Summary of Evidence in the case of B.52434 Rfmn Russell Roy THOMPSON, R Wpg R, att 21 Cdn Gen Hospital, charged with, when on active service wilfully injuring himself with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service (AA Sec 18(2)), alternative, when on active service neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (AA Sec 40).

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS

Major M.T. Kobrinsky, No.21 Cdn Gen Hospital, sworn, states:

I am Major M.T. Kobrinsky, Med Offr at No.21 Cdn Gen Hospital. Pte Thompson is a patient under my present care. Review of his med documents reveal that he had a through and through GSW of his right hand in the region of the second metacarpal phalangeal joint. He still requires further hospital treatment for approximately three weeks. In all likelihood there will be a slight disability in the movement of this joint. However, in my opinion it will not necessitate the lowering of his 'U' grade and at the completion of his treatment he should be fit for full duty. The wound could have been caused by a weapon held in the man's own hands.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

M.T. Kobrinsky, Major
Witness.

SECOND WITNESS

U.2015 Sgt Gatehouse, W.H., S.I.S., Cdn Provost Corps, att 21 Cdn Gen Hospital, sworn, states:

On 1 Oct 44, in company with Cpl Norton, I interviewed the accused, whom I recognize, at No.7 Cdn Gen Hospital. I identified ourselves to him, told him we were members of the SIS and we were enquiring into the circumstances surrounding an injury sustained by him in the right hand. He was cautioned that he need not say anything unless he wished to do so but whatever he did say would be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence. He understood the caution, read it and signed it. He then made a voluntary statement which was taken down in writing. It was read over to him and he read it himself and then signed the statement. There were no threats, promises or inducements held out to the accused in order to obtain the statement. He was not under arrest at the time.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

W.H. Gatehouse
Witness.

The statement referred to in the evidence of the above witness is attached hereto as Exhibit 'A'.

The accused is cautioned as follows:

Do you wish to make a statement or give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you do say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

"I have nothing to say at present".

The accused does not call any witnesses.

I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence consisting of two pages was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that RP 4 (C) (D) (E) (F) and (G) have been complied with.

Statement of. B 52434. Rfmn THOMPSON. R. Royal Regt.
No. 16 Platoon Royal Winnipeg Rifles. D Coy

I have been cautioned by Sgt. Gatehouse of the Special Investigation Section. Can Provost Corps. that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

I do know I fully understand this caution and sign my name here.

R.R. THOMPSON. +

I am. Rfmn THOMPSON of the Royal Winnipeg Rifles, No. 16 platoon in 'D' company. I came to France on the 23 rd July 44 and joined my Regiment, which was on its way to Caen. two days after landing that I arrived. about 25 July 44.

About a week and a half ago we were in or near Fontenay Le Pesnel, and stayed in this position for 3 days, and while there German bombers raided our supporting artillery. I felt pretty nervous under the bombing. We left this position and went up near Fontaine Henry, for an 8 day rest period.

After this we followed up the attack on Falaise as a support Battalion. I stayed in the support position with platoon before and we went right on to the Seine, where we ran into some very hot action. They mortared, shelled and machine gunned us

This made me even more nervous than before.

I was with the regiment then all through the actions, and about the 25th of Sept. we made an attack on Coquelles, the whole Battalion was in it. Our own artillery was dropping shells about 50 yds ahead of us. I got pretty sick and I knew I couldn't stand much more of it. That same night I had only about 3 hours sleep. In the morning about 8 o'clock I found a pistol. I don't know what kind it was, but when I took it out of the leather case, I found about 8 rounds of 32 ammunition in the bottom of the holster. Just about this time we were ordered out to round up some germs and I put the pistol away.

We finished this job about noon.

I ate in the afternoon about 3 o'clock. I got the pistol again and loaded it. I tried to fire it, but the shells wouldn't go off although it revolved the chamber alright.

I changed the pistol into my left hand and put my right hand over the barrel, and pulled the trigger. I was pretty well shaken up at the time, and I figured it would be a good way to get out of the line. I never thought it would go off anyway. This time it went off and the bullet went into my right hand, under my first finger joint, the palm and came out behind my knuckle. I threw the gun on the ground then and I don't know what it's now.

Riflemen Stevenson who is in my platoon was with me when I found the gun, and was there when I shot myself. He took me to Coy HQ and got my wound dressed.

I told Capt. Armison etc 2 Fd. I had done it accidentally.

I was taken to No. 16 Hospital and from there I came to No. 1 Can. General Hospital.

I don't really want to go back into action, because I don't think I could stand any more of it.

I have read this statement over, and have had it read to me, and it is the truth.

R.R. THOMPSON +

After reading over the above statement I would like to add that the pistol is at Battalion Hq. One of the stretcher bearers there has it.

R.R. THOMPSON +

I was present when the above statement was taken, and witness to both statement and signature. J.H. Norton Cpl.

This is Exhibit 'A' referred to in the Summary of Evidence in the case of B.52434 Rfmn Thompson, R.R., taken before me this 17th day of October, 1944.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No sir.(5)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) to Guilty on charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex "A", initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

B.52434 Rfm Rhompson, Russell Roy No.16 Pltn R.W.R. att 21 Cdn Gen Hosp.

sworn states:

I was born at "Sauble Falls," Ontarion 20th January 1923. My parents were both Chipewa Indians. They are both dead now. I was seven and a half when my mother died and nineteen when my father died. I went to school at "Sauble Falls", I went to Grade V in Country School. I left when I was 14 years old. I then worked around home. My home was situated in the "Suageen Reserve" near Owen Sound Ontario. I enlisted in the army on the 4th February 1942. I was a volunteer. I did my basic training at Chatham Ontario for two months and my advanced at Halifax Nova Scotia for six months. I had a little battle training during this time. I came to the UK on the 23rd June 1944. I was there for 3 weeks. I came over as a reinforcement. I came to France on the 23rd of July. I went to CBRC. I went up to the RWR's three days later. During the period 26th July to 26th Sept I had one period of rest lasting 8 days. I was with the Regiment during all the rest of the time.

I got a brother wounded. He was in the Algonquin Regiment. I want to go back to my own Regt "The RWR's". I was happy there. I have friends there. I just learned of his wounding today.

My category is B-1. I had a broken arm once, the left arm. I am right handed. I have no dependents. I have more right to fight for my country really than the white man and I am anxious to get back because of this fact & also because of my friends.

Plea in mitigation by defending officer.

This accused is a full blooded Chipewa Indian. He hails from the "Suageen Reserve" near Owen Sound Ontario. His mother died when he was seven years of age and his father when he was nineteen.

He is anxious to return to action and restore his honour - as evidence of this we have his remark to the effect that he has even more right to fight for his country than the white man. I think we all admire his sincerety in this regard. He knows full well that the fighting qualities of his people are admired all over the world. He also knows he has made a great mistake and when he thinks of his own brother being wounded there is only one foremost thought in his mind: he wants to get back and fight.

Gentlemen, I have no hisitation in asking you to give him that chance by recommending suspension of sentence to senior authority.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of H. 72436 Rfmn Russell Roy THOMPSON, R Regt R, att 21 Cdn Gen Hospital, charged with, when on active service wilfully injuring himself with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service (AA Sec 18(2)), alternative, when on active service neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (AA Sec 40).

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS

Major W.F. Kobrinsky, No.21 Cdn Gen Hospital, sworn, states:

I am Major W.F. Kobrinsky, Med Offr at No.21 Cdn Gen Hospital. Pte Thompson is a patient under my present care. Review of his med documents reveal that he had a through and through GSW of his right hand in the region of the second metacarpal phalangeal joint. He still requires further hospital treatment for approximately three weeks. In all likelihood there will be a slight disability in the movement of this joint. However, in my opinion it will not necessitate the lowering of his 'C' grade and at the completion of his treatment he should be fit for full duty. The wound could have been caused by a weapon held in the man's own hands.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

"W.F. Kobrinsky"
Witness.

SECOND WITNESS

W.2015 Sgt Gatehouse, W.H., S.I.S., Cdn Provost Corps, att 21 Cdn Gen Hospital, sworn, states:

On 1 Oct 44, in company with Cpl Norton, I interviewed the accused, whom I recognize, at No.7 Cdn Gen Hospital. I identified ourselves to him, told him we were members of the SIS and we were enquiring into the circumstances surrounding an injury sustained by him in the right hand. He was cautioned that he need not say anything unless he wished to do so but whatever he did say would be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence. He understood the caution, read it and signed it. He then made a voluntary statement which was taken down in writing. It was read over to him and he read it himself and then signed the statement. There were no threats, promises or inducements held out to the accused in order to obtain the statement. He was not under arrest at the time.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

"W.H. Gatehouse"
Witness.

The statement referred to in the evidence of the above witness is attached hereto as Exhibit 'A'.

The accused is cautioned as follows:

Do you wish to make a statement or give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you do say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

"I have nothing to say at present".

The accused does not call any witnesses.

I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence consisting of two pages was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that RP 4 (C) (D) (E) (F) and (G) have been complied with.

STATEMENT OF B-52434 Rfmn. THOMPSON, Russell, Roy. No.16 Pltn. R.W.R.

I have been cautioned by Sgt. GATEHOUSE of the Special Investigation Section, Can. Provost Corps, that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

To show I fully understand this caution I sign my name here.

R.R. THOMPSON X

I am Rfmn. THOMPSON of the Royal Winnipeg Rifles, No.16 Pltn. D Coy. I came to France on the 25 July 44 and joined my regt. which was on its way to Caen, two days after landing, that would be abo t 29 July 44. About a mile and a half outside of Caen, we dug in in a wheat field and stayed in this position for three days and while there German bombers raided our supporting artillery. I felt pretty nervous under this bombing. We left this position and went up near Fontaine Henry for an eight day rest period. After this we follow d up the attack on Falaise as a support battalion. Things in the support position were quieter than before and we went right on to the Seine, where we ran into some very hot action. They mortared shelled and machine gunned us. This made me even more nervous than before. I was with the regt. when all through its actions and about the 26 day of Sept. we made an attack on Boquelles the whole battalion was in it. Our own artillery was dropping shells about 50 yds ahead of us. I felt pretty sick and I knew I couldn't stand much more of it. That same night I had only about three hours sleep. In the morning about 8 o'clock I found a pistol. I don't know what kind it was but when I took it out of its leather case I found about 8 rounds of .32 ammunition in the bottom of the holster. Just about this time we were ordered out to mount to some Jerries and I put the pistol away. We finished this job about noon. Then in the afternoon about three o'clock I got the pistol again and loaded it. I tried to fire it but the shells wouldn't go off, although it revolved the chamber all right. I changed the pistol into my left hand and put my right hand over the barrel and pulled the trigger. I was pretty well shaken up at the time and I figured it would be a good way to get out of the line. I never thought it would go off anyway. It is true it went off and the bullet went into my right hand where my first finger joins the palm and came out behind by knuckle. I threw the gun on the ground and I don't know where it is now. Rfmn. MCNEAL who is in my pltn. was with me when I found the gun and was there when I shot myself. He took me to the Coy. H.Q. and got my wound dressed. I told Capt. GILLSON, the R.S.M. I had done it accidentally.

I was taken to No.16 Hospital and from there I went to No.7 Can. General Hospital. I don't really want to go back into action because I don't think I could stand any more of it.

I have read this statement over and have had it read to me and it is the truth.

(Sgd) R.R. THOMPSON X

After reading over the above statement I would like to add that the pistol is at Battalion H.Q. One of the stretcher bearers there has it.

(Sgd) R.R. THOMPSON X

I was present when the above statement was taken and witness both statement and signatures.

(Sgd) [illegible] HORTON, Cpl.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. No (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement (1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.(1)
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex , initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read aloud as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge(s), and allowed on the charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans.....
(1. RP 155. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans No
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s) purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex 2 and Ex 3 respectively.(2)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans Yes through my Def. Offr. (2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(*1. When several accused tried separately see RP 91(B). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. For President and gentlemen

Before you make a decision regarding sentence about the accused I would like you to take into consideration his age which is 20 years and the fact till about 3 months ago he had been a good soldier, good enough in fact to have been a NCO

As you can see he has only 5 offences in 2 years, of 3 of these have been minor offences, he has never been tried by D.G.C by before This soldier is young and irresponsible and been influenced by the so called desperados around the unit who he has been associating with and I believe he has finally learnt his lesson and if you can show as much leniency as possible in his case we will have the material for a good soldier when he has paid for his crime.

SIR,

EVIDENCE

On 20 Nov 43, I was Orderly Sgt at No.1. P.P.Camp, Cdn Pro C.

At 1820 hrs I held a muster parade of S.U.S. in camp and found all to be present and coprect. At 2030 hrs I held a further muster parade and found H.20929 Pte Thompson, K.S. to be missing. This soldier was sentenced to 28 days F.P. on 18 Nov 43, was admitted to this camp on 19 Nov 43 and was due for release on 15 Dec 43.

A check of the buildings and camp area established the fact that this soldier had escaped. I reported his absence to R.S.M. Tosdevin.

The S?I.S., Nos 11 & 13 Provost Coys and Orderly Sgt of the Camerons of Cdn were notified of the escape.

On checking his kit, I believe him to be wearing battle dress, military boots. He was not wearing a field service cap and did not have K.R.R.C.1 Parts I, II or III in his possession.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of H-20929 Private Reginald, Speechly, THOMPSON, of the Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada, a soldier in the Canadian Army Overseas.

The accused is informed of his rights.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be given under oath.

FIRST WITNESS K-38051 Sjt Cook, H.F., Cdn Provost Corps, Cdn Army Overseas:-

A written statement of this witness' evidence purporting to have been signed by him has been read to the accused and is included in the summary as Exhibit "A" having regard to the escape from No 1 Fd Punishment Camp of H-20929 Pte Thompson, R.S. at about 2030 hrs on 20 Nov 43.
The attendance of this witness cannot, in my opinion, be readily procurred.

SECOND WITNESS H-19136 CSM Cheetham, P., Camerons of Canada, Cdn Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:-

I am H-19136 CSM Cheetham, P., Camerons of Canada, Cdn Army Overseas. I present:-

(a) As evidence of the accused's apprehension Certificate of Apprehension purporting to be signed by Lt. J.A. Leach, Staff Lt, 159 Provost Coy, S.M.D. Areas(Exhibit "B").

(b) Certificates of costs to the amount of £1-2-2 and £0-10-10 respectively purporting to be signed by Capt L.S. Grayson, D.A.P.M., London Area(Exhibits C & D).

(H-19136 CSM Cheetham, P.)

The accused declines to question the witness.

The accused having been duly cautioned in accordance with R.P. 4(e) declines to make a statement.

This is to certify that R.P. 4(c) to (e) have been complied with.

Taken down by me in the presence of the accused on 8 Dec 43 in Worthing, Sussex.

A. No, Sir.

The Prosecuting Officer makes the following opening Opening Address (R.P. 39)(B)):

The case before the Court is that of B.4520 Sgt. Thompson, V.R., charged with drunkenness. This offence in itself is serious enough but it was aggravated by the fact that the accused was at the time of the alleged offence, the Unit Orderly Sergeant. It will be brought out in the evidence that Sgt. Thompson was incapable of carrying out the responsible duties of Orderly Sgt. owing to the fadt that he was under the influence of liquor and that it was necessary to replace him with another N.C.O.

The Prosecutor proceeds to call his witnesses (R.P.39(C)).

FIRST WITNESS For the Prosecution

Lieut. T.B.W. Bird, No. 3 C.A.C.R.U., an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn (R.P.82), is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q. What is your name?

A. Lieut. T.B.W. Bird.

Q. Were you Orderly Officer on the 27 Feb 43 and was your Orderly Sgt., Sgt. Thompson, the accused?

A. Yes.

Q. Is he present in the Court this morning?

A. Yes.

Q. Will you tell the Court what occurred on the 27 Feb 43 at 2100 hrs to the time the accused was placed under arrest?

A. At 2100 hrs I had an appointment with Sgt. Thompson. He was to meet me at the Orderly Room, I waited until 2100 hrs. My first call was the N.A.A.F.I., on entering the N.A.A.F.I. I saw Sgt. Thompson standing in the bar, when he saw me enter the room he approached me and informed me that he had come directly to the canteen to see that it was closed. I noticed that he smelt heavily of liquor, I said nothing at the moment because as there were a number of other ranks present. At this time we left the canteen and went upstairs to see that the Billiard Room was closed, on investigation there I found the Billiard Room still open. I inquired who was in charge and instructed him to clear the room immediately. Sgt Thompson stepped forward and informed the man that he was under open arrest. When he wastaking down the man's name and number, I noticed that he was very unsteady and seemed to have difficulty in writing. I realised at this point that Sgt. Thompson was incapable of carrying on with duties of Orderly Sgt. and there were still some other ranks present I said nothing and we left the building together and proceeded to the Unit Orderly Room. On the way to the Orderly Room I decided to go into the kitchen, Men's "A" Mess, to get Sgt. Thompson something hot to drink. Shortly after entering the kitchen Sgt. Thompson leaned against one of the tables and upset the contents on the floor. I immediately left with and proceeded across the Parade Square in the direction of the Unit Orderly Room. On the way there he was walking very unsteady and on several occasions stumbled. When I arrived at the Orderly Room I saw him into the Orderly Room and then went out to get the Sgt. of the Guard, whom I instructed to accompany me to the Orderly Room, where I placed Sgt. Thompson under close arrest. And In company with the Guard Sgt. accompanied him to his quarters, where I detailed Sgt. Seaton to act as his escort.

Cross Examined by the Defending Officer

Q. In your opinion was Sgt. Thompson incapable of carrying out his duties?

A. Yes.

Q. Mr. Bird, when was the last time you saw the accused?

A. At 1800 hrs 27 Feb 43.

Q. And at that time did he appear sober to you?

A. Yes.

Q. The accused got drunk you believe on liquor between 1800 hrs and 2130 hrs?

A. Yes.

Q. But he told you where he was going when he left?

A. Yes

Q. What sort of duties was he to perform before 2100 hrs?

A. No set duties as far as I was concerned.

Q. Was he in to inspect the blackouts?

A. Yes.

Q. What did you do after the N.A.A.F.I. was closed?

A. We usually went in to Men's "A" Mess and the Guard House.

Q. Is the kitchen a duty?

A. Yes.

Q. And what had to be done at the Unit Guard House?

A. Nothing more than to sign and ensure that all prisoners were bedded down for the night and that there were no complaints.

Q. And in the bar was Sgt. Thompson standing or sitting?

A. He was standing.

Q. He was not drinking at the time?

A. No, definitely not.

Q. What became of Cpl. Fleck?

A. When I went to the N.A.A.F.I. and saw Sgt. Thompson I dismissed Cpl. Fleck as it was his night off and Sgt. Thompson was to stay at the Orderly Room.

Q. Do you consider that Sgt. Thompson performed his duties in the N.A.A.F.I.?

A. He made his rounds but the fact remained that he was very unsteady on his feet.

Q. Was there lunch prepared for the Orderly Officer at the kitchen?

A. No.

Q. How long have you been Orderly Officer?

A. All the week in question.

Q. Where was Sgt. Thompson walking with you on the Parade Ground?

A. On the left.

Q. Could this table in the kitchen be upset by a sober man in the same manner as Sgt. Thompson upset it?

A. I do not think a sober man would lean on it like he did.

Q. Would you mind explaining how he upset the table?

A. He sat upon one end of the table causing the top to raise up and therefore upset it.

Q. Could a sober man have a similar accident?

A. I believe it possible.

Q. What duties are there for the Orderly Sgt at the Guard Room?

A. To check to see that all lights not in use are extinguished at 2300 hrs and shortly after that the Orderly Sgts job is to receive all the Tattoo Reports from the Wings.

It is the ruling of the Court that in the presence of a shorthand writer R.F. 83 (B) need not be complied with.

SECOND WITNESS
For the Prosecution

K.37891 Sgt. Brook, H.G., 28 C.A.R.(BCR) on the strength of No. 3 C.A.C.R.U., a soldier of the C.A.O., having been duly sworn (R.P.82), is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q. Were you Sgt of the Guard 27 Feb 43?

A. Yes.

Q. In your opinion had Sgt. Thompson been drinking?

A. Yes.

Q. Was Sgt. Thompson, in your opinion, incapable of carrying out his duties due to the fact that he was under the influence of liquor?

A. Yes.

Cross Examined by the Defending Officer

Describe the state of Sgt. Thompson.

A. When we entered the Orderly Room, he was sitting at a desk writing and he had the appearance of someone that had been drinking. We entered the Orderly Room and Sgt. Thompson was informed that he would be placed under arrest for being drunk on duty. He had his tunic off at the time when he was informed of the circumstances he said 'thank you', and proceed to write in his book which afterwards he asked Lieut. Bird to sign. We then proceeded across the Parade Square a and took Sgt. Thompson to his quarters.

Q. Have you ever seen Sgt. Thompson before?

A. No.

Q. Have you ever seen Sgt. Thompson write before?

A. No.

Q. Did he have any difficulty in finding his quarters.

A. No.

Q. What quarters is Sgt. Thompson living in?

A. No.5 Bermuda.

Q. How did Sgt. Thompson walk to his Quarters?

A. Very quickly.

Q. Is it not possible that Sgt. Thompson is a quick walker?

A. Yes.

Q. When he was taken to his billets that meant that he had been placed under close arrest?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you know anything about close and open arrest?

A. No, Sir.

Q. You were the Sgt. of the guard 27 Feb 43?

A. Yes, my normal duties are of S.Q.M.S. I am not aquainted with the procedure in that case.

It is the ruling of the Court that in the presence of a shorthand writer R.P. 83 (B) need not be complied with.

THIRD WITNESS for the Prosecution

G.662 Tpr. Doherty, J. on the strength of No. 3 C.A.C.R.U., a soldier of the C.A.O., having been duly sworn (R.P. 82), is examined by the prosecutor.

Q. Tpr. Doherty did you see Sgt. Thompson in the N.A.A.F.I. about 2130 hours?

A. Yes.

Q. Would you say that Sgt. Thompson had been drinking?

A. Yes.

Q. And in your opinion did Sgt. Thompson appear to be drunk under the influence of liquor?

A. Yes.

Cross Examined by the Defending Officer

Q. Tpr. Doherty did you see Sgt. Thompson have a drink?

A. No.

Q. What makes you say that he was drunk?

A. The way he was carrying himself and the look of him.

Q. Do you know Sgt. Thompson?

A. Yes.

Q. How was he carrying himself?

A. Not in his usual manner.

Re-examined by the Prosecutor

Q. How long have you been on Regimental Police?

A. Five weeks.

Q. Have you known a great many to be drunk in the unit?

A. No.

Q. How long have you been in camp?

A. Ten months.

Q. Have you seen many chaps who were largely under the influence of liquor, and how can you tell?

A. I can judge a man when he is under the influence of liquor.

It is the ruling of the Court that in the presence of a shorthand writer R.P. 83 (B) need not be complied with.

FORTH WITNESS For the Prosecution

M.36173 L/Cpl. Jacobs, J.B. on the strength of No.3 C.A.C. R.U., a soldier of the C.A.C., having been duly sworn (R.P. 82), is examined by the prosecutor:

Q. L/Cpl. Jacobs, you wereon duty in Men's "A" Mess on 27 Feb 43?

A. Yes.

Q. You are the night cook?

A. Yes.

Q. Wil you try to tell what happened when Sgt. Thompson and Lieut. Bird came into the kitchen?

A. Yes, Lieut. Bird and Sgt. Thompson came into the kitchen as they generally did the nights they were on duty. I prepared them a lunch of tea and sandwiches and set it on the table. After I had set it on the table, Sgt. Thompson in his unsteady condition leaned against it and upset it and the contents on the floor.

Q. Did you notice anything peculiar when Sgt. Thompson came into the kitchen?

A. Well I thought he was in an unsteady condition.

Q. Was he walking straight or unsteady?

A. Not as steady as could be.

Q. You state in your statement, in an unsteady condition, what do you mean?

A. He had a little stagger.

Q. How long have you known Sgt. Thompson?

A. A year.

Q. Did you know him well enough to know when he was under the influence of liquor?

A. Yes.

Q. By his actions did you know he was under the influence of liquor?

A. Yes.

Cross Examined by the Defending Officer

Q. L/Cpl. Jacobs, in youropinion could this table be upset by a sober man?

A. Yes.

Q. In the same manner?

A. Yes

Q. Did Sgt. Thompson's actions appear if he had been drinking?

A. Yes.

It is the ruling of the Court that in the presence of a shorthand writer(R.P. 83) need not be complied with

FIFTH WITNESS For the Prosecution - L.54822 Tpr. Buckner, T.P. on the strength of No. 3 C.A.C.R.U., a soldier of the C.A.O., having been duly sworn (R.P. 82), is examined by the prosecutor:

Q. Tpr. Buckner, do you know Sgt. Thompson?

A. Yes.

Q. Explain what happened on the night of 27 Feb 43?

A. Sgt. Thompson came into the Billiard Room at about 2145 hrs, Saturday night the 27 Feb 43, ordered the room to attention and asked who was in charge. I informed his that I was in charge of the room and he took my name and number and told me to consider myself under open arrest. I then accompanied the Orderly Sgt. to the library to lock it up and when we got there, there were still some chaps there, I was then asked who was in charge of the library and I told him that I was in charge of there also and he told me to consider myself on another charge. I then locked up the library at approximately 2150 hrs, when I left.

Q. Did Sgt. Thompson appear to be drunk?

A. No.

Q. As you say in your statement, would you say that Sgt. Thompson had been drinking?

A. Yes.

Q. In your own opinion did Sgt. Thompson appear to have been drinking?

A. Yes.

Cross.Examined by the Defending Officer

Q. What time does the Billiard Room close?

A. We were told to close the Billiard Room if the games were finished by 2110 hrs or after.

Q. Are there orders posted in the Billiard Room?

A. I am not sure.

Q. Do you recall in the Summary of Evidence you stated that there was a sign on the door stating the Billiard Room would close at 2130 hrs.

A. Yes.

Q. In your own opinion had Sgt. Thompson been drinking?

A. Yes.

It is the ruling of the Court that in the presence of a shorthand writer (R.P. 83 (B)) need not be complied with.

The Prosecution is closed.

By the President to the accused:

"Do you wish to give evidence on oath or do you wish to make a statement not on oath? You do not have to do either. If you elect to give evidence on oath, you are liable to cross-examination as any other witness. If you make a statement you will not be sworn and you will not be cross-examined, nor will you be obliged to answer any questions. Evidence on oath carries more weight than a statement. If you make a statement it will be taken down in writing and will be given due consideration."

Q. Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness?

A. Yes, Sir (R.P.40(A)), on oath.

Q. Do you intend to call any other witnesses on your behalf?

A. Yes, Sir,

Q. Are there witnesses as to facts or as to character or both?

A. Witnesses as to fact.

THE ACCUSED

B.4520 Sgt. Thompson, V.R. on the strenght of No. 3 C.A.C.R.U., having been duly sworn, states as follows:

At 1800 hrs the guard was mounted and then the Orderly Officer and I proceeded across the parade square to the Orderly Room. At approximately 1630 hrs I sent a note to the Cpl. of the A.A. posts that we would not make our inspection of his posts at 1715 hrs but at 1845 hrs. The Orderly Officer was in one half of the room, I was in the other and I asked him if he was going to inspect the posts, he said not as the ~~XXX~~ duty officer had not yet come on duty. It being time for Blackout I started on my tour of blackouts. I completed my tour of blackouts at about 2015 hrs. Then I went directly to my quarters and wrote a letter and brought it to the Sgts. Mess to be posted. Between 2045 hrs and 2050 hrs, while in the Mess I met Sgt. deVries standing at the bar and I had a bottle of beer. While I was having the bottle Of beer, R.Q.M.S. Goldie and S.Q.M.S Ashley came in. We each had a Scotch, each of us paying a round. At approximately 2115 hrs I left the mess and went to meet the Orderly Officer at the N.A.A.F.I. I was a few minutes late arriving at the N.A.A.F.I. I waited in the Cpls. side of the N.A.A.F.I. and when I entered there it was a few minutes before 2130 hrs. I proceeded then to the men's part of the N.A.A.F.I. and walked into the bar, there was a few remaining there and the Provost seemed to have the bar in hand, I then left and went back to the Cpls. side of the N.A.A.F.I. and was there a few minutes when Lieut. Bird and Cpl. Fleck came in and I explained why I had not met him at the Orderly Room.

The tea room was cleared and we proceeded upstairs to theBilliard Room. The Billiard Roomand the library were open at the time and the time was exactly 2140 hrs. Lieut. Bird asked who was in charge of the room and he was told by Tpr. Buckner that he was. Lieut. Bird then told the Troopers in the room to clear out and I placed Tpr. Buckner under open arrest for having the Billiard Room open 12 minutes past time. We then went to the library, the time was 2150 hrs. There were two or three persons in the library and I told Tpr. Buckner to get them out and to consider himself on another charge. Lieut. Bird and I then left there and proceeded to the Orderly Room stopping on the way at Men's "A" Mess to get a cup of tea or some lunch as we had time. While there I accidently upset a table and its contents on the floor. Lieut. Bird and I then left and proceeded across the Parade Square to the Unit Orderly Room. On reaching there Lieut. Bird did not enter and I went in to make out my report. After awhile Lieut. Bird and the Sgt of the Guard came in and said that they were taking me to my quarters. It seemd rather odd to me but I said nothing and just wrote down in my book that my duties were turned over to Cpl. Fleck at 2230 hrs and had Lieut. Bird sign it and proceeded to my quarters there I remained in close arrest until Monday at 1130 hrs.

Q. Do you think he was fit to carry out his duties as Orderly Sgt.?

A. Yes.

It is the ruling of the Court that in the presence of a shorthand writer (R.P. 82(3)) need not be complied with

The Defending Officer Makes The Following Final Address.

Gentlemen,

As I see this case it is a matter of opinion and I would like to point out that while you may find Sgt. Thompson had something to drink while he was Orderly Sgt., it must be proven that he was incapable of carry ing out his duties. I would like to point out that Sgt. Brooks of the Guard, while he states that he considered Sgt. Thompson incapable of carrying on as Orderly Sgt., he also stated that he considered not man enough to carry on as Orderly Sgt. while he had a drink. I would like to point that while Lieut. Bird said that he considered Sgt. Thompson incapable of carrying out his duties he dismissed Cpl. Fleck at the N.A.A.F.I. when he found Sgt. Thompson and carried on with Sgt. Thompson. There was nothing wrong when he went upstairs and told Tpr. Buckner he was under open arrest, it was for a good cause. The fact that the table was upset in Men's "A" Mess proved nothing. I would like to point out that Tpr. Buckner, one of the witnesses, for the prosecution said that Sgt Thompson was under the influence of liquor. I would like to point out that Lieut. Bird considered Sgt. Thompson fit to finish his rounds in the N.A.A.F.I. and he must have also considered him fit until required to go to the Guard Room. I leave with you the fact that the majority of persons who had anything to do with Sgt. Thompson that evening were of the opinion that Sgt. Thompson was quite sober and able to carry on with his duties.

The Prosecuting Officer Makes The Following Closing address.

I would like to point out that the Orderly Officer is the man to judge whether or not the Orderly Sgt. is able to carry out his duties in a satisfactory manner.

I would like to point out that the witnesses for the defence did not see Sgt. Thompson performing any of his duties after leaving the Sgt's Mess. I would also like to point out that my witness, L/Cpl. Jacobs, has known Sgt. Thompson for a year and has seen him every day and knows whether or not Sgt. Thompson was normal on that night. He has seen Sgt. Thompson on several previous nights in the mess and stated that he was not normal on the night of 27 Feb 43 and known Sgt. Thompson as well as he does, stated that Sgt. Thompson was definitely under the influence of liquor.

Judging from Sgt. Thompson actions the Orderly Officer stated that Sgt. Thompson was not capable of performing his duties as Orderly Sgt. which is the most important N.C.O. in the camp and he had to replace him. The point the defence brought out about dismissing the Orderly Cpl. would be the natural thing to do after finding Sgt. Thompson.

After finding Sgt. Thompson was not capable of carrying out his duties in a proper manner he laid the charge which is before the court.

The Court is closed for consideration of the Finding (R.P.43).

The Court find that the accused B.4520 Sgt. Thompson, V.R., No. 3 C.A.C.R.U.: Guilty.

Rank G.G.P.S. No 3 C.A.C.R.U. being duly sworn produces certificate AFB 296 and MFM 6 and upon being questioned by the Court states that the accused is the person named in these documents. No cross examination. Above documents read signed by the President and attached to the proceedings

The Reporting Officer Rank L.M. Hanning makes a statement in mitigation of Punishment

Sgt. Thomson V.R. has been employed as Mess Sgt. for five years and has only recently been placed on Regimental Duties therefore he is not aware of all the duties and importance of the Orderly Sgt.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

(Accused present at Summary)
(when evidence of witnesses)
(taken down in writing)

NO. 3 CANADIAN ARMOURED CORPS REINFORCEMENT UNIT, Dettingen Barracks,
3 Mar 43.

Summary of evidence in the case of B-4520 Sgt. Thompson, V.R., No. 3 Canadian Armoured Corps Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the summary of evidence is taken under oath.

FIRST WITNESS
For the Prosecution.

Lieut. T.B.W. Bird, on the strength of No. 3 Canadian Armoured Corps Reinforcement Unit, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states as follows:

Q. On 27 Feb 43, were you Orderly Officer and acting in this capacity?

A. Yes.

Q. Will you give such evidence as you have in this case?

B-4520 Sgt. Thompson, V.R., was to meet me at the Unit Orderly Room at 2100 hrs., prior to proceeding on our night rounds. I waited until 2130 hrs., at which time he had not put in an appearance and I detailed the Orderly Corporal, K-998 Cpl. Fleck, W.P., to accompany me and we proceeded on our night rounds. The N.A.A.F.I. Canteen was our first visit. On arriving there at approximately 2135 hrs., I found Sgt. Thompson standing in the bar, when he saw me he approached and informed me that he had come directly to see that the N.A.A.F.I. was closed up. I noticed that he smelled heavily of liquor and that his speech was halting. I said nothing at the time as there were a number of other ranks passing us on their way out, we left the tea room and I went upstairs, Sgt. Thompson following me, on investigation I found the billiard room still open and a number of other ranks still playing on the tables. I inquired who was in charge and instructed him to clear the room immediately, at this point Sgt. Thompson stepped forward and informed the Trooper that he should consider himself under open arrest, he had great difficulty in writing down the man's name and number and appeared unsteady on his feet. I realized at this point that Sgt. Thompson was not capable of carrying on his duties as Orderly Sergeant. I still said nothing as we were still in the presence of other ranks and we left the building together and proceeded to the Unit Orderly Room. On the way back I decided to take Sgt. Thompson into "A" Mess kitchen and get him something hot to drink, shortly after we entered the kitchen Sgt. Thompson leaned against one of the tables and in his unsteady condition upset it and its contents on to the floor. I immediately left with him and proceeded across the Unit Parade ground in the direction of the Unit Orderly Room. He was unable to walk straight and tripped on several occasions, on arrival I saw him into the Orderly Room and I went for the Sergeant of the Guard. I ordered the Sergeant to accompany me and we proceeded back to the Orderly Room where I placed Sgt. Thompson under close arrest. With the Guard Sergeant, Sgt. Brooke, H.J., I accompanied him to his quarters where I detailed Sgt. Seaton to act as escort.

Had definite arrangements been made between you and Sgt. Thompson to meet at 2100 hrs, at a definite place?

Yes.

Up to 1800 hrs, at the time of these arrangements had Sgt. Thompson performed his duties in the proper manner and did he appear to have had anything to drink at this time?

He had performed his duties unquestionably and in my opinion appeared to have had nothing to drink.

The Accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

W.T. Bird Lieut.
W.T. Bird (Lieut.)

SECOND WITNESS For the prosecution. K-37891 Sgt. Brooke, H.J. 26 CAR (BCR) on strength 3 CACRU., a soldier of the C.A.O., having been duly sworn states:

Q. Will you give such evidence as you have in this case?

A. I am K-37891 Sgt. Brooke, H.J., I was acting as Sgt. of the Guard 27 Feb 43. Around or about 2230 hrs., I was called from the Guard Room by the Orderly Officer, Lieut. W.T.B. Bird, who at the time informed me that we had an unpleasant duty to perform. I accompanied the Orderly Officer to the Unit Orderly Room where he placed Sgt. Thompson under close arrest, charged with being drunk in the performance of his duties. The Orderly Officer and myself escorted Sgt. Thompson to his billets. The Orderly Officer then detailed a Sgt. to be escort of the accused.

Q. Did the accused Sgt. Thompson appear under the influence of liquor?

A. He had been drinking.

Q. Would you say he was incapable of performing his duties in the proper manner?

A. I do not believe he could have carried out his duties in the proper manner.

The accused stated he wished to cross examine the witness.

ACCUSED: Did I have difficulty in locating my quarters Sgt. Brooke?

No.

How did I walk from the Orderly Room to my quarters?

Walked very quickly.

H.J. Brooke
K-37891 Sgt. Brooke, H.J.

THIRD WITNESS
For the prosecution.

G-662 Tpr. Doherty, J., on the strength of No. 3 Canadian Armoured Corps Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states as follows:

I am G-662 Tpr. Doherty, J., employed in the Regimental Police at No. 3 C.A.C.R.U. I and another Trooper were making our nightly rounds at closing time, 2130 hrs., and we were in the Men's bar and we found a few men still in there. While we were there Sgt. Thompson came in and he questioned us as to what we were doing there. We explained our duties to him. He appeared satisfied with our explanation and carried on.

Q. Did Sgt. Thompson appear to have been drinking?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. In your opinion did Sgt. Thompson appear to be under the influence of liquor?

A. Yes, sir.

The Accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

J Doherty
G-662 Tpr. Doherty, J.

FOURTH WITNESS
For the prosecution.

L-54822 Tpr. Buchner, T.P., on the strength of No. 3 Canadian Armoured Corps Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn states as follows:

I am L-54822 Tpr. Buchner, T.P. At about 2145 hrs., 27 Feb 43., Sgt. Thompson and the Orderly Officer came up to the billiard room and Sgt. Thompson ordered the room to attention and asked who was in charge of the billiard room. I informed the Orderly Sgt., I was in charge of the billiard room and he took my name and number and told me to consider myself under open arrest until Monday morning. After placing the covers on the billiard tables I accompanied the Orderly Sgt., to the library in order to lock it up, then I was asked who was in charge of the library, I informed him that I was in charge of the library also. Sgt. Thompson informed me I would be placed on another charge. The time was now 2150 hrs. Sgt. Thompson then left me.

Q. Would you say that Sgt. Thompson had been drinking?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did Sgt. Thompson's actions appear out of the ordinary?

A. No, sir.

Witness cross-examined by the accused.

Q. Is there not a sign on the door at the N.A.A.F.I. stating the doors will close at 2130 hrs?

A. Yes, there is.

L-54822 Tpr. Buchner, L.

The Accused was cautioned as follows: "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on Oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence, unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

(The Accused elects to give evidence on oath)

The Accused No. B-4520 Sgt. Thompson, V.R., on the strength of No. 3 Canadian Armoured Corps Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas states as follows:

I finished blackout patrol at approximately 2015 hrs., as I had no other duty to perform until 2100 hrs. with the Orderly Officer I went to my quarters wrote a letter and appeared at the Sergeants Mess at approximately 2050 hrs. prior to that I had not been drinking. While in the Sergeants Mess I can remember not having any more than three scotch single whiskys and a bottle of beer. It was 2110 hrs and knowing that I was to meet the Orderly Officer and was ten minutes late already decided it was best to go direct to the N.A.A.F.I., that being the first visit of our night round, this would explain why I did not meet the Orderly Officer at the appointed place. With these few drinks that I already had ~~and~~ I still felt quite normal and quite capable of carrying on for the remainder of the evening with my duties.

QUESTION TO THE ACCUSED

Do you wish to call any witness on your behalf?

ANSWER BY THE ACCUSED

No, sir.

President : Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (a) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ~~ALL~~ CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans No .....(1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) ~~(no)~~ opening address.(1)

(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the 1st, 2nd Charges charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the 1st & 2nd charge(s), ~~and allowed on the charge(s)~~, and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed ~~on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)~~

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)

NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?

Ans Give evidence of a witness ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?

Ans No . ~~Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans~~

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court ~~is~~ (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.

(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1) of the Court on the 1st charge(s).

~~On the President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)~~

(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below. See written record for Proceedings on Third & Fourth charges.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)

Ans No .

(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement~~s~~ as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true ~~copy (copies)~~ of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex P and Ex Q respectively.(3)

1. Submission by Defending Officer under R.P. 62 (2).

4 Charges: 1st, 2nd are alternative arising out of same circumstances.

3. 4 Charges have no relation to the first two charges or to each other. Any Evidence heard of them will be of no assistance to Court in determining the result of any other charges.

Rule is one of convenience.

No loss of time if tried separately.

If tried together, defence might be embarrassed in that Defence might desire to call accused on one charge & not on the others.

Request separate trials on 3rd & 4th charges: 1st, 2nd together.

Submission by Prosecutor

I leave matter to Court to decide whether they desire to try charges separately or together.

Opening address by Prosecuting Officer

First Charge. Definition of Uttering.

Here NAAFI Invoice uttered.

8 Feb. 44 accused gave Clerk & Sgt Rothard knowing it to be forged & with intent to defraud, in that petty cash used for chocolates etc £ which Rum never received.

Second Charge will be clear in evidence.

First witness for the Prosecution

B 63598 A/CPO Rothard R.M. sworn states:-

But. in Feby & 13 March 44. I was Secretary - Treasurer of Advance HQ Sergeants Mess 2nd Canadian Army. I recognise accused as Trooper Thompson who at that time was Mess Steward of my Mess. He was then Sgt. Thompson. At that time he was in possession of £5 change fund & £5 petty cash, which was used for incidental expenses such as transportation in emergency purchases. Sometimes he would use the petty cash for NAAFI purchases. If he did then he would receive the goods, with an invoice & receipt dated the same day. Such invoice & receipt would be given to me. The accused was already Paid Steward when I took over my duties & he ceased to be Paid Steward on 8 Feb. 44. On this day he proceeded on 14 days pending leave. Before he left I checked over bar stock & stock book with him, checked the change fund, which was correct, & received from him £1.11.10 & stock cash, & a chit for 2/0 covering purchase of newspapers, & an invoice & receipt from NAAFI for £3.6.2. This made £5 petty cash.

I now produce (Ex. A & B) Invoice E 61757 for £3.6.2 & Receipt B 149631 for same sum. These I received from accused on 8 Feby. & made up £5 petty cash fund.

If I had not received this invoice & receipt as part of petty cash the petty cash would have been deficient & the sum of £3.6.2

Accused returned on 22 Feb. 44 but did not resume his duties. The Mess Accounts were checked on 6 March 44 with Sgt O'Neeley. On checking out Stores, purchases were checked against invoices & bank cheques. While doing this, we came upon NAAFI bill, receipt Ex. A & B, & found that the £ s. d. of invoice differed from that in receipt. Receipt date was 26 October 43 : invoice date (apparently) 7 Feb. 44.

Book 1 receipt should be dated some day.

When purchases are made for the Mess, they are entered in the Stock Book. I have checked the Stock Book for the month of February 44: the separate pages of this Book were produced to me at different times by the accused for initialling, came from his custody. I made many items also to be in his handwriting. I produce Book Ex C. During Feb. 44 there were only 3 purchases of chocolates, matches, cigarettes. We then checked entries, receipts, cheques, found. All these three purchases could be covered by cheques without taking into account the entries for £3.6.2. I produce Ex. D, entries cheques covering purchases in Feb. items of which in Stock Book are in accused's handwriting. I produce Ex. E entries, receipt for purchases on 12 Feb. I produce Ex F. entries, receipt for similar purchases on 1 Feb. 44. The entries Ex. D, F are signed by accused. Entries Ex E. is signed by Sgt. McNulty.

The purchases shown on Entries E 61757 were chocolate, cigarettes, matches. Our deficit should be in Feb. 44 the Mess had paid £3.6.2, not received the or any sums [illegible] been made to the Bar by Mr Thompson.

Cross-examined.

Petty cash £5 was [illegible] before I arrived.
It was custom. We had a cash book which covered all transactions, kept by Secretary-Treasurer.
When Steward made a payment, he reported it to me. He had keys to the Bar. Bills were filed generally in a box in the Bar. I think others not. Bills were in file[d] [illegible] Case. Other bills could have been put in. On 8 Feb. this account was not in hurry to get away. I came to Rim for check. He produced the vouchers. He had it all ready for me. I cannot recollect exactly what occurred. I was certainly handed £1.11.10 in cash & two vouchers. I [illegible] checked to see sum of £5 made up. I cannot remember whether it in case I or [illegible] who said the balance owing petty cash was £1.11.10
There is nothing on [illegible] to show payment to B.A.A.F.I. Receipt shows this. Ex B. I was mistaken at the time. I did not check bills or 8 Feb. 44. If I had been disappointed I would have enquired into the matter. I also then received Stock Book Sheets from accused up to 7 Feb. 44. Nothing on these sheets to indicate Ex. A. Had I been notified I would not have been misled.

No Re-examination

By Court

The signature on Ex. A. is that of accused. I had had daily checkings up to 8 Feb. 44 with accused, but the date on first items I had had a general check with him.

On 1 Feb. 44 when I became Secretary-Treasurer I drew the £5 change fund, the £5 petty cash in possession of accused. The accused was responsible to me. No receipt was given by me to accused on 8 Feb. 44 for amount handed over to me. I was satisfied at the time. Exhibits A, B were produced together when I received them from Thompson, receipt a bit of service. When he handed them to me, they came from his pocket. The change fund has been + Court is to table.

H.M.

but everything he gave me to make up to petty cash.

cash came from his pocket
Thought he knew of record of Ordinary Office.

I have seen Thompson's signature [illegible] often.
I have seen him write his name in my presence.

As far as I know the accused has never been authorised to pay back £3.6.2 to the Mess.

By the Court

There was several deposits things like newspapers which was specifically authorised to come out of petty cash. If it was necessary to purchase cigarettes or chocolate from NAAFI, he would be authorised to pay cash out of petty cash, if he had not been given a cheque to cover the purchase. If not I do Sending. Treasurer who would give the authority.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

1st Witness for the Prosecution

George William Kerridge. 18 c. Hamlet Road, Dorking.
sworn states:-

I am cashier at West Humble, Dorking, NAAFI.
I recognise Ex. A as bill to 11th Canadian Army for £3.6.2 in respect of chocolates, cigarettes & matches.
I also recognise Ex. B. as NAAFI receipt, upon which my signature appears. This means that I took the money

1 Jenkins, J.B.C. No 2.

I have traced the duplicate of Ex A. of 61757 service through the NAAFI books & now produce it. Ex. G. I am quite certain that Ex. G is the duplicate of Ex. A. Ex. A has been altered in signature & date. The date of the original transaction was 26 October 1943. The same number could not be given to a different duplicate. The receipt Ex. B. is connected with Ex. A. by the date & particulars thereon.

Cross-examined

I did not make out Ex A. but I think I know who did. It was done through E in for payment. I received J.B.C.2. Carbon duplicate is made out with original service. No further charges could be made. I worked out amount of discount & therefore from this discount on original service. The alteration in the discount. No charge could be made in date in our office. I keep the old books. Bill is handed to man who draws goods. If it was altered after being handed to the man, it would not be shown on the carbon duplicate. I could not answer to what happened 6 months ago. I cannot say [illegible] Smith.

alterations were made, but I say it was after it left my hands. Ex B has not been altered.

By the Court

I took the date & particulars of Ex B but as Ex B. from the date & particulars in Ex A as it came to hands to me, namely 28 Oct. 45.
It is not possible to get goods without the receipt. I might put in the date of the receipt from my own knowledge of the day's date without looking at the date on the carriers. If a dispute not connected to my act I would accurately get the date from the carriers

R.P. 53(b) complied with.

No. B. 4520 Trooper Thompson, V.R. sworn states:-

On 8 Feb. 44 I was to go on Guard at midday & the morning checking of Box inventory, cash on hand, sales, petty cash took place in the morning. We first checked inventory. we both agree that it was in order. We then checked sales of previous day. This also in order. Cash changed hand was checked & found in order

KMC.

Lastly we checked the petty cash which originally consisted of £5. As S/Sgt Rapkins kept the cash book, petty cash expenditures I was not in a position to recommend advice to him what the petty cash consisted of. I gave him an invoice for papers I took 2/- from cash & a NAAFI invoice with my signature on it. He totalled the sum up & I paid the balance of £5. In our both notebooks & for the two being. After I had gone through my books I found S/Sgt Rapkins a NAAFI indent which I had been using as a NAAFI indent. I had it down for £3.4.2. I then within a few hours afterwards left I was in possession of the money belonging to the Sergeants Mess. I handed to corporal Rapkins, was informed that he had gone to 2nd Echelon, would not be back for remainder of day. I put the money in safe custody in a strong box in my room, proceeded on leave. When I returned from leave, for some reason unknown to me I had been dismissed from [illegible] my position as Mess Steward as from 8 Feb. 46. No explanation was given me as to why I was dismissed & in my own mind I immediately established the idea that

Re account of the money I owed the Sgts Mess. ~~[illegible]~~ Jack. We at one time went on a scheme, I never took the money with me. It remained in the strong box in the barracks. I did not see Raphael while on the scheme. Had the Mess or Secretary asked me at any time for the money I would only have been too willing to produce the £3 and hand it to the Mess.

The matter as to the £5 was that I was given the money to use as petty expenditure. I had the authority to spend it on any merchandise needed for the Mess. When a expenditure was made from the petty cash the voucher was handed in, the petty cash brought back to £5. Receipts were kept by Raphael. Exhibits A & B were carried by me since 17 January 44 when I took up duties of Mess Steward. I was told by A as an indent for what I should draw; as a guide to amount. The goods on this invoice were taken from NAAFI on 4 Feb. 44. Such goods were purchased up. to Stock Sheets for that date.

The dt. 4 Feb. 46 was given to me by myself in Ex. A in Court. I was in possession of it. I more than likely did so. I knew the writer was an old one. The writer was in the Car in the Rec when I took over & had him in my pocket since 17 Jany. Then I made my first purchase for the Rec. The documents left my possession when I went on leave. I gave them to Jack. Sgt Pritchard took possession of them. The signature on Ex B. is mine. I put it on when I took possession of the bill originally, because I was not running round with these bills in my pocket.

Cross-examined

Knowledge of details of petty cash was not responsibility. As ten bills was normally in my custody. On 5 Feb. 46 petty cash was in my pocket. I did not always keep it up. It was in my pocket with my own money. It was my responsibility.

No re-examination

By Court

I found out the mistake about 16 or 17 Feb in B Troop & returned to Headquarters Court but could not find

Rafter. I did not speak to anyone else re leave nor for him. I did not write during my 14 days leave. I have not told anyone until today. I have not told anyone as I have not spoken to anyone re been interviewed by any one over rank? Sgt. I have been interviewed by a S.I.B. Sgt. The box I mentioned is in the possession? Sgt Maj- Barnes. It is not here today. I handed Sgt Rafter Ex. A & B but it was by accident. I agree Ex. A. has been altered. It was used as a precedent. By putting my signature it only made no difference to it as was on each. Ex. D was for signature. 4 Feby. 44. Between 17 January 44 & 4 Feb. 44 I made partially note of cost?
on 4 trips to NAAFI. receipts given will show same, receipt. I altered the date on Ex A during time. I agree it was my duty to see the FS petty cash was handed over for safe custody & accounted for. Then I went on leave on 8
Feb. 44.

5th. Witness for the Prosecution

A. 1913 Sgt. Sutherst, R.S. No I. Special Investigation Section 1st Canadian Army, sworn states:

On 24 Feb. 44 I interviewed the accused when I recognise. I searched him & found in his possession 2 documents, one relating to a purchase from Rosses Knowlands Bros. of London. I produce this document Ex. J. Which is comprised of an Order form & Receipted Invoice. The other document Ex. K. is a Memorandum from W. & B. Gilbey Ltd of London, bearing the accused signature. I cautioned the accused & asked him whether he wished to account for these two documents. He told me that he had bought 18 bottles of gin at a total cost of £22; 6 on 14 Feb. 44 at 3 49 at W.H.A. Gillespy. He said that the gun was taken to an address of some people called O'Williams at 2 Hanover Court Shepherds Bush where he had stayed during his leave & when the gun had been unscrewed. He further stated that O'Williams had contributed £4 towards the cost of the gun.

As a result of further enquiries I saw accused again on 25 Feb. 44 & I told him that enquiries had been made at 2 Hanover Court Shepherds Bush

At this stage Defending Officer stated he proposed to object to admissibility of any further evidence & notes of admissions made by accused to this witness. Leave given to cross-examine on question of admissibility.

Cross-examined by Defence, witness states:-

On 25 Feb. I told accused that he was not obliged to say anything unless he wished to do so but that anything he did say might be taken down in writing & may be given in evidence. I think three people were present, two of our office

Defence

B.4530 Trooper Vernon Richard Thompson, HQ 1st Canadian Army, sworn states: —

On 14 Feb. 44 whilst on leave I went to Messrs Gilbey to purchase some spirits from them. I had been to the firm on 4 different occasions before, once on my own behalf, once for Officers Mess HQ 1st Canadian Army, on other occ. for Officers Mess CACRU. No 3. & once for Sgts Mess. I gave addresses, & made purchases for them. I made my acquaintance of Gilbeys London in April 1942

Shortly after my arrival overseas, my introduction was given to me by Mr Hugh Wilson, Kellogg Co New Toronto. On mentioning Mr Wilsons name I had no trouble at any time to purchase spirits from the firm. On 14 Feb. 44 I asked the reception clerk if Mr Norland, Manager of Export Dept. was in, & could I see him. Following a conversation with Mr Norland Mr Trimmer was called, told to let me have a dozen gins. I then approached Mr Norland on the subject of an account for the Sgts Mess 1st Canadian Army, after some debating as to whether it should come from the Export Dept or not, he finally consented to the same. I called back at the afternoon to pick up my purchase, paid Mr Brockton, left.

On 15 Feb. 44 I called at Kinsland Bros. Ltd Waymarket & see if I could get an account for the Sgts Mess HQ First Canadian Army. Kinning Capt. Kinsland, who at one time was a member of the Mess HQ 1st Canad. Army, of which I was the caterer. I was allowed an interview with Mr Kinsland. After a great deal of debating, trying to get an account from them. I was refused but allowed a purchase of 6 bottles of gin. These 6 bottles were originally purchased for the Sergeant Mess.

On previous occasions when I purchased spirits for Messrs Gibbs Bright & Co I went into an Open Depot signed by Mess Treasurer, RMC.

On these occasions I had original authority from the Mess. The Sgts Mess in Jan. 44 gave me authority to purchase spirits on behalf of the Mess when & where I could. This authority was given to me direct by the then Secretary - Treasurer Sgt. Heyland. He told me that I was at any time & could get hold of anything, buy it. I made purchases therefore for the Mess, two in fact in Jan. 44. On 28 Jan. 44 I made a purchase for Sgts Mess of 6 bottles gin from Watney Combe Reid & Co, invoice for which I produce Ex. L. The reason why this invoice is headed "Officers Mess G." is that at this time there was no account vacant, but the Sgts Mess was allowed to purchase by cash on "G" Officers Mess account.

H/SW.

This invoice / goods were delivered to Sgts Mess, taken to the Bar, then I handed the bill to the Secretary-Treasurer. I was told that they had no money to pay for the goods. Consequently the goods being paid for by me were sold over the Bar to members of the Mess at cost. Having got my £6.12.3 back, it was forgotten about.

With regard to profit mentioned in the charge, I deem it unwise to comment that there is no profit in it for anyone. Ex. J shows that I paid Kimbers Bros 25/9 a bottle which is 2/6 more than it can be purchased for at a wine shop. This gin is sold in the Mess at 29/- a bottle, a profit of 3/3 is to be realised per bottle out of this transaction.

Firstly it cost 4/3 cab fare to travel from Shepherds Bush to Haymarket, return trip 8/6. Lunch cost 3/9; a round of drinks to get a introduction to Mr Kimbers cost me 4/6; train fare London - Leatherhead would have cost me 2/10. I fail to see any profit in this transaction.

Cross-examined

By instruction was to buy the gin at Kwanbura for the Mess at cost & not to exceed £ 1 per gallon. Was told how much they would have paid it for. The 12 bottles purchased from Gibbys was not bought on behalf of the Mess. I asked Mr Norton during an conversation whether I could open an account for the Mess but I had already made my purchase of spirits that day.

No re-examination

By the Court

I sold 6 bottles on one day to American soldiers & further known - made for 30/- a bottle

Of the other 12 bottles at least 6 were sold in the same way, the others consumed by myself & my friends. I use a uniform, the 6 bottles mentioned first were sold in one transaction. I carried them in a container.

I thought I was entitled to sell the bottles for 30/- each in view of my expenses & trouble. I did not mention any Mess to Mr Franklin. He knew me. I had been there before. I got a Mess Defending Officer addresses the Court.

Not every charge + deal with. Number of incidents alleged. S. 40 very general charge.

K/W

Words like improper ... Lack of authority often give sinister sound to fairly normal conduct. Evidence examined on each point of particulars of charge, submission made that evidence insufficient to establish conduct to prejudice of good order & military discipline.

Prosecutor addresses the Court & submits question of fact for Court to decide.

J.A. sums up.

Importance of regarding S.40 charge as being brought under final section. Onus of proof on prosecution. Course of conduct alleged in Particulars to charge must be established. Also that question even if latter not, conduct would amount to conduct to prejudice etc. In conduct = Particulars = Evidence of Lack of authority to represent Himself as acting for them: fact of representation essential. Particulars established.

Court entitled to make special finding altering wording of particulars but not to re-write charge.

Court closed. Court opens. Finding of Not Guilty announced.

Fourth Charge

Application by Prosecution under RP. 33 (B) for Court to apply to Convening Authority to amend charge by substituting "10 Feb. 46" for "24 Feb. 46". Court adjourned to apply to Convening Authority. Authority has authorised amendment. Court re-opened. Accused arraigned on amended charge. Pleads Not Guilty. Q/F.D.I. CFA 96 other. Acc. No. Prosecutor makes no opening address.

B.4520. Trooper Vernon Richard Thompson. 1st. Pl.

Cautioned Oath sworn states:-

These were empty Ex. N. cards have been in my possession since 10 Feb. 66.

When we first came to England we took over a house. When clearing up, empties were found by a soldier working for me. They had no value for me. I threw them in the office & they remained there. They were given to me in an envelope & remained in the envelope.

240 coupons were given to me in November 43, by Boris Hoffman. I made up a nominal roll of officers & their number & issued the coupons to per man, to make up the mess of one month. When I left Bari on 15 Jan. 44 a nominal roll was left there to be taken to the A.M.F. stores. Bari, Foreword & Nov., Dec., Jan. was Pte. Taylor. The new coupons left are & were issued to officers against signature. I did not carry away any of the 240 coupons.

Cross-examined

I was not being asked about nominal rolls. It was not ready.

Re-examined.

I was a Sergeant when the soldier handed me the coupons which he told me he had found. I later understood the regulations, but did not observe any of them, viz. 2 for mess

I have ben cautioned that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

WBK opp Com

I am the Caterer for the Sgts Mess at 1st Edn Army H.Q., and have ben so employed since about 17 January 44. Prior to this I was Sgt i/c of 'G' Mess, 1st Edn Army H.Q., I held this position from 24 Sept 43, until 16 January 44.

On 7 February 44, I commenced 14 days leave I drew a Railway Warrant from 1st Edn Army H.Q., to Newcastle on Tyne, County of Northumberland. I did not go to Newcastle, but went to London where I stayed throughout my leave. Whilst in London I stayed with some friends, namely Mr & Mrs Mac Williams, at 2 Hanover Court, Shepherds Bush. I did not pay for my board and lodgings.

On 14 February 44, I purchased 12 bottles of Gilbey's Gin from W. & A. Gilbey Ltd. Oval Road, Regents Park, N.W.1. The cost of this gin was £ 13.17.0. I paid for this out of my own pocket. I was able to obtain this gin through the manager of the Grosvenor Hotel, who is a friend of mine. I sold the gin to American Soldiers in Public Houses in the Hammersmith District. I charged them £ 2.10.0 per bottle.

On 15 February 44, I purchased 6 bottles of Gin from Knowland Bros. Wine & Spirit Merchants, of Lotus Chambers, Monks Street, Haymarket. I paid £ 7.16.0 for this gin. I obtained this gin from the manager. I told him Capt Knowland, had stayed at 'G' Mess, where I was Sgt i/c, and I asked him if I could purchase some Spirits from them for the Sgts Mess. After considerable debating he sold me 6 Bottles of Gin. This gin I also sold to American Soldiers in Public Houses in the Hammersmith District for £ 1.10.0 per bottle.

The 153 R.A.F.I. Soap Coupons found in my hut at 1st Edn Army, H.Q. I had given to me roughly eighteen months ago, by a Edn Soldier (ex-Debenhams) to me, at 3 C.A.C.R.U. Brookwood. They are definitely not coupons issued to me by the R.M., 1st Edn Army H.Q., for distribution to Officers and men at 'G' Mess. Whilst I was at 'G' Mess I drew one allotment of Soap Coupons, and I issued these to Officers and men of the Mess during December against signatures. I have never drawn soap coupons from N.A.A.F.I.

I.

The whiskey flask found in my kit I had given to me by a Sgt to Mc Math, about June 1942, at 3 S.A.A.R.U. Sgt Mc Math told me it was from his girl 'Betty'. Inscribed on this flask is a name I presumed was 'Betty', I have never looked close enough at the flask to know otherwise. Sgt Mc Math is now discharged from the Edn Army and last receiving word from him he was then employed at Silverwood's Dairy, Toronto, Canada.

The sandalwood mail and also the mail

The mail found in my kit was given to me to deliver and due to some fault of my own it got mislaid and was not under discovered until found by Sgt Lieutenant of the S.I.S.

The ten silver keys attached to a key ring, found in my kit are the property of a Captain in the A.T.S. These keys were left in my possession on or about the 10 Jan 44, by a A.T.S. driver from 1st Edn Army H.Q., he also gave me a handbag, the keys were in the handbag. I don't know who the driver was, he told me the handbag was found in her car and that he had been sent up to 'G' Mess with it. I know the handbag and its contents belonged to the Capt in the A.T.S., as she had telephoned 'G' Mess enquiring about it. I obtained the address of this Captain from Capt Delaney of 'G' Mess and intended to post the keys to her - she said she would call for the handbag. The keys were lost whilst in my possession and the handbag was still at 'G' Mess when I left on 16 January 1944.

A silver cigarette case found in my possession bearing Regt No 1-77803, I bought from L/Cpl Monow, Batman to Col Beamount, 1st Edn Army H.Q. for 10/-. This would be about November, 1943.

Insofar as the theft of moneys from 'G' Mess on 27 Feb 44 and the money missing from the Sgts Mess 1st Edn Army H.Q. I know nothing about either of these occurrences. There is nothing more that I wish to say. I have read this statement and it is true.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

B.4520 Trooper Vernon Richard Thompson, Headquarters First Canadian Army, is charged with -

FIRST CHARGE
Section 41
Army Act

When on active service, committing a civil offence, that is to say, uttering a forged document, contrary to section 6 (1) of the Forgery Act 1913, in that he in the Field, on 8 Feb 44, uttered a certain forged document purporting to be a Navy, Army and Air Force Institute receipted invoice, No. E61757, for supplies to Advance First Canadian Army HQ on a day in Feb 44, knowing the same to be forged and with intent to defraud.

SECOND CHARGE
(Alternative)
Section 40
Army Act

When on active service, conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in that he in the Field, on or about 8 Feb 44, when, as Mess Steward of Advance HQ Sergeants' Mess of HQ First Canadian Army, it was his duty on proceeding on privilege leave to ensure the safe custody of the petty cash of the said Mess and to account for the sum of £5. to the Sec-Treas. of the said Mess, so negligently performed his duties as to be unable to account for £3-6-2 part of the said sum, thereby causing a loss of the said £3-6-2.

THIRD CHARGE
Section 40
Army Act

When on active service, conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in that he in London on various days between 14 Feb 44 and 24 Feb 44 improperly and without authority represented to Messrs W & R Gilbey Ltd and Messrs Knowland Bros, both wholesale wine and spirit merchants, that he, the accused, was acting on behalf of the Officers' Mess, HQ First Cdn Army and wanted to purchase liquor for the said Mess, and having thereafter purchased from the said firms 18 bottles of gin ostensibly for the use of the said Mess, sold the said bottles to military personnel in public houses at a profit to himself.

FOURTH CHARGE
Section 40
Army Act

When on active service, conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in that he in the Field on 24 Feb 44 was improperly in possession of 153 soap coupons, public property.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence was taken on oath.

First Witness

B63598 A/QMS Raphael, R.M., Headquarters First Cdn Army, having been duly sworn states:

From 1 Feb 44 until 13 Mar 44 I was Secretary-Treasurer of Advance HQ Sgt's Mess, HQ First Cdn Army. At the time of taking over my duties the caterer of the mess was Sgt Thompson, whom I identify as the accused. During the period of his appointment as Mess Steward (16 Jan 44 to 8 Feb 44), he had in his possession £5-0-0 change fund and £5-0-0 petty cash. One of his duties was to make purchases of chocolates, cigarettes, etc. from N.A.A.F.I. On one or two occasions he paid for these purchases from his petty cash. The receipted bill received from N.A.A.F.I., he would turn over to me as part of his petty cash.

On the morning of 8 Feb 44 I checked over the inventory, petty cash, and cash in hand. Everything appeared to be in order. Sgt Thompson, who was going on leave that afternoon, gave me the petty cash consisting of a receipt for two shillings covering purchase of Sunday papers, £1-11-10 in actual cash, and a bill numbered E-61757 and a receipt numbered B-49631 from N.A.A.F.I. in the amount of £3-6-2, both of which I now produce as exhibit "A".

If the above bill and receipt had not been used for petty cash on 8 Feb 44, the Sgt's Mess funds would have been deficient in the amount of £3-6-2.

Sgt Thompson was not allowed to resume his duties as Mess Steward on his return from leave.

On 6 Mar 44, with B72508 Sgt. McNeeley, S.S. of the Accounts Department, I was engaged on the financial statements of the Sgt's Mess for the month of Feb. This necessitated checking of individual bills with entries in cash book. On examination of the NAAFI bill and receipt for £3-6-2, handed in as petty cash by Sgt Thompson to me on 8 Feb 44, I found that the date of the receipt was different from that of the bill. It appeared that the date of the bill had been rubbed out and substituted with another. The date of the bill and receipt should be the same as both are issued at the time of purchase of the goods. The date on the bill in particular is 26 Oct 43. The number of the bill was E61757 and the number of the receipt was B49631.

I now produce the stock book for the month of Feb and the bills, receipts, and checks covering the purchase of chocolates, cigarettes and matches for the month of Feb, marked exhibit "B". After checking over these documents I find that all purchases of chocolates, cigarettes, and matches during the month of Feb are accounted for by bills and receipts and by checks, and that therefore the items shown on the bill numbered E61757 were not received in Feb.

The sum of £3-6-2 that the Sgt's Mess were deficient on 8 Feb 44 has never been refunded by Sgt Thompson.

There are a number of officer's messes at HQ First Canadian Army and no authority could be given to Sgt Thompson to purchase liquor on behalf of any general officer's mess. I personally never gave him any such authority.

B63598 A/QMS Raphael, R.M.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Second Witness B72508 Sgt. McNeeley, S.S., Rear Party, HQ First Cdn Army, having been duly sworn states:-

I am a Sgt in the Accounts Department at Rear HQ. Part of my work is to assist the various messes in First Cdn Army HQ to make up their financial statements.

On 6 Mar 44 I assisted the Treasurer of the Sgt's Mess in making out his financial statement. The Treasurer of the Sgt's Mess was at that time S/Sgt Raphael. On checking the accounts S/Sgt Raphael produced a NAAFI bill showing purchase of goods to the amount of £3-6-2. This bill was handed over to S/Sgt Raphael by Sgt. Thompson, who was formerly the mess caterer for the Sgt's Mess. I examined the bill and found that the date of the NAAFI receipt did not agree with the date of the bill. I took the number of the bill and receipt(E61757 and B49631 respectively) and checked with NAAFI. NAAFI produced the duplicate of the bill numbered E61757 which I now produce as exhibit "C". This shows the date of purchase as 26 Oct 43, and signed by Sgt Smith, who was mess caterer at the time. The original copy shows date as Feb 44, and signature of "Thompson". This matter was reported to Major Donald.

Questions by the Accused

Q. Was S/Sgt Raphael the Treasurer of the Sgts Mess at that time?
A. S/Sgt Raphael was the Treasurer of the Mess for the month of February and it was February statements that we were dealing with.

Q. Were you present at the time the Bill was handed over to S/Sgt Raphael?

A. No, I was not.

B72508 Sgt. McNeely, S.S.

Third Witness — Mr. George William Kerridge, Cashier - Sub Bar, N.A.A.F.I. 15620G - West Humble, Nr. Dorking.

A written statement of this witness's evidence purporting to be signed by him has been read to the accused and is included in this Summary of Evidence, as Exhibit "D". Having regard to the expense involved the attendance of this witness cannot in my opinion be readily procured.

Lt. W.N. Barclay

The accused does not demand the attendance of this witness for cross-examination.

Fourth Witness — Mr. P.W. Dewdney, District Manager, 15620G, N.A.A.F.I., West Humble near Dorking.

A written statement of this witness's evidence purporting to be signed by him has been read to the accused and is included in this Summary of Evidence, as exhibit "E". Having regard to the expense involved the attendance of this witness cannot in my opinion be readily procured.

Lt W.N. Barclay

The accused does not demand the attendance of this witness for cross-examination.

Fifth Witness — U1913 Sgt. Sutherst, R.S., No. 1 Special Investigation Section, First Canadian Army, having been duly sworn states: ~~On 1~~

On 10 February, 44 in company with Sgt. Sherwood of this office and in the presence of QMS Shindler, then A/RSM of Camp, I searched the kit belonging to the accused at his quarters and took possession of 153 Ministry of Food soap coupons, serial No. 209878, which I now produce as exhibit "F". On 24 February, 44, I saw the accused at the S.I.S. HQ and in consequence of what I said to him, I cautioned him. I told him that I had taken possession of 153 soap coupons and he said they were given to him by an unknown soldier about 18 months ago at No. 3 CACRU. At the same time(24 Feb 44), I searched Sgt Thompson and in his possession found a receipt from Messrs. Knowlan Bros., Wine and Spirit merchants, London, showing purchase of six bottles of Gin by Sgt. Thompson on behalf of the PMC., Advanced HQ, First Canadian Army, which I now produce as exhibit "G".

I also found a memorandum from W. and A. Gilbey Ltd., Oval Road, Regent's Park, N.W. 1, relating to a purchase by Sgt. Thompson, HQ. First Canadian Army. This document is signed "Thompson". I now produce this document as exhibit "H". I asked Sgt. Thompson to account for these two documents found in his possession and he said that he had bought 18 bottles of gin at a total cost of £22-0-0. Six bottles were purchased on 14 February, 44 at Knowland Bros. and the rest the following day at W. and A. Gilbey. He stated that the gin was taken to the address of some people by the name of McWilliams, 2 Hanover Court, Shepherds Bush, where he had stayed during his leave and where the gin was consumed. He stated that the McWilliams had contributed £14-0-0 toward the cost of the gin.

As a result of inquiries, I saw Sgt. Thompson the following day, 25 February, 44, at SIS HQ. I told him that inquiries had been made at 2 Hanover Court, Shepherds Bush, the address of the McWilliams. As a result of what I told him and after being duly cautioned, he said that the gin was not taken to the McWilliams' home, but that he sold it to American soldiers in public houses in the Hammersmith district for £1-10-0 per bottle. I asked Sgt. Thompson if he wished to make a written statement concerning property found in his kit and also respecting the gin and as to his movements while on leave. He expressed willingness and made a statement under caution which I now produce as exhibit "I".

On 1 April, 44, I saw Sgt. Thompson at SIS Headquarters and I showed him a N.A.A.F.I. invoice numbered E61757 and the receipt numbered B49631. The invoice consisted of two copies, an original and a duplicate. The duplicate was dated "Oct. 26, 43", whilst the original was dated Feb. (the day appears to be either the 8 or 9) 44. The duplicate was signed "Smith, Sgt", whilst the original was signed "Thompson". The invoices related to the purchase of goods to the value of £3.13.6. The original invoice appeared to have been altered insofar as the date and the signature of the person receiving the goods. I told Sgt. Thompson that I had reason to believe that he had altered the original receipt and had fraudulently obtained £3-6-2 from the Sgts' Mess. I cautioned him and he said that whatever I have to say I'll say at a Court Martial. I asked him if the signature on the original invoice was that of his own and in his handwriting, and he said "yes".

U1913 Sgt. Sutherst, R.E.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Sixth Witness — Mr. C.E. Procktor, Receptionist Clerk at Messrs. W. and A. Gilbey, Ltd., Wholesale and Export Wine and Spirit Merchants and Distilliers, Gilbey House, Oval Road, Regent's Park, London, N.W. 1.

A written statement of this witness's evidence purporting to be signed by him has been read to the accused and is included in this Summary of Evidence, as exhibit "J". A piece of paper dated 14-2-44 and bearing the name "Sgt V.R. Thompson" and saying that he was a personal friend of Mr. H. Wilson, at one time a member of Gilbey's New Toronto staff, is included in the evidence secured from this witness by B/6047 S/Sgt Chester, SIS, CMHQ, and marked Exhibit "K" having regard to the expense involved the attendance of this witness cannot in my opinion be readily procured.

Lt W.N. Barclay

The accussed does not demand the attendance of this witness for cross-examination.

Seventh Witness

Mr J. Trimmer, Sales Manager of W. & A. Gilbey's Ltd, Gilbey House, Oval Road, London, N.W.I.

Ninth Witness

A31411 BQMS Heffernan, M.J. HQ First Cdn Army, having been duly sorn states

I am the BQMS of HQ First Cdn Army, and am responsible for the issue of soap coupons to all personnel of HQ First Cdn Army. The procedure for issue of these soap coupons is to have the NCO i/c of each mess draw them from me in bulk on his signature. He in turn issues two coupons to each officer and other rank in his mess to cover a period of one month, and later submits to me the covering nominal roll with individual signatures.

On 9 Nov 43, I issued 240 soap coupons to Sgt Thompson, Mess Caterer of "G" Mess, for the period 1 Oct 43 to 30 Nov 43. He gave me a receipt bearing his signature for same. I now produce this receipt as Exhibit "O". After a period of time had elapsed I contacted Sgt Thompson by telephone on two different occasions requesting the nominal roll with signatures to cover the issue of above soap coupons. He informed me that he would submit this nominal roll as soon as possible. Up to the present time no nominal roll has been submitted.

Soap coupons are public property issued by the RCASC to formations and units on the basis of two coupons per man per month.

Question by the accused

Q. Have you a record of the serial number of the sheet that comprised 200 of the 240 soap coupons issued to Sgt Thompson on 9 Nov 43.

A. No, I have not.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The accused having been warned as follows, "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence." declines to make any statement.

Certifed that Rules of Procedure ☒ 4(e)(d)(e) & (g) have been complied with.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of six pages was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused on the eleventh, thirteenth, and fifteenth days of May 44.

Mr. George William Kenney

Cashier - Sub Bar,

N.A.A.F.I. 15620 G. West Humble, Nr Dorking.

On 27 March 44, Sgt. Mc Neely, 1st Edn Army, 16 Q. came to N.A.A.F.I. and produced one of our Bills No. E 61757. The Sgt. requested the duplicate of this Bill. This Bill was dated 7th. 44, whilst the receipt attached to it was dated 26/10/43. On checking my invoice book (duplicate) I found that the Bill E 61757 tendered by Sgt. Mc Neely referred to a purchase made on 26 Oct. 43. The duplicate bill showed purchase of chocolate bars, cigarettes and matches to the value of £ 3-13-6, less discount. It was made out to Adv. 1st Edn Army, 16 Q., and signed by a Sgt. Smith. The original Bill that Sgt. Mc Neely had in his possession showed some purchase, but was signed with the name of Thompson. There is no doubt but that the original Bill No. E 61757 has been altered, both date and signature. I have read over this statement and it is true. I should add that Sgt. Mc Neely took possession of the duplicate bill and gave me a signature for it.

Mr. Dorking

On 4 April 44, I was shown two documents by Sgt Sutcut, No 1 Special Investigator Section, Hqrs Edn Army. These documents bear the No. E 61757 and are an official Bill for goods supplied from the R.C.C. Canteen Supply Section of the above Depot. I am definitely convinced that the two copies appertain to the same transaction. One being the original, the other the duplicate copy. I have examined these two copies and find that on the original top copy the date has been altered and also signature of recipient. The duplicate copy is normally retained at the Depot, but was passed to a Sgt. McNally on 27/3/44, at his request. It is not possible that the No. E 61757 shown on the Bill could be allocated to another Bill. Therefore there is no doubt but that the date and signature of the top copy of this Bill has been altered.

Mr. C. E. PROCTOR, Receptionist Clerk at Messrs. W & A. GILBEY, Ltd. Wholesale & Export Wine & Spirit Merchants and Distillers, GILBEY HOUSE, OVAL RD. Regents Park., London, N.W.1.

states:

On the 14th of February, 1944 a Canadian Sergeant approached me at my desk and said that he was the Mess Caterer for the Officers' Mess at H.Q. 1st Cdn. Army and wanted to purchase liquor for the Mess. He said that he was a personal friend of a Mr. H. WILSON of the West Toronto Stuff & Other firm and wrote his name, Sgt. V.R. THOMPSON "H.Q" 1st Cdn. Army, and the fact that he was a friend of Mr. WILSON, on a piece of paper. I referred him to Mr. J. TRIMMER, Sales Mgr. through Mr. Mayland, the Export Manager. Later he came back to the desk and paid me in cash £13.14.6 for 12 bottles of GIN CRYSTAL for which I receipted our official invoice.

I recognize the piece of paper I have been shown which includes amongst other writings, the handwriting of Sgt. Thompson referred to above.

States:

On 14 Feb 44, in consequence of information and a slip of paper which I rec'd from Mr. Proctor, Receptionist Clerk of this firm I gave authority to the department concerned to supply one-dozen bottles of Gilbey's Gin at trade price of 22/- shillings and 6 pence per bottle, the total price being £13.19.6 which included a 15 shilling deposit for a wooden container case. The slip of paper which was kept on file and has been handed to S/Sgt Chester is the one I received from Mr. Proctor and states that Sgt V.R. Thompson, "HQ" 1 Visit Can Army is a personal friend of Mr. H. Wilson of New Toronto, Ont. I have checked and found that there is a Mr. H. Wilson on the staff of our New Toronto establishment. Sgt. Thompson would not have been able to obtain liquor at this firm if I had not been certain that he was making a legitimate purchase for the Officers' Mess, as we do not supply private individuals.

I identify the copy of invoice (produced) as a carbon copy of the original given to Sgt. Thompson at the time of purchase.

M/R A. J. KNOWLAND, Props. of Knowland Bros., Wholesale Wine & Spirit Merchants at 4-7 Norris St., Haymarket, London, S.W.1. states as follows:

On the 15th of February, 1944, a Canadian soldier whom I now know to be Sgt. V. R. THOMPSON, of "H.Q." 1st Can. Army, approached me at this address, and saying that he had been sent by one of my sons, who is a Captain, and who he said was attached to his unit, asked if this firm could supply him with several cases of liquor for the Officers' Mess where my son was attached. At first I flatly refused to supply any liquor at all, but eventually I gave way to his insistence and gave an order for him to be given 6 bottles of gin, three of "Curtis" and three of "Booth" gin, for which he was charged the controlled price of 25/3 (twenty five shillings and three pence) and which sum he paid in cash totalling £7.11.6.

I would not have allowed Sgt. Thompson to have any liquor if he had not convinced me that my son had sent him and that it was destined for the Officers Mess of his unit, for which Sgt. Thompson claimed to be Mess Caterer.

During my interview with Sgt. Thompson, he did not appear to know the first name of my son but I did not question that point, as I have four sons who are Captains, and one a Lieut. in the Forces and frequently obtain liquor from this firm for the Messes where they are attached.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any,~~ complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....[5]

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.[1]

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.[1]

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans.....[1]

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

Pte Thompson

The accused, Pte Thompson, has pleaded guilty to the charge. He very well realizes that it was a mistake that he will always regret. In ~~Your~~ decision, the only thing he asks is that you will be lenient.

Pte. Thompson joined the Cdn Army in Apr.1940 and came overseas in may 1941. He has been in the army nearly 5 years and overseas almost 4 years. But I would like to draw to your attention two important facts.

First- his MFM 6 shows a clean sheet. ~~This~~ is proof, that in 5 years army service, Thompson has been a good soldier. He greatly regrets this one error and I feel sure that even ~~he~~ were he to be aquitted, the lesson already learned and the moral price it has cost him already, is a lesson never to be forgotten.

Second-Again, ~~I can't~~ any man who has a wife and a 5½ year old son in Canada, and who cares for both of them as thompson does, would certainly have reason to be worried when conditions exist at his home such as he stated in his evidence in the summary ~~of~~. With Thompsons case he has made no reference to any third party but at the same time, he could not help but wonder ~~on~~ when his wife does nto write to him. Personally, I think this was about enough of a load for one man to carry but after being with the RCASC for about 4½ years, he was transferred to ~~the~~ ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~. All was new and strange for him, especially so as he had always been employed as a clerk. I think ~~[illegible]~~ must admit that the accused certainly had temporary reason for becoming morose and in army language, mentally "browned off".

Finally- It is not only himself that Thompson is concerned with in the decision of this court. He has always had a clean record and his Mother and Father, at least, are proud of him for it. If for no other reason than to save his parents humiliation, Thompson asks for leniency in your decision.

A SENTENCE AFFECTING HIS PAY WOULD BE APPRECIATED RATHER THAN DETENTION IN THIS CASE.

B-82923, Pte Thompson, W.A.
No.3 C.I.T.Bn, - C.R.U.

Absentee with Domestic Troubles

SIS/A-1 -796.

1. The m/n soldier states that he went Absent Without leave from No.1 C.I.R.U. on 2 Nov.44 and remained absnet until apprehended by members of Cdn.Provost Corps at the Central Y.M.C.A. Strand W.C.2, at about 0135 hrs. on 19 Jan 45. At the time of his arrest, Thompson was wearring Cdn battledress.

2. He was conducted to No.6 Coy. Cdn.Provost Corps Headquarters where he was interviewed by the writer later the same day and made the following statement regarding his absence, under caution:-

"I am a married man and my wife and son age 5½ years are resident in Highland Creek, Ont. I joined the Cdn Army on 2 Apr 40 and came averseas as a reinforcement in Army Service Corps on 13 May 41. I was stationed ~~in~~ at Bordon, Hants for about 7 months, then the unit moved to Farnborough and I was with them there for the following 5 mons. I then came to CMHQ and was attached to DQMG Br.as a Clerk and was later attached to supply and transport in the same building.

About Aug 43, I went away on a course of basic training at 1 CGRU and was there for about three weeks when I was returned to 1 CASCRU at Farnborough and was again employed in the Records Office for a further seven months when I came back to CMHQ, attached to Movement Control where I remained till I want away on Port Staff attachment until 23 Feb 44. I was then returned to 1 CASCRU. I remained with the Holding Unit doing orderly room work until 1 Nov.44, when I was sent to 1 CIRU.

All my service has been clerical work until I was transferred to the Infantry which was altogether new to me. I found it difficult and could not get along very well at it. I was also troubled with having received no reply to my letter to my wife, and absented myself on 2 Nov.44. I realize that I have done a very foolish thing but I would like to point out that since my arrival in England- when I first came here I had regular mail and a few parcels from my wife but they fell off considerably early in 1943 and I have had no word from her except a few lines at the latter part of last year and nothing prior to that for over 9 months.

I have had letters from my Mother and Father who are obviously trying to spare my feelings, but they do indicate that I am not getting a square deal from my wife. I have taken this matter up with the padre at 13 C.I.B. but have not received any satisfaction as yet.

I am not trying to excuse my absence by this statement but I would like to make it clear that it is my first serious offence since I have been in the army and at the time that I went absent I was extremely worried and found it very difficult soldiering in the infantry as everything and everybody was completely strange to me.

When I went absent I had some money with me and stayed with various friends in London. It was not difficult to maintain a livelihood as I do not drink to any extent and I have not been in any trouble during my absence.

I do hope that this will serve to have some person make enquiries as regards my wife and child in Canada as I am still very concerned as to how they are keeping. My wife's last address was c/o Highland Creek P.O. Ontario. P.T.O.

Continuation of statement of Pte Thompson

I would also like to point out that I am a 'square peg in a round hole' in the infantry, whereas I know Service Corps thoroughly. I do not ask to be allowed to go Overseas with Army Service Corps, and if this can be made possible I promise to carry out my duties to the best of my ability, and I know I can be a good soldier. I have done a lot of entertainment work and have read that there is a shortage of persons to do this work at the front, and I would like to be enabled to do this if there is any opening whatever."

I have read this statement and it is true.

(Signed) Wm. A Thompson.

Statement taken down, read over and signature witnessed by Sgt. F.C.Brown, S.I.B.-C.M.H.Q. on 19 Jan 45.

3. The foregoing is self explanatory and apart from the fact that Thompson seemed very sincere in his desire to soldier again with the R.C.A.S.C. the writer has nothing to add.

The accused does not demand the attendance of this witness for cross-examination.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of B82923 Pte Thompson, W.A., Canadian Infantry Corps, onthe strength of 1 Canadian Infantry Training Regiment, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

The accused having been cautioned in accordance with R.P. 4(e) elects to make a statement.

I am B82923 Pte Thompson, Wm.A., Canadian Infantry Corps, on the strength of 1 Canadian Infantry Training Regiment, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas. My reason of absence from my unit on Nov 3 was on account of worries which I have had back home, referring to my wife and child, from whom I hear very, very seldom. At times it takes nine or ten months before I receive a letter from her and I have received no parcels whatsoever in the last year or so. I have had letters from my mother and father at home asking me to do something about this - as to why my wife has not written to me for such a long period of time. They are very worried about it back there as they know I have done the best of my ability in the CdnArmy Overseas, keeping a clear conduct sheet, doing my job faithfully and then my worries started, as my mind seemed to bother me sometimes. I have written right along to my wife and have asked an explanation of why she is not writing me. As I said, I was quite worried about my kiddie and wanted to know how he was progressing, but have heard nothing. It is not a habit of mine to absent myself without leave and at the same time I am not using this as an excuse. I have now been practically four years over here in this country and this is the first time I have made such a foolish mistake as this, not thinking at the time of what harm I was going to do myself and also worrying my people, who have been very grand to me. I am openly admitting that I have done a foolish thing in absenting myself without leave and at the same time I feel very sorry for doing so, as it is the first time I have ever let my unit down. I wish to say that from now on I intend to carry on the same as I have done. In different kinds of work which I have done in the Canadian Army I have put my heart and soul into it. I have, at times, in different orderly rooms, Records Office and also in CMHQ, London, worked long hours in the evenings so as to keep work up to date. I intend to soldier as I have always done, and see this through with the rest of the men. I would like to say this without asking a favour, and I wish to prove myself and promise to do all in my power. I am still worried about things back home but I see now that I must keep going ahead and stillkeep the proper spirit, and see the proper authorities in the Army to help me out. I have had the Padre of 13 CIB working on my case but had heard nothing in reply when I had left up there. I had seen the Padre on two or three occasions and at the time he promised me that he would have word for me in a day or two. I made two or three checks on this but nothing had arrived. I would like to say now, that I feel that doing the right thing, which I thought I was doing some time ago, would pay me in the end. The SIS, London, have taken down my statement and told me that they would send it here. My only reason for staying away so long was due to worry and I fully realize my mistake.

Wm A Thompson
B82923 Pte Thompson, W.A.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of two (2) pages was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused, and that Rules of Procedure 4(c), (d), (e) and (f) have been complied with.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C) ; powers and duties of JA see RP 103 ; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B) ; duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92 ; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82 ; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85 ; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116 ; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6 ; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 paro 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No sir .(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E.
5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on "EKM" charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A , initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans No sir .(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1) Attached. "EKM"
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) fn 1.)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the "EKM" charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge(s), and allowed on the charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 80(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans Do neither .
Ans No sir . Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans .
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. Cf A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 80(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 42, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (c), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans No sir
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(i) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex Y and Ex Z respectively.(3)
(1. AFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans Yes & also my Def Officer .(2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the J.A. if any.(2)
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182. RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A). KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(1B), 68(1), KR Can 564. 2. RP 50. As to release from arrest by Confirming Offr see KR Can 567. As to assembly and disposal of record after trial see instrs on back of Convening Order.)

First Pros. Wit. Mr. Leopold Andries, Pourkes St., Antwerp, Belgium, sworn, deposes:

I am Leopold Andries of Antwerp. On 22 Sep 44 I was in the Cafe Anselmio. At 2130 hours two Cdn soldiers walked into the Cafe. I was ready to leave and was standing at the bar at the time. One of the 2 walked up to the bar and asked for a drink for himself and the bar maid. The other one went to the table and sat down without having a drink. Then I asked the maid to give the soldier at the table something to drink. We all had a drink together and then I paid for the drinks and changed a 1000 franc bill. After that I left. After I left the 2 soldiers followed me into the street. After walking a bit I felt one of the soldiers feel in his vest coat pocked -- they were walking beside him. Then I asked them what they wanted and the answer was money. I said I didn't have any. One soldier answered we know you have some as we saw it. I said we'd go to another cafe and I'd give him some money there. All this was said by the same one of the soldiers. A little further down the same one tried again to get into his inside coat pocket. I put my hand over my wallet. A little further down I was strick twice -- once on the chin and once behind the ear. I sank to my knees and went into a daze. After I came to the soldiers ran away and my wallet was gone. The man walking on my left was the one who had done all the talking, who had tried to take my wallet and was the one who struck me. He had been in the cafe. He was the one who was standing at the bar in the cafe talking to the girl. After being hit I went back to the cafe and the lady of the Cafe washed my face. Then I went to the police station, they called for a doctor and the doctor sewed up my wounds. Then a policeman took me home. The next morning I went to Maj Colby, the town major.
On the following Sunday 24 Sep I went to the camp with the provost and there I recognized one of the two soldiers. It Was the one who had been on my left side, the one that had struck me. I picked him out from about 20 soldiers. Then the Sgt took him along with 2 other men back to the Cafe and saw the barmaid and the lady who was owns the place recognize the soldier. I identify the accused here today as the man on my left who struck me. (Witness points out the acc. to the court).
Was about 10 p.m. when he struck me and took my wallet. In my wallet I had 2 bills of 1000 francs, and some other notes, totalling about 3000 francs. One of the soldiers was taller than the other. It was the taller one that struck me. It Was also the taller one who had attempted to take my wallet from my pocket. I had changed one 1000 franc note in front of the acc. at the bar. I was standing next to him at the bar and had a good look at him. The two soldiers followed me out of the Cafe. I didn't see any other soldier come out of the Cafe.

Cross Ex I went to the Cafe about 8 o'clock (2000). The soldiers came in I would say around 2130. I had been drinking in the Cafe. I don't do this very often. I had had two or three beers and also some cognac. Other soldiers came and went during the evening. I think they were all English. Acc. bought a beer for himself and the barmaid. I bought them a drink as the one at the table did'nt have a drink. I asked the one at the table if He'd have a drink. Don't remember If I asked one at the bar to have drink. I went to the table and had my drink with the soldier at the table. I talked to the soldier at the bar also. I left at 2200 hrs.to go home. The Cafe was not closing. At the time there were only two soldiers in the cafe. It was a very dark night. Two soldiers came up. One on each side of me. I thought they were coming along with me at first. The cafe was lit like any other Cafe.

The tall one on my left did all the talking. The taller one was on left the Cafe. As I thought the pub was closing I said "Lets go" to Thompson. We saw Andries and Thompson said "Lets see if he knows the way to Hoboken". He went up to him and caught him by the arm and asked the way to Hoboken. Then Thompson said "Give me 200 francs as I know you have the money". It was Andries from the cafe. Then there was kind of a scuffle and Thompson said "Come on lets go. Lets get away in a hurry. I have the old man's purse". Further on down the street Thompson gave me 4 or 5 hundred francs. We went into a pub and had a beer. Then we came out and headed towards Hoboken. At the bridge we stopped and had a leak and Thompson I think threw the purse into the river. We then went into another cafe and spent the rest of the night there till we went back to barracks about 2400 hours.

It looked like Andries and I think it was but it was dark. He was the only civilian I had talked to. We walked beside him for a while. I was on the right hand side. Thompson was on Andries left. I didn't see T. make any attempt to take his wallet from his pocket. The scuffle was so quick I can't remember much of it. While walking there had been some conversation between Acc and Andries. Heard Acc. say he knew he had the money. I saw Acc with a purse and money afterwards. Thompson said "Come on, I have the old man's purse". Was dark but you could recognize objects.

Cross Ex. I don't think I'm short. Left camp that night about 1800 hrs. Arrived at Cafe Anselmo about 2100. I had been drinking but I knew what I was doing. Didn't feel like a beer at the Anselmo. Was feeling a little sick. Don't like beer much. Prefer whiskey. Cafe quite bright. Was pretty sure it was Andries. I'm sure the purse was thrown away. I talked to Andries in the cafe. He talked a little English. Don't think he talked to Thompson there. I suggested we leave. I didn't open the door. Three other Cdns left right behind Andries, then we left. We walked besides Andries. Was some sort of a scuffle.

Re Ex. Remember leaving with Acc and following who I think was Andries. Thompson said "I have the old man's purse."

Court I'm no friend of the Acc. I knew him to see. We both had money. The Acc didn't mention any intentions of robbery to me. On leaving Anselmos don't know how much Acc had. Don't know how much was in the wallet. I didn't see the old mans wallet in the pub we were in before we got to the bridge. The next day Acc asked me for a couple of hundred francs. Didn't see any 1000 franc notes in Thompsons hands.

2nd Pros Wit. Miss L. Westerlinch, Cafe Anselmo, Antwerp, duly sworn deposes:

On 22 Sep about 2000 Mr. Andres came to the Cafe Anselmo. Later two Canadians came in. One had a beer and the other sat down at a table. The one at the bar offered me a beer. Mr Andres went and sat by the one at the table. I had a drink with the one at the bar. About 2200 Mr Andres went out. The Cdn sitting down was the shorter of the two. The two Cdns then left. A few minutes later Mr Andries came back and he was bleeding. He went to the police after being cleaned up.

A couple of days later the M.Ps. came in and asked her if she recognized any of three men. I recognized one of them. It Was the tall one who had been in the Cafe that night. The one who had bought me the beer. He had been at the counter, when Mr Andries had paid for the drinks. They were close together. Andries paid forthe drinks with a 1000 franc note. I talked to the tall soldier. He was perfectly normal.

I recognize the Acc. as being in the Cafe Anselmo that night. He was the tall soldier.

Cross Ex. Mr Andries is a pretty regular customer. Not a daily Customer. He doesnt drink very much. I remember the 1000 fr note as my aunt, the Mme. had to go and change it. I took Andries drink to the table. About end of Sept we had lots of Cdns in our Cafe.

Opening Address by Prosecutor 12 Oct 44

Gentlemen:

This morning you have before you one B28395 Pte Thompson W.H. who has been charged with Robbery with Violence under Sec 41 and A.".L. under 15(1)

The first charge will be proved by showing that (1) Mr Leopold Andries was robbed by Pte Thompson (2) That he used violence to commit the robbery.

The second will be supported by documentary evidence in the form of Extracts of Part II Orders HQ 6 Cdn Inf Bde.

"W.D. Morton Lt"

Prosecuting Officer

Closing Address

The evidence of Mr Andres establishes that he picked out Thompson as the person who was standing at bar talking to Mlle. Westerlinch and as the tall soldier who was on his left who tried twice to take his wallet and finally hit him in order to take the wallet, which contained 3000 francs. Mr Andres identified Thompson from a parade of about 20 soldiers. Mlle. Westerlinch's evidence colloborates the identification of Thompson as the person who bought her the drink and who was with Havelin when they came in and went out the Cafe Anselmo, and that Thompson was the man referred to as the tall Cdn.

Pte Havelin colleborates all the circumstances of events in the Cafe Anselmo. He states he was with Thompson all night during the tour of pubs. He admits having received 400 or 500 francs from Thompson, which he states was in the purse which Thompson took from Mr Andres. This all adds to and completes the picture of robbery with violence. The definition as set out in MML 122, has been fulfilled. There was robbery of 300 francs and wallet from Mr Andres. Violence was used, with the intention to take wallet and money from Mr Andres.

Gentle I submit the case against Pte Thompson is proved. The circumstances and facts substantiate the charge.

"M.D. Morton Lt"

ADDRESS OF DEFENDING OFFICER

CHARGE OF ROBBERY WITH VIOLENCE

1. Case of prosecution rests on two points.
   (a) Identification of two soldiers, one tall and one short as being in the Cafe with witness Andries on the night of 22 Sep 44.

   (b) Statement of Pte Havelin that accused did give him money - presumed to have been taken from Andries.

2. It is admitted that a case has been proven showing accused as being in the cafe at the time when Andries was there but it has not been proven beyond a reasonable doubt that he was associated on the street with violence and robbery to Andries.

3. It appears that Andries has convinced himself that the two Cdn soldiers who were in the Cafe one at the bar and one having a drink with him and who followed him out, had been the assaulters. In refutation, the following points are put forward.

   (a) It was bright in the cafe and quite dark outside - vision for a short time would be unreliable.
   (b) Andries purports to recognize the accused as the man on his left who was talking - largely by his voice but there is no evidence that he heard accused talking or spoke to him - his contacts in the cafe were all with Havelin.
   (c) His evidence concerning one short and one tall soldier seem a bit confused. He states that only the two Cdn soldiers were in the Cafe when he left which other witnesses do not confirm. He states that the other soldiers in the cafe were English while other witnesses say there were three other Cdns who left just before Andries. It is submitted that the witness did not in the cafe take sufficient note of the soldier at the bar to enable him to positively and certainly identify him in the dark after a night of drinking. He was probably frightened silly when approached by two thugs in the dark and fastened on the two soldiers in the cafe as the ones who attacked him.

4. The prosecution contends that the evidence of Havelin confirms the tale of Andries and adds evidence that it was Thompson and not himself who did the robbery. It is submitted that Havelin was in no condition to know what was going on. He had been drinking steadily from 1800 - 2130 hrs and even refused a beer because he was not able to absorb it. His recital of details is confused and uncertain. He did not see Thompson take the wallet or strike Andries nor did he sound convincing in his story about the accused throwing away a wallet he didn't see.

5. Havelin drank with Andries; he it was who suggested the two go and is said to have opened the door for the old man. It is suggested that his story could easily have been concocted to explain a sudden increase in means or to reduce the charge which he would have to face on being implicated in the affair.

6. There is no evidence that there was any shortage ofmoney in either case and we have only the word of Havelin that he received money from the accused.

J.A. Sums up

As the members of the Court are undoubtedly aware this is a very serious charge which the accused is now facing. I shall endeavour to advise you as to the law involved and I know that you will consider the evidence well before reaching any decision.

The charge is laid under AA 41 and alleges that the Acc committed a civil offence, that is to say, Robbery with violence. The burden of proof rests always upon the Prosecution and it is the task of the Prosecutor to discharge this onus. The Acc. need not prove his innocence, the Pros must prove his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

The charge consists of this statement of the offence and the particulars. You must therefore now decide whether or not the particulars have been proved and if you decide they have been, then do these proven facts constitute the offence charged.

Archbold (597) describes Robbery as follows: Robbery consists in the felonious and forcible taking from the person of another or in his presence against his will, of any money or goods of any value, by violence or putting him in fear. From this the prosecution must prove an actual taking, that is, it must appear that the robber actually got possession of the property alleged to have been stolen. A carrying away, or asportation must also be proved. In addition, the property must be proved to have been taken from the person of Mr Andries or in his presence. All these must be proved by the Prosecution.

You have heard the evidence of Pte Havelins who has already been charged and whose case has been disposed of. He was therefore a witness without fear of self-incrimination. However he comes very close to being an accomplice and for that reason I suggest that you treat his evidence with caution and look for corroboration of his story in some material way.

There is apparently little dispute concerning the actual evidence. The defence is arguing that there has not been sufficient identification of Thompson as the man who struck and robbed Mr Andries. This will be an important decision. You must decide whether it has been proved beyond a reasonable doubt that Thompson was the assailant and the robber. If you feel it might have been someone else then Thompson is entitled to an acquittal. If you feel sure Thompson was the person, then there need not be an acquittal on this ground. Look well at the evidence of of Havelin and Andries on this point.

I would be lacking in my duty if I did not charge you that this is a most serious offence that is charged. In short, the offence alleged is an offence against a civilian in a foreign country just emerged from a conqueror's rule. If a Canadian soldier acts as this charge alleges then I say again that it is a most serious offence indeed.

The onus rests always upon the prosecution. Under British justice every Acc. is innocent till the contrary is proved beyond a reasonable doubt. Reasonable doubt is a real and substantial doubt and not merely the idle reflection that nothing in this life is absolutely certain. It is such a doubt as would make a reasonable man in the conduct of his own affairs and in a matter of importance to him, pull up, hesitate and seriously consider whether the thing he thinks of doing is right and sure. If such a doubt exists in the mind of any member of this Court then he is bound by law to interpret that doubt in favour of this accused soldier.

STATEMENT IN MITIGATION

Acc. rests his case on the first charge. As for the AWL it is an entirely different charge. Acc. enlisted in May 1940 and shortly before end of '40 came overseas. Worked as a tradesman. Not a parade ground soldier but good tradesman. In Apr 44 he was at Worthing. Record shows lapses but they are due to desire for drink. In Apr 44 he heard of wife's misconduct and went off on a spree. Had the "to hell with it idea". After his spree he found his unit had departed and he didn't know where to. Decided to keep on being AWL as he felt he was in for it anyway. No charge brought against him till became ??? here. Was distressed and this explains first charge also.

Anxious to serve at the front.

Ask for leniency.

There is apparently little dispute concerning the actual evidence. The defence is arguing that there has not been sufficient identification of Thompson as the man who struck and robbed Mr Andries. This will be an important decision. You must decide whether it has been proved beyond a reasonable doubt that Thompson was the assailant and the robber. If you feel it might have been someone else then Thompson is entitled to an acquittal. If you feel sure Thompson was the person, then there need not be an acquittal on this ground. Look well at the evidence of of Havelin and Andries on this point.

I would be lacking in my duty if I did not charge you that this is a most serious offence that is charged. In short, the offence alleged is an offence against a civilian in a foreign country just emerged from a conqueror's rule. If a Canadian soldier acts as this charge alleges then I say again that it is a most serious offence indeed.

The onus rests always upon the prosecution. Under British justice every Acc. is innocent till the contrary is proved beyond a reasonable doubt. Reasonable doubt is a real and substantial doubt and not merely the idle reflection that nothing in this life is absolutely certain. It is such a doubt as would make a reasonable man in the conduct of his own affairs and in a matter of importance to him, pull up, hesitate and seriously consider whether the thing he thinks of doing is right and sure. If such a doubt exists in the mind of any member of this Court then he is bound by law to interpret that doubt in favour of this accused soldier.

Any questions?

(No questions from Pros., Def Offr or Court)

STATEMENT IN MITIGATION

Acc. rests his case on the first charge. As for the AWL it is an entirely different charge. Acc. enlisted in May 1940 and shortly before end of '40 came overseas. Worked as a tradesman. Not a parade ground soldier but good tradesman. In Apr 44 he was at Worthing. Record shows lapses but they are due to desire for drink. In Apr 44 he heard of wife's misconduct and went off on a spree. Had the "to hell with it idea". After his spree he found his unit had departed and he didn't know where to. Decided to keep on being AWL as he felt he was in for it anyway. No charge brought against him till became ??? here. Was distressed and this explains first charge also.

Anxious to serve at the front.

Ask for leniency.

Re: Alleged Robbery with Violence of Mr. L ANDRIES, Antwerp

B28395 Pte THOMPSON W H, RCASC, 6 CIB HQ
B136643 Pte HAVELIN, M. 6 CIB Coy RCASC, 2 Cdn Inf Div

File Refs:

Ref the a/m I have to report that on 23 Sep 44 I was detailed by Lt Anderson, Offr i/c Antwerp Detachment 2 Cdn Provost Coy, to investigate a complaint from one L. Andries that he had been assaulted and robbed by two soldiers of the Cdn Army.

Exhibit "C"

2. From information received I formed the opinion that the soldiers responsible for the robbery were RCASC personnel of 2 Cdn Inf Div and accordingly concentrated my investigation on RCASC Units within the Division. OC 2 Cdn Inf Div Tps Coy RCASC Major Ledford informed me that two men who answered the description of the robbers had been seen on two occasions in a Hoboken Cafe when they were in possession of and spending a considerable amount of money. Mr. L. Andries had alleged that 3000 Belgian francs and certain papers had been stolen from him.

3. After further enquiries I arranged an identification parade of personnel of 6 Cdn Inf Bde Coy Echelon and on this parade Pte THOMPSON was identified by Mr. L. Andries as one of the two robbers. A further positive identification of THOMPSON was made by Mdme and Mlle WESTERLINCK of the Cafe ANSELMO in Antwerp.

4. It was then ascertained that Pte HAVELIN had accompanied Pte Thompson at the time of the alleged robbery and a search of the Unit revealed him to be AWL. On 25 Sep 44 after having received information that HAVELIN had returned to his Unit and was in custody, I proceeded to the Unit and questioned the accused and obtained from a voluntary statement which is appended hereto together with copies of statements from all witnesses. Pte THOMPSON refused to make any statement.

5. During the course of the assault and robbery Mr Andries received injuries to his face which necessitated 5 stitches to close the wounds. In addition to the loss of money he also suffered the loss of all his Identity documents.

6. Charges of Robbery with Violence have been preferred against the a/m soldiers and forwarded this date to the Units concerned together with copies of all available evidence.

"I am Mr Leopold Andries of Pourtous St., No. 3 ANTWERP. On the night of 22 Sep 44 I was in the Cafe ANSELMO at approx 2130 hrs, two Cdn came in, one, the tall one went up to the bar and ordered two beers, one for himself and one for the Mlle behind the bar, the short fellow had none. I then asked if they would have a drink with me, and they said yes, so I bought two drinks for them. Shortly after that I went out to go home. The two fellows came out directly behind me and as I was approx 50 metres up the Ave. they came up on either side of me and tried to take my wallet, I then asked what they wanted, and they said have money, I said I have no money. The tall one then said we know you struck me. They then struck me several times and I was knocked nearly unconscious. When I came to, I saw them run away and I found my wallet gone which contained 3000 francs and all my papers. I then returned to the Cafe ANSELMO where the Madame washed me and I started home again. I was met by two members of the White Brigade and taken to the Belgium Police, I was told to report to the Town Major which I did the next day.

On the 24th Sep 44, Sjt Ford of the Cdn Provost Corps met me at 1500 hrs and took me out to 6 Bde Coy, RCASC., and I was almost certain that I recognized one of the men who had attacked me. I was not certain but I was sure that I had saw the man Pte Thompson W H before. We then went back to the Cafe ANSELMO and the Madame and the Mlle identified Pte Thompson as the man who I had bought the drink for.

I have given this statement of my own free will and it was written for me by Sjt Ford.

"I am Madame A. Westerlinch owner of the Cafe ANSELMO. On Friday, 22 Sep 44, two Cdns came in my Cafe at approx 2130 hrs, Mr. L. Andries was already in the Cafe. The tall fellow bought two beers, one for the Mlle. and one for himself, the short fellow had no beer. After a few minutes Mr. Andriesasked the Cdns if they would have a drink with him, they said yes, he changed a 1000 franc note and bought two drinks. Shortly after he left the Cafe, after Mr. Andries went out, the short fellow said to the tall one, "Come on we will go", they then followed him. In approx 10 minutes, Mr. Andries came back, and he was badly cut and bleeding from the face. I washed him up and he left for the doctor. On the 24 Sep 44 Sgt Ford of the Cdn Provost Corps came and he brought with him Pte Thompson and three other Cdns, I positively identified Pte Thompson as the tall fellow who Mr. Andries bought the drink for.

I have given the above statement to Sgt Ford of the Cdn Provost Corps and it was written by him.

"I am B136643 Pte M. Havelin, 6 Bde Coy RCASC, On the night of 22 Sep 44, Pte Thompson and myself went out drinking. We went to ANTWERP about 1930 hrs, we went to several Cafes and finally about 2130 hrs we came to the Cafe ANSELMO. There were several Cdns and several civillans in the bar. Thompson went to the bar and ordered two beers, one for himself and one for the girl behind the bar. I did not want any as I was a bit drunk and I felt that if I drank beer I would be sick. I sat down at a table about 10 or 12 feet from the bar, in a few minutes, Mr. Andries came over and asked if I would have a drink, I said, "Yes", so he went up to the bar and bought two cognacs. I did not notice what size of bill he paid for the drink with. Shortly after this he shook hands with me and left, as the bar was closing I said to Thompson, "Come on let's go". We went out with several other Cdns directly behind Mr Andries. After we got outside, Thompson said, "Lets follow that guy and we will ask the way home". When we caught up to him, Thompson grabbed him by the arm and said something about which way to Hoboken. He then said, "give me 200 francs as I know you have the money", suddenly there was a bit of a scuffle and Thompson broke away and ran after knocking the old man down. I did not know what had happened until Thompson called me and said "Come on, let's get out of here in a hurry". He wanted me to run and I said, "to hell with running, I can't run", he then said, " come on let's hurry, I got the guy's purse". After we had walked on a bit further, he handed me some money, 400 or 500 francs. We went into a Cafe before we crossed the bridge, and had a drink. After we came out and about when we were on the bridge, we stopped for a piss and it was then when Thompson threw away the wallet. We then went on to Hoboken and after spending some time in several Cafes we came home.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans No Sir.....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty ~~to Not Guilty~~ on .....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on .....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans Nil Sir.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) ~~his~~ opening address.(1) Attached Elsewhere
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Con 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the .....charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the Elsewhere charge(s), and allowed on the .....charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
NB. If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans Do neither. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans No Sir. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans —
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the .....charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (b), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(7), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1) Ans No Sir.....
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex 1 and Ex 2 respectively.(3)

First Witness Mr Leopold Andres Bourkes St Antwerp Belgium duly sworn states; deposes:-

"I am Leopold Andres of Antwerp. On 22 Sep 44 I was in the Cafe Anselmo. At 2130 hrs two Cdn Sodleirs walked into the cafe. I was ready to leave and was standing a the bar ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ at the time. One of the 2 walked tothe bar and asked for a drink for himself andthe bar maid. The other wne went to the table and sat down without having a drink. Then asked barmaid to give the soldier at the table something to drink. We all had a drink together and then I paid for the drinks and changed a 1000 franc bill. After that I left. After I left the 2 soldiers followed me into the street. After walking a bit I felt one of the soldiers feel in his vest coat pocket. They were walking beside him. Then I asked them what they wanted and the answer was money. I said I didn't have any. One soldier answered we know you have some as we saw it. I said we'd go to another cafe and I'd give him some money there. All this was said by the same one of the soldiers. A little further down the same one tried again to get into his inside coat pocket. I put my hand over my wallet. A little further down I was struck twice once on the chin and once behind the ear. I sank to my knees and went into a daze. After I came to the soldiers ran away and my wallet was gone. The man walking on my left was the one who had done all the talking, who had tried to take my wallet and also the one who struck me. He had been in the cafe. He was the one who was standing at the bar in the cafe talking to the girl.

After being hit I went back to the Cafe and the lady of the Cafe washed my face. Then I went to the police station, they called for a doctor and the doctor served up my wounds. Then a policeman took me home. The next morning I went to Maj Colby the town major, and the following Sunday 24 Sep I went to the Camp with the Provost and there I recognized one of the two soldiers. It was the one who had been on my left side. the one that had struck me. I picked him ot from about 20 soldiers. Then the Sgt took him along with 2 other men back to the Cafe and I saw the Barmaid and the lady who owns the place recognize the soldiers I identify the Accused here to-day as the person on my left who struck me. (Witness points out the acc to the court/.

It was about 10 p.m. when he struck me and took my wallet . In my wallet I had 2 billes of 1000 francs and some other notes totalling about 3000 francs one of the soldiers was taller then the other. It was the taller one that stuck me. It was also the taller one who had attempted to take my wallet from my pocket. I had changed one 1000 france note in front of the acc at the bar. I was standing next to him at the bar and got a ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ good look at him. The two soldiers followed me out of the Cafe I didn't see any other soldier come out of the Cafe.

Cross Ex. I went to the Cafe about 8 o'clock (2000) hrs . The soldiers came in I would say around 2130 hrs I had been drinking in the Cafe. I don't do this very often. I had had two or three beers ani also some cognac. Other soldiers came and went during the evening. I think they were all English Acc bought a beer for himself and the bar maid. I bought them a drink as the one at the table didn't have a drink. I asked the one at the table if he'd have a drink. Don't remember if I asked one at the bar to have drink. Iwent to the table and had my drink with the soldier at the table. I talked to the soldier at the bar also. I left at 2200 hrs to go home. The cafe was not closing. At this time there were only two soldiers in the cafe. It was a very dark night. Two soldiers came up. one on each side of me. I thought they were coming along with me at first. The Cafe was lit like any other Cafe.

The tall one on my left did all the talking. The other one was on my left even the dark I could see this. I speak a little bit ofEnglish At the time this happened I usually carried about 3000 francs I saw the soldiers side by side when they entered the cafe.

No. re -Ex
Court My wallet with all my papers also was taken with the three thousand francs

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

2nd Pros Witn. Miss L Westerlinch, Cafe Anselmo Antwerp duly sworn deposes:-

"On 22Sep about 2000 hrs Mr. Andres came to the Cafe Anselmo. Later two Canadians came in. One had a beer and the other sat down at a table The one at the bar offered me a beer. Mr Andres went and sat by the one at the table. I had a drink with the one at the bar. About 2200 hrs Andres went out. The Cdn sitting down was the shorter of the two. The two Cdns then left. A few minutes later Mr Andres came back and he was bleeding. He went to the police after beenn cleaned up.

A couple of days later . The mps came in and asked her if she recognized any of the three men. I recognized one of them. It was the tall one who had been in the Cafe that night. The one who had bought me the beer. He had been at the counter when Mr Andres had paid for the drinks. They were close together. Andres paid for the drinks with a 1000 franc note. I talked to the tall soldier. He was perfectly normal.

When Andres left there was soldiers in the Cafe. Three Cdns went out just before him . When Andres actually left there were just 2 Cdn left the taller one and the shorter one. They left right after Mr Andres the short one opened the door for Mr Andres. I recognize the acc as being the Cafe Anselmo that night. He was the tall soldier.

Cr-coo -Ex. Mr Andres is a pretty regular customer. Not a daily customer. He don't drink very much I remember the 1000 fr note as my aunt, the Mme had to go and change it. I took Andres drink to the table. About end of Sep we had lots of Cdns in our Cafe.

Third Pros Witness B-136643 Pte Havelin M 6 CI B Coy RCASC duly sworn deposes:-

On night of 22 Sep 44 I was supposed to go out with Sgt Russel. He couldn't go so Pte Thompson said he'd go downtown with me. We had a couple of beers and cognac in a pub and after that we took a tram to the Antwerp. In a pub in Antwerp we met a sailor and he sent us to the Alaska Cafe. We left there and started back to Camp. En route we dropped into another Cafe. Thompson went to the counter. I felt sick and refused a beer from Thompson. Mr Andres then asked if I'd have a drink with him and I did have a drink with him. After the drinks Andres said good night and left the cafe. As I thought the pub was closing I said "lets go" to Thompson. We saw Andres and Thompson said "Lets see if he knows the way to HOBOKEN "He went up to him and caught him by the arm and asked the way to HOBOKEN. Then Thompson said "give me 200 francs as I know you have the money" It was Andres from the Cafe. Then there was kind of a scuffle and Thompson says "Comd on lets go. Lets get away in a hurry. I have the old mans purse". Further on down the street Thompson gave me 4 or 5 hundred francs. We went into a pub and had a beer. Then we came out and headed towards HOBOKEN. At the bridge we stopped and had a leak and Thompson I think threw the purse into the river. We then went into another Cafe and spent the restof the night there till we went back to barracks about 2400 hours.

It looked like Andres and I think iw was but it was dark. He was only civilian I had talked to. We walked beside him for a while. I was on the right hand side. Thompson was on Andres left. I didn't see Thompson make any attempt to take his wallet from his pocket. The scuffle was so quick I can't remember much of it. While walking there had been some conversation between acc and Andres. Heard acc say he knew he had the money. I saw acc with a purse and money afterwards. Thompson said "Come on I have the old mans purse. It was dark but you could recognize objects.

Cross Ex. I don't think I'm short Left Camp that night about 1800 hrs arrived at Cafe Anselmo about 2100 hrs I had been drinking but I knew what I was doing. I didn't feel like a beer at the Anselmo. Was feeling a little sick. Don't like beer much. Prefer whisky. Cafe quite bright. Was pretty sure it was Andres. I'm sure the purse was thrown away. I

I talked to Andres in the Cafe. He talked to me in a little English. Don't think he talked to Thompson there. I suggested we leave. I did not open the door. 3 other Cdns left right behind Andres then we left. We walked beside Andres. Was some sort of a scuffle.

Re Ex. Remember leaving with Acc and following who I think was Andres Thompson sais "I have the old wans purse."

Court I'm no friend of the Acc I knew him to see. We both had money The acc didn't mention any intention of robbery to me. On leaving Cafe Anselmo don't know how much acc had. Dont know how much was in the wallet. I didn't see the old mans wallet in the pub we were in before we got to the bridge. The next day Acc asked me for a couple of hundred francs. I didn't see any 1000 franc notes in Thompsons hands.

Opening Address by Prosecutor.

Gentlemen:
This Morning you have before you one B28395 Pte Thompson W.H. who has been charged with Robbery with violence under Sec 41. and AWL under AA 15(1).
The first charge willbe proved by showing that (1) Mr. Leppld Andres was robbed by Pte Thompson. (2) That he used violence to commit the Robbery.
The second will be supported by documentary evidence in the form of extracts of Part II Order HQ 6 Cdn Inf Bde.

W.D. Morton Lt
Prosecuting Officer.

Closing Address
The evidence of Mr Andres established that he picked out Thompson as the person who was standing at bar talking to Mlle Westerlinch and as the tall soldier who was on his left, who tried twice to take his wallet which contained 3000 francs. Mr Andres identified Thompson from a parade of about 20 soldiers.
Mlle Westerlichs evidence collaborates the identification of Thompson, as the person who bought her the drink, and the person who was with Havelin when she came in and went out. The Cafe Anselmmo, and that Thompson was the man referred to as the tall Cdn. Pte Havelin collaborates all the circumstances of events in the Cafe Anselmo. He states he was with Thompson all night during the town of pass. He admits having recived 400 or 500 frans from Thompson, which he states was in the purse which Thompson took from Mr. Andres. This all adds to and completes the picutre of robbery with violence. The defination as set out in KWL 122 has been fulfilled. There was robbery of 3000 francs and wallet from Mr. Andres. violence was used with the intention to take wallet and money from Mr. Andres.
Gentlemen I submit the case against Pte Thompson is proved. The circumstances and facts substantiate the charge.

W.D. Morton Lieut.

Address of Defending Officer

Charge of Robbery with Violence

1. Case of prosecution rests on two points.
(a) Identification fo two soldiers one tall and one short as being in t Cafe with witness Andres on the night of 22 S ep 44.
(b) Statement of Pte Havelin that accused did give him money presumed to hav e been taken from Andreies

2. It is admitted that a case had been proved showing accused as being inthe cafe at the time when Andries was there out it has not been proven beyond a reasonable doubt that he was associated on the street with violence and robbery to Andries.

3. It appears that Andreis has convinced himself that the two Cdn soldiers who were in the Cafe one at the bar and one having a drink with him and who followed him out, had been the assaulters. In refutation, the following points ar put forward.
(a) It was bright in the cafe and q ite dark outside vision for a short time wo ld be unreliable.
(b) Andries purports to recognize the accused as the man on his left who was talking largely by his voice but there is no evidence that he heard accused talking or spoke to him. Hiscontacts in the cafe were all with Havelin.
(c) His evidence concerning one short and one tall soldier seem a bit complicated. he states that only the two Cdn soldiers were in the Cafe when he left when other witnesses do not confirm. He says that the othe soldiers in the cafe were English while other witnesses say there were three other Cdns who left just before Andreis It is submitted that the witness did not in the Cafe take sufficient note of the soldier at the bar to enable tim to positively and certainly identify him in the dark after a night of drinking. He was probably frightened silly when approached by two things in the dark and fastened on the t o sold iers in the cafe as the ones who attacked him.
4. The prosecution contends that the evidence of Havelin confirms the tale of Andries and adds evidence that it was Thompson and not himself who did the robbery. It is submitted that Havelin was in no condition to know what was going on. He had beendrinking steadily from 1800 hrs. to 2130 hrs and even refused a beer because hewas not able to absorb it. His recital of deatils is confused and uncertain. He did not see Thompson take the wallet or strike Andries nor did he sound convincing in his story about the accused throwing away a wallet he didn't see.
5. Havelin drank with Andire he it was who siggested to two go and is said t have opened the door for the old man. It is suggestted that his story could easily have been concocted to explain a sudden increase in means or to reduce the charge which he would have to face on being complicated in the affair.
6. There is no evidence that there was any shortage of money in either case and we have only the word of Havelin that he received money from the accused.

J.A. Summs up

As themembers of the Court are undoubtedly aware this is a very ser o s ch rge which the Accused is now facing. I shall endeavour to a dv se you as to the law involved and I know that you will consider the evidence well before reaching any dicision. The charge is laid under AA 41 and alleges that the Acc committed a civil offence, that is to say, Robbery with violence. The burden of proof rests always upon the Prosecution and it is the task of the Prosecutor to discharge this onus. The Acc need not prove his innocence. The pros must prove his guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. The charge consistas of the statement of the offence and the particulars. You must therefore now decide whether or not the particulars have been proved, and if you decide they have been, then do these proved facts constitute the offence charged. Archbold (597) describes Robbers as follows:- Robbery consists in the felonious and forcible taking from the person of another, or in the presence against his will of any money or goods to any value by violence or putting him in fear. From this the Prosecution must prove an actual taking, that is , it must appear that the robber actually gto possession of the property alleged to have been stolen. A carrying away, or as portation, must also be proved. In addition, the propert must be proved tohave bee taken from the person of Mr Andres or in his presence. All these must be proved by the Prosecution.

You have heard the evidence of Pte Havelin who has already been charged and whose case had been disposed of. Hewas therefore a witness without fear of self incrimination. However he comes very close to being an accpmplice and for that reason I suggest that you treat his evidence with caution and look for corroboration of his story in some material way. There is apprently little dispute concerning the actual evidence. The Defence is arguing that there has been sufficient identification of Thompson as the man who struck and robbed Mr Adnres. This will be an important decision. You must decide whether it has been proved beyond a reasonable doubt that Thompson was the assaultant and the robber. If you feel it might have been some one else then Thompson is entitles to be acquittal. If you feel sure Thompson was the person, then there need not be an acquittal on this ground look well at the evidence of Havelin and Andres on this point.

I would be lacking in my duty if I did not charg you that t is is a most serious offence that is charged. In s ort the offence alleged is an offence against a civilian in a foreign country. Just emerged from a conquerors rule. If a Canadian soldier acts as this charge alleges than I say again that it is a most serious offence in deed.

The onus rests alwasy upon the prosecution. Under British justice every acc is innocent till the contray isproved beyond a reasonable doubt. Reasonable dobt is real and substantial doubt is no merely the idle reflection that nothin in this lefe is absolutely certain. It is such a do bt as would make a reasonable man in the conduct of hisown affairs and in a matter of importance to him pull up hesitate and s seriously consider whether the think he thinks of doing is right and If such a dooubt exists in the mind of any member of this Court then he is bound by law to interpret that doubt in favour of this accused soldier.

Any Questions?
(No questions from Pros Def Off or Court)

Statement in mitigation.

Acc rests his case on the first charge. As for the AWL it is an entirely different charge. Acc enlisted in May 1940 and shortly before end of 40 came overseas Worked as a tradesman. Not a parade gound soldier but good trademan. In Apr 44 He was at Worthing Record shows apses but they are due to desire for drunk. In Apr 44 he heard of wife and her misconduct and went off on a spree. Had the "Hell with it idea". After his spree he found his unit had deported and he didn't know where to . Decided to keep on being AWL as he felt he was in for it anyway. No charge brought against him tillhe came back here. Was distressed and this explains first charge also.

Anxoous to serve at the front.

Re Alleged Robbery with Violence of Mr L ANDRES Antwerp

Ref the a/m I have to report that on 23Sep 44 I was detailed By Lieut Anderson,Offr i/c Antwerp Detachment 2 Cdn Provost Coy, to investigate a complaint from one L.Andres that he had been assaulted and robbed by two soldiers of the Cdn Army.

2. From infbrmation received I formed the opinion that the soldiers responsible for the robbery were RCASC personnel of 2 Cdn Inf Div and accordingly concentrated my investigation on RCASC Units within the Division. OC 2 Cdn Inf Div Tps Coy RCASC Major Telford informed me that two men who answered the description of the robbers had been seen on two occasions in a Hoboken Cafe when they were in possession of and spending a considerable amount of money. Mr. L Andries had alleged that 3000 Belgian francs and certain papers had been stolen from him.

3. After further enquiries I arranged an identification parade of personnel of 6 Cdn Inf Bde Co Echelon and on this parade Pte THOMPSON was identified by Mr. L Andries as one of the two robbers. A further positive identification of THOMPSON was made byMdme and Mlle WESTERINCK of the Cafe WMSELMO in Antwerp.

4. It was then ascertained that Pte HAVELIN had accompanied Pte THOMPSON at the time of the alleged robbery and a search of the unit revealed him to be AWL. On 25 Sep 44 after having received information that HAVELIN had returned to his Unit and was in custody, I proceeded to the Unit and questioned the accused and obatined from a voluntary statement which is appended hereto gogether with copies of statements from all witnesses. Pte Thompson refused to make any statement.

5. During the course of the assault and robber Mr Andries received injuries to his face which necessitated 5 stiches to close the wounds. In addition to the loss of money he also suffered the loss of all his Identity documents.

6. Charges of Robbery with Violence have been preferred against the a/m soldiers and forwarded this date to the Units concerned together with copies of all available evidence.

I then asked if they would have a drink with me, and they said yes, so I bought twodrinks for them. Shortly after that I went out to go home. The two fellows came out directly behind me and as I was approx 50 metres up the Ave. they came up on eith side of me and tried to take my wallet, I then asked what they wanted, and they said money, I said I have no money. The tall one then said we know you have money, we saw it. They then tried a second time befor they struck me. They then struck me several times and I was knocked unconscious. When I came to, I saw them run away and I found my wallet gone which contained 3000 francs and all my papers. I then returned to the Cafe ANSELMO where the Madame washed me and I started home again. I was met by two members of the White Brigade and taken to the Belgian Police, I was told to report to the Town Major, which I did the next day.

On the 24 Sep44 Sjt Ford of the Can Provost Corps met me at 1500 hrs and took me out to 6 Bde Coy RCASC, and I was almost certain that I recognized one of the men who attacked me. I was not certain but I was sure that I had saw the man Pte Thompson W.H. before. We then came back to the Cafe ANSELMO and the madame and the Mlle identified Pte Thompson as the men who I had bought the drink for.

We went to ANTWERP about 1930 hrs, we went to several Cafes and finally about 2130 hrs we came to the Cafe ANSELMO,. There were several Cdns and several civilians in the the Cafe. Thompson went to the bar and ordered two beers, one for himself and one for the girlbihind the bar, In a few minutes, Mr. Andries came over and I felt that if I drank beer I would be sick. I sat down at a tabel about 10 or 12 feet from the bar, In a few minutes, Mr Andres came over and asked if would have a drink, I said "Yes", so he went up to the bar and bought two cognacs. I did not notice what size of bill he paid for the drink with. Shortly after this he shook hands with me and left, as the bar was closing I said to Thompson, "Come on let's go". We went out with several other Cdns Directly behind Mr Andries. After we get outside, Thompson said, "lets follow that guy and we will ask the way home". Then we caught up to him, Thompson grabbed him by the arm and said something about which way to Hoboken, He then said, "give me 200 francs as I know you have the money", suddenly there wa a bit of a scuffle and Thompson broke away and ran after knocking the old man down. I did not know what had happened until Thompson called me and said,."come onlet's get out of here in a hurry", He wanted me to run and I said "tohellwith running, I can't run", He then said "come on let's hurry, I got the guy's purse". After we had walked on a bit further, he handed me some money, 400 or 500 francs. We went into a Cafe before we crossed the bridge, and had a drink. After we came out andsbot when we were on the bridge, and we stopped for a piss and it was then when Thompson threw away the wallet. We then went on to Hoboken and after spending some time in several Cafes we came home.

I have given the above statement to Sjt Ford and my own free will.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. No Sir.(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty to ~~Guilty~~ charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ~~Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~ charge(s).
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. No Sir.(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (~~no~~) opening address.(1) Attached Elsn
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Con 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge(s), and allowed on the charge(s), and accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
NB. If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. Do neither. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. Yes Sir. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans.
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 102(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(2) (c), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans. No Sir.
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex 1 and Ex 2 respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Con 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans. Yes thank my esp Offr.
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should not limit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6). RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (2). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 46. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Con 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(1B), 68(1), KR Con 564. 2. RP 50. As to release from arrest by Confirming Offr see KR Con 567. As to assembly and disposal of record after trial see instrs on back of Convening Order.)

First witness Mr Leopold Andres Bourkes St Antwerp Belgium duly sworn states; Deponent:-

"I am Leopold Andres of Antwerp. On 23 Sep 44 I was in the Cafe Angelino. At 2100 hrs two soldiers walked into the cafe. I was ready to leave and was standing at the bar xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx at the time. One of the 2 walked to the bar and asked for a drink for himself and the bar maid. The other one went to the table and sat down without having a drink. Then asked barmaid to give the soldier at the table something to drink. We all had a drink together and then I paid for the drinks and changed a 1000 franc bill. After that I left. After I left the 2 soldiers followed me into the street. After walking a bit I felt one of the soldiers feel in his vest coat pocket. They were walking beside him. Then I asked them what they wanted and the answer was money. I said I didn't have any. One soldier answered we know you have some as we saw it. I said we'd go to another cafe and I'd give him some money there. All this was said by the same one of the soldiers. A little further down the same one tried again to get in to his inside coat pocket. I put my hand over my wallet. A little further down I was struck twice once on the chin and once behind the ear. I sank to my knees and went into a daze. After I came to the soldiers ran away and my wallet was gone. The one walking on my left was the one who had done all the talking, who had tried to take my wallet and also the one who struck me. He had been in the cafe. He was the one who was standing at the bar in the cafe talking to the girl. After being hit I went back to the cafe and the lady of the cafe washed my face. Then I went to the police station, they called for a doctor and the doctor served up my wounds. Then a policeman took me home. The next morning I went to see Colby the town major, and the following Sunday 24 Sep I went to the Camp with the Provost and there I recognized one of the two soldiers. It was the one who had been on my left side, the one that had struck me. I picked him out from about 20 soldiers. Then the Sgt took him along with 2 other men back to the Cafe and I saw the barmaid and the lady who owns the place recognize the soldiers. I identify the Accused here to-day as the person on my left who struck me. (Witness points out the acc to the court/.

It was about 10 p.m. when he struck me and took my wallet. In my wallet I had 2 billos of 1000 francs and some other notes totalling about 3000 francs one of the soldiers was taller than the other. It was the taller one that stuck me. It was also the taller one who had attempted to take my wallet from my pocket. I had charged one 1000 francs note in front of the acc at the bar. I was standing next to him at the bar and got a xxxxxxxxxx good look at him. The two soldiers followed me out of the Cafe I didn't see any other soldier come out of the Cafe.

Cross Ex. I went to the Cafe about 8 o'clock (2000) hrs. The soldiers came in I would say around 2130 hrs. I had been drinking in the Cafe. I don't do this very often. I had had two or three beers and also some cognac. Other soldiers came and went during the evening. I think they were all English Acc bought a beer for himself and the bar maid. I bought them a drink as the one at the table didn't have a drink. I asked the one at the table if he'd have a drink. Don't remember if I asked one at the bar to have drink. I went to the table and had my drink with the soldier at the table. I talked to the soldier at the bar also. I left at 2200 hrs to go home. The cafe was not closing. At this time there were only two soldiers in the cafe. It was a very dark night. Two soldiers came up, one on each side of me. I thought they were coming along with me at first. The Cafe was lit like any other Cafe.

The tall one on my left did all the talking. The other one was on my left over the back I could see this. I speak a little bit of English At the time this happened I usually carried about 3000 francs I saw the soldiers side by side when they entered the cafe.

2nd Pros Witn. Miss L Westerlinck, Cafe Anseleno Antwerp duly sworn deposes:-

"On Sunday about 2000 hrs Mr. Andres came to the Cafe Anseleno. Later two Canadians came in. One had a beer and the other sat down at a table the one at the bar offered me a beer. Mr Andred went and sat by the one at the table. I had a drink with the one at the bar. About 2200 hrs Andres went out. The Can sitting down was the shorter of the two. The two Cans then left. A few minutes later Mr Andres came back and he was bleeding. He went to the police after been cleaned up.

A couple of days later , the MPs came & was asked her if she recognized any of the three men. I recognized one of them. It was the tall one who had been in the Cafe that night. The one who had bought me the beer. He had been at the counter when Mr Andres had paid for the drinks. They were close together. Andres paid for the drinks with a 1000 franc note. I handed to the tall soldier. He was perfectly normal.

When Andres left there was soldiers in the Cafe. Three Cans went out just before hi . When Andres actually left there were just 2 Cdn left the taller one and the shorter one. They left right after Mr Andres the short one opened the door for Mr Andres. I recognize the Cdn as being the Cafe Anseleno that night. He was the tall soldier.

Cross -Ex. Mr Andres is a pretty regular customer. He a daily customer. He don't drink very much. I remember the 1000 fr note as my aunt, the one has to go and change it. I took Andres drink to the table. A bout ten of cap we had lots of Cans in our Cafe.

Third Pros Witness S-136043 Pte Melvin W G (I R Can) RCASC duly sworn deposes:-

On night of 2 Sep 44 I was supposed to go out with my Vessel. He couldn't so he asked Thompson and me to go downtown with him. We had a couple a beers and cognac in a pub and after that we took a tram to the Antwerp. In a pub in Antwerp we met a sailor who took us to the Alaska Cafe. We left there and started back to camp. En route we dropped into another Cafe. Thompson went to the counter. I felt sick and refused a beer from the man. Mr Andres then came in the cafe & drank with him and I did have a drink with him. After the drink Andres said good night and left the cafe. As I was in the pub was then I said "Lets get to Thompson. As I was Andres and Thompson said "Lets get to Thompson. As I was Andres and Thompson his arm caught him by the arm and swung him around. Then Thompson said "Give me 200 francs as I know you have the money" He was Andres from the Cafe. Andres was kind of a scuffle and Thompson says "Come on lets go. Lets get away. In a hurry. I have the old mans purse". Further on down the street Thompson gave me 4 or 5 hundred francs. We went into a pub and had a beer. Then we came out and headed towards BOURNEL. At the bridge we stopped and had a beer and Thompson I think threw the purse into the river. We then went into another Cafe and spent the rest of the night there till we went back to barracks about 0400 hours.

It was at Rue Andres and I think it was at it was dark. He was only drinking I had talked to . He was beside him for a while. I was on the right hand side. Thompson was on Andres left. I didn't see Thompson take an attempt to take his wallet from his pocket. The scuffle was s quick I can't remember much of it. While walking there had been some conversation between Acc and Andres. Can't Acc say he was he has, the Acc was with a purse and money afterwards. Thompson said "Come on I have the old mans purse. It was dark out po could recognize objects.

Cross Ex. I don't think I'm short left Ca p that night about 1800 hrs arrived at ale Anseleno about 1100 hrs I had been drinking but knew what I was doing. I didn't feel like a beer at the Anseleno. Was feeling a little sick. Don't like beer much. Prefer whisky. Cafe quite bright. Was pretty sure it was Andres. I'm sure the purse was thrown away. I

I walked to Andres in the Cafe. He talked to me in a little English. Don't think he talked to Thompson there. I suggested we leave. I did not open the door. 3 other Brits left right behind Andres when we left. We walked beside Andres. Was some sort of a scuffle.

We Ex. Gendarmer leaving with Acc and following, the I think was Andres. Thompson said "I have the old mans purse."

Do not ,I've no friend of the Acc I knew him to see. We both had money The acc didn't mention any intention of robbery to me. On leaving Cafe Cassino don't know how much acc had. Dont know how much was in the we let. I didn't see the old mans wallet in the pub we were in before we got to the bridge. The next day Acc asked me for a couple of hundred francs. I didn't see any 1000 franc notes in Thompsons hands.

Opening Address by Prosecutor.

Gentlemen:

This morning you have before you one 3[illegible]595 Pte Thompson W.H. who has been charged with Robbery with violence under Sec 41. and AWL under AA 15(1).

The first charge willbe proved by showing that (1) Mr. Leppld Andres was robbed by Pte Thompson. (2) That he used violence to commit the Robbery.

The second will be supported by documentary evidence in the form of extracts of Part II Order HQ 6 Cdn Inf Bde.

W.D. Norton Lt
Prosecuting Officer.

Closing Address

The evidence of Mr Andres established beyond a shadow of doubt that he picked out Thompson as the person he was standing next to talking to while Westerlinch and as the tall soldier who was on his left, who tried twice to take his wallet which contained 3000 francs. Mr Andres identified Thompson from a parade of about 20 soldiers.

The westerlinks evidence collaborates the identification of Thompson, as the person who bought her drinks, and the person who was with Havelin when he came in and went out. The Cafe Anselmo, and that Thompson was the man referred to as the tall Sgt. Pte Havelin collaborates all the circumstances of events in the Cafe Anselmo. He states he was with Thompson all night during the town of puns. He admits having recived 400 or 500 frans from Thompson, which he states was in the purse which Thompson took from Mr. Andres. This all adds to and completes the picture of robbery with violence. The examination as set out in Part II has been duly filled. There was robbery of 3000 francs and a let fr Mr. Andres. violence was used with the intention to take wa let and money from Mr. Andres.

Gentlemen I submit the case against Pte Thompson is proved. The circumstances and facts quantuntiate the charge.

W.D. Norton Lieut.

Address of Defending Officer

Charge of Robbery with Violence

1. Case of prosecution rests on two points.
(a) Identification of two soldiers one tall and one short as being in the Cafe with witness Andries on the night of 22 Sep 44.
(b) Statement of Pte Havelin that accused did give him money presumed to have been taken from Andries.

2. It is admitted that a case had been proved showing accused as being in the cafe at the time when Andries was there but it has not been proven beyond a reasonable doubt that he was associated on the street with violence and robbery to Andries.

3. It appears that Andries has convinced himself that the two Cdn soldiers who were in the Cafe one at the bar and one having a drink with him and who followed him out, had been the assaulters. In refutation, the following points are put forward.
(a) It was bright in the cafe and quite dark outside vision for a short time would be unreliable.
(b) Andries purports to recognize the accused as the man on his left who was talking largely by his voice but there is no evidence that he heard accused talking or spoke to him. Discontacts in the cafe were all with Havelin.
(c) His evidence concerning one short and one tall soldier seem a bit complicated. He states that only the two Cdn soldiers were in the Cafe when he left when other witnesses do not confirm. He says that the other soldiers in the cafe were English while other witnesses say there were three other Cdns who left just before Andreis. It is submitted that the witness did not in the Cafe take sufficient note of the soldier at the bar to enable him to positively and certainly identify him in the dark after a night of drinking. He was probably frightened silly when approached by two things in the dark and fastened on the two soldiers in the cafe as the ones who attacked him.
4. The prosecution contends that the evidence of Havelin confirms the tale of Andries and adds evidence that it was Thompson and not himself who did the robbery. It is submitted that Havelin was in no condition to know what was going on. He had been drinking steadily from 1800 hrs. to 2130 hrs and even refused a beer because he was not able to absorb it. His recital of deatils is confused and uncertain. He did not see Thompson take the wallet or strike Andries nor did he sound convincing in his story about the accused disposing away a wallet he didn't see.
5. Havelin drank with Andries he it was who suggested to leave and is said to have opened the door for the civ cap. It is suggested that his story could easily have been concocted to explain a sudden increase in means or to reduce the charge which he would have to face on being complicated in the affair.
6. There is no evidence that there was any shortage of money in either case and we have only the word of Havelin that he received money from the accused.

L S Laing Capt.

J.A. Sums up

As the members of the Court are undoubtedly aware this is a very serious charge which the Accused is now facing. I shall endeavour to advise you as to the law involved and I know that you will consider the evidence well before reaching any decision. The charge is laid under AA 41 and alleges that the Acc committed a civil offence, that is to say, Robbery with violence. The burden of proof rests always upon the Prosecution and it is the task of the Prosecutor to discharge this onus. The Acc need not prove his innocence. The pros must prove his guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
The charge consists of the statement of the offence and the particulars. You must therefore now decide whether or not the particulars have been proved, and if you decide they have been, then do these proved facts constitute the offence charged.
Archbold (987) describes Robbery as follows:- Robbery consists in the felonious and forcible taking from the person of another, or in his presence against his will of any money or goods to any value by violence or putting him in fear. For in this the Prosecution must prove an actual taking, that is, it must appear that the robber actually at possession of the property alleged to have been stolen. A carrying away, or as portation, must also be proved. In addition, the propert must be proved to have been taken from the person of or in his presence. All these must be proved by the prosecution. you have heard the evidence of [illegible] have already been that ged and whose case had been disposed of. He was therefore a witness without fear of self incrimination. However he comes very close to being an accomplice and for that reason I suggest that you treat his evidence with caution and look for corroboration of his story in some material way. There is apparently little dispute concerning the actual evidence. The Defence is arguing that there has been sufficient identification of Thompson as the man who struck and robbed Mr Andres. This will be an important decision. You must decide whether it has been proved beyond a reasonable doubt that Thompson was the assailant and the robber. If you feel it has been some one else than Thompson he is entitled to be acquitted. If you feel some Thompson was the person, then there need not be an acquittal on this ground. Look well at the evidence of Mr Levelin and Andres on this point.

I need be lacking in my duty, if I did not charge you that it is a most serious offence that is charged. I mean the offence alleged is an offence against a civilian in a foreign country. Just imagine what a consequence rule. [illegible] alleged then I may explain that it is most serious. Under British law every man is innocent till the contrary is proved beyond a reasonable doubt. Reasonable doubt is real and substantial doubt. It is not idle reflection that nothing in this life is absolutely certain. It is such a doubt as would make a reasonable man in the conduct of his own affairs and in a matter of importance to him pull up, hesitate and seriously consider whether he thinks he thinks of doing is right and if such a doubt exists in the mind of any member of this court then he is bound by law to interpret that doubt in favour of this accused soldier.

Any questions?

(No questions from Pros. Def or Court)

Statement in extenuation.

Acc wants his case on the first charge. As for the AWL it is an entirely different charge. Acc enlisted in May 1940 and shortly before an of 4c camp overseas posted as a tradesman. Not a regular but soldier but good tradesman. [illegible] front. In April he was at Worthing [illegible] apse. At that time he became fed up. Had [illegible] wife and her discontent and went off on a spree. Had [illegible] it idea". After his spree he found his unit had departed and he didn't know where to . Decided to keep off path. Any way he felt he was [illegible] it anyway. To charge brought against him till he came back here. was distressed and that explains first charge also.

Anxious to serve at the front.

Ask for leniency.

Ref the a/m I have to report that on 25Sep 44 I was detailed by Lieut Anderson, Offr i/c Antwerp Detachment 2 Cdn Provost Coy, to investigate a complaint from one L.Andries that he had been assaulted and robbed by two soldiers of the Cdn Army.

2. From information received I formed the opinion that the soldiers responsible for the robbery were RCASC personnel of 2 Cdn Inf Div and accordingly concentrated my investigation on RCASC Units within the Division. OC 2 Cdn Inf Div Tpt Coy RCASC Major Telford informed me that two men who answered the description of the robbers had been seen on two occasions in a Robeson Cafe when they were in possession of and spending a considerable amount of money. Mr. L Andries had alleged that 5000 Belgian francs and certain papers had been stolen from him.

3. After further enquiries I arranged an identification parade of personnel of 2 Cdn Inf Div Tpt Coy RCASC Echelon and Units parade the suspects were identified by Mr. L Andries as two of the two men here. No further positive identification of suspects was made by him and while [illegible] of the Cafe ARDENNE in Antwerp.

4. It was then ascertained that the SAVELIN had accompanied Pte THOMPSON on the date of the alleged robbery and a search of the unit revealed him to be A/T. On 26 Sep 44 after he had received information that SAVELIN had returned to his unit and was in rest Qtr, I proceeded to the billet and questioned the accused and obtained from a voluntary statement which he appended hereto together with copies of statements from witnesses. Pte Thompson refused to make any statement.

5. During the course of the assault and robbery Mr Andries received a blow to his face which necessitated stitches to close the wound. In addition to the loss of money he also suffered the loss of all his identity documents.

6. Charges of Robbery with Violence have been preferred against the a/m soldiers and forward herewith to the Units concerned together with copies of all available evidence.

"I am Madame A Westerlinck owner of the Cafe ANSELME. On Friday, 22 Sep 44 two Cdns came in my Cafe at approx 2130 hrs Mr. L Andries was already in the Cafe. The tall fellow bought two beers one for the Wife and one for himself, the short fellow had no beer. After a few minutes Mr. Andries asked the Cdns if the would have a drink with him, the said yes, he changed a 1000 franc note and bought two drinks. Shortly after he left the Cafe, after Mr Andries went out, the short fellow said to that tall one, "Come on we will go", they then followed him. Approx 5 minutes, Mr. Andries came back, and he was badly cut and bleeding from the face. I washed him up and he left for the doctor. On the 24 Sep 44, Sgt Ford of the Cdn Provost Corps came and he brought wit him Pte Thompson and three other Cdns, I positively identified Pte Thompson as the fellow who Mr Andries bought the drink for.

I have given the above statement to Sgt Ford of the Cdn Provost Corps and it is written by him.

I am B-136643 Pte M Havelin, B Cdn Coy RCASC. On the night of 22 Sep 44. The Thompson and myself were out drinking. We went to ANTWERP about 1930 hrs, we went to several Cafes and finally about 2130 hrs we came to the Cafe ANSELMO,. There were several Cdns and several civilians in the the Cafe. Thompson went to the bar and ordered two beers, one for himself and one for the girl behind the bar, In a few minutes, Mr. Andries came over and I felt that if I drank beer I would be sick. I sat down at a tabel about 10 or 12 feet from the bar. In a few minutes, Mr Andres came overs and asked if I would have a drink, I said "Yes", so he went up to the bar and bought two cognacs. I did not notice what size or all he paid for the drink with. Shortly after this he shook hands with me and left, as the bar was closing I said to Thompson, "Come on let's go". We went out with several other Cdns. Directly behind Mr Andries. After we got outside, Thompson said, "Lets follow that guy and we will ask the way home". Then we caught up to him, Thompson grabbed him by the arm and said something about which way to Monekem, He then said, "Giv me 200 I ran as I know you have the money", sudden there was a bit of a scuffle and Thompson broke away and ran after knocking the old man down. I did not know what had happened until Thompson called me and said,."come on let's get out of here in a hurry", He wanted me to run and I said "to hell with running, I can't run", he then said. "come on let's hurry, I got the guy's purse". After we had walked on a bit further, he handed me some money, 400 or 500 francs. We went into a Cafe before we crossed the bridge, and had a drink. After we came out and about when we were on the bridge, and we stopped for a piss and it was then when Thompson threw away the wallet. We then went on to Monoken and after spending some time in several Cafes we came home.

I have given the above statement to Sjt Ford of my own free will.

Prosecution

First witness B-73918 L/Cpl Adams H.W. Provost Corps having been duly sworn sworn, states –

Q. Are you a member of 3 Can Provost Coy.
A - yes
Q - are you stationed at Horsham
A - yes
Q - Tell the court what happened on 17 Oct 1942

A - About 1130, 17 Oct 42 I interviewed the accused at Horsham Police Station, and questioned him after duly cautioning him that anything he said could be used as evidence. I asked him if he knew a Sgt Stewart. He replied 'No'. I asked him if he had slept at the Horsham Hostel on 13 Oct 42. He said 'yes'. I asked him when he left and he replied 'At about 0730 on 14 Oct'. I neither used any force of persuasion nor did I make any promises to the accused. I then asked him if he knew Sgt Stewards wallet had been stolen & he replied No. I then asked why he had left the hostel so early in the morning & he replied he was going to Little Hampden. At this time the accused was under charge on an AWOL charge only, but I had reason to suspect the accused might have known something of this theft. Therefore I told him that on the evidence I had I was going to lay a theft charge against him concerning Sgt Stewards wallet. He denied stealing the wallet. I explained that my evidence was that he was A.W.L., was therefore without reason so to be absent from the hostel so early on the 14 Oct. On hearing this the accused [illegible] then replied "All right I took it". I then asked him - "Did you take Sgt Stewards wallet", he replied yes and said he would make a statement. The accused then wrote a full statement

Q. Was there any threat or coercion in obtaining this statement
A - None.

Q. Do you recognize this document as the statement made by the accused at this time?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you see him sign this document?

A. Yes.

The prosecution submits a statement signed by Thompson as Exhibit C

Q. Did the accused sign ~~this~~ write this statement of his own free will?

A. Yes

From information received I traced a pay book to the Pay Corps office at Horsham, and at about noon I went to this office I got a pay book which I found pages 3, 4, 5 6 and 2 3 were missing. On page 2 was written "B.2835[illegible] Pte Thompson". ~~which was printed~~ I see

Q. Do you recognize this pay book as the one you mentioned

A. Yes

The prosecution submits a Pay Book as Exhibit D

At about 2000, 18 Oct 1942 I went to Horsham Police Station with A/Cpl Quinn. I went in to see Pte Thompson and showed him this paybook Exhibit D and he said "Yes, that is my book." I cautioned him that anything he said could be used as evidence, then asked him if he was married or single, and questioned him about pages 3, 4, 5, 6 & 23. He replied "Yes, I tore them out."

Q. Was A/Cpl Quinn present at that time?

A. Yes.

He then wrote in my presence a statement which ~~this exhibit~~ did not refer to the missing pages

~~Q. Is this the statement written by the accused at that time.~~

~~A. Yes~~

Q. Is the paybook now as you found it

A. Yes

The defence ~~Accused~~ prosecutor cross examined the witness

Q. You asked him if he knew Sgt Steward, what did he answer

A. He replied 'no'

Q. You asked him at what time on 13 Oct he left the hostel in Horsham, what did he reply

A. He replied that he had left at about 0800

Q. Was there any ~~coercion~~ or force used in obtaining these statements

A. No.

Second Witness D-52736 W/Cpl Dunn, F.F. being duly sworn states. On 16 Oct 1942 at 2100 hrs I saw the accused in the Albion Terrace Road in Horsham and asked him for his pass and pay book. He could produce neither so he was placed under close arrest and escorted to the Civil Police Station. On 18 Oct in company with W/Cpl Adams I went to the Police Station in Horsham & saw the accused. W/Cpl Adams asked the accused if he knew where his pay book was, the reply was that it was lost. W/Cpl Adams then produced a pay book which the accused recognised.

Q - Do you recognise this pay book as the one in question

A - Yes.

The accused wrote a statement which did not include any reference to any missing pages

The defence cross examined the witness

Q - Did the accused make any reference to tearing out the missing pages at that time

A - No.

Third Witness, C-94142, Sgt Steward, J., being duly sworn the night of states. I belong to the 3 Div. Ord. W.R. Shop and on 13 Oct 42 I slept in the YMCA Hostel in a 5 bed room called the 'Small Room'. I retired there at about 2230 hours. Only one other bed was occupied, the occupant was a soldier getting undressed, I did not recognise him. I went to bed and to sleep, having hung my clothes on the chair. I had a walleel containing £5-4-0 and perso~~nal~~ documents, both in one compartment there is another wallet containing as follows - four £1-0-0 notes and one - 2 shilling piece and two - 1 shilling pieces. I placed the wallet under my pillow. I woke up at 0500 hrs and pulled some clothes on to my bed, I saw a man sleeping in the bed beside me. This was not the bed that was occupied last night. I thought I saw the man move, took no notice and went back to sleep. I did not notice if the man I had seen the previous night was in the room. At 0745 I was awakened by the hostel keeper, I got up, looked under the pillow and found the wallet and contents were gone. No one else was in the room at this time. I have not seen my wallet since that day, nor have I recovered any of the contents

Q - Are you sure of the amount of money in your wallet

A - yes

The defence proceeded to cross-examine the witness

Q. When did you last count your money.

A. at about 2000 hours the night before.

Q - Do you recognise the accused.

A. No.

R.P. 40(A) was complied with. The accused stated he wishes to make a statement on oath and that no other witnesses would be called.

Defence

First witness B-28359 Pte. Thompson W.H. RCOC being duly sworn states. On 13 Oct at about 2340 hrs I entered the YMCA hostel at Horsham and prepared to go to bed - in the "Small Room" Numbers one and five beds were occupied My bed was number 2. I recognise Sgt Stewart as the occupant of "1 Bed. but did not know the occupant of "5"

Between 0730-0800 hours on 14 oct. I left the Hostel because we had been warned to leave early. Sgt Stewart was still in bed, I believe the other occupant had left

Q. are you sure he had left

A - No

on 17 oct in the morning. L/Cpl Adams & Detect Leaker of Horsham Civil Police questioned me regarding the loss of the wallet. L/Cpl Adams told me a wallet had been stolen in the hostel & asked me if I had known Sgt Stewart. I told him I knew Sgt Stewart by sight, having seen him around the hostel prior to the 13 October. I stated I knew nothing of the loss of this wallet. Detective Leaker asked me why I had left the hostel so early & where I had gone, I told him that I had gone to Littlehampton to see friends. Det Lee Leaker phoned Littlehampton to verify this. L/Cpl Adams asked me how I was living in Horsham without funds, I told him the names of friends who had loaned me money. He asked me if I had stolen Sgt Stewarts wallet. I said "No". He told me that if I were not careful my girl friend would be implicated. He then told me that if I made a statement concerning the theft of the wallet - a confession - My girl friend's name would be kept out of the case. I then signed prepared the statement.

On 18 oct both L/Cpl Adams & Quinn came to see me about my pay book. I told him I had lost it. He produced one which I recognised as mine. He asked me about the missing pages and I said I knew nothing about them.

Q. You knew nothing of loss of wallet.

A. No. I only signed the statement because I wished to keep my lady friend out of it.

The prosecution proceed to cross-examine the witness

Q How could your lady friend have been involved in this case at all

A I was told by L/Cpl Adams that she might be involved because she had been harbouring me while I was A.W.L., and so I made the statement

Q- Why did you sign the statement stating you had Q-stolen £2-2-0 but refused to sign for the full amount
A- I had had £2-2-0 in my pocket before I left for Littlehampton and I thought they might check on the money I had spent in Littlehampton.

The prosecution states he has confined his cross examination of the accused to the admissability of the statements as the accused had the right to give evidence on that question only. When the document was rendered as an exhibit He now asks leave to recall L/Cpl Adams in rebuttal of the accused's evidence as to the inducement

Prosecution Fourth Witness

L/Cpl Adams being recalled, states

Q. The accused has stated that you told him his girl friend might be involved in charges against the accused. If the accused would not sign a confession

A - When the accused was brought to the Police Station on 16 Oct he was searched. On his person was a package of cigarettes among other items. They were laid out on the counter ~~After the accused had been looked up I the detective sergt noticed these cigarettes~~ As a On 16 October we went to a house on Horsham and questioned a woman. On 17 Oct I asked the accused if he knew the woman I had visited on the 16 Oct He replied "Yes, but you are not going to bring her into this. I replied no.

Q - Did you say that you might bring her into the case if he didn't sign a confession

A - No.

He accused stated he was very fond of this woman and did not want her implicated. I told him I did not think she would be implicated with harbouring a soldier who was A W L.

Q. Did you or did you not tell the accused that this woman would be kept out of the case if he would sign a confession of stealing the wallet

A - No.

Q - Did you make any inducement of any kind whatso ever before the accused made his confession.

A - No.

The defence declined to cross examine the witness

The Court proceeded to question the witness

Q - When you told the accused that the confession he had made was incorrect in the amount of money in the wallet, it should have been £ 3-4-0 instead of £ 2-2-0., what did he reply. Sgt Hayward stated it

A. He replied that $1-00 was in the bill fold £100 in the stamp compartment and the two shillings in the bill fold that was all he had seen in the wallet & kept for some personal effects.

Q - Did the accused at that time make any statement as to how he had disposed of the wallet

A - He stated that he had gone into the toilet on the morning of the 14 ult, removed the money from the wallet and left the wallet in the toilet.

Q. What information is shown on Pages 3, 4, 5, 6 and 23 of a soldiers pay book

A - Page 3 - unit & corps
4 & 5 - next of kin and address
6 - rank and appointment
23 - details of a will

Prosecution

~~The second witness for the defence~~
The accused was recalled for cross examination

Q - You have heard L/Cpl Adams ~~statement~~ giving your statement when requested to alter your confession to include the full amount stated to be lost. Was this statement made by you to L/Cpl Adams.

A - I did make that statement to L/Cpl Adams. I told him that all I had seen was £2-2-0 in the wallet. I also told him I went to the lavatory, removed the money and left the wallet there

Q - When did you last have in your possession the pay book which I have here.

A - Somewhere about the 29 ~~October~~ September - I lost it in Horsham

Q - Can you give any account of the missing pages.

A - No.

Q - Was this pay book complete when it was lost

A - Yes.

Prosecution Final Address

A confession of any sort must be proved by the prosecution to be voluntary before it is admissable. If the court accepts the evidence of L/Cpl Adams and L/Cpl Quinn. Then I feel the confession was voluntary. If the court believes the accused Then I feel about the confession should not be admitted. It has been accepted as an exhibit, but I think the record should show whether the court did in fact accept it. To be free & voluntary the confession must not be obtained by any threat promise or inducement. The admission refers only to the second charge ~~on the fourth charge I would like to say there is evidence of L/Cpl Adams that~~

Concerning the fourth charge, it is felt that the charge which the accused admits making in his pay book i.e. entering

SINGLE when on his own admission he is married, there a direct bearing on the pages which are missing from the book the missing pages (i.e page 4, 4S) deal with information on a similar subject i.e details of next of Kin, & the prosecution feels that the pages were removed with the intention of concealing the accused's married state Defence Final Address.

No evidence that the accused removed pay book sheets
No evidence that it was necessary to ever remove sheets
No direct definite evidence that accused stole the money

The Court closed to consider the finding.

Finding

4 charge - not guilty. announced to accused.

Summary of Evidence read in respect to guilty plea & marked "G"

Capt W.B. Bredin, being duly sworn stated:

I produce certified copy of M.F.H. 6 (EXHIBIT "F") relating to the accused which is a true copy of the original, and I also produce a short statement as to particulars of service (Ex "E") relating to the accused signature of Captain Sayers of H.Q. 1 Can. Div.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness

The accused wishes to address the court in respect of mitigation of punishment. He stated he had been a cook for some months & felt that on several occasions he had been unfairly criticized & had got "fed up".

He accused did not at any time change his story concerning the second charge.

Summary of Evidence in the case of
B 28395 Pte. Thompson, William Henry,
R.C.O.C. 1 Con. Div., C.A.D., charged with A.W.L. (Sec. 15 (1) A.A.) stealing (Sec 18 (1) A.A.)
& making a false statement (Sec 25 A.A.)

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness. B 73918 L/Cpl. Adams, John W. No 3 Con. Provost Corps, sworn, stated:-

On 16 Oct 42 I was on duty at Shoreham, Sussex. There is a detachment of No 3 Con. Provost Corps stationed at Shoreham & I am with that detachment. I recognise the accused, he is Pte Thompson. He. I have seen him at the Y.M.C.A. Hostel before 16 Oct 42. I was talking to him there around the 6th & 9th Oct. On 16 Oct 42 I stopped the accused at Albion Terrace Shoreham & asked him for his pass. He said "I have not got one" I asked him was his name Thompson. He said "yes". I asked him if he was A.W.L. He said "yes". I asked him how long he was A.W.L. & he said since the 25th of September. I told him he was under close arrest & told him he was charged with being A.W.L. I escorted him to the civil police station at Shoreham & he detained until his unit was notified & told him he would be returned under escort.

On Oct 17 I accompanied Detective Lester of the Shoreham civil police to the Post Office, Shoreham, as I had reason to believe the accused had an account there, which I found he did not have. I returned to the civil police station. I questioned the accused in the presence of Detective Lester, first cautioning him I told him that anything he said could be used against him as evidence. I then questioned him. I asked him if he knew a Sgt. Stewart who had stopped at the hostel on the night of Oct. 13th. He said "yes" I said "Do you know that he was robbed of a wallet?" He said "no". I asked him what time he had left the hostel on Oct 14th & he said about 8 o'clock & that he had then caught a bus to go to Littlehampton. I asked him where he slept on the night of Oct 13th. He said "at the Y.M.C.A. hostel next to Sgt. ~~Easter~~ Stewart. I then asked him his reason for leaving so early in the morning & he said "I was just going down to Littlehampton for the day." I then told him that the evidence I had was enough to lay a charge of theft against him & advised him of my existence, that is that he had been in the next bed to Sgt. ~~Easter~~ Stewart & that he had left early that morning. Detective Lester questioned the accused as to his movements in Littlehampton. He accused then said he would make a written statement. He also verbally admitted stealing Sgt. ~~Easter's~~ Stewart's wallet — his words were "Alright I stole it". Det. Lester then gave him paper & told him to write in his own words. The accused then wrote a ~~written~~ confession which he signed in my presence (Ex. "A") I signed as witness & so did Det. Lester.

On Oct 18 from information received I proceeded to the Anchor Inn, Stoke-on-Trym, to enquire about a pay book. I then proceeded to the Pay Corps Office, Horsham, where I picked up the accused's pay book (Ex "B") I received it from a Staff Sgt. On examining same I found pages 3-6 missing & also p. 23, & that the word "single" on page 2 & page 19 appeared to have been just entered lately. At about 2000 hrs. on Oct 17 in company with Lt/Cpl. Cousins of the No 3 Coy Pay Corps. I showed this pay book to the accused. I asked him where his pay book was & he said he had lost it. I then showed him Ex. B & asked him if it was his. He said "yes" I asked him are you a married man? " & he said "yes" I then said did you change the word married to single on p. 2 & 18. he said "yes". I then asked him about pages 3 to 6 & p. 23, he said that he had torn them out. I then asked him about an entry on p. 17 in regard to privilege leave & he said that had been entered by a Cpl. MacPherson which I later found to be true. He then volunteered to make a written statement & he did so of his own free will.

I identify this document as the written statement (Ex "C") which he wrote & signed in my presence, & the presence of L/Cpl. Quinn & we both signed it. We were then at Hroken civil police station. I forwarded Ex. A B & C to the O.C. No 3 Con. Provost Corps Staf. is Capt. Law.

Second Witness D82736 L/Cpl Quinn F.F. No 3 Con Provost Corps, sworn, states:

I recognise the accused as Pte. Thompson. On 16 Oct 42 at about 2115 hrs. while in company with L/Cpl. Adams I placed Pte Thompson under close arrest as he could not produce a pass or a pay book. L/Cpl. Adams questioned him & Pte Thompson admitted being absent from his unit for about 21 days. L/Cpl. Adams & I escorted the accused to the civil police station at Hroken. The arrest took place at Hroken

In the civil police station at Hroken on 17 Oct. at about 0830 hrs. I saw the accused. L/Cpl. Adams was with me. L/Cpl. Adams then asked the accused if he knew anything about the whereabouts of the pay book. The accused answered that he had lost it. Then L/Cpl. Adams showed him a pay book which I recognise as Ex. "B". Pte Thompson was asked whether he recognised the pay book as his own & he said it was his own. Then L/Cpl. Adams asked the accused if he wished to make a written statement admitting that this was his pay book & that there are a few pages missing from it & also a charge made in the book. The accused made out the statement & I witnessed it & so did L/Cpl. Adams. I recognise the statement as Ex "C" & my signature is on it. There was no threat or inducement made to the accused at any time & he wrote Ex "C" Voluntarily.

Third Witness P27946 S/maj. Cheshire C.C.D. H.Q. 1 Cdn Div

Sworn States:

I know the accused Pte Thompson W. On 24 Sep 42 he was employed as general duty man at H.Q. 1 Cdn Div. On morning of 25th Sep 42 at 0700 hrs. Pte Thompson was on P.T. parade & answered his name at roll call. I called the roll. He was also on breakfast parade at 0745 hrs. I saw him again at about 0815 in the courtyard at Div. H.Q. I called to him & asked him if he was ready to go. He was posted to go to the Mobile Bath Coy RCOC on the 25th Sept & transport supplied by H.Q. 1 Cdn. Div. The truck reported to the Orderly Room at approx. 0840 on 25th Sep. I went to Pte Thompson's barrack-room at about 0840 - 0845 hrs to tell him the truck was here but he was nowhere around. I looked around the camp area but could find no trace of him. I held the truck until 0900 hrs. & then dispatched it as there were other men being posted to other units. I saw the truck leave. Pte Thompson was not on the truck. I reported by phone to the Prov. Coy. Pte Thompson's absence on 27th & 28th Sept.

Since the 25th Sep 42 until 18th & 19th Oct 42 when on escort was sent to Stroudsburg to pick Pte Thompson up, he was absent. I called the roll at P.T. parade at 0700 hrs. every morning with exception of possibly 5 days during period 25th Sep 42 to 18th Oct 42 & Pte Thompson was not present at any of these parades. If Pte Thompson had been within camp area during above period I would have seen him - he was absent throughout above period. All men unless on duty or pass attend the morning P.T. parade

attached to Reg. H. Chandler, sworn, states:-

I was on leave at Horsham, Sussex on 13 Oct 42. I went to the Y.M.C.A. hostel there at about 2230 hrs. I had been staying there from 10 Oct. On the night of 13 Oct I was given a bed in a room known as the "small room". There are 5 beds in it. I went to bed about 2240 after taking about 5 mins. to undress. Only one of the other beds was occupied. When I went to the room the other occupant was standing by his bed talking & got undressed. I do not know who the man was. When I got in to bed the light was still on. I had a wallet. It contained £5.4, three a/c 2/- piece & 2 loose shillings, a £1 note in the zipped part & 4 other £1 notes in another part of the wallet, together with my leave pass, return ticket to Three Bridges & pictures & other personal papers. After undressing I put the wallet under my pillow. I went to sleep almost as soon as I got into bed. I woke up at about 0600 hrs. as I was cold & pulled my blanket & pants up to my bed. I noticed a man in the bed next to me. He was not the man who was in the room the night before. I don't know whether that man was still in the room or not. I noticed the man in the bed next to me move but I took no notice & went to sleep again. The lady in duty awoke me at about 0745 hrs. I got up & looked underneath my pillow & my wallet was gone. The man who had been sleeping next to me was gone. The other man had also gone. I reported the lady & the night steward that I had been robbed. I have not seen my wallet & any of the contents since.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Form for Assembly and Proceedings of Field General Court Martial on Active Service.

PROCEEDINGS.

A.
Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this TWENTY-FOURTH day of SEPTEMBER, 1942.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of FOURTH CANADIAN INFANTRY BRIGADE, Canadian Army (Active), on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *[illegible]

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit if not applicable.

*[illegible]

In my opinion, military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units, and difficulties of communication, and other difficulties, render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of those rules inconsistent with Appendix 'A' to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the person named on the schedule.

2nd Witness Det Const Barnett A6 duly sworn states

I am at Hillchampton a Det. C. At 19.20. 12/9/42 with P.C. Edwards I visited 38 Base R.D., Wick. The premises of Mrs Joan Dorby. The door was answered by Mrs Dorby and in room I what I told her she desired us to come. In a room in the Kitchen we found 2 carpet bags, filled with woollen articles for the military army. In the house at the time was another woman and two Canadian soldiers one of whom was the defendant Edmund Chifney. I thereupon accompanied visit to Kitchener and on appeal Thompson and he had brought there woollen articles to be washed. The women and Thompson present the wool would be useful for knitting. We left on Kitchener I noticed table was laid and on plates were 5 pairs of hose - thick. When they left the Belgs returned approx 19.50 hrs to the end on RP We then took possession of the 2 sandbags & contents & Thompson was taken to the D/A/G/S by the RP at the B.O.R. Upon examining the contents / Sandbags we found

2 hats
2 chest warmers
4 assorted gloves / mitts
2 prs sox

At the B.O.R. I told Thompson I should require to know where the item had come from. Without further ceremony Thomp replied "I took it up it was some left over from supper."

Cross-exam.

I could identify the contents of exhibit A & B by their quantity quantity and appearance. I gave Thompson no warning because I had no certain knowledge of an offence. Thompson did not remark later he brought the item from the cook-house.

4th Witness Capt. Ryall R.R.C. Duly sworn states.

On the 11/4/42 Bacon was issued to the Regt for consumption 12/4/42. Accused is identified. PTE Thompson was cook for Transport Group and on occasions would draw rations for this group. He was the only cook for this group. Various articles emptied out of bags and identified either as Army issue or privately Knitted. There are 27 exp comforts and ½ pr socks & more than one is issued per soldier.

Cross Examination.

Had a pair of clothes in 2/3 store. On various occasions I told men who had not facilities of getting to their own 2/3 store to make up any deficiencies they might require by taking them from this pile of clothing which was from the Kits of men who failed to return from Alpp. I can definitely state that certain of these articles are Govt issue. It might have been possible for PTE Thompson to construe my remarks as meaning "His clothing is available, help yourselves."

Abstract of Evidence in the case of: B-66743 Private THOMPSON, W.L., 1st Bn. The Royal Regiment of Canada.

First Witness, B-66756, L/Cpl BUTLER, H.W., R.C.O.C. att 1 R.REGT.C.

will state that on Saturday, 12 Sep 42, he went into the kitchen of the Transport Platoon Mess Hall at about 1355 hours to get a cup of tea. While there, Pte. Thompson, the cook asked him if he would get a truck and take him, Thompson, to get rations at the Q.M. Stores. He saw the Transport Sergeant, Sgt. McLeod, who gave him permission to use a blitz buggy. This he brought around to the cook-house door and then Thompson placed two sandbags and some containers in it. He and Thompson started for the Q.M. Stores. Just before they got there, Thompson asked him to stop while he spoke to a girl in the street. The girl handed Thompson something which he couldn't see. They started on their way again and as they were about to turn into the driveway leading to the Stores, Thompson asked him if he would mind taking him up to house so that he, Thompson could leave his laundry in. He agreed to this. They went up to North Street, Littlehampton, turned on to it and at the first turning, turned left, stopping at the first house on the left. Thompson got out of the blitz buggy and took the two sandbags which he had previously placed in it into the house. Thompson used a key to open the door of the house, the sand bags were both full.

Second Witness, P.C. H. Edwards, Police Station, LITTLEHAMPTON.

Will state that at about 7.20 p.m., Saturday, 12 Sep 42, accompanied by Det. Const. Barnett he visited No. 38, Beaconsfield Road, Wick. He will describe where this is. On arriving there, a Miss Joan Gisby answered the door and admitted them. Pte. Thompson, of the Royal Regiment of Canada, was in the house. They proceeded to the kitchen where he and Barnett found in a recess, two sandbags containing khaki woolen goods. Pte. Thompson on being questioned, stated that he had brought them there to "get them washed". This remark was endorsed by Miss Gisby who was present, and who also added that the wool would come in useful for re-knitting. He and Barnett then left the house to get a member of the Regimental Police. The three of them returned at about 7.50 p.m. the same night, and took possession of the bags. He took one, Barnett the other. In the bag he recovered from the house were twenty nine balaclava helmets, three scarves, seven pairs of gloves and thirteen pairs of socks. On their first visit, he noticed that a meal had beenlaid on the table in the kitchen and that there were four plates each bearing a large thick slice of cooked ham. When they took the sandbags away from the house, they took Thompson with them and proceeded to The Royal Regiment of Canada Orderly Room where they saw the Duty Officer Lieut P. Biggs, and with whom they left the sandbags and contents. At the Orderly Room, Barnett asked Thompson about the ham and Thompson replied "I took it up there, it was some left over from supper".

Third Witness, Det. Constable A.G. Barnett, Police Station, ARUNDEL.

will state that at about 7.20 p.m. on Saturday, 12 Sep 42, accompanied by P.C. Edwards, he visited No 38, Beaconsfield Rd., Wick, and that they were admitted to the house by a Miss Joan Gisby. With Miss Gisby, he and Edwards went into the kitchen where they found two sandbags full of khaki woolen goods. Pte. Thompson stated that he had brought them to the house "to get them washed" and the woman stated it was her intention to wash same. Miss Gisby added that the wool would come in useful to re-knit. On the kitchen table, he noticed a meal for four people had been laid out and that five thick slices of cooked ham were lying on the plates. He and Edwards left the premises to get a member of the Regimental Police. The three of them then returned at about 7.50 p.m. on the same night. He took possession of one sandbag, Barnett the other, and accompanied by Thompson, they proceeded to the Royal Regiment of Canada Orderly Room where Pte. Thompson was seen by the Duty Officer Lieut P. Biggs, and to whom the two bags with contents were turned over. The bag he took contained forty-two knitted helmets, two knitted chest protectors, two knitted caps, four various gloves and mittens, and two prs of socks. When he asked Thompson about the ham, he had seen at the house, Thompson said "I took it up, it was some left over from supper".

Fourth Witness, Lieut P. Biggs, 1 R. REGT. C.,

will state that at about 2000 hours, Saturday 12 Sep 42, Pte. Thompson, in charge of a member of the Regimental Police and two police officers was brought to him while he was acting as Bn Duty Officer at the Battalion Orderly Room. The police officers each had a bag containing khaki woolen goods. The bags together with contents marked exhibits A and B are the bags brought in by the police officers. That he counted the contents of the bags which consisted of seventy two woolen helmets, thirteen pairs of socks, eleven pars of woolen gloves, five woolen scarves and two woolen chest protectors. He heard Pte. Thompson state to the police officers that he, Thompson, had taken "some ham up it was some left over from supper".

Fifth Witness, Capt. E.J.H. Ryall, Quartermaster, 1 R. REGT. C., will state that ham was issued to the cookhouse of the Transport Platoon, HQ Coy, 1 R. REGT. C., on Friday 11 Sep 42 for consumption on the following day (Saturday), and that Pte. Thompson was employed as cook at this cookhouse. He will give values of certain goods shown him, and will state that they are army issue, viz:

72 cap comforters @ 0/1/1½d	4	1	0
11 prs gloves, knitted @ 0/2/7½d	1	8	10½
13 prs socks, worsted @ 0/1/8d	1	1	8
Total:	£6.	11.	6

Sixth Witness, Miss Joan Gisby, 38, Beaconsfield Road, WICK, will state that on Saturday, 12 Sep 42, she met Pte. Wilson Thompson on Pier Road, LITTLEHAMPTON, at which time she handed him the key to her house at the above address. At about 5.45 p.m. the same day, Thompson came up to the house bringing with him about half a pound of ham. When Thompson came in he told her about the sandbags of woolen goods which he wanted washed and which he told her he had brought up when he got the key from her. She knew that the ham was Army Rations.

Defending Offr.	Lieut. S.B. Williams	7 Cdn. A Fd. Regt RCA

The President produced the Convening Order, Charge Sheets and Summary of Evidence.

The President in closed court, read the CONVENING ORDER and the CHARGE SHEETS to the Members, and the COURT satisfied themselves that it was properly Convened, and Constituted. That the Accused is amenable to Military Law and that the CHARGES disclosed an OFFENCE.

The accused is brought before the Court and at 1100 hrs the Trial Commenced.

The prosecuting Officer produced and handed to the Court a Medical Certificate that the Accused had this day been examined and is fit to undergo Trial by Court Martial.

The Certificate is signed by the President and is attached hereto.

President to Accused.
Ques. 1. Do you object to A-32152 Gnr Sawden, L.E., 7 Cdn A Fd. Regt RCA as Shorthand Writer in your hearing?
Ans. 1. No Sir.

A-32152 Gnr Sawden, L.E. was Duly Sworn.

The Convening Order was read in the hearing of the Accused and the President and Members severally answered to their names.

President to Accused.
Ques. 2. Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the Officers whose names you have heard read over.
Ans. 2. No Sir.

The President and Members are Duly Sworn.

The Charge Sheets were read to the Accused, signed by the President and are attached hereto.

The Prosecuter informed the Court that the Accused has NOT elected Trial by Court Martial.

President to accused,

Ques. 3 Having heard the first charge as read do you plead guilty or not guilty.

Ans. 3 Guilty Sir.

Ques 4 Having heard the second charge as read do you plead guilty or not guilty?

Ans. 4 NOT guilty. Sir.

President to Court,

We will proceed to deal with the second charge.

Prosecutor.

I do not wish to bore the Court with other than the evidence contained in the Summary of Evidence, and with the permission of the Court I would like to proceed with calling a witness for the prosecution.

Witness (L26221 BSM Henderson P.W.) called and duly Sworn, states.

I am L26221 BSM Henderson P.W. At about 1400 hrs 9 Sept 43 in the ablution room in the 45 Bty lines , I detailed Gnr. Coulter to appear at guard mounting that night. When I had detailed Gnr Coulter to appear on the guard, Gnr Thompson looking at Gnr Coulter said " If Im put on guard tonight I would go over the fucking hill". He repeated the same remarks to me looking straight at me. I placed him under open arrest for insolence. That is all sir.

Defence declines to examine the witness.

Defending Offr.

I wish to call C1821 Gnr Coulter B.H. as a witness for the defense.

Witness (C1821 Gnr Coulter B.H.) is called and duly Sworn, states.

I was in the washroom when Gnr Thompson and BSM Henderson came in and BSM Henderson said something about going on fireman or something. I went on shaving and never paid any attention to what they were talking about.

Prosecutor declines to examine the witness.

President to witness,

Ques 5 Coulter, how long have you been acquainted with the accused?

Ans. 5 About 2 years.

Ques 6 While in the washroom how far away were you from BSM Henderson and the accused?

Ans. 6 They were at one bench and I was at the other.

Ques 7 How far apart were the two benches?

Ans 7 About 12 feet Sir.

Defending Officer.

Ques 8 Did you hear Gnr Thompson say that if he were put on guard he would go over the fucking hill?

Ans 8 No Sir.

Witness retires.

President to accused.

If you wish to give evidence yourself you will be subject to cross-examination. You may however make an unsworn statement which will not be subject to cross examination.

Ques 9 Do you wish to give evidence yourself?

Ans 9 Yes Sir.

Accused is Sworn and proceedes to give evidence in his own behalf.

Contd sheet 3

Evidence of accused,

I was in the washroom sir, RSM Henderson came in and warned me for fireman, Gnr Coulter for guard. He asked me whether I would start doing it and I said as soon as I finish shaving. That was all that was said between us.

Witness retires.

Capt. A Melanson called as a Character witness duly Sworn states,
I was troop Cmdr of D troop for approx 10 months during which time Gnr Thompson W.V. was on the strength of the troop, and was employed as one of my drivers. During this time I found Gnr Thompson to be a good average soldier. He caused me no trouble from a disciplinary point of view I found him to be obiedient.

Prosecution declines to examine the witness.

Defending Offr to witness,
Ques 10 How long ago was it you were troop Cmdr of D troop?
Ans 10 Approx 10 Aug. 43

Witness retires.

Prosecutor addresses the Court,
The accused has had the expert advice of my learned friend but as the accused was not speaking the truth he overlooked one point. The accused has pleaded guilty to the first charge which includes" while in open arrest " Therefor I submit to the Court that he in effect pleaded guilty to the second charge, or else when was he he placed under open arrest, by whom, for what. If this cannot be proved by the accused the accused is therefor guilty of the second charge. He is also guilty of perjury I would ask the court to consider laying a charge of perjury against the accused.

Defending Offr addresses the Court,
The accused is being tried for insolence. We have before us the sworn statement of Gnr. Coulter that he did not hear any insolent remarks passed. The accused has taken the floor as a witness himself and states that he has made no such remark. The Prosecutor has produced one witness who states that the offence occurred, but no supporting proof. With reference the Prosecutors remarks regarding open arrest, I would submit that at no time has the accused said that he was not under open arrest. The accused has an almost clean conduct sheet. He has been in the army for some considerable time and has received a favourable character reference from his former Troop Commander. Therefore there is no reason for doubting his truthfulness regarding this matter.

The Court is Closed to Consider the Findings.
The findings of the Court on the second Charge are entered on the second page of A.F.A.3 and signed and dated by the President.

The court is reopened to hear the first charge,

Contd page 4

Hearing Of The First Charge.

President to the accused.

You have pleaded guilty to the first charge, and you have been warned as to the nature of your plea.

Ques,11 Do you desire to make any statement of the circumstances in reference to the charge.

Ans 11 No Sir.

Ques 12 The Summary Of Evidence has been read in your hearing. Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?

Ans 12 No Sir.

Ques 13 Do you wish to give evidence yourself, or make a statement, or call any witnesses as to character.

Ans 14 No Sir.

Prosecutor reads Statement of Character and Service, and hands it with with Field Conduct sheet to the Court.

President to accused.

Ques 15 Do you wish to address the Court on your Statement of Character, Service and Conduct in further mitigation of punishment.

Ans 15 The regt left Sir, We didnt know whether it was going overseas or not, and we didnt like the idea of being left behind.

Defending Offr. addresses the Court.

The accused Sir has had only one minor crime during his service. I would like to stress the evidence of Capt Nixon in the previous case of Gnr Coulter, to the effect that it was the opinion of some members of the battery that the regt probably was proceeding overseas, and the accused was probably depressed.

President to the Court.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence. The sentence of the Court being subject to confirmation, will not be announced but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open Court are accordingly terminated.

The sentence is recorded, dated and signed by the President on p.2 A.F.A.3 attached hereto.

Summary of Evidence in the case of C1470 Gnr. William Marshall Thompson, 7 Canadian Army Field Regiment, Canadian Army Overseas, charged with absence without leave from 9 Sep 43 to 13 Sep 43, and of neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness

I26221 BSM. Henderson, P.W., Rear Party, 7 Cdn Army Fd Regt, sworn, states:-

I was on 9 Sep 43, and am still, B.S.M. of Rear Party, 7 Cdn Army Fd Regt. I am aquainted with C1470 Gnr. Thompson, W.M. whom I recognize here as the accused, and who became a member of the Rear Party at about 1000 hrs 9 Sep 43 when the Main Party moved out on exercise Harlequin. At about 1000 hrs I warned Gnr. Thompson that there would be a Rear Party parade at at 1330 hrs. At 1330 hrs 9 Sep 43 when I called the roll the accused di not answer his name. At about 1400 hrs I found the accused in the Ablution Hut and I ordered him to take over the duties of fireman at the incinerator. I then warned C1621 Gnr. Coulter B.H. for guard for 1800 hrs that day and the accused , Gnr. Thompson, remarked that if he were ordered to go on guard he would "go over the fucking hill". Gnr. Coulter protested about being put on guard whereupon the accused repeated the foregoing remark. I immediately placed him under open arrest for insolence. I went about my duties and about 1500 hrs I went to the incinerator to see if the accused was on the job. Gnr. Thompson was not on the job and I found him in the Ablution Hut and asked him when he was going to start the job. He replied as soon as he was shaved. At about 1530 hrs when I came around to check up on the accused I could not find him. At about 1700 hrs I reported to Mr. King that the accused, Gnr. Thompson, was absent without leave. When I called the Rear Party roll at 0830 hrs and 1330 hrs 10 Sep 43 the accused did not answer his name. There were no other Rear Party roll calls because the Rear Party left the area on exercise Harlequin and when it returned the men rejoined their sub-sections. I did not see the accused after 1530 hrs 9 Sep 43, until I saw him in custody in the unit guard room on 13 Sep 43.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Second Witness

C26227 Bdr. Pinfold, E.M., 7 Cdn A Fd Regt, sworn, states:-

I was, on 11 Sep 43 and am still, Bombardier of "F" Sub-Section, D Tp, 45 Cdn Fd Bty, 7 Cdn A Fd Regt. I am well acquainted with C1470 Gnr. Thompson, W.M., whom I recognize here as the accused and who has been for the last month a member of my sub-section. At the first parade at about 0800 hrs 11 Sep 43, I called the roll of my sub-section and the accused did not answer his name. I have called the sub-section roll on all subsequent parades and the accused has not been present. I did not see him again until I saw him in custody in the unit guard room on 13 Sep 43.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Fourth Witness

C1821 Gnr. Coulter, B.H., 7 Cdn A Fd Regt., sworn, states:-

I was, on 9 Sep 43 and am still, a gnr of 45 Cdn Fd Bty, 7 Cdn A Fd Regt. I am well acquainted with C1470 Gnr. Thompson, W.M, whom I recognize here as the accused. On 9 Sep 43 about 1500 hrs I was in the ablution hut when BSM Henderson, P.W. came in, and I heard some talk about a fireman at the incinerator between BSM Henderson, P.W. and the accused. I did not hear any remarks that I can remember.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Fifth Witness

A31004 L/Bdr. Leppard, O.E., 7 Cdn A Fd Regt, sworn states:-

I was, on 13 Sep 43 and am still, a Lance Bombardier of the 7 Cdn A Fd Regt. I am well acquainted with C1470 Gnr. Thompson, W.M. and recognize him here as the accused. On 13 Sep 43 I was Orderly Bombardier. At approximately 1340 hrs the accused presented himself at the Battery Office and stated that he was reporting in from absence without leave. He was sober and properly dressed. I put him under close arrest at once and reported the fact to the orderly Sergeant.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Sixth Witness

Major R.W. Thompson, 7 Cdn A Fd Regt, sworn, states:-

I was, on 8 Sep 43 and am still, the Officer Commanding 45 Bty, 7 Cdn Army Fd Regt. I am aquainted with C1470 Gnr. Thompson, W.M. whom I recognize here as the accused. On several occasions before exercise Harlequin took place, I spoke to the 45 Bty either by troops or to the battery as a whole and warned them that confinement to barracks would be in effect during the exercise. On each occasion I pointed out the importance of the confinement to barracks order, and how necessary it was that such an order be complied with. The last occasion that I referred to this matter was on a Battery Muster Parade held on Wednesday, 8 Sep 43. This was the day before the Main Party left camp. On this parade the names of the Rear Party personnel were read out, which included the accused, Gnr. Thompson, and they were particularly warned that they were confined to barracks until further notice.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Major R.W. Thompson

Seventh Witness

A33093 BSM. Bateman, M.E., 7 Cdn Army Fd Regt, sworn, states:-

I was, on 8 Sep 43, and am still, B.S.M. of "D" Troop, 45 Bty, 7 Cdn Army Fd Regt. I am well aquainted with C1470 Gnr. Thompson, W.M., whom I recognize here as the accused. On either 7 Sep 43 or 8 Sep 43 a muster parade was held of "D" Troop, 45 Bty, at which the accused, Gnr. Thompson, was present. The parade was held to hear a talk by Major R.W. Thompson at which he stressed the fact that the battery was confined to barracks and at which he notified the Rear Party personnel, of which the accused was one, that they would not be going with the Main Party.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this Twenty-fourth day of July, 1942.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of Second Canadian Infantry Brigade, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *[and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer.]

*Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers appointed or detailed hereunder.

A.2. On 30 Jun 42, at about 0400 hrs. I found him in the house of Mrs Dykstra, #229 West Regents Street, Glasgow. We were making a search of the house and discovered the Accused under a bed in the kitchen. This was a suspected immoral house and it was therefore necessary for us to question each man & woman in the house. During the course of doing this I interrogated the Accused who produced the following documents which appeared to have been issued:-

1) Certificate of Registration
2) Identity Card
3) Ration Card

} in the name of:- Robert Walker

After some questioning the Accused admitted that he had been A.W.L. from his regiment, P.P.C.L.I., at Brighton since December 1941. I asked him for his Pay Book and he stated that he had flung it onto a shelf in the kitchen just before his arrest. Later I returned to the house and retrieved Part I of his Pay Book.

In accordance with the usual practice when dealing with Soldiers who are A.W.L. I questioned him regarding his military uniform. The Accused stated that he had disposed of it in a Café in the town, but was unable to state where or give me any indication of the locality. He informed me that he was endeavouring to get together his military kit in order to return shortly to his Regiment. He volunteered that a certain woman residing with him in the house at 229 West Regents Street had been the child which had subsequently died and that as all that was finished he was preparing to return to his unit.

Q 9. Did you speak to the woman?

A 9. Yes, & I know that this story is true.

Q. 10. Where did you charge the Accused?

A. 10. I charged him from the Box at the Marine Divisional Police Office with being an Absentee.

CROSS EXAMINATION by Defending Officer.

Q. 11. At what time did you arrest the Accused?

A. 11. 0400hrs.

Q. 12. At what time did the Accused appear before the Magistrate?

A. 12. 0900hrs the following same morning.

Q. 13. At the time of his arrest how was the Accused dressed?

A. 13. In civilian clothes.

Q. 14. Under what name was the Accused charged?

A. 14. Robert Walker.

Q. 15. On what charge was he arrested?

A. 15. No charge at first. He was taken to the Station for questioning as he was present in an immoral house.

Q. 16. As far as you knows you had arrested a certain Robert Walker and you had no suspicion of any other identity?

A. 16. Yes, but he was not arrested but only taken to the Station for questioning.

Q. 17. When were you first aware that the accused was not Robert Walker?

A. 17. When I saw that his Identity Card had been actioned my suspicions were aroused.

Q. 18. At what point did you discover that the Accused had been taken into custody under the wrong name.

A. 18. During the questioning he admitted he was an Absentee from the R.A.F.

Q. 19. How did you know where to find the Accused's Pay Book?

A. 19. He told me exactly where it was.

Q. 20. Did the Accused admit of his own accord that he was A.W.L.?

A. 20. Yes, after questioning.

Q. 21. Would you say that he had volunteered the statement that he was A.W.L.?

A. 21. Yes, after a little questioning.

Q. 22. Is it true that the Accused admitted that he was A.W.L. & told you where to find his Pay Book?

A. 22. Yes.

Q. 23. Could the Accused have concealed his identity if he had wished?

A. 23. No. I would automatically have checked the particulars of his Registration Card at the Registration Office.

Q. 24. Were there any means at your disposal of disproving the real identity of this Robert Walker had he not admitted his identity?

A. 24. No. I could have proved it was not his identity Card, but would have been unable to prove his identity.

Q. 25. You then became aware of his identity by his own voluntary admission?

A. 25. Yes.

Q. 26. When you returned to look for the Accused's pay book did you discover any other of his belongings?

A. 26. No.

Q. 27. Was there nothing else on the shelf on which you found the pay book?

A. 27. Yes, books & general oddments & towels.

Q. 28. Was any military kit found in the house?

A. 28. No, we had occasion to search the house very thoroughly for something not connected with this case & we came across nothing.

Q. 29. After the Accused was taken into custody when was his uniform returned to him?

A. 29. It was never found & therefor it was never returned to him.

Q.30. In your evidence you mentioned a young lady who was staying with the accused at 229 West Regents Street. Did you know her personally?

A.30. I knew her by sight as a woman who resides at this address.

Q.31. Is it true that she bore a child on approximately 10 Jun 42 and that it died the following day?

A.31. Yes, I believe this to be the case.

QUESTIONED by the ACCUSED.

Q.32. Sergeant, you returned to the house at 229 West Regent street accompanied by a plain clothes policeman.?

A.32. Yes,

Q.33. When the policeman returned did he not make any mention of finding a pair of army pants with a cut up the back & a piece being put in?

A.32. No.

RE EXAMINED by the PROSECUTOR.

Q.34. Had the accused been properly 'cautioned' that any statement he might make would be used in evidence against him?

A.34. yes, he was cautioned as soon as I suspected something was wrong owing to his identity card not being in order.

Q.35. Is it possible to purchase illegally false Identity Cards?

A.35. yes, I have had several cases of this recently.

Q.36. Is there, at any time, a general check up on Identity Cards?

A.36. No.

Q.37. It is therefore possible for a man to have a false Identity Card in his possession for a ~~con~~ indefinite period?

A.38. yes, but it is now necessary to have one's Identity Card checked before obtaining a new Ration Card.

Prosecution is closed.

CROSS EXAMINATION by the COURT.

Q. 39. Do you elect to give evidence yourself?

A. 39. Yes, Sir.

Q. 40. Do you propose calling any witnesses?

A. 40. Yes, Sir.

Q. 41. Witness as to character only?

A. 41. No Sir, witness as to fact.

Q. 42. Pte Thompson as a witness you are under oath & you realise therefor that you can be cross examined by the Prosecutor?

A. 42. Yes, Sir.

Q. 43. Does the Defending Officer wish to make an Opening Address?

A. 43. No Sir.

1st Witness for the Defence.

N.16101 Pte Thompson H.M. P.P.C.L.I. having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.44 Tell, in your own words, Pte Thompson, what happened.

A.44. Sir, before I came up to the field I was at Camp 103 Witley. Whilst there I went on 48 hours pass to London & met a girl called Phyllis Moore. I went with her for a while and when she became pregnant and not knowing what to do I used up on request and asked for 14 days leave. This was granted but a few days before the leave came up I was shipped off to the field.
For about four or five months I'd been receiving no pay as I'd lost ~~my~~ part II of my Pay Book & had not been issued with another. When I arrived at the Regiment I discovered my application for leave had not been sent up with me & that I had to go to the Depot of the Leave List, thus forgo my leave as arranged.
About 8 Dec 41 I went up to London to see Miss Moore to see what could be done about the fix we were in. I found there was much I could do at the time so I decided to stay and see the thing through. I sent for some money from home and when I received this I bought some second hand civilian clothes and a Painters Outfit of a pail & some brushes. I kept moving about London from place to place so that I would not have to answer difficult questions and then in March I took Miss Moore to Glasgow where she got a job as a housemaid at 229 West Regents Street.
I began to have quite a bit of trouble regarding "Papers" and when I got the chance to buy for £1 the one on the table (Exhibit B) I took it because with this paper I felt I could get work, make 1st Witness for the Defence.

Some money & so on the business through.
The child was born on about 10 Jun 42 but it died within 48 hours. About 24 Jun 42 Mrs Moore was beginning to get about again, although she was not right, and as she had to register we registered the death of our child.

I was picked up on 30th June. I had intended returning to the Regiment as soon as Mrs Moore was properly well and I'd kept my Pay Book (Part 1) for this purpose.

Early in June, while in Glasgow I met a man called Steele in a pub & told him I would be returning to the unit in about 2 weeks. I am calling him as a witness in support of this statement.

~~Cross Examination by Defending Officer~~

Q. 45 Did you retain your Pay Book all the time you were absent?

A. 45 Yes, Sir.

Q. 46. Were you in possession of a military uniform during your absence?

A 46. Yes, Sir. I'd lost mine but I'd got told of another which was too small for me but it was being altered.

Q 47. Why did you keep your Pay Book and that uniform?

A 47. I needed them for my witness.

Q. 48. During your absence were you ever arrested in the name of Robert Walker?

A. 48. Yes Sir, for being drunk & fighting with the Police.

Q 49 What punishment did you get for this?

A. 49. One night in the Maryhill Police station & Glasgow and a fine of 2 guineas the following morning.

Q. 50. The Police considered that you were Robert Walker on the occasion?

A. 50. Yes Sir, my identity was not questioned?

Q. 51. When you were arrested on 20 Jun 42 why did you conceal your identity?

A. 51. Because Miss Moore was almost better and intending to return to the Unit in any case within a week or two, I decided to give myself up

CROSS EXAMINATION by the PROSECUTOR.

Q 52. Pte Thompson did you ask any advice on this matter Did you consult your Platoon officer, your Company Commander or the Padre?

A. 52. I was accepted for my leave before any Company Commander at Witley, but I granted it without asking any question.

Q 53. When, on arriving in the field, you learned that you were not getting your leave, Did you ask any advice then?

A. 53. No, Sir.

Q 54. How much Service have you had?

A. 54. I joined up on 11 Sep 39.

Q 55. You know it is an offence to go A.W.L.?

A. 55. Yes, Sir

Q 56. Did you realise that the longer you stayed away from your Regiment, the more serious your offence would become?

A. 56. Yes, Sir.

Q 57. You made the statement that you always, ~~kept~~ kept your Pay Book; Was that Pay Book always in your possession in the clothes you were wearing?

A. 57. Yes Sir, until the Police took it from me.

Q 58. Are you married?

A 58. No Sir

Q.59. To the best of your knowledge has anybody in the Regiment ever been refused a pass for circumstances such as these?

A.59. I've never heard of circumstances like these, so I don't know. I could not very well bring these things out because what could have been done?.

Q.60. Did you get any work and earn any money while you were A.W.L.

A.60. A few odd jobs sir, but I earned very little.

Q.61. How did Miss Moore get the job at 229 West Regents Street?

A.61. She heard of it in Glasgow & took a "house" job because of her condition.

Q.62. About what date did you get the false Identity Card?

A.62. About the middle of May.

Q.63. You stated earlier on that you'd lost your uniform, and then later you stated that you had one all the time. I left my uniform in a Café & I was later told that the police had got it. In travelling around Glasgow I heard of another which I got hold of. It was too small so I tried to get it altered.

Q.64. When were you awarded for being drunk?

A.64. About the middle of June. Just after the child was born.

Q.65. When you applied for 14 days leave what did you plan doing?

A.65. I hoped in some way, to be able to arrange to get rid of the child.

Q.66. Later you went up to London to see Miss Moore to see what could be done about the matter; when you found you could do nothing, why did you stay there?

A.66. To help Miss Moore, I felt I had to stand by her.

Q.67. Where did you get money to buy the clothes?

A.67. By a cheque through the Canadian Bank of Commerce in London.

Q.68. When arrested were you ready to return to your Unit?

A.68. I would have returned in about a week only Pte Moore had had a relapse & had to go to Hospital.

Q.69. What happened to the pair of trousers you asked the Sergeant about?

A.69. I cant understand, the policeman who returned with the Sergeant, said that they were right on top of the Pay Book and that I was making a poor job of the actusations.

Q.70. Why did you hide under the bed in the kitchen when the police came in?

A.70. I thought they had checked back on my papers after my arrest and were coming for me.

Q.71 What sum did you receive from Canada?

A.71. £6 Something.

Q.72. How did you live all this time?

A.72. Hard to answer until I got the "Papers", then I got a little work.

Exhibit

The Defending Officer addresses the Court summing up the evidence as follows:-

The criticism between desertion and absence without leave is intention. The charge against the accused is:-

"Deserting His Majesty's Service."

For proof of this charge the Prosecution must prove an intention on the part of the offender not to return to His Majesty's Service at all. This I submit, after having heard the evidence has not been done.

Let us examine first of all the facts of the case as set out by the accused in his evidence. In December 1941 while serving at the Holding Unit the accused learned that a young lady had become pregnant by him. At that time he was eligible for two weeks leave and he intended to visit her and as he says, "put things right". Unfortunately, at this juncture, he was put on draft to the field unit and found that his leave had to be postponed. He was under the impression that his name had dropped to the bottom of the leave roster, and that an application for leave would not be considered. Hence, rightly or wrongly, he decided to absent himself in order to assist the girl he had made pregnant.

At this point I would like to refer to the Court how unfortunate I consider the fact that the young lady in question has not been called as a witness. Owing firstly to the exigencies of the Service and the expense and loss of time involved she was not called, nor under R.P. + E. was there time for a statement to be obtained — not at least in the time available between my appointment as Defending Officer and the date for trial. Again owing to the exigencies of the Service I did not ask for an adjournment on the above grounds preferring to expedite matters and relying on the good intelligence of the Court under the circumstances. Certain of the facts you have heard however, are a matter of record, such as the birth & death of the accused's baby.

I continue with the story of the accused. Having met the young lady he found that in fact she was pregnant. News his intention had been to put things right somehow or other, but he found that there was little he could do. As time went on and his situation became more critical and there was still no solution. During this condition she lost her job & he was faced with the necessity of supporting her. His intention at this time was to stay with her but until she had borne his child and was back on her feet again and then return to duty. Hence the plain clothes and documents. For to support her put money was necessary, and money meant work, and work could only be obtained as a civilian.

Hence we see the Accused in this unfortunate position - forced to pose as a civilian, but not to disguise himself — it was rather a necessity forced upon him. At all times he was in possession of a military uniform and his Army Pay Book — hardly the kind of possessions a man trying to disguise his military identity would be likely to keep.

Finally the baby was born and died soon after. — There is record of this in the Glasgow Registry office. After this Thompson was merely waiting until his pal was able to support herself until he returned to the unit. This time had practically arrived when he was arrested under another name and was not known to the police as an absentee. Thompson also decided that his justice had been achieved and that it was time to return and face the music. Hence he revealed his true identity that is the story. It is a sad one and it shows the Accused to be guilty of several things — of absence without leave, neglect and more, but it does not I submit show him to be guilty of desertion.

Let us now examine the facts that the Prosecution has put forward:-

The prosecution has shown that the Accused was absent from 9 Dec 41 until 30 Jun 42. But the Accused does not deny this. Moreover this fact is not proof of the Accused's intent to desert. I quote from Chapter III §18. M.M.L. dealing with intent to desert: "Mere length of absence is, by itself, inconclusive as a fact." Hence no conclusion can be deduced from the fact of absence.

Secondly the Prosecution has shown that at the time of his apprehension the Accused was wearing plain clothes. That is a fact and the Accused does not contest it. Once again I submit that this fact is no proof of his intent to desert. Instead, I intend to show that the possession of plain clothes by the Accused was necessary in his plan to aid and support the unfortunate young lady who gave birth to his child. This was his purpose in purchasing plain clothes - not as the Prosecution would have it, so that he might disguise himself as a deserter. Now that the Accused at all times was in possession of a military uniform a fact that more than counterbalances his possession of plain clothes. Is it likely that a man who intended to desert, and by that I mean, a man whose one aim is to destroy all evidence of his military identity, would keep such an incriminating article as a military uniform? I submit to the Court that this is definitely not the action of a deserter.

Thirdly the Prosecution has tried to show that the Accused was in possession of certain documents, i.e. Motorcar Registration Cards, that he was not entitled to. Point the Accused has pleaded guilty to this charge. The REASON for this is plain for without these documents, as without plain clothes, he could not work and without work he could not obtain money to enable him to support the woman he had made pregnant and who was about to bear his child.

The Prosecution addresses the Court, summing up the evidence as follows:-

The absence of the accused has been proven by documentary evidence of such a nature as the Army Act make admissable and by the evidence of the first Witness.

The evidence of the Third Witness proves that the accused was in Civilian clothes and was in possession of a false identification card and medical grade card at the time of his apprehension. From these facts it is evident that the accused had taken definite steps to conceal his identity and had succeeded in doing so for some considerable period.

The accused has had sufficient service to make him realise the gravity of his offence and also his responsibilities as a Soldier on active service. Personal troubles cannot and must not be accepted as reasons for committing an offence under the Army Act.

The third witness stated that after questioning, the accused admitted his real identity and from that point on gave the police every assistance. Was it not because he realised the "game was up" that he did this? Did the accused acquire a uniform as a means of concealing his "intent" to desert if his case ever came to trial? These are questions for the Court to answer.

In conclusion, the fact that the accused did conceal his identity and did not take any steps to inform his unit as to his whereabouts must lead one to believe that "intent" was there. Whether he changed his mind later on or not is beside the point.

1. When soldiers are apprehended in uniform near their quarters it is considered that as a general rule 5/- is a sufficient reward. Not more than 10/- will be allowed in any case where the soldiers were in uniform.

2. When soldiers are apprehended in plain clothes, at a distance from their units, and after having been absent for some time, the reward may be increased to 10/- or 15/- according to the nature of the cases and the trouble incurred in apprehension. A reward in excess of 15/- will seldom be granted.

3. The reward of 20/- should be strictly reserved for cases where superior intelligence has been displayed in apprehending men in plain clothes, or under difficult or exceptional circumstances.

Rewards and expenses attendant upon apprehensions will be paid by the Command Paymaster of the Command or District in which the soldier's Unit is stationed.

4. No reward can be authorised if the Deserter or Absentee voluntarily surrendered, or if it shall appear that he was in collusion with the person who apprehended him, or if the apprehended man was not a Deserter or Absentee.

The following Statement of expenses (if any) incurred by the Police and chargeable to Army Funds should be certified by a Superintendent or Officer in charge of a station.

No expenses incurred in conveying a Deserter or Absentee from the Court to prison should be charged to Army funds. Such expenses can be included in the claim made on the Prison Commissioners.

PART I.

DESCRIPTIVE RETURN of a Deserter or Absentee without Leave.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF MAGISTRATES.

(1) When a man is apprehended by the Civil Power as an absentee without leave, or as a deserter, if the information tendered leaves no doubt in the mind of the Magistrate that the prisoner is a soldier, this return should be completed and given to the Police to hand to the escort on arrival.

(2) To avoid delay in the arrival of the escort a telegram stating the Number, Rank, Name and Unit of the soldier should be sent by the Police, as soon as the man is committed, to the Officer Commanding the soldier's Unit. The place where the escort is required to attend should be stated, also whether the soldier surrendered or was arrested.

(3) Any recommendation for a reward should be made on Part II of this return.

(4) The Court fees chargeable for Descriptive Returns should be claimed periodically from the Command Paymaster of the Command in which the Court is situated.

(5) The stations of all Units are shown in the Monthly Army List, as are also the Depots of Corps.

In the case of doubt as to the location of a particular Unit reference should be made to the nearest O.C. Troops. Where the soldier's Unit is stationed overseas (outside Great Britain, Northern Ireland District, and the Channel Islands) the telegram for an escort should be despatched to the O.C. Depot, who will take all necessary action for its provision.

Apprehension of Pte. Thompson.

Walter Martin Thompson, (24) No. R/16101, Private, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry at Brighton.

----------oOo----------

JAMES MURRAY, No. 24 Sergeant, Marine Division, Glasgow Police.

States:- I am 40 year of age and have 19 years Police Service.

About 3 a.m. on Tuesday, 30th June, 1942, while engaged raiding a house at 229 West Regent Street, Glasgow, I found the accused lying underneath the bed in the kitchen.

I asked him his name and he told me that it was Robert Walker. He produced a National Registration Identity Card, No. SFAA/242/3, bearing that name, and giving his address as 77 Hill Street, Glasgow, a Certificate of Registration, No. PDF/6433, under the National Service (Armed Forces) Act, 1939, and a Medical Grade Card, No. PDF/6433, bearing the same name and address as the Identity Card.

It was quite evident that these documents had been altered and I took possession of them. The accused then admitted that he was a deserter from Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry at Brighton since 15th December, 1941, and that his proper designation was R/16101, Private Walker Martin Thompson, attached to the above Regiment.

He was charged as libelled, and after being duly cautioned he made no reply. Pte. Thompson was thereafter conveyed to the Marine Police Office, where he was again cautioned and charged, but made no reply. He was detained.

On reaching the Marine Police Office, I asked the accused for his pay book, and he stated that it was on the shelf in the kitchen where he had thrown it when the Police entered the house. I returned to the house and retrieved the pay book.

Pte. Thompson was dressed in civilian clothing and stated that he had been residing at 229 West Regent Street since about the end of March, 1942, but he denies that the people had any idea that he was a deserter.

The accused informed me that he had forwarded his civilian clothing to an address in Glasgow prior to his arrival, but he would not reveal this address, and on his arrival he collected this clothing and changed from his Army clothing in a Cafe somewhere in Argyle Street, Glasgow.

He also stated that he had left his uniform in this Cafe, and that he intended to call back for it some time later, but was told that his uniform had been handed over to the Police, and he made no attempt to verify this information.

James Murray.
No. 24 Sergeant.

Alexander McCrae, No. 204 Constable, Marine Division, Glasgow Police.

States:- I am 42 years of age and have 20 years service.

About 3 a.m. on Tuesday, 30th June, 1942, I was on duty along with the previous witness and corroborate his statement.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s).(1) and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans.....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on.....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

Pin here Loose Sheets of Record.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans. No, sir .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)

First Witness for the Prosecution
T-0066288 Dvr. Grant N - Sworn states -

We were lying in bed when two of the boys came in the worse for drink, leaving the door open. Dvr. Thompson asked them to close the door. They used abusive language & refused. We told them to go to bed & Dvr. Thompson then closed the door himself. When Dvr. Thompson had closed the door, they were still standing by his bed. We drew our bayonets & chased them to their beds. When we got back in bed, ~~Cfn Thoms came over to our beds. JH to pick up a rifle that had slipped onto the floor~~ my rifle slipped to the floor. Dvr. Thompson leaned over & picked it up. While putting it beside his bed, Cfn Thoms came over & grabbed the rifle. Thompson told him the rifle was charged. Cfn Thoms pulled back the Bolt, closed it again causing ~~the~~ a bullet to go into the breach. He must have pulled the trigger because there was the sound of a shot. After the shot, he asked me what I was doing with a German rifle - He took both Cfn Thompsons & my rifles away with him. The rifle was charged, not loaded. Cfn Thoms and I both had flashlights. I did not see the bolt open but I heard it. I am sure the rifle was fired while it was in Cfn Thoms hands

JH

Cross-Exam:

While chasing the two drunk chaps
I did not say anything - about half the men in the barracks were awake at the time
Cfn Thoms took my rifle away first.

Exam by Court:

At the time the rifle was loaded
& the shot was fired, Cfn Thoms had his flashlight lit in his hand. the beam was shining on the floor. My flashlight shone on the rifle as Thoms picked it up.
It was not on it when the shot was fired.
Thoms was standing about eight feet away from me when the shot was fired. Next morning Thoms brought back both rifles and stood them against the wall. After breakfast I checked my rifle & found an empty cartridge in the breach.

RP 83 (B) complied with.

D 3

Second Witness for the Prosecution
T 10702273 Dvr Thompson A - Sworn States=

Two soldiers came into the barracks drunk. They banged open the door & left it open. After an argument ~~I~~ closed the door & on coming back, I found the two drunks standing by my bed. We drew our bayonets & chased them back to their beds. When getting back into bed a rifle slipped to the floor and as I was picking it up. Cfn Thoms came over & asked me what I was doing with the rifle. He demanded both ~~our~~ rifles & ~~Dvr~~ Dvr Grants rifle and took Dvr. Grants rifle. I told him to be careful as it was charged. He paid no attention & continued to argue. He finally ~~pulled~~ worked the bolt thus loading the rifle and pulled the trigger causing a shot to be fired. I told him he would have to take the "rap" in the morning. He replied "OK" I'll take the rap. He then took both rifles to his bed. ~~I saw Dvr~~. Cfn Thoms took the rifle ~~from~~ directly from my hands before the shot was fired. I definately saw him work back the bolt & squeez the trigger. He was only one foot away from me.

Cross Exam

About one half of the barrack personnel were awake at the time of the shooting. I don't recall saying anything after chasing the drunks to their beds. After the shot was fired, I did say - What if we start throwing grenades.

Exam by Court-

Thoms had a flashlight and Dvr Grant had a flashlight - both were shining on the rifle when it was loaded & fired. The rifles were returned in the morning with both magazines taken out. My magazine was fully charged - Dvr. Grants magazine was empty.

RP 83 (B) complied with.

First Witness for the Defence

4-4315. Cfn Thoms H.H. - duly sworn - states -

I had been in bed for about two hours when the squabble started - I got up because one chap hollered that he had been stabbed by a bayonet. I could not find any bayonet wound on the chap that called out. Most of the men in the barracks were arguing by then & the two British Soldiers were saying that there wasn't any Canadian who had the guts to come & fight them. I went over & told them to go to bed. As I was returning to my bed I heard a rifle being cocked. I was then about 15 feet away

D6

I returned towards their bed and switched on my flashlight. the light showed me that Dvr. Thompson sitting up in bed with the rifle across his knees. As I approached him, the rifle swung in my direction. I held my flashlight to one side and got close enough to grab the rifle which I pushed aside. He said "be careful, it's charged"! - I replied, you're damned right - "it's loaded!" I finally got the rifle away from him I then said there wouldn't be any firing in the barracks if I could help it. Dvr Thompson repeated that the rifle was only charged. I called him a "liar" & said it was loaded. I then took the magazine off to show him the rifle was loaded. I touched the safety catch & the rifle went off. I then put the rifle under my bed and after hearing a remark about throwing grenades, I returned to see what the British soldiers were doing. I flashed my light & saw another rifle near Dvr Thompsons bed. As I picked this rifle up I heard a Bayonet been drawn at Dvr Grants bed. On investigation I saw him trying to pick a bayonet up - I kicked it under the bed. I then took both their bayonets & the rifle over to my bed. I returned the equipment in the morning.

RP 83 (B) complied with.

Second Witness for the Defence.

A-103403 Pte Walker F R. - duly ~~sworn~~ sworn states -

I was in one of the closest beds to the disturbance. I heard the rifle being cocked before Cfn Thoms appeared on the scene. After the rifle was cocked one of the British soldiers shouted that there was one "up the spout". This caused further shouting & arguing. Cfn Thoms then came & took the rifle away from the Br. Soldier. I did not get up to assist Thoms as the quarrel was getting rather violent. I think it was a good thing that Cfn Thoms intervened when he did as the disturbance was becoming more violent.

Exam. by court.

The rifle was in Cfn Thoms hands when it ~~was fired~~ went off.

RP 83(B) complied with

D6 Third Witness for the Defence

B 26 08 - Pte Adams L.C. - duly sworn states.

I was in one of the closest beds to the disturbance. The rifle was cocked before Cfn Thoms came on the scene. I stayed in bed as I was too scared to get up & assist. The majority of the soldiers were awake at the time. I think Cfn Thoms helped stop the disturbance. Thoms had the rifle in his hand when the shot rang out.

Cross Exam.

I did not hear the remark re "one up the spout"

RP 83 (B) complied with.

D6.

Fourth Witness for the Defence
A55228 Cfn Spring W D - duly sworn, states -
I my bed is situated about 12 feet from where the disturbance took place. Cfn Thoms was standing by my bed when I heard a rifle being cocked. I heard a voice say - there ~~is~~ one up the spout"! I could not tell if it was spoken by a Britisher or not. I think. Cfn Thoms assisted in quietening the disturbance as it ceased after he took away their weapons.

R.P 83 (B) complied with.

Character Witness for Defence
V60302 S/Sgt Smith E.V - duly sworn states -
I've known Cfn Thoms since Oct 1941 during which time he has worked for me. I found him honest & willing worker. I have never had any trouble with him.

R.P. 83 (B) complied with.

Closing address by Defending Officer

The disorder in the barracks started when the two drunk soldiers left the door open. long before Cfn Thoms appeared on the scene. It increased in severity until finally Cfn Thoms left his bed and came over to intervene. He had to come three quarters of the way across the very large barrack room to reach the scene of the disturbance. He got out of bed because someone was crying that he had been stabbed with a bayonet. There were any number of NCOs in the barrack room but none of them made any attempt to stop the disorder. It was left to Pte Thomas to do what he could to prevent the disorder becoming more serious.

The rifle was in his hands at the time when it was discharged but he was carrying a flashlight and a magazine. It was dark and the situation was full of tension. It would be very easy for the rifle to go off by accident.

I believe that Pte Thomas should be complimented rather than blamed for the part he took in quietening the disorder.

Closing address by the Prosecutor.

The accused is charged with improperly firing a rifle in the barrack room.
I believe that it has been shown that without a doubt he had the rifle in his possession when the shot was fired.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF NO. A-4305 CFN. THOMS, M.H., 2 CDN INF TPS WKSP, BCOME, C.A.C. CHARGED WITH FIRING A RIFLE IN THE BILLETS CREATING A DISTURBANCE. A.A. SECT. 40.

BY DIRECTION OF THE COMMANDING OFFICER, THE EVIDENCE IS TAKEN ON OATH.

FIRST WITNESS: T-10666288 DVR. GRANT, N., SWORN STATES: The two men (Pte. Betts and Pte. McPhee) came in drunk and I was lying in bed next to the door. They walked towards their own beds and left the door open. I asked them to close the door. They told me "Fuck the door - Fuck you". Dvr. Thomson told them to go to bed and he would close the door. He closed the door and when he returned they were still standing beside his bed wanting to fight. He decided to give them a bit of a fright and we drew our bayonets and chased them. After they went to bed we were going to bed when one of the rifles slipped and fell on the floor. My partner (Dvr. Thomson) picked up the rifle and put it beside his bed. Cfn. Thoms came over, he must have thought we were going to use them or something, he asked for the rifles and my partner told him the rifle was charged. He pointed the rifle to the ground and opened the bolt. No round came out. He closed the bolt again causing a round to enter the breech. I don't know whether he thought the magazine was empty or not, but he squeezed the trigger and that caused the round to go off. Cfn. Thoms took the rifles away and asked me what I was doing with a German rifle. If he knew his rifles he would have known it was a British rifle.

CROSS/EXAMINATION BY THE ACCUSED:

Q. Where did I pick up the bayonets?
A. My partner had the bayonets.
Q. Which side of the bed did I pick up the two rifles?
A. Nearest the door - that is Dvr. Thomson's side.
Q. What was the reason I came over?
A. I think you must have come over to see what the row was about.
Q. Can you identify the fellow who told you to get back to sleep?
A. Yes I can.
Q. Could you identify that person the same night? If so how?
A. I could, I had a torch and flashed it in his face.

Norman Grant
Dvr. Norman Grant

SECOND WITNESS: T-10702273 DVR. THOMSON, A, SWORN STATES: Two of the boys came in drunk and left the door open. We told them to close the door which they refused to do, so I closed it myself to save any further argument. After that they stood by our beds and wanted to have a fight with us. We grabbed our bayonets and chased them off to bed and then returned to bed ourselves. After that Cfn. Thoms came down just as one of the rifles slipped and I was picking it up to put it back against the wall. He asked me what I was doing with the rifle. We gave him the rifle to end the argument. He stood holding onto the rifle. I told him it was charged but he didn't seem to be taking any heed of me. After that he opened and closed the bolt. No round came out then a shot was fired. I told him he could take the rap for that in the morning and he said he would. He took the two rifles and bayonets and went to his bed.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE ACCUSED:

Q. Which one of you two had the lamp?
A. My partner had the lamp.
Q. Could you identify the two fellows who came in drunk?
A. I knew one was Cfn. Betts. I couldn't identify the other one.
Q. Did you turn the light on me?
A. I didn't turn the light on you, Dvr. Grant did.
Q. How far did you chase them with the bayonets?
A. As far as the first bed across from us - just a few paces.
Q. Where was the bayonet when I picked it up?
A. It was sticking in the scabbard in my haversack.
Q. Where were the rifles?
A. The two rifles were lying at my head, on the right side of the bed just against the radiator.
Q. Were both rifles charged?
A. Yes, they have been ever since we entered active service.
Q. Did I load the rifle?
A. Yes you did.

Q. Where did I pick up the second bayonet?
A. We handed it to you.

Angus Thomson
Pte. Angus Thomson

The accused, A-[illegible]05 CFN. THOMS, M.H., after being duly warned, declines to make any statement.

FIRST WITNESS, CALLED FOR THE DEFENCE A-103[illegible]03 PTE. WALKER, F.R., SWORN STATES:

My bed is the closest one to the scene of the disturbance. When the two men came in the noise they made woke me up. There was an argument between them and the two English soldiers as to who should close the door. An argument followed and the two English fellows chased the boys with bayonets. They ran (one of the two English chaps and MacPhee) between my bed and Pte. Adams where MacPhee was cornered. Betts continued down the alleyway and got to his own bed. The two Englishmen went back to bed where upon somebody started yelling they should be killed. I heard a rifle cocked. I don't know whose rifle it was but the sound came from their beds (the two Englishmen's beds). The argument continued through the barracks. Everybody was hollering once the rifle was cocked. I heard a movement from the English soldiers' beds and Thoms turned a flashlight onto them. One of them was lying on his back holding a rifle across his body, the muzzle pointing diagonally to the roof. There was an argument about the rifle being loaded, then a shot. Thoms collected the rifles and bayonets and went back to bed.

Q. Did you hear a bolt open and close immediately before the shot?
A. No I did not.
Q. If it had been opened and closed would you be able to hear it?
A Yes, because I heard the one before.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY ACCUSED

Q. Did you see me pick up the bayonet?
A. I saw you pick up some object beside the beds but couldn't swear what it was.
Q. Did they give me the rifles?
A. No, you took them from them.
Q. Could you see me behind my flashlight?
A. Not to recognize you - I could recognize your voice.
Q. Did one of them have a flashlight turned on me?
A. I didn't see that. I didn't see them use a flashlight.
Q. Did you see me take the rifle from the fellow sitting on the bed?
A. Yes.
Q. Did I take both rifles together?
A. No, you took the first one and then returned for the second one.

F.R. Walker
A-10[illegible]03 Pte. Walker, Frank

SECOND WITNESS: [illegible] FOR THE DEFENCE, B-2606 PTE. ADAMS, L. G., SWORN STATES:

I was lying asleep in bed when I heard a scuffle by my side and saw an upraised arm silhouetted against the window. There were two people beside my bed. One ran down the aisle and the other went back to bed about fifteen feet away from me. The next thing I noticed was the sound of a bolt being shot home. I then saw Cfn Thoms standing shining a light on the English soldiers lying in bed. He had a rifle lying across his body. I saw Thoms take the rifle away from him. After that there was a shot and I ducked under the covers.

Q. After Cfn. Thoms took the rifle did you hear a bolt open and close?
A. No. I did not.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE ACCUSED.

Q. Did one of them have a flashlight turned on me?
A. I saw them using a flashlight afterwards but I didn't see it come on you.

THIRD WITNESS: CALLED FOR THE DEFENCE A-55025 CFN. SPRING, H.D., SWORN, STATES:

I was asleep when a lot of noise woke me up. The two drunks were standing by the English soldiers' beds when the English lads charged them with bayonets. Then there was a lot of row with half the men in the room yelling. The English chaps brought up the idea of firing a rifle at someone. Thoma got out of his bed and came down and thold them there would be no firing of rifles, to put them away and go to sleep. After that Thoma stood by the partition near the door which is by my bed. The argument started again and someone picked up a rifle and opened and closed the bolt. Thoma shone his flashlight on the bed, walked over and took the rifle away from one of the English soldiers. The chap said it was charged but not loaded. The next thing I heard was the shot go off. Then Thoma took the rifles and bayonets to his bed.

Q. Did you hear a bolt open and shut after you saw Thoma take the rifle from the man?
A. No, I did not.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE ACCUSED

Q. Did you see them shine a flashlight on me?
A. No I didn't see them turn a light on you.
Q. Did you see me searching the beds when they mentioned grenades.
A. No I did not, but I did hear them mention grenades.
Q. Did you hear them say they were going to fire a rifle?
A. Yes I did, after the noise of the bolt opening and closing, I heard one of them say "There's a round up the spout now."
Q. What did the scotchmen say when I asked him why he had it loaded?
A. He said it was just charged, not loaded.

ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS WILL BE INITIALLED.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p [redacted] 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans N D .....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (~~are~~) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

Pin here Loose Sheets of Record.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

(1. RP 155. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF AP5. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans No .
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex B and Ex C : respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans Yes I say I'm pleading for .....(2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 7(D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, HP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(1B), 68(1), KR Can 564. 2. RP 50. As to release from arrest by Confirming Offr see KR Can 567. As to assembly and disposal of record after trial see instrs on back of Convening Order.)

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of L-27178 Gunner Thoms, W.D. of No. 4/5 Battery, No. 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The C.O. does not direct the evidence to be taken on Oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution

I am Capt. M.A. Sugden of No. 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit, Canadian Army Overseas. I am employed as adjutant of Regimental Training Wing and as such have custody of the documents below mentioned.

I produce in evidence a document (marked "Exhibit 'A'") being A.F.B. 115, Record of the Declaration of a Court of Inquiry on the Illegal Absence of a soldier, relating to the accused No. L-27178 Gunner Thoms, W.D., whom I now recognize, showing that the accused absented himself from his quarters without leave at 0800 hours 9 August 43.

I further produce in evidence a document (marked "Exhibit 'B'") being A.F. B-252, Evidence of Apprehension by the Canadian Provost Corps, which relates to the accused and shows that he was apprehended by the Canadian Provost Corps at Piccadilly Tube Station, London at approximately 1945 hours 7 November 43.

I further produce in evidence a document (marked "Exhibit 'C'") being a Certificate under Army Act, Section 163 subsection (i) and (j) which shows that the accused was arrested by the Cdn Provost Corps at Piccadily Tube Station, London at approximately 1945 hours 7 November 1943.

M.A. Sugden

.....
M.A. Sugden Capt. (R.C.C.S.) No. 1, CSRU

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The accused was cautioned as follows: "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on Oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence, unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give, will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused replied, "No, I do not wish to make a statement.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of one page was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused and that Rules of Procedure 4 (c), (d), (e) and (f) have been complied with.

Taken down by me at Morval Barrracks, Cove, Hants this seventh day of November A.D. 1943.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. NO STR (5)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (~~are~~) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A , initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

PLEA OF MITIGATION

L-27178 Pte THOMS W.D.

Mr. President, Members of the court:

Pte THOMS is 24 years of age, single and enlisted in June 1940, coming overseas in August of the same year. He was formerly employed by a fruit Company as a stock keeper. His category is "A" and his period of service 5 years and5 months. He fought on the continent from the 10th June 1944 to March 1945 when he was wounded. He went back to his unit in May 1945 where he stayed until the end of July. You will agree that this soldier has served his country well, as a fighting man.

His record during those monotonous training years in England is marred by several offences but when he finally got a change to do what he enlisted for - to meet the enemy - no one can deny that he did his job thoroughly. The court is well aware of the monotony of those early years in England and the accused, who enlisted when he was not quite 18, has paid the penalties for those past misdemeanors and now, when he is anxious to get settled in life, as you will ~~allow~~ later, I ask that his past record be completely disregarded, in fairness to him and his future family. THOMS fought for democracy and should be treated accordingly.

While still on the continent in Feb 45, THOMS made application to his padre for permission to marry an English girl whom he had been keeping company for 2½ years. However, he was subsequently wounded in March and was taken out of the lines. On leaving hospital, he went on sick leave and visited his fiancee in England, not having seen her since May 1944. On that leave the girl became in the family way and immediately on THOMS return to his unit, he enquired about his marriage application. He was informed it had been lost. He completed another right away. Meanwhile, Germany had quit and the accused, whose point score is 179 and was due for early repatriation volunteered for the occupation forces, so he would be available for his marriage. Nevertheless he was subsequently returned to England for repatriation in July 1945, despite his objections. He had still heard nothing about his marriage application and immediately went to the Padre at the Depot wing who advised him to wait a little longer to see if anything developed from his previous applications. THOMS asked to be returned to the Occupation Forces, as he was naturally increasingly anxious to marry his fiancee before his baby was born. This request was refused although all circumstances were made known. He did the only thing left to him, according to his own reasoning - a reasoning that is followed by hundreds of soldiers who find army routine in such matters provokingly slow and complicated. He failed to return from his leave on August 9 and obtained a job in his fiancees' home town, earning 1?s. 6d. per day, 6 days a week. This was his effort to provide for his future wife, to give her all the essentials a woman in her condition requires.

requires, and to let her know that he cared for her considerably and intended to marry her as soon as the Army saw its way clear to allow him to do so. You will understand that to the girl and her family, all this army routine would appear particularly incompetent and they might even suspect that THOMS actually did not intend to marry the girl.

As soon as he felt he had made sufficient financial arrangements, he discussed with his fiancee the matter of his surrendering himself. He returned voluntarily after an absence of 84 days. The day after his surrender, he asked permission to make a voluntary assignment of $25.00, the maximum amount possible, to his fiancee. This was allowed.

THOMS is desperately anxious to marry the girl before the baby is born in January and for this reason I ask that his punishment be in the form of a pay stoppage rather than detention. Finally, please consider the various aspects of this matter. THOMS's length of service, 5 years and 5 months; his good fighting record; the fact that he has been trying to get permission to be married since February of this year; and the fact that the Army has been rather slow in this simple routine affair of granting permission for marriage. I ask, therefore, that THOMS punishment be minimized as far as possible in view of the extenuating circumstances.

(The following procedure must be actually carried out)

The President produces the Convening Order, Charge Sheet(s) and Summary of Evidence. (Ba.I.17 (B), 18 (A)).

The President, in closed court (R.A.I.22, fn.1), reads the Convening Order and the Charge Sheet(s) to the Members, and the Court satisfy themselves that it is properly convened (A.A.49; R.I. 106) and constituted that the accused is (are) amenable to Military Law, and that each charge discloses an offence. (R.I.106).

The accused is (are) brought before the Court, and at 0935 hours, the trial commences.

The Prosecuting officer produces a Medical Certificate under K.R. (Can)827 (See CMHQ Circular Letter 173) that the accused is (are) fit to undergo trial by Court Martial. The certificate is initialled by the President, and attached to the Proceedings.

President to accused: Do you object to ~~being tried by~~ as Interpreter? Ans. ~~No~~

Do you object to ~~being tried by~~ as shorthand writer? Ans. No

The Shorthand writer is duly sworn. (Forms of Oath on Page 'D').

The Convening Order is read in the hearing of the accused.

The names of the President and Members of the Court are read to the accused (R.I.110)

President to accused: Do you object to be tried by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over? Ans No

The President, Members, Judge-Advocate, Officers under Instruction are duly sworn (R.I. 26-27) (Forms of Oath on Page 'D')

The Charge Sheet(s) is (are) initialled by the President.

The Prosecuting Officer informs the Court that the accused [illegible] (has not) elected trial by court martial (A.A. 86(3)).

President to accused:

Do you wish to make any special pleas before arraignment, that is to say, before you plead guilty or not guilty? Ans No

(If special plea(s) is (are) made for separate trial on one or more charges (Rs P 62(E), 108; or as to the jurisdiction of the Court (R.P. 34); or in bar of trial (R.P. 36); or as to accused's mental fitness to stand trial (A.A. 130, R.P. 72), record such pleas and evidence (if any) on separate sheet(s) to be initialled by the President and attached to the proceedings)

Each charge is read to the accused and he is asked as each charge is read whether he pleads guilty or not guilty (R.P. 112). He pleads as follows: First Charge Guilty Second Charge Third Charge Fourth Charge

Fifth Charge Sixth Charge Seventh Charge Eighth Charge

(For procedure on alternative charges, see R.P. 37, fn 2)

Further proceedings are recorded on Pages hereto attached.

FORM 'A'.

(After us... when accused pleads guilty to all charges)
(All printed matter not applicable to be struck out and all alterations, insertions and additions to be initialled by the President.

1. R.P.37(B) is complied with, by the President ascertaining that accused understands the nature of the charge(s) (fn 3) and his plea thereto, explaining the difference in procedure by the plea (R.P. 37(B)) and advising him to withdraw his plea if he thinks the accused ought to plead 'Not Guilty' thereto.

2. President to accused:
Do you desire to make any statement of the circumstances, in reference to the charge(s)? (R.P.37(B)) Ans NO

(Statement, if any, not on oath is recorded on separate sheet, initialled by the President and attached hereto. Accused is not subject to cross-examination thereon)

3. Summary of evidence is read aloud, in the presence of the accused, initialled by the President and attached to the proceedings. (If no such summary, it is necessary for the President to explain that sufficient evidence has been given in support of the charge(s) to put the accused on his defence) (R.P.37(E)).

4. President to accused:
Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment? (R.P.37(C)). Ans YES

(Statement, if any, is recorded on separate sheet, initialled by the President and attached hereto. No cross-examination)

5. President to accused:
Do you wish to give evidence yourself or call any witnesses as to character? (R.P. 37(C)). Ans YES

(Such evidence, confined to character only, is recorded on separate sheet, initialled by the President and attached hereto. Witnesses are sworn)

6. NEXT GEORGE ARCHER WOOD 11 Thomas Regiment (Rank) (Christian names) (Corps) (Unit) produces Statement of Character and Service, and Field Conduct Sheet, duly certified by the officer having custody of the Regimental Books, certifying as such. The said documents are read, marked 'A', 'B', initialled by the President and attached to the proceedings. (R.P.46)

7. President to accused:
Do you wish to address the Court on your Statements of Character, Service and Conduct in further mitigation of punishment? (R.P.46(D)). Ans NO (No cross-examination)

(Statement, if any, is recorded on separate sheet, initialled by the President and attached hereto)

8. The Court is now closed to consider sentence. (Record on Page 2 of A.F.A.3) (Punishments, A.A.44, K.R.(Can)'63 - 605, one sentence only awarded, (R.P. 48). Sentence should be dated)

The sentence is NOT announced to the accused by the Court.

B6173 Gnr. Thoms, M. C. - Field General Court Martial - 22 Feb 43

Defending Officer - Plea of Mitigation:

Gnr. Thoms joined the Army on Dec 6, 1939. He is 39 years old and in civil life ran his own grocery business. He has $20.00 a month assigned pay to his wife and in the Army was a driver until developing eye trouble. He was taken off driving and qualified as a cook and was receiving trade pay as a cook showing that he can turn his hand to anything that must be done by a soldier. He is, at present, having personal trouble but he does not wish to put this in front of the Court as it would involve other people. I would like to take this opportunity of pointing out that he has already spent twelve days in the Regimental Detention Barracks, working.

Court: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or call any witnesses as to character?

Defence: I would like to call Major Tate

Major E.C. Tate, 11th Cdn Army Field Regiment, R.C.A., having been duly sworn:

Cl You have been called to give character evidence?

Al Gnr. Thoms has been in the 9th Battery ever since the war and I have been in the 9th Bty since I have been in England except for a short period so that ever since the Battery has arrived in England I have known Gnr Thoms. During that time, he has worked as driver, batman and as a cook, lately as a cook in the officer's Mess. He has, in my estimation, a tremendous capacity for work. Frequently, of his own free will, works half the night to get a job done. When you give Thoms a job to do, you get the impression that he would rather do that job than anything else. As a driver his vehicle was always well looked after. As a batman, he served his officer very well and as a cook his kitchen was always clean and meals well prepared and served.

No Cross Examination.

I, B6173 Gunner Thoma, W.M., wish to have an Officer assigned to represent me at my trial by Court Martial.

I desire the services of Lt. Pettigrew if available.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. No (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court~~ considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). ~~Part I of the Schedule~~ is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (~~are~~) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex B, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. ~~The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.~~

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (~~thrice~~) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. No (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (~~an~~) no opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Con 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the 1st and 2nd charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the 1st and 2nd charge(s), ~~and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).~~(4)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither?

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. Yes on oath. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. No.
Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans. No.
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court ✓ (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the 2nd charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1) ~~The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.~~(2)
(1. AA 54(2) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. ~~The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.~~

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans. No
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy ~~extract~~ of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex E 1 and Ex E 2 respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or MFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Con 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans. Yes. In Defending Offr.
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Con 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(1B), 68(1), KR Con 564. 2. RP 50. As to release from arrest by Confirming Offr see KR Con 567. As to assembly and disposal of record after trial see instrs on back of Convening Order.)

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

Just Witness for prosecution } B6238 Sgt Carter, H HQ 1 C B R Gp. duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I am a clerk at HQ 1 C B R Gp. At about 1700 hrs on 20 Dec 44 I arrived at the HQ 1 C B R Gp Sgts mess for supper. On my arrival I was shown a bottle of Whisky. It was a bottle of Old Smuggler Whisky - on the label it had my name on it in my own printing. The bottle shewn to me is the one I refer to - marked Ex A. - Ex A had been my October issue of liquor which I had been keeping in the bar at the Sgts Mess for Christmas. It was being kept with the surplus stock of liquor in the bar. Sometime in Nov 44, I drew another bottle of whisky out of stock in place of Ex. A. On 18 Dec 44 I noticed Ex A up for sale and made a joking remark about them putting my bottle up for sale. There were numerous bottles of whisky in the bar at the time I drew the bottle in Nov and this one, Ex A, was at the bottom and all I was interested in was a bottle.

Cross-exam

I didn't personally look for my bottle in Nov.
The barman looked.
The cabinet in which the bottles were kept was 3' x 3' and could contain, I think, about 50 bottles.
The cabinet has just the one compartment.
When I drew the bottle in Nov, the barman looked but couldn't find the bottle.
I don't know whether the contents of Ex A ~~are~~ is whiskey.
When I printed my name on it, it was a sealed bottle.
Ex A is the bottle I put my name on.
I couldn't tell whether a label could be removed.
It was customary for me to put my name on bottles as I received them.
It is possible to remove a label and replace another.
I won't say that the contents of Ex A at this moment is whiskey - I know it was when I put my name on it.

Re-exam

The barman was in a hurry when he looked for the bottle and gave me another in lieu of it.

By J/A.

I paid for Ex A.
The bottle I received in lieu of Ex A was the same price.
Ex A became the property of the Sgts mess HQ 1 C B R Gp as far as I was concerned when I received a bottle in lieu of it.
Sgt Brown was the barman.
I am a member of the Sgts mess HQ 1 C B R Gp.
It was about 18 Dec 44 when I last saw Ex A in the bar.

R.P. 83 (B) Complied with.

Second Witness for prosecution | K 68696 Cpl (A/Sgt) Brown, T.O. HQ 1 C BR Gp duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I am the secretary of HQ. 1 C BR Gp Sgts' mess and keep a record of all stocks of liquor in the bar of that mess. On 20 Dec 44 I was shown a bottle of Old Smugglers Scotch Whiskey with the name Cartner written on it in ink. I identify Ex A as the bottle. I put Ex A in the bar for safekeeping on instructions from S/Sgt Latham and Q.M.S Dunn. Ex A had been put aside for Sgt Cartner on about 14 Nov 44 until such times as he could pay for it. About 10 Dec 44 Sgt Cartner asked for his bottle, Ex A, and as I could not find it at the time I sold him another bottle of whiskey. Ex A remained in stock until the present time. I last saw Ex A on mon. night 18 Dec 44 when Sgt Cartner jokingly made a remark about the bottle. The bottle was about half full when I put it away at the request of S/Sgt Latham & Q.M.S Dunn. They put their names on it. I could not state what kind of liquor was in it at that time however the label was the same as on 18 Dec 44. On that day it was full but I can't say for sure that it was sealed. I never knew of labels being changed from one bottle to another. It would be fairly difficult to do. Ex A was the property of the mess on 18 Dec 44. I had the keys to the bar and if I left it during bar hours I turned the keys over to a member of the bar committee. I recognize the accused as he came to the Sgts mess as a cook on 19 Dec 44. I saw him twice that day. The accused did not have access to the bar. The bar lock could be opened without keys as it has been opened several times by using a knife to push the latch back and by taking the hinges off the door Ex A contains whiskey

Cross-exam

The cabinet in which the whiskey is stored is about 6' high - there are 3 doors in it - each cartain has 3 shelves. There can be 6 rows on each shelf. There would be about 30 bottles on hand when I looked for the bottle at Sgt Cartners request. There were no other names on bottles except Ex A. I didn't look very thoroughly. I was rushed at the time Sgt Cartner asked for his bottle. I was present when Q.M.S Dunn put his name on the bottle.

I have been mess Secretary since 1 Nov 44. There is only 1 set of keys to the bar. The mess Committee have access to the keys. There are 16 members in the mess. There are 5 members on the committee. The bar is always locked & kept when a member of the committee is present. Only 5 members have access to the keys. I handled the cash until 23 Dec 44. I paid in cash for all purchases for the mess. I paid for Ex A in cash - I paid Sgt Nanji the mess Canteen who obtained the liquor through the D I D. I am not sure of the Bar hours - usually open from 1200 - 1300 hrs 1600 - 1700 hrs 1800 - 2300 hrs. I was not always present.

The last time I saw Ex A was on 18 Dec 44 at the Bar.
The bar was probably open at noon 19 Dec 44.
I dont remember seeing Ex A on 19 Dec.
On 10 Dec 44 when I found Ex A in the bar it was full and sealed.
It was possible but not probable that the bottle was away from the bar at the time Sgt Carlson asked for it.

Re-exam

On 10 Dec 44 Ex A was in the bottom part of the bar. I dont know whether it was hidden behind the bottles or not.
It was possible for the bar to be unattended but locked between 18-20 Dec 44 - it would be all night.
Ex A wouldnt be noticed to be missing when the bar was opened on 19 Dec 44.

No Q rcsd by Court

By D.A.

The accused was employed as a cook in the mess.
The cabinet, outside of the time it was necessary to force it open, has never been to my knowledge opened without a key.
On 20 Dec 44 there were no unusual marks on the cabinet.
The cabinet had several dints in it near the lock from the time it had had to be forced previously. The marks were in the wood.
Ex A was the property of the mess and to my knowledge had not been sold to the accused or any other person.

R.P. 23(B) Complied with.

The court adjourned at 1200 hrs. The court reassembled at 1330 hrs, the same members being present.

Third Witness for prosecution } D 96028 QMS Dann, R.L. 1 Cdn Army School of Cookery (see A) HQ 1 CBR Coy duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

I am a member of the Sgts' Mess HQ 1 CBR Coy. I recognize the accused who is in court. On 19 Dec 44 at about 1100 hrs I brought the accused down to the Sgts' Mess from the Sch of Cookery to cook. On the morning of 20 Dec 44 I was told that the cook was sick and unable to perform his duties. As a result I had a Sgt Mess trained cook lunch for the mess. I returned for lunch at about 1300 hrs and then went back to the cooking School and brought a new cook down arriving at the Sgts' Mess at about 1400 hrs on 20 Dec 44. After my arrival at the Mess I went into the room where the mess cooks sleeps to get the accused. I called the accused who seemed to be asleep. After calling him about 3 times I went in and shook the accused. As I did so I smelt the smell of liquor. The accused rolled over and in doing so pulled the blanket covering him so as to expose a whiskey bottle under his knees right in his bed. I removed the bottle and called in S/Sgt Latham and asked him if he recognized the bottle and if any was missing from the bar stock. S/Sgt Latham recognized the bottle. I put the date, time and my initials on the reverse label on the bottle and then turned it over to S/Sgt Latham. I then took the accused to Stanley Bks where I turned him over to the Camp C.S.M. The bottle I found was an Old Smuggler's Whiskey bottle with Sgt Latham's name printed in ink on the label. It was less than half full of whiskey - it was whiskey to the best of my knowledge. Ex A is the bottle I found. The accused's room in the Sgts mess was a partitioned off corner of the kitchen - it was 15 - 16 ft from the bar.

Cross-exam

I had no reason to think the accused had been drinking on the 19 Dec 44.

The accused after lunch on the 19th asked permission to go out for an haircut and returned in just about half an hour.

He did say something about not being able to get an haircut and would have to go again.

I was busy and had no cause to think he'd been drinking.

I saw him for a few minutes in the evening of 19 Dec 44.

The accused was not acquainted with the mess.

I have never had the keys to the bar.

Only the committee has the keys.

It is doubtful that any member other than the committee would have the keys.

I have known the accused since last May.

I have never known the accused to drink very much.

He has never been under the influence to my knowledge.

I knew him in the 9th Fd Amb where his work was satisfactory.

No Q'ests by Court.

R.P. 83(B) Complied with.

Fourth Witness for prosecution | C 96450 S/Sgt Latham E.H. HQ 1CBR Op duty sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I recognize the accused who is in court. I am a member of HQ 1CBR Op Sgts' mess. I am a member of the sub committee for the operation of the bar in that mess. The accused was a cook at the mess - he came in around the afternoon of 19 Dec 44. I was in the bar of the Sgts' Mess on the afternoon of 20 Dec 44 as it was my day off duty and I was cleaning up the bar. At about 1430 hrs QMS Dunn entered the mess with another cook to replace the accused. QMS Dunn went into the cooks sleeping quarters in the room next to the bar and called to me to come in and asked me if I recognized a bottle of Old Smuggler Whiskey - the accused was present. I was able to identify the bottle as one that had been in the bar stock because of the fact that it had Sgt Cartner's name printed on it. I was present when Sgt Cartner put his name on that bottle and later saw it in stock in the bar. I saw the bottle last in the bar on the night of 18 Dec 44. The bottle at that time was full but whether or not the seal was on it I am not sure. The surplus stock is kept in the bottom of the cupboard the current stock on the top shelves. The cupboard can be locked. There are 2 locks, one for the bottom one for the top door. The keys are kept by the mess secretary or by the members of the bar committee who might be working in the bar. The locks could be opened without a key by using a knife to spring the lock from the locking hole. You could remove the pins from the hinges and swing the door open. There are some scratches marks around the hinges and on the wood on the retaining side of the lock - they were there before 18 Dec 44. The liquor kept in stock belonged to the Sgts mess. The bottle Q M S Dunn handed to me on 20 Dec 44 had Sgts Cartner's name on the label and Q M S Dunn's initials, time and date on the back label of the bottle. I believe the time and date was 1430 hrs, 20/12/44. Ex A is the bottle. The contents smell like Scotch Whiskey - the contents on 20 Dec 44 when handed to me smelt of Scotch Whiskey. Ex A was not sold on 19 Dec 44 to my knowledge.

Cross-exam

The bar was opened at between 1230-1300 hrs on 20 Dec 44 either by myself or Sgt Brown.

There was nothing said about the door being tampered with on 20 Dec 44.

The door could be taken off and put back into place without any marks.

I don't suppose the door would be replaced if the door had been forced open.

I couldn't say whether the bar was open at noon 19 Dec 44.

I was at the bar on 19 Dec 44 from 21-23 hrs until I locked the bar up.

I didn't notice Ex A at that time.

Re-exam

I would have no reason to look for Ex A on 19 Dec 44.

By Court

The easiest way to get into the bar cupboard was by forcing the lock.

I wouldn't know whether it was necessary to use the key to relock the locks after forcing it in that manner.

There were on 20 Dec 44, two Italian Civilians employed by the mess.

One Italian lived in the cubicle where the cook lived – the other Italian lived out coming in at about 0830 hrs and leaving at about 1900 hrs each day.

6/ DWL.

By J.A.

No check of stocks was made by me on 20 Dec 44. Of A ~~was~~ the property of the Sqn to mess. 1 CBR Gp.

R.P 83(B) complied with.

The prosecution is closed.

DWL

7. D4. AWL

In support of motion of no prima facie case

1. To convict on a charge of stealing the prosecution must prove conclusively where the ownership of the property in question, lay. The article here is a bottle of liquor and this bottle seems to have borne considerable handling from the moment of time it was first placed in the Sergeants mess. Mr Cartner had it at one time, when he first claims to have purchased it & it was returned to the bar, is later collected, and still later is found in the bar again. I submit the prosecution has failed to show a satisfactory chain of ownership of the bottle to satisfy English law, which demands the clear proof of ownership

2. Apart from the single statement that the bottle of liquor was found in the accused's bed the prosecution has not adduced any evidence that the accused this man here actual, ~~was~~ actually 'stole' the bottle, nor has it proven that the accused was responsible for the presence of the bottle in his bed.

3. There is a real possibility that the bottle of liquor was removed from the bar by some person(s) who had had access to the bar, at least access that would permit the removal without discovery. He was accused is not such a person. He was a brand newcomer in the set-up of the bar, and had never been around there before, did not know the set-up of the bar, and it is highly unlikely that in the very short time that the accused was in the bar that he could formulate a plan to steal a bottle from it. The witnesses for the prosecution, Lt Brown, Lt Hamm, and Sgt Carter, who showed how, filled three cups only about 30 bottles on this particular occasion, and counted it. They did not find 30 bottles at the time he looked for it. Now 30 bottles is a very small number of bottles when spread over several shelves. The shelves are not deep. It is too much to accept in the light of reason that this bottle, so plainly marked, could not be seen readily if it were still there. Accordingly, I submit there is a strong possibility that the bottle was not in the bar at that time.

Then again the accused did not arrive in the mess until about 1100 hrs 19 Dec 44. The bottle was seen in the mess at 1500 hrs 15 Dec 44. It may have been removed after closing time on 18 Dec 44 but previous to approx. 1100 hours 19 Dec 44 when the accused arrived because the last time it was seen in the bar was on the night of 18 Dec 44. If the bar was open at noon 19 Dec 44 it is almost certain the barman would have noticed the bottle in its usual place if it was still there, but none of the witnesses remember seeing it later than the night of 18 Dec 44. I contend there is a strong presumption that the whiskey was missing prior to 1100 hours 19 Dec 44, in which case the accused could not be implicated as he arrived at the Sgts mess for the first time at about 1100 hours 19 Dec 44.

4. On the other hand if the court finds the bottle was removed from the bar subsequent to noon 19 Dec 44 I submit that it is highly improbable the offender could have been the accused because of the facts. The bar is kept locked when not in use. There is one key and this is kept by one of the mess members. When open the bar is attended by one of the mess members. The cupboard, unless the whiskey was kept, showed no signs of having been forced, nor the locks tampered with. To say that the accused, a newcomer, contrived some ingenious means of taking the whiskey unnoticed is too much for a reasonable man to believe. I submit that if a bottle of whiskey was found in the accused's bed it was placed there 10/ NMK by other hands than the accused's.

5. Finally, may it please the court, I ask consideration on the bare matter of the charge itself. The accused is charged with a very serious offence, - stealing. It is a nasty charge and one for which our law provides severe penalties on conviction. But because of the seriousness of this offence the law also demands a high degree of proof to commit and has provided many safeguards to protect an accused person in these cases. Ownership must be definitely proven, intention, and a clear chain of causation connecting the accused with the offence. Here, the defence admits, there is circumstantial evidence that the accused was involved but it is only circumstantial. I submit it is insufficient evidence to shift the burden of proof to the defence and that there is such a lot of evidence pointing to a reasonable doubt that the charge of stealing should be dismissed

I have been in the Army since 1 Dec 39. I left Canada 23 Jan 40 and came to Italy in Nov 43. I was with HQ 1 Corps Ordinance as a cook at Lanciano. I was injured there and went to hospital, on my release from hospital I was att'd to 9 A Tpt Bmbr. Went through Gustav and Hitler lines and as far as Rimini with that unit. I am 3 under L for arthritis. I first had it last Spring in hospital. I didn't drink much since 1940 until the arthritis began to bother me this summer. I was in business since 1921 with my father and it was going alright when I joined the army. My father's health was alright then but in 1941 I received word that he was in hospital at Kingston suffering from cancer. I didn't worry much about it at that time as my younger brother who is a Dr. was stationed in Kingston. Recently this fall my father had to dispose of the store and as he was given 5 months to live. I began to worry about it. He was left alone he asked me in it that if anything should happen to him quick to thank Mr & Mrs Murray for their kindness to him. That together with the arthritis. I didn't seem to care what happened. I received that letter on 17 Dec 44. On Sat 16 Dec 44 I got a pass for 24 hrs - I drank all day Saturday & Sunday up until I met C/M S Dunn on Monday. I went back to cooking School with him where he told me to wait for C/Sm Neilsen who wanted to see me. I waited around until 1600 hrs then went down to a cafe. On my way to the Cafe I passed C/M S Dunn who didn't say anything. I stayed in the Cafe until late that night drinking all the time I was there. I took a few bottles back to the camp - the gd at the camp gate helped me in and up the stairs. Tues morning 19 Dec 44 I waited till after 1000 hrs for C/M S Dunn then went to the same cafe where I had a few more drinks. Sometime during the noon hour C/M S Dunn took me to the Cafe. He told him then I didn't want to go. When I arrived there the dinner was practically prepared so I left my gear there and went around the corner to the Roma Cafe where I had several more drinks I came back at just about noon hour - after dinner C/M S Dunn asked me to make some pies. That is when I told him I would like to get a haircut. I didn't get one - I went to the Roma Cafe and stayed there for I dont know how long. I made quite a few trips, to on the excuse of getting a haircut to the Roma Cafe. Between the Padres and myself we managed to get supper. I left immediately after supper was served and stayed

I stayed in the Cafe until late that night drinking all the time I was there. I took a few bottles back to the camp - the gd at the camp gate helped me up and up the stairs. Tues morning 19 Dec 44 I waited till after 1000 hrs for C/M S Dunn then went to the same cafe where I had a few more drinks. Some time during the noon hour C/M S Dunn took me to the Left Mess I told him then I didn't want to go. When I arrived there the dinner was practically prepared so I left my gear there and went around the corner to the Roma Cafe where I had several more drinks I came back at just about noon hour - after dinner C/M S Dunn asked me to make some pies. That is when I told him I would like to get a haircut. I didn't get one - I went to the Roma Cafe and stayed there for I don't know how long. I made quite a few trips, to or the excuse of getting a haircut to the Roma Cafe. Between the helpers and myself we managed to get supper. I left immediately after the supper was served and stayed in the Roma Cafe until sometime after the doors were closed. There was another soldier with me and I got him to buy me several bottles to take home - 2 of vermouth and one of cognac. He took me by the arm to the Sgts' mess and I went straight into my bed. Sometime during the night I must have drank me of the bottles of vermouth as I remember faintly seeing a full and one empty bottles on the floor the following morning. I remember the Italian boy waking me up by shaking me - I told him I didn't feel like getting up & something. I saw the bottles on the floor and I filled a tin cup up - I knew it wasn't vermouth - it must have been cognac. I dont remember much from there on until I awoke next morning in the Guard Room. I dont remember Q M S Dunn waking me up. I have not seen Lt A before. I dont know where the bar in the Sgts' Mess is. I am 41 yrs old. I dont remember taking a bottle to bed with me on that night. I wasn't feeling very good in the day Q M S Dunn took me to the Sgts' Mess.

Prosecutors Summing up. 15

Evidence has been brought forth to substantiate.

1- Bottle of liquor was [illegible] of Ghana.

2- Pte. Thomas, who was not entitled to an issue of Scotch, who, did not purchase this bottle since no evidence has been brought forth to say that he did, who did not have it given him, was in possession of as A. when arrested by OMS Dunn.

3- Since no evidence has been brought forth to prove how Pte. Thomas came into possession of this bottle it can not be accepted either that he came into possession of it legally, or that it was planted on him

4- Therefore the fact remains, untouched, that he was in possession of an article, as A, on 20 Dec 44 when arrested by OMS Dunn, that this article did not belong to him, therefore, according to the evidence, he was in unlawful possession of a bottle of liquor, as A, belonging to the Govt's Chest of ICBRGP.

5. admittedly, Pte. Thomas had a few drinks; but, we have heard testimony in this court, and no one has said Pte. Thomas was under the influence of liquor, it was not even noticed by C.M.S. Pusson.

Moreover, 4800 lire, spread over 4½ days continuous drinking, as said by the accused, is a pretty cheap price for a person to stay so drunk that he did not recall certain events, or that he would not know the difference between right and wrong, especially if some of this money were used to treat others. Therefore it cannot be admitted, on the strength of only the defendant's testimony, that he would have been so drunk as not to know whether he took the bottle, had seen it etc. Only one man has said that the accused was drunk during this time, and that is the defendant himself. Moreover, there have been no exhibits brought to this court to substantiate the statement that he had drunk bottles of vermouth, and cognac, therefore we are only going on the defendant's say so.

RMR

6 Due to the fact that charge no 1 (17) cannot be proven, I ask that it be dismissed ; and, for 7- alternative charge no. 2, that he,

the defendant, be found guilty, because the fact that he was in possession of an article not belonging to him, but belonging to the Right Hon. of CBRC H.Q., that no evidence has been brought to prove that he was in legal possession of this bottle of liquor, therefore he was in improper possession of it.

Defence closing address

On the facts of the case ~~one~~ alone it is clear the accused did not at any time remove the bottle of whiskey from the bar. A ~~Bar attendant~~ mess committee member was present during bar hours, - that has been established. The accused had no access to the keys at any time. Staff/ Sgt Latham has stated that there were no visible signs that the bar door had been ~~tampered with~~ and has also stated it is quite improbable that if anyone had removed the door by the hinges it would have been found ~~not~~ by an authoritative person in its normal condition. There were no signs of it having been forced at all, no new marks whatever and it was just as it had been when locked.

On the other hand there are a great many other possibilities that could account for the presence of the bottle in the accused's bed. The bottle was not seen from the night of the 18th to noon of the 20th, when it was found in his bed. Anyone of a large number of Sgts, all of whom knew the mess and bar, and several of whom had direct access to the bar keys, could have removed the bottle and later seized upon the opportunity of hiding his guilt by placing it in a very likely place, beside a drunken man in his bed. That is not fantastic is not too unlikely. I should say that compared to the ~~probability~~ near impossibility of the accused stealing a bottle or anything else from the bar ~~the other is~~, extremely probable.

The accused has told all the facts, ~~to this court as~~ as he knows them, to this court. If the man was not intoxicated most of Tues. afternoon and evening he was certainly under the influence, and spent a good deal of his time away from the Press altogether, in the Roma Cafe. I don't think he had the will to do anything, except drink, certainly not to contrive a plan to steal a bottle of whisky in a strange mess.

This man is not a criminal, yet stealing is a crime, and if committed it means the accused is labelled a criminal. There is ~~too~~ just a preponderance of evidence, against the likelihood of the accused having stolen the liquor, ~~that this is a case~~ showing a reasonable doubt, that it is the duty of the court to acquit.

On the alternative charge the defence has adduced evidence that the accused was drunk. He was so drunk, I submit, that he did not have, could not have an intent to commit an offence. Improper possession is an offence and although it is not necessary to prove the degree of intent that stealing demands, still it must be shown that the offence was committed wilfully. I submit again that the defence has shown a sufficient degree of drunkenness as to make any collection or volition on his part very unlikely. He was certainly dead drunk at the time he was aroused by S.M. Dunn, when the liquor was found in his bed. There is no evidence that he was seen taking the bottle, - we have offered evidence that the taking was unlikely because of the facts. Therefore, again, there is ground to point out the existence of a reasonable doubt and I ask that the accused be acquitted of the second charge.

Edw Tierney Capt
Defending Officer.

Summing up by JA.

(A) It is a principle of English law that the accused is presumed innocent until proved guilty and that the burden of proof rests upon the prosecution.

(B) The accused must be proved guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. "Reasonable Doubt" defined. If a reasonable doubt exists in the minds of the Court as to the guilt of the accused the Court must find the accused not guilty.

(C) The Court is the sole judge of facts and must not be influenced by any expression of opinion by me on the facts. The duty of the J.A. is to advise the Court on questions of law.

(D) Secs. 18(4) and 40 analyzed and attention directed to M.M.L. P2, para 33 and P118, para 50. The doctrine of recent possession explained.

(E) Intention is not capable of proof but may only be inferred from overt acts. As a general rule a person is presumed in law to have intended the natural and probable consequences of his act.

(F) Drunkenness and its effect on the acts of a person - Reference made to M.M.L. P25, para 48 and P105 paras. 6 and 9.

(G) The court may, if it finds that the accused took the bottle but was so drunk at the time of taking that he was incapable of forming the specific intent essential to constitute the crime of theft, find the accused not guilty on the first charge. However the court must realize that intent is a wilful nature is a necessary ingredient to the second (alternative) charge.

E3.

Plea in Mitigation by Defending Offr.

I would ask the Court to consider the mans army record, his age and past conduct. he has very few entries on his conduct sheet. C.M.S. Dunn has stated that he considered that the accused in the past did satisfactory work. The accused is married but has no children and his father is seriously ill. I feel that the accused deserves a most lenient punishment.

Summary of Evidence

In the case of B.6173 Cpl Walter Hermann Thomas, 1 Cdn Base School of Cookery, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the DAA&QMG. 1 Cdn. Base Rft. Sp. this evidence is taken on oath:

First Witness { B.6238 Sgt. Cartner H. HQ 1 CBRSp. duly sworn states:-

I am a member of the Sgts Mess HQ 1 CBRSp. On 20 Dec 44 around 1700 hrs when I returned to the mess from Sp. HQ. QMS Quinn showed me a bottle of Old Smuggler whisky, which I identified by my name "H.CARTNER" being printed in ink on the label. "This is the bottle in question (admitted & marked Ex. 'A'). The printing was done by me. This particular bottle was loaned to me by Sgt. Brown our Mess Secy Treas in the latter part of Oct 44. I put my name on the bottle because I wanted to have it for Christmas. In the early part of Dec 44 I obtained from the bar another bottle of whisky in substitution for the bottle of 'Old Smuggler' (Ex A) which was left in the bar stock. About 17 Dec 44 I noticed that this bottle (Ex A) was still for sale at the bar. I made some jocular remarks about it. I think Sgt. Brown was present at the time. He acts as barman.

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness

H. Cartner

Second Witness { K68696 Cpl (A/Sgt) Brown. F.O. duly sworn states:-

I recognise the accused. He was on loan to Sgts Mess HQ 1 CBRSp where he was employed as a cook. I think I saw him working in our kitchen on 19 Dec 44. I am Secy Treas of the Sgts Mess of HQ 1 CBRSp and have been since 1 Nov 44. I also act as barman. I recognise this bottle of whiskey (Ex A) by the name "H.CARTNER" printed on the label. Sgt. Cartner printed his name on it when he asked me to put it aside for him, a little more than a month ago

I put the bottle away in the bottom part of one of the cupboards in the bar behind some other bottles
Early in Dec. 44 Sgt. Carter asked me for his bottle (Ex A). I was unable to locate this bottle (Ex A) so I gave Sgt. Carter another bottle of the same brand of whisky in substitution from our bar stock. The bottle (Ex A) turned up later and was put back into stock. This bottle of whisky (Ex A) I then became the property of the Sgts. Mess HQ 1 CBRDsp. again. It had originally been purchased by our mess from NAAFI - EF1 therefore this was Carter's. About 18 Dec 44 I remember seeing this bottle (Ex A), in the bar, because
Sgt. Carter made some jocular remarks about it.
I put it on the top shelf for sale. It was full then.
On 20 Dec 44 Sgt. Nathan gave this bottle (Ex A) to me to hold in the bar for safekeeping. To my knowledge it (Ex A) has not been out of my custody and is still the property of the Sgts. Mess.
I did not give the accused permission to take the bottle (Ex A) from the bar or to have it in his possession.
The accused declined to cross-examine the witness

Sgt

Third Witness { D.96028 CMS. Dunn R.L. 1 Edn Army Catering Pool (Sec A), duly sworn, states.

I am a member of the Sgts. Mess HQ 1 CBRDsp.
On 19 Dec 44 I brought the accused, whom I recognise down to our mess from 1 Edn Base School of Cookery to be employed as a cook. On 20 Dec 44, shortly after 1300 hrs and after I had had my lunch I went into the accused quarters and found him in bed apparently asleep. I left the mess after that and returned with another cook at about 1400 hrs.
I went into the accused's quarters again to get him up. I called him three times. The third time I went in and shook him. He was in the top part of a double decker bed. He turned over partly, pulling the blanket with him. Under the accused's head
I noticed an Old Smuggler whisky bottle with
Sgt. Carter's name on the front label. This bottle (Ex A) is the bottle in question. I wrote my name and "1430 hrs 20/12/44" on the back label. I removed the bottle from the haversack and called in S/Sgt. Latham who identified it as one he had seen before in our mess stocks. I kindly roused the accused and got him out of bed. He was in such a state of drunkenness that I took him to Stanley Pike and handed him over to C.S.M. Neilson. Accused smelt of alcohol, he could hardly stand. We had to lift him into the truck. The accused did not look at all. His eyes were bulging and glassy. Prior to this incident the accused was always O.K. I had known him before. The bottle (Ex A) when I removed it from the accused's presence was as it is now. Less than half full. I am certain that it contains whisky.

DM

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

A. L. Lucas. F.M.S.

Fourth Witness { C 96450 S/Sgt. Latham E.H. duly sworn states.

I recognise the accused, who was a cook at the Sgts' Mess HQ 1 C.B.R. Bde. I believe he came there on 19 Dec 44. On afternoon of 20 Dec 44 I was working in the bar of the Sgts Mess. It was my afternoon off duty and I was a member of the Bar Committee of the Mess. At about 1430 hrs QMS Quinn came into the bar. He proceeded to the kitchen which is next to the bar. In a couple of minutes he called me & I went to a part of the kitchen which is partitioned off. The accused normally sleeps there. As I went in QMS Quinn had a bottle of whisky (Ex A) in his hand. The accused was sitting on the lower part of a double decker bed. I recognised the bottle (Ex A) as one which had come from the bar as it had Sgt. Latham's name on the label. I was present when Sgt. Latham put his name on the bottle. It was quite some time ago. Accused was in the process of getting dressed at the time. In my opinion the accused was drunk. His eyes were glassy. There was a strong smell of liquor in the quarters. The accused staggered badly when he went out with QMS Quinn. At times I work in our bar as a barkeeper. I recall seeing the bottle of whisky (Pr. A) with the bar stock as recently as the evg of 18 Dec 44. I was working there at this time. The bar stock was kept in a glass fronted cabinet: the keys to which were kept by the mess Secy or a member of the Bar Committee. I had the keys of night of 19/20 Dec 44. The locks was not a sturdy one. I examined the cabinet after the incident with QMS Dunn and the accused. It showed no signs of having been tampered with. I did not give the accused permission to take the bottle (Pr. A) from the bar.

The accused declined to cross examine the witness.

E. Wilson S/Sgt.

The accused was cautioned as follows:- "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

Accused: "I have nothing to say. I know nothing about it."

Certified that RP 4(c)(d)(e) and (f) have been complied with.

Taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused the 22nd and 23rd days of December 1944

Summary of Evidence in the case of, B-6173 GUNNER THOMS, W.N., Royal Canadian Artillery, on the strength of No. 1 Canadian Artillery Holding Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army (Overseas).

Statement of 1st Witness: B-9190 L/BOMBADIER BOOTHROYD, W., Royal Canadian Artillery, having been duly sworn, deposed as follows:

I am B-9190 L/Bombadier Boothroyd, W., of No. 1 Canadian Artillery Holding Unit, located at St. Lucia Barracks, Bordon, Hants. I am permanent block N.C.O. I took the roll call on the morning of August 1st., 1941, and found that the accused was absent. After searching thoroughly I could not find Gunner Thoms. I turned his name in to the Orderly Sergeant each day. Since then Gunner Thoms has failed to answer roll and has been turned in on Tattoo and Reveille roll calls as being absent without leave. From the time of his absence to the time of his apprehension I have not seen or heard of the accused.

The accused declined to cross examine this witness.

W Boothroyd

Statement of 2nd Witness: LIEUTENANT T.J. MARRION, Royal Canadian Artillery, having been duly sworn, deposed as follows:

I am Lieut. T.J. Marrion, Officer i/c Records of No. 1 Canadian Artillery Holding Unit, and as such I have custody of the document which I intend to produce.

I produce in evidence a document concerning the accused, being A.F.B. 252, which purports to be signed on its face by Captain V. Harris Good, D.A.P.M., Canadian Military Police. This document shows that the accused, B-6173, Gunner Thoms, W.N., was apprehended by Cpl. Elder, at approximately 1830 hours, 26 August, 1941, in Dean Street, London.

The accused declined to cross examine this witness.

T.J. Marrion Lieut R.C.A.

The accused having been duly cautioned in accordance with R.F. 4 (e) declined to make a statement.

Certified that R.P. 4 (c) (d) & (e) have been complied with

PART I.

DESCRIPTIVE RETURN of a Deserter or Absentee without Leave.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF MAGISTRATES.

(1) When a man is apprehended by the Civil Power as an absentee without leave, or as a deserter, if the information tendered leaves no doubt in the mind of the Magistrate that the prisoner is a soldier, this return should be completed and given to the Police to hand to the escort on arrival.

(2) To avoid delay in the arrival of the escort a telegram stating the Number, Rank, Name and Unit of the soldier should be sent by the Police, as soon as the man is committed, to the Officer Commanding the soldier's Unit. The place where the escort is required to attend should be stated, also whether the soldier surrendered or was arrested.

(3) Any recommendation for a reward should be made on Part II of this return.

(4) The Court fees chargeable for Descriptive Returns should be claimed periodically from the Command Paymaster of the Command in which the Court is situated.

(5) The stations of all Units are shown in the Monthly Army List, as are also the Depots of Corps.

In the case of doubt as to the location of a particular Unit reference should be made to the nearest O.C. Troops. Where the soldier's Unit is stationed overseas (outside Great Britain, Northern Ireland District, and the Channel Islands) the telegram for an escort should be despatched to the O.C. Depot, who will take all necessary action for its provision.

This AFO 1618 referred to in statement of evidence of Thomas Gaughan
Jno Stevens Capt.

S C Daniel.

The following Statement of expenses (if any) incurred by the Police and chargeable to Army Funds should be certified by a Superintendent or Officer in charge of a station.

No expenses incurred in conveying a Deserter or Absentee from the Court to prison should be charged to Army funds. Such expenses can be included in the claim made on the Prison Commissioners.

The total amount allowed on account of expenses before committal will not together with the reward exceed 40/-.

(2) To avoid delay in the arrival of the escort a telegram stating the Number, Rank, Name and Unit of the soldier should be sent by the Police, as soon as the man is committed, to the Officer Commanding the soldier's Unit. The place where the escort is required to attend should be stated, also whether the soldier surrendered or was arrested.

(3) Any recommendation for a reward should be made on Part II of this return.

(4) The Court fees chargeable for Descriptive Returns should be claimed periodically from the Command Paymaster of the Command in which the Court is situated.

(5) The stations of all Units are shown in the Monthly Army List, as are also the Depots of Corps.

In the case of doubt as to the location of a particular Unit reference should be made to the nearest O.C. Troops. Where the soldier's Unit is stationed overseas (outside Great Britain, Northern Ireland District, and the Channel Islands) the telegram for an escort should be despatched to the O.C. Depot, who will take all necessary action for its provision.

Summary of Evidence in the Case of 076325 Tpr. Hancock G.S. 32 Recce Regt (RMR).

By direction of the Commanding Officer this summary is taken on oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution. 076053 SSM [illegible] Sgt. T.L.
Having been duly sworn states:
I present extract from entry in MB 68 relative to the accused in evidence that he absented himself without leave 0830 hrs 23 June 43.
(Marked "A").
I also present AFO 1618 in evidence that the accused was arrested in Northampton 1140 hrs 31 May 43.
(marked "B").
I also present certified forms 1000:55 detailing escort expenses of 15/2 and 13/8 totaling £1-8-10.
(marked "C").
I also present extract of MB 68 relative to the accused in evidence that he absented himself without leave 1130 hrs 18 June 43. The accused was under close arrest at the time.
(marked "D")
I also present AFO 1618 relative to accused in evidence that the accused was arrested in Lundon 0715 hrs 22 July 43.
(marked "E").
I also present forms certified 1000:55 detailing escort expenses of 9/2.
(marked "F").
I also present 5 sent passes appearing to bear the Orderly Room stamp of the Loyal Montreal Regt (MG) and C Coy The Loyal Montreal Regt (MG) found on the accused at the time of his arrest 31 May 43.
(marked "G").

I ~~am~~ was CQMS. of Coy. The Loyal Montreal Regt (MG) of which the accused was Company Clerk. I gave the accused monies totalling £1-5-0 which I had collected from the men for their laundry to be kept in the strong box in the Coy office. On examining the Coy box with Capt Ward on 28 Jan ~~I~~ informed me £1-5-0 was not there.

Acting in my capacity as SQMS. on 23 Jan I checked the kit of the accused and found him deficient of the articles on attached list which I have priced at Ordnance Local prices and 75% of O.V prices. totalling £12-19-6 and £17-8 respectively (marked "A" & "B" G2).

D/6th SQMS. FAUBERT. T.L.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Second Witness for the Prosecution. Capt E.W. Ward having been duly sworn states:

In January 1943 I was acting as Coy ~~Comd~~ 2/C of Coy The Loyal Montreal Regt (MG). The accused was Coy clerk at that time. In the Coy office there was a steel strong box, the keys to which were held by myself and by the accused. For the week or ten days prior to 23 Jan the Coy had been collecting funds from the men for a dance which was to be held. Before I left the Coy office in the evening of 22 Jan 43 I checked the cash in strong box. There was £1-5-0 laundry money and £6-19-2 which had been collected for the dance. On the morning of the 23rd of January as soon as I heard that ~~[illegible]~~ had been reported sick I ~~again~~ went to the strong box and found all the money had been taken out. The box was undamaged in any way and the lock did not appear to have been forced. To my knowledge Spr Thornett and myself were the only ones in possession of a key. At the end of January when I was checking the railway warrant before making a return to RHQ, Pte Peacock who had taken over as sqn clerk pointed out that warrant numbers 219245, 219246, 219247 were missing from the warrant book. The counterfoils were also missing. I present in evidence a list of names of personnel dispatched on leave on 20 Jan 43 (month) and who took tickets were issued on railway warrant 219244. No one was dispatched on leave until 27 January and it was approximately at this time when the above warrants to mentioned above were found to be missing. The warrant book was kept in a trunk in the coy office, keys to which only Spr Thornett had. The trunk was always kept padlocked

I present a slip of paper which bears the genuine signature of Capt J. M. Laing (MARKED H)

I also present three railway warrants numbered 219245 (marked J) 219246 (marked K) and 219247 (marked L) These warrants were sent to 32 Edn Lowe Regt (R&R) by Canadian Military Headquarters. They had been exchanged by the London and North Eastern Rly, the London Midland and Scottish Rly and the Southern Rly respectively, for tickets valued £1.12.4 7 shillings 2 pence and £6.15.6 respectively. They bear signatures purporting to be those of Capt J. M. Laing. I have compared the signatures appearing on these warrants with the genuine signature of Capt Laing and in my opinion the signatures on the warrants are not genuine.

Sentence.

Sentence.

The Court sentence the accused

The accused elected to make a statement in connection with the other five charges.

(1) Did not borrow money from A. W. L. Mackenzie King Co. for he had been getting in debt during and early 23rd January. I had to repay debt. I used this money & the profit borrowed for this purpose.

I thought I could have money to replace same by 1st 23rd of Jan. When I knew money would be allotted because the claim was to be held that evening. By the 23rd of January I found it impossible to repay this money to the A. W. L.

Defending Officer offers the following statement in mitigation of sentence & the charges he asked the accused plead guilty:

We have a case of manslaughter - about not want for - got into scrapes - has funds enough until - eventually to must - could not make defence. Could not take it - must A.W.L. - took blank pass - could not be used - Went away in fear of consequences. Now willing to pay for crimes by pleading guilty

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No (5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans (1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge(s), and allowed on the charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)

NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans

President of the Court,
Worthy Members,

In the case of D 72274 Rfn. Thomson H.

There are four points which are worthy of consideration by the court before passing sentence on this man.

1. He has been a soldier for almost three years now, having served more than two years with the Victoria Rifles and now being a member of our unit, the Royal Winnipeg Rifles.
He was a medical orderely most of the time in Canada but has been an infantry soldier since arriving in England.
2. He has been a good soldier which is shown by his field conduct sheet.
3. He arrived in England in the fall of 1943 and since then has had only three short leaves. All his applications for privilege leave were cancelled.
4. While absent without leave Thomson's behaviour was good.

Sir,

Respectfully submitte

G. R. P. Chart, 2

Re: F.G.C.M. B/6356 Pte Thompson D.N. T. Sect. R. (M.G.) 4 C.I.R.U.

1. I respectfully suggest that you read the statement made by the accused and the plea made by the Defending Officer, as well as the copy of the letter produced by the accused, from his wife. This soldier has been in the Canadian Army since November 1939. He informed me that he was the first Canadian to be married in England. His record before his marriage was quite good. His trouble lately appears to be troubles with his wife and I suggest that there is enough evidence to indicate that the Dependants' Allowance Board officials in England should be asked to make a full investigation respecting the wife's conduct and condition. The accused has not sufficient money to get a divorce, and he is extremely anxious to have the Dependants allowance and the assigned pay cancelled, and if the facts are as indicated, he appears to be fully justified in taking that attitude. There is a good probability that if this were effected that this man would become a useful soldier.

Lt.-Col.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION, CHARACTER EVIDENCE, and ADDRESS OF ACCUSED OR HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

Statement by the Accused

I went A.W.L. because there was trouble at home, and I wanted to get home to see if I could get it straightened out. I have a wife in England. I was the first Canadian in England to be married. I learned that my wife was unfaithful. I returned to Camp and explained it to the Colonel, and got 28 days F.P. I went to the hospital and found that I had syphilis. I was in hospital for 28 days, and was pronounced cured intensive treatment. The colonel advised me that only way I could have her allowance stopped was to start divorce proceedings, which would cost me at least $40 to start with. So then I went AWL to have her money stopped. I thought I was cured of syphilis. Later I broke out in a rash, and as I had started syphilis while in hospital, I found that this rash was secondary syphilis. I went to see my wife, and asked her to get a divorce, as I could not afford it. I intended to give myself up, but the people next door phoned the C.M.P.'s and they came and picked me up. I then went to hospital, again, and am still on treatment for syphilis.

Plea in mitigation of sentence by Defending Officer and a copy of letter attached hereto.

Plea of Mitigation Made on Behalf of 6 Mar.43

B-76356 Pte. Thomson D.N. By Capt. A.F.

MacPherson, Defending Officer.

1. Pte Thomson arrived in England 17 Dec 39 with the Toronto Scottish Regiment. He met and became engaged to his future wife shortly after his arrival and was married with permission 16 Feb 40. He was the first Canadian soldier to marry in England.

2. Thomson enjoyed a happy married life until June 42 when he began to suspect unfaithfulness on the part of his wife. He spent his priviledge leave with her in Sept. 42 and became aware that she was undergoing medical treatment, but was unaware of the nature of the treatment.

3. In Oct. 42 he was medically examined and was found to be suffering from V.D.S. which he clames could only have been contracted through his wife. He proceeded to hospital where he did not respond to the new quick treatment.

4. He endeavoured to have his wife's allowance and assigned pay stopped but did not gain any satisfactory answer as to how this could be effected. He also made enquiries as to how he might obtain a divorce but was told that this would require a considerable outlay of money. He has no means.

5. Five days after his discharge from hospital he went A.W.L. for the alleged purpose of thereby causing his wife's allowance to be stopped.

6. I would draw to the attention of the Court the mental state of this soldier at the time of his release from hospital and of his absenting himself, arising from the foregoing circumstances and would ask the Court to take these circumstances under consideration when passing sentence.

7. May the soldier's good record until recently be also taken into consideration.

8. Pte. Thomson has been under close arrest sixty-five (65) days and under stoppage of pay for this period.

9. I would also request the court to recommend to the convening Officer that the matter of stoppage of his wife's allowance and assigned pay be given immediate consideration and action be taken to implement these stoppages.

10. Extracts from a letter from Thomson's wife is attached.

Saturday Jan 3/42

My Dearest Dave,

I seem to want to say so much and yet I don't know what to say and we really couldn't say much this afternoon with others there, that's why I'm writing this, you know what I said this afternoon dear, that I couldn't ask you to forgive me and I couldn't ask you to forget about all that has happened I know that's impossible, but is it impossible for you to give me another chance. I know I don't deserve it, Dave but I swear that you will never regret it if you do.

Oh David why did I do it why. I wouldn't blame you if you hated me, but I know you don't I know that you love me I know that you have loved me all along.

I'm tellin g you the truth Dave when I say I hate Smart, I never xxxx want to even think of him again, oh what a fool I've been dear. I've not been with anyone else since and don't intend to. I've been to dances with Jane and I've danced with some of the boys but that's been all. Jane and I have always come home ourselves.

To be tried by Field General Court Martial

(F.R. Phelan) Brigadier Commanding Cdn Reinforcement Units.

Farnborough, Hants
This 4th day of Dec 41.

PTE. THOMSON, D.N.

Toronto Scottish Regiment (M.G.), posted to the Canadian Training School, tried by Field General Court Martial at Havannah Barracks, BORDON, Hants, on the 9th December, 1941.

The order convening the Court, the charge sheet, summary of evidence and medical certificate are laid before the Court.

The Court satisfy themselves as provided by R.P. 22 & 23.

The accused is brought before the Court.

Prosecutor Lieut. W.A. Dalrymple - Essex Scot. Rgt.
Defending Officer, Lieut. H.G. Boyd - Tor. Scot. Rgt. attd.CTS.

At 1730 hours the trial commences.

The order convening the Court is read, signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused, and they severally answer to their names.

Q1. Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1. No sir.

The President, members are duly sworn.

Q2. Do you object to No. D-92722, Cpl. V. Petrelli, C.M.S.C. acting as shorthand writer?
A2. No sir.

The shorthand writer is duly sworn.

The accused is arraigned upon the charge in the above mentioned charge sheet.

Q3. Are you guilty or not guilty of the charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3. Not guilty.
Q4. Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?
A4. No sir.

1st Witness for Prosecution — Captain, E.C. Peckham, Adjutant, Canadian Training School, having been previously sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q5. You took the Summary of evidence in the case of Pte. Hoskins?
A5. I did, sir.
Q6. Will you tell the Court what happened on that occasion regarding the accused?
A6. I took the summary of evidence in the case of Pte. Hoskins, and the accused, Pte. Thomson appeared before me as a witness at that time, and made a statement, stating:"On 19 Nov 41 at about 2140 hours I returned from leave and turned my pass into the Guard room. I went up to B.H. 39 to get rid of my equipment, said "Hello" to everybody in the room and remember asking Hoskins if he'd cut my hair in the morning. I talked for ten or fifteen minutes and during that time Pte. Hoskins was in bed. I left just before lights out, about 2200 hours when I found two civilian policemen and a C.M.P. L/Cpl. in B.H. 39." Pte. Crain had previously testified that Pte. Hoskins had left the barracks in his car before 2130 hours. On the next day, the accused signed the typed statement he had made. Subsequently, Constable Timmins of the Hampshire Constabulary came to Havannah Barracks. Six or seven men were lined up, among them the accused, Pte. Thomson. R.S.M. Tuck asked the Constable if he could identify the man who allegedly was with Pte. Hoskins on the night of ~~19th~~ 19th November, 1941 at Whitehill at approximately 2200 hours or words to that effect. Constable Timmins, without hesitation picked Pte. Thomson from the group. I then ordered Pte. Thomson to be placed under arrest for having made a false statement"

Q7. You were President at the Court of Inquiry for Pte. Hoskins?
A7. Yes, sir, I was.
Q8. Did Pte. Thomson give evidence on that occasion?
A8. Yes, sir he did.
Q9. Did you hear the accused answer the question as to the moves of Pte. Hoskins around 2200 hours on the 19th November, 1941, to the Court?
A9. I did.

2nd Witness for Prosecution) John James Timmins, Hamshire Constabulary, having been previously sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q10. You were on duty at Whitehill Chase around 2200 hours on the night of 19th November, 1941?
A10. Correct.
Q11. Will you tell the Court what took place in connection with this case?
A11. At 9.56 o'clock, I was on duty opposite the Prince of Wales Public House. A private motorcar, No. U.W. 2460 driven by a soldier accompanied by another soldier as a passenger pulled up outside the Public House and both soldiers got out of the car and entered the Public House. At 2203 hours, these two soldiers came out of the Public House, got into the car and did not move off. As I was keeping observation, the side lights and rear light of the car were extinguished. I went to the driver and asked him why he had turned his lights off. He said that although they were working a few minutes before, they would not go on now. I tested the lights and engine switch and satisfied myself that there was something wrong with the car. Then with the assistance of two or three other soldiers, I pushed the car off the road into a side turning and I advised the occupants to immobilize it and collect it in the morning. They said they would do this and I left them about 1017 hours and they were still trying to get the car to function.
Q12. Later on the 1st December, 1941, I believe you were asked to come at Havannah Barracks for an identification parade?
A12. Yes sir.
Q13. At that time, did you identify who you said was with Pte. Hoskins on the night of 19th November, 1941.
A13. I picked the man from the identification parade.
Q14. Was the accused the man you picked up at that time.
A14. Yes, that is the man, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q15. Did you speak to the accused at that time?
A15. I spoke to both the occupants in the car. I assisted them to start the engine to function. I switched on my light and was with them for about 20 minutes.
Q16. Had you seen Pte. Thomson, or did you know him previous to that night?
A16. No sir.
Q17. Is is not possible as previously pointed out in another case, that due to the darkness of the night that there might be some doubt as to the identification of the accused on that case, would not that apply to the accused in this case.
A17. I did not say that, sir. I am quite positive as to my identification as I had my light on for over 10 minutes and there cannot be any doubt whatsoever as to the men being there. The only doubt I expressed is that when it was suggested that the two men coming out of the Public House might not have been the same as the men who had got out of the car and gone into the Public House.

3rd Witness for Prosecution) No. B-75500 R.S.M. Tuck, H.E. Toronto Scottish Regt. (M.G. having been previously sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q18. Will you tell the Court in your own words the substance of the statement made by the accused at the Court of Inquiry regarding the case of Pte. Hoskins?

A18. The accused made a statement under oath to the effect that the accused, Pte. Hoskins was in his Barrack room at approximately 2200 hours on 19th November, 1941.

Q19. Were you also present on the afternoon of 19th November, 1941 when an identification parade took place?

A19. I was sir.

Q20. Did constable Timmins identify the person he had said was with Pte. Hoskins at that time?

A20. I was, yes.

Q21. Who did he identify as being that person?

A21. He identified Pte. Thomson, the accused, as being the man with Pte. Hoskins at Whitehill on the night of 19th November, 1941 at approximately 2200 hours.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE.

Q22. Did the constable mention the time as approximately 2200 hours?

A22. I believe so, sir.

4th Witness for Prosecution) No. G-17851 Pte. Crain, F.L. Carlt. & York Regt. having been previously sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

Q23. You were on duty at the Havannah Barracks' main gate between 2000 and 2200 hours on the night of 19th November, 1941? A23. Yes Sir.

Q24. Will you tell the Court all you know concerning this case that happened during that time you were on duty?

A24. During that time I was on sentry duty at the main gate, a civilian car came in, stayed in for about 5 minutes and went out again. I recognized the driver on both occasions as Pte. Hoskins.

Q25. Are you sure that you did not see any civilian car leaving the Havannah Barracks between 2145 hours and 2200 hours when you came off duty?

A25. Yes sir, I am sure.

Q26. You are sure of the time?

A26. Yes sir, I am.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q27. You say you recognized Pte. Hoskins when the car drove into barracks.

A27. That is right.

Q28. You did not see the car going out again?

A28. Yes sir, the car drove out again about 5 minutes after it came in.

Q29. On the last occasion leaving barracks you identified Pte. Hoskins?

A29. Yes sir, I did.

Q30. Did you identify anyone else in the car?

A30. No sir.

Q31. You stated in previous evidence that you used your flashlight, is that correct?

A31. Yes sir.

Q32. On which side di you flash your light?

A32. On the driver's side.

The Prosecution is closed.

Q33. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?

A33. Yes sir.

Q34. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?

A34. Yes sir.

Q35. Is he a witness as to character only?

A35. Yes sir.

(R.P. 40 & 41 are here complied with by the Court)

The accused in his defence says: "I got off the London train stabout 7.30 o'clock. In inquiring about the last bus, I was informed it was at about 9 o'clock. I checked my baggage at the bus station and went to the Pub and had a few drinks. I went back to the bus station at 8.45 o'clock and got my baggage. A few minutes later I took the bus to Bordon and I met the Paymaster to whom I talked. At 9.40 o'clock I got to the barrack room, threw my stuff on the bed and talked a few minutes with the boys. I remember talking to Hoskins and asked him if he would cut my hair in the morning. I stayed in the room for about 5 minutes and left the room. When I came back the civilian police was in taking Pte. Hoskins away.

Upon completion of closing addresses by the Defending Officer and Prosecutor, the Court is closed for consideration of the finding

The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

Captain E.C. Peckham, Adjutant, Canadian Training School, being duly sworn, is examined by the Court.

Q36. Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A36. Yes sir.
Q37. I produce AF B296 and copy of MPM 6 for the accused.

The above statement is read, signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.
Q38. Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have read?
A38. Yes sir.
Q39. Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books.
A39. Yes sir.
Q40. Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheet a fair and true summary of those entries.
A40. Yes sir.

I might add sir that to my own personal knowledge of the accused for the period he served with the Canadian Training School, that his conduct has been very satisfactory, and you will find by his Conduct sheet that the only charges shown are of minor nature.

The Defence calls R.S.M. Tuck who has been previously sworn in this case to testify as to the character of the accused:

Q41. Will you tell the Court what you know as to the character of the accused.
A41. The accused was employed as a cook in the Sgts' mess. He was an excellent cook and we had no trouble at all with him as far as his conduct was concerned

Q42. Do you wish to address the Court in mitigation pf punishment?
A42. DEFENCE: If the Court find the accused guilty in any degree, I would like to ask for leniency in view of the fact that he has been married in this country, that he is young, his family was bombed out of their home at Stoke on Trent, and also in view of the fact that he conduct has always been good as stated by the two previous witnesses.

The Court is closed for consideration of the sentence.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of B.76356 Pte. Thomson, D.N., Toronto Scottish Regt. (M.G.), posted to Cdn. Training School, taken before Lieut W.A. Dalrymple at Bordon Camp, Hants.

3 Dec. 1941.

1st Witness

Captain E.C. Peckham, L. & W. Regt., posted to Cdn. Training School, having been duly sworn states:-

"On 25 Nov. 1941 I was taking a summary of evidence in connection with the case against Pte. Hoskins, N.S. The accused appeared before me as a witness, was placed under oath and made the following statement:-

'On 19 Nov. 41 at about 2140 hours I returned from leave and turned my pass into the Guard Room. I went up to B.R. 39 to get rid of my equipment, said, "Hello" to everybody in the room and remember asking Hoskins if he'd cut my hair in the morning.

'I talked for ten or fifteen minutes and during this time Pte. Hoskins was in bed. I left just before lights out, about 2200 hours, and did not return until about 2220 hours when I found two civilian policemen and a C.M.P. L/Cpl in B.R. 39.'

"I recorded this statement, had it typed and on 26 Nov. 41 it was signed by the accused.

"Pte. Crain had previously testified that Pte. Hoskins had left the barracks previous to 2130 hours on 19 Nov. 41. On 1st Dec. 41 Constable Timmins of the Hampshire Constabulary came to Havannah Barracks. Six or seven men were lined up outside the Administrative "ing. Among them Pte. Thomson, R.S.M. Tuck and I took the constable to a spot near the lineup and I heard Mr. Tuck say 'Constable, can you identify any man here as a man who was with Pte. Hoskins at Whitehill on the night of 19 Nov. 41 at approximately 2200 hrs.' or words to that effect.'"

"Constable Timmins without hesitation selected Pte. Thomson from the group. I then ordered Pte. Thomson placed in close arrest for having given me a false statement during the taking of the summary in the case of Pte. Hoskins."

The accused declines to question the witness.

E.C. Peckham

(E.C. Peckham) Captain.

2nd Witness

Timmins, John James, Hampshire Constabulary, having been duly sworn states:-

"At 2156 hours on Wednesday, 19 Nov. 41 I was on duty on the Farnham - Petersfield road at Whitehill opposite the Prince of Wales Public House. A private motor car, No. U.W. 2460, driven by a soldier who had another soldier as a passenger with him pulled up outside the public house and both soldiers got out of the car and entered the public house. At 2203 hrs. these two soldiers came out of the public house, got into the car but did not move off. As I was keeping observation the side lights and rear light of the car were extinguished. I went up to the driver and asked him why he had turned his lights off. He replied: 'I'm sorry they were allright a minute ago but they will not come on now.' I tested the lights and the engine switches but something "was faulty. With the assistance of two or three soldiers, I pushed the car off the road into a side turning and I advised the occupants of the car to immobilize it and collect it the following morning. They said they would do this. I left them at 2217 hrs. still trying to get the engine and lights to function. I have since identified Pte. Hoskins as being one of the two soldiers who was with the car continuously from 2156 hrs. to 2217 hrs. on Wednesday 19 Nov. 41.

"At approximately 1530 hrs. 1 Dec. 41 I was present at an identification parade held at Havannah Barracks, Bordon, Hants. I identified the accused as being one of the occupants of the car and the companion of Hoskins continuously from 2156 hrs. until 2217 hrs. on Wednesday 19 Nov. 41."

Question by accused: "How many identification parades have you been on?"

Answer "This was my first."

The accused declines to question the witness further.

(J.J. Timmins) Constable.

3rd Witness

B75500 R.S.M. Tuck, H.E., Toronto Scottish Regt., (M.G.), posted to Cdn. Training School, having been duly sworn states:-

"I was present when Pte. Thomson was put on oath by Captain E.C. Peckham, to whom he then made a statement to the effect that Pte. Hoskins was present in his barrack room on the night of the 19 Nov. 41 at approximately 2200 hrs.

"I was also present on the afternoon of 1 Dec. 41 when Constable Timmins identified Pte. Thomson as having been at Whitehill at approximately 2200 hrs. 19 Nov. 41 Pte. Thomson was paraded with a number of other soldiers for the identification parade."

The accused declines to question the witness.

H.E. Tuck RSM

4th Witness

G.17851 Pte. Crain, F.L., Carlt. & York Regt., attached to Cdn. Training School, having been duly sworn states:-

"On the night of the 19 Nov. 41 I was on duty at the main gate of Havannah Barracks between 2100 and 2130 hrs. and a civilian car came in and I recognized the driver, whom I now know as Pte. Hoskins. He was in the barracks about five minutes and then went out again."

Question by accused: "What was the exact time that the civilian car came through the barrack gate?"

Answer "I am not sure."

Question by accused: "How many were in the car when it went out through the barrack gate?"

Answer "There were two people in the car."

The accused declines to question the witness further.

F.L. Crain

(F.L. Crain) Pte.

The accused declines to make a statement.

I certify that R.P. 4 (c) and (d) have been complied with and that the accused was warned in accordance with R.P. 4 (e) before being asked if he wished to make a statement. Taken down by me at Havannah Barracks, Bordon Camp, Hants. this 2nd day of December, 1941 and in the presence of the accused.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans .....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding[s] of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?
Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?
Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans .....
(1. RP 155. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A85. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E3 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans .....
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex ..... and Ex ..... respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans .....(2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(*1. When several accused tried separately see RP 76(B). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 757-759. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of K-47716 Pte. Thomson, G.L., Westminster Regiment, on the strength of No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the PROSECUTION

K-52080 Cpl. Ball, G.A., of the Seaforth Highlanders of Canada, "C" Company Orderly Sergeant, No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-
At Albuhera Barracks at 0800 hours on the 10th of September 1943, the accused, whom I now recognize was reported by C.S.M. James to be A.W.L. from Company parade. I immediately checked to see if the accused was in billets but I could not find him. He did not appear on any subsequent Company parade until he reported to me at 0700 hours on the 22nd day of September 1943. When he reported to me, he was correctly dressed, clean shaven and sober.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

K52080 Cpl. Ball, G.A.

SECOND WITNESS for the PROSECUTION

K-57134 Sgt. Smith, J.A.B., 1 C. Scot. R., in charge of "E" Company draft for scheme "Airedale", of No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-
At Albuhera Barracks at 1530 hours on the 24th August 1943, Lt. McLelland warned the draft that they were going on exercise "Airedale" and that they would be paraded at a time to be specified prior to departure, and that absence from the latter parade would lay them open to a charge of desertion. I was witness to this warning being read to the draft and the accused, whom I now recognize, was present and was warned. I submit a nominal roll (Exhibit "A") duly initialled by me for purposes of identification which was called at this parade and to which the accused answered when his name was called.

Cross-examined by the accused.
Question 1. Are you in "C" Company?
Answer 1. No, I am in "E" Company.

Question 2. Could you recognize me by sight as being on the parade you mention?
Answer 2. Yes, I would recognize you as being on that parade.

Question 3. Was I present at the time of my transfer to "C" Company?
Answer 3. All I know is that you were present on the "Airedale" draft parade which was warned as I mentioned.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of K-47716 Pte. Thomson, G.L., Westminster Regiment, on the strength of No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

THIRD WITNESS for the PROSECUTION

Lt. V.S. Allan, P.P.C.L.I., on the strength of No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-
I was in charge of #6 Platoon of the draft "Airedale" of which, Pte. Thomson was a member. Prior to date of departure of draft "Airedale", all men were warned that anyone absent from this parade would be charged with desertion. Pte. Thomson was absent from my platoon at the time of this parade and had to be replaced by another man. He was not present when the draft left.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

V.S. Allan Lieut
(V.S. Allan) Lt.

The accused was cautioned as follows: "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on Oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence, unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give, will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

The accused declines to make a statement and reserves his defence.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of TWO pages was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused, and that Rules of Procedure 4 (c) (d) (e) and (f) have been complied with.

(P.T.O.)

On the 6th of July 1940 P/O
Thomson volunteered for Active service and was posted to the Westminster Regt. He remained with the Regt, coming overseas with their advance party in Nov 1941, until 'Spartan' when he and as a result was posted to
No 1 C.I.R.U

While stationed in Aldershot early in 1942 he met & became very friendly with Mrs Violet Stahl whose husband was reported missing from 8th Army.

Early in 1943 the husband was reported as presumed killed in action & Mrs Stahl & Thomson decided to get married, Thomson having obtained permission & leave from his C.O.

DOT.

Just previous to this Mrs Stahl had informed Thomson that she was about to become a mother and that he was the father of her child. Due to unforseen circumstances the child was prematurely born and Thomson arrived on leave to find Mrs Stahl in hospital and had to return off leave without being married.

Shortly after this Mrs Stahl received a report that her husband was alive. She applied for a divorce which her husband did not contest and she was, at the time of P/O Thomson's absence, waiting for the divorce decree to come through. Her husbands assignment of pay was stopped and P/O Thomson signed over an allowance to her

The reason of Lt Thomsons absence being that he did not want to get posted until he had married Miss Stahl and given his name to his son & secondly he wanted to be posted back to his own regt that he had been with since July 1940.

Re: F.G.C.M. K47716 PTE. THOMSON, G.L. 1 CIRU

1. You will note from the plea in mitigation that the accused has been a welder in civilian life for over two years. He states that he would like to be transferred so that he can be employed at that trade.

2. He is of reasonably good appearance and outside of the offence for which he was tried today, his conduct sheet is not bad, having regard to the length of time he has been in the Army.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION, CHARACTER EVIDENCE AND AD OF ACCUSED OR HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

Pleading Defending Officer

I submit first that to grant me to th on them, that is that as far as the ac record is concerned there is the first offence that the accused has been ch with, and I think that should its consideration. The accused

Vancouver, is not married. In civilian life he was a welder. He would like to become a welder again. He was interviewed in Canada about a transfer, but nothing came of it.

Re: F.C.M. KA7716 PTE THOMSON, G.L. 1 CIRU

1. You will note from the plea in mitigation that the accused has been a welder in civilian life for over two years. He states that he would like to be transferred so that he can be employed at that trade.

2. He is of reasonably good appearance and outside of the offence for which he was tried today, his conduct sheet is not bad, having regard to the length of time he has been in the Army.

Form for Assembly and Proceedings of Field General Court Martial on Active Service.

PROCEEDINGS.

A.

Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this 28th day of SEPTEMBER, 1943.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of "G" GROUP CANADIAN REINFORCEMENT UNITS, CANADIAN ARMY OVERSEAS, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *

*Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers appointed or detailed hereunder.

*Omit if not applicable.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. No (2)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his~~ (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ~~.....~~ 707 ~~.....~~ charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) ~~change(s)~~ his (their) plea(s) on ~~.....~~ charge(s). ~~Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.) 707.

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is ~~(are)~~ not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A 2 initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

~~C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)~~
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)
707

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. ~~The accused~~ having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using ~~Record Form E on p 3~~.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. ~~President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules~~ relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans ..... (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)

707.

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?

(1. RP 43, 137(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using ~~Record Form E below~~.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans No
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy ~~(copies)~~ of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Plea of mitigation in the case of K4776 Pte Thompson D.L.

Sir:-

When I interviewed Pte Thompson after being detailed as his defending Officer I found much to my surprise that Pte Thompson was absolutely disinterested in any defence. Not being able to get any information from the accused I set out to gather the information I needed from his Coy Commander, Battalion Commander and the P.S.O.

In collaboration with them, and taking into consideration the best interests of this man and of the army I wish to put forward these considerations for the court.

① That since the P.S.O. have now representatives in each detention camp a note to the effect that he be considered for discharge by them.

② In the opinion of his C.O. Pte Thompson D.L. will never be of any value to the army and therefore in the interests of the army some other employment should be found for him.

③ His record shows him to be an habitual army criminal.

④ This man will never be reclaimed from his habitual ways in the army and in his interests should be given a chance to do it in some other employment.

In view of these facts I ask the court that Pte Thompson be given the minimum sentence and that a note be attached to the effect that the P.S.O. take this man's case into consideration

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of K-47716 Pte. Thomson, G.L., of the Westminster Regiment, on the strength of No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on Oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the PROSECUTION

C-5142, L/Cpl. Smith, F. of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment, on the strength of No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states as follows:- I am C-5142, L/Cpl. Smith, F., of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment. On the 28 Nov 43 at approximately 1315 hrs I was detailed with H-16073 L/Cpl. Alix, G., a regimental policeman, to escort four prisoners to the Bath House. One of these prisoners was K-47716, Pte. Thomson, G.L. At approximately 1325 hrs, the prisoners having finished bathing, were lined up for escorting back to the Guard Room. On coming out of the Bath House two of the prisoners made a break and escaped. One of these prisoners who escaped was K-47716 Pte. Thomson, G.L. whom I now recognize as the accused.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of K-47716 Pte. Thomson G.L. of the Westminster Regiment, on the strength of No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on Oath:

FIRST WITNESS for the PROSECUTION

K-52080 Cpl. Ball G.A. of the Seaforth Highlanders of Canada, "G" Coy Orderly Sergeant, No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn states as follows:-
At Albuhera Barracks at 0800 hours on the 10th of September 1943, the accused, whom I now recognize was reported by C.S.M. James to be A.W.L. from Company parade. I immediately checked to see if the accused was in billets but I could not find him. He did not appear on any subsequent Company parade until he reported to me at 0700 hours on the 22nd day of September 1943. When he reported to me, he was correctly dressed, clean shaven and sober.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

(sgd) K-52080 Cpl Ball G.A.

SECOND WITNESS for the PROSECUTION

K-57134 Sgt Smith, J.A.B., 1 C. Scot. R., in charge of "G" Company draft for Scheme "Airedale", of No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-
At Albuhera Barracks at 1530 hours on the 24th August 1943, Lt. McLelland warned the draft that they were going on exercise "Airedale" and that they would be paraded at a time to be specified prior to departure, and that absence from the latter parade would lay them open to a charge of desertion I was witness to this warning being read to the draft and the accused, whom I now recognize, was present and was warned. I submit a nominal roll (Exhibit "A") duly initialled by me for purposes of identification which was called at this parade and to which the accused answered when his name was called.

Cross-examind by the accused.

Question 1. Are you in "C" Company?
Answer 1. No, I am in "G" Company.

Question 2. Could you recognize me by sight as being on the parade you mantion?
Answer 2. Yes, I would recognize you as being on that parade.

Question 3. Was I present at the time of my transfer to "C"Coy?
Answer 3. All I know is that you were present on the "Airedale" draft parade which was warned as I mentioned.

(sgd) Sgt Smith J.A.B. K-57134.

THIRD WITNESS for the PROSECUTION

Lt. V.S. Allan, P.P C.L.I., on the strength of No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn, states as follows:
I was in charge of No.6 Platoon of the draft "Airedale" of which, Pte. Thomson was a member. Prior to date of departure of draft "Airedale" all men were warned that anyone absent from this parade would be charged with desertion. Pte. Thomson was absent from my platoon at the time of this parade and had to be replaced by another man. He was not present when the draft left.
The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

(sgd) V.S. Allan, Lieut.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of K-47716 Pte Thomson G.L., Westminster Regiment, on the strength of No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath:

The accused was cautioned as follows: "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on Oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence, unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

The accused declines to make a statement and reserves his defence.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of TWO pages was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused, and that Rules of Procedure 4 (c) (d)(e) and (f) have been complied with.

Clear of obligations in the case of X 47916 Pte Thomson G.S.L.o. of the Westminster Regiment, at present on the strength of No. 1 Can. Infantry Rft. Reinforcement Unit.

The accused volunteered for Active Service on the 6th of July, 1940. As he is a welder by trade he made two or three determined efforts while in Canada to transfer to the Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps. Just as it seemed that his transfer was to be completed with he came to England with the Advance Party of his unit.

He remained with his unit until he was hospitalized last March during the scheme Spartan. He was later discharged from hospital and went to No. 1 C.I.R.U.

He was not able to return to his unit and became disheartened.

Two years ago, the accused met a married woman. She had a child by him this year. Divorce proceedings are under way to free the woman and allow her and the accused to be married. The accused, in February, signed some of his pay over to support the child.

The accused, in evading Aldershot, was not trying to desert his Majesty's Service. He did not revert to civilian status as he remained in uniform during his absence. He also reported back to his unit under no pressure, and presumably merely wished to stay in England until the divorce becomes valid.

In pleading "guilty" the accused, although realizing the gravity of the charge, is not trying to evade punishment.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans .....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans NO-SIR(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (his) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1) NOTE-ATI
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans NO-Give Evidence. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans NO-SIR Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans .....

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. ~~The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.~~(1)
~~Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.~~(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1) Ans NO-SIR
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex B and Ex C respectively.(3)

redesignated 7 Cdn Artizans Wks Coy
19 AUG 1944

EVIDENCE FOR THE PROSECUTION

1st WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
K 29166 QMS THOMAS, A.E., on strength 7 Cdn Artisan Works Coy having been duly sworn states:

I offer in evidence certified true copy of Part II Orders of No 7 Cdn Construction Coy, RCE, No 46, dated 31 May 44, para "3" of this order shows the alteration in the name of 7 Cdn Construction Coy to 7 Cdn Artizan Works Coy.

(Part II Order No 46 marked Exhibit "1" by the Court)

I offer in evidence certified true copy of the record of the declaration of a Court of Inquiry which relates to the absence of the Accused, Spr Thomson, G.L.

DEFENDING OFFICER STATES:

I object to the admission of this document on the grounds that the accused was not present when the Court sat and that the witnesses who appeared before that Court were not cross-examined by anyone on the behalf of the accused. And further that the Defence hopes to prove that the accused did not absent himself from the time declared by that Court.

BY THE COURT TO THE DEFENDING OFFICER

The document on its face is in order and is prima facie evidence of the time of going absent, the Court intend to admit it. Later you can bring evidence to the fact that any of the findings of the Court are incorrect.

(Declaration of the Court of Inquiry admitted and marked Exhibit "2"

WITNESS CONTINUES

I offer in evidence Part II Order of 7 Cdn Construction Coy No 92, dated 26 Oct 43, referred to in the Court of Inquiry as Appendix "D".

(Part II Order No 92 marked Exhibit "3" by the Court.)

I offer in evidence certificate of apprehension under PC 2797 which relates to the Accused.

(Certificate admitted in evidence and marked Exhibit "4" by the Court).

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

I was section sergeant of No 2 Sec in this Construction Coy at the time the accused went AWL, the accused was not a member of my section. I was not at the time of his alleged going AWL the orderly sergeant.

BY THE COURT

Q Do you know anything about the duty of the accused, what he was on when he went absent?
A I was on the Court of Inquiry, I know personally about him.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RF 83(B)

CASE FOR THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

EVIDENCE FOR THE DEFENCE EXHIBIT D-6

1st WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

B 39741 Spr THOMSON, G.L., (The Accused) on strength No 7 CANC having been duly sworn states:

I was an officer's batman with 7 Cdn Construction Coy at the time I was supposed to've gone AWL. I did not answer a roll call at Tattoo on the 4 Oct 43 there was not one called, I never did answer a roll call at Tattoo. I went to a picture show on the 5 Oct 43 in camp, I remember it quite well. I left camp on the 7 Oct 43 and went to the vicinity of Guildford at about 1100 hours.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTOR

At 0930 hours on the 5 Oct 43 I was up-stairs in my officer's quarters taking care of his equipment, he was on leave at the time, I was in camp on ~~the 5 Oct 43~~. I have heard what the declaration of the Court of Inquiry has saidbut I was in camp on the 5 Oct 43. I was not in my own quarters on the 5 Oct 43 between 0930 and 1000 hours, I spent the whole morning fixing up the officers room and taking care of his equipment.

BY THE COURT

Q You have said that you went away from the camp about 1100 hours on the 7 Oct 43, is that right?
A Yes Sir.

Q Do you mean that you went AWL at that time?
A Yes Sir.

Q Did you leave camp without a pass to go to Guildford that day?
A Yes Sir.

Q Did you remain absent from that time until 14 Aug 1944, AWL?
A Yes Sir.

DEFENDING OFFICER pointed out to the Court that from the evidence just given by the accused it was apparent that the entry made in the Part II Order Exhibit "3" was inaccurate and untrue.

PROSECUTOR ADDRESSES THE COURT ON THE FINDING

Sir, On the evidence the accused admits that he went AWL at 1100 hours 7 Oct 43 and remained absent until 14 Aug 44 at 1900 hours, that is an absence of 312 days.

DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT ON THE FINDING

Sir, All I wish to say is that in summing up if the Court sees fit to find the accused guilty that the evidence which has been produced in this case be more than carefully scrutinized. The Part II Order describing the date of his going absent is obviously wrong, therefore the declaration was held two days too soon and therefore illegal as evidence. I submit that the Prosecution has submitted no evidence to establish a prima facie case. The only evidence available is the accused's own statement which he gave to establish the error in the Court of Inquiry and the Part II Order. I move that the Court dismiss the charges that have been brought against the accused for lack of evidence, which it is the duty of the Prosecution to produce.

PRESIDENT TO THE DEFENDING OFFICER

You will understand Mr Defending Officer that the Court, in this case have the right to make a special finding and the Court might in such special finding find that the accused absented himself, not from the time mentioned in the charge sheet, but from 1100 hours the 7 Oct 43, the time given by the accused in evidence. This does not mean that the Court believes that the time mentioned in the declaration of the Court of Inquiry is necessarily incorrect, but such a finding might be based on a reasonable doubt created in the minds of the Court and the Court might decide to resolve that doubt in favour of the accused by making this special finding as above indicated.

COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE FINDING

COURT IS RE-OPENED

PLEA IN MITIGATION:

Sir, I am not going to say much in mitigation except that due to the age of the accused he was not allowed to use his trade but has been allocated to the lowly and most unliked position, by Canadians, of being somebody's personal batman. His trade in civil life was a riveter in ship yards. The army could not use his trade or could not see fit to use it. He has become fed up with this sort of a job, and can you or anyone else blame him. I point out that his first two years of service were clear of crime of any sort, and I think that you will agree that this past history is just the result of him being fed up and rebelled at the type of work he was given and expected to like. I wish to ask the Court to be lenient when punishing him if they can see anything that would possibly justify that leniency towards him.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of B-39741 Spr THOMSON, G.L., R.C.E., on the strength of 7 Cdn Construction Coy R.C.E., since re-designated as 7 Cdn Artizan Works Coy R.C.E., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, this Summary is taken on Oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the Prosecution

K 29166 A/QMS Thomas, A.N., R.C.E., on strength of 7 Cdn Artizan works Coy R.C.E., Warrant Officer Class II of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:

I am K-29166 A/QMS Thomas, A.N., R.C.E., on the strength of 7 Cdn Artizan Works Coy R.C.E., I am regimentally employed as C.S.M. and have access to the Regimental Books.

During the month of October 1943, I was employed as a section serjeant of 7 Cdn Construction Coy R.C.E., which has since been re-designated 7 Cdn Artizan Works Coy R.C.E. in connection with which I present the Final Part II Order, 7 Cdn Construction Coy R.C.E., No 46 d/31 May 44 (Exhibit "D"), publishing in Section "C" Para 3 the authority for this re-designation. This document is marked Exhibit "D" and is attached to this Summary of Evidence.

I produce a certified true copy of the Declaration of the Court of Inquiry (Exhibit "A") relating to the accused, whom I now recognize, which states that the accused absented himself without leave from 0930 hrs 5 Oct 43 and, as an Appendix to this Declaration, Part II Order, 7 Cdn Construction Coy R.C.E., No 92 d/26 Oct 43 (Exhibit "B"), publishing in Para 6(a) the amended time of Absence. These documents are marked respectively Exhibits "A" and "B" and are attached to this Summary of Evidence.

I now produce Schedule "F" (Exhibit "C") relating to the accused which is a certificate of apprehension and shows that the accused was arrested at 1900 hrs 14 Aug 44. This document is marked Exhibit "C" and is attached to this Summary of Evidence.

The above evidence was read to the accused.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

The accused was cautioned as follows:

Do you wish to make any statement or give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused reserves his defence.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of 1 page was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused and that Rules of Procedure 4(c), (d), (e) and (f) have been complied with.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p [redacted] 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No sir (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement (1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change~~ his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ~~N/A~~ charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) ~~change(s) his (their) plea(s) on charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 145.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans .....
(1. RP 155. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF 495. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans No sir
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy ~~extract~~ of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(d) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex A and Ex B respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans .....(2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him ~~and the JA, if any~~ (2)
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 7(D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(18), 68(1), KR Can 564. 2. RP 50. As to release from arrest by Confirming Offr see KR Can 567. As to assembly and disposal of record after trial see instrs on back of Convening Order.)

PLEA of MITIGATION

In the case of No. D 81631 Private THOMSON, James Alfred, The Black Watch (RHR) of Canada, on strength of 5 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, I submit the attached letters purporting to be signed by the father of the accused, ANDREW THOMSON, 1414, Balmoral Street, Montreal, P.Q.

1. The accused informs me that he has been deeply troubled for some time by the home life of his parents, which is described in the attached letters.

(W.A. Magill) Lt.,
Defending Officer.

1414 Balmoral St
Montreal
Aug 10/42

My dear Son + Pal

I got your letter from Doug when he came home here from St Johns and it had been opened as I don't think you will have to write Norma about that letter but how my letter went to your Mothers place I don't know or did you send them to her ? but I see my address was still on it then again it may be some more of her rotten tricks of changing my address at the post office and if I only knew I would sure fix her. She has been after me again to take up house with I told her I would but that she would have to act much different that she has been doing and that some day she was out with Bob Hutton what do you think of that Eh "James she is your mother but she will never be any better until she can't walk then she will have them come and see her. Now Jim your Aunt Julia took Georgie's death very hard and was sick herself for 2 weeks after but she is back at work now and has got over it Jim I am glad to hear that you know a car so well it is good to know and like you say may be very handy when you come home and you will be able to teach me home

Eh you say Alfy is getting married well I hope he is doing the right thing you know a boy can make a big mistake very easy in that line and you can't undo it so easy. Now Jim
I was working at the Gaiety but it closed up and I am now at the Lido working for a boys pay that is the show you and Hoey used to go to when we were in Griffintown Eh. but the Gayety will open again at the end of this month and I hope to be back there again

Well I have some news for you now Doug left here for Halifax on Monday and Boy do I miss him he is such a good kid just like you he would give his shirt to help anybody he will write you from there I just cant believe he has gone I just dont know when but I think he will be in England as soon as he finishes his gun training in Halifax he has volunteered for merchant Marine as a gunner and I expect him back here as soon as his course is finished he has taken 95 p.c. in all his classes so far so I have no fear that he will make good on that part, Well Son I am glad that for once you had a good time on your leave I'll bet you painted the town Red Eh, Ha ha Son I think I have given you all the news for this time but hope to have another letter soon I am as B.4 your loving Dad

+ Pal

1414 Bleury Admiral Ed
Montreal

My Dear Son + Pal

Card together I got your letter and card today you are in the hospital the card says Dr out and well again so that means no more measles so glad to hear Ed.
Jones I am glad to hear that you met Jackie you can collect the 2 dollars the Dr owes me so make it your business to get it as I challenge it just as good to you as it is to him
Jones tell me if you have mumps to Granny or Aunt Jean you say you sent me back the letter Norma wrote me well I have not received it yet unless you sent it to your mother let me know you are getting along with your le Saunders I am back at the movie business again but only till the Varsity opens up again things here are very quiet also much the same as when you left but Ad Boy
I wish I was with you now here is news for you Doug is leaving here on Monday to work makes us most break till we get a letter from him I will owe him a letter for him sleeping with me all this time we have had fun telling our wrestle jockey. the gang here are all well but I think I will look for a nother place after Xmas gets so the old Lady is so crabby so hard and is always looking for money just like she always did Norma is still working and likes her job she and your Mother asked me about living together again I had a letter from Norma today and it seems they have forgot all about it again so like I told Norma in my letter perhaps it is better that way as I dont think your mother will ever settle so I think the best thing for me to do is paddle my own canno Now Son I think I have given you all the news for this time so take care of yourself until we meet again I am as ever your loving

Dad & Pal

1414 Balmoral St

Sept 16/48

My Dear Son & Pal

It is so nice to hear from you but I am sorry to hear of you being in the Hospital again you sure are having a tough time of it lately but keep your chin up and things will come out all right yet, game you sure stuck to Alice well I suppose he will be a married man by the time you get this and about Blanche well perhaps you will believe now what I told you long ago Eh. I never did think very much of her at any time but strange things happen and as for as women go you can't trust them anytime or anywhere even your mother is jipping Chaffe just like she did me and the best advice I can give you is to stay single a least for a few years more. Now about Jackie Meehan I was only out with him twice and he borrowed money from me both times and he paid me back the first time but I lent him $20 in a Tavern bee and have never seen him since so jin when you see him again you collect from him Now Son like you say when and where we meet again we will sure have a real party your Mother & Norma are back in the City again with Chaffe but they dont come near me I think there is some wrong with her heard the one day she begs me to take home with her again and the next day she is full of gossip to me I cant see what can you make of a person like that Wong took 11 pairs of socks that she was going to have for me and I got 4 pairs back not bad Eh.

well Love things are still the same here I am working in the Empty Theatre and am just manage to get along and the way things are a person has to be satisfied and say nothing however all we can do is pray on like you are doing so I will close now for want of news only that I don't know your mothers address or I would give it to you but be sure and keep your chin up and you will be all right until then take good care of yourself as this I want most in this world is that you come back to me dear if I can't get over there with you as now so as I will ring off hoping to have another letter from you soon and I won't forget your smokes your letter says you are in No 4
General Hospital so I suppose I can take a chance and send it there so please answer as soon as you get this and let me know how you are getting along I am as ever Yours

Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this FOURTEENTH day of AUGUST, 19 42

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 6 Canadian Infantry Brigade, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *~~and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer.~~

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit if not applicable.

~~*I [illegible] President [illegible] Five Officers [illegible] more than one [illegible] years [illegible]~~

In my opinion military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units and difficulties of communication and other difficulties render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of those rules inconsistent with Appendix "A" to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the person named in the annexed Schedule.

Field General Court Martial

1. The above mentioned soldier was tried by Field General Court Martial on Sunday 16 Aug. 42, and the evidence submitted by the prosecuting officer conformed with the evidence contained in the summary of evidence. The defending officer called Pte. Steuart, B.J., H-20146 who testified that the accused did not offer any resistance to Cpl. Norton when Cpl. Norton attempted to effect his arrest. It will be noted that the accused pleaded guilty on the third charge.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of No. H 20711 Private Thomson, Leslie, 1st Battalion Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada Regiment, Canadian Army Overseas.

FIRST WITNESS

H 19682 Corporal Norton, Cyril Herbert, 1st Battalion Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada Regiment, Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states as follows:-

I am H 19682 Corporal Norton, Cyril Herbert, 1st Battalion Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada Regiment, Canadian Army Overseas.

At approximately 0030 hours, 26 April 1942, acting on orders from the Battalion Duty Officer, I proceeded to the Premises commonly known as No. 2 Southview, South Heighton, Sussex, where I found the accused, whom I recognize and Pte. St. Croix in the kitchen of the house. I told Thomson he was under arrest for breaking and entering and to come along quietly with me. He replied " I don't have to leave here". St.Croix said, "You'd better come along, you're only getting yourself into trouble". I took a step towards Thomson and he moved forward as if to strike me, and I grabbed him and we fell to the floor. St.Croix tried to help me and pulled up at Thomson and said, "Come on Thomson, you'd better do as Norton says". It was then that Thomson sprung up, kicked at me and I protected my face with my hands, and his foot hit my hands. I then decided I needed assistance as Thomson was obviously drunk and smelled of liquor. As I was going out the door for help I was struck over the left shoulder.

Q.1. How do you know it was not St.Croix that struck you?
A.1. He was right ahead of me and I would have seen him do it. There was no one else except Thomson in the room at that time.

Q.2. Did Thomson know who you were when you first walked into the room?
A.2. Yes, Sir. When I walked in the door of No. Southview, he said, "How what in the hell do you want Norton"?

Q.3. Did he know what rank you held?
A.3. Yes, Sir. I've looked after him in detention often and I held the rank of Corporal on those occasions.

Q.4. What else can you tell me about this matter?
A.4. At 0900 hours 26 April 1942, I went back to No.2 Southview, South Heighton and entered it with Mrs. Miller and found Thomson asleep in an upstairs bedroom. I woke him up and took him to the guard room. He did not resist at this time but came quietly.

Witness questioned by the Accused.

Q.1. When was it that I kicked you?
A.1. Do you remember the first time I grabbed you and we fell to the floor?

Q.2. Yes, I remember all that quite well but I don't remember kicking you.

H 19682 Cpl. Norton, C.H.

SECOND WITNESS

H 19930 Private St.Croix, William Arthur, 1st Battalion Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada Regiment, Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

I am, H 19930 Private St.Croix, William Arthur, 1st Battalion Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada Regiment, Canadian Army Overseas.

I remember very little of what happened that night. I do remember going out with Thomson, the accused, whom I recognize, on the evening of the 25th of April, 1942 to do a little drinking at the Hampton Arms and after the pubs closed Thomson and I went up to No. 2 Southview South Heighton, Sussex. We went up there because Thomson said he wanted to see his woman. The next thing I remember is being in the kitchen at No. 2 Southview, South Heighton when Corporal Norton walked in. I can't remember being invited into the house but I'm sure we entered the house through the door. I also remember seeing Thomson and Norton wrestling on the floor and I tried to help Norton.

Q.1. Did you know what Norton's job was at the time the fighting took place?
A.1. Yes Sir. He was on M.P. duty and he held the rank of full Corporal.

Q.2. Was anyone else in the kitchen at that time?
A.2. No, there was just Norton, Thomson and I.

Q.3. Did Thomson recognize Norton?
Q.3. Yes, I think he did. At any rate he should.

Q.4. How much did you and Thomson drink that night?
A.4. We drank about three pounds worth of liquor.

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO QUESTION THE WITNESS.

H 19930 Private St.Croix, W.A.

THIRD WITNESS

N 19225 Private Sanders, Harold, 1st Battalion Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada, Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

I am, No. H 19225 Private Sanders, Harold, 1st Battalion Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada Regiment, Canadian Army Overseas.

On Saturday, April 25th, 1942, I was on sentry duty at Naval Headquarters at South Heighton. At approximately 2300 hours a woman with a baby in her arms came to me and said that there were two men at the back of her house causing a disturbance. She said she was alone and asked me to go over, which I did. When I arrived there they were in the back yard. I then went back to Naval Headquarters and phoned the Guard Commander and asked him to come up. I then went back to my post.

Q.1. Would you recognize the house if you saw it again?
A.1. Yes, Sir.

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO QUESTION THE WITNESS.

Form for Assembly and Proceedings of Field General Court Martial on Active Service.

PROCEEDINGS.

A.

Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this 1st day of December, 1941.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 6 Canadian Infantry Brigade, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *~~[and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer;]~~

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers appointed or detailed hereunder.

*Omit if not applicable.

~~*I am unable to appoint—~~

~~(1.—Three Officers to form the Court;)~~

~~(2.—A Field Officer as President.)~~

for the following reasons, namely:—]

In my opinion military exigencies, namely the dispersion of Units and difficulties of communication and other difficulties render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of those rules inconsistent with Appendix "A" to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the person named in the annexed schedule.

*Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

NOTE.—The President must be named. The members and waiting members (if any) may be mentioned by name, or the number and ranks and the unit to which they belong may alone be named. In the latter event, the ranks, names, &c., of the members of the Court, as constituted, will be recorded on the proceedings.

*Must be signed personally by the Officer usually in command at the place, and all alterations in the composition of the Court to be initialled by him.

Defending Officer:-

Lieut. McKellar ---------- Camerons of C.

4. The accused are arraigned and plead "Not Guilty" to the following charges;-

First Charge
A.A. Sec 41.

When on active service committing a civil offence, that is to say, malicious wounding, contrary to Sec 20 of the Offenders against the Persons Act, 1861, in that they at about 2210 hrs, 1 Nov 41, at NEWHAVEN, Sussex, did maliciously wound by striking and kicking him, No. H-20333, Pte. Ritchey, W.H. who was at the time carrying out Provost Duties.

Second Charge
(Alternative)
A.A. Sec 40

Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in that they, at the place and date mentioned aforesaid, did kick, and strike with their fists, the said Pte. Ritchey, W.H. who was at the time carrying out Provost Duties.

5. The accused is asked the question at the ~~first~~ first of page 2 of A.F.A. 3 and his answer "No" is recorded by the President.

6. Prosecution evidence

First Witness No. H-20333 Pte. Ritchey, W.H., Camerons of C. having been duly sworn states;-

"On Nov. 1, I was on duty in Newhaven. I went into the "Prince of Wales" Public House at approximately 2200 hrs. I was standing in the bar as the boys were going out and they seemed to be going out quietly. Ptes. Thomson and Doll came back in and asked me if I was Regimental Police, I said I was. They asked me if I was on duty and I said I was. They told me I had better go h me or they would beat me up. I asked them to come outside rather than start a disturbance in a public house. After we went out they started the same argument again. Pte. Thomson told me to go home or he'd beat me up. I asked them to go home and said I would go home as soon as they cleared away. After a lot of threatening, Pte. Thomson took a swing at me and I stepped back. As I stepped off the curb I was off balance, Thomson clinched and we went down to-gether. Pte. Doll kicked me on the head as soon as I went down. Thomson attempted to bite me, he pushed his fingers in my eyes. I pushed him back and he punched me in the face, then grabbed me by the hair and bumped my head on the street. By that time I had got my legs around Thomson in a scissor hold. Pte. Doll caught me by the feet, broke the hold and told Thomson to kick me which he did.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION CON'T

I caught Thomson by the toe to twist his foot and spun him around and he kicked back and down. That was the kick that gave me this scar on the eye. When Doll let go, I got up on my feet but I could hardly see. Thomson came at me again and I got a hold on his head. Somebody reached afoot out and pushed Thomson which loosened my hold. He bit me once or twice and they started kicking me again. That is all I can tell you Sir".

Q. "What makes you think Doll had any part in it ?"

A. "He was threatening me before Thomson swung at me".

Q. "In what way?"

A. "He had his hands up and was stepping back and forward. I saw him quite distinctly when he caught me by the ancles to break my hold on Thomson".

Q. "Apart from this argument, had anything occurred inside the pub?"

A. "I walked into the public house where Thomson and Doll were drinking a few minutes before closing time. Pte. Thomson said that I was big but he figured he was tough and could handle me. He said it with a smile, so I let it pass and went outside till closing time. That is the reason I stayed till closing time."

CROSS EXAMINED BY DEFENCE

Q. "Are you a regular Provost?"

A. "I have been on since we came to Newhaven, Sir".

Q. "Can you tell me briefly just what your duties are?".

A. "I go uptown in the evenings and take a walk around to see if there is any trouble, look into the odd pub, especially around closing time. We have orders to see that the boys are properly dressed and that there is no loitering or anything going on that shouldn't be."

Q. "On the night in question were you in the "Prince of Wales" at 2130 or 2140"?

A. "I came in just a few minutes before closing time. I walked in one door and was going to walk out the other till Thomson spoke to me".

Q. "When you went in did you have and M.P. band on your arm?"

A. "I had neither sidearm nor band".

Q. "Can you definitely say that Doll kicked you"?

A. "Yes Sir, I can".

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

H-19468 Sgt. McKay, D.M., Camerons of C. having been duly sworn states;-

"I am Provost Sgt. of the Camerons of C. I have certain auxiliary provosts whose duties include duty at the Bn O.R., traffic control and patrolling the streets at night."

Q. "At what times and under what circumstances are the men on duty."?

A. "On pay weekend, dances, etc., downtown".

13

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION CON'T

Q. "Is Pte. Ritchey one of your auxiliary Provosts?"

A. "Yes"

Q. "Was Pte Ritchey on duty the night of Nov 1"?

A. "Yes".

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

Q. "Is it customary for your M.P's to be onduty without arm bands or sidearm"?

A. "Yes, Sir".

Q. "By what means can the men be certain they are M.P's"?

A. "They know them Sir. They are not new men".

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Mrs. Joyce Jittings, Southview Road, Peacehaven, Sussex, having been duly sworn states:-

"I went into the "Prince of Wales" with my Mother and Father There were four Canadians sitting at a table next to ours. A policeman came in. He went around to another bar. Just before closing time he came around again and stood at the counter. He was talking to a Canadian. He went outside and then one of the fellows called "Tommy" called me outside and spoke to me. Then he shouted out would you like to see me get the big fellow out. Next thing I saw the policeman standing with his hand out as though he was going to shake hands. I then saw two Canadians rush at the policeman. He was knocked to the side of the road. They were punching him. After that one of the fellows dropped out of the fight and left the other one. He was giving him a hiding, pounding his face. The next time I saw them they were in the middle of the road. Somehow they got separated. Then I saw the fellow called Tommy kicking the policeman in the head. He then jumped all over him. After that I turned away it made me feel bad.

"When I looked around the policeman was standing up and the other fellow was waving his arms all over the place. He made for the policeman again and got him down. He was pounding into his face dreadfully. After awhile the other fellow shouted out "You won the fight, Tommy" and then he was pulled off the policeman and I went away"

Q. "Do you see any of the men taking part in that fight in court"?

A. "I see the fellow called Tommy".

Q. "Anyone else"?

A. "I wouldn't like to commit myself".

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

Q. "On the night in question you saw two men attack a policeman at the same time"?

A. "Yes, I did".

Q. "Was it very dark"?

A. "No, It was moonlight".

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION CON'T

Q. "Could you see clearly"?

A. "Well, of course I could see".

Q. "When Pte. Thomson spoke to you did he appear to be under the influence of liquor"?

A. "No".

FOURTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Captain B. Brackman, having been duly sworn states;-

"I am Medical Officer attached to Camerons of C."

Q. "Do you remember early last month Pte. Ritchey was brought into you"?

A. "Yes"

Q. "Would you describe his injuries"?

A. "When I was called to see him he had so much swelling about the left side of his face that it was difficult to say the extent of his injuries. The left eye was completely closed, there was a cut over his left eyebrow, smaller cuts about left side of his jaw, corner lip on left side cut inside mouth. I had him admitted to regimental infirmary and it was not till the next day when I was able to pry the lids apart, that I was satisfied there was no injury to the eye proper. He spent the remainder of the week under treatment at the infirmary."

Q. "Could you suggest the type of instrument which might have caused the wound"?

A. "I would not like to commit myself any more than what is on record, describing the wound itself."

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

Q. "Do I understand you are not prepared to swear what kind of implement was used"?

A. "I will not".

EXAMINED BY THE COURT

Q. "Could these injuries be caused by the nakdd fist"? Just.

A. "I would say 'No' ".

FIFTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Mr. J. Stockwell, 58 Gibbons Road, Newhaven, Sussex, having been duly sworn states;-

"I am second engineer in the mercnant service. On the night of Nov 1, I came along South Road and saw one man lying in the road on his stomach and another one kicking his head".

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

Q. "You only saw one man attacking him".

A. "That's all".

Q. "What time was that".

FIFTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION CON'T

A. "Between ~~10~~ 2200 and ~~1015~~ 2215 hrs".

SIXTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Mr. K. Newnham, 51 Gibbons Road, Newhaven, Sussex, having been duly sworn states;-

"I was going home on the night of Nov 1 towards the Sheffield hotel. Passing the 'Prince of Wales' I saw a man lying in the road. I stopped to see if I could do anything. With a soldier I helped the man up and took him to the R.A.P.

Q. "Did you see any actual fighting"?

A. "Yes, while I stood there I saw a man lying in the road and there were two or three kicking him and one was on top of him."

Q. "What did the man on the ground do"?

A. "He couldn't do very much. He was really out. He had his arm in front of his eyes to protect his eyes."

Q. "Could you describe any of the men"?

A. "Only the one on top - He was short and stalky. It was dark and I could not see very much."

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

Q. "When you were coming along the road there two or three kicking him and one on top of him".

A. "There were two kicking him and later there was just one on top of him on the ground".

Q. "It was dark"?

A. Not pitch black, but it was dark".

EXAMINED BY THE COURT

Q. "How dark was it"?

A. "It was dark but moonlight, you could see clearly but I could not identify anyone".

SEVENTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Mr. P. Chandler, Bartender, Prince of Wales Hotel, Newhaven, Sussex, Having been duly sworn states;-

"I am a licensee of a public house. On the night of Nov 1 I had six soldiers in the place. They had a few drinks of bitter and one or two scotches each. Their behavour was nothing to take exception to. About two minutes past ten the house was practically cleared. There was no disturbance inside and they left in quite an orderly manner. I saw nothing whatever of what occured outside."

Q. "Did anybody else come in"?

A. "Yes, some civilian".

Q. "Did you see another soldier come in much later"?

A. "The only one I saw was the military policeman or picquet. He came around about five minutes to ten."

SEVENTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION CON'T

Q. "How do you know he was a picquet"?

A. "Because I have seen him on the same duty before".

Q. "Was he talking to the soldiers"?

A. "Not more than a few words. I think one said to him "Hello big boy, I'm a big boy too!" but it was not in an aggressive manner".

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

Q. "Are you sure the picquet was not in between 950 and 940"?

A. "I didn't see him if he was".

(Examined by the court, witness identified Thomson and ~~Slatt~~ Doll as being in the premises).

EIGHTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

No. H-20732 Pte. Tracey, J.E., Camerons of C. having been duly sworn states;-

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

H20711 PTE. THOMSON, L, you are charged with a Civil Offence, that is to say,
Common Assault; in that you at about 2210 hours, 1 Nov 41, at NEWHAVEN, SUSSEX, did assault, by striking and kicking, H20333 Pte. RITCHEY, W.H., who was at the time carrying out Provost Duties.

A.A. Sec 41.

You do not have to make a statement unless you wish to do so, but anything you say may be taken down and used as evidence against you.

Do you wish to make a statement?

Yes Sir.

Those present at the time were Ptes. Doll, St. Croix, and Tracy of my own unit and Williams and O'Shea of the S. Sask R. We were all in the Prince of Wales Hotel, having a very good time. Pte. Ritchey came walking in at 2150 hours. He was walking around looking at us, not saying nothing. Pte. Doll asked him if he was on duty tonight. Pte. Ritchey said "No, not tonight". He was not wearing any M.P. badge. At ten o'clock the bartender started yelling "Time". Pte. Ritchey was still standing watching us, so we got up and started to leave. I was last to go out the door, Pte. Ritchey was behind me and said "Come on, get out." and gave me a shove out the door. I turned around and said "I don't have to be shoved out of the hotel tonight." I don't know whether he thought I was going to hit him or not, but he brought up his fist and that is how it started.

I knocked him down at the side of the street and got on top of him. Ptes. Doll, St Croix and O'Shea pulled me off and took me down the street a bit. Pte. Ritchey came after me and grabbed me again, so they let us go at it again and I got him down a second time. They let us go at it for about three minutes. Ptes. Doll and St. Croix pulled me off again. Pte. Ritchey held on to my leg while they were pulling me off. They got us stopped. Pte. Ritchey started off and I returned by myself to "D" Coy. That's about all there was to it Sir.

There was no kicking in this fighting. I did bite his finger once. He had a hold on my jaw with his fingers inside my mouth so I bit his fingers to make him let go.

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

H20072 PTE. DOLL, P.L., you are charged with a Civil Offence, that is to say,
Common Assault; in that you at about 2210 hours, 1 Nov 41, at NEWHAVEN, SUSSEX, did assault, by striking and kicking, H20333 Pte. RITCHEY, W.H., who was at the time carrying out Provost Duties.

A.A. Sec 41.

You do not have to make a statement unless you wish to do so, but anything you say may be taken down and used as evidence against you.

Do you wish to make a statement?

Yes Sir.

There were O'Shea (S.S.R.), Williamson (S.S.R.), Tracy ("D" Coy), St. Croix ("D" Coy), Thomson and myself, we were all drinking together at the Prince of Wales. At about 2150 hours Pte. Ritchey came in and he was looking at us all the time. I asked him if he was on duty and he said "No". He didn't have his M.P. band on. We sat down at our table until ten o'clock. The bartender called "Drink up" or "Time up". Pte. Ritchey told us to hurry and get out. We went out, Thomson, I think was last. We went outside and Thomson and Ritchey came out pushing one another. I don't know what was going on exactly. They came outside and started fighting. Thomson got on top of Ritchey. Ritchey had a scissor hold on Thomson and Thomson had hold of Ritchey by the clothes on his chest and was banging his head on the pavement. Thomson was crouching over Ritchey, while Ritchey had a scissor hold around Thomson's waist. I grabbed hold of Thomson and pulled him off. Somebody was pulling Ritchey away at the same time.

Both of them got to their feet and Ritchey made a grab for Thomson again. They started fighting again and somebody else separated them again. They got up and started fighting a third time. Thomson said "Now I'll give it to him seeing as he doesn't want to quit" or something to that effect. St. Croix and myself pulled Thomson off a third time. We took Thomson away. Two British soldiers took Ritchey away. We quietened Thomson down and went for home. That's about all there is to it.

Pte. Doll P.L.

I have read over the revised charge sheet whereon are two alternative charges, i.e.
First charge - Malicious wounding AA Sec 41

ABSTRACT OF EVIDENCE in the case of H20711 PTE. THOMSON, L., and H20072 PTE. DOLL, P.L., both of the Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada, Soldiers in the Canadian Army Overseas, stationed In the Field.

29

First Witness for the Prosecution.

H20333 PTE. RITCHEY, W.H., "A" Coy, Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada states:

"On November 1, 1941, I called at the Prince of Wales at closing time to help clear the pub. The bartender called time just as I came in, so I tried to help clear the place without any trouble. I was on duty as an M.P. that night.

Some Camerons were in the pub, including Ptes. Thomson and Doll. They started an argument with me. Thomson said he didn't like M.P's and I'd better scram. Thomson asked me if I was an M.P. and I said "Yes". I didn't want any trouble with them; I only wanted to get them cleared out.

I asked them to come outside as it was closing time, and not to start any argument inside. They kept up the argument outside and I asked them to go home as there was nothing to start any trouble over.

Thomson swung at me first and I stepped back to avoid the punch and to keep Doll in sight as he had his hands up too. I was off balance as I stepped off the curb. Thomson clinched and we went down together.

He tried to bite as we went down. Doll kicked me a few times in the head right then but somebody pulled him back.

Thomson shoved his fingers in my eyes. I shoved him back and he struck me twice in the face while I was down. He grabbed me by the hair with both hands and banged my head on the cement twice. I got a scissor hold on him and started to turn him over but Doll took me by the feet, held me, and told Thomson to give me the boots, which he did.

He let go of me and I got up to try to make a fight of it, but as my eyes filled with blood as soon as I got up and I couldn't see him. He clinched with me again. I got a head-hold on him, but someone pushed Thomson, breaking my head-hold. Thomson got up and put the boots to me again. Two Englishmen came along, stopped the fight and helped me to the F.A.P."

Second Witness for the Prosecution.

Mrs. Joyce Jittings, Southview Road, Peacehaven, Sussex, states:

"On November 1, 1941, I was with my mother and father at the Prince of Wales. A tall chap came in by himself. He stood at the bar, and a tall-thin-faced chap went up and spoke to him at the bar. They seemed quite friendly at this time.

At closing time, they all went out. "Tommy" spoke to me and said "Would you like to see me get the big fellow down." Then he and the tall thin-faced fellow tackled the big policeman and got him down. One grabbed him by the neck and the ofther seemed to pull his feet from under him. The thin-faced fellow then dropped out of the fight while "Tommy" pinned the man's arms and pounded his face.

Somebody separated them and they started fighting again in the middle of the road. This time "Tommy" was standing up and kicking the man in the head. I knelt beside the poor fellow at the time because they were kicking his poor head. I saw someone else kick him in the back at this time but I couldn't say who it was because I couldn't look andy more and ran away.

When I looked back the big fellow had got up. I don't know how he got up, I'm sure, but he was on his feet again.

"Tommy" was flinging his arms about allover the shop, "Tommy" knocked the big fellow down again. The poor fellow could hardly stand on his feet.

"Tommy" hammered him some more. The Canadians went over, told Tommy he had won and managed to take him away.

When "Tommy" kicked the policeman in the head, he also jumped all over his body."

Third Witness for the Prosecution.

Mr. J. Stockwell, 58 Gibbons Road, Newhaven, Sussex, states:

"I was proceeding along South Road at approximately 2210 hours, on the night of 1 Nov 41. While passing the Prince of Wales Hotel, I saw a soldier attacking another soldier. The soldier who was being attacked was on the gound and the other was kicking him. I have seen plenty of gights, being a sailor and dock man, but have never seen anything as brutal as to see men kicking another man when he is down."

Q. How would you describe the man who was doing the kicking?
A. He was dark and stocky, but he was swinging his arms around like he was daft. He was standing by the man's head and kicking him. A tall fellow there was doing most of the shouting. He yelled "Beat him up, Thomson", but I didn't see him take any part in the fighting. A little curly-headed chap was trying to get Thomson off and he finally dragged Thomson away.

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution.

Mr. K. Mewnham, 51 Gibbons Road, Newhaven, Sussex, states:

"I was proceeding along South Road at approximately 2210 hours on the night of 1 Nov 41. While passing the Prince of Wales Hotel, I saw three soldiers attaching another soldier. The soldier who was being attacked was on the ground and the others were kicking him. I went to the aid of the soldier, and in company with Sapper Davis, assisted him to the F.A.P. in the Masonic Hall, where we turned him over to the orderly in charge."

Q. Were three soldiers actually attacking the man on the ground?
A. One soldier called "Tommy", a fairly tall very broad man, was the main attacker. He ran at the man on the ground and kicked him in the head. He did this several times. The man on the ground seemed played out and only put up his arms to protect his face. The smallest soldier there, wearing a balmoral, also kicked the man in the head at least once. The second tallest also kicked the man on the ground.
Q. Are you quite sure of this?
A. Yes the stocky man did most of the kicking, but the other two kicked whenever they got a chance, and were "egging" "Tommy" on the whole time.

Fifth Witness for the Prosecution.

Mr. P. Chandler, Bartender, Prince of Wales Hotel, Newhaven, Sussex, states:

"On 1 Nov 41 four Camerons and two S.S.R's were drinking in the pub. I should say they were here about two hours before closing. They drank mainly bitter, but had two, paossibly three single tots of whiskey. They didn't drink a great deal considering the time they were here.

The big fellow came in between nine-thirty and nine-forty. He walked around the bar stopped on the far side for about ten minutes talking to someone; then he returned to the same side as the four Camerons and stood near the bar. This would be about five minutes to ten. The big fellow was not drinking.

He was talking to the four men sitting down, in a friendly way. He put his hand on the shoulder of one (L.T.) and "L.T." told him to take his hand off saying "Youre a big boy, but I'm a big boy too" or something like that.

As it was time, I tried to get them out and they finally left about five or six minutes past en. The big fellow went out amon the others, Thomson and a fellow called "Curly" being the last.

Thomson had a glass in his hand which I managed to get back just as he went out the door.

Actually there was no trouble in the Prince of Wales, but it blazed up directly they got outside.

The man I have referred to as "L.T." borrowed ten shillings from me, leaving his watch with these initials as security. The watch has been redeemed."

Sixth Witness for the Prosecution.

H20732 PTE. TRACEY, J.E., "D" Coy, Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada states:

"On 1 Nov 41, we were all in the pub. Ritchey came in about 2130 hours. At closing time we started to leave and Ritchey told us to hurry up. While we were there, Thomson asked him if he was an M.P. and he said he was an M.P. but he wasn't on duty.

I started out, but had forgotten my repsirator. When I got out they had started fighting. Thomson had Ritchey down and they were rolling around. Thomson was on top. I helped to pull Thomson off so as to break up the fight and get Thomson home. They broke loose and started fighting again. It wasn't safe to get near the fight, but finally we broke it up again. Some artillerymen took Ritchey, and we took Thomson home.

It was a rough and tumble fight. They were down and up. I couldn't see much as it was pretty dark."

Seventh Witness for the Prosecution.

H19930 PTE. ST CROIX, W.A., Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada, states:

"On the night of 1 Nov 41, Thomson, Doll, Tracey and myself went to the Prince of Wales about 1830-1900 hours. We were drinking beer and scotch. Tracey, Doll and Thomson actually came in about half an hour to an hour after I did.

About nine o'clock we were getting short of money and Thomson pawned his watch to buy a round of scotch.

Paddy O'Shea (S.S.R.) and I were singing songs at the piano.

Pte. Ritchey came in about half or three quarters of an hour before closing time. He was quiet. He wasn't in our party so I didn't pay much attention to him. All the time he was there he didn't interfere with any of us as far as I could see. He was minding his own business when he was at the pub.

Pte. Ritchey is an auxiliary M.P. I've known him a long time and he has always been on M.P. work. He has never interfered with me at any time.

When we left, O'Shea and I were amon the last to leave. When I got outside, the fight was on. An old lady was crying on the street and asked us to stop the fight. Tracey and I pulled Thomson off.

Ritchey got to his feet, put his hands up, and Thomson rushed him again. I didn't see what went on, but Tracey and I pulled Thomson back but he broke loose; he was swinging his arms about and jumping all over the place.

Ritchey had got up when we pulled Thomson back. Ritchey put up his fists and Thomson rushed him again. Ritchey went down again. They were flailing around with Ritchey underneath. I just let them go this time.

Tracey, Doll and I dragged Thomson back a third time. Thomson was still jumping about and swinging his arms. I said "Come on Tommy lets go home." He agreed, went down to the corner and caught a bus on his own."

Eigth Witness for the Prosecution.

H19468 SGT. D.M. McKAY, Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada, states: (Unit Provost Sergeant)

"I hereby certify that H20333 PTE. RITCHEY, W.H., was detailed by me, and was on Regimental Police duty between 1900 hours and 2300 hours 1 Nov 41.

All auxiliary regimental police such as Pte. Ritchey, W.H., are automatically on duty around pay days.

All Regimental Police are automatically on duty at any time.

6nth Witness for the Prosecution.

CAPT. B. BRACKMAN, R.C.A.M.C., Medical Officer, Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada, states:

"I first saw H20333 Pte. Ritchey on 1 Nov 41 about 2330 hours, soon after he had received some injuries about his face.

Examination showed marked swelling of both lids of left eye completely occluding the eye. There was a horse-shoe-shaped cut of the skin over and about the left eyebrow which was bleeding freely. Several smaller cuts on the left jaw with considerable swelling.

He was admitted to the Regimental Infirmary where he remained for 7 days. With intensive treatment it was possible to force the lids open after 24 hours to examine the eye itself which was apparently unaffected. The skin injuries were nearly healed at the time of discharge."

PROCEEDINGS.

A.

Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this Twenty-Second day of October, 1942.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 1 Cdn Inf Bde, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *~~[and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer.]~~

*Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers appointed or detailed hereunder.

~~If any such officer cannot attend~~
~~Three officers may be detailed~~ ~~An Additional Officer may be detailed~~ ~~for the following reason~~

* Omit if not applicable.

PROCEEDINGS REVIEWED.

NOTE.—The President must be named. The members and waiting members (if any) may be mentioned by name, or the number and ranks and the unit to which they belong may alone be named. "Do you object to be tried by the President, or any members of the Court whose names you have heard read over?"

Answer:- No Sir.

3. The President, Members, Officer under instruction and Shorthand Writer are duly sworn.

4. (a) The Accused answers his name and number and is duly arraigned on the charge.

4. (b) The accused having pleaded guilty to the charge R.P.35(b) is complied with.

1st Witness for Prosecution

B.72505, Sgt. Hobson, W. having been duly sworn states: The Witness identifies exhibit "A" and states that it contains the list prepared by himself of all theoretical casualties who reported to Regimental Aid Post during Exercise TIGER, that the name of the accused does not appear on this list and that the Witness is the Medical Sgt. of the 48th Highlanders of Canada and was with the R.A.P. throughout Exercise TIGER. W. Hobson

The accused is informed of his rights in accordance with R.P.40 (a) and Note 2 on page 644 of the Manual of Military Law, 1929 edition.

The accused is asked the following questions:-

Q. 1. Do you wish to give evidence as a witness?

A. 1. No Sir.

Q. 2. Do you intend to call any other witnesses on your behalf?

A. 2. Yes Sir.

Q. 3. Are they witnesses as to character only?

A. 3. Yes Sir.

Jas J. Johnston Maj.
President.

Def Officer. Plea for mitigation of punishment:-

The accused has pleaded guilty to a lenthy absence and I would like to give the reasons for the absence so that they may be taken into consideration by the Court. The accused is 20 years of age and enlisted on the 8th of January 1940, therefore when he enlisted he was under 20 years of age. He came overseas in 1940 and in the early part of 1941 met a girl and married her. This girl deserted him. At first he could not locate her but later found her through the address to which her dependence allowance was sent. She said she would be a good wife. He tried to be happy with a girl who has not played the game but she deserted him again and he asked to have the allowance stopped, but could not do so. She said she was going to have a child. The child was born unknown to Pte. Thomson. The girl did not inform him that the child had been born. She again deserted him. He went to the Padre and asked if he could be divorced from this woman as she was not a wife to him but she was just someone who was taking money from the government. He was told by the Padre to wait a year or two. He wasn't satisfied with this and wanted to have the allowance stopped. He wanted to get the divorce from his wife but could not. He wanted to have the allowance stopped but could not. His only way of stopping the allowance was to go absent so he went absent without leave. (Here the Defending Officer read excerpts from letters which were marked exhibit "B") Here we have a young fellow who after serving overseas for two years and made an unfortunate marriage with a girl who would not play the game. This is to show that this chap is under considerable mental strain, and if he could get out of this trouble and get a divorce he could start again ona normal life. It is quite clear that this woman has been carrying on the marriage for the money. Marriage is this way with many a girl like this and marrying her has thrown this man off kilter and caused him to go absent without leave. (At this point the Defending Officer produced a letter from the Officer in Charge of Records marked as exhibit "C" and a copy of a letter sent by Mrs. M.D. Thomson, 20 Nile Rd., Gillingham, Kent. marked as exhibit "D") The accused told his wife that if she would divorce him he would give himself up and she would receive her allowance in a few days. He promised to allow her something for her and the baby's keep. I submit the letter as evidence of what this chap has been up against in my plea for mitigation of sentence.

1st Witness for Defense. Lieut. S.J. Simons H.Q. R.C.E. having been duly sworn states:-

Q. You have been asked to appear for Pte. Thomson. Would you kindly give the Court any points as to the character of Pte. Thomson?

A. Sir I have known Pte. Thomson for some years. When I knew him first he was quite small boy and between the years 1939 and 1940. On many occassions I visited his family and Thomson himself and during that time always found him to be of the highest character and always looked upon him as a fine man. In January 1940 he joined the 48th Highlanders and at the time I knew that Thomson was under age. Up to this time he had lived at home and had left a sheltered life. In May 1940 he was sent overseas. I received a letter from him saying that he had got married, that the marriage was not very happy. and I feel personally that due to the youth of this soldier and the more or less unfortunate marriage and his previous good character that it was the marriage that caused him to go absent without leave and I feel that some consideration should be given to this in his sentence

Dear Peggy. Sent from Hamilton Bay

I write this letter to you in a final plea of separation hoping that I can appeal to your sense of decency.

When I first came overseas to England, I was proud to wear the King's uniform. I was very virtous and honorable, and alas, very young, too young in fact. I finally strayed from the straight and narrow path of life and through my own youthfull folly and ignorance fell in with a girl of lesser virtues.
I realized my mistake and was sorry. I was eighteen years of age, four thousand miles from my own dear home and very homesick when I met you. You looked sweet and pretty and I thought we could be happy. I'm afraid my imagination was too idealistic and too youthful. We were married and I tried to make you happy. It was all, as you know, a mistake from the start. I fear you know it will. We cannot be happy together. It is better to break clean now than have the burden of our so called marriage ~~on~~ all our lives.

You do not care for me Peggy. I could have loved you but you deserted me when I needed you most. I had reason to stand by me. I would have been there when ~~Dan~~ David was born but you did not let me know. Friend left ~~Ford~~ David after seeing him for the first time I wanted to cry because I knew that I would never see him again. If I did it would only make it more difficult for me.

I have his dear little photo with me. Strange as it will seem to you I love him. I would gladly take him home to my mother but I fully realize that it would be so cruel to you.
I am not as bad as all that; I am more than willing to provide for him the rest of my life, if you will only divorce me.
My mother is very ill about our marriage. She wants me to be free. She not blaming you she is naturally concerned over her only son's grave mistake. I know you do not care for me Peggy, so naturally I think you are just hanging on because of the allowance. I know you have not started divorce proceedings because I have enquired. If you divorce me I promise I will go back to camp and ~~go~~ I swear by God that you will get your money. When I go back I shall have to face a jail sentence. If my dear mother finds out it may kill her.

I am willing to face anything with a smile and with

God's help start all over again if you will only divorce me. If you don't divorce me, then I shall have no alternative but to kill myself. You see I will have nothing to live for. My people will probably not take me home and I shall just have to become a rolling stone and wander round the world a unhappily married man with a prison record at the age of twenty.

I have gone too far to turn back unless you divorce me Peggy. I beg of you to do this for the sake of my mother. My mother isn't growing and my father is getting on in years. I have brought them sorrow by my foolish act of so early a marriage

The strain may be too great on my mother. you will at least make them happy.
I faithfully make a promise to you that the day you start divorce proceedings I shall give myself up and you will get your money several days after I report.
I beg of you to do this Peggy.

B-75709

Dear Sir:

Enclosed you will find a letter, which I've received from my husband, the contents itself I doubt will be much use to you, but I wondered if the Post mark would help you to trace him.

I remain,
Yours truly,
(signed)
(Mrs.) M.E. Thomson.

P.S. I am beginning to wonder if there is any serious search for him, as it seems a very long time for a soldier to be away from his Company without being caught. You're quite welcome to read the letter see what a poor defence my husband is putting up. Would you kindly return the letter when finished with.

Prosecution.

1st Witness. Capt. P.R. Griffin. A. Coy. 1. Cdo. Para Bde. Sworn.

On 29. June 1944 at 1800 hrs I received a report from my C.S.M.

In consequence I went to see accused when I recognised at 1800 hrs.

I found him in his Section area standing up behind his hedgerow.

He was Sec. Cmd of a Sec of No 2 Pl. 1. Cdo. Para Bde & his Pl & his Sec were some 300 yds from his enemy. When I got close to accused I saw he was swaying about, his eyes were blood shot & his speech thick I considered he might be drunk. I cannot remember what I said to him but I remember that his replies to my Questions were incoherent. I warned accused.

Cross Ex. At 1800 hrs I had no opportunity to place accused in arrest as I was in a forward area. I have known accused since June 16, his speech is sometimes thick.

Strain + lack of sleep might have been the cause of his eyes being blood shot.

Nil. Re. Ex

By Court. Accused was unfit for duty because I thought he had been drinking. S3(8).

2nd Witness. 13-9-224. A/C.S.M. H.K. Duckett. 1. Cdo. Para Bde

Sworn.

In Consequence of orders on 29. June. 44 I placed accused under arrest in close arrest. He had been drinking.

Cross Ex. Accused was not fit for duty because he had been drinking. I am against drinking at all times in in proximity of the enemy. From my account he took 1/2 glass of cider I would say he was unfit to Guard a gun.

No. 2. Cr.

Re-Direct Accused has not drunk at 1600 hrs when I saw him. At this hour I placed him in arrest. He was not fit to command his sec at this time for he had been drinking I smelt his breath with no 2 witness Re-Cr. Accused has been arranging about when he fell in with his escort. It was regarding smell of alcohol.
Witness knew him for 2 yrs.

3rd Witness. No 114378. Sgt. R.A. Abbott. 1. Coy. Para Bn. Known.
At 1300 hrs accused whom I recognise was in a rear Coy area of a location held by 1. Coy para Bn on 29 June 44.
I saw him there & I thought he had been drinking I smelt his breath & it smelt of drink. I went to make a recce of a forward area for where to my pl which had been marched in an intermediate position I again saw him.
at 1400 hrs approx. From my own knowledge I can say accused marched his pl & Commander saw him from his rear location to his intermediate one. When in his intermediate position I rec'd orders at approx 1400 hrs & I took accused to Bn. HQ where he was placed in close arrest.
Cross Ex. It was about 200 yds from his rear to his intermediate position. When I arrived at his station & took over from him accused his pl was deployed correctly.

The pl was under fire during his tenure & I was fully satisfied with his dispositions when I saw him deployed.
R.Ex. Accused if he had had some drinks could have moved his pl from cover to his intermediate position.
Re-exam: When I returned to his intermediate position I issued some orders to accused & he carried them out properly.
Then I issued orders & I took him down to HQ & he was placed in close arrest. He was not drunk, he did command his section & he could have commanded his section in his own.

S3(13).

The prosecutor calls no further witness.

Statement by defending officer.

Accused has no case to answer, on to his charges.

1. No evidence to support his charge accused was drunk.

2. With regard to his 2nd charge
(a) The evidence has been conflicting & uncertain.
(B). Accused had been drinking but was not drunk. The chief witness for his prosecution has given evidence that accused marched his pl from cover to an intermediate position, that he deployed his pl & completed properly with orders issued to him
In view of this accused could not be unfit for duty by reason of alcoholic stimulants.

Summary of Evidence in the case of K.49639 A/Sgt THOMPSON, R.J. "A" Coy, 1 Cdn Para Bn.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS.

CAPT P.R.GRIFFIN, OC A Company 1 Cdn Para Bn having been duly sworn states:-

I am acting OC A Company 1 Cdn Para Bn. On 29th June 1944 at approximately 1300 hours Sgt Dockett, acting CSM, warned me that Sgt THOMPSON, whom I now recognise, had been drinking and that there was a bit of trouble. I was very busy at the time and I told him that I would deal with the matter later. At approximately 1600 hours I saw Sgt Thompson and noticed that he had obviously been drinking. I came over to where Sgt Thompson's section was sited. As I approached he was standing behind the hedgerow the same side as I was walking. He was standing up at the time. He did not appear to recognise what I was saying. I cannot remember exactly what I said. His reply was incoherent. He was weaving about when I spoke to him. That is he was swaying about. I told Sgt Dockett to provide an escort and send him back to the Battalion HQ under close arrest. He walked off to Bn HQ without support.

On 28th June I received a verbal order from the Commanding Officer. The import of this order was that nobody was to indulge in alcoholic stimulant. On the evening of the 29th I passed this on to my company NCOs. I did not interpret the order to include cider. Sgt Thompson was present at the meeting.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

(Signed) PETER R.GRIFFIN. Capt.

SECOND WITNESS.

B.98228 A/CSM DOCKETT, H.K. 1st Canadian Para Bn, having been duly sworn states:-

I am acting CSM of A Company, 1st Canadian Para Bn. On 29th June 1944 at approx 1330 hours in consequence of a report received from Sgt Ferren that Sgt Thompson had been drinking. I went to my Company Commander, Capt Griffin. He was too busy at the time to deal with the matter as the company was moving up to forward positions. At approx 1630 hours, Capt Griffin ordered me to place Sgt Thompson under close arrest. He did not state the reason. Sgt Thompson was standing 30 yards away from me. He was standing upright. I called Sgt Pym, and as Sgt Abbott was already standing close to Sgt Thompson, I placed Sgt Thompson in their charge. I removed Sgt Thompson's pistol and fighting knife. The only words I remember Sgt Thompson saying were "I am all right." I am certain that he knew what was happening. He smelt of alcohol. He walked away with Sgt Pym and Sgt Abbott.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

(Signed) H.K.DOCKETT. A/CSM.

THIRD WITNESS.

B.114378 Sgt ABBOTT, R.A. 1st Canadian Parachute Bn, having been duly sworn states:-

I am a Sgt in A Coy 1st Canadian Parachute Bn. I recognise Sgt Thompson. On 29th June 1944 I saw Sgt Thompson at 1300 hours in the rear area beside the Brickworks. He appeared to be intoxicated. He was swaying about and his eye lids were heavy and he looked sleepy and had a high colour. I then moved forward to recce the area to which my platoon were about to move. At approx 1400 hrs when I returned from my forward platoon area to the Company forward position I noticed Sgt Thompson arguing with Sgt Ferron. The nature of the argument appeared to be personal. I carried on moving my platoon, and I then heard their voices raised, so I went over to stop the argument. As I approached Sgt Ferron appeared to push Sgt Thompson. I caught hold of Sgt Ferron and said "Go away to your area; he has been drinking" or words to that effect. Sgt Thompson waited to one side. He smelt of drink at this time. About 20 minutes later I saw Sgt Thompson by his slit trench. He was lying down when I approached and he got up when I spoke to him. He did not say anything to me. Sgt Dockett then ordered me to march him down to Bn HQ. I was ordered to take him to Bn HQ and place him in arrest for drunkeness. I reported to the RSM.

On 28th June 1944 I was present at an O Group of Capt Griffin's and I remember him giving out a verbal order, the gist of it was that drinking would be curtailed in the line. I don't remember if Sgt Thompson was present.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

(Signed) R.A.ABBOTT. Sgt.

FOURTH WITNESS.

83415 Sgt FERRON, R.L. 1st Canadian Parachute Bn, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am a Sgt in A Company, 1st Canadian Parachute Bn. I recognise Sgt Thompson. At approx 1230 hours 29th June 1944, I became involved in an argument with Sgt Thompson over the fact that my men were not drinking and he was. At approx 1300 hours I reported to Sgt Dockett, the acting CSM, that I wished to prefer a charge of drunkeness against Sgt Thompson. My reasons for thinking that Sgt Thompson had been drinking were that he had slightly alcoholic breath and a slight sway when he stood talking to me. I heard no more about the incident and I moved up into the forward area. While working in the forward area at approx 1430 hours Sgt Thompson and I became involved in an argument on purely personal grounds. Sgt Thompson is a Section Commander in the adjoining platoon. Tempers flew and when something drastic might have happened, and as I reached out to push Sgt Thompson, Sgt Abbott stepped in between us. Sgt Abbott asked me to go down to my own area which I did.

On 28th June 1944, at an NCOs Meeting, Capt Griffin said that there would be no drinking in the company.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

(Signed) R.L.FERRON.

The accused having been cautioned in accordance with R.P.4. declines to make a statement.

It is hereby certified that R.P.4 has been complied with.

Submission by defending officer.

Accused has no case to answer re to his charges.

1. No evidence to support his charge accused was drunk.

2. With regard to his 2nd charge
(a) The evidence has been conflicting & inconvincing.

(B). Accused had been drinking but was not drunk. The chief witness for his prosecution has given evidence that accused handed his pl from one to an intermediate position, that he deployed his pl & complied properly with orders issued to him
In view of this accused could not be suspected for duty by reason of alcoholic stimulants.

The prosecution makes no reply.

The Court tells accused has no case to answer on both the charges & he is found Not Guilty of the same

Further Statement by A/CSM DOCKETT, H.K.

Sgt Thomson was in charge of a section in No. 2 platoon. This section was holding a stretch of the line about 400^{x} from the enemy. Later in the afternoon this section moved to another position about 200 yds from the enemy. When I saw Sgt Thomson at 1630 hours, I do not think that he was capable of performing the duties of a section commander in the front line, as he had been drinking.

(Signed) H.K.DOCKETT. A/CSM.

Further Statement by Sgt ABBOTT, R.A.

Sgt Thomson was in my opinion drunk. He was i/c a section of No. 2 platoon who were about 300^{x} - 400^{x} from the enemy. At 1340 hours my platoon which includes Sgt Thomson's section moved up to an area about 100^{x} from the enemy. At approximately 1300 hours I had put the 2 i/c of Sgt Thomson's section in charge as Sgt Thomson was drunk. I do not know if Sgt Thomson would have been capable of performing the duties of section commander. In view of his actions after moving up, I am inclined to think that he could have.

(Signed) R.A.ABBOTT. Sgt.

Further Statement by 83415 Sgt FERRON, R.L.

At 1230 hours Sgt Thomson was drunk. If Sgt Thomson had been one of my section commanders, I would not have trusted him at that time in charge of one of my sections owing to his drunken condition.

(Signed) R.L.FERRON.

First witness for prosecution. } D81787 S/Sgt Stitelman R. F. 4 Cdn. Provost Coy being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

On 13 Apr 43 at about 2230 we got a phone call at the Worthing Police station that there was trouble at the Literary Institute Dance Hall. I, Cpl. Gorlouf and myself with Pte Bell driving the truck we went to answer this call. Turning into Montague Street we saw three ~~soldiers~~ fighting there. We stopped the truck to break it up and found the ~~fellows~~ soldiers in the wrong. These soldiers objected to interference and called to others who were passing. The other soldiers came over and they set about the three of us. There were too many to take into custody and so we left for reinforcements. When we picked up the (2) Reinforcements, we came down towards the billet area on Brighton Road where we intercepted some of

A4

The men on their way to the billets.
Five were picked up and charged in the guard room. The first two we picked up resisted to such an extent that they had to be forced into the truck and handcuffed. (Witness points and identifies the accused as being involved in the fight)
The accused struck me in the face and on the body. The accused was not among the five who were arrested together he was arrested by ~~the~~ the Sgt.-Major after I had identified him the next morning. I am positive that the accused is the man who struck me and is the man who I identified the next morning I was struck by hand.

Cross examination

I cannot identify the accused as being ~~one of the~~ three soldiers that I saw fighting ~~at the~~ on Montague street.
On Montague street I was wearing my tunic, side-arms and hat. Later, to avoid losing my hat or losing my side arms and in a couple I removed these. I also removed my tunic and placed them in the truck.

To the Court:-

I had my tunic on when I was struck. It was moonlight and bright enough to see people, where this fight took place It was on Montague Street that I was struck.

R.P. & S (6) complied with.

D

The prosecution is closed.

Defence.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?

Answer. yes. Sir.

Question. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?

Answer. yes.

Question. Is he a witness as to character only? Answer.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE COURT.

(i) When the answers to the above questions have been recorded, the Court will follow the provisions of Rules of Procedure 40 and 41 respecting the order of evidence and addresses which is applicable to the circumstances of the case.

(ii) All addresses by prosecutor, counsel or defending officer, whether recorded by the Court or handed in in writing will be attached to the proceedings in the order in which they are made. Any address which the accused is entitled to make pursuant to Rules of Procedure 40 (C) (iv) and 41 (A) (i) and (iii) will be similarly dealt with. Written addresses will be read to the Court, marked and signed by the President. If any person who is entitled to make an address declines to do so, a record will be made to that effect.

(Where any evidence is given for the defence.)

The evidence of the accused (and of the witnesses for the defence including witnesses as to character) is recorded on a separate page (see overleaf).

(Where the accused does not give evidence upon oath.)

Question to the accused. Have you anything to say in your defence?

Answer. The accused in his defence says†

[hands in a written address which is read, marked signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.]

Instruction.

† In this space will be recorded any oral statement or address made by the accused in his defence when he has not given evidence as a witness. (For any additional address which he is entitled to make, see Instructions to the Court above.)

D 2

The evidence of the witnesses for the defence, including that of the accused, if he is a witness, will be taken here in the order in which they give evidence.

First Witness D6172 Gnr Thomas Thomson 'B' Survey Battery, Canadian Inf Regt & RCA (The Regina) having been duly sworn states:-

When I left the dance hall there were several minor squabbles going on around in the street. The soldiers involved were both Nova Scotia Highlanders Regina Rifles and some of the B' Survey Battery. Gnr McFaul seemed to have had an argument with a Regina Rifleman and shortly after that (a minute or so) a truck came up the street. I was standing in the road and the truck pulled up just beside me — I was standing in its headlights A soldier jumped out and I asked them if they were Provost. He said "yes" I said "I think it will be all right, the boys will drop it and go home". I walked down alongside of the truck and when I turned around, I saw a soldier on the ground in front of the headlights, so I assisted him to his feet. I went over to the sidewalk then. Gnr. MacKay and a Highlander were pushing around on the sidewalk I tried to break the fighters and I received a blow in the eye from Gnr MacKay. I thought that was enough for me that night. Everything had quieted down. The truck had already gone.

D 3

Gnr. McLeod was shaking hands with a Regina. I left for camp then.

When Gnr. McKay let me I said "Gordie me Mack" and he said "I'm sorry Tommy."

When I went over to the sidewalk I called out "Break it up."

Cross Examination

When the M Ps came there were about a dozen men fighting. Before the MPs came I had previously tried to break up a fight. I have not recognized the Provost to whom I spoke that night. I did not strike anyone that night. The soldier I assisted to his feet was not an MP. I did not know.

To the Court

During the fight, I did not see any M.Ps. involved in any of the brawls.

RP 83(b) complied with.

Second Witness F-89906 Gnr. Elliot MacKay, B Survey Battery 1 Can Survey Regt RCA.

Having been duly sworn, states:-

After the dance, outside the hall, when we came out ~~the~~ I found to get into a scrap with a highlander and while we were in the scrap I saw Gnr. Thomson come in and break it up. After it was broken up, I did not see him any more that night. I think I hit Thomson in the eye and I said that I was sorry. I do not remember if Thomson said anything. I do not remember very much about that evening.

Cross Examination by the Prosecution

I did not see any M.P.s in the fracas on Montague street. I guess I was otherwise involved. I did not see the accused involved to any extent in any fight.

R.P. 85 (b) complied with

Third Witness D10830 Gnr McFaul J.L. 'B' Sy Bty. 11th Sy Regt R.A. having been duly sworn, states:—

On 13 Apr 43 about 2330 hrs I collided with a man of the Legion Rifles on the corner of South & Montague streets. We had a scuffle and exchanged a few blows. Just before we shook hands and parted I heard Gnr Thomson's voice say "Break it up". I never saw Gnr Thomson after that. I have known Gnr Thomson for the last two years and I know his voice.

No Cross examination

To the Court

Thomson is a cook and I have eaten in his kitchen for 2 yrs.

I heard Gnr Thomson did not see him

D5

I did not see any Provost at the fight.
RP 83 (2) complied with.

Fourth Witness L 12989 4/Cpl. Bell C.T.C. 4 Cdn Provost Coy.
having been duly sworn, states:—
On night of 13 Dec 43 at about 2230 hrs I was driving a vehicle. ~~4 Provost~~ I drove with S/Cpls. Stitchman and Harlough to the corner of South and Montagne Sts. I saw two ~~men~~ fighting there. I stopped. S/Cpls Harlough and Stitchman got out to investigate I inspected the vehicle and a number of troops gathered round. I told them to get out and help break up the fight. I had had hold of one of Mackay's arm with another man from ~~B Coy.~~ 1st Svc Bgt. Fighting was going on but I could not see what was going on as I had my back towards the crowd S/Cpls Harlough and Stitchman and I got into the truck to go for assistance. I just drove from there on and did not get out of the truck.

Cross Examination:—
I did not see anybody strike S/Cpl. Stitchman.

To the Court:— I did not hear anyone talking at the fight as the motors were running when we arrived. The night was very dark.

D6

Then we drew up to Montague Str
There were about 15 all milling around the truck. I couldn't even tell who the Provost were in the crowd.
RP83(b) complied with.

Fifth Witness M50165 S/Cpl Garfoot L/S — 4th Provost Coy.
having been duly sworn states:—
After we arrived on Montague Str.
L/Cpl Stutchman was arguing with one three soldiers and I went up & then and asked what the trouble was.
I cannot identify any one in this room as being involved in the fight.
Later on one soldier came up and said he wanted to take these three soldiers home but they would not like to name
I do not know who it was Cross Examination by Prosecutor
I did not see anyone strike
S/Cpl. Stutchman.

but but Mr Gulick could not make out any individuals.
Thomson told me nothing of any fight on the way home.

Cross Examination

I did not see the accused after the dance and before the fight. I saw Gnr Thomson later but left him on Brighton Road.

To the Court

I left Gnr Thomson at about 2240 hrs we walked for only ½ block along South street.

R.P. 83(b) complied with.

Sergt Otis 6685 Gnr. Hayward E.W. B Sy Bty 16th Sary Regt RCA.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In The Case Of

D-6172, Gnr. THOMSON, T.

First Witness, sworn, states:

"I am D-81787, L/Cpl. STITCHMAN, F.G., of #4 Cdn. Provost Coy. At approximately 2230 hrs, 13 Apr 43, we were called to the Literary Institute dance hall. On the way there, at SOUTH and MONTAGUE Streets, we saw three soldiers fighting. L/Cpl. GARLOUGH and I got out of the car and I asked what the trouble was. The three of them started shoving me around and became abusive. I can only identify Gnr. THOMSON (points to him) as one of the three. When L/Cpl. GARLOUGH appeared, one soldier struck me and another yelled for help. We then had to fight our way through ten or eleven soldiers and got back to the truck and went for reinforcements. We then went back to MONTAGUE and SOUTH Streets and, finding no one there, headed EAST along WARWICK Street. We parked and questioned a total of six soldiers who came along from time to time. Five of these we arrested as they were identified as having been involved in the disturbance either at the dance hall or in the street. Several of us questioned the men, advised them of their arrest and, if they did not enter our vehicle freely, we put them in. Both men of the first two (points to Gnrs. McFAUL and PAULSON) resisted and were handcuffed after we got them in the vehicle. The second pair entered the vehicle without resistance as did the fifth man. We then delivered the five men to their unit Guard Room where we took particulars and advised that charges would be laid.

"On reconsideration, I identify these men (points to Gnrs. WOLFE and PAULSON) as the first two arrested. The two men who were handcuffed were Gnrs. McFAUL and PAULSON (points to them).

"I should like to withdraw my reconsideration in favour of the first statement that Gnrs. McFAUL and PAULSON were the first men arrested. It would take at least 20 minutes to walk from the unit Guard Room to the dance hall."

Cross examined by Gnr. McFAUL:

"I assisted in arresting the second pair. I wore no tunic and no hat."

"I am Lieut. A. G. FAULKNER, Battery Administrative officer, of "B" Survey Battery, RCA. I hand you, herewith, AFB 252 and statement of evidence in the case of D-6172, Gnr. THOMSON, T., received from the Provost." (Exhibit "A" and "B").

Third Witness, cautioned and sworn, says:

"I am D-6172, Gnr. THOMSON, T., of "B" Survey Battery, RCA. At approximately 2200 hrs, 13 Apr 43, I entered the Institute dance hall and stood there listening to the music. After the National Anthem had been played at 2230 hrs the crowd started going out. A minor fracas broke out; I walked between an M.P., whom I now believe to be L/Cpl. LESTER, and a soldier to break it up. Outside, on the street near the dance hall, several minor arguments broke out. A truck with three M.Ps. came along; I told one that everything was OK and to leave it alone. We

Third Witness, D-6172, Gnr. THOMSON, T. (Continued):

"passed along and I picked up a soldier who was lying on the ground and told him to go home. I then went to the sidewalk and walked between two soldiers who were tussling, one was Gnr. MacKAY and the other a NORTH NOVA SCOTIA HIGHLANDER, and received a hit in the eye. I then decided to go home; things were quieting down."

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 2. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on.....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

Fill here Loose Sheets of Record.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. No .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (~~no~~) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. ~~The Prosecution~~ is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the .....charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the.....charge(s), and allowed on the.....charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. Yes as a witness. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. Yes. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans. Yes.
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ~~not guilty~~ charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, ~~The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.~~(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans. No
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex A and Ex B respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans. Yes in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (C). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(18), 68(1), KR Can 564. 2. *RP 50. As to release from arrest by Confirming Offr see KR Can 567. First Witness for the Prosecution :- Lt. E.H. Capstick, R.C.E., 9th Bn 2 C.B.R.G. having been duly sworn states as follows :-

At about 2130 hrs I was duty officer on my way to the front gate. On investigating I found the accused staggering about and talking incoherently to a soldier he had stopped. He was in my opinion under the influence of liquor and not capable of doing his duty as guard properly. He was replaced by another guard at 2145 hrs, I went to the defaulters at 2255 hrs. and told A/Cpl. Radcliffe who was in charge at that time to place Tpr. Thomson under close arrest. This was done.

Q - 1 Is the soldier in question in this room now

a Yes

Defending Officer

Q - 1 - Will you tell the court why in your opinion you thought the accused was drunk.

a - He was talking a lot louder than was necessary

Q - 2 - Did you personally speak to the accused between the time you first saw him and when you ordered his arrest.

a - Yes

Q - 3 - What was the conversation

a - I said to Trooper Thomson is drunk and you are making a damn fool of yourself at the front gate where all the civilians can hear you He replied, that he was not drunk and that he thought he was doing his duty properly. I said, You will hear more about this and I left the guard room. This was about 2145 hrs.

Q - 4 When you first saw the accused questioning this soldier, did you make any enquiry as to what was going on, on the spot.

a - No.

Q - 5 ~~You said it appears to you that having the accused in your mind naturally, that he was drunk~~

Q - 5 - Did it occur to you that the loud voices could have been caused from an argument.

A - No.

Q - 6 - Why did one hour and twenty-five minutes elapse during the time you first saw the accused and when you made his arrest.

A - It was not my intention at first to place Tpr. Thomson under close arrest and I spent that time looking for the Sgt of the piquet in order to place the matter before him.

Q - 7 - Did you consider at that time the accused was not a serious enough case to place him under arrest

A - I figured that the responsibility for Thomson's condition rested on the shoulders of the Sgt of the piquet and that Tpr Thomson could remain in the piquet room until I found him.

Second Witness for the Prosecution:- A-92717 T/Cpl. Carnegie E. M. having been duly sworn states as follows:-

At approx 22.30 hrs I was on duty at the Bn Guard Room T/Cpl. Radcliffe and Tpr. Coughlin escorted Tpr. Thomson to the entrance of the Guard Room and was placed under close arrest. I placed the man in the cell, took the particulars and entered it in the occurrence book in the guard room. The man was identified by his M.B.M. I Pt. I as Tpr. Thomson V.

Prosecuting officer

Q - 1 - Did the accused at any time offer any resistance

A - No Sir

Q - 2 - At what does the offence stop

A - At the entrance to the Guard Room

Q - 3 - Would you say at the time the accused was under the influence of liquor

A - His breath smelled of liquor

Q - 4 - Did the accused in fact come room

A - Yes Sir, true.

Q - 5 - After being placed in the guard room did the accused cause any trouble

A - None what so ever.

No 3

Defending officer

Q - 1 - Are you willing to say on oath the accused was drunk

a - No

Q - 2 - Did you place the accused in a cell by himself

a - No

Q - 3 - Would it have been possible to place the accused in a cell by himself

a - No.

Q - 4 - Did you remove from the accused removes his boots a - No I didn't remove his boots.

Q - 5 - When a person under the influence of liquor is brought to the guard room, do you normally remove his boots and remove any weapons etc.

a - Normally the boots are removed from all persons of 21:30 hrs

Q - 6 - What was the nature of resistance shown by the accused and why a - The resistance the accused was offering, it appeared as if he didn't want to come in. Why, I cannot say.

Q - 7 - In your opinion did the accused appear to be drunk a - Yes, when I gave him his blankets, he made his bed and layed down.

Court

Q - 1 - In your opinion was the accused able to carry out his duties as sentry

a - No Sir

Q - 2 - What is in your mind, constitutes a man that is drunk a - a man that is about to spew out.

Q - 3 - Do you consider that the accused was incapable carrying out his duties because he was under the influence of liquor

a - Yes.

Defending officer

Q - 1 - Did you see the accused at any time attempt to carry out his duties.

a - No

The Court can only go on your opinion that he was incapable of carrying out his duties

At approx 2255 hrs the Orderly Officer of 23 Dec 44 came to the guard room where I was on duty and asked me to place Sgt Hayes and Tpr. Thomson under close arrest. At approx 23.25 hrs. I went over to the main gate guard room and picked up Tpr. Thomson and escorted him to the Guard Room and placed him under close arrest.

Prosecuting Officer

Q - 1 - Did you go to the main gate alone to pick up Tpr. Thomson

A - No Sir. I had a Tpr. along with me.

Q - 2 - How did you find the accused when you arrived there

A - He was sleeping in his bed.

Q - 3 - Did he offer you any resistance

A - No Sir, he offered no resistance

Q - 4 - Would you say Tpr. Thomson was under the influence of liquor

A - Yes, because he was unable to walk to the Guard Room

Q - 5 - Did you have to help him to the Guard Room

A - Yes Sir, we had an arm on each shoulder and took him to the Guard room.

Q - 6 - Is the soldier in question in this court room

A - Yes Sir, there.

Defending Officer

Q - 1 - Did you awaken the accused out of a sound sleep.

A - Yes Sir.

Q - 2 - Would you swear the accused was drunk

A - No Sir.

Q - 3 - Did it appear to you the accused couldn't walk due to being tired and fatigued

A - No Sir

Court

Q - 1 Do you think the accused was capable of carrying out his duties as a Sentry

A - No Sir

Q - 2 - Do you think it was due to the fact he was drinking

A - Yes Sir

Statement of the Accused :- O 76900 Tpr. Thomson V.

having been duly sworn states as follows :-

On 23 Dec 44 I came of Guard at 1200 hrs. and had to go back on Guard at 2000 hrs. I stayed around Camps in the Guard room all afternoon. At appro 1900 hrs. I came out of the Guard room and went just outside the gate and sat down on a round stone thing. I was sitting there smoking a cigarette when a Belgian soldier came up and spoke to me. We spoke about different things. It was cold the Belgians was going on guard and not allowed to take intoxicating liquor. He told me that it was only wine his grandmother had made and it wasn't strong at all. He said you could drink the stuff all day and it wouldn't bother you. I had a drink with him. We talked for about 15 minutes and I had one more drink. I knew it was getting a little late so I told him I had to go back to the Guard House. I went back to the Guard house to wait for my turn to go on post. At 2000 hrs. the Sgt of the Guard put us on our post at the front gate. A little while later I started to feel sick and told the guard that I was going to be relieved that I felt sick. I went up to the Guard room, opened the door and yelled in Sgt Hayes will you relieve me, I feel sick. So I went back to my post. A few minutes later a soldier came in as it was the duty of the guard to stop soldiers coming in and going out for identification. I stopped this fellow coming in and asked for his identification. He said, What do I look like a paratrooper ?. I told him I did'nt care what he looked like. And one word led to another, but I finally told him to give me his identification, that if he didn't, I would place him in the guard house. He thought at his pay book which I took off of him, opened it up and asked him for his name and number. He opened it, and it was satisfactory. I gave him back his pay book and he left. A little while later I was relieved on guard. I went into the guard room, spoke to the Orderly Officer, and said I was sick. Next thing I remember someone was shaking me up. Then after a few minutes I got my head cleared of sleep, and they informed me that I was under close arrest. We then went to the ~~Guard room~~ Detention Room.

Page 1

The R.P.'s had put me in a cell. I took my overcoat and got me some blankets. I looked around as there was no bunk there I could do I made my bed a gote rug.

Prosecuting Officer

Q - 1 - Were you on for the full 72 hrs

a - yes.

Q - 2 - How long were you on and how long off.

a - Two hours on and four off.

Court

Q - 1 - When Sgt Hayes put you on guard were you quite well

a - yes Sir

Q - 2 - Were you taking any effects from what you had been drinking in the afternoon

a - No Sir.

First Witness as to Character :- W.O.A. Peterson - 9 Bn C.B.R.C. having been duly sworn states as follows :-

I have known the accused for approx five years. For about six years of that time we were both Sgts. and I have seen his behaviour both in the mess and in public. During the most of our acquaintance I have mostly seen or heard anything that is detrimental to his character until this unfortunate occurred.

Second Witness as to Character :- D 76900 Pte. Thomson V. 9 Bn C.B.R.C. having been duly sworn states as follows :-

When I was in the R.M.R. I was Sgt in the motor troop. I was then sent down to #1 C.A.C.R.U. on vacation for three months as a motor instructor. I stayed there for approx five months. I was instructor on 3" motor for a month or so. In the meantime the R.M.R. were broken up. I was then left in C.A.C.R.U. when I was told that I could go to any Recce Regt. At the time we were informed that we needed 15 confirmed Sgts for the 8th Recce. I applied at the office and was paraded to the Major and I was sent to the 8th Recce. When we arrived at the 8th Recce we were asked as many N.C.O.'s there was no place for me as a motor N.C.O. and I was placed in a Squadron mess and above the establishment of N.C.O.'s. I paraded to the Squadron Leader to return to C.A.C.R.U. as I was a specialist N.C.O. and there was no job for me in the 8th Recce

The Squadron Cmdr said he couldn't do anything for me. Some days later the C.S.M. paraded me in front of the Squadron Cmdr. on the grounds that I was not doing my job as an N.C.O. I was then paraded in front of the C.O. and eventually the Brigadier who told me he had no alternative but to reduce me to the ranks, as my C.O. and Squadron Cmdr did not want me as an N.C.O. I was returned to C.A.C.R.U. as a Tpr.

Summary of Defending Offrs.

The accused has made no effort to deny his having taken a drink. However he had no reason to suppose any bad effect would result.

Of the 4 witnesses not one has said accused was drunk.

The 1st witness did not even ascertain by inspection that the accused was drunk. He actually acted on what he heard which was a loud voice. He obviously did not think the accused was a serious enough case to arrest on the spot but did it 1/4 hr & 25 min later. The officer who ordered the arrest, didn't even ask why the accused was talking in a loud voice to ascertain if he had, this might not have occurred.

The arresting provost should neither lack or a knowledge of their job. Although the accused is declared to have shown no intent they did not comply with Para 447 sub para (a). A fit body can be used as a weapon

4/1/45 TO 1/1890 rel

PLEASE WRITE ON BOTH SIDES and they failed to utter any protest whatever or the accused. This leads me to believe that even they didn't consider him to be a serious case.

One prosecution witness stated he had been carried, another that he had run into trees. Surely a discrepancy exists.

The accused had been on guard for almost 72 hours out of which he had only 16 hours sleep. The guard room is about 16 x 8 & in it slept 12 men.
~~nearly~~ all of the time surely anyone would would be unusually tired.
So must he that after going to sleep and being suddenly awakened one would not be entirely pleased to go to the guard room. Hence the discrepancies & grogginess.

We have it in evidence that the accused ought to be relieved. The guard left us about this we no Cpl. If there had been this relief would have been carried out and this would not have occurred.

In the opinion of the prosecution in their opinion only, the accused was not capable of performing his duty.
They didn't see him on guard at any time. When the D Off. came along his not performing his duty of examining pupils and planes.

Once in the Det room the accused made his bed and went to sleep. Drunk don't generally go there to make their bed.

This whole affair is a result of Circumstances due to Irregular procedure by the D.C.

" " " " Provost.

Fatigue due to conditions existing in the guard room.

Absence of proper supervision whilst on guard.

There is no definite evidence that the accused was drunk. The smell of liquor is not proof.

I request on the accused's behalf a verdict of not guilty.

Plea of Mitigation.

D 76900 Tpr Thompson V has served in the Canadian Army for five years. During this time he has risen to Sergeant which rank he held for about a year. During the five years he committed no crime and was a good NCO & soldier until this crime occurred. I would like to remind the court that this offence was committed under the influence of alcohol and to a certain extent was beyond Thompsons control. I beg the court to be as lenient as possible under these circumstances.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

D-76900 Tpr, Victor THOMSON., X-4 List CAC on strength 9 Bn, 2 Canadian Base Reinforcement Group, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, who is charged with:

(1) WHEN ON ACTIVE SERVICE, WHEN ON DUTY, DRUNKENNESS. A.A. Sec 19.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS Lieutenant E.H. Capstick, RCE on strength 9 Bn, 2 C.B.R.Gp., having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am Lt E.H. Capstick, RCE of 61 Coy, 9 Bn 2 C.B.R.Gp., I was duty officer at 9 Bn H.Q. on 23 Dec 44. At about 2130 hours when I was on my way to the piquet room, I heard loud talking at the front gate. On investigating, I found the accused D-76900 Tpr Thomson, V. staggering about and talking incoherently to a soldier he had stopped. He was in my opinion under the influence of liquor and was not capable to doing his duty as guard properly. He was replaced by another guard at 2145 hours, I went to the Detention at 2255 hours and told L/Cpl Radcliffe, who was in charge at that time to place Tpr Thomson under close arrest. This was done.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS A-42212, L/Cpl CARNEGIE, E.M., Cdn Pro Corps on strength 9 Bn, 2 C.B.R.Gp., having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am A-42212 L/Cpl Carnegie, E.M., of 9 Bn, 2 C.B.R.Gp. At 2330 hours I was on duty at the Bn H.Q. guard room when L/Cpl Radcliffe and Tpr Coughlin escorted Tpr Thomson to the guard room to be placed under close arrest on instructions from the Orderly Officer, Lieut Capstick of 9 Bn. I admitted Tpr Thomson and locked him in a cell, and booked him in the records of the guard room.

At the time of appearance at the entrance to the guard room Tpr Thomson was offering some resistance to being brought in and at that time in my opinion Tpr Thomson was under the influence of liquor and incapable of performing his duty. We gave him blankets and he went to sleep immediately.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

THIRD WITNESS M-65723 L/Cpl Radcliffe, H.E., Regimental Police 9 Bn, 2 C.B.R.Gp. having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am M-65723 L/Cpl Radcliffe, H.E., 9 Bn, 2 C.B.R.Gp. On 23 Dec 44 at approximately 2255 hours I was on duty at the guard room when the duty officer came to the guard room and ordered Tpr Thomson, whom I now recognize to be placed under close arrest. At approximately 2330 hours I went over to the front gate guard room accompanied by Tpr Coughlin. Tpr Thomson was asleep when we entered the guard room. We awoke him, and escorted him to the Bn guard room. In my estimation there is no doubt that he was under the influence of liquor because he was not capable of walking to the guard room by himself."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

H. E. Radcliffe

M-65723 L/Cpl Radcliffe, H.E.

The accused was questioned as follows:-

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am D-76900 Tpr Thomson, Victor., On 23 Dec 44 I went off guard at 1200 hours and did not have to go back on until 2000 hours. I stayed around camp all afternoon. At approximately 1900 hours I was still around the guard room and went just outside the gate. As I was one of the guard, the guard on duty did not stop me from going out. I was sitting outside smoking a cigarette when a Belgian soldier came along in high spirits. He offered me a drink and I had one with him, about 15 minutes later I had another one with him before he left. Then I went back to the guard room to wait my turn for guard."

"At 2000 hours I went on guard, I started to feel a little sick and the stuff I had had must have been stronger than I thought it would be. I stopped men going in and going out as they had to have weapons and ammunition as per order. The guard came along and relieved me as I was not feeling so good."

The accused does not call any witnesses for the defence.

ADDITIONAL SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

D-76900 Tpr Thomson, V., X-4 List CAC on strength 9 Bn, 2 Canadian Base Reinforcement Group, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, who is charged with:-

WHEN ON ACTIVE SERVICE, WHEN ON DUTY, DRUNKENNESS.
AA Sec 19

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FOURTH WITNESS

B-36602 Sgt Hayes, J.H.D., X-4 List CAC on strength 9 Bn 2 C.B.R.Gp. having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am B-36602 Sgt Hayes, J.H.D. On the night of Dec 23 while acting in the capacity of Guard Commander I placed Tpr Thomson on guard at the front gate of the entrance to The Seminary. His tour of duty was from 2000 hrs to 2200 hrs."

Witness cross-examined by the accused, as follows:-

Q.1. At the time before I was relieved off guard do you remember me asking to be relieved as I was feeling very sick?

DAG

On Active Service, this Twenty-sixth day of December, 1942.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 5 Cdn Inf Bde., on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; ~~and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer;~~

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit if not applicable.

~~*I am unable to appoint~~
~~(a) More Officers to form the Court~~
~~(b) A Field Officer as President~~
~~(c) Three Officers having more than one year's seniority~~

~~for the following reasons, namely:~~

In my opinion, military exigencies, namely, the dispersion of units, and difficulties of communication and other difficulties render it inexpedient to observe the provisions for those rules inconsistant with Appendix "A" to D.R.O. 782 on the trial of the person named in the annexed schedule.

ABSTRACT OF EVIDENCE
in the case of
D-81096 Pte. Thomson, W. - 1 R.H.C. taken by Lieut. L.P. Candler at the direction of Commanding Officer, 1 R.H.C. in accordance with D.R.O. 772.

FIRST WITNESS

D-82273 L/Sgt. Gauthier, E.W. 1st Bn The Black Watch (RHR) of Canada, O/S having been duly sworn states:-

"I was Company Orderly Sgt on Nov. 26 and at 2300 hrs on that day I called the roll and found that D-81096 Pte. Thomson, W. was absent. At 1000 hrs on Nov 27th on which day I was still Company orderly Sgt., Pte. Thomson reported back to me. At 2300 hrs on the same day I called the roll at Tattoo, and Pte. Thomson was absent.

SECOND WITNESS

D-71733 Sgt. Cummings, C.P. 1st Bn The Black Watch (RHR) of Canada O/S having been duly sworn states:-

"20 Dec 1942, I was Company Orderly Sgt. of Support Coy. At 1300 hrs Pte. D-81096 Thomson, W. reported back to me and was placed under close arrest."

THIRD WITNESS

D-81267 C.S.M. McFarlane, J.R. 1st Bn The Black Watch (RHR) of Canada, O/S having been duly sworn states:-

"I am C.S.M. Support Coy . On Tattoo report 26 Nov 42 D-81096 Pte. Thomson, W. was reported absent without leave At 1000 hrs Nov. 27th 42 it was reported to me that Pte. Thomson had returned. At Tattoo report the same night Pte. Thomson was again reported as having absented himself. At 1300 hrs on 20 Dec. Pte. Thomson reported back to the Company Orderly Sgt. during the time from 2300 hrs 27 Nov. 42 to 1300 hrs 20 Dec. 42 he did not attend any parades, muster, roll call, but remained continually absent without leave. This was checked by Daily Reveille and Tattoo reports.

I do hereby certify that R.P. 4(e) has been duly complied with.

Plea for mitigation of punishment

St. Thomson pleads for mitigation due to the fact that he committed the offence with which he is charged whilst he was under mental stress. The ~~young~~ lady whom he had planned to marry had ~~a short time before~~ in the beginning of Nov. 42 broken off her engagement with him. ~~She~~ The reason for her action were ~~false~~ caused by the following circumstances.

In May 1942 St Thomson put in an application for marriage and, counting on the application being approved, set the date for his wedding as 15 Sep 42 – Nothing was said to him about the application being approved or otherwise. The plans for his wedding went ahead and he and Miss Joan Thom, his fiancee, ~~sent~~ received wedding presents from their friends and relatives.

Pte Thomson, when he first applied for permission to marry, was on strength of C Coy, 1 Bn the Black Watch, but was shortly afterwards transferred to the 4th Platoon.—

In the beginning of Sep. 42, being worried about his permission to marry, he went to his old Coy to enquire and it was then discovered that the application had never been forwarded to 51 I.B. HQ for approval.—

Pte he then filled another application, but found that, when explaining the reason for postponement to his fiancée and her parents, they seemed to become doubtful as to his sincerity.

They did however agree to a postponement.—

At the beginning of Nov 1942 Pte Thomson saw the padre of his unit, who told him that the C.O was holding up the permission. Pte Thomson was further informed that the reason for this holding up was [illegible] youth.

On explaining to his fiancee what had happened she broke off her engagement with him.—

He went back to his unit tried to patch up his engagement by writing and telephoning her several times, but to no avail.—

He was extremely unhappy and felt that he had been treated unfairly. These circumstances brought about a frame of mind which caused him to become absent without leave. During the period of his being A.W.L. he was often under the influence of drink and did not clearly see the consequences of his act.

ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS WILL BE INITIALLED.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans.....(1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)

(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Con 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the.....charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the.....charge(s), and allowed on the.....charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?

Ans.....Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?

Ans.....Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans.....

Ans.....

(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)

(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(6) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.

(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the.....charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)

Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)

(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)

Ans. Yes one character witness.

(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex ..... and Ex ..... respectively.(3)

(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Con 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans.....(2)

(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)

(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)

(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(1B), 68(1), KR Can 564. 2. RP 50. RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No Obj (5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E.
5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly. —

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex B, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

Character Witness. for accused.

Maj. JA Dunlop Lt. Weld R. sworn states.

I have known the accused for approximately 17 yrs. On action since we came to France 25 July 1944, at that time he was a Private Soldier he is now an acting Sgt. he is a very capable Sgt. and is considered one of the best fighting Sgts. in the Regt.

On at least four instances I know he has led his platoon in action after his Officer became a casualty he was recommended for decoration for this action during operation Elephant. and that matter is still pending, as far as character evidence is concerned I know that Sgt. Thompson has had no previous crimes on the continent and is a very fitting Sgt. and worthy of the best praise I can give him. at this day. Comd.

RP 83(B) complied with

PLEA FOR MITIGATION in defence of B.142479 Cpl A/Sgt THOMSON W R Lincoln & Welland Regiment.

The NCO on trial by this court is what I consider a victim of circumstance. Firstly because he is one of the best leaders in action that this Regiment has and secondly there would not have been the slightest chance of a thing like this happening if he had been in a sober mind.

In revueing the history of this NCO, Sgt Thomson came to the continent when the Regiment arrived last July. He was a private soldier at that time and has been promoted to A/Sgt.due to his ability as a fighting man. He has been in every action the Regiment has had for the last 8 months. During the last month I was in action with this NCO and was able to see first hand the work that he did and cannot speak too highly of his efforts. During the Kapelsche Veer action he not only lead a section or a platoon but brought the remnants of the Combined Company into action. For this he has been recommended for decoration.

As Sgt. THOMSON states in the Summary of Evidence he had been celebrating and consequently was not in complete control of his actions. At the time of his apprehention Sgt. THOMSON was walking home in company with a person with whom he had been celebrating. He shouted at the passing car which happened to be a Provost vehicle.

The action that took place to my mind was caused by too much authorative action on the part of the Provost and too little thought on the part of both because they were both NCOs involved. Sgt. THOMSON was in no condition for a scuffle as he was immediately toppled to the ground and was releived of his web-belt and his pistol. In this connection I can state here that the pistol did not have a round in the chamber as we all know that it takes a steady two hands to cock this type of weapon.

To the second charge of carrying unauthorized weapons let me point out that it was only 3 weeks after the Kapelsche Veer action which took place only 10 miles away. The part I Order exhibit B was published prior to the Kapelsche Veer action but all ranks were still carrying their weapons every where they went o n the date of this incident. It is only natural that a man who has seen as much action as Sgt. THOMSON should avail himself of a pistol if the opportunity arose.

In conclusion gentlemen in the course of passing sentence on this NCO please take into consideration his age of only 20 years with 25 months service behind him and that it is his first crime while being on the continent. If this man is demoted it will mean bringing in somebody that is less competent and if he is given a reprimand he will carry on as being one of our outstanding NCOs.

EVIDENCE

While on duty 21st Feb.45 at approx.2335 hrs in company with F-5189 L/cpl.PALMETER J. in the town of Tilburg. we were proceeding along SPOOR-LAAN. in a 5 Cwt when I heard someone whistle and then on passing I heard the m/n N.C.O. shout"You silly cocksucking Son of a Bitch" We immediately stopped the veh.and on going back I asked the a/m soldier who he was swearing at. I informed him that I was a Provost Sgt. at this he stated that he did not give a Fuck if it were General Crerar. At this time he had his right hand on a pistol which he carried in an open holster on his right hip.He was in a very surly mood. and on being questioned further he suddenly drew the pistol from the holster and stuck it in my stomach. I disarmed him and p placed him in close arrest, and escorted him to Det.HQ. On questioning the m/n N.C.O. in regard -s to his carrying a pistol he stated that he was told to carry one. The pistol (9mm) Serial No.IT5528. is not on charge to him.He stated that he had picked it up at the front.

The m/n soldiers particulars were obtained and he was escorted to his Unit and a body receipt obtained.

50. DISPOSAL OF WEAPONS

Personnel of this Unit will not leave their billets without their personal weapon in their possession. Carbine weapons will not be considered sufficient, and the arms as at present will be worn at all times. The wearing of carbine weapons will not relieve personnel of the obligation to be armed with the weapon shown on the War Establishment as being issued to them. Officers will carry a pistol of .45 or .38 Government issue type. They will carry the weapon appropriate to their vacancy on the W/E. The sole exception to this rule will be the Day Sergeant, who may wear a pistol when on duty. It will be deemed to be an offence under Sec 6 (9) of the Army Act for any person to retain in his possession a pistol of Government issue (whether the Government concerned be our own or Allied) unless it has been issued to him by the C/O or his representative as to a person entitled to a pistol on the W/E.

PROCEEDINGS.

A. Order convening the Court

On Active Service, this Second day of October, 19 42

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 6 Canadian Infantry Brigade, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; [And that it is also practicable to delay the trial in reference to superior qualified officers.]

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit if not applicable.

[I am unable to appoint —

(1) Three Officers to form the Court;

(2) a Field Officer as President;

(3) Three Officers having more than one year's service.)

for the following reasons, namely: —]

In my opinion military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units and difficulties of communication and other difficulties render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of those rules inconsistent with Appendix "A" to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the person named in the annexed Schedule.

PROCEEDINGS of a Field General Court Martial held at Fus. M. R.

on the 6 day of October 1942 by order of Brig. H. A. Young,

Commanding 6th Cdn Inf Bde, dated the second day of October 1942.

President. Major G. R. Matthews, S. Sask. R.

Members. Capt. A. Morin, Fus. M. R.

Lieut. W. W. Willson, Camerons of Canada.

Trial of No H 19807 Cpl. Thorburn, J. A. Camerons of Canada.

The order convening the Court, the charge-sheet and the Summary of evidence were laid before the Court and Rules of Procedure 22 & 23 complied with.

The accused was brought before the Court.

Prosecutor - Lieut. N. S. Bergman, Cam. of Canada.

Defending officer - Lieut. R. H. Lane, Cam. of Canada.

Prosecutor is a graduate lawyer.

At 1015 hours the trial commences.

The order convening the Court is read and signed by the President.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused, and they severally answer their names.

Question by President to the accused: Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?

Answer: No Sir.

The President and members are duly sworn.

The Waiting Member is sworn as an officer under instruction.

The Charge Sheet was read to accused and accused arraigned upon charge.

Are you guilty or not guilty of the charge against you, which you have heard read?

Answer: Not Guilty Sir.

Question to Defence: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer: No Sir.

The Prosecutor does make opening address and proceeds to call witnesses.

First Witness for Prosecution

H 19006 Sgt Condy J, Camerons of Canada, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q. Did you see the accused go on parade on the morning of 27 Sep 42.

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Can you tell the Court the circumstance of the accused going on parade that morning.

A. On Sunday , 27 Sep 1942. "C" Coy moved off for Church parade about 0900 hrs. We made a left wheel down asphalt road past company lines. Cpl Thorburn and Pte Morrello came over the bank and joined the company on the march. Pte Morrello filled in the blank file and Cpl. Thorburn took up position of right hand man in last section of threes.
Mr. Kidd and myself were in rear of company. About fifty yards further down the road Mr. Kidd, platoon officer of 15 platoon stopped to speak to another officer coming from the opposite direction. A little further on Cpl Thorburn turned his head and said " Who is that phoney cocksucker with the glasses?" I told Cpl Thorburn that was one of our company officers and he said, "It is a good thing he is in 15 platoon"
I then said to Cpl Thorburn, "that is no way to speak about one of your company officers and him an N.C.O. should know better."
His next remark was "He is a fruit. That is the opinion of the company". On returning to camp from church parade I reported this to C.S.M. Keenan, C.
I placed the accused under open arrest.

Q. What platoon was Cpl Thorburn in on 27 Sept. 42.

A. I think he was in 14 platoon.

Q. Can you tell Court whether he was in 15 platoon or not.

A. Cpl Thorburn was never in 15 platoon.

Q. Can you tell Court circumstances surrounding Mr. Kidd coming to the regiment.

A. Yes Sir. Mr Kidd has been with unit about a month and I think by the badges he was a Calgary Highlander, but I'm not sure.

Q. Did he come from another Unit to the Camerons.

A. Yes Sir

Q. Did he come before or after Dieppe.

A. After Sir.

Cross Examined by Defence

Q. Sgt, you said that you placed Cpl Thorburn under arrest having notified the C.S.M.

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Can you tell me what time you placed him under arrest?.

A. Before 1000 hrs Sir.

First Witness Cont'd

Q. Do you realize the seriousness of this charge.

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Why did you not put Cpl Thorburn under arrest immediately?

A. The Sgt-Major was in charge of the parade at the time. I reported to him and he instructed me to place the accused under arrest.

Q. Did you see Cpl Thorburn to speak to after returning from church and prior to when you placed him under arrest.

A. No Sir.

Q. How long have you known Cpl Thorburn.?

A. About a year Sir.

Prosecutor does not re examin. this witness.

Second Witness for Prosecution. H 19200 Cpl McClellan H.M. Camerons of Canada , being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

Q. Did you attend church parade on the morning of 27 Sept. 42.?

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Do you remember circumstances surrounding accused joining that parade?

A. He had cut himself shaving and as a result he was late on parade.

Q. How do you know he cut himself?

A. I saw him shaving Sir.

Q. Had the parade moved off when he joined it?

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Did the accused make any conversation of comment when he joined the parade?

A. He mentioned he did not expect to be on parade, as he couldn't get his face to stop bleeding.

Q. Did he say anything else?

A. Not that I remember Sir.

Q. Have you any recollection of any conversation he held at that time although you don't remember the words used?

A. I was telling him about some dry cleaning I had had done.

Q. Do you remember Sgt Condy speaking to accused?

A. No Sir.

Q. Do you realize the penalties for perjury?

A. I have an idea Sir.

Q. Do you remember being in conversation with the R.S.M. and myself yesterday?

A. Yes Sir.

Second Witness cont'd.

Q. Did you at that time make any reference to remarks made by Sgt. Condy to accused.

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Tell the Court what those remarks where.

A. Sgt. Condy Sir seemed to be checking Cpl Thorburn for something he had said, and Cpl Thorburn turned around to answer him Sir.

Q. Did you hear any of the words used?

A. No Sir.

Cross-examined by Defence:

Q. Where you near Cpl Thorburn during the time these statements were supposed to have been made.

A. I was on his left hand side on the parade Sir.

Q. You say you weren't paying much attention .

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Do you think then that if the words " Cocksucker or fruit" had been used you would have heard them.

A. He may have said the words, but I wasn't paying much attention to him and they sat sort of passed by.

Q. Did you hear Cpl Thorburn call Mr. Kidd a cocksucker?

A. No Sir. I couldn' swear that I did.

Q. During this time do you remember Sgt. Condy remonstrating with the accused?

A. Sgt. Condy said something to accused because I remember Cpl Thorburn turning around to answer.

Q. Do you remember what Cpl Thorburn said?

A. No Sir I don't.

Q. Do you know at what time accused was put under arrest?

A. It was after lunch Sir.

Re examined by Prosecutor:

Q. Where you present when Cpl Thorburn was placed under arrest?

A. No Sir.

The Prosecution is closed.

Defence

Q. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence.

A. No Sir.

First Witness for Defence.

H 19867 Cpl Thorburn, J. A. being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending officer.

Q. Do you know the officer referred to, namely Mr. Kidd?

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Have you known him long?

A. Since he came to "C" Coy of the battalion about five weeks ago.

Q. During that time have you been with Mr. Kidd on Company exercises and schemes?

A. Yes Sir, I went out as his platoon Sgt on several exercises.

Q. Have you any reason to feel badly towards Mr. Kidd?

A. None whatsoever Sir.

Q. Have you ever used the word "phoney" or "fake" towards any officer.

A. It is a general term in the battalion now Sir when speaking of any one in the battalion.

Q. How is that term generally used. Does it denote antagonism or close association?

A. It is used in a friendly attitude. No harm meant by it.

Q. Have you used it towards any officer without meaning disrespect?

A. Yes Sir, I have.

Q. At what time where you placed under arrest?

A. At 1225 Sir.

Q. Did you see Sgt. Condy to speak to between time of church parade and arrest.

A. Yes Sir, I had conversation with Sgt. Condy when parade dismissed.

Q. Did he make any reference to having you placed under arrest at that time?

A. No Sir.

Cross-examined by Prosecution.

Q. Will you tell Court how long it has been the custom in the Camerons of Canada to call all officers and men fakes and phoneys.

A. In the battalion since I came back to it from the Holding unit after Dieppe raid.

Q. Do you consider people left behind on the beaches at Dieppe, fakes and phoneys?

A. No Sir.

Q. I presume you have a great deal of respect for people in Bn who came back from that raid.

A. I have Sir.

Q. Do you suggest that the terms fake and phoney denote respect and close comeradeship?

First Witness
for Defence cont'd.

A. I wouldn't say close comeradeship Sir.

Q. Would you say respect?

A. No Sir I don't think I would.

Q. What platoon are you attached to.

A. 14 platoon Sir.

Questioned by Court.

Q. Do you feel terms fake and phoney are being used in a disrespectfull way.

A. No Sir, not the way they are being used.

Q. Do you know who in particular is referred to in that way?

A. It is generally used Sir in regards to a senior.

Q. May that mean any senior.

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Might a senior who was very well thought of by officers and men be referred to in that way?

A. Yes Sir he might.

Second Witness (Character)

Lieut. R. H. Lane Camerons of Canada being duly sworn states:

I am Cpl Thorburns acting company commander. I have known him since 1939. During that time I have not known Cpl Thorburn to behave in any way other than as a good soldier and N.C.O. should.
Since he has no previous charges against him and ever since exercise "Jubilee" I have been in close contact with him, and have found him an excellent N.C.O. He was in fact recommended for a commission.

Defence makes a closing address.

I myself have heard and used the word fake when referring to others and I think every other officer in the Camerons has also done so. This term was originally used by officers referring to their senior officers. It has now become quite prevalent throughout the Bn and I'm quite sure it is many times used now without disrespect.
Regarding Cpl. Thorburns service in the Bn, he has been in the Bn roughly eight years and is now in line for promotion. That this charge was brought against him was a great surprise to me. I submit that the evidence against the accused is not sufficient.

Prosecution Responds:

In making a closing address it is necessary to sum up evidence which has been presented to the Court. We have the Rule of Procedure in this case Para 44 page 63.
I maintain evidence given by Sgt. Condy has not been shaken or disproved in any way. The accused was called as a witness under oath and admitted that on many occasions he had used the word fake and phoney. In his original evidencehe inferred that they were terms without disrespect. On cross-examination he admitted they were not terms of respect. At no time in his evidence did he deny making the statements which are alleged in the charge. No reference has been made to the use of the words Cocksucker or Fuck which in reality made this conversation into a very serious charge.

The rule of evidence where corroboration is necessary merely states that t the evidence of a witness should be corroborated in some material way, and the law says if we find that the witness told the truth in part of his evidence we can then assume his whole story is true. Cpl McClellan corroborates Sgt. Condy in a material respect, when he said
"Sgt Condy seemed to be checking Cpl Thorburn for something he had said, and Cpl Thorburn turned around to answer him".

I submit therefore that the charge has been definitely proven. The Court must also bear in mind these remarks were made with reference to an officer who had come from another unit to take the place of someone who had returned from Dieppe, and in view of this the Court will probably understand that it is more difficult for a strange officer to take a bold of a platoon than it would be for one who had served some considerable time with the unit. I would like the Court to consider circumstances under which remarks were alleged to have been made, by an N.C.O. of long standing whose duty it is to train rienforcements in tradition of unit and instill in their minds proper respect for superior military authority.

Court closes for Consideration of finding.

The court having been re-opened the accused is again brought in.

Lieut N. S. Bergman prosecutor is duly sworn.

Q. Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?

A. I produce Substitute for A.F.B. 290 and certified copy of N.F.M.C.
(These are signed by president and attached to proceedings.)

Q. Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have read?

A. Yes Sir

Q. Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries.

A. Yes Sir.

No cross examination by defence.

Q. to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court or make any statement in mitigation of punishment.

A. Defence in mitigation states: I should like to dwell on Cpl Thorburns record since 1939. It has been of the best. We have no reason to believe despite this charge, that he has been an inefficient N.C.O. As I said this morning he was recommended for OCTU and regarding that I'd like to say that unless we had felt sure his character was of the highest , that recommendation would never have gone in. This recommendation did not get Cpl Thorburn on the OcTU but we still feel that we shall recommend him again for next one. Such has been the confidence of the coy cmdr. in him. I feel that this record proves without doubt that Cpl Thorburn has been an excellent soldier and that this should be taken into consideration by the Court in passing sentence.

Court closes to consider sentence.

Abstract of Evidence in the case of H 19867 Corporal Thorburn, James Alexander, "C" Company, 1st Battalion, Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada, Canadian Army (Overseas).

First Witness

H 19006 Sergeant Condy, J., 1st Battalion, Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada, will be called to give evidence as follows:-

I am a Platoon Sergeant in "C" Company, Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada. At or about 0900 hours, Sunday, 27th of September, 1942, "C" Company was proceeding along the road which runs beside "C" Company lines at Fittleworth, West Sussex. An Officer of "C" Company, Lieut. G.P. Kidd, and myself, were in the rear of the Company. Cpl. Thorburn joined the Company on the road at the dining hall, and took up a position on the right rear. Cpl. McLellan was on his left.

About 50 yards further on, Mr. Kidd stopped to speak to another officer who was coming from the opposite direction. About 10 yards further on, Corporal Thorburn turned his head to the left and said, "Who is that phoney cocksucker with the glasses?" My answer was, "That is one of your Company Officers." Cpl. Thorburn then said, "He is a fruit". I then told Cpl. Thorburn that he, as an N.C.O., should know better than to pass such remarks about a Commissioned Officer. He then said, "That is the general opinion of the Company."

On returning to the camp after the Church parade, I reported the incident to C.S.M. Keenan, and placed Cpl. Thorburn under open arrest.

Cpl. Thorburn was referring to Mr. Kidd when he made these remarks His remarks were not addressed to anyone in particular. I know he referred to Mr Kidd because he said, "It's a good thing he's in 15 Platoon.", or words to that effect. I don't recall if these last remarks were said at the beginning or end of the conversation. Mr. Kidd is Platoon Commander of No.15 Platoon, but he was too far away to hear what Cpl. Thorburn was saying. The words "fruit" and "cocksuck" are used to denote a person with homo-sexual tendencies.

At NEWARK on the 26th August 1941 at 1615 hours, I was on duty in CASTLE GATE, where I saw the above named soldier.
I asked him for his pass, this he failed to produce and when questioned he replied, "I am on leave and have lost my pass and money at the Union Jack Club LONDON".
I asked him the location of his unit and he replied, "I am in SCOTLAND".
I obtained his particulars, verified same from his Pay Book M.L., arrested him and he was conducted to the Company Office of 102 Provost Company where he was questioned further and he said, "I will tell the truth I am absent and am stationed at FARNBOROUGH".
He was conducted to the GUARD detention ROOM of the R.E. Bowbridge Road, where he was handed over to the N.C.O. i/c GUARD to be detained.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans YES. (MARKED "A") DOCUMENT (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (his) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on the charge(s). The accused is (not) so informed, and he (they) (has) (have) (changed) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

Statement of H10249 Pte. Thordarson, D.A.

Sir:

I took the pen and pencil set for the following reasons;

I was broke, I had not been on pay parade because when going on leave they paid me £6-10-0 and I had between 5 and 6 dollars left in my paybook. I had put in for some money and at the time we were on a scheme and I was not called on pay parade.

Someone took cigarettes, bars and some other stuff from my kit, which left me with no smokes and no money. I took the pen and pencil set so I could get some smokes.

That is all I have to say.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF H10249 Pte. THORDARSON, D.A. SOUTH SASKATCHEWAN REGIMENT, A SOLDIER OF THE CDN ARMY OVERSEAS.

TRIAL

The accused is informed of his rights.

The C.O. directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution: L64114 Pte. McNeil, W.D., S.Sask.R., C.A.(O) having been duly sworn states;

I am L64114 Pte. McNeil, W.D.

On the morning of the 23 Feb 44 my fountain pen was in a tin box sitting on a shelf in the corner of my room. I wrote out a laundry ticket with it that morning, and put it back in the tin box on the shelf. That night I went to get it to write a letter, but could not find either the pen or my pencil. I reported the loss to Sgt Chenier of "A" coy. The next I heard about it was when Pte Gould met me in the billet, I think it was on the 28 of Feb, and told me something funny was going on, as a French chap from the Fus M.R. had given him some money to give to Pte Thordarson for the sale of a fountain pen. There were three or four of us around at the time including a L/Cpl who reported the matter to Sgt Johnson, A/CSM of "A" coy.

I can identify the pen and pencil because they are both gray with black stripes; the name of the make is ECLIPSE. There is no spring in the plunger of the pen and you have to push the plunger right down and pull it up again. The pen has a glass window near the nib so you can see if there is any ink in it. The nib writes well on one side but scratches on the other side. The end of the pencil where the lead goes in is very loose.

(Pen and pencil set is produced and witness identifies)

Cross examined by the Accused

Q1 - You say the pen and pencil set was in a tin box. Is that correct ?

A1 - It was when I left that morning, I remember putting the pen back in the box and replacing it on the shelf.

W D McNeil

(W.D. McNeil) Pte. L64114

Second Witness for the Prosecution:- D63373 Pte. Dube, J.Y. Fus M.R., C.A.(O). having been duly sworn states;

I am D 63373 Pte. Dube, J.Y.

I met Pte Thordarson one night in the Canadian Legion, I'm not sure of the date. I did'nt know him well, but have met him a couple of times at the Assembly Hall.

He asked me to sell a pen and pencil for him and I said I would. I then went on to a pub and sold them to a chap for 10 shillings. I went back to the Legion but could'nt find Thordarson. I saw a man with S.S.R. flashes on and asked him who he was. He said he was the shoemaker in "A" coy. I asked him if he would do me a favor and give seven shillings to Pte Thordarson in payment of a pen and pencil set which Thordarson had given me to sell. The pen and pencil had the same markings in light and dark colours, but I can't say in English what they were.

ACCUSED DECLINES TO CROSS EXAMINE (J.Y. Dube) Pte. D63373.

Third Witness for the Prosecution:- L12966 L/Cpl. Duquette, A. S. Sask. R., C.A.(O) having been duly sworn states;

I am L12966 L/Cpl. Duquette, A., L/Cpl. of Regt'l Police. On the 23 Feb 44, Sgt Johnson of "A" coy informed me that there had been a pen and pencil set stolen from Pte McNeil of "A" coy. Sgt MacPhail and I immediately proceeded to "A" coy billets and made enquiries of some of the men in the said billets. About three or four days later I got information from Sgt Johnson that Pte Dube of the Fus M.R. had given seven shillings to Pte Gould to give to Pte Thordarson in payment ~~of~~ for a pen and pencil set which Dube had sold for him. We went to see Pte Dube and he told us that he had sold the pen and pencil set and had given the money to Pte Gould. Then we proceeded to recover the set from a civilian, Mr Sims, to whom Dube had sold it.

Two days later I went to see Pte Thordarson, and after cautioning him, asked him if he had seen this pen and pencil set before. He said yes, he had seen it lying in the hallway. I asked him whether he was speaking true or not. He said yes. Then I told him to tell me the truth and tell me exactly where he had seen the pen and pencil set before. He then told me that he had seen in in the corner of a room occupied by Pte McNeil and three other chaps. I asked him to tell me what happened after that, and he said he had given the pen and pencil set to Pte Dube of the Fus M.R. to sell for him, and that he had received seven shillings which had been left with Pte Gould for him. I had the pen and pencil set with me at the time and Pte Thordarson identified them as the ones he had given Pte Dube to sell for him.

(Witness identifies pen and pencil set)

(A. Duquette) L/Cpl. L12966.

Fourth Witness:- L13298 Pte. Gould, E.H., S. Sask. R., C.A.(O). having been duly sworn states;

I am L13298 Pte. Gould, E.H.

Last Monday night, 28 Feb 44 in the Canadian Legion I was handed seven shillings ~~xx~~ by Pte Dube of the Fus M.R. and was asked to give it to Pte Thordarson. In the ensuing conversation I understood Pte Dube to make the remark that it has something to do with a fountain pen. On returning to my billet I handed the seven shillings to Pte Thordarson; during the transaction several of the boys standing around seemed curious and started asking questions. It was then that I found out about a pen being missing. Sgt Johnson, the A/CSM of "A" coy was there and questioned me about the transaction.

(E.H. Gould) Pte. L13298.

E. H. Gould

The accused having been duly cautioned in accordance with R.P. 4 (e) says;

"I want to make a statement on oath"

The accused, H10249 Pte. Thordarson, D.A., S.Sask. R., C.A.(O). having been duly sworn ~~xxx~~ states;

On the 23 Feb 44, I was on "lines" and at approx 1430 hrs was in the room occupied by Pte McNeil, putting on the fire. When I lifted the coke pail I saw a pen and pencil set lying on the floor in a corner. I fixed the fires and then picked up the pen and pencil set and put it in my tunic pocket. They were there until the night of the 27th, when I wrote two or three letters with them while I was on quarter guard. Pte McNeil was there and he never said anything ~~xxxxx~~ although I don't know if he saw me with them. On the following night the 28 Feb, I was in the Legion talking to Pte Dube of the Fus M.R., I was writing a letter at the time and he asked me if I wanted to sell the pen and pencil. I hesitated and then said yes. I gave him the pen and pencil and he said he would be right back. I stayed at the Legion until 2130 hrs but he did not return so I went back to my billet. About 20 minutes later Pte Gould said to me "you're just the man I want to see". I walked over to where he was and he said "here's seven shillings that were given to me by _____." The name he said was "Jubilee" so I hesitated before taking the money as I did'nt know anybody by that name. A little later he said the name was "Dube" of the Fus M.R., so then I took the money. That's all that was said about the matter until the night of the 3rd Mar when L/Cpl. Duquette called me down to the bathroom and asked to see my paybook. He gave it back to me and and asked if I had ever seen the pen and pencil set before. I said "Yes". He then took me over to the Coy Comms room and ~~xxx~~ got Sgt Johnson. Then L/Cpl. Duquette asked me questions while Sgt Johnson wrote them down. He then told Sgt Johnson to get an escort and take me over to the guard room.

taken under oath at the direction of the Commanding Officer.

FIRST WITNESS for the Prosecution

Supervisor L.M. Anderson Y.M.C.A., attached to 1 Lt. A.A. Regiment R.C.A., having been duly sworn states:

"I am Supervisor L.M. Anderson, Y.M.C.A. attached to 1 Lt.A.A.Regiment, R.C.A.

Gnr. Thorne is attached to me as military helper. His duties are those of batman and general duties around the Y.M.C.A. On the morning of 27 Apr 43 Thorne was waiting for me in my room, when I returned from breakfast. We started to walk to the Y.M.C.A. together and on the way down he made the statement, quote "Andy, I smashed your car up" unquote. We continued on to the Y.M.C.A. where the car was parked and I saw that the car had been smashed all along the left hand side. I reported the accident to Lt.-Col. Taylor the C.O. and the Y.M.C.A. field Headquaters, Farnborough, Hants. There was approximately 8 gals of army petrol in the tank of the car when it was taken.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

THIRD WITNESS for the Prosecution

R.13020 S/Sgt. Reynolds, J.S. H.Q. R.C.E. 1 Cdn Corps having been duly sworn states:-

"I am R.13020 S/Sgt. Reynolds, J.S., H.Q. R.C.E. 1 Cdn Corps.

At approximately 0025 hours morning of 27 Apr 45 I was travelling in a Jeep from Merstham to Balcombe. As we were coming up the hill out of Redhill we saw lights come over the top of the hill straight in front of us. I shouted to my driver to look out and he applied the brakes, but the approaching vehicle hit us, knocking off our front wheel. I got out of the Jeep and the two men in the other vehicle also got out. The driver of the other vehicle asked if anyone was hurt and I replied "No, how about you?" He said "Bouning, just my arm" or words to that effect. His left running board was caught in the chassis of the Jeep and he got back into his car saying he would pull up and see if he could get losse. I looked at his lisence number and told my driver to write it down immediately. ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ When he got his car loose from the Jeep he went ahead and backed up into Earlswood Rd., his companion, shouted "Stop or Hey Eddie - Stop, where the hell are you going", and went over to the car. The next thing we knew the car shot ahead and proceeded down the road in the direction of Horley paying no attention to my shouts. A police constable came up a couple of minutes afterwards and we gave him a report and assisted him to measure the width of the road, position of Jeep, position of wheel marks, using the Constable's steel tape. I reported the accident to Capt. Smith, our adjutant, the next morning.

FOURTH WITNESS for the Prosecution

U.1715 Spr Lilburn H.J. Field Park Coy, 1 Cdn Corps R.C.E. having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am U.1715 Spr Lilburn H.J. of Field Park Coy, 1 Cdn Corps R.C.E.

At approximately 0025 hrs. on morning of 27 Apr 45 I was proceeding south on the Brighton Road between Redhill and Earlswood. As I was coming to the top of the hill I saw a vehicle heading towards me. I got as far over to the left curb as I could andthe other car went over to my left side too and we collided. The left front wheel of the Jeep I was driving was knocked off and the running board of the other car was stuck in the Jeep's bumper. We all got out and asked each other if anyone was hurt. The driver of the other vehicle said he had hurt his arm. He got back in his car and went ahead, which pulled the running board off his car. He backe into a side road and while I was getting my accident report out, he drove away and proceeded south. I had taken the license No. of his car which was GLB 552."

The accused questions the witness as follows:

Q.1 Can you say for sure that it was the driver of the other car who said his arm was hurt?
A.1 Either the driver or the passenger who was with him, I'm not sure which.

FIFTH WITNESS for the Prosecution

P.C. LOWMAN, Edgar John of the Reigate Borough Division, Surrey Joint Police Force, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am P.C. LOWMAN, Edgar John of the Reigate Borough Division, Surrey Joint Police Force.

At 0035 hours on ~~xxx27~~ Tuesday 27 Apr 43, in consequence of information received, I went to the junction of Brighton Road amd Earlswood Road, Redhill, where I found an accident had occurred between a Canadian Jeep CM.4230846 and a Y.M.C.A. Saloon motor car GLB.552. The car GLB.552 had left the scene of the accident. I found the Jeep 7 feet from the south-east corner of the two roads, facing East, with its rear 5 feet from the central white line. The road at this point is 34 feet wide. On the near side of the Jeep I found a complete near side wing and running board which had been left behind by the other vehicle. At some distance from the scene of the accident I found a metal hub cap marked Chevrolet. I examined the road which was in good condition and dry, and found 2 skid marks; one was 3 feet in length, being 4 feet from the East curb of the road and the other being also 3 feet in length, one foot East of the East curb on the pavement, these skid marks having apparently been made by the car GLB.552.

At the scene of the accident I found a considerable amount of petrol on the ground as if the petrol tank of the saloon car had been punctured."

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

30 June 43

The M.F.M. 6 and other evidence placed before the Court today does not give a true and accurate statement of the accused Rifleman's record.

I have had knowledge of Rfn. Thorne in the Bn since June 1940 and during our stay in Canada his conduct was exemplary.

Since coming to England his two large periods of A.W.L. were due to (a) hockey matches in Brighton and (b) female worries in London area and neither can be traced to criminal intent.

It would therefore be an important task of the Court, besides giving judgment, to make recommendation on Thorne's behalf regarding his future employment so that he may have an opportunity to regain his interest and enthusiasm, which was once at a very high level.

Statement At about 12-45am. on the 9th. June 1943 at Turnpike Lane, Hornsey, London, N.8. I was called by Pte. 81817 Jolly, Cameron Highlanders of Ottowa, Stationed at Horsham, to Rifleman R. 40820 L. Thorne, Royal Winnipeg Rifles, Strood Park, Horsham whom he alleged was a Private and was wearing Sergeant's stripes without authority. I asked Thorne if he was entitled to wear the stripes and he said, "Yes. I am a Sergeant". I then asked him to produce his pay book which I examined and found that he was described therein as a Rifleman. I pointed this out to him and he said, "I have passed for Sergeant but I have not got my papers".

I then took both the soldiers to Hornsey Police Station, where Thorne admitted that he was not entitled to wear the stripes.

There was some blood on Thorne's face but he he did not make any allegation of being assaulted by Jolly.

Age . Occupation Station Sergeant 13."Y".

Statement At about 12-45am. on the 9th. June 1943 War Reserve Constable 504."Y" at Turnpike Lane, Hornsey, N.8. was called by Pte. 31817, Jolly, Cameron Highlanders of Ottowa, Stationed at Horsham, to Pte. Thorne, No. H.40620, Royal Winnipeg Rifles, Stationed at Strood Park, Horsham, who was wearing battle dress with Sergeant's stripes thereon.

Jolly alleged that Thorne was a private and was not entitled to wear the stripes. Thorne informed the War Reserve that he was a Sergeant. At the Station I questioned Thorne and he stated that he lost his own tunic at his quarters so he decided to take the Sergeant's tunic and to have a night out in London. He was unable to produce a leave pass and stated that he came away without permission with the intention of going back to his Unit the first thing in the morning. Thorne alleged that he had been assaulted by Jolly and there was some blood on his mouth, but Jolly denied having struck him. I communicated with the Canadian Corps of Military Police and an escort was sent for Thorne.

Summary of evidence in the case of H40620 Rfn Thorne L., Royal Winnipeg Rifles A.F.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the summary of evidence is taken on oath.

1st Witness for the Prosecution

H41864 A/L/Sgt Genaille J.H., Royal Winnipeg Rifles, having been duly sworn states:

"On 3rd of June 1943 I was Coy Orderly Cpl. At 1430 hrs I sent L/Cpl Slatter for Rfn Thorne who was excused duty that day. At 1500 hrs L/Cpl Slatter reported back that Rfn Thorne was not in the Coy lines. I also looked and Rfn Thorne was not available then. At Tattoo, 2130 hrs, Rfn Thorne was absent. He was still absent at Reveille, 0600 hrs 4 Jun 43. At 0730 hrs 4 Jun 43 Rfn Thorne reported to me. I asked him where he had been. He answered "Out". I placed Rfn Thorne under Open Arrest. He brought up before the Coy Commander at approximately 0845 hrs and was remanded to the Commanding Officer. He was warned to report to Coy Orderly Room at 0915 hrs to appear before the C.O. Rfn Thorne failed to report at this time. I searched the company lines and he was not in. I reported to the C.S.M. that he was absent."

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans .....(5)

5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do either you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? The Court is closed, and considers the submission(3). The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge(s), and allowed on the charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).~~
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

JA: Do either of the accused feel that their interests are being prejudiced in any way by being tried jointly?
Def: No sir.

JA: You have both elected the same Defending Officer. Do you feel that your interests are in any way prejudiced by having the same Officer defending each of you?

Defending Officer questions the two accused and both wish to have Lieut Geoffrion defend them.

FIRST WITNESS for the Prosecution, Lieut H. Geldard, 7 Cdn Med Regt having been duly sworn, is questioned by the Prosecutor:

Q. You are Lieut H. Geldard of the 7 Cdn Med Regt RCA?
A. That is right.

Q. Do you remember the evening of 3 May last?
A. Yes.

Q. Will you please tell the court what happened that evening touching the matters in question?
A. The evening of 3 May 45 around 2130 hrs I was in "P" Bty Command Post when an excited German civilian came in and with the aid of an interpreter told me that three Canadians were causing a disturbance in a house. I proceeded with him and a small party including BSM Maskery and an interpreter, Gnr Ruhl, and one driver. We proceeded to the house. When we arrived, there was a kitchen in which were a party of German civilians, probably half a dozen, all very excited and nervous. Standing in the door-way leading into a hall were two soldiers with rifles. I went up and asked them who they were and one of them said he was from 7 Medium Regiment. I asked them if there were just two of them or if there was a third one. They said just two but the German civilian who accompanied us said there was a third one upstairs.

Q. Do you recognize these men of whom you speak?
A. Yes. (Indicates the accused). I then proceeded upstairs and when I came down I sent the Sgt-Major with the two men down to "Q" Bty lines and placed them under arrest.

Q. Could you tell if these men had been drinking?
A. Yes, they had been drinking.

Q. In your opinion were they drunk?
A. I would say they were.

Q. When you were in the kitchen were you given anything by anyone?
A. Later on, after we found the third man, I was given a .303 bullet that had not been fired but which they claimed had been ejected from the rifle.

Q. Who gave you this?
A. One of the civilians.

Four civilians were escorted before the court and Lieut Geldard states that either Frau Busemann or Herr Fisher gave him the bullet.

Q. Do you recognize the other two civilians here?
A. No. They may have been there. I will not swear to it.

...../2

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer

Q. How were these two soldiers carrying their rifles?
A. One was slung over the shoulder and the other held his by his side.

Q. Exactly how?
A. Loosely in his hand.

Q. Which one had it slung and which one had it in his hand?
A. I believe Gnr Wilks had it in his hand.

Q. You are not sure which was which?
A. No.

Questioned by the Court:

Q. What time did you go into the house?
A. It was 2130 in the Command Post when the civilian arrived. Later in the house, there was a clock upstairs which stated twelve o'clock. I did not have a watch of my own.

Q. How many civilians were in the room you called the kitchen when you entered?
A. About six.

Q. Among those six, the two you identified today?
A. Yes.

Q. What did you notice in the way of furnishings in that room when you entered?
A. There was a table in the kitchen where they had been eating and they were sit ing around at one end of the table. The door where the two men were was right opposite me.

Q. What was on that table?
A. There was food and cups that had been used.

Q. Where were the two accused persons standing when you entered?
A. In the doorway leading to the hall at the foot of the stairs.

Q. Did you see them at the table?
A. No, I did not.

In the opinion of the JA and the Court is is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

SECOND WITNESS for the Prosecution, Frau Helena Busemann having been duly sworn, is questioned by the Prosecutor:

Q. What is your name, where do you live and how old are you?
A. Frau Helena Busemann, Veenhuizen, Germany, 27 years old.

Q. Are you a German civilian and inhabitant of Germany?
A. I am.

Q. Do you remember the night of the 3 of May last?
A. Yes, I do.

Q. Start at the beginning telling the court what you remember.
A. On the evening of 3 May 45 approximately half past nine in the evening I heard a knocking on the door and saw three soldiers. I answered "I will open up. I opened the door and the soldiers demanded Schnapps and wine.

Q. Do you see anyone in the room now whom you saw on the night of 3 May?
A. I recognize this soldier (indicates Gnr Thorne).

...../3

Q. Anyone else?
A. I am not sure. I think the second soldier on the left also, but I do not know. (Indicates Lieut Geoffrion).

Q. After the soldiers asked for Schnapps and wine what did they do?
A. I went upstairs to call Frau Richter as she spoke a little English. One of the soldiers came upstairs with me. Frau Richter handed me a bottle of schnapps.

Q. Before you went upstairs did you see where the other two soldiers went?
A. The two soldiers remained downstairs.

Q. After you saw Frau Richter what did you do?
A. I left the room and went to the bedroom of Frau Richter. Frau Richter showed the soldier her children. I remainded in the bedroom. I did not know what to do. I could hear that the soldier did not want to leave the kitchen but I left the room
Q. through the window.

Q. Why did you not go downstairs again?
A. I thought I could not pass those two that were making eyes outside and I was afraid and I remained in the room.

Q. How did you get down from the bedroom?
A. I jumped out of the window.

Q. Then what did you do?
A. I went around the house and stood outside of the window leading to the kitchen downstairs and waited for about five minutes. My brother, sister, father and mother were inside of the kitchen.

Q. Could you hear any noise?
A. I could hear people drinking something from cups.

Q. Could you see anything going on through the kitchen window?
A. They were sitting around the table on chairs.

Q. Were there any soldiers in the kitchen?
A. Two soldiers.

Q. What were these soldiers doing?
A. They said "good tea and good coffee" and I went in the kitchen afterwards.

Q. What did you do when you got in the kitchen?
A. The soldiers looked at me and I sat down.

Q. What was Herr Fisher doing?
A. He was sitting on the chair.

Q. Did the soldiers bring anything into the kitchen with them?
A. They had two rifles.

Q. When you went into the kitchen did you see these rifles?
A. Yes I did.

Q. Where were they?
A. The soldiers had the rifles with them.

Q. Did you see them do anything with the rifles?
A. Yes.

Q. What?
A. They pointed the rifles first at my brother and Herr Olstendorf.

...../4

Q. Did they do anything else?
A. Also my father, and all had to hold their hands over their heads.

Q. Who had their hands above their heads?
A. My brother, Herr Olstendorf, my father and I do not know about my sister.

Q. How were these people holding their hands? Please demonstrate.
A. She places her hands on top of her head.

Q. Did the soldiers do anything else with their rifles?
A. They cocked their rifles several times and a few rounds fell out. Two in the kitchen and one in the small room next to the kitchen.

Q. What were they doing with their rifles when they cocked them?
A. They pointed their rifles.

Q. At whom?
A. At my brother, Herr Olstendorf and my father.

Q. Did they say anything to you?
A. They asked me what was the matter with my eyes and I said "keep quiet".

Q. Did they say anything to anyone else in the room?
A. They spoke all the time but I do not understand English.

Q. Was there anything on the kitchen table at this time?
A. Cups with tea and milk.

Q. Did any of the civilians in the room give the soldiers anything?
A. One soldier demanded the watch of my father.

Q. What did this soldier do?
A. They also demanded the purse from Her Olstendorf and my brother.

Q. What is the name of your father?
A. John Fisher.

Q. What is the name of your sister?
A. Frau Freda Soor.

Q. What is the name of your brother?
A. Gert Fisher.

Q. After the soldier asked for your father'w watch did he do anything about it?
A. He took the watch and put it in his pocket.

Q. From whom did the soldier take the watch?
A. My sister took the watch out of my father's vest and handed it over to the soldier.

Q. What else did you see the soldier's do?
A. One of the soldiers picked up the bread knife from the table and made a movement across his throat.

Q. Did the soldiers then do anything else?
A. He stabbed the knife back into the plate.

Q. What did the soldiers do after that?
A. One of the soldiers left the room with the bread knife for upstairs.

Q. Anything else?
A. The second soldier locked up the door took his rifle again and pointed it against my brother and Herr Olstendorf.

...../5

Q. Which of the soldiers that you identified in this room pointed his rifle?
A. I think this soldier left the room with his rifle (indicates Gnr Thorne).

Q. What did the soldier do after this?
A. The second soldier returned to the room and the first soldier opened the door for him.

Q. Then what did you do?
A. They locked the door again and took a seat in front of the other door leading out the house.

Q. What did they do next?
A. They pointed their rifles again at my brother, Herr Olstendorf and called us Nazis and saying we were SS. They didn't point their rifles at me.

Q. What did you do after that?
A. We all cried and told them not to shoot and they laid their rifles on the table.

Q. What did they do after they put their rifles on the table?
A. They were asking my sister and myself to come outside.

Q. Did you do anything?
A. This soldier (indicates Gnr Thorne) took my sister into the next room but my sister cried and struggled and my mother pulled her back into the kitchen.

Q. Then what did they do?
A. One soldier sat down by my mother near the kitchen door.

Q. Then what did the two soldiers do?
A. One of the soldiers left for upstairs again. They did that several times.

Q. And after that?
A. After that my mother left the house.

Q. And then?
A. One of the soldiers asked for my mother and where she went.

Q. Please tell the court what the soldiers did next?
A. Herr Olstendorf left the room.

Q. What did the soldiers do next?
A. They were excited and were asking where Herr Olstendorf went.

Q. What did they do next?
A. One of the soldiers was playing around with his fountain pen but we did not know what they wanted. I thought he wanted to write something.

Q. Then what?
A. The second soldier left for upstairs again.

Q. They what did they do?
A. The one soldier which remained pointed his rifle against us again.

Q. Do you know which soldier pointed his rifle?
A. The shortest one.

Q. Then what did the soldiers do?
A. The second soldier came back into the kitchen.

Q. Then?
A. Shortly after this appeared the other soldiers.

...../6

Q. What do you mean by the other soldiers?
A. The helpers, the officer and two or three more.

Q. What did they do?
A. The two soldiers in the kitchen were astonished how these people got there.

Q. Then?
A. We told them our story and handed over the rounds of ammunition which we found on the floor.

Q. What did the two soldiers do then?
A. I do not know what they were speaking or what they did.

Q. Did you see them again?
A. They were standing around for awhile between the kitchen and the hall way door.

Q. And then did you see them do anything?
A. No.

Q. At about what time did the officer and the soldiers arrive?
A. Approximately quarter to one.

Q. How long do you think these soldiers had been in the kitchen?
A. I figure from half past nine until half past twelve.

Q. Did any one else in the room give the soldiers anything else besides a watch?
A. Herr Clistendorf and my brother gave their pocket books but we found them later on again.

Q. You said there were tea cups on the table. Did you see anyone during the evening drink?
A. My sister filled up the cups.

Q. Did anybody drink from the cups?
A. I saw the shortest one drink from the cup and I saw milk on his lips.

Q. Did you see anyone else drink anything or eating?
A. One soldier was eating a little bit of bread but it did not taste good.

Q. Can you point out the soldier who was drinking or eating?
A. I think so (identifies Lieut. Geoffrion).

Cross-examined by the Defence:

Q. Am I the short soldier who pointed a rifle at you?
A. I am not sure. He was the shortest one and I can identify him for sure.

Q. Can you identify the tall one for sure?
A. Yes. I remember his face (indicates Gnr Thorne).

Q. Where were you when the watch was taken from your father?
A. I was sitting beside my sister and my father.

Q. Do you remember an enquiry on this matter?
A. It was approximately the same as what I told the court now.

Q. In that enquiry did you not say "My father told me that he had been robbed by two soldiers while I was out?"
A. Yes, he said that afterwards.

Q. Were you in or out when the robery was committed?
A. I was upstairs. That was in the very beginning.

...../7

Re-examination by the Prosecution:

Q. Were you in the room when your father's watch was taken?
A. Yes.

Q. What room were you in when your father told you that he had been robbed?
A. Also in the kitchen.

Q. Did your father tell you what had been taken from him?
A. Yes.

Questioned by the Court:

Q. How did the soldiers make themselves understood when they asked you what was wrong with your eyes?
A. I indicated that I had something wrong with my heart and that I was sick.

Q. How did you know what they meant?
A. I think the soldier saw that I did not look well and that something must be wrong with me.

Q. Did the soldiers speak in German or English?
A. In English.

Q. Do you understand English?
A. No.

Q. How did you understand what the soldiers were talking about?
A. I could really not understand anything else except the schnapps and coffee. I was just thinking. I think the soldiers thought I looked very bad and sick because I just had jumped out of the window.

Q. Do you remember telling the court that the soldiers noticed something about your eyes? What was that?
A. I said I was sick and I have something wrong with my heart.

Q. Was there anything wrong with your eyes that night?
A. Maybe I looked kind of sick because I am pregnant for four months already.

Q. You have told the court that the pocket books were later found. Were you in the room when the pocket books were found?
A. Yes.

Q. Where were the pocket books found?
A. I found my brother's on the floor and I found Herr Olstendorf's lying on the dupboard in the kitchen.

Q. Was your father's pocket book recovered?
A. No.

Q. Do you stay at the home of John Fisher?
A. Yes.

Q. Are you his daughter?
A. Yes.

The Prosedutor announces that the witness Herr Olstendorf is not available. The defence states that he does not require the production of the witness for cross-examination. The prosecutor states that he has served notice under RP 7(6) to the defence that he intends to produce Frau Soor in lieu of Herr Olstendorf. The Defending Officer accepts this and states that he has no objection.

THIRD WITNESS for the Prosecution, Frau Freda Soor, having been duly sworn is questioned by the Prosecutor:

...../8

Q. What is your name and how old are you?
A. Frau Freda Soor, 32 years old.

A. Yes.

Q. Do you live in his house?
A. No.

Q. Are you a German civilian and an inhabitant of Germany?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you remember the night of 3 May last?
A. Yes.

Q. Starting at the beginning will you tell the court what you remember about that night?
A. Three soldiers came in the kitchen.

Q. Do you recognize in this room any of the soldiers that came to your kitchen that night?
A. Witness identifies Gnr Thorne and Lieut Geoffrion.

Q. Where were you at this time?
A. In the kitchen of my father's house.

Q. Was there anyone else in the kitchen with you?
A. My father, my mother, my brother, Herr Olstendorf and my sister.

Q. Are Herr Fisher and Frau Fisher your father and mother?
A. Yes.

Q. Is Gert Fisher your brother?
A. Yes.

Q. Is your sister Frau Helena Busemann?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you see the three soldiers come into the room?
A. Yes.

Q. Were these soldiers carrying anything?
A. Two of them had rifles.

Q. What did the soldiers do?
A. First of all they demanded Schnapps.

Q. Then what?
A. And they wanted to shoot us.

Q. Please explain what you mean by that last phrase "they wanted to shoot us."
A. We had no Schnapps and they demanded schnapps or they would shoot.

Q. What did the soldiers do?
A. They were cursing us and threatening us and made us hold our hands above our heads.

Q. Did they do anything with their rifles?
A. They opened their bolts, loaded their rifles, unloaded their rifles and some rounds fell on the floor.

Q. Did they do anything else with their rifles?
A. No they just pointed their rifles at us and it looked like they would shoot at any minute.

Q. At whom did they point the rifles?
A. First at my brother and Herr Olstendorf, my father and also at me.

Q. How many soldiers threatened you?
A. Two.

Q. What happened to the other of the three soldiers?
A. He went upstairs right away to Frau Richter.

Q. You have said that the soldiers made you put your hands on top of your heads. Who made you do this?
A. My brother, Herr Olstendorf and myself.

Q. Did the soldiers ask for anything else besides Schnapps?
A. Yes, tea and coffee.

Q. Did they get any tea and coffee?
A. Yes.

Q. What did they do with the tea and coffee?
A. They drank the tea and one of them drank milk too.

Q. Did the soldiers ask for anything else besides schnapps, tea and coffee?
A. They asked for the time.

Q. Did they ask for anything else?
A. No.

Q. After the woldiers made you sit with your hands above your heads what did they do then?
A. They opened their bolts, loaded their rifles and aimed at us.

Q. Did the soldiers make anyone in the room do anything?
A. They laid their rifles on the table and indicated with their fingers to come outside. I was already in the next room but my mother pulled me back.

Q. Did the soldiers make you do anything else?
A. No. I could also not understand what they wanted.

Q. Did the soldiers ask your father for anything?
A. Yes. They asked for my father's watch and they were aiming the rifle at me so I took my father's watch out and handed it over to one of the soldiers.

Q. From where did you take your father's watch?
A. From the pocket of a vest which hung on the chair in the kitchen.

Q. Did your father have the vest on at the time?
A. No, he wanted to go to bed.

Q. Did the soldiers ask for anything else from anyone in the room?
A. I do not remember that.

Q. You have said the soldiers pointed their rifles at the persons in the room. Did they threaten you in any other way?
A. No.

Q. Did they ask Herr Olstendorf for anything?
A. For his purse.

Q. Did they ask anybody else for a purse?
A. And my brother too.

Q. What did they do?
A. They searched the pockets.

Q. Did you see either of the soldiers in the room now point their rifles at anyone?
A. I say the soldiers only one time and the light was not very good, and I am not sure now.

...../10

Q. I produce a watch for identification. Can you identify it?
A. Yes, it is my fathers (Exhibit received in evidence and marked Exhibit "A", for identification only).

Q. After you had given the watch to the soldiers what did they do?
A. They put the watch in their pocket.

Q. And after that?
A. All the things which they had in their pockets they took out and looked them over.

Q. And what did they do with the rest of the time they stayed in the kitchen?
A. They were sitting and also cursing and I don't know any more.

Q. How long did the soldiers tay in the kitchen?
A. Three hours.

Q. Why did the soldiers go?
A. Herr Olstendorf went to get some other soldiers and they took them back to their quarters.

Q. What did the soldiers do with the pocket books which they took from Herr Olstendorf and your brother?
A. There was no money in them and they gave them back.

Q. Was your father sitting in the chair on which his vest was hanging?
A. No I was.

Q. Where was your father at this time?
A. Next to me on a chair.

Q. Why did you give these soldiers your father's watch?
A. They threatened to shoot me.

Cross-examined by Defending Officer:

Q. When the soldiers took your father's watch where was Frau Busemann?
A. In the kitchen and she helped me loosen the chain. We were so excited we didn't know what to do.

Q. Which of the two soldiers asked for the watch?
A. Witness indicates Lieut Geoffrion.

Q. Which of the two soldiers pointed the rifle at you?
A. Witness indicates Lieut Geoffrion.

Q. Which of the two soldiers took the watch?
A. Witness indicates Lieut Geoffrion.

Q. What was the other soldier doing at this time?
A. He went upstairs.

Q. Where was the third soldier?
A. He was always upstairs until the officer and the other men came.

Q. How many soldiers were in the room when your father's watch was taken?
A. I think two. I am not sure about it any more.

Q. You just said the other soldier went upstairs. Will you tell the court whether he was upstairs or downstairs when your father's watch was taken?
A. I can't remember now. It is quite a long time already. I was so excised and afraid and can't remember every detail.

Q. Do you remember whether Frau Busemann was upstairs or downstairs when the watch was taken?
A. She was present and helped me undo the chain from the button whole of the vest.

...../11

Q. At the time your father's watch was taken were there at least two soldiers in the room?
A. I don't remember exactly.

In the opinion of the JA and the Court it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B)

Q. Did they point at anyone?
A. They were pointing their rifles at us.

Q. Did they make any of you do anything then?
A. They made us put our hands over our heads.

Q. What persons were forced to put their hands over their heads?
A. All of us.

Q. Which of these two soldiers pointed their rifles at you?
A. Especially the smallest one of the two (indicates Gnr Wilks).

Q. Did the other one do it also?
A. I am not so sure about the other one. The small one (Gnr Wilks) also locked the door.

Q. After the soldiers asked for Schnapps and wine did they then ask for anything else?
A. They drank milk and coffee which were on the table.

Q. Did they ask for anything else?
A. No.

Q. Can you identify this watch?
A. That is my watch.

Q. Where did you see it last?
A. In the pocket of my vest hanging on the chair.

Q. How did you come to lose it?
A. They demanded the watch and my daughter Frau Boor gave it to them.

Q. When you say "they" who do you mean?
A. The smallest one of the two (Gnr Wilks).

Q. Why did you let them take your watch?
A. I was defenceless. What could I do?

Q. You have said that the soldiers pointed their rifles at you? Did they do anything else with the rifles?
A. They opened the bolt and closed it again and some of the rounds fell on the floor.

Q. After the soldiers had taken your watch what did they do next?
A. The smallest one of the soldiers laid my money purse on the table and looked over what was in it.

Q. What was in your purse?
A. 20 mark note, 5 marks, a ring and also several 10 mark notes but I do not know how many.

Q. What did the soldier do with this purse after he had looked through it?
A. He put it back in his pocket.

Q. Have you ever seen your purse since then?
A. No.

Q. What did the soldiers do the rest of the evening?
A. Herr Olstendorf went to get some help.

...../13

Q. Did Herr Olstendorf come back with anyone?
A. Yes, with an officer.

Q. What did the soldiers do then?
A. They were quiet.

Q. Did they go away?
A. Yes.

Q. How long altogether do you think the two soldiers you pointed out were in the kitchen?
A. From ten o'clock until half past twelve.

Q. At the time your daughter took the watch from your wrist did either of the soldiers do anything?
A. No.

No cross-examination by the Defence.

Questioned by the Court:

Q. Why did your daughter give the soldiers the watch?
A. They demanded the watch.

Q. How did they demand the watch?
A. They said "oor, oor".

Q. Is that all they did?
A. I do not know any more.

Q. What did the other soldiers do when the shorter soldier took this watch?
A. He stood in front of the door which is leading to the stairway.

Q. Is this all he did?
A. I don't remember now whether he pointed his rifle or not.

Q. What did he when the shorter fellow was taking the pocket book?
A. He did nothing.

Q. Where was he?
A. They both came through the door and the second soldier followed the shorter soldier who took my watch.

A. Yes.

Q. On the evening of the 3 May would you tell the court what you know touching the matters in question.
A. I entered the house with Mr Geldard and we saw two soldiers with rifles. The civilians seemed quite upset and scared of the whole thing.

Q. What room of this house did you go into?
A. It was the kitchen we were in.

Q. Was there anyone else in the kitchen?
A. The civilians were in the kitchen.

Q. About how many?
A. That I couldn't say for sure.

Q. You say you saw two soldiers. Do you see either of those two soldiers in the room at present?
A. I couldn't identify them sir.

Q. Where were these soldiers when you saw them?
A. They were standing in the doorway to an adjoining room from the kitchen.

Q. The officer asked them where the third one was. What did they reply?
A. I don't know whether they said he was upstairs or whether the civilians said that.

...../17

Q. What did you do then?
A. We proceeded upstairs, Mr Geldard and myself.

Q. Was anyone else with you?
A. I think one of the civilians went up. I didn't take notice.

Q. What was the general attitude and demeanour of the civilians in the kitchen?
A. Some of the women were crying. They seemed a little scared.

No cross-examination by the Defence.

In the opinion of the JA and the Court it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

EIGHTH WITNESS for the Prosecution, A.31008 BSM JERMYN, E.L. 7 Cdn Med Regt having been duly sworn is questioned by the Prosecutor:

Q. You are A.33152 Gnr Diebel D.A. 45 Bty 7 Cdn Med Regt?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember the night of 3 May last?
A. Yes.

Q. Will you please tell the court what you know touching the matters in question?
A. On May 3 while on guard duty I went on patrol. I imagine between 1130 and 12 a jeep came into the yard which we halted. I recognized S/M Maskery's voice. He got out and asked where BSM Jermyn was. I told him he was in bed and he asked me to take him to where he was sleeping. He got the Sgt-Maj up and got these two soldiers in out of the vehicle.

Q. Who do you mean "these"?
A. Thorne and Wilks.

Q. Can you recognize them?
A. Yes. (indicates accused).

Q. Then what did you do?
A. They talked for a few minutes and then they told me to take these two men into the office and keep them there until they came back. They came back but S/M Maskery was not with S/M Jermyn, but Sgt Griffiths was. We took the 15 cwt and took these two chaps down to C Tps Command Post.

Q. You and these two men were in the back of the 15 cwt?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Anyone else?
A. No sir.

Q. Then what happened?
A. Just as we got down there Gnr Wilks handed me a watch, another watch and a knife.

Q. I show you two watches and a knife which I have here. Have you seen them before?
A. They look very familiar sir. They are like the ones which were given to me.

Q. You are not sure whether they are the exact articles. Can you swear that they are?
A. I wouldn't like to swear to it. I have seen watches like these before but they are identically the same as were handed to me.

Q. And then what did you do?
A. The vehicle had stopped by this time and they were taken into the comd post and handed over to the officer in charge of the comd post at the time.

Q. Subsequently did you do anything with these two watches and a knife that I just showed you?
A. I just kept them. As a result of something I heard I went to contact the Sgt-Major. He was still away but when he came back at 1230 I handed these articles to him.

No cross-examination by the Defence.

In the opinion of the JA and the Court it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The Prosecution is closed.

The Court: Does the Defence plan on making any motion?
Def Offr: No sir.

The court will adjourn until 0930 hrs tomorrow morning.

The court re-opens at 0930 hrs 18 May 45.

Prosecution sums up:

The Prosecution has to prove the following: The feloneous and forcible taking from therperson or in his presence against his will any money or goods of any value by violence or putting him in fear. The Prosecution must prove that. I submit that the Prosecution has proved that in this case. First under feloneous and forcible taking we have evidence that Frau Soor took the watch in question under compulsion. She has said that she was afraid. Frau Fisher, the wife, said that the men played with the watch and passed it back and forth. And while she was not clear what happened to it after that, the watch was later found in the possession of Wilks who handed it to Diebel who gave it to the BSM so that the possession of the watch is proved to have been that of Wilks.

...../19

The wallet containing the ring and money was taken directly from Herr Fisher and he said he saw Wilks put it in his pocket. Second point, from the person in his presence or againsthis will. The wallet was taken from Herr Fisher's pocket from his person. The watch was taken in his presence and when asked why he let this go on he said because he was defenceless which I say is against his will. As the offence is robbery with aggravation the carrying of an offensive weapon is required to be proved. The prosecution submits that there is ample evidence of the use of these weapons. Frau Soor and Frau Busemann say they were afraid and that the men threatened to shoot them. Herr Fisher says he was defenceless and powerless. The circumstances of pointing a rifle at people and a forcing of placing their hands above their heads are circumstances calculated to produce fear in reasonable persons. The prosecution submits that the production of fear and the threatening was done prior to the act of taking the wach and the wallet as Herr Fisher has said in both cases that he was defenceless when asked why he handed over the articles, and I submit that the fear and the attitude of mind induced in these people extended from the time of the first threat through the whole transaction so that whether the watch was taken while the rifle was actually pointed at the daughter or at the old man is not material. Points in controversy:(1) Soldiers armed by order: It is a possible argument that these soldiers appeared with small arms on the scene because of an order saying that soldiers will carry small arms. This might be so in another set of circumstances but I submit that the actual offensive use of threats made with these weapons certainly cancel any argument which may be produced in this point. (2) Taking by Frau Soor: The fact that the accused did not take the watch directly from Herr Fisher I submit is immaterial as Frau Soor acting under compulsion is the act of the accused. (3) Credibility: I ask the court to believe, making allowances for age and obvious lack of memory of some of the witnesses, these witnesses. (4) Joint venture: These two accused were together and I submit that the act of one is the act of the other and whoever pointed the rifle and whoever took the watch is not material. They were both in it together and are both jointly responsible.

Fraternization: These men are charged in the alternative with fraternization and if the offence of robbery with aggravation is not proven I ask the court on the facts proved to find these men guilty of the offence of fraternization.

Defence sums up:

The principle thing in question in this trial is the degree of credibility of the civilian witnesses. There are certain very fine points which I intend to illustrate on which points it must be found beyond all reasonable doubt that the accused were guilty. I submit that the witnesses were not convincing enough to remove in the minds of the court all reasonable doubt on these points. First, I shall start with Gnr Wilks. In order to find Wilks guilty of aggravated robbery it must be proved that a robbery was committed and that the robbery was committed by Wilks. Therefore, all the evidence given during the trial which did not specify Wilks clearly can only be at the very best corroboration. It was necessary to prove on the part of Wilks certain threatening acts, threatening acts committed before the wallet and the watch were taken. I submit that threatening actions afterwards are immaterial. It is not even fair to link them up with the preceding transaction in view of the fact that there is evidence that the accused had been drinking. In view of the credibility of the witnesses I submit that itis not proved beyond a reasonable doubt that Wilks did take part in threatening actions against the victim prior to the alleged taking of the watch and wallet. It is proved that Wilks was carrying a weapon. Regardless of the statutory definition I submit that it must be proved that the carrying of the weapon was unlawful. The court can take judicial notice of a fact that it is the duty of a soldier to carry weapons at all times in Germany. The court must make this allowance because this is a case where it would be a miscarriage of justice to apply English civil law to a soldier in Germany. The

...../20

English law was drafted on an assumption that people don't usually go around carrying arms. I submit that the court is within its rights in interpreting the law of England as applied to a soldier in this case.

In the case of Thorne. Should the court find that the robbery with aggravating circumstances or that a simple robbery was committed, it must also find that Thorne here took the objects alleged to have been stolen or helped some other person to do it. It is not the duty of the defence to prove that Thorne took no part, that Thorne did not assist in the robbery. I submit that there is no evidence that Thorne did take part in the robbery. Mere evidence of Thorne's presence in the house is not supplemented by evidence that he did something to aid the other solier before or during the taking of the valuables alleged to have been stolen. Evidence of Thorne's acts after the robbery or evidence of acts by Thorne which are not definitely situated as before or during and connected with the robbery cannot be used to convict Thorne. There is no evidence of common intent between Thorne and the other soldier. I submit the argument that there is a reasonable doubt of which Thorne must have the benefit. Thorne was carrying a rifle. The fact of being present in the same house at the same time as the other soldier and carrying a rifle, in view of the circumstances I have already pleaded with reference to carrying arms cannot be construed as an act of helping the other soldier.

Certain threatening acts with a rifle are alleged to have taken place by the soldiers or by one of the soldiers as variously stated by the different witnesses. I repeat that it is not proved beyond a reasonable doubt that those threatening actions were made by Thorne before or during the robbery. The civilian witnesses of the Prosecution are vague and uncertain on all these vital points and establish no more than the presence of Thorne in the house up until the time when the wallet was taken. They no more implicate Thorne as an accessory than they do implicate the third soldier mentioned in the evidence who was also in the house at the time of the robbery.

As regards fraternization. I wish to go over the subject matter of the second charge. First, I must remind the court that there is no offence of fraternization. There is only an offence of conduct to the prejudice. It follows that the second charge must be read like this: Conduct to the prejudice in that they first, fraternized with inhabitants of Germany, second, visited and had refreshments with inhabitants of Germany. I don't think that the presence of the two accused in the German house can be qualified as visiting. I am sure that the various alleged actions of drinking tea and coffee cannot be described as having refreshments with Germans. I don't deny that they may have had the refreshments but they had them certainly in spite of and without the German civilians and finally I submit that none of the things that went on during that night can be described as fraternization, or being friendly. The court may find that in the course of the evidence certain actions were proven that might be to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, but if those acts do not agree with the subject matter as charged, namely fraternization or friendliness by visiting Germans and taking refreshments with Germans they have no power to convict on the second alternative charge. That is all.

...../21

Summing up by Judge-Advocate:

It is now my duty to sum up matters of law regarding the two charges here and if you feel it necessary, to review the facts. I do not feel it necessary to review the facts at the moment unless the court express a wish to that effect because the case has been held in a relatively short time and the evidence is, I am sure, fresh in the minds of the court.

The court are the sole judges of all questions of fact so that in the course of my remarks or if throughout the course of this trial I have indicated in any way what opinion I may hold regarding any of the facts which have been produced before you, you should disregard that.

The first charge here against the accused persons is under Sec 41 of the Army Act and is a charge to the effect that the accused persons committed a civil offence, that is to say, robbery with aggravation contrary to Sec 23(1) of the Larceny Act (1916). Now Sec 23(1) of the Larceny Act (1916) deals with the question of robbery, and it is this: If persons who being armed with any offensive weapon, instrument or being together with one other person or more, rob or assault with intent to rob any person shall be guilty of a felony and on conviction thereon liable to penal servitude for life and in addition if a male, to be once privately whipped.

The evidence to support the charge of robbery with aggravation such as we have here is the same as in ordinary cases of robbery with the additional proof that the prisoner at the time of the robbery was armed with an offensive weapon or instrument. The evidence which is necessary to support an ordinary case of robbery is taken from the definition of robbery and that is this: Robbery consists in the felonious and forceable taking from the person of another or in his presence against his will of any money or goods to any value by violence or by putting him in fear. Now if we break that definition down we find the elements of the crime which the prosecution must prove are these. First of all a taking. That is an actual taking either by force or upon delivery. It must be proved that the robbery actually got possession of the goods. The second element, that they must have taken either from the person of the victim or in his presence. You know of the facts here regarding this and you must apply this law to them. They must have been taken against the will of the victim. It must appear in the evidence that the goods were taken against the will of the party robbed. That is that they were here taken from him by force or violence or delivered up by him to the robber under the com ulsion of that degree of fear and apprehension which is necessary to constitute robbery. A necessary element of that offence is that of bodily fear. It must be proved that the victim was actually in bodily fear from the prisoners actions at the time of the robbery or circumstances must be proved from which the court may presume such a degree of apprehension of danger as would induce the victim to part with his property. It is of no importance under what pretence the robber obtains the goods if the victim was actually forced to deliver the goods from actual fear or in circumstances from which the court can presume it. Those are the elements of the offence of robbery.

As stated it is necessary in addition to prove in a charge of this kind that the accused at the time of the robbery were armed with an offensive weapon or instrument.

The court should first of all consider whether or not the elements of this crime have been proved. If so then have the particulars as set out in the charge been proved to your satisfaction.

You may feel, in this case, that both of the accused persons are not involved in these charges to the same extent and are not responsible in the same degree - in other words, that there was a senior and a junior partner. I should point out to you that when a person is responsible for an offence in that: (1) he was present at its commission and aids and abets its commission (2) he combined together with another person or persons for an unlawful purpose or for a lawful purpose to be effected by unlawful means or (3) he committed the offence at the instigation of another, he then, is equally responsible and liable to the same punishment as the principal offender.

Now regarding the second charge the accused are charged in the alternative with conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that they in the field in Germany on the evening of 3 May 45 fraternized with inhabitants of Germany. I believe it is fair to say that non-fraternization means having nothing whatever to do with the German people except the minimum contact required for the execution of military duty. It is possible to outline what are some examples of fraternization and some of these examples are as follows: (a) Shaking hands with Germans; (b) Permitting children to climb into motor vehicles or to congregate in areas around military premises; (c) Associating on familiar terms especially with women; (d) Visiting German houses; (e) Drinking with Germans; (f) Playing games or sports with them; (g) Making or accepting gifts of any sort (even to or from children); (h) Attending German dances, entertainments or other social events; (i) Accompanying Germans on the streets, in theatres, taverns, hotels. Now those are some examples of fraternization and they may be of some assistance to the court in determining whether or not the acts alleged here may properly be regarded as fraternization. Those examples are not exhaustive by any means. I give them to you merely as a guide. They may be of some assistance to you in your deliberations.

Now in order that you be satisfied that the evidence which has been adduced here would warrant a conviction under this charge you should, as the defending officer has pointed out, satisfy yourselves that the conduct here was conduct which amounted both prejudice to good order and prejudice to military discipline. An expression of inhabitants of Germany has been used throughout the course of this trial and I believe it is correct to say that the terms German, German people and inhabitants of Germany now is considered to include all persons living in Germany of their own free will. That is all I have to say regarding those two charges.

There are some general considerations which should concern you and they are applicable to both charges. The first being that of onus of proof. The onus of proof here is on the prosecution and it is not for the accused person or persons to prove their innocence. Throughout all British law there is that ever present principle that the accused is innocent until proved guilty and the onus of that proof is on the prosecution. The prosection must prove its case beyond a reasonable doubt and that reasonable doubt is not such a doubt as would be of a fantastic nature or a fanciful one but an ordinary common-sense doubt say of a business man, one which would cause him to have a doubt in the conduct of his ordinary business affairs. It is a thing of no really satisfactory definition but it could be interpreted to mean that if there is in the mind of the court any doubt of sufficient substance that it would put the court on their guard against reaching a conclusion then that is a reasonable doubt and the accused must be given the benefit of that doubt. Now there is a further point and that is that which I explained in the beginning. You are the sole judge of all facts which have been proved here. Closely associated with this is the question of credibility. You may as you know, accept or reject the evidence of any one witness or group of witnesses in part or in whole. You are entitled to decide whom you wish to believe of these witnesses and furthermore the weight which you wish to attach to the evidence which they have given you. There have been some inconsistencies here and these inconsistencies may have been sufficient as to shake your belief in the stories of these witnesses and that is for you to decide. I do not believe there is any object in my saying anything further regarding the law on these two charges and unless you purposely wish me to review the facts I do not feel it is necessary.

...../23

JA: Mr. President are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the Court?
Pres No sir.

JA: Mr Prosecuting Officer, are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the court?
Pros What is meant by the expression "at the time of the robbery?".
JA: In my summing up I directed the court to a definition of robbery, and that was the definition which was in these words: robbery constitutes in the feoneous and forceable taking from the person of another or in his presence against his will of any money or goods to any value by violence or putting him in fear. Now that is the definition of robbery. The evidence to support a charge of robbery with aggravation is the same as in the ordinary cases of robbery with the additional proof that the accused at the time of the robbery were armed with an offensive weapon or instrument and at the time of the robbery simply means at the time of the commission of the offence.

JA: Mr Defending Officer, are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the Court?
A. No sir.

Plea in mitigation:

Both the accused have been found guilty of the first charge, a civil offence. I have already attempted during the trial to establish that though it is perfectly legal and correct to charge and find a soldier guilty of a civil offence wherever it is committed, I would like the court to consider that in view of the fact that the accused have been found guilty of the civil offence, in the circumstances in which they were committed in the theatre of operations away from normal civilized surroundings, I would like the court to be lenient in the dealing out of the punishment. I press this point very earnestly because the offence of which the accused have been found guilty in civilian life is of a serious nature and as much as the court has power to convict and to give the accused life imprisonment this great latitude is given civil courts because it is felt that it is the duty of the court in determining the punishment to decide whether the accused is an enemy of society or not. In view of the circumstances and in view of the previous convictions it is felt that the accused is an emeny of society then the court is justified in trying to eliminate him from society and giving a maximum sentence of long sentence. But if the court doesn't find that the accused is an enemy of society they are justified in giving a minimum punishment sufficient to do justice and to teach him to be more careful in the future but not such a punishment as to destroy his future chances in life. So much for the civil aspect of the case.

The men charged here are soldiers. In other words when a soldier is charged with a civil offence I don't think the court should view that offence in the same light as they would a civilian. For instance, a civilian who enters a house carrying weapons and commits a robbery leaves a very strong presumption that the man is dangerous but/when soldier who enters a house carrying weapons as is his duty to do so the same presumption against the accused's character does not exist. A soldier in respect to a civil offence is a man who has been uprooted from his normal social surroundings. In the Cdn Army he is a Cdn soldier and of his own free will he has left his family and social circle to come to another country to go into danger and into a world which is in a sort of upheavel. That is a Germany of a few weeks ago. By doing this he has placed himself in a series of circumstances which may not justify his offence but which certainly excuse him and which certainly should be taken into account by the court in awarding a lenient punishment. Apart from a very uprooting of the man from his normal surroundings it is a fact that the stage of the war where these offences were committed was when Germany was in a chaos. It was very difficult for many minds to distinguish between right and wrong. You are permitted to carry weapons, you are permitted and ordered to kill, you are permitted to use violence. They were enemies among the soldiers who opposed to enemies among the civilians by acts of destruction, acts of violence, acts of arson and in many minds it was not quite clear where right stopped and wrong started. These circumstances acting upon the mind of a young soldier are of the nature to make him unconscious of the seriousness of his acts and definitely the acts which were proven against him under those circumstances are not the acts of an inherent criminal and of a danger to society. It is also proved that the men were drunk. Now drunkenness is not an offence but I believe added to the circumstances I have already argued it is a mitigating circumstance and again it supports my contention that the accused should not be regarded by the court as common criminals and as enemies of society. The court is entitled to give the man some punishment because that is the law of the land and because it is necessary for discipline that men be not allowed to break that law and go unpunished, but I submit that the court should be as lenient as possible in both these cases because of the circumstances which I have pleaded. Now I want to make particular reference to Gnr Thorne. He is more or less in the transaction of which the court has found him guilty, I should say, the junior partner. He was there since the trouble started. He would have been wise to leave. He was drunk, he

he was not thinking quite clearly, he stuck around, made some gestures himself, got himself tied up with the principle events and now has been found guilty of it. In this case especially there is sufficient reason for the court to be lenient because in addition to the circumstances which I have pleaded in favour of the accused there is the fact that he was partly concerned with the crime. It is difficult for him to realize that he did steal and did commit a robbery. That is all.

We did not succeed in finding Mr. Olstendorff, who should be in Veehuden to-day. He seems to be arrested by military authorities and brought to a camp in Aurich. An investigation there had no success. We got the information that in Logabierum all men between 18 and 45 years have been arrested and brought to Aurich and from Aurich to another place. Perhaps 613 Mil Gov Det at Aurich can tell you where Olstendorff is.

We suggest you therefore to take up contact with 613 Mil Gov Det in Aurich for further information.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of B44939 Gnr Wilks F.R. and B9933 Gnr Thorne R.W., 45 Bty., 7 Cdn Med Regt RCA., Cdn Army Overseas, charged with:-

(i) Committing a civil offence, that is to say, Robbery with Aggravation, (Contrary to Sec 23 (1) of the Larceny Act 1916. (Sec 41 Army Act)

(ii) Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (Sec 40 Army Act).

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness

Lt H. Goldard, 7 Cdn Med Regt RCA, sworn, states:

Last evening, 3rd May 1945, at about 2130 hrs I was in "Q" Battery Command Post, 7th Cdn Med Regt RCA, when a frightened German male civilian, very much excited and nervous, came in and said that three Canadian soldiers were drunk and causing a disturbance in a house. I proceeded with him, an interpreter, C26232 BSM Maskery H., and C26361 L/S/Sgt McLaren A.H., to the house. When we arrived there we went in. There were a number of German civilians there, about six I would say, all very excited, sitting in a kitchen. Standing in the hall by the kitchen doorway were two soldiers with rifles. I asked them who they were. They said they were from the 7th Cdn Med Regt RCA. They had been drinking. I asked if there were a third or only two of them and they said only two. Through the interpreter a civilian said that there was a third one upstairs. It was the same civilian that had come for us. We, the Sgt-Major, the interpreter, the civilian and myself proceeded upstairs. I tried a door which was locked and I ordered whoever was in there to come out. A man's voice replied "who is that?" I repeated "an officer." He said "wait." I then sent the Sgt-Major with the two men we had found downstairs and all of our party except the interpreter and myself down to Q Battery wagon lines and placed the men under arrest. A civilian downstairs gave me a round of .303 ammunition.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Second witness Herr Olstendorf, LOGARIRIEN, GERMANY, sworn, states:-

On the evening of 3 May 1945 I was visiting the home of Herr Richter. I was in the kitchen when I heard a noise outdoors and someone knocked on the door. Soemone outside demanded us to open the door. Three soldiers entered the kitchen. They said something but the only word I could understand was "Schnapps." One of the soldiers left the kitchen. I heard Frau Busemann call and ask Frau Richter if she had any Schnapps. I later saw the soldiers drinking tea, and one of them helped himself to milk. The two soldiers who were left pointed their rifles at the civilians. They searched the three men. I layed my pocket book on the table and a soldier went through it but did not take anything. The soldiers pointed their rifles at us and called us Nazis. Both soldiers cocked their rifles once or twice and frightened everyone. One soldier locked the door to upstairs then both of them sat near the door which led outside. No one could leave the room. Gerhardt Fisher and myself were forced to keep our hands on top of our heads. We were kept in that position all the time. One of the soldiers stabbed the knife into the table and and then made motions with it across his throat. One soldier went upstairs calling for the one who had left us before but he came back alone. Then the second one went and called him but he still did not come. Frau Fisher left the house through the kitchen door but I do not know where she went. One of the soldiers asked where Frau Fisher had gone but I told him she had gone to the latrine. I got out of the house and went to the house where the officer was to get help. I met a soldier on the road and he directed me to the Command Post. I waited there for a short time and two or three soldiers came with me in a jeep straight to the house. I entered the house behind the officer and saw the same two soldiers still there. I went upstairs with the officer. The door was locked. After the officer had knocked and spoken a soldier opened the door. It was dark on the landing and in the room.

Third Witness Herr J.Fisher, VENEHULZEN, GERMANY, sworn, states;

I came out of my barn on the evening of 3 May 1945 and saw three soldiers hammering on the kitchen door.with rifle butts. They spoke in English and I understood that they wanted the door opened. My wife opened the door. I went through the door leading from the barn into the kitchen and was in the kitchen when the soldiers came in. Immediately after they entered the door the shorter of the two soldiers took my wallet and watch and chain. In the wallet was a wedding ring, one twenty mark note and several ten mark notes. One of the soldiers had gone upstairs almost immediately after entering the house.

The second soldier pointed his rifle at us and spoke but I could not understand the language. They cocked their rifles and two or three rounds fell on the floor. I recognize the two soldiers here as the two in the kitchen. The shorter one (B44939 Gnr Wilks F.R.) is the one who actually took my wallet and watch. We all in the kitchen were very frightened. The two soldiers here demanded Schnapps and wine. The two soldiers drank coffee and milk. They closed and locked the door leading upstairs. My wife left the house and afterwards Herr Olstendorf left also. I next saw Herr Olstendorf when he came with an officer and some men. This watch (Marked Exhibit "A") is mine and is the one the soldier took from me.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Jan Fisher

Herr J. Fisher

The witness was shown three watches one of which was the watch marked "Exhibit "A". He picked out Exhibit "A" and identified it as his own watch, describing it correctly before he saw any of the watches.

Certified that the above testimony was read back to the witness in German and to the accused in English.

Fourth Witness Frau Fisher, VENNEBUSCH, GERMANY, sworn, states:

I was in the kitchen on the evening of 3rd May 1945 when three soldiers knocked on the door. My daughter, Frau Busemann, opened the door. They demanded Schnapps and pointed their rifles at us frightening us all. One of the soldiers went upstairs. The other two soldiers, whom I recognize as the accused pointed their rifles at the other civilians in the room and called them Nazis. I was made to sit with my hands on top of my head. The soldiers locked the door leading upstairs. They drank some tea which I made and also some milk. They kept threatening us until I left and went to the neighbours.

Question: (by B9933 Cnr Thorne R.C.) "Did I not ask you for some eggs?"

Answer: "No."

Question: (by B9933 Cnr Thorne R.C.) "Why does the witness say that she was made to sit with her hands on top of her head?"

Answer: "When we were threatened by the rifle we put our hands on top of our heads. We were ~~not~~ ordered to do so. The soldier showed us how we were to do it.

Fifth Witness M107068 Gnr Ruhl D. 45 Bty., 7 Cdn Med Regt RCA, sworn, states:

On the evening 3 May, 1945, I proceeded with Lt. H. Geldard to a house where a disturbance had been reported. On entering I saw two soldiers with rifles who had upset the people who seemed very scared of the whole thing. We asked the two soldiers where the other soldier was. We were informed that he was upstairs. We proceeded up the stairs. During the conversation when we first entered the house, the old gentleman named Herr Fisher told me that he had been robbed of his watch and wallet (containing a ring and some money.)

Sixth Witness C26232 BSM Maskery H., 12 Bty., 7 Cdn Med Regt RCA, sworn states:

On the evening of 3 May 1945, I proceeded with Lt. H. Geldard to a house where a disturbance had been reported. When we arrived at the house the occupants were all in one room. I walked across the room and opened the door and two soldiers were standing on the other side. I asked them what they were doing there. They replied "I am waiting for my friend upstairs." I asked them what there friend was doing upstairs." I got no reply to that question. I brought them back into the room where the occupants were and accompanied by Lt. H. Geldard and M107068 Gnr Ruhl D., went upstairs. I left the two soldiers in the kitchen. Lt. Geldard tried the door. The door was locked. He then said "Open the door, there is an officer here." I did not hear the reply which was mumbled on the other side. I then told Lt. Geldard I would take the two men in the kitchen to BSM of 9 Bty 7 Cdn Med Regt RCA. This I did. I took the small arms from them and put them under arrest. These men had been drinking. I reported the situation to BSM Jernyn, R.L. In company with BSM Jernyn we went back to the house and there met Lt. Geldard who told me that the man upstairs had got away.

Seventh Witness A31008 BSM Jermyn E.L., 45 Bty., 7 Cdn Med Regt RCA, sworn, states:

Between 2330 and 2359 hrs 3 May 1945, G26232 BSM Maskery, N., came to "A" Bty 7th Cdn Med Regt wagon lines and informed me that he had two of my men under close arrest. He asked me to accompany him to apprehend a third man who was at a farm house a short distance from F Bty 7th Cdn Med Regt Command Post. BSM Maskery handed over B44959 Gnr Wilks F.R., and B9933 Gnr Thorne R.W. and I placed A33152 Gnr Diebel and G3758 Gnr Horsman A.E. as guard over them. I then accompanied BSM Maskery to the farmhouse and upon arriving there we were told by the officer that the man had escaped. The officer told me it was Gnr Craig and that he had got his name and number out of his paybook. I then went to "C" Tp Command Post where the officer on duty called No. 4 Gun to find out if Craig was on his gun. Gnr Craig came to the tannoy and told the officer that he had returned about twenty minutes previously. Gnr Craig was then escorted to the Command Post and placed under Close Arrest. At 1230 hrs 5 May 45 Gnr Diebel informed me that one of the accused had given him some valuables to hold for him. Upon inquiring into the nature of same I had him hand them over to me to be presented as evidence Exhibits "A", "B", and "C" as the articles in question.

Eighth Witness A33152 Gnr Diebel D.A., 45 Bty., 7 Cdn Med Regt, sworn, states:

On the night of 3 May 45, while I was on guard duty at "A" Bty 7th Cdn Med Regt wagon lines, a jeep drove in and we halted it. In it were BSM Maskery, Gnr Thorne and two or three others, and BSM Maskery came out and asked for BSM Jermyn. I took him into the house and called the Sgt-Major. I was then put in charge of Gnr Wilks and Gnr Thorne while the two BSMs went away to a house. I was told to guard the two men. When BSM Jermyn came back he had Sgt Griffiths with him. He then took the two men to C Tp Command Post. I rode in the back of the truck with the two gunners. Just before getting out of the truck Gnr Wilks asked me to keep two watches and a knife for him. I recognize the two watches and knife as the ones he gave me. We took them into the Command Post and turned them over to the officer and Tp BSM. On 4 May 1945 I understood that the accused were being charged with robbery and realized the watches might be evidence so I turned them over to BSM Jermyn. Exhibits A. B. and C are the watches and knife which Gnr Wilks turned over to me.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

D.A. Diebel

Next witness Frau H. Busemann, VERDEN/ALLER, GERMANY, sworn, states:

On the night of 3 May 1945 at about ten thirty p.m. I had closed the house door just about ten minutes before. Three soldiers approached the house and were knocking on the door ordering to open up. As I opened the door they came inside demanding Schnapps and wine. My mother and my father, one brother, one sister, and Herr Olstendorf were in the room when the soldiers came. I went upstairs with one of the soldiers to get Frau Richter because she speaks a little English. I called Frau Richter and she got up. I asked her if she had any Schnaps as the soldiers wanted some. I did not stay with Frau Richter and the soldier. I went straight through the kitchen door into the childrens' bedroom as I was very frightened. I did not stay there but climbed out of the window and jumped to the ground. I stood and looked through the kitchen window for a few minutes. I could hear the soldiers drinking something. I then went into the kitchen. One of the soldiers picked up a bread knife and stabbed it into the table. He then made motions with it across his throat and said something in English which I could not understand. My father told me that he had been robbed by the two soldiers while I was out. One of the soldiers picked up the knife and went out through the door. While he was gone the other soldier pointed his rifle and called us Nazis. He cocked the gun two or three times and two or three rounds fell on the floor. Two of these rounds were picked up and later given to the officer who came to take the men away. The other soldier came back. After this they laid their rifles on the table. They then tried to persuade myself and my sister to go outside with them but we would not go. My mother left the kitchen and went to the neighbours because she was frightened. She did not return and the soldiers asked where she had gone. Herr Olstendorf went to call an officer, after telling the soldiers that my mother had gone to the latrine. They then frightened us again with their rifles and shortly afterwards the officer arrived. The officer came with Herr Olstendorf and some other soldiers.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

Admitted in evidence and marked Ex D E F & G and respectively.(2)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

JA: Do either of the accused feel that their interests are being prejudiced in any way by being tried jointly?
Def: No sir.

JA: You have both elected the same Defending Officer. Do you feel that your interests are in any way prejudiced by having the same Officer defending each of you?

Defending Officer questions the two accused and both wish to have Lieut Geoffrion defend them.

FIRST WITNESS for the Prosecution, Lieut H. Geldard, 7 Cdn Med Regt having been duly sworn, is questioned by the Prosecutor:

Q. You are Lieut H. Geldard of the 7 Cdn Med Regt RCA?
A. That is right.

Q. Do you remember the evening of 3 May last?
A. Yes.

Q. Will you please tell the court what happened that evening touching the matters in question?
A. The evening of 3 May 45 around 2130 hrs I was in "P" Bty Command Post when an excited German civilian came in and with the aid of an interpreter told me that three Canadians were causing a disturbance in a house. I proceeded with him and a small party including BSM Maskery and an interpreter, Gnr Ruhl, and one driver. We proceeded to the house. When we arrived, there was a kitchen in which were a party of German civilians, probably half a dozen, all very excited and nervous. Standing in the door-way leading into a hall were two soldiers with rifles. I went up and asked them who they were and one of them said he was from 7 Medium Regiment. I asked them if there were just two of them or if there was a third one. They said just two but the German civilian who accompanied us said there was a third one upstairs.

Q. Do you recognize these men of whom you speak?
A. Yes. (Indicates the accused). I then proceeded upstairs and when I came down I sent the Sgt-Major with the two men down to "Q" Bty lines and placed them under arrest.

Q. Could you tell if these men had been drinking?
A. Yes, they had been drinking.

Q. In your opinion were they drunk?
A. I would say they were.

Q. When you were in the kitchen were you given anything by anyone?
A. Later on, after we found the third man, I was given a .303 bullet that had not been fired but which they claimed had been ejected from the rifle.

Q. Who gave you this?
A. One of the civilians.

Four civilians were escorted before the court and Lieut Geldard states that either Frau Busemann or Herr Fisher gave him the bullet.

Q. Do you recognize the other two civilians here?
A. No. They may have been there. I will not swear to it.

...../2

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer

Q. How were these two soldiers carrying their rifles?
A. One was slung over the shoulder and the other held his by his side.

Q. Exactly how?
A. Loosely in his hand.

Q. Which one had it slung and which one had it in his hand?
A. I believe Gnr Wilks had it in his hand.

Q. You are not sure which was which?
A. No.

Questioned by the Court:

Q. What time did you go into the house?
A. It was 2130 in the Command Post when the civilian arrived. Later in the house, there was a clock upstairs which stated twelve o'clock. I did not have a watch of my own.

Q. How many civilians were in the room you called the kitchen when you entered?
A. About six.

Q. Among those six, the two you identified today?
A. Yes.

Q. What did you notice in the way of furnishings in that room when you entered?
A. There was a table in the kitchen where they had been eating and they were sitting around at one end of the table. The door where the two men were was right opposite me.

Q. What was on that table?
A. There was food and cups that had been used.

Q. Where were the two accused persons standing when you entered?
A. In the doorway leading to the hall at the foot of the stairs.

Q. Did you see them at the table?
A. No, I did not.

In the opinion of the JA and the Court it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

SECOND WITNESS for the Prosecution, Frau Helena Busemann having been duly sworn, is questioned by the Prosecutor:

Q. What is your name, where do you live and how old are you?
A. Frau Helena Busemann, Veenhuizen, Germany, 27 years old.

Q. Are you a German civilian and inhabitant of Germany?
A. I am.

Q. Do you remember the night of the 3 of May last?
A. Yes, I do.

Q. Start at the beginning telling the court what you remember.
A. On the evening of 3 May 45 approximately half past nine in the evening I heard a knocking on the door and saw three soldiers. I answered "I will open up. I opened the door and the soldiers demanded Schnapps and wine.

Q. Do you see anyone in the room now whom you saw on the night of 3 May?
A. I recognize this soldier (indicates Gnr Thorne).

...../3

Q. Anyone else?
A. I am not sure. I think the second soldier on the left also, but I do not know. (Indicates Lieut Geoffrion).

Q. After the soldiers asked for Schnapps and wine what did they do?
A. I went upstairs to call Frau Richter as she spoke a little English. One of the soldiers came upstairs with me. Frau Richter handed me a bottle of schnapps.

Q. Before you went upstairs did you see where the other two soldiers went?
A. The two soldiers remained downstairs.

Q. After you saw Frau Richter what did you do?
A. I left the room and went to the bedroom of Frau Richter. Frau Richter showed the soldier her children. I remainded in the bedroom. I did not know what to do. I could hear that the soldier did not want to leave the kitchen but I left the room through the window.

Q. Why did you not go downstairs again?
A. I thought I could not pass those two that were making eyes outside and I was afraid and I remained in the room.

Q. How did you get down from the bedroom?
A. I jumped out of the window.

Q. Then what did you do?
A. I went around the house and stood outside of the window leading to the kitchen downstairs and waited for about five minutes. My brother, sister, father and mother were inside of the kitchen.

Q. Could you hear any noise?
A. I could hear people drinking something from cups.

Q. Could you see anything going on through the kitchen window?
A. They were sitting around the table on chairs.

Q. Were there any soldiers in the kitchen?
A. Two soldiers.

Q. What were these soldiers doing?
A. They said "good tea and good coffee" and I went in the kitchen afterwards.

Q. What did you do when you got in the kitcheN?
A. The soldiers looked at me and I sat down.

Q. What was Herr Fisher doing?
A. He was sitting on the chair.

Q. Did the soldiers bring anything into the kitchen with them?
A. They had two rifles.

Q. When you went into the kitchen did you see these rifles?
A. Yes I did.

Q. Where were they?
A. The soldiers had the rifles with them.

Q. Did you see them do anything with the rifles?
A. Yes.

Q. What?
A. They pointed the rifles first at my brother and Herr Olstendorf.

...../4

Q. Did they do anything else?
A. Also my father, and all had to hold their hands over their heads.

Q. Who had their hands above their heads?
A. My brother, Herr Olstendorf, my father and I do not know about my sister.

Q. How were these people holding their hands? Please demonstrate.
A. She places her hands on top of her head.

Q. Did the soldiers do anything else with their rifles?
A. They cocked their rifles several times and a few rounds fell out. Two in the kitchen and one in the small room next to the kitchen.

Q. What were they doing with their rifles when they cocked them?
A. They pointed their rifles.

Q. At whom?
A. At my brother, Herr Olstendorf and my father.

Q. Did they say anything to you?
A. They asked me what was the matter with my eyes and I said "keep quiet".

Q. Did they say anything to anyone else in the room?
A. They spoke all the time but I do not understand English.

Q. Was there anything on the kitchen table at this time?
A. Cups with tea and milk.

Q. Did any of the civilians in the room give the soldiers anything?
A. One soldier demanded the watch of my father.

Q. What did this soldier do?
A. They also demanded the purse from Her Olstendorf and my brother.

Q. What is the name of your father?
A. John Fisher.

Q. What is the name of your sister?
A. Frau Freda Soor.

Q. What is the name of your brother?
A. Gert Fisher.

Q. After the soldier asked for your father's watch did he do anything about it?
A. He took the watch and put it in his pocket.

Q. From whom did the soldier take the watch?
A. My sister took the watch out of my father's vest and handed it over to the soldier.

Q. What else did you see the soldier's do?
A. One of the soldiers picked up the bread knife from the table and made a movement across his throat.

Q. Did the soldiers then do anything else?
A. He stabbed the knife back into the plate.

Q. What did the soldiers do after that?
A. One of the soldiers left the room with the bread knife for up-stairs.

Q. Anything else?
A. The second soldier locked up the door took his rifle again and pointed it against my brother and Herr Olstendorf.

...../5

Q. Which of the soldiers that you identified in this room pointed his rifle?
A. I think this soldier left the room with his rifle (indicates Gnr Thorne).

Q. What did the soldier do after this?
A. The second soldier returned to the room and the first soldier opened the door for him.

Q. Then what did you do?
A. They locked the door again and took a seat in front of the other door leading out the house.

Q. What did they do next?
A. They pointed their rifles again at my brother, Herr Olstendorf and called us Nazis and saying we were SS. They didn't point their rifles at me.

Q. What did you do after that?
A. We all cried and told them not to shoot and they laid their rifles on the table.

Q. What did they do after they put their rifles on the table?
A. They were asking my sister and myself to come outside.

Q. Did you do anything?
A. This soldier (indicates Gnr Thorne) took my sister into the next room but my sister cried and struggled and my mother pulled her back into the kitchen.

Q. Then what did they do?
A. One soldier sat down by my mother near the kitchen door.

Q. Then what did the two soldiers do?
A. One of the soldiers left for upstairs again. They did that several times.

Q. And after that?
A. After that my mother left the house.

Q. And then?
A. One of the soldiers asked for my mother and where she went.

Q. Please tell the court what the soldiers did next?
A. Herr Olstendorf left the room.

Q. What did the soldiers do next?
A. They were excited and were asking where Herr Olstendorf went.

Q. What did they do next?
A. One of the soldiers was playing around with his fountain pen but we did not know what they wanted. I thought he wanted to write something.

Q. Then what?
A. The second soldier left for upstairs again.

Q. Then what did they do?
A. The one soldier which remained pointed his rifle against us again.

Q. Do you know which soldier pointed his rifle?
A. The shortest one.

Q. Then what did the soldiers do?
A. The second soldier came back into the kitchen.

Q. Then?
A. Shortly after this appeared the other soldiers.

...../6

Q. What do you mean by the other soldiers?
A. The helpers, the officer and two or three more.

Q. What did they do?
A. The two soldiers in the kitchen were astonished how these people got there.

Q. Then?
A. We told them our story and handed over the rounds of ammunition which we found on the floor.

Q. What did the two soldiers do then?
A. I do not know what they were speaking or what they did.

Q. Did you see them again?
A. They were standing around for awhile between the kitchen and the hall way door.

Q. And then did you see them do anything?
A. No.

Q. At about what time did the officer and the soldiers arrive?
A. Approximately quarter to one.

Q. How long do you think these soldiers had been in the kitchen?
A. I figure from half past nine until half past twelve.

Q. Did any one else in the room give the soldiers anything else besides a watch?
A. Herr Olstendorf and my brother gave their pocket books but we found them later on again.

Q. You said there were tes cups on the table. Did you see anyone during the evening drink?
A. My sister filled up the cups.

Q. Did anybody drink from the cups?
A. I saw the shortest one drink from the cup and I saw milk on his lips.

Q. Did you see anyone else drink anything or eating?
A. One soldier was eating a little bit of bread but it did not taste good.

Q. Can you point out the soldier who was drinking or eating?
A. I think so (identifies Lieut. Geoffrion).

Cross-examined by the Defence:

Q. Am I the short soldier who pointed a rifle at you?
A. I am not sure. He was the shortest one and I can identify him for sure.

Q. Can you identify the tall one for sure?
A. Yes. I remember his face (indicates Gnr Thorne).

Q. Where were you when the watch was taken from your father?
A. I was sitting beside my sister and my father.

Q. Do you remember an enquiry on this matter?
A. It was approximately the same as what I told the court now.

Q. In that enquiry did you not say "My father told me that he had been robbed by two soldiers while I was out?"
A. Yes, he said that afterwards.

Q. Were you in or out when the robery was committed?
A. I was upstairs. That was in the very beginning.

...../7

Re-examination by the Prosecution:

Q. Were you in the room when your father's watch was taken?
A. Yes.

Q. What room were you in when your father told you that he had been robbed?
A. Also in the kitchen.

Q. Did your father tell you what had been taken from him?
A. Yes.

Questioned by the Court:

Q. How did the soldiers make themselves understood when they asked you what was wrong with your eyes?
A. I indicated that I had something wrong with my heart and that I was sick.

Q. How did you know what they meant?
A. I think the soldier saw that I did not look well and that something must be wrong with me.

Q. Did the soldiers speak in German or English?
A. In English.

Q. Do you understand English?
A. No.

Q. How did you understand what the soldiers were talking about?
A. I could really not understand anything else except the schnapps and coffee. I was just thinking. I think the soldiers thought I looked very bad and sick because I just had jumped out of the window.

Q. Do you remember telling the court that the soldiers noticed something about your eyes? What was that?
A. I said I was sick and I have something wrong with my heart.

Q. Was there anything wrong with your eyes that night?
A. Maybe I looked kind of sick because I am pregnant for four months already.

Q. You have told the court that the pocket books were later found. Were you in the room when the pocket books were found?
A. Yes.

Q. Where were the pocket books found?
A. I found my brother's on the floor and I found Herr Olstendorf's lying on the cupboard in the kitchen.

Q. Was your father's pocket book recovered?
A. No.

Q. Do you stay at the home of John Fisher?
A. Yes.

Q. Are you his daughter?
A. Yes.

The Prosedutor announces that the witness Herr Olstendorf is not available. The defence states that he does not require the production of the witness for cross-examination. The prosecutor states that he has served notice under RP 7[illegible] to the defence that he intends to produce Frau Soor in lieu of Herr Olstendorf. The Defending Officer accepts this and states that he has no objection.

THIRD WITNESS for the Prosecution, Frau Freda Soor, having been duly sworn is questioned by the Prosecutor:

...../8

Q. What is your name and how old are you?
A. Frau Freda Soor, 32 years old.

Q. Are you a daughter of Herr Fisher?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you live in his house?
A. No.

Q. Are you a German civilian and an inhabitant of Germany?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you remember the night of 3 May last?
A. Yes.

Q. Starting at the beginning will you tell the court what you remember about that night?
A. Three soldiers came in the kitchen.

Q. Do you recognize in this room any of the soldiers that came to your kitchen that night?
A. Witness identifies Gnr Thorne and Lieut Geoffrion.

Q. Where were you at this time?
A. In the kitchen of my father's house.

Q. Was there anyone else in the kitchen with you?
A. My father, my mother, my brother, Herr Olstendorf and my sister.

Q. Are Herr Fisher and Frau Fisher your father and mother?
A. Yes.

Q. Is Gert Fisher your brother?
A. Yes.

Q. Is your sister Frau Helena Busemann?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you see the three soldiers come into the room?
A. Yes.

Q. Were these soldiers carrying anything?
A. Two of them had rifles.

Q. What did the soldiers do?
A. First of all they demanded Schnapps.

Q. Then what?
A. And they wanted to shoot us.

Q. Please explain what you mean by that last phrase "they wanted to shoot us."
A. We had no Schnapps and they demanded schnapps or they would shoot.

Q. What did the soldiers do?
A. They were cursing us and threatening us and made us hold our hands above our heads.

Q. Did they do anything with their rifles?
A. They opened their bolts, loaded their rifles, unloaded their rifles and some rounds fell on the floor.

Q. Did they do anything else with their rifles?
A. No they just pointed their rifles at us and it looked like they would shoot at any minute.

Q. At whom did they point the rifles?
A. First at my brother and Herr Olstendorf, my father and also at me.

...../9

Q. How many soldiers threatened you?
A. Two.

Q. What happened to the other of the three soldiers?
A. He went upstairs right away to Frau Richter.

Q. You have said that the soldiers made you put your hands on top of your heads. Who made you do this?
A. My brother, Herr Olstendorf and myself.

Q. Did the soldiers ask for anything else besides Schnapps?
A. Yes, tea and coffee.

Q. Did they get any tea and coffee?
A. Yes.

Q. What did they do with the tea and coffee?
A. They drank the tea and one of them drank milk too.

Q. Did the soldiers ask for anything else besides schnapps, tea and coffee?
A. They asked for the time.

Q. Did they ask for anything else?
A. No.

Q. After the soldiers made you sit with your hands above your heads what did they do then?
A. They opened their bolts, loaded their rifles and aimed at us.

Q. Did the soldiers make anyone in the room do anything?
A. They laid their rifles on the table and indicated with their fingers to come outside. I was already in the next room but my mother pulled me back.

Q. Did the soldiers make you do anything else?
A. No. I could also not understand what they wanted.

Q. Did the soldiers ask your father for anything?
A. Yes. They asked for my father's watch and they were aiming the rifle at me so I took my father's watch out and handed it over to one of the soldiers.

Q. From where did you take your father's watch?
A. From the pocket of a vest which hung on the chair in the kitchen.

Q. Did your father have the vest on at the time?
A. No, he wanted to go to bed.

Q. Did the soldiers ask for anything else from anyone in the room?
A. I do not remember that.

Q. You have said the soldiers pointed their rifles at the persons in the room. Did they threaten you in any other way?
A. No.

Q. Did they ask Herr Olstendorf for anything?
A. For his purse.

Q. Did they ask anybody else for a purse?
A. And my brother too.

Q. What did they do?
A. They searched the pockets.

Q. Did you see either of the soldiers in the room now point their rifles at anyone?
A. I saw the soldiers only one time and the light was not very good, and I am not sure now.

...../10

Q. I produce a watch for identification. Can you identify it?
A. Yes, it is my fathers (Exhibit received in evidence and marked Exhibit "A", for identification only).

Q. After you had given the watch to the soldiers what did they do?
A. They put the watch in their pocket.

Q. And after that?
A. All the things which they had in their pockets they took out and looked them over.

Q. And what did they do with the rest of the time they stayed in the kitchen?
A. They were sitting and also cursing and I don't know any more.

Q. How long did the soldiers stay in the kitchen?
A. Three hours.

Q. Why did the soldiers go?
A. Herr Olstendorf went to get some other soldiers and they took them back to their quarters.

Q. What did the soldiers do with the pocket books which they took from Herr Olstendorf and your brother?
A. There was no money in them and they gave them back.

Q. Was your father sitting in the chair on which his vest was hanging?
A. No I was.

Q. Where was your father at this time?
A. Next to me on a chair.

Q. Why did you give these soldiers your father's watch?
A. They threatened to shoot me.

Cross-examined by Defending Officer:

Q. When the soldiers took your father's watch where was Frau Busemann?
A. In the kitchen and she helped me loosen the chain. We were so excited we didn't know what to do.

Q. Which of the two soldiers asked for the watch?
A. Witness indicates Lieut Geoffrion.

Q. Which of the two soldiers pointed the rifle at you?
A. Witness indicates Lieut Geoffrion.

Q. Which of the two soldiers took the watch?
A. Witness indicates Lieut Geoffrion.

Q. What was the other soldier doing at this time?
A. He went upstairs.

Q. Where was the third soldier?
A. He was always upstairs until the officer and the other men came.

Q. How many soldiers were in the room when your father's watch was taken?
A. I think two. I am not sure about it any more.

Q. You just said the other soldier went upstairs. Will you tell the court whether he was upstairs or downstairs when your father's watch was taken?
A. I can't remember now. It is quite a long time already. I was so excited and afraid and can't remember every detail.

Q. Do you remember whether Frau Busemann was upstairs or downstairs when the watch was taken?
A. She was present and helped me undo the chain from the button whole of the vest.

...../11

Q. At the time your father's watch was taken were there at least two soldiers in the room?
A. I don't remember exactly.

In the opinion of the JA and the Court it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B)

A. The witness identifies Gnr Thorne and Gnr Wilks.

Q. Are these the soldiers that came to your door that evening?
A. Yes, I think the two soldiers were there.

Q. Where did you meet the soldiers first?
A. I came out of the barn which is part of the house and my daughter Frau Busemann went upstairs to Frau Richter.

Q. What was the first thing you saw the soldiers do?
A. The first soldier grabbed in my trouser pocket and pulled out my purse and he also asked for wine and shcnapps.

Q. Which of these men took the pocket book from you?
A. Witness identifies Gnr Wilks.

Q. In what part of the house did this soldier take the pocket book from you?
A. In the wash kitchen. Thatis the small room beside the kitchen.

Q. Was there anyone in the big kitchen at this time?
A. Yes. My wife, Herr Olstendorf, Frau Soor, Frau Busemann and the two soldiers.

Q. At the time the soldiers took the pocket book from you was there any one else with you in the wash room?
A. No civilian people. The two soldiers came one behind the other.

Q. Why did you let the small soldier take your pocket book?
A. I cannot protect myself. I wanted to take it back but they would not give it to me.

...../12

Q. Where did you got after they had taken your pocket book?
A. In the kitchen.

Q. What was the first thing the soldiers did in the kitchen?
A. They demanded Schnapps and wine.

Q. What did they do after that?
A. We did not have any schnapps or wine so they called us all Nazis.

Q. Did they point at anyone?
A. They were pointing their rifles at us.

Q. Did they make any of you do anything then?
A. They made us put our hands over our heads.

Q. What persons were forced to put their hands over their heads?
A. All of us.

Q. Which of these two soldiers pointed their rifles at you?
A. Especially the smallest one of the two (indicates Gnr Wilks).

Q. Did the other one do it also?
A. I am not so sure about the other one. The small one (Gnr Wilks) also locked the door.

Q. After the soldiers asked for Schnapps and wine did they then ask for anything else?
A. They drank milk and coffee which were on the table.

Q. Did they ask for anything else?
A. No.

Q. Can you identify this watch?
A. That is my watch.

Q. Where did you see it last?
A. In the pocket of my vest hanging on the chair.

Q. How did you come to lose it?
A. They demanded the watch and my daughter Frau Soor gave it to them.

Q. When you say "they" who do you mean?
A. The smallest one of the two (Gnr Wilks).

Q. Why did you let them take your watch?
A. I was defenceless. What could I do?

Q. You have said that the soldiers pointed their rifles at you? Did they do anything else with the rifles?
A. They opened the bolt and closed it again and some of the rounds fell on the floor.

Q. After the soldiers had taken your watch what did they do next?
A. The smallest one of the soldiers laid my money purse on the table and looked over what was in it.

Q. What was in your purse?
A. 20 mark note, 5 marks, a ring and also several 10 mark notes but I do not know how many.

Q. What did the soldier do with this purse after he had looked through it?
A. He put it back in his pocket.

Q. Have you ever seen your purse since then?
A. No.

Q. What did the soldiers do the rest of the evening?
A. Herr Olstendorf went to get some help.

...../13

Q. Did Herr Olstendorf come back with anyone?
A. Yes, with an officer.

Q. What did the soldiers do then?
A. They were quiet.

Q. Did they go away?
A. Yes.

Q. How long altogether do you think the two soldiers you pointed out were in the kitchen?
A. From ten o'clock until half past twelve.

Q. At the time your daughter took the watch from your vest did either of the soldiers do anything?
A. No.

No cross-examination by the Defence.

Questioned by the Court:

Q. Why did your daughter give the soldiers the watch?
A. They demanded the watch.

Q. How did they demand the watch?
A. They said "oor, oor".

Q. Is that all they did?
A. I do not know any more.

Q. What did the other soldiers do when the shorter soldier took this watch?
A. He stood in front of the door which is leading to the stairway.

Q. Is this all he did?
A. I don't remember now whether he pointed his rifle or not.

Q. What did he when the shorter fellow was taking the pocket book?
A. He did nothing.

Q. Where was he?
A. They both came through the door and the second soldier followed the shorter soldier who took my watch.

Questioned by the Prosecutor through the Court:

Q. How long was it after the soldiers had pointed their rifles and called you Nazis did the soldier take the watch?
A. It was between ten o'clock and one o'clock.

Questioned by the Defence through the Court:

Q. Was the watch taken before or after the accused had pointed their rifles at you and called you Nazis?
A. They did that several times, pointing their rifles at the people.

Q. Was the first time they pointed their rifles and called you Nazis before or after the watch was taken?
A. It could have been the first time when the soldiers pointed the rifles.

Q. Is it not true that when the watch was handed over to the soldiers they had not yet pointed their weapons at you?
A. I do not know that.

In the opinion of the JA and the Court it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B)

A. Yes.

Q. Who?
A. Two soldiers.

Q. Do you see these two soldiers in this room now?
A. Witness identifies Gnr Thorne.

Q. What did the soldiers do?
A. They wanted us to open up our door.

Q. Then what did they do?
A. They demanded schnapps and wine.

Q. And then?
A. Also tea and milk.

Q. What did they do with the tea and milk?
A. They drank tea and milk.

Q. Where did they drink the tea and milk?
A. In the kitchen.

Q. Were the soldiers carrying anything when they came to your house?
A. They had rifles in the kitchen.

Q. Did they do anything with the rifles in the kitchen?
A. They threatened to shoot us with the rifles.

Q. You have said the soldiers asked for wine, shnapps, tea and coffee. Did they ask for anything else?
A. No.

Q. After the soldiers threatened you did they make you do anything?
A. Not myself but my husband had to sit with his hands above his head.

Q. Do you recognize this watch?
A. Yes.

Q. Whose is it?
A. My husbands.

Q. Do you know how your husband lost it?
A. My husband had the watch in the pocket of his vest hanging on the chair and my daughter Frau Soor took it out and handed it over to the soldier.

Q. Was this before or after the soldiers threatened you with their rifles?
A. They threatened us before and afterwards.

Q. How long did the soldiers stay in the house?
A. From half past nine until half past twelve.

Q. Did you see the soldier whom you identified in this room take the watch or point a rifle at anyone in the room?
A. The soldier on the right pointed his rifle, also the one beside him.

...../15

Q. You have identified one soldier for us. Do you now recognize in the room any one else that you saw on that evening?
A. Recognizes Gnr Wilks and asks the interpreter if that is right.

Q. Was any soldier pointing a rifle at anyone in the room at the time the watch was being taken?
A. I am not sure about pointing the rifles at the same time when the watch of my husband was taken.

Questioned by the Defence:

Q. Did you see with your own eyes the watch being taken?
A. No I could not swear to that.

Q. Did you see the watch being taken?
A. No I did not.

Q. How did you know it had been taken?
A. I did see the soldier take the watch, put it on the table, take it up and lay it on the table again.

Q. Answer yes or no. Is it not true that you found out that the watch had been taken because someone told you?
A. Yes.

Re-examined by the Prosecutor:

Q. Did you see your daughter take the watch from your husband's vest?
A. Yes.

Questioned by the Defending Officer through the Court:

Q. Did you see the watch being handed over to the soldier by your daughter
A. Yes I did see that.

Questioned by the Court:

Q. Did both of the soldiers have rifles?
A. Yes.

Q. Did both of the soldiers point rifles at you?
A. Yes, both of them did.

Q. How many soldiers were in the room downstairs when this was being done?
A. Two.

Q. How was that room lighted?
A. With a little gas lamp.

SIXTH WITNESS for the Prosecution, C.26232 BSM Maskery, N, 7 Cdn Med Regt, having been duly sworn is questioned by the Prosecutor:

Q. You are C.26232 BSM Maskery N of 12 Bty 7 Cdn Med Regt and you were so on 3 and 4 May of this year. Is that correct?
A. Yes.

...../16

Q. On the evening of 3 May will you please tell the court what you did and saw touching the matters in question?
A. On 3 May 45 I went to a house where a disturbance had been reported. I was accompanied by Lieut Geldard and Gnr Ruhl. On arriving at the house all the civilians were in one room. I didn't see any soldiers in that particular room. I walked across the room and opened the door. On the other side of the door were two soldiers.

Q. Can you identify the two soldiers?
A. Yes. Indicates Gnrs Wilks and Thorne.

Q. You had some conversation with these men then what did you do?
A. I went upstairs accompanied by Lieut Geldard and Gnr Ruhl.

Q. What did you do after you went upstairs?
A. I had a conversation with Lieut Geldard and left at that time.

Q. Then what did you do?
A. I took the two accused to BSM Jermyn of "Q" Bty Lines. I put them under arrest before turning them over to him explaining the situation to BSM Jermyn.

Q. Were these man carrying anything when you saw them?
A. They were carrying small arms?

Q. What kind of small arms?
A. Rifles.

No cross-examination by the Defence.

SEVENTH WITNESS for the Prosecution, M.107068 Gnr Ruhl D, 7 Cdn Med Regt RCA having been duly sworn is questioned by the Prosecutor:

Q. You are M.107068 Gnr Ruhl D of the 45 Bty 7 Cdn Med Regt RCA?
A. Yes.

Q. On the evening of the 3 May would you tell the court what you know touching the matters in question.
A. I entered the house with Mr Geldard and we saw two soldiers with rifles. The civilians seemed quite upset and scared of the whole thing.

Q. What room of this house did you go into?
A. It was the kitchen we were in.

Q. Was there anyone else in the kitchen?
A. The civilians were in the kitchen.

Q. About how many?
A. That I couldn't say for sure.

Q. You say you saw two soldiers. Do you see either of those two soldiers in the room at present?
A. I couldn't identify them sir.

Q. Where were these soldiers when you saw them?
A. They were standing in the doorway to an adjoining room from the kitchen.

Q. The officer asked them where the third one was. What did they reply?
A. I don't know whether they said he was upstairs or whether the civilians said that.

...../17

Q. What did you do then?
A. We proceeded upstairs, Mr Geldard and myself.

Q. Was anyone else with you?
A. I think one of the civilians went up. I didn't take notice.

Q. What was the general attitude and demeanour of the civilians in the kitchen?
A. Some of the women were crying. They seemed a little scared.

No cross-examination by the Defence.

In the opinion of the JA and the Court it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

EIGHTH WITNESS for the Prosecution, A.31008 BSM JERMYN, E.L. 7 Cdn Med Regt having been duly sworn is questioned by the Prosecutor:

Q. You are A.31008 BSM JERMYN EL of the 45 Bty 7 Cdn Med Regt?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you remember the 3 of May last?
A. Yes.

Q. Will you tell the court what you remember of the night in question?
A. On the night of 3 May 45 during the hours of 2330 and 2359 Sgt-Maj Maskery came to "Q" Bty lines and informed me two of my men were under arrest. He turned Gnr Wilks and Gnr Thorne over to me and I placed them under the guard of Gnr Diebel and Gnr Horsman.

Q. What happened to the two men then?
A. They were held at "Q" Bty lines while I proceeded with S/M Maskery.

Q. I show you a watch, Exhibit "A", another watch and a knife. Have you ever seen these articles before?
A. I have sir.

Pros: I ask that the watch be identified as Exhibit "B" and the knife as Exhibit "C".

Q. Will you please tell the court when you first saw the articles?
A. On May 5 at 1230 hrs Gnr Diebel came to me with an envelope. It contained the articles known as Exhibit "A","B" and "C".

Q. Can you recognize Gnr Wilks and Gnr Thorne in the room now?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Will you point to them please?
A. Identifies the accused.

No cross-examination by the Defence:
In the opinion of the JA and Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP83B.
NINTH WITNESS for the Prosecution, A.33152 Gnr Diebel, D.A. 7 Cdn Med Regt, having been duly sworn is questioned by the Prosecutor:

Q. You are A.33152 Gnr Diebel D.A. 45 Bty 7 Cdn Med Regt?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember the night of 3 May last?
A. Yes.

Q. Will you please tell the court what you know touching the matters in question?
A. On May 3 while on guard duty I went on patrol. I imagine between 1130 and 12 a jeep came into the yard which we halted. I recognized S/M Maskery's voice. He got out and asked where BSM Jermyn was. I told him he was in bed and he asked me to take him to where he was sleeping. He got the Sgt-Maj up and got these two soldiers in out of the vehicle.

...../18

Q. Who do you mean "these"?
A. Thorne and Wilks.

Q. Can you recognize them?
A. Yes. (indicates accused).

Q. Then what did you do?
A. They talked for a few minutes and then they told me to take these two men into the office and keep them there until they came back. They came back but S/M Maskery was not with S/M Jermyn, but Sgt Griffiths was. We took the 15 cwt and took these two chaps down to C Tps Command Post.

Q. You and these two men were in the back of the 15 cwt?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Anyone else?
A. No sir.

Q. Then what happened?
A. Just as we got down there Gnr Wilks handed me a watch, another watch and a knife.

Q. I show you two watches and a knife which I have here. Have you seen them before?
A. They look very familiar sir. They are like the ones which were given to me.

Q. You are not sure whether they are the exact articles, Can you swear that they are?
A. I wouldn't like to swear to it. I have seen watches like these before but they are identically the same as were handed to me.

Q. And then what did you do?
A. The vehicle had stopped by this time and they were taken into the comd post and handed over to the officer in charge of the comd post at the time.

Q. Subsequently did you do anything with these two watches and a knife that I just showed you?
A. I just kept them. As a result of something I heard I went to contact the Sgt-Major. He was still away but when he came back at 1230 I handed these articles to him.

No cross-examination by the Defence.

In the opinion of the JA and the Court it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The Prosecution is closed.

The Court: Does the Defence plan on making any motion?
Def Offr: No sir.

The court will adjourn until 0930 hrs tomorrow morning.

The court re-opens at 0930 hrs 16 May 45.

Prosecution sums up:

The Prosecution has to prove the following: The feloneous and forcible taking from therperson or in his presence against his will any money or goods of any value by violence or putting him in fear. The Prosecution must prove that. I submit that the Prosecution has proved that in this case. First under feloneous and forcible taking we have evidence that Frau Soor took the watch in question under compulsion. She has said that she was afraid. Frau Fisher, the wife, said that the men played with the watch and passed it back and forth. And while she was not clear what happened to it after that, the watch was later found in the possession of Wilks who handed it to Diebel who gave it to the BSM so that the possession of the watch is proved to have been that of Wilks.

...../19

The wallet containing the ring and money was taken directly from Herr Fisher and he said he saw Wilks put it in his pocket. Second point, from the person in his presence or againsthis will. The wallet was taken from Herr Fisher's pocket ~~from his person~~. The watch was taken in his presence and when asked why he let this go on he said because he was defenceless which I say is against his will. As the offence is robbery with aggravation the carrying of an offensive weapon is required to be proved. The prosecution submits that there is ample evidence of the use of these weapons. Frau Soor and Frau Busemann say they were afraid and that the men threatened to shoot them. Herr Fisher says he was defenceless and powerless. The circumstances of pointing a rifle at people and a forcing of placing their hands above their heads are circumstances calculated to produce fear in reasonable persons. The prosecution submits that the production of fear and the threatening was done prior to the act of taking the wach and the wallet as Herr Fisher has said in both cases that he was defenceless when asked why he handed over the articles, and I submit that the fear and the attitude of mind induced in these people extended from the time of the first threat through the whole transaction so that whether the watch was taken while the rifle was actually pointed at the daughter or at the old man is not material. Points in controversy:(1) Soldiers armed by order: It is a possible argument that these soldiers appeared with small arms on the scene because of an order saying that soldiers will carry small arms. This might be so in another set of circumstances but I submit that the actual offensive use of threats made with these weapons certainly cancel any argument which may be produced in this point. (2) Taking by Frau Soor: The fact that the accused did not take the watch directly from Herr Fisher I submit is immaterial as Frau Soor acting under compulsion is the act of the accused. (3) Credibility: I ask the court to believe, making allowances for age and obvious lack of memory of some of the witnesses, these witnesses. (4) Joint venture: These two accused were together and I submit that the act of one is the act of the other and whoever pointed the rifle and whoever took the watch is not material. They were both in it together and are both jointly responsible.

Fraternization: These men are charged in the alternative with fraternization and if the offence of robbery with aggravation is not proven I ask the court on the facts proved to find these men guilty of the offence of fraternization.

Defence sums up:

The principle thing in question in this trial is the degree of credibility of the civilian witnesses. There are certain very fine points which I intend to illustrate on which points it must be found beyond all reasonable doubt that the accused were guilty. I submit that the witnesses were not convincing enough to remove in the minds of the court all reasonable doubt on these points. First, I shall start with Gnr Wilks. In order to find Wilks guilty of aggravated robbery it must be proved that a robbery was committed and that the robbery was committed by Wilks. Therefore, all the evidence given during the trial which did not specify Wilks clearly can only be at the very best corroboration. It was necessary to prove on the part of Wilks certain threatening acts, threatening acts committed before the wallet and the watch were taken. I submit that threatening actions afterwards are immaterial. It is not even fair to link them up with the preceding transaction in view of the fact that there is evidence that the accused had been drinking. In view of the credibility of the witnesses I submit that itis not proved beyond a reasonable doubt that Wilks did take part in threatening actions against the victim prior to the alleged taking of the watch and wallet. It is proved that Wilks was carrying a weapon. Regardless of the statutory definition I submit that it must be proved that the carrying of the weapon was unlawful. The court can take judicial notice of a fact that it is the duty of a soldier to carry weapons at all times in Germany. The court must make this allowance because this is a case where it would be a miscarriage of justice to apply English civil law to a soldier in Germany. The

...../20

English law was drafted on an assumption that people don't usually go around carrying arms. I submit that the court is within its rights in interpreting the law of England as applied to a soldier in this case.

In the case of Thorne. Should the court find that the robbery with aggravating circumstances or that a simple robbery was committed, it must also find that Thorne here took the objects alleged to have been stolen or helped some other person to do it. It is not the duty of the defence to prove that Thorne took no part, that Thorne did not assist in the robbery. I submit that there is no evidence that Thorne did take part in the robbery. Mere evidence of Thorne's presence in the house is not supplemented by evidence that he did something to aid the other soldier before or during the taking of the valuables alleged to have been stolen. Evidence of Thorne's acts after the robbery or evidence of acts by Thorne which are not definitely situated as before or during and connected with the robbery cannot be used to convict Thorne. There is no evidence of common intent between Thorne and the other soldier. I submit the argument that there is a reasonable doubt of which Thorne must have the benefit. Thorne was carrying a rifle. The fact of being present in the same house at the same time as the other soldier and carrying a rifle, in view of the circumstances I have already pleaded with reference to carrying arms cannot be construed as an act of helping the other soldier.

Certain threatening acts with a rifle are alleged to have taken place by the soldiers or by one of the soldiers as variously stated by the different witnesses. I repeat that it is not proved beyond a reasonable doubt that those threatening actions were made by Thorne before or during the robbery. The civilian witnesses of the Prosecution are vague and uncertain on all these vital points and establish no more than the presence of Thorne in the house up until the time when the wallet was taken. They no more implicate Thorne as an accessory than they do implicate the third soldier mentioned in the evidence who was also in the house at the time of the robbery.

As regards fraternization. I wish to go over the subject matter of the second charge. First, I must remind the court that there is no offence of fraternization. There is only an offence of conduct to the prejudice. It follows that the second charge must be read like this: Conduct to the prejudice in that they first, fraternized with inhabitants of Germany, second, visited and had refreshments with inhabitants of Germany. I don't think that the presence of the two accused in the German house can be qualified as visiting. I am sure that the various alleged actions of drinking tea and coffee cannot be described as having refreshments with Germans. I don't deny that they may have had the refreshments but they had them certainly in spite of and without the German civilians and finally I submit that none of the things that went on during that night can be described as fraternization, or being friendly. The court may find that in the course of the evidence certain actions were proven that might be to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, but if those acts do not agree with the subject matter as charged, namely fraternization or friendliness by visiting Germans and taking refreshments with Germans they have no power to convict on the second alternative charge. That is all.

Summing up by Judge-Advocate:

It is now my duty to sum up matters of law regarding the two charges here and if you feel it necessary, to review the facts. I do not feel it necessary to review the facts at the moment unless the court express a wish to that effect because the case has been held in a relatively short time and the evidence is, I am sure, fresh in the minds of the court.

The court are the sole judges of all questions of fact so that in the course of my remarks or if throughout the course of this trial I have indicated in any way what opinion I may hold regarding any of the facts which have been produced before you, you should disregard that.

The first charge here against the accused persons is under Sec 41 of the Army Act and is a charge to the effect that the accused persons committed a civil offence, that is to say, robbery with aggravation contrary to Sec 23(1) of the Larceny Act (1916). Now Sec 23(1) of the Larceny Act (1916) deals with the question of robbery, and it is this: If persons who being armed with any offensive weapon, instrument or being together with one other person or more, rob or assault with intent to rob any person shall be guilty of a felony and on conviction thereon liable to penal servitude for life and in addition if a male, to be once privately whipped.

The evidence to support the charge of robbery with aggravation such as we have here is the same as in ordinary cases of robbery with the additional proof that the prisoner at the time of the robbery was armed with an offensive weapon or instrument. The evidence which is necessary to support an ordinary case of robbery is taken from the definition of robbery and that is this: Robbery consists in the feloneous and forceable taking from the person of another or in his presence against his will of any money or goods to any value by violence or by putting him in fear. Now if we break that definition down we find the elements of the crime which the prosecution must prove are these. First of all a taking. That is an actual taking either by force or upon delivery. It must be proved that the robbers actually got possession of the goods. The second element, that they must have taken either from the person of the victim or in his presence. You know of the facts here regarding this and you must apply this law to them. They must have been taken against the will of the victim. It must appear in the evidence that the goods were taken against the will of the party robbed. That is that they were here taken from him by force or violence or delivered up by him to the robber under the compulsion of that degree of fear and apprehension which is necessary to constitute robbery. A necessary element of that offence is that of bodily fear. It must be proved that the victim was actually in bodily fear from the prisoners actions at the time of the robbery or circumstances must be proved from which the court may presume such a degree of apprehension of danger as would induce the victim to part with his property. It is of no importance under what pretence the robber obtains the goods if the victim was actually forced to deliver the goods from actual fear or in circumstances from which the court can presume it. Those are the elements of the offence of robbery.

As stated it is necessary, in addition, to prove in a charge of this kind that the accused at the time of the robbery were armed with an offensive weapon or instrument.

The court should first of all consider whether or not the elements of this crime have been proved. If so then have the particulars as set out in the charge been proved to your satisfaction.

You may feel, in this case, that both of the accused persons are not involved in these charges to the same extent and are not responsible in the same degree - in other words, that there was a senior and a junior partner. I should point out to you that when a person is responsible for an offence in that: (1) he was present at its commission and aids and abets its commission (2) he combined together with another person or persons for an unlawful purpose or for a lawful purpose to be effected by unlawful means or (3) he committed the offence at the instigation of another, he then, is equally responsible and liable to the same punishment as the principal offender.

Now regarding the second charge the accused are charged in the alternative with conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that they in the field in Germany on the evening of 3 May 45 fraternized with inhabitants of Germany. I believe it is fair to say that non-fraternization means having nothing whatever to do with the German people except the minimum contact required for the execution of military duty. It is possible to outline what are some examples of fraternization and some of these examples are as follows: (a) Shaking hands with Germans; (b) Permitting children to climb into motor vehicles or to congregate in areas around military premises; (c) Associating on familiar terms especially with women; (d) Visiting German houses; (e) Drinking with Germans; (f) Playing games or sports with them; (g) Making or accepting gifts of any sort (even to or from children); (h) Attending German dances, entertainments or other social events; (i) Accompanying Germans on the streets, in theatres, taverns, hotels. Now those are some examples of fraternization and they may be of some assistance to the court in determining whether or not the acts alleged here may properly be regarded as fraternization. Those examples are not exhaustive by any means. I give them to you merely as a guide. They may be of some assistance to you in your deliberations.

Now in order that you be satisfied that the evidence which has been adduced here would warrant a conviction under this charge you should, as the defending officer has pointed out, satisfy yourselves that the conduct here was conduct which amounted both to prejudice of good order and prejudice to military discipline. An expression of inhabitants of Germany has been used throughout the course of this trial and I believe it is correct to say that the terms Germans, German people and inhabitants of Germany now is considered to include all persons living in Germany of their own free will. That is all I have to say regarding those two charges.

There are some general considerations which should concern you and they are applicable to both charges. The first being that of onus of proof. The onus of proof here is on the prosecution and it is not for the accused person or persons to prove their innocence. Throughout all British law there is that ever present principle that the accused is innocent until proved guilty and the onus of that proof is on the prosecution. The prosection must prove its case beyond a reasonable doubt and that reasonable doubt is not such a doubt as would be of a fantastic nature or a fanciful one but an ordinary common-sense doubt say of a business man, one which would cause him to have a doubt in the conduct of his ordinary business affairs. It is a thing of no really satisfactory definition but it could be interpreted to mean that if there is in the mind of the court any doubt of sufficient substance that it would put the court on their guard against reaching a conclusion then that is a reasonable doubt and the accused must be given the benefit of that doubt. Now there is a further point and that is that which I explained in the beginning. You are the sole judge of all facts which have been proved here. Closely associated with this is the question of credibility. You may as you know, accept or reject the evidence of any one witness or group of witnesses in part or in whole. You are entitled to decide whom you wish to believe of those witnesses and furthermore the weight which you wish to attach to the evidence which they have given you. There have been some inconsistencies here and those inconsistencies may have been sufficient as to shake your belief in the stories of these witnesses and that is for you to decide. I do not believe there is any object in my saying anything further regarding the law on these two charges and unless you purposely wish me to review the facts I do not feel it is necessary.

...../23

JA: Mr. President are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the Court?
Pres No sir.

JA: Mr Prosecuting Officer, are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the court?
Pros What is meant by the expression "at the time of the robbery?".
JA: In my summing up I directed the court to a definition of robbery, and that was the definition which was in these words: robbery constitutes in the feoneous and forceable taking from the person of another or in his presence against his will of any money or goods to any value by violence or putting him in fear. Now that is the definition of robbery. The evidence to support a charge of robbery with aggravation is the same as in the ordinary cases of robbery with the additional proof that the accused at the time of the robbery were armed with an offensive weapon or instrument and at the time of the robbery simply means at the time of the commission of the offence.

JA: Mr Defending Officer, are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the Court?
A. No sir.

Plea in mitigation:

Both the accused have been found guilty of the first charge, a civil offence. I have already attempted during the trial to establish that though it is perfectly legal and correct to charge and find a soldier guilty of a civil offence wherever it is committed, I would like the court to consider that in view of the fact that the accused have been found guilty of the civil offence, in the circumstances in which they were committed in the theatre of operations away from normal civilized surroundings, I would like the court to be lenient in the dealing out of the punishment. I press this point very earnestly because the offence of which the accused have been found guilty in civilian life is of a serious nature and as much as the court has power to convict and to give the accused life imprisonment this great latitude is given civil courts because it is felt that it is the duty of the court in determining the punishment to decide whether the accused is an enemy of society or not. In view of the circumstances and in view of the previous convictions it is felt that the accused is an emeny of society then the court is justified in trying to eliminate him from society and giving a maximum sentence or long sentence. But if the court doesn't find that the accused is an enemy of society they are justified in giving a minimum punishment sufficient to do justice and to teach him to be more careful in the future but not such a punishment as to destroy his future chances in life. So much for the civil aspect of the case.

The men charged here are soldiers. In other words when a soldier is charged with a civil offence I don't think the court should view that offence in the same light as they would a civilian. For instance, a civilian who enters a house carrying weapons and commits a robbery leaves a very strong presumption that the man is dangerous but when a soldier who enters a house carrying weapons as is his duty to do so the same presumption against the accused's character does not exist. A soldier in respect to a civil offence is a man who has been uprooted from his normal social surroundings. In the Cdn Army he is a Cdn soldier and of his own free will he has left his family and social circle to come to another country to go into danger and into a world which is in a sort of upheavel. That is a Germany of a few weeks ago. By doing this he has placed himself in a series of circumstances which may not justify his offence but which certainly excuse him and which certainly should be taken into account by the court in awarding a lenient punishment. Apart from a very uprooting of the man from his normal surroundings it is a fact that the stage of the war where these offences were committed was when Germany was in a chaos. It was very difficult for many minds to distinguish between right and wrong. You are permitted to carry weapons, you are permitted and ordered to kill, you are permitted to use violence. They were enemies among the soldiers who opposed to enemies among the civilians by acts of destruction, acts of violence, acts of arson and in many minds it was not quite clear where right stopped and wrong started. These circumstances acting upon the mind of a young soldier are of the nature to make him unconscious of the seriousness of his acts and definitely the acts which were proven against him under those circumstances are not the acts of an innerent criminal and of a danger to society. It is also proved that the men were drunk. Now drunkenness is not an offence but I believe added to the circumstances I have already argued it is a mitigating circumstance and again it supports my contention that the accused should not be regarded by the court as common criminals and as enemies of society. The court is entitled to give the man some punishment because that is the law of the land and because it is necessary for discipline that men be not allowed to break that law and go unpunished, but I submit that the court should be as lenient as possible in both these cases because of the circumstances which I have pleaded. Now I want to make particular reference to Gnr Thorne. He is more or less in the transaction of which the court has found him guilty, I should say, the junior partner. He was there since the trouble started. He would have been wise to leave. He was drunk, he he was not thinking quite clearly, he stuck around, made some gestures himself, got himself tied up with the principle events and now has been found guilty of it. In this case especially there is sufficient reason for the court to be lenient because in addition to the circumstances which I have pleaded in favour of the accused there is the fact that he was partly concerned with the crime. It is difficult for him to realize that he did steal and did commit a robbery. That is all.

...../25

Sir,

We did not succeed in finding Mr. Olstendorff, who should be in Veenhuden to-day. He seems to be arrested by military authorities and brought to a camp in Aurich. An investigation there had no success. We got the information that in Logabierum all men between 18 and 45 years have been arrested and brought to Aurich and from Aurich to another place. Perhaps 613 Mil.Gov.Det. at Aurich can tell you where Olstendorff is.
We suggest you therefore to take up contact with 613 Mil.Gov.Det. in Aurich for further information.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of B44939 Gnr Wilks F.R. and B9933 Gnr Thorne R.W., 45 Bty., 7 Cdn Med Regt RCA., Cdn Army Overseas, charged with:-

(i) Committing a civil offence, that is to say, Robbery with Aggravation, (Contrary to Sec 23 (1) of the Larceney Act 1916. (Sec 41 Army Act)

(ii) Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (Sec 40 Army Act).

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness

Lt H. Geldard, 7 Cdn Med Regt RCA, sworn, states:

Last evening, 3rd May 1945, at about 2130 hrs I was in "P" Battery Command Post, 7th Cdn Med Regt RCA, when a frightened German male civilian, very much excited and nervous, came in and said that three Canadian soldiers were drunk and causing a disturbance in a house. I proceeded with him, an interpreter, C26232 BSM Maskery N., and C26351 L/Sgt McLaren A.H., to the house. When we arrived there we went in. There were a number of German civilians there, about six I would say, all very excited, sitting in a kitchen. Standing in the hall by the kitchen doorway were two soldiers with rifles. I asked them who they were. They said they were from the 7th Cdn Med Regt RCA. They had been drinking. I asked if there were a third or only two of them and they said only two. Through the interpreter a civilian said that there was a third one upstairs. It was the same civilian that had come for us. We, the Sgt-Major, the interpreter, the civilian and myself proceeded upstairs. I tried a door which was locked and I ordered whoever was in there to come out. A man's voice replied "Who is that?" I repeated "An officer." He said "Wait." I then sent the Sgt-Major with the two men we had found downstairs and all of our party except the interpreter and myself down to Q Battery wagon lines and placed the men under arrest. A civilian downstairs gave me a round of .303 ammunition.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Second Witness Herr Olstendorf, LOGARITHM, GERMANY, sworn, states:-

On the evening of 3 May 1945 I was visiting the home of Herr Richter. I was in the kitchen when I heard a noise outdoors and someone knocked on the door. Someone outside demanded us to open the door. Three soldiers entered the kitchen. They said something but the only word I could understand was "Schnapps." One of the soldiers left the kitchen. I heard Frau Busemann call and ask Frau Richter if she had any Schnapps. I later saw the soldiers drinking tea, and one of them helped himself to milk. The two soldiers who were left pointed their rifles at the civilians. They searched the three men. I layed my pocket book on the table and a soldier went through it but did not take anything. The soldiers pointed their rifles at us and called us Nazis. Both soldiers cocked their rifles once or twice and frightened everyone. One soldier locked the door to upstairs then both of them sat near the door which led outside. No one could leave the room. Gerhardt Fisher and myself were forced to keep our hands on top of our heads. We were kept in that position all the time. One of the soldiers stabbed the knife into the table and and then made motions with it across his throat. One soldier went upstairs calling for the one who had left us before but he came back alone. Then the second one went and called him but he still did not come. Frau Fisher left the house through the kitchen door but I do not know where she went. One of the soldiers asked where Frau Fisher had gone but I told him she had gone to the latrine. I got out of the house and went to the house where the officer was to get help. I met a soldier on the road and he directed me to the Command Post. I waited there for a short time and two or three soldiers came with me in a jeep straight to the house. I entered the house behind the officer and saw the same two soldiers still there. I went upstairs with the officer. The door was locked. After the officer had knocked and spoken a soldier opened the door. It was dark on the landing and in the room.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

(F.S. Williams) Capt RCA.

Third Witness Herr J.Fisher, VEENHUIZEN, GERMANY, sworn, states;

I came out of my barn on the evening of 3 May 1945 and saw three soldiers hammering on the kitchen door,with rifle butts. They spoke in English and I understood that they wanted the door opened. My wife opened the door. I went through the door leading from the barn into the kitchen and was in the kitchen when the soldiers came in. Immediately after they entered the door the shorter of the two soldiers took my wallet and watch and chain. In the wallet was a wedding ring, one twenty mark note and several ten mark notes. One of the soldiers had gone upstairs almost immediately after entering the house.

The second soldier pointed his rifle at us and spoke but I could not understand the language. They cocked their rifles and two or three rounds fell on the floor. I recognize the two soldiers here as the two in the kitchen. The shorter one (B44939 Gnr Wilks F.A.) is the one who actually took my wallet and watch. We all in the kitchen were very frightened. The two soldiers here demanded Schnapps and wine. The two soldiers drank coffee and milk. They closed and locked the door leading upstairs. My wife left the house and afterwards Herr Olstendorf left also. I next saw Herr Olstendorf when he came with an officer and some men. This watch (Marked Exhibit "A") is mine and is the one the soldier took from me.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Herr J. Fisher

The witness was shown three watches one of which was the watch marked "Exhibit "A". He picked out Exhibit "A" and identified it as his own watch, describing it correctly before he saw any of the watches.

Certified that the above testimony was read back to the witness in German and to the accused in English.

(F.G.Williams) Capt RCA

Fourth Witness Frau Fisher, VENHUIZEN, GERMANY, sworn, states;

I was in the kitchen on the evening of 3rd May 1945 when three soldiers knocked on the door. My daughter, Frau Busemann, opened the door. They demanded Schnapps and pointed their rifles at us frightening us all. One of the soldiers went upstairs. The other two soldiers, whom I recognize as the accused pointed their rifles at the other civilians in the room and called them Nazis. I was made to sit with my hands on top of my head. The soldiers locked the door leading upstairs. They drank some tea which I made and also some milk. They kept threatening us until I left and went to the neighbours.

Question: (by B9933 Gnr Thorne R.A.) "Did I not ask you for some eggs?"

Answer: "No."

Question: (by B9933 Gnr Thorne R.A.) "Why does the witness say that she was made to sit with her hands on top of her head?"

Answer: "When we were threatened by the rifle we put our hands on top of our heads. We were [redacted] ordered to do so." The soldier showed us how we were to do it.

Anna Elsa Fisher

Frau Fisher

Certified that the above testimony was read back to the witness in German and to the accused in English.

F.G. Williams

(F.G. Williams) Capt RCA

Fifth Witness M107068 Gnr Ruhl D. 45 Bty., 7 Cdn Med Regt RCA, sworn, states:

On the evening 3 May, 1945, I proceeded with Lt. H. Geldard to a house where a disturbance had been reported. On entering I saw two soldiers with rifles who had upset the people who seemed very scared of the whole thing. We asked the two soldiers where the other soldier was. We were informed that he was upstairs. We proceeded up the stairs. During the conversation when we first entered the house, the old gentleman named Herr Fisher told me that he had been robbed of his watch and wallet (containing a ring and some money.)

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Sixth Witness C26232 BSM Maskery N., 12 Bty., 7 Cdn Med Regt RCA, sworn states:

On the evening of 3 May 1945, I proceeded with Lt. H. Geldard to a house where a disturbance had been reported. When we arrived at the house the occupants were all in one room. I walked across the room and opened the door and two soldiers were standing on the other side. I asked them what they were doing there. They replied "I am waiting for my friend upstairs." I asked them what there friend was doing upstairs." I got no reply to that question. I brought them back into the room where the occupants were and accompanied by Lt. H. Geldard and M107068 Gnr Ruhl D., went upstairs. I left the two soldiers in the kitchen. Lt. Geldard tried the door. The door was locked. He then said "Open the Door, there is an officer here." I did not hear the reply which was mumbled on the other side. I then told Lt. Geldard I would take the two men in the kitchen to BSM of Q Bty 7 Cdn Med Regt RCA. This I did. I took the small arms from them and put them under arrest. These men had been drinking. I reported the situation to BSM Jermyn, E.L. In company with BSM Jermyn we went back to the house and there met Lt. Geldard who told me that the man upstairs had got away.

Seventh Witness A31008 BSM Jermyn E.L., 45 Bty., 7 Cdn Med Regt RCA, sworn, states:

Between 2330 and 2359 hrs 3 May 1945, C26232 BSM Meskery, R., came to 4 Bty 7th Cdn Med Regt wagon lines and informed me that he had two of my men under close arrest. He asked me to accompany him to apprehend a third man who was at a farm house a short distance from F Bty 7th Cdn Med Regt Command Post. BSM Meskery handed over B44939 Gnr Wilks F.A., and B9933 Gnr Thorne R.A. and I placed A33152 Gnr Diebel and 43758 Gnr Horsman A.L. as guard over them. I then accompanied BSM Meskery to the farmhouse and upon arriving there we were told by the officer that the man had escaped. The officer told me it was Gnr Craig and that he had got his name and number out of his paybook. I then went to "C" Tp Command Post where the officer on duty called No. 4 Gun to find out if Craig was on his gun. Gnr Craig came to the tannoy and told the officer that he had returned about twenty minutes previously. Gnr Craig was then escorted to the Command Post and placed under Close Arrest. At 1230 hrs 5 May 45 Gnr Diebel informed me that one of the accused had given him some valuables to hold for him. Upon inquiring into the nature of same I had him hand them over to me to be presented as evidence Exhibits "A", "B", and "C" as the articles in question.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Eighth Witness A33152 Gnr Diebel D.A., 45 Bty., 7 Cdn Med Regt, sworn, states:

On the night of 3 May 45, while I was on guard duty at 4 Bty 7th Cdn Med Regt wagon lines, a Jeep drove in and we halted it. In it were BSM Meskery, Gnr Thorne and two or three others, and BSM Meskery came out and asked for BSM Jermyn. I took him into the house and called the Sgt-Major. I was then put in charge of Gnr Wilks and Gnr Thorne while the two BSMs went away to a house. I was told to guard the two men. When BSM Jermyn came back he had Sgt Griffiths with him. We then took the two men to C Tp Command Post. I rode in the back of the truck with the two gunners. Just before getting out of the truck Gnr Wilks asked me to keep two watches and a knife for him. I recognize the two watches and knife as the ones he gave me. We took them into the Command Post and turned them over to the officer and Tp BSM. On 4 May 1945 I understood that the accused were being charged with robbery and realized the watches might be evidence so I turned them over to BSM Jermyn. Exhibits A, B and C are the watches and knife which Gnr Wilks turned over to me.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Ninth Witness Frau H. Busemann, VERDEUZEN, GERMANY, sworn, states:

On the night of 3 May 1945 at about ten thirty p.m. I had closed the house door just about ten minutes before. Three soldiers approached the house and were knocking on the door ordering to open up. As I opened the door they came inside demanding Schnapps and wine. My mother and my father, one brother, one sister, and Herr Olstendorf were in the room when the soldiers came. I went upstairs with one of the soldiers to get Frau Richter because she speaks a little English. I called Frau Richter and she got up. I asked her if she had any Schnapps as the soldiers wanted some. I did not stay with Frau Richter and the soldier. I went straight through the kitchen door into the childrens' bedroom as I was very frightened. I did not stay there but climbed out of the window and jumped to the ground. I stood and looked through the kitchen window for a few minutes. I could hear the soldiers drinking something. I then went into the kitchen. One of the soldiers picked up a bread knife and stabbed it into the table. He then made motions with it across his throat and said something in English which I could not understand. My father told me that he had been robbed by the two soldiers while I was out. One of the soldiers picked up the knife and went out through the door. While he was gone the other soldier pointed his rifle and called us Nazis. He cocked the gun two or three times and two or three rounds fell on the floor. Two of these rounds were picked up and later given to the officer who came to take the men away. The other soldier came back. After this they laid their rifles on the table. They then tried to persuade myself and my sister to go outside with them but we would not go. My mother left the kitchen and went to the neighbours because she was frightened. She did not return and the soldiers asked where she had gone. Herr Olstendorf went to call an officer, telling the soldiers that my mother had gone to the latrine. They then frightened us again with their rifles and shortly afterwards the officer arrived. The officer came with Herr Olstendorf and some other soldiers.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Prosecution

First Witness

D-127131 Pte Markey, R. N. - sworn states

On 22 May 43 I was riding in back of lorry when it turned over. There were 6 men and 6-10 lb stores + cooking equipment piled high in the front of the lorry there was room for the 6 men to sit.

Cross. examination.

I am in charge of the stores that were loaded in the lorry. They were piled high towards the front of the lorry so the men could sit in the back.

I have driven with the accused before but have not seen him drive carelessly or recklessly.

Questions by the Court.

The stores were for 6-10 lb stores for one platoon. We had been riding in the lorry from 17.30 to 1030 hrs.

Pte Thorne whom I recognise was driving. I was in charge of the vehicles. It was not usual to carry 6-10 lb stores and personnel in the vehicle. Only the cook Pte Kwiea usually travelled in it. There wasn't enough room in other vehicles so the men were in the back of the vehicle

I would say the speed was something around 15 or 20 m.p.h. It happened so fast I couldn't say for sure whether or not I felt the brakes being put on before the vehicle turned over. I gave Thorne instructions to drive slowly and be careful. There were five vehicles in the convoy counting the "jeep". #1 was the last vehicle. The road was hard surfaced, and dry. I don't know how wide the road was The spare driver was Pte Brierley. The accident happened on a curve. Traffic was light.

R.P. 43(B) complied with.

Second Witness

A-103082 L/Cpl Adams, H. W. sworn states.

On 22 May 43 at about 1030 I was riding behind the lorry - about 20 feet. As it made the bend the lorry seemed to straighten out and headed towards the bank on the right hand side of the big way. It was a left hand turn. The off front wheel hit the bank and the lorry rolled over. The front of the cab hitting the bank after lorry turned upside down and for a moment the four wheels were in the air, then it fell down again on the right side.

I went over to the vehicle and helped to get the men out.

There was a long slope down then a sharp rise then a left turn coming up the hill you couldn't notice the turn. I was over taking Thorne in the lorry. my speed was about 20 m.p.h. I couldn't see the curve but saw the lorry take the curve.

Cross examination

The curve was quite sharp - about the shape of a hockey stick. On the right hand side there is a grassy slope - sloping up - a built up bank.

The road was slanting towards the right side of the road. The lorry was making the turn and then straightened out. It looked as if there was something in front of him and he was cutting away from it. I cannot say whether or not the lorry was slowing down for the curve. There was a stone wall on the left hand side of the road as you come to the curve.

I saw Thorne driving quite a lot on the others. I did not see him driving recklessly at any time.

Questioned by the Court

I was riding a Harley-Davidson M.C. in second gear. The road surface was tar and stone. I wouldn't swear I was overtaking the vehicle quickly. I did not notice the vehicle was slowing down for the curve. The vehicle CL-19035-O was an old one. I was overtaking it. I did not notice him slow down for the curve. I did not notice him slowing down after he started to take the curve and straightened out. I did not examine the vehicle after the accident. The instructions given that morning were to go 15 miles in the hour. Mr Connelly was leading the convoy in a jeep. Thorne's vehicle was the 4th vehicle. But it had slowed down and been passed. Coming to the curve it was the last vehicle in the convoy. about a mile before the accident it had slowed down. He appeared to be having trouble with it. R.P. § 3(B) complied with.

Third Witness

M - 30923 Dvr Lewis, L.J. sworn. states

On 22 May 43 on convoy I was a D.R. I was riding in behind Dvr Thorne's lorry, about 20 feet behind it. ~~we had gone down a long slope and up a steep one~~. We came down a fairly steep slope and started up a rade where there is a left hand curve. The next thing I saw was the truck raised on two wheels going around the turn. When he straightened the wheels he struck the grassy slope on the right hand side of the road. When the front wheels hit the grassy slope the two wheels that were on the ground slipped out from under the truck and the truck turned completely upside down then fell back on the right side.

I slipped. Cpl. Adams told me to go on and stop the convoy which I did.

I was travelling about 20 m.p.h. and gaining on the lorry just before we got to the curve.

Cross-examination

The road sloped away from the curve of the road. The curve is right on the face of the hill. There wasn't much room for me on the M.C.

the time right hand wheels were on the ground as it was making the curve. He straightened the wheels and let the grassy slope.

Just as he made the curve and was straightening out [redacted] I was going about 20 m.p.h. He could be going about 15 - 17 m.p.h. [redacted] because I was opening on bias.

Questioned by the Court

I was in second gear. The hill was fairly steep. After the accident the last wheels of the convoy was 3/4 to 1/2 mile ahead of Thomas vehicle.

The curve was prilly sharpe. I would say about 60°. There was room enough on the road for two lorrys to pass. I did not see any traffic sign indicating a curve.

R. P. 83 (B) complied with.

Fourth Witness

Capt. de Vismes, F. C sworn states.

On 2 June 43 I proceeded to Kendal to secure information as to the injuries sustained by personnel riding in truck C.L. 196350 and from there to a point approx 6 miles north of Kendal on the Kendal-Tebay Road to view the spot at which the truck was involved in an accident.

The road was measured and found to be 25 feet wide. On the bend the road measured 28 feet. Coming South to the scene of the accident the road came down a long quite steep hill across a small bridge then up another small hill at the top of which it made a sharp turn to the left.

On the left hand side of the road proceeding South previous to the culvert and extending up to within 25 feet of the left hand turn there was a stone wall approx. 3½ feet high. There was then an open space with no hedge or stone fence for about 25 feet at the beginning of the curve. About a third of the way around the turn there was a hedge about 5 feet high.

On the right hand side of the road approx. 30 feet past the culvert there was a stone fence about 3½ feet high which went all the way around the curve and further along the highway.

On the right hand side going south the stone fence was set back approx 4 feet from the paved portion of the highway and was about 3 feet above the highway and there was a grassy slope from the base of the fence to the paved portion of the highway at an angle of about 45°.

On the down grade previous to passing over the culvert the turn to the left was visible but after passing over the culvert and coming up the other small hill the turn was obscured by the hedge.

On the down slope previous to coming to the culvert there was a road sign on the left hand side of the road indicating a left turn - the ordinary "L" road sign.

After returning from Kendal I went to Bordon. I am not quite sure what date, to 4 Aslt Wksp C.B.O.D. and received C.L. 196350 which had been evacuated direct from the scene of the accident.

I estimate the damage the cost of repairs to the vehicle at £80.-0-0. The vehicle frame was twisted. The cab damaged. The whole front of the vehicle had been shoved back on the motor. The steering badly damaged. The body superstructure and tarpaulin was also badly damaged.

I am the workshop officer of 2 Coy No A C.

Cross-examination

It is a 1939-40 Ford. 3 ton unit a wooden body.

In the turn of the road the fall of the road is to the right at the exact spot of the accident just around the turn there was only the fall from the crown of the road.

The camp is at the top of the rise and there is a gap in the hedge immediately before ~~upon~~ the turn on the left hand side.

I cannot tell whether the store fence was hit by our lorry.

If the lorry was loaded so the weight was on the right hand side there was certainly a good chance of it upsetting.

Questioned by the Court

It was a very old vehicle. I think it still had the old big steering gear in it. The tyres were in good condition.

The turn is very close to a 90° turn.

I would not call it a bad corner because the road itself was quite wide.

R.P. § 3 (B) complied with.

The Prosecution is closed

First witness for defence

D-1270 60 PC Thorne, S.D.H. sworn states.

I came to Eng. on 9 Oct 42. I had not driven a military vehicle in Canada before coming overseas. Most of my time in Eng land I was employed as a clerk. I had done about 400-500 miles of driving but was employed most of my time as a clerk. I had no previous accidents.

On morning in question I was second last vehicle in the convoy. The vehicle was not in what I consider very good shape On approaching the first hill it began to show signs of stopping. I shifted to my lowest gear. I had fallen out of the convoy. I came down the hill immediately before the scene of the accident in second gear. I came around the corner in third gear and was proceeding in third gear when I suddenly came to the curve. I started to make the corner and felt the vehicle leaning to the right side which I thought was caused by a flat tyre or something like that. I eased my vehicle to the right to straighten it out with the hope of controlling the body of the vehicle. At the same time I felt a jar on the steering wheel and realized that the right front wheel had struck onto the grass mound on the right hand side of the road. Before I could get my vehicle straightened out on the road. The wheel climbed for about two feet and dropped back onto the road. At the same time the long bonnet right over onto the cab, fell back and rested on the right side. It did not strike the stone wall nor did it ~~strike~~ for any obstacle at all along the road after falling onto the side.

I immediately jumped out and ran to the rear of the lorry to discover what had become of the occupants. I found they were all covered with the equipment. At the same time L/Cpl Adams came on the scene and helped me to take the injured fellows from the equipment.

I could not tell my exact speed but it would not be more than 15 or 16 m.p.h. I was in third gear. I was not trying to catch the convoy it would have been hopeless to because I was having trouble with my vehicle.

No. cross-examination.

Questioned by the Court

Coming down the hill in the distance I could see the tail of the convoy make a curve but going up the hill I could not see where the curve was. I was told to drive at 60 yds distance and the convoy was to cover 15 miles in an hour.

R.P. § 3 (B) complied with.

Second witness for defence

Lt. G. G. Pomery. sworn states.

I have known the accused since he was taken on strength of the unit. At the time of the accident I was his platoon officer and had been for some time. The accused ~~was~~ had always discharged his duties in a competent and conscientious manner and was a good type of soldier. He had at one time been my batman-driver and though no fault of his own was posted to other duties in the platoon. While not a qualified driver he was careful and competent.

No cross examination.

R.P. § 3 (B) complied with

Third witness for defence

B-9262 S/Sgt. M. Bentley, 2 A sworn, states

On 22 May 43 I was with A' Plan on Species "Wheels" at 0730 hrs. we left the vehicle park in convoy. I was riding with P/O Thorne in his vehicle. at 0900 hrs he stopped. I then went up to the 5 cwt. and continued the convoy with the 5 cwt. While I rode with P/O Thorne I found him a very careful driver and not at all reckless.

I have known the man since last January and found him a very capable and good soldier.

No cross-examination

R.P. § 3(B) complied with.

Closing Address of Prosecuting Officer

Evidence has been given as to the nature of the road and that there was a road sign showing a left turn. The accident happened in daylight. The road surface was dry. Two witnesses stated their speeds following the lorry.

Closing Address by Defending Officer

The witnesses have told you of the lack of experience of the driver. They have certified to his carefulness in driving which is borne out by his record of having no other accidents before or since. The witnesses have certified to the lorry being loaded in a top heavy manner, that the screws at the scene of the accident was marked the wrong way and that this fact was marked by the driver of an approaching vehicle by the slope of the hill. They have certified that he was not speeding. This is borne out by the fact that he was travelling in third gear and that when he struck a slope 3 feet high and on an angle of 45° his momentum was not sufficient to carry the lorry onto the stone wall at the top of the slope. I maintain that the accident was caused by a combination of the aforementioned circumstances which were beyond the accused's control and no evidence of negligence on the part of the accused has been shown by the prosecution. It is a matter beyond our knowledge whether an experienced driver could have made the same turn.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate no summing up is necessary.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF

No D-127080 Pte Thorne, Samuel, Oliver Koyle, 2 Motor Ambulance Convoy, RCASC, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

D-12067 Pte. Brisebois, J.O. 81 Cdn Arty. Coy. RCASC. a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:

Sir, on Saturday morning, 22 May 1943, I was the spare driver of lorry CL 196580, when it was in an accident at 1030 hours, on the highway from Tebay to Kendal, Westmoreland County. At the time of the accident I must have been dozing, due to the heat of the cab and the fact that I had been driving a lot during the week previous to the accident, because I do not remember anything at all previous to the time the vehicle gave a lurch when it ran off the road the vehicle upset.

Question 1 How long have you been riding in the lorry

Answer 1 About half an hour, previous to that Sgt. Bentley was riding in it.

The accused declined to cross question this witness.

J.O. Brisebois
(J.O. Brisebois. Pte.

SECOND WITNESS for the prosecution

D-127131 Pte Markey, Earnest Norbert, 2 M.A.C., RCASC, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

Sir, I was riding in the back of the lorry driven by Pte Thorne when it turned over on the 22nd May 1943. When it turned over, the equipment piled on top of me. It happened without warning, so I have no idea as to how the accident occurred or as to how fast the lorry was travelling.

Question 1 How many men were in the back of the lorry?

Answer 1 Six.

Question 2 What was the lorry loaded with and how was it loaded?

Answer 2 Platoon stores and kitchen equipment. The front part of the lorry was loaded almost to the roof, there was room in the rear part of the lorry for the men to sit.

Question by Accused: Did you at any time notice me driving in a careless manner?

Answer On the previous day, I was riding in the front of the lorry with Pte Thorne and he drove carefully.

THIRD WITNESS for the prosecution — A-103082 L/Cpl Adams, Kenneth William, 2 M.A.C., RCASC, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

Sir, On the 22nd May 1943, I was a Despatch Rider on a convoy proceeding from Tobay to Kendal. I was riding immediately behind Pte Lewis, also a Despatch Rider, who was riding about 20 feet in the rear of the lorry CL-196350. At approximately 1030 hours, I was going up a slope towards a left hand turn. I was overtaking CL-196350 and my speed was not over 20 miles per hour. I noticed that CL-196350 had started to make the turn then it straightened out, went across and off the highway. The front right wheel hit the grassy upward slope rising off the side of the road, and the back end of the vehicle lifted into the air. The vehicle then rolled over on its top, smashing the top, all four wheels in the air. The vehicle then settled on its right side. I immediately stopped my machine and ran to the lorry to give help in getting the men out of the back of the lorry. I then dispatched Pte Lewis to proceed ahead and stop the convoy. When I arrived at the lorry to try to get the men out, they were buried underneath the stores and equipment inside the lorry, only two legs were visible.

Question by accused: Did you notice me driving carelessly at any time?

Answer: No.

FOURTH WITNESS for the prosecution — M-30923 Pte Lewis, Leroy Goldsby, 2 M.A.C., RCASC, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

Sir, On Saturday morning 22nd May 1943, I was a Despatch Rider on a convoy proceeding South from Tobay to Kendal. At about 1030 hours I was riding about 20 feet behind the lorry CL-196350 which was being driven by Pte Thorne. I was catching up to the lorry and my speed was about 20 miles per hour. When coming up a grade towards a left turn, I noticed that the vehicle was tipping to the right, the front and rear near side wheels being off the ground. The vehicle went over to the off side of the road and when the front right wheel hit the grassy slope off the highway the vehicle turned completely over, hitting on the cab with all four wheels in the air. The vehicle then fell back on its right side. I immediately stopped my motorcycle and went to the truck to see if any of the men in the truck had been hurt. L/Cpl Adams then told me to stop the convoy and this I did.

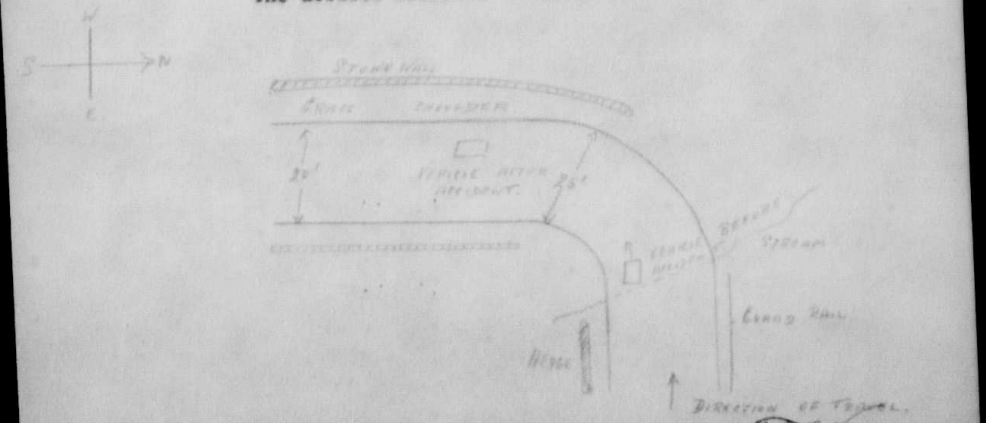
Question by accused: Did you notice me driving carelessly at any time?

Answer: No.

Signature of Witness L.G. Lewis
(M-30923 Pte Lewis, L.G.

FIFTH WITNESS for the prosecution

Capt DeVenne, Frank Cremen, 2 M.A.C., RCASC, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:



On 2nd June 1943, I proceeded to the scene of the accident on the Tobay to Kendal highway about six miles North of Kendal. The road at that point was 25 feet wide but at the turn it was slightly wider, about 28 feet. The road from Tobay was down grade, crossed a culvert, then there was a rise immediately before the left turn near which the accident occurred. There was a hedge on the left hand side of the road but this hedge came to an end just before the actual turn. On the turn itself, there was nothing, just beyond the turn there was a stone wall about 3½ feet high. The right hand side of the road from just before the culvert continuing around the turn was bounded by a stone wall about 3½ feet high, set back from the dege of the road about 4 feet with a grass shoulder sloping upwards from the edge of the road to the base of the wall at an angle of 45 degrees. A portion of of the stone wall on the right hand side of the road had been knocked down.
I viewed the vehicle CL-196350 at No 4 Sub Depot, 1 CBOD at Bordon, Hants to which place it had been evacuated, and estimated the cost of repairs to be approximately £80-0-0.

Question 1 On the down grade was the turn visible?
Answer 1 Yes.

Question 2 On the up grade immediately before the turn was the turn visible?
Answer 2 On the up grade the turn was obscured to a certain extent by the hedge.

Question 3 Was the turn indicated by a road sign?
Answer 3 On the down grade approximately 100 yards before the turn there was a sign indicating a left turn.

The accused declined to question this witness.

Signature of Witness F. C. DeVenne
(Capt F.C. DeVenne)

The accused was warned as follows:

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence."

The accused:

I have nothing to say at this time.

I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence consisting of 4 pages was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused, and that Rules of Procedure 4(c),(d),(e),(f) and (g) have been complied with.
