

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

HEAVY DRAUGHT HORSES for sale. See advt.

FROM TIDES have prevailed this week.

SPORTS.—The election for the repeal of the Scotch Act in the county will be held on November 17th. The race has been in force there since 1870.

BOOKS UP.—A steady look at the 13th says the schooner "Etna" from Miramichi has entirely broken up. The beach is strewn with planks and other wreckage.

TABERNACLE BROTHERS REPAIRS.—Bathurst Road—are to be sold by public auction by the Supervisor Council, on Tuesday next, 27th inst., at ten a. m., at the bridge.

THE FALL ARRANGEMENT on the L. C. R. and Canada Eastern, went into effect on Monday. The time table published on our fourth page is therefore cancelled and trains are now running on the table on 3rd page.

THE COUNTY COURT, Hon. Judge Wilkinson presiding, met on Tuesday and adjourned sine die yesterday forenoon, after disposing of several cases, some of which were undecided.

A FAREAK.—Ald. W. D. Martin, has left the Moncton Transcript office a gentleman ship, but by a string to a piece of stick, which has lived and blossomed all the summer and winter in any earth. He wants an explanation.

CALL.—At a meeting of St. Paul's Presbyterian congregation, Fredericton, on Monday evening, it was decided to extend a call to the pastorate to Rev. W. McDonald of Hampton. Four candidates were proposed. Mr. McDonald getting 80 out of 115 votes.

TERRIBLE FALL.—When the bark Argentin, from Montreal for Montserrat, was off Magdalen Islands the other day, Capt. Samuel West went aloft to assist in shortening sail. Half way out on the weather arm he lost his balance and fell to the deck and dashed his brains out.

THE LUMBER CUT on the Restigouche this year will be between four and five millions of cords, and about five or six millions of species. The output of spruce will therefore be much smaller than last year, and that of cedar very much larger. The manufacturing of shingles has become quite an industry on the North Shore.

SHIRAZI MILES.—David Richards is shortly to commence the erection of a single mill just below Campbellton, on the line of the L. C. R. Mr. Richards who has been lumbering on the Restigouche for some years is developing an extensive business in that section.

OURBURY.—Wm. Molagone, one of the most prominent residents of Blackville, died suddenly, of apoplexy, at his residence in that place on Wednesday last week. Few men in Northumberland county were better known or better appreciated for sterling integrity and thorough independence of character.

TO REBUILD.—The St. Lawrence Lumber Company will rebuild their mill at Bathurst. Men are now engaged in clearing away the debris of the late fire from the site of the destroyed mill, and the new establishment is to be completed by the opening of navigation next spring. It is to be fitted with all the modern improvements and will be one of the most efficient lumber mills in the Dominion.

SHIPWRECKED MARINERS.—The captain and crew of the bark Carthage, wrecked on Bryan Island—one of the Magdalen's—reached Chatham on Saturday last. Some Chatham thieves broke into a warehouse where Capt. Wright had stored some of his effects saved from the wreck and got away with them. Our policemen are apparently not alive to their full duty in looking after Chatham's worst characters.

IMPROVED.—Jas. J. Pierce, Esq., who is a veteran among the North Shore newspaper men, has had editorial charge of the Newcastle Advocate for the last two weeks, while its publisher, Mr. Anslow, has been away on a collecting trip. If the publisher has been successful in his business here this evening, the cargo consists of the accomplished interior editor has improved the tone of the paper, his many friends have abundant reason to congratulate him.

SMALL POX.—Last week's Campbellton Pioneer says:—As soon as the health officers of the town, learned of the two cases of smallpox in a settlement near St. Moine on the line of L. C. R. about 75 miles from here, the provincial board at Fredericton was notified of the facts by wire. Since then the board and Dr. Doherty, inspector of the board of health for the county, have been in correspondence, and no doubt every necessary precaution will be exercised to stay the spread of the disease.

A WARE.—A dispatch to the Quebec Signal Service from Superintendent Campbell, of St. Paul's Island, dated October 16, 6 p. m., says:—Large quantities of wreckage and timber are west of St. Paul's Island this evening. The cargo consists of all sizes of scuttling, decking, knees, etc., which have been washed ashore all broken up. One empty flour barrel which has come ashore is marked "A. R. & Co. H. S." It looks as if a collision had occurred within twenty miles of the island.

GUYS.—This is the gun season. Out on the different country roads the loaded and partridges and down along the coast they are loaded for wild-geese, brant, black and other ducks. Brant and ducks are reported quite plentiful, but wild geese have not come in the usual quantities yet, although a good many have been bagged. Tabernacle Bay seems to be the favorite Miramichi shooting ground, although the feeding grounds inside of Bay du Vin, Huckleberry and Fox Islands are nearly as good. Trout and Pike, salmon, Shillpogon and Micon grounds all have their visiting sportsmen, and all but those who too early in the season have splendid luck.

JUSTICE HAS BEEN CHEATED BY Malcom Taylor, late proprietor of the Chatham Vin summer resort, who induced a to-willing loaner to publish a slander on Mr. Smith of the Advance, who caused criminal proceedings to be taken against him therefor. Taylor has disappeared, without notice to creditors, and this escapes punishment for the libel which he was a party. As the publisher of the paper referred to did what he could to clear himself of responsibility, by exhibiting Taylor's original letter to Mr. Smith's attorney in the matter, his share in the offence has been overlooked, meantime.

THE "CLEARER".—It is not pleasant to know that the Fredericton Gleaser people have been so difficult with their landing person, in which broken pledges, ingratitude and unsatisfactory conduct in making good alleged promises to give security for a large sum of money advanced to keep the success going, are features. When the Gleaser was far out of the way, a few weeks since, to attack the Advance and its editor, in its usual unbecoming fashion, we felt that the learned gentlemen who usually inspire it would make for mistakes. How now comes within his position and experience should have assured him of long ago, viz, that necessary champions are dangerous friends, especially when they are injudiciously admitted to personal confidences and companionship.

POOR OUTLOOK.—There is undoubtedly a great deal of present and prospective distress among the work classes of this city, after the dull season through which we have just passed, and the outlook at the beginning of our long and severe winter is far from being bright or reassuring. All who can get away have gone, but there are thousands remaining to whom the first fall of snow will bring want and misery, without a ray of hope to cheer the dreary prospect, unless our men in authority come to their aid with the employment which is an necessary to keep the wolf from the door.—Quebec Telegraph.

DEATH OF Mrs. Robert Barker.

No greater shock has been felt by this community for some time than that today when it was learned that Mrs. Robert Barker was dead. Deceased was the only daughter of Dr. C. Brown and was much loved and respected for her many endearing qualities. When a week ago a little child was born in the home she shared, the mother, though seriously ill, was not thought dangerously so. All that medical skill and loving heart and hand could do ward of the pale messenger was of no avail. The husband and immediate relatives are prostrated with grief at the loss. Her death occurred at nine o'clock this morning. Much sympathy is expressed by all classes of citizens for the bereaved family. Her husband, Mr. Barker, is a well known citizen of this city.

Modern Miracles.

A singer for breath was distressed. And the doctors all said she must rest. For her weak lungs, you see, And now she can sing with the best.

Big Boots.

Under a displayed heading, "The Biggest Yet," the Fredericton Gleaser says:—"A tarpin is to be shown at Kingscler fair that is twenty-five inches in circumference. It was raised by Mr. J. W. Platt."

That's a fairly big tarpin, but it isn't worth boasting of. When our reporter read the paragraph he said "I saw some turkeys, mangel-worms, and carrots from the Station Farm, Chatham, at Dr. Pallen's and the Snowball stores, and think we can beat the Kingscler tarpin, so he went west to the block and measured and weighed some of them. They were found to be as follows:—

TURKIES. Circumference. Weight. No. 1 38 in. 17 1/2 lbs. No. 2 31 " 13 " No. 3 29 " 12 "

MANGEL-WORMS. Circumference. Length. Weight. No. 1 20 inches 21 inches 11 lbs. No. 2 18 " 18 " 9 " No. 3 17 " 18 " 8 " No. 4 16 1/2 " 17 " 7 1/2 "

There were also four carrots of smooth growth and symmetrical form, each of which was 12 inches in circumference, and the four weighed eight and a half pounds. There were bigger and heavier carrots in the crop, but they were misshapen.

The mangel came from a quarter acre plot of ground which yielded one hundred and ten barrels, while the tarpin and carrot plots yielded an equal liberal crop. The above figures are entirely reliable, and are given to show that the North is, at least not behind other parts of New Brunswick in the production of root crops.

Deaths.

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a pure vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiet pain, cures diarrhoea and colic, cures worms, soothes the child and gives it refreshing sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mother's friend, 35 cents, 65 cents.

The Fredericton Coat.

A Barker House guest arrived from Fredericton the other evening and said he heard the proprietor was away at Ottawa superintending the removal of one of the basement walls of the Parliament Building, so as to extend the House of Commons restaurant by means of a subway to the Russell House. He said he saw a stout, almost-red gentleman with a soft hat on, in the Barker House office, who told him that Mr. Coleman was also engaged for the season at Ottawa, to direct the carcass, fresco painter, and a number of general decorators in their work of renovating and remodeling the Commons bar, so as to remove the objections of scandal writers and others to being summoned to it. "Squibs", Again.

The Advance feels aggrieved because we did not take responsibility for the views and opinions of the "Liberal". The reason we do so is because it adopted Liberal's writings last week, going so far as to place his productions in its editorial columns and stating publicly, at the same time, that it withheld editorial matter on this subject, but we cannot be blamed for taking the Advance at its word.

An Unfortunate Affair.

The death of a man named Laconoff at Campbellton, which took place a few weeks ago, places Mr. Daniel Desmond, formerly of Chatham, but for several years a popular hotel proprietor in the former town in a very embarrassing position. It appears that Laconoff was in the habit of lecturing about the hotel, and, one day, while Mr. Desmond was looking after some men who were making alterations or repairs on his premises, he found him in his way and ordered him to leave. Laconoff did not do so, but was instead and threatening, instead, and when Desmond intimated that he would use force in ejecting him from the hotel, Laconoff made a pickaxe, whereupon Desmond picked up a piece of board and dealt him a blow somewhat about the neck, which disabled him. Unfortunately, Laconoff never recovered from the blow, but died in a week or two after it was inflicted, and the man's relatives seek to have satisfaction for his death and have caused criminal proceedings to be taken against Desmond. The coroner's jury found that the man's death resulted from the blow, but that Desmond had no intention of killing him, and that he was, in doubtless, correct, those who know the latter and, of course, regret the fatality, cannot help sympathizing with him in the awkward position in which he has been placed. No one but those who had seen the fatal blow, to say nothing of the fact that he would have been justified in taking the most extreme course in view of the weapon with which his own life was threatened by the deceased. The matter stands over until next August, when Pitches's Coroner.

Mr. Desmond will stand his trial. In the meantime he is admitted to bail.

The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin.

Some misdeed—during the progress of the fire—placed some inflammable material under the platform of Mr. Samuel Bishop's store, whither a lot of goods, etc., had been removed from the burning buildings for safe keeping, and set fire to it. It was however seen in time to be extinguished. Newcastle was on the point of sending an engine and some workers to assist Bathurst, in the emergency, when news of the fire being under control was received.

One morning a note came for Digby. He was glad to receive it, being anxious to know how Mr. Bouchier intended to act; or as he put it to himself, "it he would take it lying down or fighting." The letter gave no information on this point. It was a coldly written request, or more than a request, that Mr. Digby Bouchier would come to town without delay, as the writer wished an interview. Digby read it and tossed it over to his wife. Her eyes sparkled as she saw her father's handwriting. "Oh, I am glad! He must be better, as he writes himself."

"You are a rash man," he exclaimed. "I will ruin you." "I am not rash. It is as I said before—you have been too clever. You were to be bought. I would have given a fair price. You took your own mode of payment. You are silenced. You can't expect any tale to be credited to me. "If I am bought and silenced," said Digby, with a wicked manner, is your favorite daughter. His words made every nerve in Mr. Bouchier's body thrill. He rose and pointed to the door. "Go," he said. "Never speak to me—never let me see your face again." Digby saw his shaft had gone home. "All right," he said, carelessly, "I'll go now; but we shall have lots to talk about before we've done with one another. Josephine was waiting for him; she was growing very anxious. He gave her a smile and a kiss. She blushed like a rose, for her mother and sister were in the room, and these conjugal amenities in public were a new experience. "Better go and see the old boy," he whispered. "I can do nothing with him—he's very cranky. I'll go and sit all about your head in the house," Fowler's Wild Straw berry, Price, 35c.

Miramichi Advance. Beginning with the issue of November 6th, 1890, when the ADVANCE entered upon its Seventeenth Year of Publication! The publisher made an important change in the terms on which the paper is furnished to Subscribers. These include: 1st. Strict adherence to the system of cash in advance for all subscriptions. 2nd. The reduction of the price of the paper to One Dollar a Year.

WEEKLY TELEGRAPH OF ST JOHN AND THE FAMILY HERALD AND WEEKLY STAR of Montreal which I will furnish either of those papers and the "ADVANCE" TOGETHER AT One Dollar and Sixty Cents a Year! I have made the foregoing changes in the business of the ADVANCE for two reasons. The first is because many patrons who have been given credit, have abused the privilege to such an extent as to make the business of publishing the paper a non-paying one, and it is necessary in my own interest and that of those who do pay, that I should no longer continue to furnish the ADVANCE to those non-paying subscribers. The second reason is, that I wish to meet the competition of the city weeklies, which are made up from the type of the dailies and, therefore, cost little for production in comparison with a local paper like the ADVANCE, the type of which must be set up especially for it.
