WITTY SPEECH, ARCHAMBAULT PUTS
"PEP" INTO DEBATE

Commons Hears Suggestion of Yellow Star for Possessors of Liquor.

MILLING PROFITS

Declares They Were Abnormal for War Time, and Gives Figures.

Ottawa, March 13.—An amusing speech by Joseph Archambault, of Chambly-Verchères, today broke the monotony of the continued debate on the address. Mr. Archambault kept the house in constant merriment, government supporters enjoying his shafts scarcely less than the opposition. If total prohibition were adopted, argued Mr. Archambault, then there should be an order-in-council to compel hypocrites to wear a badge with a yellow star for every case of liquor in their cellars, and Mr. Archambault related a laughing house how he recently spent "a week in Toronto one Sunday." He emphasized the profits made by large milling companies in war time and the continued high cost of living. He had also a long series of questions to ask the Hon. Mr. Calder, declared that Mr. Calder's political faith was "totally with a Liberal voter," and referred to Sir George Foster as having deflected "the Ina voice trembling with pathos and tears."

During the afternoon, Mr. McQuarrie, of New Westminster, criticized the granting of the "right of priority" to Columbia fishing licensees to citizens of foreign countries. Another British Columbia member, Dr. Bonnell, of East Kootenay, strongly supported the proposed department of public health as a means of helping the fight against tuberculosis. A further western man, Mr. Henderson, of Macdonald, Manitoba, thought that as the government had been elected to deal with the war, there was an obligation to deal with war issues, such as reconstruction and reparations.

Col. Peck, V. C., will continue the debate tomorrow afternoon. It is expected that the bill will be followed by W. S. Fielding.

Criticizes Fisheries.
Mr. W. G. McQuarrie said there was great dissatisfaction in British Columbia with regard to the fisheries, and "it would be a good thing for the minister of marine and fisheries to give the matter his serious consideration." On the Fraser river there had been, he said, a falling off of the total last year was 206,093 cases, which was below normal and he described the situation with regard to salmon as alarming. He stated that the great majority of the fishing licenses in British Columbia were issued to Japanese, and a great part

MEXICAN OIL BILL
IS UNSATISFACTORY

Fails to Take Into Consideration Vested Rights of Foreigners in Land.

Washington, March 13.—The oil land legislation is of great interest to Great Britain, the United States and France, as it will affect vast property holdings of their nationals. The pending petroleum bill, upon which the United States Congress did not have time to act after the measure was submitted by President Carranza, is regarded in official circles here as unsatisfactory in that it merely grants licenses to oil companies to operate their productive wells and thus fails to insure title to their undeveloped lands held in reserve for the future.

Officials said today the proposed law failed to recognize vested rights which Great Britain, the United States and France specifically insisted upon in notes sent to the Mexican government early in the year. The rights to property purchased in Mexico under the old constitution were recognized during the past 24 hours.

The Exchange Telegraph from Copenhagen says that
on demand of the majority socialists a prohibition against dancing has been issued in Berlin. The despatch adds that during the week while women
and children were being murdered dancing revells in fancy dress were engaged in on the streets.

DANCED IN STREETS
WHILE WOMEN MURDERED

London, March 13.—According to a London wireless despatch received tonight there has been no important change in the situation in Berlin during the past 24 hours.

The Exchange Telegraph from Copenhagen says that
on demand of the majority socialists a
prohibition against dancing has been issued in Berlin. The despatch adds
that during the week while women
and children were being murdered
dancing revells in fancy dress were
engaged in on the streets.

GIRL MOTOR BANDIT
GETS TWELVE YEARS

Philadelphia, March 13.—Twenty-year-old Florence Duke motor bandit and stool-pigeon of highwaymen, was today sentenced to twelve years imprisonment for aiding automobile thieves. She refused an offer of clemency extended by the judge, who said she had confessed that the young woman had confessed to stealing between twenty-five and thirty motor cars. On one occasion she drove a car and plotted four highwaymen to steal a truck, and assisted in the hold-up of a man.

When but fifteen, Florence Duke eloped from her Massachusetts home with a youth who is now serving a ten-year sentence in this state.

Spent 26,000,000 Francs
For Shells and Projectiles

Paris, March 13.—France spent 26,000,000 francs for shells and projectiles during the war, Senator Lucien Hubert told the senate army commission yesterday.
He said that 1,500,000,000 francs were spent for extra material for use by the army.

58TH BATTALION
ON WAY TO TORONTO

Ottawa, Ont., March 13.—The militia department announces that among the units and drafts which embarked on the steamship Baltic on March 12 are two for Toronto—the 58th Infantry Battalion, 31 officers and 657 men, and the Canadian Mounted Rifles, 10 officers, 373 men. The 58th Battalion, Lieut.-Col. H. A. Galt, commander, left Exhibition Camp, Toronto, for overseas service during the winter of 1915-16.

FOUR PEACE PACTS
ARE NECESSARY;
GERMANY FIRST

French Delegate Says Treaty Cannot Be Ready by March 20.

Paris, March 13.—Captain Andre Tardieu of the French peace delegation today held his usual weekly conference with the newspaper correspondents.

Four treaties will be necessary, one each with Germany, Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria, Captain Tardieu explained, and these, he said, probably will be signed together. The negotiations with Germany, being the most important, would be signed first, the others will be drawn along similar lines and will place a limitation upon the armistice upon the central powers, but there was less hurry about framing these, Captain Tardieu added.

As to the signing of peace would permit Germany to resume commercial activity, Captain Tardieu said the financial and commercial sections of the treaty will contain important provisions of enemy trade, but that shipping will be resumed under certain reservations.

An answering inquiry whether the Germans would be permitted to come to Paris to sign the peace treaty, Captain Tardieu said it was not certain that the Germans would be permitted to Paris—that the conference had not decided this point.

Object to Turkish Rule.
The peace conference commission of the Greeks after yesterday heard the representatives of Thrace, M. Wamravs, a former deputy in the Turkish parliament, and A. Antoniadis, an engineer. Mr. Antoniadis told the commission of a preponderating Greek position in agriculture and in authority in Thrace.

The Greek and Armenian patriarchy at Constantinople have sent a petition to M. Venizelos to be presented to the peace conference. Demand is made that the Armenians no longer be compelled to live under a Turkish government, and it is declared that the Greeks and Armenians will not submit to such a government.

The petition asks that Greeks be allowed to live in Armenian territory in case they cannot be in the limits of their own country. The Armenians ask for the formation of a great empire to Paris—that the Black Sea and the Mediterranean, and say they would like to see Thrace, Constantinople, Smyrna and the sanjaks of Comedia and Biglia incorporated in Greece.

Hope is expressed that the united Greeks and Armenians may become factors in the peace, progress and civilization of the near east.

hibition.

BRITAIN IN FOREFRONT OF AERIAL DEVELOPMENT

Seeley in Commons Introduces Estimates for 66,500,000 Pounds—Eight Thousand Enemy Planes Shot Down —Will Keep 102 Squadrons Out of 200 for Defence.

London, March 13.—During the war 8,000 enemy airplanes were shot down by the British air force, while 2,800 British machines were missing, Brig.-General J. E. B. Seeley announced in the house of commons today in introducing the army's air estimates of £66,500,000. General Seeley said that if the war had continued the estimate would have been £200,000,000.

When the armistice was signed, he added, England was turning out 4,000 airplanes a month and had 200 squadrons in commission compared to six at the beginning of the war.

General Seeley said it was intended to keep 102 squadrons for defence out, that the country would not rely so much on the number of machines as in remaining in the forefront of aerial development. Air forces, he added, would be maintained in Egypt, Mesopotamia, Archangel and the Near and Middle East. He pointed out that the political officer at Bagdad was despatched yesterday to carry out in two days the same number of inspections in order to secure continuous friendly relations with the inhabitants and would previously have taken two months. Gen. Seeley said that a large part of the estimate would be available for the encouragement of civilian aviation.

The first duty of the new civilian branch of the air ministry, Gen.
Seeley continued, would be to secure an international agreement in Paris, with regard to the future of flying, which must always in many respects be an international business, because there are no natural boundaries.

Dilating on the enormous scientific development in aviation, including the discovery of the wireless telephone, by which aviators are able to both send and receive from the same operator, Gen. Seeley mentioned an entirely novel type of aircraft which is under consideration and which, he said, mathematicians calculated, could attain hitherto unheard of speed.

A white paper issued on the air estimates today states that the maximum personnel of the British air force on any day covered by the estimates is 150,000. This number, however, is in process of reduction to 75,570, which is the total number of all ranks in the air service to be retained during the period of occupation. This number, which will shortly be reached by demobilization, includes the Rhine army and the Royal Air Force, and the total of 17,420; the armies of the middle east, 3,180, and the home and colonial establishments, including Russia, and men with the grand fleet, 58,270.

The vote on account requires £20,000,000 for the air services for the first three months of the fiscal year 1919-20. The total air estimate for the year is £66,500,000.

FRANCE TO MEET
HUGE DEFICIT

Yearly Budget Will Be Three or Four Times as Great as Before War.

Paris, March 13.—Louis Klotz, the minister of finance, began his eagerly awaited speech in the chamber of deputies today, on the financial situation, by denying that he had made the statement that France had become richer since the war. From the fiscal point of view, there had been more resources created, the minister conceded, but it would be absurd to say that any country with departments in such a condition as the invaded departments of France, had become richer.

The yearly budget, M. Klotz announced, would be three or four times greater than before the war, the deficit to be met being 21,750,000,000 francs. M. Klotz gave striking figures of war expenditures. He said that more than thirty-nine billion francs was spent for artillery and eleven billion for the pay of troops.

The total expenditures of the ministry of war were one hundred and nineteen billion francs, while the navy department spent only six billion francs.

According to M. Klotz, it would be relatively easy to meet the ten billion franc deficit of 1919, by an increase in direct taxes, an income tax, receipts from the liquidation of war stocks and a revision of the law governing the transportation of troops over French railroads, by charging the allies for transportation, as the French are charged. The railroad deficit, the minister said, would be 4,000,000,000
francs.

Concerning the tax on capital proposition, M. Klotz said the French capitalist taxpayer would not be called on to pay one cent of additional taxes until Germany's indemnity figures to France were settled and guaranteed. But even should Germany pay completely for damages and the restoration of the devastated provinces, M. Klotz said, this would not balance future budgets after 1919.
The tax on capital, the minister asserted, was destined to reach war profiteers.

TO RESTORE TRAFFIC
IN NEW YORK HARBOR

Reported That Government Will Commandeer Fleet Manned
by Union Crews.

New York, March 13.—Commandeering by the government of a fleet of harbor craft sufficient to restore traffic in New York's street-bound harbor to normal conditions has been decided upon by officials of the army, navy and United States shipping board, according to apparently well authenticated reports tonight.

If the boats are taken over by government agencies they will be manned by union crews operating under a basic eight-hour day on the wage scale recently agreed upon with the railroad administration.

James L. Hughes, federal conciliator, who has been seeking for a settlement of the strike for several days, issued the following statement:
"The army, navy and shipping board have arranged to put the railroad administration wage scale and working conditions into effect and negotiations are progressing favorably towards complete and satisfactory settlement which will restore normal conditions and serve the interest of the general public." Officials of the government departments interested declined to confirm the report that they were planning to commandeer harbor craft.

HEARST NICKEL ARMOR
DINTED BY SAM CARTER

Member for Guelph Says Sudbury Starves, While U. S. Treasury Fattens, and Claims O.T.A. Injustices Are Due to Government "Jumps."

As a social crusader without any strings Sam Carter of Guelph broke a lance yesterday against the nickel armor of the Hearst government, and as he foretold the attack right up to the position of the premier the bodyguard broke and took cover. For the second time during the session the house displayed excitement, the other occasion being the anti-prohibition speech of Colonel Machin.

Sam Carter also denounced the administration of the O.T.A., and said the contempt of justice witnessed all over the province is directly due to the fact that the government has the "jumps" and the attorney-general has allowed the law to degenerate into a deplorable social scandal.

Mr. Rogan (South Wentworth) resumed his speech on the budget. He hoped for a day of larger confidence between capital, labor and agriculture.

Sam Carter was cheered by the Liberal's on rising. He made a kind reference to the late Mr. Johnston of Belleville. He reiterated his prohibition convictions. His position in the house he described as between the upper and nether millstones of the parties.

W. C. Chambers: You are these yet.
Mr. Carter: Thank God I am not likely to be ground down between them. (Applause). The position in true democracy without justice and there is no just ice, at least in regard to the administration of the temperance law in Ontario. The temperance law is partisan. Liquor has again flowed, and the government having lost three or four elections has jumped.

Col. Price (Toronto): In what by-elections have you been?
Far Prohibition.
Mr. Carter: I did not interfere in the by-elections. Labor in Ontario will, he said, support prohibition. The farmers almost to a man are for prohibition. The women will make the government more jumpy.
"I would remind the attorney-general that there can be no greater evil in a country than when law is not enforced." (Applause).

Mr. Carter said the government interference had directly interfered with the administration of justice in Guelph. From Sudbury he quoted a Newspaper's exposure of liquor traffic and wholesale gambling. "The big fish were allowed to escape. The railroads and express companies have been looked after. He read a long report on the responsibility of the government for a class of men who live on law breaking.
There are not more than a few century men in Ontario. A. C. Galt, client O. T. whole province. He had found abundant evidence of drinking in Toronto. Before the Dominion stepped in, the express companies had cars" running daily from Montreal.
No record was kept of the shipments, in Pembroke, the people were loudly complaining. The military authorities had to threaten to put the law out of bounds, before the license authorities were roused. He had spoken to the attorney-general respect to store law and order, as respect justice, but to no purpose.

A member on the government side of the house laughed.
Mr. Carter: Ah, you laugh. But let me tell you what you laugh at.
Guelph is a law-abiding city, but during the operation of this law, four murders have occurred.
Premier Hearst: I failed to catch the name of the author of the report.
Mr. Carter: I will send it over to you.

FINANCIAL BLOCKADE
LIKELY TO BE LIFTED

Paris, March 13.—The financial blockade against Germany is expected to be lifted as a result of negotiations going on at Brussels.
This blockade was applied at the same time as the commercial blockade, all neutral money centres being informed that any loans to Germany would result in the termination of their financial relations with the allies. Neutrabankers furnishing funds to Germany were similarly notified and the result has been to virtually shut out Germany from the money-markets of the world.

Raising the blockade, neutral money markets will be opened to Germany as a means of obtaining loans for payments of food. The Scandinavian countries, particularly Denmark, are said to have such exceptionally large resources that further importations of gold have been prohibited. These large resources will be opened to Germany by the lifting of the financial blockade.

WILSON'S FOOT AGAIN
IS ON FRENCH SOIL

Brest, France, March 13.—President and Mrs. Wilson, and the party which came with them from the United States, disembarked from the George Washington here at 9:45 o'clock tonight. They left for Paris at 11 o'clock.

The numerous decorations had been hung out to welcome the return of the president, his reception was entirely without ceremony.

The presidential train is due in Paris at eleven o'clock tomorrow morning.

INTERNATIONAL REGIME
OF RHINE NAVIGATION

Paris, March 13.—An official statement, dealing with today's session of the committee on the international regime of ports, waterways and railways, says:
"The commission on the international regime of ports, waterways and railways, met this morning at 10:30 at the ministry of public works, in parliamentary session. The commission continued the discussion of provisions relative to the international regime of Rhine navigation, to be inserted in the preliminaries of peace."
The meeting adjourned at 12:30 p.m.

DIVERGENT VIEWS
ON RESPONSIBILITY

Fate of Ex-Kaiser and Other Heads of States Hangs in the Balance.

Paris, March 13.—There is a divergence in the views of the members of the commission investigating the responsibility for the war on several important points, according to The Times. As to whether the German emperor and other heads of enemy states should be brought to trial, is a question on which a division of opinion exists, while the matter of an international tribunal or military tribunals for the judging of those charged with violations of the rights of nations during the war has not been settled.

The American delegates have opposed an international tribunal, pointing out that the United States was not a belligerent during the whole period when such violations were committed. A possible solution has been under consideration—the appointment of military tribunals composed of officers of different nationalities.

Two Million and a Quarter Tonnage
Will Be Surrendered to Entente

Berlin, March 13.—The mercantile fleet in German harbors, the disposition of which will be decided at an early date at the food shipping conference at Brussels, consists, according to German figures, of 723 steamers, of 1,988,700 gross tons, and 138 sailing vessels of 52,600 tons. The sailing craft and some of the smaller steamers will, however, be left by the entente to Germany for the coastal trade.

The tonnage that may be surrendered to the entente is approximately 2,250,000 gross tons.

are no municipal councils in northern Ontario.

Keep to Facts. Mr. Carter: Do you mean to claim that there is no organized municipal system in the north?

Hon. G. Howard Ferguson: I mean municipal councils.

Mr. Carter: Keep to the facts as I am doing.

Charles McCrea, Sudbury, replied: One would imagine that the people of Sudbury are the most God-forsaken on earth.

Mr. Carter: I am no hypocrite. I did not say they were God-forsaken. I spoke only of their shameful neglect by their employers and your government.

Mr. McCrea went on to say he did not believe the truth of the reports concerning Sudbury or Copper Cliff.

Mr. Carter: I ask Mr. Speaker's ruling on the honorable gentleman's statement that he does not believe me.

Premier Hearst: The honorable gentleman must state his point of order and the language of which he complains.

Mr. Carter: My point of order is that he stated he did not believe my statement.

Mr. McCrea: The honorable member told us he had met an Italian, and if anything was said to the honorable member I did not believe that it was true.

Mr. McCrea: The honorable member was stating anything he did not believe to be true. The moral and sanitary conditions in Sudbury might compare with the city from which Mr. Carter came.

Trade War. Mr. McCrea turned his attention to the coming trade war, Canada's success in it is at issue.

Mr. Carter: These nickel companies had disbursed $20,000,000 last year in the north country.

Mr. McCrea: The mineral wealth of the north country would be dormant.

Mr. McCrea: The mineral wealth of the north country is teeming with wealth in nickel, silver and gold.

Mr. McCrea: Capital must have a square deal, because if the minerals are left in the ground, the ore is not worth a five cent piece to the people.

Premier Hearst: Hear, hear.

Mr. McCrea: I advocated development of the iron ores of the north. He believed a bounty of 50 cents a ton would suffice to justify the establishment in Canada of processes for treating Canadian iron ores.

Mr. McCrea: It will only be by unity and pulling together that the difficulties the country faces today can be overcome.

Thomas Marshall (Lincoln) questioned the sincerity of Mr. Carter in what he has done for social reform in Ontario.

Farm Education. Mr. Marshall made a strong plea for practical education in farming with sensible ideas for the development of the social side of farm life.

Mr. Marshall: The U.F.O. had been warned not to mix themselves with politics, but the suggestion seemed to be that unless they allied themselves with the government they could not expect good fortune.

Mr. Marshall: My own honest conviction concerning agricultural depression in Ontario is that it began in 1878, when the high tariff was enacted.

Mr. Marshall: The Ontario school text books, both on account of their cost and their contents. He also assailed the cost and maintenance of Government House.

Mr. Marshall: The cost of the green weeds on the grounds cost $6000 and the excavation for the greenhouse $6000.

Mr. McGarry: Unless the horses sleep in spring beds.

Mr. Marshall: Then I cannot account for dogs in the billiard room, library and writing rooms.

BECK ADDRESSES BOARD OF TRADE

Hamilton Merchants Greatly Impressed With Arguments for Hydro Radial.

VICTORY IN SIGHT Everything Points to Splendid Majority for the Bylaw Saturday.

Hamilton, March 13.—Armed only with a sheaf of statistics, Sir Adam Beck this morning invaded one of the strongest fortresses of the opposition—the Hamilton Board of Trade.

When Sir Adam entered the board of trade it was with the understanding that he was in the stronghold of the enemy in many respects.

John L. Lewis, editor-in-chief of the Hamilton Herald, which, with the other-Hamilton papers, is fiercely opposing the crush of public ownership, was also prominent in the debate.

Mr. Lewis wanted to know if the Hydro engineers had revised their estimates of earnings owing to the fact that the C.N.R. would be a competing line.

When Sir Adam replied that it was not the intention of the radial to compete with steam lines, Mr. Lewis wanted to know if the Hydro would compete with their traffic.

"Steam roads can't compete with us in the matter of motor power. The estimates of the earnings are on passenger traffic in Ontario only," replied Sir Adam.

Sir Adam donned his armor and went after them. His retorts, keen and yet bearing on the issue, brought rounds of applause. He did not go out of his way or mince words.

He was only to have spoken for thirty minutes, but after speaking forty was urged by the large audience to continue. He was given a splendid and attentive hearing and even the most bitter opponent of the bylaw could but admit that Sir Adam was the master from start to finish.

Following the Hydro. After tracing the history of the Hydro commission, Sir Adam pointed out that Lloyd George was taking a leaf out of the Hydro book of Ontario when he advocated the building of six light and fast radial lines thru that little island.

Hamilton was voting on in the bylaw which would be a trunk line and Hamilton would derive all the benefits from the feeders that would join up with it and come thru or to the outskirts of the Ambitious City.

"Our estimates are $190,000 per mile and what do they provide for?" asked Sir Adam.

Terminals would be built in Hamilton and Toronto, exclusive of a sub-station in Hamilton. It would pay for the right-of-way, furnish motors and cars, rails and all the equipment which would be the best in the world, for the double purpose of efficiency and safety.

The engines would be of 100 tons instead of 60 tons, and there would be an increased consumption of power in Hamilton, which would result in a reduction of from $13 to $14.

Work for Hamilton. Another feature would be that all the machine shops would be located in Hamilton and consequently all the repairing for this division would have to be done in these shops.

This would furnish work—a permanent work at the shortest hours and highest wages—for the benefit of the citizens.

The claim that Hamilton is paying and Toronto is not is not correct. Toronto gives ten and a half million dollars, all of which will be spent to enable the radials to make connections from the east to west sides of the city.

It would be a most iniquitous thing, Sir Adam claimed, if the Grand Trunk was unloaded upon the people of Toronto. Don't you think those responsible for its condition being made to toe the mark.

This would be a regrettable feature, especially if the radial had to connect with the International Radial Railway from Buffalo to Niagara Falls.

It is a high speed radial that is taking the business away from the steam roads and our line will get a share.

In a two-fisted style, Sir Adam declared that the radials did not want any bonus. It was not like the T. H. & B., which the city had to bonus to the extent of $275,000.

Furthermore, there was a fifty year period in which the bonds would be met, tho the London-Port Stanley line that had been given from the first day, had only been given 30 years to clear away its bonds.

If the municipalities do not like the government and I guarantee that they will receive satisfaction before the present session of the house is brought to a close," he said.

SERIOUS STRIKES IN SOUTH AFRICA

Movements in Johannesburg for Higher Pay and Better Conditions.

Capetown, March 13.—The strike of the municipal tramways employees at Pretoria for higher pay has led to a serious situation. The council has decided to close down the system rather than comply with the ultimatum of the Amalgamated Society of Engineers.

The Johannesburg architects are endeavoring to affect a settlement in the building trades strike.

The Johannesburg strikers are asking the trades unions throughout the country to levy five shillings weekly on behalf of the Johannesburg strikers and the Pretoria tramway men.

A number of other movements are progressing in Johannesburg for increased wages and better conditions.

The bank officials' society has asked for a series of minimum demands. The hair-dressers have asked for a 30 per cent increase, bakers, barmen and hotel employees are also demanding increases.

HAMILTON NEWS

Hamilton, March 13.—With but two dissenting voices, the city council tonight voted to present to the people in the form of advertisements the assurance of Sir Adam Beck.

He proposed to construct the Hydro radial line thru the city on the right-of-way of the Grand Trunk.

It was possible to secure the route, T. J. Stewart, M.P. and G. H. Douglas were the speakers at the meeting of the P. O. P. meeting.

The P. O. P. commission was the one who presented the facts. He was armed with a pocketful of statistics, and on more than one occasion the speakers admit that he was correct.

At the meeting of the board of education tonight reference was made to the loss the city sustained in the death of the late Harry L. Frost.

A resolution of sympathy to Mrs. Frost and family in their sad bereavement was ordered forwarded by the secretary.

Fred Flatman, who has been actively promoting the organization of the general laborers' union, when interviewed, stated that it had not been definitely decided to establish a permanent laborers' union.

Memberships shows a definite demand for such an organization.

The Amalgamated Society of Engineers of Canada have decided to abolish the office of business agent, and thru this action Fred Flatman will retire in this capacity, automatically.

Appellate Court—First Division.

List for Friday, March 14, at 11 a.m. before Mr. Justice Clure.

Judgments will be delivered at the opening of court in the following cases: Rex vs. Hoffman, Rex vs. Gurofsky, Rex vs. Shalton, Whimbley vs. Whimbley.

Judges' chambers will be held at 11 a.m. before Mr. Justice Clure.

Toronto vs. Canadian Oil Companies, Limited, Mr. Justice Masten, Judgment.

This is an action by the city of Toronto, claiming that the defendants are operating a public garage at the corner of Bloor street and Delaware avenue without a license in contravention of bylaws, numbered 7466 and 7467, and asks a declaration to that effect and an injunction restraining the defendants from continuing to carry on such business until it shall procure a license so to do.

In the last edition of the standard dictionary "garage" is defined as a building for the storage of automobiles and in Webster's new dictionary as a place for housing automobiles.

The evidence established and I find as a fact that the business carried on by the defendants consists in supplying persons using automobiles with gasoline and oil and that the building does not and cannot afford storage for automobiles at the premises in question.

Having regard to the definitions quoted above, it seems to me that no building or business can properly be described as a garage unless it is adapted to the storage of automobiles and is used for that purpose.

I find as a fact that the defendants do not in respect to the matters in the pleadings mentioned, conduct or carry on the business of a public garage. The action is dismissed with costs.

Hearne vs. Flood.—This is an action for damages for alleged malice. Mr. Justice Kelly dismisses the action with costs. Fifteen days' stay.

Bab Encounters Neil and Blanche Lurching Together.

CHAPTER XXXII.

"The telephone shrilled.

"Come in," called the voice from the museum which you go to the museum with me. I'll be there in half an hour," Lorraine Morton's voice informed me. "There's a new picture hung that I want to see."

"I'll be delighted," I told her, and I meant it. I knew I should be thinking of what had occurred between Neil and Mr. Scott, what had been said, Neil was determined to tell me nothing of his affairs, and so long as he refused, what was the use of making myself unhappy over them? I was convinced now that it was more because he was smarter than these other men, that they were in a sense jealous of his success, and that was the reason, and that only, why they had hung out their insinuations.

I really enjoyed the morning. Lorraine was always good company, even when she was inclined to gossip a little—perhaps more interesting because of this! She insisted that I stay out and lunch with her. I was nothing but, and we fixed upon Sherry's as the place where we could see more people we knew.

"The head waiter, who knew us both, gave us a very nice table on the balcony, looking out upon the avenue. We ordered and were waiting to be served, when, hearing a voice objecting to being given a certain table, I turned. To my surprise, I saw the owner of the building, who proved to be Mr. Scott, Blanche Orton was his companion. They were finally seated to please him, but I could neither see nor hear them."

"Why should they be together? Neil had said nothing of their knowledge of each other. Did he know it? It did it was strange that he had not invited Mr. and Mrs. Orton to dinner the night before. No, I concluded I knew nothing of it. I turned again toward where they were seated, and saw—Neil Orton and his wife!"

Lorraine had not seen him. Should I tell her, or should I say nothing? It was positive that Neil had not seen her, but she would not, if I decided to do so without letting her know I was there. But why should I say anything of it? I was doing something I wanted to keep secret?"

"Did you see Mr. Forbes, the gentleman who just sat down over at that corner table?"

"Yes, I saw him. I know Mr. Forbes quite well. I often wait upon him."

"Tell him, please, that his wife would like to speak to him."

The garulous waiter immediately crossed to Neil. He looked surprised, but rose and came over at once.

"Mrs. Orton has no need of two escorts, you could over here with us," I said, after he had spoken to Lorraine.

"That's impossible, much as I should enjoy it. I can't ask you and Lorraine to join us. We are talking business today."

"For the first time I noticed that he had an anxious look, the lines in his face were unusually prominent."

"But I thought you had dined with Mr. Scott?" I would not mention Blanche.

"Good deal. He was told something this morning that seems to have upset him considerably. I went up to me to undo the mischief. Explain to him to run along and be a good little boy and not flirt with Blanche Orton. I added: "Be sure you remember."

But while we ate, only one thing occupied my thoughts.

"Who was Blanche Orton with then?"

WHERE WILL THE REVENUE COME FROM?

To meet the regular expenses of administration, to pay war service gratuities to demobilized soldiers, to provide pensions for disabled soldiers and for the dependents of those who have lost their lives, as well as to carry out the program of public works which is being undertaken to relieve unemployment, it is estimated that the Dominion Government will require to raise this year a revenue of about

400 MILLION DOLLARS

Last year the Dominion Government revenue was 260 million dollars and was derived from the following sources:

Table with 2 columns: Source and Amount. Canadian Customs Tariff: 116 millions; Special War Tariff: 45 millions; Excise Tax: 26 millions; Business Profits Tax: 21 millions; Income Tax and other Sources: 52 millions; Total: 260 millions.

How is the shortage of 140 millions to be made up?

At the very moment when Canada is struggling with this problem the Western Grain Growers come forward with insistent demands for:

- (1) "An immediate and substantial all-round reduction of the customs tariff."
(2) Free trade with Great Britain inside of five years.
(3) Reciprocity now, and free trade later, with the United States.

These demands are apparently made in the hope and belief that, if they are granted, those making them will be relieved of a large part of what they call the "Burden of Taxation" which the tariff imposes upon them.

Passing to the next point, how would the Grain Growers provide for the probable shortage of 140 million dollars this year? They ask the Dominion Government to impose the following taxes:—A direct tax on unimproved lands, increased taxation on personal incomes, increased inheritance taxes and increased taxation on corporations.

Vacant land now pays taxes to the Municipalities and, in some Provinces, additional taxes to the Provincial Government. Income taxes are now paid by individuals to the Municipalities and also to the Dominion Government.

Last year the tariff collected sixty-one per cent. of the total Dominion Government Revenue. Does anyone believe that the forms of taxation advocated by the Grain Growers can be increased sufficiently this year to obtain the revenue which would be lost by tariff reduction, and also the additional 140 million dollars required, without crippling industry, stifling business and throwing thousands of workers out of employment?

The United States has all the the forms of taxation advocated by the Grain Growers, but still finds it necessary to maintain its customs tariff.

If the Grain Growers are to escape almost all taxation, including the great increase caused by the war, what will happen to the people who will be driven out of business through having to pay not only their own taxes but also those of the Grain Growers? Will they try to grow grain? It is more likely that they will go to the United States to get work, as other Canadians went fifty years ago, and leave a population, chiefly farmers, ever growing smaller, to bear all the taxes, ever growing greater.

Again we ask where is the extra revenue coming from?

AUTOCRACY CAUSES LABOR TROUBLES

Hon. Mackenzie King Says This Tendency on Capital's Part is to Blame.

INDUSTRY AND POLITICS

Principles of Both Must Harmonize if Problems Are to Be Solved.

Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King addressed the Empire Club at luncheon yesterday on the subject of Industry and Politics. His address was in large measure a resume of his most important book, and he carried his large audience to enthusiastic and approving approval by a lucid and convincing exposition of the principles of co-operation, investigation and representation in industrialism.

He asserted that the autocracy of capital means that anything else was responsible for labor troubles, and declared that industrial organization must be made to harmonize in principle with political organization if labor problems were to be solved.

R. A. Stapells presided and Senator Nicholas moved a vote of thanks, endorsing Mr. King's "powerful speech," finding the minds of men are to be freed from the thrall of fear; it is the words of truth which will set us free," Mr. King replied.

The labor element in Europe, in America, which is lending itself to Bolshevism, to L. W. W.ism, is unorganized, uneducated labor. He believed that by organization the position would be saved by which it was sought to overthrow society and social organization. It is only the men who have come up thru the ranks of labor by whom labor can be led, and all such leadership should be received with sympathy.

Representation was the last principle which had to be applied. Round table conferences with a full right of investigation by representative councils offered a solution for all the problems labor presented at the present time. Mr. King closed with an eloquent appeal for the reconstruction of society.

Young Man Charged With Wounding Chinaman. Albert Thomas Nicholls, a young lad of 16 appeared before Judge Coatsworth, in the criminal sessions, yesterday, charged with wounding Chong Ping, a Chinese laundryman.

The trouble arose when Nicholls, in company with some other lads, went into the plaintiff's shop and asked for $2.00, the price of a shirt which Nicholls claimed had been lost while in the shop. Ping refused to pay the money, and the boys went outside and commenced to throw stones, one of which thrown by the accused, struck Ping in the eye with the result that the eye had to be removed.

F. J. Hughes, appearing for the accused, asked for a remand in order that some financial arrangement might be arrived at whereby the Chinaman may be compensated for his loss. His honor adjourned the case till March 26.

WILLS AND BEQUESTS. Lt.-Col. W. J. O. Malloch, who died in Toronto on February 18 last, a week after he returned from the front, left an estate valued at $88,188, which will be inherited in its entirety by the widow, Mrs. Olive C. E. Malloch.

AERIAL TRANSPORTATION. Exemption has been made by the minister of militia from the order-in-council, Sept. 17, 1914. In future the general public may travel in aircraft, when such aircraft is navigated by pilots licensed by the Aero Club of Canada. This concession is due to the efforts of the Aero Club.

POLICE PROBE IS DRAWING TO CLOSE

Efficiency Versus Seniority Proves Difficulty in Promotions.

COMPLETE VINDICATION

Parties and Methods Stand Searching Investigation Well, Says Denison.

Dwindling to a close yesterday, the police probe revealed no glaring irregularities; just the usual raft of complaints due largely to the struggle between the principles of seniority and efficiency in any organization established on a military basis.

This particular problem, re promotion came to a sort of a crisis yesterday, when a patrol sergeant was giving evidence regarding his own case. He had been in charge of a mounted section of the force, and a few months later was superseded by a man with 14 years' less service.

Mr. Robertson suggested that probably the patrol sergeant's former record had something to do with it. The witness repudiated this, pointing out that he had not had a mark against him since he was promoted in 1913. "I can show you any amount of sergeants with dirty records," said Mr. Evans.

A Paradox. Sir William Meredith objected. It was unfair, he thought, to make a general statement of that kind. A paradoxical case regarding outside influence also cropped up. Complaints had been made that side influence had been used to get men promoted; but nothing very marked had been proven in support. One witness, whose name was not given, stated that he had approached the Ministerial Association with a request for aid in getting the police one day off each week. For doing this he was admonished, which meant that he was held back one month in promotion, but that the police did finally get a day off each week.

Mr. Evans explained the witness's complaint as being due to outside influence being used and then you bring a case forward where an attempt to use outside influence has been made. Mr. Evans explained the witness's complaint as being due to outside influence being used and then you bring a case forward where an attempt to use outside influence has been made.

At the morning session, Deputy Chief Dickson suggested that the men be given an eight-hour day, with half an hour in the stations, both winter and summer. P. C. Evans, for the men, contended that an hour in the station was necessary during winter days.

Sir William Meredith read a letter from the deputy chief constable of Toronto, suggesting that the personnel of the police board be changed to include the vice-chairman of the board of control and the president of the board of trade.

As a result of the finding of the grand jury yesterday, J. S. Tomenson and B. Browne, brokers, are absolved from the charge of receiving money, the property of His Majesty the King, which was stolen from the Army Medical Corps by Capt. Chas. Fisher, a paymaster attached to the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion, who is at present serving a term in the penitentiary for the offence, amounted to some $18,000.

Max Bank, a furrier, was found not guilty by Justice Coatsworth, in the criminal sessions, yesterday, on a charge of receiving a fur coat which had been stolen from Capt. Chas. Dutton, by Basil Evay, who disposed of the coat to Bank. The coat had been ripped up and sold for a lot less than its market value.

At the conclusion of their sitting yesterday the grand jury returned the following true bill: J. Zarsovitch, theft and receiving; Sam Zarin, theft and receiving; J. S. Tomenson and B. Browne, charged with receiving, no bill; J. Skelton, criminal negligence, no bill; James Courtney, assault, no bill.

Ottawa, March 13.—The transport Celtic, which is now on her way across the Atlantic, and will probably reach Halifax about March 16, has on board a total of 280 Canadian soldiers. There are 102 officers, 33 cadets and 265 other ranks. The classification by 21st Battalion shows there are on board for Toronto 15 officers, 11 cadets and 467 other ranks; for Hamilton, two officers, four cadets and 24 other ranks; for London seven officers, three cadets and 290 other ranks.

WANT COLD STORAGE LAW BETTER ENFORCED

Dr. Hastings was instructed by the local board of health at its meeting yesterday to memorialize the federal government in connection with new regulations dealing with keeping meats in cold storage. At present there is a law in force allowing the governor-in-council to take steps in the matter, but Dr. Hastings described it as a "dead letter."

THANKS FOR COMFORTS.

Mrs. Arthur Van Koughnet, honorary superintendent soldiers' comforts, makes grateful acknowledgment to the generous givers of the many gifts which have gone thru 71 West King street to the military hospitals and convalescent homes as follows: To St. Andrew's; Dominion Orthopaedic; Davisville; Central; Spadina; Mowat; Kingston; Byron; London; Mountain Sanitarium; Hamilton; Ontario Military Convalescent; Cobourg; Freeparty; Burlington; Whitby; and Guelph.

FOUND NOT GUILTY.

Mrs. Jean Shea was yesterday found not guilty on a charge of abortion said to have been performed upon a young girl. The case was heard in the criminal sessions before Judge Coatsworth and a jury. R. H. Green appeared for the crown and T. C. Robbette acted for the accused.

MAYOR REPUDIATES DEPUTY'S EVIDENCE

Mayor Church has repudiated the evidence of former Deputy Chief Archibald that he ever had any conversation with the deputy about the Linklater case. "My reasons for supporting the appeal were that, without the authority of the commissioners no official should have the power to fine a man ten days' pay, and I took strong grounds against such autocratic action regarding the men and gave them the benefit of the doubt."
