Patriotic Fund Executive

Raises Maximum Allowance of Soldiers' Families From $25 to $35 a Month

The Executive of the West Northumberland Patriotic Fund met on Tuesday night. Present: Reva W J Bate, P W Dixon, S J Macarthur and Dr C W Squires, and Messrs. R C. Clark, H H Stuart and E P Williston and later, W A Park and J D Creaghan.

A letter from Secretary Philip Morris to whom had been referred the question of the meaning of the recent enactment of the Central Committee that the maximum payment to soldiers' families may be increased from $30 to $35 per month, was read: It explained that the new maximum would not affect any woman with four children or less. Its purpose was to extend proportionate assistance to large families.

H H Stuart moved again the motion he had moved at the previous meeting, that the maximum allowance to soldiers' families in this district be raised from $25 to $35 a month.

This was seconded by Rev Dr C W Squires, and carried unanimously. Acknowledgment was read from central fund of payment to Newcastle beneficiaries during August of $1958.90.

One application was taken and a grant of $10 a month, made from Nov 1st.

It was decided that the increased maximum should go into effect for the current month. The allowances of seven families were increased $10 a month and two $5 a month—total $80 a month.

Rev S J Macarthur who had been secretary for the past three years, tendered his resignation, on account of the possibility of his soon leaving town.

His resignation was very reluctantly accepted, and was coupled with a very hearty and unanimous vote of thanks for his most valuable work during that time.

The regular meeting of the Newcastle Women's Institute was held on Thursday evening last at the home of Mrs H Williston. A letter of thanks was read from Mrs Richards for donations of preserves and pickles to the Miramichi Hospital.

A very full report of the Fifth Annual Convention held at Moncton on Oct 2nd, 3rd and 4th ult., was given by the delegate, Mrs Leard.

A helpful paper on Putting away Summer Clothes was read and discussion followed when many helpful hints on different subjects were given.

Medical inspection of the schools was discussed, and generally endorsed. It was thought that the services of a nurse should also be secured for the schools of Newcastle, Douglas town and Nelson.

The Hindenburg Line Broken

British Advance Five Miles on a Thirty two Mile Front, and are only 12 Miles From Jerusalem

Rome, Nov 19—Gabriel D'Annunzio Italy's famous author and dramatist, failed to return from a flight over the enemy's lines.

London, Nov 19—Gen Maude, the brilliant and successful commander in Mesopotamia, died of fever yesterday.

Washington, Nov 19—Maximalists (the same as the Bolsheviks, both meaning "They who want the most for the workingman")—have taken over all power in Moscow, after a week of fighting, says a message to the U S Consul General.

Rome, Nov 20—The Austro-Germans apparently have completed the emplacement of their heavy guns against the Italian lines and an attack with the full force of their tremendous military machine now may be considered imminent.

There seems no reason to doubt that the expected mass attack has been halted solely through delay in bringing up the guns. The number of pieces in Field Marshal Von Mackensen's command is said to be almost unprecedented.

Austro-German reserves already have been advanced to the first lines, and the increasing fury of the bombardment at various points along the Piave appears to show clearly that the anticipated desperate drive, aiming to clear the river line, and incidentally to make Venice a captive city, is not far distant.

Washington, Nov 20—Unofficial dispatches reaching the State Department today from Tornea, on the Swedish frontier, say passengers arriving there from Russia declare the Russian situation is controlled by General Kaledines, the Cossack commander, who holds the country's coal and bread supply in the Don Cossack region.

London, Nov 20—The British forces in Palestine are now twelve miles northwest and fifteen miles west of Jerusalem, the War Office announces.

London, Nov 20—Sustained pursuit of the remaining German forces in German East Africa, during which nearly 1,000 prisoners were captured, important positions occupied and the last heavy gun remaining to the Germans in the colony taken intact is reported in an official statement today.

Petrograd, Nov 20 (Tuesday)—The military chief of the district of Kiev and the temporary government with their staffs, are reported to have left their posts. Ukrainian commissaries have been appointed to succeed them and they have confirmed the independence of the Ukraine. Three hundred and fifty thousand Ukrainian troops are said to have been recalled from the front.

This is commented on here as meaning a serious crippling of the army and the possible opening of the front to the enemy.

London, Nov 21—The Hindenburg line has been broken to a depth of four to five miles, the war office announces.

The British troops stormed the first positions of the Hindenburg line defences on the whole front between St. Quentin and the Scarpe River. The British infantry and tanks pressed on and captured the second system of defences, over a mile beyond. From St. Quentin to the Scarpe River is thirty two miles.

Stewart Burchill Makes Supreme Sacrifice

One of the brightest youths of the Miramichi Stewart Burchill of Nelson son of late Mr and Mrs Geo Burchill and nephew of Hon John P Burchill, has made the greatest sacrifice in France. A cable came on Friday saying that he had a gunshot wound in his arm and thigh, received on the 9th instant. On Monday came another cable that he had died on the 11th. When deceased he listed in the N-S Highlanders in August, 1916, he was in his first year at Kings College, Windsor, and gave great promise of a most successful and useful career.

He would have been 20 years of age next January. He leaves two brothers—George at the front, and Sterling, at Rothersey Collegiate school, and two sisters—Mary (Mrs Frank Robinson), Boston and Miss Laura at Neherwood school, Rothersey.

ROYAL RECEPTION FOR GR. CLARENCE CROCKER
Gunner Clarence Crocker of Millerton, formerly of the Royal Bank Staff here, arrived home from overseas on Saturday evening, coming by way of Fredericton.

A delegation from Millerton went to Indian town to meet the returned hero, and he was given a reception on his arrival at his home town, which although quiet on account of Gr Crocker's nervous condition, was royal in its character.

Gunner Crocker left Newcastle with the old 8th Battery, shortly after the outbreak of war and after two years in the firing line was badly wounded about the legs and stomach, and shell shocked, when the gun on which he was working was destroyed by a German shell.

He will spend some time at his home in Millerton before going to the Convalescent home for treatment. Three brothers of Gr. Crocker are now overseas with the Canadian forces.

ENUMERATOR HAS ENROLLED MANY
Ald John H Troy, Enumerator for polling division No 1, Parish of Newcastle, has completed a full canvas of the town for ladies entitled to vote under the War Time Election Act. Mr Troy finds that there are upwards of three hundred ladies in Newcastle entitled to the franchise. Mr Troy requests that all ladies having husbands, sons or brothers at the front, whose names he did not secure, while canvassing the town will hand same to him at the store of Dickson & Troy at once so that the lists can be compiled without delay.

Saves Shortening

One of the first things you notice, after "Beaver" Flour comes to your house, is that you are using less shortening than you used with western spring wheat flours. You also notice that the Pie Crusts, Cookies and Doughnuts are flatter and flakier—that the Bread Rolls and Biscuits have a delicate flavour, a delightful, nut-like, homey flavour that is doubly welcome after the tough, almost tasteless bread you used to make with western spring wheat flours.

BEAVER FLOUR

Milled of Blended Wheat

is really two flours in one, for two kinds of wheat are blended. "Beaver" Flour contains the strength of the best of both. This gives it the strength of the best of both. More than a nutlike flavour. Try it yet the even much better. DEALER

We strongly urge every user of BEAVER FLOUR to buy Canada's Victory Bonds

FIGHTING VENEREAL DISEASES
The Health Department of Baltimore, Md, is posting placards in hotels, bath houses, railway stations and other public places warning the public against quacks, advertising doctors and patent medicines in the treatment of venereal diseases, and pointing out that expert medical advice can be had free at several dispensaries throughout the city. Many factories, stores, barber shops and theatres are also displaying these placards.

The Only Medicine For Little Ones

Many a serious illness has been avoided by the prompt use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills actually enrich and purify the blood, and in this way build up the system, tone and strengthen the nerves and invigorate the vital organs. Serious diseases generally come from some simple disorder that has been neglected. Therefore any thinning of the blood should be looked upon as a warning sign, and more serious illness should be avoided by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. In the case of young girls and women the blood is peculiarly liable to get out of order—to become thin and watery—and to lead to a general breakdown in health. This can be avoided by the occasional use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which are suitable for the most delicate constitution. These pills will give you a new appetite, improve your digestion and strengthen weakened nerves, banish depression and lack of energy, clear the complexion of pimples and blotches, cure pain in the back and general weakness, cause the disappearance of headaches, dizziness and heart fluttering. Give these pills a fair trial and you will soon note a wonderful change in your condition. Your spirits will brighten, good health and strength will return, and you will feel like a new person. You can confirm these statements by enquiring among your friends almost anywhere, as thousands and thousands of hopeless sufferers have been restored to new health and energy by using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co, Brockville, Ont.

WOMAN AVOIDS OPERATION

Medicine Which Made Surgeon's Work Unnecessary.

Astoria, N. Y. — "For two years I was feeling ill and took all kinds of tonics. I was getting worse every day. I had chills, my head would ache, I was always tired. I could not walk straight because of the pain in my back and I had pains in my stomach. I went to a doctor and he said I must go under an operation, but I did not go. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told my husband about it. I said 'I know nothing will help me but I will try this.' I found myself improving from the very first bottle, and in two weeks time I was able to sit down and eat a hearty breakfast with my husband, which I had not done for two years. I am now in the best of health and did not have the operation." — Mrs. JOHN A. KOENIG, 502 Fishing Avenue, Astoria, N. Y.

Every one dreads the surgeon's knife and the operating table. Sometimes nothing else will do; but many times doctors say they are necessary when they are not. Letter after letter comes to the Pinkham Laboratory, telling how operations were advised and were not performed; or, if performed, did no good, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was used and good health followed. If you want advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Confidential), Lynn, Mass.

The sale of said mill premises wherein lumber is piled or stored and wherein or whereon logs are boomed or held at the time of such sale shall be subject to the right of the purchaser or purchasers of said lumber and logs to allow the same to remain so upon said premises until a reasonable time for the purchaser or purchasers to remove the same, but not so as to interfere with the boomed or rafting of next year's cut of lumber or with the piling in the mill yards or upon the piling grounds of next year's lumber cut of the Mills. Notice is also hereby given that there will also be sold pursuant to the directions and authority of said Decreeal Order at the Court House in Newcastle in the County of Northumberland on the said twenty-ninth day of November next immediately after the sale of the property above mentioned, the following property that is to say: Also the logs and timber of the said Firm of J. P. Burchill at Nelson, N. B. at Chatham, N. B., for one week prior to the said sale, and may also be seen at the said Court House at the time of said sale, and at which sale said lumber and logs will be sold in one lot or in separate convenient parcels or lots. At which last mentioned sale all parties shall have leave to bid. For terms of sale apply to the undersigned Master. Dated this fifteenth day of September, A. D. 1917. GEORGE SHERBURN, Master of the Supreme Court.

TOWN COUNCIL WANT ROAD LAW CHANGED

Will Invest $25,000 in Victory Bonds and Extend Sewerage up Jane Street to John Witzell's

Newcastle Town Council met in regular monthly session on the 15th. Mayor Morrissey in the chair. Aldermen present: Doyle, Durick, Ritchie, J. Russell, P. Russell, Troy and King'ston. Following bills were passed: Finance Public Works $20.00 H A Russell Police $11.05 D W Stothart Pork & Fire $14.05 D W Stothart Light & Water $16.60 H A Russell Maritime Foundry $13.20 Fraser Ltd 22.62 D W Stothart 90.00 U.I.C.N Advocate .36 Can Oil Co 49.85 I C Coal Mining Co 302.40 I C Coal Mining Co 333.61 Sunner Co 1443.63 J W Maloney $63.55 Can Gen Elec Co 144.70 Can Gen Elec Co 117.56 T McAvity & Son 110.27 $3,262.88 Ald. Troy moved That $20,000 of the town's money now invested in the war loan of last year be converted into twenty year Victory Bonds and that $5,000 be taken from the Town's Savings, Account and invested in the same. This was seconded by Ald Durick and carried. Ald Durick moved That the town extend the Water and Sewerage on Jane Street as far as John Witzell's new house, on the same conditions as were granted to the residents further down the street. This was seconded by Ald King'ston. Ald Ritchie asked if Ald Durick could give any idea of how much it would cost for material. Ald Durick said it would take about 600 feet of pipe. His Worship looked up prices and said that 600 feet of water and sewerage would cost some $1300. Ald Durick said that the town would save some $300 for digging, which the residents served would do themselves. The pipe could be got on credit and appropriation made for it next year. Ald Doyle asked if the Railway authorities were going to do anything about water and sewerage on Jane Street. Ald J Russell said that his latest word from the railway people was that nothing would be done this year but that the matter would be taken up in the spring. Ald Ritchie did not think the council should overrun its appropriation. Ald Troy asked what prospects there were of the Government reimbursing the town for its expenditure when the former should connect its sewerage system with that of Jane Street. His Worship said that the Railway would most likely use the Town sewer and pay a share of its construction. The Railway would have to pay for connection with the McCullum Street sewer anyway, as that was the only outlet available. The motion was carried. That means that the digging is done by the residents served, and the cost of pipe borne by the Town. Ald Durick advocated asking the Legislature to change the law of the Road. In all Canada, but the Maritime Provinces, and in all the U. S. A. vehicles turned to the right, instead of to the left as with us. Auto traffic was so international now that there was grave danger of accidents when one crossed into territory where the Law of the Road was different. Ald Ritchie favored the change and, seconded by Ald Doyle, moved That this Council express itself in favor of legislation directing all vehicles to turn to the right, instead of the left. Carried. Adjourned. The largely signed petition from neighboring residents asking that the town take care of the overflow from the town's well in Mrs Craig's field, was not presented to the council, as the Public Works Committee had attended to that matter before council meeting. The water has been directed down Lounsbury Street into Brown's Brook.

WAR VETERAN SAYS:

"I have served in the British Army for 14 years, in South Africa, India and France. In my occupation of shoeing-smith I have met with a great many accidents, for which I have used various remedies, but never have I used anything that can begin to compare with Zam-Buk. As a healer and preventive of blood-poisoning Zam-Buk is in a class by itself. Every soldier should carry a box of it in his pocket." The above is an extract from a letter received from S. McIlwraith, of the 2nd Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders. For the many injuries incidental to a soldier's life Zam-Buk is certainly invaluable. Nothing so quickly ends pain in a cut, a burn or a sprain, and for chapped hands, cold sores, chibblains and blistered feet it cannot be equalled. NO MORE HIGH PROFITS FROM BACON

The Commission, consisting of G F Henderson, A B Brodie and G F Clarkson, who were appointed to investigate further the business of the William Davies Company, Ltd., of which Sir Joseph Flavelle was a leading partner, and the Matthews-Blackwell Ltd., more particularly the former, having reported that those companies made exceptionally high profits from bacon, it has been arranged that no such profits can be made by any company in the future. Under the terms of the order-in-council, packers in future can make, by way of profit, a maximum of eleven per cent only. They can retain seven per cent clear and one half of their earnings on the money invested between seven and fifteen per cent. Above fifteen per cent all profits are confiscated.

This order-in-council revolutionizes the bacon business, and will be most acceptable to the public.

The Commission found: "That the profits made during the war period were exceptionally high and yielded an extraordinary return upon the capital invested. In the year 1916 the trading profits of the Davies Company were equal to eighty per cent on its investment in packing house plants and retail stores. War taxes, however, are repayable out of these profits. "That these exceptionally high profits were due to an extraordinary expansion in the volume of business done, as well as to an increase in the percentage of profits earned upon sales.

"That the increase in the volume of business done was almost entirely attributed to the export sales, principally to the British war office. These sales yielded a high percentage of profit.

"That in respect of its export business with the British war office, the Davies Company for a considerable period of time, enjoyed the advantage of a fixed minimum selling price, a concession granted, so far as we could learn, to no other packer. It was suggested during the inquiry that this concession might have been obtained by Sir Joseph Flavelle, whose occupancy of a public position would facilitate his so doing. The evidence of Sir Joseph is that he took no part in the negotiations which resulted in the granting of this concession and the cabled correspondence indicates that it resulted from a business negotiation influenced only by business considerations.

"That the present high price of hog products in Canada is primarily due to the high prices paid by packers for live hogs in Canada.

"That, in considering the present price of bacon in Canada, it must be remembered that the packer has to dispose of the whole animal. During the period of the war it would seem that there has been a larger domestic demand for the choicer cuts such as bacon. As the demand for bacon has increased, the demand for the other parts of the animal have lessened in proportion, thus throwing upon the parts from which bacon is manufactured, an unusual proportion of the cost of the whole.

The Commissioners found the Davies Company's profits in the year ending March, 1914 were $15521; the next year $484,631; the next, $1835464; and for the year ending March 31, 1917, they were $1624161. While this latter was 89 per cent on the investment, it was less than 4 per cent in the business done.

"It is noteworthy" continues the report, "that, during the period from August 1916 to February 1917 the Davies Company enjoyed the very distinct advantage over its competitors of having a fixed minimum price, which unquestionably gave it greater assurance in making its purchases of live hogs."

The Davies Company's chief competitor, the Matthews-Blackwell Company was not aware of the concession granted to the Davies Company but had such confidence in the prospect for higher prices in Great Britain that it met the competition of the Davies Company for live hogs with out hesitation.

Dealing with the statements made by a former employee of the Davies Company to the effect that the company adopted a fraudulent system of keeping bacon intended for shipment to the war office known as the "post-cure" the commissioners say that, after a thorough investigation into this subject, no evidence has been adduced which warrants such a suggestion.

The country will be greatly relieved to know that the Union Government has so drastically dealt with the matter of excess profits in these cases, and will have the greatest confidence that the Union administration can be trusted to see that a square deal is given in all lines of business, and that all the energies of the land are given to an honest endeavor to win the war. The hey-day of the extortioner in Canada is at an end.

THE VICTORY LOAN

Money is pouring in for the Victory Loan, showing that our people have the fullest confidence in the government and in ultimate victory. It takes money as well as men to win a war.

THOSE BOOTS WERE GOOD

The Opposition speakers who insinuate that the boots supplied the Canadian forces by Sir Herbert Ames were defective, make a great mistake. All our information, both from the reports of the commission, and from soldiers who have worn these boots—the best evidence possible—is to the effect that Ames supplied good boots. Why make such misstatements?

THEY WILL STAND BY THEIR MEN

There are many ladies who will have a vote in this election—the widows, wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of soldiers. Will they vote to leave their men at the front without any reinforcements, or will they line up solidly for the Union Government that will send 100,000 reinforcements at once.

WHAT MATTERS

Questions of tariff and the dozen of other issues that divided the two parties before the war, while of importance then, are of no consequence now. If Germany wins, she'll set our tariff for us without caring whether it suits us or not. Our business now is to so conduct the war as to obtain a just and honorable and lasting peace. If Canada should quit before the others, what a help both moral and physical to the enemy!

THE WAR

The steady successes of the Allies on the Western front have gradually developed more speed, until the welcome news came this week that the largest and most successful of all British offensives on that front is now in progress. Whatever success the enemy may win on the Roumanian and Albanian fronts the next few days and even in Italy, will not win the war for them. It is on the western front and on the sea that the decision must be won, and in these spheres the Allies are apparently decidedly superior. There is, however, on account of the breaking up of Russia, no sign of an early peace.

The 100,000 young men whom Canada is sending over to Europe as reinforcements to them who have so far borne the brunt of the campaign will all be needed. Great Britain and Ireland and France, our glorious mother countries, need every ounce of help Canada can give. May no result of the coming election be such as to dishearten the brave boys at the front.

OTHER OPINIONS

THE MEANING OF BOURASSAISM.

The Catholic Register, Toronto, is under no illusions as to the meaning of Bourassaism. After analyzing carefully and exposing the fallacies of a recent article in Le Devoir from the pen of the Nationalist leader, The Register says: "Mr Bourassa is using all the talents which God gave him, whether he knows it or not, in the self-assumed task of isolating his native Province, and of turning minds and wills against the service and welfare of their country."

WHAT THEY THINK IN BRITAIN

(Ottawa Journal)

Formation of Union Government in Canada is being acclaimed in Britain as evidence that Canadians are determined to sustain the loyal effort with which they entered upon the war. Thus, the London Times, after a lengthy review of the circumstances which made coalition possible and a splendid tribute to the perseverance and patriotism which Sir Robert Borden displayed through out the long and trying negotiations which preceded Union, concludes:

"The whole effort of Canada will more than ever be concentrated on the work of the war. - The great thing is that the firm resolve of the mass of the Canadians to meet to the utmost all the stern demands of war has been unmistakably revealed."

And the Westminster Gazette, the foremost organ of British Liberalism predicting that Union Government "is certain to carry a large majority of the constituencies in the general election," agrees with the Times that:

"The formation of the coalition is at least a sign that the larger portion of the population of Canada is prepared to devote all its energy to the war and that it will stand at no sacrifice to make good to the end the part it has so gallantly played."

PROFITABLE SHEEP RAISING

There is not the least doubt that Western Canada is steadily building a reputation as a wool-producing country. The opportunities it affords for the profitable breeding and rearing of sheep are unsurpassed in any part of the world. An abundance of suitable food of all kinds is available all over the country, while climatic and other conditions are exceedingly favorable. Almost any line of sheep husbandry may be followed successfully in the Prairie Provinces of Canada. On the range sheep breeding and rearing is an extremely profitable industry, especially in those districts where conditions are not well suited to ordinary agriculture.

That the farmer is more and more realizing the value of a small flock of sheep on his farm is shown by the increasing number of participants at the co-operative wool sales each year. Throughout the west this has been noticed at practically all the sales. In some cases, notably at Calgary, Alberta, there has been a greater number of participants, and less wool offered than last year, but this is due to the fact that the larger breeders have been induced to sell their wool independently, so that practically all the wool offered for sale came from small farmers, who are obtaining as big returns in this line as in any other. At other places there has been an increase, both in the number of participants and in the quality of the wool offered.

It seems safe to say that within a few years the whole world will be looking to Western Canada, and especially to Alberta, for high class sheep. The prices now being obtained for wool by those who were foresighted enough to go in for sheep rearing, either on a large or a small scale, has opened the eyes of farmers all over the west to its possibilities. Those who have small flocks are using every effort to improve the quality of their wool, and larger breeders are leaving nothing undone in their endeavors to improve their stock, and are sparing no expense to this end. One of the leading breeders after trying all over Canada and the United States, and failing also to get what he required in Australia, recently purchased 250 full blooded ewes and 10 full blooded rams of the Romney Marsh breed from England, paying $125 each for the ewes and $500 each for the rams. A few years ago this same breeder brought in several hundred Rambouillet ewes, and later purchased at the Panama-Pacific Exposition some prize winning Romneys. The crossing of these two breeds has produced a strain which, it is claimed, is admirably suited to Western Canada in every way. Altogether, this breeder has spent $100,000 in full blooded stock, which is evidence of his faith in the possibilities of this industry in Western Canada. As to his returns, he had this year 500 ram lambs of the Romney-Rambouillet cross, estimated to be worth between $40 and $50 each, and for which there is a great demand; he has also sent 101,000 pounds of wool to the Government warehouse at Toronto.

The Candidates And Parties

Only 18 Acclamations Many Changes Since Last Election

Nearly all constituencies in Canada have two sets of candidates for the election which will be held on December 17th—Unionists and Laurier Liberals. In some constituencies there are also a few Independent Liberals or Conservatives running.

Six Unionist Liberals, two Unionist Conservatives and ten Laurier Liberals are re-elected by acclamation.

In British Columbia, Alberta, Manitoba and Ontario, there are 7 or 8 Socialist Candidates in the field

A new party, the Independent Labor Party, strongly Socialistic in tendency, formed under the auspices of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, has appeared, and will run candidates in Cape Breton, Montreal Island, Ontario and all the Western provinces, 28 in all, half of whom are in Ontario. There are also four Liberal-Labor Candidates in the field including one in Halifax; and one Unionist-Laborite, in South Brant, Ontario

The Non-Partisan League of the West has three or four in the field, but the main fight will be between the Unionists and Laurierites, the three other parties and the Independents not being expected to develop enough strength this time to materially affect the general result.

Every minister has opposition. Both leaders have candidates against them Sir Robert Borden in Kings, N S, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier in Quebec East and Ottawa. Hon N W Rowell is opposed by a Conservative

It would not appear that many of the ministers are in strenuous danger in some cases their opponents had to be brought in from outside points

Other Features

A feature of the nominations is the fact that General Sir Sam Hughes is opposed by George Isaac, a Liberal in Victoria and Hallburton; W F MacLean who has been continuously in parliament since 1892, failed to secure the convention endorsement in South York and is running as an Independent. Col John Currie, former M P for East Simcoe, is running as a straight Conservative and is opposed by a Liberal Unionist

Hon. Geo P Graham, E M MacDonal and several other Liberal leaders are not running at all

The N B candidates are as follows:

Northumberland—W S Loggie, Unionist; Hon. John Morrissey, Laurier Liberal

Kent—F J Robidoux, Unionist; Auguste T Leger, Laurier Liberal

Carleton-Victoria—Hon F B Carvell is the Union Government candidate; James Porter, Laurier Liberal

Restigouche Madawaska—D A Stewart, Ex-M P P, Campbellton, is the Unionist, and Pius Michaud is the Laurier Liberal

Charlotte—T. A. Hart, Unionist; W. F. Todd, Laurier Liberal.

York-Sunbury—Lieut-Col H F MacLeod, Unionist; Nelson W. Brown, Laurier Liberal.

St John-Albert—Commissioner R W Wigmore and Stanley T Elkin, Unionists; Dr. A. F Emery and Dr W P Broderrick, Laurier Liberals.

The Progress of The Great War

British Have Saken 166,000 Men and 800 Guns During the Struggle.—Recent Events at the Front

Petrograd, Nov.—The all-Russian congress of workmen's and soldiers delegates have chosen a cabinet with Leine as Premier. They are all Bolsheviks, the other parties having withdrawn from the workmen's and soldiers' congress.

London, Nov. 10—With today's smash, Haig has been boring ahead in the "Ypres sector" since September 12, and this is his ninth general assault against the enemy's lines. Every previous blow has resulted as the ultimate objective of the British onslaught. With this city in British hands, one of the main lines of German communications to the coast submarine bases of Zeebrugge and Ostend would be severed. Rulers lies five miles beyond Passchendaele.

Rome, Nov. 10—The Italians have withdrawn beyond the Piave river.

London, Nov. 12—The British have routed the Turks in Palestine. The Turkish casualties have been 12,000 since Nov. 1.

Stockholm, Nov. 13—Premier Kerensky's troops have entered Petrograd, and there is fighting in the streets. The Cossacks are said to be supporting Kerensky.

London, Nov. 13—Berlin reports that 14,000 Italians have been cut off above the mouth of the Piave river. The Austrians occupied five towns between the upper Piave and Brenta rivers.

London, Nov. 15—Since July 1, 1916, the British have captured from the Turks 30,197 prisoners and 186 guns, and from the Germans on the western front, 101,534 prisoners and 519 guns. The approximate square mileage in territory conquered or recovered by the British in the same time is 128,000. The total number of prisoners captured on all fronts since the beginning of the war is 166,000 while the captured guns numbered eight hundred.

London, Nov. 15—On Nov. 12th, General Allenby drove the Turks in Palestine to the Wadi Surar (Brook Kedron of the Bible) eight miles south of Jaffa (Joppe). The Turks lost 1,100 prisoners. The British are now only about 15 miles from Jerusalem.

London, Nov. 15—The Admiralty statement regarding sinkings last week follows:
Arrivals: 2,125; callings: 2,307.
British merchantmen: over 1600 tons sunk by mine or submarine, one; under 16,000 tons, five; fishing vessels sunk, one.
British merchantmen unsuccessfully attacked, including three previously, eight.

Rome, Nov. 16—The Italians have flooded the lower Piave district. All art treasures have been removed from Venice and all but 20,000 of the 160,000 inhabitants have left the city.

Flanders, Nov. 16—The Germans in last two months have exhausted 91 divisions of 16,000 each—1,365,000 men—in vainly defending the Passchendaele ridge. In the previous battle of the Somme they employed 1,290,000 men.

Copenhagen, Nov. 16—Austria-Hungary and Germany will plant the conquered Italian territory. A German civil administration is now being formed in Lithuania (the Russian promises of Grodno, Kovno and Vilva, area 48,000 square miles, most of which has been conquered), and in Courland (area 10,000 square miles), and the conquered parts of the other Russian Baltic province of Livonia.

Petrograd, Nov. 16—Reuter's dispatch says that Maximists' troops have occupied Gatchina, and Premier Kerensky's staff has been arrested. Kerensky fled from arrest, but orders have been issued by wireless for his apprehension. The Maximists' council of commissioners has proclaimed the right of the different peoples of Russia to the self-determination of their form of government including separation and the formation of independent states. The Maximists insist on the inclusion of Nikolai Leine and Leon Trotsky in any composite socialist government and that their party shall have a majority of the portfolios, including the foreign, interior and labor ministries.

Petrograd, Nov. 17—An unconfirmed report says that peace has been definitely declared in Moscow, with victory for the Bolsheviks. The White Guard has been disarmed, and likewise the Military Cadets.

London, Nov. 17—The ground captured by the British last night north and northwest of Passchendaele has been consolidated and held.

London, Nov. 18—Yesterday Jaffa (the seaport of Jerusalem) was occupied by Australian and New Zealand troops, without opposition, the Turks retiring northward.

Thebara In "Heart and Soul"

The Famed Star Has the Leading Role in Stirring Photodrama Founded on Sir Rider Haggard's "Jess"

The first time that khaki clad forms lined up outside of old Fort Marion at St Augustine, Fla. since the Civil War shivers went down the spine of every inhabitant of the Ancient City. That event occurred while Miss Theda Bara, the world-famed William Fox screen star, was engaged in filming the super de luxe photo-drama, "Heart and Soul," founded on "Sir Rider Haggard's "Jess."

As the news spread throughout the town crowds rushed to the plain before the walls. There in the light of the early sun stood a troop of horsemen, mounted. At the head of the column was a figure in khaki. It was Miss Theda Bara, who was to start the wild ride in the photoplay to save two men from execution at the hands of the renegades. She is shot when near her goal and falls wounded from her horse.

From the fort the column lashed through the city and out into the forest. On and on they galloped, led by the great actress until they reached a narrow defile leading to the captured "plantation," a beautiful Hawaiian villa built for the Fox Company in the thick woods.

Never was there such reckless riding as was done by that body of riders. They dashed at top speed down the narrow passage, through the plantation gates and upon the firing squad which was waiting the word to fire. As Miss Bara's horse tore into the foreground a shot was heard. The horse reared and she flung up her arms and dropped to the ground.

When the lamina screen artist arose unhurt the thousands who journeyed from the city of St. Augustine to watch the great scene being made, began applauding. They were joined by the hearty cheers of the soldiers who had witnessed Miss Bara's daring feat.

LORD BEAVERBROOK'S ENERGY

A London letter writer in a New York paper says:
I recently met Lord Beaverbrook, a young Canadian, who has had a meteoric career in England. He was a kind of cement king on the other side and when success over there cast its rainbow hues he came to England. He had made a fortune, and politics attracted him. He tackled a Liberal constituency and won it as a Unionist, was made a knight, then a baronet. With each step up he advanced his aspirations a peg or two. He was up to his eyes in the political crisis which made Lloyd George prime minister, but his particular interest was the advancement of Bonar Law to the leadership of the House. He and Mr Law were born in New Brunswick and both were sons of Presbyterian preachers. They are close friends and political allies. After the new government got firmly in power, the then Sir Max Aitken received a peerage and there was an outcry among the old line nobles that shook the realm.

Beaverbrook is just 38 and a typical successful American business man. He was the Canadian eyewitness who furnished the press an account of the stand made by Canadian troops at Hill 60, Ypres, when poison gas was first used by the Germans. Lord Beaverbrook is one of the small number of men with energy enough to overcome the resistance of an old civilization."

YES! MAGICALLY! CORNS LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of freeze." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.
A few drops of this new ether compound applied directly upon a tender, aching corn should relieve the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, dries up and can be lifted out with the fingers.
This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that, while freeze is sticky, it dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.
Don't let father die of infection or lockjaw from whitening at his corns, but clip this out and make him try it.

GOOD FOOD DEPENDS UPON A GOOD RANGE

No matter how good a cook is she cannot prepare good food on a poor range. If you have a poor range, that makes you feel dull and listless is the result of poor cooking. The draught was bad, the fire too slow, the oven not hot enough, and it was impossible to regulate the heat.

Good health, of prime importance to the breadwinner, depends upon good food, and good food depends upon a good range.

You wouldn't expect your hired man to build a good chicken coop with poor tools. Then don't expect the housewife to prepare good food on a poor range. Own one that will enable her to get the best results.

Of course your common sense will tell you that a first class range will cost more than a poor one, but it is economy in the end to pay more to get the best, because the cost of a range depends largely upon the amount of fuel it burns—the best burns the least fuel. Mr. Morrissy: "Why aren't you at the front?"

The returned soldier replied: "I've been to the front for eighteen months and I am going back again, and not by your help. Applause."

Mr. Morrissy said that he would not object to fighting for his country, but just now he was fighting for votes. He was sorry to see ladies leave as he got up to speak, as they had been a "time when he was a favorite with the ladies. He appealed to all to support him as a supporter of Sir Wilfrid. (Applause)

Mr. Loggie was recalled to the platform but after thanking the audience for asking him to speak again, argued that the hour was late, and he would reply to Mr. Morrissy's allegations at a later date.

On motion of the speakers, a vote of thanks was given the able and impartial chairman.

Had Headache For Two Years

A Barrie Man Tells of Persistent Headaches and Indigestion. Finally Found His way to Good Health

Barrie, Ont. (November 17th)—For two long years the writer of this letter was subject to severe headaches. The nervous system got run down, digestion failed, and there was continued loss of weight.

The use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food changed all this, and now with scores of other Barrie people Mr. Nader is recommending the use of this food cure as the best means of building up the exhausted nervous system and curing headaches, indigestion and all the annoying symptoms of a run-down condition.

Mr. John Nader, 28 Penetang street, Barrie, Ont., writes: "During the last two years I had an attack of indigestion accompanied by severe headaches. I suffered from loss of appetite, and my system became run-down. I also lost considerably in weight. I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and as they helped me I continued this treatment for some time. My condition is now greatly improved, my headaches are gone and my health in general is much better. I can cheerfully recommend the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to those suffering from nervousness of any kind."

As a spring tonic and restorative to overcome tired, languid feelings and build up vitality at this time of year there is nothing to be compared to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Algoma and an Author

Sault Ste. Marie.

If an author can be said to be the product of any particular district—and why not, just as much as a variety of flower, or fruit, or grain?—Alan Sullivan, the distinguished Canadian poet and novelist, should be most properly identified with Algoma that curiously shaped county of Ontario, which stretches from the cities and settlements of the shores of Lake Huron and Lake Superior, up through the 2,900 square miles of the Missisauga Forest Reserve, to the great furtrading territories three hundred and sixty miles north, where it is bounded by the Albany River, the chief tributary of James Bay. The southern shores of this county were colonized some thirty years ago at the instance of C. P. R. agents, by hardy pioneers from the older counties of Kinross and Bruce, but the city of Sault Ste. Marie has its roots in the remoter past, as it was a trading post for the voyageurs, who travelled for the furtraders of Montreal into the far West.

Alan Sullivan.

Alan Sullivan, whose father was Bishop of the Algoma Diocese, was at one time engineer of the work of construction and blasting the Algoma branch of the C. P. R. between Sudbury and the Sault Ste. Marie, and uses the local color in several of his short stories. "It was fascinating," he says, "in those days to watch the psychological effect of the arrival of the track, or even of the survey party on the settlers. They brightened up, and looked at their farms with new eyes. They were in touch with the world that heretofore had seemed so distant." The bush fires, the miners,

NOMINATION DAY SPEECHES IN OPERA HOUSE MONDAY

W. S. Loggie, The Unionist Standard Bearer, and Hon. John Morrissey, Laurier Liberal Candidate, Address Electors.--Latter Taken to Task Frequently for Alleged Mis-Statements.

At the Court House on Monday two candidates were nominated to contest the county for federal honors—W. S. Loggie for the Unionists, his nomination papers being filed by Howard Fleiger of Chatham; and Hon. John Morrissey for the Laurier Liberals, W. L. Durick of Newcastle filing his papers. A. A. Davidson acted as Mr Loggie's legal advisor. Geo. M. McDade was Clerk of the Court.

The candidates addressed a crowded meeting in the Opera House in the afternoon. Councilor E. J. Parker of Derby presided.

W. S. Loggie

Mr W. S. Loggie was the first speaker. He thanked the electors for their support for the last fourteen years and the Liberal party of Northumberland, to which he had been consistently loyal. During the last parliament unprecedented conditions had arisen. As the county's representative he had been called to Ottawa in 1914 to see what could be done in Canada's interests in this great war. It was the unanimous decision of parliament that when England was at war so was Canada, and our homes and rights and liberties must be defended. It was decided to send troops across with the greatest possible speed. Liberals and Conservatives joined hands, and all was done voluntarily, some 32,000 men being on the ocean in a few weeks.

We gloried in the voluntary enlistment—both England and Canada—and our boys kept on enlisting in defence of liberty. Then came a day in England when enlistment was not up to the standard, and notice was given that if men did not volunteer as fast as needed some method of coercion would be necessary. So the selective draft was enforced. For two years, however, Canada filled her ranks voluntarily. Then came a day that voluntary enlistment fell short—we were not keeping up with our losses. On May 14th last, there were but three divisions of Canadians on the firing line—some 81,000 men, and about 61,000 effectives in England—total, exclusive of men in hospitals, under arms, etc., 142,000 men. The casualties were 10,000 per month. Both political parties had sent the men to the front. Was it not our duty to see that they were supported?

The Military Service Act had been thoroughly discussed in the parliament, and in supporting it he had used his best judgment. The military service act did not introduce any new principle. A similar law was in force since 1868, and the Fathers of Confederation had promised that Canada should do her duty by Britain should aid ever be required. As amended by the then Liberal government after the Boer War, all men between 18 and 45 were liable to be taken in defence of Canada. These would be selected by ballot by which men needed most at home might be drawn for the front. The government could easily have brought this law into operation by order-in-council. But the new law was not to take men at random, but to take them by selective draft. He thanked God that Canada had never before needed to put such a law into force, but how are we to get men now if they do not volunteer? We sent men overseas in the interest of our homes and did it under the volunteer system.

Suppose Germany had taken Paris and Havre. What about the shores of England? We should now be under German rule, but thank God, the Canadians stopped the progress of the German army. A German high in authority had said, "If it were not for the Canadian rats we should have been in Paris." (Applause.)

The speaker was in Chatham when the Military Service bill was introduced in Ottawa. Before that, when discussing the budget on the floors of the house, he had suggested that the Liberal and Conservative leaders get together and devise a means of getting men by volunteer system or otherwise as they thought best, but when he returned to Ottawa he was surprised at the stand the Opposition had taken in the matter. He had heard the bill discussed until July and failed to see why he should change his opinion on the matter. The selective draft law was introduced in England without an election, without even a referendum, and he had never heard any complaints that it was an unfair law. He considered that the men of Canada were fighting in the interests of their own homes on the battlefields of Flanders as well as were the soldiers of England. He had voted against a referendum because a referendum meant delay, and perhaps would have been defeated by two votes. The situation in which Australia found herself might have reproduced itself in Canada. Today Australia is taking another referendum on conscription.

The Laurier government had taken a referendum on Prohibition but had failed to put it into force because of the opposition of Quebec. What guarantee have we that he would enforce the Military Service Act if elected by the majority of Canada but not by Quebec?

He had disagreed with the Liberal leader on principle. Nothing else was proposed to get men as an alternative to the Military Service bill. The country was in jeopardy then, and he believed that it is in jeopardy now.

Under the selective draft system the men are to be taken if they can be spared. If men are needed on the farm, in munition factories and other industries, they are left. Sir Wilfrid had proposed persuasion, but persuasion had not got the men in the past, and it would not do so now. Persuasion did not fill the bill. He was open to conviction if anyone could show him where we can get the men to fill up the gaps without the Military Service Act.

For fourteen years he had been a faithful follower of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, but he felt that the leader was wrong this time.

All our laws are laws of force. If a man does not pay his debts, the law of force is used, likewise in collecting his taxes. Our homes are now in jeopardy, and we cannot get any more boys to go to France. Then we must use the law of force to protect our homes, our liberties, and the boys who are giving their lives for us.

He stood as a Liberal supporting the Union government until after the war. He had not renounced his liberalism to support the Union Government. Hon. W. S. Fielding had been nominated in support of Union Government. The Ontario Liberal Association had endorsed the Military Service Act and Union Government.

I was a man of Country before party principle before party. The one question for the electors to consider is: Shall we have the men who can be spared in the front to support the boys who have given their lives? Shall we have the men who have given their lives to the front? Are we not to have boys to fill up the gaps they have made? He would discuss tariff and other matters, but the only issue before the people was to do their duty. The Liberal party.

A voice—The Laurier party!

The Laurier party, then, would bring in other issues, to cloud the main issue. If they believed him he would appeal to them for support. There was no Conservative party now. The loyal Liberals had merged themselves with the loyal Conservatives, and they were now the Unionist party, who believe in enforcing the Military Service Act.

He believed we were in duty bound to support the boys at the front. He meant every word he had spoken. He appealed with confidence to the ladies who, for the first time, had a vote for the Dominion Parliament—those whose dear brother, husband, son or father had gone overseas, or who had laid down his life in France, doing his duty. Duty calls for every woman who has a vote to cast that vote for the boys who have gone from Northumberland. He appealed with confidence, and trusted that Northumberland will roll up such a large majority that the grand old county will show all Canada that she will back up the boys she has sent to the front. (Great applause.)

Hon. Mr. Morrissey

Hon. Mr. Morrissey said that there were other matters of as great importance as winning the war. There was not a man in Canada that was not in favor of winning the war. But should men be made to go and fight, whether they wanted to do so or not? We are a democratic people, and a Laurier government would not force men without consulting the people.

A voice—Laurier is Quebec.

Hon. Mr. Morrissey—Not Laurier is Canada. Mr. Morrissey (ayed Flavell) and other speakers. One committee had had Flavell as their member. Sir Wilfrid had appointed a committee for conscription, but when considering the evidence of the first committee, the same as the first had done, Sir Wilfrid had done, Sir Wilfrid had done, Sir Wilfrid had done.

Sir Wilfrid had done, Sir Wilfrid had done, Sir Wilfrid had done, Sir Wilfrid had done, Sir Wilfrid had done, Sir Wilfrid had done.

A voice—The Laurier party!

He believed we were in duty bound to support the boys at the front. He meant every word he had spoken. He appealed with confidence to the ladies who, for the first time, had a vote for the Dominion Parliament—those whose dear brother, husband, son or father had gone overseas, or who had laid down his life in France, doing his duty.

continuing, said the government had sent men to the front with rifles, but not with boots.

Mr. Morrissey asked Mr. Morrissey what he would do regarding conscription.

Mr. Morrissey replied that conscription was now the law of the land, and he was not going to touch upon it. If they take all the men from the district that they propose taking, there will be a famine next year. There will be no one to harvest the crops.

Mr. Morrissey replied that conscription was now the law of the land, and he was not going to touch upon it.

Mr. Morrissey replied that no one wanted the Germans here.

Mr. Morrissey said that we wanted to protect Canada, and if we are going to do all our men out of Canada we are going to protect us at home.

Why doesn't the government contribute the wealth of the country to the soldiers made by Flavell, Albert and Ames? When they could be able to pay our men more than $1.10 per day. It is not enough to take the food out of their mouths. There isn't a woman in the county that does not know the results to conscription, and I feel in France.

Hon. Mr. Morrissey—A man may be poor and a workman, but he (Morrissey) would not change places with the robbers at Ottawa. Elect Laurier candidates, put Laurier in power, and the country will get fair and honorable treatment at Ottawa. He (Morrissey) had always taken an active part in the affairs of Newcastle. No man had ever done more for Newcastle than he did. If the people voted for him (Morrissey) and elected him, he would do all that he could. He would work in the interests of the county. Mr. Loggie has been to Ottawa for fourteen years and had never done anything. He hoped that all would live to see the termination of the war. It was every man's duty to fight or pay. The reason why Quebec had not enlisted as well as other provinces, was probably that Ontario had a munition factory in every little hamlet, while Quebec had only one.

HOW ONE FARMER KEPT HIS BOY ON THE FARM

A drainage inspector in a Canadian province once visited a certain farmer and found him not only in possession of a good house, with modern sanitary equipment, but he and his family were enjoying the occupation of the best rooms in the house. On being asked why he did not live in the kitchen like his neighbors, and why he looked so much after the comforts of his home, he replied that he wanted to keep his boy on the farm, and that he could not expect to do so if he did not provide him with home comforts equal to those enjoyed by people of equal means and rank of life in the city. There is more sound philosophy in the method of that farmer than is found between the covers of many text books on rural development. —From Rural Planning and Development.

HIS LAST VOYAGE

Ludlow, N. B. Nov. 12th, 1917
The following is the diary kept by Pte Aubrey L. Price of Ludlow while crossing the ocean. He died at Bramshot, England, December 25th 1916.
Oct. 26th 1916. 132nd Battalion, left Sussex at 3 o'clock in the morning, reached Amherst at six, had breakfast at Truro, and reached Halifax between one and two, left the train, and went to the wharf, went on board the ship, and had our supper, and then went to bed. Our ship left Halifax harbor at six, accompanied by seven boats.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your hair! Get a small bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.
Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually causing the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.
Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!

Oh! My! That Smells Good!
And, madam, you should just smell the fragrance of crushed coffee after it is brewed. And the flavor of it! Well, you never tasted ground coffee with a flavor just like Red Rose Coffee. Coffee critics, those who have travelled far and wide and tasted coffees in various climes, tell us they have never tasted more delicious coffee. Some have even said—but we will refrain from printing such high praise. We prefer you to try Red Rose Crushed Coffee without revealing anything further as to its quality. We don't want to take all the edge off the surprise in store for you when you try it. And the same price it was three years ago. 676

Red Rose Coffee

Oct. 27th
Had breakfast at seven. At nine the Assembly blew, and all went on deck, all we could see was one man of war, the sea was calm, yet many were sick, had dinner at twelve, went on deck again at two, had physical drill, dismissed at four. There are two man of war boats with us now, and a cruiser was sighted afar off, had supper at five o'clock.
Oct. 28th
Got up at six o'clock, had breakfast at seven, went on deck, had roll call at nine, and again in the afternoon at two. had dinner, supper, at the same time as usual.
Oct. 29th
This being Sunday we had church parade, at half past nine, on deck. The weather was rougher than before, but nothing out of the way happened Oct. 30th.
Went on guard at nine o'clock, was on guard two hours and off four, got paid in the afternoon five dollars. The sea was still rough, but I was not sea sick.
Oct 31st.
Came off guard at nine o'clock; fell in for roll call at ten; met a ship, was not very handy, but could see she was flying the Union Jack. After dinner went on deck, and then again after supper.
The time is changing twenty-five minutes a day.
Nov. 1st
The day was clear, and calm. It being a holy day, there was church for both Roman Catholics and Protestants.
Nov. 2nd
The sea was calm, I was on guard again today, the winds commenced to blow again towards night.
Nov 3rd
The sea was rough. In the morning the lights could be seen from the light-house tower off the coast of Ireland.

AUTOINTOXICATION OR SELF-POISONING

The Dangerous Condition Which Produces Many Well Known Diseases.

HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THIS TROUBLE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" — The Wonderful Fruit Medicine — will Protect You

Auto-intoxication means self-poisoning, caused by continuous or partial constipation, or insufficient action of the bowels.

Instead of the refuse matter passing daily from the body, it is absorbed by the blood. As a result, the kidneys and skin are overworked, in their efforts to rid the blood of this poisoning.

Poisoning of the blood in this way often causes indigestion, loss of appetite and disturbed stomach. It may produce headaches and sleeplessness. It may irritate the kidneys and bring on pain in the back, rheumatism, gout, and rheumatic pains. It is the chief cause of eczema — and keeps the whole system unhealthy by the constant absorption into the blood of this refuse matter.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always cure auto-intoxication or self-poisoning — as "Fruit-a-tives" acts gently on bowels, kidneys and skin, strengthens the bowels and tones up the nervous system. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Fannie Ward in "The Crystal Gazer"

In one of the most unique and thrilling photodramas in which she has ever appeared Fannie Ward will be seen at the Happy Hour on Friday and Saturday in the Lasky-Paramount production of "The Crystal Gazer," a picture written by Marian Fairfax of Eve Unsell and Edna Riley's gripping story.
"The Crystal Gazer" has to do with Rose and Norma Jorgensen. Their mother, living in a poverty-stricken tenement, commits suicide and Rose is adopted by Judge and Mrs Keith, while Norma is taken over by Mrs Dugan, a woman of the tenements. From then on they are known under their adopted names. Rose becomes a social favorite, but Norma falls into the clutches of Calistro, a charlatan hypnotist. Under his guidance she becomes a hypnotic subject and Calistro is taken up by fashionable society. At a social entertainment Calistro notices the resemblance between Rose and Norma. The girls do not know each other and Calistro secures information to prove that they are both the daughters of a condemned murderer. With this he confronts Rose and she realizing her position, breaks her engagement with Dick Alden, a young millionaire, and flees to Bermuda. Dick, on account of the resemblance, is filled with pity for Norma, and begins to make love to her. How Rose returns and affairs are finally straightened out, is brought about in a most unusual and gripping manner. The cast supporting Miss Ward is one of unusual excellence. Also Chaplin Comedy.

Remember Theda Bara in "Heart and Soul," next Thursday night.

EDITORIAL

Such is the leading opinion of the Motherland today. Let Canadians ask themselves what that opinion would be, if, through partisanship or slackness or war weariness, they placed in office Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the anti-war forces and influences that surround him, thereby renouncing Union and all that Union stands for?

A CRIMINAL PRETEXT

(From the Toronto News)
In seeking to distract public attention from the war to the cost of living, Sir Wilfrid Laurier has said that bacon retails at a lower price in Great Britain than in this country. The Canadian Food Controller has been able to show from British cables that this is absolutely untrue. Pro-German propagandists in the United States are trying to check agricultural production and to stir up unreasonable public feeling over the high prices of food. There is no doubt that such agencies are at work in the Dominion and that they are using public men and a section of the press for this purpose. While profiteering must be eliminated with a strong hand, it is criminal to pretend that present prices are not mainly due to the withdrawal of millions of workers from the land and to the consequent reduction in the output of food.

Serious Illness Avoided

Mrs. H. Blanche, St Pamphile, Que. writes:—"I have obtained great results from the use of Baby's Own Tablets. They are the only medicine I know of that can depend upon to promptly cure bowel and stomach troubles." The Tablets never fail to relieve the little one and besides the mother has the guarantee of a government analyst that they are absolutely safe. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. Brockville, Ont.
