EUROPE GIVEN FALSE NEWS REGARDING UNITED STATES

America Pictured in Cables As Jazz-Mad Collection of Bootleggers, Spendthrifts, Divorcees and Lynchers—Situation Becomes a Menace.

Africa, an estimate of the volume of news cables from the United States for foreign publication. Mr. Williams declares Reuters' monthly average runs from 10,000 to 15,000 words, exclusive of the stock market quotations and other financial matter.

At the moment European statesmen are lamenting the reluctance of the United States to pour more gold into the economic whirlpool which has been growing deeper month by month since signing of the treaty of Versailles; at the time they are entreating the Harding Administration to abandon its policy of detachment and become embroiled in their badly ridden politics, so little is known and becoming known of the primary motives actuating America and Americans as to shock and embarrass those persons having contact with the average European estimate of this Republic.

European newspapers carry very little of any kind of American news. What they do print usually is of the cheap, most sordid and sensationalist misrepresentative brand. One of the leading European news distributing agencies has issued instructions to its American manager to cable full reports of all lynchings in this country. That agency is one enjoying a world-wide reputation for conservatism. From the spirit of those instructions may be gathered a fair idea of European considerations "news from America."

The "freak" story—illegitimate offspring of the "human interest" story—preliminaries in the American news found in the columns of the papers in England, France, Italy, Germany and elsewhere. English papers carry a relatively small amount of American news. French papers publish Paris news, the Italian press has next to nothing. The German people nowadays obtain nothing American from their papers, though in pre-war times the Wolff Agency furnished a semi-comprehensive service from this country. The Austrian, Hungarian and Polish press are in the same category. Two American newspapers, published in Paris and London, in English, but the native population does not read them and European editors will not even take the trouble to employ scissors and paste up to reprint American cables.

Sensations and Scandals. The "freak" story encountered in the tabular press of Europe deals at most exclusively with American "college professors," who proclaim the moon is not made of cheese as heretofore "believed in America," but is composed of hard-boiled eggs; with Atlantic seaboard rum-running, "high jacking" and inland whiskey seizures, each with its political graft and official corruption; with profiteering and "oppression of the working classes."

BIG DEFICIT BEING BORNE BY ASSEMBLY

Presbyterians to Make Special Appeal at Thanksgiving Time to Lift the Burden.

CHURCH UNION AGAIN DISCUSSED

Any Move Looking to Its Consummation Would Be Hailed With Delight, Says Delegate.

Winnipeg, June 14.—A general appeal to the Presbyterians of the province to make a special offering of $350,000 will be made at Thanksgiving time to wipe out existing deficits of more than $200,000 in the budget funds of the church, it was decided at the annual conference today that, in spite of the trials and difficulties of the pastorate, if he had the thing to do over again he would choose the life of a minister of the gospel as he did in 1862.

Contrast that showing of European news in Europe with the volume of European brought to and printed in America. The Associated Press receives from its European correspondents a daily cable report running from 5,000 to 12,000 words. That is a daily, not monthly average. The "cable report" of the Associated Press consists of about one-third of the total supplied to its American members.

Foreign Missions carry a deficit of $168,000; Home Missions $125,000; Sabbath schools $7,000. Other sundry deficits brought the total up to $308,000 for the last three years. Foreign exchange was accountable for approximately $180,000 of the deficit. The net deficit last year was $31,000. The budget demands this year were $2,000,000, the same as last year, but if the church did not unite in getting a larger budget, a deficit of probably $3,000,000 would be presented to next year's Assembly. It was stated by Chairman Dr. D. R. Drummond, of Hamilton.

Commons Plunged into Long Debate Over Wheat Board

Various Advantages of Compulsory and Voluntary Board Argued Pro and Con. Ottawa, June 14.—The introduction of the report of the House Committee on Agriculture looking toward the establishment of a wheat board today plunged the Commons into a long debate on the various advantages of compulsory and voluntary pools. The original report of the committee, asking for an act to create a national wheat marketing agency as soon as two or more provinces had conferred upon the agency the compulsory power enjoyed by the wheat board of 1919, was opposed by Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen. He voiced the opinion that the whole project of a wheat board had been submitted too slowly, cruel process of strangulation, and that Parliament was now asked to put in the final stab. It was neither wise or feasible to fix the price of wheat and leave flour prices uncontrolled.

CUTICURA HEALS ITCHY SCALP

Was Sober and Red. Hair Fell Out. Head Disfigured. "From using the same brush and comb as my sister, whose scalp was troubled with dandruff, it caused my scalp to be itchy, my scalp-wool to fall out, and the dandruff scaled off and could be seen on my clothing. My hair fell out gradually and my head was disfigured. This trouble lasted six months. Then I sent for a few samples of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I afterwards bought more, and I only used two cakes of Soap and two boxes of Ointment when I was healed." (Signed) Miss Frances Burns, St. Basile, Quebec.

MINISTER GOES TO TRIAL ON CHARGE OF MURDER

Case Against Rev. J. E. Wilburn Begun at Charles Town, W. Va.

Charles Town, W. Va., June 14.—The trial of Rev. J. E. Wilburn, charged with killing three Logan County deputy sheriffs during the miners' armed march from Kanawha and Boone counties to Logan last summer began here today. As in the recent Alward trial, the case was transferred from Logan to Jefferson County on a change of venue. Rev. Mr. Wilburn is one of eight men who have been in jail here on a murder charge. The deputies killed were John Gore, John Calfano and George Muncy. While the charge against Wilburn is the killing of Gore and his companions, he has been indicted also for treason and under the Redman act in connection with the march.

The Redman act specifies that it is a misdemeanor for two or more men to conspire to inflict personal injury upon a person, a felony to carry out the conspiracy, and murder if the person upon whom the injury was inflicted dies. The treason charge arose from the allegation that Wilburn was among a number of men who took up arms against authority. The state will charge, it was said, that Rev. Wilburn led a band of men from Blair to surprise the deputies. It is charged that at that time the minister declared: "Now is the time to lay down the Bible and take up arms."

On the other hand, the defence will claim that Wilburn was not at Blair, where the deputies were killed, on the day of the shooting.

Women Candidates In Maine Primaries

Names of 19 Will Appear on Ballots—Seven Candidates for House, One for Senate.

Augusta, June 14.—The names of 19 women will appear on the ballots at the primary election which will be held next Monday. It will be the first time in the history of the state that women will be candidates and naturally some interest is manifested as to how they will run in the election. Every county in the state, with the exception of Franklin and Somerset, has candidates of the female persuasion.

Two women candidates are in the running for state senators, Mrs. Rosalie W. Huddleston of Orono, the president of the Maine Federation of Women's Clubs, in Penobscot county, as a Republican, and Mrs. Rose A. Warren of Portland in Cumberland county as a Democrat. Mrs. Warren is opposed for her nomination, but in Penobscot county there are four candidates for the three senatorial seats, the other candidates besides Mrs. Huddleston being Taber D. Bailey of Bangor, Frank P. Morison of Corinth, a member of the present senate, and Dr. Byron G. Crawford of Newport, a member of the present house.

Five of the seven women candidates for the house of representatives are running on the Democratic ticket while two are on the Republican side of the fence. Of the two Republican candidates, Mrs. Nettie C. Burleigh in the Vassalboro-Winslow class district has opposition in the person of W. A. Mariner of Vassalboro. The other Republican candidate for the house is Mrs. Dora B. Pinkham who is a candidate for the Fort Kent class in Aroostook county.

Readjustment Fair to All Parties in Industry to Be Slogan in Fall Campaign.

Washington, June 14.—Wages will be a live issue in the coming political campaign, and at the threshold of the campaign, President Harding lets it be known that he does not favor a return to pre-war wages for labor. JAPAN PRESS RAISES STORM OVER PREMIER Claim Kato Has Not Been Identified With Politics—All Right Personally.

Tokyo, June 14.—From an international viewpoint no better man than Baron Kato could have been selected as premier, especially following the Washington Conference. It is a guarantee that the Washington agreement will be carried out in spirit as well as letter. Kato's appointment, however, has raised a bitter storm of protest from the press, who have no objection to him personally, except that it prefers not to have a navy or army man as premier. But its principal objection is that it regards the appointment as a retrogression in the development of party politics. Baron Kato has not been identified actively with either the Seiyukai or Kenseikai parties, and the press contends that since the Seiyukai retains a majority in the House, the appointee should have been a member of that party. Kato's appointment, therefore, is considered reactionary.

A strange situation in Japan is that practically every newspaper throughout the empire is anti-Government. Baron Kato, like any other person who accepts the premiership, now must face scathing and constant criticism. The political discussions in the press are interesting but not always consistent. Hara's and Takahashi's party, the Seiyukai, still has large parliamentary majority. But most of the vernacular papers contend the Takahashi ministry's fall was due to international Seiyukai party politics and that therefore the opposition party, the Kenseikai, should be given an opportunity.

It is predicted that Count Uchida will be reappointed foreign minister and Yamanaoki war minister and also that Kato will continue as navy minister. He has had the navy portfolio in four successive cabinets of different political complexion.

In the appeal to the President he will be asked whether he thinks the wages sufficient to maintain an American standard of living and property to maintain a family. At the Cincinnati conference, Labor leaders are emphasizing the fact that they are fighting, but the attempt of Capital to beat down Labor, using wage reduction as one of the weapons. They assert that Labor is willing to abide by cuts already made, but they want to stop them from proceeding further.

There is a general recurrence of feeling that if the country is prosperous in October the next Congress will be Republican; otherwise it is difficult to forecast what will happen politically.

MISSIONARIES NOW TRUSTED IN CHINA

Chief Cause of Anti-Christian Movement is Fact They Are Foreigners.

Shanghai, June 13.—The anti-Christian movement is fast dissipating, although there is a possibility of a revival. At times it is necessary to discuss religious topics to summarize the situation of the Christian church in China and the reaction which is developing to it among the Chinese people, because the missionary is by far the most important foreigner in his community. He is the one foreigner whom the Chinese know, and in remote districts the one they rely upon to inform the legations and the foreign press of injustices and exactions on the part of officials.

Wherever there has been a famine and a flood the missionaries have always been the only local forces who immediately organized to help the people and whose appeals spread throughout the world. It was to the so-called international famine and food relief committees, composed chiefly of missionaries, that the Chinese and foreigners contributed, because it was known these committees would not permit the funds to be diverted to political and other uses.

Nevertheless the missionary is a foreigner and therefore an outsider, and in a country which has suffered so much at the hands of foreigners there is always a suspicion of the motives which underlie every act. One of the general suppositions is that the missionaries are in China to destroy the traditional customs and habits of the people and to introduce foreign ways. The fact that they are opposed to abject worship and that foreign language and foreign subjects are taught in their schools has given the older generation an opportunity to join with the "scientists" in attacking Christianity.

"The scientists" are not to be laughed at and their opposition to Christianity in this country must be taken very seriously. Men like Tsai Yuan-Pai and Wang Ching-wei, whose followings are large and whose influence covers the entire land, are leaders of thought. Their opposition to Christianity is the time-worn quarrel between religion and science. The Biblical interpretation brought with them all the sects and denominations which have come into existence in the West not only for theological reasons, but for geographical and political as well. There are 130 sects, denominations and groups interested in missionary work in China, and these do not include the Roman Catholic and the Orthodox churches. This denominational difference, with its occasional display of temper on subjects of dogma and practices, confuses the Chinese and leads them to very false conclusions as to the teachings of Christianity.

The second difficulty arises from the fact that the Christians in China have most women can whittle just enough to like to hear themselves.

Most women can whittle just enough to like to hear themselves.

Decidedly Better Feeling Prevails in Wheat Market

Indications Suggest That Low Levels in Entire List Have Been Reached.

Winnipeg, June 14.—There appeared to be a decidedly better feeling in the wheat market this morning, and, while no particular news of importance developed from any quarter, the market showed strength and a good undertone. All indications today suggested that low levels in the entire grain list had been reached for the immediate time being.

After opening 1-8 to 3-8 cent down, the July future showed a much better attitude, advancing to 1-35 1/4, which turned out to be the peak of the advance and closed 2-38 cents higher at 1-25. October and December both worked together, after a fairly steady opening, and at the close were 3-4 cents higher at 1-18 and 1-15 1/8 respectively.
