HELP!

Might we ask the advertisers in the Times-Star to let us have their ad. copy not later than 6 o'clock the night before the day on which insertion is desired? The crux of advertising, which The Times has been carrying the last few months, makes a call for HELP on the part of the business office an urgent necessity. It is hardly necessary to state that the earlier the paper is out, the larger the sale—hence, an increased market for you. It also means that your advertisement will receive the best attention as regards typographical treatment will be dressed in the way your PUBLIC SALESMAN should be dressed. Best work of course, can't be done in a rush, and either you or THE TIMES is satisfied with a poorly dressed ad. The unfortunate fact that quite frequently advertisements have to be omitted from The Times on account of late copy, prompts this S. O. S. call, and really your own best interests would demand that it be heeded. Advertising Manager

WANTED

Few Men for Handling Bark. Apply PETERS' TANNERY. 8071-14-10. (Continued from page 1) cession of future prospects. The appointment, as chief secretary, of Edward Shortt, radical and home ruler, who was elected to parliament by the Irish vote of Newcastle and who voted against the application of conscription to Ireland, followed by the appointment of William Archer Redmond, M. P. for East Tyrone, who is a captain in the British army, as intelligence officer on Lord French's staff, created for a few days the impression that the government had abandoned its intention of enforcing conscription. It is, however, generally realized that the policy of the government is two-fold and that its declarations regarding home rule and conscription stand equally firm. In the best informed circles it is believed that it is home rule will follow conscription will be enforced at once and that the same result would follow the rejection of the home rule bill by the Nationalists. In Dublin today the collection for the anti-conscription fund resulted in the payment of first instalments averaging $200 to a parish. Speeches by John Dillon. London, May 6.—Anti-conscription speeches were made from the same platform by John Dillon, Nationalist leader, and Professor Edward de Valera, head of the Sinn Fein, yesterday at Balgavane, in Dillon's constituency of East Mayo. Good humor and enthusiasm characterized the demonstration, which was attended by 15,000 persons. Mr. Dillon said that if the Irish kept quiet determined for another two weeks they would defeat conscription. It was an atrocious form of oppression to compel a people to fight for a country not their own. He strongly opposed conscription, whether in Great Britain or in Ireland, and believed it was a great blunder to depart from England's traditional policy against compulsory service, especially when it was not to defend the soil. He said that the English had agreed to support conscription to support the cause of the Allies. It was impossible and unthinkable that the Nationalist leader declared, to attempt to apply conscription to a free and democratic people, unless there was agreement amounting almost to unanimity. He earnestly appealed for a spirit of frank and friendly co-operation between the Nationalist and the Unionist. Professor de Valera said his followers would unite with those of Mr. Dillon to defeat conscription. With reference to the issue raised in East Cavan, he said there was only one arbitrator to whom the Sinn Fein would submit, namely, the free choice of the electors.

GERMAN ATTACK
PLANNED BUT DID NOT MATERIALIZE

Allied Gunfire and Downpour of Rain Responsible

LUCK AGAINST THE ENEMY

Our Guns Played Havoc With Hun Preparations for Assault—Allies Win Back Large Number of Important Positions

With the British Army in France,
May 5—(By the Associated Press)— Luck seems to be going against the German along the crucial northern battle-front. Sunday still found the French commanders working desperately to whip their organizations into shape for a renewal of the delayed offensive, while the Allied forces, aided by the weather, continued counter operations which are most disconcerting to an enemy playing against time.

It was quite apparent that the Germans intended another assault in Flanders yesterday morning, but the arrangements were held up by a combination of events. There were the Allied operations and a heavy rain which converted the ground into mud flats over which it was difficult to move either infantry or artillery. There was also confusion arising from wholesale retreats and the arrival of strange troops in the German area.
The Allied artillery has been maintaining an incessant bombardment of enemy territory and on Friday night, before the projected German attack, the French and British gunners played havoc with the German preparations. The Allied troops also have been carrying out successive local operations, which improved their lines and upset enemy schemes to a marked degree.

Yesterday the Allies occupied a large number of important positions at various points along the front of 4,000 yards west of Kemmel. The British also made an advance of 200 yards along a front of 1,000 yards northwest of Locon, thereby gaining several positions which had been contested many days. This morning the Germans tried to regain some of these positions, but were repulsed. An enemy stack yesterday morning in the Locon area under cover of heavy barrage likewise was smashed.

On the southern battle front the British last night near Sully le Sec advanced their line in a minor operation, without casualties. The German prisoners taken in all these local engagements make a considerable total.

The spirit of the Allied troops remains at the highest pitch. They know that every day's delay in itself a victory for them. Each day makes America loom larger on the horizon and brings the much needed overseas troops nearer the battle lines.

Norton, May 4—(Special)—One of the largest funerals seen here for some time was that of Alice Wilmet Patriquet, wife of Oscar R. Patriquet, of this place, which took place this afternoon.
Rev. C. W. Waldon, pastor of the Baptist church at Norton, conducted the service.

After a short service at the residence of the deceased the funeral service was held in the church. A very impressive service was held and the church was crowded with friends of the deceased lady. Mr. Waldon spoke from the text,
"For the living know that they shall die."
He referred feelingly to the splendid and beautiful life of the deceased, both in her own home and in the community and of the very high esteem in which she was held by all who knew her, recognizing as they did her unflinching kindness, great sympathy and true Christian character.
During the service Miss Kathleen Campbell sang Tenney's "Crossing the Barnet" which was rendered in a beautiful manner. The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

tation, N. B. Regiment, and Ernest

MILITARY Y. M.
C. A. MINISTERS
TO NEEDS OF MEN
Three-Sided Service Emphasized by Rev. F. H. Wentworth in Interesting
Address

In the Waterloo street United Baptist church last evening, Rev. F. H. Wentworth, speaking on the work of the military service department of the Y. M. C.
A, took as his subject, The Hut Behind the Trench. He chose as his text "And the very God of Peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."—1 Thess. 5-23.
The preacher said that the Red Triangle Hut ministered also to the immediate needs of our Lord Jesus Christ in his complete personality—spirit and mind and body—and in this line with the teaching of the New Testament.
The Red Triangle Hut ministered also to the immediate needs of our Lord Jesus Christ in his complete personality—spirit and mind and body; and in this line with the teaching of the New Testament. He recognized that the soldier who was limping, bleeding and weak with the loss of blood, needed first of all his body treated, and then Y. M.
C. A. attended to his physical needs.
His mind might be affected and at the moment when help was most needed to save from insanity or mental degeneration the Y. M. C. A., through its Red Triangle Hut ministers to a mind distressed. It has learned also the sanctify-ing power of wholesome amusement to minis tried and tormented by the serious business of this cruel war. Most of all it is ministering to the spirit, so that many boys who crossed the sea indifferent and godless were brought face to face with eternal realities, and were finding that "the way of the cross leads home."
We were therefore following the leading of the spirit of God when we help forward this work. As Christians we would profit much if we study this work.
It is his lesson for the church; and it must be considered in all plans for reconstruction after the war. There are phases of this work that belong entirely to the exigencies of warfare, but there are others that must enter into the permanent church work, if ever we are going to hold the soldiers when they return.
The Red Triangle Hut has meant for thousands the salvation of the whole man, spirit and mind and body. And thousands of others have found it easier to enter the valley of the shadow of death, because through the ministry of the Red Triangle Hut they have found Him before whom all shadows flee away.

Stuffy Feeling About the Nose Relieved at Once

Tells How to Cure Hayfever and Spleen and Drive Out Catarrhal Glands.

Isn't it miserable to have a stuffed-up feeling in the nostrils—to be scarcely able to draw a full breath. When Catarrh gets into the nose you're bound to know something is radically wrong.

A dead sure cure, and a simple one to use. It's Catarrhose; you just breathe it—thats all. You see Catarrhose inhaler sends healing pliny vapors through the nose, throat and lungs, and these antiseptic soothing vapors are death to colds or Catarrh.

Thousands testify every year that nothing ever discovered will cure a cold, or help the throat like Catarrhose.
Mr. Everett L. Wasson, of Blain
(N. B.), writes:—"About five years ago
I took a cold in the head, and Catarrh set in. It kept increasing by leaps and bounds. I kept putting off getting anything until at last I found I would have to. After trying several things I heard of your remedy, 'Catarrhose.' I bought it and used it as recommended. Deturbance to all who have Catarrh, etc."

Catarrhose is the greatest remedy for colds, etc., since people began to have colds. Get the dollar package and let the whole family use it. Medium size, 50c; sample size, 30c. All stores

A POWERFUL APPEAL

The men at the front have in the Rev. George Adam an eloquent and forceful advocate. One cannot hear or read his burning words without feeling a stronger desire to be of some service in the war. The pity of it is that so many do not hear or read; and that there are still among us so many who magnify small discomforts or blunders at home while they fall utterly to enslave the grim scenes on the battlefield, with their daily record of wounds, and suffering, and death. Rev. Mr. Adam points to the righteousness of the Allied cause in the striking sentence: "God has a Son in this war." If we believe that, how can we be indifferent—even if some of us have no sons of our own there? The crimes committed by Germany are crimes for vengeance. The Pall Mall Gazette well says:

"That Great Britain is always ready for real peace goes without saying, but such peace involves the settlement of the moral questions raised by the war. Full explanation of Germany's heinous crimes and the establishment of complete safeguards against any future outbreak of Hunnishness. No suggestion has come from Germany of her readiness to satisfy those standards, and none can be expected until the military class which controls her public life has been rendered powerless by defeat."

Rev. Mr. Adam's appeal for the Red Triangle Fund is an appeal to us to do something practical for the men who are fighting in our stead, and offering their lives to save the world from the curse of German domination, with all that it would mean to crushed and bleeding and enslaved humanity. The Y. M. C. A. is helping to win the war.

OTTAWA'S GAS COMPANY.

The Ottawa Gas Company is applying for authority to increase its capital by $6,000,000, without showing that it is needed, or producing any books, is roundly denounced by the Journal-Press, which says—

"The Ottawa Gas Company is under no degree of public control of any kind. It has a perpetual charter, secured in the long ago when such inequities were liable to be accepted by struggling municipalities. It pays nothing to the city for this great concession, which by virtue of the nature of the business means now a perpetual monopoly. No power over its rates anywhere, nor over the quality of its product. As a matter of fact, its rates are high compared with those of gas in most places in Canada, and we understand the quality of the gas to be comparatively poor. Finally, the company is being utilized as a tool to injure a great civic interest, namely the municipal electric plant. In order to steal customers from the municipal electric plant, the Ottawa Electric Company, which controls the gas company, is offering gas for cooking purposes cheaper to those who take electric light from the Ottawa Electric Company than to those who take light from the municipal electric plant. This is a gross misuse of two civic charters, namely those of both the Ottawa Electric Company and the Ottawa Gas Company. It is on the basis then of inferior public service, of deliberate attack upon civic property, and of absolute freedom from public control of any kind that the Ottawa Gas Company is applying to parliament for power to increase its capital and increase its capital stock. And further, without proving any case for increase of capital. We say, 'without proving any case.' No evidence has been tendered by the Ottawa Gas Company to the private bills committee of parliament to show why additional capital should be had. The company's lawyer has made some general statements, but no officials of the company have been examined, no books produced, nothing submitted of the ordinary nature of proof to show what the company's position really is, or what it really needs."

The Journal-Press declares that there should be "no increase of the capitalization of the gas company unless far different conditions are laid down for the company's operation than prevail at present; and the sensible thing for parliament to do would be to refer the gas company to the city council." It points out the obvious fact that "increase in the capitalization of any public service company, unless vitally necessary for the conduct and promotion of the business, and unless so as to give full value to the business, must mean increased charges to the public," and protests against the theory "that a public service company should be free to get exactly what it wants and do exactly what it pleases."

To all of which the citizens of St. John, in view of their experience, will give a fervent amen.

This week the Red Triangle goes "over the top." How will it fare in this city and province? The people have never yet failed to respond to an appeal in behalf of "the boys over there," and the need is great. The overseas Y. M. C. A. sustained heavy loss in the great German drive since March 21, and apart from that its needs grow as the war wears on.

CANADA'S TASK.

"But even granted that victory is ultimately assured for the Allies, it must never be forgotten that every month of prolongation of the war means billions of additional cost and the sacrifice of the lives of thousands of our finest sons. All will agree that consciously to leave any stone unturned to render our maximum service and to bring the war to the earliest possible successful termination is nothing short of criminal."

These are the words of Prof. Moulton of Chicago University, addressed to the people of the United States. He urges the industrial mobilization of the country as the supreme requirement of the hour, in order that in addition to men there may be produced ships, supplies and munitions and food. The same appeal comes to Canada, with special emphasis upon the need for men and food. It will be nothing short of criminal if we fail to do our utmost, since the lives of Canadians are at stake, and the very fate of democracy hangs in the balance. What Prof. Moulton says of the experience of England is equally true of Canada. He says:

"England, across the Channel and hence free from invasion, has debated herself with the notion that she could have business as usual and at the same time cope successfully with an enemy that was wonderfully efficient in its organization for war. But England eventually awoke—about two years ago—to the real requirements of the grim business of war. I quote from Hon. H. R. Brand, vice-chairman of the British war mission to the United States:

"We discovered to our surprise at the beginning of the war that we were apparently meant prosperity and not poverty. Wages advanced and millions found that they had more money than they ever had before. The result was that consumption actually tended to go up among the poorer classes and labor and materials vitally required for war purposes were diverted to meeting these new demands. But we found that business as usual is impossible. The ravenous demands of modern war compel every nation at war to choose between peace and war. If they have elected for war they must order their economic lives accordingly; they must turn their industry from a peace to a war basis, and they must see that every war demand has a prior claim to every peace demand."

We have had exactly the same experience in Canada except that because we are farther away from the scene of conflict, and have an abundance of everything we require, we are at least two years behind England in grasping the full significance of the situation into which we have been forced by the war. We must now wake up, and with a full realization of our duty go forth every effort to provide men and food, the two great essentials this country is called on to contribute. Consider the words of Sir Robert Borden to the delegation of farmers:

"I do want you to realize that a situation exists which you do not quite understand. We talk of hardships here in Canada. We have had hardships, and, God knows, too much sorrow; but we have no conception of what is going on in France at the present time."

Sir Robert agreed with the farmers that there was the greatest possible need for increased production, but added this searching question: "If we waited for further exemptions and our men were decimated and destroyed, what kind of an answer would it be to say we had increased production?"

We must, therefore, let the men go and speed up production with what help is available. Difficulties can be overcome. Sir Robert Borden declares that "the people of our race are never stronger than when confronted with problems which seem practically insurmountable."

It is for the people of Canada to rise to the situation, and with the example of the English and French people before them face undauntedly the task set for them—not by the government of Canada—but by the murderers of children, the violators of women, the repudiators of solemn treaties, the devil's brood of Germany who would enslave the world.

The appointment of Viscount French as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland comes as a surprise. Indeed recent Irish history has been full of surprises, and the prospect of an early settlement of the controversy is clouded with doubt. It is unfortunate that the people of Ireland are unable to see that the supreme issue at the moment is the winning of the war. A Germanized Ireland would not be to their liking, and that is now the real danger. Discord in Ireland helps Germany.

The week begins with favorable reports of minor British operations on the western front. The Germans are evidently not yet ready for their next attempt to break the Allied lines.

The war is teaching people to do things they never dreamed of being called upon to do. They will be the better for the experience and training.

Newfoundland has adopted daylight-saving.

LIGHTER VEIN

The Lawyer (in Boston Transcript)—Take your case to somebody else. You are too thin-skinned. The Client—Hardly pay to skin me, eh?

Waiter (to guest who has been waiting a very long time)—Did you ring the bell, sir?

Guest—No, I was telling it. I thought you were dead.—Pearson's Weekly.

"In what way does Germany resemble Holland?" asks a contemporary wit, and answers in question form: "It is a low, lying country, and damned all around."

"The lions never touched Daniel when he was thrown into their den." "Maybe," ventured the painfully precocious child, as quoted in the Washington Star, "it was meatless day."

The other evening a certain private who had been away on a 36-hour furlough got back to camp at 10 instead of 8 p. m., relates a contributor to Judge. As he hurried along toward his barracks, a scintillating "Halt!" "Halt, noth-ing," answered Jones, "I'm two hours late now."

E-President Taft was once congratulated at a New Haven luncheon on the work he had done for the cause of peace. "Let me tell you," said Taft, "an appropriate story. 'Why is it a fat man was once asked that you fat chaps are always so good-natured?' 'We have to be,' the fat man replied. 'You see, we can neither fight nor run.'"

Everywhere men who suddenly attain prosperity spend money foolishly. A story is told in Commerce and Finance illustrating the point in the case of a southern dandy who had made money as a result of the high price of cotton. He went to buy a photograph. "How many children have you?" asked the photographer during the transaction. "I have eight," was the answer. "One photograph for eight children!" exclaimed the salesman, "that will never do. You need two." And he sold them to his credulous customer.

Because the newly-commissioned major on the way to Toronto looked like ready money the porter had been very active in his attention. His movements were of the "hot-foot" variety whenever the officer appeared to require service. Also he was careful to address the major as "sir." And when the train neared the Union depot and, following the assiduous use of the brush, the sable servant discovered himself in the possession of a dime, he was equal to the emergency. He clicked his heels together, saluted, and remarked, "Corporal, Ah, thank you, sah."

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

A London despatch announces the appointment of Viscount French as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, with Edward Shortt, member for Newcastle-on-Tyne, as chief secretary.

The Vatican has announced itself as being no party to any peace offer which may be brought up at the present time. It is believed that a German peace will be brought forward which, when refused, will prepare the German people for another "bath of blood."

By new civil service bill before the house at Ottawa civil service employees on the outside service receiving less than $100 will be granted an additional bonus of $100 and the salaries of all employees are to be raised according to value.

Sir Robert Borden has expressed an opinion that a Canadian flying corps is very possible and during his visit to the old country the matter will be discussed. No action will be taken meanwhile.

Pilot Wallace Brackett was found guilty by the stipendiary magistrate at Halifax on Saturday of refusing to obey signals of the examining officer at the outer harbor, even though it would have been dangerous to obey them.

Lieut-Governor McCallum Grant-Governor of Nova Scotia, unveiled a mural tablet at St. John's church, Lunenburg, N. S., yesterday in his great-grandfather, Rev. Jean Baptiste Moreau, who conducted the first services in that church.

Judge Haggart, Winnipeg, exempted twenty-four members of the government railway, deciding they were necessary to run the railway to bring the crops.

Girl of Eleven Pale and Lifeless

So Nervous and Irritable That She Finally Kept to Her Bed—By Using the Great Food Cure She Grew Strong and Healthy

Italy Cross, N. S., May 5—In every school there are children who do not seem to be able to stand the strain of school work. The confinement indoors, the poor ventilation, the strain on the eyes and the nerves, all combine to sap the vitality and to undermine the strength of the human body.

Because Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has proven exceptionally effective under these circumstances, it has come to be considered standard as a restorative treatment for pale, weak, nervous children.

What a pleasure it is to watch the color return to weak cheeks and to see the child romp and play as a healthy child should. This experience of Mrs. Hartman will surely interest you.

Mrs. Stephen Hartman, Italy Cross, Lunenburg county, N. S., writes: "My little sister at eleven years of age became nervous, irritable and seemed all tired out. She had no appetite, was lifeless and droopy, and her complexion grew pale and sallow. Finally she had to keep her bed and have somebody with her all the time. She was afraid of everything, would get excited and tremble till the bed would shake. As she seemed to be getting worse under the doctor's treatment, mother decided to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. After she had used about half a box, her improvement was noticeable, and it was wonderful to see how much brighter and stronger she grew. She was able to get up and walk altogether, and they cured her. She got fat and rosy and went to school every day with an air of contentment that seemed to have before. I do not hesitate to recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for every child for it is indeed wonderful what it did for her."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 80 cents a box, a full treatment of six boxes for $2.75, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be misled by cheap imitations. Imitations only disappoint.

THE MAKING OF A FAMOUS MEDICINE

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is Prepared For Woman's Use.

A visit to the laboratory where this successful remedy is made impresses every one with the care and precision, the reliability, accuracy, skill and cleanliness which attend the making of this great medicine for women's ailments.

Over 300,000 pounds of various herbs are used annually and all have to be gathered at the season of the year when their natural juices and medicinal substances are at their maximum.

The most successful solvents are used to extract the medicinal properties from the herbs.

Every utensil and tank that comes in contact with the medicine is sterilized as with a final precaution in cleanliness the medicine is pasteurized and sealed in sterile bottles.

Germans Could Not Take Them With 150 Divisions of Their Best Storm Troops, Experts Say

Paris, May 5—Paris is now speculating as to how long the Germans will be able to continue to endure the frightful losses of men which they are continually suffering on the western battlefield.

It is estimated by experts here that the Germans have had available for service on the west front since the break-up of front in Russia 200 divisions at the very highest figure. Assuming that a German division still consists of 13,570 men, this would give a total available strength of 3,892,000.

Now during the five weeks that the great battle has already lasted at least 150 Divisions are known to have been reduced, or at least fatigued to such extent that they have had to be taken out of the line.

It is true that many of them have been reinforced and thrown in again, sometimes several times in succession, as the evidence of prisoners has shown beyond dispute, but such made-over divisions are never of the same value as the fresh troops.

The people who are inclined to be pessimistic as to the present position of the battle may well ask themselves this simple question: "What have they done out of Villers-Bretonneux, where they were plainly licked. They were again beaten before Arras, where the Allies regained the lost ground, which the enemy has not since attempted to recapture. And finally, on Monday, after making the enemy will achieve any greater success with the remaining hundred divisions? And what chance have three hundred divisions reaching either Paris or any one of the much-longed-for Channel ports?

In March, when the battle began, the Allies were ignorant of the strength behind the enemy's supreme blow. Since their tremendous offensive was definitely stayed before Arras on March 28 the Germans have suffered five extremely serious checks, two of which were real defeats. They were repulsed twice at Giverny, where they anticipated as an easy conquest, and were then driven out of Villers-Bretonneux, where they were plainly licked. They were again beaten before Arras, where the Allies regained the lost ground, which the enemy has not since attempted to recapture. And finally, on Monday, after making the greatest effort they had undertaken during the offensive in Flanders, they were compelled to admit the Allies were too strong for them.

The Allies, in fact, have now got the measure of the German strength and are more serious setbacks, it is confidently believed here, may be anticipated.

Paris is safe and the Channel ports are safe. The losses of the fourth German army, under von Arnim, in Monday's battle, are estimated here as at least 60,000.

HIS GLOWING TRIBUTE TO MEN AT THE FRONT

Dr. George Adam Tells Of Courage and Sacrifice

CANADA'S PART IN THE WAR

Pleads for Greater Devotion by People at Home — Effective Arguments for Support of Y. M. C. A. Military Work

The story of the work of the Y. M. C. A. for the men at the front, for the soldiers on leave and for those who return from the battle lines, was told eloquently yesterday by Dr. George Adam of London, England, and Captain George S. Dingle of Montreal. Reinforcing his appeal for funds for this work, Dr. Adam told of the sacrifices of the people of the motherland and contrasted them with the amount that Canada has done to win the war.

Those on the platform with the chairman were G. Wetmore Merritt, county campaign chairman; Premier Foster, C. H. Peters, provincial vice-chairman; John Keeffe, Rev. F. S. Dowling, Mayor Hayes, Colonel A. H. H. Powell, acting O. C. No. 7 Military District; Major F. F. May, Hon. R. J. Ritchie, Rev. H. A. Goodwin, G. E. Barbour, provincial chairman, with the speakers.

The Imperial packed almost to capacity with the boxes well filled. Captain Dingle, in his address, described the spirit and atmosphere which the men were living at the front. Their object, he said, was to kill the Hun and destroy his shelter and there must be something to counteract that feeling of destruction before they go home. The Red Triangle Club. Those men are living in military training, hard work, mud, wet, and all that goes with it. This is their atmosphere and the greatest agency they possibly could have to get away from this is given them by the Y. M. C. A.

He said that the Red Triangle Club of the Y. M. C. A. was attempting to retain and build up their spirit so that it would not get dampened and into one way of thinking, so that they might come back stronger, better and brighter Canadians.

In one part of the line, he said, as they come up and down, fully 150,000 cups of coffee were served daily. Captain Dingle referred to the concert parties for the amusement of the men and this must be kept up on a high plane. He told of the training school where these concert artists were trained and rehearsed and how they came out first class artists for the entertainment of the soldiers.

"The soldier at work is safe but it is the soldier on leave that is not," said Captain Dingle. He pointed out the problem of entertaining the soldier on leave was the hardest. However, through military headquarters, the problem had been laid before the Y. M. C. A. They secured a solution and how almost ninety-five per cent of the soldiers on leave in Paris were being looked after by the Y. M. C. A. The idea was built on how to see Paris the best and the cheapest, and it was a Scotchman who worked up the scheme, said Captain Dingle.

At the opening of his address Mr. Adam paid a tribute to the work of the Y. M. C. A. "The Y. M. C. A. is a great institution. It has been criticized by some who have spent only a few days at the front. It is losing some of its piety, which is a good thing, for one can smoke in the Y. M. C. A. now, something one could not do before. The Y. M. C. A. is indeed wielding a moral and spiritual influence in the lives of thousands of men.

Of the returned soldier he said that he would come home with a new viewpoint on life, though, perhaps, not in sympathy with formality in churches. The elementary law of Christianity is to fight, to die, to be wounded for another, which the soldier of today is doing, "and for us."

Speaking of Queen Mary and her work in the war, Mr. Adam said that undoubtedly she was "the greatest woman in the world." She was interested in all things pertaining to the welfare of the soldiers. "She goes right to the huts of the Y. M. C. A. with her apron on and serves the coffee."

Speaking of contributions to the Y. M. C. A. Red Triangle fund he said that these should be considered from the sacrificial point of view of "how much of a sacrifice can we stand for the Y. M. C. A. He said Canada had not even started yet to sacrifice in this war.

"Mr. Adam then took up the notion abroad that the Canadians had been picked and thrown into the difficult situations along the various battle fronts. "Why one would be almost convinced that Canada was holding the whole western front. Great Britain is in this war, also. I suppose you know that. Well, the idea that Canadian forces have been put into the difficult places is an absolute lie."

The speaker went on to show that by comparison the British and Canadian armies that the casualty in the Imperial troops was five to one when compared to the Canadian list. In Scotland, with 4,500,000 people, taking the army alone she has contributed one in every seven and taking the army and navy she has one in every five in war service.

In Canada there is one in every twenty in the service "and the slackers are not all in Quebec." (Applause.)

Speaking of the British navy he said that England had doubled her strength at the end of the first year of war. "And where were these extra sailors to come from? Sailors cannot be made in a day. She stripped her coast guard line, he said, and left it protected by the British Boy Scouts. "I just think the coast of Britain. To bring home the greater sacrifices, Mr. Adam referred to the conscription law in England, taking as it does all males from eighteen to fifty-one years. The unmarried man gets twenty-four cents a day and the married man gets twelve, the rest going to the support of his wife and children. The wife gets in all $5.25 per week with which she must clothe, buy food, and supply all the necessities of life to herself and family.

"O Canada, you talk of sacrifices. It is true you have produced wonderful fighters, some of the best that this war has produced, we have but to recall the second battle of Ypres, the capture of

"THE RED TRIANGLE."

The National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A. was so impressed with "The Road to France," $250 prize poem by Daniel M. Henderson, of South Orange, N. J., that an appeal was made to the National Arts Club to supply posters containing the poem, to be placed in every building of the Y. M. C. A. in the U. S. A. and in the war zones. "The Red Triangle" was written by Mr. Henderson to further the recent Y. M. C. A. campaign, and is as follows:

Lift up the Red Triangle—
Beside the thundering guns—
A friend, a shield, a solace
To one ten million sons!
Go build a hut or dugout
By billet or by trench—
A shelter from the horrors
The cold, the filth, the stench!
Where boys we love, returning
From out the gory loam
Can sight the Red Triangle
And find a bit of home!

Lift up the Red Triangle
"Gainst things that mar and maim:
It conquers Boone, the wrecker!
It kills the house of shame!
Go make a friendly corner,
So lads can take the pen
And get in touch with mother
And God's clean things again!
Where hell's destroying forces
Are leagued with Fostian's crew,
Lift up the Red Triangle—
And help our boys "come through!"
DANIEL M. HENDERSON.

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Lucy Arsenault.
The death occurred very suddenly yesterday afternoon of Lucy, widow of William Arsenault. Mrs. Arsenault was in her usual good health in the morning and attended church. In the afternoon she was stricken with an attack of acute indigestion and in spite of all efforts to aid her, passed away in a few hours. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. M. A. Duplisse, of this city, four sisters, Mrs. H. A. Jamieson, Mrs. George Cogan and Mrs. Philip Cogan, all of this city, and Mrs. William Blake, of Stellarton (N. S.); one brother, Benjamin, of Loggieville; another brother, Joseph, was killed in France a short time ago, a member of the 27th battalion. Two sons also survive, James, of Orange River, and John, who is in England on service.

Augusta Matheson.
Many will regret to learn of the death of Augusta Matheson, which occurred yesterday at his home, 71 Somerset street, following a brief illness. Mr. Matheson was a shipcarpenter in his younger days, and at the revival of the industry here he resumed his old work. He was seventy-two years of age. Besides his wife, he leaves one son, Harvey, and three daughters—Mrs. J. G. Matheson, of St. John; Mrs. George Gay, of Saskatchewan and Miss Lena in Winnipeg. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Armarie A. Carney.
One of the most popular young sales girls of the city died yesterday in the person of Armarie A. Carney, daughter of Mary and the late James Carney. For eight years Miss Carney was on the sales staff of F. W. Daniel & Co., and the news of her death will come as a decided shock to a large circle of friends. She had been in failing health for some time. She is survived by her mother, two brothers, Frederick, of the C. P. R. and William, of Main street, and three sisters—Mrs. James A. Dausaunt, of this city and Mrs. Alfred R. Winslow and Miss Alice, at home. The funeral will be held from the residence of her mother, 14 Hanover street, on Tuesday morning at 2:15 to the Cathedral for solemn requiem high mass.

Wilson J. Speight.
Many will bear with regret of the sudden death of Wilson J. Speight, after only a week's illness of pneumonia. Mr. Speight was well known in the North End. He is survived by one brother, John, of Brookville Station, and two sisters, Mrs. Ann J. Stone, of Main street, and Mrs. Joseph Shanks, of Brooklyn (N. Y.). Funeral from his late residence, 100 Chesley street, Tuesday afternoon; service at 8:30 o'clock.

The death of Clement Shaw occurred on Sunday at the home of M. T. Steeves, Hillsboro. He was thirty-one years of age.

Mrs. George McKnight, wife of former city engineer of Fredericton, passed away at Fredericton last night after a short illness. She is survived by her husband and two children.

Vimy Ridge to know that. Yes, you have sent great stuff overseas but you have not sent enough. Canada has grown rich since the war but the soldiers' altars of France and England.

Dwelling on the sacrifices of the women in the war the speaker showed that before the war 500,000 women were working at industrial occupations in Great Britain, whereas now there were 4,000,000 so engaged. Referring to the women in the war he said that the Scottish soldier, he said that they were toiling in the munition plants, working amid acids and fumes that were practically eating away their beauty—their bloom of health and all that women hold dear.

Coming to the boys in France and Flanders, Mr. Adam said he had seen them in the trenches, "going over the top," coming back, in the hospital, under all circumstances and when in their presence "I could not but imagine that I was talking to spiritual superiors. Nature's first law is self-preservation which more or less controls and governs life. In the trenches self-preservation is not the first law of nature but self-sacrifice which, so help me God, is looking out of the eye of every man. Self-sacrifice is a higher law than self-preservation, and for a time I was almost agreed with the German philosophers who teach that 'soldiers are supermen.'"

Chief Justice McKeown spoke of the solemnity of the touching meeting and asked Rev. H. A. Goodwin to close with the simple benediction.

In St. Andrew's Presbyterian church in the morning Dr. Adam spoke on the text "The works of righteousness is peace and the effect of righteousness is quietness and assurance forever." These are the objects for which the Allies are fighting, he said, and it is only through righteousness that they may be attained.

Only through the righteousness of the individual can the nation attain to victory. Dr. Adam pleaded for seriousness and sacrifice that the war might be won earlier. Speaking of the work of the Y. M. C. A., he said that it was playing a great part in helping the soldiers to win the war and that a refusal to contribute to its support was "uncommonly like treason."

At this service the minister, Rev. F. S. Dowling, welcomed to the church the congregation of Galvin which has united with St. Andrew's. Captain Dingle addressed the united Sunday schools in the afternoon.

WHAT COM. WIGMORE DID IN SIX YEARS

Since Commissioner R. W. Wigmore took charge of the water and sewerage department six years ago, he has directed the expenditure of $1,500,000, of which $1,295,882.40 was provided by water revenue and the balance by proceeds of bond sales and city appropriations for sewerage maintenance and fire hydrants. The average yearly increase in revenue has been $344,691; the average expenditure $385,595 less and additions to the sinking funds $61,892 more.

While $70,000 of the money spent was the proceeds of bonds, only $25,000 of this amount was authorized since he took office and, as $25,000 bonds were retired by funds taken from current revenue, he has left the net bonded debt at the same figure as when he entered, in spite of the large amount of new work completed.

During Commissioner Wigmore's tenure of office 62,281 feet of water main have been laid as compared with 22,174 during the previous six years.

Last year the assessment was reduced from $170,612 in 1917 to $138,668, less ten per cent. cash discount, making a total decrease of $32,944. The assessment was $6,357 less than in 1911.

SOME RETALIATION FOR THE ILL TREATMENT OF OUR MEN

"It would, however," he said, "be idiotic not to retaliate when necessary and during the last few days retaliation has been put into operation at a certain German officers' camp in Great Britain

Danish Sailor Claims to Have Been Prisoner on Submarine; Destroyer Attacked

Boston, Mass., May 5—After an experience as a prisoner for two weeks on a German U-boat, during which time the submarine was attacked by destroyers with gunfire and depth bombs, Rudolf Petersen, a Danish sailor, reached this port today. Petersen said that he was on the Norwegian ship Storlog when she was halted by the U-60 off Kinsale, Ireland, early in March.

All the officers and crew, nineteen in number, were taken on the submarine, which was 300 feet long and said to be one of the largest turned out at Kiel. The Storlog was then sunk by gunfire.

For two weeks the submarine kept on her hunting grounds, sinking many ships, Petersen said. Once they missed a deep-laden British transport by a narrow margin, but the next day they sank a freighter. The feat elated the Germans, and they tossed up their hats and shook hands all round.

"But I thought my last moment had come," Petersen said, "when in the English channel a British destroyer attacked us. These destroyers go so fast there is not any chance to torpedo them. This one dashed up and quickly began firing. Then we submerged. We could hear the puggles churning above our heads, and a moment later the submarine was shaken by a fearful explosion. It destroyed the fresh water tanks and did other damage."

Petersen declared the U-boat crew were half starved. He was served the same food as the crew, and this consisted of a thin bouillon with bread which he thought was made from sawdust and other nauseating ingredients.

The Storlog crew were landed by the U-boat at Heligoland and were later released.

"TILLIE WAKES UP"

THE amusement resorts at Coney Island are the scene of the best porting of "Tillie Wakes Up," a five-reel Peerless comedy, in which Marie Dressler displays her agility, her keen sense of humor and her skill in making funny falls. She is introduced to the spectator as an unrepentant wife, who, in a fit of desperation, gets inside of her best clothes and starts out to enjoy a little of the gay life. The husband of a neighbor joins her in the little excursion, the two dine "not wisely, but too well," and proceed to shoot all the chutes at Steplechase Park.

With the recollection in mind of the reckless abandon and humorous nonchalance exhibited by Miss Dressler in throwing herself headlong into unknown dangers of every description in former releases, it is hardly necessary to record the fact that in "Tillie Wakes Up" the actress dares every danger in her path and furnishes no end of fun for the lover of broad comedy.

In a report of a case under the mechanics' lien act on Saturday there was mention of the disappearance of a subcontractor in the case, Ernest W. Green. Mr. Green's "disappearance" is due to the fact that he had enlisted and is now serving his country in a siege battery unit.MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION.
The Moncton branch of the Retail Merchants' Association, which was re-organized recently, is showing great activity. Separate branches have been organized for the members in boot and shoe, jewelry and men's furnishing lines and a grocery branch is to be organized. A. A. McIntyre of this city and Miss F. P. Alward, provincial secretary, will visit Moncton for this purpose.AN APPRECIATED GIFT.
At the last meeting of the Moncton Lodge, No. 207, Sons of England, John Edgecombe presented to them a beautiful picture of Her Late Majesty Queen Victoria the good. The picture is in a handsome frame and is appreciated very much by the members. They are very thankful for the gift which was placed by the side of the picture of His Majesty King George and the long roll of honor of their boys who are doing their bit for the glorious empire and king.THAT CHECK.
Rev. George Scott found in a waste paper receptacle in the lobby of the post office last week a check from the Veteran, Ottawa, made out to G. F. Smith for a substantial sum. Mr. Scott inserted a notice to this effect in the Times. Meanwhile Mr. Smith received a wire from Ottawa asking him why he did not acknowledge the check. Then he remembered the notice in the Times. Now he has the check. He had not received it before, and a naturally curious to know how it got into a waste paper receptacle in the lobby of the post office, the envelope having been opened.NEW COMMISSIONERS ARE IN THEIR PLACES.
Earle had said he intended to build some new houses and convert his own residence into an apartment house. A recommendation to the new council that the work be undertaken on a ten per cent. revenue basis was adopted. His recommendation for full pay for Michael Coderre while ill was adopted. This completed the business of the old council.Farewell Speeches.
Commissioner Wigmore then spoke of the termination of his term of commission in city hall, for six years as commissioner and three as alderman. He referred with evident feeling to the support and co-operation of the members of the council, the chamberlain's staff and particularly of the members of his department. He spoke of the highest terms of the devotion and willingness shown by the employees.
A resume of the income and expenditures of the water and sewerage department during his six years in office was read by the retiring commissioner.
Commenting briefly on conditions as he found them when he took office, Mr. Wigmore told of improvements made in the distribution system, the office records, the provision for fire fighting, and assured the incoming commissioner that he would find conditions better than he did when he entered office. He bespoke for his successor the support given to him. While he appreciated the honor that had been conferred on him in electing him to parliament, he said that if he had consulted his own feelings he would have remained at city hall, but he offered his services freely in any way they could be used.
For the Future.
In the future, he said, the city must face certain harbor problems, and he strongly urged that steps be taken to forward the plan for placing the harbor in commission. He said the government was not seeking this burden, but was willing to consider the plan. Regarding the suggestion that the project was being urged to provide positions for several men, he said that any positions created would be filled only by men of outstanding and recognized ability for the work, and so far there had been no discussion of who these officials would be. He also referred to the prospects for a steel shipbuilding plant and new Courtyard Bay facilities, and said he hoped soon to see these realized.
Commissioner Russell spoke briefly, thanking the members of the council for their co-operation and assistance and expressing his appreciation of the services of the members of the city hall staff and his own department.
Commissioner Fisher expressed his appreciation of the efforts of the retiring commissioners and his regret at their departure.
Commissioner McLellan also expressed his regret at the loss of two members and welcomed the incoming commissioners.
Mayor Hayes also voiced his good feelings towards and good wishes for the retiring commissioners.
The mayor presented a letter from the city solicitor drawing attention to the fact that the expenses for investigations into the affairs of the N. B. Power Company had run to $9,907 instead of the estimated $6,000 and recommending that the city pay its one-third, as agreed. Payment was recommended and the count left to the mayor for settlement.
The New Council.
H. E. Wardroper, common clerk, then administered the oaths of office and of allegiance to the mayor and the two new commissioners.
The mayor then welcomed the new members and expressed the hope that their relations might be as pleasant as those existing in the old council. He also took advantage of the opportunity to thank the citizens for returning him

Q. M. S. WHITEBONE IS BADLY HURT
Accidentally and Dangerously Injured in France Says Despatch Received on Sunday
Mrs. Jacob Whitebone of 88 Garden street, received the sad news yesterday that her son, Quartermaster-Sergeant Ernest Whitebone, had accidentally been dangerously wounded and had been admitted to No. 57 Casualty Clearing Station in France. Sergeant Whitebone was one of the first Canadians to enlist after the outbreak of the war. He was conducting a laundry in Moncton at the time he was transferred into another battery in France.
On Dec. 2, 1915, he sustained a shrapnel wound in the right arm while invalided to England, where he remained for ten months. Upon returning to his unit he was again wounded, this time being killed in action in this capacity at the time of his injury. He has many friends in this city who regret to hear of his accident and who will hope for his speedy recovery.

APPLICATION WAS REFUSED
The application which the New Brunswick Power Company made a short time ago to the Public Utilities Commission for permission to make a second increase in their rates for gas, was refused by the commission after consideration had been given to the request. The company has been so notified.
POLICE COURT
Five prisoners were before Magistrate Ritchie this morning charged with drunkenness in addition to other charges. They were each fined $8 or two months on the one or the other and remained in jail on others. Two men were charged, besides being drunk, with having liquor in their possession and with assaulting the policemen who attempted to arrest them. They pleaded not guilty to all charges and after some evidence had been taken they were remanded. Both men were held.
Another soldier was charged with being drunk and using profane language, both of which he admitted, but he pleaded not guilty to a charge of interfering with the police. Evidence from the policeman was also heard in this case and the prisoner remanded. He was arrested in Egin street.
A man was arrested in Acadia street last night and before the magistrate on a charge of being drunk and having liquor in his possession. He said that he did not remember having any liquor and admitted being drunk. He was remanded.
Another man was arrested in Union street on Saturday night at 12 o'clock and was this morning charged with being drunk and having liquor in his possession. He was also remanded.
An absentee from a military unit in the city was before Magistrate Ritchie and the magistrate took upon asking the military authorities, that he was not wanted back. The man was before the court on Saturday in uniform charged with deserting from a ship now in port. He was allowed out and was again before the magistrate this morning in civilian clothes. He was remanded.

by seclusion. Regarding the duties of the office, he said that they had been concerned rather more with war matters than with the ordinary routine. He spoke with pride of what St. John had contributed in men, money and work and said he had no doubt that those remaining were prepared for even greater sacrifices if they should prove necessary. He spoke especially of the work of the women and expressed the hope that this would be recognized by the further extension of the franchise. The mayor also dwelt briefly on the city's relations with the N. B. Power Company. He spoke of the harbor commission negotiations and hoped for a successful completion of a plan on which a plebiscite would be taken. He also spoke optimistically of the prospects for shipbuilding in this port. Referring to the city's finances he said that the bonded debt had been kept down in view of war conditions.
Commissioner McLellan nominated Mr. Bullock for the office of commissioner of harbors, ferries and public lands and his election followed without opposition.
Commissioner Bullock nominated Mr. McLellan for the office of public safety.
Commissioner Fisher said that he had felt that a general change might have been better but he would not suggest any change as two officers had been fixed.
The nomination carried.
Commissioners McLellan and Commissioner Fisher were re-elected to their present offices.
Mr. Bullock.
Commissioner Bullock said that he had not exactly had his choice in the selection of office as when he had first offered, the harbor office was not vacant but he was glad to bow to the wishes of the council and other citizens and accept the office to which he had been elected. He expressed his thanks to the citizens who had elected him and promised his best efforts to fill the office to their satisfaction.
Mr. Hilyard said he was naturally pleased over his election, especially in a contest with some more experienced politicians and would endeavor to justify the confidence placed in him by the electors. He said that he would go into the work with a good deal of vim but he believed there was no reason why the affairs of the council could not be carried on in a pleasant and harmonious fashion. He had enough Irish in him to make a fighter but he hoped that this would not lead to any misunderstandings. He was glad to enter the department so well organized as that of water and sewerage. He had nothing against any of the department and was sorry for Commissioner Fisher. That department had defeated two men and he believed it would defeat another, for the reason that enough money was not provided to run it to the satisfaction of the citizens. He pledged his best efforts in his own department and full co-operation with the others.
Commissioner McLellan welcomed the new commissioners and said there was no doubt that the new council would work along with the friendliest feelings.
The council adjourned to resume in committee on Tuesday morning.
