FALL OF HOLY CITY IS BUT A MATTER OF DAYS

Turks Will Likely Offer Little Resistance to the British MAY EVACUATE CITY German Newspapers Seek To Prepare Public for the News

By Courier Leased Wire Amsterdam, Nov. 23.—The German newspapers are preparing the public for the loss of Jerusalem. The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung says that to bring to places "which would bring us no military advantage would be tantamount to the useless sacrifice of numerous Turkish forces and our own troops and would likewise involve serious losses." After discussing the difficulty of reinforcing the defenders, it says: "Anyways, the abandonment of Jerusalem, which is within the bounds of possibility, certainly would be an extremely painful loss, in view of the city's great historical past, but no military change would be caused by such a course." Lieut.-General von Ardenne in The Tageblatt attributes the Turkish retreat from Jaffa to the great range of the guns of the British fleet, and adds: "Jerusalem is not equipped for defence. Therefore, it is not improbable that this advanced position will be abandoned by the Turks." He insists that this will in no wise alter the military situation.

Regarding the British drive on the Cambrai front, The Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin says: "The British attempt to break through collapsed entirely in the face of the extraordinary bravery of our troops. It went no further than the initial success, an eruption into our position which must be without effect on the neighboring positions and which the enemy tried to extend in vain owing to the counter-thrusts of our reserves." "The enemy will not succeed by this abortive attack in diverting our attention from Flanders, where he is certain to renew his efforts which now have become a necessity" in order to rid himself of the U-boat bases which are so dangerous to him. Moreover, the attacks near Cambrai and Craonne certainly will not exercise the slightest influence on the situation in Italy.

WEATHER BULLETIN

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 23.—The disturbance which swept over the Great Lakes yesterday now covers the Atlantic States with reduced energy. Fresh to heavy gales have prevailed on the Great Lakes, attended by snow. Snow has also fallen heavily in the Ottawa and St. Lawrence valleys and rain in the Maritime provinces. Storm signals have been lowered on the Great Lakes. Forecasts: Fresh to strong northerly winds, quite cold and partly fair to-day and on Saturday, with some light snow falls or flurries.

CENTRAL POWERS SEND PEACE TERMS TO PETROGRAD

Russian Diplomat Has Left Stockholm For His Own Country, Bearing Proposals from Teutons to Revolutionary Government—Bolsheviki Sending Delegates to Confer With German Socialists

By Courier Leased Wire. Stockholm, Nov. 23.—According to The Tidningen, a Russian diplomat left Stockholm yesterday for Petrograd with orders to hand to the Russian revolutionary government proposals for peace by the Central Powers.

Stockholm, Nov. 23.—The Bolsheviki Government, according to a report from Haparanda, has sent representatives to meet German Socialist delegates, probably at Stockholm, to arrange an armistice and negotiate peace. It is understood that the delegates from both sides will hide their identity.

Thirty-five passengers on to-day's train from Petrograd crossed the frontier into Sweden. Despite the Bolsheviki peace offer, the exchange rate of the German mark continues to fall.

TO PUBLISH CORRESPONDENCE London, Nov. 23.—Leon Trotsky, the Bolsheviki foreign minister, according to a Reuter dispatch from Petrograd, announces that the Russian secret diplomatic correspondence is in his possession and will be published immediately.

It is reported, the dispatch adds, that the revolutionary committee at Moscow has seized the branch state bank there. It is said that 100,000,000 rubles recently were transferred there from Petrograd.

MINISTER OF MARINE QUILTS London, Nov. 23.—Admiral Verderewsky has resigned as Russian minister of marine, a Reuter dispatch from Petrograd says. According to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from the Russian capital, Captain Ivanoff, lately commander of the Baltic cruiser squadron has been named as his successor.

ANOTHER GENERAL STRIKE IN FINLAND Demand Voiced For Diet With Majority of Socialists

By Courier Leased Wire London, Nov. 23.—Another general strike has been declared in Finland, according to a Reuter's dispatch, dated at Helsinki Wednesday and sent by way of Uleaborg. It is blocking all civil functions, and was called for the object of compelling the substitution of the Diet dissolved in July, which had a Socialist majority for the existing diet, where the Socialists are in the minority. Minor fighting is reported in various parts of the country.

Former Senator Von Wendt, member of an old Finnish family, the dispatch says, has telegraphed an urgent appeal to Premier Lloyd George and President Wilson to allow the passage of American wheat cargoes to Narvik. Otherwise, he says, a catastrophe is unavoidable.

BYNG HONORED FOR SERVICES BY PROMOTION

Leader of British Drive Given Rank of General by King DETAILS OF VICTORY Tanks Demonstrated Their Real Value This Week

By Courier Leased Wire London, Nov. 23.—King George has promoted Lieutenant-General Byng to the rank of General in recognition of his distinguished service in the field in the recent operations. It was officially announced to-day.

Tanks Proved Worth. British Army Headquarters in France, Thursday, Nov. 22.—(By the Associated Press).—The impression which existed in the minds of many soldiers that the British tanks were freaks of little value as instruments of war is being wiped out on account of the achievements of the great army of these mighty engines which on Tuesday morning broke through the main Hindenburg line and carried the war miles into enemy territory. The work which the tanks did on that first day and have been doing ever since is one of the most striking features of the war. It cannot be said they are alone responsible for the tremendous victory won by the British, for infantry, artillery and cavalry all have played their part. Nevertheless, the tanks drove the entering wedge without which this triumph probably would have been impossible.

In a few hours they tore to shreds lines of barbed wire, the demolition of which by a concentration of artillery would have required many days. Furthermore, their employment made possible the arrangement of the secret attack, which would have been out of the question had the artillery been brought into play.

Foe, Exhausted, Pressed Cripples Into Front Line

Wounded and Sick Men, Not Yet Convalescent, Were Forced to Oppose British Advance at Masnières --War Now Fought in the Open as in Bygone Years

British army headquarters in France, Thursday, Nov. 22.—(By the Associated Press).—The success of the British arms in the Cambrai sector has continued to grow steadily, and Field Marshal Haig's troops in a little more than two days' fighting have over-run an area equal in size to that won by the Germans during the first fifteen days of their spectacular drive on Verdun. British cavalry, tanks and infantry to-day were battling their way forward along a line which at many points west and southwest of Cambrai was less than three miles from that important town. The advance also was spreading northward in the region of Bullecourt, and the salient toward Cambrai was being widened. The total of prisoners captured must approach the 10,000 mark.

At last the British and Germans are at grips on comparatively open ground and some of the fiercest hand fighting of the war has been going on. The enemy troops were unprepared for the attack; they have been putting every ounce of their strength in an attempt to stem the rising tide.

Used Last Resources. Troops have been pulled away from other points and rushed to the Cambrai sector by the desperate Germans, and so hard pressed were they for men, that two companies of cripples and convalescents were recruited hastily at one camp and thrown into the line in the region of Masnières. Some of these pitiful objects are in British hands and are receiving medical treatment. One prisoner was in the last stages of tuberculosis and he had to be moved to prevent the disease from spreading to the others, who were in a state of cruel exhaustion and virtually helpless from their valiant attempts to fight under the lash of their unrelenting officers.

BRITISH ADVANCE LINE ALONG THE YPRES FRONT

GRAND FLEET OF TANKS IN FIGHT The Armored Juggernauts Ploughed Through All Teuton Defenses

By Courier Leased Wire London, Nov. 23.—Nothing has been announced here officially or unofficially concerning the number of machines constituting what the correspondents describe as "the grand fleet" of tanks employed in Tuesday's advance, but the number apparently has been greater than in any previous action. Casualties, of course, were inevitable in an operation on such a scale, but the despatches agree that they are not great. Some even describe the tank losses as light. One writer says that "a number were knocked out by direct hits from German big guns. Another says that some were overturned by shell fire and others were bogged. One or two buried their noses in the soft earth and turned over in trying to climb down steep banks. One fell into a canal, but it is evident that the great majority ploughed ahead unhindered."

Extend Positions in Flanders and Hold All Other Gains

FRENCH REPULSE FOE German Attempt to Regain Captured Ground on the Aisne Failed

By Courier Leased Wire London, Nov. 23.—The British have advanced their line slightly in Flanders, the war office announces. The situation on the Somme front southwest of Cambrai is unchanged.

Foe Beaten Off Paris, Nov. 23.—Another German attempt to recapture ground taken by the French in their recent attack on the Aisne front was checked by the French fire, the war office reports.

The situation off German counter-attacks, British forces have consolidated their gains and are prepared for another plunge toward Cambrai. General Byng's men are just west of Fontaine Notre Dame, less than three miles west of Cambrai, and nearly completed the occupation of Bourlain wood, just north of Fontaine and which dominates the entire region.

Fontaine Notre Dame was the scene of the heaviest fighting yesterday, Wednesday night, the village was captured by the British, but a strong German counter-attack there drove the British to the western outskirts. The village is the apex of the wedge, which the British have driven toward Cambrai, and which includes approximately 50 square miles of territory, formerly within the German lines. The Germans are reported to be rushing up reserves for counter-attack.

Cambrai probably has lost its usefulness as the German supply base in the immediate region, as the city and some of the railroads entering it from the north, east and south are dominated by the British artillery. The new wedge also is a direct menace to Juncourt, the southern end of the Fucourt-Brocourt switch line, which held up the British advance east of Arras last spring. Juncourt is now within a sharp salient, which has been heightened by the British advances from Bullecourt in the present drive. General Byng's stroke was a masterpiece of organization, according to reports from the front. Many squadrons of tanks (Continued on page four)

ENEMY FAILED TO ENCIRCLE ITALIAN ARMY

Austro-German Attack Against Monte Meletta Beaten Off ALL GROUND IS HELD Heavy Fighting Continues In Low Mountains of North Italy

By Courier Leased Wire Rome, Nov. 23.—A great encircling attack was attempted yesterday by the Austro-German forces against Monte Meletta, but the Italians held all the positions it was announced to-day by the war office.

Italian Headquarters in Northern Italy, Thursday, Nov. 22.—(By Associated Press).—Heavy fighting continues on the northern line, centering along the low mountains above Monte Grappa. These successive mountains are proving to be the same kind of natural barrier to the enemy's swift advance that the successive rivers interposed before the Piave was reached. Before the enemy looms snow-capped Grappa held by the Italians, which would be a really formidable obstruction should the lower ranges be taken.

The name of this mountain inspires a feeling of security among the people, as it is taken from the local dialect, its meaning being "saw." The crest looks like a saw with teeth turned to the sky. It is toward this natural mountain barrier that the present mountain fighting is gradually developing. Guglielmo Ferrero, the distinguished Italian historian, declares that this mountain barrier is Italy's greatest security, which throughout history has brought defeat to invading armies.

The fighting to-day between the Piave and Brenta rivers, while heavy brought no material change in the positions of the opposing forces.

THE MERCHANTS CORNER

DOES ADVERTISING PAY? Bradstreet's have compiled statistics that prove that 54 per cent of the failures are among non-advertisers. The merchant who does not believe in the use of printer's ink has never advertised or has never advertised right. The failure to produce results is not chargeable against advertising, but rather against the manner in which it is done. Advertising is the modern creative force—positive and potent—a force that has produced two blades of grass where but one has grown before. It is the flowering of industrial evolution. It is the conqueror of unfair competition—the promoter of right dealing—the solution of the mail order problem. Its basic principles are frankness—sincerity—and in it lies the hope of industry. Advertising is the greatest force in modern merchandising.

NEWS OF NORFOLK EAT CABBAGE, FISH SAUSAGE, NEW BREAD

(Continued from Page Two.) say, I gazed on a scene of brown and grey desolation and activity combined. Half-filled shell holes with stagnant water; gun carriages and ammunition wagons destroyed almost beyond recognition, upturned and generally scattered about. A dead mule, and a salvage pile with equipment and clothing from the battle-field. Desolation, death and stagnation. Yet, not many miles to the north, the fierce battle, for just such a strip of ground, was still being waged with varying intensity, and the roar of the guns seemed ever present in the air.

The doctor came out from the station. "Pretty scenery," he grinned. "The main thing we object to is the mules," he said, holding his nose suggestively, and I understood. Suddenly we heard the far-away strains of a regimental band, and down the long, dreary road we could see a band of men marching.

MOTHER OF FOUR CHILDREN

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her Well and Strong.

Lincoln, Illinois.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for ten years with good results and I have four healthy children. This summer I was in a very run down condition and the very hot weather seemed more than I could stand, but I commenced taking your Compound in June and from then until September 29th, when my last baby was born, I got along much better than I had before. My baby was a girl and weighed 14 pounds at birth and recovered very rapidly which I am sure was due to your medicine. I am well and strong now, nurse my baby and do all my work. I had the same good results with your medicine when needed before my other children came and they are all healthy. My mother has taken your medicine with equal satisfaction. She had her last child when nearly 44 years old and feels confident she never would have carried him through without your help, as her health was very poor."—Mrs. T. F. CLOYD, 1355 North Gulick Ave., Decatur, Ill.

Expectant mothers should profit by Mrs. Cloyd's experience, and trust to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Free confidential advice had by addressing Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

SERIOUS ILLNESS AVOIDED

Many serious illnesses have been avoided by the prompt use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills actually enrich and purify the blood, and in this way build up the system, tone and strengthen the nerves and invigorate the vital organs.

Serious diseases generally come from some simple disorder that has been neglected. Therefore any thinning of the blood should be looked upon as a warning sign, and more serious illness should be avoided by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. In the case of young girls and women the blood is peculiarly liable to get out of order—to become thin and watery—and to lead to a general breakdown in health. This can be avoided by the occasional use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills which are suitable for the most delicate constitution.

ANSWERS BY CUNNING

Q.—Where is my husband and what is he doing. Shall I sell my home and leave here? L. Y. F.
 A.—It is my impression that your husband is having somewhat of an uphill time of it right now though will do better next year. I would not advise you to sell your property at present.

Q.—Will I make a success of nursing? M. C. Paris.
 A.—It is my impression that you will stay with it. You will have a patient who will fall in love with you and you will marry him and go abroad. He will be wealthy. This will happen early in 1919.

Q.—Can you tell me if my son will return soon, and will my daughter come here? E. F. Paris.
 A.—It is my impression that your son is at present in Western Canada, and that you will have a visit from him during the holidays. I get nothing on your daughter.

Q.—What sort of a man will I marry. Shall I change my present position? L. E. A. Paris.
 A.—You will marry a business man of moderate means and will be very happy. He will be tall and fair, at present in the West. You will see him next spring. Do not make any change for six months.

Q.—When am I going to get married. Will my gentleman friend be conscripted. How much longer will I work in my present position. Will my brother go back? M. A. F. Paris.
 A.—It is my impression that you will not marry for several years though the party in Michigan thinks much of you. Your friends in Ontario will be conscripted but will never get to France. I see no immediate change for you.

Q.—Will my brother-in-law return. Will I have any children. E. M. A.
 A.—It is my impression that your brother-in-law will return though not until the end of the war next year. You will be blessed with one.

Q.—Will my two boys come home from England or will they go to France? G. W. A.
 A.—It is my opinion that your boys will return in April of next year, they will see very little active service.

Q.—Will my old friend and boarder come back from France? and am I to ever see him again? I have been told I would be left a widow, what do you say? Will we sell one of our

LT. CARTER WINS D.S.O.

Young Calgary Flying Officer is Well Known in Brantford

Word that Flight Lieutenant Alfred W. Carter has been decorated with the naval decoration, the Distinguished Service Order, has been received by his mother, Mrs. David Carter, who is now awaiting further details. Lieut. Carter was one of the early volunteers from Calgary in the air service and has been attached to the naval branch. He went overseas a year ago last May and to France last November as a sub-lieutenant, and his decoration has been won, according to the announcement, for his work in leading patrols against enemy scouts. Lieut. Carter is a Calgary boy who has lived here most of his life. His father was the late David Carter, a prominent Calgary gentleman, once an alderman of that city. He is a nephew of Prof. Adam Short of Ottawa, of Rev. James Short of Oids, and Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Aird of Calgary. He is also a nephew of R. F. Carter, 189 Eagle avenue, and a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Carter, 66 Dundas street, Brantford.

PRAYER MEETINGS AND PRAYER REPORTS IMPORTANT

The neighborhood Prayer meeting report cards are coming in to the Tabernacle box in increasing numbers. Block leaders should see to it that every prayer meeting held is reported by card. If Block leaders will bring in the list of Prayer meetings to be held in homes of their block next week by Saturday night and at the latest Sunday evening it will greatly help Dr. Martin the chairman and will give added vigor to the campaign.

NEWPORT

(From Our Own Correspondent). The people of this vicinity were deeply grieved on learning of the death of Corp. Russell Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robinson Smith. Out of respect to the memory of Corp. Smith, who is so well-known, the flag at the school was flying at half-mast on Thursday last and the heartfelt sympathy of the community goes out to the stricken parents, brother and sister. A memorial service will be held at the church on Sabbath afternoon. The Young People's meeting on Wednesday was in charge of Miss Mabel Phillips. Mr. Clarence McEwan occupied the chair and Miss Beaulieu read a paper on Tennyson. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Eitel and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cole motored to Newport on Sunday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Bilger. Miss Minnie Bilger is visiting at Courtland for a few days. Mrs. Henry Phillips spent over the week-end at Etonta. We are glad to know that Mrs. Palmer is very much improved in health. It was with profound sadness that the people of this vicinity learned of the death of Mrs. Thomas Barron, after only a few days' illness. Her demise will be deeply grieved both in the home and outside circles. Her cheerful disposition endeared her to many and her untiring efforts in the church and Sabbath school will be greatly missed. The heartfelt sympathy of the community goes out to the sorrowing husband, father, mother and sisters.

Fitzsimmons Had Staggering Punch

Jim Jeffries, Jim Corbett and Tom Sharkey Talk of Heavy Clout Which Ruby Bob Packed in His Mitt

Now that Robert Fitzsimmons has joined the army of ex-champions whose last chance to "come back" has passed, hundreds of stories of the great old-time fighter are being told by his friends. There are stories of "Fighting Bob" as a fighter and as a man, personal stories, intimate stories, stories of ring exploits and stories of training camps. But as yet I haven't seen anything about what the men he fought had to say of Fitzsimmons, or what Fitzsimmons had to say about them. Says Bob Edgren, the old wall-popper: "It happened that for many years I was an intimate friend of Bob's. I first met him when he was training to fight Tom Sharkey in San Francisco, before he became world's champion heavy-weight by defeating Corbett at Carson. I went to his camp one day with "Bill" Naughton, the famous sporting writer, who came from Australia before Fitzsimmons, and who was instrumental in getting Fitzsimmons his first real chance to fight in America. I'll never forget the illustration Bob gave me of the blow that knocked out Sharkey—the blow that Wyatt Earp called a "foul." It was the solar plexus, and Bob shifted and showed it to me so effectively that I put off making a drawing of it until the next day. Yea Ho! That was some wallop! The illustration knocked me over a trunk in Bob's room at the old Baldwin hotel. Bob always was an earnest demonstrator of blows. He showed it to me again at Carson, and I remember the words in which he gently requested that I inform Mr. Corbett what would happen in the ring two days later. Bob slipped that solar plexus punch on me while we were boxing, for I had come over from Corbett's camp to box with Fitz and write a story about it. Bob slipped home the punch, as I said. Then he gave me instructions—terse—which was his way: "Go over and tell that big stiff," said Bob, "that's wot I'm going to do to 'im." I never did get a candid opinion of broke every bone in my nose and $100,000," declared Jeffries. "He flattened it so that I could lay my finger right across it and touch both cheek bones. He loosened every tooth in my head and nearly tore my ears off. He closed both my eyes. For a week after the fight I thought my jaw was broken. Couldn't move it, and all I could eat was soup. If he hadn't bumped into me at last, I don't know what would have happened. He was a wonderful old fellow."

Kid McCoy never fought Fitzsimmons. One day, 15 years ago, he told me why.

"I can outguess all the others," said McCoy, "but nobody knows what old Fitz has in the back of his mind. When you think you know every move that he can make he springs something new that you never dreamed of. I wouldn't fight that old guy if he was 100 years old."

Mike Donovan, the great old-timer now 70 years of age and going to France with an ambulance unit, travelled with Fitzsimmons after the Dempsey fight. Fitz was meeting all comers. One night after Fitzsimmons had hit a fellow on the jaw and knocked him out for several hours Mike took Fitz aside and gave him a lecture.

"Bob," he said, "you're going to kill somebody with that punch. You don't know your own strength. After this you'd better hit them in the body." Right here Mike and Bob planned the right shift and solar plexus and revolutionized the knock-out industry.

Peter Maher nearly knocked Fitzsimmons out. Fitz recovered, rose, and hit Peter such a punch that Peter was overcome with a superstitious dread.

"I'll fight any man," said Peter to his seconds, "but this isn't a man at all. He's the devil in disguise."

What Fitz Thought of Opponents Fitzsimmons frankly gave credit where he thought credit was due.

"Sharkey is a tough sailor—among sailors," was his short description of the doctory tar.

"Jeffries is the greatest man I ever saw." Fitz told me just before he went to San Francisco to try to win back the heavyweight title.

think I can hit him on the right spot and knock him out; but if he knocks me out again I'm going to turn right around and offer to teach him everything I know. With his strength and what I can show him, he'll be the greatest champion that ever lived."

That, by the way, was exactly what Fitzsimmons did. He travelled with Jeffries several months after their second fight, and became the big fellow's best friend and greatest admirer. For all that, Fitz always had an idea that he might have licked Jeff. "If my hands 'ad only 'eld out," he used to sigh.

"Choyznaki!" said Fitz one day in response to a question—"Why, he was a great fighter. The time he hit me on the chin in Boston I was knocked out. Only one thing saved me. I was lying on my back in the middle of the ring, watching everything whirl around. I thought all the gallery chairs were falling over me, and I was trying to dodge. I didn't know I was down or that I was in a fight until I heard Choyznaki's manager, Parson Davies, say: 'I told you Joe would knock Bob out.' All of a sudden I remembered and got up. If Davies hadn't said that I would have been counted out sure."

with a good knowledge of Russian. The agents, by coming into contact with Russians, would soon get to know the needs of the Russian market, and would be able to suit American produce to Russian needs, so that they would be above all competition.

The same method of carrying goods by means of agents should also be applied to products, which Russia is in a condition to export to America (wool, beet-seeds, clover seeds, etc.).

"Parallel with this, it would be desirable to form in Russia a staff of trained mechanics and engineers, who should undertake the management and development of railways in Russia.

"There is no doubt that after the war Russia will have an extensive market for agricultural implements, which branch of trade has always been of great interest to Americans. Therefore it would be to America's advantage to have a large staff of enlightened workmen in Russia, to which end, the Americans would dolelessly willingly throw open the doors of their industrial schools and workshops to Russian workers. On the other hand, Russian institutions would also willingly take in all Americans desirous of learning the conditions of commerce in Russia.

"In such a manner there would be an exchange of practical workers, which from an economic point of view is the best way to insure success."

KILBANE QUILTS RING.
By Courier Leased Wire
New York, Nov. 22.—Johnny Kilbane, after ruling the featherweight ranks since 1912, when he won the title from Abe Attell, has announced his permanent retirement from the ring and his intention henceforth to devote his entire time to instructing soldiers in the art of boxing at Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, where he already is serving as a boxing instructor.

Kilbane has accumulated a small fortune from his ring engagements.

(Associated Press)
Christiania, Nov. 23.—The newspapers express dissatisfaction with the new Norwegian passport regulation, because Danes and Swedes are exempt from its provisions on the ground of reciprocity. This, it is said, means the foregoing even of the right to inquire whether Swedish and Danish passports are genuine or false, so that anyone who speaks these languages can travel in Norway without hindrance. "Since there are plenty of places where false passports are made," says Tidens Tegn, "this regulation makes the whole law useless."

RUSSIA LOOKS TO AFTER WAR TRADE

Urges Development of American Business Within Nation

Petrograd, Nov. 23.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) Pointing out the opportunities for the development of American trade in Russia after the war, the Commercial and Industrial Gazette suggests that the part to be played by Americans will be great.

"Russia," says the Gazette, "in the near future will play the part of buyer rather than of seller and therefore, it is necessary that American commercial men should be well acquainted with the demands of the Russian market and with the conditions of buying and selling in Russia. In order to obtain this, the Americans should organize an experienced staff of travelling agents.

GREAT OVATION IN LONDON

Is Tendered to Sir Robert Borden and Associates. Again Makes Clear Declaration with Regard to the Military Act.

London, Ont., Nov. 23.—London gave Sir Robert Borden and the representatives of the Union Government an impressive reception last night.

Sir Robert Borden followed closely the lines of his Toronto address. Speaking of the origin of the Union Government, he said that he had it in mind in the autumn of 1915, but "certain incidents during the winter of 1916, of which I will not now speak, made it absolutely impossible to bring about Union at that time."

Having reiterated his declaration that the election of the Union Administration would mean the carrying out of the Military Service Act, the Premier reminded the audience that it was much less drastic than the old Militia Act.

"The Government has also a remedy," continued Sir Robert, "and propose to exercise it in the case of a community, district or Province where exemptions have been granted indiscriminately, and by wholesale."

ITALY HAS SOLVED HOUSING PROBLEM

Britain May Copy From Her Ally System of Community Flats

London, Nov. 23.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—British architects and town-planning experts, who are making plans for a great remodelling of British cities after the war, declare that one of the most successful experiments in new types of industrial and urban housing is that which has been made by the Italian Good Dwellings Society in Rome. The idea of adopting something similar in England has been proposed.

"The Italian Society," says a report on the Rome experiment, "has erected a block of working-class flats, containing 800 dwellings, designed for all types and sizes of families. The flats are built on four sides of a square, with a garden in the center, in which the 'Children's House' stands by itself.

"You enter the quadrangle by a great gateway. To the left is a room for storing baby-carriages and bicycles. To the right is the porter's office, the post office and telephones for general use. Inside, nearest the gate, are flower beds and an open space for the pleasure of every one. Beyond are the children's garden; then the little low building called the Children's Home, a charming place, white, with great windows that stand open to the air, and covered with rambler roses. Here is the nursery school for children under seven. Another big room in the Children's Home is the 'After School' where the children over seven do their home lessons on returning from school, under supervision and in conditions that they could not possibly find in their own homes.

"The 'After School,' the nursery school, and the cloak-room, occupy the whole of the front of the Children's Home. On the other side there is a group of rooms whose use is common to the whole establishment. There is a large common room for the women, fitted with electric sewing machines and electric irons, which can be used on payment of a small sum. Here also are great cutting tables and sewing tables, such as women know to be invaluable in sewing work, but which are impossible in small homes. A common wash house and laundry is in the basement of the building.

"This central building also contains a 'surgery,' where a doctor is in attendance at stated times and any tenant may have free advice. If tenants need attention in their own apartments, there is a fee of 20 cents. Twice a week the doctor examines all the school children.

"The buildings are equipped with numerous bath-rooms, but hot water is obtainable only at stated times. "The flats are of various sizes. Overcrowding is forbidden, and families must move into larger flats as their numbers increase. The largest flats are designed to accommodate the parents and five children. Tenants who rise above a certain standard in the care of their dwellings receive a percentage of their rent back in an annual bonus."

Rippling Rhymes

Prosperity with us abides, and want's to us unknown, while over Europe's countryside the hungry people moan. For years poor Europe has been torn, has heard the battle din, while we have planted fields of corn, and borne the harvest in. Privation has not made us lauk, no wolf is at our door; we have our bundles in the bank, and credit at the store. Our table's spread, we sit thereat, and costly joints we carve; and it is shameful to be fat, while wailing millions starve. Oh, let us discipline our souls, and far less selfish be, and strip some williams from our rolls, to send across the sea. And when our noble country calls for sample, of long green, to purchase clubs and cannonballs, or sink a submarine, let's gladly, proudly flash our wads, and loosen up like men; too long our plunks have been our gods, our shrine has been the yen. America alone is fat, and basking in her grease; the nations have been trampled flat, since Wilhelm broke the peace. And while the stricken nations toil in warfare, lean and lame, and paint with blood the riven soil, our fatness is a shame.

MORE DEPORTATIONS.

(Associated Press). Rotterdam, Netherlands, Nov. 23.—The Germans continue to carry off the civilian population of the towns and villages of Flanders, according to the Nieuwe Rotterdam Courant. Boulers is entirely evacuated. At least 2,000 inhabitants have left Coutrai and at Ostend the exodus continues. A large number of residents of Deleage; have been taken to Toureing, there to be sent to the construction of military works of defence; and at Sleydingen all men, without distinction of rank or fortune, have been forced to labor at the laying of roads. At Piers, Bornhem and Willbroeck, in the province of Antwerp, the Germans have requisitioned the people's bedding.

Obituary

A. M. SILLIB.
The death occurred Wednesday night of Agnes M. Sillib, wife of Richard E. Sillib, 23 McClure Ave. The deceased, who was in her thirty-third year, survived by her husband, her mother, Mrs. F. D. Ford, five brothers, George of Washington, Sandy of Goderich, Charles of Hamilton, Robert at the front, and William of Saskatchewan, and one sister, Mrs. Steinback of Kansas City, Kan. A brief service will be held at 23 McClure Ave. to-night, after which the remains will be conveyed to Goderich for interment.

MRS. BARRON.
The funeral of the late Mrs. Thos. A. Barron took place from her late residence on the Cockshutt Road, on Wednesday afternoon to Farrington Cemetery. A very large number of relatives and friends met to pay a last tribute to one dearly beloved by all. Rev. Mr. Drew of Newport church, conducted the service, which was very impressive. Her favorite hymn "Nearer My God to Thee" was sung by the choir and friends of Newport church. Mrs. Barron was confirmed and became a member of Holy Trinity church, Onondaga, some few months ago, and was a most devout Christian, taking the greatest interest in all church work, of which she never tired, always anxious to work for the good of others. Her vacant seat in the church will be hard to fill with her equal. After a short married life of nine months and two weeks, she passed away at the early age of twenty-three, leaving besides her sorrowing husband, her parents and sisters, and a host of friends, who will always remember her as a loving and faithful friend. The amount of beautiful flowers can only partially show the esteem in which she was held. The following is a list of flowers sent: Cross, from her husband, T. A. Barron; wreath, from her parents and sisters; wreath, from Holy Trinity church Onondaga; sprays, from Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Barron, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wood, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Barron, Uncle Alfred and cousins Jessie and Florence Balne, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Barron, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bailey and Gilbert and Jennie, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Charlton, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McEwen, Newport church and Sunday School, Newport Epworth League, her Sunday School class, Mohawk Lodge, I.O.O.F. and others. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Clarence McEwen, Ellis Wilson, Gilbert Bailey, John McClellan, Oscar Mathews and Clarence Taws.

News From Paris
Paris, Nov. 22.—(From Our Own Correspondent.)—The Women's Institute of Whiteman's Creek held a very successful patriotic concert in Bethel church which was prettily decorated for the occasion with flags of the allies, bunting and ferns. About $50 was realized and will be devoted for Red Cross. A number from town motored out, and Dr. Lovett acted as chairman and gave a capital address. Those from here who took part in the programme were: Mrs. James Sclafin and Mr. J. P. McCammon. Reading Misses A. Pitts and Kaye. Orchestra rendered several selections. A very interesting paper was read by Mrs. (Dr.) Lovett on "Fingering Nightingale." Officers assisting were: Misses Smith, Reading, Patra Brantford and Mr. Timms. Miss Carr and Miss Timms, Stoney Creek. At the close a hearty vote of thanks was sent to those taking part on the programme, and a dainty repast served before leaving.

"THE BIRD OF PARADISE"
Miss Helen Carew brings an intimate acquaintance with native life in Hawaii to Richard Walton Tully's great play of island existence. "The Bird of Paradise," Miss Carew has studied the beachcomber in his native habitat, and brings a world of sympathy to the role of Diana. Yet at the time she spent six glorious months in the Islands, she little reckoned that later on Oliver Morosco was to capitalize the knowledge thus gained.

This is the second role Miss Carew has played in dramas by the successful Richard Walton Tully, as last season she created the part of the school teacher in "The Flame."

"The Bird of Paradise" is known as "The Perennial Success" for the simple reason that it is now in its seventh season and is the most popular play on the stage, having played to more than 3,000,000 persons, who paid admissions. It will be given at the Grand Opera House, Tuesday, Nov. 27th.

The management of the Brant Theatre are to be congratulated upon the energetic assistance which they are rendering the Victory Loan organization by having a speaker in the interests of the loan appear on the platform every night. The Rev. D. E. Martin of Wesley Church last night spoke briefly, appealing to all to "Buy a Victory Bond."

STOP CATARRH! OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD
Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once.
If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief.
Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more hawking, sneezing, blowing; no more headache, dizziness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.

CANADIANS ADD NEW TRIUMPHS TO GLORY OF YPRES AND SOMME

The Canadians Since Fall of Bapaume Have Pushed on From Victory to Victory W. A. Willison's Clarion Call to the Dominion Canada Must Fill the Gap

(By W. A. Willison, Special Correspondent of The Canadian Press.)
Canadian Army Headquarters in France, Nov. 22.—Side by side with the men from other parts of the Empire and of France, the Canadians have taken a glorious share in the campaign of the past year which has been marked by the steady decline of the enemy's strength and morale in the western theatre.

Press Pleas
New York, Nov. 22.—Newspapers here editorially expressed general astonishment at the striking British victory on the western front. Under this caption "Who said that famous Hindenburg line was impregnable?" The Herald says:

"Whether the British advance between St. Quentin and Arras is a straight drive through lines that hitherto have held and have been expected to hold, or bespeaks a Hindenburg line weakened by withdrawals to new positions in the rear, the moral effect is the same. The report of large hauls of prisoners argues strongly against the withdrawal excuse, which will be advanced by Berlin and bears out the British official statement that the attack came as a complete surprise to the enemy."

Wait For Full News.

London, Nov. 22.—Thus far England has taken quietly Field Marshal Haig's big victory in France. This morning, despite the big headlines and eulogistic articles in the newspapers and in the public, the public went about its business as usual. Not an extra flag was flying and the bells have not yet aroused to a realization of what British armies have done in France.

Unlike the Englishmen or the South African war days, when the capture of a town, the release of a garrison or the defeat of a handful of Boers, was made the occasion of street demonstrations, those of today take the victories soberly and content themselves with the anticipation of bigger things to come.

German Official
Berlin, Nov. 23 (via London).—The battle southwest of Cambrai is continuing, army headquarters announced today. The enemy's statement declared it did not succeed in breaking through, though he gained a little ground beyond the German front lines.

REV. GILBERT E. WILSON, Minister of High Park Presbyterian Church of Toronto, who has been called to a pastorate of a church in Chicago.

of adequate light has been a most serious question with which medical officers have had to contend with in the forward areas.
In the battle for Passchendaele as in other battles where the Canadians have made history in this war, the battalion medical officers have worked by the flare of candles or oil lamps or by the light of spluttering, unprotected candle wicks in the darkness of sandbag dugouts, hastily cleared spaces in wrecked buildings or close confined quarters.

Equipped with the necessities given by the medical service and supplied by the Canadian Red Cross with the comforts which are only less than necessities, the C.A.M.C. achieved a triumph of evacuation in the Passchendaele battles. But here, certainly to as great an extent as in any of the Canadian engagements, want of sufficient light was one of the gravest obstacles in the work of the medical service.

TERRACE HILL.

The Terrace Hill Club and Kin Association held a very successful talent tea on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Miller. There was a large attendance. An abundant supply of home-made cooking was brought in and found a ready sale. Captain Cornelius of the Soldiers' Home gave a stirring address, appealing strongly for support for the Union Government.

Canadian Army Headquarters in France, Nov. 22.—Portable electric light plants are to be provided in the eastern battle areas by the Canadian Red Cross. The pioneer service in the Red Cross work in the battle areas, the Canadian Association, has been conducting careful investigations to determine the plants best suitable in power, size and weight for instalment in advanced dressing stations, which form the first line of evacuation. New Railway Organization In Canada Will Make Sure That All Equipment Does A Maximum Service

EVEN the humble freight car trudging doggedly along on endless errands, carrying all manner of strange burdens at the behest of engines that never rest—is now to be made to "do his bit" his extra "bit," in helping to win the war. Along with all railroad rolling stock and other equipment the Canadian freight car is now the subject of special attention by the Canadian Railway Association for National Defence. This Association, which was recently formed at the request of the Canadian Government, is really a joint committee of all the Canadian railways, and is headed by the Presidents of the various roads. This body has undertaken to get at least a dollar's worth of service out of every dollar's worth of railway equipment in Canada. Unnecessary competition, the duplication of service, and the wasteful use of engines and cars in other ways, are all to be done away with under this Association. One of the worst forms of waste in this country is the underloading of freight cars. Records show that only about forty-six per cent of the average carrying capacity of the average freight car is made use of by the shipping public. The waste is even more serious when it is understood that the actual capacity of a car is at least ten per cent higher than its marked capacity. The seriousness of such waste is easily appreciated when one knows that Canada has for some time been unable to get all the freight cars needed to carry even munitions. One huge order for cars for the troops in France was held up for many weeks owing to the lack of cars. New cars not only cost more than formerly—the price is practically three times the pre-war price, but the demand for new cars is greater than the supply, and Great Britain, France, and Russia have been placing orders in addition to the usual Canadian and American orders.

Now, however, in place of trying to buy enough new cars, the railways have united, among other things to induce shippers to load their cars at least to the marked capacity. Of course shippers don't always like to do this. It is convenient sometimes to ship just one order in a car, or to pack a car only to a certain point owing to the additional cost of labor for packing more efficiently. Such practices are being made the subject of a vigorous educational campaign. The freight car must carry a full load hereafter.

Just to show how space can be saved it has been demonstrated by some of the implement makers that fitting a cheap "deck" into a box car instead of loading on the floor only a shipment of 800 wagons can be accommodated in twelve less cars than if packed in the old way. On a shipment of 3,000 riding ploughs 32 cars can be saved, and on a shipment of 1,500 binders, 2 cars. Such savings are to be effected in almost every class of shipment. The Canadian Railway Association for National Defence intends to make sure of this new economy among other things.
