One class of people must certainly feel little. The lumbermen have nothing to this terrible cold, and that is the smelt grumble about this season so far, however, have greatly improved under her cateful fishermen. We ofted wonder how they and if they have not done as good work as can possibly stant it, but they do.

The lumbermen have good shelter, and snow or weather generally. The lumbermen have good steries, and generally the cold is not felt so much in the forest, but the smelt fishermen certainly get the full benefit of it, and we certainly get the full benefit of it, and the certainly get the full benefit of it, and the certainly get the full benefit of it, and the certainly get the full benefit of it, and the certainly get the full benefit of it, and the certainly get the full benefit of it. are not as good lately as they would expec', we do not mean as regards price, but in quantities of fish caught.

Which have been constantly used in the Maritime Provinces for the last sixty years. After all, merit counts, and this fact in itself is a sufficient guarantce of their apperior value as boughell medicines. More and mor , people are constantly coming to recognize their superionity. Never before were they being so widely used and making so many cures. If any part of your bodily mechanism is or any reacon in an unhealthy condition, do not fail to consult the uses of these mediolnes, which have cured so many in the past and hence which, you may reasonably suppose, will cure you. An envuiry at your drug store or a card

The sad news of the death of Mr. Geo. A. Day, resident engineer of the Public Works Department at Chatham, was received here Monday. Mr. Day had been ill of pneumonia, but fatal results were not expected, and his death Monday morning was sudden. Deceased, who was a very capable official and stood well in the department, was a son of the late George W. Day, printer and publisher of St. John. He had been a long time in the Dominion service, and about two years ago transferred from St. John to Chatham. His wife, ad sugiter of Mr. Oliver Pitfield of St. J.ru, and three children, two daughters and a son, survive him. Mr. Day was forty two years of ago.

New Year Letter.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS.

At the beginning of the New Year we wish to express to all our customers one reof the favors shown us during the past twelve months. This has been a very prosperous year with us and the result has been, in a great measure, due to the loyalty and good will of those to whom this acknowledgement is extended. We wish you to feel that we appreciate your trade, for we do and we hope to express this appreciation by making an increased, effort throughout the country year to promote your interests in every way and by extending to you every favor we can.

For the ensuing year we shall, as in the past, endeavor to maintain a stock which whell sin every way meet the needs of the community. We carry everything new in Drugs. Meditions Sick Room Supplies, Toilet Articles and Sundries.

Our prescription department is conducted along modern lines, and provides the fings and ible service. We expect to hold your trade and influence by never giving you the slightest reason for going elsewhere

Again thanking you for your trade and influence, and extending to you our best wisher for a year of happiness and prosperity, we remain, sincerely yours.
