THE

Quebec Ladies' Benevolent Society.

Instituted October 29th, 1838.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE, FOR THE YEAR 1872-73.

THE Committee of the Quebec Ladies' Benevolent Society, in presenting their thirty-fifth Annual Report to their friends and the public, feel that they have abundant cause of thankfulness to Almighty God for the measure of success which has followed their efforts in past years; and they would still endeavour to go forward in His name, trusting to Him for a blessing.

During the last year the Committee have been called upon frequently to aid the destitute to purchase fuel, and they are anxious to extend the sphere of their operations in this respect, knowing, as they do, that whilst the young and healthy obtain a higher remuneration for their work, and are thus enabled to purchase fuel at the present high prices, it is far different with the aged and infirm, amongst which class are many widows who have none but the benevolent of our city to assist them.

The Committee hope that the kindness of their friends will enable them to supply firewood to many of these during the severe months of the approaching winter, and thus make the Society a greater blessing than in former years to the deserving poor.

This Society still retains its unsectarian character, relieving all who need help, as far as they have the funds to do so, of all denominations and creeds. They would, therefore, pray the great Disposer of the hearts of men to incline many to follow the example of the blessed Jesus, who went about doing good, and who left his poor as a legacy to the church.

The Treasurer's Report and list of Subscribers will be found in their usual places.
