TORONTO:
PRINTED BY JOHN LOVELL,
YONGE STREET.

An Act to make further and more stringent regulations respecting the sale of Spirituous and Intoxicating Liquors, and to provide for the punishment of offences against Temperance.

WHEREAS it is necessary for the well being of society that some more Preamble.
 effectual Law than at present exists, should be enacted relative to the sale of spirituous and intoxicating liquors, and for the punishment of offences against Temperance; Therefore Her Majesty, &c., enacts as follows :

I. The Act passed in the 33rd year of the reign of Geo. III., and every subsequent Act relating to the licensing of Taverns or other places for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors, ale, beer, wine or cider, which may be inconsistent with, or repugnant to the provisions of the Act, shall be, and the same are hereby repealed; Provided always, that no Act, or part of an Act repealed, by any of the hereby repealed Acts shall be revived by the passing of this Act. Certain Acts repealed.

II. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons, whether Brewers, Distillers, Merchants, Storekeepers, Innkeepers, or any other description of wholesale or retail dealers, to sell, barter, vend, or to dispose of by whole-Restrictions as to sale of liquors.
 sale or retail or otherwise, any brandy, wine, whiskey, gin, wines, beer, ale, porter, cider, or other spirituous or intoxicating drinks, excepting as hereinafter provided.

III. It shall and may be lawful for brewers, distillers, grocers and shop-keepers, to sell any of the articles named in the first section of this Act, whether manufactured or imported, in quantities not less than five gallons, or if bottled in quantities of not less than one dozen, subject to the payment of such license and other restrictions as hereinafter provided. A certain quantity only may be sold.

IV. It shall and may be lawful for any person to keep an Inn, Saloon, or other House of public entertainment, and retail therein brandy, rum, gin, whiskey, wine, beer, porter, ale, cider, or other spirituous or intoxicating drinks upon complying with the regulations hereinafter provided, and upon obtaining a licence for such purpose respectively. Inn-keepers, &c. to comply with regulations herein contained.

V. No person or persons shall obtain a license under this Act to keep an Inn or other place of public entertainment where brandy, rum, gin, whiskey, wine, beer, ale, porter, cider and other spirituous or intoxicating drinks may be retailed or exposed to sale in any city or incorporated town, or in any township or village Municipality in Upper Canada, unless such person Who may obtain a license under this Act.

or persons shall possess the qualifications hereinafter required, and produce the bond, certificate, confirmation and receipt hereinafter set forth.

Qualification for obtaining a license.

VI. Every such person or persons desirous of obtaining a license under this Act, shall produce a bond according to form A in the Schedule to this Act annexed, to be entered into by such person or persons, with two good and sufficient sureties (if for Towns or Cities,) the principal in £300, and sureties in £100 each, and if for any Township or Village Municipality, the principal in £200, and the sureties in £75 each; and every person desirous of obtaining a license for the above named purpose, under this Act, shall also produce a certificate of himself and of two freeholders, 10 said freeholders being residents, and having some property in the Ward, or other sectional, or adjacent locality in which it is intended to keep such Inn or house of public entertainment, according to the forms marked respectively B and C.

Duties of Councils and Corporations with respect to applicants.

VII. It shall be the duty of the Council or Corporation of the city, town, 15 township or village in which it is required to keep such Inn or house of public entertainment to inspect by a proper officer to be by them appointed for that purpose, the bonds and certificates set forth in this Act, which said officer shall enquire into the character and means of all the parties to the said securities, and certify his acceptance and confirmation of the 20 same, according to the form marked D, and who shall also inspect the premises and accommodation of the said applicant or applicants, and see that they are in accordance with the requirements of the Municipality, in which his house or place of business is located.

Fees to be paid in cities or towns.

VIII. No person or persons shall obtain or be allowed to receive a license 25 under this Act, to keep an Inn or other house of public entertainment for retailing therein, brandy, rum, gin, whiskey, wine, beer, ale, porter, cider or other spirituous or intoxicating drinks, in any city or town in Upper Canada, unless such person or persons, applicant or applicants for license, shall in addition to such bond, to be approved of as aforesaid, have complied with 30 all the requirements of the Corporation of whom the said license is sought to be obtained, and shall first pay to the Chamberlain or Treasurer of such city or for such license a sum not less than £25, nor more than £50, at the discretion of the Council or Corporation of such city or town.

Fees to be paid in Municipalities.

IX. No person or persons shall obtain a license under this Act to keep 35 an Inn, or other house of public entertainment, where brandy, rum, gin, whiskey, wine, beer, ale, porter, cider or other spirituous or intoxicating liquors are sold or drunk, in any township or village Municipality in Upper Canada, unless such person or persons, applicant or applicants for license, shall, in addition to the required bond and certificate of character be pos- 40 sessed of the necessary accommodations required by the Municipality in which his house or place of business is to be established, and shall have paid in to the Treasurer of such Municipality the sum fixed by the said Municipality as the amount or price of such license or fee, which sum shall not be less than £12 10s. or more than £25, in the discretion of the said Cor- 45 poration.

Certificates of payment.

X. It shall be the duty of the Chamberlain or Treasurer of any city, town, township or village Municipality, upon payment to him of such license, to grant a certificate of the same according to form E.

XI. It shall be the duty of the Council or Corporation of any city, town, township or village Municipality, at any time after this Act shall come into force, to appoint for every such city, town, township or village, a License Inspector, (who shall be subject to removal at any time for 5 misbehaviour or otherwise as to such Council shall seem fit,) whose duty it shall be to issue licenses according to the law in that behalf, under the authority of the Municipal Council of the said city, town, township or village, to inspect houses of public entertainment of every description licensed under this law, to see if they have the necessary qualifications, 10 and are kept according to law, to prosecute any licensed person selling or acting otherwise than as authorized by his license, and also to prosecute all unlicensed persons selling or vending spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind, and otherwise to enforce this law.

License Inspectors to be appointed; their duties.

XII. The said License Inspector shall, before taking upon himself the 15 duties of the said office enter into a bond with two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Mayor, Reeve or other Chief Magistrate of the Municipality, according to the form in the schedule to the Act marked F.

License Inspector to give securities.

XIII. It shall be the duty of the said Inspector upon receipt of the bonds, 20 certificate, confirmation and receipt required by this Act, the same being correct, to issue to the person named therein as applicant, a license to keep an inn or other house of public entertainment for retailing therein brandy, gin, rum, whiskey, wine, beer, porter, ale, cider or other spirituous or intoxicating drinks; such license to be signed by the Mayor or Reeve, and 25 Clerk of such Municipality, and countersigned by such license Inspector, and to be according to the form in the schedule to this Act marked G.

When licenses shall be issued and by whom.

XIV. It shall be the duty of every license Inspector throughout the Province to keep a license list in alphabetical order of persons obtaining license under this Act, with their places of abode, and the names of their 30 sureties; and an "offender's list" of the names sent to him by Justices of the Peace with the offence and punishment, and a true copy of such lists shall be published quarterly, in the months of March, June, September, and December, in some newspaper issued within the Municipality over which such license Inspector has jurisdiction, or if there be no newspaper 35 issued within such Municipality, then in the newspaper published nearest to it, and such alphabetical list shall be open for search and inspection upon the payment to such Inspector the sum of 1s. 3d., and that such Inspector shall give a certified copy of such list or part thereof, if required, which said certified copy shall be received as evidence in any Court of Justice.

License list to be kept.

To be published in a newspaper.

XV. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons licensed under this Act, to sell or provide any other person or persons with intoxicating liquors on the Lord's day; Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for 40 innkeepers under this Act to provide their lodgers or travellers with liquors as they would with any other article of food or drink; And it is further 45 provided, that persons convicted of a breach of this section shall incur a penalty of not less than £2 10s. nor more than £12 10s.

No liquors to be sold on the Lord's Day.

XVI. It shall not be lawful for persons licensed under this Act to keep their houses of business open for the reception or entertainment of visitors or others (always excepting travellers or lodgers) after the hour of eleven 50 o'clock in the afternoon, nor shall they open them before the hours of six o'clock in the forenoon of any day in the year; but that such houses shall be closed to all persons (except as aforesaid) by the keepers thereof; and all persons convicted of a breach of this section shall incur a penalty of not less than £2 10s. nor more than £12 10s.

Houses not to be open after 11 p.m.

No liquors to be sold to drunkards, minors, or soldiers.

XVII. If any person authorized under this Act as aforesaid to sell intoxicating liquors shall sell the same to a drunkard or to any one while intoxicated, knowing them to be such, to any minor without the direction in writing of his parent, relative or guardian, to any Indian, or to any soldier in the army, he shall incur a penalty of not less than £2 10s. nor more than £12 10s., and in addition he shall be liable for all the injuries which such drunkard or intoxicated persons to whom liquors are forbidden to be sold as aforesaid, shall commit while in a state of intoxication, arising from drinking the liquor as aforesaid, by an action on the case in favour of the person injured.

Fines for contravention.

XVIII. If any person not authorized as aforesaid shall sell any intoxicating liquors to any person, he shall, in addition to the penalties by this Act prescribed, be liable to a fine of not less than £25 nor more than £100 at the discretion of the Court, and be liable for all the injuries which such person or persons shall commit while in a state of intoxication arising from drinking the liquors aforesaid, in an action on the case in favour of the person injured.

Lease of buildings, &c., for unlawful purposes.

XIX. Any person who shall lease or let any building to another or make any contract for the use and occupation of any building by another, knowing that intoxicating liquors are to be sold therein by such tenant or occupant contrary to law, shall be punished by fine therefor not to exceed the sum of 25s. for each day that liquors may be sold therein.

Lease to be determined by unlicensed sale of liquors.

XX. If the tenant or occupant of any building under lease or contract for use and occupation, made subsequently to the passage of this Act shall sell any intoxicating liquors therein contrary to law, his lease or estate in the premises shall thereby be determined, and the owner of the building may recover possession thereof according to law without any notice to quit.

Penalty for sale of liquors without license.

XXI. If any person shall, after the passing of this Act, be convicted of selling or dealing either directly or indirectly in whiskey, brandy, rum, gin, wine, ale, beer, porter, cider, or other intoxicating liquors, without having obtained a license under this Act, or if any person having a license, shall be convicted of selling otherwise than as authorised by his license, every such person or persons, on being convicted of such offence shall be fined in the sum of not less than £25 nor more than £100 for every such offence, and in default of payment of such fine, shall be imprisoned in the common gaol for not less than three nor more than twelve months.

Unlicensed tippling houses declared public nuisances.

XXII. All tippling houses, grogeries or other places in which intoxicating liquors are kept and for sale contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall be and are hereby declared to be public nuisances, and may be proceeded against as such, and the keepers thereof may be proceeded against as persons who have committed a public nuisance, and shall be punished upon conviction thereof, as persons guilty of committing a public nuisance.

Habitual drunkenness a misdemeanor.

XXIII. Habitual drunkenness or intoxication is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor, and any person found in the streets or public places in a state of drunkenness or intoxication, shall be liable to be fined for every such offence in a sum not less than 5s. or more than £5 in the discretion of the Magistrate convicting,—and if fine not immediately paid, shall be sent to the common gaol for a term of not more than thirty days.

XXIV. After the passing of this Act all brewers, distillers, manufacturers, and wholesale dealers of every description, shall, before obtaining a license to manufacture or sell, enter into bonds themselves in £200 and two sureties of £100 each, conditional not to break the law; and any person who shall manufacture or sell, without first having entered into such bond, and obtain a license as provided for in this Act, shall forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds, and every such manufacturer, whether brewer or distiller, shall pay the municipality a fee or license, (in addition to any provincial duty for which they are now liable,) of not less than £12 10s. and not more than £25, in the discretion of the municipality issuing the same.

Bonds to be entered into by brewers, &c.

XXV. It shall and may be lawful to license temperance houses or houses of public entertainment for the accommodation of the travelling public, which said houses shall have the same accommodation for man and beast, (liquor excepted) as Inns or other public houses, by this Act are required to have.

Temperance Houses.

XXVI. Before any person or persons shall be permitted to open any such temperance house he shall take out a license for the same, and enter into bonds, himself in £100 and two sureties in £50 each, not to sell or vend in any manner, spirits or intoxicating liquors, and shall also pay for said license a sum or fee not less than 50s. nor more than £10, in the discretion of the Municipality issuing the same, and shall be subject to same rules, regulations and penalties as Inn keepers, for any infringement of this Act.

License therefor.

XXVII. If any person after the passing of this Act shall be injured or killed when in a state of intoxication, it shall be lawful for the wife, husband, eldest child or next of kin, as the case may be, to sue in any Court of Law in Canada the person or persons from whom (if a retail dealer) the intoxicating or spirituous liquors were obtained and drunk; and upon conviction thereof it shall be lawful for such wife, husband, eldest child or next of kin to recover from such person or persons connected therein the amount of damages awarded to them by a jury of the country.

In case of death or injury, &c., in a state of intoxication.

XXVIII. Not more than one action may be brought for and in respect of the same subject, matter or complaint, and every such action shall be brought within six months after the injury or death complained of shall have taken place.

But one action may be brought.

XXIX. It shall be lawful for the wife, husband, eldest child or next of kin as the case may be, of any person convicted of drunkenness or intoxication, to bring in a summary manner before a Justice of the Peace, the person or persons (other than wholesale dealers) from whom such drunken person obtained the spirituous or intoxicating liquors, or upon whose premises they were drunk, and such person upon conviction shall pay the wife, husband, eldest child or next of kin, a sum of money equal the amount which such drunken person might have earned during the term of his confinement in consequence of being drunk as aforesaid.

Certain power to wife, child, &c., of intoxicated person.

Parties aggrieved may prosecute through Municipality.

XXX. It shall be lawful for all parties aggrieved, to prosecute for any breach of this Act through the Municipality in which the offence was committed, by entering into good and sufficient bonds with the said Municipality, to save harmless the said Municipality from all costs and charges, by reason of proceedings being taken in the name of such Municipality, according to form H in the schedule to this Act annexed. 5

Duty of Inspector upon receipt of bond.

XXXI. Upon such bond being taken and filed in the Inspector's office, there to be kept secret from all parties except the Mayor, Reeve or Chief Magistrate, it shall be the duty of the Inspector to institute proceedings at once in the name of the Municipality against the offender named in such bond, and prosecute the same vigorously to a termination. 10

Application of fines, &c.

XXXII. All fines inflicted and collected under this Act shall be disposed of as follows: one moiety to the complainant and prosecutor, the other moiety to the Municipality within whose jurisdiction such conviction took place. 15

In case of neglect to pay fines.

XXXIII. If the fines inflicted under this Act or any money ordered to be paid, together with the costs of prosecution, be not paid within such time as the Court or Justice shall direct, such fines, monies and costs shall be collected by distress and sale of offender's goods, under authority of a warrant of distress, for that purpose to be issued by the Court or Justice convicting; and in case there shall be no goods and chattels to satisfy such warrant, then such offender shall be imprisoned in the common Gaol of the Municipality or County, wherein such conviction shall take place for a time not to exceed 12 months, in the discretion of the Court or Justice convicting. 20

Cases not hereby provided.

XXXIV. In all cases not otherwise specially provided for by this Act, proceedings shall be laid in a summary manner before a Justice of the Peace, and whose further duty it be at least once a month to furnish the License Inspector with a list of all such convictions as may have taken place before him, stating the nature of the offence, and punishment awarded. 30

False statements.

XXXV. If any person shall make a wilfully false statement in any certificate or writing required by this Act, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished accordingly.

When licenses shall be issued.

XXXVI. All licenses under this Act shall be issued before the first day of March in every year, and no license shall be issued after that time to any person or persons whatever; and the bond, certificate, confirmation, license, and license fee or duty, and all other requisites under this Act shall be renewed every year, and if any person or persons shall sell without such renewal of license, he, she or they shall be punished as persons selling without license. 40

By laws as heretofore.

XXXVII. It shall and may be lawful for the Municipalities to make By-laws as heretofore in reference to inns and houses of public entertainment, provided such By-laws do not contravene the provisions of this Act.

Competent witnesses.

XXXVIII. Any person competent to give testimony in any Court in Upper Canada may give testimony under this Act, and may be fined and imprisoned, as though he were the offender, if he refuses to give testimony.

XXXIX. It shall be the duty of Mayors, Aldermen and Councilmen, of all Reeves, Deputy Reeves and Councillors, all Justices of the Peace, Constables and other Peace Officers to enforce the provisions of this Act against licensed persons, unlicensed persons or drunkards, or others 5 infringing on the provisions of this Act where such infringements are observed by them or brought under their notice.

Duty of Mayors, Aldermen, &c., under this Act.
