than the first. My feet, ankles, knees, legs, arms, shoulders, and in fact all parts of my frame were affected. My joints and muscles became badly swollen, and the disease even reached my head. My face swelled to a great size. I was unable to open my mouth, my jaws being fixed together. I, of course, could eat nothing. My teeth were pried apart and liquid food poured down my throat. I lost my voice and could speak only in husky whispers. Really, I am unable to describe the state I was in during those long, weary months. With my swollen limbs drawn by the tightening cords up to my emaciated body, and my whole frame twisted and contorted into indescribable shapes, I was nothing more than a deformed skeleton. For three long, weary months I was confined to bed, after which I was able to get up, out was a complete physical wreck, hobbling around on crutches a helpless cripple. My sufferings were continually intense, and frequently when I would be hobbling along the street I would be seized with a paroxysm of pain and would fall unconscious to the ground. During all this time I had the constant attendance of medical men, but their remedies were unavailing. All they could do was to try to build up my system by the use of tonics. In the fall of 1889 and spring of 1890 I again suffered intensely severe attacks, and at last my medical attendant, as a last resort, ordered me to the Toronto General Hospital. I entered the Hospital on June 20th, 1890, and remained there until September 20th of the same year. But, notwithstanding all the care and attention bestowed upon me while in this institution, no improvement was noticeable in my condition. After using almost every available remedy the hospital doctors—of whom there were about a dozen—came to the conclusion that my case was incurable, and I was sent away, with the understanding that I might remain an outside patient. Accordingly from September, 1890, to the end of January, 1891, I went to the hospital once a week for examination and treatment. At this stage I became suddenly worse, and once more gained admission to the hospital, where I lay in a miserable suffering condition for two months or more. In the spring of 1891 I returned to Oakville, and made an attempt to do something toward my own support. I was given light work in the basket factory, but had to be conveyed to and from my place of labor in a buggy and carried from the rig to a table in the works on which I sat and performed my work. In August, 1891, I was again stricken down, and remained in an utterly helpless condition until January, 1892. At this time Mr. James, a local druggist, strongly urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I was prejudiced against proprietary medicines, as I had spent nearly all I possessed on numerous highly recommended so-called remedies. I had taken into my system large quantities of different family medicines. I had exhausted the list of liniments, but all in vain, and I was therefore reluctant to take Mr. James' advice. I, however, saw several strong testimonials as to the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a blood builder and nerve tonic, and thinking if I could only get my blood in better condition my general state of health might be improved, I resolved to give Pink Pills a trial. With the courage born of despair I bought a box, but there was no noticeable improvement, and I thought this was like the other remedies I had used. But urged on by friends I continued taking Pink Pills, and after using seven boxes I was rewarded by noticing a decided change for the better. My appetite returned, my spirits began to rise and I had a little freer use of my muscles and limbs, the old troublesome swellings subsiding. I continued the remedy until I had used twenty-five boxes, when I left off. By this time I had taken on considerable flesh, and weighed as much as 160 pounds. This was a gain of 60 pounds in a few weeks. My joints assumed their normal size, my muscles became firmer, and in fact I was a new man. By April I was able to go to work in the basket factory, and now I can work ten hours a day with any man. I often stay on duty overtime without feeling any bad effects. I play baseball in the evenings and can run bases with any of the boys. Why I feel like dancing for very joy at the relief from abject misery I suffered so long. Many a time I prayed for death to release me from my sufferings, but now that is all gone, and I enjoy health as only he can who suffered agony for years. I have given you a brief outline of my sufferings, but from what I have told you can guess the depth of my gratitude for the great remedy which has restored me to health and strength."

Wishing to substantiate the truth of Mr. Condon's remarkable story, the Empire representative called upon Mr. F. W. James, the Oakville druggist referred to above. Mr. James fully corroborated the statements of Mr. Condon. When the latter had first taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills he was a mere skeleton—a wreck of humanity. The people of the town had long given him up for as good as dead, and would hardly believe the man's recovery until they saw him themselves. The fame of this cure is now spread throughout the section and the result is an enormous sale of Pink Pills "I sell a-dozen-and-a-half boxes of Pink Pills every day," said Mr. James, "and this is remarkable in a town the size of Oakville. And better still, they give perfect satisfaction. Mr. James recalled numerous instances of remarkable cures after other remedies had failed. Mr. John Robertson, who lives midway between Oakville and Milton, who had been troubled with asthma and bronchitis for about 15 years, has been cured by the use of Pink Pills, and this after physicians told him there was no use doctoring further. Mr. Robertson says his appetite had failed completely, but after taking seven boxes of the Pink Pills he was ready and waiting for each meal. He regards his case as a remarkable one. In fact Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are recognized as one of the greatest modern medicines—a perfect blood-builder and nerve-restorer—curing such diseases as rheumatism, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus' dance, nervous headache, nervous prostration and the tired feeling resulting therefrom, diseases depending upon humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. Pink Pills restore pale and sallow complexions to the glow of health, and are a specific for all the troubles peculiar to the female sex, while in the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of whatever nature.

The Empire reporter also called upon Mr. J. C. Ford, proprietor of the Oakville Basket Factory, in which Mr. Condor is employed, Mr. Ford said he knew of the pitiable condition Condor had been in for years, and he had thought he would never recover. The cure was evidently a thorough one, for Condor worked steadily at heavy labor in the mills, and apparently stood it as well as the rest of the employes. Mr. Ford said he thought a great deal of the young man, and was pleased at his wondrous deliverance from the grave, and his restoration to vigorous health.

In order to still further verify the statements made by Mr. Condor in the above interview, the reporter on his return to Toronto, examined the General Hospital records, and found therein the entries fully bearing out all Mr. Condor had said, thus leaving no doubt that his case is one of the most remarkable on record, and all the more remarkable because it had baffled the skill of the best physicians in Toronto.

These pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N. Y., and are sold in boxes (never in loose form by the dozen or hundred, and the public are cautioned against numerous imitations sold in this shape) at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company from either address. The price at which these pills are sold, makes a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

The advantages of being connected with Savings, Loan and Building Associations are only becoming known. The business is getting on firmer ground and former objectors have been converted to admit the superior advantages of the system, properly worked out, over every other form of mutual investment. The uniformly high class of men who are now identifying themselves with Building and Loan Associations gives added assurance of good results. The system is commanding general attention, and appreciation is evidenced by the rapidity with which such institutions are being organized. Responsible agents, wanted throughout the country. Liberal terms given to good men.

Off for the Labrador.

Acadian Recorder, Halifax, N. S.

Prof. W. M. Reid, J. D. Scomberger, Lyle Vincent and W. D. Vincent, arrived by the Halifax last night. They are some of the party who go to Labrador in the schooner Evelina, in the interests of the World's Fair, to secure an Esquimaux village with some fifty inhabitants, and all appurtenances thereto belonging. The schooner left Cunningham & Curren's wharf to-day on her mission.

A Recorder reporter was talking to-day to Capt. Wm. McConnell, of Port Hilford, Guysboro', who is in charge of the vessel. An interesting incident was mentioned (and although it sounds like a "puff" of a patent medicine, it is worth noting) "Do you see that man over there?" said a friend, "that is Capt McConnell who is going after Esquimaux. I have known him for years, and he was that bad with asthma, that he had sometimes to be held up on board his vessel. You see him"—(he was piling wood in a cord measure to take on board)—"he is a well man; and he attributes it to some of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that he took, two after each meal."

Out of curiosity, the reporter secured an introduction to the captain, and after some talk about the expedition, remarked: "Is that correct, Captain, about your recovery from asthma, and that you attribute it to those pills?"

"Well, I don't know anything else. I recovered after taking them."

"And haven't been troubled since?"

"No. Of course we will see what this winter may bring forth; I haven't said anything about it."

"But last winter?"

"I began taking them in December, and found the change brought about in my condition, which Dr. Parker, of Halifax, said was about as bad as it could be."

It isn't often that a patent medicine gets such a big boom in the incidence of news-gathering, as is furnished in the above; but it is all set down just as it transpired, incidentally.

The whole Labrador party consists of Messrs. Tabor and Vincent, Prof. Reid, of Harvard College; Mr. Lyle Vincent, St. Louis; Dr. Baur, Philadelphia, a distinguished naturalist; Prof. Gillette, New Haven, Conn., and Hon. W. F. Ryder, Quebec. They expect to return with about 50 Esquimaux, with dogs, komaticks, kayacks, and a general collection of curiosities from Esquimaux land. The schooner is a handsome model, 95 tons, and is a fast sailer. John Silver & Co. furnished the supplies.

The following good story has just been told to us, and as it is by no means a "chestnut," is well worth reproducing in the News. An acquaintance living in Racine, ordered, with other books, from Chicago, a copy of Canon Farrar's book, "Seekers After God," just then out. In a short time the other volumes came to hand, but, being out of the Canon's book, the publishers wrote at the bottom of the invoice, "No Seekers after God in Chicago."—East End News.

What Might be Done.

What might be done if men were wise--
What glorious deeds, my suffering brother,
Would they unite in love and right,
And cease their scorn of one another.

Oppression's heart might be imbued
With kindling drops of loving kindness,
And knowledge pour—from shore to shore--
Light on the eyes of mental blindness

All slavery, warfare, lies, and wrongs,
All vice and crime would die together,
And milk and corn, to each man born,
Be free as warmth in summer weather.

The meanest wretch that ever trod,
The deepest sunk in guilt or sorrow,
Might stand erect in self-respect,
And share the teeming world to-morrow.

What might be done? This might be done,
And more than this, my suffering brother--
More than the tongue e'er said or sung,
If men were wise and loved each other.

A Fact

WORTH knowing is that blood diseases which all other remedies fail to cure, yield to Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Fresh confirmation of this statement comes to hand daily. Even such deep-seated and stubborn complaints as Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout, and the like, are thoroughly eradicated by the use of this wonderful alterative.

Mrs. R. Irving Dodge, 110 West 125th street, New York, certifies:—

"About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatic gout, being able to walk only with great discomfort, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertisement in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing complaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months. I am pleased to say that it effected a complete cure, and that I have since had no return of the disease."

Mrs. L. A. Stark, Nashua, N. H., writes: "One year ago I was taken ill with rheumatism, being confined to my house six months. I came out of the sickness very much debilitated, with no appetite, and my system disordered in every way. I commenced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining in strength and soon recovering my usual health. I cannot say too much in praise of this well-known medicine."

"I have taken a great deal of medicine, but nothing has done me so much good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I felt its beneficial effects before I had quite finished one bottle, and I can freely testify that it is the best blood-medicine I know of."—L. W. Ward, Sr., Woodland, Texas.

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS FOR PALE PEOPLE

ARE NOT a Pur-gative Medi-cine. They are a BLOOD BUILDER, TONIC and RECON-structor, as they supply in a condensed form the substances actually needed to en-rich the Blood, curing all diseases coming from POOR and WAT-ERY BLOOD, or from VITIATED HUMORS in the BLOOD, and also invigorate and BUILD UP the BLOOD and SYSTEM, when broken down by overwork, mental worry, disease, excesses and indis-critions. They have a SPECIFIC ACTION on the SEXUAL SYSTEM of both men and women, restoring LOST VIGOR and correcting all IRREGULARITIES and SUPPRESSIONS.

EVERY MAN Who finds his mental fac-ilities dull or failing, or his physical powers flagging, should take these PILLS. They will restore his lost energies, both physical and mental.

EVERY WOMAN should take them. They cure all sup-pressions and irregularities, which inevitably entail sickness when neglected.

YOUNG MEN should take these PILLS. They will cure the re-sults of youthful bad habits, and strengthen the system.

YOUNG WOMEN should take them. These PILLS will make them regular.

CHEMIST C. L. COULTER'S
COMBINED
VAPORIZER and INHALER.

THE CHAMPION VOLATILIZER.

A New Instrument for Vaporizing Oils and Drugs for Inhalation as well as for Disinfecting and Deodorizing Sick Rooms, Hospitals, Public Buildings, Railway Carriages, etc.; also an Odorizer for Perfuming Parlors, Opera Houses, etc.

The only perfect Vaporizer for the treatment of diseases of the Nose, Throat and Lungs, such as Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Whooping-cough, Croup, Diphtheria, Catarrh and La Grippe. Beechwood Creosote, Oil of Southern Pine Needles and Eucalyptus Oil, of each equal parts, vaporized and inhaled, affords wonderful benefit in Phthisis.

ADVANTAGES:

1. An undiluted, non-irritating, thoroughly medicated vapor is obtained by reason of the reservoir containing the medicated sponge being placed on the inhaling tube at a distance of 8 or 10 inches from the boiling water, and complete volatilization is effected of the drugs to be inhaled, thus ensuring their reaching directly the part to be medicated. Other so-called vaporizers are only atomizers or sprays breaking the drug into fluid particles which are not diffusible and therefore too heavy to be inspired.

2. By vaporizing anti-septics, it quickly sterilizes the atmosphere in cases of infectious diseases.

3. It is simple, durable, convenient of manipulation, and absolutely safe from fire.

4. The price is a great desideratum, being only about half that of any other vaporizer, volatilizer or inhaler that claims any merit.

5. It is the only volatilizer that is unanimously endorsed by the medical profession (read sample testimonials):

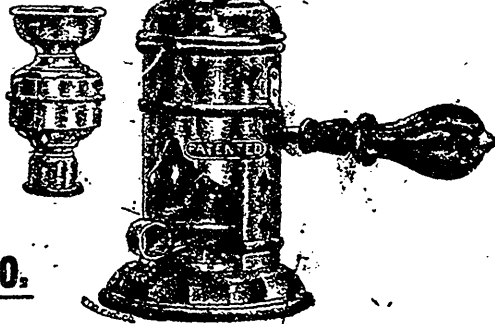

Made of Copper and Brass, Nickel-plated. It has no Glass Tubes, no Valves to get out of order.

C. L. COULTER, M.D.,

Past Chief Ranger and Physician to Court Lindsay,

My DEAR SIR AND BRO.—I have tested and am using your Combined Vaporizer and Inhaler and am very much pleased with the manner it does its work. In fact, I regard it as a perfect instrument, being safe, simple of construction, and therefore not liable to get out of order. It accomplishes the vaporization of oils and other medicinal agents most effectually, thus making it available as well for treatment by inhalation as for disinfecting sick rooms, hospitals and public buildings, or wherever disinfection is required. I have had experience with most of the best Inhalers in the market and your instrument has given me more satisfaction than any I have ever used, and I can with confidence recommend it to the profession and the public generally. Yours in L. B. & C.,

Very useful in sterilizing the atmosphere of a room in cases of infectious diseases.
G. R. McDONAGH, M.D., L.R.C.P., London, Lecturer in Laryngology and Rhinology, University of Toronto.
For vaporizing the atmosphere in diphtheria it is without an equal and for the purpose of disinfecting apartments or clothing I cannot conceive anything better.

I have carefully examined your Vaporizer and I am very much impressed by its simplicity and its efficiency in distributing disinfectants thoroughly throughout large buildings. I believe all schools would be rendered more healthful by its use in them for a short time before the opening of school each morning. It is incomparably superior to any deodorizer or disinfectant that depends on the action of the air alone for the distribution of the disinfectants used.

JAS. L. HUGHES, Public School Inspector, Chairman Committee on Hygiene, National Council of Education.
Particularly useful in diseases requiring for treatment thoroughly vaporized volatile substances.

SIR JAMES GRANT, M.D., Ottawa.
