The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

(Regional History Room)

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

WHITHER ARE WE DRIFTING?

The opinion of an independent Conservative journal on the situation.

THE MONTREAL "HERALD" says:

"Whither are we drifting? Where is it all to end? Into what frightful abyss of political and financial bankruptcy is the Dominion to be plunged ere a halt is called in the mad career of those who claim to be "governing" the Country? How much more misrepresentation and maladministration will the people stand before they rise in wrath and cast out those unclean spirits that have made the honored name of Legislature a byword in the land? How many more charters must be sold, how many more "blind shares" purchased, how many more sales of politician's influence for money or money's worth, how many more "boodle" bills must pass through Parliament, how many more railway subsidies must be distributed amongst members of the Commons and Senate, how many more licenses of timber limits, coal lands, ranches &c., must go to members, how many more tariffs must be made and changed and reconstructed to put money in the pockets of M.P.'s and their friends, how many more monopolies established, how much more ring legislation, before the Electors of Canada will rise en masse and thrust from them the unfaithful stewards who, instead of protecting the property committed to their charge, have themselves plundered it and promoted its plundering by their allies and camp followers?"

[FORM 5.]

BRIBES TO MINISTERS OF THE CROWN.

Contractors buy influence with Gifts, Purses and Family Settlements.

Those who seek for improper favors in their dealings with the Ottawa Government have various ways of securing them. Some establish or get control of a newspaper, and command and use much undue influence. Others contribute a share of their profits to Election corruption Funds. The bolder operators deal directly with the Heads of Departments, and pay money to Ministers themselves, or to trustees for their families. Sir John Macdonald, as First Minister of Canada, inaugurated this gross system of bribery, by submitting to be the recipient from Contractors, office seekers and sycophants, of the large sum of Eighty Thousand dollars in the shape of a settlement upon himself and family. He and his friends had previously accepted $360,000 from Sir Hugh Allan for a government contract, but their excuse then made was that it was not for personal uses, but only to corrupt the electors with. The $80,000 did not go to buy votes, but to purchase the Premier. The subscriptions to this fund were by no means thrown away. Sir David Macpherson acted as Treasurer and Collector. He was made Speaker of the Senate, Cabinet Minister and K.C.M.G. The Northern Railway gave $2,500, both illegally and corruptly. They owed a large sum to the Government, and next Session Sir John agreed to settle this debt at an enormous reduction. He actually had a Bill brought in for the purpose, but too late in the Session to pass, in the face of vigorous opposition from Mr. Mackenzie, who, when he came to power, secured half-a-million more for the country than Sir John had agreed to accept. But a gift blindeth the eye.

The example of accepting a money bribe or Testimonial, which was set by the Premier, was naturally followed by his colleagues. Sir Hector Langevin, as Minister of Public Works, was not above accepting a purse of Twenty Thousand dollars subscribed largely by Contractors with unsettled claims against his Department. Of course the claims have since been all agreeably settled.

Next, we have Mr. Costigan receiving a present of a house and its furniture from government contractors and civil servants. No doubt any who refused to subscribe were reported to the Minister, and, if they have been made to suffer, can we be surprised?

Will Canadians submit to be ruled by men who prostitute their power and patronage to feather their own nests? England would not tolerate it for a day in a public man, and even New York Aldermen are sent to the State's Prison for less offences.
