BRITISH ARMY HAS AGAIN BEEN

FORCED TO GIVE GROUND BUT STILL IN POSSESSION OF LINES

Where Has Enemy "Broken Through" Is Official Statement

Today is Anniversary of Sedan and Fighting Has Been Resumed All Along The Front—Great Battle Reported in The Amiens District—German Centre Making Desperate Attack Against French and English—Zeppelin Falls Killing Pilot

On this, the forty-fourth anniversary of the battle of Sedan, the main armies are combining in one supreme effort to repeat their triumph over their old-time foe.

The British censorship is absolute on all messages from France Belgium concerning operations there, but it is known that the main right, reinforced, has hurled itself once more against the left, that the German centre is again attacking the French and English centre at Rocroi, and that along the Meuse, from Sedan to Lun, the German army is trying to force a passage. The British army has again been engaged.

The French army of the Vosges is forcing the combined German armies of Alsace and Lorraine steadily back.

The Russian army in Poland has hurled the Austrian army back across the River Vistula on its base at Cracow with enormous success.

ARMIES FORCED TO GIVE GROUND

London, Sept. 1.—"The Anglo-French army corps have had to give ground, but nowhere have they been broken through," is the message given out at the French embassy in London today.

This announcement is a summary of that part of the official communication of the French war office, referring to the German attack on a French left wing, made public in Paris last night.

ISH ARMY AGAIN ENGAGED.

London, Sept. 1.—Today is the anniversary of Sedan and it is fully expected that the German army in France will make a supreme effort to celebrate the day in some strikingly effective manner. Fighting has been resumed along the front, according to the official French account, which admits that the German right wing continues to advance. No other details of this fighting yet come through, and it is not known whether the British army has been engaged.

In regard to the eastern theatre of the war reports are conflicting. From Petersburg the continued success of the Russians against the Germans and Austrians, is claimed. On the other hand, Berlin, which at last is beginning to see much more news of the war, claims important victories of the Austrians over the Russians.

It is impossible as yet to decide which of these conflicting reports is correct, but it is evident that fierce fighting is proceeding in the neighborhood of the front.

BATTLE IN AMIENS DISTRICT.

London, Sept. 1.—The Times correspondent at Dieppe sends the following: "I have just returned from the Amiens districts to send this despatch. The battle has been fought at Croisilles and is probably still in progress. The French claim a success towards Guise but south of it and all Saturday there was heavy fighting.

On the left I knew cannonading was still going on at noon Sunday and five o'clock Sunday afternoon there were no Germans in Amiens. Whether, as some declare, the lines between Amiens and Boulogne have been cut, I do not know."

MAN ATTACKED AT LA FERRE

London, Sept. 1.—No news had been received in London up to midnight as to the definite results in the battle which doubtfully being waged along the front to the north and east of and probably along the whole 250-mile line of resistance to the invading Germans.

It is likely that the chief German attack is being delivered in the neighborhood of La Fere, northeast of Paris, about fifty miles away from the front. This is a strongly fortified position overlooking Oise. The retrograde movement of the allies in this particular district is suggested by the Chronicle's correspondent, particularly in view of the war office message, stating that the German army has been fighting east of the front.

BRAVE GENERAL OF THE BELGIANS

How Liege Commander Happened To Become a Prisoner

He and His Force Blew up Fort and General Lemans Alone Survived—Allowed to Keep His Sword

Paris, Sept. 1.—The Antwerp correspondent of the Petit Parisien gives the explanation of the presence of General Lemans, the Belgian commander at Liege in Magdeburg as a prisoner of war.

"On August 17, General Lemans was summoned by the Germans to surrender the Liege forts. He refused, but as the situation was then desperate and it was impossible to hold out against another bombardment, he called his officers together in Fort Loncin, and said:

"You have valiantly fought for your country, but the struggle has become impossible and it is foolish to try further. Honored brave the hour has come, when we must separate. I have decided to die here. Loncin shall be my tomb."

All the officers declared that they would still fight and die with their general. Again the cannon thundered and then those in the fort were silenced and a terrible explosion took place, General Lemans and his officers had blown themselves up. Alone of all in the fort, General Lemans survived, and from the debris, he was taken a prisoner to Magdeburg. It was on Emperor William's order that he was allowed to keep his sword."

"CITY NEEDS NEW POLICE FORCE IF ALL ARE LIKE SERGEANT"

Comment of Judge Referring to Few Identifications of Rioters—True Bill Found in Case of Seven Arrested on This Charge

The grand jury in the county court this morning found a true bill against Percy Warren, Bedford L. Hines, William Brown, William Chambers, William Edmondson, William Day and Thomas Shannon, all charged with participating in the recent riot. Their trials will commence at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. In the case of the King vs. Thomas Shannon, a separate indictment charging the defendant with assault upon Policeman George H. Clark during the riot, the grand jury found no bill.

In addressing the grand jury, His Honor stated that he had lived in the city for fifty-four years and this was the first serious destruction of property on any occasion of this kind during that period. He also commented on the fact that Police Sergeant Kilpatrick, according to the evidence, has been twenty-five years on the police force, was present on the night of the riot and saw no one he knew in all that crowd. He would not wish to criticize, he said, but thought that if all the police force knew the people in St. John only as the evidence showed Kilpatrick did, the sooner they recognized the better.

The trial of the case of the King vs. Cambridge Goldworthy, which was to have been commenced this morning, will take place tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.

CONDENSED DESPATCHES

A new comet has been observed in the constellation of Gemini. Fire did $150,000 damage to the plant of the Carsten Packing Company in Tacoma.

Lieut. Sedoff, who left in 1912 to go to the north pole, died en route. The survivors have arrived at Arctang.

A steamer from Glasgow landed 388 wealthy Americans at New York today. Some paid $7,000 for a cabin and the average cost was $800. Another steamer landed 1288 passengers, some of them utterly destitute.

Stefansson, the Canadian explorer, has gone into the far north and may not be heard from, his associates say, for two years.

ALLOWED TO GO. E. Kaninski, a German lad, eighteen years of age, who was arrested on the steamer St. George some time ago, and has since been detained by the military authorities, was discharged yesterday afternoon by Colonel McAvity after the prisoner had been carefully examined.

He was allowed to go on his own recognizance that he would appear before the chief of police on the last day of each month.

BERLIN ALARMED OVER ADVANCE OF THE RUSSIANS; LATTER WINS GREAT VICTORY

London, Sept. 1.—The correspondent of the Express telegraphing from The Hague says:

"There is the greatest alarm in Berlin over the advance of the Russian troops. The news that the Emperor has left the town headquarters and moved to the Russian front, has shown the residents of the capital, where the immediate peril to their safety lies.

"A story has been circulated that the Russians are preparing to avenge Lunan by treating the city of Berlin in the same way as the Germans treated that city. Many of the populace who can get away, are going to Norway, Denmark and Switzerland.

In connection with the siege of Liege, it is told here, that the German experts, after vainly trying every type of field gun at their command, sent to the Krupp factory for a new fourteen inch naval gun. The first shot fired from it, hit the officers mess house inside the Belgian fortification, killing seven men."

CRUSHING DEFEAT REPORTED

London, Sept. 1.—A despatch to the Daily News from Bucharest, Romania, set news has been received there from Bucharest, Romania, set Russians have inflicted a crushing defeat on the Austrians in a battle which cost them 20,000 men on their enemy who sought to cross the

THE NIOBE.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 1.—It is learned that the Niobe will form part of the guard that is to take the Canadian contingent across the Atlantic. The vessel goes into commission today and a trial trip will be made to see that the machinery is working well.

HEROISM OF BRITISH SAILORS IN BATTLE

London, Sept. 1.—8 p. m.—The Harwich correspondent of the Telegraph gives an interview with a wounded sailor and speaks of the plucky way in which the British handled live shells.

Many of the German shells which made hits, it appears, did not burst. "There were five shells in the boiler of one of the destroyers," he quotes one of the sailors as saying, "and if one had burst, it would have been all up with the ship."

"What did you do with them?" he was asked. "Oh, just shied them overboard. There was no room for such rubbish aboard our yacht."

In another instance recited to the correspondent, it is related that a shell fell on a British ship and as there was no immediate explosion the sailors rushed at it and pushed it into the sea with their naked hands.

The Germans also showed considerable grit, it is declared. As one of the cruisers was going down with decks afloat and the flag and mast shot away, the only man left in the fore-castle hoisted the flag and then went down with the ship.

From that some of the Germans were shot by their own officers the correspondent says, is given by one wounded German landed at Shotley, who has seen revolver bullets in him, which he said could only have come from his own ship.

British Cunning Results In Terrible Loss to Enemy

London, Sept. 1.—Wounded men in the hospital of Boulogne, related to the European correspondent their incidents of fighting between the British and Germans. One of the men told of a trick which the British learned in the Boer war, and which worked very well against the Germans. The story of the incident follows:

"The enemy before sending their infantry against our positions, opened a hot artillery fire. Our artillery replied at first warily, and then gun after gun of the British batteries went silent.

"What's up," I asked a comrade.

"You see, they had not been silenced at all, and it was a trick to draw the Germans on. They went down in whole fields for our guns got them in open ground, and of course they soon became encephalic. It was impossible for those behind to come on past the dead."

AUSTRIANS ROUTED BY ENGLISH AND FRENCH SHIPS; JAPS TAKE TWO MORE ISLANDS

London, Sept. 1.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Cettigne, states that the Austrians supported by the Cattaro batteries, and their fleet, on Sunday, re-attacked Mount Lovchen, and Budua. The Montenegrins were being seriously damaged when the English and French fleets put in a timely appearance, silenced the batteries and forced the Austrian ships to beat a hasty retreat.

The Montenegrins, under Prince Peter, immediately began a counter attack on the Austrian forces, and repulsed them. They killed 480 men and took Kiao-Chow Bay.

Should Prepare Against Shortage in World's Supply of Foodstuffs

London, Sept. 1.—The London Chronicle says this morning: "A timely warning to prepare against the inevitable shortage in the world's supply of foodstuffs is given by Lord Milner who points out that although the present harvest is abundant, immense decrease in the production of 1915 must result from the fact that all the able-bodied males of France, Germany, Austria and Russia are now engaged in fighting. "Of the 680 million quarters of wheat and rye annually produced throughout the world, 880,000,000 come from these countries, and the other countries can not possibly make up the deficiency. Lord Milner predicts that in the latter half of next year if not before, the nations which live on wheat or rye will be competing fiercely for a share in the diminished supply."

from it, hit the officers mess house inside the Belgian fortification, killing seven men."

A Teutonic Tale.
A German clergyman, while travelling, stopped at a hotel much frequented by wags and jokers. During dinner these worthies opened fire on the clergyman, who, however, stood their jibes and sneers with a calm indifference. At length a fellow diner said to him, "Well, I wonder at your patience. Have you not heard all that has been said to you?"
"Oh, yes, but I am used to it," replied the clergyman. "I am chaplain of a lunatic asylum; such remarks have no effect upon me."

To A Celebrity.
A small girl interested in snakes and eager to know what John Burroughs thought of them, wrote to the famous naturalist, and showed herself more considerate than many of his correspondents by concluding her letter as follows:—"Inclosed you will find a stamp, for I know it must be fearfully expensive and inconvenient to be a celebrity."

and the concentration of a numerically superior force at the vital point. Commenting on this the Mail and Empire says:—In other words, the German generals, able as they were, and fresh from their experience against Austria, failed to develop anything new in the handling of troops that was not known to the general whose whole experience had been gained in the United States. They invented nothing, improved nothing, and their victories were due wholly to the previous organizing genius of Moltke, the incredible blunders of their adversaries, and their overwhelming superiority in numbers."

PRO PATRIA.

(Sir Owen Seaman, in Punch.) England, in this great fight to which you go Because, where Honor calls you, go you must, Be glad, whatever comes, at least to know You have your quarrel just. Peace was your cry; before the nation's bar Her cause you pleaded and her ends you sought, But not for her sake, being what you are, Could you be bribed and bought. Others may spurn the pledge of land to land, May with the brute sword stain a gullant past, But by the seal to which you set your hand, Thank God, you still stand fast!

A Great Business Getter

Our special offer to the MILITARY last week of a 10 per cent. discount was certainly appreciated. We had trouble getting all the wrist watches they wanted, but WE MANAGED IT. Just think, we sold a Waltham Silver Wrist Watch (13 jewelled) for $11.70. One old-time high-priced store sold the boys a Waltham Wrist Watch, silver (7 jewelled) for $12.50. This is just one reason why our business is growing faster than any other jewelry business in the city.

For over thirty years I have suffered from chronic Neuralgia and Constipation, experiencing untold agony. The Neuralgia settled in my lungs and I took bottles of medicine without getting better but 'Fruit-a-tives' proved quick relief and finally and completely curing me. St. John Volunteer Tells Of Life At Valcartier

A member of the St. John contingent at Valcartier writes to the Times as follows:—
"Possibly you would care to get a little inside information just of the daily life and work of our own lads. We get up at 5.30 and immediately snug up everything around the tents. They are very strict about this and we have to keep things scrupulously clean and neat. We eat at seven and go on parade at 8.30 and drill steadily until 12 or 12.30 and then have until 2 p.m. off. Then we drill again until about 4 p.m. and then we are practically finished for the day. Of course there are many duties such as sentry, brigade signalling, fatigue, etc. which make the days somewhat longer than they would appear from reading the foregoing.
"We are fed very well, our cooks all being North End boys accustomed to cooking in the woods, etc. At night we build great log fires and dance and sing around them, or on other occasions we spend quieter evenings visiting in bodies from tent to tent and having an informal programme in each as we go. The boys so far are all in splendid health and spirits and their demeanor regarding the coming crisis can best be explained by a remark overheard from one Ontario officer to another when he said:—
"I like the courageous happy spirit of that New Brunswick outfit. They will give a great account of themselves when occasion demands."

"The most beautiful thing in the camp is the appearance of miles of pure white tents, glistening in the moonlight with cheers, shouts, laughter and music mingle in one rumbly chorus, then comes the 'first post,' warning us to prepare for bed, and the ringing call of hundreds of bugles throughout that city of solid white sends a feeling over one easier imagined than described. The last little call of only a few notes, 'lights out,' can best be described as the benediction, and it floats out over our silent city as a last good night to all.
"I think that at that time above all comes the little straining feeling in the throat, when even strong men could scarcely cry like children; for the beautiful stillness that follows that last little call seems to echo to many of us the parting words of the wives, mothers, sisters, brothers and all loved ones we have left behind.
"Nevertheless the people of St. John will never have cause to be ashamed of the little crowd they sent to the front, if I am any judge of human nature, and no calls of home or home duty will ever deter us from the best possible performance of our full duty abroad. The boys all unite with me in sending regards to old St. John through your columns and fondest love to all those whom we left behind."

$10. He stopped work for this firm in 1911. The defendant explained that although he was not short in his accounts he owed the firm $10 and submitted a statement from them eliminating this amount. He intended to pay the amount. The reason he owed this amount to the firm when he left was because the firm he said owed him more than this in commission. He had since decided, however, to accept their statement. In January, 1912, the defendant had kept bar for John O'Connor, St. John. In 1912 he went to P. E. I. The prosecutrix introduced there to people as his wife. In December 1912 the prosecutrix went to Boston and on or about there the defendant and his brother planned at St. John "heat it" to Boston. When he was in Boston he left the prosecutrix house effects valued at $75. He denied, ever, that prosecutrix was his wife. Case was adjourned until another day.

Anything on your feet that should be removed—whether corns, callouses, sore lumps—they can all be removed in short order by Putnam Corn Extractor. Think the pain you are in when that sore corn goes. It is foolish to experiment with untried remedies. Better use Putnam's Corn Extractor and the work will be done quickly and without pain. Putnam Extractor costs $25c. per bottle, sold at recommended by druggists.

MORE EVIDENCE IN HALIFAX CASE OF LOCAL INTEREST

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 1—More interesting evidence was given at the hearing before Magistrate Fielding into the Rooney neglect to provide case. Both parties are well known in St. John as they at one time resided there. The prosecutrix is still a resident of that city. Yesterday afternoon's hearing was taken up in examination of the defendant by counsel for the prosecutrix. It was shown by his own evidence that he worked for a number of large firms in the United States. One of these was the International Harvester Company at Eau Claire, Wisconsin. He did not know whether the prosecutrix at any time drew an advance of $5 of his pay. He lived in Rhineland, Chippewa Falls, and other places with the prosecutrix and introduced her to people in those places as his wife. He first intro-

A Smooth, Hairless Skin for Every Woman

(The Modern Beauty).
With the aid of a plain delatone paste it is an easy matter to rid the skin of unsightly hairy growths. The paste is made by mixing some water with powdered delatone. This is applied to the hairs not wanted and after 2 or 3 minutes rubbed off and the skin washed, when every trace of hair will have vanished. When you go to your druggist for delatone, be sure you get the genuine article.

Lesson in Scientific Complexion Rewriting

Everyone has a beautiful skin underneath the one exposed to view. Bear that in mind and it will be easier to understand the correct principle in acquiring a lovely complexion. Nature is constantly shedding the top skin in flaky particles like dandruff only much smaller. In abnormal conditions, or in advancing age, these particles are not shed as rapidly as in robust youth. The longer they remain the more soiled or faded they become—that is the immediate cause of a "bad complexion."
It has been discovered that ordinary mercurized wax, to be had at any drug store, will absorb these worn-out particles. The absorption, while hastening Nature's work, goes on gradually enough to cause no inconvenience. In a week or two the transformation is complete. The fresh, healthy, youthful under-skin is then wholly in evidence. You who are not satisfied with your complexion should get an ounce of mercurized wax and try this treatment. Use the wax nightly, like cold cream, washing it off mornings.
