PUBLIC MEETING TO-NIGHT.

Citizens Called Together by Board of Trade to Discuss Paper Mill Proposition.

IN TOWN HALL AT 8.

To Decide Whether Mr. Beveridge's Terms Will be Accepted or Not.

On Monday night, the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trade was held in the Town Hall. Mr. John Morrissy, M. P. P., presided. D. Morrissy, M. P. P., Aldermen Belyea and Morrissy and five other citizens were present. Ald. Belyea acted as secretary, secretary Anslow being out of town.

The chairman read the report of the Executive, which, when slightly amended, passed as follows, on motion of Messrs. Morrissy and Belyea:—

"Your executive committee, having had under consideration the proposition of Mr. Beveridge, re paper mill, beg to report that they would recommend granting him: free site, certain fixed taxation for twenty years, and guarantee him a supply of water: not to exceed 200,000 gallons every twenty-four hours. Your committee have obtained option on the Hennessy and Falconer properties."

Ex-Mayor, Hennessy will sell to the town for $2500 and the heirs of the William Falconer property want $1250.

A discussion on the water question then followed. Some of the citizens it was said, objected to the boring of artesian wells for fear the town's water supply would be tapped and lessened.

Mr. Hennessy was surprised that there should be an objection to the establishment of an industry in town. The town can only flourish by encouraging such industries. Great majority in favor of Beveridge. He would not sell for $2500 to any private party but would to the town. There was no danger to the water supply. Plenty of water for all.

The Chairman explained that Mr. Beveridge wanted a free site, protection from fire, fixed taxation for twenty years, and 200,000 gallons of water a day.

C. E. Fish said that the scheme should not go by default. We could not decide the water question off hand, but he thought the town was perfectly safe in allowing another artesian well to be sunk. Public meeting should at once be called to let the people decide.

John Morrissy's opinion was that Mr. Beveridge's terms should be met at once.

On motion of C. E. Fish and Ald. Morrissy, the president and secretary were authorized to call a public meeting for Wednesday night, 9th instant, to consider the Beveridge proposition.

On motion of C. E. Fish and Mr. Bannan, the president and secretary were instructed to issue dodgers and advertise in the Advocate on Tuesday for Wednesday's meeting.—Adjourned.

NEW BRUNSWICK P. M'S. MEET.

Express Pleasure at Government's Increased Allowances, but Would Like More.

FORTY-SIX NEW MEMBERS

Election of Officers for Ensuing Year and Other Business Transacted.

The Postmasters' Association of New Brunswick met at Moncton Friday afternoon and evening.

Reports were received and adopted from the secretary-treasurer, and Messrs. Bourque and Mann, who were delegates to Ottawa the last year. They reported on their work at the capital, including the presentation of the schedule prepared by the Association.

There was considerable discussion in reference to the allowances, and the delegates spoke favorably of the schedule passed by the Government. This schedule was not up to the request of the memorial, but for the first advance made in the allowances since Confederation it was regarded as highly encouraging.

Grand Secretary Ira Stratton, of Stonewall, Man., who was present informed the association that he was in receipt of a communication from Postmaster General Lemieux, announcing that the increases announced early in September would take effect from the first of April last. The communication also intimated that a circular would shortly be issued, dealing with the question of rent allowances, and one or two other minor matters.

General post-office work from a practical standpoint was discussed at length. General Secretary Stratton bringing up many matters of particular interest to the delegates. The following were elected for ensuing year:—

President—J. M. Kinnear, Sussex.

Vice President—W. Wilson, Chatham.

Secretary-Treasurer—J. V. Bourque, Shediac.

Executive Committee—D. S. Mann, Petitcodiac; G. D. Steeves, Hillsboro; Geo. H. Secord, Apohaqui; G. M. Gaynor, Salisbury; H. Allison, Sackville.

Provincial Representative on General Committee—J. V. Bourque. Some twenty-three delegates were in attendance and forty-six names were added to the Association by letter.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN MURDER.

Serious Stabbing Affair in Campbellton Saturday Night.

A stabbing affair which came very near resulting fatally, occurred at Campbellton Saturday night, Frank Valerone, Charles Hendricksen and Karl Carlson, millmen, were on their way home late in the evening. At Fortin's Crossing a man was playing a mouth organ. The two stopped to have a dance, Valerone, it is alleged, started tripping Hendricksen. "That's not the way to waltz," said Hendricksen, Valerone replied—"If you don't like it that way I will give it to you this way." With that he put up his fists, Hendricksen observed, "You've got a knife," "And I am just the boy who can use it," replied Valerone. A scuffle then ensued, in which Hendricksen was stabbed in the side. Carlson, who rushed to his assistance, was badly slashed about the face. Hendricksen and Carlson were rescued by the onlookers and removed to the homes, where their wounds were dressed by a doctor. Hendricksen's wound might have proved fatal were it not for the fact that the knife struck a rib. Valerone was arrested on Sunday and on Monday was brought before Magistrate Matheson and remanded. A. E. G. MacKenzie appeared for the plaintiff and A. T. LeBlanc for the defendant.

AN EXHIBITION FOR MIRAMICHI.

Chatham Will Receive Government Grant of $4,000 and Guarantee of $1,000.

SEPT. 16th, NEXT YEAR.

The North Shore to Receive Same Recognition as Other Sections Have Been Given.

Chatham will get a $4,000 grant and $1000 guarantee from the provincial government and will hold an exhibition next fall during the week commencing Sept. 16. This was given out last week by R. A. Lawlor, K. C., of Chatham, on his return from Fredericton, where he with Robert Murray, M. P. P., were two of a committee who asked the government for the grant.

Mr. Lawlor said that the government had intimated that St. John and Chatham would be favored with grants next year, and that it was understood that the shows in the two centres would not conflict.

Speaking of the claims of Chatham, Mr. Lawlor said, "We have the only exhibition buildings and grounds north of Sussex, and one of the finest race tracks in the Maritime provinces. In fairness to the counties of Restigouche, Gloucester Kent and Westmorland, a grant should come to us at least biennially. We are in close touch with Prince Edward Island, and this will be able to offer such large prizes as to attract exhibitors from across the straits, and in this way our shows will benefit St. John. It is not considered that the two shows will conflict, as the towns are so far apart."

"Our dates will be from Sept. 16 to the 19th or 20th. We will have stake races and will begin to advertise our show at once. Though we do not own the horses, we have a fine sporting fraternity, and are really teaching the maritime provinces how to conduct races. We hope to break the maritime province record again."

"It will be necessary to spend about $4,000 on the buildings and improvement of the grounds, which are ideally situated. As regards the grant, I will not say the meter is fixed. We are to receive $4,000 of a grant, and a guarantee of an additional $1,000."

GLENELG LIBERAL ASSOCIATION

Hold Meetings—W. S. Loggie, M. P. Enthusiastically Received.

The Liberal Association of Glenelg held a very successful meeting in the McNaughton school house on Thursday evening. Robt. McNaughton presided. W. S. Loggie, M. P., was listened to with great appreciation for nearly an hour, and P. J. McIntyre, of Chatham, gave an address. The following officers were re-elected:— Robt. McNaughton, president; James Hackett, 1st V. P.; John McKay, 2nd V. P.; Donald McNaughton, sec.; James McNaughton, treas.

HOME FROM FRANCE.

Messrs. Fielding and Brodeur landed from the steamer Victorian at Quebec on the 4th, and were met by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Premier Gouin, Hon. Mr. Pugsley and others of his colleagues. Madame Brodeur and Mrs. Fielding were taken down the river on board the Lady Grey to meet the steamer.

Hon. L. P. Brodeur, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, in the course of an interview during the brief stay at Rimouski, said that in Europe the attention of all classes of people was turned toward Canada. "Our financial situation inspires great confidence in the markets of Germany, Russia, and Australia. Formerly, the great European countries did not find our native products quoted on the market, but this has been changed."

Mr. Brodeur said the greeting he had met with in France had been cordial.

AMERICANS STILL BUYING IN N. B.

Another Big Lumber Property Passes Into Foreign Hands.

E. HUTCHINSON SELLS

His Douglastown Estate and Forest Lands to International Paper Co.

Mr. Ernest Hutchinson, of Douglastown, has sold his well-equipped mill and general store, his forty-five square miles of granted land and his interest in the lease of three hundred square miles of Crown lands, to an American firm the International Paper Co., of Bangor.

The transfer will take place immediately, but Mr. Hutchinson will finish sawing the season's cut and the new owners will probably not take active control until spring.

The new company intend to make a large number of improvements and it is reported that, in the near future, they may start a pulp and perhaps a paper mill in connection. The price paid is said to be in the vicinity of half a million.

The Americans are fast coming into control of our North Shore industries. Among other firms who have recently sold out to them are the following:—

The Richards Company, of Campbellton (their Miramichi interests, only);

George Dutch, Black Point, Restigouche Co.

Nathaniel McNair, Black Point. The Shingle Co., Bathurst.

The Summer Co., of Moncton, (their interests in Gloucester Co.)

OUR MOST FAVORED NATIONS.

The New Franco-Canadian tariff treaty, just drafted in Paris, will affect also Canada's tariff duties on imports from Japan and from other nations included in the most-favored-nation clause of Canadian trade treaties. Under that clause all British countries, Argentina, Austria-Hungary, Bolivia, Colombia, Korea, Denmark, France, Algeria, and French colonies, Japan, Siberia, Morocco, Persia, Russia, Sweden, Salvador, and Venezuela are entitled, in return for trade and tariff privileges granted Canada to the tariff rates granted the most-favored-nation.

EXPECTS COMPLETION NEXT FALL.

800 Men Steadily at Work on International Railway.

Thomas Malcolm, the contractor who is building the International Railway from Campbellton to St. Leonard's, says that it is probable the railway will be completed next fall. It would have been nearly finished this year if the weather had been favorable, but since June practically nothing but a succession of rain storms had prevailed and had greatly interfered with operations. The labor question had also been a feature in the situation. While as many as 2,000 men had been on the payroll at wages ranging from 1.75 to $2 a day, they had been continually coming and going and no time had more than 800 or 900 been at work at once. He had now about 900 men engaged. Construction work, Mr. Malcolm said, now being carried on at both ends from Campbellton and St. Leonard's. Some of the sections on the line, he adds, are difficult from a construction standpoint, one brook as an example, which is very winding in its course, having to be crossed sixteen times. A good grade, however, has been secured.

Every farmer should insure his buildings against loss by fire. Very low rates for three year terms. Apply or write to H. B. ANSLOW, Newcastle.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

At Portland, Me., Wednesday, Samuel Tompkins, of Grand Falls, pleaded guilty to four indictments for smuggling and one for violating the liquor law. A GUARANTEED CURE For All Forms of Kidney Disease

We the undersigned Druggists, are fully prepared to give the following guarantee with every 60 cent bottle of Dr. Pettigill's Kidney-Wart Tablets, the only remedy in the world that positively cures all troubles arising from weak or diseased kidneys:—
"Money cheerfully returned if the sufferer is not relieved and improved after use of one bottle. Three to six bottles effect astonishing and permanent cure. If not relieved and cured, you waste no money."—F. R. Dalton, Newcastle, N. B.

Ottawa, Oct. 1.—The revenue of the Dominion for the six months ending with September is the greatest on record. It is $50,341,208 or just thirteen million dollars more than for the whole financial year of 1897, ten years ago, when Mr. Fielding delivered his budget speech. The current fiscal year will see the revenue reach its one hundred million mark, nearly three times what it was when the Liberal Government took office in 1896.

A weak Stomach causing dyspepsia, a weak Heart with palpitation or intermittent pulse, always means weak Stomach nerves or weak Heart nerves. Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis., will mail samples free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this simple trial. Sold by THOS. J. DURICK.

Ernest and Walter Good, of Dalhousie, were fined $8 each in the Campbellton police court on the 1st instant, for beating Lionel Strong. Lionel Strong was upstairs in bed in the house of George Grey, when the Goods went in the house, went upstairs, pulled Strong out of bed and beat him very severely. Chief Grey was called and arrested the Goods. In addition to the fine the Goods had to pay the damages, amounting to about $35, to the room and house. This row is the result of a longstanding disagreement between the parties. Strong is very badly cut up, but not seriously injured.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else. At least, as says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That little tablet—Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—draws blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasantly delightful, gentle, though salutary. It surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. It's a painful period with women, same cause. If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet stops it in 10 minutes, and the tablet simply distributes the unnatural blood pressure.

Brace your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply common sense.

We sell it in cans, and cheerfully recommend

Mr. P. J. Veniot, of Bathurst, collector of customs, while on the roof of his residence, one morning last week, superintending some work which was being done, slipped and fell to the ground, a distance of thirty feet. Dr. McNicol was quickly summoned and found that no bones had been broken, but he was badly shaken up.

England has surrendered 524 square miles of her territory to the waves within the last thousand years. More recently the advance of the waters has been much more rapid, averaging for the last forty years 1,523 acres a year. The ravages of the sea in 1905 were almost unprecedented. Many historical towns, such as Ravensburgh, where Henry IV, landed in 1339, have been submerged. Off the Yorkshire coast alone there are twelve submerged towns and villages.

Stomach troubles, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to all druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its Restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the Stomach, etc.

At Fredericton last week, the local government had before them Mr. R. H. Conger, of New York for the Grand Falls Power Co. He submitted plans for the approval of the executive and explained that they had already been approved by the Dominion government. The executive approved of the plans. The company must begin construction work within sixty days, and expend $250,000 within a year. Mr. Conger said as a matter of fact, the company would be obliged to expend $3,000,000 during the first year.

Trial Catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request, by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. These tests are proving to the people—without a penny's cost—the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by THOS. J. DURICK.

Wedding Bells.

GERRARD—GIRDWOOD.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Girdwood, Bathurst, was the scene of a pretty wedding on last Wednesday evening, when their youngest daughter, Miss Kate, was married to Mr. R. Barclay Gerrard, of Campbellton. The Rev. Jas. A. Wheeler, pastor of St. Luke's Presbyterian church, Bathurst, was the officiating clergyman.

Only immediate relatives of the bride and bridegroom were present. The bride's costume was of cream crepe de chene with yoke of baby Irish lace over satin and girdle of cream Dresden ribbon. Her veil was of white point d'esprit, and her bouquet of asters, sweet peas and maiden hair fern, arranged in shower fashion. Miss Beta Shirley attended her as flower girl and was attired in a becoming dress of cream nun's veiling with yolk and trimmings of lace and pink sash. The bride's travelling costume was of grey tweed with hat to match. The gifts to the bride from her many friends were numerous and valuable. The bridal party left on the Maritime express for their future home in Campbellton, N.

Here is a simple home-made mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement in a New York daily newspaper, that it will relieve almost any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lame back pain in the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night; painful and discolored urination, are readily overcome. Here is the receipt; try it:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here in town is authority: that these ingredients are all harmless and easily mixed at home by shaking well in a bottle. This mixture has a peculiar healing and booting effect upon the entire kidneys and Urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst forms of Rheumatism in just a little while. This mixture is said to remove all blood disorders and cure the Rheumatism by forcing the kidneys to filter and strain from the blood and system all uric acid, and foul, decomposed waste matter, which cause these afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the prescription.

A large number of gentlemen prominent in the business and social life of Moncton met in the city council room one evening last week and formed a Canadian Club along similar lines to those in operation with so much success in Toronto, Montreal, Winnipeg, Ottawa and St. John, and many other Canadian cities. The club started with a membership of over one hundred.

Many leading citizens spoke in praise of the new project and the meeting was unanimously of the opinion that such an organization would benefit the members, and the community at large.

The following officers were chosen:

Honorary President—Hon. C. W. Robinson.
President—Fulton McDougall.
First Vice-President—Judge Wells.
Second Vice-President—Jos. A. Bourque.
Treasurer—Hugh F. Hamilton.
Secretary—R. W. Hewson.
Archivist—W. A. Cowperwaite.
Executive—S. L. Shannon, (chairman), Hon. F. J. Sweeney, F. A. McCully, Thos. Williams, Mayor White, Dr. E. B. Chandler, and L. C. Daigle.

FARMERS' TELEPHONES.

Two lines have been completed and connected with the Harvey line at York Mills, in York Co. The Broadway line is fourteen miles and has five telephones. It runs from York Mills to Lower Broadway, connecting farm houses two and three miles apart.

The Magaguadavic line is fifteen miles, and has eleven telephones. It runs from York Mills through Prince William to Upper Magaguadavic and Blaney Ridge. The lines completed have 1,400 poles, forty miles of wire, and thirty telephones. A switching device has been put up in at York Mills and gives intercommunication with any of the lines through the whole system. The poles were got out and placed and wires strung by the farmers along the line.

The system is reported giving good satisfaction, the Harvey part having been completed more than a year ago and not having as yet cost anything for repairs. All farmers are interested in the line. No charge is made for the use of the line to any person. It is much used for social purposes, and it can be used each line independently if so desired.

An order in council has been passed revoking the Scott Act in Cape Breton as a result of the recent election.

Edward Currie, of Douglas, York Co., who disappeared mysteriously last Saturday week, has not yet been located, and it is feared he is drowned. A wife and four daughters are very anxious.

Mr. M. R. Bem, Douglastown, general agent for school supplies, left on Thursday for a trip to Sussex and Hampton, where he placed orders to complete the equipment of the new school building at Sussex and the Consolidated School at Hampton.

IMMIGRATION INCREASING FAST.

Over 230,000 New Comers Since the Beginning of the Present Year.

DECREASE FROM U. S. A.

In Ten Years Canada has Received
1,148,949 Strangers in Search of Homes.

For the first eight months of the year the total immigration to Canada was 216,865, an increase of 50,038, as compared with the first eight months of 1906. The total for the eight months is more than whole six years, 1896 to 1902, and the total immigration during the increase for the eight months alone as compared with last year, is nearly three times the total immigration during the first year of the present government's regime.

The immigration via ocean ports was 143,394, the increase being 43,900, or 44 per cent. The immigration from the United States totaled 31,253, a decrease of 2,668, or 8 per cent. as compared with last year.

For August the immigration via ocean ports was 16,936, and from the United States 3,683, a total of 20,619.

The figures for September are not yet available, but it is known that the total immigration to Canada to date for this year is over 230,000.

Of the arrivals from European ports during the five months, April to August, 88,248 were males, to Canada up to the end of August, 28,502 females, and 26,644 children under 12 years of age.

Since 1897 the total immigration has been 1,148,949.

The exhibition that was to have been held in Sackville this month under the auspices of the Sackville and Westmorland Agricultural Society, has been cancelled, and the opening of the new speedway on the exhibition grounds has been deferred until next year.

PANDORA RANGE

HOLDS FIRE ALL NIGHT

The good housewife always feels like bestowing upon the Pandora a cheerful "good morning."

Why? Because the Pandora always has a nice bed of hot coals as a reward for checking off the dampers closely before retiring to rest.

In five minutes after turning on the drafts she will have a good, strong fire.

Should she sleep two or three hours longer than usual there will still be a fire ready for her.

The fire-box, flues and dampers are so scientifically arranged that the Pandora can be regulated to hold a fire from 24 to 36 hours.

Pandora owners never have their sleep disturbed with dreams of making a new fire in the morning.

If your local dealer does not handle this most perfect of all ranges, write direct to us for Free Booklet.

Before Shrinking

Stanfield's Underwear

A Talk by the Maker to the Wearer

(Chapter 2)

After Shrinking

Shrinking The Wool

In its natural state, wool consists of long, curly, silky fibres, dotted with tiny prongs or branches. These prongs, when wet, interlock with the long strands and pull together, to protect the sheep from rain and dampness.

When wool is woven, the same thing would happen, were it not for the Stanfield process, which makes the prongs on each strand of wool lie down until the knitting is finished.

Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear is made absolutely unshrinkable by this special process, invented and perfected by the Stanfields. It is the only method of treating wool, which renders it unshrinkable and uninjured.

One way of getting rid of the prongs, is to burn them off by plunging the wool into a tank containing lime. As the prongs are a part of the wool, naturally the lime will "eat" the wool as well as the prongs. This is why some imported, and some Canadian-made "Unshrinkable" Underwear won't wear. It has been treated with lime in the effort to make it unshrinkable.

The illustrations above, show wool under the microscope both before and after going through the Stanfield process. They show that all the prongs that make it shrink are made harmless, BEFORE the Underwear is woven. And as there is no "shrink" in the wool, there can be no "shrink" in the Underwear.

Every garment, bearing the Stanfield label, is sold with our standard guarantee of "Money Back If It Shrinks."

All sizes from 22 to 70 chest measure. The label tells the weight—RED label for light—BLUE label for medium—BLACK label for heavy weight.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD MEETS.

Commissioners for the Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland Assemble at Halifax.

FAVOR PROHIBITION.

27,500 Families Represented.—Finances Satisfactory.—Korean Missions Successful.

The Synod of the Presbyterian Church in the Maritime provinces opened in Halifax on the 1st instant, with the largest attendance on record. Rev. A. B. Dickie was elected moderator.

It was reported that the denominational organ, the Presbyterian Witness, was increasing in circulation satisfactorily.

A communication from the Methodist Church, looking towards a consolidation of church work, was favorably received.

It was decided to delay the appointment of a permanent professor for the vacancy in Pine Hill college until the Presbytery had time to make nominations.

The report of the committee on temperance was presented by Rev. R. Grant. The importance of educational work and the promotion of a temperance sentiment was urged. The part of the press in the work was commented upon and the intense partisanship of some papers was deplored. So also was the publication of details of revol-ing crime, of liquor advertisements, etc. It was shown that the record of Prince Edward Island for sobriety is far ahead of Nova Scotia. The report scored the license system as ineffectual in lessening the evils of intemperance. The synod, said the reporter, could not therefore look favorably upon legislation looking to the issuing of further licenses. A law more effective than the Scott Act was wanted. The attitude the Presbyterians made to the drink traffic, said the report, was one of uncompromising hostility. The report recommended that members give the question of temperance and moral reform due prominence. The recommendation was passed.

The Home Mission report was encouraging. In New Brunswick there was remarkable progress in church building, debt-paying and church repairing. Contributions were ample, but men were scarce. Payment of probationers was increased to $12.00 a week. Efforts had been made to lessen the number of closed schools in Cape Breton. The church in New Brunswick had increased by three congregations, and another is coming shortly.

Presbyterian missions in Korea are very successful. There are 900 active churches with a congregation of from 100 to 2000 each.

The Synod purposes raising $50,000 a year for foreign missions, and a similar amount for home missions.

Synod adjourned late on Wednesday night.

This Synod includes all New Brunswick, P. E. Island, Newfoundland and Labrador, Nova Scotia, and parts of Quebec. The Synod embraces 719 preaching places, 197 Manse, or rented houses, 27,500 families, 43,050 communicants. 2,460 were received last year on profession of faith; removed by death or certificate, 2,165; baptisms 2,478; adults baptised 231; elders 1,660; G. S. enrolled 30,447; Stipend paid by congregations $201,835; from other sources $15,774; payments for all missionary purposes (including benevolence), $509,873. Value of church property is less than $300,000.

The Synod supports three missionaries in the New Hebrides; and an increasing band in Trinidad and British Guiana and in Korea. The Synod has a College at Halifax training candidates for the ministry in Trinidad for the purpose of try.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST.

Homestead Regulations.

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

Entry must be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land is situated.

Entry by proxy may, however, be made on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

The homesteader is required to perform the homestead conditions under one of the following plans:

(1.) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2.) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of the homesteader resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for the requirements as to residence may be satisfied by such person, residing with the father or mother.

(3.) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Six months' notice in writing should be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of intention to apply for patent.

W. W. CORY, Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

Safest Medicine for Women's Complaints

Women certainly do neglect themselves. They work too hard—over-tax their strength—and then wonder why they suffer with diseases peculiar to their sex.

Most cases of female trouble start when the bowels become inactive—the kidneys strained—and the skin not cared for.

Poisons, which should leave the system by these organs, are taken up by the blood and inflame the delicate female organs.

Fruit-a-tives

on FRUIT LIVER TABLETS.)

remove the CAUSE of these diseases. "Fruit-a-tives" sweeten the stomach—make the bowels move regularly every day—strengthen the kidneys—improve the action of the skin—and thus purify the blood.

"Fruit-a-tives" take away those distressing headaches, backaches and bearing-down pains, and make women well and strong. "Fruit-a-tives" are fruit juices, intensified, with tonics and antiseptics added. See a box—5 for 50c. At all druggists—or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

If real coffee disturbs your Stomach, your Heart or Kidneys, then try this clever Coffee imitation—Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee.

Dr. Shoop has closely matched old Java and Mocha Coffee in flavor and taste, yet it has not a single grain of real coffee in it. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted grains or cereals, with Malt, Nuts, etc. Made in one minute. No tedious long wait. You will surely like it. REGULATIONS RE MEAT PACKING.

Important Changes in the Law Regarding Inspection of Dressed Meats.

NEW REQUIREMENTS.

The custom prevailing among farmers throughout Canada slaughtering animals, particularly swine, upon their own premises and selling the dressed carcasses on the local market, is one which entails more or less loss to the producer. Before the advent of packing establishments, the domestic trade was supplied by the local butchers, who were necessarily compelled to provide for future supplies, and, as a result, the local markets were created. Conditions have changed, however, the local dealers no longer supplying the domestic trade, which has passed into the hands of the packing houses, which are now the distributing centres for meats. Packers can afford to, and actually do, pay higher prices and sell at lower values than the local butchers for reasons which are obvious when one considers that the profits are represented by the by-products. The packers are adverse to buying dressed carcasses as they represent smaller profits in by-products; and again dressed carcasses are imperfectly handled by the farmer, the meat in many cases being bruised and unsightly, this, as well as improper chilling, being deterrent to good prices. Animals, especially hogs, require scientific chilling, otherwise those parts which enter into the process of curing become sour and unfit for market. Packers prefer to buy their meats on the hoof, and for the reasons set forth above, are able to pay higher prices for the same.

In view, however, of the large trade carried on in some parts of Canada, more particularly during the fall and winter, in dressed pork as well as in other dressed meats, attention may be directed to one of the regulations made under the new Meat Inspection Act, which is likely to have considerable effect on the business referred to above.

The Department of Agriculture at Ottawa having resumed the responsibility of inspecting and practically guaranteeing the healthfulness of all meats and meat products sent out by the packing houses, must, of necessity, protect itself by making sure that no diseased carcasses are permitted to enter into these establishments. The most effective way of preventing the entry of such diseased meat is, of course, the careful ante-mortem inspection provided for by the regulations, but in view of the large trade carried on in dressed carcasses, and the fact that both farmers and packers have been in the habit of handling meats in this way, the officials in charge of the enforcement of the Act have decided to admit to the establishments under inspection, dressed carcasses under such conditions as will enable them to judge with reasonable certainty, as to whether the animal, prior to slaughter, was free from disease. Provision has therefore been made for the admission on inspection, of dressed carcasses with the head, heart, lungs and liver held by their natural attachments, such carcasses to be inspected before entering the establishment, and if found fit for food to be so marked and admitted for packing purposes, while if found to be diseased, to be condemned and tank-

This being the case, it is incumbent upon every farmer bringing dressed hogs or other animals to market to remember that unless the carcasses are dressed in accordance with the regulation mentioned above, namely, with these organs left in their proper position it will not be possible for the representatives of the packing establishments coming under the operation of the meat and Canned Foods Act.

The presence of the buyers or agents on our local markets has always been, at least to some extent, a safeguard against possible attempts by local combinations of butchers and others to depress the price of dressed meats, and it will be well for producers to bear in mind the new conditions and when for any reasons, unable to market their stock on hoof as they should undoubtedly do whenever possible, dress their hogs, as well as other animals, in such a way as to meet the requirements of the new Act.

FROM GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD

Mothers Should Watch the Development of Their Daughters—Interesting Experiences of Misses Borman and Mills.

Every mother possesses information which is of vital interest to her young daughter.

Too often this is never imparted or is withheld until serious harm has resulted to the growing girl through her ignorance of nature's mysterious and wonderful laws and penalties.

Girls' over-sensitiveness and modesty often puzzle their mothers and baffle physicians, as they so often withhold their confidence from their mothers and conceal the symptoms which ought to be told to their physician at this critical period.

When a girl's thoughts become sluggish, with headache, dizziness or a disposition to sleep, pains in the back or lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude; when she is a mystery to herself and friends, her mother should come to her aid, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now healthy and well, and all the distressing symptoms which I had at that time have disappeared."—Myrtle Mills, Oquawka, Ill.

Miss Matilda Borman writes Mrs. Pinkham as follows:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my periods were irregular and painful, and I always had such dreadful headaches.

"But since taking the Compound my headaches have entirely left me, my periods are regular and I am getting strong and well. I am telling all my girl friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Matilda Borman, Farmington, Iowa.

If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs motherly advice, ask her to address Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and tell her every detail of her symptoms, and to keep nothing back. She will receive advice absolutely free, from a source that has no rival in the experience of woman's ills, and it will, if followed, put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for the greatest number of cures of female ills of any medicine that the world has ever known. Why don't you try it?

BETTER PROSPECTS.

If Mr. Beveridge builds a paper mill here, and the purchasers of the Hutchinson property erect another at Douglastown, the Miramichi will be a much more important hive of industry than at present.

PUBLIC SPIRIT LACKING.

It seems a pity that at an important meeting such as that of the Board of Trade Monday evening only eight or nine of Newcastle business men were present. Are the others indifferent to the town's welfare? If, looks that way, but these are the men who are loudest in their expressions of the town's needs in an industrial way. If they were half as energetic in attending the meetings of the Board of Trade, as they are in expressing their views in some public places, much would be accomplished. Newcastle has been unfortunate in the past in that she had too many such citizens. Let us awake and see it, even at this late date, something cannot be done.

Be present at the public meeting to-night, and don't be afraid to say what you think.

TO INVESTIGATE

PROHIBITORY LAW.

The Provincial Government has named A. O. Skinner, of St. John, and W. D. Carter, of Richibucto, both barristers from license counties, to represent it on the commission which will enquire into the workings of the Prince Edward Island prohibitory law. The other commissioner, who was named by the N. B. Temperance Federation, is Rev. Thomas Marshall, now of Charlottetown, but lately stationed in St. John.

Neither government nor opposition promise prohibition for this province; neither is it likely that the N. B. T. F. will run any independent candidates at next election.

MUST MAKE PAPER

WHERE WOOD IS CUT.

The government of Ontario, which has for some time prohibited the exporting from the province of pulp wood cut on crown lands until it was manufactured into paper pulp, will henceforth insert into all leases a clause prohibiting the export of pulp before it is made into paper. The same clause will be inserted into the present leases as soon as their time expires. The American who desires to make paper out of Ontario wood will have to erect his mills in that province and employ residents of Canada in its manufacture. This should tend to check the exodus of Ontario workmen, and if applied in the other provinces would go a long way towards equalizing our population with that of the United States.

A UNIQUE RECORD.

The Erie Road has the record of not killing a passenger for the last fiscal year just ended, although it carried more than 21,000,000. The Erie must feel lonesome among American railroads.—Portland, Me. Press.

A GROWING DEMAND.

It may not help Mr. Bryan's advocacy of governmental ownership of railways that Lord Brassey is adopting the same policy in England, for in the eyes of many Americans it is not desirable to emulate British example. Presiding at a meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce in Liverpool Lord Brassey referred to the growing demand that railroads should be managed solely in the interests of the public service and not for the benefit of the shareholders, and declared that if a change of policy was proposed there could hardly be a doubt that it would receive the support of Parliament. In continental Europe, he added, where the railroads were the property of the state, the requirements of the public were fully considered and the results to the treasury were satisfactory, while in Great Britain competition was carried to excess, an immense amount of capital was wasted, shippers were dissatisfied with the burdensome rates, and the employees were discontented with their wages and hours of labor.—New York Shipping Illustrated.

DISAPPEARANCE OF

MALE TEACHERS.

This is the season of the year when we get the statistics of the candidate-teachers who are attending the normal and training schools throughout the country; and this year, as usual, they point to the practical obliteration of the male teacher. For Ontario, they stand as follows—Toronto, 189 lady teachers and 5 men teachers; London, 152 lady teachers and 13 men teachers; Ottawa, 115 lady teachers and 7 men teachers.

To what this will eventually lead, thoughtful parents and students of child development do not like to think. It is not a question of the fitness of the lady teacher. Many of them are quite as capable and as well prepared as the best man teacher could possibly be; and most of them have a rare skill in the management of pupils—particularly of backward pupils and those who are in need of sympathy—which few men can rival. But that is not the whole question. The training of a boy requires the presence of a man's influence; and it is better that he should have the example of a moderately well equipped man than of the best lady instructor who ever stood before a black board.

If we are going to turn our schools wholly over to the ladies, we shall rob the rising generation of boys of an influence in the upbuilding of many character which cannot well be over estimated. Our fathers had it; and so did we, though to a lesser degree. To put before the growing boy as the person to whom he is to look up in the matter of education, of knowledge, of conduct, a woman—no matter how clever—is to give him a lady-like ideal which will either weaken his character on the side of the many virtues or lead him to revolt against authoritative leadership as represented by his school mistress.

We should have men teachers as well as lady teachers. We can leave arithmetic and geography and grammar to the ladies; but we must provide men to give our boys inspiration and instruction in manliness. Not to do so is to wrong the boys. We may save money, but we will lose in manhood; and—as we have frequently said—the school system is the poorest possible place for the community to practice economy.—Montreal Star.

Heads of Moose, Deer, and Caribou Still Being Brought out of the woods.

Mr. Joseph Carrier of New Mills shot a big moose the other day. Mr. and Mrs. Avery Robinson, of Louisville, Ky., have returned from the Miramichi woods. Mr. Robinson succeeded in getting a nice head.

One of the best heads seen this season has been sent to Fredericton by Mr. E. D. Simon, of Surrey, England. He shot the monster from which he took the head at Bear Brook, on the Miramichi. Mr. Ren. Savage of Penniac was his guide.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Dagle of Moncton, who have been hunting in the woods near Canaan river, succeeded in landing a nice animal with a well formed head.

Mr. Manford Yeomans of Gibson, shot a fine buck deer, the antlers having eight points.

Messrs. Sapworth and Watters of England, came out of the woods recently. They brought with them a small but well shaped moose head. Mr. Watters will return to the woods with Uncle Henry Braithwaite as his guide. They will try their luck in the Salmon Lake district.

Mr. Frank Trump of Jersey Shore, Pa., and Dr. Donaldson of Williamsport, who have been hunting near Blackville, with Mr. J. Ronald MacDonald as guide, secured a nice moose each lately. Mr. Trump is an old time sportsman, and this is his fourth trip to New Brunswick after game.

Mr. Coleman Carnegie, nephew of the steel king, and Dr. A. A. Moore of New York, who have been hunting at McKeil Lake with Mr. William Griffin, Jr., as guide have returned. The doctor shot a moose, but Mr. Carnegie failed to find one to suit his fancy, although he saw quite a number.

Messrs. J. S. Dickinson and W. J. Tilt of New York, who have been hunting on Cain's River under the guidance of Mr. Chipman Bartlett, have returned each with a nice moose head. They claim to have seen seventy eight moose during the trip. Mr. W. H. Hayden of New Haven Conn., has gone up the Little Southwest Miramichi, to hunt big game under the guidance of Mr. Harry Braithwaite.

The heads of two nice moose shot at Mr. Charles Cremin's camp at Bathurst Lake by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hayden of New York, were received at Emack Bros' establishment the other day.

Peter Hebert of Kent Co., secured a head at Black River with horns spreading 52 inches.

S. J. Matheson of Loggieville and Donald MacNaughton of Black River each got a moose near their homes last week.

Hugh Daley got a moose one day last week at Bay du Vin.

At Upper Bay du Vin, on Friday James A. Dickens of Chatham, came upon two moose fighting, and shot one. He and his guide had to drive the other fellow away. The head of the moose was a handsome one, the antlers spreading 50 inches and having 28 points.

The finest moose head that has been seen here this season came in Wednesday via the I. C. R., and is being forwarded by S. F. Crosby & Co., taxidermists, Bangor. The specimen was secured, with another at Newcastle, by Mr. H. B. Gilbert on Sept. 27th. The horns measure fifty-two inches from tip to tip and are large full bladed and well preserved. The guide with whom Mr. Gilbert was hunting was Mr. W. B. McKay.

WERE NOT SENT UP FOR TRIAL.

By mistake, for which we are very sorry, as the error caused much inconvenience to innocent parties, it appeared in our last issue that it was Mr. "W. F." Copp who is the well-known commercial traveller and no connection with the defendant in the case, who was sent up for trial, charged with entering Durick's drug store by night, and that Mr. Alonzo Maloney was also sent up in the same affair.

We are glad to be able to say that W. F. Copp had nothing to do with the case, at all, and that Mr. Maloney was merely held as a witness.

Mr. J. W. Weeks, of Jacquet River, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Weeks, Millerton.

Harry Thurber left yesterday for Kings' College, Windsor, where he will study.

Henry Pine, who has been visiting friends here, returned to his home in Salem, Mass., this week.

To-night the members of St. Matthew's Episcopal church called on Mrs. J. A. L. Wathen and presented to her a hall rack and the following address:

"Dear Mrs. Wathen,—We, the congregation of St. Matthew's church, Harcourt, feel that we cannot let your wedding festivities pass by without adding, as a congregation, our heartfelt wishes for your future happiness in life. On this occasion, too, we wish to give expression to our heartfelt wishes for your future union of your past services, so skillfully and cheerfully rendered, as organist of our church.

"We realize that you have with your singing as well as with your organ music, done much to make our church services helpful and inspiring.

"In regard to the work of the Sunday school which we know must have at times been arduous and in other lines of church work, we feel that words are inadequate to express our appreciation and thanks for the faithful, loyal and diligent work you have so cheerfully rendered.

"If it were in our power we would strew the pathway of your married life with roses and fill all your days with music, as it is, we can only present you with this hall rack as a tangible expression of our best wishes and hearty thanks. May it be the only 'rack' in your home life, and when any little grievance or worry would come in to mar your wedded bliss, may you dispose of these as easily and happily as you hang your hats and coats on this rack, which we take much pleasure in now presenting you.

"Signed on behalf of the congregation—Mrs. W. Nicholson, Mrs. R. B. Shirley, Mrs. W. G. Thurber, Mrs. E. B. Buckenfield, W. G. Thurber, Jonathan Cail."

Mrs. Amanda Forsythe has returned to her home after spending the summer with her brother, Mr. McKendrick, of Chatham.

Quite a number of the young folks of this place spent a most enjoyable evening with Mrs. Wm. Allison, Saturday, Oct. 5th.

A WRINKLE FOR CAKE-MAKERS.

If you are your own cake baker—and surely you are—you perhaps have noted the difference there is in flour.

There are two principal constituents in flour—starch and gluten. All wheats contain both, but in varying quantities. Ontario fall wheat is rich in starch, while Manitoba spring wheat contains a large percentage of gluten. By combining the two kinds of wheat scientifically a flour is made that gives delightful results, wheth for cake, pastry or bread.

Millers are now blending these two kinds of wheat in such a way that the rich delicacy of the first is combined with the strength of the second—making an ideal flour.

Expert cooks have given Blended Flours exhaustive tests, and they are one in the opinion that no other flour can make such white, light, wholesome cake, pastry and bread.

Housekeepers will find Blended Flours without equal, both for making dainty foods and substantial baking, and they will find Blended Flours most economical, too.

With Edged Tools

By HENRY SETON MERRIMAN
Author of "The Doctor," "The Doctor's Career," "The Doctor's Life," "The Doctor's Death," etc.

Copyright, 1904, by HARPER & BROTHERS

At this moment Maurice came in—Maurice—beary, eager, full of life.
He blustered in, kicking the furniture, throwing his own vitality into the atmosphere. Jocelyn knew that he liked Jack Meredith, and she knew more.
She knew, namely, that Maurice Gordon was a different man when Jack Meredith was in Loango. From Mer-edith's presence he seemed to gather a sense of security and comfort even as she did—a sense which in herself she understood (for women analyze love), but which in her brother puzzled
him.

"Well, old chap," said Maurice, "glad to see you. I am glad to see you.
Thank heaven you were bowled over by that confounded malaria, for otherwise we should have missed you."
That is one way of looking at it," answered Meredith. But he did not go so far as to say that it was a way which had not previously suggested itself to him.

"Of course it is. The best way, I take it. Well, how do you feel?"
"Oh, much better, thanks. I have got on splendidly the last week, and better still the last five minutes! The worst of it is that I shall be getting well too soon and shall have to be off."

"Home?" inquired Maurice significantly.

Jocelyn moved uneasily.
"Yes, home."

"We don't often hear people say that they are sorry to leave Loango," said
Maurice.

"I will oblige you whenever you are taken with the desire," answered Jack lightly. "Loango has been a very good friend to me. But I am afraid there is no choice. The doctor speaks very plain words about it. Besides, I am bound to go home."

"To sell the simlacine?" inquired
Maurice.

"Have you the second crop with you?"

"Yes."

"And the trees have improved under cultivation?"

"Yes," answered Jack rather wonder-ingly. "You seem to know a lot about
it."

"Of course I do," replied Maurice boisterously.

"From Durnovo?"

"Yes; he even offered to take me
into partnership."

Jack turned on him in a flash.
"Did he indeed? On what conditions?"

And then, when it was too late, Maurice saw his mistake. It was not the first time that the exuberance of his nature had got him into a difficulty.

"Oh, I don't know," he replied vaguely. "It's a long story. I'll tell you about it some day."

Jack would have left it there for the moment. Maurice Gordon had made his meaning quite clear by glancing significantly toward his sister. Her presence he intimated debarred further explanation.

But Jocelyn would not have it thus.
She shrewdly suspected the nature of the bargain proposed by Durnovo, and a sudden desire possessed her to have it all out.

"If you mean," she said, "that you cannot tell Mr. Meredith because I am here, you need not hesitate on that account."

Maurice laughed awkwardly and muttered something about matters of business. He was not good at this sort of thing. Besides, there was the initial handicapping knowledge that Jocelyn was so much cleverer than himself.

"Whether it is a matter of business or not," she cried, with glittering eyes.
"I want you to tell Mr. Meredith now."

He has a right to know. Tell him upon what condition Mr. Durnovo proposed to admit you into the simlacine."

Maurice still hesitated, bewildered, at a loss, such as men are when a seemingly secure secret is suddenly discovered to the world. He would still have tried to fend it off, but Jack Meredith with his keener perception saw that Jocelyn was determined; that further delay would only make the matter worse.

"If your sister wants it," he said, "you had better tell me. I am not the sort of man to act rashly on the impulse of the moment."

Still Maurice tried to find some means of evasion.

"Then," cried Jocelyn, with flaming cheeks, "I will tell you. You were to be admitted into the simlacine scheme by Mr. Durnovo if you could persuade or force me to marry him."

None of them had foreseen this. It had come about so strangely, and yet so easily, in the midst of their first greetings.

"Yes," admitted Maurice, "that was
it."

"And what answer did you give?"
asked Jocelyn.

"Oh, I told him to go and hang himself—or words to that effect," was the reply, delivered with a deprecating laugh.

"Was that your final answer?" pursued Jocelyn, inexorable. Her persistence surprised Jack. Perhaps it surprised herself.

"Yes, I think so."

"Are you sure?"

"Did he indeed? On what conditions?"

"Well, he cut up rough and threatened to make things disagreeable; so I told him that it was no good his asking me to do anything in the matter, as I didn't know your feelings."

"Well, he can tell him," cried Jacelyn hotly. "That never, under any circumstances whatever, would I dream even of the possibility of marrying
him."

And she was gone.

CHAPTER XIX.
FEELE like getting up to breakfast,
do you, sir?" said Joseph to his master a few days later. "Well, I am glad. Glad isn't quite the word, though."

And he proceeded to perform the duties attendant on his master's waking with a wise, deep seated shake of the head. While setting the shaving necessaries in order on the dressing table, he went further—he winked gravely at himself in the looking glass.

"You've made wonderful progress the last few days, sir," he remarked. "I always told Missis Marie that it would do you a lot of good to have Mr. Gordon to heart you up with his cheery ways—and Miss Gordon, too, sir."

"Yes, but they would not have been much good without all your care before they came—I felt myself."

Jack grinned—an honest, open grin of self satisfaction. He was not one of those persons who like their praise bestowed with subtlety.

"Wonderful!" he repeated to himself, as he went to the well in the garden for his master's bath water.

"Wonderful! But I don't understand things—not but a marryin' man."

During the last few days Jack's progress had been rapid enough even to satisfy Joseph. The doctor expressed himself fully reassured and even spoke of his return to Jack. But he repeated his wish that Joseph should leave for England without delay.

"He is quite strong enough to be moved now," he finished by saying.
"There is no reason for further delay."

"No," answered Jocelyn, to whom the order was spoken. "No, none. We will see that he goes by the next boat."

Jocelyn entered the drawing room with a smile. She met Jack at the door.

"The doctor is pleased with your progress," she said. "He does not seem to want to see you any more, and he told me to tell you that. You are to leave by the next steamer."

"This is no joking matter," he said, half seriously. "The worst of it is that you seem rather pleased."

"I am—at the thought that you are so much better." She paused and turned quite away, busying herself with a pile of books and magazines.

"The other," she went on too indifferently, "was unfortunately to be foreseen. It is the necessary drawback."

"What particular word?"

"Must."

Jocelyn had not foreseen the possibility that the doctor was merely repeating to her what he had told Jack on a previous visit.

"No," she answered. "I think he said 'better not.'"

"However," she added, "you can decide when you get home."

He laughed.

"The least pleasant part of it is," he said, "your evident desire to see the last of me. Could you not disguise that a little, just for the sake of my feelings?"

"Book your passage by the next boat and I will promptly descend to the lowest depths of despair," she replied lightly.

"I wonder," he said slowly, "if you are doing this for a purpose. You said that you met my father?"

"Your father is not the man to ask any one's assistance in his own domestic affairs, and anything I attempted to do could only be looked upon as the most unwarrantable interference."

"Yes," said Meredith seriously. "I beg your pardon. You are right."

He went to his own room and summoned Joseph.

"When is the next boat home?" he asked.

"Boat on Thursday, sir."

Meredith nodded. After a little pause
he pointed to a chair.

"Just sit down," he said. "I want to talk over this simlacine business with
you."

Joseph squared his shoulders and sat down, with a face indicative of the greatest attention. Sitting thus he was no longer a servant, but a partner in the simlacine. He even indulged in a sidelong jerk of the head, as if requesting the attention of some absent friend in a humble sphere of life to this glorious state of affairs.

"You know," said Meredith, "Mr.
Durnovo is more or less a blackguard."

Joseph drew in his feet, having previously drawn his trousers up at the knees.

"Yes, sir," he said, glancing up.

"He wants continual watching and a special treatment. It requires some one constantly at his heels."

"Yes, sir," admitted Joseph, with some fervor.

"Now I am ordered home by the doctor," went on Meredith. "I must go by the next boat. I don't like to go and leave Mr. Oscar in the lurch, with no one to fall back upon but Durnovo, who has assumed the habitual look of servitude. He was no longer a partner, but a mere retainer, with a half comic resignation in his eyes."

"Yes, sir," scratching the back of his neck. "I am afraid I understand. You want me to go back to that platter, that God forsaken platter, as I may say."

"Yes," said Meredith; "that is about
it. I would go myself."

"God bless you, I know you would!"
burst in Joseph. "You'd go like winkle!"

There's no one knows that better nor me, sir, and what I says is, 'like master, like man.' Game, sir; game it is!
I'll go. I'm not the man to turn my back on a pal, a—partner, sir, so to speak."

"You see," said Meredith, with the deep insight into men that made command so easy to him—"you see there is no one else. There is not another man in Africa who could do it."

"And I think that Mr. Oscar will be looking for you."

"And he won't need to look long, sir.
But I should like to see you safe on board the boat; then I'm ready to go."

"Right. We can both leave by Thursday's boat, and we'll get the captain to drop you and your men at Lopez. We can get things ready by then, I think."

"Easy, sir."

The question thus settled, there seemed to be no necessity to prolong the interview. But Joseph did not move. Meredith waited patiently.

"I'll go up, sir, to the platter," said
the servant at length, "and I'll place myself under Mr. Oscar's orders; but before I go I want to give you notice of resignation. I renounce my partnership in this 'ere simlacine at six months from today. It's a bit too hot, sir, that's the truth. It's all very well for gentlemen like yourself and Mr. Os-card, with fortunes and fine 'ouses, and, as sayin' goes, a wife apiece waiting for you at home—it's all very well for you to go about in this blamed country with yer life in yer hand, and not a tight grip at that. But for a poor soldier like myself, what has smelt the regulation powder all 'is life,
and hasn't got nothing to love and no gal waiting for him at home—well, it isn't good enough. That's what I say, sir, with respects."

He added the last two words by way of apology for having banged a very solid fist on the table.

Joseph rubbed his hands slowly together and departed, leaving his master to begin a long letter to Guy Os-card.

And at the other end of the passage,
in her room with the door locked, Jocelyn Gordon was sobbing in a wild burst of grief because she had probably saved the life of Jack Meredith, and in doing so had only succeeded in sending him away from her.

When Jack Meredith said that there was not another man in Africa who could make his way from Loango to the simlacine plateau he spoke no more than the truth. There were only four men in all the world who knew the way, and two of them were isolated on the summit of a lost mountain in the interior. Meredith himself was unfit for the journey. There remained Joseph.

In coming down to Loango Joseph had had the recently made track of Oscar's rescuing party to guide him day by day. He knew that this was now completely overgrown. The sim-lacine plateau was once more lost to all human knowledge.

And up there, alone amid the clouds,
Guy Oscar was, as he himself tersely put it, "sticking to it." He had stuck to it to such good effect that the supply of fresh young simlacine was daily increasing in bulk. Again, Victor Dur-novo seemed to have regained his better self. He was like a full blooded horse—tractable enough if kept hand work. He was a different man up on the plateau from what he was down at Loango. There are some men who degenerate in the city, while others are better, stronger, finer creatures away from the luxury of civilization and the softening influence of female society.

Of one thing Guy Oscar soon became aware—namely, that no one could make the men work as could Durnovo.

He had merely to walk to the door of his tent to make every picker on the little plateau bend over his tree with renewed attention. And while above all was eagerness and hurry, below, in the valley, this man's name insured
peace.

The trees were now beginning to show the good result of pruning and a regular irrigation. Never had the leaves been so vigorous, never had the simlacine trees borne such a bushy, luxuriant growth since the dim, dark days of the flood.

Oscar relapsed into his old hunting ways. Day after day he tranquilly shouldered his rifle, and, alone or followed by one attendant only, he disappeared into the forest only to emerge therefrom at sunset. What he saw there he never spoke of. Sure it was that he must have seen strange things, for no prying white man had set foot in these wilds before him; no book has ever been written of that country that lies around the simlacine plateau.

Oscar was thinking of Millicent Chyne one misty morning while he walked slowly backward and forward before his tent. His knowledge of the country told him that the mist was nothing but the night's accumulation of moisture round the summit of the mountain, that down in the valleys it was clear and after an hour's sunshine would disperse all. He was waiting for this result when he heard a rifle shot far away in the haze beneath him and he knew that it was Joseph, probably making one of those marvellous long shots of his which caused a sudden glint of envy in the heart of this mighty hunter whenever he witnessed them.

Oscar immediately went to his tent
and came out with his short barreled

CHURCH OF ENGLAND SYNOD.

Large Number Clerical and Lay Delegates Assembled at St. John Last Week.

STATISTICAL REPORTS.

Strong Pronouncement on the Question of Church Union—Scarcity of Clergymen.

The Church of England Synod of N. B. began its annual session in St. John on October 1st, with Rt. Rev. J. A. Richardson, co-adjutor bishop, presiding, and a large attendance of both clerical and lay delegates.

Bishop Richardson's address showed that the following parishes are, or soon will be, vacant: St. Martins, Grand Manan, Queensbury and Southampton, Douglas and Bright, Welford and Harcourt, McAdam Junction, Bathurst, New Bandon, Richibucto and Burton. During the past two years losses both by death and by removal have been very heavy, numbering 19 clergymen since 1905, and only nine names added to the list. Derby, Blackville and Gray Rapid should be placed upon their old footing, and served as a single mission. Assistance is urgently needed in the parish of Addington. New Bandon is in the same condition.

He declared more money was needed; but did not favor its being raised by means of picnics and similar entertainments.

The Church of England in Canada could not unite with other denominations without the approval of Anglicans the world over.

The boy's school at Rothesay should be purchased by the Synod. Sunday was being well observed thanks to the Lora's Day Act.

Several slight changes were made in some of the canons.

Rev. G. M. Campbell was heard on behalf of the Canadian Bible Society.

It was decided to purchase the Rothesay school for $30,000.

The following report on the question of the reunion of Christendom was unanimously adopted: "Reunion of Christendom"—The full report on this section is: "The committee is a unit in desiring to uphold the principles of the Anglican communion which the bishop coadjutor has emphasized in his utterances upon the subject of the union of Christendom. The church of the Dominion of Canada can do nothing without the cooperation if the other branches of the Anglican communion; and we believe that that communion will never depart from that standard set us in the preface to the ordinance, which says: 'It is evident unto all men diligently reading the Holy Scripture and ancient authors that from the apostles' time there have been three orders of ministers in Christ's church viz, bishops, priests and deacons. There is no need of a comment upon this preface but we as a committee would recommend to the synod that it affirm anew its loyalty to this tenet of our faith that the historic Episcopate has been continuous in our communion from apostolic days, and we can never consent to that continuing being either broken or endangered.'

Bishop Richardson refused a vote of $400 for travelling expenses.

The election of five delegates to the Pan-Anglican congress resulted as follows: Ven. Archbishop Forsyth, Ven. Archbishop Newham, Mr. Justice Hanington, Canon Cowie and Rev. G. A. Kuhring Synod adjourned on the 3rd.

Crippled With Rheumatism

CURED BY GIN PILLS

Mr. Derragh certainly did have a hard time of it, winter before last. Caught cold, and it settled in his kidneys. First thing he knew, he was in bed with Rheumatism. He nearly went mad, the pain was so intense. The doctors gave him the usual treatment—and pretty nearly burnt his legs off with liniments and blisters—but the Rheumatism went right on aching.

Then a friend stepped in and said, "Why don't you try GIN PILLS?" After a great deal of persuasion, Mr. Derragh did try GIN PILLS. You never saw such a happy man in your life, after he had taken two boxes. Pain all gone—stiffness and lameness completely left—that ache in back and hips disappeared—and he was well in no time. That was two years ago and he has been in perfect health ever since.

Contracted a severe cold. Rheumatism followed and the sharp pains took me so often and were so severe that I had to take to bed. For several months I could get no relief, until I started to take "Gin Pills." In five days I was up and around the house. My pains are gone and I have not had a return of the old trouble since. I wish also to say that "Gin Pills" gave me the first painless passage of urine I have had in two years.

ROBT. DERRAGH, Winnipeg.

How about you? Haven't you suffered enough without going all over it again this winter? Get Gin Pills now—and cure yourself at home. Mention this paper and we will send you a free sample to try. The Bole Drug Co., Winnipeg. Only 50c. a box—6 boxes for $2.50. 87

BRITISH SETTLERS FOR PROVINCE.

Provincial Government Will Assist Salvation Army Immigration in This Direction.

TO TAKE CROWN LANDS

Will Loan Money to the Army—Establishment of New Industries to be Considered.

In an interview in St. John last week Premier Robinson outlined a new policy of the government with regard to immigration and the establishment of industries in the province. Mr. Robinson said that the provincial government had decided to put immigration matters under the care of two men. An official would also be appointed to look after the encouragement of the establishment of industries in New Brunswick.

Mr. Robinson referred to his conference with General Booth and Colonel Lamb of the Salvation Army, which took place during the General's visit to Moncton. The result of that conference has been that Colonel Lamb has prepared a proposal to be submitted to the government at an early date. The proposal will be to bring out from England emigrants of a good class and settle them on crown lands. The Premier said that the lands along the line of the Intercolonial Railway and also those in the tract in Carleton County, recently acquired from the New Brunswick Land Company, were considered to be suitable for settlement. The Salvation Army immigration will be assisted by government loans.

The province itself will have a new system for the encouragement of immigration and that coupled with the elaborate machinery of the Salvation Army, in the opinion of Premier Robinson, will bring about the settlement of much of New Brunswick's vacant territory. Already the Army has chartered several vessels to bring parties to Canada. Some of the ships will land the immigrants at the ports in the Maritime Provinces. This is considered necessary as those landed at Quebec have a tendency to work their way quickly toward the west. So far the emigration system of the Salvation Army has worked admirably. People of a good class have been gathered in the old country and brought to Canada. Many have been located in the west, some in Ontario. In the latter province the government has aided this class of immigration by loans to the Salvation Army in the same way that the New Brunswick government proposes to adopt. In many instances the settlers are provided with houses and are advanced money, by the Army, all on the understanding that repayment is to be made as soon as possible. During the past year the Salvation Army immigrants have prospered to such an extent that the repayments have been fifty per cent. greater than was expected.

Premier Robinson looks for great success to attend the Salvation Army immigration work in this province.

The system by which the establishment of industries throughout the province may be encouraged is not yet perfected, but competent men are now working upon it. "I do not see," said Mr. Robinson, "why New Brunswick is not suitable for the establishment of many industries both large and small."

APPRECIATION OF INTERCOLONIAL.

Traveller of Wide Experience Remarks on the Splendid Service and Magnificent Scenery.

The following letter carries its own explanation:

The Beacon, Wm. Grant James, Treasurer.

62 Summer St., Boston, Sept. 14, 1907.

Mr. R. W. Chipman, N. E. Passenger Agent Intercolonial Railway of Canada, Boston, Mass.

Dear Mr. Chipman: Mrs. James and myself returned from our Canadian trip last evening and I desire to write and thank you all for the part that you contributed to our enjoyment. We rode many miles on the Intercolonial going from Halifax to Sydney and return, and from Halifax to Montreal. We found the "Sydney Flyer" and the "Ocean Limited" both to be trains of exceptional excellence.

In fact, the service compares favorably with the best trains in the States. Best of all, in each instance the trains pulled into their station of destination on time, something that you cannot say about the majority of the trains in this country.

I found the scenery most picturesque, and from an experience covering every state in the Union, it seems to me that that portion of the Maritime Provinces covered by your routes are among the most enchanting that I have ever visited.

I take pleasure in extending to you my full appreciation for the courtesy shown to me by the Intercolonial officials.

Yours truly, WM. GRANT JAMES, Treasurer.

Minard's Liniment relieves Neuralgia.

Chief of Police Lawson, of Chatham, left on Friday for Glace Bay, N. S., to give evidence in a case, and also to bring his family to Chatham. He has secured more than a dozen convictions in a few days, and says he could have secured three times as many if the papers could have been made out for him quickly enough. He intends to go on with a first, second and third offence campaign on his return, which will soon close all open bars and put all responsible persons out of the business. Chief Lawson has been already notified by the proprietors of several hotels that they have nailed up their bars and will sell no more.

John Floetum, the 14-year-old son of a small farmer, is attracting remarkable attention throughout Norway.

He is credited with having six senses the sixth of which enables him to discover in the most wonderful manner the whereabouts of missing persons or things, without having to appear personally on the scene.

One of his most remarkable successes is recorded by the Aftenposten to have just taken place. A wealthy farmer of Glommon left home and could not be found by the family scoured the surrounding country without finding any trace of the farmer. Then it was decided to appeal to young Floetum.

The youth was shown the photograph of the missing man and immediately proceeded to draw a rough plan indicating a route through the district, which he stated the farmer had taken. Scores of the villagers then set out and followed the plan, at the end of which, near a narrow river, the man's handkerchief was found, but no trace of the man himself was visible.

On the following day the boy led the search party. He entered a boat, which was sailed along the river according to his orders. He sat in the stern with a vacant stare, apparently oblivious of his surroundings.

Suddenly he sprang to his feet, crying: "Here he lies!"

The water was dragged, and the body of the missing man was found.

The boy is credited with several other remarkable feats, and crowds of people are travelling from all parts of the country to see him.

Whaling in Scotland.

A visitor who has spent the last two summers in Scotland describes in The Scotsman the Norwegian whale fishing industry carried on in that British island. He writes: "Every part of the whale is made use of. The blubber is run down into oil. The flesh is boiled and ground into cattle food; the bones and offal are boiled, dried, and ground into gunge. Only the liquid that escapes during cutting up, and a little overflow from the offal boilers, runs into the sea. . . . The sheep and cattle feed close down to the stations, even among the blades of whalebone spread out on the grass to dry. I understand the workmen regularly cook and eat the whale flesh. In Denmark it has been canned for years. This year one of the Shetland stations salted several hundred barrels. Regarding the kinds of whale killed, there are two. The finner, 60 to 80 feet long, yields about 30 barrels of oil, and is found 30 to 120 miles at sea; the coal fish whale, 35 to 45 feet long, about 15 barrels, 10 to 20 miles at sea. The herring hog, which is found much closer inshore, is not taken. It only yields about one barrel oil, and does not pay to kill."

Old School Rules.

There was no doubt in Queen Elizabeth's reign as to who was responsible for the proper feeding of school children. The School of St. Saviour's, Southwark, which, excepting for an entrance fee of two and sixpence and a significant payment of "trophies" a quarter toward brooms and rods, was a free school for a hundred poor boys, framed a very interesting set of rules for its inmates in 1562. The boy's parents were exhorted to provide him with "wholesome and handsome clothing becoming his estate, and to take care of his body; and lest it should cause the undoing of the child, the parents are reminded that the care of him at dinner time, supper time, etc., rests with them." Another recommendation to the parents is that "they should manage with great discretion and severity at home, which will make him love his school," and the concluding phrases might be written up in every home of to-day: "For the master may do much, but good and discreet government at home makes all sure, and doth the greatest good."—London Chronicle.

WORTH TAKING

One ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion;
One ounce Compound Salatsine;
Four ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla;

Mixed and taken in (teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime, is pronounced by a prominent physician to be the best mixture for the cure of the kidney, bladder, and all urinary troubles.

This says the doctor, is the most simple though remarkable prescription ever written to cleanse the system of impurities and waste matter. It acts as a powerful tonic to the kidneys, forcing them to filter out the acids and poisons, overcoming rheumatism, lame back, sciatica and other afflictions arising from sour, impure blood.

The ingredients can be procured at any good drug store, and being purely vegetable and entirely harmless, can easily be mixed at home.

If you have a suffering friend who is unable to find relief, send them this to him; he will undoubtedly be pleased to learn of so simple and highly recommended a remedy.

GOOD SHOW IN OPERA HOUSE

The Stoddart Stock Co. open a four nights' engagement in Newcastle Opera House next Monday, Oct. 14th. Concerning this talented company of actors, the Chatham World of last Wednesday says:—

"The Stoddart Stock Co. had an audience of six hundred Monday evening. Every seat was taken, and half the aisle space was packed with standers. 'A Soldier's Sweetheart' was played in a sprightly and dashing style. Miss Stoddart and Miss Secord looked and played the two pretty girl roles with artistic naturalness. Mr. Stewart was warmly applauded as Teddy O'Malley. The other parts were in good hands. The specialties were excellent. 'The Moonshiners' drew a full house last night, and was applauded enthusiastically."

The death of Mr. George Brynton occurred at his residence, Brynton, on Oct. 3rd. The deceased gentleman had reached the age of 91 years, and was a respected and honored member of the community. Interment took place in the Methodist cemetery, Derby, on Oct. 4th inst. The pall bearers were Messrs. George, John, Albert, William, James and David Brynton. Deceased leaves behind, six sons and four daughters to mourn his loss. The sons acted as pallbearers. The daughters are Mrs. A. Stahl, of Boston; Mrs. G. D. Bubar and Mrs. J. Leslie, of Wisconsin; and Mrs. J. Parks, of Redbank. The Rev. J. F. Rowley was the officiating clergyman.

MRS. ERNEST HOSFORD.

The funeral of Mrs. Isa Hosford, Trout Brook, Northumberland Co. wife of Ernest Hosford, took place on Sunday, Rev. J. F. Rowley officiating. Deceased was about 27 years old and led a beautiful and consistent life. Her husband and two small children—Hiram and Rachel, the latter but a few months old—survive.

JAMES A. JOHNSON.

Mr. James A. Johnson died at his home in Campbellton on Wednesday last. Deceased was in his 62nd year, and suffered from cancer. Up to two years ago, he was mechanical superintendent of the I. C. R. shops at Campbellton. He was a prominent member of the Masons and Royal Arcanum. The deceased leaves five sons: Charles, at home; James, South Africa; George, Annapolis, Ont.; Harry, Smith Falls, Ont.; and Ernest, Bracebridge, Ont.; and two daughters, Maud, at home, and Mrs. C. F. Payne, of Kentville, N. S. The funeral which was held under the auspices of the Masonic Order took place Friday afternoon. Services were conducted at the house by the Rev. Dr. Carr and interment made in the Rural Cemetery.
