

A ST. JOHNS WARD TRAGEDY

MANUEL CURR STABBED TO DEATH BY EDWARD STREET.

A Newspaper Pressman's Fatal End in the Early Morning—Six Persons Under Arrest—Evidence in the Inquiry.

A fatal stabbing affray, which is still shrouded in deep mystery, was committed in Edward street about a block yesterday morning. The victim is Samuel Carr, aged about 37, a laborer, who has been working in the sewers and other city works for a number of years.

About 4.10 a.m. a young man named Wm. A. Mitchell of 39 Baldwin street, who is employed as a pressman in the News office, was proceeding to work along Edward street. His usual custom was to walk to 93 in that thoroughfare and walk a few blocks to the News office. On the opposite No. 118—which is between Chestnut and Centre streets, on the north side—he stepped into a pool of blood, and examining the sidewalk more closely discovered that bloody tracks were to be seen at intervals leading to the east. By actual measurement, ninety-six yards eastward he found the body of a man lying on the north side of the sidewalk.

The body lay against a whitewashed fence on one side of a lane leading to a yard. It was covered with blood and Mitchell could hear the gurgle of blood in the dying man's throat as he gasped for breath. The man was unable to speak. He immediately notified Mr. Leak, and they in turn notified Police Constables Munn, Robert Slemm and M.D. Smith, who were on their way home from duty. The officers saw at a glance that the man had been stabbed, a gaping wound being visible four inches below the throat. The jugular vein having been completely severed. Dr. A. Macdonald of 202 1/2 Avenue Street was summoned, and he arrived at the man was gasping in the throes of death, and expired immediately.

Detective Reburn, who was on duty at police headquarters, was notified, and an indefatigable officer was engaged on the case until last night.

Three persons were placed under arrest, and three witnesses of the scene are held as material witnesses. No. 118, Edward street, opposite to where the pool of blood was found, has been occupied since the 1st of July by Hattie Jeffrey as a house of prostitution. She and two of her girls named Georgina Woods and Minnie O'Brien are detained in custody. The girl O'Brien was arrested in Grand's lively stable at 6 o'clock last night after an afternoon's busy driving. The other persons in custody are John Flavy, a plasterer's laborer, who boarded with Carr at George Elliott's house, 150 Elizabeth street; Mary Cross, who lives at 143 of the same street, and William Neal, a laboring man. As yet there is little or nothing against any of the prisoners.

Coroner Johnston opened an inquest at the morgue last night, when several witnesses were examined. Samuel Dray, of the Customs, West Market street, made foreman, and fourteen respectable and intelligent citizens were impanelled with him. The jury viewed the body, which was deposited on a marble slab in the dead-room. All of the left side of the clothing was fairly saturated with blood, and remains were removed from her apron, laboring man, with brown overalls, heavy boots and beside them lay a heavy cap. The face was cleanly shaven, and a closely-clipped mustache adorned the upper lip. The thumb of the right hand is missing, which is said to have been cut off by the murdered man, in order to secure his discharge from the English navy.

OVERDRAWN ACCOUNTS. A Revelation in regard to the Failure of the Penn Bank.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 27.—Several accounts in the Penn bank are overdrawn for large sums. Among the accounts is one of D. Wilson & Co. which shows over-checking to the amount of $240,000. No such firm is known and it is supposed the account represents a number of persons lately operating on the wrong side of the oil market, and who were allowed to draw to the extent named.

A director states the account of one prominent oil dealer is overdrawn $97,000. These two accounts represent more than the entire capital and surplus of the bank.

New York's Stock and Cotton Exchange. NEW YORK, May 27.—At the annual meeting of the produce exchange to-day the treasurer's report gave the total estimated expense of the new buildings at $3,238,000. The annual address of the president congratulated the exchange upon its brilliant prospects. The annual income, exclusive of membership dues, is estimated at $200,000 net. An annual surplus of $75,000 is anticipated. A change to-day the treasurer reported that the finances were in a flourishing condition. The reconstruction for the year amounted to 422,000 bales as against 506,000 bales last year.

Greenbackers for Butler. NEW YORK, May 27.—Donnell, Lawson & Simpson, brokers, who failed in the recent panic, will probably soon resume. Most of their creditors have accepted the proposition made by the firm, the assets being rapidly converted into available funds by the assignee.

Indianaapolis, May 27.—The attendance at the greenback national convention which meets here to-morrow is unexpectedly large. There are now about five hundred delegates here and the managers expect two hundred more. All indications point to the nomination of Butler.

The Ottawa Postmaster's Report. OTTAWA, May 27.—The report goes that it is probable that Senator Skead will accept the postmastership at $2000 a year. As for the vacant senatorship, the fight lies between Mr. Clemond, Dr. Grant, and Mr. John Rochester, with odds in favor of the first mentioned.

ABOUT CANADIAN BANKS

THE DANGEROUS WORK THAT SOME OF THEM ARE ENGAGED IN.

They Should Not Lend on Their Own Stocks—$15,000,000 at Risk—Some of the Banks on the Street—Double Liability Clause.

Our Toronto correspondent writes as follows: The crash in Wall street caused no sensible reprobation here. Bankers were tired and some whiffing was done to keep up courage. The banks' stocks made by far too conspicuous a figure on our exchange, and inside buying generally goes on in case of a decline. The amount of stocks of one kind or another that are being carried on margin in Montreal and Toronto cannot be less than $15,000,000, and of these the majority are bank stocks. It is very difficult to tell from the late of shareholders in the bank who are the real owners. About one-half the stock of two Toronto banks is held in trust. This probably means that the stock was never paid up in the regular way, but that the persons put their names down for it, and when it came to be treated as paid up, somebody was found to lead the securities on the dollar upon it.

In the first instance the bank probably made the advance, in which case the securities of new issues, and the strength of the bank. At this stage it becomes important to find an outside lender on margin who will advance 50 per cent of the face value. Now by k-to-which are apparently absorbed almost as soon as they are issued, have been in the case of two banks loaned upon by the banks themselves, though the operation is contrary to law. In some form or other one-half the stock of two Toronto banks is on the street out of investment, and who but it was held by bona fide investors it is difficult to say. What is important is to know to what extent the banks have advanced their own stocks, and to what extent they have been relieved by outsiders coming in as lenders. On this point it is impossible to get any precise information. What is certain is that for some weeks stocks have been declining in price, and margins being wiped out the lenders have often been left with the securities on their hands. This is as likely to have happened to the banks which do this kind of business—they are not numerous—as to individuals. Saving that is good for them, and at least one of them is in possession of stocks of which the present market value is far less than the amount loaned upon them. On the $15,000,000 of stocks of different kinds which are being loaned about on margin here, the losses during the last week must have been very heavy. One bank stock has gone down in two years from 175 to 125. The manager of this bank has been heavily concerned in the speculation that has sent the stock up and down. Lending by a bank on the security of its own stocks is a practice which was formed to act as intermediary, as if what cannot be done directly could be done indirectly. This is the case with the directors of last summer borrowed $2,000,000, its whole capital being $1,500,000, and a large part of one-half of that was contributed by the bank itself. The bank had debited against the directors. There was no doubt about the amount loaned to the directors, for it appears on the statement sent to the bank's officers to the government. Though no catastrophe followed this remarkable way of doing business, and though so far as is known there was no reason to fear any recent events in Wall street add new proof that the practice is full of peril.

As a rule there is too much borrowing by Canadian bank directors from the banks they control. Out of a capital of a little over $1,000,000, the directors of one bank have borrowed $8,000,000, and $9,000,000. This $81,000,000 must, in reality, be reduced by the amount, not ascertainable, which, in the face of the law, has been loaned on their own stocks, so that the percentage of directors' borrowings is larger than it appears. The case of one bank is a good illustration of this. A director states the account of one prominent oil dealer is overdrawn $97,000. These two accounts represent more than the entire capital and surplus of the bank.

A Hamilton couple divorced. HAMILTON, May 27.—Frank M. White, whose domestic affairs were brought prominently before the public here some time ago, owing to discussions between himself and the wife of his bosom, has again come before the public. The divorce court of Michigan has granted a divorce to his wife Minnie and given her the charge of the two children.

The New York Horse Show. NEW YORK, May 27.—The second annual exhibition of the national horse show association which opened here this morning is attracting a large attendance equally of men and of women.

THE REBELS ROUTED

Victory for the Government at Belegard—A Message from London.

London, May 27.—It is reported that Turkey will participate in the Egyptian conference on condition that the question of protectorate or annexation be not mentioned. The Sultan agrees to send 15,000 troops if he is permitted to co-operate in Upper Egypt and the Sudan.

The governor of Dongha telegraphed to Cairo that he has visited the disturbed districts and persuaded the people to remain quiet. He engaged to pay the military and civil salaries of the thousand troops sent him.

As the common-to-day Gladstone again declared the Egyptian conference would be limited to a discussion of the financial situation. In the lords to-day Granville said the total defeat of the rebels in the Egyptian Turkish troops in connection with the British army for the reconquest of the Sudan.

Pasha has, at the request of England, sent a servant to Khartoum with letters insisting upon General Gordon's return. The messenger will return in fifty days.

The governor of Dongha has taken Debeli. He completed a peace by the total defeat of the rebels in the Egyptian Turkish troops in connection with the British army for the reconquest of the Sudan.

Freemasonry in Italy. ROME, May 27.—The issue of the recent encyclical against secret societies gives special interest to some piquant revelations made not long since with regard to the organization of the Italian Freemasons. They have, it appears, three centers—Naples, Rome and Turin. The Roman center, though it affects to speak with authority on behalf of Italian masonry, is far less important than the other two. The Naples center are more "advanced" than the Neapolitan masons, by whom, about a year ago, they were solemnly excommunicated. They are better disciplined, however, are more hard to oust the Romans from the position they hold in the center of Italy, and they will probably succeed.

Lord Granville Will Resign. LONDON, May 27.—It is reported that Lord Granville will resign his position as secretary of state for foreign affairs on the dissolution of parliament on account of his falling and becoming so deaf to conduct the business of the office.

The Father of Forty-nine Children. PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 27.—Edward Wilson, colored, the oldest citizen in Pittsburgh, died here to-day, aged 105 years. He had been the father of forty-nine children.

No Stock in Clinton's Wisdom. LONDON, May 27.—At a liberal meeting in Leeds to-day a resolution was adopted expressing confidence in the motives and integrity of Gladstone. The word wisdom was also in the resolution as an original motto for the meeting, and they struck it out.

Exponent of an Infirmary. LONDON, May 27.—The daughter and prospective heiress of Crawshaw Bailey, one of the wealthiest iron masters in Wales, has eloped with Gordon Canning, a catholic. The young lady's governess is also a catholic, gave her away, and she is better disciplined, however, are more hard to oust the Romans from the position they hold in the center of Italy, and they will probably succeed.

Shady Bank Transactions. NEW YORK, May 27.—A meeting of the Wall street annual bank charged with over certifying the checks of Cecil Ward & Co., United States Commissioner Griffiths to-day decided to hold the defendants, Thos. W. Evans, Cornelius F. Simpson and Ed. D. DuBois. The checks were not certified, but accepted, which the commissioner thought was more obnoxious to the evident intent and spirit of the law than the certified checks.

FISH BLAMES FERDINAND

THE BANK PRESIDENT DENOUNCED BY FISHING.

Liabilities of the Grants—Condition of the West Side Bank—Another Fishy Fragment of the Panic.

New York, May 27.—James D. Fish, vice chairman of the Erie, has been last evening reiterated the assertion that he was innocent of any wrong-doing. He declared he had not misappropriated a dollar, and that he was ruined and penniless. He may have been a stupid and foolish man, but he was not a robber. He had been most shamefully deceived by Ward, and was completely in the dark as to the rotten condition of the firm. Ward told him the government contracts were secured through the special favor of Gen. Grant, Senator James R. Smith, a director of the Chaffee, President Arthur, and other persons high in political life, and that they were sharing the profits. He had not the least inkling that a crash was at hand. Ward is still in jail, and spends a great part of his time preparing his statement. It was reported last night that John C. Eno was sick at his residence here, and that an officer was in the house with him. The strikers in the assignments of Frederick D. Grant and Jesse R. Grant were filed to-day. The schedules of Frederick D. Grant show liabilities of $2,216,000, and assets nominally $1,890,000, actual worth unknown. Schedules in the assignment of Jesse R. Grant show liabilities to be $95,000, assets nominally $131,000.

United States District Attorney Root lodged a warrant for the arrest of F. J. C. Eno, who is at Ludlow street jail, on complaint of Bank Examiner Serbia who charges that Ward aided President J. D. Fish in misappropriating the Erie's funds. The affidavit recites the same facts as that in the case of Fish, giving the amounts drawn out of the bank by Grant and Ward as $75,000.

Returned to Work. FALL RIVER, Mass., May 27.—The striking spinners at the Eastman mill returned to work this morning. The end of the present week will find the striking spinners at work again if the strikers strike last 16 weeks wages and pay from $10,000 to $15,000, the accumulation of four years, and $10,000 more contributed by the mill. The strikers who are now desirous of returning to work find their old places filled. Those who have made the mill a generous gift of $10,000 to the mill, and who have had to find new work. The loss in wages has been over $200,000, and falls directly upon the shoulders of the city. Business has also received a severe blow.

Shady Bank Transactions. NEW YORK, May 27.—A meeting of the Wall street annual bank charged with over certifying the checks of Cecil Ward & Co., United States Commissioner Griffiths to-day decided to hold the defendants, Thos. W. Evans, Cornelius F. Simpson and Ed. D. DuBois. The checks were not certified, but accepted, which the commissioner thought was more obnoxious to the evident intent and spirit of the law than the certified checks.

New York Stocks. NEW YORK, May 27.—The stock market manifested more strength to-day than for a good many weeks. The upward turn in prices from about 11 o'clock yesterday to 12 o'clock recovered nearly the whole of last week's decline except in Jersey Central. The experience of yesterday and to-day showed that the low ebb in prices had run its course and though there will be a reaction from the present advance it will be as the case of the Erie, and will be already made except in a few cases.

Suspension of a Bank at Hot Springs. NEW SPRINGS, Ark., May 27.—The National bank here has suspended. A warrant was issued for the arrest of President Bruno, charged with falsifying the bank's accounts. He could not be found. One of the directors said if the bank's assets are properly handled they will pay all depositors without assessment but leave the stockholders nothing.

Working the Negro Vote. ATLANTA, Ga., May 27.—Much complaint has arisen in this state over the removal of efficient railway postal clerks and the substitution of illiterate negroes in their places. The removals have been general and to such extent that the attention of congress will be called to the matter and an investigation doubtless ensue.

Traders and Travelers' Union. NEW YORK, May 27.—A meeting of the stockholders of the recently organized Traders and Travelers' union to-day, seventy-four firms were represented. The officers elected were: General manager, Russell P. Hoyt, of E. S. Jeffrey & Co.; secretary, John V. Carey; auditor, J. W. Steward, of G. V. Corlies & Co.

Killed His Wife's Servant. ATLANTA, May 27.—In Fulton county, a few days ago, Thomas Elliott crushed Charles Smith's skull with a brick because he had seduced his wife. The affair has created a sensation, as the parties are prominent church members.

Good Templars Gathering. WASHINGTON, May 27.—The grand lodge of good templars, representing 250,000 members from all parts of the world, convened to-day in their thirtieth annual session.

MURDER AT DETROIT

A Confession Made After a Queen's Coronation—A Fatal Encounter.

DETROIT, May 27.—Thomas Britton, a noted confidence man, was shot and killed last night in the bar-room of Charles Parker's restaurant, in this city. The tragedy followed an encounter between himself and Arthur Constidine, a local crook. There had been a feud of long standing between the two, which culminated in Britton's murder by a friend of Constidine's named Hickey. Last evening Britton, accompanied by a younger brother, came into the bar-room. Presently Constidine came in, and Britton stepped up to him, asked him whether he had threatened to break his jaw, at the same time striking a blow at Constidine, who struck back. The two clenched, and a scuffle ensued. While the struggle was in progress, Hickey came running into the room, made a rush for Britton. He had a revolver in his hand with the butt of which he struck Britton on the head several times. He then fired at him, and Britton fell to the floor and died in a short time. Hickey escaped by the back door, and was afterwards seen on the ferry crossing to Canada. He is 22 years old, five feet seven inches high, with a smooth face and a very well dressed. Constidine is under arrest.

Shocking Condition of Matters in New York State—An Official Report. ALBANY, N. Y., May 27.—Inspector Arthur Hollick's report to the state board of health shows a shocking condition of matters at Biltmore, Quebec county. In one place there are four or five hundred cattle housed and fed on distillery waste fattening for slaughter. One of them is diseased with pleuropneumonia. In another place there were five cases of acute pleuropneumonia in the stables, and three outside were just dying. They had been milked, and the milk was distributed to customers. In another stable out of 126 cows nine were diseased. Outside the city limits are several dairies with about the same percentage of disease. The Brooklyn commissioner suspects that when the diseased cows are no longer able to furnish milk they are slaughtered and smuggled to New York and Brooklyn for food.

The Bell organ company band, Guelph, has purchased a number of new instruments, and have now twenty five of superior class. A team of D battery, Kingston, ran away Thursday and knocked down an old lady, Mrs. Snaout, who is not expected to recover from the injuries received.

Nelson Phipps, Camboro, near Dunville, was arrested for stealing oats from a neighbor, being farmer, Hugh Crawford. He gave bonds of $800 to appear at next assizes. Albion's steel works at Yale, E. C. were burned May 17, with a loss of $75,000. A Chinese employe was roasted to a cinder. The proprietor was badly burned.

Mrs. Wm. McNaughton was arrested at St. Thomas, and taken back to London for stealing gold earrings, brooch, gold locket and chain from W. T. Humphreys of the London house. The bishop of Algoma ordained in St. George's church, Montreal, Rev. Robert W. Plante, a young Englishman who came out with his lordship, to undertake duty as a missionary in Algoma.

Prescott is down on the Scott act, and the citizens think they have good reason to be as the town has two breweries and one distillery, which give employment to a large number of men, and keep the town alive.

J. A. Whelpley of Greenwich, N. B., has invented a three-wheeled vehicle which can be turned with absolute safety in its own length. A carriage has already been decided to introduce the invention in their works. At London east Monday a boy threw a lighted firecracker at a son of Wesley Bowyer, he struck him in the face and exploded, injuring one of his eyes to such an extent that it is feared the sight will be destroyed.

The Boboysgon Independent man settles the whole matter of female suffrage and dress reform in his usual terse and brilliant style. This journal will yield on the subject of the franchise—but pause—no, sir, never. A deputation of Kingston civic officials and merchants pointed out to Sir John Macdonald on Thursday that the city would be ruined unless the tolls were removed on the St. Lawrence canal trade. Sir John promised favorable consideration. The Niagara falls are feeling sore because the annual drill of the volunteer camp is to be held at Toronto this year. One newspaper correspondent says it is a good thing other places can't steal the river or they would take it away, too.

It has been said that great statements are incapable of attending to the necessary petty details of everyday life, but the Boboysgon Independent proves that such is not the case. He concludes a powerful article on Henry George's land theories with the announcement: Life is short, the bass are biting ravenously, butcher's meat is fifteen cents a pound, and so we are off falling. Wednesday a woman tried to leave a deformed boy at Victoria hotel and Dr. Tripp, Guelph, while she went on the train with the child. She got to Erin, Ontario, and Caledon were variously given as her residence. The salt Drowning Calamity. GALT, May 27.—The body of young Davidson was found about 7 o'clock this morning. Search still continues for the body of Miss Fairbridge.

BRUTAL FIGHT AT BLYTH

FATAL RESULT OF A FEUD BETWEEN TWO FAMILIES.

Old Farmer Malnes Killed by Young Henry Beamish—An Investigation Proceeding.

BLYTH, Ont., May 27.—A brutal fight occurred yesterday morning outside the village between two farmers and their sons, named respectively Beamish and Malnes, resulting in the death of one of the combatants, Wm. Malnes. The cause of the affray was an old feud between the families. The parties live very near together, their farms being on opposite sides of the road. Early Monday morning Beamish and two of his sons came out on the road, when they met Malnes and his two sons. The conflict was between young Henry Beamish and old Malnes. The young man soon overcame his antagonist and was beating him cruelly when Malnes' son essayed to rescue his father. This he was prevented from doing by Beamish, senior, who it is said told his son to "give it to the old man." Four doctors were summoned, who found the unfortunate man was received here and gave it as their opinion that he could not recover. Warrants were thereupon issued by Mr. Killy, reeve, and Mr. Beamish as principals, and James Beamish as accessory. All three were arrested on the morning of the 23rd inst. by Wingham, arrived here and proceeded to impanel a jury and to view the body. The trial was proceeded to in the afternoon. Mr. Dickison is here to watch the case for the crown, and Mr. Morton for the Beamishes.

HALF RATE NO GOOD. The Government's Action in the Matter of Canal Tolls Received With Disgust at Montreal. MONTREAL, May 27.—The statement telegraphed from Ottawa, that the government has decided to reduce canal tolls on the present season, was received here with decision and disgust, and the general opinion expressed on all sides was that this reduction would not prove of the slightest perceptible advantage to the St. Lawrence route. Moreover it is claimed that unless the canal tolls are reduced at once, the Montreal and Saginaw competition against the free Erie canal can't be an end. A prominent shipper, an ex-president of the board of trade, who is a well known supporter of the conservative party, says that if the government did not sweep away all existing tolls he would never cast a vote in their favor. Other gentlemen considered that the representations of the Montreal board of trade were practically ignored.

THE PROPOSED INVASION. If there was alarm among the city of Toronto when they met in the Temperance hall on Saturday night last to protest against the Queen's Owns making so many men to be transferred to the front, there was consternation when the news reached here that the Lady Dufferin guards had been ordered for a place in the military review during the jubilee week. The guards are a semi-military corps, whose members are the fashionable maidens of the little city. For some unavoidable reason this corps was unable to participate in the parade at Brantford on Saturday last; but some favored Toronto, who have seen them at drill, speak well of their discipline, while common phrases are never used to express admiration of the charms of the squad. At a meeting of the commanding officer down to the little beauty who carries a small silk flag in front of the regiment.

The advent of such a body of attractions for our susceptible citizens is a matter of no small importance created in the little city on Saturday and Sunday last, is in the eyes of Toronto a day of glory, a calamity to be deplored. At a meeting of the committee of young ladies of Toronto held in Temperance hall yesterday afternoon, a score or more of resolutions were brought forward, but no definite plan of action was arrived at.

We know what they are after said one girl: They don't want any semi-centennial military drill; they want to see the Queen's Owns in their own step in their design. Think of the regiment of 225 men coming home with it badges on their hats, the other 225 doing as they please. The idea of Brantford girls as brooch ornaments. It is well sweetest of a Q. O. R. corporal moved to petition Attorney-General Mowat to compel them to mind their own business. It is this girl's opinion that if a meeting to be held on Thursday a scheme will be proposed to raise a maiden corp, 1000 strong, composed of the best-looking girls in Toronto, who will be invited and drilled and who will, as a set-off, invite the Dufferin girls and other corps of men to attend a grand review that they intend to hold. Only Queen's Owns will be excluded.

HOW IT CATCHES THEM. Sir Tinpot Richard Breen-bleid. A doughty knight and bold. He said some words of Canada That knocked the "patriot" cold. He says that independence must Ere long be pro'd and con'd; Yet strange as may be, the globe does not Seem of the project fond. For never a word it says of this, And never a word of that; It neither damns nor glorifies; I wonder what it's at. The Mail in horror stands aghast And calls this ill-fated mail; But who says, then, so much the worse For first their connection? Sir John at-tds by, he sells all trimmed, To catch the passing breeze; And you may bet it will be cold When old John A. will freeze. —Lo Koss.
