E3. accused through interpreter, states he wishes to make a statement on oath. Sworn on ~~Testament~~ Catholic Cross. Which he states is his oath and binding on him.

Last year I went absent because I had a letter from my wife that she was getting no money, had no money and that she & our 2 children were all starving. When I was in detention the Paymaster asked me if I was going to the guard Room & I said I wanted if my wife and children got the allowances. The P.M. at Detention Barks told me not to worry about them as the money wanted now be sent them. After 4 Months I received ~~him~~ a letter from my wife that she was not getting any allowances and a letter from my Mother too. She did get £4 back allowances for my children but nothing for herself and I don't Know if the childrens allowance was continued. I am worried about this and my family. I was a seaman in the Merchant Navy for 10½ years. went to Canada in 1939 and joined a Maltese Colony near Toronto. Worked on C.P.R Section Gang until I enlisted in 1941. I cannot read or write or speak English and when I enlisted the officer could not understand me nor my wifes address which I tried to give. I was asked if I was separated from my wife, which I took to mean was she with me in Canada and, I said yes as she was in Malta. When I was at Rea and working for C.P.R I sent her money by post. When I got into detention I showed letters from my people that my wife was not getting any money to the Major at No 2 Pioneer Coy. he took me to the Paymaster at No 2 Pioneer Coy and the P.M. said "don't worry its all been fixed and your wife is getting all her allowances". after 3 months I had another letter from my wife that she still was not getting any money and the children and she were suffering. I was then attached to H.Q. I.C.B.O.D and went to the Colonel adjt and showed them the letter, they sent me to the P.M who told me to wait and see if my wife was getting the money. But I had waited for 3 years for these allowances and my wife and children were starving, so I told the adjt I was going absent and I went to try and get a job to send money to my wife. I could not get a job as I had no papers and got into trouble with the Police.

I cannot speak English very well. it is hard to understand. I have been to all the offices on the Canal where I have been to try and get a transfer to the Allied Forces or the Merchant Navy, and I have signed papers and been promised a transfer. A major whose name I don't know in 2 Cable at North Camp said I wanted be sent back to the Merchant Navy. She took and kept all my Merchant Navy papers. After ten weeks I was sent to Pioneer Coy ~~[illegible]~~ My only trouble is my wife and children are starving and the allowances which were promised have not been paid. My Merchant Navy papers have not been returned to me and after the war I must have them to get a job.

Read over (R.P. 83B)

Defending Officer.

I have endeavoured to find the accused papers but they seem to have been lost. R.T.O. are looking into the matter. Lieut Lobley the asst adjt has told me this. I understand there is a big file which indicates that this man has been trying to get these allowances for a long time. I have not been able to find this file. I ask the Court for consideration as the accused only went absent because he could not get money for his wife any other way.

On Dec 2nd I was guard commander of the guard at Talavera B'ks. The accused was a member of the guard. He was posted to 1 of 2 posts at the main entrance. No one was actually posted at the main gate. The two posts beat covered a distance of about 400 yds. It would take a man at least 15 minutes for a beat & entry. To cover this beat & return. I produce a copy of the orders of the guard Commander which is posted on guard room order board. I was read to accused before he was posted for duty. The accused was really doing the duty of Two men.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans.....(5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

1st Wit Pros] Lt F.M. Shaw, 16 Bty, 4 A/T Regt, duly sworn, states:-
Recognise accd as Sgt R.S. Tooley — was Sp Sgt & Sp — on morning 17 Feb detailed accd + Gnr Bryan to assemble Sp stores in Bldg at Wk. after 2 proceeded our of guns + at 1000 hrs — at approx 2 stopped at bldg to see how work progressing — as a result of info I examined room where accident occurred + then to ADS. at ADS (objected to on grounds of irrelevancy — allowed)
Cross-exam — nil
Court — nil

2nd Wit Pros] L/18241 Gnr Garden D.C. 1st Bty 16 Bty 4 A/T Regt duly sworn, states:-
Belong to Sp. Am Gnr.
Approx 0730 hrs 14 Feb was in sleeping quarters helping Sgt Tooley + Gnr Bryan — worked a while then broke off for smoke downstairs — got into conversation by about needing wood — later there were some 36 grenades on the floor — accd was in room when accd just broke off + was present as far as I know. We got talking about + wondering what one of these grenades would do. It was suggested throwing one into barrel. We were in bldg + deciding where to throw it. I made a run for door + as I & Gnr Tayler we had better get out — went around bldg to a mound + walked thru the murdow. all of sudden a flash — I ran around to door + saw Sgt T rubbing eyes — I called for Tayler + he went for MO Bryan still in there.
In room don't recall any remark between Bryan + self — I went in room on SE corner of bldg. We were together, walked into room, looked around. I was in center of room + Bryan beside me. Gnr Tayler + I think Sgt Tooley at door. Sgt T 10 ft from Gnr Bryan — Sgt T did not say anything Sgt T about 6 ft from Gnr B
From mound could see Gnr B in room until grenade in nt hnd. after explosion in room couldn't see much for smoke — just saw Gnr B on floor.
In discussion Gnr B used words to effect "let's try one" when discussing effects of grenade Cross-exam:- Couldn't be sure if Sgt T present when accd in conversation between Gnr B + self in room saw Sgt T walking away from door + rubbing eyes re-exam — nil
Court — I was on mound only few seconds before the flash. when looked it can't say which way Sgt T facing. Don't remember what Sgt T did when Tayler I left or were leaving.
when on mound couldn't see Sgt T. door to room was around corner from mound.

3rd wit Pros 3] M 3369 Gnr Taylor, C.S. 4 A/T Regt, duly sworn, states:- "J" Dp. On 14 Feb after breakfast went to SE corner of bldg & in room & saw Gnr Bigan, Sgt Tooley (just inside door). I asked what going on & Gnr B replied they were going to throw grenade in barrel & see what happened. I was approx 8' from B & about 2' from Sgt T when I asked this - I heard Gnr B's reply. Sgt T closer to me than B Believe Sgt T facing both. Sgt did not attempt to interfere that I saw.

Cross-exam. I moved around corner of bldg - Sgt T didn't come - he remained as far as I know.

Re-exam. nil

Court Matter of minute or so between leaving room & explosion.

After explosion I followed Gnr G to door. He Gnr G was coming out, someone said "my God his arm is off". I went par amb.

Did not see grenade in B's hand or anyone laying around.

4th wit Pros 4] Capt D.W. McCullough, 24 Fd Amb RCAMC, duly sworn, stated:-

(Def suggested that witness's evidence not relevant. Pros states that as expert his evidence will show that a grenade actually exploded. - Court closed - Court re-opened & advised that as witness can give expert opinion as to cause of any wounds he examined the pros may proceed. -)

Duly qualified MO - In past month have had good many number (250) battle casualties - as well as several in past 3 yrs resulting from mortar, small arms & grenades. Could be certain of small arms caused wounds - grenade at close quarters also definite type of wound as - grenade practically always causes multiplicity of penetrating wounds, not clean & due & vary in size - Can distinguish grenade

Cross-exam on expert qualifications: Mortar wound may be several but wounds larger & not same multiplicity, never get the small penetrating perforations scattered so profusely.

In HE get various degrees of fragmentation but no. of wounds not so great & if close immediately fatal. Never seen shell wound such multiplicity from grenade.

Not identify cause of each & every battle cas. - between mortar & shell wounds difficult & almost impossible.

Not an expert in civilian use of term - Difficult between small arms, mortar & HE - sometimes grenade

Re-exam:- No difficulty re grenade at close quarters - difficulty in grenades to form a distance.

Court closed to consider whether witness' evidence acceptable as expert on cause of wounds. Decide he is - Court re-opened & decision announced.

On 14 Feb on duty at ADS - Had admitted a man from Bty. Was badly wounded, suffering from multiple wounds consisted of multiple small penetrating wounds of abdomen, evisceration of L testicle. Traumatic amputation rt hnd + several forgas left hnd. Had large wound in rt leg + very small penetrating wounds back legs + back arms.

Wounds caused by a grenade, in my opinion, at close quarters.
Identified by tag as Gnr Bryan.
Cross exam: - nil
Court: - don't believe anyone told me what had happened to him prior to seeing him.
Pros^n closed

Pros:- no closing address.
Def off in closing:- Facts short but certain points that bear careful scrutiny. Sgt T charged with permitting improper use of grenade. No evidence of express permission - on ? of possible implied permission have evidence of Gardner Taylor Conversation between G + B in store room as to possible effect not necessarily in accds presence - G doesn't know if T there - If T not there evidence is not admissible. If court think T was there, still nothing to show T heard conversation so no evidence of implied permission. No evidence as to events in room leave T somewhere outside room.
Gnr Taylor saw Gnr Bryan + Sgt T in room Sgt between him + B. Taylor spoke to Bryan + received reply - no evidence what Sgt T was doing - he might have been talking to someone else. Taylor then makes out + in his opinion Sgt T remained at door.
Actions of reasonable man to take shelter - Sgt T at door + def. submit + that his act is against any theory of granting permission
No evidence of express + innumerable doubts on implied permission — accd entitled to acquittals.

Jd sums up:- Offences sec 40 offence; burden on pros^n; credibility of witnesses; "Reasonable doubt"; RP 44; circumstantial evidence + rules.

Def off in mitigation Court closed ref request permission + recall Lt Shaw, 1st witness, to give character evidence — Lt Shaw, still on oath, states Sgt T is my Sp Sgt - have been Sp Sgt since Nov 43 - Sgt T is 22 yrs old - Has been Sgt since Sept 42 - Very efficient Sp Sgt - hard worker handles men well - have confidence nothing against his work as Sp Sgt. He has definitely the confidence of his Sp Sgts.
Cross-exam: Previous to Nov 43 had known him short time - had not served him - greater part of time since Nov. was in training
Re-exam: Remaining part of time in action
Def off:- Unfortunate case. Sgt T 22 yrs old but has been a Sgt for 1½ yrs + has been a Sp Sgt in 19th Bty for almost a year. Sp off states he has confidence of Sgt both in action + out. Accident + Gnr B + consequences no physical punishment to Sgt T in form of reduction in the interests of the service.

Sgt has already suffered. Urge court when considering sentence to bear these facts in mind. He is capable, young, has considerable amount of drive & so far as accident it is just one of those unfortunate things which occur in slight lapse in ones control - wants unfortunate.

Punishment has little purpose if it does not correct some bad practice & in this case a lenient attitude would in no degree affect his efficiency as a Sqdn Sgt.

The accused was present in the room when this fact was reprted to me by Capt. McCullough. I then viewed the body which I identified as that of K83531 Gnr. Bryan, E.W."

"In the field on the 14 Feb 44 at approx 0545 hrs I returned to "J" Tp wagon lines where "J" Tp stores are located. Bryan replied 'We are going to throw grenade at a barrel and see what happens! The accused was present a distance of approx eight feet when he made this statement. Bryan, E.W., and to the best of my knowledge the accused, and myself went into "J" Tp sleeping quarters for a smoke. While there I suggested that wood was needed for the fire in our sleeping quarters. On the floor in the room used as our sleeping quarters were some No 36M hand grenades in a cigarette carton. Gnr. Bryan and I discussed the effect of a No 36M grenade. I said, ' I wonder what a No. 36 grenade would do if it exploded in a barrel'. I do not recall whether or not the accused was present in the room when I made this remark. Gnr. Breyan replied, ' let's try one and see what happens'. Gnr. Brayn then picked up a No. 36M hand grenade and went to a room on the South East corner ground floor of the bldg. I went with Gnr. Bryan to this room. While standing in the room I saw Gnr. Taylor, C.S. and the accused standing at the door-way. I said to Gnr. Taylor, ' Let's get out of here and not block the door-way'. I immediately left the room accompanied by Gnr. Taylor. I proceeded around the corner of the bldg to a small mound of earth from which I could see through a window into the room in which Gnr. Bryan was standing. From this mound I saw Gnr. Brayn standing in the room with the grenade still in his hand. Suddenly there was a flash of light in the room with Gnr. Brayn accompanied by a large noise after which the room filled with black smoke. I immediately returned to the room and saw the accused standing just outside the door-way. I found that Gnr. Bryan was lying on the floor but I could not see the grenade.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

FOURTH WITNESS

Capt D.W.McCullough 94 Fd Amb RCAMC stationed at A D S having been duly sworn states:-

"In the field on 14 Feb 44 at about 0915 hrs K63571 Gnr Bryan E.W. was brought to the A D S where I was present. He was conscious but in a very critical condition. There was no interrogation of the patient. He was suffering from a number of small penetrating wounds of the abdomen, evisceration of the right testicle, traumatic amputation of the right hand and several fingers of the left hand. There was one large wound of the right leg. Therewere numerous small penetrating wounds of arms and legs. He was given an immediate transfusion with plasma but his condition deteriorated and he died at 1070 hrs. I believe the cause of death to be due to shock, caused by small multiple wounds of the abdomen and loss of blood from multiple wounds

The accused declinse to cross-examine this witness.

Question by President to the accused – "Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness" – answer – No Sir:

Defending officer calls witness

2nd witness – Lt P Mc Murdo RCASC, tpt offr 1 Cdn. Corps HQ – makes ~~the following~~ a statement to the following effect:–

I am responsible for all tpt used at Cdn Corps HQ and the accused is under my jurisdiction. Standing Orders state that the driver of any car must take keys out of the car when returning to the car park for the night. Normally the keys are given to an NCO in charge. In this instance no one was present at the park to receive the keys when Pte TOOMEY returned to GRAVETYE park at 1830 hrs on the 16th March. All staff cars under my charge have not got keys and ~~the same~~ one car is not necessarily always driven by the same driver. Normally 4 staff cars use the GRAVETYE park and on this particular night Pte Hunter who has been delegated by L-Cpl Hanning ~~to~~ collect keys and supervise was on leave and no one else was delegated to take his place.

Statement made by Defending Officer to the effect that he did not consider the accused was guilty of the charge but merely forgetful.
Statement made by Prosecutor to the effect that the accused was aware of the order that he should remove keys from car and knowing that there was no one present to take care of the car in his absence should have made a point of taking precautions to safeguard the car.

Court Closed for Consideration of Finding

Character Witness called by defence -
Major Norman Coll - assistant to DA PC(P) who stated he knows the accused for many months & that he has always to his knowledge behaved in an exemplary manner and that many officers for the whom the accused has worked have spoken of the accused highly.

Prosecutor submitted following documents:-
Copy of MFM 6

Finding & Special Sentence - Guilty - but the court do not consider that any greater punishment than one days detention is warranted. The accused having already spent ~~three~~ the period between 16 Mar/42 and 15 Apr/42 under close arrest. The accused has a good past record and it is not considered to be in the interests of the service to award any greater sentence.

CASE OF

E-1 A-115119 Private TOROK, D.D., 7 CITR

The accused, sworn, states:-

Well, Sir, I have been on the loose because six months' punishment was too much for me and another thing, I was not getting enough to eat for the amount of work I was given. I was eating in the cook-house, getting the same as the rest but that was not enough for the amount and type of work I was doing. I was working night and day piling stones on a two-wheel cart and pushing it along; I was also given dirty jobs like digging holes which included working on Sundays too. Another thing, I had to sleep in the guard-room with only two blankets and was cold all night. I asked for a chance to take a shower or a bath after work and I was refused by Cpl Clark, RP in the guard-house. I had to complain to the Orderly Offr every time before I could get my shower. I went away and I was sorry the first day I left. I was going around from one place to another and finally decided to come back on my own and I did so sober and properly dressed. I'd like to be a good soldier but I got into so much trouble. About the six months, I didn't like to be locked up like that. I always came back on my own when I was on the "loose" except one time in Brighton when I was on my way back.

PRES OF THE CT TO PROS OFFR

I ordered him to stop and he just walked out. Before I had put my trousers up, he was gone. I looked around but could not see him. I went and reported his escape to L/Cpl E.L. STATEMENT IN MITIGATION. E-3

This man volunteered in July 1941 for service with the Navy, and was instructed to return at a later date. But a short time later, in August of 1941, he received his call to the army. In Sept. of the same year, at his own request, he was paraded to the Naval recruiting station at London, Ont., but heard nothing more. Again in Oct. he was paraded, still nothing. He was then placed on general duties in the Sgts. mess, on which job he was kept until Aug. 1944. Throughout this period he persistantly tried to transfer to the Navy, but made no headway. At that time, deciding that further effort was useless, he volunteered for Active Service. He then retook his Basic and Advanced Training, in which he was interested, and did quite well. He is, in fact a Marksman with both the rifle and L.M.G. He then proceeded overseas and was posted to 14 C.I.T.B.

On the night of the 14th. March he proceeded on pass to Worthing, by train. But on attempting to return to camp by Recreational transport, he was told that only those who had come down by it could return. He then attempted to return to camp on foot, but became lost and decided to stay in town. For this he received what he considered a very heavy and unreasonable sentence. This, coupled with the belief that his brother was in the near district, lead him to commit this act. Finding no trace of his brother, he decided to return, complete his training and join his brother, whom he now believes to be overseas. This man's record, filled with good good intentions, seems to show that his few troubles have been caused by poor judgement and memory.

I ask the Court's indulgence on passing sentence.

Plea in Mitigation by Defending Officer

v. B. 51675 Pte [redacted] Torrance, C.A.

Sir:

By the statement of the accused, wherein he told you of his being a stow-away on board a troop ship bound for England, the Court will be impressed by the fact that the accused is not lacking in the fighting spirit. On the contrary his action shows that he wanted to be in the thick of things. This is more emphasized by the fact that at that time Britain was suffering dark days of dreaded invasion. The accused is a trained member of the Carrier platoon, where he has driven and maintained vehicles for over a year. Suddenly on 15 minutes notice he is ordered to pack up and report to C.B.R.D. There he is put to work for 10 days digging in a garbage pile. I ask the Court to appreciate the state of this man's mind during those 10 days. This man who has a desire to fight and who is trained as a driver, is put to work on the incinerator for such a long period of time. He is separated from his friends in the field. There is only one outcome namely, the lowering of morale and a consequent mental depression, [redacted] which induced the accused to go A.W.L. I ask the Court to sympathize with the accused and to grant the accused clemency.

Statement in Mitigation

Re: Pte Torrance, G.A., B. 78867.

Sir: I

I am 23 years old. I joined the army on May 17, 1940. While in Canada I was with the Irish Regiment. I wanted to go overseas very badly. So at Halifax Harbour I unlawfully boarded a troop ship bound for England. After having passed Newfoundland I gave myself up to the Sergeant of the Guard and I was remanded by the Colonel under close arrest until the ship reached England on October 14, 1941. At Aldershot I was charged before a Court Martial and was given 60 days which was nearly all remitted. On or about June 3rd, 1943, I was transferred from the field unit the Black Watch to C.B.R.D on 15 minutes notice. I was for one year previous to this transfer driver in the Carrier platoon as driver of Carriers, Motorcycles and transport. At C.B.R.D. I was given the unpleasant duty of working in the incinerator where garbage was sorted for salvage and the remainder burned. I did not like this at all, because I was trained as a driver. I became very fed up with the course which things were taking. The next day after I got off duty at the incinerator I went A.W.L. and after 26 days I surrendered myself to the Military Police at Manchester.

D.S. Tappin Lieut
Officer detailed to take the summary

The accused, Pte Torrance, enlisted with the 1st Bn the Black Watch in August 1940. Since enlistment - nigh on 3 years - this soldiers conduct sheet contains

His record of conduct, therefore, is good - in fact very good. Why then did he commit an offence which has brought him before this Court martial? The answer is threefold. Firstly, thoughtlessness. He did not realise the very serious offence he had committed until it was too late. I offer no excuse, on his behalf. He should have thought about the consequences before committing the offence. However, he didn't, and therefore must take the consequences. Punishment that this Court considers necessary to prevent future offences of this nature. The second part of the answer is this: the accused joined the Bn to fight. In the summer of 1941 he was operated upon for varicose veins in his left leg. In July 1942 he had further operation for the same trouble on the same leg. May I impress upon this Court, the worry that would naturally result to any soldier, when after two operations for the same ailment he still was not able to march any long distance - especially when that soldier is in the Infantry. As often happens like a good soldier is not able to march he is given some sort of work that he is able to do. The accused was made a cook's helper. He was acting in this capacity when he absented himself. I hope the Court will appreciate the accused's feelings in trying to readjust himself from an infantry soldier to a cooks' helper. ~~He can't understand~~ May the Court also consider the period of close arrest the accused has already undergone. 11 days

Character witness

B.52745 CSM Davies, C.F., 4 CCD, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am acquainted with the accused and have known him in my field unit. I have known Pte Torrance for three months. While Pte Torrance was in my Company, Black watch - "D" Coy, and during the three months he was with me, we found him very efficient. Any job he had to do he carried it out well. On one occasion, I remember, Pte Torrance ran out while under fire and bandaged up two men who were wounded. One of the men is in this camp, but had it not been for Pte Torrance he would not be here. Pte Torrance left the unit on 9th October and I am sure that the OC of the Battalion would be glad to get him back as soon as possible - he is a very good man.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to apply with RP 83(B).

PLEA OF MITIGATION

Pte. Torrance, Robert, H 82775

May it please the court:

Pte. Torrance, who has served three and a half months in action in France, Belgium, and Holland from the 6th July 44 until 8th October 44 when he was returned to England wounded, was a day late in returning from sick leave.

He was still suffering from shock and his wound was open and, not feeling well, he did not report back at the time his leave was up but left it until the next day. He failed, however, to notify an M.O. and was charged with A.W.L. for which he was awarded a 10 day stoppage of pay and 10 days confinement to barracks.

He was late on a defaulters call and was immediately charged again and awarded 7 days stoppage of pay and 14 days C[illegible]

This man, still suffering from the mental letdown and the shock of a battle casualty recovering from the experiences endured in battle, felt that he was being dealt with very harshly and went A.W.L.

When he was more fully recovered, he realized his error and came back of his own free will and reported in to the guard room where he has been held since awaiting court-martial.

He has asked that C.S.M. Charles Davis of the Black Watch, who was in his company and was also wounded about the same time, testify as to his behaviour as a soldier while in the field.

Pte. Torrance has indicated that he is anxious to get back into the field and it is hoped that leniency may be used in sentencing this man in order that he may be returned to active service as soon as possible.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE
in the case of

B78867 Pte. Torrence, G.A., Irish Regiment of Canada, a soldier of the Canadian Army (Canada) attached to No. 2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit, Canadian Army (Overseas)

Evidence taken under oath by direction of the Commanding Officer.

First Witness
Prosecution: Lieut. J.E. Fox, Black Watch (RHR) of Canada, #2 C.I.H.U. having been duly sworn, states:

"I am an officer on the strength of The Black Watch Coy, #2 C.I.H.U. On 12th November 1941 I was detailed by the C.O. #2 C.I.H.U. to investigate the case of the accused who had been brought to this Unit in custody as an absentee from Canada. I had the accused brought before me and warned him that he need not say anything, but that whatever he might say would be taken down in writing and used in evidence. He elected to make the following statement on oath:

'I enlisted in the Irish Regiment of Canada, C.A.S.F. on or about the 20th June 1940. After some fifteen months of soldiering in Canada, I finally got tired of waiting and became anxious to come overseas. At about 1530 hours on the 7th October 1941, I absented myself from my unit at Debert Camp, Nova Scotia, and proceeded to Halifax. I intended to board a troopship for Britain and get attached to one of the Canadian units who were already serving there. My best friend was serving in the 1st Troop Carrying Company, R.C.A.S.C. and I desired to join this unit. At approximately 2030 hours on the 7th October 1941 I slipped aboard the s.s. "Andes" in Halifax harbour. I hid on the ship, mixing with the troops when they were on deck and keeping out of sight during parades. At about 0800 hours on the 10th October 1941 I gave myself up on board the ship to the Guard Commander who was a Sergeant of the 3rd Battery, 3rd Anti-tank Regiment, R.C.A. He placed me under arrest. At 1400 hours that afternoon I appeared before the O.C. troops, Lt.-Col. Mackenzie Waters, 3rd. Anti-tank Regiment R.C.A. who ordered me into custody until reaching Britain.'

This statement was signed by the accused and witnessed by Sgt. Norbert and myself.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE
in the case of

B78867 Pte. Torrance, G.A., Irish Regiment of Canada, a soldier of The Canadian Army (Canada) attached to No. 2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit, Canadian Army (Overseas)

First Witness Defence — B78867 Pte. Torrance, G.A. I.R.C. #2 C.I.H.U. having been duly warned under R.P. 4 (e) makes the following statement:

"There is an error in the statement that I made to Lieut.Fox. Referring to the Guard Commander to whom I surrendered on board the s.s. "Andes", he was a Sergeant of the 52nd Battery, 3rd Anti-Tank Regt., R.C.A., and not the 3rd Battery, as stated in the said statement.

Certified that R.P. 4 (c) (d) (e) and (f) have been duly complied with.

Statement in Mitigation of Punishment

Presented by: Defending officer - Lieut J L M Glenn
C of Regt, No 2 C I D

I will first deal briefly with the accused's records. He is 22 years of age. He joined the Irish Regt. of Can. in October of 1939 & remained with the unit until it was called up & incorporated into the 4th Division in June, 1940. When his unit was called for actual service, the accused, as you did & I did, desired, hoped & expected to be sent overseas. For more than a year he was disappointed. Finally, on a Sunday afternoon, the 5th October of this year the accused decided he was coming overseas & two days later, at 1530 hours, he left Debert Camp & started for Halifax about 70 miles away. It took the accused 5 hours to travel those 70 miles & get aboard ship in Halifax harbour. We all know that the docks in Halifax are not easy to get into & if you have had to stay aboard ship in the harbour, not easy to get out of. He got by the guards & aboard ship & kept his identity hidden from 2030 hours on the 5th of October until he gave himself up on the morning of the 10th of October, when he felt, they were far enough from port, so he could safely surrender without being sent back to Canada. He showed considerable resourcefulness in doing this. Firstly, he aimed on Canadas by eating at different tables he was able to get his meals & also maintain his hopes of coming over. There is no record of the conduct of the accused in Canada. The prosecution has not presented anything other than the accused's own statement, which they accepted & have no reason to disbelieve. It is a simple, straightforward statement. In view of this I asked the accused what his conduct was in Canada. He told me, quite straightforwardly, that he had 3 minor charges, only one of which constituted a Regimental entry. The accused has already spent 33 days in close arrest aboard ship & in England. I submit that the accused has already been sufficiently punished for wanting to fight for his country. He has shown initiative and resource. He is not a bad soldier & from Battalion by his initiative & resourcefulness he has shown that he has the making of what we want — a damn good soldier. A token sentence, suspended, would be sufficient punishment. There have been similar cases of soldiers making their way to England. In every case the sentence has been light. In most cases they have been A.W.L. at the time taken drafts left for England. This man was not an absentee until he decided to come back & made his way to Halifax in order to get overseas.

Plea for Mitigation on behalf of B22194
Pte. Tostik, Peter

Pte. Tostik landed in Sicily with the regiment. He was through the whole of the Sicilian campaign and then was evacuated during the rest area at Scordia, returning just before Campobasso. He was in action with the Regiment from then until Dec 24th, which means he was through the heaviest part of the battle of the Moro. Thus Pte. Tostik has seen more than his share of action and has participated in almost all the heavy actions the Regiment saw up to the end of the Moro show. Plea for Mitigation on behalf of B.22194 Pte Tostik, Peter

Pte Tostik landed in Sicily with the regiment. He was through the whole of the Sicilian campaign and then was evacuated during the rest area at Scordia, returning just before Campobasso. He was in action with the Regiment from then until Dec 24th - which means he was through the heaviest part of the battle of Moro. Thus Pte Tostik has seen more than his share of action and has participated in almost all the heavy actions the Regiment saw ur to the end of the Moro show. In view of these circumstances I would request that the court show all possible leniency.

Q4. Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to character? A4 - I wish to make a statement under oath I have no other witness.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT AND EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER GIVEN BEFORE THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE

Accused being duly sworn states:- When I left camp I had no intention of stealing anything, while I was under the influence of liquor. It is not a habit of mine to steal from other soldiers & do anything like that. When I sobered up I tried to think of a way of straightening things up and that is the reason why I came back near camp.

Cross Examined. Q. were you ever convicted of theft in civil life?

A. no sir.

The Defending Officer reads a statement in mitigation of sentence, & the Court is cleared to consider sentence.

The accused has pleaded guilty, but before sentence is passed, there are a few points to which I would like to draw the attention of the court, as I am certain that given due consideration, they will mitigate the sentence.

① The ~~prisoner~~ accused has readily admitted the charges completely, and as he stated to me, they are due to an action which would never have occurred if he had not been drunk. There is no doubt that he had been drinking considerably, and this fact is corroborated by the evidence of Pte Dennis Wood. I do not need to emphasise the well-known picture of the foolish things that may be done, for which alcohol is responsible.

② There is nothing in the evidence to indicate pre-meditation. It was a "spur of the moment" affair. None of the articles taken were sold.

(2) In the accused's previous personal history are some features, which while they frankly have no bearing on the charges, would definitely show an instability. After his father's death, his mother was unable to support her large family, and the accused was placed in an orphanage at the age of ?, where he was treated severely because of a physical infirmity, and he ran away at 14 years of age. Subsequently he made his own way, having something to do with racing stables at various race tracks, and by odd jobs.

He was married in March 1941, and only lived with his wife for 2 months. After coming overseas he first heard from her regularly. He has now not heard from her for 4 months, and reports on her conduct which he has received from several sources, have caused him some worry. He has asked to have his wife investigated, but to his knowledge, nothing has been done.

He first enlisted in September 1940, and in November 1940 was discharged from the army as medically unfit, due to the infirmity previously referred to. He re-enlisted in January 1941. He has been in hospital several times. He states that he dislikes the work in the Medical Corps, but has been unable to obtain a transfer. He has gone A.W.L. a few times previously, as he admits, & got sentence of 7 days, I would submit to the court for their careful attention, the reports of the specialists in the Neurological Hospital. The impressions contained therein are very important, and I think should be seen by the court which they are considering the case. Recent neurological examination.

First Witness for the prosecution

Major J. R. Calder, RCOMC, on strength of No 1 General Reinforcement Unit, attached to No 5 Canadian General Hospital, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas having been duly sworn states as follows:

At Taplow Bucks on 14th day of August 1942 I went to my quarters at approximately 1930 hours and there I changed out of my battle dress and left it hanging over the back of a chair and then left my quarters. Returning at approximately 2300 hrs the same evening on the ground outside the door of cottage "D" in which my quarters are situated I found a khaki tie which I picked up and placed on the top of a rain barrel where it remained until the next morning and then I identified it as one of mine. On going into my quarters I noticed that the suit of battle dress was gone but thought that my batman had taken it away for cleaning. On arising on the morning of the 15th of August 1942 I found that in addition to the suit of battle dress, one suit of serge, one pair of shoes, two caps, a leather belt, a pair of gloves and a cigarette lighter were missing. I then made enquiries of the other officers living in the block and when they had no knowledge of their whereabouts I reported the loss to Major A.R. Taaner, Registrar. Later in that day I gave a description of the lost articles to a representative of the Burnham, Bucks, police force. At approximately noon on Monday the 17th of August 42 the R.S.M. showed me a pair of battle dress Trousers and field service cap which I was able to identify as being among the lost articles.

At Taplow Bucks on 14th August 1942 I was on duty as night NCO from 1900 hrs until 0700 August 15th 1942. Pte Totter having a 0200 hrs pass failed to report to the guard room. His bed was checked every hour until my term of duty expired at 0700 hours 15 August 42.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness

Cpl Kerr A.J.

Third Witness for the prosecution

No: H33023 R.S.M. Chipman, R.P. RCAMC on strength of No 5 Canadian General Hospital a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas having been duly sworn states as follows:

At Taplow Bucks on 17th August 1942 I was called to Maidenhead. I proceeded to the Bear Hotel and there found Pte Totter. Knowing that he was A.W.L. I brought him back to barracks, placed him under close arrest. On taking his possessions from him I found that he was wearing Major J.R. Calder's cap. I asked him where he got this cap but he would not answer me. I asked him again and he said "Well you've got me" that is all he would say at that time.

I detailed Sgt Holmes and Cpl Shearer to pick up Pte Totter's kit at the Batman's quarters Taplow Lodge and bring it back to the Q.M. stores for a kit inspection. Sgt Holmes took a pair of fatigue pants and a tunic over to the guard room and had Pte Totter change his clothes. I took the clothes that he had been wearing to Major J. R. Calder for identification.

The accused cross examined the witness

Question Did you notice any difference in my actions from what they were on normal times?

Answer. Nothing to speak of. He seemed a little quieter than ordinarily.

Question Did you notice if I was under the influence of liquor?

Answer He had been drinking, sir.

The accused declines to further cross examine the witness.

Fourth Witness for the prosecution

No: H 33142 Sgt Holmes, L. G., RCASC, on strength of No 5 Canadian General Hospital a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas having been duly sworn states as follows:

At Taplow Bucks on 17th August 1942 at 1245 hours on instruction from Sgt. Major Chipman I proceeded over to the guard room where Pte Totter was being held under close arrest. I took possession of a battle dress and trousers he was wearing at that time. As Pte Totter was removing his trousers he tore a small piece of cloth off the inside of the trousers. This piece of cloth had a name "Swift" on it as well as a number. This battle dress complete, blouse and trousers as well as the small strip of cloth I marked for identification and then handed them over to Sgt. Major Chipman in his office. At 2130 hrs the same day I was present at the guard room when Dvr Totter gave a signed statement to Lt. Jefferman Regimental duty officer.

The accused cross-examined the witness

Question 1. Did I show any signs of being under the influence of liquor?

Answer 1. No, not at that particular time although you smelt strongly of liquor.

The accused declines to further cross-exame the witness.

1 Exhibit Marked A.

Fifth Witness for the prosecution

Lieut M. J. Jefferman, Essex Scottish Regt. on strength of No 2 C.D.I.R.U., attached to No 5 Canadian General Hospital, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas having been duly sworn states as follows

At Taplow Bucks on Saturday morning 15th August 1942 I was called in to Major Tanner's office and questioned about clothing which Major Calder had reported missing. On the afternoon of the 15th in company with R.S.M. Chipman I made a search of the grounds in the vicinity of Major Calders quarters. It came to my attention that Dvr Totter was A.W.L. Totter had worked as a batman in the same quarters some months previous for a period of 4 days. I made a search of Totters quarters and found no evidence of his being implicated

I reported the matter to Inspector Peck of the Burnham Police Force. As a result Det Denman, detective, stationed at Burnham came to the hospital at 1500 hrs, 18th August 42. He made a further search of the area, talked with Major Calder and a complete description of all the missing articles was given to Det Denman.

On 17th August 1942 I was informed that Pte Totter had been apprehended by the R.S.M. On the afternoon of the same day in company with R.S.M. Chipman I visited both Burnham and Maidenhead Police Stations. On the evening of the same day, Inspector Peck and Det Denman came to the hospital and questioned Totter. During the course of the questioning Totter mentioned the name of an American soldier stationed at Henley.

On the morning of the 18th August 1942 I visited the American Camp and informed the officer commanding of what had happened to date. The American soldier whose name was mentioned by Totter was brought before the Officer Commanding and admitted having in his possession a dress uniform belonging to a Canadian Officer. In company with the officer Commanding I identified one forage cap, one service dress and one pair of gloves as part of the articles missing from Major Calders quarters.

I came back to the hospital and was notified that a Canadian Private was being held by the Maidenhead police. Inspector Peck had found this soldier to be in possession of one pair of oxfords and one battle dress tunic similar to the articles reported missing. He brought both these articles to the hospital on the afternoon of Tuesday 18th of August.

STATEMENT OF PRIVATE DENNIS WOOD, 39308359, Company D, 343rd Engineers (GS), Given in the Presence of Lt. Colonel Benjamin M. Casteel, Executive Officer, 343rd Engineers (GS) and Tech. Sgt. James W. Oliver, at Headquarters, 343rd Engineers, (GS), APO 887, U.S. Army

Having been advised of my rights, and of my own free will and accord, I make the following statement relative to my movements while I was AWOL from Company D, 343rd Engineers (GS), APO 887, U.S. Army between the dates of 13 August 1942 and 16 August 1942, inclusive.

Question: What is your name and serial number?

Answer: Dennis Wood; serial number 39308359.

Question: How old are you?

Answer: I am thirty-six.

Question: Have you ever had any previous service?

Answer: No, sir.

Question: Have the Articles of War been read and explained to you?

Answer: Yes, sir.

Question: Were you absent without leave from Company D, 343rd Engineers (GS), APO 887, U.S. Army, from 13 August, 1942 to 16 August 1942, inclusive?

Answer: Yes, sir.

Question: State in your own words, to the best of your knowledge and belief, where you were and what you did while you were AWOL.

Answer: Thursday morning I went from Nettlebed to Oxford. I don't know just how long I was there because I was drinking. Thursday noon I went to Reading and had several more drinks. That evening I went to Henley and continued drinking. When the pubs closed up I went to the Catherine Wheel and got a room. Friday morning I got on the express train at 10:45 or so and went to London. There I did more drinking and played around. I came back to Maidenhead Friday evening and met a soldier in the Canadian Army in one of the pubs. I had been drinking and don't remember the name of the pub or of the Canadian soldier. We kept on drinking and went out to several of the little towns around there. We got a taxi to go to London. He had to go to his camp, and I waited for him in the taxi. Then we started out for London. On the way into London the Canadian soldier said that he had better clothes than the ones we had on with him. We got out of the taxi and changed clothes. We left our clothes and went on into London. We looked up some girls and stayed that night. Saturday we played around, kept on drinking and took a taxi to some place in the direction of Liverpool. Saturday afternoon I sobered up enough to realize that I had on a uniform that was not an American uniform. I then decided to come back to camp and get out of the uniform. We went down to a little station and got on the last train and got off at Slough. We tried to get a room in Slough and then went to Maidenhead. We could not get one there, so we slept in a bus. On Sunday we got some drinks and went out in the country. Sunday afternoon I took a bus in to Henley where I was picked up about midnight. I got on the truck and spent the night in the guard house. They released me in time to make reveille the next morning. I got out of the uniform, placed it in my barracks bag, and put on my fatigue uniform. I went down to where they were having calisthenics. Afterward they put me on K.P. duty.

Question: How much money had you when you first went AWOL?

Answer: I think it was about twenty-six pounds.

Question: How much money did you have when you got back?

Answer: One pound.

Question: Is this all you remember about what took place?

Answer: Yes, sir.

I have read the above statement, consisting of two pages, and it is true.

1. I, B 60663 Pte Eyre, Charles Henry, having been cautioned that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but whatever I say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence, hereby make the following statement.

2. I walked into the Waterloo Cafe in Maidenhead Bucks at approximately 0630 hrs, Monday, 17th August, 1942. I saw a canadian private whom I had met as a patient in #5 Cdn. General Hospital sometime in October, 1941, and started talking to him. He told me that he was A.W.L. since Friday, 14 aug 42. He had on battle dress tunic, battle dress trousers and brown oxfords. He remarked that his tunic was too large for him and I offered to exchange mine, which was smaller, for his. He wanted to exchange his brown oxfords for my service boots and puttees because he thought his trousers would look much neater. We went out into the street and exchanged tunics. We separated and met again about 1045 hrs, at this time I exchanged my service boots and puttees for his oxfords, the exchange taking place in the W.V.S. Canteen. The tunic and service boots, turned over to me by Mr. Heffernan, in the Maidenhead Police Station are the same articles I gave to the Canadian private mentioned in this statement. The brown oxfords and battle dress time, taken from me in the Maidenhead Police Station are the same articles I received from the Canadian private. We then ~~went~~ stayed in the W.V.S. Canteen until sometime later in the morning, when I left by the back door of the canteen, followed by a civilian policeman.

3. The articles which I received, to my knowledge, are the personal property of this Canadian private.

4. The above statement has been read over to me and is correct.

The accused was cautioned as follows: Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence, unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused No: C-30487 Private Totter, Roland, RCASMC, on strength No 5 Can General Hospital a Soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas states as follows:

I left the hospital after pay parade and caught the bus outside the gate at 1440 hours on Friday 14 August 42 and went to Mardenhead with Pte Hider. We did some shopping and went on the river for a canoe ride. When we came from the river it was 1745 hrs. We then took a horse and buggy up to the Rialto Theatre in Mardenhead. It was then time for the Pubs to open, so we commenced drinking. When we came out of the first Pub we met Pte Morrison from the hospital and we went to different pubs. We made a trip into the fair and out again. On the way out we stopped at the Crown Hotel and ordered a round of drinks. The other two chaps left and I started talking to an American Private. He asked me if he could find a place to lodge and I told him to come up here with me. He told me that he was AWOL for a couple of days and fed up. I said I felt the same way. About 2230 hrs we decided to come up to the hospital and get a couple of Officer's uniforms and go to the coast some place. We took a cab up here and "Dan", the American Soldier came to the cabin with me and waited outside when I went in. I went in and got one dress uniform, 1 pair of oxfords, one field cap, 1 battle dress, 1 field service cap. I took the things out and Dan helped me carry some to the cab. We had told the driver to wait for us.

When we got into the cab we went about 2 miles down the road and stopped. Here we changed our clothes I wore the dress uniform and Dan wore the battle dress

We drove up the Bath Road and threw our own clothes out the window of the cab. I threw away my tunic, trousers, boots and field service cap. Dan threw away his tunic trousers and cap. We got to London about 1 a.m. The cab dropped us on a street near Piccadilly. We then asked people on the street how to get lodgings and finally wound up in a canteen run by two women. We checked our money with a soldier at the desk, and he showed us to a dormitory. We slept until about ten or eleven o'clock. When we got up we left the canteen and took down the officer's badges. We then took a cab to Epsom Downs and got there about 12 and drank until the pubs closed. We then took a taxi into Surbiton. We saw a picture and went to London by Bus. From charing Cross we took a taxi to Ealing and then took a train to Slough, then a cab to Maidenhead. We slept the night in a parked bus in Maidenhead. In the morning we changed uniforms again. We then had breakfast at a Cafe and wandered around until the pubs opened and drank until they closed and went to Cookham. I parted with Dan at Cookham and he gave me £1.10/-. I returned to Maidenhead and drank until the pubs closed at night then slept in a parked bus. I had breakfast about 6 a.m. and while I was eating a Canadian Soldier came in. I met him before, but don't know his name I told him I was A.W.L. and he told me he was also AWL since Friday August 14th 1942. He said the Civilian Police were after him because he refused to show his pay book. I told him the shoes I was wearing and the tunic I was wearing were my personal belongings. We then exchanged tunics and shoes at my suggestion. The two of us were in the Services Canteen about 11 o'clock and the Police came in and took him out. I then went to the Bear Hotel and was drinking until R.S.M. Chipman picked me up and I was brought back to Camp under close arrest.

2 January 1945.

Mr. President and Members of the Court.

The accused, Pte Edward Henry Touchette who stands before you is a young man of twenty-five years. He is married and has one child two and a half years old.

He joined the Army on the 18th day of March 1938 and has nearly seven years service.

His passed record of crimes are of a minor nature and would not indicate that he is of a bad character.

Since leaving Canada he has had very little leave and on the two occasions that leave was granted, this was cancelled.

E.L.

Pte Touchette has spent considerable time during the last two years in hospital, suffering from Stomach trouble and skin infections and for this reason he has not been with any one Unit sufficiently long to warrant a leave.

When in 7 Bn. 1CBRU he made many requests to be regrouped from a clerk to a driver, this was refused. He naturally feels a certain resentment as he does not desire clerical work.

Pte Touchette has of late been quite worried about the welfare of his child. He has not heard from his wife for three months and from his Mother he learns that his wife is working against his wishes. He feels that the child is being neglected.

Pte Touchette realizes that he has done wrong in going absent, and pleads guilty.

May the Members of the Court in passing sentence show leniency toward this man.

J. D. Shiels
Captain.

D 38043 A/Sgt Cotmoir, AA R22R sworn states:-

I am D 38043 A/Sgt Cotmoir A.A. R22R of "A" Coy. I recognize the accused as Pte Tougas. On 23rd Oct 44, I was A/CSM of "A" Coy. During N/22/23 Oct. Near midnight Pte Tougas came to me and told me he was suffering from shock and that he couldn't stand the front anymore. I told him I could only do one thing for him i.e., evacuate him to the R.A.P. that same night. Awhile later Pte Tougas started for the R.A.P. and I imediately phoned the R.A.P. and asked for information concerning Tougas. The next morning I went to the RAP between 0730 and 0745 hrs and met the RAP Sgt and the M.O. who told me that Tougas could go back to his Coy. Tougas was present at the time. Pte Tougas and I then went back to our Coy. When we returned to the Coy I told Tougas to go back to his Pl and report to his Pl Sgt. The same night at 1700 hrs., Sgt Poulin reported to me the absence of Pte Tougas. He was absent from between 1300 and 1330 hrs. Pte Tougas had been told by me to return to his Pl at about 0900 hrs. The next time I saw Tougas was 31st Oct or 1 Nov 44. He was in custody by the Provost, at that time we were back about 1000 yds to reorganize the Coy.

No cross examination by Defence.

(R.P. 83 (b) complied with)

E.5763 A/Cpl Caissy, L. R22R Sworn states:-

I am E.5763 A/Cpl Caissy, L., R 22 R, Comd 8 Sec., 9 Pl., of "A" Coy. I recognize the accused as Pte Tougas, he was a rifleman in No.7 Sec., 9 Pl. On the 23rd Oct I was acting as Pl Sgt of 9 Pl. In the afternoon of the 23rd L/Cpl Blanchette reported to me the absence of Pte Tougas. The next time I saw Pte Tougas was when he was paraded at the Coy Orderly Room. He was under escort.

Cross Examination by the Defence:

Q - Was the Coy in a fighting position when Pte Tougas was reported absent?

A - No. We were about 1½ miles behind the line. There were two more coys ahead of us.

Q - Did you expect tb make any more action as forward Coy?

A - We didn't know at that time.

Q - Did Pte Tougas sleep with your Pl the night before he went absent?

A - No, Sir.

Q - When did Pte Tougas report to you?

A - He didn't report to me, but I saw him in the Pl during the morning.

Q - How long have you known Pte Tougas?

A - Over four months, Sir.

Q - Was he a good soldier?

A - Always until that time.

Third Witness for the Prosecution:

D 142858 L/Cpl Blanchette, R., R22R Sworn states:

I am D142858 L/Cpl Blanchette, Sec Comd 7 Sec., 9 Pl., "A" Coy. I recognize the accused as Pte Tougas who was a rifleman in my Sec. On 23rd Oct 44 I was Sec Comd of 7 Sec 9 Pl when we were in position a bit behind the line, where we did guard duties.

Pte Tougas was very nervous. He had slept at the RAP the night before. When he returned I put him on guard at about 0830 hrs. He was still nervous. Awhile after dinner I looked for him to detail [illegible] guard, but I couldn't find him. I then reported him absence to Cpl Caissey, who was at the time acting as Pl Sgt at about 1300 hrs. I next saw him under escort, about six or seven days ago. I don't remember exactly.

Cross Examination by the Defence:

Q - Did Pte Tougas stay at his post when posted there at about 0800 hrs?

A - Yes.

Q - Did you see Pte Tougas after he was relieved at his post?

A - Yes, during the forenoon with the rest of the Pl.

Q - Was Pte Tougas warned that he was to take another tour of duty?

A - No, Sir.

Q - How long had Pte Tougas been with your Sec?

A - About a week.

Q - Were you satisfied with him as a rifleman?

A - He always did what I told him to do.

Question by the Court.

Q - Did you place Pte Tougas on guard for a second time?

A - Yes, Sir at about 1000 hrs for one hour. He completed this hour on guard.

Q - When was Pte Tougas's next tour of duty on guard?

A - 1300 hrs.

Q - Did he do this guard?

A - No. I looked for him but could not find him.

Q - Were you under enemy fire during the day?

A - We were under enemy shelling.

Statement in Mitigation

This is a soldier of eight months service with [redacted] has been through the toughest action and was considered by his Sec Comd's as one of the best soldiers. The evidence produced could not in such a case give him a record of defaulters. His conduct sheet has not a single entry. This soldier had just a moment of weakness which is sometimes unavoidable in the front line. Therefore I ask that the Court be most lenient to a man that did his duty.

N.B. - The Prosecuting and Defending Officers were given full opportunity to make closing addresses but declined to do so.

Plea of Mitigation
M-10144 Pte Solomon Poulem (R de Chaud)

Gentlemen of the Court:

You have in front of you a soldier 34 years old. A Category, Enlisted A/F July 40. Arrived in England July 41 done a lot of hard training. Landed on the assault of France 6 June 44 fought till Aug, feel sick in his Kindneys and rumatism asked the doctor to examined him and the only answers was "You look all right and go and fight".

He took himself a rest and he is apprehended on his way back to his unit.

Again he askes to the F A P and states he was suffering of the same troubles and fairts were very bad "No satisfaction"

His MFM 6 is just for small offences, he was a good soldier on the training, he is not a coward but sick.

I recommand him for a medical board for his own satisfaction and having him known if it is really able to be a good soldier because when a man is over 34 years old he lost a bit of his fitness, and he is more worry than a young one.

I ask this court to take this case into consideration and remember that Pte Poulem has more than five years as rifleman He is ready to go back if he has justice.

A.32 - I was in the Company of S/Sgt. Rouleau
Q.33 - And there were a few occurrences that evening. Will you give us your version of the facts leading up to the particular occurrence in which we are interested?
A.33 - As far as I can remember we were granted a pass that afternoon for the purpose of going to Farnham. We went to Farnham - S/Sgt Rouleau and I. We were at the theatre and then went to the Halfway Inn. We were cut off at closing time at the Halfway Inn at about 10 o'clock. We walked a distance of about 200 feet back the Highway from Farnham to Bordon and I was leading the way to find the right road when I heard a commotion behind me. Everything was done very quickly. I heard noises which sounded like fighting. I saw someone down and someone else on top of him. Which one I don't know. I then heard the words "This is Toupin speaking. Do you understand S/Sgt Rouleau?"
Q.34 - In French or English
A.34 - In French
Q.35 - Did you go back there?
A.35 - Sir, I tried to get in close to them but there werequite a few strangers around and I could not get to them. They all assembled when they heard the noise and I could not get near them. After the commotion was over I helped them up with others who were there and he complained that he felt dizzy. With the flashlight I noticed there was a bump on his head so we stopped a car we saw and helped him along to get to the hospital and I came on on foot from there to camp.
Q.36 - And you heard the words "~~This is Toupin~~ It is Toupin. Do you understand S/Sgt Rouleau?"
A.36 - Yes
Q.37 - Did you see Pte. Toupin?

Q.40 - Where did you sleep that evening?
A.40 - I slept for some time on the roadside. I laid down and slept. I came down here around 2 or 3 o'clock.
Q.41 - You slept in a field. That means that you had a little too much to drink and yet you say you heard the voice of Pte. Toupin? When I called on S/Sgt Rouleau on the 28 Sept to see him I asked where was Rouleau and you said "In Hospital". I asked you what happened and you said "He was in a fight". You also said "I know who did it and you said it was Pte. Hubbard. I said "Be sure of that because you might be on a Court Martial and you said "I don't care. It was Hubbard who did it". Do you remember saying that?
A.41 - I remember you coming in the Office and asking me questions.
Q.42 - I don't mean that. I mean the first time I came
A.42 - I don't recall that.
Q.43 - You were in the Office. You were there and you were crying. I asked you what was the matter with you and you said "I was drunk all night and slept in the field". Now here is a man who was drunk all night and he says he could recognize the voice of a man he only knows to see.

Cross-examination by [redacted]

Q.44 - You remember this affair quite well do you in front of the pub?
A.44 - Yes sir
Q.45 - How far away were you?
A.45 - About 200 feet outside the pub.
Q.46 - And how far is it from Halfway Inn to Bordon camp?
A.46 - I can't tell you the distance because I really don't know the distance exactly
Q.47 - Would you say five, seven or ten miles?
A.47 - They claim it is about 11 miles from Bordon to Farnham and if the name Halfway is correct it would be to my estimation about five miles.
Q.48 - And you walked all the way?
A.48 - I walked all the way.
Q.49 - How far were you from the Inn when you decided to lay down?
A.49 - I don't recall that.
Q.50 - You can't say how far you had walked exactly?
A.50 - No sir

Q.56 - Is Pte. Toupin in this room?
A.56 - Yes sir
Q.57 - And he is the man who was with you at Halfway Inn on the night of 27 Sep 40?
A.57 - Yesbsir
Q.58 - And were you there when the bar closed that evening?
A.58 - Yes sir
Q.59 - What happened after the bar closed?
A.59 - After the bar closed we came out and it was dark and we were trying to find the way to get back to camp. I was with S/Sgt Rouleau and Cpl. Bourassa and we were debating which road to take. Somebody came out of Halfway Inn and we were speaking English and this party came over to us and spoke to us and said he was Pte. Toupin and he had some grievance against him one way oranother and started to talk back and forth and then there was sort of a commotion. I tried to separate them and they started again. We separated them again and after that - -

Q.59 - Could you see this very well?
A.59 - Well, I couldn't see it very well because it was very dark.
Q.60 - And Pte. Toupin there was the same Pte. Toupin. Is that correct?
A.60 - Yes sir
Q.61 - But there was a scuffle?
A.61 - Yes sir
Q.62 - Could you see exactly what happened?
A.62 - To see exactly what happened - no I couldn't sir.
Q.63 - Well, what happened later?
A.63 - Well then after the scuffle more or less ended S/Sgt Rouleau got up and asked we asked him if he was hurt badly and he said "No" he didn't think he was hurt badly". I put my hand on his head to see if he was bleeding or hurt on the head and then Cpl. Bourassa and myself got him up and wiped off his head. There was a car coming down the road and we tried to hail the car and the car didn't stop. We waited a while and another car came along. We hailed that car and S/Sgt. Rouleau and Cpl. Bourassa got in the car. In I tried to get in the car but there was no room for me and the car pulled off.

Cross-examination by Defence Counsel

Q.64 - You heard Toupin say that he had something to settle with Rouleau?
A.64 - Words to that effect

A.65 - As far as I remember it was in French.
Q.66 - You don't remember what he said?
A.66 - No, I didn't catch what he said
Q.67 - Do you understand French enough to know what he said?
A.67 - Yes sir, I do.
Q.68 - But you can't remember just what he said?
A.68 - No sir. I can't.
Q.69 - Then you saw Cpl. Bourassa get in the car with S/Sgt. Rouleau?
A.69 - Well, when I got out of the car I saw Cpl. Bourassa in the car.
Q.70 - Well, Cpl. Bourassa admits he slept in the field
Court - You can't bring that up in evidence. That is the reason that we bring in witnesses separately.
Q.71 - When I saw you a couple of days ago you said you didn't know how it came about.
A.71 - Well just as I said sir, there was a scuffle but in the dark and I couldn't see whether it was a fight or scuffle or what.
Prosecutor - I wish to object here as to our friend for the Defence contacting witnesses for the Prosecution without my knowledge whatsoever. It is to say the least very unethical.
Defence - I have seen all the witnesses
Prosecutor - I want to object to that Defence - I saw most of them before the Court Martial. I belong to this Regiment and heard about the fight and talked to these men before the case ever come up.
Prosecutor - As Counsel for the Defence I don't think he had any right to see these witnesses or to cross-examine them on those conversations.
Court - You must not refer to anything you talked to a witness about a couple of days ago Defence - What I am trying to do sir is to prove that this man says he saw Cpl. Bourassa going to the hospital with S/Sgt Rouleau while we understand that Bourassa slept in a field.
Q.72 - How many drinks did you have that night?
A.72 - Oh, I would say about six or seven.

Q.199 - None whatever
A.199 - No sir
Q.200 - None in Farnham?
A.200 - No, sir

Summing up by Defence

I want to bring out the fact that most of the witnesses were under the influence of liquor and that, although they all didn't know exactly what took place, every one of them knows it was Toupin's voice although one of them knew him before but they all swear it was his voice. I want to bring out that Hubbard's statement and what he says on his evidence is not the same. I will say and I stress the fact that, although they never saw Toupin before they swear it was his voice. It was dark and they could not see his face but by the voice they knew it was Toupin.

Summing up by Prosecutor

Of course, the Court realizes that there was a scuffle and that the scuffle was between Toupin and the S/Sgt. as was admitted by Toupin himself so the main point in this matter is "Who assaulted whom?" Did the Sergeant assault the accused as the accused alleges or is the accused guilty in that he assaulted the Sergeant?

The Court is well able to decide the matter for itself but I want to point out outstanding features which appear both in the summary of evidence and in the evidence as given here today and they are exact words and when exact words are quoted time and time again as these particular words are quoted today it is submitted that they are the words that were used. I refer particularly to the phrase "It is Toupin who speaks". Toupin himself admits he used those words when fighting with the Sergeant. The Sergeant gives evidence to that effect and other disinterested persons give evidence to that effect. He says "It is Toupin who speaks". Why would he want to identify himself to the Sergeant and then a little while later to say "I am not speaking to you". It may be alleged that he may have meant "I don't intend to speak to you" or "I don't want you to think I am speaking to a S/Sgt" but at any rate he said "I am not speaking to you". These two phrases indicated to me that there was some, you might almost say, viciousness on the part of Toupin. They corroborated the statement given by the S/Sgt and other witnesses brought in by the prosecution.

Now, as to the evidence given by the defence, there is another word of phrase that I wish to bring out and that is the phrase "stop that damned foolishness" which was used by Webb. As I brought out in cross-examination it is not damned foolishness for a private soldier to defend himself if he is attacked by a S/Sgt but it is certainly damned foolishness for a private to attack a S/Sgt. Therefore, why did this manmuse the words "damned foolishness". If it is a common phrase peculiar to the West Nova Scotia Regiment that damn foolishness means "horse play" then the defence should have come forward with evidence on that line but the two phrases "This is toupin who speaks" and "stop this damned foolishness" indicates that the accused had attacked the Sergeant and they are from the mouths of the accused himself and the accused's only witness Court - Have you any evidence to produce as to character and particulars of the accused.

Prosecutor - I have here a statement of character of the accused and a certified copy of the accused's conduct sheet. The conduct sheet shows that he has been convicted of three military crimes, breaking out of quarantine, absent without leave once and failing to obey an order and given 7 days C. B.

Court - These are admitted by the defence?

Defence - Yes

Court - Do you wish to address the Court?

Defence Counsel - I wish to state that Pte. Toupin has a good reputation with us (R.22e R.) and that there is very little I can say apart from the evidence which to my knowledge is true on his part.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

E 5139 Pte. Armini TOUPIN, Royal 22nd Regiment,
(No.2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit.)

E 4152 S/Sgt. Rouleau, R. Royal 22nd Regiment (No.2 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit.) being duly sworn, states:-

On the afternoon of the 27 Sept. 40 I had been to Farnham and about 2030 hrs. I took the bus to come back to camp. On the way I stopped at the Halfway Inn together with Cpl. Bourrassa. We both went in the public bar then we went to the private bar where we both had a couple more bottles of beer and a glass of Rum each. We had something to eat, then we both decided to leave for Camp.

Pte. Hubbard joined us. Whilst in the private bar Pte. Huard came to speak to us, I told him that we were quite and that we did not want to be disturbed.

On leaving the tavern on or about 2200 hrs. or 2230 hrs. I heard people talking together, but as it was very dark I did not pay any attention and tried to find my way for camp. I pull out my electric torch and I give it to Cpl. Bourrassa. Bourrassa preceeded us by a few feet, just about that time I was pull by the collar of my tunic by someone from the rear and thrown on the pavement of the road. I was overpowered and the accused was saying "It is me Pte. Toupin who is speaking, do you recognized me", he was gouging my eyes with his fingers and battering my head on the pavement. I was then more or less unconscious. When I came to I was in the ditch next to the road and Cpl. Bourrassa & Pte. Hubbard were with me who told me do not make any noise as there was someone coming.

I was taken in an Army car that was passing by and driven to the C.M.C. and from there to Bramshott Hospital.

On my way between the C.M.C. and Bramshott hospital I lost consciousness and came to on entering the Hospital.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

E 5145 Cpl. Bourrassa Conrad, Royal 22nd Regiment, (No.2 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit.) being duly sworn, states:-

On or about 2200 hrs. 27 Sep 40 on leaving the Halfway Inn, after having had a few drinks of beer, I was walking with S/Sgt. Rouleau and Pte. Hubbard. It w as very dark and I asked S/Sgt. Rouleau for his electric torch and I preceded Rouleau & Hubbard by a few feet. Suddenly I heard a scuffle, taking place behind me, and I heard the accused saying to S/Sgt. Rouleau "it is me Pte. Toupin who is speaking to you S/Sgt. Rouleau do you hear me" and I could also hear the noise of the head striking violently against the pavement.

On hearing this I tried to separate them but it was very dark and other soldiers prevented me from reaching them After a few minutes the accused and a few other soldiers left and I looked after S/Sgt. Rouleau.

By using the electric torch I managed to stop a car going by and got S/Sgt. Rouleau on board and had him taken to the C.M.C.

On the evening of the 27 Sep 40, S/Sgt. Rouleau, Cpl. Bourassa and myself had about four drinks apiece at the Halfway Inn. We came out as the "Bar" closed and went to the Fork road debating what road to take when I heard a voice calling to us "We were a bunch of French Canadians speaking English". The accused came over to us and started a scuffle with S/Sgt. Rouleau but as it was very dark I could not see exactly what was taking place, but I heard S/Sgt. Rouleau say to have the accused put under arrest. The arrest was not made. During the scuffle that took place I heard the accused saying "it is me Pte. Toupin who is speaking to you, do you know me", or something to that effect. I heard the accused to say that he had a grievance to settle with S/Sgt. Rouleau. I did everything I could to separate them.

We then hailed the first car that came along without success, we then hailed a second car who took S/Sgt. Rouleau away with him together with Cpl. Bourassa.

Ques. by the accused;- When I call out in the street was I alone or with others?

Ans. You were with other persons.

Ques. On what road did the scuffle take place?

Ans. No,it was too dark and I could not say.

The accused declines to further examine this witness.

5th witness for prosecution.

E 4693 Pte. Lalonde, L. Royal 22nd Regiment, (2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit). being duly sworn, states;-

On the evening of the 27 Sep 40 I met the accused and Pte. Webb at Farnham and we came back together on the Bus, then we stopped at the Halfway Inn on the way to Bordon. The three of us must have had four or five glasses of beer together, I also had a bottle of wine and I gave Pte. Webb a glass but not to the accused. At the closing of the "Bar" I went out and just about the fork of the road I saw a gathering of soldiers where the accused and S/Sgt. Rouleau were having a scuffle. L/Cpl. Guevrain and myself tried to separate them but we were unable to do so and we both left for camp. I positively recognized the accused holding S/Sgt. Rouleau because I tried to separate them.

Ques. by the accused;- Who paid the drinks at the bar?

Ques. Was it three or four or four or five drinks that we had?

Ans. I could not say for sure.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. NO.(5)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

DATE 11 Jan 45

(MEDICAL OFFICER)

Mr President and Members of the Court.

There are certain factors surrounding this man's army life which should be taken lessening the serious of the charge.

The accused arrived in England in June 44 and one month later was in action in France. He fought continuously from the 10th of July to the 13th November when he was evacuated suffering from bronchitis and a severe cold due to the mud and water of the Holand front. On coming out of hospital being still in a weak physical condition he was once more sent digging in water and mud to his knees. You can well see gentlemen the discouragement and disgust of a fighting soldier to find himself in such a condition instead of being on a well deserved leave.

I therefore ask you gentlemen of the court to take these points into consideration in mitigation of sentence. namely, 1st his long service at the fighting front, 2nd the circumstances leading up to ~~and surrounding the~~ the offence.

~~I am also asking the court to recommend a medical board~~

B-16597 Sjt STEVENS, J. H., on the strength of 49 Coy 10 C.B.R. Bn., having been duly sworn, states:

" I am B-16597 Sjt. STEVENS, J. H. of 49 Coy 10 C.B.R.Bn. On the 11 Dec 44 at approximately 1000hrs I was in charge of a work party building a range. Noticing ——— accused whom I now recognize, sitting down I told him to start to work. He immediately replied. " I left home for less than this." I then ordered him again to start work, and he said " I refuse to work in this mud." I asked the accused e for his pay book, from which I took his number and name and rank. I then placed the accused under close arrest in the guard room.

STEVENS ordered the accused to get to his feet and start to work. The accused said " he had left home for less than this" and that he wouldn't work in the mud. Sjt. STEVENS then asked the accused if he was refusing to obey an order and the accused said he was. Sjt. STEVENS then took the accused pay book and wrote down his name and number. The accused had ample time and opportunity to comply with the order before he was placed under arrest and taken away by Sjt. STEVENS.

You are not obliged to say anything or to give any evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you may say or any evidence you may give will be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence. Having been duly ~~sworn~~ affirmed states: There were five of us soldiers sitting down having a smoke in some scrub underbrush. The Sjt. came along to get us to work. Before the Sjt. ever spoke to me I made the remark that I had left home for less than this, as it was very muddy work that we had been doing. After this the Sjt. came over to me and ordered me to get up and go to work, asking if I refused to obey his order. I said I was refusing to work unless he got me some clothes to work in suitable for that type of work. He immediately asked me for my pay book. I gave it to him and he took me away soon after to 49 Coy building and placed me under arrest with the Provs.

[illegible] duly sworn and [illegible] identified the accused states

The accused was on my company strength. I am satisfied that the accused had in his possession the articles as shown in his part III pay book (Exhibit 14)

On the night that the accused was posted AWL his kit was brought into my stores, I checked his kit that night and made a tour of his barrack room the following morning I checked the equipment, he took to the guard room. I made a list of all this equipment which was turned in and checked it against his Part III I found deficiencies as follows. I made a list of the deficiencies I would be able to recognise this list — the deficiencies listed in the charge sheet are identical with the list I turned in.

On several occasions before this when the supply was short and new drafts comming in we had to recall on blanket from each man. I am satisfied that Pvte Tanner had four blankets the day he went AWL

Q. By Court

Q. Are other rates required to sign for the blanket

A. This was not the general practice

Q. Then there is no entry in your books of blankets on charge to be accused

A. No

Q If a man comes down and is short one blankets do you issue one

A Yes sir it is an automatic issue

46868 Pte McKenzie having been duly sworn & having identified the accused states

~~On the morning of the~~ On a day early in January the accused had drawn equipment from Q.M. stores on a parade arranged to bring men short of equipment up to scratch. After the parade he said he did not care whether he had the equipment or not if he could get money for it he would.

B44985 Pte Abrahams P.E.

Having been duly sworn & having identified the accused states

On the 12th Jan 45 I noticed that all the blankets were missing from Pte Tarangi's bed. I spoke to pte Tarangi on the following morning concerning these, he said that he had got drunk and sold them. On the 17th Jan 45 I saw the accused in the evening he was wrapping a blanket under his coat. He said he was taking the one out & coming back for the other. He then left the room with that blanket, as if he were on his way outside

Cross by Defense

Q Do you recall any statement made about his greatcoat & him stolen

A Yess

Q Could he wrap a blanket around to keep warm

A Yes I suppose so

Q Was there anyone else there

A Gen. Default was there

Re. by Prosecutor

Q The greatcoat & the blankets which went first.

A The Blankets in boat 2 days

The accused elects to make a statement under oath. & having been duly sworn states

I was on duty as fatigue on the morning of the 18 Jan. 45 Between 10 & 11.00 hrs the L/Cpl came over & told us to turn our blankets in, as the others were told on parade I went back to get my blanket but found them gone & took it that the others had turned them in for use. I keep my defence kit in my large pack on my bed. I remember seeing my large pack on the morning of the 18 Jan 45

The C.O. usually came around once or twice a week to check blankets Pte Abrahams inference that I took my blanket outside, I just folded it the room.

The remark I said to Pte Mackenzie re webb equipment was "Im kind of fed up with packing this stuff around."

X by Prosecution

Q Did you ask any one to turn in your blankets

A No Sir

Q Did you check to see if they were turned in?

A I was working & took it for granted that they were.

Q Do you remember how your Greatcoat, Holder & remarks, to the Adjt.

A Yes.

Q Did you report the matter to Co

Hn. No.

Q Why

A Because there was nothing being done about it when the others reported things were lost

Q What happened to your Greatcoat

A I don't know

B-20139 Pte. Tourangeau J.

Joined the Forestry Corps in August '40 and remained with the Forestry Corps both in Canada and Scotland until a company was sent overseas in Oct '41

He came over as a reinforcement, but has remained doing guard duty, fatigues and drill without any signs of joining the corps in action.

All Pte. Tourangeau's friends are in the Forestry Corps. He feels intirely alone where he is, and wants to rejoin the Corps as soon as possible. He has never lost equipment before. I ask the Court to consider a man who has spent most of his army career with friends, in the corps of his choice, and the demoralized state which he has adopted while doing duties which are foreign to his trade. in that the Court will recommend this mans immediate dispatch to his unit.

STATEMENT BY ACCUSED (in mitigation of punishment)

I have been on Active Service for 4 years and 4 months of which over 4 years have been overseas. I have been with my unit without any interuption since it landed at Sicily. I regret my recent action and am anxious only to stay at the front. If the penalty to be imposed could be as far as possible a deduction from pay rather than detention, I feel I would be of more use and a better soldier as a result.

I recognize the accused as Pte Lonsignant A. At approximately 2000 hrs Lonsignant came in the R.A.P. in a quarrelsome mood. He seemed to be under the influence of liquor. Pte Simard happened to be there at the time. He was speaking with ~~there~~ during Pte Lonsignant came in and thought Pte Simard was ~~speaking~~ to him. Pte Lonsignant began to argue with him telling him he was big and that he wanted Pte Simard to have a fight with him. Simard got a hold on him the evening ~~one~~ two or three ~~other~~ struggling. I recognize the accused as the consignment. At approximately 2000 hrs I was up to the R-P to see the M.O. and a few minutes later the consignment came in and he asked for somebody. He was looking for some Frenchman, I guess. He asked for somebody and I told him that person was not there. He came up to me and started to shake me by the collar and told me he would be very glad to fight me. I didn't know the consignment very well and had no quarrel, personally, with him. The Norman said that the R.A.P. was no place to fight in and the consignment started for the door. He came back and grabbed me by the collar again and then we started to wrestle when we were fighting I fell down and the consignment kicked me in the head and I became unconscious when I woke up some people were holding me and I couldn't fight any more. Major Sneddon came in and ~~I~~ called the R.P.'s who put the consignment under arrest.

The Defending officer submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused, as the charge of assault has not been proven.

The Pros declines to reply

Address by Proc 6 March 1945

Mr President,
Gentlemen of the Court

The accused, Pte. Tousignant, A. was sent to be tried before you by the Commanding officer R 22 R under a charge of assaulting a comrade. It was mine to prove this with facts, and the witnesses brought have established that, regardless of any reason for it, Pte Tousignant grabbed Pte Simard without any provocation, wrestled with him to some extent, ending up by kicking him on the head hard enough for the Medical officer to have to ~~some stitches to close the wound then inflicted~~ attend him for. G.

These facts stand out clearly regardless of any circumstantial evidence which may have been brought up.

This assault, Gentlemen, is a crime of a most serious nature as it is in direct opposition to the traditions and teachings of the Man's Regiment and of the Canadian ~~nature~~ Army, besides being an offence of a cowardly nature on a comrade. Therefore, I would suggest that the Court be not inclined to be lenient because of what may appear to be the lack of importance of this case.

G.

Closing address Def Offr

On the 1st March 48 the Consignant was not sober. But Simons was drunk when he met Consignant. Simons decided in himself that Consignant was looking for trouble and as soon as Consignant asked for the Respondents. Simons answered him and gave some insolent answer. So Consignant thought too that Simons was looking for trouble and there it started.

Furthermore Consignant has always been a good soldier and he has a very good conduct sheet. And I would like that the article in M M Ln page 18 para 4 & 5 should be brought to the attention of the Court before they decide on the punishment if there is any.

Medical Officer

The Defending Officer makes the following plea in mitigation.

Pte Toussignant has been in the Army since Jul 41, a preiod of over 3 years. He volunteered in the army and came Overseas to the UK early in 42. During all this time in the army his conduct sheet was marred by only two charges and that in the latter part of 44. None of these charges was very important. We ask that this be taken into consideration when the Court will decide the sentence, because up until now we have proof that this soldier has given good service to the army and the army still needs good soldiers. Pte Toussignant was certainly in the wrong on 31 Dec 44. He was the first to admit it and signed a statement to that effect. No one is perfect in this world and everyone has moments in which he acts rather on impulses. Pte Toussignant on that day certainly had one bad moment when his actions were certainly against his conscience and against his usual way of acting since he joined the army. I believe that here again we may ask for this to be taken into consideration so as to make his punishment as lenient as possible. He is more than willing to accept whatever punishment you will give him as he understood clearly that he was guilty but I can assure you that this will never happen to him again and after he has done his time for his crime he will be a very goodsoldier. But in conclusion I again beg the Court to be as lenient as possible in this case and I am sure that the army as a whole will benefit by it. And I would also like to point out to the court that Pte Toussignant has already lost 24 days pay being in close arrest since 31 Dec 44

Summary of Evidence in the Case of D109967.
Pte Soussignan. J. H. R.CASC. att. 18 Can Fld Amb. RCAMC.

The accused was informed of his rights.

The C.O. directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution D105624 C.S.M. Chatel J. H. A. R.CASC att. 18 Can Fld Amb R.CAMC. having been duly sworn states:—

On 31 Aug 44 at approx 2130 hrs I was in the O.R. Stores when the guard who was on duty at the front gate came to me and told me that a Jeep belonging to this unit had forced its way out of the front gate and would not stop when asked to do so. I ran outside to know which direction the Jeep had gone and also to find out who had driven the Jeep. He told me that the Jeep had headed towards the recreation room. So I ran in that direction. Birmingham Hall was between the recreation room and orderly room. I saw a Jeep parked along side the road behind a 60 cwt truck. I came up to the vehicle and there I saw Pte Soussignan and Pte Johns loading a box onto the Jeep. I asked Pte Soussignan if he had authority to take the Jeep out. He answered "no". I also asked him what he was carrying in the box and he answered "If you want to know look yourself". He also said to Pte Johns "It might be a good sale but I am afraid we are caught". I called a guard to stand watch over the Jeep and the box while I took Pte Johns and Pte Soussignan to the guard room. I returned to the Jeep and found the box on the Jeep but as it was too heavy I went to the recreation room to get Pte Rowbotham to help me to load the box. I brought the Jeep and the box back to in front of the orderly room. Pte Wheeler and MacMillan helped me carry the box into the orderly room. Then I went back to the guard room and put Pte Soussignan and Pte Johns under close arrest. Before I loaded the box onto the Jeep I looked inside and saw that it contained rations. I noticed on particular two bags of flour and some tins.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

A. Section.

On board the 15th Dec 44, returned to HQ. We loaded all the equipment of A. section into a 60 cwt truck including two large boxes containing rations. One box contained only tinned rations the other contained: Coffee, tea, sugar, two half bags of flour, tinned turkey, baking powder, bottles of tomato sauce. When we arrived we took the box to the HQ kitchen where Sgt Harrison told the cook Pte. Saunders to report to the Officers mess to work there. We then took the box to the Officers mess for Pte. Saunders and myself worked at the Officers mess for approx the 26 Dec 44. When Pte Pte. Saunders was transferred to the main kitchen and I was to return to my own section. We therefore loaded the box into the 60 cwt truck. The box I am referring to is the one containing the flour and sugar etc. Before returning I did not go into the truck again therefore I did not see the box between that time and the 31 Dec 44.

STATEMENT

Date. 3 Jan 1945
Time. 1525 hrs.

No. D107767 Name. Pte Tousignant, J.H. Unit. 18 Fld Ambulance. R.C.A.M.C.

I have been cautioned by Sgt. Frost, No. 1 Special Investigation Section, that I need not say anything unless I wish to do so, but, that anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence. I understand this caution and wish to make the following statement. [redacted] Tousignant JH

About 2150 hrs on 31 Dec 1944 while at a dance in the village Ste Josbin spoke to me and said "I know where we can get some stuff to trade for something to drink". I asked him where it was. He told me to a 60 cwt truck in front of the cemetery. He showed me a box. We lifted the lid and both looked inside. The only thing I remember seeing in the box was flour and tea. We took the box off the truck and put it on the road behind the truck. I went to get a jeep. I got one and came back. Josbin was still there. Josbin helped me load the box in the jeep. The Lt Col Major [redacted] came and placed us under arrest. Josbin and I were going to trade it together. I did not pack the box nor did I see it before it was in the truck. I have never been to Myncyzen with Josbin. I have never been to a civilian house there either.

Sir

I wish to make the following statement in mitigation of punishment.

The accused is 23 years of age. He enlisted on the 6 Sept 40. Unfortunately, he was unable to proceed at Dieppe that he was a good soldier, as he did not take part in the operations.

The accused has a brother a corporal in the Canadian Army Overseas. About six months ago, the accused decided to get married. On hearing of this, his brother decided to ignore him and on numerous occasions disregarded all letters or phone calls from the accused.

Wanting help and advice, the accused wrote home to his father and step-mother but from them also received no answer. You can easily imagine in what state of mind that placed the accused. He was being abandoned by all his folks. His only help, and only person to whom he could turn was his fiancée, to whom asked permission to get married, and did so though it has not yet been recorded, as the accused came back yesterday only.

Gentlemen, you can imagine that under such circumstances the accused has a very strong temptation to murder a fiend. He realized now that he was wrong and so, gentlemen, he regretted bitterly back to army.

I have known the accused for the last seven months. I have worked with him. As far as being a soldier, he is a very good one, willing for anything and I have all the men we need to fight. And I hope are moving [illegible] part at this time. So we must keep all our good men ready.

Gentlemen I submit these facts for the consideration of this honorable court.

Opening Address by the prosecutor

Pte Belanger M is mentioned in statement of accused and he has requested his presence but Belanger was killed in action on 23 Oct 44.

S/Sgt Chester not available but Lieut Thomson was present and can produce the accused's statement. (The defence does not object and does no require S/Sgt Chester for cross examination.

D3
1st Witness for the prosecution

Capt AA Toms, RCAMC, 1 Cdn Disc C, being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I recognize the accused whom I examined this morning. The accused has a wound in his left foot the bullet entered the medial aspect of the left foot about 2" below the medial melileus. The bullet penetrated the foot travelling in a forward and downward direction and emerged from the sole of the foot [redacted] head of 5th metatarsal bone. Wound is complete [redacted] in my opinion there is no disability at present from it. It is possible that this wound could have been caused by weapon held in accused's hands. (Witness demonstrates). The wound I have described I examined at the hospital three days ago.

No cross examination

RP 83 (b) complied with.

2nd Witness for the prosecution

Lieut J.A. Thomson, SIB, Cdn Pro Corps, being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I recognize the accused as Pte Tousignant. He was interviewed by me accompanied by S/Sgt Chester, SIB at 2 Cdn Gen Hosp on afternoon of 15 Mar 45. I produce statement taken by S/Sgt Chester in my presence. The accused was cautioned and signed his name after the caution indicating he understood it. The statement was voluntary and no promises or threats or inducements were made to the accused at that time. He was informed at conclusion of his statement that he had the opportunity to add to or delete from his statement if he wished to do so. He did not wish to do so and signed his name at the bottom. I produce the statement marked exhibit "A" and a translation thereof into English by Capt M Rousseau, Officer taking the Summary of Evidence, marked Exhibit "B". (The defending officer has no objection to admission of statement exhibit "A" in evidence nor translation thereof into English exhibit "B")

No cross examination

D4
Submission by defending Officer

I submit that the prosecution has failed to establish a prima facie case on the 1st chge. The defence admits that the Court is entitled to draw an inference of neglect as embodied in the 2nd chge and is willing to proceed in order to produce an explanation which will discharge the onus forced upon it by the circumstances of the case.

D 117

Prosecution in Reply

In this case there is only the statement of the accused in evidence to support the charge. The question of intent in these cases is a difficult one. That can only be drawn from such facts as the necessity of accused of having the weapon in his hands at this time, how it discharged and back ground of accused in a nervous sense. I leave that to the Court to decide from his statement.

D6
1st Witness for the Defence

The Accused D61947 Pte Tousignant Joseph Roland, Fus MR, 1 Cdn Disc C being duly sworn is examined by the defending officer.

I have heard the statement that I gave to S/Sgt Chester read in Court and I wish to add to that statement that when I took my sten up the magazine was off and the cocking handle not back. I was sitting on the floor at the time, but I couldnt describe just how it all happened, I was talking to Pte Belanger at the time. There were also some British signal men sitting around us talking. They were not cleaning their weapons. There was no magzine on the gun when I picked it up, but there were guards in the room that night. The gun was in the same corner when I picked it up as when I left it before as far as I know, I don't know if I had it in two hands or not. I really don't remember. I was arrested on 16 Jan 45 and went back to my unit on 23 Jan and I was with them until 25 Feb 45. I was with "A" Echelon during all their advances during that time. My foot did not bother me there.

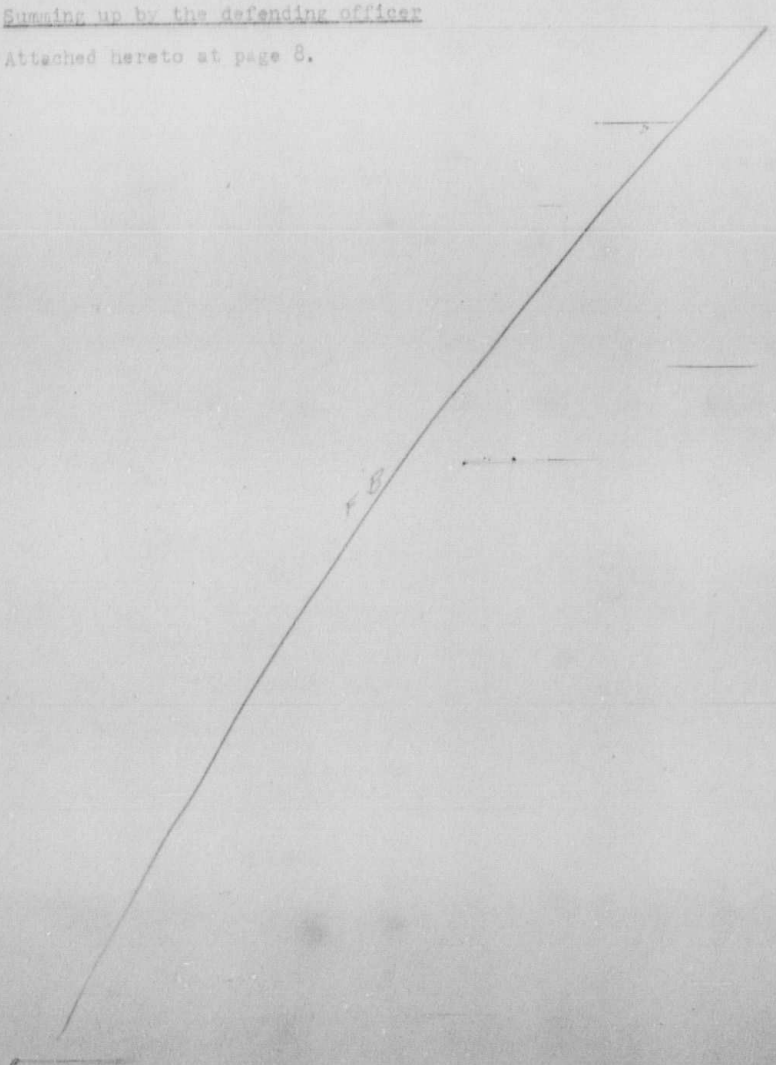
Cross Examination

I have been in Army since 6 Apr 40. I didn't always carry a sten. I had only a few lessons on sten. No instructors on how to clean a sten. I know we are supposed to clear every weapon before cleaning it. I must have pulled trigger. I was told many times how to hold a weapon when clearing it, but when I took this weapon I don't know how it happened because when I left it I took the magazine off and the cocking handle was not back. They could have used my sten gun on guard duty that night. I must have pulled the trigger and a bullet must have been in there but I am not sure of that. I know I was sitting on floor with my left foot crossed over my right and I reached to my rear right to pick up my sten. I stayed all morning watching the drunk man and started looking for my unit. We were around in that area for four days. I did not get back to my unit before this accident happened. I was with my unit in "A" Ech all the time from 23 Jan to 25 Feb.

By the Court

I am not in hospital now as result of enemy action. I am a sick man. In the morning when I started to clean my sten, in my mind, I thought it was the way I had left it the night before. I thought the cocking handle was forward. I know that sten will not fire when cocking handle is forward. I don't know exactly how it happened, but for it to fire I must have pulled the trigger. I am not sure I was a signaller with the unit at the time. I am a signaller. The sten was issued to me.

RP 83 (b) complied with.



Summing up by prosecutor

True the onus is on the prosecution to establish negligent handling of a sten M.C. I believe evidence produced that the first act of negligence is that in the method of handling. He admits he took weapons in his hands and without checking it did pull the trigger. He must have done this or weapon would not have discharged then. I say 2nd act of negligence is that of holding the weapon.

Knowing safety precautions in both these cases and the weapon discharged when muzzle pointed at his foot. It is an act of negligence to hold the weapon in this manner and pull the trigger. If these acts were done in the front line they may have been excusable or may not have been, but certainly in an area of this kind there can be no satisfactory answer to this.

Summing up by the defending officer

Attached hereto at page 8.

D.C. Sums Up

The feets of a case of this kind are always peculiarly within the knowledge of the accused. The Court is entitled to draw an inference of neglect. I would refer the court to para 66 at 124 MML where it is mentioned that if the accused gave an explanation which the court thinks might reasonably be true and which is consistent with innocence, the accused is entitled to be acquitted because the prosecution has failed to prove the accused's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

I submit that this case is one of this kind.

The accused claims that when he took the magazine off his cocking handle was still forward. Guards who were changing during the night could quite easily have used the gun. This explanation is quite consistent with innocence. If the accused can be considered neglectful and careless in reaching for the weapon the way he did, and without taking pais to give the gun a preliminary proving, I nevertheless submit that it is not the culpable neglect outlined in the latest amendment to Sec 40.

The defence submits that this was an accident. The accused has been back in the line - the foot does not bother him - his capabilities as a serving soldier have not been affected.- The defence asks that he be acquitted because he has already paid the penalty for his unfortunate accident which he admits could have been avoided if he even dreamt that the gun was loaded.

STATES: "I have been cautioned that I am not oblied to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence. I fully understand the meaning of this warning and to show that I do so, I sign my name herewith."

I am Reg No D61947 Pte Joseph Roland Tousignant, Fusiliers, Mont-Royal. I am 25 years old. On 6 Apr 40 I enlisted for Active Service with the FMR. I arrived in Englnad 3 Oct 40 and we were stationed at Aldersnot Camp. On 1 Jul 44 I was sent to 1 CDRU on a 3 months clerk's course. By the middle of July I learned that my Regiment had been in France since 9 July and I was paraded before the Major and told him that I did not wish to continue the course, but wished to rejoin my unit in France. After my interview with the Major I was transferred to CIRU and on 30 July I arrived in France as a reiforcement for my Regiment. On arrival in France I stayed two days at 2 CBRD and then went to rejoin my Regiment which was at that time at St Andre. I have had about 20 days of action with my Regiment and during that time we made about five attacks. After the attack at Falaise on 19 Aug I was instructed by the RSM to stay behind and take care of one of our soldiers who was drunk. In the afternoon of the same day we tried to locate our Regiment , but without success, so we joined up with a signalling Coy of a British Unit, and stayed with them until 23 August, the date of my accident. On the night of the 22 August, before going to bed, I took the magazine off my sten, but i did not look to see if there was a round in the breech. At about 0600 hrs I picked up my Sten I pulled the trigger and it went off, wounding me in the left foot, the bullet penetrating just above the ankle from right to, left. I have no idea how the accident happened as I was sure that my Sten was not loaded. At that moment Pte Maurice Delanger of my Regiment was near me and applied the first dressing. I was then taken to the First Aid Post. I went to several hospitals but was operated on for the first time at No 29 British Hospital. I am anxious to return to my Regiment as soon as possible. My wound was purely accidental.

This statement is voluntary and it is the truth. It has been read over to me and I have read it over myself.

Summary of evidence by order of the Commanding Officer, Lt. Col. J. E. Ganong, 48th Highlanders of Canada, in the case of No. U1523, C.S.M. Toussaint, H.A. of "A" Coy. 48th Highlanders of Canada, charged in the field on the 16 Oct. 42 with conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he was in improper possession of Army rations. (A.A. 40)

1st Witness:-

B72676 C.Q.M.S. Marr, A.T. having been duly sworn states:-

"I am and have been at all times material hereto, Company Quartermaster-Serjeant of "A" Coy. 48th Highlanders of Canada. On the 12 Oct. 42, the Company returned from the scheme BREASTSTROKE II. That evening, Pte. Rank reported for duty as second cook and the following morning reported to me that there was no butter. I told him that I would try and find out where it had gone and approached Pte. Irvine, the other cook, who verified that there had been no butter used for cooking or baking since returning from the scheme. On the morning of the 14 Oct. 42 Pte. Matson, the first cook, took me to the larder and there told me that Pte. Rank must have used the butter in some way. I was not satisfied and carried on my own investigation. Pte. Matson was preparing to go on leave and I watched for him going out but he got away without me seeing him. I had one other suspect left but had not decided just what action I was going to take.

I was sitting in my room on Friday morning, the 16 Oct., thinking things over and suddenly wondered if C.S.M. Toussaint had a suitcase. I looked underneath his bed and saw the case sitting back against the wall and reached in and lifted it out. It was a dead weight. On second thought, I decided not to open it without a witness and went out and contacted Cpl. Hunt, who was the only N.C.O. present at that time and we returned and opened the case. There was the butter and also some other goods that had not been missed.

My suspicions of C.S.M. Toussaint had been founded on the fact that he and Pte. Matson had recently been working very close together and also by a remark that Sjt. Crease had made to the effect that there was something queer going on between the C.S.M. and Matson.

I returned the case under the bed and then went down to the Battalion Quartermaster's Office and reported my findings to Capt. Catto and also Sjt. Goodall. I then returned to my Company and waited for Capt. Corbett, the Coy. Comd. to return from the Battalion parade. I explained everything to him and he said he would see the C.S.M. About half-an-hour later, Capt. Corbett came and asked me to take him to where the evidence was. There he informed me that he had received orders from the Commanding Officer to confiscate the evidence if it was still there and that he did."

QUESTION:- How many keys were there to the larder where the rations were kept?

ANSWER:- Two keys.

QUESTION:- Who had possession of these keys?

ANSWER:- Pte. Matson and myself had one key each.

QUESTION:- Did you share the same bedroom with C.S.M. Toussaint?

ANSWER:- Yes sir.

QUESTION:- Did you have any reason from personal observation to suspect that rations were put in the suitcase by C.S.M. Toussaint?

ANSWER:- No sir. I had not seen the suitcase previous to finding it under C.S.M. Toussaint's bed.

2nd Witness:

B60804 Cpl. Hunt, G.M. having been duly sworn, states:

"I am and have been at all times material hereto, the Corporal Mechanic of "A" Coy. 48th Highlanders of Canada.

On Friday, 16 Oct. 42. at approximately 0945 hrs., C.G.M.S. Marr came to me in the garage and asked me to accompany him to the C.S.M's. room. This I did. He took a case from underneath the bed and asked me if I thought it felt rather heavy for a leave bag and I agreed it did. He then opened the bag and I saw that it contained several pounds of butter, some tinned fish, some pineapple and some syrup. There was also some clothing packed in around these articles. After that I drove the C.Q.M.S. to Capt. Catto's office."

3rd. Witness

"I am and have been at all times material hereto, the cook for "A" Coy. 48th Highlanders of Canada.
On Tuesday, 13 Oct. 42. it was my day off and before leaving the kitchen in the afternoon I had checked the larder and noticed that I was well up on rations, and then gave my key to Pte. Irvine, the second cook.
The next day on going to the larder again, I was quite surprised to see the quantity of rations that had either been used or were missing. I asked Pte. Irvine where they had gone and he said he couldn't understand it. I then asked C.Q.M.S. Marr to come to the larder and told him about the rations disappearing so suddenly."

4th Witness.

B73863 Pte. Irvine, R.H. having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am and have been at all times material hereto, the No. 2 cook for "A" Coy. 48th Highlanders of Canada.

On Tuesday, 13 Oct. 42. Pte. Matson, the No. 1. cook for the Coy. was taking his day off and I was left in charge of the kitchen and had the key to the larder. On Wednesday morning, on going in to the pantry, I noticed that a quantity of butter had disappeared since the day before and called Pte. Blencowe, the helper, and asked him if he noticed the difference in the amount of butter. He said he did and then I called Pte. Rank and told him and he reported it to the C.Q.M.S.

I heard no more about it until Capt. Corbett asked me a few days later if I had any idea where it had gone and I said I didn't know, it was just missing."

5th Witness

Capt. Corbett, E D.A.B. having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am and have been at all times material hereto, the Company Commander of "A" Coy. 48th Highlanders of Canada.

On the morning of Friday 16 Oct. 42 the Coy. paraded to BUXTED PARK. On our return at about 1130 hrs., C.Q.M.S. Marr drew me aside and informed me that he had found some rations, which he knew to be issue, in a small suitcase underneath C.S.M. Toussaint's bed. Being shocked by such news, I told the C.Q.M.S. to leave things as they were for half-an-hour while I considered the matter. The C.Q.M.S. agreed to this and left. Almost immediately the Commanding Officer called me on the telephone and asked me if I had heard of the incident. I said that I had and he then told me to go and find the suitcase, examine it, and if I found it to contain rations, to take possession of it. I sent for the C.Q.M.S. and with him went to C.S.M. Toussaint's room, examined the case and found it to contain rations along with some clothing, among which was a shirt marked with the initials H.A.T. I examined the rations and found the butter, at least, to be issue. I then took the case to the Officers' Mess, sent for C.S.M. Toussaint and in the presence of Capt. Wilson, T.T., showed him the case and contents. He said the case was one he had borrowed from Sjt. Gunn the previous night and admitted that the clothing was his but stated that the last time he had seen these articles of clothing, they were on top of his kit-bag in a corner of his room. He said he knew nothing of the rations and claimed that someone must have placed them in the case in his absence.

I then told C.S.M. Toussaint that he was under open arrest and reported the fact to the Commanding Officer."

6th Witness

Capt. Wilson. J.T. having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am and have been at all times material hereto, a Supernumery Officer attached to "A" Coy 48th Highlanders of Canada.

On Friday 16 Oct. 42 at approximately noon, after returning from the Battalion parade at BUXTED PARK, Capt. Corbett came into the Officers' Mess carrying a brown leather suitcase and informed me that C.S.M. Toussaint would be coming in in a moment and that I was to remain. When the C.S.M. arrived, Capt. Corbett asked him if the suitcase was his and he replied that he had borrowed it from Sjt. Gunn. Capt. Corbett then opened the suitcase and showed it to contain several pounds of butter, some tinned sardines, some syrup and other things and also a shirt and some underclothing marked with C.S.M. Toussaint's name.

When asked for an explanation, the C.S.M. acknowledged ownership of the clothing, but denied all knowledge of the rations."

(SIGNED) J.T. Wilson Capt.

The accused declines to cross examine.

The Accused, after being cautioned in accordance with R.P. 4 (E) states:-

"I am and have been at all times material hereto, Company Serjeant-Major of "A" Coy. 48th Highlanders of Canada.

At approximately 1830 hrs. on Thursday 15 Oct. 42 I asked Sjt. Gunn if I could borrow his small suitcase. He said I could so I went upstairs to his room and got the case and then placed it under my bed in my room. Immediately after that I had a bath after which I went to the Coy. Orderly Room and remained there until 2135 hrs. and then returned to my room and went to bed.

Next morning the Coy. paraded to BUXTED PARK at 0815 hrs and did not return until approximately 1130 hrs. when Capt. Corbett informed me that we would have Coy. Orderly Room at 1200 hrs.

After getting the Orderly Room parade lined up, he called me to the Officers' Mess and asked me if I recognised the case and I said I did. He then opened it and asked me what I knew about the contents. I said that the clothing was mine but the rations I knew nothing about but thought that someone had placed them there in my absence."

H.A. Troussant.

I came from the Holding Unit at Whitley to 'A' Coy of the 48th, as C.S.M., I think on the 27 June 42.

When we moved to this new location I made several alterations to the kitchen. This pleased Matson very much. Later he found that I was going on leave, and asked me if I would like to take some articles with me. I said I would. On Wednesday night the 14th, Oct 42, Matson brought some rations to my room, but I was not there. He put them under my bed. I found them there later when I went to bed that night. He had told me before hand that he was going to bring some rations up. They stayed there until Thursday night, and then I put them in the case which I had borrowed from Sgt. Gunn. They were later found under my bed where I had put them. I was going to take the suitcase and rations with me on leave to some people I know in Slough.

On one other occasion about five or six weeks ago Matson gave me a pound of butter and a can of fish

OF FISH before I went on a week end pass to Slough. These are the only occasions which I have received any rations from our stores.

(Sgn)
H.A. Toussaint

Further to my statement, at no time have I given Matson anything for the rations which I received. The rations I received consisted of two tins of syrup, two cans pineapple, ~~or~~ three or four cans of fish, I can't remember how much butter there was.

1 Record of Witness's Statements 24 Feb. 1944.

accused: D 3837 Tpr. Arthur Tonakino
7th Cdn. Recce Regiment C.A.O.

Pleads guilty on first charge: A.W.L.
Pleads not guilty on second charge: Deficiency of Kit.

Second Charge:
Prosecuting Officer: D

Due to time elapsed since time of first kit inspection there will be but one witness.
The original kit deficiency was $7-14-0\frac{1}{2}$.
The present kit deficiency is $7-19/04\frac{1}{2}$
I have a certified true copy of kit deficiency form. MIDDTS
Defending Officer:

The evidence by prosecuting Officer is a prima facie evidence of kit deficiency.
But the circumstances surrounding the check of the accused's kit are questionable and not a true story of the facts as existed prior to his going A.W.L.

Pte Tonakino D 3837
Sworn, states:

I was detailed to take advanced party back to camp my belongings were left on the ground and I was in another truck. All my things had been left behind and I have not seen them since.

Defending Officer:
Prior to Spartan scheme Tonakino's equipment was complete as per kit check. The bulk of kit was left at camp and only necessary items taken for scheme.

Accused:
At last minute on returning to camp all my equipment was dumped out on ground and I was sent in another truck, losing track of my equipment.

Cross exam:
Prosecuting Officer:
a soldier is responsible for his own equipment. Certain articles in which you are deficient were absolutely necessary on scheme. Cream, razor blades and ~~razor~~ were found deficient in them is a ~~razor~~ shaving ring, razor.

Defending Officer:
Discrepancies are noted in accusation. The accused is charged of AWL. as of 15 minutes to 10 only. Therefore overstay of ~~two~~ one and one half hours.

~~Presiding Officer~~
Prosecuting Officer:
Cpl ~~[illegible]~~ Witness. Cpl McDermott O'Connor
Tonakino's truck was rushed on that night
I do not know what was taken or removed or what personnel was transported.

First Charge:
Defending Officer:
Due to personal nature of statement to follow could except be removed?

Accused's Statement:
When I left the unit I went to see my girl friend
She was pregnant and sick so I stayed with her. Later on she began having labour pains and eventually she had her child. So I stayed on with her.
Reading on the papers of possible military activites I decided to report my unit. As I did not know where they were so I gave myself up at the place I knew they had last been (Brighton).
The civilian police turned me over to the military police.

Defending Officer:
The accused has now been 26 days in custody since he has given himself up. Could this report up to date on MFB 355.

Witness as to Character: Lieut W.B. McCullough. 7 C.H. Regt.
I am the accused's Officer since Aug '42. I was satisfied with him till his present offence except for one short AWL.

~~Defence~~

Second Charge:
Defence: The loss "by neglect" is inadvertently laid since the circumstances at the time of loss are not neglect.
Prosecution: The loss is small but what was lost has not been proved as having been lost at the time stated. Furthermore what was lost should normally be carried on the person therefore neglect.

M-7198, L/Sgt. Stemp, H.C. having been duly sworn states:-
"I have known Spr. Towers since he arrived in England, I have known him better since a year ago now he came to B Coy. He was posted to the same section as I was an N.C.O. in. I have never had any trouble with the man either on the parade square or work, I have always found him neat and tidy and gives due respect to all officers and N.C.O's. I had him on a working party last summer while building a camp. We were painting the camp at the time and in that work I found Spr. Towers to be very satisfactory. On any other jobs that I have given him he has always done it satisfactory. Apart from his army life I know very little."

Statement by Defending Officer (see page 5, question 7)

"Spr. Tower is of English descent born 1912, enlisted in Toronto about the middle of 1940. Served with 1 Battalion since that date until now with the exception of three months when he was in hospital and re-inforcement unit. His next of kin is his mother who is in receipt of dependants allowance and assigned pay from Spr. Towers. He has also three sisters. He is not in receipt of trades pay at the moment. He is a qualified Miner Group "C" and Painter Group "B". I have known Spr. Towers for about a year myself. He was in my section for about 2 months, and at that time he was a good soldier and good worker.

The reason of most of my A.W.O.L. charges, (which are mostly petty ones) is that when I get a few drinks under my belt, I get disgusted some, thinking of not drawing trade pay, and have never seemed to be able to get any satisfaction from any of my commanding officers, although I have been promised trade pay several times. PROCEEDINGS.

A.
Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this Tenth day of December, 1941.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 2nd. Canadian Division, Canadian Army (A.F.), on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer;

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit if not applicable.

*I am unable to appoint:—

*(1. Three Officers to form the Court.)

*(2. A Field Officer as President.)

*(3. Three Officers having more than one year's service.)

In my opinion, military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units and other exigencies render it inexpedient to observe those rules of procedure inconsistent with Appendix "A" to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the person named in the annexed schedule

Army Form A.3.

Form for Assembly and Proceedings of Field General Court Martial on Active Service.

PROCEEDINGS.

A.
Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this Sixteenth day of JUNE, 1942.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 5 Canadian Infantry Brigade Group Canadian Army (A.F.), on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; [illegible]

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit if not applicable.

[illegible] In my opinion, military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units, difficulties of communication, and other difficulties, render it inexpedient to comply with these rules inconsistent to Appendix "A" to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the soldier named in the margin.

6.6.42.

Sir,

I respectfully beg to report at 22-25hrs on Saturday 6th June 1942 I was in Stoke Road, Guildford when I saw two Canadian Soldiers of the Toronto Scottish Regiment R.C.A. walking up Stoke Road towards North Street, followed closely by a young lady who works in the Fish Shop, 83, Stoke Road, Guildford, who shouted to me to stop the two soldiers. I went to them and saw that Private Townley was carrying a cigarette machine, this he pushed into my hands, and they both then ran away towards North Street. I gave chase, during this chase I saw the soldiers , which one I would not say, throw away a salt cellar and a soda syphon bottle. I overtook and caught Townley in Martyr Road, the other soldier was caught by Cpl Binnig. I took Townley into custody then returned and took Hurst into custody to "A" Division, North Street.

I returned and recovered the articles which the soldiers had thrown away. When being searched I found a hat brush hidden under the tunic of Pte Hurst.

Inquiries were made and it was found that this brush and two others not recovered, also the soda syphon bottle had been stolen from the Stoke Hotel, Guildford that evening. The cigarette machine and salt cellar had been stolen from the fish shop, 83, Stoke Road, Guildford by the two soldiers in question.

I then cautioned and charged them with being concerned together in feloniously stealing from the Fish Shop, 83, Stoke Road, Guildford at about 20.20. hours on Saturday 6th June 1942 One cigarette machine and contents, one salt cellar together to the value of £1.0.0. the property of Reginald Charles Stevens.

I further charged them with being concerned together in feloniously stealing from the Stoke Hotel, Guildford sometime between 17.00 hours and 22.20 hours on Saturday the 6th June 1942, three brushes, one bottle of soda water and syphon valued at £1.6.0 the property of Frederick Reginald Kerry.

They replied "O.K.Buddy"

Two brushes have not yet been recovered .

I questioned the two soldiers with regard to the Fund for the Forces collecting tin which had been stolen from the Kings Head Public House, Stoke Road, Guildford which was found on the step of the Stoke Hotel, Guildford, but they denied having seen the tin before, therefore no charge was made against them regarding this larceny.

I am, Sir,

Your Obedient Servant,

P.Goddard. P.C. 135.

states :- At about 21.55 hours on Saturday the 6th June 1942. I was assisting my husband to serve customers, when two Canadian soldiers came into the Saloon Bar and called for whiskey. I refused them as I had just called Time.

I was very busy at the time, and took no more notice of the soldiers, only that they were wearing coloured caps and had yellow on their shoulders. After the two soldiers had left the bar, one of the customers asked me if I had an ink bottle behind the bar. I told the customer "yes" He then said "Them two soldiers have taken it" I then noticed that the ink bottle was missing also a collecting tin for the Forces which was standing on the counter close to the ink bottle. I cannot say how much money was in the tin. I would not be able to identify the two soldiers again and I could not say which customer saw the soldiers take the ink bottle.

TRIAL ON FIRST & SECOND CHARGES

PROSECUTION

Lt.-Col. R.E. Bricker of No.1 CGRU. having been duly sworn states:

"On the night of 25 Jan 45 at 1715 hrs I went into the Imperial Hotel and hung my coat on the coat hook outside the upstair lounge. I was in there about an hour and fifteen minutes and when I came out I found my great coat gone. I notified the manager and we searched all the bars and lounges that were open and it was not there. There was no other great coat left so that it could not have been taken by mistake. The next morning I informed the Provost and was later informed by them that they had recovered the great coat. I can identify that coat by the fact that my name is on the inside sewn on a piece of cloth, the beaver buttons which are pre war , regimental patch on one shoulder taken off, the right shoulder ranking badges and Canada badge taken off but they still remain on the left. This is my great coat." (Great coat marked exhibit 1 by Court).

Q. Where is the Imperial Hotel?
A. In Aldershot, Hants.

Q. What did you mean when you said you searched for the coat and there was no other coat left in the hotel?
A. Everyone had their own coat and it appeared that mine disappeared.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. You are not certain of the dates now are you?
A. The dates in my statement in the Summary of Evidence is correct.

SECOND WITNESS

B.66852, Sgt. Sheehan, FH of 1 CGRU having been duly sworn states:

Q. What is your present job?
A. I am Provost Sgt. at No.1 CGRU.

Q. What do you know about the theft of a coat on 25 Jan 45?
A. On 26 Jan 45 Lt-Col. Bricker came into the guard room and reported the loss of his coat in Aldershot. I investigated the matter and found the coat was in No.1 CITR guard room. I went there that afternoon and had a talk with the Provost Sgt. He had the coat there and the accused in the guard room. I asked if I could see the accused. He brought the accused out of the cells. I asked the Sgt. if the accused had been cautioned when he was brought in the guard room in the presence of the accused. He said 'yes'. I asked the accused if he stole the coat and he said 'yes'. I asked him why and he said nothing."

Q. How do you identify this coat as being the coat which was stolen?
A. If that is the coat I spoke to the accused about, it has my name underneath the lining on a piece of tape and it has a red mark on one pocket. This is the coat.

Q. What did you do with the coat?
A. I gave a receipt for the coat to the Sgt and took the coat back to my unit and giave it to the Col. as it was miserable weather to be going around without a coat and the Col. gave me a receipt for it.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

PROSECUTOR SAID HE WOULD NOT CALL THE THIRD WITNESS AS HIS EVIDENCE RELATED ONLY TO THE THIRD CHARGE TO WHICH THE ACCUSED HAD PLEAD 'GUILTY'.

DFG OFFR STATED HE DID NOT REQUIRE HIS PRESENCE FOR CROSS-EXAMINATION.

THIRD WITNESS

K.47162, Cpl. Wellington, JE. of 1 CITR having been duly sworn states:-

Q. What is your present work?
A. R.P. Cpl. at 1 CGRU Guard Room.

Q. Will you tell the Court what happened on the evening of 25 Jan 45?

"On the night of 25 Jan 45 a knock came at the door of the guard room and RP Brayall one of the R.Ps on duty opened the door and admitted into the guard room Pte. Townley the accused. Pte. Townley said to me "I wish to have a bed for the night and I want to surrender myself". I asked him why he wished to surrender himself and he said to me I have just robbed a _____Colonel."

THE DFG OFFR SAID - "I object to the word before the word Colonel being put on record". The President said that the word would not be in the record but that a blank would be left.

"I asked him what he had robbed from the Colonel and he said "I have stolen a great coat and threw it in an alley way near the Imperial Hotel". He said he had taken it off the hook in the lobby way in the Imperial Hotel. I asked him why he did it and he said "I am a kleptomaniac I do this all the time, I have done it several times and got away with it and I am afraid I will do something serious". I smelt he had a few drinks and I thought he was giving me an exaggerated story and I told him that the best thing for him to do was to go to bed. I asked him what unit he was in and he said he thought he was in R.A.D. Wing of 1 CITR. It was approximately 10 minutes later after he was let out of the guard room that he was re-admitted by Pte. Brayall again. He came over to where I was sitting at the table and said"I have just stolen this from the Col to prove to you guys I am a kleptomaniac". The book was 'Consultations and Specialists'. I immediately said to him that anything you say will be used in evidence against you."

DFG OFFR SAID - "I object to this witness giving evidence as to what the accused then said, as the caution was defective in that he did not say to the accused "you are not required to say anything unless you wish" and he also improperly used the words "against you".

PROSECUTOR STATES - "I believe the DFG OFFR is objecting on the grounds that rules laid down, page 91 MML have not been complied with but I would point out to the Court and Dfg Offr that at the bottom of page 92 and the top of page 93 there is this observation (Prosecutor reads). I submit that the statement made by the accused after the caution should be admitted in evidence as we have before this Court already evidence that the accused freely volunteered information and the Dfg Offr I submit must show that it was unfair and that it was obtained by some fear of prejudice."

DFG OFFR SAID - "There is authority which I cannot lay my hands on at the moment, I can remember seeing it in red ink, it must be an amendment, which states "where in the caution, the person is warned that evidence is to be used against him, that it is equal to a threat and therefore it can not be admissable. Those two words "against him" I submit make the caution defective."

PROSECUTOR SAID - "I submit that it is the statement itself that is admissable and not this particular bit of evidence."

COURT WAS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SUBMISSION.

THE COURT RE-OPENED AND SUSTAINED THE OBJECTION OF THE DFG OFFR TO THE ADMISSION IN EVIDENCE OF ANY STATEMENT MADE BY THE ACCUSED AFTER THE DEFECTIVE WARNING.

CPL. WELLINGTON'S STATEMENT (Cont'd)

"From that point I took all the personal belongings from Pte. Townley and I told him I would place him under close arrest. I placed him under close arrest and made the usual entries in the guard room books."

Q. What did Pte. Brayall do?
A. I sent Pte. Brayall out and he came back and brought with him the Colonel's great coat. This, exhibit 1, is the great coat he brought back, I can identify it by the name of Major Bricker.

Q. What do you know about the great coat leaving the guard room?
A. I was with Sgt. Sheehan and I released the great coat to him.

Q. Who brought the great coat in with Pte. Brayall?
A. Pte. Shepherd another R.P.

Q. What time did the accused first come to the guard room?
A. At 2035 hrs.

Q. What was your job at that particular time?
A. I was i/c the night shift from 1600 hrs to midnight, as Cpl. i/c guard room.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

THIRD WITNESS

G.18154, Pte. Brayall, M.E. of 1 CITR having been duly sworn states:

Q. What is your work?
A. R.P. at #1 CITR.

Q. Were you on duty on 25 Jan 45?
A. Yes sir.

Q. What happened that evening?
A. I was on duty at the guard room when I heard a knock at the door. I opened the door and Pte. Townley whom I recognize entered. We went to the desk where Cpl. Wellington was in charge and he said "I want to be put up for the night, I have just robbed a _____ Colonel".

THE DFG OFFR SAID - "I object to the word before the word Colonel being put on record". The President said that the word would not be in the record but that a blank would be left.

Pte. BRAYALL (Continues)

"So the Cpl. then asked him.

DFG OFFR SAID - "I object to this unless there was any caution given".

PROSECUTOR SAID - "I dispute this object. This man had not been arrested and was volunteering this statement. On that grounds it should be admitted."

THE COURT RULED THE DFG OFFR OBJECTION SUSTAINED.

Q. Did Cpl. Wellington threaten the accused?
A. No sir.

Q. Did he make any promises to him at that time?
A. No at that time.

DFG OFFR SAID - "I do not wish to cross-examine this witness but wish to point out that a soldier in the guard room should be cautioned before he is asked about any offence he is alleged to have committed and in those surroundings the caution is definitely necessary.

PROSECUTOR SAID - "I wish to point out in saying he is alleged to have committed an offence, there was no charge at that time, he just came into the guard room and volunteered the information and the guard wanted to know what it was all about. The whole thing was volunteered on the part of the accused."

COURT WAS CLOSED

COURT WAS RE-OPENED AND THE PRESIDENT SAID THAT AS THE DFG OFFR HAS OBJECTED TO THE ADMISSION OF THE EVIDENCE THE COURT AFTER CONSIDERING THE SITUATION SUSTAINED HIS OBJECTION.

PTE. BRAYALL (Continues)

Q. As a result of something the accused said where did you go a few minutes later?
A. As a result of something the accused said to me I left the guard room and went down town to look for the great coat. I went to the Imperial Hotel and looked in the laneway around the Imperial Hotel but didn't find anything. I marched about 300 yrds down the roadway and in the back end of the amusement hall I found the great coat hanging on a post. This exhibit 1 is the great coat. It has a tab marked by Cpl. Wellington, also I note the name Major Bricker on the inside and also I note that patches had been taken off the right arm.

Q. What did you do with the great coat you found?
A. I brought it back to the guard room and just as I brought it to the guard room Pte. Townley came out of the lavatory and there was some discussion about the great coat.

Q. After Cpl. Wellington talked to Pte Townley when he first came in what happened?
A. He went back out and came back with a medical book and said, "maybe this will satisfy you fellows that I am a kleptomaniac".

Q. What happened then?
A. Cpl. Wellington placed him under close arrest and said that anything he would say may be used as evidence against him.

Q. The roadway you found the great coat in does it lead to the Imperial Hotel?
A. It is straight across from the main door of the Imperial Hotel.

Q. Where is the Imperial Hotel?
A. In Aldershot.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

THE PROSECUTOR HAVING BEEN DULY SWORN STATES:

"I am the officer who took the Summary of Evidence in respect of the charges against K.49019, Pte. Lloyd Everett TOWNLEY, the accused whom I recognize in this Court Room. At the conclusion of taking the Summary of Evidence I cautioned the accused as follows: "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence". The accused elected to make a statement under oath. The accused was duly sworn and made the following statement:- "Sometimes I take things without knowing why I take them. It comes in spells and I always return the things that I take, but not directly. I am really afraid to turn them back directly. These spells started while I was in the hospital after coming back from France. I gave myself up, I have never been caught. I figured it was the best thing I could do, as I may get myself into real trouble sometime. If I could get medical attention it might help me. If I should get into civilian life again I wouldn't want to have a thing like that".

PROSECUTION IS CLOSED.

THE DFG OFFR SAID - "I ask the Court to aquit the accused because a prima facie case has not been made out on the first and second charges. Unfortunately with respect to the first charge, I did not make an objection soon enough during the evidence of Cpl. Wellington. I submit that that evidence should have been disallowed also we would then have simply in evidence that the coat disappeared from the hotel, that the accused came to the guard room and he said something which may have been anything. He may have said that he took a coat from a hotel and the coat was later found and I submit that is not evidence. Furthermore the fact that the coat was obtained and recovered later is some evidence that the coat was not deprived permanently from the owner. In relation ~~to~~ the second charge I submit that it is an improper charge, that there is multiplicity of charges there and he should be aquitted on that charge also."

PROSECUTOR SAID - "I submit that the Prosecution has given sufficient evidence before this Court that should justify the Court in finding there is a case which the accused should answer that they have therein brought on the accused and we should hear the evidence of the Defence if shown that Col. Bricker's great coat was missing on the night of 25 Jan 45 and we have the evidence of Sgt. Sheehan that the accused stated he stole this great coat from the Imperial Hotel. We have also the evidence of Cpl. Wellington that the accused told them he had robbed a Col. had stolen a coat from the Imperial Hotel. We have further evidence by Pte. Brayall that the accused stated he had robbed a Colonel and later on we find that this same witness brought back a great coat from a laneway near the Imperial Hotel, the place that he said he had put it according to the evidence of Cpl. Wellington."

COURT WAS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SUBMISSION

COURT WAS RE-OPENED AND THE PRESIDENT SAID THE SUBMISSION WOULD BE DISALLOWED.

DEFENCE

FIRST WITNESS

The accused, K.49019, Pte. Townley, LE. of 1 CITR having been duly sworn states:

Q. Will you tell the Court what you know about this matter, what you remember on that evening?
A. What I do recall is that I went to the Imperial Hotel and I had a glass of beer and what happened is I seen this great coat and picked it up and out I went with it. I was in a sort of a coma.

Q. Why did you do that?
A. I couldn't tell you, I don't know.

"I just walked out the front door and crossed the street and down this little laneway. I suddenly realize what I was doing and so I folded it three times and laid it in a corner of a lane way where it could be found and went away. There was quite a battle going on inside and I was wondering whether I should go in and tell them about it or what to do. I was quite mixed up about the whole thing, so I went in and had another drink and I was going to go back and give myself up and then I said to myself 'No' and so I went in and had another drink and eventually I got back to this guard room up here and I knocked at the door and I entered the guard room and addressed the Cpl. and told him I wanted to be locked up for the night so I wouldn't do anything else really big. He would not listen to me and took it as a joke and told me to go home and sleep it off. I guess I looked pretty drunk. He said I would have to have some evidence to be thrown in the guard room like that, so the only thing I could do was to get something to show him."

Q. Did you try to get medical attention?
A. I did once but I held back. They sent me to a psychiatrist but he didn't find out anything wrong. I held back telling him about ~~being~~ a kleptomaniac.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE (Cont'd)

Q. How old are you?
A. I am 21.

Q. Will you tell the Court about your family life?
A. To begin with I was adop ted when I was very young. My real mother and father are missing. I lived with my foster parents, I only had a foster father and foster brother. I don't know what else to say.

Q. How far did you go in school?
A. I went as far as Grade 8.

Q. Then what did you do?
A. I went to work with my father for awhile on odd jobs.

Q. What other jobs?
A. Jobs that were not permanent such as digging ditches. I then went to work on a printing firm.

Q. How long did you keep that job?
A. Quite awhile, I couldn't say exactly but I think a couple of years.

Q. When did you join the army?
A. 30 Dec 42.

Q. When did you come overseas?
A. June 43.

Q. When did you go to the field?
A. August 43.

Q. To what Regt?
A. Canadian Scottish.

Q. How long were you with the Canadian Scottish in the field?
A. Up until 14 Jun 44.

Q. Did you go into Normandy on "D" Day?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Were you wounded?
A. Yes sir.

Q. What date?
A. 14 Jun 44.

Q. What kind of wound did you get?
A. A bullet wound in my leg.

Q. Any concussion?
A. Yes before that. I never said anything about it. One knocked me out worse. I was in a building and a shell landed in the next room. It dazed me a bit. It was really the only one I ever felt. The others only dazed me a little, you would not notice it. I guess later on I did funny things.

Q. When did this kleptomaniac trouble of yours start?
A. It started on 23 Jun 44 when I w as in hospital.

Q. After you returned from France?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you ever have anything of this nature before?
A. No sir.

Q. When you took these things did you intend returning them?
A. At the time I took them it is hard to explain, you don't think of things like that, it is just like walking over to something picking it up and walking out and afterwards you realize what you did and return them indirectly.

FIRST WITNESS FOR DEFENCE (Cont'd)

Q. Have you been examined by an M.O. here?
A. Physical, yes.

Q. Do you know of any recommendation he has made about you?
A. No sir.

Q. Do you know if he has recommended that you have a psychiatrist examination?
A. I don't know sir he said I was high strung.

Q. Have you ever had any other charges against you in the army?
A. No sir none whatever.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. What badges were on the coat you took from the Imperial Hotel?
A. At the time I didn't know but after I was the coat in the guard room I found there was a Midland Regt. badge.

Q. You saw the coat in the guard room later in the same evening after you took it from the Imperial Hotel?
A. Yes I believe I did.

Q. Did you intend to return the coat?
A. After I had realized what I had done yes but I would have been caught and you just can't go up to a person and say here I stole this coat from you. I was afraid.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

PROSECUTION ADDRESSES THE COURT

I submit to this Court that the accused by his own admissions has admitted to his guilt of stealing this great coat. He said that the great coat he took and placed in the laneway he later saw in the guard room that evening and we have the evidence that the great coat seen in the guard room that evening is exhibit 1 and that is the great coat which is the subject of this charge. I submit that at the time he took the great coat he did intend to deprive the owner of that coat and therefore is charged with theft. With respect to the second charge I say that the words 'took away' is not a separate offence but is part of the one action.

DFC OFFR ADDRESSES THE COURT

In answer to that I would like to ask the Court to aquit this man on the first charge on the ground that he did not intend to deprive the owner permanently of the coat. The coat was taken out and at the moment he realize what he was doing he dropped the coat and didn't take it back but didn't intend to deprive the Colonel of the coat and therefore could not be charged with theft. Secondly I submit the accused did not take this coat with the necessary guilty mind that he in view of mental obligation he has, he didn't realize and he should therefore be acquitted. With respect to the second charge I submit that two offences are charged in one charge, that he improperly took and that he threw away. They happened at different times and they took two separate pieces of thought. They were two distinct actions and if he is to be charged under Sec.40 he should have been charged twice. The accused could do nothing else but plead guilty to the third charge. He didn't take it for any purpose, he felt he should have been examined and the only way to convince people of this was to do something of this kind for which they would lock him up. I submit that this man is not a thief. He has never had a crime against him. He has mental trouble and the Court should not punish him like they would a thief. I sa y that this is a case where a psychiatrist should examine the man and that he be dealt with on that footing and not on the footing as a criminal. I can say that the M.O. of this unit has recommended that he be examined by a psychiatrist. I have also talked to the SPO who feels sure that the man will be brought down with an "S" category. He is obviously nervous and high strung and his experience in France may have caused him some slight averation which would cause him to do these things but they are not of a criminal nature.

DFS OFFR ADDRESSES THE COURT (Cont'd)

Taking in consideration in mitigation of sentence and particularly his home life and background which was not a normal one and his overseas experience in France and his clean record, I ask the Court that the accused be examined by a psychiatrist before any sentence that the Court might pass.

COURT WAS CLOSED FOR SENTENCE.

K-47162 Cpl Wellington, J.E., Westminster Regiment, on the strength of 1 Canadian Infantry Training Regiment, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:

I am, K-47162 Cpl Wellington, J.E. Westminster Regiment on strength 1 Canadian Infantry Training Regiment, and am employed on the Regimental Police. On the evening of 25 January 1945 I was NCO in charge of the Guard Room 1 CITR. At approximately 2035 hours the accused, K-49019 Pte. Townley, L.E., whom I now recognize, was admitted to the Guard Room by Pte Brayall M.E. one of the Regimental Police. Pte. Townley said to me "I want a bed for the night and I am surrendering myself because I robbed a Zombie colonel". I then asked him where he had robbed the colonel and he said "I just stole his coat from the Imperial Hotel". I then asked him what he had done with the great coat and he said "I threw it in an alley way near the hotel". I asked him why he did that and he said "I am a kleptomaniac, I do it all the time and I can't help myself." I smelt liquor on the accused and I thought he was under the influence of liquor as his story was so unbelievable. I asked him where he was billeted and he said he thought it was R&D Wing. I told him to go to bed. Pte. Townley left the Guard Room and reappeared approximately ten minutes later. He was admitted to the Guard Room by Pte. Brayall. He placed a medical record book entitled "Consultations & Specialists" in front of me on the table. The book marked exhibit "B" and which I identify by my initials, is the book the accused brought to the Guard Room. I recognize the book by the title on the cover, the corner off the sticker and the ink blot on it. Pte. Townley said to me "I had to prove to you I am a kleptomaniac so I stole this book from the Medical Room". I told him that anything he might say would be used against him and I placed him under close arrest. I searched him and made the usual entries in the Record Book kept in the Guard Room. I then phoned the FAP and asked for the medical Orderly to come to the Guard Room immediately. Pte. J.A.T. Coles of the FAP came to the Guard Room and identified the book as being the property of the FAP. I went with Pte Coles to report to the Orderly Officer and then released the book to Pte. Coles. I then sent Pte. Brayall M.E. and one other member of the Regimental Police to search for the great coat. They returned later with a great coat which did not have badges of rank on one shoulder. One regimental patch and a Canada patch were also missing. The one shoulder had the badges of rank of a Lt.-Col. and the regimental patch of the Midland Regiment

I was on duty in the Guard Room on the night of 25 January 1945, when I heard a knock at the door at approximately 2035 hrs. I opened the door and K-49019 Pte. Townley, L.E., the accused, whom I now recognize, came in. He went to the desk to speak to Cpl Wellington, J.E., the NCO in charge of the Guard Room. He said "I want a bed for the night as I am in trouble". The Corporal asked him what was the trouble and he said "I have just robbed a Zombie Colonel". The corporal asked what he had stolen and where from. He said "I stole his great coat from the Imperial Hotel". When the corporal asked him what he did with the coat he said "I threw it in the alley across from the Imperial Hotel". He also said "I am a kleptomaniac and I steal anything I get my hands on when I am that way". He smelt of beer. The corporal told him to go to bed and Pte Townley left. About ten minutes later there was another knock at the door and Pte Townley in again. This time he was carrying a book in his hand and said "Maybe this will satisfy you that I am not right". I recognize the book marked exhibit "B" and identified by my initials on the book which Pte. Townley brought into the Guard Room. I identify it by the name and the label on the front of the book. He put the book on the desk and Cpl Wellington asked him where it came from. He said "It came from the ~~RAP~~". When the corporal asked him how he got it he said "I just walked in and picked it up". The corporal then placed him under close arrest and told him that anything he said might be used as evidence against him.

against him./The corporal took his personal belongings away from him. A little later Pte. Shepherd, one of the Regimental Police, and myself went into town to look for the great coat, where Pte Townley said he had thrown it. We found a great coat approximately 300 yards from the Imperial Hotel, Aldershot. It was hanging on a post along a road way, not far from the back of the Amusement Hall. I recognize the great coat marked as exhibit "A" as the great coat which we found on the post. I identify it by the name tab on the inside of the coat bearing the name "Major R.E. Bricker". I also recognize it by the markings left on the coat in the places where there were formarly patches. We brought the great coat back to the Guard Room. On one shoulder of the great coat there was no flashes or badges of rank, while on the other shoulder there was one pip and one crown and a Midland Regiment patch. I hung up the great coat in the Guard Room and later in the evening when Pte. Townley was coming back from the lavatory, I stopped him and asked him if he recognized the great coat. He looked at it and said "Yes, that is the coat that I stole" Cpl Wellington asked him if that is the way he left the coat and he replied "No, it had the ranks on both sides and regimental flashes".

Cross-examined by the accused:-

Q1. Are you sure that I said I threw it in the alley across from the Imperial Hotel?
A1. Yes.

M E Brayall Pte.
(G-18154 M.E. Brayall)

The accused was cautioned as follows: "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence"

The accused elected to make a statement under oath.

The accused having been duly sworn states as follows: Sometimes I take things without knowing why I take them. It comes in spells and I always return the things that I take, but not directly. I am really afraid to turn them back directly. These spells started while I was in the hospital after coming back from France. I gave myself up, I have never been caught. I figured it was the best thing I could do, as I may get myself into real trouble sometime. If I could get medical attention it might help me. If I should get into civilian life again I wouldn't want to have a thing like that.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of K-49019 Pte. Lloyd Everett Townley, Canadian Infantry Corps on the strength of 1 Canadian Infantry Training Regiment, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

The accused elected to make a statement under oath.

The accused having been duly sworn states as follows: like that./ The word "Zombie" in its common use by the average Canadian Soldier means the same as a non active soldier. It is just a common word, that is used by each and every active soldier overseas for the past while. If the government allows this word to be used in the Canadian newspapers, it must be a common word. It may be just force of habit that one refers to a person belonging to a regiment not in one of our overseas divisions as a Zombie.

Pte
(K.49019 L.E. Townley)

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of five (5) pages was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused, and that Rules of Procedure 4(c), (d), (e) and (f) have been complied with.

NOTE E1 Townley

Subject by accident in Instigation

My reasons for going A.W.L. is my association with a young married woman who is having a child on Sept 15/44. Her husband is on furlough home before X mas I thought I should see him before he got home and tell him about it so that it would be easier for her. He has been away over a year. We hope to be married if she can get a divorce I am 23 and unmarried I joined 24 Jun/40 I worked for 1 Eaton boy as right electrician I got three junior fourth. My people home live in Toronto. Nothing else is worrying me in the army. My mother is ill in Hospital with high blood pressure. My home life was good. This woman wrote me before I went telling me the Husband might be home in October so I went and waited time to see if the husband would turn up.

Statement in mitigation of sentence offered by the offic defending B 19087 Pte. Townley T. NOTE
E-3 WW

The accused enlisted on June 24, 1940 when he was 20 years old. He came overseas in February 1942. He is now 23 years old. His parents are both living in Toronto and his home life was good. He was employed as night electrician with the T. Eaton Co. Ltd in Toronto. Prior to enlistment he left school at the age of 16 having only reached Junior 4th grade.

He was almost 2 years without a crime in the army. All of his offences prior to his last trial General Court Martial consisted of offences in connection with A.W.L. mostly for a matter of hours.

He was convicted [illegible] a day and mostly for a matter of hours.

His last F.B.C.M. was for absence of 10 days. He went to South Devon and spent it mostly with the young woman mentioned later.

He has now been involved in an affair with a young married woman as a result of which she is pregnant. She expects to be confined in April 1944. Her husband who is stationed with the Royal Marines in Malta with home leaving that he would be home before Christmas and possibly at the end of October or first of November. She wrote to the accused telling him of this and not unnaturally he wrote to be present with her to help her. Her parents had turned against her and there was no one she could turn to other than the accused. He realized that the possibility of obtaining leave for the purpose was practically nil and went absent without leave. They intend to be married if she can obtain a divorce from her husband. He is quite serious about the matter.

He is a smart appearing lad and is well turned out. A stiff sentence will only embitter him and will not help him as a soldier. He surrendered voluntarily when it appeared that the husband was delayed in arriving. He is very anxious to do a good job as a soldier especially as he realizes he will need all his money to help finance his marriage and the birth of the child.

All of which is respectfully submitted to this Court.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

I have in my hand proceedings for convening a Field-General Court Martial dated 13 Sep 41, signed by Major-General P.J.Montague, Senior Officer,C.M.H.Q., authorising me, Major R.W.Lent of No.1.Canadian Base Depot, Lorne Scots as President; Captain T.G.Breck, Royal Cdn.Army Pay Corps on my right and Captain A.E.Jackson, Unit Pay Detachment R.C.A.P.C on my left, as Members, to try you on various charges by Field General Court Martial, which will be afterwards read to you.

The Prosecutor files the Medical Certificate that the accused is fit to undergo trial by Court Martial.

The President, Members and Shorthand Writer are duly sworn.

The accused is asked the following questions:-

Q.1. Do you object to being tried by the President or any members of the Court you have heard read over.

A.1. No sir.

President: I have satisfied myself that none of the officers detailed as members of this Court have previously served upon any Court of enquiry respecting the matters forming the subject of the charges before this Court Martial, or are in any other respect disqualified from acting.

(R.W.Lent), Major. (President)

Q.2. Have you any objection to Mrs.Notson acting as shorthand writer and taking down the evidence in shorthand and transcribing it into longhand when so required?

A.2. No sir.

The accused C.4121 Pte.Towns.G.W answers to his name and number and is duly arraigned on the charges.

Q.3. Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge against you which you have heard read?

A.3. Not guilty sir.

Q.4. Are you guilty or not guilty of the second charge against you which you have heard read?

A.4. Guilty sir.

Q.5. You are guilty?

A.5. Yes sir.

Q.6. I suggest that you plead guilty to the losing by neglect of that equipment, but not to the values as placed on record in this charge; those will be gone into and quoted later, but you plead guilty to the loss of such equipment?

A.6. Yes sir.

President. It is only fair to say to you Private Towns that you do not have to plead guilty to this charge, and when you do plead guilty you are then throwing yourself upon the mercy of the Court and the Court uses its own discretion. You can withdraw your plea of "guilty" if you so desire but you must fully understand you are not compelled to plead guilty to that charge unless you so desire.

Pte.Towns. Anyway, when I went away all my kit was here - that is all I know sir President. You can make that statement in mitigation of punishment if you so desire.

Towns. Yes sir.

President. Q.7. You still wish to plead guilty to that charge?

A.7. Not by neglect - no sir.

Q.8. You plead "not guilty" then?

A.8. Not guilty, sir.

Q.9. Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the grounds that any of the rules relating to procedure have not been dealt with, or that you have not had sufficient time to consider these?

A.9. No sir.

Q.10. You are ready to go on with your trial now?

A.10. Yes sir.

Captain F.A.Roberts, the Prosecuting Officer was asked by the President if he had anything to say on opening the case.

Capt. F.A Roberts. The accused, Pte.Towns, was granted leave of absence from the Unit Pay Detachment R.C.A.P.C. from 0800 hours on the 14 July 41 to 0800 hours on 21st July 41, with permission to travel to London in civilian clothes. It was his duty to report back to the Unit Pay Detachment at 0800 hours on the 21st July 41. Evidence will be produced to prove this and also to prove that he failed to report at this time and date. Nothing more was heard of him until he was brought back to Lancaster on 30 Aug 41 by Military escort under arrest and dressed in civilian clothes. In the charge there is "cost of apprehension" in the amount of £3. 16s 1d which will be dealt with by a document here from the Chief Treasury Officer. The accused had in his possession on apprehension the Return portion of his railway ticket which was exchanged for his free transport warrant from London to Lancaster, which he apparently was not permitted to use by the Military Police, and steps were taken when he was returned to this unit to effect a refund on his behalf of this Return portion, and the Chief Treasury Officer has ruled that since this ticket was issued on a warrant, that the refund from this return portion should be credited to Public Funds. Further, it was for the Court to decide, sir, whether or not the 17/8d - which represents the prisoner's single fare from London to Lancaster - shall be charged against this man.

The President: 17/8d?

Capt.Roberts. 17/8d sir. And it is my opinion that that fee should be deducted from the £3. 16. 1d. In regard to the second charge of losing by neglect his equipment, evidence will be produced to show that the accused was in possession of the articles of which he is charged as being deficient, at a reasonable time prior to his absenting himself. Evidence will also be produced that certain of the articles of which the accused was declared to be deficient by the Court of Inquiry, have since been recovered - that is, since the declaration of the Court of Inquiry was recorded. Further evidence will be produced to prove that the articles so recovered are not included in the second charge rate against the accused, - in other words, the deficiencies as listed in your charge are the deficient articles less those since recovered.

Q.31. When you mounted this Guard at 1800 hours on the 21st July was the accused present?

A.31. No sir.

Q.32. What action did you take when you found him to be absent?

Q.33. And when did you next see the accused?

Q.35. Was he dressed in plain clothes when you saw him?

A.35. He was in civilian clothes sir.

Q.36. Was he under arrest?

A.36. Yes.

The Defending Officer declined to cross examine this witness.

The President however asked this witness the following question:-

Q.46. And the first you saw of the accused was taking the Summary of Evidence in Civilian clothes?

A.46. Yes sir.

Q.47. And up to that time had he done any duties with this Unit?

A.47. No sir.

The President then said :-

"Now as a result of my questions or the questions of the Prosecuting Officer, do you now wish to re-examine this witness Captain Wingate?"

Capt.Wingate. No I do not think so.

The President. Or you Captain Roberts?

Capt.Roberts. No sir.

The President. That is all Sgt.Dagenais. Your next witness.

Capt.Roberts. Myself sir, in the capacity of Officer i/c Records.

Captain F.A. Roberts, Unit Pay Detachment, R.C.A.P.C. was duly sworn and said the following:-

President: Marked Exhibit "B", initialled by myself.

President: Any other Witnesses?

Third Witness for the prosecution A.32092 Private Davis A.D. Unit Pay Detachment, R.C.A.P.C. having been duly sworn was asked the following questions by the Prosecuting Officer:-

Q.48. Would you tell the Court Pte.Davis what your capacity is in the Unit Pay Detachment.

A.48. I take charge of the Orderly Room documentations and have the custody of the Quartermasters Stores.

President: In other words you are Quartermaster, or are you Orderly Clerk as well?

Pte.Davis. I am Orderly Room clerk at the same time sir.

Q.49. Do you have any way of knowing whether or not the accused was due to report at 0800 hours on 21st July 41?

A.49. I do sir. I compile the Duty Roster. I have a Duty Roster behind me on the wall; I look over it to check up who the Orderly Officer is. If they wish to know whose turn it is on Guard through that medium I can tell whose turn it is to be there and who should be on.

Q.50. Was the accused due to be at that Guard Mount at 1800 hours on 21 Jul 41 according to that list that you checked?

A.50. He was sir.

Q.51. Would you see the stub of the pass which was issued to him?

A.51. I would sir because I would see it when the Orderly Stamp was put on it.

Q.52. Did you check the stub on the 21st Jul 41?

A.52. Yes sir. The moment we found that Pte.Towns had not returned at 0 o'clock in the Orderly Room we looked to see if an extention had been granted and as this had not been done, his pass stub showed that he was due in.

Q.53. The counterfoil showed he should have been in at 0800 hours on the 21st July?

A.53. Yes sir.

Q.54. As soon as he was found to be apparently absent what action did you take in regard to his clothing, equipment and regimental necessities?

A.54. I proceeded to his billet on the 23rd of the month - two days after he was reported as being absent.

Q.55. And what did you do then?

A.55. I went to the lady in charge of the billet and asked her to turn over to me Private Towns' kit. She gave me all she could find and I gave her a receipt. The articles were brought back into the office, listed and then locked in what is now used as the Quartermasters Stores, Room 15A, under lock and key.

Q.56. There is a key provided and every step was taken to safeguard these articles?

A.56. Yes sir.

Q.57. What happened to the articles after that?

A.57. The President did not like the question so it was changed to the following:-

Q.57. Did these articles pass from your hands before the accused was apprehended?

A.57. Yes sir, they did. QM.S. McBroom, Hastings & Prince Edward Company, No.1. Cdn. Holding Unit came up to get the kit on the 1st August 41. I turned it over to him and he gave me a receipt.

Q.58. How did the kit get back to the accused after he was apprehended.

A.58. When the accused was apprehended and brought here we sent for his kit. Q.M.S McBroom returned the kit to me personally here and I gave him a receipt for it in return.

Q.59. I see. Well now, did the accused after he was apprehended provide you with any information which enabled you to locate further articles of his equipment which might reduce the inventory listed at the Court of Inquiry?

A.59. Yes he did sir. He told me where I might find some of his kit. I was able to locate some of it there.

Capt.Roberts to the President. The value of the recovered articles is given as £1. 12s 3½d which reduces the deficiencies on the declaration of Court of Inquiry, sir, from £4. 10s 4½d to £2. 18s 2d.

The president questions this witness as follows:-

Q.60. Does this sum of £2. 18s 2d represent the new replacement value of these articles or does it represent the worn value?

A.60. The new replacement value sir.

The Charge Sheet Exhibit "H" was here produce for inspection.

Pte.Davis. Yes sir, that is a correct list of the articles now deficient.

The President: And after having checked the original articles and the articles you eventually recovered, these articles were still deficient.

The President: What is that document?
Q.61.
Pte.Davis.
A.61. Copy of the original 800 which is in possession of the Unit sir.

Q.62. When C.Q.M.S. McBroom came back with the accused's equipment did he have the original 800 in his possession?

A.62. He did sir.

Q.63. Did you at that time check the kit he returned to you with that 800?

A.63. I did sir.

Q.64. And those were the deficient articles according to the inventory you took at that time as compared with the 800 ?

A.64. Yes sir.

The Prosecuting Officer then asked Pte.Davis;-

Q.65. You identified the deficiencies on the Charge Sheet? What way have you of verifying the prices there? - Perhaps I should say it another way. Have you a vocabulary of prices of Ordnance Stores?

A.65. No sir.

Q.66 You have not. Have you any way of verifying these prices as they are given in the Charge Sheet.

A.66. Only by means of the 513, which is certified by Ordnance.

Q.67. Is that a 513?

A.67. Yes sir.

Q.68. Is that a 513 as well?

A.68. Yes sir.

Capt.Roberts. I submit this to the Court merely as a verification of the prices as listed on the Charge Sheet. These are original documents which I shall have to return to the Unit Pay Detachment, but if the officers care to examine them in the absence of a vocabulary of prices they may do so.

The Prosecuting officer then asked Pte.Davis;-

Q.69. Have you checked the prices of the deficient articles listed in the Charge Sheet with the vocabulary of prices?

A.69. I have sir.

The Defending Officer, Capt.L.H.Wingate was asked if he wished to cross-examine this witness, which he declined to do.

Capt.T.G.Breck cross-examined the third witness as follows:-

Q.70. You gave the landlady of the accused's billet a receipt for the articles?

A.70. Yes sir.

Q.71. Have you a copy of that?

A.71. She sent a copy of it to us but we returned it to her. It is in her possession.

Q.72. You turned the articles over to QM.S. McBroom and gave him a receipt. Have you a copy of that?

A.72. No, receipts which were taken in transaction between us were given in at the Summary of Evidence sir.

President: (to Defending officer)

Do you or your prisoner question at all the prices of the list of articles that are in the Charge Sheet?

Defending Officer. No sir, they quite agree.

President: You quite agree the prices as stated?

Defending Officer. Quite agree.

The President further cross-examined the third witness as follows:-

Q.73. Davis you are Orderly Room Clerk officer and it is your duty to keep a record then I presume of absentees.

A.73. Yes sir.

Q.83. Did the accused at the time you apprehended him show you a pass granting him leave of absence from the Unit Pay Detachment, R.C.A.P.C. from 0800 hrs. on the 14th July to 0800 hours 21st July 41?

A.93. Yes sir.

Capt.Roberts: That is all.

Defending Officer. When he was warned or cautioned was it taken down in writing?

Sgt.Chester. No sir.

Defending Officer. It is supposed to be taken down in writing?

Sgt.Chester. Not necessarily.

Capt.Wingate. (Defending Officer.) You are quite sure that Pte.Towns said that he intended to return the next day?

Sgt.Chester. Yes sir, positive.

Capt.A.E.Jackson. Why was not the accused charged with A.W.L. rather than desertion?

Sgt.Chester. Because he admitted he was Absent without leave.

Capt.A.E.Jackson. Why did you not tell him he would be charged with desertion?

Sgt.Chester. We cannot tell a man he would be charged with desertion. At the time of making arrest we are not aware if he has been away one day or 100 days. We cannot charge with Desertion. That is entirely up to his Commanding Officer sir.

The President: Any further witnesses.

Capt.Roberts. No sir.

The accused C.4121 Pte.Towns.G.W. No.1.Cdn.Infantry Holding Unit. att'd Unit Pay Detachment.R.C.A.P.C. having been duly sworn is addressed by the President:-

A.98. Yes sir.

The President. It is only fair to you to say that it is much better for the guidance of the Court for you to give evidence under oath or to make a statement if you desire, or to make a clean breast of the whole affair, but if you do not want to you have no need to.

The accused asked whether he could speak to his Defending Officer first, and permission was granted.

A.111. Yes sir.

Q.112. Why did you not return?

A.112. I just kept going on sir, that is the reason sir. I had intentions of returning before then but I just kept going on and on and I didn't return, but I had every intention of coming back that day.

Q.126. You were drunk?

A.126. Yes sir.

Q.127. You were A.W.L. the next morning, then another week expired. Why did you not come back to your duty then?

A.127. I just kept going on.

Q.128. Where did you get all the money to live for five weeks anyway?

A.128 There's ways and means of making money, not from theft or anything like that sir. I was gambling sir, horse racing, cards.

Q.129. With soldiers or civilians?

A.129. With civilians sir.

Q.130. Can you give us any good reason for staying away without leave?

A.130. Just sir that I have had a lot of trouble with my family at home, it kept preying on my mind and I kept drinking. I finally got a letter. Captain Wingate can show you the letter that leads up to what did it. I finally got the evidence I wanted as far as my troubles are at home sir.

Q.131. When did you get that letter - when you were away?- before you were away?

A.131. After I was away sir.

Q.132. Where do you come from?

A.132. Trenton, Ontario sir.

Q.133. What did you do for a living back home?

A.133. Paper mills sir.

Q.134. How old are you?

A.134. 30, sir.

Q.135. How old are your children?

A.135. One is five, the other is four, and the other is about a year - about two years now sir.

Q.136. Supposing you had been successful in making a lot of money gambling and so on, would you still have been away?

A.136. No sir, I intended to come back sir.

Q.137. In connection with this loss of equipment and clothing you pleaded "Not Guilty" to that charge but I believe you admit these things are short?

A.137. Yes sir.

Q.138. What is your defence to that?

A.138. Sir, a few of the articles were here when I was on guard. We used to bring brushes and things like that .. If our shoes got dusty we could clean them. My knife and lanyard were here and brushes, but they could not be found.

Q.139. You have not found them yet? You have lost them?

A.139. Yes sir.

Q.140. You have been neglectful of losing them?

A.140. Yes as far as that is concerned, yes sir.

Q.141. If you left your cap on a counter, you would lose it by neglect - neglect through leaving it there?

A.141. Yes sir.

Q.142. The same applies to these articles here. You were neglectful and therefore short of same.

A.143. Yes sir.

Q.144. When were these issued to you? These boots and boot brush, polish, comb, field dressing, gloves, knife lanyard - way back home in Canada?

A.144. Some of the articles were issued when we came over.

Q.145. When did you come over.

A.145. December 1939.

Q.146. You had the articles from December 39 to say February 41.

A.146. Different things I have lost before that sir but they were replaced.

Q.147. We will say you had these articles sometime here in June or July?

A.147. Yes sir.

Q.148. Would it be fair to you to say a third of the lifetime of these articles had gone?

A.148. Yes sir.

Q.149. A third worn out.

A.149. Yes sir.

Q.150. Worth 2/3rds of their value when you went A.W.L.?
A.150. Yes sir.

Q.151. That would be fair would it?

A.151. Yes sir.

Q.152. You presumably knew that you were detailed for the various picket duties here in this building for the month of July and you had seen your name posted up on the Duty Roster, and you also knew that on the 21st July you were to go on duty at 6 o'clock in the evening?

A.152. Yes sir.

Q.153. You knew someone else would have to take your place when you were A.W.L.?

A.153. Yes sir.

Q.154. When these officers apprehended you in Coventry Street, - Sgt.Chester and S/Sgt. Ayre, were they in uniform?

A.154. No sir, civilian clothes.

Q.155. I presume they were quite decent to you.

A.155. Yes sir, quite pleasant.

Captain A.E.Jackson questions the accused as follows:-

Q.156. Have you had an opportunity of checking up in your billet to see if this equipment is there?

A.156. Myself sir? No sir.

Q.157. In other words they may have been overlooked. Is it the habit of all the pickets to leave their stuff in a certain place?

A.157. No sir, we take all our equipment to our billet.

Q.158. I understood you to say some of the equipment was here.

A.158 Yes, sir, brushes - sometimes if we go on guard our shoes get a little bit dirty and we clean them here.

The President further questions the accused as follows:-

Q.159. Since your apprehension by the Military Police in London where have you been?

A.159. At the Middleton Camp.

Q.160. Under close arrest? Guard room?

A.160. Yes sir.

Q.161. And that is since the 30th August?

A.161. I was up at the Castle for a while, until they moved.

Defending Officer and Prosecuting officers were asked if they wished to ask the accused any further questions and they both replied in the negative. The President then addressed the Defending Officer saying:-

" Captain Wingate, would you like an adjournment in order to prepare what you want to say to the Court?

Defending Officer: I don't think there is anything I can say now.

President: It is your duty to sum up the good points of your client and then Captain Roberts replies to your statement. Any good points you can say on behalf of your client I think you should.

The Court was adjourned.

The Court re-convened.

Defending officer.
Capt.L.W.Wingate:

Mr.President and Members, my client has been on trial and the evidence in my opinion does not indicate that he intended to desert. I think that the troubles he has had at home coupled with his somewhat nervous temperament, made him do what he did. His past record seems to be fairly good as far as soldiering goes, and as I understand if he had any intentions of returning he would not be classed as a deserter. The evidence produced and the statement he made to the Provost Sergeant to the effect that it was his intention to return, also his own evidence in the Court substantiated that statement that he intended to return the next day. I would recommend that the Court claims clemency for him and I leave the case in your hands.

Prosecuting Officer.
Capt.F.A.Roberts.

Mr.President and gentlemen, the accused has been charged with desertion from His Majesties army, while on active service. Under M.M.I.Chapter 3, desertion is only such when the intention is proved. As far as the prosecution is concerned, I am prepared to admit that on the basis of the evidence that has been presented before the Court, there was no apparent intention to desert. There was unquestionably a period of absence without leave, and after having heard the Presidents' remarks in regard to the two cases of desertion and the testimony which the accused gave under oath that when he left the Unit Pay Detachment at 0800 hours 14th July, he intended to return when his pass expired, it would appear that the offence is one of absence without leave rather than desertion.
In regard to the second charge of deficiencies of kit, I do not wish to press for the recovery of the full value as stated there. I am prepared to accept the suggested figure of a reduction by one third which the accused has agreed is a fair valuation of the equipment up to the time he absented himself.
Just before I close I should like to bring up the point in cross-examining the accused, the prosecution asked a question which appeared to be brow-beating. It was suggested it was brow-beating. The President pointed out that it was the job of the Prosecution to bring out all the evidence in his favour as well as to his detriment, and the question was put frankly in an attempt to bring out evidence which only came to my attention this morning in regard to the domestic difficulties of the accused. I have personally read the document to which the accused made reference in his testimony, and it would seem that there was some justification for his actions, but I leave the case on the evidence which I have presented and it is for the Court to decide what should be done.

The President:..... The Court will now close to deliberate upon the merits and de-merits and to consider as to whether the accused is Guilty or Not Guilty of these charges. I would ask you to withdraw please.

The President: - We have come to our decision which will be announced in Court. The Court is now re-open and I ask you, Mr.Prosecutor, have you any evidence produce as to the character and particulars of the ac

Prosecuting Officer. - Yes sir. I produce Army Form A.F.B.296 (Exhibit "L") and M.F.M.6. (Exhibit "M")

President: - Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?

Prosecutor. - Yes sir.

President: - And have you compared the contents of the statement with the regimental books?

Prosecutor: - Yes sir.

President: - Are they true extracts?

Prosecutor: - No sir.

President: - Why is not this M.F.M.6 true?

Prosecutor: - Because I can produce to you extracts from Part II Orders re the accused and they do not correspond with the entries in the Conduct Sheets.

President: - These extracts that you have now produced in your capacity as officer in charge Part II Orders are signed by you and you have personally gone through Part II Orders and made extracts from these Part II Orders?

Prosecutor: - Yes sir.

The President asked the Defending Officer whether he wished to cross-examine the Prosecuting Officer, and he declined to do so. The President then asked him if he wished to address the Court in the matter of sentence.

Defending Officer: No sir, I do not.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

PLEA PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE OF
C.4121 Pte TOWNS George Washington

Here Gentlemen we have a man who has committed a crime of A.W.L. I can hear all of saying, This is a crime which is all too common, There is too much of it. Let us not be too hasty. Bear with me please until we consider this mans xase, perhaps in this case there is a reason, or some extenuation facts.

This man is a real soldier, one of the original, 1st Division men, a member of the Hastings & Price Edward Regt. He enlisted 2 Sept 44 and arrived overseas the following December. He was with his Reg't when they landed in France in 1940 and he made the invasionof not only Sicily but of Italy and continued with them, xx fighting in every action that they fought until the crossing of the Moro River. During this action when the fighting was at its height. Pte TOWNS, with several members of his section which he was leading, plunged over a cliff, which they could not see because of the darkness of the night. One of these men was killed, another broke his back, another broke his leg very badly. Pte Towns washinself badly injured, having received in this sixty foot(60') fall several cracked ribs, a broken jow and lost all his teeth. He was evacuated to the hospital where he spent eighteen days (18) and where a silver plate was put in his jaw. From the hospital he was sent to #1 Cdn Convalescent Depot. In June he returned to the hospital, with pneumonia, pluresy & dysentry. When well he was returned to # 1 Cdn Con Dep.

at the Convalescent Depot he worked conscientiously and steadily. until such time as he went A.W.L. as Maj. McTEER has testified.

True Pte TOWNS has some charges on his F.F.M. 6 all of them absences, but what soldier during those four long years in England did not go absent. These men joined the Army to fight, not to cool their heels in England. Please notice Gentlemen, that for a long time there has not been an entry on his F.M. 6.

This obviously is the mark of a good soldier. There must have been some reason for this man to go AWL for 83 days especially when he had a good job under pleasant and confortable surroundings. Let me point out to you, What I think is sufficient cause for any of us to lose our reason.

Pte TOWNS has a worry that preyed upon his mind. A worry thank heavens, that, very few of us will ever have. He was happily married when he left his wife and three children, to come overseas and fight. He had not been gone long, when another man, a villian with no scruples, came upon the scene that he had left, alienated his wifes affections and in due course she had a child by him. Naturally he was engaged and had divorce proceedings instituted. This Gentlemen I say was good reason for his absences in England For some reason the divorce did not come through, though there were sufficient grounds. His wife's unfaithfulness did not stop here, since that time, she has had another child by this MAN?, AND THEN SOLD Everything that Pte TOWNS and she had gotten together and went to another town with this man where they now live, leaving Pte Towns' children flat. The children were picked up by the Children's Aid Society and placed in care of Pte Towns mother, who is seventy (70) years old and who is neither in condition or position to care for them. Place yourself in this man's position Gentlemen, Is this not sufficient reason to drive you mad? Would you not be apt to run away from all your responsibilities & and try to forget? Overseas trying to become fit to fight again! ! ! I say Gentlemen that this man should have been home long ago on compassionate grounds. He made application for compassionate leave, but it was refused in May. Had this leave been granted this crime would never have been committed.

Gentlemen I leave this man to your consideration, please give these facts that I have mentioned your deepest thought.

In closing please let one point out that Pte Towns was not apprehended, He gave himself up voluntarily when he realized his mistake. The further mark of a good soldier.

Sir, we were drinking on the night of Dec 2 in the guard room and about 2 1/2 we went in the other room to have another drink and found the window open. And so we thought it would be a task to go down town for a couple of hours knowing there would be no other check up that night. We made down our beds and didn't take any kit with us. We intended to be back in a couple of hours.

The accused has served with his unit in France, Sicily and Italy. He states that he has been about three times a sergeant and ~~sometimes~~ times a corporal. While in England he was in a good deal of trouble but states that this was due largely to marital troubles which have now cleared up.

Although he did break arrest while under confinement and awaiting promulgation of his sentence by a prior F.G.C.M. he had no intention of doing more than spending a few hours in town. Of the situation at the guard room was indeed a tacit invitation to go on a lark.

He did not choose a F.G.C.M. and it is submitted that he should not be penalized merely because his Commanding Officer refused jurisdiction in this case, and that he should receive no heavier sentence than his C.O. could have awarded.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE Exhibit "A" J.B.

Summary of Evidence in the case of C.4121 Private George Washington Towns, Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment, presently a convalescent at 1 Canadian Convalescent Depot, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas

I am employed at 1 Canadian Convalescent Depot as Sergeant in charge of the Guardroom and Regimental Police and as such I have custody of the soldiers in arrest at the Guardroom 1 Canadian Convalescent Depot. At 1800 hours daily the soldiers in custody in the Guardroom are turned over to the special Convalescent Guard. I make a regular check every evening of the Guardroom and I visited the Guardroom at approximately 2300 hours to make a check up. At approximately 2315 hours, 2 Dec 44, I checked up on the soldiers in custody in the cells and I found that Pte Towns, the accused, whom I recognize had escaped. I then gave certain instructions which were carried out.

The accused declines to question this witness.

(Hast. & P.E.R.),
No 1 Cdn Div Inf Reinf Unit.

The order convening the Court, the charge-sheet, and the summary of evidence are laid before the Court.

The Court satisfy themselves as provided by Rules of Procedure 22 and 23.

The accused is brought before the Court.

Prosecutor - Lieut. J.R. Turner, Edm. Regt.

Defending Officer - Lieut. W.G. McLean, H.& P.E.R.

At 1520 hours, the trial commences.

The order convening the Court is read and is marked A signed by the president and attached to the proceedings.

The names of the president and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused, and they severally answer to their names.

President: Do you object to be tried by me as president, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
Accused: No, sir.

The President and Members of the Court are duly sworn.

The following officers under instruction are duly sworn: Lieut. K.L. Leon (Edmonton Regt)
Lieut. J.D. Colson (1st. Black Watch)
Lieut. T.L. Taylor (Royal Regt. of Can)
Lieut. T.G. McLaren(48th. Highrs. of Can)
Lieut. C.L. Dow (Carlton York Regt)

The shorthand writer is duly sworn.

President: Do you object to Sgt. Spidle as shorthand writer?
Accused: No, sir.

The charge-sheet is signed by the president, marked B[illegible], and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon each charge in the above-mentioned charge-sheet.

President: Do you plead guilty or not guilty?
Accused: Guilty, sir.

President: Did you elect to be tried by court-martial or did your commanding officer remand you for trial?
Accused: By the C.O., sir.

The provisions of Rule of Procedure 35(B) are complied with.

President: Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?

The Defending Officer, in mitigation of punishment, says:

"This case, Mr. President, is a very unusual A.W.L. case. In dealing with it, the Court has a most serious responsibility. The plea of guilty by Pte. George Washington Towns leaves the accused at the Court's mercy. He now stands with his face to a stone wall of precedence which is built up of a generally accepted view that a man who is guilty must be punished.

"Any hope of mercy must pierce that stone wall of precedence.

"The Canadian Army Overseas is a body of men who would willingly give their lives for the sanctity of their homes and, regardless of class or creed, the main basic reason for his being here is to protect our homes.

"The accused enlisted in the Canadian Army on September 2nd, 1939. His service in the Royal Canadian Navy during the years 1928 to 1935 vouches for his sincerity of purpose and proves he was conscious of the necessity for preparedness in Canadian homes.

"Six years ago Pte. Towns married a very sweet and lovely girl. Together they established a home in the town of Trenton, Ontario, Canada. It is only one of the many homes that is the very heart-beat of the Canadian Army Overseas. Only so long as these heart-beats are in tune can we maintain our force in England and carry on to ultimate victory.

"To this happy couple, two sweet and delightful kiddies were borne. Donna is now 4½ years old; Gail is only 3. But building a home is not all that it is cracked up to be. The war came along. Towns enlisted. A third child was on its way. Towns left Canada and Wannda was borne in December 1940. He has never seen Wannda. It is pretty tough circumstances to have a kid you have never seen and to be over here serving.

"In spite of his sacrifices, Towns is every bit a soldier. He came over here with fixed purpose to fight for his home. His letters to home were of love and full of hope. He was proud to be in England. He became a qualified P.T. instructor; a disciplinarian; a soldier in every sense of the word. He was defending a home--a wife and three kiddies.

"Now, what is the reaction on the mind of an individual leading such a full life, content with his lot and happy with the satisfaction he is healthy and strong so that when the time comes he can defend that home physically, you the Court can well understand.

"Alice Towns, the accused's wife, could not stand the separation from her husband. A letter dated June 1941 from his mother informed him that his wife gave birth to another child--a child that is not his own. It was a terrific blow. It broke Towns heart. Like a wounded animal he crawled in a hole to lick his wounds. On some occasions time is a great healer. Towns got hold of himself, looked the facts in the face, forgave his wife, served a term for being A.W.L. while he was licking his wounds.

"Now, before his term expired, Towns received a second letter informing him that his wife was due for a second child that was not his own.

"These letters are now in Ottawa, having been used for the purpose of investigation by the R.C.A.P.C. This information in regard to the two children borne to Town's wife has been confirmed. I have a letter of confirmation from the Department of National Defence Dependents' Allowance Board.

"While suffering from a period of mental extraction, Pte. Towns absented himself without leave. He had asked for leave in order to square himself around, but was refused.

"Now, with a fair break, Towns who is proving himself a capable soldier can be made of value to our Army.

"Thursday night here in this camp, junior officers are being called upon to attend a lecture to hear their duties towards their men, and we all more or less have an idea of what we will hear. We will be told that it is our duty to know the innermost workings of the mind of each and every man under our command, and that we are to--that we should be able to--fathom out family troubles and help our men over any periods of trouble.

"It is our responsibility to make x soldiers; not break them.

"Towns has already served for being A.W.L. owing to the fact of the first child borne. Now he is again facing possivly another sentence for being A.W.L. because of a second child--the same circumstances.

"Right now the making or breaking rests in your hands.

"He is a man who has suffered untold agony. He is not responsible for the guilt he has admitted. The accused has been misunderstood by his superior officers and now must he suffer for their misguidance during a critical period of his service? Is our democratic army so constituted that Towns must further suffer for misunderstanding and for misguidance?

"If it is so constituted, I myself want no part of it.

"I would like Pte. Towns, if you let him, show his hands to the Court.

"I show you that to show the love this man had for his family. There is no question about it in my mind that he is not responsible for his act of being absent without leave for some 26 days. We are all more or less under mental stress due to the fact that we are away from our homes, but we, especially officers, have more means than the private, more avenues in which to direct our thoughts in order to overcome periods of distress.

"This is the time when military justice stands a test. I ask the Court when considering its sentence to be extremely lenient: if not throw the case out. Give the man a chance.

"Today (thanks to Capt. Daniels, Padre of camp) this soldier is now being straightened around. Proceedings are under way for divorce. He has got his family, that is, his own children, under the control of his mother, and his mental attitude is entirely different. Another period of detention may send this man downhill and we got to keep everybody uphill.

The Court is closed for consideration of the finding.

ENC. .....

25th January, 1943.

Dear Sir.,

I am writing you on behalf of Miss Marjorie Kinalda Page, who is in one of our Institutions, and who is expecting to give birth to a child in March.

Miss Page states that you are the putative father of her child, and has placed the matter in our hands in order that a satisfactory settlement may be arrived at with regard to the maintenance of the little one, when born.

Assuming Miss Page's statement to be correct, we would suggest you sign one of our Agreements to pay the young lady, through us, a certain sum of money per week for the maintenance of the little one when born.

The question is a serious one, and no doubt will give you cause for grave thought. If you have not hitherto learned to look to God for help and guidance in life's perplexities, I would urge that you do so in the present circumstances.

If the foregoing does not commend itself to you, then I must remind you that you leave Miss Page the alternative of taking stronger measures that are available to her.

Will you please let me hear from you as to which course of action you prefer should be taken upon the question at issue.

Yours faithfully,

Nancy Gordon

1st Witness for Prosecution

A9009 S/Sgt Titus T.M. of 7 Cdo. Pnr. Coy., having been duly sworn, states:-

On 20 July 43 in the evening, an instructor received & provided to Boden Camp with armed other Provost people. Pte Lewis and myself went into a clearing in the woods behind the Soldiers Club. There were a number of tables there with people playing games at them. There was at least 50 people there. Lewis and I stood at the table where a game of Crown & Anchor was in progress. The accused was at the table and he was operating the table. He handled the dice and was collecting money. He used a tin box and dice and the players were using money. Money also used the dice except the accused. I do not know very much about the game. He seemed to be collecting and paying out money. Then a shout was blown and we turned the accused. He made a grab at the money on the table and tried to get away.

I identify Exhibit "A" as the cream and carmine sheet that was on the table. I also produce a notice which was on the table Exhibit "B".

Cross-examination

The accused was using 3 dice, that I am not sure. I actually saw money on the table when the whistle blew. I do not know what happened to the money that was on the table. I picked up a cup that was near there. There were pennies and ha'penny bits on the table.

2nd Witness for Prosecution

17074 Pte. Lewis, S. of No. 7 Adv. Aer. Sq. having been duly sworn, states:

On 20th July in the evening I went to a clearing in a bush at Barton. There I saw the accused standing near a table running a crown and anchor game. He was picking up the dice and money. I know how the game is played. The accused was picking up the money and the dice. I stood there for about 2 minutes before a whistle was blown. The place in the woods where we were was pointed out. I recognise Exhibit "B" as a notice that was on the table. I also identify Exhibit "A" as the sheet on which the game was being played. I spotted the accused when the whistle blew. I do not know what happened to dice. There were about 150 people there.

Cross-examination

All I saw was the accused putting in the bag and money. The money was in front of the accused. I do not know what happened to the money that was in the tote. He made a grab at the tote just before I caught him.

The Prosecution is closed.

The Defence moves under R.P. 40 that the prosecution has not made out a prima facie case.

The submission is disallowed.

R.P. 40 is complied with.

The Defence says nothing

The Prosecutor makes a closing address (attached hereto)

The Defending officer makes a reply (attached hereto)

The Court is closed for consideration of finding.

The Court is re-opened and Ovenden R.O. 3262 is complied with.

The Prosecutor produces the MFB355 and MFM6 of the accused.

The accused calls a character witness.

1st Character Witness

P.O. M. J. Davis, No. D73975 J.M.O.B.C., having been duly sworn, states:-

I am the superintending clerk of C.T.S. I have known the accused for some considerable time. He is a very good sailor and soldier. I have had many tasks with him & all

No cross-examination.

The Defending Officer addresses the Court (attached hereto)

Ownmans R. O. 3262 is complied with.

The Court is closed for consideration of sentence.

Prosecution

Closing Address:

The case is charged under Sec 40 and evidence has been produced to the effect that there was operating a Crown and Anchor game in a public place. The defence has pointed out in cross examination that the prosecution witnesses did not see everything that went on. That is true but they saw enough.

I submit that if the Court finds that the operation of this game in a public place constitute conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline then a conviction would be in order. It is for the Court to decide.

Lt
Prosecutor

Closing Address for the Defence

I submit that I point out to the Court that the Prosecution has failed to prove that the accused was operating a gambling device. I submit in my closing address that the last two prosecution witnesses in reality the witness for the prosecution were unable to say that they had seen the accused with money bets placed on a table or actually collect the dice. In the most unlikely event of crown and anchor cannot be played or spun unless bets are placed on the various squares and the dice are rolled. Since the above has not been proved it is therefore impossible to say that the accused was operating a gambling device. The prosecution must produce any money or even the dice that the accused is alleged to have used

Also I should like to submit a question regarding the charge. If the game was being played and if it was supposed to take place in a "public place" the how can it be an offence under the Army Act. The only prohibition of gambling is laid down in Section 1202 of K R Cr which states that it shall not take place in garrisons, camps, barracks or cantonments. Since the above is the only orders against gambling and since the charge still reads a "public Place" how can it be an offence under the Army Act.

Adjutant Capt

Defending Officer

Plea in Mitigation of Sentence of the Accused:

1. The M F M 6 is absolutely clean. He has never been up for any charge whatever since joining the army in Apr. 1921.

2. He was shown by the evidence of S.Q.M.S Harris, the accused was only in Bordon from the 10th to 20th July. A period of only 10 days during which it is very unlikely that he should become a big time gambler.

3. Although I can produce no evidence in proof I should like to pass on to the court the fact that the accused never did gamble before joining the army even to the extent that he was just taught how to play "Knock Rummy" on the way across on the boat. This was told to me by the accused himself but by the way in what he told me, I firmly believe his

In the case of N♭C.38525 Pte TOWNSEND, Joseph Ernest Lloyd, of the Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps, posted to Adm Wing, Canadian Training School, taken before Capt D.K. Hazzard, OIC Adm, No.1 (OCTU) Wing, Canadian Training School.

23 JUL, 43.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on Oath

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

H.17074 Pte Lewis, S., #7 Provost Coy, att CRU, being duly sworn, states:--

"At approx 2030 hrs, 20th JUL, 43, whilst on a raid at Bordon, in company with L/Cpl Titus, I saw Pte Townsend operating a "Crown & Anchor" table. Following instructions, which were to arrest operators of gaming tables, indicated by a short blast on a whistle, we did so, and asked Pte Townsend for his paybook, which he produced, and took all his particulars and was ordered to escort him to a station wagon, where he was left in charge of L/Cpl Titus."

THE ACCUSED BEING ASKED, DECLINES TO CROSS-ESAMINE THE WITNESS

S. Lewis, Pte

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

A.9039 L/Cpl Titus, T.M., No.7 Provost Coy, CRU, having been duly sworn, states:--

"At approx 2030 hrs, 20th JUL, 43, I arrived in Bordon accompanied by Pte Lewis. We proceeded to a clearing in the bush behind the Bordon Soldiers' Club, where there were a number of gambling tables in operation. We placed ourselves behind the accused, who was operating a "Crown & Anchor" board. At a signal which was a blast on a whistle, we arrested and held Pte Townsend and collected the evidence which I have here, off his table, and took his particulars. I later escorted him to his unit guard room where I received a body receipt for him. At the guard room he made a statement to the D.A.P.M., Capt Cressey, that he had bought his Crown & Anchor board in Manchester and had only been operating it for two or three months."

Questioned by the Accused.

Q.1 "If I was operating a table at the time, where are the money and necessary dice?"

A.1 "You were seen to put dice in your inside pocket, and the money on the table was scattered, as when we grasped you the table was knocked and the money scattered."

Q.2 "Where did this leather cup come from as it is not mine?"

A.2 "It may have been knocked from another table, but as it was picked up closest to yours we brought it along with your possessions."

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO QUESTION THE WITNESS FURTHER.

T.K. Titus, L/Cpl

THE ACCUSED WAS CAUTIONED AS FOLLOWS:--

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on Oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO MAKE A STATEMENT.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence, consisting of two pages, was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused, and that Rules of Procedure 4 (c), (d), (e), (f) and (g) have been complied with.

"M" "C.L. Mulland" Maj

Statement of D143097 Gnr Townsend K.J., 3 A/T Regt R.C.A. taken at No. 7 Canadian General Hospital, 12 Sept 44.

I have been cautioned by L/Cpl Massell of the Canadian Provost Corps that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so but anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be used as evidence.

To show I understand the above caution I sign my name herewith.

Sgd: "K.H. Townsend"

I am Keith John Townsend, age 19 of the 3rd A/T Regt RCA. I landed in France with my regt on d & 3 and we set up our first positions on D & 11. On 16 Aug 44 I was with my regt not far from Falaise. We were in our positions and had orders to clean our weapons. I cleaned my rifle first and then cleaned a Schmeizer machine gun which I had picked up about a month previously. While I had the Schmeizer in my hand I decided to wound myself so I pointed it at my left foot and pulled the trigger. I had been in action for two months when I did this and my nerves were shot. I had had all I could stand of seeing my buddies killed all around me. I got so I could not eat or sleep and so I just cracked up. After I shot myself I was evacuated to the R.A.P. and eventually to this hospital. I have read over the above statement and it is true.

"This lad was in action for two months before this unfortunate incident happened. One is impressed with his fine physical bearing. His morale seems to have improved also. It would be a pity if at his age and particularly, having two brothers in action in Italy, if he were not given another chance to vindicate himself. I ask the Court to give him that chance. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of D143097 Gnr TOWNSEND K.J., 3 Canadian Anti Tank Regiment RCA att No 7 Canadian General Hospital, charged with, when on active service wilfully injuring himself with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service (AA Sec 18(2)), alternative, when on active service neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (AA Sec 40)

By direction of the Commanding Officer the eivdence is taken on oath.

First witness — A56056 L/Cpl Massell CB, 8 Cdn Pro Coy, Cdn Pro Corps having been sworn states:-

I am A56056 L/Cpl Massell CB, 8 Cdn Pro Coy, Cdn Pro Corps, On the 12 Sep 44 I interviewed Gnr Townsend KJ, the accused, whom I recognize at No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp. There was no one else present. I told him I was a member of the Cdn Pro Corps and wanted him to tell me how he received his wound as I was investigating the matter. The accused was not under arrest at this time. I cautioned him as follows: You are not obliged to say anything unless you wish to do so but anything you do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence. He understood the caution. He gave a voluntary statement which I took down in writing and he signed same after I had read it over to him and he had read it over himself. There were no threats, promises or inducements extended to the accused. I produce the statement as evidence and I recognize the signature on the statement as that belonging to the accused.

"C.B. Massell"
Witness

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The statement referred to in the evidence of the above witness is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

Second witness — Capt W E Armour, medical officer of No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp sworn states:-

I am Capt W.E Armour, medical officer in charge of ward 6 of No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp. Gnr Townsend was admitted to my ward from 110 Brit Gen Hosp on the 18 Aug 44 suffering from a wound of the left great toe. It was a through and through wound of the promimal phalanx of the great toe on the lateral side, extending in a vertical direction and had been treated when first seen by me. X-ray taken at Brit Gen Hosp showed no fracture. The wound has healed satisfactorily and he is now fit for full duty without change of category as far as the wound is concerned. In my opinion the wound could have been caused by a small arms projectile fired from a weapon held by the man himself. There is nothing to show at what distance from the wound the weapon might have been fired.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Third Witness Capt AM Johnson, RCAMC, No 10 Cdn Gen Hosp.

I certify that in my opinion the attendance of this witness is, owing to the exigencies of the service, not readily procurable and a written statement of his evidence signed by him, has been read to the accused and is attached hereto as Exhibit "B".

I was No. 2 on gun, and nerves caused me to do this. Being in action so long, not much sleep, shelling heavy for a long time, some of my gun crew were wounded. I have two brothers older both now in Italy. I would like to get a job behind the lines if I could as I don't think I could stand it very long at the front.
Weight 163 lbs ht 5'7½".
My conduct sheet is clear.
Q. How much rest did you have in 2 months?
A. We were in action position all the time except for two period of 3 days each for reorganization.
Q. Did you report to anyone that you felt you were cracking?
A. No sir, other fellows had and nothing was done about it.
Q. What were the casualties in your troop?
A. When I left about half of the originals were casualties.

Plea in Mitigation by Defending Officer.

This lad was in action for two months before this unfortunate incident happened. One is impressed with his fine physical bearing. His morale seems to have improved also. It would be a pity if at his age, and particularly, having two brothers in action in Italy, if he were not given another chance to vindicate himself. I ask the Court to give him that chance. I think he is deserving of it, and I also think that given the right leadership he would make the grade.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of D 143097 Gnr TOWNSEND, KJ, 3 Canadian Anti Tank Regiment RCA att No 7 Canadian General Hospital, charged with, when on active service wilfully injuring himself with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service (AA Sec 18(2)), alternative, when on active service neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (AA Sec 40)

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

A 56056 L/Cpl Massell CB, 8 Cdn Pro Coy, Cdn Pro Corps having been sworn states :-

I am A56056 L/Cpl Massell CB, 8 Cdn Pro Coy, Cdn Pro Corps. On the 12 Sep 44 I interviewed Gnr Townsend KJ, the accused, whom I recognize at No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp. There was no one else present. I told him I was a member of the Cdn Pro Corps and wanted him to tell me how he received his wound as I was investigating the matter. The accused was not under arrest at this time. I cautioned him as follows :- you are not obliged to say anything unless you wish to do so but anything you do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence. He understood the caution. He gave a voluntary statement which I took down in writing and he signed same after I had read it over to him and he had read it over himself. There were no threats, promises or inducements extended to the accused. I produce the statement as evidence and I recognize the signature on the statement as that belonging to the accused.

"L B Massell" Witness

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The statement referred to in the evidence of the above witness is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

Second Witness

Capt W E Armour, medical officer of No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp sworn states :-

I am Capt W E Armour, medical officer in charge of ward 6 of No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp. Gnr Townsend was admitted to my ward from 110 Brit Gen Hosp on the 16 Aug 44 suffering from a wound of the left great toe. ~~According to medical records accompanying him the wound was incurred on the 10 Aug 44.~~ It was a through and through wound of the proximal phalanx of the great toe on the lateral side, extending in a vertical direction and had been treated when first seen by me. X-ray taken at Brit Gen Hosp showed no fracture. The wound has healed satisfactorily and he is now fit for full duty without change of category as far as the wound is concerned. In my opinion the wound could have been caused by a small arms projectile fired from a weapon held by the man himself. There is nothing to show at what distance from the wound the weapon might have been fired.

"W Edward Armour" Capt RCAMC Witness

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

"fm"

Third Witness — Capt AM Johnson, RCAMC, No 10 Cdn Gen Hosp.

I certify that in my opinion the attendance of this witness is, owing to the exigencies of the service, not readily procurable and a written statement of his evidence signed by him, has been read to the accused and is attached hereto as Exhibit "B".

"J W G Thompson" Lt Col
Officer Taking Summary

I do not require the attendance of Capt AM Johnson for the purpose of cross-examination.

"K J Townsend"

The accused declines to make a statement at this time.

The accused does not call any witnesses.

(Sgd) K.J. TOWNSEND

STATES:

I am Keith John TOWNSEND, age 19 of the 3rd A/T Regt. RCA. I landed in France with my regt. on Dplus 3 and we set up our first positions on D plus 11. On 16 Aug. 44 I was with my regt. not far from Falaise. We were in our positions and had orders to clean our weapons. I cleaned my rifle first and then cleaned a Schmeiser machine gun which I had picked up about a month previously. While I had the Schmeiser in my hand I decided to wound myself so I pointed it at my left foot and pulled the trigger. I had been in action for two months when I did this and my nerves were shot. I had had all I could stand of seeing my buddies killed all around me. I got so I could not eat or sleep and so I just cracked up.

After I shot myself I was evacuated to the R.A.P. and eventually to this hospital.

I have read over the above statement and it is true.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

On the 20th Dec 1944 I reported back from leave to my company and was given a list of men who were to be in my section. Pte Townsend was one of them. The platoon was at that time under orders to move forward into action. At 1900 hrs we received orders to form up andmove fwd. I called Townsend's name and looked for him but he could not be found. We finally moved off without him.

Q. Had the platoon been warned of the impending action?

A. We were to move fwd to exploit a breach made by the Irish Regiment We expected action that night.

A. I cannot say, as I do not know him to see him

Q. Did you call the roll before leaving the area?
A. Yes I did. There was only two Bren gunners and myself in the section.

Q. (by the Court) - Then it would have been impossible for Townsend to be there without you having known it?
A. It would have been impossible.

A. Just what the men said - there were going in but expected to rest for a while.

A. We went up the road but could not find the bn so we returned to Villa Nova. I figured I might as well stay there as I would get a stiff sentence anyway.

A. Yes, I looked all around but could not find them

ADDRESS BY THE DEFENCE

TOWNSEND was absent for about 30 days - but although he was AWL he did not desert - since he showed an open intention to rejoin his company

6. The accused gave evidence that he had not been warned by anyone that action was imminent. He stated that he knew the platoon he was in, but that the Sgt said something about changing his section, but nothing definite. He was drinking all day of the 20 Dec 44 in his platoon house and woke up the next morning in a house down the road. He did not notice anyone getting ready. There was some talk among the men about going into the line but they expected to rest for a while.

7. The accused further stated that when he went for breakfast to his company cookhouse on the morning of 21 Dec 44 the staff told him that the company had gone, and told him the direction. The accused then got his equipment and started after the company. This is corroborated by a member of the cookhouse staff who gave evidence. The accused stated that he looked for his unit but could not find it.

8. It is therefore my opinion that there is no evidence that the accused was properly warned for the forthcoming action, nor is there the necessary evidence of an intent to desert.

9. I advise therefore that as the findings and sentence have been reserved to you for confirmation you should not confirm the finding on the first charge but may confirm the finding on the second charge, and that you should vary the sentence under RP 55.

10. If you accept my advise you should endorse on Part III, page 4 of GF A96 the following minute: "I do not confirm the finding on the first charge. I confirm the finding on the second charge. I vary the sentence so that it shall be as follows: 'To be imprisoned with hard labour (or without hard labour) for ___ years' and I confirm the sentence as so varied."

11. It should be noted particularly that a sentence of imprisonment will not be in excess of two years. You may of course in view of the non-confirmation of the finding on the first charge impose a sentence of not more than two years detention instead of imprisonment, in which case your minute, as above set out, should be varied to read: "To undergo detention for ___ years (or ___ months) etc." You should date the minute and sign as GOC 5 Cdn Armd Div.

12. After the proceedings have been dealt with by you, may they be passed to the ADJA 5 Cdn Armd Div in order that the same may be transmitted for promulgation.

1. These proceedings have been reviewed by me, the finding and sentence having been reserved for confirmation. They are enclosed herewith.

2. The accused was charged on two charges as follows:

First Charge
Sec 12(1)(a) Army Act — WHEN ON ACTIVE SERVICE, DESERTING HIS MAJESTY'S SERVICE, in that he, in the field, absented himself without leave, with intent to avoid battle, at apprex 1900 hours 20 Dec 44 and remained absent until he surrendered himself to K.67700 Cpl Bradley J S, of the 4 Cdn Rft Bn at apprex 2030 hrs 19 Jan 45. (Absent 30 days 1 hr 30 mins).

Second Charge
Sec 15 (1) Army Act — WHEN ON ACTIVE SERVICE, ABSENTING HIMSELF WITHOUT LEAVE, in that he, in the field, while under close arrest absented himself without leave at 1530 hrs 26 Jan 45 and remained absent until apprehended by an NCO of the Military Police on Route 16 at about 1600 hrs 30 Jan 45. (Absent 4 days 30 mins).

He pleaded not guilty to the first charge and guilty to the second charge. He was found guilty on both charges and was sentenced to undergo four years imprisonment with hard labour.

3. While the findings and sentence have been reserved for confirmation as the sentence is a sentence of imprisonment the matter of confirmation may be dealt with by you. Such sentence is in excess of the punishment authorized by law - the maximum sentence of imprisonment being a sentence of two years with or without hard labour.

4. I must further advise that the finding on the first charge should not be confirmed for the reasons hereinafter indicated.

5. The first charge alleges that the accused absented himself without leave "with intent to avoid battle". The only witness for the prosecution gave evidence that he did not know the accused, that he was given a list of men who were to be in his section and that he called the role. The accused could not then be found. This witness was the section commander. He did not know if the section had been warned of any impending action as he had just returned from leave.

1 On 8 Feb 45 you were the President of a FGCM with Capt N H Shaw, Ir R C and Capt P J Stephen, C B Highrs, as members, for the trial of the m/n on two charges (1) when on active service deserting His Majesty's Service and (2) when on active service absenting himself without leave. The accused pleaded not guilty to the first charge and guilty to the second, was found guilty of the first charge, and was sentenced to undergo four years imprisonment with hard labour.

2 By reference to AA Sec 44, sentences of imprisonment may not be in excess of two years so that the sentence awarded by you in this case was excessive.

3 The first charge alleges that the accused absented himself without leave "with intent to avoid battle". The only witness for the prosecution gave evidence that he did not know the accused, that he was given a list of men who were to be in his section and that he called the roll. The accused could not then be found. This witness was the section comd. He did not know if the section had been warned of any impending action as he had just returned from leave.

4 The accused gave evidence that he had not been warned by anyone that action was imminent. He stated that he knew the platoon he was in, but that the Sgt said something about changing his section, but nothing definite. He was drinking all day of the 20 Dec 44 in his platoon house and woke up the next morning in a house down the road. He did not notice anyone getting ready. 5 The accused further stated that when he went for breakfast to his Company cookhouse on the morning of 21 Dec 44 the Staff told him that the Company had gone, and told him the direction. The accused then got his equipment and started after the Company. This is corroborated by a member of the cookhouse staff who gave evidence. The accused stated that he looked for his unit but could not find it.

6 It is therefore my opinion that there is no evidence that the accused was properly warned for the forthcoming action, nor is there the necessary evidence of an intent to desert.

7 For the reasons given above, I therefore direct that you re-assemble this Court at the earliest opportunity for the purpose of reconsidering your finding on the first charge, and the sentence for both charges. Your attention is directed to AA Sec 54(2), RP 52 and MML page 759 for procedure on revision, and to AA Sec 44 for the scale of punishments which may be awarded. Your attention is also drawn to AA Sec 58(3). The record of your revision will be set out in the form given on page 759 MML.

I.e. making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity, later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B-52197 PTE. WILLIAM CHARLES TOWNSEND, R.C.I.C. ON STRENGTH 9 SN. 20 Coy R.

The accused has for some time been under a certain mental strain, the circumstances of which have led to his illegal absence.

He had been very desirous of proceeding abroad on a C.M.F. draft with the rest of his army associates but through circumstances was left off the draft when it eventually did leave. After this he was moved about from place to place and one unit to another. He was finally put on a C.M.F. draft only to be taken off at the last minute. This occured at still a later date this year. Having been turned back so many times gave him a fed-up attitude.

During the past year or so he has been associating with a young lady whom he had and still has intentions of marrying as this lady was going to bare his child he applied for permission to marry her. This was around the first of December 1943. His Commanding Officer refused permission on the grounds that his public debt was too high to warrant such action. However it is to be borne in mind that his unit Padre had given consent to the marriage. The C.O. also assured him that he would be granted [illegible] proceeded on a C.M.F. draft should such an occasion arise.

[redacted]

Just before Christmas 1943 he again applied for permission to marry and was again refused on the same grounds. At this time however his debt was insignificant.

On the 2 December 1944 the young lady gave birth to a child and is living with [illegible] mother who cannot afford to keep her and also by the accused who sends home money.

This leads up to a recent date when the accused received a letter from the young lady urging him to come as his child was very ill. He then applied for a pass and received one.

Due to this constant worry hanging over him and his very evident concern for the well being of his child the accused illegally absented himself because he thought he could be of service to his family. He was apparently returning to his unit when he was apprehended.

I should like to make this plea for mitigation of sentence on behalf of the accused. He is a married man although his documents do not show it, as he married before the time authorized in the permission given. He has almost four years service, three years in this country. He has volunteered for the Far Eastern Campaign. He was worried about the condition of his wife and the expenses to be paid. In view of these facts I believe thatleniency should be shown in the sentence.

On 25 Jan 45 I received a telegram stating that my wife was admitted to Epsom Hospital. I was worried and decided to go and see her with the intention of coming back that night.
