

FOE RETREAT STILL CONTINUES

Nature of Ground Favors German Forces in Retirement Allies Maintain Forward Pressure Everywhere

Enemy Resistance is Still Determined, but Irresistible Pressure of Allied Forces is Unchecked Along Entire Front; Fere-en-Tardenois is in Allied Hands

By Courier Leased Wire.

LONDON, July 29.—The German retreat is being conducted skillfully, the ground has favored them, and the dense woods have enabled them to hold up many thousands of advancing troops with a few small groups of machine guns, says the Reuter correspondent with the American troops in France.

With the French Army in France, July 29.—By The Associated Press.—Morning.—The forward pressure of the Allies was continued interruptedly throughout Sunday. On Saturday the progress of the Allied forces was extremely rapid with slight opposition from the retreating enemy, but yesterday the Germans everywhere demonstrated that their power of determined resistance was still very strong.

SEVERE STREET FIGHTING

In the streets of Fere-en-Tardenois, there was very severe hand-to-hand fighting, but the Allies eventually obtained the upper hand.

Late last night, fighting was still in progress for the mastery of Hill En-Tardenois, the Germans strong point on the southeasterly side of the salient, but the Allies were gradually gaining the ascendancy here. They are established in the southern portion of the town, having beaten off all efforts of the Germans to dislodge them.

LINE IS STRAIGHT

With the American Army on the Marne-Aisne Front, July 29.—From Rheims, the line now extends almost straight southwest of Oilly-et-Violaine. The forest of Ris is now behind the Allies, and they are holding Champvost, to the northeast of the Forest. In this region the Germans have the higher ground, and have some advantage in the artillery duel.

AUSTRALIANS ACTIVE

LONDON, July 29.—Two lines of German trenches on a two-mile front astride the Bray-Corbic road, east of Amiens, have been captured by Australian troops, the War Office announced today.

The Australians took 100 prisoners. FRENCH OFFICIAL.

Paris, July 29.—In the fighting north of the Marne yesterday 400 prisoners were captured, says the official statement from the War Office today. There was no change in the situation during the night.

Paris, July 29.—The statement reads: "North of the Marne, there was no change in the situation during the night; during the fighting yesterday on this part of the front we captured about 400 prisoners."

BRITISH OFFICIAL.

LONDON, July 28.—"On the British front there is nothing of special interest to report," says the official statement from the British War Office tonight.

AIR OPERATIONS.

LONDON, July 28.—The official statement on air operations issued to-night reads: "On the 26th and 27th low clouds and rain prevented flying by day. During the night bombs were dropped on hostile billets in the vicinity of Bapaume."

LONDON, July 29.—Since yesterday the Allies have advanced between two and three miles on a twenty mile front. The enemy has definitely abandoned the line of the Ourcq and there is little doubt now that he will go back beyond the Vesle to the line thirty miles long between Soissons and Rheims, which is probably well entrenched and has good lines of communication.

The German retirement has been quite orderly and deliberate. Washington, July 29.—The crossing of the Ourcq by the Americans in their continued pursuit of the enemy north of the Marne was reported in General Pershing's communication for yesterday, received to-day.

MORE THAN HALF OF POCKET BETWEEN MARNE AND VESLE CLEARED OF GERMANS

CALL ON PUBLIC TO CLOTHE ARMY Every German Citizen Must Surrender at Least One Suit

Amsterdam, July 29.—The German government has given final notice to the public to give up voluntarily at least one suit of clothes each to the war workers and the army. Failure to meet the demand will result in forcible requisition and delinquents will be liable to imprisonment for one year and a fine not exceeding 10,000 marks. With very few exceptions none of the German communities has yielded its assessment of worn clothes to meet up the aggregate of the one million suits required.

And Allies are Driving Enemy Still Farther North; Important Gains Made by French, Americans and British Forces on South and East

More than half of the pocket between the Marne and Vesle rivers has been cleared of Germans, and the Allies are driving the enemy still farther north. Important gains are being made by the French and Americans on the south, and the French and British on the east. The German retirement which, covered by heavy rear guard actions, has been well conducted. Pressure on the western and eastern sides south of Soissons, and southwest of Rheims, respectively, has been withstood, and the mouth of the pocket is still large enough to enable the greater part of the enemy force to reach the Vesle.

Fere-en-Tardenois, the great German base, has fallen, and Ville-en-Tardenois, east of Fere, is within the grasp of the advancing Allies. Almost all of the Dormans-Rheims road again is in Allied hands, and the Germans apparently are preparing to fall back to the Vesle if not to the Aisne.

No great captures of prisoners have been reported. The Germans are using artillery and machine guns to stay the Allies. As the French and Americans, who have advanced most rapidly, press northward, the German resistance has become stiffer. The enemy also is making great use of his artillery on the heights north of Soissons and Rheims, and is subjecting the sides of the pocket to a great degree. North of Oulchy and north of Bligny, the Germans have maintained their positions stoutly. Sergy, held by the Americans, represents an advance of 18 miles from Chateau-Thierry in ten days.

While the enemy loss in men may not be great, the Allies probably will capture many guns and machine guns in addition to supplies and munitions which the Germans have been unable to destroy or move away. Allied losses have been kept at a minimum by the most extensive use of tanks. Cavalry again has taken a hand in the pursuit and low flying airplanes have been harassing the retreating Germans unceasingly.

Berlin speaks of "new positions" but does not indicate where they are. The German command may elect to make a stand on strongly prepared positions south of the Vesle. Observers think the Vesle will mark the retirement northward, but the river is shallow and runs northwest. The Aisne, however, runs east and west between Soissons and Rheims and with the heights of the Chemin-Des-Dames behind it would offer just as strong a defensive position.

In its statement, Berlin makes no admission of Allied advances. Reporting on Sunday's operations it says that the day was quiet except for fighting on the Ourcq. There has been heavy local fighting in the Heigt region between Rheims and Soisson, east of the Marne battlefield, but General Gouraud has held to his recent gains, smashed German attacks. Prisoners captured here by the French are reported unofficially to total 1,500.

Raids have taken place on the British front, the British being the successful aggressors. Two lines of German trenches on a two-mile front on the Bray-Corbic road, east of Amiens, have been taken by Australian troops, along with 100 prisoners.

Official denial is made that Field Marshal von Hindenburg either is dead or in poor health. His health is reported to be excellent.

Further toward Rheims the Allies continued to advance toward Ville-en-Tardenois, into which their vanguards have now penetrated.

Heavy fighting is still in progress to the south of Soissons, in the neighborhood of Pucyzy. So far the French have made no progress there. Villages between Soissons and Bazoches, about 14 miles to the east, however, are quiet, leading to the belief that the Germans may intend a further retreat.

BATTLE OF THE WOOD ENDS IN ALLIED FAVOR

Enemy Has Been Swept From Forest of Fare and Risis

FIGHTING CONTINUES Germans Concealed Boats Beneath Surface of Marne

With the American Army on the Aisne-Marne Front, July 29.—(By The Associated Press.)—The battle of the woods has ended, and the Germans have been swept from the Forest of Fere and Risis.

The edge of the German salient to the southeast of Fere-en-Tardenois was broken down by the Allied troops and dulle to such an extent that German weakness was indicated at many points. In the battle of the woods, the stiff kind of resistance was encountered. Here the Franco-American troops were compelled to contend constantly with a rear guard action, consisting of machine guns, most of whom, dressed in green, hid in the forest.

Day after day during the fighting the Allied troops bucked the German machine gun nest, used artillery and machine guns and some gas against them. In the rear guard fighting, which was carried on to permit of the withdrawal of the heavier German guns, the enemy resorted to numerous tricks, such as carrying machine guns in stretchers when endeavoring to reach some points under the Allied fire.

The Allied machine gunners were notified by their commanding officers to be on the alert for the Germans wearing French or other uniforms. One occasion the soldiers were notified by field orders that Germans had appeared in uniforms of French soldiers. Rushing across an open place in the forest where the German nests had been discovered, one German, acting as a leader, and speaking perfect English, yelled to the American machine gunners, "Don't shoot, there are Americans in that thicket!"

The Americans were at the edge of the forest, peering a wood opposite. They ceased when the detachment advanced. The detachment entered a forest to the right of the Americans and in a few minutes a hail of machine gun bullets came from that direction.

Intelligence officers in the American army say numerous cases have been reported by soldiers of being encountered by individual Germans wearing American uniforms and of some cases of Germans wearing merely an American French tunic, presumably having obtained them on some other front.

With the American army in France (By The Associated Press.)—When the Americans crossed the Marne recently they discovered that the retreating Germans had conceived a trick to deceive the Allied troops.

"They are going," says Intratrang's head line. "Our troops continue the vigorous pursuit," says La Liberté.

Military men consider the giving up of the positions north of the Marne as of the greatest importance because the German artillery could command the Paris-Chalons railroad from the heights. The enemy seemed determined not to abandon the hills, putting up a most tenacious resistance.

The retrograde movement of the Germans apparently has assumed a greater impetus since Saturday. In some places along the Chateau Thierry-Soissons road French cavalry is coming into action, interfering with the movements of the German rear guards.

Paris, July 29.—The Parisians have apparently settled down to a feeling of steady confidence in the efficiency of the high command and the valor of the Allied soldiers. The population has been cheered by news that the advance of Allied troops was more pronounced, the armies retrieving more territory Saturday than any day since the opening of the offensive. All the afternoon papers feature the abandonment of the heights on the north bank of the Marne.

SITUATION TO-DAY

North of the Marne the tide of the German invasion is fast ebbing. The fact that a general retreat in this region is going on, is not the question and the only question remaining to be cleared up is the location of the front to which the enemy will turn at bay.

Since Saturday morning there have been important changes in the battle front between Soissons and Rheims. To-day it runs about directly east from Oulchy-Le-Chateau to Fere-en-Tardenois, then crosses the Ourcq and continues to the west and north of the Dormans-Rheims road northwest of Rheims mountain.

It has been contended by military experts that the Germans might elect to stand on the line of the Ourcq river, from which their heavy cannon might dominate the Paris Chalons railroad along the Marne. It appears that there is no defensive position south of the Vesle river to which the Germans can organize their retreat.

While the Germans have been busy getting their forces back out of the bag between Soissons and Rheims, their forces further north have been attacked by the British, once more. Australian troops, attacking on each side of the Bray-Corbic road, East of Amiens and north of the Somme river, took two lines of German trenches over a two mile front, capturing 100 prisoners. Canadian troops also took prisoners in two successful raids last night south and north of Cavrelle.

DEMAND PEACE WITHOUT ANY ANNEXATION

Resolution Favoring Immediate Peace Offered in Austrian Lower House FROM CZECH LEAGUE Continuation of War Declared Useless From Any Standpoint

Amsterdam, July 29.—A resolution declaring in favor of an immediate peace without annexations was offered in the Austrian Lower House Saturday by Deputy Stasek on behalf of the Czech League. The resolution declared a continuation of the war "indefinite" from the standpoint of both humanity and political utility. It asserted that all peoples should have the right to self-determination and asked that it demand that Austria-Hungary should find some means of gaining peace.

Deputy Stasek said the Czech people would become great and strong despite the persecutions of a narrow minded Government. Czechs never before were so united. They are united in firm will, he added, and never again will have a foreign yoke. The Czech-Slovak state was a fact which could not be averted.

Official denial is made that Field Marshal von Hindenburg either is dead or in poor health. His health is reported to be excellent.

STIFFER SENTENCE FOR IDLERS

Alsike a Good Crop in 1 Tal-dimand and Norfolk Counties

Simcoe, July 28.—On Saturday a second couple of men stood before Magistrate Gunton charged with a violation of the Loafing Law. It will be remembered that a farmer pair were given till next Wednesday to produce evidence of having put in a month at farm work. On Saturday Geo. Cocking and Geo. Haun were found guilty and had to cash up $11 each and get to work. None of them need blame the constable. Public opinion is behind the officer and two or three more have been warned. The able man who has not even soiled his shoes or hands in a back garden since the snow left and even forgets to take his turn at the lawn mower is evidently not going to question of get out and work, or pay the fine and then get out.

Farm Work in Norfolk Well in Hand.

Through the voluntary participation in farm work on the part of urban citizens, were women, boys and girls in general, and by apparently good management among agriculturists, the farm labour question in this county is apparently well in hand. This opinion prevails us is evident from the announcement that we are to have which will be held in Lynwood Park Simcoe, just two days after the big Great War Veterans' picnic to Port Dover which it is expected, will draw returned men and their friends from all parts of the county. The help question, in Norfolk, cannot therefore, be considered as acute.

Alsike a Splendid Crop.

W. Pearson of Walpole delivered to the Norfolk Milling Company, on Saturday, a load of alsike seed, drawn by a four horse team, which brought a cheque for $693.80.

Throughout the district alsike is said to be a bumper crop. Bram-bowyer of Tyrrel had 100 bushels threshed and fifteen acres yet to put through the mill.

Odd Ends of News

When a King's Counsel, a J. P., two county constables and an undertaker leave town in a single automobile, there should be something doing.

Norfolk county farmers will picnic at Lynwood Park on Wednesday, August 14th. This will be the Boughner picnic under a new name. Simcoe will welcome the whole party. Harvest will then be pretty well over we presume, by that time.

For the first thorough pick over by a 2-4 acre cucumber patch on the Dr. Burr farm, west of town, Harry Wilson gathered on Friday within eighty pounds of a ton of "cukes". This patch is in the hummer class.

The best fish yarn of the season was late coming to hand; it detailed how D. G. McKnight drew an admission from John R. DeCov, that the latter was beaten as an angler. And it is worth narrating, even if it is ten days old.

Some one in the party drew in a green bass; perhaps it was the only catch of the day. There was nothing much doing. McKnight was conveniently situated in the boat for the purpose, so he fixed this one on his hook and stealthily let it over to starboard, drawing it out gingerly soon after as a new catch. This was repeated half a dozen times and then came the challenge: "You may as well admit you're hooked, DeCov."

And Mr. DeCov admitted that the trick was discovered. Both of these gentlemen and others of the party will wonder who has been telling tales out of school.

A heavy storm passed over the north of Windham and Townsend Saturday afternoon, apparently centring about Vanessa. It reached slightly south of the line

The L. E. and N. had heavy traffic through here to the lake yesterday, and a large patronage from town. In one respect the company was quite obliging in that each northbound train after twilight set in, carried an unlighted coach or two for the young couples. There was a pronounced atmosphere of "I'm dead tired out" about the depot as the trains halted to let off local passengers. In fact, there was no room for one to laugh in some of the coaches.

BEACH AT DOVER OVER-CROWDED

Pleasure of Outing Marred by Want of Accommodation

Port Dover, July 28.—Yesterday and last Sunday would convince the most skeptical that traffic to our most excellent beach is not being accommodated, and that even the considerable crowds which now come down the line for the week-end is but a van guard of what is yet to come. The want of proper accommodation is doubtless keeping many away, for hundreds go home weary and in bad humor.

Traffic Congested.

In the first place, every car coming in on a Sunday or holiday is overcrowded, and the afternoon and evening cars out are ridiculously packed.

Poor Bathing Accommodation.

Nature has provided an excellent sandy beach and bathing area, but there is only a most primitive attempt at dressing rooms, with lockers just big enough for cap and boots, and poor attendance. You must go early to get a dry bathing suit, and improvise your own method of getting rid of the sand before dressing. The only feature here up to snuff is the price, 35 cents for the cheapest bathing suit, wet or dry.

Hotels Overcrowded.

At the hotels meals are served on food regulation lines as to diet and hours and many are not accommodated.

Ice Cream and Soft Drinks Short.

It is not unusual for the supply of ice cream and soft drinks to become exhausted long before the day is spent and even plain drinking water is not conveniently obtained. But still the crowds come and grumble, and apart grumbling and come again. It's a great beach, and it is destined to see some crowds still undreamed of. The problem of handling it, is one for Dover and the transportation company. Go to it, gentlemen. This beach is a wealth to the region north of us and to the inhabitants of every town and city up the line. Perhaps delay in development of the comforts which are demanded, is in some degree to be laid to the fact that the location of the new dock is problematic. The fact remains, however, that the accommodation at present is ridiculously insufficient.

ENEMY, UNDER TERRIFIC PRESSURE, RETIRES; FERRE-EN-TARDENOIS, SUPPLY BASE, TAKEN

Allies Cross the Ourcq and Constantly Harass the Retreating Foe—Enemy Had to Give Way or Die in His Tracks, Under Unrelenting Fire of Foch's Fighters—Magnificent Advance Continued

With the French Armies on the Marne, July 29. The magnificent move of Generals Foch and Petain, splendidly carried out by Gouraud, Mangin, De Goutte and Berthelot, is bringing results. The Germans, under irresistible pressure, are retreating all along the front.

The information given out officially no longer covers the full situation. The incessant smashing blows night and day of the Entente Allies left the enemy nothing else to do but to retreat or die in his positions. Even their sudden retirement has not relieved the Germans from constant harrying.

In addition to the slashing of the cavalry and the pounding of the tanks, the lives of the German rear-guards are being made precarious by Entente infantry patrols. Meanwhile, Allied aviators daringly fly a few hundred feet overhead, bombing and machine-gunning the German batteries and columns on the march.

MOPPING UP THE ENEMY. On the banks of the Marne, south of the centre of the salient, not a single live German remains. Their sudden retreat here was brought about by the constant pressure of the French, Americans and British. Allied troops have kept constantly on the heels of the enemy, and some patrols have advanced considerably farther than the line indicated.

The method of retirement adopted by the enemy consists of first retiring one company from every two companies, then two sections from the remaining company. Then the last section withdraws, leaving only a few men with machine guns to cover the retreat. These men often are sacrificed, but sometimes they manage to rejoin their comrades and the manoeuvre is repeated.

Entente allied patrols pushing ever forward have reached the southern bank of the River Ourcq. This morning was extremely quiet along the centre of the salient, where the Germans were not offering great opposition.

Great Work by Tanks. The tank crews have been heroes in this chase, and ever since the commencement of the German retreat they have done remarkable work. After breaking up the enemy front line and preparing the way for the advance of infantry, the tanks have throughout continued to exploit the success gained.

Some tanks have even attacked the enemy's artillery batteries and killed all the gunners, thus permitting the infantry to capture many of these weapons. There is not a tank in the section of the German line taken part in the fighting that has not from fifteen to twenty machine guns to its credit. Most of the prisoners declare that the losses caused by the tanks have been terrible.

Narrowing the Pocket. The line where the German withdrawal has attained its greatest depth is northeast of Chateau Thierry. The depth from that point gradually becomes narrower until it is quite small on nearing the eastern pivot on the front southwest of Rheims. Both here and around Soissons, the other pivot, the ground is admirably suited for defence. In the vicinity of these two points the Germans have concentrated most of their artillery and large forces of infantry, knowing that if a breach be made at either place by the Allies the great majority of the German troops occupying the remainder of the pocket must be sacrificed.

Enemy Guns Mashed. On both wings, however, the greatest activity prevails. The enemy has massed many heavy guns to the north of Soissons, on the heights around Juvisy and Chavigny, whence they bombard with an enflading fire the western wings of the Allies in the Ourcq-le-Chateau region. Notwithstanding this bombardment the Allies in the Ourcq-le-Chateau region are making some progress, although they are faced by the Germans' best divisions and the concentrated fire of numerous machine guns.

On the eastern wing the Allies gradually are obtaining command of the whole road leading from Darmans to Rheims. On this side also the Germans have assembled a great force of artillery in the neighborhood of St. Thierry, northwest of Rheims.

EVERYBODY NEEDS PURE, RICH BLOOD

Pure blood enables the stomach, liver and other digestive organs to do their work properly. Without it they are sluggish, there is loss of appetite, sometimes faintness, a deranged state of the intestines, and, in general, all the symptoms of dyspepsia. Pure blood is required by every organ of the body for the proper performance of its functions. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure blood, and this is why it is so successful in the treatment of so many diseases and ailments. It acts directly on the blood, ridding it of serofulous and other humors. It is a peculiar combination of blood-purifying, nerve-toning, strength-giving substances. Get it today.

Dogging Enemy. Paris, July 28.—Le Journal says: "We are seeing the enemy's steps, rendering his retreat extremely painful. Our cavalry has reached far beyond the points officially mentioned. We are two kilometres from Ferre-en-Tardenois, which is threatened on both sides. Our aviators are co-operating in the pursuit, and are increasing the severe losses of the enemy. It is now possible to re-establish the famous Paris-Chateau Thierry and Chalons."

A Great Advance. The Petit Parisien says: "We have advanced nearly eight kilometres along a front of forty kilometres. Our troops everywhere are overwhelming the enemy. Other newspapers declare that a considerable amount of booty and prisoners have been captured. Premier Clemenceau spent yesterday afternoon at the front, witnessing the French advance."

AMAZING CAREER OF ENGLISH BOY Wandered at Age of Thirteen—He Thirsted to be a Soldier

Few school boys have crowded into their short life more adventures than has George Harris, who appeared at a London police court, here in brief, in his record.

At the age of thirteen was a confirmed wanderer. At the beginning of the war made his way to the front, where he was arrested by the Germans and released. Sent to industrial school. Donned naval uniform and went recruiting with Sgt. O'Leary, the famous V.C.

Received gifts from titled ladies for his recruiting efforts. Accused of theft and attempted to commit suicide. A "Lloyd's" representative obtained some details of the adventures of this amazing lad when he ran into the Germans at Antwerp on Christmas Eve, 1914, he resolved to go to the front to see the fighting. His capital amounted to 10s., his earnings as a choir boy. This sum paid his fare to Folkestone, where by a happy chance he met a lady whom he had supported with meat while working for an Edgeway. This sum paid he boldly asked her for a Christmas box, and she gave him 5s. He earned a few shillings by doing errands, and got another 12s., which paid his fare to Flushing.

On arrival at Flushing he helped passengers with their luggage, and received 10s. and time he fell in to the hands of the British Consul, who sent him to a charitable Belgian lady, who promised to care for him.

But young Harris wanted to see more of life, and decided to run away to Antwerp. During the journey he met an English soldier, and endeavored to persuade him to get him into the army as a drummer boy, but was told that he was too young; the military authorities would only send him back to England.

Harris arrived in Antwerp just before the Germans entered the town. He was great and was brought before a German lieutenant who had been educated in England. He gleaned the boy's story, and told him that had he been a year older, he would have been made a prisoner of war and sent to an internment camp in Germany. As it was, he would be sent to Holland as a refugee.

On crossing the border the lad again fell into the hands of a British consul and was sent to Tilbury. With other refugees he was sent on to Exmouth, where he was later transferred to a Church Army home at Stonebridge Park. His parents were communicated with, and his mother brought him back to his home.

But he still hankered after more adventures, and presented himself at a naval recruiting station. His record was looked into, and he was told that if at the end of six months he could present a clean record he would be sent to the Warship, with a view to training for the Navy. Meanwhile he fell in with Sergeant O'Leary, V.C., and addressed public meetings in Hyde Park and elsewhere.

Later, Harris had fallen upon romantic days, and has been earning a living as an errand boy, and it was an attempt at suicide following a suspicion of theft that led to his appearance in court.

Take Your Own Foot.

Three things impress the American, William Beebe writes in the June Atlantic, on the first day of his arrival in Paris. The first is the deliciousness of the crusty war-bread; the second and third, but there is space here only for his story of the war-bread: "Sugar and bread are scarce enough to be given special thought. The Baron de would be delighted to have you take dejeuner with Madame de Baronne and himself; then follows a little postscript, 'Appartez un peu de pain, si vous le voulez'; and we struggle forward with four inches of the most excellent war-bread in our pocket!" Mr. Beebe adds that the shortage is, with many people, one of money rather than of the staff of life itself.

Overseas veterans of the 48th Highlanders held a reunion and picnic. Phillip Goddard, aged 52 years, a market gardener of Dixie, died from arsenical poisoning.

EXPECT STRIKERS TO RETURN TO-DAY

Ministry of Munitions Says Situation Has Improved

TO FRAME COMMITTEE Will Investigate Conditions As Soon as the Men Are Back

London, July 28.—The Ministry of Munitions announced yesterday that reports received to-day from all parts of the country indicate that the strike situation in the munitions industry "has distinctly improved, and that a majority of the strikers in all probability will return to work to-day."

As a result of mass meetings in Birmingham and West Bromwich yesterday it was decided by the district committees of the strikers' organizations that the men should return to work Monday morning. A majority of the men at the Birmingham meeting favored a continuation of the strike, but as a two-thirds vote was necessary, and this was not obtained, the committee advised a resumption of work.

Likewise at the West Bromwich meeting there was a majority vote in favor of the men remaining out, but a decision was reached that the strikers should abide by the decision of the Birmingham meeting.

Winston Spencer Churchill, Minister of Munitions, announced yesterday immediately the munition strikers resumed work a committee would be appointed to investigate the labor conditions which rendered the embargo necessary, and report what further measures should be adopted. In view of these conditions, to maintain the output of munitions, with due regard to the effective and economical use of labor, money and material.

The Minister pointed out that this step would be taken in accordance with an agreement with the Trades Union Advisory Committee, as a result of which the men had promised the strikers to resume work. The Investigating Committee will consist of three representatives, respectively of the Government, the employers and labor, and will be presided over by a neutral chairman.

Ready for Draft Call. The National Service officials were busy yesterday at Coventry calling the strikers of military age to the colors should they ignore the Government's ultimatum and not return to work on Monday.

It is estimated that only one-fifth of the munition workers at Coventry are unemployed, and many of these are enforced idlers who are unable to work, while the skilled men decline to prepare their tools. Many labor leaders have proceeded to the affected districts to urge the men to return to work. Among them is Joseph Havelock Wilson, head of the Seathen's Union, who took 400 sailors with him.

The Government has received offers of assistance from many quarters, while workers in many districts have passed resolutions condemning the strike. Newspapers have commended on the Government's announcement mostly with approval, although they recognize that the situation is a grave one, and where necessary, increased generally endorsed by the country. The country's uneasiness is manifested by some papers which, while admitting that a strike at the present time is indefensible, think that a necessary might have been reached by a discussion and a compromise.

His mother is at present living with a daughter, Mrs. Stevenson, in Saskatoon.

MONARCHIST CAMPAIGN. Amsterdam, July 29.—The recent monarchist campaign at Kiev resolved to form centers throughout Russia for the re-establishment of the imperial regime on the lines of that in power to March 1917, and to aim for the reunion of the Ukraine and great Russia under Grand Duke Nicholas Nicolaevitch, according to details received here. Kiev newspapers report the activities of the Black Hundred.

THE SITUATION.

In the average mind there was apprehension, when the splendid counter stroke of Poch was first reported on the west front, that there would come a speedy offset on the part of the foe, either in the shape of huge counter attacks, or a tremendous offensive at some other point. Neither has happened. To the direct contrary the Hun retreat which commenced over a week ago still continues. Under the magnificent pressure of the Allies the army of the Crown Prince which sallied forth to capture Paris, is being forced steadily back and the "all conquering" hosts of the "All Highest" are hard put to it to save the withdrawal from a rout. It is the same story along the entire front, place after place has had to be evacuated and even Fere-en-Tardenois has fallen—the town on the Ourcq river in the middle of the Marne pocket which has been hitherto used by the Germans as a great supply base. Cavalry and tanks have got among the retreating masses and airplanes with deadly effect are dropping missiles on the columns of the foe whose losses must be proving appalling. The entire outcome looks very much like the beginning of the end for the Tenth outfit. Said end is still doubtless a long way off, for complete defeat must be finally driven home right on German soil if the lesson is to be effective and lasting, but the turn of the tide has undoubtedly been reached and wanton militarism will be utterly submerged as the ultimate outcome.

In Albania the allied troops are also making sure progress and the all round position of affairs as the Titanic struggle nears the close of the fourth year is of a most heartening nature.

AS TO CHAUTAQUA.
 Along about 1878 Bishop Vincent of the States conceived the idea of a camp Bible conference in summer time and Chautauqua Lake near Buffalo was chosen for the first gathering hence the commencement of the movement under that name which has become so widely known. It developed into a great organization and musical and lecture features were added together latterly with other special features. At the present time over fifty thousand people visit the parent "Chautauqua" each year. So many people in the States desired to be participants in the advantages that several other Chautauqua centres were established and in 1904 Keith Vawter of Iowa, realizing that myriads could not afford to take the time to go to the centres decided to bring the "Chautauqua" to them and circuits were inaugurated.

The greatest care is exercised in the selection of speakers and entertainers and the consequence is a class of educative diversion which can be most highly endorsed.

Six thousand towns are now reached annually in the States and Ontario this year for the first time has been added to the itinerary.

GOVERNMENT PROTECTION.
 Brantfordites will be interested in the official announcement that Government protection is to be afforded to splendid words on the Grand River near Conestogo. The following letter serves to explain the initiative in the matter.

Conestogo, Ont., July 15 1918
 The Honorable Howard Ferguson, Minister of Lands, Forests & Mines, Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sir—
 In settlement of my father's estate several years ago, I came into possession of a mill and waterpower situated in the village of Conestogo, as well as about 40 acres of wooded river flats lying at the confluence of the Grand and Conestogo rivers. This property has been in the possession of our family since about 1850.

Many of the trees in this wood are of great size, and majestic in their size and beauty. As my purpose is to refrain from cutting any sound and growing trees during my lifetime, it would be a great satisfaction to me if some arrangement should be assured in perpetuity. I therefore beg to inquire whether this subject could not be attained by conveying the property, with cutting rights, through your Department. The plan that suggested itself to me is that neither I nor any of my successors be permitted to cut any trees, except such as be designated for removal by the Chief Provincial Forester and that upon the removal of any trees, a proper number of trees be planted.

There is ample room for tree-planting in the grounds and my desire is to have it scientifically supervised under the supervision and assistance of your Department. This would provide a forestry and reforestation demonstration on a small scale, right in the heart of the older portion of Western Ontario.

Should this matter meet with your approval, I shall be very glad to proceed toward a final arrangement. I am, dear Sir,
 Yours very truly,
 (Signed W. J. Snider.)

The above letter was followed up by a deputation which waited on Hon. Mr. Ferguson, Ontario Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines. In reply he stated that he was much impressed with the unique and philanthropic side of the scheme, and expressed himself as desirous of carrying out the wishes of Mr. Snider, and promised Government protection for the woods. He asked for a week or so to work out the details of the scheme with the assistance of the Government Legal Department, after which the matter will be closed.

NOTES AND COMMENTS
 "That's the kind of reading," exclaimed more than one of the myriads before the Courier bulletin boards on Sunday.

Posh is the correct pronunciation of the name, and it matches boche in a manner the latter does not at all appreciate.

The good folk who were yearning for warm weather, would now welcome a blizzard with all the ardor of a young girl over her first beau.

There has been no recent announcement of any decorations for the Crown Prince. In fact his chestiness must have shrunk to such an extent as to crowd off many previously there.

Pores is most emphatically the proper name for them these days.

Instead of a treat in gay Paree, the Hun is doing a retreat expeditiously.

A despatch from Berlin denies that Hindenburg is dead, and affirms that he is in excellent health. Then his recent suppression was a distinct kick down the back stairs.

July was named after Julius Caesar—sizzler should have been the proper spelling.

A Bachelor Woman—There are many married women who are less well off than you are. I advise you not to marry except you meet a good man whom you love, and who loves you. To marry for a home or for money seems to me to be ignoble, and I hardly think it would ever pass uncondemned at the bar of your own conscience. I do not see how a marriage relation can bring lasting happiness to either a man or woman if they do not truly love each other, so that the two are no longer two but one. Their interests, their aims, their religion alike, two persons fused into one harmonious loving unity. After the glow of the honeymoon, if not before, is you marry as you intimate, you will have one long heart-aching continuous regret. Tell me the difference, in the eyes of God, between a woman who sells herself for money for a night, and one who sells herself for money for a life time. DUMFRIES RESIDENT IS CALLED
James Havey, Who Died Friday, Laid to Rest Today

NEWS FROM PARIS
Mrs. R. Thompson Dead in Toronto After Long Illness

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
 Paris, July 28th. The funeral took place this morning at the Church of the Sacred Heart and thence to the R.C. cemetery of Mr. James Havey. Deceased, who had been ill for a long time, was taken to the Galt Hospital a month ago, where he passed away on Friday evening. He was a son of the late John and Mary Havey and born on the homestead of North Dumfries, 2 miles southeast of Ayr. With the exception of five years spent in Dakota he had always resided on the farm, being well known in Paris and vicinity. Some sixteen years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Sheehy of Richmond who predeceased him last January. Two sisters, Mrs. John Rooney and Mrs. Frank Rooney, Paris and two brothers, John of Hespeler and William of Paris are left to mourn his demise. The funeral took place from the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. John Rooney, West River street. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Holden.

A former Paris boy, Trooper Harold Irish, was among some of the soldiers who had a close shave on the troopship City of Vienna ran ashore on the Atlantic coast. When rescued all he had was the clothes he wore that night in. The British Irish left Paris with his parents eight years ago, and was holding a good position in Winnipeg when he enlisted in a cavalry regiment. He is now a member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and a nephew of Mr. H. Rehder.

On Saturday afternoon the scholars of the Baptist and Congregational Sunday School held their annual picnic at Mohawk Park, Brantford. All report having spent a good time in games, boating and racing.

An Underwood typewriter was taken to Paris by a young man who was attending school during the early part of last week, a window being forced and the typewriter lifted up. Acting-Sergeant Stewart located the missing typewriter in a tenement in Paris. The young fellow was up before the Magistrate on Saturday afternoon and after a severe lecture from the magistrate, was held in suspended sentence and payment of costs.

All that was mortal of little Marion Ruth Cole, who was accidentally killed while visiting in Toronto, was tenderly laid to rest in the Paris cemetery on Friday afternoon. The large number of beautiful flowers was emblematic of the sweet little life that came to earth for so short a time to blossom in heaven. A very touching service was conducted by Rev. J. C. Nicholson. The heartfelt sympathy of the community was shown out to the heartbroken parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Cole, and also the other sorrowing relatives in their bereavement.

Chatham, July 28.—Ex-Mayor and Mrs. J. C. Cowan received a message announcing the death of their nephew, Lieut. John Cowan, while serving with the American forces overseas. The officer was well known in Chatham.

Margaret Garrett's Husband
 By JANE PHELPS

CHAPTER CXVIII
Personality-Plus
 I have not told you how Charlotte Keating looked. In the first place she was not at all beautiful. She had lovely reddish gold hair; but her lashes and eyebrows were too light. Her eyes were that tawny greenish gray we seldom see, not large but full of expression. Her features were pliant but irregular. She was slim and graceful, and about twenty-eight years old. Bob's age.

But there was a something telepathic perhaps which warned me. I looked in the glass and knew that now I was caring for my appearance so carefully, I was far better looking than she, in spite of being older. That I had as slim and graceful a figure as did she. I was foolish to give her so much credit, and before I had seen Bob interested in others. But my sleep was fitful, and it was impossible to banish her from my mind.

When I arose in the morning it was with added determination. It was there possible to win my husband back as indifferent as possible. Charlotte Keating included. I made my toilet and hurried down to breakfast. When Bob came down I tried to talk of the party, but aside from saying that he had thoroughly enjoyed it, he made no comments.

Finally I asked him: "You had met Miss Keating before?"
 "Yes, several times."
 "Where—if I may ask?" I made my tone as indifferent as possible but I noticed that telltale flush creep over his face.

"Oh, at John's and other places."
 "Strange," I never met her." I mused, unthinking, thrown off by a guess for a moment by Bob's manner.

"Yes, several times."

time I was jealous—of a woman. A woman whose personality was so great, according to Bob that he neither knew nor cared whether she was beautiful or not.

All that I had read and heard of the anguish, the torture a jealous woman experienced occurred to me. Also the stories of upbraiding, espionage, etc. A year ago I was willing to follow and watch Bob because I didn't want him to spend his time with what I called "A Bohemian crowd." Now something new, something different had entered into my feeling for him, something which I never before had possessed; the desire to be all that the woman he loved should be. I knew he would despise utterly a woman who would follow him, who would stoop to any underhand means to find out what he did. And as far as upbraiding went, that would be worse than useless. He would simply remain away from me.

Yet even with all these thoughts running through my head, I would not confess, even to myself that I had had my Waterloo or even that there was danger of my meeting it. But there was one thing I could do: I could question Elsie. Perhaps if I knew more about Miss Keating, I could better face this new danger to my happiness—as I felt her to be—or more easily dismiss her from my mind.

So I took the next train into town, and hurried up to Elsie's.

"I have come for luncheon and advice," I told her.

"Which will you have first?" she asked, helping me remove my wraps.

"Luncheon, please. I ate scarcely any breakfast, and feel quite ravenous."

HURT IN LONDON COLLISION
 Resident of London Township Lose the Sight of One Eye
 London, Ont., July 29.—Mrs. William Ditch, of the 5th concession of London Township, was seriously injured in a collision between a street car and an automobile driven by her husband, at the corner of Waterloo and Dundas streets, Saturday.

Mrs. Ditch is now in St. Joseph's hospital, and though it is believed that she will recover, it is feared that injuries to her head will cause the loss of the sight of one eye. Her husband was badly shaken up, but was not so severely hurt.

ASSESSED ON GAS WELLS.
 Chatham, July 29.—A case involving a point of law as to whether, under the statutes, oil and gas leases or the revenues obtained from such are taxable was decided yesterday by Judge Stanworth who held that B. F. Meyers, of Dover Township must pay on an assessment of $2,850 revenue from an oil and gas well on his farm. The assessment was reduced from $3,500.

The action may now slow down and even become stabilized for a time, but the Soissons and Thiennes, where the Germans are apparently concentrating great forces, but the fact remains that the enemy is badly beaten.

Both the infantry and the artillery were heavily engaged. In the region north of the Ris Forest there were some very serious combats which lasted several hours and resulted in the Allies gaining possession of Champsoisy. Then Roncheres was reached by advanced guards. Further to the east cavalry patrols came in contact in the Meunier wood and at Villers-Agron Aigulzy.

All along this part of the line the enemy threw great quantities of gas shells, the fumes of which remained for a long time among the woods.

Near Romigny and Biligny the Allies got over the Dormans-Rheims main railway.

The advance called the greatest precautions because of enormous number of enemy machine guns under cover of the small wood in the region.

The eastern flank, however, have got beyond the wooded country and on to the plateau.

BOY HIT BY CAR

Fourteen year old Joe Balasz, 127 Charlotte street, had a very narrow escape from serious injury on Saturday night, when he was struck by an automobile at the corner of Market and Colborne streets and knocked off his bicycle falling directly beneath the wheels of the car. The motorist succeeded in bringing the latter to a stop in the nick of time, for the front wheels were pressing on the lad's chest and his ribs would have been crushed had the car moved a foot forward. As it was, the boy, who conveyed to the hospital, was found to be suffering only from a severe shaking up, and from painful bruises sustained in his fall.

SHOWER GIVEN.

A very jolly time was spent at the home of Miss Alice Bloxham, 27 Sheridan street, Saturday evening, July 27th, when a miscellaneous shower was given in honor of the bride-elect, Miss Jean D. Clark, of Hamilton. The marriage will take place on September 4th to Mr. John I. Dougherty of Chicago.

THE COAL SUPPLY.

Windsor makes complaint that Brantford is getting more coal than that city. In this regard, Mayor McBride said to a Courier man this morning: "I am daily in receipt of telegrams and letters asking how we are getting our coal. The answer is that we learned our lesson last winter and are buying early with shipments commencing to come early in January. In fact we shall be able to start distribution at the beginning of August. Brantford is not to be blamed for having been on the alert, and other places instead of criticizing should have done the same thing."

POLICE COURT.

Daniel Black of Harrisburg faced charges of house-breaking and of indecent assault preferred by Josephine Vrooman, also of Harrisburg, in the Police Court this morning. Black, according to the plaintiff, entered her room through a window at midnight, and attempted to assault her. The defendant, who was represented by H. S. Hewitt, claimed that while under the influence of liquor he had been robbed of the sum of $150, and had been told by one Charles Haxel that Miss Vrooman had the money. He had accordingly entered the house to regain his money. The case was remanded until to-morrow. An old man, a veteran of the Indian wars, was committed for trial before the judge on a charge of assaulting a four-year-old girl. Roy Lutwys and Joe Novakowski were ordered to pay for damage done to Mike Stelmach's windows by stones thrown by the two. They must also pay the costs of the case. Mike Barlok, charged with procuring, and Matrona Layko, whom he procured, were remanded until the latter's husband can be communicated with.

MOTOR ACCIDENT NEAR HAMILTON

Capt. G. M. Barrow, Formerly of 84th Battalion, Injured

ONE SOLDIER KILLED

Hamilton, July 28.—One man who had survived all the horrors of German warfare as a member of the 36th Battalion, C.E.F., is dead, and five others are injured, none seriously, as the result of a motor accident which occurred on the Beckett Drive shortly after 11 o'clock today. The dead man is Pte. G. O. James, a member of the staff of the Brant Military Hospital in Burlington, and whose home is in this city. With Pte. James in the ambulance car C1612 were Capt. F. A. Barrow, chaplain at the Brant Hospital, who had conducted a religious service at the hospital, and was en route to the mountain Sanitarium to perform a similar duty; Corp. A. McMaster, a veteran of the 47th Battalion, and Sergeant J. Montfield, both located at the Brant, and Driver L.M. Shenfield, Mechanical Transport Division. The ambulance was ascending the mountain on the Beckett Drive at a moderate rate of speed. A car approaching from the rear and driven by William Stull, 108 Park street, who was accompanied by John Garson, 112 Hess street south, blew his horn, and Driver Shenfield moved the ambulance to the side of the roadway close to the edge of the steep embankment. The road had been newly oiled, however, and the ambulance skidded, and striking Stull's car as it was passing, the cars buckled with the result that both went over the embankment, the ambulance turning two complete somersaults and landing upright fifty feet below. Stull's car was demolished, and the two occupants were hurled over the windshield, both being shaken up and Stull being slightly injured about the back. It is thought that Pte. James jumped, but this is not definitely known. He was found underneath the car with no skull cracks. Capt. Barrow sustained a scalp wound and was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital under the care of Dr. Unsworth. Corporal McMaster had his nose slightly injured. Driver Shenfield was still at the wheel when the ambulance landed at the foot of the embankment. McMichael was notified and empanelled a jury who viewed the remains and visited the scene of the accident and adjourned until Wednesday. Private James leave a wife and one child. Capt. Barrow is well known in this city, having been chaplain of the 84th Battalion during its stay. Sergt. Montfield is also well known here.

MERCHANTS' BIG SEMI-ANNUAL DOLLAR DAY

Will be Held on Thursday Next — Tomorrow's Papers Will Tell of Wonderful Bargains

Dollar Day, the day that offers unusual bargains to every buyer, is to be celebrated in this city again on Thursday next, August 1. This is the greatest shopping event of the year, and it has become for the thrifty buyers of this neighborhood, a day to be eagerly looked forward to, since it provides real money-saving opportunities for everybody. A penny saved these days is a penny earned. The great success of Dollar Day is that the merchants of Brantford make it a sort of "winding up" day, and all odds and ends of every description are cleared out, regardless of price, rather than carry them over for another season. Dollar Day comes just at the close of the summer selling season, and as the goods are getting to be rotten out of the way to make room for the fall shipments, which commence arriving early in August. Consequently, the merchants make this a great "cleaning up" day, and the customer benefits accordingly. This year Dollar Day will be conducted along pretty much the same popular lines as before. The bargains may be seen in the store windows commencing Tuesday afternoon, and shoppers will be well advised to look over the offerings early, so that shopping may be commenced promptly on Thursday morning and no time lost in looking about.

The Dollar Day stores will all be marked with yellow and black pennants and the goods in the shops will be priced with cards of the same combination of colors. Watch for the yellow and black coupons.

The Merchants' Treasure Box will again be a valuable feature of the day. In this box will be placed upwards of $150 in cash, which is to be distributed among the Dollar Day shoppers as bonuses. Tickets will be given with each purchase of $1.00 at any of the Dollar Day stores. These tickets are a bonus. Nothing is paid for them, but they are given absolutely free in addition to the usual value of the merchandise for every cent invested.

Dollar Day is a Day of Business and Pleasure. Make it Profitable for Yourself.

SPLENDIDLY WORTH WHILE

Are the Chautauqua Entertainments Offered Brantfordites

Leading Speakers and Artists Contribute Notable and Enjoyable Programs

Brantfordites are afforded a very great privilege and opportunity in connection with the Chautauqua week which opened here on Saturday. There can be no doubt at all about that and it is to be sincerely hoped that citizens will awaken to adequate realization of the magnificent course which is offered them.

For over forty years these Chautauques have been held throughout the United States with the greatest success and the organization is so complete and comprehensive that the work of the best artists and speakers is made available to the public at a very low cost indeed. This year the "great travelling university" as it has been called comes to Ontario and Brantford is one of the favored districts.

Proceedings take place in a large and roomy tent on the grounds of the Ontario School for the Blind and over the platform two large national flags of Great Britain and the United States typify the splendid accord now existing between these two countries.

The afternoon offering consisted of a popular concert by the Welsh Glee quartet, a thoroughly capable and well balanced organization. Each member is the possessor of exceptional vocal powers and their ensemble work was of a very fine nature indeed. Solos were also rendered with equal acceptance and the entire offering was most artistic and very enjoyable.

Sporting Comment

Soccer on Saturday was full of surprises. Old Country suffered their first defeat in thirteen years. D. games. Davenport Albions, Brantford, the Provincial League "baby," too strong for them, and at one stage in the game between Toronto Scottish and the Royal Air Force the Scots looked like a beaten team.

SEMI PRO'S WERE BLANKED AT LONDON

Lefty Dumond Held Locals to Four Hits in Saturday's Game

SOLDIERS HIT MUIR London, July 29.—Baseball fans were treated to the best game of the season on Saturday afternoon at Tecumseh Park, when the Western Ontario Regiment team defeated Del Orcutt's Brantford semi-pros by the score of 3 to 0.

"Lefty" Dumond, who has developed into one of the most elusive pitchers turned loose in these parts, so completely baffled the visiting team that it seemed impossible for them to squeeze a runner around the paths. The game was fast throughout and had all the earmarks of a pitchers' battle until the soldiers managed to find Harvey Muir's range. Once this was secured the khaki lads soon scored a run and poor coaching at third base, when the runners took much liberty with McKevey's arm, robbed them of at least more rallies. Three more hits in the sixth frame gave the locals another run, although two could have been scored with better judgment. Two errors by Muir presented the soldiers with their third tally in the seventh.

Dumond had the Indian sign on the Brants so completely daubed up that only three clean hits were scored off him and each time that the Brants threatened he tightened up or a fast piece of fielding by either Johnson, who started in the field, or Hagle, Johnson accepted 10 chances without a misplay. The work of Pitcher Dumond and Catcher Serat. Roy Wright, the former Orient Club member, who now is attached to the Dental Corps, was easily the feature of the game. They worked well together for a pair of strangers.

The crowd was amused by the antics of a black horse, which was rearing in the field, by its galloping and kicking across the field several times during the progress of the game. The crowd was not as large as usual. The score: Brantford Semi-pros... Western Ontario Regiment...

The Prize Ring

Harrison Park, Newark, July 27.—Jack Dempsey, who claims California as his residential state, won a surprisingly quick victory over Fulton, the Rochester Minn. heavyweight in 2 1/2 seconds at the Harrison Baseball Park here this evening. Some of Dempsey's friends who heard him say before he entered the ring that he "would knock out the big Rochester man in short order" thought Dempsey was over-confident but he made good.

Fulton's face wore a grin while Dempsey scowled a bit but looked the more confident. When they came from their corners, Dempsey rushed and took the big fellow by surprise landing a left swing under the heart. The blow made Fulton

BRANTFORD BEAT DAVENPORT ALBION

Sprung a Surprise by Winning Saturday Afternoon's Game

Brantford United footballers sprang one of the surprises of the season Saturday afternoon when they defeated Davenport Albions 3-2 in a clean, snappy game. The Albions were pressing from the first, but Brantford's forwards got going, and Westcott found the net after Holland had failed. Brantford had several further chances to score which poor shooting spoiled. The Davenport forwards then commenced to press, and the outside right beat McGrath for Albions' first goal of the game. Brantford added another on a nicely centered pass, Richardson to Charlton. In the second half Holland scored Brantford's final goal on a penalty. The Albions scored their final goal just before full time.

Notes on the Game. Davenport Albions showed their gameness by playing with only nine men. McGrath was not to blame for the two goals scored against him. Holland and Burns played a good sure game. Westcott and Perrin were excellent up to form and Westcott throughout played a good game.

Richardson, Lynn and Charlton were the pick of the forwards, but Holland and Johnson were there when they were wanted. The Davenport Albions played a good game, but still are not up to Brantford's form. Next week Brantford plays Hamilton in the first round of the Shamrock Cup.

Frank Usher, it is hoped, will soon be in uniform, then watch the goal averages pile up. Others not in uniform and reserves are requested to be on hand next Wednesday at Agricultural Park. S. May as a referee was only fair.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SHIP BUILDING IS ENTHUSIASTIC

Waters Tells of Wonderful Improvement Since Taking Tanlac

One of the most noteworthy features in connection with the introduction of Tanlac in this country is the large number of prominent people everywhere who, making an exception here recommending it to their friends. A statement that will bear out this fact was recently received at the Tanlac office from William Waters of 55 St. Bernard Street Hull, who is one of the oldest ship builders in England and for nearly thirty years has been employed by the Dominion Government as a superintendent of ship building. Mr. Waters has had many friends in Ottawa where he lived for thirty six years, and in relating his experience with Tanlac said:

"I have never been much of a hand, either to take or practise medicines of any kind, but I have got to hand it to Tanlac. Why, before I began taking Tanlac I was so crippled up with rheumatism that I could not get up out of my chair without butting my head against the wall. I was always hardy and robust until about four years ago when my kidneys began to worry me. I thought it would wear off in time but it got worse instead and for the past two or three years they have me no end of trouble. I would have a terrible pain right across the small of my back and at times through my hips and groins. I suffered with a dull aching bearing down misery like it might be caused from rheumatism. Sharp shooting pains would dart like lightning through my arm and shoulders, which would become almost unbearable during spells of damp weather. I was getting badly run down, was losing my strength and fell off so much that my clothes were too big for me and I had to pin them up to keep them from dropping off.

"My doctor noticed how I was feeling and one day he said, 'Why don't you try Tanlac. Well as I said just now I never was much of a hand for taking medicines, but he insisted on much that to please him I got a bottle I am now on my third bottle and already feel a bit different in my condition. My kidneys are much better, sharp pains in my back and hips don't bother me near as much as they did before, and that rheumatism in my arms and shoulders is fast leaving me. Before I began taking Tanlac I just had to pull myself up stairs by the banisters, but now I can go up and down with as much ease as I ever could. I can feel my strength and energy returning, and only the other day my daughter told me my skin had a healthier appearance and that I looked a hundred per cent better. I certainly have improved wonderfully in every way since I started taking Tanlac, and am glad to recommend it to anybody."

Tanlac is sold in Brantford by Robertson Drug Store, in Paris by Apps. Ltd. in Mt. Vernon by A. Yorkmans. In Middleport by William Peddie. In Onondaga by Nell by McPhadden.

Dr. George Michaelis, who was Imperial German Chancellor for a while in succession to Von Bethmann-Hollweg, is now reported to be in command of a brigade on the Western front. Thirty thousand railway shopmen in Canada will receive ten million dollars more in wages by the adoption of a new amendment to the McAdoo schedule.

Rippling Rhymes

UPLIFTING TALK. Though throbs may crash and kingdoms tremble, some delegates, when they assemble, can only talk disease; their gossip flows in endless rivers concerning balky lights and livers, and mumps and house-maids' knees. Last night some neighbors came to cackle; the only subjects they would tackle were symptoms and the likes, one talked for hours about lumbago, one dieted on rice and sago, his stomach on a strike; I wished to talk about the fighters we're sent to can the Prussian blighters, and put them in the soup; alas my stern prosaic neighbor had little use for swords and sabers; they'd only talk of croup; I wonder how, in times of battle grown people can get down to practice about their pains and aches; about their wens and warts and felons, or gittes brought on by eating melons or filling up with cakes. With charges neighing, captains yelling, the small-bore folk are always dwelling upon their piffing-ills; in presence of great world disasters, we hear men talk of porous plasters and anti-bilious pills. Upon the market place I loiter, to talk of gore, and not of gout, of war, and not of warts; I'm tired of men who're always thinking about the medicine they're drinking, by gallons, pints and quarts.

Toronto postmen decided to remain at work.

Soldiers' Kin Made Merry At Monster Civic Picnic

The refreshment stand that the crowd was thickest, from four o'clock on, when a large staff of workers were kept busy supplying the wants of thousands of hungry kiddies and no less hungry adults. Sandwiches, buns, and other comestibles, vanished like snow in July this July particularly—and it is doubtful if so many ice cream cones were ever disposed of before in such short order. It was a right royal lunch, and lots of it, and it was done full justice to by virtually every person on the grounds.

Toward five o'clock rain, which had been threatening since early in the afternoon, commenced to fall, and there was a scamper for shelter in the pavilion, under spreading shade trees or wherever refuge could be found. But even rain can't last forever, and the downpour suspended operations in time to permit the completion of the sports program and the other events of the day.

By six o'clock the exodus from the park had commenced, and while many were still coming, others were being borne away as rapidly as the car service would permit. Not until late in the evening, however, did the last of the merry-makers leave their departure. To Mayor MacBride, the Council and the committee in charge of the picnic, hearty congratulations are due for the splendid entertainment tendered the kin of the men overseas. Every branch of the afternoon's outing was in capable hands, and was well administered.
