

OPPOSITION TO BILL AMENDING PENSIONS ACT

Was Encountered in Commons Yesterday But Did Not Prevent Third Reading.

STATE INSURANCE EFFECTIVE SEPT. 1ST

Rates Less Than Those of Private Companies and No Medical Exams. Required.

Ottawa, June 23.—(Canadian Press)—Although opposition was encountered, the bill amending the pension act, which implements the recommendations of the special parliamentary committee on pensions, passed through the committee stage and was given third reading today. Captain C. G. Power, of Quebec South, was far from being satisfied with some of the provisions of the bill and suggested a number of amendments, none of which were accepted by the House. Captain Power was of the opinion that a widowed mother should receive the same pension as a wife, and he objected to the private income of a widowed mother being deducted from her pension. He met with a certain amount of support, and G. B. Nicholson, of Alberta, criticized the practice of permitting inspectors to go around prying into the private affairs of people to find out whether they had any private resources.

The opposition to the bill might have continued for some time, but Sir Robert Borden drew the attention of the committee to the fact that if any attempt were made to depart from the report, a new resolution might be proposed, which would mean delay. He suggested that the bill be passed in its present form, promising that the government would consider any suggestions offered and that if justice resulted from the measure amendments could be introduced at the next session.

At the opening of the evening session, the House gave third reading to a bill to cover state insurance for returned soldiers. This is another recommendation contained in the report of the pension committee. Hume Cronyn, the chairman of the committee, explained that the rates to be charged for the insurance were less than those charged by private companies and that the rates would be based on actual work injuries covered in another manner. The bill comes into force September 1 of the present year.

Quebec Wants Holidays A Senate amendment to the Ontario Bill, amending the Civil Service Act, which provides for a cutting down of religious holidays in the service, met with strong opposition from Quebec members. It was pointed out that, if the amendment carried, Catholics in the service would be placed in the position of having to disloyalty to the commandment of the church. Sir Robert Borden, finally, allowed the amendment to stand, although he expressed a fear that the Senate might not pass the bill through unless their amendment was accepted.

BRITISH GOVT TO CALL FOR RESERVISTS

Troubles in the Near and Middle East Necessitates an Increase in Strength of Army Reserve.

London, June 23.—The War Office intends almost immediately to appeal for reservists, according to the Daily Mail today. The newspaper says it probably will ask for discharged soldiers and men who served for at least one year during the war and have not since joined the Territorials to enlist in the army reserve. "The decision," the Daily Mail continues, "is due to the serious view taken by the military authorities of the situation in the near and middle East—a situation which it considers necessitates an increase of 15,000 to 20,000 men in the strength of the army reserves. The chief factors in this situation are the rapid spread of the Turkish Nationalist movement and the dangerous attitude of the troops of Kemal Pasha, the Turkish Nationalist Commander."

FOUND DEAD IN HIS BED

Moncton Citizen Passed Quietly Away Wednesday Afternoon.

Moncton, June 23.—Anthony Harkness, a well known citizen, was found dead in bed by his wife about three o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Harkness had not been feeling well for the last few days and about two o'clock this afternoon he went upstairs to rest. About an hour later his lifeless body was discovered by Mrs. Harkness. Deceased was 67 years of age, and he was survived by three sons and three daughters. He was a native of Prince Edward Island.

HOLD UP CORK TO DUBLIN MAIL TRAIN

Cork, June 23.—A mail train from Cork to Dublin was held up at Blarney tonight. It was in charge of two guards, who had taken the places of two men dismissed for refusing to operate trains carrying police. When the train reached the Blarney station a band of men seized the guards and thrust them into an automobile which speeded away. The train was then side-tracked. The passengers returned to Cork by another train.

RELIEF IN SIGHT FOR COAL SITUATION

Recent Order of I. S. C. Regarding Priority of Shipments for Coal to Help Canada.

Montreal, June 23.—Information reached this city tonight that the Inter State Commerce Commission of the United States has issued an order to all railroads to give preference to movements of bituminous coal on and after June 24, tomorrow. There is, therefore, a fair prospect that the threatened serious situation to local industries, due to the coal shortage may be averted. The points favored by the order of the Commission are in the eastern States by way of which coal reaches Canada, so that relief should be felt shortly. The coal fields of Nova Scotia, great as they are in potential output, are not aiding the situation here appreciably. The Nova Scotia coal is being sold for bunker coal and there is also a scarcity of bottoms to bring the coal from Nova Scotia up the River to Montreal.

MIGHTY RY. STRIKE FACES UNITED STATES

Men Have Become Restless Over Non-Settlement of Year-Old Wage Controversy—Issue Ultimatum.

Washington, June 23.—The Railroad Labor Board at Chicago has been urgently requested by President Wilson to expedite its wage decision. The President's message resulted from the general unrest among railroad workers over the wage questions and the walk-out of yardmen and other employees at Philadelphia, Baltimore and other cities. His text was not made public, but unofficially it was declared as being of a "forceful character." Soon after the White House announcement of the President's action, W. M. Dock, Vice-President of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, issued a warning that, unless there was a settlement of the now year-old wage controversy by the end of this week, the situation probably would be much worse than at present.

Ready to Act.

Chicago, June 23.—Everything possible is being done to expedite the decision on wage demands of railroad employees, the Railway Labor Board said today. The Board had not received President Wilson's message requesting an immediate decision, but, after reading press despatches from Washington, George W. Hanger, public representative on the Board and chairman of its Publicity Committee, announced no comment would be made, as it might be construed as an apology for delay and that the Board had no apologies to make. The present railroad strike had no connection with the delay in reaching a decision, the Board's Publicity Department said today, but apparently was prompted by an internal fight for control of the railroad unions.

ASQUITH ATTACKS ARMY ESTIMATES

London, June 23.—(By Canadian Associated Press)—The army estimates coming up again in the House today, gave the Commons an opportunity of discussing at length the British policy and operations abroad, special attention being directed to proceedings and expenditure in Mesopotamia. Mr. Asquith led the attack by moving a resolution in the vote. He declared there was no legal right for a British footing in Mesopotamia and urged the withdrawal of troops.

EMBARGO MAY END CRISIS IN IRELAND

Test of Strength on Railways Expected to be Bloody, But to Force Compromise.

TYING UP RAILROADS TEACH IRISH TRUTH

Economically They Are at the Mercy of England—Sinn Fein Have to Go.

By G. H. BRETHERTON. Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co. Dublin, June 23.—Astonishing as the statement may sound, the Irish problem is nearer a solution at the present moment than it has ever been. The home rule bill has definitely settled the Ulster question. The six counties of Ulster, never Irish in the sense in which the world understands the term Irish, will go their way or the British will go their way.

For the remaining twenty-six counties there are only two conditions that anybody considers seriously—Independence outside the British Empire and independence within it. The former the British Government is willing to accept, but the latter cannot be approached, since the government does not know who its moving spirits are; and, secondly, because they would not compromise, since Irish anarchy costs them nothing, and they are arrogantly sure of victory and all of them men whose dominating passion is to see Ireland a free and a desire to hurt England and whose anxiety for the welfare of Ireland is a secondary emotion. But these men only control Irish affairs because the great mass of the Irish bourgeoisie, the farmers and shopkeepers, who have a financial interest in the country, are pathetic and make no attempt to control the political situation themselves. And at present they are not a penny piece more for their attitude. They continue to wax rich and prosper individually while Ireland is relapsing into anarchy.

Premier Lloyd-George has declared that if the Irish railway men—Sinn Feiners to a man—extended their strike against the handling of munitions for Ireland—their strike would be broken. This railway men, urged on, not by their own industrial leaders, but by men to whom the political cause is everything, and the industrial cause is nothing, will not be slow to take up the challenge. Already those who are in touch with the situation are laying in provisions against the coming "lock-out" will not be slow to take up the challenge. Already those who are in touch with the situation are laying in provisions against the coming "lock-out" will not be slow to take up the challenge. Already those who are in touch with the situation are laying in provisions against the coming "lock-out" will not be slow to take up the challenge.

The result is obvious. It is not the Sinn Fein proletariat who will be hit first or worst, but the farmers, unable to export their cattle and dairy products; the manufacturers, unable to get coal; the shopkeeper, unable to get goods; and the industrial workers, unable to get food. There will be bloodshed, looting of shops, acts of sabotage, outrages and military reprisals, but the bourgeoisie will awake with a bang to the fact that they must get busy and go into politics, and go in a hurry, or perish.

The bridge of which Mr. J. H. Thomas's friend, Mr. Murphy, of Cork, spoke, will be hastily formed. British labor will overtake the anti-settlement diehards in the cabinet, the Irish farmers and shopkeepers threatened with empty pockets and the Irish proletarian's wife threatened with starving children will purge the Sinn Fein of desperation. There will be some hasty and ill-considered moves, embracing all of Ireland except the six Ulster counties, will emerge. It may take six months for this process to complete itself, but as things look now it is more likely to take six weeks. No one in Dublin today would offer two to one against the Irish embargo being in full swing within ten days.

One thing is certain, the solution when it comes will be a source of gratification to the whole world, but while the solvents are at work Ireland is going to be no place for life speculators.

MOST TERRIBLE DESTRUCTION IN LONDONDERRY

Streets Swept by Murderous Fire for Sixteen Continuous Hours, Many Dropping in Tracks.

MILITARY AND POLICE SEEM POWERLESS

More Troops Being Rushed to Relieve Those Exhausted by Constant Vigil.

TO LONDONDERRY MORE TROOPS SENT

London, June 23.—The Attorney-General for Ireland, Dennis Healy, announced in the House of Commons today that 500 troops arrived in Londonderry yesterday and that there were now 1,500 soldiers and 150 police in the city, which has 40,000 inhabitants. The Government said the Attorney-General was prepared to send whatever reinforcements were required.

Londonderry, June 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Five Sinn Feiners were killed by machine gun fire employed to cover the removal of several Protestants from Barrack Street tonight, according to a military statement. There is a lull now (10.30 p.m.) in the fighting.

TERRIBLE DESTRUCTION

Scenes of the most terrible destruction were enacted here last night and today. Many streets were swept by murderous fire for sixteen hours continuously. One man was killed and ten dangerously wounded in one section of the city. Several bodies are reported to be lying in Bishop Street. Among the wounded was a young girl and those who suffered slight injuries cannot be estimated. Sniping fire for sixteen hours scale and there was indiscriminate firing of rifles and revolvers all over the city. The principal conflict took place in Bishop Street, where there was a large concentration of Sinn Feiners in the neighborhood of St. Columba's Catholic College and St. Patrick's Protestant school. Sniping was thrown up from within strong fire was directed at the Unionists in Barrack Street. There was a vigorous exchange of fire and many casualties resulted on both sides. Meanwhile trouble had broken out on an extensive scale in the region of Longtower Street and Bishop's Gate, where there were fierce and prolonged exchanges. Sinn Feiners, occupying positions on roofs, sniped isolated Unionists. The soldiers and police were on duty but were unable to intervene effectively.

POLICE BESIEGED

The police in Bishop Street barracks, within the battle zone, were virtually besieged. Many passersby were wounded, and it is reported some were killed, but it is absolutely impossible to get exact details. A constable, named McKenna, was killed at the corner of Henrietta Street, a few yards from his own door. A bullet entered his breast and he collapsed. A priest was summoned and while he administered the last rites, firing was suspended.

Among today's casualties was an elderly man named Whiteside, who was accompanied by his son and daughter. They were passing through Bishop Street, and all of them were shot.

During the course of the night there was savage fighting in the waterside district; the rival factions were entrenched in Cross Street and Bond Street, both of which were barricaded.

SNIPERS BUSY

Snipers were busy until one o'clock this afternoon and contingents of troops had to be moved into various streets which, until then, were impassable to citizens. The streets had the appearance of a battleground. Sand bags were thrown up, with sniping almost in a state of exhaustion after the night's vigils. It is expected that troops are coming by road but no reinforcements have yet arrived.

There is fighting in the outlying districts from which Unionists are pouring into the city.

London, June 24.—The position at Londonderry is going from bad to worse, according to the Belfast correspondent of the London Times, who adds: "The gravest aspect of the position is that Derry may speedily become a mere incident in a much larger setting. For three days rumor has stated that Sinn Feiners from the New West were contemplating for an attack on the city—but it is not improbable."

WIRELESS STAFF CALL OFF STRIKE

London, June 23.—The strike of wireless operators, which threatened to bring telegraphic activities to a virtual standstill, has been called off. This action was taken as a consequence of meeting of the association of wireless telegraphists held today at London, Liverpool and other ports. The wireless leaders declare they have secured guarantees of fair treatment.

PARTY LEADERS CONFLICT OVER THE INDEMNITY

Question, the Leader of the Opposition Intimating That He Has Been Made the Goat.

KING MAKES GRAND-STAND SPEECH

Sir Robert Calmly Referred Mr. King to Custom Followed in Parliamentary Work.

Ottawa, June 23.—(Canadian Press)—A vigorous demand that the Prime Minister (Sir Robert Borden), together with the Leader of the Opposition (Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King) and the Leader of the Progressive Party (Hon. T. A. Crerar) make a definite announcement on what they intend to do in regard to increased indemnity for members of the Commons was launched in the House tonight, by J. E. Burnham, member for Peterborough.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King said that he had noted in a Montreal newspaper what purported to be a report of the proceedings of the Unilateral caucus yesterday, when Sir Robert Borden was stated to have informed his supporters that the Leader of the Opposition, as well as Hon. T. A. Crerar, Leader of the Progressive Party, had agreed in private conversation with the Prime Minister that increased salaries to Judges and Cabinet Ministers should be granted, but that members of parliament should get no increase in indemnity. Mr. King said that Sir Robert did talk to him recently about this, but what was said then was understood to have been in confidence and it would be treated accordingly. Sir Robert no doubt understood any disclosure to a caucus at which he (Mr. King) was not present would be a breach of confidence. Such a disclosure was purported to have been made. "I did discuss this matter with the Prime Minister," said Mr. King, "and I took the stand that it was a matter on which a secret settlement should be made, but that I reserved the right to discuss the thing on the floor of the House. Why should this matter be made a matter of bargain between party leaders? It should be discussed on its merits like any other matter and the Government should have a policy on it. It is not a party matter, and every member should be able to speak openly on it. I object to being made the 'goat' in such a question, to having it said that this or that policy on such a question must be enforced because the leader of the Opposition is supposed to be in favor of it. While the Government is in control, it should have its policy clearly stated and its policy for the guidance of members."

Sir Robert Replies. Sir Robert Borden said that he was sorry to have the leader of the Opposition think that he had violated any confidence. He did not propose to refer to anything that had occurred at a caucus, and he had no desire whatever to enter into any secret agreement. It was well known, however, that in matters which were primarily for Parliamentary rather than Government consideration it had been the practice for the leaders of the party to confer. He had been leader of the Opposition in the year 1905, when the Prime Minister had increased his salary from $1,000 to $2,500, and he remembered that the Prime Minister of that day had consulted him before the matter was brought into the House. What was more, he had, at that time, stated to the Prime Minister his views on the matter, which Mr. King had not done, and followed them up on the floor of the House.

SEN. HARDING GOT WIRES CROSSED

Called Upon to Make His Position Clear Regarding Ireland.

Kansas City, Mo., June 23.—Frank P. Walsh, former chairman of the Federal Industrial Relations Committee, tonight made public what he said was a copy of a letter Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican presidential nominee, wrote to him, in which Senator Harding expressed "a very sympathetic feeling for the movement to bring about the independence of Ireland." Mr. Walsh also made public a letter to Senator Harding asking the Senator to "correct the erroneous impression which may have been created by the qualified denial of yourself and say that such a letter had been written by you."

GERMANY RECEIVES ALLIES ULTIMATUM

Paris, June 23.—The note to Germany regarding a disengagement, prepared by the council of ambassadors and approved by the Allied Premier, at the Boulogne conference was handed to the German Peace delegation here this morning. The communication probably will be followed by another note going further into details and telling Germany exactly what she must do to avoid further military occupation of German territory.

SOVIET RESOLUTION STARTS TROUBLE

British Labor Party Had Stormy Session When Friends of Soviets Demanded Recognition of Gov't.

Scarborough, England, June 23.—The twentieth annual conference of the Labor Party this evening adopted a resolution demanding recognition of the Soviet Government of Russia. An amendment proposed by Ernest Bevin, of the Dock Workers' Union, favored the creation of a permanent Labor Commission for an investigation of conditions on the continent. The resolution and the amendment were adopted after the conference had been addressed by Lieutenant-Colonel L'Estrange Malone, member of Parliament for Leyton.

Earlier in the day the conference broke up in disorder when the resolution had been submitted by the Executive Committee demanding recognition of the Soviet Government in Russia. Lieutenant-Colonel Malone, Liberal member of Parliament for Leyton, attempted to speak on the resolution, but his credentials were demanded, and eventually he was ruled to be out of order. Ernest Bevin then endeavored to speak, but the confusion became so great that the conference broke up.

Another resolution declared that the Peace Treaty "grossly violated not only the object for which the Allies entered the war, but also the terms upon which the armistice was concluded." It demanded the immediate revision of the treaty, "viewed with great concern" the economic and social conditions in Central Europe and, in resolution, asked the Premier to receive a deputation of the Labor Party to discuss the subject.

CONDITION OF FORMER EMPRESS IMPROVED

Suffered a Severe Heart Attack Which Necessitated Summoning the Family.

Doom, Holland, June 23.—The condition of the former German Empress was so improved this morning that her eldest son, former Crown Prince Frederick-William, will probably return to Wieringen this afternoon. He was called here a day or two ago on account of what was considered the very serious illness of his mother. The former Empress suffered a severe heart attack on Monday which greatly alarmed the attending physician. She rallied, however, but is yet far from strong and is now in a condition of inactive invalidism.

New York, June 23.—Gimbel Brothers, of New York, operators of a large department store here and controlled by interests which own similar establishments in other cities in the United States, today were indicted on 207 counts for profiteering in clothing. REJECT REPORT OF MAJORITY AWARD

Regarding Wages of Office Employees in Grand Trunk System.

Montreal, June 23.—At a meeting of the local division of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Employees held tonight here to which all Grand Trunk employees in Montreal were invited, about 900 attending, it was decided to reject the report of the majority award regarding wages of office employees. It was stated that a vote will now be taken from the employees of the whole Grand Trunk system as to whether or not they will accept the majority award. This will be taken by mail and sent to headquarters at Ottawa.

TROOPS POURING INTO BELFAST

London, June 24.—A despatch to the London Times from Belfast, timed 11.20 o'clock Wednesday evening, said

EXERCISED THE PREROGATIVE OF WOMANKIND

CHANGED MIND IN MID-OCEAN

Transferring Affections to Another—Immigration Officials Take Case in Hand and Deport Woman.

New York, June 23.—(Canadian Press)—The decision of the Canadian immigration officials at Halifax, refusing Miss A. Butler, of Manchester, England, permission to enter Canada to wed any other man other than the man she had crossed the Atlantic to marry, was upheld by United States immigration officials at Ellis Island today. It was decided at a special board of inquiry that Miss Butler must continue her journey to Liverpool on the steamer Caronia, which sails from this port Saturday, that if she seems to be admitted to Canada, she was not to be admitted to the United States.

Changes Mind.

Miss Butler's original purpose in crossing the Atlantic was to become the bride of Captain R. Kitchen, of Sydney, C. B., formerly of the C. F. A. whom she promised to marry when he was in Manchester last year. She sailed on the Royal George for Halifax from Liverpool. It was midway between these two ports that Captain R. Mellor, of the British Army, stepped into Miss Butler's life as a lover, and before Halifax was reached she exercised woman's right to change her mind. The Canadian officials, however, did not view the matter in the same light, and refused her permission to land unless she married the Canadian whom she had intended to wed. Accordingly she refused, and was placed on the Caronia sailing from England via New York. Kitchen was a game loser; he paid her fare back rather than see her be deported as a stowaway passenger.

Both Work For Her. In the meantime the trans-Atlantic courier hastened rail to New York to try and induce the United States officials to display more leniency than he received at the hands of the Canadian officials.

But his pleadings at Ellis Island were in vain. Miss Butler was not even granted a temporary release, in order for admission to marry here. Inquiries at Ellis Island this morning elicited the information that two men offered the boat, one of whom was Captain Mellor. He had exercised every effort to obtain the release of the English girl. The manifest of the steamship Caronia showed that Miss Butler came to this city from Halifax as a "paid" passenger, and not as a deportee. This record gave the young woman a claim for admission before the United States immigration authorities. If the entry on the ship's manifest had shown her to be a deportee from Canada, the United States would have had no right to take her from the ship and the Canadian Line would have been strictly accountable that she be returned to the country from which she came. Captain Mellor, announced tonight that he would go back to England on the Caronia Saturday with Miss Butler and that they would be married as soon as they arrived in Manchester, her home.

Captain Kitchen was not present to intercede for his former fiancée.

MEDICAL ASSN. IN SESSION AT VANCOUVER

Medical Men and Welfare Workers in Attendance—Dr. Roberts Delivers Paper.

Vancouver, B. C., June 23.—Sectional meetings of the Canadian Medical Association, in session here, continued this morning. A special combined meeting will be held when the feature addresses of the convention will be delivered. Tonight the delegates will hold their annual dinner. Dr. R. E. McKee will deliver the preliminary address. There are 500 delegates attending the allied health and medical conference, composed of welfare workers from all parts of the Dominion. At sessions of the Public Health Association and the committee for combatting venereal diseases, Dr. Gordon Bates, of Toronto, secretary of the latter organization, presented his reports, and a report by Mrs. Arthur Murphy, Edmonton, on the control and habilitation of venereal disease victims was read.

Other papers on the subject were read by Dr. M. M. Seymour, Regina; Dr. W. P. Roberts, St. John; Dr. Gordon Bell, Winnipeg, and a discussion was led by J. A. Amyot, Ottawa, and Dr. J. W. McCullough, Toronto. Dr. Bates forecasted the organization of provincial and municipal branch committees for combatting venereal diseases.

Troops are pouring into Belfast and that some of them already have started for Londonderry.

MOST TERRIBLE DESTRUCTION IN LONDONDERRY

MILITARY AND POLICE SEEM POWERLESS

More Troops Being Rushed to Relieve Those Exhausted by Constant Vigil.

"For the time being very large bottles of lawless elements in the city possess deadly weapons and plenty of ammunition; for the first time the whole city is involved, and not merely a restricted area, where the factious lives, for the first time the principal victims have been lawless people, who have been shot down, not for political or sectarian reasons, but in wantonness. The lawless element over a wide area is being drawn into the conflict while those who, hitherto, have held aloof from any battles are gradually but surely coming to the conclusion that they must take up weapons. The proceedings at Derry possess every element of civil war without any interference worthy of the name from the forces which the Government is supposed to control.

"The descent of Sinn Féiners, en masse, from the countryside, answered or preceded by a large movement in Ulster, either of which seems possible at any time, will immediately precipitate matters in such a way that the military forces may be regarded.

Bent On Vengeance

"Unionists are said to be pouring into the city bent on vengeance, but there is also an exodus of people from the city by road and train. It is reported that artillery has arrived."

In another despatch the Belfast correspondent of the London Times says it is stated, on good authority, that as soon as the necessary reinforcements have arrived Londonderry will be surrounded in a day.

A destroyer entered Lough Foyle yesterday afternoon and took up a position off the city. Newly arrived troops were welcomed enthusiastically by the population.

The hospitals in Londonderry are filled with wounded, mainly soldiers. The newspaper staffs are housed in one or two districts but many of the residents in the worst area have had to leave their homes at the mercy of the mobs and there has been some looting.

YALE CONFERS HONORS ON AMBASSADOR GEDDES

In Presenting the Honor to British Representative Fitting Tribute Was Paid by Prof. Lyon.

New Haven, Conn., June 23.—Sir Auckland Geddes, British Ambassador to the United States, has received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws at commencement exercises of Yale University today. The French Ambassador, M. Jusserand, and General Pershing were also among those who received honorary degrees.

The presenter of the degrees was Professor Wm. Lyon Phelps. In presenting the degree to Ambassador Geddes, the Professor said, after mention of his career:

"The most essential factor in establishing the future Peace of the world is absolute harmony and sincere friendship between Great Britain and the United States. All who speak the English language, in every corner of the earth, are members of one family; nothing should interfere in this union. Today Yale honours herself in adding to her list of honorary graduates a friend, a neighbor—yes in spirit and in blood, a brother."

One Great Essential To A Woman's Health Is Her Nerves.

Nature intended women to be strong, healthy and happy as the day is long. Instead of sick and wretched. But how can any woman be healthy and happy when the whole nervous system is unstrung. The trouble is that they pay more attention to their social and household duties than they do to their health. Is it any wonder then that they become irritable and nervous, have hot flashes, faint and dizzy spells, swooning and sinking spells, become weak and nervous, and everything in life becomes dark and gloomy.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the very remedy that nervous, tired-out, weary women need to restore them to the blessings of good health.

Mrs. P. H. Ryan, Sand Point, N. S., writes:—"I have been a great sufferer from nerve trouble. I was so weak and nervous I could not sleep at night and my appetite was very poor, I could not walk across the floor without trembling, I had hot flashes and fainting spells. When I was on my second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I began to feel better and kept on until I had used six boxes when I felt like a different person. I am never without them in the house and recommend them to all who suffer with their nerves."

PARTY LEADERS CONFLICT OVER THE INDEMNITY

(Continued from page one) The leader of the Opposition, said Sir Robert, had not yet given to the House his views on increased indemnity. The Prime Minister, however, proposed to do so. Representations had been made to him by members of the House comparing indemnities paid to members in the United States, Australia and in the provinces of Canada.

He was aware, said Sir Robert, that conditions had changed materially since 1905 when the last increase was put through. Summed up, Sir Robert said, he was not averse to having his views known, and they were as follows:

First—He thought, in justice to a large majority of the members of this House, the indemnity ought to be increased and that it was too low at the present time.

On the other hand there was in his mind, and he commended it to honorable members on both sides of the House, a grave and serious doubt whether it would be in the public interest, whether it would be in the interest of parliamentary institutions or whether it would be in the interest of members themselves, to press for such increased indemnity at the present time.

Replying to Mr. Burnham, who asked if that principle should not apply to all wage earners, Sir Robert said they must consider themselves in a different position to other wage earners because they were charged with the care of the public purse.

Increases mentioned to him had been to $4,000 and $5,000. Several deputations from portions of the civil service had been to him with urgent appeals on the hardships they would have to suffer under present rates of pay.

As the Prime Minister clearly intimated that the Government has no intention of bringing in a bill or other wise providing money for increased indemnities, it would seem that the matter is closed for the present session.

Hon. W. S. Fielding thought a logical case had been made out for an increase, but it should be made to apply not to the present Parliament. Cries of "No, no," from both sides of the House greeted this, and Mr. Fielding pointed out that the public was unreasonably sensitive on the matter. He next suggested that an additional $500 be given for the present session and the annual indemnity be raised to $1,000, but not made effective until

CAPT. COUGHDON PLEADS GUILTY TO THEFT CHARGE

Admits Stealing $1,000 Worth of Jewelry from Visitor at Halifax—Was in Service.

Halifax, N. S., June 23.—(Canadian Press.)—Captain D. G. Coughdon, who arrived here this afternoon from Montreal in charge of Detective Kennedy, pleaded guilty to a charge of theft of $1,000 worth of jewelry from the wife of Captain George Cooper, a visitor to Halifax, in the police court this evening. He appeared to be anxious to have the trial finished as quickly as possible, and, waiving all rights, elected to be tried summarily. He was remanded until Friday for sentence.

Asked by the magistrate if he had anything to say, "Coughdon" replied that he would endeavor to make restitution for what he had done in so far as he was able, and that he was sorry.

He admitted that "Coughdon" was not his real name. He said he was 29 years of age, that his home was in Australia, some distance out of Sydney, and that he was a civil engineer. He told the magistrate that he had served with the Australians at Gallipoli, in Mesopotamia and in France, and that he had been wounded and gassed, being invalided home in 1918.

Other charges against him were not pressed.

poster for which Miss Gretchen Skinner was awarded $2. There was an appealing look on the dog's face and the words, "Why Can't I Go to Animal Rescue League?" were inscribed at the bottom.

Miss Grace Mahoney was awarded $2 for her poster, "Forgotten! A dog left chained in yard, with an empty dish in front of him and the call up set, furnished the scene. Anger and grief are shown by the animal and the words, "The Animal Rescue League Would Shelter Me," finished the drawing.

D. C. Gilch, president of the S. P. C. A. presented the prizes. The judges for the posters were Mrs. L. deV. Chipman and P. N. Woodley.

The Art Club prizes were presented by W. F. Hatheway. Several oil paintings exhibited by Mrs. Hall were much admired, they included a painting of the Prince of Wales and Governor Pugsley, from a photo taken during the visit of the Prince to St. John.

A reception was held and tea served from four to six. Mrs. H. A. Powell poured and was assisted by Mrs. L. deV. Chipman, Mrs. W. F. Hatheway, Miss Lillian Hazen and Miss Clara O. McGivern.

The Rothesay School Closing

Large Attendance Yesterday—Premier Foster Addressed the Boys and Awarded the Prizes—Complimentary Remarks Regarding the Headmaster—List of Prize Winners.

The Rothesay C. I. S. School closed yesterday for the summer vacation. At the conclusion of the sports on the athletic field the presentation of prizes took place and the headmaster's report for the year was read. Premier Foster presided and the different prizes were presented by Mrs. Foster.

The Premier addressed the boys briefly. He said that it was a great pleasure to assist at the closing exercises of Rothesay College and he wished to express to Mr. Hibbard his appreciation of the honor and privilege he had bestowed upon him. During his public career it had often been his task to respond to the toast to our educational system and our institutions of learning. On those occasions he had referred with pride to the educational system controlled by the Government and looked after by the Board of Education. He felt the same pride in referring to the school at Rothesay and to the other colleges and educational institutions in the province, among which Rothesay was one of the most prominent. He felt sure that the record of the students, not only in their classes at the school but also during the recent great war, must be a matter of great pride to the headmaster, Mr. Hibbard. He then addressed an special word to the boys and reminded them that not all the prizes are won in school. It often happens that those who have won the great prizes in the battle of life never figure in the honor list at school. He told the boys that they too could win out if they only went at it with the same determination. Closing he paid a tribute to the public-spirited founder of the institution, and also to the present headmaster and his staff, who, he said, were imbued with the same high ideals.

Rev. W. E. Hibbard, the headmaster, before reading the report for the year voiced his appreciation of the Premier's presence at the closing.

The report for the 29th year of the present institution showed that though it was not uneventful yet it was not marked by any outstanding features. Ninety-seven pupils had been enrolled, six of whom were day pupils. The number in residence at one time was eighty-one, and this figure remained constant. The self-government system, laying more duties and responsibilities on the school monitors was introduced during the year with satisfactory results. It is intended to extend the system next year. In the various activities the school had very successful year. The cadet corps made the best record

The year of any. One of the rifle shooting teams won the provincial championship and very creditable showings were made by the school in other meets in which teams participated. Mention was also made of the success gained by the athletic team. There will be one change in the staff next year, L. H. S. Bent, M. A., who is leaving for another field, and his place will be taken by A. M. Arbutnot, B. A. The funds necessary have been subscribed and the report closed with an appeal to the Old Boys and other friends to send in their subscriptions for this worthy project.

The prizes were then presented to the winners, and the list is as follows:

To Convene in Winnipeg for Discussion of Future Policy and Wage Scale.

Winnipeg, June 23.—A Dominion convention of railway shop men and carmen of Division No. 4, it is understood, will be held in Winnipeg for discussion of the coming year's policy and the wage schedule now being negotiated by the Dominion Railway Board at Montreal. The division constitutes the whole of Canada and embraces 35,000 employees.

Returns from the various locals voting on the advisability of holding the convention are sufficient to empower the executive to call the convention at any time in case of emergency, it was said today. It is believed, however, that the sessions will not be held until the usual time in November.

WHEN IS A BOY TOO OLD TO ATTEND HIS CHURCH?

Where Did Our Ideals of Liberty Come from?—Why is Mother Respected and Honored?—Some Questions Answered by Bruce Barton.

I have a friend of nineteen who quit going to Church last year; and when I asked him why he had quit, he answered that a church was doubtless a good thing in its way—a nice place for women and children to meet on Sunday mornings, but no real place for a man, or a boy who was almost a man.

After he left me I got to wondering about what he had said. Is a church merely a place for women and children to go and sit and be preached to, or at? What is the Church anyway? And at what age is a boy too old to take any more interest in it?

All of us have the very human habit of judging the big things of the world from a few small facts. We pick up the telephone receiver, and because central does not answer in a jiffy, we say: "The telephone system is all gone to pieces." We ship a parcel to Chicago by express, and if it happens to be delayed twenty-four hours we think that the express companies are terribly inefficient. We see a little unpainted church, with a preacher who is struggling to support his family on starvation wages, and we think that the Church is losing out all along the line.

But if we could see the thousands of miles of wire, and great army of trained employees, and the huge central stations that are the telephone system, we would never make a telephone call without feeling a sense of mystery and awe. Think of the miracle of it—how able to sit in your own home, and without lifting your voice, have it carried across rivers and mountains for hundreds of miles. If we stopped to remember that it took weeks to carry the news of Cornwallis' surrender from Yorktown to New York, we would have a little better appreciation of the marvelous feat that the express company performs when it carries our parcels from Chicago to New York, not in weeks, or in days, but in hours.

Mr. Knox was greatly pleased with prospects and believes that when the time comes the land of the Maple Leaf will make a creditable showing just as they did in 1912 and 1916. Knox had charge of the Canadian team in 1912 at Sweden.

Discussing the western athletes, Coach Knox said that he was very favorably impressed with the material available west of Winnipeg. Particularly was he taken with a high jumper and a shot putter. The high jumper is a raw-boned farmer boy, but he believes that he will do better than his feet show, while the shot putter has been coached into harness again, and by a revolution in his style may be expected to toss the 16-pound shot 46 or 47 feet. The shot putter is a married man, six feet three inches and weighs 220 pounds, and it was a great task to get him to try again, but he came out eventually and, after just taking off his coat and hat, tossed the weight 41 feet. Now the officials are camping on his trail to get him into condition. Then there is a broad jumper in the west who has attracted the Olympic coach's attention, and he has several middle distance runners

Resolute Added The Seventh Win

Defeated the Vanitie Yesterday by One Minute and Seven Seconds Corrected Time—Was Tenth of Series Over 20-Mile Course.

Newport, R. I., June 23.—The sloop Resolute added the seventh win to her string of victories in the America's Cup defence elimination series today, defeating the Vanitie by one minute and seven seconds, corrected time. Today's race, the tenth of the series, was over a 20-mile course with windward and leeward legs.

The Resolute made a slow getaway as she jibed for a new start. Both yachts split tacks after starting, the Vanitie going to port and her rival to starboard.

The beat to windward was a hard battle, the Resolute gaining a few seconds. On the return the Vanitie gained and led the Resolute by one second at the finish, losing the race on the time allowance of one minute, eight seconds.

On the run to the finish, spinners were not used by either boat, as both ran to leeward.

Rothsay Annual Field Sports

Large Crowd Enjoyed Closely Contested Events Yesterday—120 Yards School Record Was Smashed.

The annual field sports of Rothsay College school were held yesterday afternoon. Beautiful weather prevailed and a large number of relatives were present. The early part of the afternoon was taken up with the sports. Every event was keenly contested and quite interesting. The feature was the 120 yards hurdles by Grease who hung a new record of 16 2-5 sec. This is 2-5 of a second better than the time for the same event made at the Ontario Olympics recently. The event that attracted the most interest and created the greatest laughter was the "Old Boys" race. About fifty of the old-timers turned out for this race which was won by Fiewelling. Grease scored the most points in the senior events while Dennis and Bowman tied in the intermediate. The result of the different events were as follows:

Championships of Canadian Golf

Will be Held at Beausfield Next Week—Will Develop Into Battle Between East and West According to Entries.

Montreal, June 23.—The Canadian Golf championships which are going to be held at Beausfield next week will develop into a battle between East and West, according to the entries received in part today. While Montreal and this province will be strongly represented by Champion Wm. Stanlie, B. Reith, the new provincial amateur title holder and others, Ontario will send a particularly strong delegation headed by the eight times amateur champion, George S. Lyon, W. J. Thompson, who made such splendid showing at last year's championships at Lambton; Seymour Lyon, Stanlie, Thompson, Frank Thompson, Wilfrid C. James, B. L. Anderson, F. R. Martin (twice amateur champion), Bowly, and Brice S. Ilton; F. G. Hobbitt, of Barria, and some thirty others from Toronto; Brantford and other points. Ottawa is sending a number of likely players. B. S. MacFarlane, of Truro, N. S., champion of the Maritime Provinces, has wired that he is entering, and from Boston will come Brice S. Evans, runner-up to George S. Lyon at Ottawa, in 1914, and T. Farrington, a particularly fine Boston player.

The Industrial League Game

McAvity Team Defeated Simms Company Last Evening—One Bad Inning, Remainder of Game Was Most Interesting.

In the Industrial League game last evening T. McAvity & Sons' team defeated that of T. S. Simms & Co. by a score of 15 to 6. A large crowd witnessed the game which was full of interest in every inning but the first when the McAvity sluggers got to Allen, the opposing pitcher, and drove him from the box. Ross, who relieved him, pitched a fairly steady game. The batteries were: T. McAvity & Sons, White and Henderson; T. S. Simms & Co., Allen, Ross and Callaghan. Mr. Mackinnon umpired the game.

Score by innings:

T. McAvity & Sons . . . 70301004—15
T. S. Simms & Co. . . . 01000104—6

The Nashua Park and Paper team played the Stetson Outfit's evening. There are a number of good ball players on the Simms Co's pay roll who are at present playing in the Intermediate League in West St. John. Supporters of the team would like to see them in the line-up, as it would strengthen it greatly. They do not see why these players do not also play for the Simms team since they play nights do not conflict and there is no reason to believe that they cannot play for both teams.

THE WORLD OF SPORT AS SEEN BY THE MOST CRITICAL EYE

Why Did Henley Stewards Reject Jack Kelly's Entry?—Only Eight Hours and Benny Leonard Between Lew Tendler and Ring Title.

Copyright 1920, by Public Ledger Co. BY WM. H. ROCAP.

Sportmen throughout the country are asking this question: If Jack Kelly had not been a member of the Vesper Boat Club would his entry for the diamond stunts on the Henley regatta? Because the Vesper crew which rowed for the grand challenge cup nearly twenty years ago did not live up to the rigid ethics of Henley? It is claimed Kelly's entry this year was refused. He is the champion sculler of the United States. His entry was endorsed by the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen and the American Rowing Association. It is a direct insult to these organizations who vouchsafed for Kelly's status.

For several years the Henley Stewards sought American entries to insure the success of that rowing classic. Now they turn their backs on the governing bodies of sport in the United States. When the Oxford-Cambridge team visited this country recently, despite the fact they were accompanied by a former professional runner who was their trainer, no question was raised as to their Amateur status or how the money was raised to send them to America. They had the endorsement of the British Amateur Association. That was enough for us. We have been taught to trust each other.

Reciprocity in sports would be a good lesson for the Henley stewards to learn.

Won the English Plaudits

When William M. Johnson, of California and William T. Tilden, 2d, of this city, won their way to the final round of the Queen's Club tennis tourney for the championship of London, it insured the title for this country. When they met Saturday to see which one would bear the coveted honor, followers of the net game crowded the courts. The two Americans, who as a team, won the doubles title, fought a three-set battle, which had the London crowd on its feet. Thousands clasped it as the greatest exhibition of tennis ever witnessed at the Queen's Club. What a tribute to the game and to the American players. Sport for sport's sake may be the best man win, but what has made tennis almost leap into popularity.

An Ideal Partially Realized.

Does sane athletics and judicious exercise insure health? Chas. E. Courtney, age seventy-one, the hero of thirty-eight boat races with Cornell crews in thirty-six years is the answer. In 1876 at the age of twenty-six he won the Amateur sculling championship at the centennial regatta on the Schuylkill river. He practically lived in an atmosphere of rowing since he was a boy. On Saturday the ambition of his life as a coach was partially realized. He longed to see an intercollegiate regatta rowed on Cayuga Lake and his crews swept the card. He saw the regatta and his younger juniors and freshmen score victories over Syracuse, Penn and Columbia, but his variety was obliged to take the wash of Syracuse. His ideal almost came to pass for seconds only separated his crew and the Ten Eyck Eight at the finish.

American youth could well emulate the Grand Old Man. "The wizard of the Finger Lakes." He is a splendid example of clean living. He taught the wearers of the Cornellian and White to play the game fair and always to win. He was a right disciplinarian and every graduate of the Courtney School carried with him into the world a rare asset.

Can Tender Surmount the Obstacle.

There is only a little obstacle left between Lew Tendler and Benny Leonard before the world's best long-distance swimmers, set out for a practice and swam 24 miles yesterday. The start was made at Victoria, pier at 9:15 a. m. and he reached Charlestown at 1:40 p. m., a distance of about 24 miles. The facts were reported by his manager, Armand Vincent, who states that Perault is going to later try and swim the English channel. He would like to arrange a long-distance swim race against Henri Lersard before he goes away.

South End League Game Last Evening

The Pirate Leaders Were Defeated by the All Stars by a Score of Three to Nothing

On the South End diamond last night the Pirates, the league leaders were defeated by the All Stars by a score of 3 to 0. King pitched great ball for the winners, allowing only two hits and striking out seven men. Kerr for the Pirates was hit lightly and struck out nine, but he was not as steady as his opponent. The following is the box score and summary:

French Water Sees MILLERAND PRESIDENT

Believes if Deschanel Resigns Within Four Months Premier Will Succeed Him.

Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co. Paris, June 23.—While Premier Millerand announces an improvement in President Deschanel's health, La Vie Parisienne likewise announces at the head of its curiously well informed "They Say—They Say" column that the Premier's encouraging statement to his colleagues of the cabinet are "not confirmed in other quarters." This chatty column asks sagely if it is not a fact that M. Deschanel's enforced repose is incompatible with the important function invested in his office, since it is the leading topic now being discussed in political circles.

The magazine says it is "quite natural" that gentlemen who are fixed comfortably in the presidential entourage should describe the affairs as merely a passing crisis, but adds: "They say" with absolute assurance of a new congress at Versailles. They are even candidates for the presidency. We are naming one of them, leaving it to the reader to make his prediction. If in four months M. Deschanel is obliged to resign, it is probable Millerand will succeed him. We must say Millerand replies to the contrary, but we know very well just what he means.

Montreal Boy Wan's To Swim Big Channel

Montreal, June 23.—Omer Perault, who styles himself as one of the world's best long-distance swimmers, set out for a practice and swam 24 miles yesterday. British Tennis Championship Will Move Kennels Of Montreal Hunt

New Property Has Been Purchased at Grand Feniere for Future Quarters.

On account of the growth of the city and the decrease of farm land on the Island of Montreal and the country immediately adjacent, the Montreal Hunt which has been in continuous existence since 1826, has found it necessary to move the kennels from their present location, which was purchased in the year 1897.

A recently situated property which can be approached by several very good motor roads, has been purchased at Grand Feniere, close to the station of the Canadian National Railway. It is not the intention to move the clubhouse from its present location, but the surrounding district becomes so built up as to spoil the club's beautiful grounds, but if at some future date it is decided to build a clubhouse on the new property, it will yield many attractions to the members, including a splendid location for skilling and other winter sports, good motor roads in the summer and the possibility of a golf course. Fox hunting being the object of the Montreal Hunt, and it is intended to have the hounds established in their new quarters by the commencement of the coming hunting season, and that accommodation will be provided for horses of members intending to hunt and that many good days' run will be enjoyed from the Hunt's new home.

It became necessary to locate the kennels in a distinctive hunting country of which the newly selected site is about the centre.

The master, Mr. Harold Hampson, has been fortunate enough to secure a draft of several of some of the best hounds in the Old Country, these hounds come from the Lauderdale Hunt, which is one of the crack packs in Scotland and were brought out by Crocker, the second whip of the Lauderdale, who will act in that capacity here.

The Hunt has also bought three new hunters, so that the Hunt estates will be mounted as well as they were in pre-war days.

U. S. OLYMPIC RUGBY TEAM

Stanford University, Cal., June 23.—Names of twenty athletes to be included in the Rugby team that will represent the United States at the Olympic games were announced today by W. Harry Malone, president of the California Rugby Union. One week of intensive training before the team leaves Stanford on July 29 is planned. The players expect to sail from New York August 25.

Several games with Belgian teams are being arranged to precede the Olympic game schedule, which is set for August 30 to September 5. A tentative schedule calls for the following games after the Olympic contest:—

Sept. 8—Brussels.

Sept. 10—France at London.

Sept. 18—Plymouth, England.

Sept. 20—Canbora at Cornwall, England.

Included in the squad are nearly all of the men who composed the California team that played a series of matches against Canadian Rugby players in British Columbia last winter.

Rifle Matches.

It was announced at local military headquarters yesterday morning it had been decided that ammunition of the Dominion arsenal manufactured in the years 1915 and 1916 only, is to be used in Dominion and Provincial rifle matches this year. The 1915 ammunition will be given preference, but if this is not available 1916 can be used.

Harry Malone, president of the California Rugby Union. One week of intensive training before the team leaves Stanford on July 29 is planned. The players expect to sail from New York August 25.

Several games with Belgian teams are being arranged to precede the Olympic game schedule, which is set for August 30 to September 5. A tentative schedule calls for the following games after the Olympic contest:—

Sept. 8—Brussels.

Sept. 10—France at London.

Sept. 18—Plymouth, England.

Sept. 20—Canbora at Cornwall, England.

Included in the squad are nearly all of the men who composed the California team that played a series of matches against Canadian Rugby players in British Columbia last winter.

Rifle Matches.

It was announced at local military headquarters yesterday morning it had been decided that ammunition of the Dominion arsenal manufactured in the years 1915 and 1916 only, is to be used in Dominion and Provincial rifle matches this year. The 1915 ammunition will be given preference, but if this is not available 1916 can be used.

McAvity Team Defeated Simms Company Last Evening—One Bad Inning, Remainder of Game Was Most Interesting.

In the Industrial League game last evening T. McAvity & Sons' team defeated that of T. S. Simms & Co. by a score of 15 to 6. A large crowd witnessed the game which was full of interest in every inning but the first when the McAvity sluggers got to Allen, the opposing pitcher, and drove him from the box. Ross, who relieved him, pitched a fairly steady game. The batteries were: T. McAvity & Sons, White and Henderson; T. S. Simms & Co., Allen, Ross and Callaghan. Mr. Mackinnon umpired the game.

Score by innings:

The Nashua Park and Paper team played the Stetson Outfit's evening. There are a number of good ball players on the Simms Co's pay roll who are at present playing in the Intermediate League in West St. John. Supporters of the team would like to see them in the line-up, as it would strengthen it greatly. They do not see why these players do not also play for the Simms team since they play nights do not conflict and there is no reason to believe that they cannot play for both teams.

THE IRISH SITUATION.

The situation in Ireland is rapidly becoming of such a character that the Government will be forced to choose between adopting an up-to-date version of Cromwell's "Thorough" method, or giving in to the malcontents.

In seeking a remedy for present conditions in Ireland, it is necessary in the first place to ascertain the causes of them. It is not the Irish themselves who are at the bottom of the trouble; left to himself the Irishman is as inoffensive an individual as is to be found in any country on earth.

Canada is, geographically speaking, the centre of an Empire of world-wide dimensions, and it is up to the Canadian people to make it the centre of the Empire in other respects.

There are at present two streams of anarchy flowing in Ireland, two distinct types of outrage, political and agrarian, and the methods which have been adopted for the purpose of suppressing them have signally failed so far.

Such, however, is the situation that the British Government is called upon to handle, and it seems to be useless to wear a velvet glove for the purpose.

Some remarks made by Lt.-Col. Amory, Under-Secretary of State for the Colonies in the British Government, in the course of an address to the Young Men's Canadian Club at Montreal a few evenings ago are worthy of more than passing note.

It must be a comfort for the Supreme Court to remember, upon reading Mr. Wheeler's decision, that it made no ruling on the particular difference between the maximum percentage between the maximum percentage named in the Volstead act, and the "intoxicating in fact" percentage.

Some remarks made by Lt.-Col. Amory, Under-Secretary of State for the Colonies in the British Government, in the course of an address to the Young Men's Canadian Club at Montreal a few evenings ago are worthy of more than passing note.

which the Revenue Bureau and Counsel Wheeler permit the householder to have in his home.

But by what process are the guardians of the law to discover whether the home made stuff which is over one-half of 1 per cent. is also "intoxicating in fact"?

Not the manufacturer, not the user, but the dealer! The farmer and the commuter with their cider, the flat dweller with his amateur brewing, may thank the Internal Revenue Commissioner and Mr. Wheeler for nothing.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

That Man O'Connor. (Kingston Whig.) And now "that man O'Connor" has quit. His task on the Board of Commerce was a thankless one, and he is probably glad to retire.

Two Experts. (Chicago Tribune.) Mexico's Provisional President is "considered a remarkable tenor singer," and he used also to be a teller in a bank.

Dempsey and Carpenter. (Hamilton Herald.) How can a respectable fellow like George Carpenter meet Jack Dempsey in the ring without loss of respect?

What For? (Lancaster Digest.) Just why America should be feverishly building huge battleships and battle cruisers at a rate that will soon make us the strongest naval power on earth is a question that is interesting.

Funerals. The funeral of Mrs. Mary Addison of Willow Grove was held yesterday morning from P. J. Fitzpatrick's undertaking parlors.

SLOW DEATH. Aches, pains, nervousness, difficulty in urinating, often mean serious disorders. The world's standard remedy for kidney, liver, bladder and uric acid troubles—GOLD MEDAL MARLEN OIL CAPSULES.

A BIT OF VERSE. EXPERIENCES OF AN INTERNATIONALIST. The Gulf Stream said sadly: "Take warning by me, I got the idea of crossing the sea."

WHAT IS "INTOXICATING IN FACT"? New York Sun: A few days ago the Internal Revenue Bureau, pursuing its familiar habit of interpreting the laws which concern it, announced a decision that cider and fruit juices may be manufactured and kept in the home when they are "non-intoxicating in fact and not necessarily less than one-half of 1 per cent. alcohol."

THE LAUGH LINE. The happiness of marriage is not always measured by the social brilliancy of the wedding.

Both in the Same Position. New Girl (timidly): "I s'pose you're a fine cook, mum." Young Mistress: "Bless me, no! I don't know a thing about it."

A Counterfeit Reason. "Yes, I still have the first pound note that I made," said the gray-haired passenger.

Glenn L. Atkinson. Norton.—A vill of sorrow and grief was spread o'er our village on Tuesday, February 23rd, when the angel of death claimed all that was mortal of our friend Glenn L. Atkinson.

Having possessed a personality which nature surely endowed with all gifts of his lavish hand, and a kindly and loving disposition, he endeavored himself to all who were fortunate enough to have been his friend, and to have known him was to have loved and respected him.

In his passing from this vale of life to the life eternal beyond the grave, Norton is robbed of a young life which it could ill afford to lose.

The home of our departed friend is mourning its sad but irrevocable loss in its heart-broken father and mother, and his sisters, Mrs. Albert Makepeace and Miss Beatrice at home, and his four brothers, Rupert of Sackville, N. B., Hudson, St. Charles, and Reginald of Norton.

The heartfelt sympathy of the community is extended to those sorrowing who he has left behind, and there are many in this village and many more in other parts, who will cherish his life and memory, for the sake of our departed friend.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 23rd, when the obsequies of our departed friend were held, was filled to capacity, representing all classes of the community. The immense gathering bore testimony to the place which the deceased held in the esteem of all.

THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION MET. The Public Utilities Commission of New Brunswick met yesterday in regular session at the Government rooms. In the morning the application of the York and Carleton Telephone Co. for an increase of rates, was returned. An order will be issued later by the Board. Save the Babies.
INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!
We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save many of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. To avoid any possibility of giving your child opiates, or narcotics of any kind, keep Fletcher's Castoria in the house, and Save the Babies.

Fletcher's Castoria is all its advertising has claimed for it. Scrutinized by the microscope of public opinion and used for over thirty years it stands without a peer in the hearts of thoughtful, cautious, discerning Mothers. And once used, mother love—there is no substitute for mother love—will soon try a "substitute" or a "just-as-good".

OBITUARY.
Glan L. Atkinson.
Norton.—A veil of sorrow and grief was spread over our village on Tuesday, February 23rd, when the angel of death claimed all that was mortal of our friend Glan L. Atkinson. Having been ill only a few days, and being in the first years of his manhood, the closing of his life circle came as a crushing sorrow to his relatives and friends.
Having possessed a personality which nature surely endowed with all gifts of his lavish hand, and a kindly and loving disposition, he endeavored himself to all who were fortunate enough to have been his friend, and to have known him was to have loved and respected him.
In his passing from this vale of tears to the life eternal beyond the grave, Norton is robbed of a young life which it could ill afford to lose.
The home of our departed friend is mourning its sad but irrevocable loss in its heart-broken father and mother, and his sisters, Mrs. Albert Mackpeace and Miss Beatrice at home, and his four brothers, Rupert of Sarkville, N. B., Haddon, St. Clair, and Reginald of Norton.
The heartfelt sympathy of the community is extended to those sorrowing who he has left behind, and there are many in this village and many more in other parts, who will, while life and memory lasts, remember their friend Glan L. Atkinson.
The Baptist Church here on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 24, when the obsequies of our departed friend were held, was filled to capacity, representing all classes of the community. The immense gathering bore testimony to the place which the deceased held in the esteem of all.
The cortege to the cemetery was followed by sorrowing relatives and friends. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, bearing silent testimony of the love of those from whom he has gone.

STORY OF DR. MENZIE'S HEROIC SACRIFICE
Although Unarmed He Attacked Single-Handed Band of Chinese Bandits.

Vancouver, B. C., June 23.—The first detailed account has just reached the city of the heroic death of Rev. James R. Menzies, M. D., D. D., the well-known Chinese missionary, who has relatives in Vancouver, at Pitt Meadows, and on Vancouver Island. He was in his fifty-fourth year, and leaves a family living in Toronto. The description of his murder, while defending two lady workers, Miss Lethbridge and Miss Brydon, at Hwating, is contained in the Home Messenger, of Welwel, which he was editing at the time of his death.
It appears that Dr. Menzies, although unarmed, without hesitation, attacked the band of robbers which was ravaging the ladies' quarters. He knew the strength of the marauding party, but this did not prevent him from making his single-handed assault on the robbers, who numbered probably between fifteen and twenty.
"On Wednesday night about ten o'clock, a band of robbers attacked the ladies' house. After gaining entrance to the compound they proceeded to the house, broke the glass in the front door and entered. One of the ladies escaped to the upper veranda, where she succeeded in concealing herself, the others were ordered to show the robbers where the money was kept.
"Dr. Menzies, whose house was some eight distance of heard calls for help and at once ran out. The lady on the upper veranda caught sight of him as he crossed the road by a newly white-washed bridge, and succeeded in acquainting him with the state of affairs. Replying 'I am not armed' he passed down from the bridge, to approach the house. The robbers had left a man on guard at the gate, just as the bridge steps. When he heard Dr. Menzies' voice, he raised an alarm, and called to the robbers indoors to hurry out. Dr. Menzies and the man coming together in the dark, grappled. In the midst of their struggle the rest of the robbers ran out and surrounded them. Flashes from a revolver followed.
"The whole band made their escape. One of their number was found next morning some distance outside the premises, killed by a shot apparently intended for Dr. Menzies.
"By the judgment of the doctor who examined the wounds, one bullet had pierced Dr. Menzies' body and entered that of the robber with whom he was struggling.
"By the time Mr. Slimmon, whose house was the farthest away, reached the scene, all was over. He found the doctor lying on the ground, fully conscious that his end was near. He died within half an hour."

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN HELD BUSY SESSIONS YESTERDAY

Important Resolutions Heard and Discussed at Morning Session—Luncheon Served Under Direction of United Methodist Women's Missionary Society—Resolution Urging Canadian Women to Support Best Type of Citizen in Various Departments of Government—The Evening Session.

The election of officers was an interesting part of yesterday's programme of the National Council of Women. Mrs. Sanford being re-elected as President for the third term. Mrs. L. A. Hamilton was the other nominee. The sessions included a long discussion upon the proxy vote, an illuminating report on Mental Hygiene, and an excellent one on Home Economics, the assistance to Canada of British teachers and the passing of a number of resolutions on laws for the better protection of women and children. One of the chief objects of the National Council was to study yesterday in a report "The proper education of children for the two great duties—parenthood and citizenship."

The pleasures of the day included a pleasant luncheon with charming original decorations and an afternoon tea at Mrs. J. H. Bullock's home at Westfield which was a delightful outing in the fresh air. The drive to Westfield was the entertainment given through the courtesy of the New Brunswick Automobile Association.

Morning Session.
The devotional exercises yesterday morning were under the direction of Mrs. J. H. Jenner.

The following resolution was presented by Miss Jessie J. Lawson:
Whereas, There is a great scarcity of trained teachers in all the provinces of Canada; and
Whereas, Trained and experienced British teachers are debarrd from teaching in many of the public schools of Canada, unless they pass an examination or take a further course of training in Canada; and
Whereas, Under existing regulations the certificates obtained by Canadian teachers do not qualify them to teach in every province of the Dominion.

Be it resolved, That the National Council of Women of Canada do urge the National Council of Education for Canada to take immediate steps to establish a Dominion certificate, which will enable the holder to teach anywhere in the Dominion of Canada; certificates and diplomas already held to be accepted pro rata, i. e., at so far as the training and standard of the examination taken to obtain them are consonant to the requirements for said Dominion certificate.

We would strongly recommend that the requirements of this certificate should include thorough knowledge of all matters pertaining to Canadian education and citizenship.

This resolution was unanimously adopted.

Mrs. L. A. Hamilton read the report prepared by Mrs. Newhall, convenor of Household Economics, presenting the following resolution, which was unanimously accepted:
Resolved, That the National Council of Women shall petition the Dominion government to provide for the appointment of one commissioner in each province under the charge of a federal commissioner, whose duty it shall be to co-operate on the matter of prices, with the understanding that none of the necessities of life shall be exported till the needs of the Canadian people are provided for.

Mrs. Edwards continued her report of Laws Concerning Women and Children, left unfinished at Tuesday's session. This is a matter of detail and deals very largely with recommendations to the Criminal Code.

Among the resolutions especially discussed and agreed upon were one to give equal home ownership rights to men and women; one making adultery a crime; one raising the age of juvenility from 16 to 18. Other resolutions dealt with had already come before the session in the entire report prepared by Mrs. Edwards and previously read and accepted.

Mrs. L. A. Hamilton recommended that women inspectors be appointed on all boards of institutions in which women are incarcerated.

Miss Carrie Carmichael of New Glasgow, presented a resolution asking that the National Council of Women urge the Federal Government that a definite pronouncement regarding daylight saving time or Greenwich time shall prevail. She instanced the milk situation now existing in St. John as an evidence of the necessity for such a law. This was laid over for new business.

The nomination of officers and report on the Dominion certificate, which was concluded the business of the morning session.

Luncheon.
The luncheon served yesterday was under the direction of the United Methodist Women's Missionary Society, convened by Mrs. Geo. Sted, Mrs. Charles S. Sanford president of the N. B. and P. E. I. Branch, assisted Mrs. Steel in the preparation of a lovely lunch and a unique entertainment. The tables represented the missionary districts in which the Methodist churches are actively operating: China, Japan, India, Canada (Indian) and the Winter Port, were presented in the table decorations, in the dressings of the room and in the individual souvenirs that were at each place. The girls in the various colored costumes lending a suggestion of Oriental splendor enhanced by the gayness of the floral decorations, pagodas, lanterns, wigwags, canoes, elephants and sampanes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get unperfumed coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

and pointed out that the Winnipeg Local Council has withdrawn on this account. Miss Carmichael said that proxy voting is the life of the Council and that it was necessary in order that the small councils should have a voice in the Council. If deprived of the proxy they would lose interest and representation. She herself held thirty-nine proxies at the Regina meeting. Miss Mowat said she is opposed to proxies as a whole and felt that each Local Council could appoint a local representative, giving her instructions how to vote. Miss Tolley thought it written vote could go to the corresponding secretary and a local representative still be appointed for the personal touch. Mrs. Cummings protested that that would be impossible for the corresponding secretary to look after. An amendment moved by Miss Murray, on behalf of the East Platon Council was seconded by Mrs. Primrose and another was moved by Mrs. Barker modifying the resolution. Mrs. Murray felt that the remoteness of the councils from one another demanded proxy voting, but that abuse had been made of the privilege. She wished an instructed vote to be demanded. Mrs. Graham, London, Ontario, who has attended twenty annual meetings, said she had been a proxy all her life and was in favor of the proxy. Mrs. Woodhall said she thought there would be more direct representation of the delegates felt they would lose their votes if not present.

Mrs. Sanford then announced that the time had come to leave for Westfield, and that the Art Club of St. John had extended an invitation to the members to visit their exhibition at four o'clock. Thanks were sent to Mrs. Bullock's home "Rika Dom" at Westfield.

Afternoon Session

Provincial Vice-Presidents—Alberta—Mrs. O. C. Edwards; British Columbia—Mrs. Schiefel; Manitoba—Mrs. H. W. Dignam; Immigration—Miss Mabel Hanna; Laws—Mrs. O. C. Edwards; Mental Hygiene—Mrs. Stead; Peace and Arbitration—Mrs. Clement; Professions and Employments for Women—Mrs. H. W. Parsons; Supervised Playgrounds—Mrs. Wolverson.

Suppression of Objectionable Printed Matter—Mrs. Stone; Taxation—Mrs. E. M. Murray; Equal Moral Standard—Dr. M. Patterson; Trainers—Mrs. E. M. Murray; Public Health—Mrs. Smith; A panoramic view of the members of the National Council was taken by the National Council Company.

The first business was a resolution urging Canadian women to take up in a practical way the support of the best type of citizen in various departments of the Government. In speaking to this resolution, which she moved, Mrs. L. A. Hamilton said we get as good government as we deserve. Other people form strong parties and come out to vote and sometimes one section of society is represented while another is not. Representatives elected are not representative. There is a section of society who do not vote up to one hundred per cent. The Ontario Women's Citizen Association, for which she spoke, realized that the best type of citizen would come forward if assured of support.

In Toronto eight women's societies banded themselves together, forming a bureau of information. They took an office and found plenty to do, giving information. It was so useful that the next year they were elected a Municipal League was formed with men also as members. Not party but the right kind of candidate was supported. The plan was educational. At present a bulletin is issued and a secretary is engaged who attends the meetings of the City Council and the members in touch with what goes on in City Hall. She hoped to see the time when the National Council of Women will have a special committee, whose duty it will be to keep the council informed of affairs at the Legislature.

Mrs. Woodhall, Calgary, stated that she had a woman appointed to go to the City Council meetings, follow civic matters and keep the Local Council informed.

Proxy Vote.
The Proxy Vote resolution brought in by the Brandon Council, moved by Mrs. Worsley, seconded by Mrs. MacGillivray, caused a lengthy discussion. Mrs. L. A. Hamilton felt the Council is behind the times in keeping to this method of voting.

Lady Gibson thought that the long distances between the several Councils made it necessary. Mrs. Bishop spoke against proxy votes. Mrs. MacGillivray was opposed to proxy votes and stated that for the first time the Kingston Local Council at the suggestion of their president of the citizenship committee had paid the expenses of a delegate which made the selection of a delegate much more democratic than formerly. Mrs. Shortt said that the executive meeting held at Hamilton by a majority vote were strongly against proxies.

has a firm faith in Canadian women. At one time she had offered the editorship of the Woman's Century, the magazine which she had founded and worked for, to Mrs. Plumtree, the then corresponding secretary of the National Council. Mrs. E. M. Murray who nominated Mrs. McIvor also in eloquent words praised Mrs. McIvor's work both on the Council, as editor of the Woman's Century, and as a beautiful character.

Shortt, paid a tribute to the work of Mrs. George Watt, who was the nominee of Lady Gibson, as treasurer for eleven years and felt that her services in this arduous task should be recognized.

Mental Hygiene
Mrs. Stead, National Convenor on Mental Hygiene opened her splendidly compiled report on this subject by giving Judge Hogson's definition of a criminal as "A badly adjusted individual." Readjustment is needed and Mrs. Stead gave answers to a questionnaire sent out in 1920 from which many facts were learned. It was shown that individuals incapable of book-learning can be taught suitable trades and be made into good citizens with care and the right sort of training. Toronto University has instituted a summer course in Psychiatry. It has often been shown that physical causes are the reason for mental defects and may in some cases be remedied or prevented by careful treatment. The Royal Victoria, Montreal, Toronto General Hospital also finds them valuable. A medico-psychological Society has been founded in Ontario. The city of Toronto has recently voted $150,000 for a farm and training school for the sub-normal child.

Here it was felt that diagnosis of the European ports could be more carefully made. It was felt that the percentage of crime and illness and pauperism will be materially lessened if the mental defectives are recognized and cared for. The St. Patrick's Literary and Dramatic Society of St. Joseph's University presented their first-act melodrama, "Coom-Na-Goppel," in St. Vincent's auditorium last evening. A large audience was present and the splendid manner in which the young men performed their several parts met with hearty and well-merited applause. It is the first time that the College boys have presented a play before a St. John audience, and no doubt, on account of the success achieved last evening there will be annual presentations in the future. The students may rest assured of a hearty welcome.

Music was furnished by an orchestra under the direction of E. W. McBride. A pleasing solo by Michael McNeill and selections by the College quartette contributed in a large measure in making the programme so enjoyable.

SAFEGUARDING OIL OF THE
Must be Reasonably Independent—Concessions in Persia Must Interests Fully Alive to Situation Necessary Steps.

(Manchester Guardian.)
The stern lessons taught by the war and the present threat of industrial reconstruction have brought into the limelight the importance of a clear understanding and speedy solution of the oil position of the British Empire.

Before the outbreak of hostilities in 1914 this country was to all intents absolutely dependent on foreign sources of supply. Today the position is even more acute, since for various reasons, oil and its manifold by-products play a far greater part in our daily life. But, faced as we are with what amounts almost to a crisis, it is well to differentiate between what are normal and abnormal conditions and to seek out a remedy that will be sufficiently elastic to deal with both.

Rise of Liquid Fuel.
In pre-war days the chief factor determining the price of crude petroleum, and consequently its production, was the relative value of coal, since at least 40 per cent of the crude oil produced was sold as liquid fuel in direct competition with coal. The advance of modern refinery science and the keener appreciation of its high calorific values of oil products make it impossible for such a wasteful use of conditions to continue. Thus, whereas in the past a ton of oil fuel was considered the equivalent of one and a half tons of coal, the introduction of internal-combustion engines of various sizes and Diesel type have shown that one ton of oil is equivalent to at least four tons of coal. Broader therefore, apart from any increase in the world's production of petroleum, the efficiency with which it is now being used is much greater than in the past. It is, however, and there still remains a wide field for improvement.

One of the consequences of the war is that the large coalfields of Europe are so dislocated that their output is insufficient even for home requirements, let alone for export. The same conditions apply, though happily to a far less extent, in the United Kingdom, and in proportion as the exports from Persia and other countries are restricted, the production of oil becomes more and more essential. Hence foreign countries have been forced to seek out and develop their own oil resources. In the United States, for instance, the production of oil has been phenomenal; in one state it is reported that one out of every five inhabitants owns a motor car. In fact, it has become recognized that property and motor transportation go hand in hand. The day is not far distant when the United States will have little, if any, oil available for export. The importance of this to the British Empire will be appreciated when it is realized that Britain would only amount to barely 5 per cent of the world's output.

A chance for the "small operator," the farmer, new sources of supply the outlook is by no means depressing. provided enterprise is allowed a free hand. In fact, it is realized that the oil industry has become a part of the all-encompassing growth of the Standard Oil Company. Other countries, especially the United States, must be careful to steer a happy course between unduly favouring monopolistic groups and encouraging independent operators. In fact, it has become recognized that the world's production of oil has been the result of the efforts of comparatively small independent operators. In America there are hundreds of thousands of men who work their own properties, and the production of oil is the result of the efforts of these "small men" unfairly, the anti-trust laws having successfully curbed the monopolistic tendencies of the former. In fact, it is recognized that the need of the other man's existence, and it is a happy co-operation between them that today enables new districts to be opened up more rapidly than in any other country in the world.

One of the fields of Northern Texas developed a production at the rate of about 3,000,000 tons a year within 12 months of the drilling of the first well, and despite sweeping and for the most part quite erroneous statements made about the appalling wastage of oil in America, it is questionable whether the wastage in that field has been as much as 5 per cent, and certainly it does not approach the inefficiency of the former. In fact, it is realized that in unhappy contrast may be cited the well drilled at Hardisty, near Chesapeake, about a year ago, which encountered a run of high-grade petroleum under sufficient pressure for the well to flow. Had this well been drilled in America, hundreds of others would by now have been drilled in its vicinity had oil continued to be found in commercial quantities.

Persian and Mesopotamian supplies. Recent public discussion of Mesopotamian and Persian affairs has centred very largely in the oil position in these countries. In the case of Persia the position is stipulated by the fact that owing to the great enterprise of W. K. Army, an Australian, a British company secured a concession over the whole of Persia, with the exception of certain northern provinces. That the British Government subsequently took a share in the development of this concession is a matter of history, and its operation

Cocoon Oil Fine For Washing Hair
If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.
Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain, unperfumed, coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.
Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. SAFEGUARDING OIL SUPPLY OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE

Must be Reasonably Independent of All Other Countries—Concessions in Persia Most Important—English Interests Fully Alive to Situation and Prepared to Take Necessary Steps.

AMERICAN INVASION OF CANADA COMING

Tourists from the Republic Pouring Into the Dominion in Eve; Increasing Numbers

New York, June 23.—(By Canadian Press.)—An unprecedented invasion of Canada by American tourists this summer is reported by representatives of Canadian railways here.

The Canadian west appears to be attracting a very large number of wealthy citizens of the United States, including thousands from New York City, and the opening of the eastern tourist schedules this week brought a big exodus to the Ontario and Quebec resorts.

An official in the local office of the Canadian Pacific Railway told the Canadian Press that the office has been besieged for the past six weeks by prospective tourists seeking information regarding Canadian resorts.

This official stated that a new feature of the tourist traffic this year appears to be a thirst for adventure on the part of many of the travellers. A large number are planning amateur exploration trips through the Crow's Nest and Kootenay valleys and pack horses will be in great demand.

Inquiries received at the Canadian railway offices here also indicate increased interest in mountain climbing and many New Yorkers are joining the Canadian Alpine Club.

Cuticura

For Skins That Itch, Burn and Scale

Bathes affected part with Cuticura Soap and hot water. Dry gently and rub on Cuticura Ointment.

At the Grand Trunk office here it was stated that the past few days have brought a flood of inquiries regarding the Muskoka Lakes and Algonquin Park.

One reason for the big rush is declared to be the fact that steamship accommodation to Europe is booked up for practically the entire summer and many Americans, having "seen America first" during the war when international travel was difficult, are bent on seeing some other country now.

"That is probably helping to make travelling through Canada popular," said one railway man. "And you can't wonder at it. Whenever I have to make a trip out of New York I always try to arrange it so that I can travel via Montreal myself."

Inquiries received at the Canadian railway offices here also indicate increased interest in mountain climbing and many New Yorkers are joining the Canadian Alpine Club.

COLTHART HEADS

AUCTION SALE CO.
Montreal, June 23.—R. S. Colthart, vice-president of the Canadian Fur Auction Sales, has been officially elected to the office of managing director in conformity with the rumor heard for some time on the street, while H. Y. Holman, of Summerside, P. E. I., has been elected a director. The managing director speaks in a most hopeful manner respecting the coming year and expects it to be a greater success than the initial one.

TIME TO HURRY WORK OF WORLD

Better Business Men of United States Feel Country Should Do Something Besides Talk.
(Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Company.)
Chicago, June 23.—The feeling grows that it is time to pick up the pieces more rapidly and try to put them together, no matter how badly they may fit. This idea has been pushed forward strongly by the advent of the national convention period, and among the best thinkers there is much less regard to the question which party shall win in the presidential election than to the constructive side of the issue placed in office. Credit is given for what has already been done, but it is felt that both political and commercially some of the greatest tasks have been left on the ground with nobody to pick them up. The politicians years back have not done their work as well as the business men have done theirs and as well as the business men have performed in the domain of political action. Then we Americans must engage to some extent in the affairs of the Old World. It is time to stop the Turk from dropping things out of the sky on the heads of the British troops and to head off the Bolsheviks, who are trampling on the property and the lives of other people. The League of Nations' medicine has had little effect on the patient thus far and it will be a long time before anything is achieved, but the better class of business men have a "hurry-up" feeling for this matter must be got out of the way for better or for worse. The wires are broken or crippled all over the world. It is the more exasperating because there are enough people to do the work in spite of the great destruction in the best of human life during the war. It is a matter of proper leadership and of proper infusion to the minds of the workers that it is their business to work. It is hoped that a good example will be set by the American road management. American example has been effective in certain matters in the past, for we have shown the world what democracy means through the democracy in an imperfect one. The opportunity is a great one for the next administration and Congress. What greater thing than to create a work-ribbed world out of an infinity of new ideas? These things are in the minds of business men, for to them purely as business men they are as important to the world politically and socially. The thing that business craves is a return to conditions in which only the normal risks exist. The man who has made fortunes through the events of the last six years, but to the normal man the fever of gambling is less agreeable than the ordinary process of production, distribution and profit-making. Possibly the government has a function which is not often thought of in this connection. The government is a large participant in business, and has conferred great benefits on the country by regulation of money affairs. It has at times forced a decrease in speculation by advance in rates, it has tried to make taxation bear with the little severity as possible on the persons of small means, and it has bought its own obligations in the market to prevent too great a decline. It has softened the blow of anything legitimate to prevent further decline in securities and give them their own chance to rise. Largely its own revenue depends on the profits that investors and speculators make in the handling of stocks and bonds. It has seen a great decline in the last nine months, and consequent reductions in the amount of money in its treasury. It stopped the rise in stocks last year; it possibly has reason for enabling stocks to start themselves on an advance this year.

SHAWINGAN IN NEW ISSUE

Montreal, June 23.—The Shawingam Water and Power Company has made a new issue consisting of $4,000,000, six year seven per cent secured convertible gold notes due 1926, the offering of which is being made in the United States by a syndicate composed of Aldred and Company, Brown Bros., Higginson and Company, Aler, Brown and Sons and Jackson and Curtis. These notes are exempt from any Canadian taxes which may be imposed on American holders and on normal U. S. income taxes up to 2 per cent. They are convertible into the company's first re-funding mortgage sinking fund bonds of series "B" 6 per cent maturing 1950, on a 6 1/2 per cent income basis and are secured by an issue of $5,334,000 of these bonds.

DOM. CANNERS TO PASS DIVIDEND

Toronto, June 23.—In circles close to Dominion Canners here it is stated that it is made that no dividend need be looked for at the moment. The directors have just met in what was supposed to be a dividend meeting, but its conclusion was that for an announcement it was stated that there was nothing of importance to communicate.

FLOUR TAKES SLIGHT DROP

Minneapolis, June 23.—A lower wheat market the first few days this week was responsible for a decline of 20 to 30 cents a barrel the price of flour here today. At the mill, where the quotation for family patents was down 30 cents, flour dropped to $14 a barrel, and $14.55 was the price obtained by the mill that sold flour at a thirty cent reduction.

SPANISH RIVER DISAPPOINTMENT

But Very Little Trading in That Stock Yesterday—Price List Had Tendency Downward.
(F. B. McCurdy & Co.)
Montreal, June 23.—Total sales on the local market this morning amounted to approximately 10,000 shares, mostly in Atlantic Sugar and Quebec, the former contributing 2,958 shares, and the latter 1,690, no other stocks reaching 1,000. In view of the fact the meeting of Spanish River takes place today to ratify the action of the directors in the preferred stock, through the issue of additional preferred at 60¢, the trading in the stock was quite light. The tendency of prices both in the common and preferred, was downward. Laurentide, which was down 1 1/2¢, was the most active stock on the list, sold steadily throughout the session. Waysamack, after its recent rework, was the weakest pulp and paper issue on the list. Brompton, Riorion were not particularly active but were about steady. Quebec early became a feature, rising to 29 7/8¢. This price was held quite steadily throughout the session. No specific explanation of an adequate nature is forthcoming to account for the recent activity and strength in this stock, so that the street, for the time being, accepts the view that local operations are largely responsible. Shawingam strengthened to 113 1/4¢, doubtless on announcement of new financing having been accomplished, as indicated in the offering of $4,000,000 of 7 1/2 per cent secured convertible gold notes, by a syndicate of American underwriters. Other public utilities were unchanged. Sugar stocks were forthcoming and the price fluctuated between 122 and 127. No explanation for the movement in sugar stocks was forthcoming, other than a rumor to the effect that the company was making a large amount of money through speculation in futures.

ATLANTIC SUGAR TAKES THE LEAD

Divided With Que. Railway in Market Honors Yesterday.
Montreal, June 23.—Atlantic Sugar and Quebec Railway were the leaders today in point of activity, and dealings were on a somewhat broader scale than we have had of late, with nothing special to account for. Some scattered liquidation in MO. Power resulted in a small decline in that stock, while on the other hand, Shawingam showed strength, the latter no doubt being explained by the issue of notes, particulars of which were given in our early report. Dealings in the paper stocks fell off somewhat, and prices were inclined to soften, with the exception of Spanish River Pfd., which showed decided firmness after the announcement that the shareholders had ratified the 42 per cent dividend, the closing price being the highest of the day. There were no special features of interest, and the closing was generally quiet.

SHAREHOLDERS ACCEPT PROPOSAL

Toronto, June 23.—At the special meeting of shareholders of Spanish River Pulp and Paper Mills Co. Ltd., unanimous approval was given to the plan of directors for the wiping out of the arrears on the preferred stock. By the adoption of the proposed preferred stock to cover the outstanding dividend vouchers.

DULL BUSINESS ON N. Y. EXCHANGE

Issues Usually Active Were Relegated to Obscurity—Money Rates Still High.
New York, June 23.—Lacking guidance from any quarter, today's session of the stock exchange was dull and superficial from the irregular openings to the apathetic close. The ticker was motionless for intervals many issues, which usually contribute to the day's business, were relegated to obscurity. Financial, industrial and related considerations seemed to play no part in the day's operations and pools evidently found it unprofitable to continue the irregular recent tactics in selected specialties. The money market reflected the general inertia, call loans repeating their recent low and high quotations of 8 to 11 per cent on reduced borrowings. From 3 1/2 to 3 per cent was again bid for time funds but offering were negligible. Apathy extended to foreign exchange and the international money market. The London rate reacted moderately as the buying power diminished, with concurrent easing of French and Italian quotations. Reports and other advices dealing with the railroad labor situation, were confined to the general news part of the day, but the strike in the west and this adjacent centres. These disturbances, however, have again crippled production at Eastern Steel and iron mills, according to trade authorities. Losses of large fractions to a point were made by bonds of leading railroads, but the foreign group were steady to firm. Total sales per value aggregated $12,400,000.

ENCOURAGING TO OIL INTERESTS

Attitude of New Mexican Gov't Gives Impetus to American Interests.
(F. B. McCurdy & Co.)
New York, June 23.—The railroad strike was understood to have been discussed at the cabinet meeting yesterday but no Government action was deemed necessary or advisable under the circumstances which are said to be improving. The attitude of the new Mexican authorities towards oil holdings and other natural resources, is causing much encouragement to American investors in the country. Acting President Huerta is quoted as stating that the new oil law should be interpreted as protecting former grants, and section providing for state confiscation only applied to unclaimed property. The manner in which call money rates have risen this week is a disappointment to some speculative quarters, but it seems to bear out the opinion that last week's improvement in the federal reserve statement was more technical than real. It seems that the strained condition will move or less, be with us until after July 1st period is passed, and with this obstacle as well as the deadening influence of the Democratic party in Mexico, the outlook for the present trading character.

NEW RECORD HIGH FOR ATLANTIC

Strong Position of Sugar in Wholesale and Retail Market Responsible for Popularity.
Montreal, June 23.—Leadership returned today to Atlantic Sugar on the local stock exchange, with a turnover of 3,310 shares and a strong demand, the stock rising to a new record high of 127, from which it eased to 123 1/2, and closed at 124, with a net gain of 3 1/4 points. The preferred also took a jump of 6 1/2 points to a new high of 140 and held the gain. The generally strong position of sugar in the wholesale and retail market is regarded as responsible for the popularity of the stock. Quebec Railway was strong in early dealings and made a new high for the movement at 29 7/8, closing at 29. Laurentide showed a substantial reaction to 127 1/2. The railings papers showed irregularly with losses of from two points to a large fraction in Atibiti, Spanish Common and Waysamack.

DULL BUSINESS ON N. Y. EXCHANGE

Issues Usually Active Were Relegated to Obscurity—Money Rates Still High.
New York, June 23.—Lacking guidance from any quarter, today's session of the stock exchange was dull and superficial from the irregular openings to the apathetic close. The ticker was motionless for intervals many issues, which usually contribute to the day's business, were relegated to obscurity. Financial, industrial and related considerations seemed to play no part in the day's operations and pools evidently found it unprofitable to continue the irregular recent tactics in selected specialties. The money market reflected the general inertia, call loans repeating their recent low and high quotations of 8 to 11 per cent on reduced borrowings. From 3 1/2 to 3 per cent was again bid for time funds but offering were negligible. Apathy extended to foreign exchange and the international money market. The London rate reacted moderately as the buying power diminished, with concurrent easing of French and Italian quotations. Reports and other advices dealing with the railroad labor situation, were confined to the general news part of the day, but the strike in the west and this adjacent centres. These disturbances, however, have again crippled production at Eastern Steel and iron mills, according to trade authorities. Losses of large fractions to a point were made by bonds of leading railroads, but the foreign group were steady to firm. Total sales per value aggregated $12,400,000.

ENCOURAGING TO OIL INTERESTS

Attitude of New Mexican Gov't Gives Impetus to American Interests.
(F. B. McCurdy & Co.)
New York, June 23.—The railroad strike was understood to have been discussed at the cabinet meeting yesterday but no Government action was deemed necessary or advisable under the circumstances which are said to be improving. The attitude of the new Mexican authorities towards oil holdings and other natural resources, is causing much encouragement to American investors in the country. Acting President Huerta is quoted as stating that the new oil law should be interpreted as protecting former grants, and section providing for state confiscation only applied to unclaimed property. The manner in which call money rates have risen this week is a disappointment to some speculative quarters, but it seems to bear out the opinion that last week's improvement in the federal reserve statement was more technical than real. It seems that the strained condition will move or less, be with us until after July 1st period is passed, and with this obstacle as well as the deadening influence of the Democratic party in Mexico, the outlook for the present trading character.

Troubles of Long Standing Ended

Carpenter Says He Can Work Hard Every Day Since Taking Tanlac.

"I've tried Tanlac and know what it will do and I don't mind telling the people about it," said John G. Hansen, a well-known carpenter living at 1 Park Avenue, Portland, Maine, who has been suffering from the medicine recently.

"For seven or eight years I have been bothered with a case of stomach trouble that had pulled me down until I looked like I could never be my old self again. My appetite was about gone and for breakfast I could hardly eat a bite of anything. Gas would form on my stomach and there was a continual burning in my throat and chest. At night it was always hard for me to get to sleep—sometimes I rolled and tumbled for hours after getting to bed, and what little rest I managed to get didn't seem to do me any good. Then on top of all I had the flu last year, and as I was already in a badly run-down condition, it left me still weaker than ever. In fact, the flu nearly knocked me out and I was fast going down hill in spite of all the medicines I was trying.

"Finally, I commenced taking Tanlac and right away it hit the spot and began to straighten me out. My appetite picked up and the gas quit forming on my stomach. And now each three square means every day and never feel a sign of indigestion, or do I sleep as well as ever and am working hard every day. Tanlac has fixed me up fine and I am glad to pass the good word along by telling others about it."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co., and F. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Advt.

PRICES HARDENED ON NEW YORK

Call Money Still Hovers Around 11 Per Cent.

New York, June 23.—The market did little in one way or the other in the afternoon. Call money went to 11 per cent which has been the high figure reached for some days past, but the market had practically no attention to it today. In fact, prices are hardening in the last hour. Some short covering was probably caused in the trading in the market by a dispatch to the effect that President Wilson had requested the railroad labor board to hasten its decision on the wage application of the men at a means of quieting unrest. The Iron Age says that breaking out of from labor troubles on the railroads has checked the improvement in the service that was being effected.

AUSTRIA WELCOMES BRITISH FINANCES

Efforts to Interest English Capital in Reconstruction Proved Successful.

(Manchester Guardian.) The "Nesaneli Listy," Prague, is like the bulk of the press of the Succession States, inclined to reflect doubtfully on the participation of British capital in the revival of Austrian industry. Discussing the success attending the recent Austrian industrial mission to London, the paper remarks:

Four London banks and fourteen leading firms ready to subscribe £20,000,000 to revive Austrian trade. British agents are already in Vienna. It is proposed to open up British warehouses in Austria that will act as clearing-houses for imported raw materials and exported manufactured goods. . . . But the success of the Austrian mission in this direction, unfortunately, forebodes success of another kind. . . . Sir William Good's report on the economic situation in Central Europe contains some form of economic solidarity between certain British circles, have certainly been fortified by the Austrian mission, with the eventual object, by a union with Germany, for the Entente's financial help will not last for ever—re-establishing an economic Danube bloc and thus restoring the balance of the Treaty of Peace.

It is greatly to be feared that Austrian propaganda will win over many adherents to these views among friends of Austria in Britain. And it should not be forgotten that Austria never had many enemies there. The Gazette de Prague devotes considerable attention to the efforts made with a large measure of success by Austrian industry to attract foreign capital.

This activity points to a concerted attempt to work for a solid economic bloc in Central Europe. The frantic efforts to arrive at an understanding with Italy point in the same direction. In the systematic effort to interest British and French capital in Austrian private industrial enterprise there is a deeper object than the putting of industry on a sound financial footing. Official support follows private enterprises. The whole thing demonstrates the persistence with which Vienna is seeking to maintain her position in Central Europe.

English Banks and Hungary. The Premier Lloyd welcomes the participation of British capital in Hungarian banking. . . . It is an English belief that the trade follows the flag. The British flag has been run up on our financial territory. From today it will wave from the towers of Hungary, the country that in the new distribution of territories has become the bridgehead of economic Europe on the eastern front. . . . The founding of the British Hungarian Bank, Ltd., will be cordially greeted in the Hungarian commercial world as a sign of confidence in the future of our land.

Too Much Tobacco After Forty-Five Suicidal, Says Doctor

Immoderate use of tobacco after forty-five is suicidal, says Dr. Hirschfeld, eminent medical author, and other doctors agree with him. Excessive use of tobacco is bad for anyone, any time, and how much you can stand can only be told after it is too late if you have used too much. Better to quit, and here Nicotol will help you. Get a few Nicotol tablets from any drugist and let them drive the craving from you. If you want to resume after seeing how much better you feel with no tobacco you can do so any time. Nicotol is sold under a positive money-back guarantee. It costs you little to quit and nothing if Nicotol fails. Note: If you know you are smoking too much let Nicotol help you reduce the quantity and show you how easy it is to quit altogether. Ask your drugist about the success of Nicotol. He knows and can be trusted to tell you the truth.

Could Not Sleep

Mr. Earnest Clark, Police Officer, 338 King St., Kingston, Ont., writes:

"For three years I suffered from nervousness and sleeplessness. I believe my condition was brought about by overwork. I had frequent headaches, neuralgic pains and twitching of nerves and muscles. I had indigestion, was short of breath and easily tired. I commenced a treatment of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and seven boxes of this medicine cured me of all my symptoms. I am now feeling one hundred per cent better than I was, and have to thank Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for the good health I am now enjoying."

CORN SMUT

(Experimental Farms Note.)

The smut of corn is well known to farmers. The smut masses which usually appear as swollen outgrowths may be found on the ears, stem or leaves. These outgrowths are sometimes quite large and make the smut very conspicuous. They are at first covered by a thin membrane, which soon breaks away and exposes the black mass of spores. The mass soon becomes powdery and the myriads of spores which each mass contains are readily blown about by the wind. It is these spores that spread the disease during the growing season and carry the smut over the winter to the next crop.

In many of the smuts, as the smuts of oats and the stinking smut or bunt of wheat, the spores are on the seed and when the seed is planted begin growing with it and attack the young seedling. Treatment with a solution of formaldehyde is effective in killing the spores on the seed and preventing infection of the young plants. In the cases of the loose smut of wheat and the loose smut of barley the spores are blown about at blossoming time and grow into the very young seed. The hot water treatment of the seed is used to kill the smut inside the seed. In the case of corn smut seed treatment of any kind has been found to be of no use; as the smut spores live over in the soil or in manure rather than in or on the seed. So the only way to control the corn smut is to prevent the smut spores getting into the soil or the manure. Not only do the spores live in the manure pile for some time, but they may actually increase rapidly in number if the conditions are favorable.

Corn smut is found in all parts of Canada where corn is grown, but is more common in Eastern Canada. Generally it is not very prevalent and the losses are not great. Where it is common, measures should be taken to prevent its spread. The smut masses should be cut out during the growing season. They should be gathered and spread where they may reach manure or refuse and be carried back to the soil, but they should be gathered and burned. Rotation of crops is also valuable in preventing corn smut. The smut does not live long in the soil and will not attack any other crop. The smut should be given for the smut to die out in the soil before another crop of corn is planted. Seed treatment has not been found to be of any use in corn smut.

AROUND THE CITY

MIRABLE DICTUM
There was a clean sheet at the police court last night. Is it the beginning of an honest-to-goodness revival or just a lull before the storm?

WILL ARRIVE TOMORROW
Rev. Father Duke received a telegram last evening from His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc stating that he was leaving Montreal by the Maritime Express today, and expected to arrive in St. John Friday noon.

INSPECTION TRIP
Chairman John A. Sinclair, and other members of the New Brunswick Compensation Board, are on a tour of inspection this week to Edmundston and Wapke in the Northern part of the province. They are making the trip by automobile.

UNABLE TO COME
Secretary Romans of the Canadian Club has received a letter from Calvin Coolidge Governor of Massachusetts, nominated by the Republicans for Vice-President of the United States, stating that he regrets being unable to visit St. John and address the Canadian Club.

RUNAWAY CAR
An automobile took charge of the driver on Princess street yesterday afternoon, knocked a messenger boy down, caused considerable excitement stopped when it collided with a telegraph pole on Canterbury street, was somewhat damaged, but did not cause injury to the boy or occupants.

VALUABLE OLD BOOK
A valuable old book entitled, "A General Zoology of Systematic Natural History," by George E. Shaw, M. D., F. R. C. S., has recently been donated to the Natural History Society by Mrs. G. R. Arnold, of Sussex. The book contains a large number of fine plates, and is also valuable for the idea it gives the student of the extent to which the study of Zoology has progressed up to the year 1815, the date the book was published.

MILITARY NOTES
It was announced at local military headquarters yesterday morning that at the end of this month a considerable reduction in the staffs of this and all other districts in Canada, that can possibly be done away with will take place. The casualty company in this city will be closed and the work taken over by the district staff. All men carried on district C. E. F. units will be transferred to the general lists, which in this district, will be very small.

National Council Delegates Pleased With Exhibition of Soldiers' Work Shown in the German Street Institute

A number of the National Council delegates have visited the room in the German street institute marked "Soldier's Exhibit," and all have been loud in their praise of the splendid work being done by the returned men at East and West St. John Hospitals under the direction of the Ward Aids, Miss Jean Smith of East St. John is in charge assisted by Miss Eileen Koenig, Miss Murdoch and others of the Vocational Training Staff.

Among the examples of fine work are curved and inlaid boxes, bead chains and bags, metal work trays, book-binding, raffa work and toys, including an excellently carved and painted Noah's Ark with modern representations of the family and animals. What struck the Standard reporters most are the pretty scarves and table runners beautifully woven in silk and wool in artistic colors. The designs and workmanship are most attractive and many of the visitors are taking home with them as souvenirs examples of the work done by the New Brunswick returned men.

THE MILK SITUATION REMAINS ABOUT THE SAME IN THE CITY

No Word Received Last Night Regarding Change of Sussex Train Time to Suit Producers—Babies Suffer Because of Shortage, Dealers Losing Money, But Grown-ups Not Complaining—Question Now is: "If Request of Producers Accorded to Will Prices be Advanced?"

The following telegram was received by Mayor Schofield last evening:

"Will be pleased to restore Sussex train to old time if travelling public will be satisfied."

(Signed) "BRADY."

The telegram was sent in reply to one despatched after a conference of the Mayor and Council Tuesday afternoon, in which Mr. Brady, of the C. N. R., was asked if he would be willing to restore the Sussex train to its old time if requested to do so by the Mayor and Council.

It would seem that Mr. Brady has placed the settlement of the controversy with the travelling public, namely the "suburbanites," and that the City Council have been eliminated. The telegram will be discussed at a meeting of the City Council this morning, however, and further action may follow. One matter not yet discussed is: "If producers gain their point, will they increase the price of milk?"

Prior to the answer received from Mr. Brady, it was reported that a telephone message had been received from L. S. Brown, of Moncton, stating that it was the intention of the authorities to change the train back to its old time. A wire was immediately despatched for official confirmation, but Mr. Brady's subsequent wire would tend to indicate that a misunderstanding had occurred somewhere.

If the Sussex train is the only medium by which milk can be brought to the city, it will now rest with those who patronize that train to decide whether they will consent to arise an hour earlier each morning from now until September and allow the city's milk supply to be resumed, or whether the present state of affairs will be allowed to continue, and the children of St. John be made to do without milk, and our dealers be ruined.

The city's limited milk supply has diminished daily, and yesterday's supply was the smallest received since the Kings County producers went out of the local market. The cars coming in on the Sussex train numbered but 318.

It has been stated that some mothers have had recourse to doctors' prescriptions in order to secure milk from those dealers whose shipments have not been affected, and that others travelled considerable distances about the city in an endeavor to secure a supply. Notwithstanding this fact, the restaurants and ice cream parlors continue to vend their wares, but will be shorter in supply today.

Some of the unaffected dealers have offered to sell milk to those who were not regular customers, on condition that they would become so. In the greater number of cases they have met with indignant refusal, as citizens prefer to go milkless rather than desert their own dealers, who through force of circumstances have been put out of the market for the present.

The Board of Health states that it will be able to relieve the situation to a limited extent as far as babies and invalids are concerned, and this should lighten the situation somewhat caused by the many innocent children who have been made to suffer through the differences of their elders.

As has already been stated, the producers have expressed a willingness to allow sufficient milk to come through to ensure the children's supply, and it now remains with the Public Health Department to see that the milk is brought and distributed to the mothers of infant children, many now being forced to feed their infants on condensed milk.

While the majority of the dealers have expressed their sympathy for the producers, a few of them are very bitterly opposed their present actions. One of them has said that if the producers are permitted to win out in the present fight, they will raise the price of milk by four or five cents per quart before the middle of the summer.

"It is a serious situation," said one dealer, yesterday, "and if the railway officials give in to the Kings County producers, the price of milk will go up."

"I have been followed on the road by farmers when bringing milk in to the city, and further, when I received milk by the train a couple of days ago I found that no less than four large cans had been doped with arsenic. The destruction of the milk is a poor way to have a dispute settled when the children are being deprived of their food."

A limited quantity of milk has been received by the Board of Health and will be distributed for the use of babies and the sick, under the supervision of the Victorian Order of Nurses. Citizens who have been unable to procure milk for persons placed in either of the two categories named are advised to apply to the Victorian Order.

Municipal Council Finance Committee

Tenders Received Yesterday for Proposed Issue of $100,000 of Bonds Not Satisfactory and Were Not Accepted.

The finance committee of the Municipal Council met yesterday afternoon at the office of the county secretary to open the tenders for the proposed issue of $100,000 of bonds. None of the bids submitted were satisfactory to the members of the committee and it was decided not to accept any of them but to sell the bonds over the counter. The warden, mayor and county secretary were appointed a committee to arrange for the sale.

The committee also decided to pay a visit to the East St. John County Hospital on Friday.

Mayor Schofield presided and all the members of the committee except Warden Bullock who is out of the city, were present.

Some Important Details About Registration

Women desirous of voting in the Prohibition Referendum July 10th, and this should mean all women, must not overlook the fact that if they register at the United Election three years ago it does not entitle them to a vote in this Provincial Election. The registration that has been referred to continues the Provincial Registration last Fall, which was an endeavor to get all women, twenty one years of age and over, who might be British subjects and residents of the place in which they registered at once six months, to register. These are the only qualifications, but today's pamphlet is the last opportunity.—Adv.

North Wharf Merchant Gets Surprise

Business Falling off — Only Half the Orders as Compared With Those Received Three Years Ago—Discouraging Outlook—Absolute Facts.

A certain North Wharf Merchant who had the contract for catering to the local jail population seems to have a strong reason for complaint. Notwithstanding the huge increase in the cost of foodstuffs, he, among others, has in a direct manner had the knowledge forced upon him that the amount required to feed the jail inmates in 1919 under Prohibition was less than half the sum required in 1915-16 under license. While one only to read the daily press to learn that the same is true in thousands of instances throughout Canada and the United States, the illustration referred to just two blocks from where this paper is printed seems to carry a greater conviction. Does this not answer the statement that there is more drunkenness under Prohibition? This is just a refutation of one kind. There are many others equally convincing, but this North Wharf merchant and others of his kind are now selling goods direct to the people, who would under other conditions be fed by the Province. Will anyone vote for the return of license of any kind where liquor again will be found in the open. By the time these now in doubt have studied the situation thoroughly there will doubtless be but few anti-prohibitionists by July 10th.—Adv.

Annual Meeting Opened Yesterday

New Brunswick Pharmaceutical Society Heard Reports, Elected Officers and Conducted Considerable Business—Motor Trip to Country.

The annual meeting of the New Brunswick Pharmaceutical Society was opened yesterday at the Natural History Building with C. A. Burchill of Fredericton presiding. Encouraging reports of the year's work were read by the president, secretary-treasurer and registrar.

The treasurer reported the finances of the society to be in an even more flourishing state than hitherto. The registrar reported 28 registrations during the year and a considerable increase in membership.

Following the reading of the various reports the meeting was taken up with discussion until an adjournment was made for lunch. Following which the members motored to Johnson's Hotel, Loch Lomond, where the meeting was continued.

Col. J. B. D. McKenna of Chatham and E. Clinton Brown, St. John, were chosen as candidates to represent the society at the annual meeting of the Canadian Pharmaceutical Society which is to be held at Montreal, July 7, 8 and 9. Mr. W. W. Wood was chosen as substitute.

George O. Spencer and Col. McKenna were chosen as the New Brunswick governors for the Maritime College of Pharmacy, Halifax.

The officers elected for the ensuing year were:

President—Stanley M. Wetmore, St. John.
Vice-President—George O. Spencer, Moncton.
Secretary—F. W. Munroe, St. John.
Treasurer—George F. Coupe, St. John.
Registrar—J. Benson Mahoney, St. John.

Additional members of the council, H. H. Woodworth, Sackville; W. R. Rodd, Moncton; A. Wilfred Coombs, North Devon; C. P. Hickey, Chatham; Col. McKenna, Chatham.

Following the election of officers the meeting was brought to a close and the registrars devoted the remainder of the afternoon to having a real good time. While amusing and boasting the attention of the remainder of the meeting was devoted to the call with dinner. Dinner was served at seven and well voted by the open air, the registrars responded to the call with vim. The meal they sat down to was a masterpiece and fully enjoyed by all. Speeches took up the greater part of the evening and the registrars then motored back to the city, arriving at a little after ten.

The local registrars were well represented yesterday, while those who attended from outside points included: C. A. Burchill, Hedy Forbes and Arthur J. Ryan, Fredericton; A. W. Coombs, North Devon; George M. Fairweather, Sussex; Perley Wood, Miramichi; Walker Jones, Albert; Geo. McE. Cook, George; George O. Spencer, Moncton; Col. J. B. D. McKenna, Chatham; C. P. Hickey, Chatham and H. H. Woodworth, Sackville.

There are present 117 registered drug stores in the province, 22 of which are located in this city and its suburbs.

A Catechism On Prohibition

Q. Does a victory for Prohibition on July 10 prevent the sending of large sums out of the province in payment for liquor purchased in Montreal?

A. No, a victory for Prohibition would have no effect on inter-provincial trade in liquors.

Q. Can a vote be recorded in favor of Prohibition and at the same time declare for the legalizing of the sale of light wines and beer under government control?

A. Certainly, a voter can favor Prohibition as it applies to hard liquor and yet vote for the dispensing of wine and beer.

Q. Does a vote against Prohibition mean a vote for return to the old system of the licensed bar?

A. No, Premier Foster has distinguishedly stated that whatever happens "There shall be no return to the open bar," but that if Prohibition is defeated through "Government agencies" will be introduced.

Q. Is Prohibition a British-made movement?

A. Decidedly not. Prohibition as we have it in New Brunswick violates the great British principle of Liberty of the Subject and of the time-honored maxim of British law—"Every man's house is his castle." The man or woman who cannot afford to do so, and must live in a house or building, the rooms or compartments of which are leased to different persons, is deprived of those rights and that protection with which British law has, from time immemorial, surrounded the homes of British subjects. The New Brunswick Prohibition Act treats such a person as having no home or dwelling. The same is true of the lodging house keeper.

Q. Does Prohibition strengthen the moral fibre of nations enforcing it?

A. Quite the contrary, Russia and the United States have held up as the great examples of the advance of Prohibition and yet one collapsed utterly in the great world war and the other has failed to take her place in the making of a new world.

Q. Are the men who brought honor to Canada's name on the European battlefield and have returned, actively supporting Prohibition?

A. Their names do not appear on the Prohibition executive.—Adv.
