BOBCAYGEON.

This Church was organized on the 25th February last. Although few and feeble, they are united and encouraged. Elder S. C. Rice, preaches the word from time to time amongst them, and the meetings are well attended by attentive hearers.

BROCK, MARIPOSA AND ELDON.

This Church is enjoying internal peace, harmony, co-operation and prosperity. The meetings are well attended. Their children attend a Union Sabbath School, which is in a flourishing condition.

WEST LINE OF BROCK.

This feeble Church, numbering but eighteen members, aided by christians of other denominations, erected a substantial Meeting House, 33 x 45, at a cost of some $900, during the past year.

Elders Wright and Torrance have preached to them on alternate Sabbaths during the year. They have in operation, with some intermissions, a weekly Prayer Meeting, likewise a small Bible Class every Lord's day.

1ST.—CRAMAHE.

This Church has reason to praise God for restoring union, so that they now enjoy peace in Zion, and they are looking for prosperity within her walls. Elder A. Anderson has recently commenced his labors amongst them, with much acceptance. The Sabbath School is not so prosperous as they could wish. They invite us to join them in earnest prayer for the rising generation.

2ND.—CRAMAHE.

This Church enjoys the blessings of peace and Christian fellowship. They are at present without a Pastor. They maintain stated Prayer Meetings and have a Sabbath School with fifty Scholars and ten Teachers.

CLAREMONT.

This Church enjoys internal peace, and death has not summoned away any of their number. Since the removal of their late Pastor, they have maintained the stated appointments, and God has blessed them in so doing. They have a flourishing Sabbath School, with an average attendance of eighty pupils, also, they have an interesting Bible Class.

FENELON.

The past year had its sorrows, especially in the removal, by death, of their Pastor, Rev. R. Hamilton, whose arduous labors were blessed amongst them. It has also had its joys. Elder S. C. Rice, has enjoyed a measure of success in his labors, and the Church feels encouraged. They have a Sabbath School and two weekly Prayer Meetings.

EAST GWILLIMBURY.

Rev. J. Hammett preaches to this Church at stated times; he has been useful amongst them; and, although they have reason to mourn over too much coldness and formality, still, many of them find a sweetness in communing with Christ at a throne of grace, and in the ordinances of his house.

HALDIMAND.

Peace and Union prevail amongst them. Their late Pastor, Rev. W. McKee, having resigned, they have recently called Rev. J. Reddick to become their Pastor. They have contributed, during the past year, to aid Missionary and Literary Institutions as well as general benevolent objects. Their Sabbath School numbers ninety pupils; the Bible Class thirty; number of Teachers twelve.

1st.—KING.

They have had their present Pastor, Rev. H. McLean, during only a part of last year. Previously various ministering brethren visited them. A Student from Rochester, Bro. A. Cameron, labored with signal success. The labors of their present Pastor have likewise been blessed. They have built a House of Worship during the past year, which they expect to open free of debt.

1st.—MARKHAM.

This Church has not been represented in the Association for several years, on account of division and strife. They now meet for reading the Scriptures, and prayer. Rev. S. Tapscott preaches in the meeting house once a month. They desire to hold to one another and to the truth.

2nd.—MARKHAM.

This Church is united. Their meetings for Divine Worship have, on most occasions, been refreshing, especially their prayer meetings have been seasons of enjoyment.

PETERBORO'

This Church gives the Association a most hearty and cordial welcome to their town and their homes. Considering their peculiar circumstances, they have reason to bless God for their present position, and relying upon his promises, they would go forward with undaunted courage, and indomitable perseverance in what appears to be the path of duty. They testify to the faithful preaching of the word by their Pastor. Their Sabbath School is in a flourishing condition.

PICKERING, 6th CON.

No letter from this Church this year. We trust we shall hear good tidings from them by next year.

PORT HOPE.

Rev. W. Henry Jones has become Pastor of this Church since last Association. His labors are faithful, acceptable and useful. The Church is well united. They are free from debt. The Sabbath School is prosperous—pupils 70—teachers 16.

Through some mistake or misunderstanding, the letter of the Sterling Church did not come to hand. Their neat and commodious meeting house is nearly completed.
