TREATY WILL NOT BE SIGNED;

Statement Authorized by Government Ministers Says That
To Accept Terms Means Degradation of the Entire German Nation, and Economic Destruction.

Berlin, May 20.—“Germany declines to sign the peace terms laid before it because they spell the economic destruction, political dishonor and moral degradation of the entire German nation, not only for the present, but also for still unborn generations,” was a statement authorized by the Cabinet this morning through the Associated Press.

"That these consequences must logically follow acceptance of the peace conditions the American press itself has recognized without question," the statement continues. "Toward them Germany took the standpoint that acceptance of such conditions could not be demanded, and that the Entente was unjustified in imposing such demands."

Insufficient Return for Effort Expended Given as Reason for Present Unrest

Mathers Commission Hears Some Interesting Views on Cause of Situation—Labor Men and Employers Give Evidence.

The Mathers commission on industrial relations concluding its hearing of evidence in London in two sessions during the morning and afternoon yesterday. A total of thirteen witnesses were heard, six of them in the morning and seven in the afternoon. At the afternoon sitting the witnesses, with two exceptions, were labor representatives, three of them being members of the local trades and labor council, one a delegate from the Independent Labor Party, and one a labor organizer. The exceptions were a retired plumber, Ernest H. Russell, and a manufacturer, Robert Greene, of Greene-Swift, Limited.

The most novel cause to which the industrial unrest which all agreed existed during the morning and afternoon yesterday, was that outlined by H. B. Ashplant, who appeared as the accredited representative of the Independent Labor Party. He set out the cause of dissatisfaction with the present conditions under three heads. Firstly, he said, the religious aspect of the case must be considered, and in this connection the moral delinquency of the lay clergy was blamed on the ground that they had failed to emphasize their trustworthiness and had substituted an attitude of ownership. Next came the financial aspect, and under this head Mr. Ashplant found fault with the system of what he called the legalization of counterfeit money, by that the legalization of means of exchange, purporting to be the equivalent of gold, were really not so, since they did not represent any corresponding labor value in their production. The theory led to some discussion between Mr. Ashplant and the members of the commission, but the latter finally agreed to accept the former's explanation of what he intended to convey, and "let it go at that."

His third point was that, in connection with commercial activity, while he did not object to the existence of socialism, he did object to the absence of social representation, against which all kinds of barriers were raised. He enlarged at some length on the three points which he had endeavored to establish.

Limit Profits.

George Jackson, sergeant-at-arms of the Trades and Labor Council, suggested as a partial remedy for the existing unrest the Government limitation of profits. In reply to questions, he said he would not limit the profit of the individual producer, such as the farmer, but he thought the profits of the distributor should be limited, and he also was of the opinion that the system of distribution was too complicated and that some of the middlemen should be eliminated.

Refusal to treat with organizations of their employees on the part of some employers was quoted by James G. Husey, recording secretary of the council, as another cause of unrest. In his own trade, that of a journeyman tailor, he said, no such difficulty existed, because the journeymen and the employers knew just about how their employers stood, and he was sure that whole families worked on it. This, of course, was not fair to the men who did their work in the shop and had not the advantage of extra help.

Prices Unwarranted.

Asked by Commissioner Harrison what went to make up the cost of a suit of clothes, Mr. Husey declared that the big item was the cost of the cloth, which was apparently being raised from time to time at the will of the wholesalers, so that it had gone from an average of $2.50 or $3.50 a yard to $12.50. He did not think that the reason for this was that the cost of shipping facilities, because the merchant tailors were always able to get supplies if they were prepared to put up the money asked. The prices would come down until 1920, he said, and if they did not come down, then the merchant tailors would be out of business.

John Cummings, treasurer of the trades and labor council, who described himself as a metal polisher in the employ of the McClary Manufacturing Company, said he did not agree with some of the statements made by Col. Garthshore at the morning session. He had never heard of the committee referred to by Col. Garthshore, except as a welfare committee, and, to the best of his knowledge, it had never functioned as a link between the employers and employees. The fact that his firm, amongst others, would not recognize contributing cause to the unrest.

A Case in Point.

Referring to a question asked at the morning session, as to the probability of employees accepting a cut in wages in times of financial embarrassment for their firms, he instanced a case of the kind in England. As a young man, he said, he worked as a miner in a mine owned by a man who also ran another business. The business was on the verge of bankruptcy, and the employer attempted to commit suicide. Some of the mine workers got to know of the circumstances, went to ward extracting him from his awkward position. From that time the relations between the employer and the employees were excellent, and Mr. Cummings thought that if employers generally took workers into their confidence, even to the extent of allowing them to know what was their financial condition, the relationship between the two forces would certainly improve.

"So far," he said, "all they have done is to promise and promise to do things, just like the Government does. The Government does nothing, and unless it does something soon, there is going to be trouble."

Asked by the chairman to which Government he referred, he replied that he was speaking of the present Dominion Government.

Ernest H. Russell, who stated that he was getting out of the plumbing and heating business, declared that the condition which the commission was investigating was world-wide and was

WOMEN ARE CARELESS

This has been proved over and over again during the war. They over-estimate their physical strength and overtax it. Their ambition is commendable, but does not compensate for the hours and days of misery which they suffer from symptoms caused by female ill health. Women who are weak, nervous, dependent, with headaches, backaches and dragging-down pains should remember there is one tried and true remedy, that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, now recognized everywhere as the standard remedy for such ailments.

Iron For Strength

You need iron in the blood! Every young man for woman should have as much iron in his or her body as there is in an ordinary railroad spike. To gain this iron, the best way is to take Tonal-iron Capsules, a combination of iron in its most soluble form, recently discovered, and now having a marvelous sale. Tonal-iron Capsules are a form of iron readily taken up by the blood. The blood cells get round, rich red in color, the cheeks are pink, the appetite improves, and one feels full of "snap" and "pep"—"vigor"—instead of tired before the day is half done. The eyes take on a lustre and the body feels that tingle which one gets from a cold bath.

For sale and guaranteed by all good druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of $1. Tonal-iron Laboratories, Box 184, London, Ont.

CATHOLICS ACCEPT GOD'S WORD IN THE GREATEST MYSTERY

Says Paulist Father, Explaining Doctrine of "Real Presence."

"We discuss tonight," said Father Gillis, speaking at St. Peter's Cathedral, "what is to non-Catholics the most amazing belief, and to Catholics the most precious belief of the Catholic Church—the belief that Christ is really present, not merely in a spiritual way, but in a sacramental, corporeal manner in the Holy Communion."

"At the present day somewhat over four hundred million souls treasure the fact of the real presence of Christ as the dearest and divinest truth in their religion and in their lives. The Catholic Church—the belief that Christ is really present, not merely in a spiritual way, but in a sacramental, corporeal manner in the Holy Communion."

"We do not challenge God to prove his statements—that would be blasphemy. We do not demand of God that we shall know how he works his wonders. We pay to Christ our God the compliment—if it be such—of accepting his word as final. When Christ speaks we simply answer 'Amen.'"

"Now, Christ has spoken plainly enough: 'The bread that I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world,' and when the unbelieving Jews asked scornfully: 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' Jesus simply repeated, again and again, that he had meant exactly what he said."

"Such was the promise and the prophecy of what he would do. The fulfillment came at the last supper, when Jesus took bread and blessed it, broke it, and gave to his disciples, saying: 'Take ye and eat. This is my body,' and in like manner he took the chalice and blessed it, saying: 'Drink ye all of this, for this is my blood. Do this in commemoration of me.'"

"Whatever may be the attempt of modern critics to explain away the face meaning of these words, the fact remains that St. Paul, in the first epistle to the Corinthians, and after St. Paul all Christians for 1,500 years, accepted the Lord's words as Catholics accept them today. We believe in the word of Christ."

"And now a word concerning those who refuse to believe, simply because the mystery is too stupendous, too overwhelming. They say: 'Bible or no Bible, we cannot believe that bread and wine can be changed into the body and blood of Christ. It cannot be done.' My friends, in these days of science, the most foolish phrase that can be spoken is, 'It cannot be done.' When Robert Fulton declared that he would propel a great boat with steam, the skeptics jeered at him. 'It cannot be done,' they said. When Alexander Bell proclaimed that he would speak at one end of a wire and be heard at the other end, fifty miles away, again the skeptics scoffed. 'It cannot be done.' The Change."

"Until very recently all the learned word was accustomed to ridicule the alchemists of the middle ages, who spent their time in vain trying to change iron into gold. But nowadays, when we hear of Dr. William Ramsay experimenting with radio-activity in the attempt to transmute one metal into another, we no longer ridicule. If we have the scientific type of mind we say, 'It may be done.'"

"As for the change of bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ, it is no more impossible than the change of bread and wine into our own flesh and blood. I cannot understand why a thoughtful person should balk at a mystery in religion, yet admit and believe a thousand mysteries in science. We Catholics simply insist that Christ's word shall have at least as much credit in religion as the word of Edison, or Marconi, or Westinghouse, or Lord Kelvin in science."

HOW TO MAKE YOUR HAIR BEAUTIFUL

Ten Minutes' Home Treatment Works Wonders, Stops Falling Hair and Dandruff and Makes the Hair Soft, Brilliant, Lustrous and Fluffy.

Better than all the so-called "hair tonics" in the world is a simple, old-fashioned home recipe, consisting of plain Bay Rum, Lavender (decomposed) and a little Menthol crystals. These three mixed at home in a few minutes work wonders with any scalp. Try it just one night and see. Get from your druggist 2 oz. Lavender, 6 oz. Bay Rum and 1/2 dram Menthol Crystals. Dissolve the crystals in the Bay Rum, pour in 8-oz. bottle. Then add by putting a little of the mixture on a soft cloth. Draw this cloth slowly through the hair, taking just one strand at a time. This cleanses the hair and scalp of dirt, dandruff, and sebum and makes the hair delightfully soft, lustrous and fluffy. To stop the hair from falling and to make it grow again, rub the lotion briskly into the scalp with the finger tips or a medium stiff brush. Apply night and morning. A few days' use, and you will not find a single loose or snagging hair. They will be locked on your head as tight as a vise. Dandruff will disappear. You will find the downy, new hair sprouting up all over your scalp, and this new hair will grow with wonderful rapidity.

Any druggist can sell you the above. The prescription is nothing so expensive, and we know of nothing so effective and certain in its result.—Adv.

Pure Gold Jellies are exceedingly appropriate for such an occasion. Their inviting appearance—their delicious, rich flavor—are a delight to the eye and the palate. Each package is a high standard of quality. Not one will ever disappoint you. All true fruit flavors, in strawberry, raspberry, red currant, pineapple, lemon, orange, cherry and vanilla. Peak Loads

IN practically all public services there are what are known as peak load hours—hours during which the demands for service are greater than at other hours of the day. A striking example of this is seen in the case of the street railway rush in the period just preceding and following the business day.

The accompanying curve shows the distribution of Long Distance business over the various hours of the day. It is evident that to make use of the service at hours other than those in which the peak loads are being carried, means that you obtain a more prompt and satisfactory service.

We suggest that where possible, you place your Long Distance Calls so as to avoid the hours of peak loads.

CITIZEN ARMY 6,000 STRONG IN WINNIPEG

Volunteer for Duty Whenever Called Upon.

THE CRISIS IS IMMINENT

Bloodshed Appears Now To Be Unavoidable—Martial Law Coming?

Canadian Press, Limited, sends the following note to editors relative to the dispatch given below: "On account of the difficulty of communication with Winnipeg, we cannot take responsibility for the Winnipeg dispatch, via Port Arthur, but it was filed by a correspondent of ours in Port Arthur whose reliability we have no reason to question."

WINNIPEG, May 20.—(Via Port Arthur.)—The strike situation is rapidly approaching a crisis. It is conceded that peace and order cannot much longer be maintained. The situation is such that Gen. Ketchen, district officer commanding Military District No. 10, has called for volunteers to a citizen army, and between 5,000 and 6,000 have volunteered to don the uniform whenever it is necessary to combat the Bolshevik element which appears intent on revolution. The labor paper being published in the city, has frankly confessed that it is out for soviet government as they have in Russia. The city has been divided into several military areas, with fire halls and other large buildings as mobilization points.

Assemble at Signal. At a given signal the volunteers enlisted, attested and sworn, will flock to these mobilization depots, and all is ready for the show-down which is regarded as inevitable. Up to the present the strike committee, which is equal to a soviet, has been in complete control, because the military authorities were not ready and Ottawa did not realize until the last day or two the necessities of the situation. Prior to that, Gen. Ketchen was under orders not to do anything.

Committee Runs City. The city has been at the mercy of the strike committee. Food was sold in certain places under the strike committee's authority, and there was limited delivery of bread and milk. Theatres were permitted to operate and even watering carts were out. A four-page newspaper was got out by the citizens' committee yesterday. It was set up in town and printed in the country. It is called "The Winnipeg Citizen," and will be continued. It calls the movement an effort at revolution and charges that the soviet elements in the trades and labor movement have been led away by the Bolsheviks.

Babies Are Suffering. Babies are sick and suffering, milk and ice are hard to get. The water pressure in the city mains is not above 30 pounds and the sanitary situation is demoralized. There is insufficient water to combat the blight that must occur. With the military authorities unready, the civic authorities have yielded only a semblance of order, but under the new conditions, it is expected people will go about their business as usual and interference will spell trouble.

The railway mail clerks are to go out tomorrow. The running crews on the railways may quit and thus the up transportation. Some of the strikers are already chafing under a feeling that things have gone too far and are in favor of an effort to get back to work. Gasoline has been sold only on the strike committee's permit to doctors, farmers and members of the strike committee. Today civic authorities ordered all gas filling stations to open up and to do business as usual and guaranteed police protection. If the strikers interfere with any filling station or any business or warehouse doing business as usual the police are ordered to stop it. If they cannot, martial law will be clamped on. There are 30,000 men and women on strike.

HAWKER AND GRIEVE MET DEATH IN STORM THAT SWEEP OCEAN

Frederick P. Raynham Is Still Determined To Attempt Flight.

LONDON, May 20 (11 p. m.).—Up to this hour there is no word of Hawker and his navigator, Grieve. Not a single report has been received from any of the numerous airplanes, destroyers, mine sweepers and light craft of all descriptions which are sweeping the seas off the coast of Ireland. Their task has been hampered by fog and rain.

In an official communique just issued justifying the attitude of the Government in relation to the cross-Atlantic flight, which has ended in disaster, the admiralty warns the public that, in view of the vast areas involved, the chances of finding the aircraft are very remote.

Criticism Unwarranted. The communique referring to recent criticisms says that the attitude of the air ministry has been to enjoin caution, rather than to urge such attempts, and, while anxious to do the utmost to save gallant and fearless aviators, as Hawker and Grieve, the Government feels bound to warn those who may in the future attempt to fly the Atlantic that its resources make it utterly impossible that the immense task of patrolling 2,000 miles of ocean can be undertaken.

RAYNHAM STILL DETERMINED. ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., May 20.—Frederick P. Raynham, the British aviator, whose intention to attempt the ocean flight simultaneously with Harry Hawker, believed to have been lost at sea, came to grief when his Martynair plane was wrecked while running to the take-off, announced today that he was in the race again for the first non-stop ocean air cruise. He has recovered sufficiently from injuries to leave his bed. Raynham said the machine could be rebuilt with the spare parts at hand here, provided the motor was undamaged.

While the Handley-Page and Vimy mechanics are assembling their huge machines for the trans-Atlantic flight the little Martynair will be removed from the tent on the Quiddiivi field to town for repairs.

MADE BY SCOTT & BOWNE MAKERS OF SCOTT'S EMULSION

The Acid Test of the carelessly used term "Made in Canada"

SINCE the war the phrase "Made in Canada" has assumed an importance vital to the interests of the Dominion.

Many thousands of our brave soldiers are returning from the front with claims upon the country, which must not be denied. The least a grateful Canada can do for them is to provide employment, and Canada wants to do it.

"Made in Canada" is no mere patriotic phrase. It stands for a vital factor of our welfare. Manufacturers who can legitimately use it deserve approval and encouragement. Consequently, many firms are tempted to use the words to apply to products which are merely put together in Canada—not made here.

There is no hard and fast definition of the slogan, "Made in Canada." Therefore, firms placing on the market a product, only a small proportion of the work on which is done in this country, are tempted to advertise their goods as "Made in Canada." The effect of this careless use of the term is misleading. The public assumes that all the work is done in the Dominion instead of only a small part of it. The makers of

OTTAWA, May 20.—Parliament has been in session three months today. Much legislation still remains to be disposed of, and it is quite possible that the House will run a full five months. Today the consolidated railway bill, which was introduced on the first day of the session and which has undergone lengthy consideration by the special committee of which J. E. Armstrong was chairman, was under consideration and its four hundred non-contentious clauses were quickly passed. Then the more controversial clauses were considered, but those of a really contentious nature, such as the power clause, were left over. The power clause in which Toronto and the Toronto and Niagara Power Company are interested, will be discussed on Tuesday or Wednesday next.

No Passes For Judges.

At the evening sitting Mr. Mackie, East Edmonton, advocated the giving of annual passes to judges on the ground that their remuneration is inadequate, but Hon. J. D. Reid could not see why the railways should be asked to make good salary deficiencies. At a late hour the old controversy over the question of compensation which is allowed to be charged by the Bell Company and other trunk lines for long distance connection as the result of a senate amendment, was revived. The senate inserted the words, "compensation, if any."

Cuts Out "Compensation." Capt. Tom Wallace moved the deletion of the words, and in this he was strongly supported by Messrs. Sutherland, Sutherland, Sinclair and others. Bureau argued for the retention of the words, claiming that the railway board's authority would prevent the undue exercise of power by a strong corporation over a local telephone enterprise. The supporters of the small companies denied the right of the large enterprises to charge any compensation at all. A vote was taken and Capt. Wallace's amendment to delete the words carried by 47 to 3. There were only two ministers in the House. Hon. Dr. Reid voted against the amendment, Hon. J. A. Calder for it. Sir Thomas White stated that the report of the committee on honors and titles would be taken up by the House on Tuesday.

Michigan-Ontario League Games Postponed Yesterday

All Michigan-Ontario Baseball League games scheduled for yesterday were postponed owing to rain and wet grounds. The Tecumseh players had a rest yesterday, and will be ready for a battle with Bill Crista's team, Summerhays will pitch for the locals today, while the leader of the visiting team may send Dr. Watson or Steffen in the box to oppose the Tecumseh. Temperance Folk Say Referendum Bill Is Unfair

TORONTO, May 20.—At the opening of the Ontario Alliance convention this morning a resolution was presented, affirming that the referendum to be submitted to the voters of Ontario next fall, was not satisfactory to prohibitionists, and that returning officers were being influenced against prohibition in Ontario.

GROWING DEAF WITH HEAD NOISES? TRY THIS

If you are growing hard of hearing and fear Catarrhal Deafness or if you have roaring, rumbling, hissing noises in your ears go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength), and add to it 1 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

BE PRETTY! TURN GREY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair which has faded or greyed. Years ago the only way to get this mix was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for Myette's Sage and Sulphur Compound, you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost. Don't stay grey! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you have dyed your hair, as it does so naturally and evenly. You can wash it with soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by moving the grey hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

ST. MARYS GRANT FOR S. P. AGRIC. SOCY.

ST. MARYS, May 20.—The town council, at its meeting last evening, passed a grant of $150 to the South Perth Agricultural Society. The St. Marys Hardware Company was asked to put up a bond of $500 to meet any damage that might arise from their placing a gasoline pump on or near the curb in front of their store on Queen street. The bond stand at the market square will be allowed to remain there on the same terms as last year.

The funeral of Wm. J. Gilpin, of Water street north, who died suddenly on Sunday night, took place this afternoon at St. Marys Cemetery. Deceased was in his 82nd year. Mr. Gilpin was a former hardware merchant in the early days of St. Marys, but had been living retired for some time. His widow and family survive.

Stops Stomach Gas, Prevents Fermentation, Aids Digestion

If fermentation of food in the stomach can be prevented, you get a long way towards stopping the most frequent ailment of the day. Doctors who have studied the formula of Dr. Hamilton's Pills say it would be difficult to find a remedy better adapted to stomach ailments. After once using Dr. Hamilton's Pills, the stomach is cleared of the sour, fermenting matter that causes gas, heartburn, indigestion and headache. You will be pleasantly surprised at the amount of food which Hamilton's Pills tone up the liver, kidneys and stomach.

It's really wonderful the improvement in appetite. In complexion, in general well-being that results directly from the use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They stop the gas, fullness and swelling of the stomach, they correct constiveness, bad dreams and blotchy skin. To strengthen the muscular system, to bring a keen edge to the appetite, elasticity to the eyes and brightness to the eyes, nothing can compare with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. WENT ALMOST AROUND WORLD

Spent Over Five Thousand Dollars Seeking Health—Restored By Tanlac.

Like the men who went to Alaska in search of gold, leaving a trail of the precious metal worth a fortune lying under his doorsteps, thousands tour the country annually seeking relief from their many ills. The health resorts thronged, the hospitals filled, and millions of dollars are spent by those suffering from stomach trouble and the many complications from it when they would only believe it, relief often lies within, if they would reach out, and at a cost almost negligible to mention. The evidence regarding the value of Tanlac in the treatment of all forms of stomach trouble is too conclusive to even admit of doubt. In every city, town and community throughout the United States and Canada, there are men and women who can testify to the living, enthusiastic witnesses to the most interesting of the many statements recently received was made by Mrs. M. C. Sutherland, residing at 530 South street, Springfield, Ill. Mrs. Sutherland is one of the best known and respected women of Springfield. She said:

"What Tanlac has accomplished in my case has been the most complete surprise of my life. I can hardly find words to express the relief I really feel over what it has done for me. I had been suffering from stomach trouble for nearly eleven years, and had been treated by some of the best specialists, not only in this country, but also in London, England, and Old Mexico. I have travelled almost around the world and spent over six months to get my health restored, but nothing ever helped me, in fact, I kept getting worse until I was taking Tanlac. I suffered, almost beyond words to express, from cramps and pains in my stomach after every meal, and was so nervous that I just couldn't get to sleep. I could find no comfortable position at night; my head throbbed, and when morning came I felt exhausted. 'Some of the specialists called my trouble nervous indigestion, anyway, I could not even eat, milk-toast without vomiting, and for a long time I lived almost entirely on milk. When I came back to Springfield, I was so discouraged and downhearted that I told my husband there was no use trying any longer, that there was no help for me. About this time I began reading what others said Tanlac had done for them and decided to try it as a last resort. Well, I soon had a good appetite, got so I could digest my food, and my suffering ceased. So I bought more Tanlac and a few bottles have completely restored my health, and not only myself, but my husband and all who knew of my dreadful condition, have been surprised at the result. I am never the least bit nervous, never know what it is to have a restless night, and enjoy my food more than ever. I never have a pain or an uncomfortable feeling afterwards. I no longer have that tired, nervous look, with that dull, sallow color, but my complexion has cleared up and I look and feel like a different woman altogether. I am making this statement because I want the people who may be suffering as I did, to know they can get relief without travelling the world over as I did. I can never praise Tanlac enough."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, and by an established agency in every town.

One Cause of a Bad Complexion—The Remedy

"Look at a section of skin under the microscope, and you will readily understand why cosmetics generally injure the complexion," says a well-known physician. "The skin is a web of nerves to the naked eye, under the glass it is a network of tiny holes, mouths and nostrils. It is a delicate, sensitive organ, and it is not to be wondered at that it is so easily irritated. The pores of the skin are clogged up with irritating particles of dirt, and the use of cosmetics, by causing salowness, roughness, blotches or pimples, only makes the situation worse."

"As a substitute for all cosmetics I recommend ordinary soap. It not only does what the various face preparations are supposed to accomplish, but its peculiar solvent action keeps the pores from the daily accumulation of impurities also absorbing the dead, vitalized particles of surface skin. This produces a natural, healthy, youthful complexion. One of the best ways to be had at any drug store, usually soap, is to put on night cream, cream, and washed off mornings."

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia To Overcome Trouble Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating, are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion." Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis, accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart. It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with laxative, digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. A teaspoonful of a quarter glass of the gas, wind and bloated right out of the system, and prevent its return. Bismarck Magnesia (in powder form) is a neutralizing agent, it is harmless, it is pleasant to take, it is the best form of magnesia for the stomach. It is used by thoughtful people, who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion. Adv.

PLUCKY GIRL CLERK IN AGINCOURT BANK PREVENTS ROBBERY

Daring Attempt At Daylight
Hold-Up Is Frustrated.

MEN ARE ARRESTED

Manager of Bank and Two
Would Be Robbers in Hospital.

Agincourt, May 21.—Gunsplay featured a daring holdup at the Agincourt branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia yesterday noon, and Robert Laing, manager of the bank; F. J. Putwain, aged 27, and Harold Gordon Boyes, aged 19, are in the General Hospital suffering from wounds. Putwain and Boyes, both of whom live on Selby street, are under arrest on a charge of attempted robbery. Mr. Laing was shot through the abdomen, just above the right groin; Putwain through the left eye, and Boyes in the chest, leg and ankle. Putwain was arrested on the bank premises, where he had fallen when shot by Mr. Laing, and Boyes was caught at the home of Putwain's brother-in-law, Harry Dawson, 158 Curzon street, last night. Putwain's parents live on Collier street. Mr. Laing has been operated on, and the bullet has been extracted from the abdomen. The bullet had penetrated three inches into the body. Constable Hobbs is keeping guard over Putwain, and the detectives over Boyes, at the General Hospital. Little hope is held out for the recovery of Putwain, and the hospital authorities are non-committal regarding the chances of Mr. Laing. The story of the attempted holdup and consequent shooting was vividly told to Detective Nurey by plucky little Grace Chapman, savings bank clerk at the Agincourt branch. The time was 12:45, new time. Mr. Laing and his assistant were just preparing to go to lunch when Putwain knocked at the door. The front door is secured from the inside, the lock being operated by means of a button and electric switch. Mr. Laing, curious to know who was at the door, opened it. Putwain stepped in, and, presenting a dollar bill, asked for a dollar's worth of copper, explaining that he and his chum, Boyes, standing outside, wanted to play poker a little distance up the road. Miss Chapman was in the savings teller's cage at the time. She watched Putwain as he entered. Mr. Laing went toward the vault to get the change. The story of the revolver duel is best told in the vivid language of the girl.

Shots Fired Together.
No sooner was Mr. Laing's back turned, she said, "than the man—meaning Putwain—darted across the room, picked up a chair, placed it near my cage, climbed upon it, and attempted to get over the top. I looked up, alarmed, and saw in his hand a long-barreled revolver. I shouted to Mr. Laing: 'Look out! He's got a gun.' Mr. Laing immediately snatched up a revolver kept in the vault for emergencies, and whirled upon the robber. Two shots rang out simultaneously, one from Mr. Laing's gun the other from that held by the robber. Mr. Laing staggered, and the robber tottered over toward the wall behind the cage, striking his head heavily against the wall, and slumping down on the floor. The second man, who had followed his companion, immediately darted for the manager's office, intending to make for the vault. Mr. Laing fired. I saw the robber hold up his gun arm, but before he could shoot I ran over to the room, caught his hand, and snatched the revolver from him. He cried, 'I'm shot!' then darted away outside. Mr. Laing staggered toward the door on his trail, firing as he went. At the door he crumpled up. The robber got outside, climbed aboard a Ford coupe, and disappeared along the road."

Miss Chapman then telephoned the police. Mrs. James Kennedy, telephone operator at Agincourt, also rendered assistance by telephoning the police and notifying the farmers and others in the vicinity of the escape of the second robber.

Miss Chapman also stated that the two men had visited the bank on two previous occasions during the past week. Mr. Laing, she said, had expressed curiosity as to their intentions.

TWO-YEAR OLD BABE DROWNED IN CREEK AT INGERSOLL HOME

Council Pays Housing Committee on Commission.

INGERSOLL, May 20.—An adjourned session of the council of nearly three hours' duration was held this afternoon, at which the bylaw fixing the salaries of the housing commission was under consideration. After much discussion the salaries were fixed on a basis of three per cent on the cost of building approximately 30 houses, the commission to superintend the work. The bylaw was passed by a division of four to one. Councillor Henderson objected.

Falling into a small creek which flows at the rear of the family home, King street east, the two-and-a-half-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvine Reaveley was drowned this afternoon. The youngster had been seen about fifteen minutes before he was missing, and as the mother observed him in the back yard, suspicion at once was directed to the creek. The firemen were called out and at once began a search, in which neighbors and many other citizens joined. After nearly half an hour's work the body was found under a small bridge. The creek was considerably swollen by the recent rains. Under normal conditions it is not regarded as dangerous.

TIRE FACTORY WILL LOCATE ITS PLANT IN WINGHAM SHOP

Old Plant Purchased to Make Punctureless Tube.

WINGHAM, May 20.—Wingham has landed a new factory, the Aero Cushion Inner Tire and Rubber Company of Ontario, capitalized at $200,000, which proposes to manufacture a punctureless inner tube.

The company was organized in the Wingham district and practically all the stock in the company is held by business men of Wingham and surrounding towns. Thomas H. Bennett is president and L. Kennedy, Wingham, is secretary of the new concern.

The plant of the Western Foundry Company has been purchased and machinery has now been ordered. It is expected that the new tubes will be made in the not distant future.

According to the claims of the company the new tubes ride as easy as pneumatic and prolong the life of the casings, at the same time eliminating punctures, blowouts, etc.

HENSALL BANQUETS RETURNED SOLDIERS

HENSALL, May 20.—The town hall was the scene of a fine banquet in honor of the returned soldiers by the Ladies' Patriotic Society. As nearly all have now returned—and some were soon going away to engage in duties—the ladies decided to have a public banquet and reception for them. Monday evening the spacious hall was packed with returned soldiers and their dear ones, tempting viands. Then followed toasts, singing of patriotic songs, violin selections, readings, solos and quartets. The program was presided over by the Rev. E. A. Doan, and addresses were given by Rev. P. J. Rev. A. R. E. Garrett and Postmaster G. J. Sutherland.

READY FOR 24TH OF MAY.

Straw Hats will be asked for by men who will want them ready for the holiday. Yes, it will make the day a lot happier and more summer-like if Straw Hats are being worn. Straw Hats will be asked for by other men for unsentimental reasons, too—merely because they know that there is better picking to be had when the stocks of hats are brand new, fresh and filled-up. The staple and novelty straws—plain and fancy braids, leghorns, mackinaws, bangkoks and genuine South American Panamas.

25% DISCOUNT ON ALL STRAW HATS.

Field Hats for the boys on the land. Ready. 25 per cent off.

WE DON'T KNOW WHETHER MEN WILL WANT FELT HATS OR STRAW HATS

But to make sure to serve them, we have prepared a good showing of both kinds.

BIG REDUCTIONS IN MEN'S FELT HATS

BUT IF MEN WANT THE "FELTS" we have them in light weights and light colors that men want for late spring and early summer. Pearl grey, light tan, brown, green and dark grey.
