TRUSTEE HAMILTON WILL GO WEST

Pastor of First Congregational Church Will Resign Charge.

SCHOOL BOARD VACANCY

Fellow-Members Will Be Called Upon to Name His Successor at Once.

Rev. D. S. Hamilton, pastor of the First Congregational Church, and a member of the board of education, will leave London shortly, it is understood, to take up work in the Canadian west.

He tendered his resignation last week, but was asked to withhold it for two weeks, and he consented to do so. It has been known that Mr. Hamilton has been thinking of the west for some time.

No definite information as to his location could be obtained, but it is practically assured that he will leave some time in the autumn.

Here Eight Years.

Rev. Mr. Hamilton has been pastor of the First Congregational Church in this city for about eight years, coming to this city from the Point St. Charles congregation in Montreal.

Since coming here he has made many friends, and he has been extremely popular among all classes of citizens. Every progressive movement has had his hearty sympathy and co-operation.

Wholesome, sympathetic, broad-minded and capable, he will be greatly missed in London.

Vacancy on School Board.

Mr. Hamilton has been a valued member of the board of education for about two years, and has spared neither time nor endeavor to assist in the work of the board.

It will be necessary for the board to name his successor. It is also understood that the board of management of the church will accept his resignation with regret.

The church has done well under his ministry.

ELECTRIC CARS MEET HEAD-ON

Terrible Accident to Crowded Traction Cars at South Bend.

TEN PERSONS KILLED

Motorcar Said to Have Disobeyed Orders With a 50-Mile-an-Hour Car—Collision as Result.

South Bend, Ind., June 21.—Ten persons were killed and forty injured in the wreck on the Chicago, Lake Shore and South Bend Railway, in Porter County, Ind., Saturday night, two of the big electric cars colliding head on.

According to General Manager Wallace the wreck was due to disobedience of orders by Motorcar George A. Read, of the eastbound car, who was killed.

Read received instructions at Gary to wait at Wilson, a short distance west of Bailey town, the point at which the disaster occurred, for the westbound car to pass. The impact of the cars was so great that they were reduced to a mass of wreckage.

The dead, George A. Read, motorman, Michigan City, Ind.; Ray F. Merriam, South Bend; Charles J. Person, Porter, Ind.; Edward Gilbertson, Porter, Ind.; A. Barber, Mishawaka, Ind.; F. T. Moore, residence unknown; Wm. Leon, secretary of the Dowagiac motor works, Dowagiac, Mich.; Wm. L. Lake, president Dowagiac motor works, Dowagiac, Mich.; H. H. Hutton, Niles, Mich.; Charles Swanton, Porter.

The eastbound car, going 50 miles an hour, was telescoped, and almost demolished. In this train were all of the killed and most of the injured, passengers on the westbound train escaping with bruises.

Darkness greatly interfered with the progress of the rescuers, and to make matters worse, the nearest telephone was a mile away.

Superintendent Welsh, of the International line, was in Michigan City when the accident occurred, but it was impossible to run electric cars to the scene because the trolley line had been broken. Three physicians were sent in a gasoline traction speeder and three more were dispatched in an automobile.

When the physicians arrived, the scene they found farmers and villagers rushing about, endeavoring to care for the wounded and to extricate the dead and dying by the light of a few lanterns. Many of the wounded were pinioned in the cars, so that it was necessary to use axes.

Officers of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway told a passing westbound train to take on doctors and nurses at South Bend and Laporte and put them off at the Dune Park. The New York and Boston fast express of the Lake Shore Railroad stopped at Dune Park and took aboard the wounded, who were carried to South Bend and Laporte and placed in hospitals.

Seized the Furniture.

The office furnishings, including the typewriter of the International Detective Bureau, were seized this week at the instance of J. A. Judge, a former employee of the firm. A short time ago Judge got judgment against them for $49 and costs for back salary and expenses. The claim was not satisfied, and the office furniture was seized. It will be offered for sale this week.

DRINKING FOUNTAIN WILL BE ON YORK STREET

Will Be Placed Opposite Two Hotels Where It Will Compete for Trade.

The drinking fountain to be erected by the Charity Organization Society will be located on York street, just east of Clarence street, opposite the Deering Harvester Building.

This morning Sheriff Cameron, Rev. J. G. Stuart, H. E. Gates and Inspector Sanders had an interview with City Engineer Graydon, and after discussing many sites with him, the one mentioned was decided on.

The fountain is ordered, and will be in the city within a short time. The water commissioners will supply water free of charge.

G. T. R. EMPLOYEES MAY PICNIC HERE

Mayor Stevely Has Interested Himself in Matter and May Get Crowd for London.

SONS OF SCOTLAND TOO

Sons of Scotland, Too, May Come to This City—A Move in the Right Direction At Last.

The Grand Trunk employees' excursion may be brought to London this year. It was the intention of the railroad men to go to Buffalo on July 17, but Mayor Stevely and others interested themselves in the matter, and it is now quite probable that they will come to London. His worship will be in Toronto and will impress upon Toronto men that London should be visited this year.

Five Thousand Visitors.

"If they come to London, it will mean that there will be perhaps 5,000 visitors to the city before Mayor Stevely. I think we can get them to come here. I have to go to Toronto this week, and I will see the executive, and try and arrange for them to come to London. We have the city and we should be able to entertain them in a fitting manner."

Sons of Scotland.

The Grand Trunk of the Sons of Scotland now in session in Toronto have also been invited to hold their camp in London in 1911.

"I forwarded an invitation to Col. Robertson, the grand secretary," said Mayor Stevely. "I received word from him to the effect that he will be pleased to bring such a pretty city, the members of the grand encampment, and we are certain of having an opportunity of stating our case."

"What about the high bacteriological content in the last samples?" was asked. "Large numbers go away, but very few come here. Visitors wonder how it is that more do not visit London, when we have such a pretty city. We are going after every convention we can, and I think we should land our share."

DR. AMYOT AGAIN
CERTIFIES TO WELLS

Says Those of the Beck Scheme Are Fit For Domestic Use and Should Be Used.

Dr. Amyot, provincial adviser, was in the city yesterday, and on being interviewed, reiterated his former statement that the Beck wells are fit for domestic use.

The city has the water problem solution there, and it would be folly, I should say, not to accept it," he stated. "The water is pure and potable."

"What about the high bacteriological content in the last samples?" was asked. "The content was much higher, as I pointed out, than usual, but that was due to the fact that the water was delayed in reaching the laboratory by the express companies," he answered. "The weather became warm, and as would be expected, the bacteria increased in numbers."

"However, the wells, under normal conditions, have shown a comparatively low bacteriological content, and again. There were no colon bacilli, and no other deleterious matter."

The McGregor Wells.

"I have received no samples from the McGregor wells as yet, so I cannot state how they will analyze. I took some water from the spring the last time I was there, and the sample showed more from than would be suitable. This was perhaps due to local conditions. However, I am certain that the Beck supply is good, so the city need not worry. If the McGregor wells turn out well, so much the better. The city is well fortified for water."

FORD CAR WINS BOISE PRIZE.

Boise, Idaho, June 20.—Ford car No. 2, Scott driver, arrived at Boise first and won the $100 offered by the Commercial Club. Ford No. 1 was second at 2:30 p.m., 18 hours behind. Shawm passed Mountain Home at 3 p.m. Ford No. 1, with 10 hours and yesterday, Ford No. 2 left for Baker City at 24 hours, and arrived there at 3 p.m.

PAID UP AND SAVED TROUBLE.

Three young men of this city who drove out to Dorchester on Wednesday morning to play a ball game there behaved in a very disgraceful manner, and almost succeeded in landing themselves behind prison bars. They had imbibed somewhat too freely, and had become quarrelsome, and finally got into a row with the hostler of Linder's Hotel, in which the latter was badly used. They also kicked in a door and did other wilful damage. When they became sober, fearing the results, they went to Mr. Linder and offered to pay handsomely for the injury and damage. The offer was finally accepted, and thus they saved themselves being arrested.

WINNIPEG MADE
LONDON FEEL CHEAP

People From the West Advertised Their City in Great Style at Louisville.

HERE'S A GOOD LESSON

Western Metropolis Certainly Made Things Lively in the Southern City—City Clerk Baker Speaks.

The Shriners of London were given an object lesson while in Louisville, advertising their city, and in this case more impressively than that done by the Shriners of Winnipeg.

They came to the convention city in large numbers, and brought with them every possible product of land or industry that would add to the reputation of their city.

A room was fitted up in one of the largest hotels in Louisville, and here were displayed all the grain and fruits of the west.

The city of Winnipeg, as would be expected, was boasted to the limit, and the result was that the 50,000 visitors from every state in the Union were talking about Winnipeg, and the Canadians made themselves very popular in Louisville.

It was a Good Move.

"It certainly was decidedly interesting," said one of the Shriners, "although it made some of us Londoners feel that we should have been able to do more for our own city."

"These men spent not their own money alone, but the city and the Government. I understand, gave them a liberal donation to exploit the wealth of that country."

"Some two or three thousand dollars was spent in this manner, and it was as effective advertising as one could wish to see."

Shriners Did Their Part.

"The Shriners from London did their part, but they could not do it all. A liberal grant from the city, to make known this city and its possibilities, would have done a great deal of good—more than the average man imagines. Londoners are great to go away, but they should learn to bring people here—for we could entertain them as well as any other city, and show them as much to admire, if we only thought so."

City Clerk Impressed.

City Clerk Baker, who has just returned from a trip to Louisville, but the south, was also impressed with the way Winnipeggers advertised Canada, and especially their own section.

"Our city made a fine showing, make no mistake about that," said Mr. Baker. "London made itself felt, but the fact still remains that the Winnipeggers undertook and carried out an extensive advertising scheme as I have ever seen. Wheat, grains of all sorts, and all other things that would add to the popularity of the city, were displayed with a lavish hand, and the effect produced was excellent. It was bound to attract visitors to that city, and eventually to the city of London. The men behind the scheme carried it out most successfully. It would have been money well invested for the city of London, and the same."

American Cities Do It.

"All the American cities did that. Thousands upon thousands of dollars were spent in this manner by representatives of these cities, and it was most effective."

"We should let our beautiful city be known. We have been too afraid to launch out on progressive lines so far. There was some talk of a publicity bureau in connection with the board of trade, but so far nothing has been done."

REV. D. S. HAMILTON.
Pastor of the First Congregational Church, Who is Going West.

PLENTY OF SPRING WATER IN SIGHT

The McGregor Wells Are Being Pushed Along at Rapid Rate.

MAY MAKE 3 PROPOSALS

Will Likely Be Made to the City—Success of All Wells Schemes Has Killed River Water Agitation.

The seventh well on the McGregor farm is being drilled, and it is expected that it will be finished in a day or two, and the last well will then be commenced. All should be ready by the end of the week.

Then a proposition will be made to the water commissioners for taking over the wells.

The details of the proposition have not been announced, but as outlined in The Advertiser some time ago, they will be of a three-fold character, one to buy the land and wells at a price; the second to furnish water at the city mains for a certain sum of money per million gallons, and the third to furnish the wells and a pumping plant for a certain sum. They claim that the cost will be less than the Beck scheme.

Take Them All.

Mr. R. Lyon, who was associated with Hon. Adam Beck in drilling his wells, is in favor of the city taking over the McGregor outfit if the hygienic test is proper.

"I hope the McGregor wells are a success," said Mr. Lyon. "It will not hurt Mr. Beck's scheme at all. We started out to demonstrate that a sufficient quantity of water to supply this city for many years to come could be obtained from wells. We have succeeded in doing that. Now, if the McGregor wells show large quantities of water, it further proves that the idea is the proper one."

"The water from these wells will flow by gravitation into the Beck reservoir. It will not cost much money to pipe them in. The Beck wells can be pumped also, and between the two at least four million gallons of water can be obtained. That is as much as the Springs can supply."

Scheme Criticized.

"I do not think much of the scheme suggested by some of the commissioners that the McGregor wells be run to Springfield. That, to me, is poor business. That would have to be a water four miles to the pumping station, and then pump it five miles back. It would mean an extra mile, as the present plan is to pump the water to the city mains. The Beck wells can be pumped also, and between the two at least four million gallons of water can be obtained. That is as much as the Springs can supply."

"We have lots of water, and all we have to do is get it into the mains."

No River Water.

River water appears to have slumped badly since the Beck wells proved a success. With the McGregor wells added there will be no need of London looking to the river for a supply.

The people want spring water, and will no doubt carry the Beck scheme in July. The river water advocates appear to have taken a vacation.

RUNNING DOWN THE TRUNK MURDER

Chinese Slayers of White Missionary Girl Seen at Chicago.

JEALOUSY THE MOTIVE

Victim Said To Have Transferred Her Affections From Leon to Another Celestial.

Schenectady, N. Y., June 21.—A Chinaman, giving his name as Leon Ling, but meeting in every way the description of Wm. H. Leon, wanted for the Sigel murder in New York, was taken into custody here this noon. He came here nine days ago and has been cooking in a chop suey place.

The police are positive that he is the man wanted. He came here from New York with Cong Sing, arrested at West Galtway this morning.

New York, June 21.—The fact that Leon Ling called at the Sigel home on Tuesday, June 8, the day before Miss Sigel disappeared, and threatened to kill Chu Galt unless Elsie "stopped" seeing with him," was made known today by Paul Sigel, the father of the murdered girl. Mr. Sigel said also that he believed Elsie was induced to visit Leon's room under the representation that Leon was ill that she was killed on the day she left her home, and that she did not go to Washington.

Mr. Sigel said that Leon was under the influence of liquor when he called and Elsie told him she would have nothing to do with him while he was in that condition. "If you don't stop going with Chu Galt I will kill him, and do something else, too," Mr. Sigel quoted Leon as saying.

New York, June 21.—All clues to the whereabouts of Leon Ling, the Chinaman in whose room the body of Elsie Sigel was found last Friday, were investigated by the New York police, but Leon was still at liberty, and his hiding-place unknown. Meantime all the members of the Sigel family have positively identified the body of the murdered girl as that of Miss Elsie, and the police have held as important witness Chu Galt, the manager of the Port Arthur restaurant, where Elsie was said to have been a frequent visitor.

Jealousy the Motive.

Letters from Elsie Sigel were found in Chu Galt's rooms and contained such terms of endearment as to convince the authorities that they had discovered the motive of her murder, and that it was Leon's jealousy of Chu Galt, who seemed to have supplanted Leon in the affections of the young missionary. Chu Galt made the assertion that he had received anonymous letters threatening him with death unless he discontinued his attentions to Miss Sigel.

Traces of Murderer.

Washington, June 21.—Leon Ling, the Chinese convert now being sought as the alleged slayer of Elsie Sigel, is reported to have been in Washington last Wednesday and Thursday in company with his roommate, Chung Sin, and a white woman, whose identity is a mystery.

The woman, it is stated, lodged two nights with a family in C street, northwest, near Third street and left there last Thursday night at 7 o'clock, in company with two Chinese.

Members of the family identified photographs of Leon Ling and Chung Sin as likenesses of the men who called for her. Occupants of the house declared that the woman said she was a trained nurse and was going to Belmont to attend a patient. She remained at the house until the two Chinese called her Thursday night without giving any reason for not hurrying to the patient.

The landlady who rented the room declared the visitors was pale and much excited.

A Chicago Clue.

Chicago, June 21.—The police yesterday received information which may result in the capture of the two Chinese who are wanted in New York for the murder of Elsie Sigel.

W. J. Conley, an employee of the Parmelee Transfer Company, said that two Chinese answering the description of Leon Ling and Chung Sin arrived at the Grand Central station over the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad from Washington at 9:45 o'clock last Friday morning.

An Arrest.

Amsterdam, N. Y., June 21.—Chon Sing, wanted in New York as a material witness in the murder of Elsie Sigel, was arrested this morning by the Amsterdam police at West Galtway, a country hamlet, 10 miles distant. The Chinese admitted his identity, and acknowledged that he was a personal friend of Leon Ling, who is believed by the authorities to be the murderer. Chon Sing has been at West Galtway for eight days, being employed as a cook by Harvey Kennedy, a New York resident who has a summer home there. He admitted having roomed with Leon Ling, but declares he has no knowledge of his whereabouts. The New York police department has been notified.

SMALLPOX AT TORONTO

Unusually Large Number of Cases at Queen City.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

Toronto, June 21.—Toronto has an unusually large number of smallpox cases on hand at present, there being no less than sixteen patients at the Cottage Hospital; six cases were taken in Saturday and Sunday. A girl in a seed store on Oak street is blamed for spreading the disease. A Hamilton man smitten with the disease was put in the hospital Sunday, and will have to remain here six weeks.

LIQUOR CASE WITNESS WAS SPIRITED AWAY

St. Thomas Celestials Said to Have Fellow Countryman Called by Prosecution.

ANOTHER NATURAL GAS COMPANY

Mayor Stevely Approached by a Representative of Apparently New Concern.

Another gas company is looming up and the city may have an additional offer from a western gas company.

This time it is from Wallaceburg, and the man behind the proposition is said to be Mr. D. A. Gordon, M. P. for East Kent, and one of the best-known business men in Ontario.

"I was approached by a man in the city the other day," said Mayor Stevely, "and he asked me if we would consider a proposition from a Wallaceburg gas company, in which Mr. Gordon is interested, and I said we would. I have heard nothing from them since, nor do I know what companies are interested, or where their fields are located. Mr. Gordon generally knows what he is about, and if he comes with any scheme, it will be one worthy of consideration."

do not know whether it is the merger of all the gas companies in the Kent fields. I have no information other than I have given you."

Mr. Houghton Expected.

"I expect Mr. Houghton, of New York, the man who is behind the Port Dover case, to be in the city within a few days, and then we will hear what has been done regarding his proposition. I understand that he has a million dollars subscribed towards his project. If that is the case there is no reason why we should not have gas in abundance in a short time."

FIRE WAS DISCOVERED IN NICK OF TIME

The Knowles' Lithographing Co. Had a Narrow Escape This Morning.

The opportune discovery of a fire in the cellar of the Knowles lithographing establishment on Weston street at 11 o'clock today alone saved that building from destruction.

The cellar is used for storing waste paper. Some of it got too close to the exhaust pipe of the gasoline engine, and ignited. The blaze was seen shortly after it started, however. The firemen, who were called, soon had the fire under control, confining it to the basement.

"The loss will not be heavy," said Chief Atkinson, "the building being practically undamaged. If the fire had got into the main building it would have been all out with it."

CROWDED AUTOMOBILE
RUNS AMUCK AT CONEY

One Person Fatally Injured and Half a Dozen Others Are in Hospital.

New York, June 21.—As the result of a big sight-seeing automobile running wild, while filled with merry-makers on their way home from Coney Island early today, six of the occupants of the vehicle are in hospitals with severe injuries, and one young woman is expected to die as the result of her hurts. The fatally injured victim is Miss May Avery, 12 years old, of Washington Heights, who sustained fractures of both legs, and of the right arm, and internal injuries, when the runaway car crashed into a tree on the Ocean Park way.

All the 25 passengers were thrown out by the shock. Some of the young women in a panic had tried to jump from the machine, the mechanism of which had gone wrong, went zigzagging along the parkway, but were restrained. Three of the six injured persons are women, and Miss Rose Miller, of Manhattan, had both legs broken and is suffering from shock. A dozen other occupants of the car sustained minor injuries in the crash.

FOR LEMIEUX ACT

Ottawa, June 21.—The labor department has been informed that the Owen Sound Longshoremen have accepted the Lemieux board's finding. The company and the railway telegraphers have accepted the finding of the Lemieux board in the case of the telegraphers dismissed.

ELBERFELD AGAIN SUSPENDED.
New York, June 19.—B. B. Johnson, president of the American League, today notified the New York Club that Third Baseman Norman Elberfeld had been suspended for three days for disrupting umpire O'Loughlin's decision on a play in yesterday's game with Cleveland. Following the decision the crowd jeered and hooted the umpire and Elberfeld protested vigorously against the judgment of O'Loughlin, who ordered him from the field.

BURGLAR'S LAIR RAIDED

Port Arthur Police Have a Pitched Battle With Thieves.

Port Arthur, June 19.—A pitched battle between police and burglars ensued this morning, when Sergt. Fenn and Constables Thurlow and Symens went down the short eight miles to the beach, and the resort of thieves who have lately been operating in the two cities, and made a number of hauls. The gang scented the approach of the officers, and fled along the shore, emptying their revolvers at the police. The police returned the fire. None of the officers were hurt, but it is not known whether any of the gang were wounded. The police found a large quantity of burglars' tools, dynamite and all kinds of goods supposed to have been stolen, which they brought back to the city. A posse will be sent down by rail to look of the men, who will in the meantime be refused permission to board any trains should they be passing.

PLUNGED INTO ABYSS.

Vancouver, B. C., June 20.—In a disaster which overtook the Seattle and Vancouver passenger train on the Great Northern Railway, Engineer Zeigfeld and Fireman Brown perished. A misplaced switch on the Fraser River bridge at New Westminster threw the engine off the track and it plunged over the bridge into the river. Not a single passenger was injured. If the brakes had failed twenty people would have lost their lives. As it was the end of the mail car overhung the abyss with forty feet of swift-flowing Fraser running below.

WILD SCENES ON PARIS RACE TRACK

French "Reds" Carry War Into the National Pastimes.

STABLE BOYS ON STRIKE

Officers Pelted by Spectators, Booths Set on Fire, and Pitched Battle With the Police.

Paris, June 20.—An occurrence unprecedented in the history of the French turf prevented the running of the Grand Steeplechase of Paris today at the Auteuil course. The meeting was disorganized and a serious accident took place, in which several persons were injured and many arrests were made.

Inspired and aided, it is stated, by Pettaud and revolutionary labor leaders, 40 militant members of the Stable Boys' Union, which was organized at the time of the postal strike, armed with revolvers, ambushed the vans conveying the horses from Maisons Laiffite, their training quarters, cut the traces and forced them back to the stables. Among the victims were several American horses.

In the meantime, owing to the delay in calling on the events, the greatest confusion prevailed at the race track. It was a long time before the cause of the appearance of the horses became known, but finally a regiment and a force of police set off in automobiles to the scene of the trouble, while they succeeded in putting the stable boys to flight and rescuing the racers.

It seemed at first as though the meeting would have to be abandoned and President Fallieres, who is always present on the occasion of the Grand Steeplechase, was advised, by telephone not to come to the track. Eventually, however, the call was given for the first race. This was more than two hours after the scheduled time and the crowds, already exasperated from waiting, became violent when a single horse presented itself for a walk-over in the first event. The horses were forced to beat a hasty retreat at the paddock, as the crowd swarmed on the track and refused to permit the jockey to take his mount over the course. The second event was for army officers, riding their own horses. For some reason or other the crowds became frenzied when several officers cantered out for the start. The officers were pelted with missiles of various kinds and two were quite severely injured. The barriers guarding the course were broken down and hundreds of men invaded the track, several of them being ridden down and injured by the wildly excited horses. About the same time the booths and stands were set on fire, but fortunately forces of police, troops and firemen, who had been hastily summoned in time to clear the track and extinguish the flames. The police made a large number of arrests and the remainder of the programme was carried out in comparative quiet.

At a meeting tonight, which was attended by delegates from the general federation of labor, the Stable Employees' Union voted to strike next Sunday, when the Grand Prix De Paris is the feature of the racing programme. One of the speakers announced that 30,000 workmen would co-operate in the strike and Grand Prix would be converted into an obstacle race.

EXCLUSIVE BOOKINGS OF GREENWALL CIRCUIT

Agreement Between American Theatrical Exchange and the Syndicate.

New York, June 21.—For many weeks, in conjunction with the "open door" or gates-ajar policy, there have been rumors that a change in the theatrical conditions of Texas and the southwest was imminent. To the experts of the theatrical world a change of alliance on the part of the leading theatres in that section signified something of a revolution in the general theatrical situation. However—one can almost hear the "open door" creak—the routing map of the Theatrical Syndicate will not be altered as far as Texas and the southwest are concerned, as an agreement has been reached yesterday between Albert Weis, of the American Theatrical Exchange, and Klaw & Erlanger, whereby the latter are given the exclusive bookings of the Greenwall theatrical circuit and of all the other territory controlled by the American Theatrical Exchange. This territory embraces every city in Texas except El Paso, all the houses in Oklahoma, and the cities of Little Rock, Pine Bluff, Hot Springs and Helena in Texas. The agreement is for a term of ten years.

In other words, the "open door" in that region has closed with a bang, and it is doubtful if the most expert cracksmen could pick the lock.

When A. L. Erlanger, the syndicate's war chief, was seen on this subject, he merely remarked:

"None of the parties having a real interest in the situation has been worrying about it in the least. Our relations with the American Theatrical Exchange always have been exceedingly friendly. We have maintained silence, because that is a part of our policy, and one can accomplish so much more without expending energy in mere conversation. We did not wish to impede the flight of the theatrical hot air balloons that have been circling around New York lately. What is the use of puncturing a fake story in May when one can do it just as well and more leisurely in June? Furthermore, it should be remembered that July and August remain before the theatrical season opens."

ENTIRE RUSS TOWN WAS ON BIG DRUNK

Frightful Story of a Debauch From Siberian Wilds.

180 FROZE TO DEATH

Those Left All Confirmed Drunkards, and Many Victims of Delirium Tremens.

St. Petersburg, June 21.—A dispatch from Irkutsk tells of the finding of 180 bodies of men, women and children in a Siberian village. The 180 people froze to death while in a state of beastly intoxication during a blizzard two months ago, and communication with the village has only now been resumed.

The bodies were found in the streets in ditches, in deserted homes, in barns, everywhere, the natives, about a thousand, either exhibiting the utmost indifference or defied the authorities. An investigation showed that most of the natives are suffering from delirium tremens, while the rest, men, women and children, are confirmed and habitual drunkards. It appears that some two months ago a convoy of Government vodka (potato whiskey), some 25 barrels, passed through the village, and was ambushed by the natives. They killed the officials and drivers, took the horses, burned the cars, and then set to work drinking up the Imperial liquor, which is about the vilest concoction in the world.

As stated, 180 perished while drunk in a snowstorm, but the rest of the villagers continued their carousal, all drinking to their full capacity day in and day out. As a consequence, the natives are either insane with drink or on the verge of delirium.

The Government investigators who visited the village in the course of their routine duties, say they encountered unheard of conditions, even for Russia. Business was entirely at a standstill. There had been no spring plowing or seeding, the live stock roamed at large or had been eaten. Those natives that were not fighting were lying about in a stupor, boys and girls of the age of from 5 to 6 drank vodka like water and the smell of vodka was on the breath of the very babies.

The governor of the province sent physicians and nurses to the village, but they reported back that it was necessary to make the whole population prisoners and cart them off to hospitals for treatment. The St. Petersburg Government has been asked to furnish the funds on the ground that the village, in former years, used to buy a hundred thousand rubles worth of vodka per annum.

Some of the liquor taken from the convoy was 90 per cent alcohol. This was drunk up with the rest by the population. To make it more palatable the Siberian peasants added some red pepper.

PRESSED HARD

COFFEE'S WEIGHT ON OLD AGE

When prominent men realize the injurious effects of coffee and the change in health that Postum can bring, they are glad to lend their testimony for the benefit of others.

A superintendent of public schools in one of the southern states says: "My mother, since her early childhood, has been a coffee drinker. She has been troubled with her heart for a number of years and complained of that 'weak all over' feeling and sick stomach."

"Some time ago I was making an official visit to a distant part of the country and took dinner with one of the merchants of the place. I noticed a somewhat peculiar flavor of the coffee, and asked him concerning it. He replied that it was Postum."

"I was so pleased with it, that after the meal was over, I bought a package to carry home with me, and had wife prepare some for the next meal. The whole family were so well pleased with it, that we discontinued coffee and used Postum entirely."

"I had really been at times very anxious concerning my mother's condition, but we noticed that after using Postum for a short time, she felt so much better than she did prior to its use, and had little trouble with her heart and no sick stomach; that the headaches were so not frequent, and her general condition much improved. This continued until she was as well and hearty as the rest of us."

"I know Postum has benefited myself and the other members of the family, but in the case of my mother, as she was a victim of long standing. Read 'The Road to Wellville' in packages. 'There's a Reason.'"

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

MRS. GOULD'S JOURNEY HELPS THE REBUTTAL

Finds Conditions at Philadelphia Hotel Refute Testimony by Foreign Maids.

New York, June 20.—Mrs. Howard Gould, accompanied by J. T. Sturdevant, of Lawyer Clarence J. Shearn's office, arrived over the Pennsylvania Railroad shortly after 2 o'clock today from her trip to Philadelphia. Mrs. Gould refused to say anything about the purpose of her trip or what had been accomplished, but no attempt was made by Mr. Sturdevant to conceal that it was for the purpose of refuting testimony given by the two employees of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel in Philadelphia with regard to Dustin Farnum.

Mary E. Harrison and Florence Garner, formerly floor clerk and maid at the Philadelphia hotel, have so far given the most damaging testimony in the Gould case. That Mrs. Gould and her lawyers realized this fact was evinced by Saturday's hurried departure for Philadelphia, where Lawrence Maresch, assistant manager of the Bellevue-Stratford, was sent for and had a long talk with Mrs. Gould.

The hotel register for October, 1906, at which time the Farnum-Gould party was at the hotel, was brought to Mrs. Gould's room on the same floor as that occupied by her during the first visit. The numbers of the rooms occupied were taken, and then Mrs. Gould and Sturdevant started out to ascertain if they could see with their own eyes all that the two former hotel maids testified they saw.

The room occupied by Dustin Farnum, which was two floors below that occupied by Mrs. Gould, was the first point of attack. Sturdevant, it is said, tried to see if he could locate a room entered by a person at the far end of the hall from where the floor clerk sat. To spot the door was hardly possible, and it is understood that witnesses will be brought on from Philadelphia at the proper time to testify that Farnum's bed could not be seen, and it would be impossible to tell whether it had been occupied by a glance from the doorway.

On the floor on which Miss Harrison had her desk, Mrs. Gould's floor, another test was made. Miss Harrison testified that she saw Farnum leave Mrs. Gould's room at 7 o'clock in the morning. She said she saw him leave in a mirror placed over her desk. What Mrs. Gould or her attorney found out relative to this could not be learned, but from the jubilant appearance of both it was to be inferred that

ADVANCED THOUGHT

Fair Attendance at the Meeting Held on Sunday.

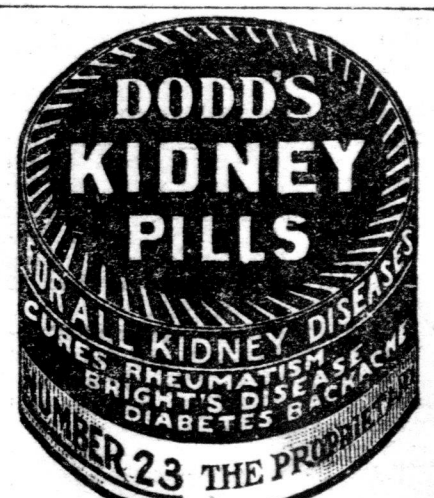

There was a fair attendance at the meeting of the Advanced Thought Society, held in St. George's Hall, yesterday afternoon. Elder Greene, of Willoughby, Ohio, pastor of the churches of the Latter Day Saints in the Eastern States and Ohio, was the speaker of the afternoon. Elder Greene is, as he says, an optimist, and is supremely confident that his church is the interpretation of Christ's teaching, for which the world has been waiting for two thousand years. Some of the members of the society did not share the elder's enthusiasm, and the arguments of socialism and even of atheism were freely advanced to combat his statements. Elder Greene is a loud speaker, and his explanation of the work of his church and their views was interesting.

A Prince of Sinners

BY PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM.
Author of "A Lost Leader," "The Malefactor," "A Maker of History," Etc.

"It is wonderful how you have improved," she murmured. "I want you to go and see Lord Arranmore as often as you can. We are both very fond of him really, mamma especially, and you know that he has a very strange disposition. I am convinced that solitude is the very worst thing for him. I saw him once after he had been alone for a month or two, and really you would not have known him. He was as thin as a skeleton, strange in his manner, and he had that sort of red light in his eyes sometimes which always makes me think of mad people. He ought to be alone at all, but the usual sort of society only bores him. You will do what you can, won't you?"

"I promise you that most heartily," Brooks declared. "But you must remember, Lady Sybil, that after all it is entirely in his hands. He has been most astonishingly kind to me, considering that I have no manner of claim upon him. He had that sort of feel at home at Enton, too, and been most thoughtful in every way. For after all, you see I am only his man of business. I have no friends much, and those whom I have are Medchester people. You see I am scarcely in a position to offer him my society. But all the same, I will take every opportunity I can of going to Enton if he remains there."

"She thanked him silently. Lady Caroom was on her feet, and Sybil and she went out for their wraps. Lord Arranmore lit a fresh cigarette and sent for his bill.

"By the bye, Brooks," he remarked, "one doesn't hear much of your man Menslow."

"Mr. Bullsum and I were talking about it this evening," Brooks answered. "We are getting a little anxious."

"You have had seven years of him. You ought to know what to expect."

"The war has blocked all legislation," Brooks said. "It has been the usual excuse. Menslow was bound to wait. He would have done the particular measures which we are anxious about more harm than good if he had tried to force them upon the land. If I am going up to him."

Arranmore smiled.

"You are young to politics, Brooks," he remarked, yet I should scarcely have thought that you would have been imposed upon by such a man as Menslow. He is an absolute fraud. I heard him speak once, and I read two of his speeches. It was sufficient. The man is not in earnest. He has some reason, I suppose, for wishing to write

M. P. after his name, but I am perfectly certain that he has not the slightest idea of carrying out his pledges to you. You will have to take up politics, Brooks."

He laughed—a little consciously. "Some day," he said, "the opportunity may come. I will confess that it is amongst my ambitions. But I have many years work before me yet."

Lord Arranmore paid the bill, and they joined the women. As Brooks stood bareheaded upon the pavement Arranmore turned towards him.

"We must have a farewell dinner," he said. "How would tomorrow suit you—or Sunday?"

"I should like to walk over on Sunday, if I might," Brooks answered, promptly.

"I shall expect you to lunch. Good-night."

The carriage drove off. Brooks walked thoughtfully through the silent streets to his rooms.

CHAPTER XVI.
Uncle and Niece.

Mr. Bullsum was an early riser, and it chanced that, as was frequently the case, on the morning following Brooks' visit he and Mary sat down to breakfast together. But when, after a cursory glance through his letters, he unfolded the paper, she stopped him.

"Uncle," she said, "I want to talk to you for a few minutes, if I may."

"Go ahead, he answered. "No fear of our being interrupted. I shall speak to those girls seriously about getting up."

"Now what is it?"

"I want to earn my own living, uncle," she said, quietly.

He looked over his spectacles at her. "Eh?"

"I want to earn my own living," she repeated. "I have been looking about for a means of doing so, and I think that I have succeeded."

Mr. Bullsum took off his spectacles and wiped them carefully.

"Earn your own living, eh?" he repeated. "Well! Go on!"

Mary leaned across the table towards him.

"Don't think that I am not grateful for all you have done for me, uncle," she said. "I am, indeed. Only I have felt lately that it was my duty to order my life a little differently. I am young and strong, and able to work. There is no reason why I should be a burden upon any one."

She found his quietness ominous, but she did not flinch.

"I am not accomplished enough for a governess, or good-tempered enough for a companion," she continued, "but I believe I can do something which I can do. I have written several short stories for a woman's magazine, and they have made me a sort of offer to do some regular work for them. What they offer would just keep me. I want to accept."

"Where should you live?" he asked. "In London?"

"Alone."

"There is a girls' club in Chelsea somewhere. I should go there at first, and then rent and share rooms with another girl."

"How much a week will they give you?"

"Twenty-eight shillings, and I shall be allowed to contribute regularly to the magazine at the usual rates. I ought to make at least forty shillings a week."

Mr. Bullsum sighed.

"Is this owing to any disagreement between you and the girls?" he asked, sharply.

"Certainly not," she answered.

"You ain't unhappy here? Is there anything we could do? I don't want to lose you."

Mary was touched. She had expected ridicule or opposition. This was more difficult.

"Of course I am not unhappy," she answered. "You must have known both of you most generous and kind to me. But I do feel that a busy life—and I'm not a bit domestic, you know—would be to do for me. I believe, uncle, if you were in my place you would feel just like me. If you were able to, I expect you'd want to earn your own living."

"You shall go!" he said, decidedly. "I'll help you all I can. You shall have a bit down to buy furniture, if you want it, or an allowance (till you feel your way. But, Mary, I'm downright sorry. No, I'm not blaming you. You're a right to go. I—I don't believe I'd live here if I were you."

"You are very good, uncle," Mary said, gratefully. "And you must remember it isn't as though I were leaving you alone. You have the girls."

Mr. Bullsum nodded.

"Yes," he said. "I have the girls. Look here, Mary," he added, suddenly, looking her in the face. "I want to talk plainly. Be honest with me."

"Of course," she murmured.

"It's about the girls. It's a hard thing to say, but somehow—I'm a bit disappointed with them."

She looked at him in something like amazement.

"Yes, disappointed," he continued. "That's the word. I'm an uneducated man myself—any fool can see that—but I did all I could to have them girls different. They've been to the best school in Medchester, and they've been abroad. They've had masters in most everything, and I've had 'em taught riding and driving, and all that sort of thing, properly. Then as they grew up I built them a house, and came to live here amongst the people whom I reckoned my girls'd be sure to get to know. And the whole thing's a damned failure. That's the long and short of it."

"Perhaps a little later on—" Mary began, hesitatingly.

"Don't interrupt me," he said, brusquely. "This is the first honest talk I've ever had about it, and it's doing me good. The girls'd like to put it down to your mother and me, but I don't believe it. I'm ashamed to say it, but I'm afraid it's the girls themselves. There's something not right about them, but I'm blessed if I know what it is. Their mother and I are a bit vulgar, I know, but I've done my best to copy those who know how to behave—and I believe we'd get through for what we are anywhere without giving offence. But my girls oughtn't to be vulgar. It's education as does away with that, and I've filled 'em chock-full of education from the time they were babies. It's run out of them, Mary. Like the sands through an hour-glass. They can speak correctly, and I dare say they know all about society tricks. But that isn't every thing. They don't know how to dress. They can spend just as much as they like, and then you can come into the room in a black gown as you made yourself, and you look a lady, and they don't know it. That's the long and short of it. The only decent people who come to this house are your friends, and they come to see you. There's your young friend, the young son, Mary, and I'm fond of young men. I never knew one I liked as I like him. My daughters are old enough to be married. I'd give fifty thousand pounds to have him for a son-in-law. And, of course, he won't look at 'em. He sees it. He'll talk to you. He takes no more notice of them than is civil. They fuss round him, and all that, but they might save themselves the pains. It's hard lines, Mary. I'm making money as no one knows on. I could live at Enton and afford it. But what's the good of it? If people don't care to know us here, they won't anywhere. Mary, how was it education didn't work with them girls? Your mother was my own sister, and she married a gentleman. He was a blackguard, but hang it, Mary, if I were you I'd sooner be penniless and as you are than be my daughters with five thousand apiece."

"There was an embarrassed silence. Then Mary faced the situation boldly."

"Uncle," she said, "you are asking my advice. Is that it?"

"If there's any advice you can give, for God's sake let's have it. But I don't know as you can make black white."

"Selina and Louise are good girls enough," she said, "but they are a little spoiled, and their own minds are their ideas. A town like this often has that effect. Take them abroad, uncle, for a year, or better still, if you can find the right person, get a companion for them, a lady—and let her live in the house."

"That's sound!" he answered. "I'll do it."

"EXPECTED TO DIE"

BILOUSNESS, DIZZINESS, VER-TIGO AND PAIN IN THE BACK.

Owes His Life to the Curative Powers of
DR. HAMILTON'S PILLS.

Lack of exercise and overwork were the causes that combined to almost kill Samuel S. Stephens, jun., one of the best-known and most influential citizens in Woodstock. In his convincing letter Mr. Stephens says:

"A year ago I returned home after a long trip, completely worn out. I was so badly affected by chronic biliousness, so much overcome by constant headaches, dizziness that I despaired of ever getting well. I was weary, tired, languid, had no energy, and I found it difficult to sleep for more than five hours. My appetite was so feeble that I ate next to nothing and in consequence lost weight and strength. I was pale and had dark rings under my eyes that made me look like a shadow."

"It was a blessing that I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills. In a week I felt like a new man. The feeling of weight and nausea in my stomach disappeared. My eyes looked brighter, color grew better; and best of all I began to enjoy my meals. The dizziness, languor and feeling of depression passed away and I fast regained my old-time vigor and spirit. Today I am well—thanks to Dr. Hamilton's Pills."

The regular use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills keeps the system clear, healthy, and thereby prevents all manner of sickness. One pill when retiring will make you feel like new. For health, strength, comfort and good spirits there is no medicine like Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Beware of substitutes, and don't let any dealer palm off some other pill on which he can make more money, 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1.00, by mail from the Catarthozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

AN ANCIENT CONCRETE BRIDGE.

In the south of France is a concrete arch bridge known as the Pont du Gard, which was erected in the year 56 B. C. The concrete in this was not composed of crushed stone or other small aggregate of the variety now employed in concrete bridge work, but was of the old style consisting of alternate layers of large and small stones, gravel, etc., and of cementitious materials. Vitruvius describes the materials and methods in use before the Christian era, and other writers like Alberti in 1345 and Polladio in 1570 accurately describe the method which "the ancients" (as they call them) employed, "of using boards laid on edge and filling the space between with cement and all sorts of small and large stones mingled together." It is very improbable that the Pont du Gard would have withstood the rigors of climate of the northern United States, but its actual state of preservation, as well as that of many other specimens of ancient concrete work, proves that if modern work is honestly executed it will many times outlast any reasonable bond period, so that a very small yearly sinking fund per cent is all that is required for properly designed and erected concrete work.

NO WOMAN

CAN BE STRONG AND HEALTHY UNLESS THE KIDNEYS ARE WELL.

When the kidneys are ill, the whole body is ill, for the poison which the kidneys ought to filter out of the blood are left in the system. Then how important it must be to see to it that this system of sewerage be not clogged up. Those who have never been troubled with kidney trouble know not the misery and suffering which those afflicted undergo.

Doan's Kidney Pills are a specific for all kidney troubles. They begin by healing the delicate membranes of the kidneys and thus to their action regular and normal.

They help the kidneys to flush out the acid and poisonous impurities which have collected, thus clearing out the kidneys, bladder and all the urinary passages.

Doan's Kidney Pills are entirely vegetable and may be safely taken by young and old.

Let Doan's Kidney Pills do for you what they have done for thousands of others, that is, cure you.

Mrs. M. Bryanton, Spring Valley, P. E. I., writes: "I was troubled with my kidneys for two years. They were so bad at times I could not cross the floor for the pain. I tried a doctor but he did me no good at all. I tried my nearest druggist and got four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, and I am glad to say that after taking them I have had no more trouble for nearly three years now."

Prices 50 cts. per box, or 3 for $1.25, all dealers or The T. M. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

In ordering specify "Doan's."

JURY SURE OF GUILT
BUT SAY HE'S INNOCENT

Remarkable Verdict in Sensational Murder Case at Amsterdam, N. Y.

Amsterdam, June 19.—Frank Denatto, a wealthy Amsterdam Italian saloon-keeper, who has been on trial at Amsterdam for the past four weeks for being the accessory before the fact in the murder of William E. McLachlan, of Crane's Hollow, in July, 1907, was today acquitted by a jury which handed up one of the most remarkable verdicts ever rendered in a homicide case.

The writ of the document reads: "While in our own minds and opinions we, as men, regard the defendant as guilty, yet after considering our oaths as jurors and carefully considering the evidence as passed before us, we cannot find sufficient evidence to convict and therefore render a verdict of not guilty."

The jury was roundly scored by Justice Spencer, who declared that they were unfit for such service, and that they had apparently failed to give full attention to the case, and in consequence he ordered the clerk to remove their names from the list of available jurors for future use. When the jury appeared upon the street they were hissed and hooted at by a large crowd of people.

McLachlan, the murdered man, was an eccentric and wealthy farmer who lived alone and had frequently befriended Denatto by loaning him money. It was contended that it was for the purpose of stealing the recorded evidences of indebtedness that Denatto sent five Italians to McLachlan's home with instructions to kill him. Two of the actual participants in the crime have already been convicted, and another was killed by a fellow-countryman a few days after the crime, while the other two have never been apprehended.

AVIATION THE CRAZE
WITH OLD LONDONERS

Ascents Planned for Benefit of Smart Set—Queen's Holidays End.

London, June 21.—Aviation is the fashionable craze. Smart ladies are wild to go up in balloons. Hurlingham and the Aero Club have arranged some half-dozen or so ascents of the grounds of the first-named club, of which the first took place on Saturday. Fashionable ladies say they are "dying to see the Wrights." Innumerable excursions have been arranged to run down to Sheppey by motor to see the practicing ground of the Aero Club. Fragile and dainty ladies say, "I should like to have an aeroplane of my own," just as if it were a new top, and without any idea of the size of the thing. When the fair creatures are told that an aeroplane is about as long as the height of a modern house, and about as wide, they give up the idea of keeping one in the stable; and when they are informed that an ascent can be arranged for them in a club balloon provided they will pay their share, they cool off visibly.

Stork Hovering.

Since her return from the south, Princess Henry of Battenberg has been receiving reports from her daughter, the Queen of Spain, as to her health. It is no secret that the royal family of Spain are looking presently for the same good fortune as fell to the lot of Queen Wilhelmina not long since. This interesting event is expected in the course of the next fortnight, and the reason why the royal highness has been making fewer public engagements than usual of late is because she has been hovering herself in readiness to proceed to Madrid at a moment's notice. Her present intention is to leave town on Monday.

Queen's Holidays at End.

The alluring holiday which Queen Alexandra has been enjoying in the sunny south—her happiest experiences for many a day—has at last come to an end. Every day brought with it new enchantments, and not the least exquisite of the pleasures of this cruise came from the companionship of the Empress Marie, who returns to St. Petersburg with her memory stored with agreeable pictures and an unwonted sense of serenity. The two sisters have always cherished the same

Sunshine grates have maximum strength

Sunshine Furnace has four triangular grate bars, each having three distinct sides. In the single-piece and two-piece grate no such provision is made for expansion or contraction, and a waste of coal always follows a shaking.

On the left- and right-hand sides are cotter pins, which when loosened permit the grates to slide out. These four grate bars are made of heavy cast iron, and are finished up with bulldog teeth. The teeth will grind up the toughest clinker; and because the grates are made in sections, not only can nothing but dust and ashes pass through, but after each shaking a different side can be presented to the fire. Also, with the Sunshine grate there is no back-breaking movements attached to the shaking. By gently rocking the lever, first on the left and then on the right, the ashes are released on both sides, and fall through into the pan.

MILROY SENTENCED FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Jury Had Disagreed on the Murder Charge.

Kenora, June 21.—In the assize court Friday the jury on the Milroy murder case reported a disagreement, seven being for acquittal and five for a verdict of manslaughter. The indictment was then changed to manslaughter, on which Milroy pleaded guilty. The judge sentenced him to two years in the penitentiary.

The case against Alex. Miller, charged with manslaughter in killing his chum, John Bell, on April 1 last near Minnetonka with a blow from a lantern, was completed Saturday. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty.

DESIGNED BY MARTHA DEAN.

8516—A GRACEFUL HOUSE GOWN.

The comfort and ease suggested by this pretty model, as well as its graceful simplicity, will commend it at once to the home dressmaker. The front and back are gathered to a square yoke, and fall in straight folds to the hem. It may be confined at the waist by a ribbon girdle or a belt of the material attached in high-waist-line effect. Challis, albatross, crepe de chine and the soft silks will all develop nicely after this design. The pattern is cut in six sizes—32 to 42 inches, bust measure. Size 36 requires 9 yards of 27-inch material. Provision is made for either high or low neck.

Pattern illustrated will be mailed to any address upon receipt of 10 cents in stamps or silver.

STARS TAKE THE SECOND

Defeating the Rockets by 9 to 3 in a Fast Match.

Youngs 5, Ramblers 3. Two unusually good games were the offering in the City League series at Tecumseh Park Saturday afternoon. In the opener between the Ramblers and Youngs, the former started off with a rush and scored two runs in the initial innings. Brennan singled and by Smith's sacrifice, was advanced to third, scoring on Brooks' hit to the pitcher, which Clarke dropped.

Youngs' First Tally. Gatecliffe's single to left was the means of scoring Phillips for Youngs' first run. The second half of the fourth innings was disastrous to the Ramblers. Costello singled and McFee followed with a two-bagger; Eccleston followed with another two-bagger, which brought in Costello and Phillips. Phillips got to first on Fitzmaurice's error, and on an error by Heathfield, Eccleston scored. This ended the scoring for the game.

The London Bowling Club defeated the Thistles in an inter-club match on the winners' grounds Saturday afternoon by 193 to 135. A number of the games were very close. The next game will be played on Thistle greens next Saturday at 3 o'clock.

The second game was somewhat the better of the two and was really a fine exhibition. There was less ragged play than in the former one and for the first periods of the match it was close work. The Stars had the better of the pitching, and this was in a good measure responsible for their victory.

There was no tally for the Stars in the first inning. The Rockets, however, started off well. Mines made second on a long fly. Dewan grounded and got first. Mines reaching third on O'Rourke's error. Wood grounded out to first. Mines reaching third on O'Rourke's error. Wood grounded out to first. Mines reaching third on O'Rourke's error. Wood grounded out to first.

The Rockets' Waterloo. The sixth inning was a Waterloo for the Rockets. Beaton singled, and Daniels followed his example. A successful fluke hit brought Tether to first, filling the bases. At this juncture Peacock went in to pitch, and succeeded in striking out Tozer. Jeffries, however, soon started things moving again, by hitting a three-bagger, which scored Beaton, Tether and Gregory. Graham walked, while Tierney's single scored Geoffrey. Beaton followed suit, bringing in Graham and Tierney. Daniels singled and Beaton was caught at the plate. This left the

Monte Stops Fellow Resident in Eighteenth Round

LOSER PUTS UP
A GAME FIGHTEnd Is Evident in Fifth, But Frank Struggles On Until Worn Down.

San Francisco, June 19.—Monte Attehl knocked out Frankie Neil in the eighteenth round of what was to have been a 25-round contest at Jimmy Coffroth's Colma arena today. That the Attehl family has it over Neil is evident, inasmuch as Abe Attehl, the featherweight champion, performed the same trick twice.

Both boys hail from San Francisco and there were many friends of both among the spectators. But at the end of the fifth round it was clear that Attehl would be the victor. In that period he had jabbed Neil in the face until his mouth and nose were streaming blood, and it appeared as if Frankie could not last another round. But he came up doggedly for period after period and fought gamely through a losing battle until he finally weakened under a storm of blows and sank to the canvas unable to rise.

Neil Rallies in Sixth. It was the rally made by Neil in the sixth round that brought his friends to their feet. Finding that he could not land on Attehl by long-distance sparring, he bored stolidly in, catching blow after blow on the sides of his head, but always persisting in an attempt to reach Attehl's stomach. Monte followed the tactics of his brother Abe in this battle and kept sprightly away whenever it seemed likely that he would get the worst of the mixing.

Neil was always ready to brighten up and rush in whenever Attehl seemed to leave an opening. But it was of no avail. He was met with a stinging jab every time, that was just hard enough to throw him off his balance. Then another spiteful swing would come over and Neil would go to his corner, as the gong sounded, with his mouth spouting blood, and his lips swollen and split.

In the eighth, Neil landed what might have been a decisive blow had his opponent been less agile. He sent a solid left to the pit of Monte's stomach, which made Attehl stagger and clinch. They wrestled around the ring for a brief moment, and in that time Attehl recovered. From that time Monte boxed more cautiously.

Ends in Storm of Blows. The end came in the eighteenth. Neil was worn down by the constant shower of blows. After each round his seconds would sponge him off and send him up to the scratch with his face puffed and bruised, but with a smile on his swollen mouth. And each

FAMILY OF GYPSIES ARRIVE IN LONDON

Will Join Buffalo Bill's Troupe
Here on Dominion Day.

The Charco family of gypsies arrived in the city this morning direct from Liverpool, England, and are camping at the foot of Maitland street till the arrival of Buffalo Bill's circus, which they will join, with a five-year contract. They number 22 in all and are an enterprising family.

They were just in the act of preparing the noonday meal when The Advertiser reporter called on them.

Charlie Charco, who was the only member who could talk English, said that they had travelled with Buffalo Bill for seven years, but left him in Europe some nine years ago, and since that time they have been under contract to Herbert Stepon, the English music hall magnate, whose circuit they have been playing. This embraced all the European capitals from Dublin to St. Petersburg.

Charlie is an expert sharpshooter, and cleverly demonstrated his unusual ability by shooting, for the education of the reporter, a soda biscuit from the mouth of one of the children. His brother, Billie, is a rough rider, and was engaged in this daring life down in San Antonio, where he took part in all the round-ups for nearly fifteen years, prior to his engagement with the Buffalo Bill.

Barbecue Riders.
The three women are barbecue riders and proudly displayed their press notices from the leading English journals, commenting on their skill and cleverness.

The father and mother of the boys are accompanying them on their travels, in addition to the seventeen children, which belong to Billie and Charlie, Charlie being the father of nine, and Billie eight.

They claim that they are both keenly competing for a Roosevelt medal, but it looks as if Charlie will win. The men were busily engaged in pitching their tents, while the women were mending garments and washing bedding.

They seemed to have plenty of money. They are intelligent people, and as hospitable as any stranger would desire. Their permanent residence will be in the city of London.

When asked if they would employ the intervening time between now and the arrival of the circus by telling fortunes, they emphatically answered no, as they looked upon this business as fraud, and were afraid that such conduct would hurt them in the eyes of Buffalo Bill, whom they worship.

They claim that he is a fine old gentleman and treats his performers with every respect, and provides every comfort for them.

To Suffer From Headaches Makes Life Miserable.

It takes a person that has had or is subject to headaches to describe the suffering which attends them.

The majority of cases are caused by constipation and dyspepsia. The dull throbbings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indicates that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels. To the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters reaches every part of the system is due its success in relieving and permanently curing headaches. It has proven a specific for the malady in all its forms.

REIGN OF MUSLIN GOWN AND STRAW HAT

Hot Weather Has Arrived for Sure—It's the Good Old Summertime.

The reign of the muslin gown and the straw hat has at last begun in earnest, and today can be taken as any indication. Yesterday the city was alive with bright colors, and in the churches were again heard that intrusive sign of summer, the soft swish of many tans. Yesterday was indeed hot. Saturday night the low-est temperature was 53 degrees, and during the day the mercury made its steady way upwards till it reached 83 degrees, the highest temperature of the season. Yesterday was an out-of-door day. No one stayed inside who could possibly get out, and verandah rooms was at a premium. The parks were crowded with people, glad of the chance to sit on the grass without fear of being laid up with a chill. For yesterday was not an oppressive heat, and there was enough breeze blowing to make it really enjoyable. The only effect it had was to make people long for the open, and the roads leading to the river, and the country were alive with people.

There seems little likelihood of any change today. Last night the lowest temperature was 52 degrees, and the fact that at 8 o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 72 degrees seems to presage a yet warmer time today.

"ALL THE WORLD LOVES A LOVER"

Donald Campbell Acquitted of Perjury Charge and Is Congratulated by the Magistrate.

The saying that "all the world loves a lover" was strikingly exemplified in the police court this morning, when Robert Campbell was acquitted on a charge of perjury, and the court in acquitting him, extended every wish that he might have a long and happy life.

Mr. Campbell was arrested a couple of weeks ago on complaint of Ernest Sims, Campbell married Sims' daughter in Brantford, and Mr. Sims claimed Campbell swore that the girl was 18 years old, when he knew that she was not.

"I do not purpose to offer any evidence," said Mr. McKillop. "It would not be in the public interest for this case to go on."

"I entirely agree with you," said the court, "and when Mr. Sims came up to me to lay the information, I asked him to reflect on the matter. I think, however, any young man who is about to become a husband ought to be curious enough about his wife's age to find out what it is, and not go swearing to false statements. I am pleased, however, to find from your evidence that you are a young man of excellent habits, and I most heartily wish you a long and happy married life, and hope that the family may be reunited."

FLOWER SUNDAY IN THE CHURCHES

Edifices in Many Cases Were Very Beautifully Decorated.

SOME SPLENDID SERMONS

Also Special Music—Words of Wisdom
From Many Pulpits.

Yesterday was Flower Sunday, and every church and the great majority of the Sunday school rooms were decorated most attractively with beautiful flowers, ferns, etc. The pulpits looked very fine surrounded by cut and wild flowers tastefully arranged, and in the Sunday schools the decorations were generally of wild flowers, gathered by the children and woven into long festoons or tied in big bunches. The day was also observed by special musical programmes and special addresses to the children.

St. Andrew's.
"What It Is To Be a Christian" was the subject of a special sermon to young men at St. Andrew's Church yesterday morning by Rev. Dr. McCrae. The speaker took as his text, Galatians, vi, 1: "Considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted."

"Temptation," he said, "was one of the very first things in the world, and has always been a universal fact in human history. No two human faces are alike, no two human lives are alike, but temptation is common to all of us. In that it is like sorrow, death and pain. It comes to us in various guises, but neither young, nor rich or poor, learned or ignorant, escape. Even Jesus Christ lived a tempted life, and is the only one who did not yield to his temptations, and is known as the only perfect type of man. Young men are troubled, because of temptations. There is no sin in being tempted. The sin is in yielding to temptation. By the grace of God, we can all turn our temptations into blessings, and, as Tennyson says, 'Men may rise on stepping stones—Of their dead selves to higher things.'"

Some say they can tempt others and it will not matter. This is devil's doctrine. It is an awful thing to break down a clean young life, and any man who in later years has a poor wretch sunk in sin, come and say, "You did it," must, if there is any manhood in him, feel the greatest remorse all his life.

St. Paul's.
"The Individual Value of a Man," was the theme of Rev. J. G. Perdue's sermon at St. Paul's Cathedral last evening. The sermon was based on the text, "And God said, let us make man in our image and in our own likeness," Genesis i, 26.

"No matter how much we may mutilate it by sin," he said, "the image is still there. There are always men who have greater gifts than others. These are the men whose names stand out in the pages of history. But what of the forgotten millions? Who are they never heard of? Everyone of them was made in the image of God. It is an awful thing for anyone to waste his life, for by so doing he loses something of incalculable value. The abiding presence of God can bring us safely through all temptations and make our lives as he would have them."

First Congregational.
At the First Congregational Church yesterday morning a beautiful service, entirely for children, was observed. The hymns and choruses were sung throughout by the children, and Rev. D. S. Hamilton gave an address appropriate for the holiday, entitled, "Sons and Daughters of the Lord." In the evening he spoke on "Christian Stewardship," calling attention to the fact that each person in the world is intrusted with some special gift, and that gift is to be used in the service of our fellow-men for the promotion of God's kingdom on earth.

Talbot Street Baptist.
In the course of his sermon on "A Prisoner in Rome" at Talbot Street Baptist Church last night, Rev. A. J. Vining spoke of Paul's visit to the city he had so often longed to see.

"At this time," said Mr. Vining, "Rome was made up of rich merchants, educated persons of all classes, soldiers and slaves. There are slaves today also. I do not mean alone slaves to sin, but people who are in bondage literally. Not long ago I saw an advertisement for a capable office assistant. The wages offered were scarcely more than enough to pay the board in a second-class boarding-house. There was nothing for books, nothing for recreation, nothing to satisfy aesthetic tastes, and nothing at all for old age. Many a man is like Paul, chained in chains, although the chains in modern times are those of worldliness. It is the duty of every Christian minister and every Christian to give God's message to people unblinded by any such chains."

First Methodist Church.
Yesterday was flower Sunday at the First Methodist Church. The front of the church was beautifully decorated with immense quantities of flowers. Everywhere the pillars were wreathed with daisy chains, and hanging baskets were present in profusion. The teachers of the Sunday school occupied the choir loft, while the school children sat in the gallery at each side. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Rutledge, spoke to the children from the text Proverbs xxx, 24-28. From the ant and the conie and the spider mentioned in the text the pastor drew a number of lessons for the children. The ants taught that the gallery at each side. The right time, because they provided for the winter during the months of summer.

mer, and so the lesson was drawn that youth was the time to prepare for the harder life to come. The conies because they were little and fearful, fled to the rocks for safety, and so they taught the lesson that you should fly to the right place for safety; that God was the one to whom we should turn in times of temptation and distress. And from the spider was learned the lesson to work in the right spirit, never to become discouraged, never to fail for lack of trying. And so by following these lessons we would take hold of the work of Christ strongly and bravely and successfully.

The evening service was largely of a musical nature, under the direction of Mr. Jordan. The pastor gave a short address on "The Message of the Lilies."

Maitland Street Baptist.
At Maitland Street Baptist Church last night, Rev. M. Carew preached from the text, Daniel, vi, 10, "When Daniel knew that the writing was signed he went into his house, and his windows being opened in his chamber towards Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and from Genesis, xiii, 12, 'Lot pitched his tent toward Sodom.'"

Mr. Carew brought out in the former Daniel's great love to Jerusalem, his birthplace, and also showed his obedience to his God, his home ties, and his early training. And in the latter Lot moved toward Sodom, and moved closer, until Sodom moved unto him, meaning that the Christian, when once he has turned his back on the world, is at liberty to follow Satan, who is formerly members of Wellington Street Church.

Sunday School Meeting.
Yesterday Flower Sunday in the First Methodist Church. The noon session of the Sunday school was held in the church and was of an exceptional nature. There were a number of choruses which have been in preparation for some time under the direction of Mr. Taney. Reggie San, a gifted nature, who is also known as "Summerland," while the school joined in the choruses. Three little boys from Miss Chapman's class, and six boys from the girls' nature, and Miss Smith's class each gave dialogue selections. A recitation by little Miss Jarvis was greatly appreciated. A quartette by four little girls, an duet by Miss Taylor and Miss Campbell, were the remaining numbers on the programme. Mr. R. I. Watson, the superintendent of the Sunday school, presided at the meeting.

St. Peter's Cathedral.
At the conclusion of the vesper service in St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday evening, Rev. Father Simoni, of Berlin, spoke to a large congregation of Italians, speaking to them in their own native tongue. There are a considerable number of these Italians in the city who are not able to understand any tongue but their own, and as there is no priest of their own nationality in this vicinity every year it becomes necessary for some outsider to come to the city to administer the sacraments and to attend to the spiritual welfare of those who are unable to understand the regular services of the church. Father Simoni will spend several days here in this work before returning to his own diocese. It was a great treat even to those who are not able to understand the English tongue to hear a sermon preached in their native language.

JUNE WEDDINGS.
A charming June wedding was solemnized in St. Peter's Cathedral this morning at 7 o'clock, when Miss Lizzie L. O'Brien, daughter of Mrs. John O'Brien, of London Township, was married to Mr. Joseph Bernard Henry, a prosperous young farmer of Crumlin. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Rev. Father Aylward, rector of St. Peter's, the handsome bride was given away by her brother, Frank, and looked charming in a white lace over white silk, with duchess satin belt, redolent sash and trimmings, and wore a large black picture hat with plumes. Her only ornament was a jewel brooch worn by her grandmother. Her bridesmaid, Miss Eva Henry, sister of the groom, wore a very pretty gown of white, with a large picture hat, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. Mr. Frank O'Brien, brother of the bride, assisted the groom. Six nieces of the bride, Miss O'Brien, Nellie and Mary Dwyer, Edna O'Brien, Myrtle and Hazel O'Brien, stood as flower girls. The ceremony was followed by the wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's home, Lake Row. Owing to the recent bereavement in the bride's family, only the immediate relatives were invited. Among those present were guests from Chicago, Eyebrow, Sask., Detroit, Windsor, Chatham, Hensall, Goderich, Grant and London. The bride received a number of very valuable and useful presents, amongst them being a handsome check from the groom's parents, and a dining-room suite of

FIGHTERS APPEAR IN POLICE COURT

Two Pairs Indulged in Mixup on Saturday Night—Fined Today.

Percy Sullivan, a young man who has appeared in court several times in the last few weeks in connection with assault cases, was arrested again on Saturday night for fighting with a youth named Gilbert Riddler. The fight occurred in front of a Dundas street store, and was caused by a remark Sullivan passed while Riddler was waiting for a lady friend. "I am convinced that you are to blame in the matter," the court told Sullivan. "You have been the aggressor in every case I have heard of. Two other men who were determined to fight and went from lane to lane on Saturday night in order that they might continue, were each fined $2.

SUNDAY WAS BUSY DAY FOR FIREMEN

Brigade Responded to Three Alarms—Damage Was Slight in All Cases.

The firemen had a busy day yesterday responding to no less than three alarms.

The first was turned in at 3:30 a.m. from Richmond and Dundas streets, smoke being seen issuing from Dr. Santo's office. The noise of the firemen and the clanging of bells awoke the occupants of the buildings, and they came rushing out in all sorts of apparel. The fire was soon extinguished with little loss, less than $25. The blaze was caused by a gas heater.

At 12:40 a.m. alarm was turned in from 434 Central avenue. A defective chimney was the cause of the blaze, but the fire was put out with practically no damage.

While the central company was answering the alarm to 434 Central avenue, an alarm came from the City Hotel, where an awning was on fire. No. 3 company responded, and the fire was put out with no more loss than a destroyed awning. The blaze was undoubtedly started by a cigar or match being thrown out of one of the upper windows.

ENGLISH PICNIC WILL BE HUMMER

A Day of Splendid Enjoyment at the Lakeside Is Assured to Everybody.

VERY FINE PROGRAMME

Has Been Arranged—Some of the Events Which Will Amuse Those Who Take in the Outing.

Final preparations have been made for the Englishmen's big picnic, to be held at Port Stanley tomorrow.

At the meeting of the executive on Saturday evening, the final arrangements were attended to, and all the details completed. Mr. Joseph Sanders, president of St. George's Society, occupied the chair.

The three great features of the picnic, the beauty show, the baby show, and the matrimonial mart, are going to prove great attractions, and, judging from the inquiries already received by the secretary, the entry list will be extremely large.

The latter will be most interesting, as it will provide helpmeets for all desiring them. The ladies will be seated, with a vacant chair beside each, and the gentleman anxious for a better half will select one by sitting in the vacant chair next the fair one suiting his fancy. There is going to be plenty of amusement over this affair, and Dan Cupid is said to be preparing to do his best work.

All in Readiness.

All the officers reported that the departments under their care had perfected all arrangements, and that there would be no hitch in carrying out the programme.

The first excursion train for the Port will leave the Grand Trunk station at 9:45 o'clock, accompanied by the 7th Regiment Band. The band will give a programme of music for half an hour in front of the city hall prior to the departure of the train. All the societies will congregate here, and take this train to the Port, with the exception of the Sons and Daughters of England. They will congregate at the fair grounds at 12:45 p.m., and, accompanied by the 26th Battalion Band, will march to the Grand Trunk station to entrain.

A fine train service has been arranged for, and the picnic promises to be the largest ever held by the Englishmen of London. Ample accommodation will be provided, and there will be no unnecessary crowding or discomfort on the cars.

Success Assured.

"I think the picnic will be a great success," said President Jos. Sanders. The programme is a very extensive one, and the Englishmen of the City of London, who opened by Mr. Appleton, and resulted in an interesting discussion. It seemed to take the minds of those who followed, and his lead was to the effect that as every citizen of the laborer, the artisan and the public, obtains his opportunity through the manipulation of political machinery, it therefore follows that the people can only defend themselves by political education, organization and the business use of the ballot.

In Mr. Sargent's idea the chief need was for some rearrangement or modification of the educational system so as to open the higher parts of it to the children of all the people. The argument of those who championed this idea was that the economic condition of the hand-workers practically debars their children from the use of any part of the system, but the public schools, in which only the merest rudiments were taught.

"PEOPLE'S FORUM" DISCUSS EDUCATION

It Was Stated That the Children of the Workers Are Debarred From All That Is Good.

The first meeting of the People's Forum was held yesterday evening in St. George's Hall, Richmond street. The subject, "The Needs of the Children of London," was opened by Mr. Appleton, and resulted in an interesting discussion. It seemed to take the minds of those who followed, and his lead was to the effect that as every citizen of the laborer, the artisan and the public, obtains his opportunity through the manipulation of political machinery, it therefore follows that the people can only defend themselves by political education, organization and the business use of the ballot.

Welshmen, for Revenge, Raided Suffragette Gathering.

New York, June 21.—A cable dispatch to the Sun from London says: Welshmen are bitter against the suffragettes for disturbing Premier Asquith's speech at the Eisteddfod. At a suffragette meeting in a Welsh town they retaliated by interrupting the women speakers with shouting and cheering for Mr. Asquith and Mr. Lloyd-George.

A motion favoring votes for women received only a dozen supporters, while young Welshmen from surrounding districts sang national air during the whole meeting.
