BRIEF SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT AND EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER GIVEN BEFORE THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

in the case of H 29024 Spr. Thornton L.A.

R.G.Cowan,
Major RCA.

The accused has peaded"guilty" to the charge as read. You have had the opportunity of seeing the man, and making the mental remark that he looks more intelligent than a good many other soldiers you may have seen, and also quite capable of conducting himself like a soldier, as well as a man.

All this is quite true in my opinion, and yet, when you see this man's record, you will say to yourselves, "Appearance are quite deceiving." I wish to show that for this one flaw in his nature, that continually re-appears under A.A.Sec.15(1) on his M.F.M.6, there are many other points that may be taken into consideration. Firstly, he joined up immediately war was declared, and since then has only had one charge of 'losing by neglect" which, considering the number of charges under AA 15, points remarkably distinctly to his ability to take care of that with which he is entrusted. I might also point out that he has always earned the maximum remissions of his previous sentences. The one other charge on his MFM 6, concerned with breaking out of Barracks, concerns his early days in the Army, when, being under a weeks CB, and there being no orderly Corporal in Camp, and a dance nearby, he slipped out to the dance. Seen there by a Captain who knew his case, he was warned to return to Bks and on the way was apprehended by the CSM and placed under arrest, and tried and sentenced by the Company Comdr the following morning.

During none of his absences has he been charged for any civil offence.

From this,you may see that this soldier has but one bad habit, and that is going AWL. There are no drunkenness charges against him. If you had a child, who persisted in one bad habit, again and again, would you persist in one method of punishment, when you had found by trial that the method you were using was ineffective, to dissuade him from further repetitions of the offense? I think not, you would be more inclined to attempt a cure, rather than a further dose of the same ineffective punishment. The prime concern of the army is to make a soldier out of this man, is it not? Persistent confinement has failed to do this and I believe I can explain why.

If the type of punishment you inflicted on a recalcitrant child, prohibited him from going out with his friends when the corrective period was finished, how would he feel? You know what the others would be asking."Why can't he come out with us?" And then the story comes out, and the culprit knows that he is being discussed in unfavourable terms by those he used to call'friends', and he feels that there is a lot of truth in the old adage, "Give a dog a bad name, and hang him". You know that a lot of parents will move to a new locality in order to get new and unprejudiced neighbours, so their child will not be under shadow all the time.

In the case of Spr. Thornton, since Jan 1942, he has been without an Army income except for 1s per day. He has been in the Holding Unit, or in Detention, or living "off the country". None of these is exactly the type of environment the average Canadian Soldier expected in England. Has there been anything in his life in the last 18 months to make him feel that he was of any value to anyone? It surprises me that he has not committed any crime of avarice--- eighteen months without a steady income has led many a weaker man astray. At the moment he is faced with the prospect of four months at 30s per month to follow whatever sentence he may receive on this charge. Having been on this diet for some time, it will not be surprising if he succumbs to some fresh temptation, especially should he be forced to spend this four months in a place where his record was widely known.

Either way he is sentenced, the army will take a risk. A long term will destroy any incentive he has to straighten himself out. A short sentence may mean less time before he is in trouble again. But I believe that a repetition of this offense will result in his being cashiered. Therefore, a long sentence will be an incentive, and a short one a deterrent, to commit a further offense. Therefore, if a short sentence will give this man a chance to prove himself a soldier, what has the army to lose? I am convenced that if given the minimum sentence, and then sent to a Unit where his record is not widely known and he can make a fresh start, he will make a good soldier. I do not believe he is deliberately trying to get out of the army, if he were, he would have done more than merely go AWL. But if he is given a stiff sentence, and then sent back to the Holding Unit to "Hang around" without being given a useful employment, I believe he will slide right back into his old weaknesses again, as he will have nothing to look forward to. At the moment, he tells me that his family do not know of his offences, he has practically ceased to write home because he cannot think of anything more to tell them in order to allay their enquiries as to why his assignments have been cut off. During his stay in Detention he qualified as a shoemaker, and when the Corporal i/c left because he was not getting trades pay, Spr. Thornton was put in charge of the shop, which proves he is not without ability.

Look at this man. If he were in your unit, do you not think you could make a soldier out of him? Consider, his offences against the army, not against society. He has no civilian record. It would seem that being without money has been the main incentive for him to go AWL. I have pointed out that the longer he is without it, the less incentive he will have to go straight, he has been so long without it now.

It is within your power to recommend a suspended sentence, and by so doing, it would help this man back to the life of a normal soldier, which is, after all, what the army desires. The army gains nothing for itself by putting this man into the type of punishment which works no cure, and does inestimable damage to his future outlook on life, and his feelings toward the society of which he will be a part when the war is over.

Society, and the army, of which you are the tribunal, have but to gain, by giving this man the earliest possible opportunity to prove that he can be a good soldier. If he fails to prove it, his ultimate punishment will be hastened, to benefit everyone concerned. If he does prove it, the army will have made a soldier out of this man, and he will have made not only a man, but a citizen out of himself. The army can make, as well as break, a man.

By sending Spr. Thornton, as quickly as possible, to a place where he can make a new and good reputation, rather than live down an old and bad one, you will be helping to turn a citizen, rather than a misfit, back to the post-war society to which we all, from Lieut. General MacNaughton to Spr. Thornton will owe our abilities.

Therefore I ask you to consider the accused for a suspended sentence, with the recommendation that he be sent immediately to a Field Unit, interviewed by the C.O. and given a chance to prove himself a soldier and a man.

NOTE. Spr. Thornton has a brother, Pilot Offr. R.T. THORNTON, R.C.A.F. United Kingdom, from whom he has kept news of his situation. His brother has now located him here, and consequently knows of his case. I recommend that his brother be contacted with a view to helping Spr. Thornton financially while under stoppages of pay, and if they work together they can clear it up without letting the family know.

A.11 It was reported to the Bn Orderly Room by myself and by the Duty Offr.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

Q.12 Is Lt Thornton regimentally employed?
A.12 Yes.

Q.13 And offrs who are regimentally employed - do they report on company parade?
A.13 No.
Q.14 Then there was no necessity for Lt Thornton to report on that parade Mon morning?
A.14 That is correct.
Q.15 I produce these documents, will you explain them to the court?
A.15 These documents represent the nominal roll of #5 Coy.

Q.20 Lt Thornton belongs to the Cat. Gp of offrs?
A.20 That is correct.
Q.21 He had no duties on Aug 5 - Sunday?
A.21 No.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION

Q.22 Were you aware of the regimental duties of Mr Thornton?
A.22 Yes I was.
Q.23 What were they?
A.23 The Bn Orderly Room asked me to send someone up who could transfer infm from orders to cards. I sent Mr Thornton up.
Q.24 You detailed him for this duty on what date?
A.24 I don't know the date but I would imagine it was about Thursday - but I am not certain.
Q.25 Well previous to Aug 7th?
A.25 That is correct.
Q.26 To your knowledge did Lt Thornton report for regimental duties?
A.26 Yes I think he did - I am not certain - but I had no word back from Bn Orderly Room.

BY THE JA

Q.27 So as far as you know Lt Thornton was not absent, he could have been on regimental duties?
A.27 No, because I went up to the Bn Orderly Room in the morning to report him absent.
Q.28 Well how did you know he was absent?
A.28 He was not on parade.
Q.29 Did he have to be on parade?
A.29 No: but I went up to the Bn Orderly Room to report that he was not on parade.
Q.30 Lt Thornton, being regimentally employed, did not have to appear on parade 0800 hrs 7 Aug?
A.30 That's right.
Q.31 Then you said he was regimentally employed in the unit orderly room?
A.31 That's right.

Q.32 So as far as you know at 0800 hrs he was employed in the Orderly Room?
A.32 No he wasn't.
Q.33 Well, so far as you know he was supposed to be?
A.33 Yes.
Q.34 When did you find him absent?
A.34 I found him absent when I went to the Bn Orderly Room about 0815 hrs. He was not doing his job and had not reported there.
Q.35 Could he have been somewhere else and still have been regimentally employed?
A.35 I don't think he could have been - or the Adjt wouldn't have advised me.
Q.36 Do you know whether or not Lt Thornton left the camp in accordance with his leave application?
A.36 No.
Q.37 Did you see him on Sunday?
A.37 No.
Q.38 So the reason he was reported absent by you was from info received?
A.38 Yes, from the Duty Offr and the fact that he was not there himself.
Q.39 It is not expected that an offr or a clerk reporting for duty has to remain in his chair from 0800 hrs to 12 noon. He could have been in the toilet - he could have been anywhere?
A.39 Well if he doesn't report at the Coy Orderly Room he reports to the Bn Orderly Room - and he hadn't done so according to the Adjt.
Q.40 But he could have been somewhere else at 0815?
A.40 He evidently was.
Q.41 Within the unit?
A.41 He could have been; but he shouldn't have been.
Q.42 What I am coming to is this - he was not expected to be on parade, he was expected to report at the Orderly Room at 0800 hrs. When you went up there at 0815 you didn't see him?
A.42 That's right.
Q.43 He could certainly have been regimentally employed?
A.43 Yes, but I don't know whether he was or not.

BY THE COURT

A.44 Yes.
Q.45 And at 0815 he was not there?

The evidence of the witnesses for the defence, including that of the accused, if he is a witness, will be taken here in the order in which they give evidence.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY PROSECUTION:

Mr President & Gentlemen of the Court -

From the evidence given by the witnesses it is conclusive that the accused was not in his quarters on 6 Aug 44, did not appear on the parade on Monday morning 7 Aug 44 and was not accounted for until 1900 hrs on the same date. It has been brought out that the accused was regimentally employed at the Bn Orderly Room; but the first witness who went to the Orderly Room in person did not see the accused. I believe the evidence is conclusive and I ask the court to find the accused guilty of the charge laid against him.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY DEFENCE:

Mr President & Gentlemen -

I am just going to deal with this case briefly. I suggest, gentlemen, here we have a Cdn Offr charged with being AWL. Now, as I understand the law a man has to be proved guilty; the evidence has to be such that you cannot come to any other conclusion otherwise he is acquitted. It must be absolutely overall evidence with no reasonable doubt left whatsoever. Now in this case what have we got? First of all evidence that an offr went to his quarters and he wasn't there. Now, does it necessarily prove from that that Lt Thornton was not in Thoresby Camp on that night? Now, I haven't any evidence, but the offrs' mess in Thoresby Hall certainly does not close at 2300 hrs and I think you will find quite a number of offrs in the mess at 2300 hrs. He could easily have been in camp on that particular night. Secondly, as far as the next morning is concerned, the Coy Comd said he was regimentally employed. If he was regimentally employed it was not necessary for him to be on that morning parade. You have the documents with his name checked off - which seems to follow that he was present. The only other possible fact was at 0815 when the Coy Comd happened to be in the Bn Orderly Room, Lt Thornton was not there. From that how are you going to deduct that Lt Thornton was not in the camp? How many Bn Orderly Room can you go into and find everybody there working? Are you going to conclude from that that if you dropped into an Orderly Room and every many wasn't present, that those who weren't present were absent without leave? Now, as far as that book is concerned, I suggest that under the Directives it isn't necessary and that a lot of offrs are under the impression they don't have to sign in that book. On the other hand, he may have forgotten - there is no evidence to show that he even left camp. So I suggest, gentlemen, that upon this scanty evidence, a Cdn Offr who has served his country well, could not be convicted by a court; and I think the JA will agree that the law is the same as in a criminal case. He has to be proved guilty beyond a reasonable doubt and I suggest this evidence goes a long way from proving the case beyond a reasonable doubt.

SUMMING UP BY JA

Sir & Gentlemen: Mr Thornton is charged with an offence under Sec 15(1) AA in that he absented himself as alleged in the charge sheet. Absence without leave is defined in the Fn 1 to Sec 15 AA by stating that the absence must be from the place where it is his duty to be and where he ought to be found if wanted. The evidence adduced on behalf of the prosecution is somewhat conflicting. Let us look at the facts as adduced. He was absent from1800 hrs 6 Aug 44 until 1900 hrs 7 Aug 44 total absence of 1 day 1 hour. The absence of the accused was first noticed at the 0800 hrs parade 7 Aug 44 and again on the parade at 1330 hrs same day. In this connection we have the evidence of the Coy Comd, Maj Shields, who stated that in view of the fact that Mr Thornton was regimentally employed it was not necessary for him to appear on the regular Coy Parades but to report to the Unit Orderly Room for his employment. Further, we have a Coy Parade Sheet for 7 Aug 44 which shows the accused present on parades on that date. As against this, we have the evidence of the Coy Adm Offr, Lt Lafontaine, who stated the accused was not regimentally employed and it was necessary for him to be on parade unless he was excused therefrom by the Coy Comd. From the evidence of Lt Audette, who was Orderly Offr on the day in question, his understanding from the roster of offrs required to be on parade, was that the accused should have been on parade. Maj Shields stated that at 0815 hrs on the day in question he attended at the unit Orderly Room and failed to see Mr Thornton on duty in his place there at that time. However, he did admit that it was possible that Lt Thornton could have reported into the Unit Orderly Room at 0800 hrs for regimental duty and be absent therefrom on duty at the time he entered. According to the evidence adduced it is necessary for offrs when returning from leave to report into the Orderly Offr and sign the Leave Book. This was not done by the accused. This part of the evidence is the conflicting part and the court are the sole judges of the facts. I have no right to render an opinion of the facts and, as a matter of fact, am prohibited from so doing. It is my duty to direct the court only on questions of Law arising from the facts. The onus is upon the prosecution to prove beyond reasonable doubt that Mr Thornton is guilty of the offence as stated in the charge sheet. If they believe that the prosecution has fulfilled the onus placed upon it then the accused must be found Guilty. If, however, they believe that the prosecution has failed to do this he must be acquitted and any reasonable doubt arising from the facts heard here today must be given in favour of the accused.

COURT CLOSED FOR CONSIDERATION OF ITS FINDING.

COURT REOPENS

JA TO ACCUSED: The court has carefully considered the evidence adduced here today and have come to the conclusion that the prosecution has failed to establish its case and you are accordingly ACQUITTED.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the matter of Lt Leigh Foster THORNTON, C & Y, by direction of the Commanding Officer. The evidence herein is taken under oath.

FIRST WITNESS Maj N.W. Shields, Lake Superior Regt, having been duly sworn states:-

I am a Civil Affairs Officer awaiting a posting and temporarily A/Coy Comd of #5 Coy, Adv CRU Offrs Trg Coys, Thoresby Camp. Instructions for officers wishing to absent themselves from camp are posted in the Coy Orderly Room. There is a register kept in the Coy Orderly Room for all officers wishing to avail themselves of 24 hrs leave. Officers sign their names, showing time of departure, destination and time of return. This register is left in the Regimental Orderly Room for signature of officers returning from leave. Before sending the Register to Regimental Orderly room application for leave must be initialled by the Coy Comd. My instructions to Lt Lafontaine who was Coy Duty Officer on 5 Aug 44 were to initial the Register if I could not be there at the time said register was sent to Regimental Orderly Room. Lt. L.F. Thornton entered his name in the register as proceeding to Sheffield at 1345 hrs 5 Aug 44 to return 1800 hrs 6 Aug 44. On Monday morning 7 Aug 44 at approximately 0750 hrs Lt Thornton was not on parade and that he was reported on the Tattoo Report as absent from 1800 hrs 6 Aug 44.

QUESTION BY ACCUSED

Q 1 Are all These officer's directives referred to in your evidence read to or by all officers in the coy of which you are at present A/Coy Comd?

A No, they are not, due to the fact that personnel are passing in and out of the coy frequently and it would therefore be necessary to read the orders daily.

N.W. Shields Major
(N.W. Shields) Major

SECOND WITNESS Lt G.J. Lafontaine, CIC, having been duly sworn states:-

On 5 Aug 44 I had permission from Maj N.W. Shields A/Coy Comd of #5 Coy, Adv CRU Offrs Trg Coys, to initial the coy leave book. Lt. L.F. Thornton had entered his name in the leave book showing time of departure, destination and time of return. I initialed that entry and the book was taken to Regimental Orderly Room. On Sunday 6 Aug 44 I was Coy Duty Officer of #5 Coy. At approximately 2300 hrs I checked the leave book to see if every officer had signed in and found that Lt Thornton had not done so. I went to his quarters and did not find him and assumed he had not returned. I then made my Tattoo Report. On Monday 7 Aug 44 at approximately 0800 hrs I checked the roll of the coy and found Lt Thornton was not on parade. I reported the fact to Major Shields and he instructed me to make an Absentee Report, which I did.

The Accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

G.J. Lafontaine Lt
(G.J. Lafontaine) Lt.

WITNESS Lt D.A. Bonnallie, CIC having been duly sworn states:-

On 6 Aug 44 I was Regimental Orderly Officer at Adv CRU Offrs Trg Coys, Thoresby Camp. As part of my duties I had to initial the leave Register as each officer signed in. To my knowledge Lt L.F. Thornton had not signed in either before or after 1800 hrs 6 Aug 44. I also received a Tattoo Report from #5 Coy and it showed that Lt Thornton was absent. I present exhibit "C" #5 Coy leave book and exhibit "D" #5 Coy Tattoo Report.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

D.A. Bonnallie

(D.A. Bonnallie) Lt.

FOURTH WITNESS Lt R. Audette, R de Chaud, having been duly sworn states:-

On 7 Aug 44 I was Coy Duty Offr of #5 Coy, Adv CRU Offrs Trg Coys. At approximately 1900 hrs Lt L.F. Thornton came in the Orderly Room looking for his mail. As Lt Thornton entered I asked him his name and wrote down the time he came in.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

R. Audette

(R. Audette) Lt.

The accused was cautioned as follows:- "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence." The accused declines to make a statement and reserves his defence.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of 2 pages was taken by me in the presence and hearing of the accused and that R.P. 4 (c) (d) (e) and (f) have been complied with.

I have been cautioned that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

A.E. Thornton.

On 13 February 1944, I was at the White City Stadium, London with the Canadian Rugby team. I was employed as the masseur. After the game was over and everyone had left the dressing room, I and the helpers who were clearing up, I found a Canadian Pacific Express Company cheque in the amount of £ 5-11-10d, made out to B-58114 Pte E.J. Stack. I knew Stack was connected with the team. The cheque was signed 'E J Stack, B-58114'. I intended to return the cheque to Stack, but a few days later I was broke and cashed the cheque at a bank in London. I can't remember the bank, but it was near Lancaster Gate. When I tendered the cheque at the Bank I signed my name and number on it and produced my pay-book to the Bank clerk. The clerk asked me about Stack's signature on the cheque and I told her that I had given Stack the money for it. I would like to say that I am very sorry for cashing this cheque and I will repay the money to Pte Stack. I have read over this statement and it is true.

A.E. Thornton.

Unfortunately the witnesses mentioned in the accused's statement have been killed in action and are not now available and prosecution must rely on accused's statement and medical evidence.

FIRST WITNESS PROSECUTION

C-7050 L/Cpl Wheaton, C. S Prov Coy 4 Cdn Armd Div, being duly sworn, attests:-

I recognize the accused whom I interviewed at 8 Cdn Gen Hosp, 4 Aug 44, in presence of L/Cpl Brisbany R Prov Coy. We identified ourselves said we were Cdn Provost and were investigating circumstances surrounding his wound. The accused was cautioned in the following words: " You do not have to say anything unless you wish to do so but whatever you do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence." The accused appeared to understand the caution. The statement was voluntary there was no promise - threat the accused was not under arrest.

The Defending Officer has no objection to the statement.

The statement was taken down in writing and read over to the accused and he read it himself he then signed it in the presence of the witness and myself. This is the statement (produced) and put in evidence as "Exhibit "A". There are no changes in the statement.

No Cross-examination

R.P. 83(B) Complied with.

SECOND WITNESS PROSECUTION

Captain L.A. Kitchen RCAMC attached 8 Cdn Gen Hosp., being duly sworn, states:-

I have examined the accused and find scar on his left foot between the first and second metatarsal dorsal approx 2" in length and on the plantor surface there is a scar circular approx ¼" in diameter. There is a scar on the two surfaces indicating the possibility of a through and through wound. Wound in direction of long axis of his body if it were through and through. It could have been caused by a weapon held by accused in his own hands. Healed now but there is a painful scar, cannot say if there was any fracture. Accused states that he has no pain. The wound is largely subjective With accused's present attitude there will be no lowering of Category.

By the Court

There was scar on upper surface of foot 2" long and lower ¼" in diameter. Not necessarily caused by a bullet. Could have been caused by operation or infection.

R.P. 83 (B) Complied with.

THIRD WITNESS PROSECUTION

Major J.A. Walters RCAMC attached 8 Cdn Gen Hosp., being duly sworn, states:-

I am neuro-psychiatric specialist. I produce certified copy of report which is my report on the accused.

The Defending Officer has no objection to the medical report being produced and read.

His account was story as I took it at that time. This was put down in writing as answers were given by the accused.

This report was written as a summary containing the important and significant information only, at the end of an interview which might last from 10 to 30 mins. During which by conversation and examination I would have attempted to survey and assess the medical issues at stake. Report was written immediately following the interview. My mind would be clear and fresh. Medical report produced are marked by "M".

Cross-examination

I have had some experience in dealing with psychopathic cases in this way. I can account for these cases in a few words. For can I make generalisations. It is a problem of human posting in difficulties under its multiple facets. Human beings develop behaviour which is inefficient, awkward to themselves and society from many causes, medically one is faced with the problem of establishing why such behaviour appears and also weighing and controlling factors which may be physical, or mental or social in the alleviations of the persons discomfort or society's embarrassement. The physician's methods for establishing the influential factors in a behaviour problem consist of, one, a biographical study of the at individual with his family background. Secondly- a physical examination, thirdly- a systematic mental examination which includes a precise evaluation of his thinking, feeling and willing. Fitally social factors outside the individual can be studied by direct examination of environment. Such studies searching for why man does foolish things presumes of philosophical attitude which sees him as not a body and a mind and a will similar to other humans but sees each human being as a single unit, body and mind one, rather than dual. This unit is to a great extent biological, under biological law. His inheritance, his past behaviour, the nature of his physical tissues, the state of his temperment the development of his character will be factors in determining what he does in any one situation. There will be unconscious and habitual influences there will be chemical and electrical influences there will be degrees of free choosing in his ultimate action. Clinical judgement - when a physician uses such clinical methods, physical, mental and social, over many years applying the same rigid and exhaustive inquiry to many different human beings he acquires an experience of which easily leads him to sort out his patients into different groups. What is clear to him by his ll, his is the extreme individual character of one human being unlike anyone else. The medical profession has over years conveniently used labels such as " neurosis " "psychosis " and " psychopathic personality " are useful memories to sort out human beings. They are not diseases they are often only the expression of a man having trouble or not fitting well into his environment. Generally they imply not an immediate transient difficulty but a tendancy to be frequently in such straits. term "Psychosis " is applied to people who have extremely abnormal mental life, the layman thinks they are crazy. and while there abnormality persists most of them would satisfy the legal definition of insanity. It includes transient deleriums and confusions. Temporary states of exaltation or depression and states of delusions or hallucinations of varying duration. It also includes the enfeebled mentality of old age or brain disease. Neurosis are people who are not crazy but who have physical disorders or upset feelings due to thier failing struggle with environment. Patients come to a physician with indigestion, heart burn, headache, paralized limbs, blindness, sweating, backache. They are in discomfort. Thier real problem is something they are trying to avoid by taking refuge unconsciously in a physical paralysis or blindness or they are emotionaly upset and the xxxphysical manifestations of emotions become interpreted by sickness. Psychopathic personality: neither psychosis nor neurosis accounts for a group of individuals who are often a trouble to society if not to themselves and thier pattern of failure, evil doing , or eccentricity seems to have persisted for most of thier lives. Thier record suggests they were born that way. Such people are called psychopathic personality to indicate a deviation in the persons make up rather than his his nervous system or mental state at any one time. The weak characters who fail easily by foolish, lazy, timid or shy behaviour are called inadequate types. The repeated evil doer who has repeated crimes or brags habitually to his fellows and no regard for any consideration except himself, is called anti-social. The third type includes the cranks the queer the dreamy the dilletente, the bohemian - those who live in unusual ways and with unusual standards and just cannot be considered crazy. These are the eccentric. Mental defectives are a fourth group. They have always lacked brains. Their keeness of intellect and capacity to reason was arrested below normal standards as they developed. They may be sound solid citizens and make excellent unskilled labourers. They lack the capacity to learn. They make excellent batmen. But such people by and large have less confidence in thier powers as they have met situations they have been unable to cope with.

In the case of the accused the reference to diagnosis in Exhibi "B" indicates that the accused does not fall into any one of these defined neuro psychiatric categories which are for every purposes recognized as abnormal and warrant consideration in weighing a mans actions.

re-examination

Human beings are suggestable and more so in groups than in couples. What others do they more easily follow. What others avoid they do with more difficulty. Examples in the world of fashion, taste, mob panic and such observations all verify this Military History provides similar examples.

by the Court

The physician is dependent for his diagnosis on observed evidence for neuro psychiatric diagnosis comes from the mans story the physicians observations of the man and his body. If there is no verification of the mans storythe physician has to rely ir the judgements of the reliability of his evidence. The reliability of the eventual diagnosis depends on ethical judgement of the physician in weighing these elements which are not objective and verified.

A.A. 93 (3) Complied with.

Motion for dismissal by defending Officer.

The accused is charged with wilfully injuring himself and in the alternative negligently xxxxinjuring . The accused has to be found guilty of"intent" in the first and "negligence" in the second" The prosecutor has failed to prove intent. There is only the evidence in the statement by the accused produced in evidence and the hazy medical evidence. There is the diagnosis of Major Walter stating that the accused is normal in everyway I submittx that there is no evidence before the court to properly convict the accused on either charges and ask that both charges be dismissed.

Prosecuting Officer not called on for a reply.

D6 Defending Officers submission is not allowed by court.

FIRST WITNESS DEFENCE The accused, B-86386 Pte Joseph Thorpe, R Regt C having been duly sworn states:-

Defending Officer:

I propose to submit the evidence of the accused in chief by reading to him his prepared statement in consultation with his defending Officer.

The court rules that the procedur will not be allowed and evidence in chief will have to be prod and viva voce

I was born Broadsworth, [illegible] Yorkshire, England on 10 May 17. Went to Canada in 1927 at 10 years of age, settled at Charlton Ont near Kirkland Lake. Went to 3rd form High School, quit at age of 16. I went farming for awhile then in 1936 went to Lake Shore Gold Mines as a driller and continued until 13 Aug 40 when I enlisted. When I first started I was getting $4.65 for an 8 hrs shift and that was raised to $5.15. Enlisted with Algonquins trained with them in Canada and [illegible] and came to U.K. 18 Sep 43 as a reinforcement. I spent sometime in reinforcement unit went to RU or C on 24 Dec 43 Came overseas to Force with them 6 Jul 44. I saw action with them until this happened 22 Jul 44. I actually went into action with the Royals about night of 12th and was in constantly without rest as a rifleman until 22nd. This happened about 1600 hrs. Pte Beaton was in the trench at the time this happened. I was sitting on the left hand side of the trench going to clean my rifle I chose this time to clean my rifle because the mortars had quietened down for about half an hour. I had cleaned my rifle two days before not since because we were too busy going into attacks I had fired fired it constantly. I thought it would be safer on side of the trench because if any mortars came over I could get into it fast. The trench about 6' in length 2' across , about 5' deep. There was just enough room for the two of us and not enough to clean rifle and that is the reason I was sitting on the edge of the trench. I started cleaning my rifle, heard the mortars coming over, as I went to roll over into the trench, the bayonet was not on my rifle. There were tanks in the vicinity. Witness demonstrates going that he was at the back of the trench facing the front and at about the middle of the same Pte Beaton was to my right in the trench and parrallel thereto. The bolt was open, the magazine was on (Prosecutor objects and states that the witness first said that the magazine was "off" and not " On ") The magazine was on. When I heard the mortar shells come over, I closed the bolt and rolled over on my right side to get into my trench with the rifle parrallel to my legs and practically atween the two. I rolled right into trench and my rifle went off as I rolled over. There were sticks and grass all the way around the trench. No cover over the trench. Roots sticking out on the side of the trench. I think a stick or something caught and caused the rifle to go off. From the time I heard the bombs until I rolled into the trench was only a matter of 2 or 3 seconds I closed the bolt automatically. When you pull the bolt back and with magazine in puts a round in the chamber. I was always taught then in battle to load your rifle and keep it loaded at all times. But when cleaning it I had just started to clean it . I knew my magazine had rounds in it. I rolled in trench I heard a round go off and felt a burning in my foot. I am fine now and want to get back to action. I have had a brother killed and would like to get revenge. He was with the RCLI . My brother was killed about a month ago, after this he joined Those is no reason why I should shoot myself now as I joined up to fight for my king and country. I am satisfied. No dependents but send my mother $20 .00 per month had no worries on my mind I'd do my best if I went back to fight now. I want to go back and I'm ready to go this afternoon.

cross-examination

The Prosecutor states that he proposes to question the veracity of the accused's statement . xxx that he is willing and wishes to return to the front lines.

R.P. 83 (3) complied with.

The court rules that this cross-examinatiy must not extend to general evidence of bad character and cannot be given for the prosecution but the Prosecutor has the right by cross-exam to test the veracity of statement given by accused. (MM P 60 top read by the court)

Q. Were you ever charged with an offence that would indicate that you were not willing to serve your King and Country?

A. I was charged once with an offence that would indicate that I was not willing to serve, that was a charge of malingering

Q. Was that just prior to the invasion of europe?

A. That was before.

Q. Just before?

A. I could not say Sir?

Q. Was it the 2nd of June ?

A. I dont know Sir.

Q. was it a few days ?

A. I dont know.

Q. What was the charge ?

A. It was my ears when I was in 7 Gdn Gen I was getting treatmer for my ears.

Q. You were charged with counterfeiting deafness with intention of evading duty ?

A. Not deafness. My ears were sore, They had me up for that charge and I was convicted.

Q. Was there any other charge against you that would lead anyone to believe that you were unwilling to serve ?

A. No Sir.

Q. Were you ever charged as a deserter ?

A. No, I was A.W.L. for 54 days.

Q. Were you convicted on that charge ?

A. Yes Sir A.W.L.

Q. Served from 1940 till 22 Jul 44 ?

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Do you consider youself well trained soldier.

A. As well as any.

Q. Well trained with rifle ?

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Were you shaken up very much ?

A. No Sir.

Q. Not at all ?

A. No Sir.

Q. You knew other people had been badly shaken ?

A. Yes Sir, I had seen them too.

Q. Do you know L/Cpl Dempsey ?

A. Yes, Sir: just to see him he was in the same company. I don' know when he was wounded. I know of one S.I.". in my Regt

Pte McKinnon, knew of no others. I had not heard of people S.I.W.'s prior to 22 Jul 44. I remember a Major took a statement from me at 7 Cdn Gen Hosp could not tell you the date or his name. I think it was the doctor who gave eviden e here this morning the third witness. Had accident at quie time while in reserve Coy. Quiet compared to what it was. I dont recall telling him about Mortar bombs. I dont know if there is anything in my signed statement about cleaning my rifle. As the statement now stands there is nothing in it stating that I was cleaning my rifle. The slit trench was dug the night before I was there all night and until 1500 hrs the following afternoon, in reserve, the enemy no where near. We were busy moving so I didnt have opportunity to clean my rifle before. Must get some sleep if you are on guard all night. I could not have cleaned in the trench because dirt falls in again. Pte Soaton was also in trench and there was not enough room. I sat the easiest way to clean rifle and was taking safety precautions in sitting tha t way. I was going to go into trench head first. I was going to roll in. I did not think of rolling feet first. I closed bolt because that was automatic. Heard the mortar closed the bolt and rolled i to the trench. That is the way it happened. I did not tell the Psychiatrist a different story. I told him thesame thing that I am telling you now I dont know why it isn't in his report. I have never seen the Psychiatrists report. (accused reads psychiatrists report) that is the report I gave him. It is automatic to put on the safety catch after closing the bolt but I do not know why I didnt put on the safety catch. The wound i perpendicular but not through and through according to Doctor who made the examination.

Q. When asked by your counsel how this incident occurred you first said that the magazine was "off" the bolt was open and after that again the magazine was "on".

A. No, Sir I said the magazine was on, I never said it was "off"

Q. You realize the portend of your answer.

A. Yes, Sir the magazine was on.

Q. When Counsel for Defence asked the accused how this incident occurred and the accused started to demonstrate what did the accused say.

A. I understood the accused to say the chamber was " off"

Q. What was it you heard ~~him~~?

A. I heard the accused say the magazine was " off "

PROSECUTION CLOSING ADDRESS

I wish to point out the inconsistency of the accused evidence which is quite apparent. He is intelligent and yet we find on his own record he is willing to serve admits he went absent for 55 days and that he was also charged and convicted with malingering as he called it. Charge was evading duties. That was just prior to invasion of the continent. I submit therefo re his post actions assist court materially in deciding if the wound was wilfully, with intention of evading service. The prosecution finds itself in nearly all these cases has no eye witness. The accused knew witnesses were going into action There is nothing in accused statement saying this man was in slit trench at the time. Then you have evidence of Major Walters that the information obtained by questions and answer from accused that he was in reserve in quiet sector cleaning rifle when accident occident occured. Then later accused is examined by member of Provost Corps. I submit he is intelligent enough to know that what he told Major Walters was not good enough and that he therefore gave a different story which is now befor you. Until cross-examination did not say anything about quiet sector but under fire and rolled into trench in an emergency and rifle went off. Position extraordinary, also that he had to roll in head first. Closed bolt automatically but did not put safety catch on automatically as he was accustomed to. If he had time to close why didnt he get into trench feet first. I suggest to you that it was the only way the accused could explain having shot himself. Draw your attention to evidence of the witness called in rebuttal who was during the demonstration facing the accused who stated that the accused first said that the magazine was off. I submit that there is sufficient evidence to find the accused guilty on the first charge.

E 3 PLEA IN MITIGATION

It is hard to picture a hard rock miner as this man was in civil life to find himself in the predicament he is in to-day When one finds one of them as a soldier suspected of such a dastardly crime as this it is very hard to believe. A man possesing those fine qualities as such men portray is not the type either by virtue of his own negligence or preconceived plan to commit such a thing as a wound on his own body. I dont wish to labour this mans career save to say that this man finds himself in this predicament by virtue of a course of conduct he has pursued during his army career, probably due to lack of control rather than anything else. He would be ashamed to return to Canada without proving to his comrades and his country that he is equal to carrying out his expressions of loyalty and faithfulness to the cause. And if such must be the case it certainly will be most unfortunate. I therefore can only ask that the court exercise mercy as this lad may deserve after all is said and done - and as the psychiatrist has said here to-day human beings are often guilty of anti-social behaviour but the important thing for the Army is to try and make something out of this man. The accused sees the error of his ways and I ask for a recommendation that the soldier be returned to the line at the earliest possible opportunity. It is this last expression of his willingness to serve that he wants to leave with this court.

I recognize the accused whom I interviewed at 7 Cdn Gen Hosp, 4 Aug 44, in presence of A/Cpl Bithrey 2 Prov Coy. We identified ourselves and we were Cdn Provost and were investigating circumstances surrounding his wound. The accused was cautioned in the following words:" you do not have to say anything unless you wish to do so but what you do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence". The accused appeared to understand the caution. The statement was voluntary there was no promises. threat the accused was not under arrest

The Defending Officer has no objection to the statement

The statement was taken down in writing and read over to the accused and he read it himself & then signed it in the presence of the witness and myself. This is the statement (~~submitted~~ produced and put in evidence as Ex" A".) There are no changes in the statement.

second witness for prosecution

Captain A. Hickham RCAMC attached 7 Cdn Gen Hosp. being duly sworn states:

I have examined the accused and one scar on his left foot between the 2" in length and on metatarsal dorsal approx there is a scar, circular, approx 1/4" in diam. There is a scar on the two surfaces indicating the possibility of a through and through wound. Wound in direction of long axis of his body if it were through and through. It could have been caused by a weapon held by accused in his own hands. Healed now but there is a painful scar. Cannot say of there was any fracture. Accused states that he has no pain. The wound is largely subjective. With accused's present attitude there will be no lowering of category.

There was scar on upper surface of foot 2" long and lower 1/4" in diameter. Not necessarily caused by a bullet. Could may have been caused by operation or infection.

Cross-examination

I have had some experience in dealing with psychopathic cases in this war. I can't account for these cases in a few words, nor can I make generalization it is a problem of human nature in difficulties under its multiple facets.

Human beings develop behavior which is inefficient, awkward to themselves and society from many causes, medically one is faced not with the problem of social responsibility but with the problem of establishing why such behaviour appears and also weighing and estimating factors which may be physical, or mental or social in the alleviation of the persons discomfort or society's embarrassment. The physicians methods for establishing the influential factors in a behaviour problem consist of, one, a biographical study of that individual with his family background. Secondly - a physical examination, Thirdly - a systematic mental examination which includes a precise evaluation of his ~~thought~~ thinking, feeling and willing. Finally social factors outside the individual can be studied by direct examination of environment.

Such studies searching for why man does foolish things, ~~or~~ presumes of the physiological ~~and~~ attitude which sees him as not a body and a mind and a will similar to other humans but sees each human being as a single unit, body and mind one, rather than dual. This unit is to a great extent biological, under biological law. His inheritance, his past behaviour, the nature of his physical tissues, the state of his temperament the development of his character will be factors in determining what he does in any one situation. There will be unconscious and habitual influences there will be chemical and electrical influences and there will be degrees of free choosing in his ultimate action.

Clinical judgment – when a physician uses such clinical methods, physical, mental and social over many years applying the same rigid and exhaustive enquiry to many different human beings he acquires an experience which easily leads him to sort out his patients into different groups. What is clear to him by his sights is the extreme individual character of one human being unlike anyone else – the medical profession has over years conveniently used labels such as "neurosis" "psychosis" and "psychopathic personality" as useful ~~names~~ neurosis to sort out human beings. They are not diseases they are often only the expression of a man having trouble or not fitting well into his environment. Generally they simply not an immediate ~~to~~ treatment differently but a tendency to be frequently in such ~~day~~ "states". Term "Psychosis" as applied to people who have extremely abnormal mental life, the

The layman thinks they are crazy, and while their abnormality prevents most of them would perhaps the legal definition of insanity. It includes transient delusions and confusions, temporary states of depression or depression and states of delusions or hallucinations of varying duration. It also includes the disabled mentality of old age or brain disease.

Neurosis are people who are not crazy but who have abnormal reactions or what feelings due to their failing struggle with environment. Patients come to a physician with indigestion, heart pain, headache, paralyzed limbs, blindness, sweating, backache. They are in discomfort. Their real problem is something they are trying to avoid by taking refuge unconsciously in a abnormal paralysis or blindness as they are emotionally upset and the abnormal manifestations of emotions become interpreted by sickness.

Psychopathic personality includes psychopaths or neurotic accompanied by a group of individuals who are often a trouble to society if not themselves and their history of failure, trial doing or eventually seems to have benefited for most brain type. They made suppose they were born that way. Such people are called psychopathic personality to indicate a deviation in the human make up varies from two extremes of them a mental state at any one time. The weak thereafter who fail easily by foolish legislation or they behaviour are called mediocrats types. The defendant all does who has repeated crimes or drags habitually down his fellows and no regard for any consideration upon humanity, is called anti social. He is a thief by his methods the banks the jewels the drawing the dollars, the lawless those who live in unusual ways and with unusual standards and yet cannot be branded as crazy.

These are the eccentric.
Mental deficiencies a found group. They have always lacked brains. They are those persons of intellect and capacity a reason was arrested below normal standards as they developed. They may be found as the idiots and make excellent unskilled labourers. They lack the capacity to learn very much excellent batman. But and people by and large have those impediments in their powers as they have mis functions they have been unable to the end.

In the case of the accused the opinions & diagnosis in Exhibit B. indicates that the accused does not fall into 121 any one of these defined neurasthenic calyxes which are for any purposes recognized as abnormal and warrant consideration in applying a mans actions.

re. examination:-

Human beings are suggestible and more so in groups than in crowds what rules do they more easily follow. what rules avoid they do with more difficulty. Examples in the hands of jackies, tools and having and such examinations all imply this. - military history provides similar examples.

By the court

The physician has abundant proofs for his diagnosis in planned evidence and only such. Evidence for neurasthenic diagnosis comes from the mans story,
the physicians observations of the man and his body. If there is no information of the mans story the physician has to rely on the judgment of the reliability of his evidence.
The reliability of the mental diagnosis depends on clinical judgment of the physician in applying those elements which he has observed and compared.

Motion for dismissal by Defending Officer

The accused is charged with wilfully injuring himself and in the alternative negligently ~~wound~~ injuring. The accused has to be found guilty of "intent" in the first and "blameworthy" in the second. The prosecution has failed to prove intent. There is only the evidence in the statement by accused produced in evidence and the hazy medical evidence. There is the diagnosis of Major Walter stating that the accused is normal in every way. I submit that there is no evidence before the Court to properly ~~commit~~ convict the accused on either charges and ask that ~~they~~ both charges be dismissed.

Prosecuting Officer was not called on for a reply.

Defending Officer's submission is not allowed by Court.

first witness for defence D.6

The accused B 55369 Pte Joseph Thorpe R. Regt C. having been duly sworn states: -

Defending Officer

I propose to submit the evidence of the accused in chief by reading to him his prepared statement in consultation with his defending officer

The Court rules that that procedure will not be allowed and evidence in chief will have to be ~~put~~ adduced viva voce.

I was born Broadsworth, ~~[illegible]~~ of English Parents on 10 May 17. Went to Canada in 1927 at 10 yrs of age, settled at Charlton, Ont Nr. Kirkland Lake. Went to 2nd form High School part at age of 16. I went farming for awhile then in 1935 went to Lake Shore Gold mines as a driller and continued until 13 Aug 40 when I enlisted. When I first started I was getting 44¢ per an 8 hr shift and that was raised to $5.15. Enlisted with Algonquin Unmixed with them in Canada and New and came to U.K. 18 Sep 43 as a re-inforcement. I spent sometime in reinforcement Unit and went to R R & C on 24 Dec 43 came overseas to France with them 6 Jul 44. I saw action with them until this happened 22 Jul 44. I actually went into action with the Regals about night of 12th and was in constantly without rest as a rifleman until 22nd. This happened about 1500 hrs. Pte Beaton was in the trench at the time this happened. I was sitting on the left hand side of the trench going to clean my rifle. I chose this time to clean my rifle because the mortars had quietened down for about half an hour. I had cleaned my rifle two days before, not since because we were too busy going into attacks I had fired it constantly. I thought I would be safer on side of the trench because if any mortars came over I could get into it fast. The trench about 6' in length 2 ft across about 5' deep. There was just enough room for the two of us and not enough to clean rifle and that is the reason I was sitting on the edge of trench. I started cleaning my rifle, heard the mortars coming over, so I went to roll into the trench, the bayonet was not on my rifle. There were tanks in the vicinity witness demonstrates showing that he was sitting at the back of the trench facing the front and at about the middle of the same Pte Beaton was to my right in the trench. My legs were outside the trench and parallel thereto. The bolt was open, the magazine was on (prosecutor objects and states that the witness first said that the magazine was "off" gbh and not "one".) The magazine was on. When I heard the mortar shells come over, I closed the bolt and rolled over on my right side to get into my trench with the rifle parallel to my legs and practically between the two. I rolled right into the trench and my rifle went off as I rolled over. There were sticks and grass all around the trench. No cover over the trench. Roots sticking out on the side of the trench. I think a stick or something caught and caused the rifle to go off. From the time I heard the bombs until I rolled into the trench was only a matter of 2 or 3 seconds. I closed the bolt automatically. When you pull the bolt back and forth with magazine in puts a round in the chamber. I was always taught when in battle to load your rifle and keep it loaded at all times. Not when cleaning it. I had just started to clean it. I knew my magazine had rounds in it. ~~When~~ I rolled in trench I heard a round go off and felt a burning in my foot. I am fit now and want to go back into action. I have had a brother killed and would like to get revenge. He was in the R H & L. My brother was killed about a month ago, after this happened. There is no reason why I should shoot myself because I joined up to fight for my King and Country. I am not married. No dependents but send my mother $20 per mo. I had no worries on my mind. I'd do my best to fight if I went back now. I want to go back and I'm ready to go back this afternoon.

Cross-examination

The prosecutor states that he proposes to question the veracity of the accused's statement that he is walking and wants to return to the front line.

M.P. 83(2) Complied with.

The Court rules that this cross-exam must not extend to verbal evidence of bad character, but the prosecution has the right by cross-exam to test veracity of statements given by accused. (MM p 69 top read by the Court)

Q. "were you ever charged with an offence the would indicate that you were unwilling to serve your term and country"
A. I was charged once with an offence that would indicate that I was not willing to serve, that was a charge of malingering.
Q. Was that just prior to the invasion of Europe?
A. That was before
Q. Just before?
A. I could not say sir.
Q. Was it the 2nd of June?
A. I don't know sir.
Q. Was it a few days?
A I don't know.
Q What was the charge?
A. It was my ears when I was in Camp Ben I was getting treatment for my ears.
Q. You were charged with contributing deafness with intention of evading duty?
A Not deafness. My ears were sore. They had me up for that charge and I was convicted.
Q. Was there any other charge against you that would lead anyone to believe that you were unwilling to serve?
A. No sir.
Q. Were you ever charged as a deserter?
A No, I was A.W.L. for 54 days
Q. Were you convicted on that charge?
A. Yes sir A.W.L.

Q. Served from 1940 till 22 Jul 44?
A. Yes Sir.
Q. Do you consider yourself well trained soldier?
A. As well as any.
Q. Well trained with rifle?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Were you shaken up very much?
A. No sir
Q. Not at all?
A. No sir.
Q. You knew other people had been badly shaken?
A. Yes, sir I had seen them too.
Q. Do you know L/Cpl Dempsey?
A. Yes. Sir. ~~I knew~~ just to see him he was in the same Coy. I don't know when he was wounded. I know of one S.I.W. in my regiment Pte R. Kinmon, knew of no others. I had not heard of people S.I.W's prior to 22 Jul 44. I remember a major took a statement from me at 7 Can Gen Hosp could not tell you the date or his name. I think it was the doctor who gave evidence here this morning the third witness. Had accident at quiet time while in reserve Coy. quiet compared to what it was. I don't recall telling him about mortar bombs. I don't know of there is anything in my signed statement about cleaning my rifle. As the statement now stands there is nothing in it stating that I was cleaning my rifle. The slit trench was dug the night before I was there all night and until 15-00 hrs following afternoon, in reserve, ~~some distance~~ the enemy no where near. We were busy morning so I didn't have opportunity to clean my rifle before. Must get some sleep if you are on guard all night. I could not have cleaned in the trench because dirt falls in again. Pte Easton was also in trench and there was not enough room. I sat the easiest way to clean rifle and was taking safety precautions in sitting that way. I was going to go into trench head first. I was going to roll in. I did not think of rolling feet first. I closed bolt because that was automatic. Heard the mortar close the bolt and rolled into trench. That is the way it happened. I did not tell the psychiatrist a different story. I told him the same thing that I am telling you now. I don't know why it isn't in his report. I have never seen the psychiatrists report (Assumed reads psychiatrists report) That is the report I gave him. ~~I~~ It's automatic to put on the safety catch after closing the bolt but I do not know why I didn't put on the safety catch. The wound is ~~superficial~~ perpendicular but not through and through according to doctor who made the examination.

Q. When asked by your counsel how this incident occurred you first said that the magazine was "off" the bolt was open and after that again the magazine was "on".

A. No, sir I said the magazine was "on". I never said it was "off".

Q. You realize the portion of your answer.

A. Yes, sir the magazine was on.

Defence closed. P.P. 3(2) complied with.

L 18012 Pte Pellard A.H. Provost Corps. sworn states:

Q. When counsel for defence asked the accused how this incident occurred and the accused started to demonstrate what did the accused say.

A. I understood the accused to say the chamber was Off.

Q. What was it you heard?

A. I heard the accused say the magazine was Off.

R.P. 53(B) Complied with.

Prosecution closing address:-

I wish to point out the inconsistency of the accused evidence what is quite apparent He is intelligent and yet we find on his own record he is willing to serve admits he went absent for 5 days and that he was also charged and convicted with malingering as he called it. Charge was evading duties. That was just prior to invasion of the Continent. I submit his past actions therefore would count materially in deciding if this wound was wilfully, with intention of evading service. The prosecution finds itself in nearly all these cases has no eye witness. The accused knew intimately were going into action. There is nothing in accused statement saying this man was in slit trench at the time. Then you have evidence of Major Walters that the 4 men returned by questions and answers from accused that he was in reserve was quite safe during night when accident occurred. The latter accused is examined by member of Provost Corps. I submit he is intelligent enough to know that what he told Major Walters was not good enough and that he therefore gave a different story which is now before you. Until cross-exam did not say anything about quiet sector but under fire and rolled into trench in an emergency and rifle went off. Pointing extraordinary, also that he had to roll into head first. Shock-bolt automatically but did not put safety catch on automatically as he was accustomed to. If he had time to close bolt why didn't he go into breech feet first. I suggest to you that it was the only way the accused could explain having shot himself. Draw your attention to evidence of the witness called in rebuttal who was facing the accused who stated that the accused first said that the magazine was off. I submit that there is sufficient evidence to find the accused guilty on the first charge.

C 3. Plea in mitigation

It is hard & future a hard sick mans as this man was in last life to find himself in the predicament he is in to day.
when one finds one of them as a soldier suddenly such as this it is very hard & future a man possessing that fine qualities as such men portray is not the first time by mistake of his own negligence or inconsiderate blame & commit such a thing as a murder on his own body. I dare not to believe this mans tale same to say that this man finds himself in this predicament by virtue of a course of conduct he has pursued during his army career, but hardly due to lack of control rather than by any thing else. He would be ashamed & return to Canada without honour & his comrades and his country that he is equal to carrying out his expressions of loyalty and faithfulness & the cause and if such must be the case it certainly will be most unfortunate. I therefore can only ask that the court express mercy as circled may deserve by the act as said and done. and to the forgiveness has been here to-day human beings and [illegible] guilty of anti social behaviour, but the impartial Eph thing for the army to do is to try of this man - [illegible] the accused takes the view of his ways and I ask for a recommendation that this soldier be returned to the line at the earliest possible opportunity. Give this last expression of his

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of B.55369 Pte Thorpe, J., Royal Regiment of Canada, attached 21 Cdn Gen Hospital, charged with, when on active service wilfully injuring himself with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service (AA Sec 18(2)), alternative, when on active service neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (AA Sec 40).

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS Major M.T. Kobrinsky, No.21 Cdn Gen Hospital RCAMC, sworn, states:

I am Major M.T. Kobrinsky, Medical Officer at 21 Cdn General Hospital. B.55369 Pte Thorpe, J., was admitted to 21 Cdn Gen Hospital on 2 Oct 44. Review of his medical documents reveal that he had received a gunshot wound in his left foot on 22 Jul 44. The wound was a penetrating wound of the left foot which caused a fracture of the second metatarsal. On examination to-day there is evidence of an old injury in the region of the second left metatarsul. There is still present a longitudinal two and a half inch superficial tender scar otherwise healing has been complete. In all likelihood there will not be any necessity for lowering his 'L' grade. He should be fit for full duty in approximately two weeks' time. The wound was of such a nature that it could have been caused by a weapon in the man's own hands.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

M T Kobrinsky Maj
Witness.

SECOND WITNESS G.7050 L/Cpl Wheaton, G., Cdn Provost Corps, attached 21 Cdn General Hospital, sworn, states:

On the 4 Aug 44 I interviewed the accused, whom I recognize, in company with L/Cpl Britney, Cdn Provost Corps, at No. 7 Cdn General Hospital. We identified ourselves to the accused as members of the Cdn Provost Corps and informed him we were investigating the circumstances surrounding his wound. He was cautioned in the following manner, that he did not have to make a statement unless he wished to do so but if he did, it would be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence. He understood the caution. He made a statement and the statement was reduced to writing. After it was reduced to writing, it was read over to him and he read it himself and then signed it. This is the statement I refer to.

Q. Are there any alterations, erasions or interlineations since it was signed?
A. No, sir, it is in the same form. That is the accused's signature. He was not under arrest at the time. The statement was voluntary. There were no promises of reward, threats or inducements made.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

G Wheaton
Witness.

The statement referred to in the evidence of the above witness is attached hereto as Exhibit 'A'.

THIRD WITNESS Major J.A. Walters, No.10 Cdn Gen Hospital RCAMC.

I certify that in my opinion the attendance of this witness is, owing to the exigencies of the service, not readily procurable and a written statement of his evidence, signed by him, has been read to the accused and a certified true copy is attached hereto as Exhibit 'B'.

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). This is case where the Prosecution will endeavor to show that the accused shot himself with own weapon in his own hand in his left foot. Unfortunately the witnesses mentioned in the accused's statement have been killed in action and are not now available and prosecution must rely on accused's statement and medical evidence.

FIRST WITNESS PROSECUTION

C-7050 L/Cpl Wheaton, C. 8 Prov Coy 4 Cdn Armd Div, being duly sworn, states:-

I recognize the accused whom I interviewed at 7 Cdn Gen Hosp, 4 Aug 44, in presence of L/Cpl Brimmey 2 Prov Coy. We identified ourselves said we were Cdn Provost and were investigating circumstances surrounding his wound. The accused was cautioned in the following words: " You do not have to say anything unless you wish to do so but whatever you do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence." The accused appeared to understand the caution. The statement was voluntary there was no promise - threat the accused was not under arrest.

The Defending Officer has no objection to the statement.

The statement was taken down in writing and read over to the accused and he read it himself he then signed it in the presence of the witness and myself. This is the statement (produced) and put in evidence as Exhibit "A". There are no changes in the statement.

R.P. 83(B) Complied with.

SECOND WITNESS PROSECUTION

Captain L.A. Kickham RCAMC attached 8 Cdn Gen Hosp., being duly sworn, states:-

I have examined the accused and find scar on his left foot between the first and second metatarsal dorsal approx 2" in length and on the plantar surface there is a scar circular approx ¼" in diameter. There is a scar on the two surfaces indicating the possibility of a through and through wound. Wound in direction of long axis of his body if it were through and through. It could have been caused by a weapon held by accused in his own hands. Healed now but there is a painful scar, cannot say if there was any fracture. Accused states that he has no pain. The wound is largely subjective With accused's present attitude there will be no lowering of Category.

By the Court

There was scar on upper surface of foot 2" long and lower ¼" in diameter. Not necessarily caused by a bullet. Could have been caused by operation or infection.

R.P. 83 (B) Complied with.

THIRD WITNESS PROSECUTION

Major J.A. Walters RCAMC attached 8 Cdn Gen Hosp., being duly sworn, states:-

I am neuro-psychiatric specialist. I produce certified copy of report which is my report on the accused.

The Defending Officer has no objection to the medical report being produced and read.

His account was story as I took it at that time. This was put down in writing as answers were given by the accused.

This report was written as a summary containing the important and significant information only, at the end of an interview which might last from 30 to 90 mins. during which by conversation and question I would have attempted to survey and assess the medical issues at stake. Report was written immediately following the interview. My mind would be clean and fresh. Medical report produced and marked by "me".

Cross-examination

I have had some experience in dealing with psychopathic cases in this war. I can account for these cases in a few words. For me a rude generalization. It is a problem of human routine in difficulties under its multiple facets. Human beings develop behaviour which is inefficient, awkward to themselves and society. How many causes, and really one is faced with the problem of establishing why a man behaviour appears and also weighing and controlling factors which may be physical, or mental or social in the alleviations of the persons discomfort or society's embarrassement. The physic- ians methods for establishing the influential factors in a behaviour problem consist of, one, a biographical study of the individual with his family background. Secondly- a physical examination, thirdly- a systematic mental examination which includes a precise evaluation of his thinking, feeling and willing. Finally social factors outside the individual can be studied by direct examination of environments. Such studies searching for why man does foolish things presumes a philosophical attitude which sees him as not a body and a mind and a will similar to other humans but sees each human being as a single unit, body and mind one, rather than dual. This unit is to a great extent biological, under biological law. His inheritance, his past behaviour, the nature of his physical tissues, the state of his temperament the development of his character will be factors in determining what he does in any one situation. There will be unconscious and habitual influences there will be chemical and electrical influences there will be degrees of free choosing in his ultimate action. Clinical judgement - when a physician uses such clinical methods, physical, mental and social, over many years applying the same rigid and exhaustive inquiry to many different human beings he acquires an experience of which easily leads him to sorting his patients into different groups. What is clear to him by his lights is the extent individual character of one human being. Like anyone else. The medical profession has over years conveniently used labels such as " neurosis " "psychosis " and " psychopathic personality " are useful mnemonics to sort our human beings. They are not diseases they are after only the expression of a man having trouble or not fitting well into his environment. Generally they imply not an immediate transient difficulty but a tendancy to be frequently in such straits. term " Psychosis " is applied to people who have extremely abnormal mental life, the layman thinks they are crazy. and while there abnormality persists most of them would satisfy the legal definition of insanity. It includes transient delerium and confusions. temporary states of exaltation or depression and states of delusions or hallucinations of varying duration. It also includes the enfeebled mentality of old age or brain disease. Neurosis are people who are not crazy but who have physical disorders or upset feelings due to thier failing struggle with environment. Patients come to a hysteria with indigestion, heart burn, headache, paralized limbs, blindness, sweating, backache. They are in discomfort. Their real problem is something they are trying to avoid by taking refuge unconsciously in a physical paralysis or blindness or they are emotionally upset and the psychophysical manifestations of emotions become interpreted by sickness. Psychopathic personality: neither psychosis nor neurosis accounts for a group of individuals who are often a trouble to society if not to themselves and thier pattern of failure, evil doing , or eccentricity seems to have persisted for most of thier lives. Thier record suggests they were born that way. Such people are called psychopathic personality to indicate a deviation in the persons make up rather than his his nervous system or mental state at any one time. The weak characters who fail easily by foolish, lazy, timid or shy behaviour are called inadequate types. The repeated evil doer who has repeated crimes or brags habitually to his fellows and no regard for any consideration except himself, is called anti-social. The third type includes the cranks the queer the dreamy the dilletente, the bohemian - those who live in unusual ways and with unusual standards and that cannot be consider so crazy. Those are the eccentric. Mental defectives are a fourth group. They have always lacked brains. Their keeness of intellect and capacity to reason was arrested below normal standards as they developed. They may be sound solid citizens and make excellent unskilled labourers. They lack the capacity to learn. They make excellent batmen. But such people by and large have less confidence in their powers as they have met situations they have been unable to cope with.

In the case of the accused the reference to diagnosis in Exhibi "B" indicates that the accused does not fall in to any one of the defined neuro psychiatric categories which are for every purposes recognized as abnormal and warrant consideration in weighing a mens actions.

re-examination

Human beings are suggestable and more so in groups than in couples. What others do they more easily follow. What others avoid they do with more difficulty. Examples in the world of fashion, taste, mob panic and such observations all verify this Military History provides similar examples.

by the Court

The physician is dependent for his diagnosis on observed evidence for neuro psychiatric diagnosis comes from the mens story the physicians observations of the man and his body. If there is no verification of the mens storythe physician has to rely in the judgement of the reliability of his evidence. The reliability of the eventual diagnosis depends on clinical judgement on the physician in weighing these elements which are not objective and verified.

R.P. 83 (B) Complied with.

Motion for dismissal by defending Officer.

The accused is charged with wilfully injuring himself and in the alternative negligently ~~xx~~injuring . The accused has to be found guilty of "intent" in the first and "negligently in the second" The prosecutor has failed to prove intent. There is only the evidence in the statement by the accused produced in evidence and the hazy medical evidence. There is the diagnosis of Major Walter stating that the accused is normal in everyway I submittk that there is no evidence before the court to properly convict the accused on either charges and ask that both charges be dismissed.

Prosecuting Officer not called on for a reply.

D6 Defending Officers submission is not allowed by court.

FIRST WITNESS DEFENCE The accused, B-55396 Pte Joseph Thorpe, R Regt C having been duly sworn states:-

Defending Officer:

I propose to submit the evidence of the accused in chief by reading to him his prepared statement in consultation with his defending Officer.

The court rules that the procedure will not be allowed and evidence in chief will have to be produced viva voce

I was born Broadsworth, S Yorkshire England on 10 May 17, came to Canada in 1927 at 10 years of age, settled at Charlton Ont near Airhland lake. Went to 2nd form High School, quit at age of 16. I went farming for awhile then in 1936 went to Lake Shore Gold Mines as a driller and continued until 13 Aug 40 when I enlisted. When I first started I was getting $4.65 for an 8 hrs shift and that was raised to $5.1b. Enlisted with Algonquins trained with them in Canada and Eng and came to F.W. 10 Sep 43 as a reinforcement. I spent sometime in reinforcement unit went to RR of C on 24 Dec 43 Came overseas to France 6th then 6 Jul 44. I saw action with them until this happened 22 Jul 44. I actually went into action with the Royals about night of 12th and was in constantly without rest as a rifleman until 17th. This happened about 1800 hrs. The Seaton was in the trench at the time this happened. I was sitting on the left hand side of the trench pulling to clean my rifle I chose this time to clean my rifle because the mortars had quietened down for about half an hour. I had cleaned my rifle two days before not since because we were too busy going into attacks I had fired fired it constantly. I thought it would be safer on side of the trench because if any mortars came over I could get it to it fast. The trench about 6' in length 2' across , about 5' deep. There was just enough room for the two of us and room to clean rifle and that is the reason I was sitting on the edge of the trench, I started cleaning my rifle, heard the mortars coming over, so I went to roll over into the trench, the bayonet was not on my rifle. There were no one in the vicinity. Witness draws rates showing that he was at the back of the trench facing the front and at about the middle of the same Pte Seaton was to my right in the trench and parrallel thereto. The bolt was open, the magazine was on (Prosecutor objects and states that the witness first said that the magazine was "off" and not " On ") The magazine was on. When I heard the mortar shells come over, I closed the bolt and rolled over on my right side to get into my trench with the rifle parrallel to my legs and practically atween the two. I rolled right into the trench and my rifle went off as I rolled over. There were sticks and grass all the way around the trench. No cover over the trench. Roots sticking out on the side of the trench. I think a stick or something caught and caused the rifle to go off. From the time I heard the bombs until I rolled into the trench was only a matter of 2 or 3 seconds I closed the bolt automatically. When you pull the bolt back and with magazine in puts a round in the chamber. I was always taught when in battle to load your rifle and keep it loaded at all times. Not when cleaning it I had just started to clean it . I knew my magazine had rounds in it. I rolled in trench I heard a round go off and felt a burning in my foot. I am fine now and want to go back to action. I have had a brother killed and would like to get revenge. So was with the R.C.I. My brother was killed about a month ago, after this happened There is no reason why I should shoot myself because I joined up to fight for my king and country. I am married. No dependents but send my mother $20 .00 per month I had no worries on my mind I'd do my best if I went back to fight now. I want to go back and I'm ready to go this afternoon.

cross-examination

The Prosecutor states that he proposes to question the veracity of the accused's statement . and that he is willing and wishes to return to the front lines.

R.P. 83 (3) complied with.

The court rules that this cross-examination must not extend to verbal evidence of bad character and cannot be given for the Prosecution but the Prosecutor has the right by cross-exam to test the veracity of statement given by accused. (by R CO top read by the court)

Q. Were you ever charged with an offence that would indicate that you were not willing to serve your King and Country?

A. I was charged once with an offence that would indicate that I was not willing to serve, that was a charge of malingering

Q. Was that just prior to the invasion of europe?

A. That was before.

Q. Just before?

A. I could not say Sir?

Q. Was it the 2nd of June ?

A. I dont know Sir.

Q. was it a few days ?

A. I dont know.

Q. What was the charge ?

A. It was my ears when I was in 7 Con Gen I was getting treatmer for my ears.

Q. You were charged with counterfeiting deafness with intention of evading duty ?

A. Not deafness. My ears were sore, They had me up for that charge and I was convicted.

Q. Was there any other charge against you that would lead anyone to believe that you were unwilling to serve ?

A. No Sir.

Q. Were you ever charged as a deserter ?

A. No, I was A.W.L. for 84 days.

Q. Were you convicted on that charge ?

A. Yes Sir A.W.L.

Q. Served from 1940 till 22 Jul 44 ?

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Do you consider youself well trained soldier.

A. As well as any.

Q. Well trained with rifle ?

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Were you shaken up very much ?

A. No Sir.

Q. Not at all ?

A. No Sir.

Q. You knew other people had been badly shaken ?

A. Yes Sir, I had seen them too.

Q. Do you know L/Cpl Dempsey ?

A. Yes, Sir; just to see him he was in the same company. I don know when he was wounded. I know of one S.I.". In my Regt

Pte McKinnon, knew of no others. I had not heard of people S.I.W.'s prior to 22 Jul 44. I remember a Major took a statement from me at 7 Cdn Gen Hosp could not tell you the date or his name. I think it was the doctor who gave evidence here this morning the third witness. Had accident at quiet time while in reserve Coy. Quiet compared to what it was. I dont recall telling him about Mortar bombs. I dont know if there is anything in my signed statement about cleaning my rifle. As the statement now stands there is nothing in it stating that I was cleaning my rifle. The slit trench was dug the night before I was there all night and until 1500 hrs the following afternoon, in reserve, the enemy no where near. We were busy moving so I didnt have opportunity to clean my rifle before. Must get some sleep if you are on guard all night. I could not have cleaned in the trench because dirt falls in again. Pte Seaton was also in trench and there was not enough room. I sat the easiest way to clean rifle and was taking safety precautions in sitting that way. I was going to go into trench head first. I was going to roll in. I did not think of rolling feet first. I closed bolt because that was automatic. Heard the mortar closed the bolt and rolled it to the trench. That is the way it happened. I did not tell the Psychiatrist a different story. I told him thesame thing that I am telling you now I dont know why it isn't in his report. I have never seen the Psychiatrists report. (accused reads psychiatrists report) that is the report I gave him. It is automatic to put on the safety catch after closing the bolt but I do not ~~xxxx~~ ~~xxxxx~~ know why I didnt put on the safety catch. The wound i perpendicular but not through and through according to Doctor who made the examination.

Q. When asked by your counsel how this incident occurred you first said that the magazine was "off" the bolt was open and after that again the magazine was "on".

A. No, Sir I said the magazine was on, I never said it was "off"

Q. You realize the portend of your answer.

A. Yes, Sir the magazine was on.

FOURTH WITNESS PROSECUTION in rebuttal

L-18012 Pte Collard, A.', Provost Corps, 'sworn, states:-

Q. When Counsel for Defence asked the accused how this incident occurred and the accused started to demonstrate what did the accused say.

A. I understood the accused to say the chamber was " off"

Q. What was it you heard ~~the~~?

A. I heard the accused say the magazine was " off "

PROSECUTION CLOSING ADDRESS

I wish to point out the inconsistency of the accused evidence which is quite apparent. He is intelligent and yet we find on his own record he is willing to serve admits he went absent for 53 days and that he was also charged and convicted with malingering as he called it. Charge was evading duties. That was just prior to invasion of the continent. I submit therefore his post actions assist court materially in deciding if the wound was wilfully, with intention of evading service. The prosecution finds itself in nearly all these cases has no eye witness. The accused knew witnesses were going into action. There is nothing in accused statement saying this man was in slit trench at the time. When you have evidence of Major Walt ers that the information obtained by questions and answer from accused that he was in reserve in quiet sector cleaning rifle when accident occident occured. Then later accused is examined by member of Provost Corps. I submit he is intelligent enough to know that what he told Major Walters was not good enough and that he therefore gave a different story which is now befor

you. Until cross-examination did not say anything about quiet sector but under fire and rolled into trench in an emergency and rifle went off. Position extraordinary, also that he had t o roll in head first. Closed bolt automatically but did not put safety catch on automatically as he was accustomed to. If he had time to close why didnt he get into trench feet first.
I suggest to you that it was the only way the accused could explain having shot himself. Draw your attention to evidence of the witness called in rebuttal who was during the demonstrat ion facing the accused who stated that the accused first said that the magazine was off. I submit that there is sufficient evidence to find the accused guilty on the first charge.

E 3 PLEA IN MITIGATION

It is hard to picture a hard rock miner as this man was in civil life to find himself in the predicament he is in to-day When one finds one of them as a soldier suspected of such a dastardly crime as this it is very hard to believe. A man possessing those fine qualities as such men portray is not the type either by virtue of his own negligence or preconceived plan to commit such a thing as a wound on his own body. I dont wish to labour this mans career save to say that this man finds himself in this predicament by virtue of a course of conduct he has pursued during his army career, probably due to lack of control rather than anything else. He would be ashamed to return to Canada without proving to his comrades and his country that he is equal to carrying out his expressi rs of loyalty and faithfulness to the cause. And if such must be the case it certainly will be most unfortunate. I therefore can only ask that the court exercise mercy as this lad may deserve after all is said and done - and as the psy chiatrist has said here to-day human beings are often guilty of anti-social behaviour but the important thing for the Army is to try and make something out of this man. The accused sees the error of his ways and I ask for a recommendation that the soldier be returned to the line at the earliest possible opportunity. It is this last expression of his willingness to serve that he wants to leave with this court.

MEDICAL CERTIFICATE

I certify that I have this morning examined Reg.No. B-55369, Pte. THORPE, Joseph, and he is fit to undergo trial by Court-Martial.

Medical Officer

11th Nov 44 PK.

second witness for prosecution

Captain A Rickham RCAMC attached 7 Cdn Gen Hosp. being duly sworn states:

I have examined the accused and find scar on his left foot between the first and second metatarsal dorsal approx 2" in length and on the planter surface there is a scar, circular, approx 1/4" in diam. There is a scar on the two surfaces indicating the possibility of a through and through wound. Wound in direction of long axis of his body if it were through and through. It could have been caused by a weapon held by accused in his own hands. Healed now but there is a painful scar. Cannot say if there was any fracture. Accused states that he has no pain. The wound is largely subjective. With accused's present attitude there will be no lowering of Category

By the Court

There was scar on upper surface of foot 2" long and lower 1/4" in diameter. Not necessarily caused by a bullet. ~~Could~~ may have been caused by operation or infection.

S.F 83(B) Complied with.

third witness for prosecution

Major J. A. ~~Walters~~ "Walter" RCAMC. attached 7 Cdn Gen Hosp. being duly sworn states:-

I am neuro-psychiatric specialist. I produce certified copy of report which is my report on the accused.

The defending officer has no objection to the medical report being produced and read.

His account was story as I took it at that time. This was put down in writing as answers were given by accused.

This report was written as a summary containing the important and significant information only, at the end of an interview which might last from 10 to 30 minutes.

This is case where "accused" the prosecution will endeavour to show that accused shot himself with own weapon in his own hands in his left foot. Unfortunately the witnesses mentioned in the accused's statement have been killed in action and are not now available and prosecution must rely on accused's statement and medical evidence.

first witness for prosecution

G 7050 A/Cpl Wheaton G. 8 Prov Coy 4 Cdn Armd Div being duly sworn states:-

I recognize the accused whom I interviewed at 7 Cdn Gen Hosp, 4 Aug 44, in presence of A/Cpl Brittney 2 Prov Coy. We identified ourselves and we were Can Provost and were investigating circumstances surrounding his wound. The accused was cautioned in the following words:" you do not have to say anything unless you wish to do so but what you do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence". The accused appeared to understand the caution. The statement was voluntary there was no promise. that the accused was not under arrest

The Defending Officer has no objection to the statement

The statement was taken down in writing and read over to the accused and he read it himself he then signed it in the presence of the witness and myself. This is the statement (~~produced~~ and put in evidence as Ex" A") There are no changes in the statement.

R.P. 83(8) complied with.

do not a body and a mind and a will similar to other humans but sees each human being as a single unit, body and mind one, rather than dual. This unit is to a great extent biological, under biological law. His inheritance, his past behaviour, the nature of his physical tissues, the state of his temperament the development of his character will be factors in determining what he does in any one situation. There will be unconscious and habitual influences there will be chemical and electrical influences and there will be degrees of free choosing in his ultimate actions.

Clinical judgment – When a physician uses such clinical methods, physical, mental and social, over many years applying the same rigid and exhaustive enquiry to many different human beings he acquires an experience which easily leads him to sort out his patients into different groups. What is clear to him by his slights is the extreme individual character of one human being unlike anyone else – the medical profession has over years conveniently used labels such as "neurosis", "psychosis" and "psychopathic personality" as useful ~~mnemonics~~ mnemonics to sort out human beings. They are not diseases they are often only the expression of a man having trouble or not getting well into his environment. generally they simply mark an immediate ~~to~~ moment differently but a tendency to be frequently in such "~~day~~" situations. Term "psychosis" is applied to people who have extremely abnormal mental life, the during which by conversation and question I would have attempted to survey and assess the medical issues at stake. Report was written immediately following the interview. My mind would be clear and fresh. Medical report produced and marked Ex "B".

Cross-examination

I have had some experience in dealing with psychopathic cases in this war. I can't account for these cases in a few words, nor can I make generalization as it is a problem of human nature in difficulties under its multiple facets.

Human beings develop behavior which is inefficient, awkward to themselves and society from many causes, medically one is faced not with the problem of social responsibility but with the problem of establishing why such behaviour appears and also weighing and evaluating factors which may be physical or mental or social in the alleviation of the persons discomfort or society's embarrassment. The physicians methods for establishing the influential factors in a behavior problem consist of, one, a biographical study of that individual with his family background. Secondly - a physical examination, Thirdly - a systematic mental examination which includes a precise evaluation of his ~~thought~~ thinking, feeling and willing. Finally social factors outside the individual can be studied by direct examination of environment.

Such studies, searching for why man does foolish things, ~~is~~ presumes a philosophical ~~view~~ attitude which sees him

Motion for dismissal by Defending Officer

The accused is charged with wilfully injuring himself and in the alternative negligently ~~wounds~~ injuring. The accused has to be found guilty of "intent" in the first and "blameworthy" in the second. The prosecution has failed to prove intent. There is only the evidence in the statement by accused produced in evidence and the hazy medical evidence. There is the diagnosis of Major Walter stating that the accused is normal in every way. I submit that there is no evidence before the Court to properly ~~convict~~ convict the accused on either charges and ask that "~~the~~" both charges be dismissed.

Prosecuting Officer was not called on for a reply.

Defending Officer's submission is not allowed by Court.

comes from the mans story,
the physicians observations of

and not "one".) The magagine was on. When I heard the mortar shells come over, I closed the bolt and rolled over on my right side to get into my trench with the rifle parallel to my legs and practically between the two. I rolled right into the trench and my rifle went off as I rolled over. There were sticks and grass all around the trench. No cover over the trench. Boots sticking out on the side of the trench. I think a stick or something caught and caused the rifle to go off. From the time I heard the bombs until I rolled into the trench was only a matter of 2 or 3 seconds. I closed the bolt automatically. When you pull the bolt back and with magagine it puts a round in the chamber. I was always taught when in battle to load your rifle and keep it loaded at all times. Not when cleaning it. I had just started to clean it. I knew my magagine had rounds in it. ~~When~~ I rolled in trench I heard a round go off and felt a burning in my foot. I am fit now and want to go back into action. I have had a brother killed and would like to get revenge. He was in the R H & I. My brother was killed about a month ago, after this happened. There is no reason why I should shoot myself because I joined up to fight for my King and Country. I am not married. No dependents but send my mother $20 per mo. I had no worries on my mind. I'd do my best to fight if I went back now. I want to go back and I'm ready to go back this afternoon.

raised to $5.15. Enlisted with Algonquin transfered with them in Canada and New and came to U.K. 18 Sep 43 as a re-inforcement. I spent sometime in reinforcement unit and went to R.H.Q.C on 24 Dec 43 came overseas to France with them 6 Jun 44. I saw action with them until this happened 22 Jul 44. I actually went into action with the Royals about night of 12th and was in constantly without rest as a rifleman until 22nd. This happened about 1500 hrs. Pte Beaton was in the trench at the time this happened. I was sitting on the left hand side of the trench going to clean my rifle. I chose this time to clean my rifle because the mortars had quietened down for about half an hour. I had cleaned my rifle two days before, not since because we were too busy going into attacks I had fired it constantly. I thought I would be safer on side of the trench because if any mortars came over I could get into it fast. The trench about 6' in length 2 ft across about 5' deep. There was just enough room for the two of us and not enough to clean rifle and that is the reason I was sitting on the edge of trench. I started cleaning my rifle, heard the mortars coming over, as I went to roll into the trench, the bayonet was not on my rifle. There were tanks in the vicinity witness demonstrates showing that he was sitting at the back of the trench facing the front and at about the middle of the same Pte Beaton was to my right in the trench. My legs were outside the trench and parallel thereto. The bolt was open, the magazine was on (Prosecutor objects and states that the witness first said that the magazine was "off"

Q. Do you know L/Cpl Dempsey?
A. Yes. Sir. ~~I know~~ just to see him he was in the same Coy. I don't know when he was wounded. I know of one S.I.W. in my regiment Pte McKinnon, knew of no others. I had not heard of people S.I.W's prior to 22 Jul 44. I remember a major took a statement from me at 7 Can Gen Hosp could not tell you the date or his name. I think it was the doctor who gave evidence here this morning the third witness. Had accident at quiet time while in reserve Coy. quiet compared to what it was I don't recall telling him about mortar bombs. I don't know if there is anything in my signed statement about cleaning my rifle. As the statement now stands there is nothing in it stating that I was cleaning my rifle. The slit trench was dug the night before I was there all night and until 1500 hrs following afternoon, in reserve, ~~some distance~~ the enemy no where near. We were busy morning so I didn't have opportunity to clean my rifle before. Must get some sleep if you are on guard all night. I could not have cleaned in the trench because dirt falls in again. Q. "were you ever charged with an offence that would indicate that you were not willing to serve your King and country"
A. I was charged once with an offence that would indicate that I was not willing to serve, that was a charge of malingering.

A. That was before
Q. Just before?
A. I could not say sir.
Q. Was it the 2nd of June?

A. It was my ears when I was in 7 Can Gen I was getting treatment for my ears.
Q. You were charged with contributing deafness with intention of evading duty?
A Not deafness. My ears were sore. They had me up for that charge and I was convicted.
Q. Was there any other charge against you that would lead anyone to believe that you were unwilling to serve?
A. No sir.
Q. Were you ever charged as a deserter?
A No, I was A.W.L. for 54 days

Prosecution closing address:-

I wish to point out the inconsistency of the accused evidence which is quite apparent he is intelligent and yet we find on his own record he is willing to admit he went absent for 5 days and that he was also charged and convicted with malingering as he called it. Charge was evading duties. That was just prior to invasion of the Continent. I submit his past actions therefore could count materially in deciding if this wound was wilfully with intention of evading service. The prosecution finds itself in nearly all these cases has no eye witness. The accused knew witnesses were going into action. There is nothing in accused statement saying this man was in slit trench at the time. Then you have evidence of Major Walters that the ifom obtained by questions and answers from accused that he was in reserve not front rank when accident occurred. Then later accused is examined by member of Provost Corps I submit he is intelligent enough to know that what he told Major Walters was not good enough and that he therefore gave a different story which is now before you. Until cross-exam did not say anything about point rack but under fire and rolled into trench in an emergency and safe mark off. Points extraordinary, also that he had to roll into head first. Closed bolt automatically but did not put safety catch on automatically as he was accustomed to. If he was dug in trench and there was not enough room. I was the easiest way to clean rifle and was taking safety precautions in setting that way. I was going to go into trench head first. I was going to roll in. I did not think of rolling feet first. I closed bolt because that was automatic. Heard the mortar closed the bolt and rolled into trench. That is the way it happened. I did not tell the psychiatrist a different story. I told him the same thing that I am telling you now. I don't know why it isn't in his report. I have never seen the psychiatrists report. (Accused reads psychiatrists report) That is the report I gave him. It is automatic to put on the safety catch after closing the bolt but I do not know why I didn't put on the safety catch. The wound is perpendicular but not through and through according to doctor who made the examination.

Q. When asked by your counsel how this incident occurred you first said that the magazine was "off" the bolt was open and after that again the magazine was "on".

A. No, sir I said the magazine was "on". I never said it was "off".

Q. You realize the portion of your answer.

A. Yes, sir the magazine was on.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of B.55369 Pte Thorpe, J., Royal Regiment of Canada, attached 21 Cdn Gen Hospital, charged with, when on active service wilfully injuring himself with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service (AA Sec 18(2)), alternative, when on active service neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (AA Sec 40).

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

I am Major M.T. Kobrinsky, Medical Officer at 21 Cdn General Hospital. B.55369 Pte Thorpe, J., was admitted to 21 Cdn Gen Hospital on 2 Oct 44. Review of his medical documents reveal that he had received a gunshot wound in his left foot on 22 Jul 44. The wound was a penetrating wound of the left foot which caused a fracture of the second metatarsal. On examination to-day there is evidence of an old injury in the region of the second left metatarsul. There is still present a longitudinal two and a half inch superficial tender scar otherwise healing has been complete. In all likelihood there will not be any necessity for lowering his 'L' grade. He should be fit for full duty in approximately two weeks' time. The wound was of such a nature that it could have been caused by a weapon in the man's own hands.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

M.T. Kobrinsky Maj
Witness.

SECOND WITNESS G.7050 L/Cpl Wheaton, G., Cdn Provost Corps, attached 21 Cdn General Hospital, sworn, states:

On the 4 Aug 44 I interviewed the accused, whom I recognize, in company with L/Cpl Britney, Cdn Provost Corps, at No. 7 Cdn General Hospital. We identified ourselves to the accused as members of the Cdn Provost Corps and informed him we were investigating the circumstances surrounding his wound. He was cautioned in the following manner, that he did not have to make a statement unless he wished to do so but if he did, it would be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence. He understood the caution. He made a statement and the statement was reduced to writing. After it was reduced to writing, it was read over to him and he read it himself and then signed it. This is the statement I refer to.

Q. Are there any alterations, erasions or interlineations since it was signed?

A. No, sir, it is in the same form. That is the accused's signature. He was not under arrest at the time. The statement was voluntary. There were no promises of reward, threats or inducements made.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

G. Wheaton
Witness.

THIRD WITNESS Major J.A. Walters, No.10 Cdn Gen Hospital RCAMC.

I certify that in my opinion the attendance of this witness is, owing to the exigencies of the service, not readily procurable and a written statement of his evidence, signed by him, has been read to the accused and a certified true copy is attached hereto as Exhibit 'B'.

Officer taking Summary

I do not require the attendance of Major J.A. Walters for the purpose of cross-examination.

Accused

The accused is cautioned as follows:

Do you wish to make a statement or give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you do say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

"No, there is nothing I have to say at this time".

The accused does not call any witnesses.

I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence consisting of two pages was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that RP 4 (C) (D) (E) (F) and (G) have been complied with.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. First Witness for the Prosecution

Major J.P. Middlebro, RCAMC, att 2 Cdn Gen Hosp having been duly sworn states:

I examined the accused. I found through and through wound through the left foot. There is a wound on the sole under the centre of the transverse arch, and on the dorsum about 1½" long lying between the 2nd and 3rd metatarsal. This has been partly surgical in nature. The axis of the wound is down and forward through the foot. The 2nd metatarsal has been injured. There is no disability but the foot may be painful when in use for a time. It could have been caused by a weapon in the accused's own hand.

Cross-examined:

With a period of retraining he could return to the line in a period of 6 weeks.

Re-examination:

His foot should be exercised for 6 weeks.

RP 83(B) complied with.

Second Witness for the Prosecution

U-2050 Sgt Gatehouse, W.H. SIS, C Pro C having been duly sworn states:

I know the accused. This afternoon I saw him. I handed him the statement. I read it over to him. He said the statement was his. He said he had been cautioned before making the statement and he said the persons to whom he made the statement had identified themselves. He said this was the original statement, that it was voluntary and he had signed the caution and statement. He adopted it as his own statement.

The Defence has no objection.

Statement read to the Court marked as Exhibit "A" is attached herewith.

No Cross-examination.

RP 83(B) complied with.

Motion by the Defence

The Defence moves for dismissal on both charges. The Prosecution has failed to establish a prima facie case which would indicate intent and for blameworthiness. The first evidence by the MO told of the present condition of the accused's left foot. He admitted that the accused could go back to duty at this time. The second witness produced a statement made by the accused on 4 Aug 44. I submit the accused has given a reasonable explanation as to what occurred. Under these circumstances he did the normal thing. I submit that both charges have no evidence to convict upon. My motion is for dismissal on both charges.

Reply by Prosecution:

The motion now is not as to guilt but as to sufficient evidence so as to put him on his defence. The circumstances are not normal. He was shot in the foot. He should explain. There is sufficient evidence tp put him on defence in both charges. Many of the witnesses are not available now but it is necessary to go on with the case. The motion should be disallowed and the accused put on his defence.

First Witness for the Defence

B-55369 Pte Joseph Thorpe, R Regt of C, att 10 Bn 2 CBRG, having been duly sworn states:

I was sitting on the left hand side of the trench with the rifle across my knee. I pulled the bolt back. I heard the mortar bombs coming over. I slammed the bolt forward and went to roll into the trench. The rifle went off. It must have caught on something as I rolled over. The trench was 5' deep. I flopped into it as quickly as I could. I am right handed. My right hand was not near the trigger. We were the reserve coy at this time. Had been in action since 12 Jul 44. The accident happened on 22 Jul. During the 10 days we were pursing the enemy. I am a rfmn. We were holding at Etterville for 7 days. I never asked to be relieved from the line. My Pl offr or Sgt never complained of me. Pte Seaton was with me. I told him I felt a burning in my foot. I did 21 days detention in England for malingering. I went back to the regt and came over with them. I want to go back to get revenge for my two brothers who have been killed. One with the RHLI and the other with the RCE.

Cross-examination:

I had my rifle since Sep 42. It was a normal rifle. There are two trigger pressures.
There were sticks and things around thetrench. I did not se the rifle afterwards. I do not know if there were sticks around the rifle. We were under shell fire and mortar all the time. I was used to it. I could tell if the shell was "for me". Mortars were dropping close to us al all times. We could not hold normal meal parades. Heavy shelling was steady. There was 88.100. There had not been many casualties. None in the Pl. or Coy that day. We were shelled all day without casualties. There was no small arms fire. We generally jump in our trench as fast as we can. Pte Seaton was in the trench with me. He is now wounded and back in the UK. I am not normally nervous. I'm just like the rest under shelling. I had started to clean it when the mortar came over. It was about 1400 hrs . I was just pulling the bolt out when I heard it coming over. I left the mag on. I don't normally clean it with the mag on. I had no time to see if safety catch was on. The shells were dropping around 50' away. In front and in back. About every 15 or 20 mins. I don't know if this one was in front or behind. It was close. I didn't see it land.

RP 83(B) Complied with.

Further remarks by the Defending Officer.

I want to say that vthe accused has expressed the desire to return to his regt. In addition to this desire he feels he has personal revenge as two brothers have been killed.
He wants to contribute to the traditions of the regt and prove he is a good soldier.
It is six months since it happened. He has undergone close arrest for two months.
He deserves serious considerations on the part of senior authorities. One or two Echelons should have brought him to trial sooner. There must have been an oversight.

"G.L. Taschereau" Major
Pres FGCM.

Closing Address by the Prosecution:

The facts are fresh. Not necessary to review. The case turns on credibility of the accused. It is not normal to be shot through the left foot. If he is telling the truth it may happen. He is not nervous. Shell all day; close to him; no casualties. He had 10 days of action in a defensive roll where they had been shelled. I suggest there is background of facts that might have led to this. I cannot go further into character evidence. As it is the statement and circumstances under which it took place are before you. There is some part of the story untold. The question of intent must be left to the Court. If the story has not been told he certainly was negligent. If the Court think he was negligent then there is grounds for conviction, under the second charge.

Remarks by the Defence:

The accused has given a reasonable explanation of the facts. He has told you the best of his recollections of what occurred. It happened in Jul 44. I submit it would be impossible to convict on first charge. I am prepared to accept the court's judgement on the second even though my friend has said a standard must be maintained.

E-1

The accused gives evidence as to character:

Born 10 May 1917; signgle; was a soldier in Lake Shore Gold Mine; an older and younger brother killed on this front in this War; Assign $20.00 to my mother.

SUSPECTED SELF/INFLICTED WOUND

1. On the 4 Aug 44, the a/m soldier was interviewed by L/Cpl Britney and the writer at 7 Cdn. Gen. Hospital where he was being treated for gunshot wound in the left foot.

2. After being cautioned the following statement outlining the circumstances of this incident was obtained from him.

BEGINS: "I am Joseph THORPE age 27 years. I enlisted 13 August 1940 and arrived in France 7 July 1944 with my regiment. We first went into action near the town of TILLYVILLE. We were here for six days when we were relieved by the ESSEX. We went back for a day and a half as a reserve regiment. At LOUVIGNY we engaged the enemy and took some prisoners in an orchard. We had a nights rest then we went to a place where I had my accident. We had dug slit trenches the night before this happened.

I was sitting on the left hand side of my trench with the rifle across my knees, when I heard some mortar bombs coming over. I ducked the rifle and rolled to drop into my trench. I heard the shot and felt a burning in my foot. Pte. SEATON came to my assistance and gave me a hand to take my boot off. L/Cpl SUTTON called a stretcher bearer who gave me first aid. They carried me to a jeep and I was taken to a F.D.S.

First — Before this accident happened I was offered a better job by my Coy Commander driving his jeep for him.

I don't know why my rifle went off unless it caught on something. It was in good condition. I did not shoot myself intentionally and as soon as I can walk I want to get back up there with my unit.

First Witness for the Prosecution

Major J. P. Middleton, RCAMC, attd 2 Can Gen Hosp
having been duly sworn states:

I examined the accused. I found a through + through wound through the left foot. There is a wound on the sole under the centre of the transverse arch; And on the dorsum about 1½" long lying between the 2nd + 3rd metatarsal. This has been partly surgical in nature. The axis of the wound is down + forward through the foot. The 2nd metatarsal has been injured. There is a no disability but the foot may be painful when in use for a time. It could have been caused by a weapon in the accused's own hand.

Cross examined:

With a period of retraining he could return to the line in a period of 6 weeks.

Re-examination:

His foot should be exercised for 6 weeks.

RP 83 (B) complied with.

Second Witness for the Prosecution

U 2050 Sgt Gatehouse, W.H. S.I.S. CPoC
having been duly sworn states:

I know the accused. This afternoon I saw him. I handed him the statement. I read it over to him. He said the statement was his. He said he had been cautioned before making the statement and he said the persons to whom he made the statement had identified themselves. He said this was the original statement, that it was voluntary and he had signed the caution and statement. He adopted it as his own statement.

The Defence has no objection.

Statement read to the Court marked as Exhibit "A" is attached herewith.

No Cross-examination.

R.P 83(13) complied with.

Motion by the Defence.

The Defence moves for dismissal on both charges. The Prosecution has failed to establish a prima facie case which would indicate intent and/or blameworthiness. The 1st evidence by the MO told of the present condition of the accused's left foot. He admitted that the accused could go back to duty at this time. The 2nd Witness produced a statement made by the accused on 4 Aug 44. I submit the accused has given a reasonable explanation as to what occured. Under these circumstances he did the normal thing. I submit that both charges have no evidence to convict upon. My motion is for dismissal on both charges.

J. J. H. 11/9/08. 3. (5)

Reply by the Prosecution:

The motion now is not as to guilt but as to sufficient evidence so as to put him on his defence. The circumstances are not normal. He was shot in the foot. He should explain. There is sufficient evidence to put him on defence in both charges. Many of the witnesses are not available now but it is necessary to go on with the case. The motion should be disallowed and the accused put on his defence.

First Witness for the Defence

B 55369 Pte Joseph Thorpe R. Regt of C attd 10 Bn 2 CBRC having been duly sworn states:

I was sitting on the left hand side of the trench with the rifle across my knees. I pulled the bolt back. I heard the mortar bomb coming over. I slammed the bolt forward and went to roll into the trench. The rifle went off. It must have caught on something as I rolled over. The trench was 5' deep. I flopped into it as gently as I could. I am right handed. My left hand was not near the trigger. We were the reserve coy. at this time. Had been in action since 12 July 44. The accident happened on 22 July. During the 10 days we were pursuing the enemy. I am a runner. We were holding a bridge for 7 days. I never asked to be relieved from the line. Lt Fuller of a sqt never complained of me. Pte Seaton was with me. I told him I felt a burning in my foot. I did 21 days detention in England for malingering. I went back to the regt and came over with him. I want to go back to get revenge for my 2 brothers who have been killed. One with the 15th H and the other with the RCE.

Cross-examination:

I had my rifle since Sept 42. It was a normal rifle. There are a trigger pressures. There were sticks and things around the trench. I did not see the rifle afterwards. I do not know if there were sticks around the rifle. We were under shellfire and mortar all the time. I was used to it I could tell if the shell was "for me". Mortars were dropping close to us at all times. We could not hold normal meal parades. Heavy shelling was steady. There was 88, too. There had not been many casualties. None in the pl. or coy that day. We were shelled all day without casualties. There was no small arms fire. We generally jump in the trench with as we can. Pte Heaton was in the trench with me. He is now wounded and is back to U.K. I am not normally nervous. I'm just like the rest under shelling. I had started to clean it when the mortars came over. It was about 1400 hrs. I was just pulling the bolt out when I heard it coming over. I left the mag on. I don't normally clean it with the mag on. I had no time to see if safety catch was on. The shells were dropping around 50' away. In front and in back. About every 150 or 20 minutes. I don't know if this one was in front or behind. I didn't see it land. It was close.

RP 83(B) complied with.

Y.S.
C.S.

Further remarks by the Defending Officer.

I want to say that the accused has appeared the desire to return to his regt. In addition to this desire he feels he has personal revenge as 2 brothers have been killed. He wants to contribute to the traditions of the regt and prove he is a good soldier. It is 6 months since it happened. He has undergone close arrest for 2 months. He deserves serious considerations on the part of senior authorities. One or Two Echelons should have brought him to trial sooner. There must have been an oversight.

G.J. Jacksonne Maj.
F.B.C.M.

Closing Address by the Prosecution:

The facts are fairly Not necessary to review.
Then case turns on credibility of the accused.
It is not normal to be shot thru the left ft. If he is telling the truth it may happen.
He is not nervous. Shelling all day; close to him; no casualties. He had 10 days' [illegible] action in - defensive all where they had been shelled I suggest there is background of facts that might have led to this. I cannot go further into character evidence. As to is the statement and circumstances under which it took place are before you. There is some part of the story untold. The question of intent must be left to the court. If the story has not been told he certainly was negligent.
If the court think he was negligent then there is grounds for conviction under the 2nd charge.

Remarks by the Defence:

The accused has given a reasonable explanation of the facts. He has told you the best of his recollection of what occurred. It happened in July 44. I submit it would be impossible to convict on 1st charge. I am prepared to accept the court's judgment on the 2nd even though my friend has said a standard must be maintained.

E-1 The accused gives evidence as to character:

Born 10 May 1917; single; was a driller in Lake Shore Gold Mine; an older and younger brother killed on this front in this war; assign $20.00 to my mother.

Self Inflicted Wound.

The above mentioned soldier was interviewed by A/Gl Britney F and the writer at No 7 Can. Gen. Hospital on 4 Aug 44 where he was being treated for a gun shot wound in the left foot.

After being cautioned, the following voluntary statement outlining the circumstances of this incident, was obtained from him.

Statement of B55364 Pte Thorpe J.

I am. Joseph Thorpe age 27 years. I enlisted 13 August 40 and arrived in France 7 July 44 with my regt.

We first went into action near the town of Cleryville. We were here for six days, when we were relieved by the Essex. We went back for a day and a half as reserve regiment.

At Roudigny we engaged the enemy and took some prisoners in an orchard. We had a nights rest then we went to the place where I had my accident.

We had dug slit trenches the night before this happened. I was sitting on the left hand side of my trench with the rifle across my knees, when I heard some mortar bombs coming over I closed the rifle and rolled to drop into my trench. I heard the shot and felt a burning in my foot. Pte Heaton came to my assistance and gave me a hand to take my boot off. L/Cpl Sutton called a stretcher bearer who gave me first aid. They carried me to a jeep and I was taken to a field dressing station. Before this accident happened I had just been offered a better job by my Coy Commander driving his jeep for him.

I dont know why the rifle went off unless I caught on some thing. It was in good condition. I did not shoot myself intentionally. As soon as I can walk I want to get back up there with my unit.

Joseph Thorpe

The Order convening the Court is read in the presence of the accused persons.

Neither of the accused persons objects to be tried by the President and any member.

The President, Members, Judge Advocate and interpreters are duly sworn.

The accused persons severally answer to their names and numbers and are arraigned on the charge.

The Prosecutor makes an opening address.

First Witness for Prosecution: SIGHA AHMED BEN BENDIAF of AIN M' LILA, duly sworn his evidence being interpreted from Arabic to French and French to English states:

" I live with my grandmother Laib Lyanina Beut Said. One day she gave me 2 x 1000 franc notes to buy corn with. It was a month and a half ago. About 1800 hrs in the evening I was reading the Koran. I had the two notes with me. They were by my side.
After I had finished reading I remained in the room where I was. I went out to get some change. I saw two British Soldiers. They were the two accused now present.
They spoke to me in French. They suggested I should buy some items of clothing. They showed me a vest, a pair of pants, a pair of trousers, and a B.D. blouse. They did not show me any thing else. The pants were long woollen pants. I did not buy the articles, because I know the authorities French forbid us to buy any Allied property. While this was going, on, the two 1000 franc notes were in my left hand, which was closed but so that the notes could ~~not~~ be seen.
The accused , on of them, the accused ALDERSON produced a pistol. I think it was a black one. It was like the pistol now shown to me(Exhibit "A") He pointed it at my chest. The he snatched the two bank notes from my hand and ran away. While this was happening the other was not doing anything -He was watching about -was going on and then ran away too. This was all just outside the door of my house. When they ran away I gave chase. My grandmother did not see all that happened. She was cooking in the house. She came out when I called out to her that someone had stolen my money. I have had my money back. I ran after the accused only as far as the Gardamanergie. I had never seen either of them before.

XX

My grandmother did come into the room while the accused still there. She was there when the accused pointed the pistol at me and took the notes. That was just outside the house.
The soldiers did not try to sell me the pistol. During the chase I heard shots fired. How many I do not know.
My father is dead. My grandmother and I live there, the two alone.

When the soldiers spoke to me they said;-"Tu veux acheter des choses."

SECOND WITNESS For Prosecution — LAIB LYAMNA BENT SAID of AIM M'LILA duly sworn, her evidence being translated from the Arabic to the French and from the French to English, duly sworn states:-

I gave my grandson 2 1000 franc notes to get change to buy corn. I don't remember when it was.
That evening, while I was in the kitchen, I heard my grandson talking to somebody and came to see.
He was talking to two soldiers, the two accused. I heard that it was a question of some clothing and they wanted my grandson to buy. They were speaking English and showing the articles. I did not hear xxxx any French spoken. I do not know what they were trying to sell. They had some articles of clothing on either arm, but what they were precisely I do not know. That was inside the house.
My grandson did not buy the articles.
The accused ALDERSON then produced a pistol and threatened my grandson with it, pointing it at his chest. My grandson was afraid. The soldier took the opportunity, snatched the bank notes from his hand, and then ran away. The other meanwhile was standing by the door without doing anything. It was from his pocket that the soldier took the pistol, and threatened my grandson with it. They ran away together, the accused THORPE in front and ALDERSON immediately behind him.
I started shouting and gave chase. I chased them as far as the Gendameir I have had my money back. I have still got some of it left.

xx

Only the two of us live at the house. The grandson's father divorced his wife and lives elsewhere. He is not dead. I have not seen any of the clothing which they tried to sell since that time.

The Grandson's father never comes to our house.

xxx The grandson's father is between 50 and 60 years of age. I do not know how old I am.

THIRD WITNESS for Prosecution — OTHMANZ MEDAH, Auxiliaire de Gendamenire, Aim M'Lila, his evidence being interpreted states:-

About 1800 hrs on the 23 April I was in the Gendamenire. I Heard the shouts of "Stop Thief" I went out. I saw in front of two British soldiers running in front of other people.
I asked what it was about and then I went and got my rifle and went out and gave chase. Two of the Gendarmes went out before me.
I chased the two soldiers who were running in the direction of El Guenah. Some Arabs were running after them. They were about 150 meters ahead of me. Once I got to the hospital I had them in sight all the time. I saw each of them take a pistol from his greatcoat pocket. When I saw the pistols I saw that one was an American pistol and the other a revolver.
They pointed the pistols in the directionof the crowd which was also towards us. Neither was wearing a holster.
Both took out their pistols, both threatened the crowd with them and then one, the accused THORPE, put his pistol back in his pocket. The accused ALDERSON kept his pistol out. One of my comrades pointed his rifle at them while I came towards them.
I heard one shot fired, but it was from the two soldiers.

I stopped. My comrade Lebu shouted to the French soldiers who were on the road ahead to get off the road. Lebu pointed his rifle at them. They stopped. I went up to them. They were the two accused now present. When I heard the shot fired, both had their pistols in their hands.

Exhibit "A" When I got up to them I saw their pistols. Exhibit "A" is the pistol which was in ALDERSON'S possession. The one now produced was in THORPE'S possession (It is exhibited and marked EXHIBIT "B" "B". I also took some ammunition from the pocket of ALDERSON. I did not see if the pistols were loaded. The accused ALDERSON put his pistol on the ground. It was picked up by an ARAB who handed it to one of the gendarmes. I took some rounds from the pocket of ALDERSON. How many I don't know. At the Gendarmiere I found some woollen articles produced they are exhibited and marked C) I also found 4 or 5 EXHIBIT C pieces of soap, like the soap now produced (Exhibited and EXHIBIT D marked "D")

xx
I heard one shot fired during the chase. I never heard any bullet.

xxx declined.
The prosecutor tenders

Fourth Witness for prosecution LOUIS MARCOUX Gendarme AIN M ' LILA from cross examination who duly sworn and cross examined states:-
During the chase I heard the bullet. It whistled past my right ear. Medah was then in front of me.

Fifth Witness for Prosecution No 7690121 Sgt Ness, C.W. 65 Section S.I.B. C.M.P. duly sworn states:-
I saw the two accused on the 24 April at the Garrison Guardroom. I told them who I was and the nature of my inquiries and I cautioned them. Each elected to make a statement.
The accused ALDERSON made one first. I wrote it down and after I wrote it down he read it once and signed it. It Exhibit "E" is the statement now produced (It is read, exhibited and marked "E")
Thereafter the accused THORPE made a statement the same prodedure being followed. It is the statement now Exhibit "F" produced (It is read, exhibited and marked "F")
I saw the two accused again on the 27th April. I saw THORPE first . I cautioned him and said to him:
"From the evidence I have in my possession it appears that you both threatened xxx Arab by pointing a pistol at him."
He said, "Neither of us threatened the Arab with a pistol."
"I kept mine in my pocket."
I saw ALDERSON and cautioned him and said: "From the evidence obtained it appears that the Arab was threated by you with a pistol." He replied:"I did not threaten the Arab." "My revolver was empty at the time."
xx
When I saw them on the first occasion I did not notice any marks of violence on them.
xxx declined.

The Prosecutor tenders Sgt Garraway for cross-examination which is declined and No 4344434 L/Cpl Clark, G.W. 227 L of C. Provost Coy, who Sixth Witness of the Prosecution duly sworn and cross examined states:-
" When I went to collect them, the gendarmes turned over their property to me. It id not include any long, white pants, pair of brousers or battle dress blouse. The two accused complained of having been assaulted by the gendarmes and the accused THORPE had a bruise on his cheek.
xxx declined.

The case of the prosecution is closed.

DEFENCE

The accused persons respectively are duly informed of their rights in making their defence and intimate that they respectively wish to give evidence on oath and do not intend to call any other witness in their defence.

First Witness for Defence:

The accused Alderson, duly sworn states:-

I had seen two Arabs who approached me before, but that was not the first witness for the prosecution.

The first witness was not the Arab from whom I took 2000 frances. I have not seen him until he gave evidence.

I produced a pistol when I was talking to him to make him produce some money. It was unloaded and I did not threaten him with it. I was merely pretending to be about to sell it.

The old women was in the room at the time.

At the Gendarmes I never saw anything but the cap comforters and the soap.

During the chase I heard a shot fired in addition to the one I fired. It was a pistol shot and was fired by one of the gendarmes.

I fired a shot about 45o into the air.

At the Gendarmes they closed the door and one drew his pistol and pointed it at us and two others beat us up. One wanted me to box with him. We offered no resistance at all.

I did not volunteer to surrender the money. One said:- "Where is the 4000 frances you took from the Arabs," and I gave him 2000 frances and indicated by signs that was all I had taken from him.

I do not speak French.

XX

My loss took place about two weeks before. I did not report it to anyone. I thought it would be almost impossible by normal methods to get it back.

I do not normally leave camp with a pistol.

It was our intention to take two pistols out because the accused Thorpe wished to fire a couple of rounds to clean his revolver.

I carried my pistol because I meant to extort money from the Arab by trickery. That was my intention when I left camp. I have a holster but the automatic (Exhibit "A") wont fit into it properly.

One of the cap comforters belongs to the accused Thrope. The soap was in my great coat pocket.

I loaded the magazine of the pistol while we were running.

The old lady was still there sitting on the floor. When the Arab went back into the house to get more money he put 2 1000 franc notes in my hand. The pistol I put back in my pocket, after he had gone in for more money.

We walked a few paces and then started to run. We walked normally out of the house. I did not walk 300 yards: We were walking and running.

I expected the Arab would raise the alarm.

I fired the one shot to scare the Arabs some of whom had sticks. I had no idea that there were any gendarmes with them then. I first saw gendarmes when I turned round later.

The Arab, with whom I dealt, looked to be about 40 or 50 years of age. The transaction took about 5 minutes down to his going for the extra money. I offered to help him the pistol in order to get him to produce a large sum from his pocket.

XXX declined

By the Judge Advocate

I recognized the Arab as the one who had stolen my wallet from my overcoat. I took 2000 francs to make up for the 1000 francs taken from me, the balance being to cover the value of the wallet and some photographs that were in it.

By the President

I did not pursue the Arab at the time he took my wallet because there were only two of us there and we were in a minority and might have been roughly handled.

I found out where the Arab lived by seeing him from the back of the truck while we were on wireless schemes. He appeared to live at the house where I went to pretend to sell him the pistol.

At 1300 hours the Court is adjourned.

At 1405 hours the Court reassembles pursant to adjournment: present the same members as before.

The Accused Thorne, duly sworn, states:-

Second Witness for Prosecution:

I never intended profiting by any share of the money taken from the Arab.

I stayed with Alderson because it is "kind of natural" to stay with a friend if he is going to some place where he might be in trouble.

I kept my revolver in my pocket at the time.

The Arab we saw at the house was not the first witness for the prosecution.

When we were chased by the Arabs, we stopped running because we had on our great coats on. We did not offer any resistance to the French gendarmes.

At the Gendamerie I was hit a couple of times and Alderson was hit several times.

XX.

The first time that I knew that Alderson had had money stolen, was in the truck on the way to Air M'lila.

I have never been issued with a holster and have not got one.

On the afternoon in question I carried my revolver in my overcoat pocket. By the time we were going to Air M'lila I knew that Alderson had a pistol.

On the way there Alderson said that if he saw the Arab who had taken his money, he was going to try to get the money back by pretending to sell something to him.

The house is alongside the road.

Alderson told me that he recognized the Arab as the one who had taken his money. He said:- " I think that's "him". He just walked over to him and offered to sell him the pistol. He spoke in English and made use of signs. It was mostly by signs that was just at the door of his house. The only other person there was the old lady. I do not remember the Arab saying anything to the old lady.

When Alderson showed the pistol to the Arab, he was not holding it by the butt. He was just showing it in his palm and was not pointing it at the Arab. There was some haggling over the price and the conversation took some minutes.

I gathered Alderson's intention was to get his money back off the Arab.

We walked away from the house normally, for a few feet. Then we started to run. We ran to get out of there.

I am sure that I did not produce my revolver as we were running away.

XXX

The accused Alderson did not hold the pistol in any way which could suggest to the Arab that he was being held up.

The Case for the Defence is closed

The Prosecutor declines to reply.
The Defending Officer declines to address the Court.
The Judge Advocate sums up:-

The burden of proof is wholly upon the prosecution. Any offence of which you can find Alderson guilty here involves a larceny, that is a dishonest taking with intent permanently to deprive the owner without the owner's consent and without a claim of right made in good faith.

As to a claim of right made in good faith I remind the Court of the evidence of Alderson as to the previous theft of money by an Arab other than the first witness for the prosecution.

If you are satisfied that Alderson took two notes dishonestly in the sense indicated two choices are (i) larceny by a trick (ii) larceny from the person or (iii) robbery with aggravation. The first would be right if you think that the notes were handed to him by the Arab on the basis of a sale, a sale which on Alderson's part was merely pretended, a trick to get possession of the money. The second would be right if you think that he snatched the notes from the Arab's hand without further violence or putting in fear at the time. You need not trouble about robbery, although it is open to you to find robbery, because on the evidence there was no violence or putting in fear unless it was by the use of the pistol as described by the witnesses for the prosecution and if you are satisfied that there was such use of the pistol the third would be right namely robbery with aggravation.

As to Thorpe, one who aids and abets the commission of a crime is in law equally guilty of the crime with the principal offender. Mere presence at the time when a crime is committed does not constitute aiding and abetting even if no effort is made to prevent its commission or to cause the offender to be apprehended. Some active participation is necessary before an aider and abetor can be said to be guilty. It is not necessary to prove that he actually aided in the commission of the offence. If Thorpe, fully knowing what was going on, watched for Alderson in order to prevent surprise or remained at a convient distance in order to favour his escape or was in such a situation as to be able readily to come to his assistance the knowledge of which was calcuated to give additional confidence to Alderson in the commission of the offence, if any, committed by him, Thorpe was in law present aiding and abetting.

Remember that you cannot aid or abet a crime of dishonesty unless you act with a dishonest mind yourself or know at the time that the person you are aiding is acting with a dishonest mind.

After Finding

The Prosecutor informs the Court that he has no evidence of the military character of the accused persons.

The Defending Officer states that the accused persons respectively have been in close arrest since the 23 April 1944.

The Defending Officer, duly sworn, states:-

I know Trooper Thrope very well. He has been my batman in Italy. I have known him since October 1943.

He always has been a good soldier. He was a member of an A.A. crew on the transport coming out when we were torpedoed and there acted very bravely and very cooly.

I have always trusted him with money and valuables.

His ambition was, in imitation of his father in the last war, to go through this war without a single blot on his sheet.

I did not think it possible for him to be in this mess. I know him to be honest, for upright and a good soldier and shall always at any time be glad to have him back under my command.

The accused Alderson says:-

I have never been on a charge since I have been in the Army.

The Defending Officer addresses the Court in mitigation:-

These men, both of them, are common ordinary soldiers. "Aiding and abetting" means nothing to them.

They both are 20, enlisting both at 18. Most of their year overseas has been spent in Italy and North Africa.

Alderson is single. His father is a police officer in England.

Thorpe is married.

Both have been good soldiers.

They have been frank in giving evidence.

"J.R. Alderson"

At about 1530 hours on Sunday 23rd April 1944 I left Camp in company with trooper Thorpe of the R.A.C.T.D. [illegible] We had gone about 500 yards in the direction of Constantine when we decided to go into the surrounding hills for the purpose of having some target practice. I had in my possession a Colt .45 revolver. It was loaded with 7 rounds. I also carried 3 spare rounds in my pocket. After firing two shots I saw a truck which was on the road and going in the direction of Aim M'Lila. Accompanied by Thorpe I went back to the road-way and stopped the vehicle and obtained a lift to Aim M'Lila, I should say at this point that about a fortnight ago when I was on a visit to Aim M'Lila I had my pocket picked and lost 1000 francs which was in 100 franc notes. I suspected a certain Arab who I could recognise by sight but whose name I do not know. I had a slight idea where this Arab lived in Aim M'Lila. On reaching Aim MLila I walked up the road which leads to Telergma. When I had gone about 300 yards along this road I saw the Arab I was looking for standing near a house. I wanted to get my money back by some means or other so I produced my revolver and offered it to him for sale. After a great deal of arguing he offered to buy the revolver for 2500 francs. He handed me 2000 francs and went into the house for the rest of the money. As I had no intention of selling the revolver and only wanted to get my own back I walked away while the Arab was in the house taking the revolver and money with me. Thorpe was with me all the time. I got on to the main road leading back to El Gurrah and had walked about 300 yards when I heard the sound of Arab voices behind us. I looked around and saw a number of Arabs running towards us shouting "Stop Johnny" In order to scare the Arabs I loaded the revolver with 3 or 4 rounds and fired one shot at an angle of 45 degrees in the air in the direction of the Arabs. The Arabs stopped immediately and Thorpe and I continued on our way towards El Guerragh . A Few seconds later I heard a shot fired from the direction of Aim M'Lila and on looking round again I saw a French Gendarme. He was carrying a rifle which he pointed towards us. By his gestures I gathered that he was ordering me to drop my revolver. This I did and I was then taken to the Gendarmerie. I wish to add that I bought the Colt revolver from an unknown British soldier at Bone about 3 months ago, for 1000 francs.

At about 1530 hours on Sunday 23rd April 1944, I left Camp with the intention of going to the Fighter Training Command, U.S. Forces, stationed at Berteaux. As I was leaving the camp I met Trooper Alderson whom I Know, I walked with him along the road which leads to RACTD schools. I was carrying a .38 revolver as I intended to fire a few shots with it for the purpose of clearing some rust which was in the chambers. When I had gone some distance beyond the R.A.C.T.D. schools I fired one or two shots at a tin can. I also fired one shot with the revolver carried by Alderson. About this time I saw an American Truck which was going towards El Guerrah and Aim M'Lila. We returned to the road and stopped the vehicle and obtained a lift to Aim M'Lila. During the ~~following~~ journey to Aim M'Lila Alderson told mecthat sometime in the past he had had his wallet containing some money stolen from him by an Arab in Aim M'Lila and he figured that he knew the thief by sight. He thought that if he saw the Arab he would be able to get some of the money back . I hung on with him when we got to Aim M'Lila and after a short walk we saw an Arab standing outside a house. Alderson said to the Arab "Business Johnny" and the Arab took us into his house. Alserson then produced his revolver on the pretext of selling it and asked for 2500 francs. The Arab handed Alderson two 1000 francs notes and then left the room in order to obtain the other 500 francs. As soon as the Arab left the room Alderson and I walked out of the house taking the revolver and money with us. We crossed the fields leading to the main road which goes to El Guerrah. When two or three hundred yards along the road I heard a number of Arabs shouting and hollering. I looked around and saw a crowd of Arabs running after us. Alderson then fired one shot in the air with his revolver, a firearm was immediately fired in reply by a Gendarme who accompanied the Arabs. This was the first time I had seen the French Police. In view of this Alderson and I stopped and waited until the Gendarme came up to us. We were then taken to the Gendarmerie where one of the Gendarmes struck me a blow across the face. Another one who was very stout struck Alderson several blows. Later the Military Police arrived and conducted us to the Garrison Guard-room, Constantine.

TRIAL OF

B-18643 GNR THORPE WH 6 CDN REPAT DEPOT

ON THE SECOND CHARGE

PROSECUTION

FIRST WITNESS

I-105069 L/CPL HASSEL PO, Can Provost Corps, att to No 6 Det at Manchester, sworn, states:-

Q. Will you give your evidence to the Court in this case?
A. On 19 Oct 45, at approximately 1545 hours, I was on duty at Manchester. Accompanied by L/Cpl Wilson, I approached two Canadian soldiers; we checked them for their passes and their dress and finding their pass in order, I took down their particulars and warned one of them, whom I know now to be Gnr Thorpe, whom I now recognize in this Court to-day as the accused, that a charge would be forwarded to his CO, an improperly dress charge. His tunic was wide open to the full extent and he was wearing no head-dress. He then threw off his tunic and started to fight with me; he struck me twice in the jaw and his hand was closed; he also kicked me in the knee and he also hit me in the body but that didn't mean much.

Q. What were you doing while this was happening?
A. I was trying to defend myself in a decent manner. I then placed the accused under close arrest and escorted him to the Warwick Green Detention Barracks at Manchester; we got there and while there, the accused walked out of the guard-room door; I immediately gave chase; I ran approximately three blocks before I caught up with him; I then placed him under close arrest again and escorted him again to the detention barracks where I turned him over to the NCO i/c of Detention.

Q. What was his condition as to drinking that day?
A. I would say he was under the influence but he knew quite well what he was doing.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Will you repeat where the accused hit you?
A. He hit me in the jaw, kicked me in the knee and he also hit me in the body but it didn't mean anything.

Q. In the Summary of Evidence you said that he hit you twice in the jaw and once on the knee, is that right?
A. Yes, Sir, but he also hit me in the body.

Q. How many people were involved in that fight?
A. Only four, Sir, Wilson and myself, Thorpe and his pal Barrass.

Q. Were you all fighting?
A. Yes, Sir, we were all fighting.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 86 (2).

SECOND WITNESS

F-57071 L/Cpl WILSON GD, Cdn Provost Corps, att to No 6 Det at Manchester, sworn, states:-

Q. Will you give your evidence to the Court as regards this case?
A. While on patrol duty on 19 Oct 45 with L/Cpl Hassel in Manchester in the afternoon at about 1545 hours, we checked two Canadian soldiers whom I now know to be Pte Ramrass and Gnr Thorpe. Pte Thorpe, whom I recognize in this Court as being one of them, the accused had his tunic completely open and had no head-dress. After taking his particulars down, we warned him that a charge for being improperly dressed would be forwarded to his CO. He tore the pass from L/Cpl Hassel and started to hit him with his fist. Cpl Hassel then had Thorpe placed under close arrest and escorted him to the Arwick/Detention Barracks. (Cross)
While having his particulars taken down, Thorpe, the accused, broke detention by leaving the guard-room and running out of the guard-room and down the street; Cpl Hassel gave chase and re-arrested him some minutes later. He was then handed over to the NCO i/c of Detention.

Q. Will you tell us more about the fight?
A. Sir, when he told him that he was charged for being improperly dressed he pulled the pass out of the Corporal's hand and immediately started hitting him; he just started to hit his around his body and face; I was talking to Ramrass at the time but I was right besides the two.

Q. Did Ramrass hit you?
A. Yes, when he saw Thorpe starting to fight.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Did you see the accused hit Hassel?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Where did he hit him?
A. He was hitting him in his face and chest.

Q. Did you see him hit him in the face?
A. Yes.

Q. According to the Summary of Evidence upon being asked this question, "Did you see me hit L/Cpl Hassel?" by the accused, you answered, "Yes, you hit him on the body." There is no mention here made about you having seen the accused hit L/Cpl Hassel in the face, did you see the accused hit L/Cpl Hassel in the face?
A. Well, when a person takes a swing at your face, he puts up his hand and that I recall hit his face; he swung at his face but the blows may have lit on the body.

Q. Were there any remarks passed between yourself and the two soldiers before the fighting started?
A. No, Sir, yes we asked them not to fight; they started talking to fight.

Q. Did they ask you for a break?
A. No, Sir, they said they had been given breaks when they were stopped by the Provost before and they didn't say why but they never asked for a break.

Q. What was the condition of the accused?
A. When we arrested him, he had been drinking but he perfectly knew what he was doing.

Q. How can you tell he had been drinking?
A. By his breath, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83 (3).

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

- DEFENCE -

FIRST WITNESS

The accused, sworn, states:-

Q. Will you tell the Court, Thorpe, what you did on 19 Oct 45?
A. At approximately 1130 hours on the morning of 19 Oct 45, we were five of us and we started drinking in the Listons Bar in Manchester. We drank pretty heavily until approximately three o'clock that afternoon; shortly before three o'clock we were warned by the bar-tender that we wouldn't be given any more beer to drink as he thought we had sufficient.

Q. Did you stay there till three o'clock?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Had you only been drinking beer?
A. No, Sir, beer and whiskey. I am hazy about what happened next, that is about the rest of it. I was pretty drunk; I remember arriving in the street, Sir; I remember leaving the pub and our destination was the Ritz Dance Hall. I remember riding in a truck after we went up the street. I don't remember being stopped by the Provost; I knew I was improperly dressed because the night before I remember losing my hat in the same bar.

Q. Do you remember hitting the Provost Cpl?
A. No, Sir. I came to life shortly ~~after~~ before they took all my valuables; there was a crowd of English MPs and a few Provost and they seemed to be walking me towards this building and they took me inside and I was put into a cell.

Q. Do you remember running away?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Who was with you Thorpe in the pub?
A. Cpls Bardicough, Matthew, Cudding and Ramrass and myself.

Q. Was this your embarkation leave?
A. Yes we were under the impression that it would be our last leave; I belong to CD Bld; it has not gone yet; it is going in about ten days.

Q. Do you remember asking the Provost to give you a break?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Do you remember taking off your tunic?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Do you remember hitting the Provost?
A. No, Sir; I fight very much; if I had fought my fists would be hurting and it was not hurting this time; I am usually good-natured when I've been drinking; I have been with the 2nd A/Tk Regt overseas from Jul 44 until VE-Day; it was after that date that I reported to the 2 Med Regt; my cat is "A", Sir.

Q. Will you tell the Court what took place on the morning of 19 Oct 45?
A. On the morning of 19 Oct 45, Gnr Thorpe and myself and two other chaps we know proceeded to the Listons Bar in Manchester at about 1030 AM; we were drinking there until just about closing time; we were refused more to drink by the bar-tender; Gnr Thorpe and myself Liston Bar at approximately 1040 hours and we were going to the Ritz Dance Hall when we were stopped by two Lance-Corporals of the Gdn Provost and they checked our dress and we were told that the charge would be because of being improperly dressed, that it would beforwarded to our OC. Gnr Thorpe and myself asked the Provost to give us a break and they said, "Fuck you guys." or something to that effect. We started fighting; I started fighting; I noticed Thorpe struggling with the other Provost but didn't at any time see him striking the Provost.
Q. What was you condition as far as drinking that day?
A. We were pretty well out, Sir.

Q. You didn't see Gnr Thorpe hit the Provost?
A. No, Sir, I was fighting too but I saw him struggling.

Q. Would youdescribe the struggling?
A. It seemed to me that they were holding each other.

Q. Was there any exchange of fistat
A. Not that I saw, Sir.

Q. What happened afterwards?
A. We were taken to the guard-house in Manchester, where we were detained.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. How long did the struggle last?
A. A few minutes, I guess.

Q. Do you think that Thorpe was drunk?
A. Yes, I do.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83 (3).

THIRD WITNESS

B-28899 Gnr Matthews R, sworn, states:-

Q. Will you tell the Court what took on the morning of 19 Oct 45?
A. On the morning of 19 Oct 45, we were in Manchester on leave; we went to a pub at 1130 hours and drank pretty heavily till 3 o'clock; Thorpe was with us; we drank whiskey and beer; we were all drinking pretty heavily, celebrating having met one of our chums Burdicough; Thorpe was the words I've seen and I have known him for some time. At closing time, I left the pub and went away with a lady friend; I didn't see any trouble between the Provost and Thorpe.

STATEMENT ON THE FINDINGS BY THE DEF OFFR ATTACHED TO THIS FOLIO

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTOR ON THE FINDINGS

I took the summary of evidence and in my opinion I am quite certain that Thorpe was charged with the wrong charge and that he should have been charged with drunkenness.

PLEA IN MITIGATION ATTACHED TO THESE PROCEEDINGS.

CLOSING ADDRESS

It has been proved in court that on the morning of 19 October 1945, the accused together with some friends had been drinking heavily, to draw the line between being under the influence of liquor and being drunk is very hard to establish and no opinion can be accepted in court unless it is given by an expert. No experts were produced by the prosecution.

On the second charge of striking a superior officer, it is our opinion that this was not proven beyond the shadow of a doubt, the prosecution has produced two witnesses and their testimony does not exactly coincide. L/Cpl Hassel claims that he was kicked on the knee, and hit twice on the jaw. L/Cpl Wilson testified that he saw the accused hit L/Cpl Hassel on the body. We produced a witness swearing that he did not see the accused hit L/Cpl Hassel at any time.

On the third charge, attempting to escape, the accused simply does not remember attempting to escape and although the M.M.L. directs that drunkenness is no excuse for any other breach of regulations, it is also stated that a broad view should be taken especially in a case like the third charge. We suggest that the court consider these factors very seriously before giving a verdict.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

The accused has been found guilty on ..... charges, I wish to recommend the accused to the clemency of the court for different reasons. Gnr Thorpe has been in the Army over four years, of which three years were spent overseas. He landed in France 5 July 1944 and fought on until VE day with an Anti-Tank Battery. Sometimes in October he was posted to Canada Draft 516 and was on his way home. This was to be his last leave in England, nobody in his right mind would purposely stir up trouble on the eve of his embarkation for Canada especially when the field conduct sheet is clear of any serious charge for a period of four years. The accused has a job to go back to as soon as he returns and I plea with the court to be lenient when considering the award.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of B 18643 Gunner William Harold Thorpe, Royal Canadian Artillery, on the strength "A" Wing, No 6 Canadian Repatriation Depot, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the Summary is taken on oath:

For the Prosecution

L 105069 L/Cpl Hassel P O, Cdn Provost Corps having been duly sworn states:

I am L 105069 L/Cpl Hassel P O, C Pro C. On the 19 Oct 45 I was on duty accompanied by L/Cpl Wilson G D. At 1545 hrs on Oxford Rd, Manchester I approached a soldier and checked his pass which I found was in order. I then warned him there would be an improperly dressed charge forwarded to his OC. He then tore the pass out of my hand and pulled off his tunic and started to fight. I then placed him under close arrest and escorted him to Arwick Green detention Barracks at Manchester. While I was taking his property he ran out of the Guard Room and I immediately gave chase and I apprehended him approx three blocks from the detention Bks. I placed him under close arrest again and escorted him back and turned him over to the NCO in charge to be detained.

Questions by Officer taking summary.

Q- Do you recognize the accused as the soldier whom you have just given evidence against?

A- Yes.

Q- Do you know his name?

A- Gnr Thorpe.

The accused cross examines the witness:

Q- If I was supposed to have hit you, where did I hit you?

A- I was hit twice on the jaw and kicked in the knee.

Q- What condition was I in when you apprehended me?

A- You were not drunk in my opinion, but was under the influence of liquor.

Q- Were there any remarks passed between myself and the provost during the apprehension?

A- No

For the Prosecution

F 57871 L/CPL Wilsom G D, having been duly sworn states:

I am F 57871 L/Cpl Wilson G D, of the C Pro C No 6 detachment. While on duty at Manchester accompanied by L/Cpl Hassel on the afternoon of the 19 Oct 45 at approx 1545 hrs we checked two Canadian Soldiers who we now know to be Gnr Thorpe and Pte Ramrass. They were improperly dressed, that is were wearing no head dress. L/Cpl Hassel took Gnr Thorpe's particulars and informed him that a charge of being improperly dressed would be forwarded to his OC. As he handed back his pass, Gnr Thorpe grabbed it from his hand, thus tearing it up and immediately started hitting L/Cpl Hassel with his fists. L/Cpl Hassel then had him placed under close arrest and escorted to Arming Green guard room. While having his particulars taken down Gnr Thorpe escaped custody by leaving the Guard Room and running down the street. L/Cpl Hassel persued and rearrested him some twenty minutes later and handed him over to NCO in charge of cells.

Question by Officer taking summary.

Q.- Do you recognize the soldier against whom you have just given evidence

A.- Yes sir.

The accused cross examines the witness:

Q- What condition was I in when apprehended.

A- You had been drinking, but was sober enough to realize what you were doing.

Q- You say I started to fight with L/Cpl Hassel as soon as I took the pass from him, did I had my tunic on or off?

A- You started taking your tunic off while L/Cpl Hassel was taking your particulars.

Q- Did you see me hit L/Cpl Hassel?

A- Yes, you hit him on the body.

Q- Were there any remarks made by us to the Provost or the provost against us during our apprehension?

A- Yes, they were very sarcastic.

Q- Did I strike you at any time?

A- No.

FIRST WITNESS:

For the Defence

B 44000 Gnr Ramrass P I, having been duly sworn states:

I am B 44000 Gnr Ramrass P I. On the 19 Oct 45 in the company of Gnr Thorpe at approx 1130 hrs we began drinking in Listons Bar in Manchester. We drank heavily until about 1445 hrs, when we were refused more drinks by the bar tender as he told us we had had enough. We left Listons Bar at approx 1500 hrs and were on our way to the Ritz dance hall in Manchester. About a block from the dance hall we were stopped and checked for our dress by L/Cpls of the Cdn Provost Corps. They asked us for our passes and pay book which we readily gave them. They told us they were going to charge us for being improperly dressed and detain us. Previous to going on leave Gnr Thorpe was warned by his serial Comdr that any Provost charges would result in cancellation of his return to Canada. Bearing this in mind he asked the provost to give him a break. There reply was "Fuck you guys", too many of you get breaks around here. Then there was a mix up, I watched Gnr Thorpe struggling with the Provost but did not see him at any time strike the provost. We were then escorted to the C M P detention cells in Manchester. While having our particulars taken Gnr Thorpe walked out of the Guard Room and a few seconds later noticed by the L/Cpl of the C Pro C who immediately gave chase and apprehended him.

The accused was cautioned as follows:

Do you wish to make a statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused declines to make a statement or give evidence on oath.

I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused and that rules of procedure 4 (c), (d), (e) and (f) have been complied with.

Plea in mitigation of Punishment

Re D 77129 Pte Thow H.F.

Pte Thow is now 38 years of age, is married and is the father of 4 children. He left school at the very early age of 9 years and began working on his uncle's farm. Later he took up the civil occupation of boilermaker.

Pte Thow enlisted on 15th Feb 1940 and arrived overseas on 1st July 1940 with the Royal Montreal Regiment. On the disbanding of this regiment he was returned to No 1 CAC(RU) where he has been employed at general duties.

Troubles concerning his wife and 4 children at home have been a great cause of worry to this soldier. He has not heard from his wife since Sept 1941 and has received word from other members of the family that conditions are not as they should be at home. Pte Thow has made every effort to have the matter investigated through military channels but these efforts have met with repeated failure. This has had a definitely bad effect on his peace of mind and has resulted in his feeling that the army has not sufficiently cooperated in looking after the welfare of his family during his absence from home.

Pte Thow's army record, considering his nearly five years of service, is a comparatively good one and especially so when it is considered that during this time he has been suffering the mental anguish mentioned above.

I therefore plead on his behalf that as light a punishment as possible be given.

He returned to his unit and the next day set out to help the farmer with his harvest The accused has always tried to perform his duties to the best of his abilities but at times gets tired and discouraged and on impulse goes absent without leave The accused returned voluntarily to his unit after he had finished helping with the harvest.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. M31108 L/Cpl Robson. (R Edm. Regt) having been sworn, states:

I was with the Edmonton Regt in the field in Italy from 4th of Sept 1943 until 11th Dec 1943. I was L/Cpl in A sqdn Co/and. Pte Thurston L.W. was in my section. I recognise him in this court.

Pte Thurston L.W. was a very good man in action with a lot of nerve. One time by his nerves he saved his section as far as I know he carried out all the duties that we gave him.

R.P. 83 B Complied with

E3

Plea of mitigation.

Sir Pte Thurston L.W. is 22 years of age. He enlisted in the Edmonton Fusiliers on 9 Oct 1940 and served with that unit until December 1942 when he was sent to Eastern Canada for training as a reinforcement for 1 Cdn Div. He arrived in England in February 1943 and in July 1943 landed in Sicily as a reinforcement for the 1st Edmonton Regt. He joined his unit in the field at Leonforte and served with it until 15 Nov. 43 when he was evacuated with yellow jaundice. He returned to the unit in the field again on 7th Dec 43 but only remained until 19 Dec 43 when he was sent out as a result of a second attack of jaundice. We have heard from 4/Cpl Robson that while Pte Thurston was in his section in action he was a very good soldier.

He only received one entry on his conduct sheet during the time he was with the 1st Edmonton Regt in the field. After his unit landed in Italy there was a lot of hard marching to be done. Some of the troops had difficulty in keeping up with the main column among these was Pte Thurston G.W. and another member of the Regt. They fell back. It became dark they took a wrong turn on the road and lost the unit. However they kept going and covered about 45 miles trying to find their regt. They finally ended up at R1SC Sup point where they were told to wait until a 1st Edmonton Regt truck called for rations. They did this and when they arrived back at the unit were charged for being A.W.O.L. and sentenced to 21 days F.P. He had been absent 2 days and 23 hrs during which time he had been moving toward the front looking for his unit.

Pte Thurston G.W. came back to no 1 C.B.R.D. this last time on Feb 44. He reported to the M.O. about a month ago with a sore leg that was bothering him. He was given five days light duty. Two days after he came off light duty he went on a route march with his coy. His leg started to bother him again so he, with another soldier dropped out of the line of march. They were both put on a charge and appeared on Coy Commanders. Pte Thurston G.W. was given 7 days C.B. but the other soldier's case was dismissed. What I am trying to bring out Sir, is that a man usually has a reason for going A.W.L. Pte Thurston G.W. felt that in view of the other soldier's case being dismissed he had not been justly punished. He was fed up and so went A.W.L. I feel that there was some provocation in this instance.

I would also like to mention that Pte Thurston G.W. is another soldier with trouble on his mind. He owns a farm at Warburg Alberta. It was on a quarter section of land. Since joining the army there has only been his father and step mother looking after the farm. His father is 65 years old. Help is very hard to get and scarce. Pte Thurston joined the army the farm has not done so well. There are debts to be paid but no money forthcoming with which to pay them. He has assigned half of his pay to his father but apparently it is not sufficient. You will note that on his conduct sheet there are several instances of A.W.L. while in Canada. It was at these times that Pte Thurston L.W. went home to help on the farm Another thing that is worrying Pte Thurston L.W. is that he loves in fear of returning into action. He says that just before he left the unit the last time. He was beginning to become nervous. He is afraid that if he went into action again his nerves would fail him so badly that he would bring dishonour upon himself. I have spoken to the M.O. on this matter and he has agreed to give Pte Thurston L.W. an examination when this charge has been cleared up.

I would ask the court to bear in mind the problems of the accused when considering the sentence. I would also like to mention that the accused elected trial by F.G.C.M. because he felt he would be more justly sentenced than if dealt with summarily and in this connection I would respectfully mention that para 563(2) of K.R.(CAN) states that the punishment should not on these grounds be increased and that in ordinary circumstances the court should not award a heavier sentence than that which the C.O. has power to award.

Plea of Mitigation

Accused:- Pte Thurston S.R., C4916

Charge:- AWL

E-3

MM

J Mulholland

In reference to the charge against Pte. Thurston, a plea of mitigation is advanced in consideration of his long service, previous record, and the circumstances which led him to go A.W.L.

On 4 Sep. 1939, the accused joined the Hastings Prince Edward Regiment, arriving overseas with them in Dec. of the same year.

In July 1940 he went over to France with his Regiment. However their stay was a short one and they were forced to return in five days.

Just before his unit left for Sicily, the accused was sent to #5 CIRU as a rotation N.C.O. He was employed there, and at # H C.I.R.U. for several years, and was not allowed to re-join his Regiment in Italy, till till Sep. 1944.

He remained in Italy till Apr. 1945, when he was hospitalized to have his appendix removed. On discharge, he was returned to England to be re-boarded.

Before the accused came overseas in 1939, he owned 1/3 of his father's fishing camp and tourist business. Both his parent's died in the same year, as no will had been made, and, the eldest brother took upon himself the task of adminstering the estate.

Just before being returned to England, P/L. Thurston received a letter from his eldest brother. Upon reading it he discovered to his amazement, that the latter claimed that the accused was now the proud possessor of absolutely nil as regards his father's estate. The eldest brother had somehow managed to get complete control, thus leaving the other four members of the family with nothing.

However the biggest shock was yet to come. He arrived at his home in England to find two rather disconcerting things. Firstly in his absence his wife had been running around with another man. Also his wife's mother had talked the former into deciding not to go to Canada, despite the fact that she had already applied for same.

The accused went A.W.L. in an attempt to regain ~~to regain~~ his wife's affection and to prevail upon her to go to Canada. They have one child, and another is excpected in the end of January.

He was finally successful. Pete Thurston stayed away as long as he did, in an attempt to be sure that his wife left for Canada. She had until the end of October, at which time she would be six months pregnant. He was afraid that if he left, her mother might again change her mind.

The accused would like to return to Canada as soon as possible in an attempt to regain that part of his father's business that is rightfully his. At present one of his brother's and sister in Canada are taking legal proceedings against the usurper.

It is with these things in mind that a plea for leniency is respectfully put forward on behalf of Pte. Thurston.

It would, indeed, be a great pity, if through volunteering at the very outset of the war to defend his country the accused has thus put himself in the lamentable position of loosing all his curtian possessions.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). F35125. Pte. Tibbo, N.G.

Statement of Lieut. C.J. Price, Cape Breton Highlanders

I would like the Court to take in to consideration that Pte. Tibbo, N.G. volunteered for active service four years ago,and during that time he has had no serious crimes and served only 28 days detention, remainder of his offences are purely petty onss, two cases of drunkeness will be noted, and Pte. Tibbo, N.G. while at 8th Army Rest Centre had word from home of rather a disturbing nature that together with hardships, he proceeded to get dru nk. He was drunk the whole time he was there and failed to report back when his leave ended being drunk.

Also for the Court to remember that he volunteered to fight and would be a pity to deny him the privilege.

CASE OF

H.86573 Spr TIBBS D.R. 1 C.A.H.U.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Sir, this man was born in Canada and of Scotch parents who went out to Canada and homesteaded in the Lake Of The Woods district and the accused helped with that homesteading as he grew up and acted as a Guide on the Lake as well. On coming o/s after joining up, he served with 3 CCS as a tradesman for which he was getting trades pay, but was returned to the Holding Unit, and his trades pay was stopped and from here went to CDRC for o/s service and landed in France on D plus 9 day. Before he had gone he wanted the qualification of MC 2 included on his documents. This was neglected and on getting to CDRC he had some difficulty in persuading them there that he was a MC. He finally did and served as a DR with 3 Div H.Q. On 26 Jun is MC disappeared from underneath him and he was taken to hospital. Whether it was a mortar or a rifle bullet that hit the front wheel was not known, but he was returned from hosp to this country on 26 Jul. He had a debit balance in his Paybook due to a previous court-martial and had a credit balance in his deferred pay. From previous experience he was of the opinion that the credit balance could be adjusted from his deferred pay - however nothing was done about this before he went to France and having that deferred pay and a free balance debit he was of the opinion that he could not get leave, therefore on his return back here from hosp he took his leave. His desire at the present time is to get back to France. He is a trained soldier, and wants to carry on with the job that he started as a serving soldier while on active service. This accused can be of real value to the Army. Taking into consideration the time spent in the Army both working as a tradesman and serving as a DR in an active theatre of ops, his service can still be very valuable to the Cdn Army and his desire to get back is asked to be considered. I have here a certificate of his wound and application for a wound stripe which can be left with the proceedings. This has already been acted on through orders and he will not lose out by having it on his file. His category is "A" and has not been lowered by reason of his wound.

recognize. I ordered him for his pass
He said he did not have one but that he was down from Wetaskiwin for the day. I doubted this and I asked him to come with us to the C M P office at the Station. He refused and when ordered again he refused and said that if we tried to take him by force that one of us would get hurt. I took him by his left arm. Wells took his right arm and we took up the escalator but getting to the top he pushed Wells around. I grab the lad to runaway I grabbed him and Wells grabbed him & he started pushing around again and we all fell to the floor and we had to hold him down.
He then said he would be a quiet

I asked accused where I had seen him before. we privately agreed it was on a Boys at Colchester. I am positive he said he was down from Colchester for the day I am not mixed up about that.
He did not say he would use force with us if we did not use force. we never touch a man unless we have to. we only used the amount of force we had to use. I wouldn't say he struck at some time I had his arm up on his back. If I did it was because it was necessary. I held him. after we all got up. he would have got away if not Hill grabbed him by his feet.

I said I would go with them
We started up the escalator about will be a battle right here. He didn't let go. I shook Hills off

I was running and I said leave me alone and I'll come peacefully Hills and I started off. Hills came behind and put my arm up behind my back again. I got sore and I pushed him off again. Hills grabbed me and I pushed him off. He fell against the truck. Hills hurt me by my ~~left~~ right leg. I could have kicked him in the face but I thought Hills would leave you peacefully
I found yes we started off. Hills grabbed me again. My temper rose
I pushed and we all tripped. The boy

The Defence is closed

The D Officer in the Finding said accused had his witness and Provosts used force. Provosts are rough and over zealous. The accused was friendly accused was being hurt and was acting in self defence. He could have escaped but did not try to. The charge should never have been laid.

The motives of the accused and his own witness are conflicting. This proves beyond a print of a British Public Man's motive are reputation. If he gets away with it others will be encouraged to do this sort of thing.

PLEA FOR Mitigation of Sentence in the case of H-36373 Spr TIBBS, B.R.

Within the last two weeks prior to accused committing offence to which he pleads guilty he had been receiving letters, almost daily from a married woman with whom he had been intimate. These letters stated she was worried about her condition.

The accused received a letter about 1200 hrs on 11 Mar 44 from this women which stated that she was five days overdue for her menstration and that her husband was due home the following Tuesday. She emplored the accused to come up and see her immediately in order to discuss intimate details.

The accused had previously applied for a 36 hr week end pass which was cancelled when he was detailed for duty. He was undecided whether to show the letter to his Coy Commander and try to get taken off duty. He didn't want anybody to know his troubles and instead of applying for week end pass on compassionate grounds of which there is no doubt he would have got he let it go till too late.

This trouble prayed on his mind and eventually while on duty he broke down and told his troubles to K-74133 Spr Van Ruyskensvelde, M.H., who was at the garage at the time. When accused was relieved at 1930 hrs by Spr Symes he was feeling very distressed after brooding all afternoon. In a reckless and desperate frame of mind he decided to take a chance and asked Spr Symes to relieve him until he returned. He asked Spr Van Ruyskensvelde to accompany him and he would pay his way. This Spr knew his troubles and might help him. They left camp at approximately 2000 hrs caught a train at Farnborough Station and were picked up by C.M.P. at Waterloo Tube Station.

The Protestant Padre of this unit has undertaken to take the case in hand and is going to try to come to some agreement between the woman, her husband and the accused.

I suggest to the court that the accused is very young and that this was his first real private domestic trouble. The worry and strain were too much for him and he cannot be held responsible for his foolish action. Therefore I plead for the leniency of the court in punishing the accused.

Attached is a letter from this woman to O.C. 1 Trg Wing C.E.R.U. Although unsigned I will vouch that the handwriting is similar to other letters I have seen from this woman.

H.36373 Spr. Tibbs, B.R.
No. 1 C.E.R.U.

Sir,

At London at about 2140 hrs, 11 Mar. 44, I was on duty at Waterloo Stn., in company with L/Cpl. Monckton-Hicks when I saw the a/m soldier.

I requested to see his pass and he could not produce one. He was A.W.L.

He stated that his Cpl. had him covered up and that he was stationed at Colchester.

I placed him under arrest and asked him to accompany me and he refused to do so. I then ordered him to accompany me and he again refused and when necessary force was used he resisted violently.

He was conducted to No. 6 (Area) Provost Coy., Cdn. Provost Corps Detention Office and handed over to the N.C.O. i/c of Cells, to be detained.

WITNESSES

1st WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION

Cutrona Giuseppe, being duly sworn, states:

The soldiers came into the house at about 8 o'clock p.m. They no sooner came in than one of them pointed a machine at us and asked for wine. They took a cask of wine containing 50 litres and started to drink. When they had finished drinking they threw the cask onto the floor and broke it. After that they took my wife and threw her on the bed and committed the offence. After that they wanted to smoke and asked me for cigarettes and I said I had none. They searched through the room and took an envelope containing 9000 lira which they found. After they had taken the money they started fighting and one of them fired a shot from his pistol which went into the wall. In the morning I asked the man who was holding me up if I could go out. He allowed me to go and I went to the Police Station and told them what had happened. I was accompanied to my house by a Policeman, interpreter, and an American officer. We found that the men had gone. We found a pocket book and a pair of spurs which were taken to the Police Station.

PROSECUTOR: Was the accused included among the soldiers?
WITNESS: Four soldiers and he was one of them.

Ques. Did the accused take part in the incidents which took place?
Ans. Yes, he was the first.

Ques. Ask the witness to describe exactly what the accused did to his wife?

Ques. During these proceedings where was the witness sitting?
Ans. The bed was at one end of the room. I was sitting about 3/4 of the way across the room. The soldier with the gun was beside me pointing the gun at me and my son was on my knee.

Ques. Did the accused take your wine?
Ans. Yes.

Ques. Did he take your money?
Ans. No.

Q. Did the accused at any time point a weapon either at you or a t your wife?

A. I have been his Pl Comd for a year.

Q. Will you tell the Court what you know of the accused?
A. The time I have been the accused's Pl Comd he has never appeared before me or the Coy Comd on any charge. Although was not an outstanding soldier, he has done a fair job and has done his work to the best of his ability.

RP 86(B) COMPLIED WITH

SUMMING UP BY THE PROSECUTION

Very little to add as I feel that the evidence submitted before the Court is conclusive and it is not my job as Prosecutor to make things worse for the accused but to submit the evidence as it is given to me and I am happy to leave the rest to the Court. However I would point out the gravity of the alleged offence.

DEFENCE

As a question of law in order to constitute rape it must be proved that there was actual penetration of the female organ by the male organ. If there is less than that there may be an indecent assault but there cannot be rape. On the question of fact we come to the credibility of witnesses. It is contended that at the time in question the husband did for certain periods at least confuse the accused with certain other soldiers also present who it is submitted were the ones to offer violence. This is borne out by the statement of Capt Day for at the time of the identification parade Signor Cutrona could not be positive of the identity of the accused, and I submit that Signor Cutrona's present positiveness comes through what is sometimes called the power of suggestion and association I submit that in the case of Scarlatta Marianna I submit that in the confusion she was not in a position to identify those who committed specific acts of violence where so many specific acts were alleged. In this connection I would point to the evidence of the accused that another not he was wearing spurs, a point on which he was not cross examined. I would point also to the statement of the accused that he was armed with a rifle, that the MG and pistol were in the hands of and used by their respective owners. The Defence contends that the Prosecution has failed to prove as against the accused those acts of penetration necessary to constitute a rape, and that it is proved at best no more than indecent assault by the accused on the said woman. But there are witnesses to the defence other than the accused it is owing to the fact that it is impossible to ascertain the whereabouts of the other 3 soldiers in the party whose names of regts are not known or again the RCMP to whom the accused made reference. Lastly I would point out that the accused with little fresh material evidence to add to his statement elected to take the stand and under oath submit to cross-examination. The Def rests.

J.A. SUMS UP AS FOLLOWS

1. J.A. duties to summarize evidence and advise on the law relating to the case prior to deliberation of Court on its findings
2. In deciding questions of law Court should be guided by J.A.'s advice . Such advice not to be disregarded except for weighty reasons.
3. If J.A. should express an opinion during summing up, Court not bound by same, as at liberty form own opinion from evidence.
4. To obtain conviction the particular charge must be proved. If not proved acquittal follows

5. J.A. explains burden of proof.

6. J.A. sums up for Pro and Def, analysing the evidence. Defines rape for guidance of Court.

7. In conclusion J.A. draws to court's attention the principles of English law. Accused is presumed innocent until proven guilty and defines reasonable doubt for guidance of Court.

ADDRESS TO COURT BY ACCUSED

If it pleases I would recall the evidence of Lt R.W.Bullock with ref to conduct and character of the accused. Mr. Bullock has stated that during the period of over a year in which the accused was known to him the accused has never been placed upon charge and hasn't committed any military offence. Also, that during this period the accused had carried out all duties required of him to the best of his ability. In the award of sentence I would ask that these facts be taken into consideration.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION, CHARACTER EVIDENCE and ADDRESS OF ACCUSED OR HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

Character witness

H 35442 L/Cpl Taylor being duly sworn states

In May and June 1943 I was the accused's Instructor and I knew the accused well. I thus knew his job and did his part at all times. I had no trouble with him.

Statement by Defending Officer

Sir, Pte Tichen came Overseas in June 42 having joined me the 8 July 1940.

May and June he spent in "B" Company No 2 Pl. and during this period he was told that he would be sent to a Specialist Company when his training was completed. At the end of this period all the men were sent to E and D Company but he was left behind. He was put on fatigues and given the role instead of being allowed to train. He was for ever trained than the men who had gone to the field Unit but instead for some unknown reason he was left behind.

Finally seeing no prospect of getting to the field he got browned off and disgusted and went loose. Pte Tichen's record during that period was good and to this he lost to soldier. I have talked to Sgt Fox, who at the present time is on leave and unable to be here for character reference. Sgt. Fox told me that Pte Tichen was one of the best men in the platoon and an excellent story.

Sir therefore I ask that this man be given a break and I ask the Court to be lenient.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). Gentlemen of the Court;

This ~~soldier~~ is 24 years of age. He enlisted in Sept. 1939 came overseas in Sept. 1944 and to N.W. Europe in Oct. 1944.

While in Europe he has served with the N.N.S. Highlanders as a rifleman. While he has been in the army since 1939 until he came to England in Sept '44 he knew nothing of infantry work. He states that when he got into the line he still knew very little about infantry weapons. While in England he had a two week course in infantry. He reverted from Cpl. to private before he came to Europe. The unit was in a rest area when he went AWL.

The clemency of the court is requested.

PLEA FOR MITIGATION

Plea for Mitigation in the case of K-48371 Pte Tiffen R.W. of 'A' Coy. 2nd Bn., No 1 Canadian Base Reinforcement Depot, Canadian Army B.N.A.F.

Sir,

There are some facts which I would like to bring before the Court which, although not excuse for the crime committed by the accused, will give a clearer picture of the reasons.

1. When recruited in Canada, 25 Nov 1942, the accused was told he would be put in transport work in which he was interested. Although he has applied time and again to be placed on this type of work, he has been, and still is retained as an Infantry Rifle Coy Reinforcement. This I think naturally tended to bring him to an unhappy state of mind.

2. Since being recruited this man has received five days embarkation leave in Canada and a few days at New Year, Jan 1943. Other than this he has had no privilege leave or furlough since joining the army.

3. I have known the accused since his arrival at No. 1 C.B.R.D. in England, 1 June 1943. I being his Platoon Comd. part of that time, can vouch for his willingness to work and to his being of a sober quiet nature. Also in referring to his M.F.M. 6 I found that he has had no previous crime record. He has been of generally good character, surely therefore, a first offender should be shown some leniency.

4. Upon considering the actions of the accused immediately prior to his absenting himself without leave, I feel sure that his act was not premeditated because it does not seem plausible to me that a man planning to go A.W.L. would start out in full battle order in the middle of a night training scheme, but would have awaited a favourable opportunity when on pass or some other such favourable time.

Conclusion:

It would appear in the face of these facts, that the accused became mentally depressed and giving way to a sudden impulse, did something which was not really in keeping with his normal way of soldiering.

Thank you Sir,

E.M. Mason

Additional remarks re the case of K-48371 Pte. Tiffen R.W. of A.Coy. 2nd Bn.,No 1 Canadian Base Reinforcement Depot , Canadian Army B.N.A.F.

Upon considering the A.W.L Charge against the accused, It seems rather strange to say the least , that this man has been subjected to Court-martial for an absence of 14 days 14 hours. The accused did NOT request a court-martial, and to me it appears unusual that he was not dealt with summarily by his Commanding Officer.

If the accused had been a man with a long and colorful crime record , the procedure which has been followed in this case would be understandable, But under the circumstances as they do exist, It would appear that this proceeding has been quite unnecessary.

Thank you Sir,

(E.M. Mason) Lieut.,
Defending Officer

L45095 Cpl Clifford J.D.

Plea on behalf of accused

The accused spent the afternoon of July 2 in Enschede Hengelo & Almelo in company with Lyt Kool. During the course of this time they visited No 8 Coy Provost HQ & spent approx an hour & a half with Lyt Hoyt Coppelli & L & MS Hanna. They were there until 1450 hrs. They then returned to Enschede & the accused was ~~during~~ on guard duty until 1745 hrs. He went on duty at 1800 hrs.

The place where the crime occurred is 34 miles from Enschede, a good hours drive. The accused could not possibly have been there before 1845. But the main witnesses for the prosecution were definite that the radios was taken between 1700 & 1730 hrs, at a time when the accused was shown to be elsewhere.

Two other soldiers were also identified by the main witness for the prosecution at identification parades held in Hengelo. In the case of one of these, Cpl Miller, Miss Maatje Steintje Schwiebing said at the identification parade she was "sure" he was one of the men who had taken the radios. She picked him out on three different parades. On the fourth parade she singled out the accused and another man and said in reference to her previous identification of Miller that she "had made a mistake". If a fourth identification parade had not been held Miller would be the defendant in this case today & Miss Steintje Schwiebing would have been just as positive of his guilt as she was of Clifford's in her evidence before this court. The other witness Miss Sebuljze Schwiebing throughout her evidence made it clear that she couldn't be sure of the accused's identity although she believed he was one of the men who took the radios. Her evidence must be discounted entirely.

The defence produced four character witnesses who proved conclusively that Cpl Tiffird could not have been in Germany on the afternoon of July 2; as against this the prosecution had no witness who was certain he had been. This same witness had previously been equally sure Cpl Miller was one of the men who took her orders. If she was wrong once she could be wrong again & her evidence must be given just that value.

An independent witness has testified that the distance from Enscheds to Altenberg, Germany, was 14 miles & an hour's ride in a jeep.

On the morning of July 3 the accused turned up for muster parade at 0730 hrs. Nominal roll was called & the parade kept standing for approx 30 mins. Accused then was under the impression that parade was broken off. It was for this reason he left camp area. He only went on duty at 1300 hrs & the date in question. He was back in camp by 1200 hrs. If he had been on parade at 0730 hrs he would not have been a hand at 0930 hrs. I cannot see how he can be held guilty of being absent without leave.

I feel that the prosecution has failed to prove its case on either count & that both charges should be dismissed.

John A Nolan Lt

Charge Re Cpl. Lifford

Miss Martha Schwicking in her evidence proved beyond a doubt that Cpl Lifford the accused was one of the soldiers who stole her radio. She picked him out on a parade from a number of other soldiers. Miss Schwicking gave the court a false impression due to her not speaking English and although certain of the men she didn't know which soldier called out the particulars. She picked out a wrong soldier on an identity parade but this was due to a definite resemblence. Sgt Simmons in his evidence points without a doubt that the accused was on a parade at 1005. As was brought out in the evidence of the accused knew he was to be duty at 0800 hrs he could not have missed seeing that a muster parade was being held the following morning.

Sgt Hanson gave evidence to the effect that on the parade held at 1005 hrs on 25 July 45 at Enschede. The accused was absent without leave. Also from the evidence it is definitely established that Martha Schwicking did definitely & readily identify the accused Sgt Lewis in his evidence definitely established the time of Cpl Lifford return as being approx 1005 hrs he further states as see Sgt he warned the men of a muster parade.

With this evidence which has been put before the court I humbly demand the accused Cpl Lifford be found Guilty of both charges.

FIRST WITNESS:

Miss Marthe Schulze SCHWICKING of Waltrop, 26, ALTENBURG, Germany, sworn, states:

On Monday, July 2, approx 1715 hrs., I was sitting by window sewing when a Jeep drove into our yard with two soldiers in it. They got out of the Jeepand walked up to the window and started to question me regarding how many in the family and how many living in the house. They asked if we had a radio and where the door was so that they could come in. While they were coming in I told my sister-in-law to hide the radio, but they did not have time. They searched two rooms of the house and I followed them around. While they were searching they told me that I would be given a receipt for the radio and that they would get it back to us in a short while as they were Military Police from Munster and they were searching all the houses in the district. One started to write something on a paper and wanted to know the number of the radio. I went and got the radio and they took the number and wrote it on the paper. The other one meanwhile was talking very fast to me as I speak and understand English slightly. I made out a little of what they were telling me. The other gave me the receipt for the radio while one took of his coat and wrapped it around the radio. They said I was to come on Friday to Munster where I would get the radio back and a permit for it. They then took the radio and put it in the jeep and droveaway.

Q. Can you identify which man said they were M.P. from Munster?

A. I can't say for certain.

Q. Who was here at the house when they came?

A. My Mother and sister-in-law and myself. My Mother did not speak with the soldiers at all.

Q. Did you refuse at all to give the radio?

A. No, as I did not know what to do or say.

Q. When did you first see me?

A. I saw him first at the window at about 1715 hrs.

They just glanced in the kitchen and then went away. From what I could gather they were looking through the house and I could hear my sister-in-law talking to them, from time to time, as she speaks English slightly. While they were looking around the house my sister-in-law explained to me that they were Military Police and were looking to see if we had any radios. The radio was standing in a room next to the kitchen and while I continued cooking I could see one of them write something on a paper which I believed to be the number of the radio. My sister-in-law told me that they were taking the radio to Munster and that we would get it on Friday. One then picked up the radio and carried it out to the car. Plea in mitigation of sentence in case of Pte Ligoni.

Circumstances which make this an outstanding case and worthy of deep consideration in passing of sentence.

2 He was sent to front with – when he was wounded. After one month in hospital was sent to convalescent depot where he asked for leave which was refused. Not having seen in 18 mos. – having relatives in this country and being in convalescent depot not well enough for active service limit in condition to get around, decided to take care of his own.

B1. The ~~President~~ JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s) or call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans Yes sir .....(5)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex "A", initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

B-2 Statement of accused in reference to the charge.

I have been in the army about 3 years now and so can be seen by my record that although I've never been out of trouble and although I will be going to detention this time when I come out it will just be the same thing again. I've different units I've been in I've had all the breaks but I have become convinced I'll never be any good to the army.

E-3. Statement of defending officer in mitigation.

P.O. Tilley attempted to enlist in the navy when he was 17. The navy turned him down but he went to the army and they accepted him. He is only 19 now. He was born 11 Aug 1924. His interests do not lie with the army but with the navy. He has since tried to transfer to the navy but his applications have been refused. He was in the Sea Cadets for three years. He has been employed as a D.R. and has done considerable petty work which has caused him to become very "browned off". What he needs is a change of employment and interests. He needs new interests, new hopes and a new outlook. I trust the court will consider these points and be as lenient as possible with P.O. Tilley.

Statement by Defaulter's Officer in the case of

B53548 Pte Ewd Tiller,

The conduct of the accused whose that he volunteered for service which works of est which carries a good wage in civilian life.

Since joining the Army he has been given work which was unsuitable for him. He was sent to Trade School where his conduct and his record of A.W.L. dates from this time. He made repeated efforts to transfer to an infantry unit without success.

He arrived in England in Dec 1942 and until April was not in any trouble. His company commander states that he was a good worker.

The present offence arose from an irregular absence in the second month and it can be stated that he was to some extent led away.

I submit that this case calls for extreme leniency not that a recommendation be made for a transfer of this soldier to a more suitable unit

Plea in mitigation

v. PC 53548 Pte. Tedley E.

For

May it please the court I have to ask to bring the following points before the court.

Pte. Tedley is a late recruit, a very young soldier, in fact younger than the age of 19 years. He joined at the age of barely seventeen. There is no doubt that he did not intend to desert. He was working under the impression that he had permission from the authorities of the Item of his absence. Nothing has been proved, to show that he did not intend to return. He was at all times during his absence, perfectly dressed and offered no resistance on apprehension by the Military Police. In short, I submit that he is a very typical case of a very young soldier, thoughtless at the time and acting on the spur of the moment. Nothing has been proved to the contrary. He was of a very good character. Under the circumstances I ask that these points be taken into consideration in awarding the sentence.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

B.78797 C.S.M. Foden, Irish Regiment of Canada, 11 Canadian Infantry Brigade, having been duly sworn, is interrogated as follows:

Q.1 "On the evening your Coy moved forward to take over the positions vacated by the Perth Regiment, did you see the accused, Pte Timchuk, and if so, will you tell the Court under what circumstances?"

A.1 "Previous to moving off from our reserve area to the forward area, I made a check of my Coy area for atricles that are generally left behind and to look to see if everyone had equipment and gear ready to move forward, and I saw Pte Timchuk with his Platoon, with his equipment on, ready to move forward. On reaching the forward area, it was reported to me that he was absent or missing from his Section. I later got a phone call from the Adjutant, who said that he had reported to 'A' Echelon the same night."

Q.2 "Has Pte Timchuk since reported in the lines as far as you know?"

A.2 "No, Sir."

Q.3 "When you returned to 'A' Echelon three days after entering the line, did you find Pte Timchuk here?"

A.3 "Yes, under close arrest, Sir."

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENCE

Q.4 "Did you see Pte Timchuk personally?"

A.4 "Yes, Sir. I didn't speak to him, except that I had reason to get him. He had applied to the 2 i/c of the Coy that afternoon for permission to see the Major, that he was in a nervous condition, and would like to stay behind, Sir."

Q.5 "Did you check all personnel on arrival at the forward area?"

A.5 "No, Sir, it was impossible."

Q.6 "Who reported that Pte Timchuk was absent?"

A.6 "The Platoon Sergeant."

Q.7 "Did you receive the phone call from the Adjutant personally?"
A.7 "Yes, Sir."

Q.8 "Was there any shell fire at the time of the alleged offence?"
A.8 "As we hit the South ford, the North ford was being shelled in the distance.

Q.9 "Approximately how far distant was the shell fire?"
A.9 "About a mile, Sir. It looked closer at night."

Q.10 "That was the closest shell fire?"
A.10 "Yes, Sir."

Q.11 "Were you going into an attack or being attacked at the time?"
A.11 "We were proceeding into the line to take over from another unit."

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION

Q.12 "Would you have known if the enemy were about to put in an attack?"
A.12 "I think we would, Sir."

Q.13 "Had your Coy been under shell fire that day?"
A.13 "Yes, Sir, in the morning."

Q.14 "You knew the enemy were in front of you as you advanced?"
A.14 "Yes, Sir."

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q.15 "Pte Timchuk made application to be paraded to the Major during the day. Was he paraded?"
A.15 "He was, to the 2 i/c of the Coy, and asked to speak to the Major.

Q.16 "Do you know why Pte Timchuk dropped out of the line of march?"
A.16 "No, Sir. He had no permission from the Coy Comd or myself to doso.

Q.17 "Was there a Coy order calling the parade preparatory to moving into the line?"
A.17 "Yes, it was given verbally to Platoons."

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

B.78873 Sergeant Guillaumier, V.J., Irish Regiment of Canada, 11 Canadian Infantry Brigade, having been duly sworn, is interrogated as follows:

Q.18 "On the night of 21st April what was your official job in 'A' Echelon?"
A.18 "On the night of 21st I was disciplinarian in 'A' Echelon, and had been ordered by Capt Whyte, the Adjutant, to make sure a convoy would not leave before midnight. Therefore I remained to make sure of that job."

Q.19 "Did you see the accused on the night in question, the 21st April?"
A.19 "Yes, Sir."

Q.20 "Would you explain to the Court under what circumstances you saw him?"
A.20 "On the 21st, at 2300 hours, I was waiting at the B.O.R. to make sure the convoy would not go out too early. Pte Timchuk came into the Orderly Room and reported to the effect that while on his way out to the front with his Coy his pack became undone and he foll out to fix it up. In the meantime his Coy moved forward and he lost them.

He said he considered it wiser to make for 'A' Echelon rather than go on alone."

Q.21 "Do you know the order in which the Coys were proceeding to the front that night?"
A.21 "No, Sir."

The Defence declined to cross-examine the witness.

QUESTIONED BY A.D.J.A.

Q.22 "What was your Unit doing the night of the 21st?"
A.22 "Moving up to the lines from our reserve position."

Q.23 "From the Hove area?"
A.23 "Just pass the Hove area, Sir."

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q.24 "Do you know whether Pte Timchuk dropped out of the line?"
A.24 "I cannot say, Sir.".

Q.25 "Was it you he reported to in the B.O.R.?"
A.25 "It was me, Sir.".

Q.26 "Were you alone in the Orderly Room at the time?"
A.26 "No, Sir, Sgt Jeffries was there."

Q.27 "What happened to Pte Timchuk after that?"
A.27 "I brought him blankets and put him up for the night and reported to the Adjutant the first thing in the morning."

Q.28 "Were you present when he was paraded to Capt Whyte?"
A.28 "I paraded him to Capt Whyte, Sir."

Q.29 "As a result of being paraded to Capt Whyte then what happened?"
A.29 "I warned him for close arrest after seeing Capt Whyte and later on Capt Whyte told me to put him under open arrest, and then later still, close arrest again."

Q.30 "Do you know what subsequently happened to him?"
A.30 "He remained in this area, Sir."

Q.31 "What condition was Pte Timchuk in when he returned?"
A.31 "Just normal as far as I know, Sir."

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

A/Captain F.C. Whyte, Adjutant, Irish Regiment of Canada, 11 Canadian Infantry Brigade, having been duly sworn, is interrogated as follows:

Q.32 "On the night of 21/22 April can you recall any special job the Bn was called upon to do?"
A.32 "The night of the 21/22 April the Bn was ordered to relieve the Perth Regiment in the front line."

Q.33 "In the course of this relief can you recall for the Court in what order the Coys moved into the line?"
A.33 "Not the exact order, but to my knowledge it was 'D' and 'C' Coys, 'B' and 'A' Coys, in that order."

Q.34 "In that case, the accused man's Coy moved well forward in the column and numerous personnel should have seen him had he fallen out by the wayside?"
A.34 "Yes, Sir."

Q.35 "Will you tell the Court where the Padre's Jeep proceeded in the column, and for what purpose?"
A.35 "It was the last vehicle in the line, behind all marching troops, for the purpose of picking up stragglers."

Q.36 "Were any stragglers picked up by this vehicle?"
A.36 "None were reported to this HQ."

Q.37 "Did you see the accused after the Bn moved into the line?"
A.37 "Yes, Sir."

Q.38 "Will you tell the Court under what circumstances you saw the accusedd?"
A.38 "On the morning of 22nd April at approximately 0900 hours the the accused was paraded to me by Sgt Guillaumiere. Pte Timchuk stated that he had fallen out of the line of march the previous night to adjust his pack and having done so, found himself so far behind his Coy that he had lost contact with them and could not find his way to the place where his Coy was going. He therefore returned to the unit 'A' Echelon. I placed him under open arrest and told him that he would go forward to join his Coy later. The evening of the 23rd April at approximately 1600 hrs I warned Pte Timchuk that he would go forward to rejoin his Coy on the Jeeptrain that same night. He refused the order point-blank and subsequently did not, as ordered, go forward to rejoin his Coy."

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

Q.39 "In this conversation with Pte Timchuk was the man warned that anything he said might be used in evidence against him?"
A.39 "No, he was not, Sir."

Q.40 "Regarding this Jeep that was travelling behind the column, in the normal course of events would you have been notified of any stragglers picked up?"
A.40 "It is possible, but it is not necessary that they would be reported at onec, but it is possible that they would."

Q.41 "When Pte Timchuk said that his nerves would not take it, was his manner defiant?"
A.41 "No, not defiant. He refused the order on the grounds that his nerves would not take the strain of war."

Q.42 "In other words you would say that the terminology of the second Charge is not accurate - that he was not defiant?"
A.42 "He used defiance in his words, but I do not think that his attitude was defiant."

Q.43 "Had you ever heard of Pte Timchuk before?"
A.43 "No."

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q.44 "On Pte Timchuk's first being paraded to you what was his attitude at that time?"
A.44 "Very much the same as the second time, Sir, in that he said that his nerves wouldn't take the strain and that he was of no use to himself being there, nor to anyone else."

QUESTIONED BY A.D.J.A.

Q.45 "You placed Pte Timchuk under open arrest?"
A.45 "Yes, Sir."

Q.46 "Did he remain under open arrest until the 23rd?"
A.46 "Yes, he had to go forward, and as we were short staffed, I couldn't provide an escort for him."

Q.47 " At the time you gave him the order to go forward, the 23rd, he was under open arrest?"
A.47 "Yes."

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q.48 "Do you remember in what manner Pte Timchuk refused, th is what words he used?"

A. 48 "I cannot quite recall the exact words. It wasn't a case of 'go to hell, I won't take the order' - he refused the order and then explained why he refused the order."

QUESTIONED BY A.D.J.A.

Q. 49 "Can you remember the approximate words he used?"
A. 49 "I am sorry, Sir, I cannot."

SUBMISSION BY THE DEFENCE

"As in the previous case, I contend that the Evidence given fails to establish a case of Misbehaving Before the Enemy, on the grounds that all references I have been able to find in the Manual of Military Law indicate that the term 'before the enemy' means actually under shell fire, or during an attack. It is when the actual advance takes place and not an anticipated one. The accused, according to the Evidence, was not under shell fire, nor was there an attack going in at the time. On the strength of that, I would move that the First Charge be dismissed and I will make my statements later on regarding the other Charges."

The Court intervened and requested that the aforementioned statements be made at this time, rather than later.

The Court adjourned to consider the submission.

The Court re-opened.

The Submission was disallowed and the Court requested further Evidence. The Defence is ordered to proceed.

THE COURT QUESTIONED THE DEFENCE

Q. 50 "Do you wish to call witnesses on your behalf, witnesses as to character only?"
A. 50 "We wish to call witnesses, but not as to character only."

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

B.127875, Pte Timchuk M.J., the accused, Irish Regiment of Canada 11 Canadian Infantry Brigade, having been duly sworn, is interrogated as follows:

Q. 51 "Had you ever been in action before the 21st April?"
A. 51 "Yes, Sir."

Q. 52 "Where was your last action?"
A. 52 "The Orsogna Front, Sir."

Q. 53 "Was there any incident at Orsogna that particularly sticks in your mind?"
A. 53 "There was an incident at Orsogna Front, Sir. The last day before we moved out of that area we were mortared and shelled and one of my partners got killed-at the same time, I was knicked in the neck by shrapnel. Ever since then I have been shaky."

Q. 54 "I understand that it was a reserve position that the Irish were occupying at the time of your alleged offence?"
A. 54 "It was, Sir."

Q. 55 "Where were you at the time?"
A. 55 "I was on top of the hill on the far side, and when Jerry started to shell our position, one lit not far from where I was, killing one of our lads, and after that my mind went back to the Orsogna Front where my partn was killed. My nerves went bad then, Sir."

Q.56 "Your Regiment was engaged in river crossing scheme one time recently?"

A.56 " Yes, Sir."

Q.57 "Is there any incident that comes to your mind?"
A.57 "There is one, Sir. We were crossing the river and one boat got away from the ropes in the swift current, and the boat tipped. We rushed to help out, as we were on the land by that time. There was a lad in the middle of the stream and he was yelling for help. As I didn't have a rope to throw, when I saw him go under and come up again, I jumped in and pulled him out."

(Aside to the Court) The Defence stated that all witnesses to this incident were in the line, and were therefore not available.

Q. 58 "Was there any recognition made of what you did?"
A. 58 "I believe it was a Sergeant of the Intelligence that came up to me and asked if I was the one that pulled him out. I said that it was me and he said that he asked because of a Merit that would be given."

Q. 59 "Back to the 23rd of April. When Captain Whyte told you to rejoin your Coy and ordered you to get on the Jeep train, what did you say to him?"
A. 59 "I told him that the way I was feeling that I couldn't go on, and said it would be all right for him to put me under close arrest."

Q.60 "What were your exact words?"
A.60 "I was notified that I was to go on the Jeeptrain that night, and I said I wished to speak to the Captain and seeing him, told him that I just couldn't go on with the Jeeptrain in the condition I was in. He tried to persuade me and I said that I just couldn't do it."

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION

Q. 61 "You actually saw shells land the day in question in your area?"
A. 61 "Yes, Sir."

Q. 62 "You did move off with your Coy to go into the line that night, but you stopped off?"
A. 62 "Yes, Sir, I stopped to adjust my pack.

Q. 63 "But you didn't go into the line?"
A. 63 "No, Sir."

Q. 64 "Did you notice any shelling or bombing when you went to go forward that night?"
A. 64 "No, Sir, I didn't."

Q. 65 "Were you ever bothered with that funny feeling previously to the time in question? Did your nerves ever trouble you previous to this incident?"
A. 65 "Yes, Sir, my nerves gave me trouble before, at Orsogna."

Q. 66 "Why did you not report to the Medical Officer about your nerves?"
A. 66 "We moved out of the line that night and I was glad to get out of that spot and we have never been in the line since, until going to this front here, Sir."

Q. 67 "When you were in forward positions, were you subjected to shelling and mortaring?"
A. 67 "One day we were mortared on the front there, and I dropped even though the bomb fell 500 yards to my left. I said to the others that they didn't know the effects of being hit.

Q.68 "Do you feel better in this area?"
A.68 "I do not, Sir."

Q.69 "Does the shelling still affect you?"
A.69 "It does, Sir."

Q.70 "After you could not proceed forward, how is it that you can stay around here, where there is shelling at times?"
A.70 "I can't get away, Sir. I have asked to get sent back."

Q.71 "Captain Whyte ordered you into the line the second time?"
A.71 "Yes, Sir."

Q.72 "And you refused?"
A.72 "Yes, Sir, I refused."

Q.73 "You were insolent then?"
A.73 "I just told him to place me under arrest, Sir."

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q.74 "How old are you?"
A.74 "Twenty-eight, Sir."

Q.75 "How long have you been in the Army?"
A.75 "Two years this coming May, Sir."

Q.76 "When did you come to the Irish Regiment?"
A.76 "Last July, I think, Sir."

Q.77 "Have you ever been paraded to an M.O. for this nervous condition?"
A.77 "No, Sir. I paraded to the M.O. but it was not for nerves then, after I was hit on the Orsona Front."

Q.78 "At that time did you complain to any Officer of your condition?"
A.78 "I couldn't, Sir, we were just coming out of the line, and that was satisfactory to me at the time."

Q.79 "It was just that one time you were troubled with your nerves, then?"
A.79 "I was nervous before but it didn't amount to much until I was hit..The other bad shelling finished it off."

Q.80 "Were you evacuated at that time?"
A.80 "No, Sir."

Q.81 "The afternoon of the 21st when shells fell in your Coy area, how far away did these shells fall from where you were?"
A.81 "I would say between 75 and 100 yards, Sir.

Q.82 "You were on the road?"
A.82 "No, Sir, I was not on the road, I was in my trench."

Q.83 "How far away from you were the casualties?"
A.83 "Approximately 75 yards, Sir."

Q.84 "Did you help evacuate these casualties?"
A.84 "No, Sir."

Q.85 "Did you remain in your trench?"
A.85 "I remained for some time and then came down to look at the casualty, but he was covered with a blanket."

Q.86 "You didn't see the casualties occur, then?"
A.86 "I saw the bomb hit and saw the flash, Sir."

Q.87 "In this area where you are now shells fall from time to time, do they not?"
A.87 "Yes, Sir."

Q. 88 "And shells fall within a reasonable distance of where you are, do they not?"
A. 88 "Yes, Sir."

Q. 89 "Since the 21st of April have you had any attacks of nerves?"
A. 89 "Yes, Sir."

Q. 90 "Have you complained to any Officers about your nerves since the 21st?"
A. 90 "No, Sir."

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

Captain Page Statten, R.C.A.M.C., attached to the Perth Regiment, 11 Canadian Infantry Brigade, having been duly sworn, is interrogated as follows:

Q. 91 "You are a Medical Officer?"
A. 91 "Yes."

Q. 92 "Have you had any experience with personnel who have, through nervous disability and other causes, been unable to perform their duties?"
A. 92 "Yes, Sir."

Q. 93 "In the case of a man who does an act of courage one day and an act of apparent cowardice sometime later, would you say that it was possible that this inconsistency could be explained in terms of a mental disorder, if the individual had a severe shock in the meantime?"
A. 93 "Yes, I think it could be."

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION

Q. 94 "Do you know the accused, Pte Timchuk?"
A. 94 "No, Sir."

Q. 95 "Have you examined Pte Timchuk medically?"
A. 95 "Yes, to find if he were fit or unfit to undergo Trial by Court Martial. I found him fit."

Q. 96 "As far as you know, there is no mental disorder in Pte Timchuk?"
A. 96 "No, Sir."

RE-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

Q. 97 "In this normal check for fitness to undergo Trial, do you make any sort of psychopathic examination at all as a rule?"
A. 97 "Very roughly, yes. I make myself certain that they are of sound mind so that they can fully understand the Proceedings."

Q. 98 "But nothing in detail?"
A. 98 "No, just a rough check."

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q. 99 "Do you remember this man complaining of any nervous disability when you were examining him prior to the Court-Martial?"
A. 99 "He did mention nervousness at the time, but my rough examination would put it down to the usual nervousness that accompanies men that are up for Court-Martial. Most men I have examined have been in that condition before the Court-Martial."

Q. 100 "How closely related are a state of nervousness and a state of cowardice?"

A. 100 "It is my opinion that cowardice is not a state of nervousness, Sir."

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE DEFENCE

"Gentlemen, in this case I have endeavoured to show that any misbehaviour on the part of Pte Timchuk was not before the enemy. In regard to the Second Charge, that such disobedience to order as there may have been, was nothing wilfully defiant. The man's attitude was described as reasonable and his intention was not to disobey the order, but to try to convince the Officer in question that he was unable to carry out that order. You have heard the evidence of the experiences that this man has undergone, and to a man who may be of nervous temperament, such experiences would be sufficient, and according to medical opinion, could have caused the unbalancing of his mind where he was likely to encounter any similar incident, and that there was evidence where the man has behaved in not only a normal manner, but in a manner that was to a certain extent courageous. I therefore submit that the First Charge, inasmuch as it does not meet the circumstances given in the evidence, should be dismissed; that the Second Charge has been eliminated on the evidence of the Prosecuting Witness, and the Prosecution. Finally, that his failure to carry out the order given him was not an act of disobedience, but rather a statement on the part of the accused that he was at that time physically and mentally incapable of carrying it out."

CLOSING ADDRESS OF THE PROSECUTION

"If it please the Court, I have a few points I would like to bring out in closing. The Prosecution feels, setting aside all personal feeling, that the First and Second Charges have been amply proven. With regard to the First Charge: Witnesses, backed up by the admission of the accused, have definitely proven that fire was brought to bear by the enemy on positions occupied by the Irish Regiment on the day in question, and that the Regiment was advancing toward the enemy when the accused failed to show up. The Defence points out an act of bravery on the part of the accused. It hurts me in any way to take away from this act, but as I said before, personal feelings have to be set aside when justice is to be done, at times, and the Prosecution must submit to the Court that there is absolutely no proof or evidence submitted to substantiate this claim of bravery. I would also like to point out to the Court, as in the previous case, the Medical Officer who gave evidence, has stated not evidence, but personal opinion, in that he stated to the Court that he did not know the accused, and that his casual examination had revealed no serious nervous condition. It is pointed out respectfully to the Court that each and every one of us has, at one time or another been afraid, but it is our duty to overcome these fears and carry on. Evidence in this case definitely proves the accused was unable to do this. Regarding the Second Charge: The Witness for the Prosecution, A/Captain Whyte, on re-examination, stated the man's attitude was not insolent. - Quite true - The accused is not charged with insolence. He is Charged with wilfull disobedience of an order, and I think the Court will agree that when a man is given a direct order, and says, I will not do it, nothing could be more wilfull. His mind was made up, it could not be changed. I ask the Court to consider the fact that this lad was given a second change, but he still could not make it. In conclusion then, Gentlemen, the Prosecution feels that all the points stressed in the Charges have been covered and verified by reliable Witnesses, backed up by the voluntary evidence, in some evidence of the accused

The Court adjourns whilst the evidence is considered.

The Court re-opened and stated that the accused was found 'not guilty' of the Third Charge. The Findings of the Court on the First and Sechond Charges to be promulgated later.

THE COURT QUESTIONED THE DEFENCE

Q. 101 "Do you wish to give Evidence or to call Witnesses as to character?"

A. 101 "No, Sir.

Documentary Evidence is produced.

THE COURT QUESTIONED THE DEFENCE

Q. 102 "Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement and Conduct Sheet?"
A. 102 "Yes, Sir."

"Sir, you will notice that this man has a clean conduct sheet, that he has been in the Army for over two years and has apparently been an exemplary soldier. Although it has not been inscribed in his Conduct Sheet, there is an entry for gallantry. The Court's attention has already been drawn to an act of bravery that the accused performed. Further, I would only say that this man volunteered to come Overseas and put himself in a position where such a thing as did happen to him, could happen to him. The choice was freely made, and he made an attempt, where many others have not seen fit to make the same attempt.

The Court was declared closed.

THE A.D.J.A'S SUMMING-UP ADDRESS AND EXPLANATION OF THE POINTS OF LAW INVOLVED.

"As A.D.J.A., it is my duty to assist the Court in questions of Law and Procedure. In this present Trial, and in the First Charge, it is encumbent upon the Court to consider first, whether or not, upon the evidence submitted, the Charge is properly laid, and secondly, if the Charge is properly laid, whether or not the accused is guilty or not guilty. If, in the minds of the Court, there is any doubt whatever as to the guilt of the accused upon the Evidence submitted, then the accused is entitled to the benefit of that doubt, and the Finding of the Court must be 'not guilty'. If, however, the Evidence on both Charges, upon consideration by the Court, leaves no doubt whatever in the minds of the Court, as to the guilt of the accused, then the verdict must be 'guilty'. I wish to draw, in the First Charge, the attention of the Court to the fact that the substance of the Charge 'Misbehaving in the Face of the Enemy in Such a Manner as to Show Cowardice', forces the Court to decide if the accused was before the enemy in the true sense of the phrase, or, if not before the enemy, then the Charge must be dismissed. There is not one explanation, either in the Army Act or in the Manual as to what is meant by the phrase 'before the enemy' but I turn to Chapter 3, Section 20 of the Manual of Military Law and I read in toto. (Section 20 is read to the Court). The examples given in the Section are to be taken as examples, and I feel that the Court can justly consider whether the Evidence upon which the First Charge is laid is analogous to the examples given, and if so, then the Charge should have been one of Desertion, and as it stands now, should be dismissed. I feel that on the Second Charge it is a question of fact and that I need not labour it now."

The Court was declared closed, the Findings to be divulged at a later date.

I, B127975 Pte Michael James TIMCHUCK, The Irish Regiment of Canada, desire to have an Officer assigned to represent me at my trial by Court-Martial.

I desire the services of Captain N H SHAW, if he is available.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

B127875 Private Michael James TIMCHUCK, The Irish Regiment of Canada, a soldier of the Canadian Army placed on Active Service.

Charges:

1. When on Active Service, misbehaving before the enemy in such a manner as to show cowardice.

2. Disobeying a lawful command given by his superior officer.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS B 78797 CSM Foden, S R, The Irish Regiment of Canada, having been duly sworn, states:

"At about 2010 hrs 21st April 1944, on checking the Company area, I saw Pte Timchuck in his equipment, ready to move off with the Company. Upon arriving at the forward area it was reported to me that Pte Timchuck was absent. Later on we received a phone call from the Adjutant, stating that Pte Timchuck had reported at "A" Echelon."

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness. S R Foden CSM

SECOND WITNESS B 78873 Sgt Guillaumier, V J, The Irish Regiment of Canada, having been duly sworn, states:

"On the night of 21st April, 1944, Pte Timchuck reported to me at about 2200 hrs. He stated that he had been with his Company proceeding to the front line when his equipment came loose, and he stopped to fix it. He lost his company and returned to "A" Echelon. The following morning I paraded him to the Adjutant."

V Guillaumier Sgt

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

THIRD WITNESS A/Capt F C Whyte, Adjutant, The Irish Regiment of Canada, having been duly sworn, states:

"On the morning of April 22nd, 1944, Pte Timchuck was paraded to me by Sgt Guillaumier. He told me his story, how he had fallen out of the line of march to adjust his equipment while his company was moving to the front, and that having fallen out, his nerves got the better of him, and he did not return to his Company but made his way back to the Unit's "A" Echelon.

I placed him under arrest at the time, and contacted his Company Commander as to his disposal.

The following night at approximately 1800 hrs, having been advised that Pte Timchuck was to rejoin his Company, I personally told him that he would go forward with the jeep train that night. He refused, stating his nerves would not take it, and he did not go forward on the jeep train as ordered."

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

QUESTION TO THE ACCUSED

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may ge given in evidence.

ANSWER BY THE ACCUSED

I wish to make a statement.

The accused, B127875 Pte Timchuck, M J, having been duly sworn, states:

"I wanted to see Major LaPrairie on the afternoon of April 21st. He was out on a burial ceremony at the time. I spoke to Captain Southby to ask Major LaPrairie if he could possibly send me back to "B" Echelon on account of my nerves being pretty well upset. After seeing Capt Southby later that evening, he told me that Major LaPrairie said that I would have to go into the front line. I felt pretty bad about it, seeing he wouldn't consider my feelings. I packed up and tried to make the trip to the front line.

When we started out about a mile down the road my coat came undone from my pack. I stopped to fix it, and then, hearing a few more booms of the guns, my nerves started to give way again.

I saw that my platoon was away some distance from where I was, and made up my mind to return to "A" Echelon to tell them that I returned back on account of my nervous condition.

I reported to Sgt Guillaumier some time after 2100 hrs, and on the following morning he paraded me to the Adjutant. The Adjutant placed me under arrest, and later warned me to go forward, but I knew my nerves would not stand it, so refused."

Timchuk M.J.

I certify that Rules of Procedure 4 (C), (D), (E) and (F) have been complied with.

Taken down by me in the presence of the accused in the Field, this 24th day of April, 1944.

1 Herewith proceedings in the m/n case for review and custody.

2 This unit and bde have been advised that in future it would be preferable on the facts of the first charge to lay a charge of desertion. However in the present instance, the Bde were not under comd at the time of trial. They did consult a member of the JAG staff of the NZ Div, and the court's attention was brought to the question of fact as to what was actually meant by "before the enemy". Having considered this fact and having found that the accused was actually before the enemy, it is submitted that the charge has been substantiated.

3 It will also be noted that the convening authority appointed a Judge advocate who is not a member of the JAG Branch. Nevertheless under the circumstances, it was considered necessary by the convening authority, and quite properly so, that a Judge advocate should sit on this court. He therefore appointed a qualified barrister who has had considerable experience in courts martial in this capacity.

1. Reference letter Comd 1 CBRGp (8002/1/2) dated 6 Jun 44 and this Headquarters J 349 of to-days date.

2. The m/n proceedings have been reviewed at this Headquarters at the same time as the proceedings in the case of B-78801 Sgt Harvey F R, Ir RC, and for the reasons given for my decision upon the petition of the last mentioned soldier, the finding of the court on the first charge in the m/n proceedings cannot stand. (See 10/Harvey FR/1 dated 8 Jul 44).

3. I must, therefore, advise the confirming officer that the finding on the first charge should be set aside, the record of the conviction removed and the accused relieved from all consequences of his trial thereon. This direction should be effected by endorsing on the copy of the proceedings in your possession the following minute:

4. The proceedings should then be passed to the appropriate authority under RP 54(B), being GOC, 5 Cdn Armd Div, in order that he may deal with the sentence awarded to the accused having regard to the conviction upon the second charge. He may, if he considers it proper, mitigate, remit or commute the sentence but there is no obligation upon him to do so. In considering Harvey's case, as a superior military authority, I decided not to mitigate the sentence because I regarded the second offence in the circumstances as most grave. The direction of the GOC, 5 Cdn Armd Div should be effected by endorsing on the proceedings the following minute:

" Upon it appearing to me, an authority having the power to mitigate, remit or commute the punishment awarded by the sentence herein that the finding on the first charge is invalid and has been set aside, I, having regard to the finding on the second charge, do mitigate the punishment as awarded by the court and confirmed by the confirming officer (or do not mitigate the punishment awarded by the court and confirmed by the confirming officer) to

5. After the copy of the proceedings has been dealt with as aforesaid, the above directions must be promulgated to the accused; reflected in unit orders, the accused's records amended accordingly and a minute of promulgation endorsed on p 4 of CF A96. Duplicate original minutes with a full certificate of promulgation will be prepared and forwarded to this Headquarters to be attached to the original proceedings.

6. As in Harvey's case, the accused is subject to being tried again upon a properly worded charge for his conduct in leaving the line of march on 21 Apr 44

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

B.78797 C.S.M. Foden, Irish Regiment of Canada, 11 Canadian Infantry Brigade, having been duly sworn, is interrogated as follows:

Q.1 "On the evening your Coy moved forward to take over the positions vacated by the Perth Regiment, did you see the accused, Pte Timchuk, and if so, will you tell the Court under what circumstances?"

A.1 "Previous to moving off from our reserve area to the forward area, I made a check of my Coy area for articles that are generally left behind and to look to see if everyone had equipment and gear ready to move forward, and I saw Pte Timchuk with his Platoon, with his equipment on, ready to move forward. On reaching the forward area, it was reported to me that he was absent or missing from his Section. I later got a phone call from the Adjutant, who said that he had reported to 'A' Echelon the same night."

Q.2 "Has Pte Timchuk since reported in the lines as far as you know?"
A.2 "No, Sir."

Q.3 "When you returned to 'A' Echelon three days after entering the line, did you find Pte Timchuk here?"
A.3 "Yes, under close arrest, Sir."

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENCE

Q.4 "Did you see Pte Timchuk personally?"
A.4 "Yes, Sir. I didn't speak to him, except that I had reason to get him. He had applied to the 2 i/c of the Coy that afternoon for permission to see the Major, that he was in a nervous condition, and would like to stay behind, Sir."

Q.5 "Did you check all personnel on arrival at the forward area?"
A.5 "No, Sir, it was impossible."

Q.6 "Who reported that Pte Timchuk was absent?"
A.6 "The Platoon Sergeant."

Q.7 "Did you receive the phone call from the Adjutant personally?"
A.7 "Yes, Sir."

Q.8 "Was there any shell fire at the time of the alleged offence?"
A.8 "As we hit the South ford, the North ford was being shelled in the distance.

Q.9 "Approximately how far distant was the shell fire?"
A.9 "About a mile, Sir. It looked closer at night."

Q.10 "That was the closest shell fire?"
A.10 "Yes, Sir."

Q.11 "Were you going into an attack or being attacked at the time?"
A.11 "We were proceeding into the line to take over from another unit."

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION

Q.12 "Would you have known if the enemy were about to put in an attack?"
A.12 "I think we would, Sir."

Q.13 "Had your Coy been under shell fire that day?"
A.13 "Yes, Sir, in the morning."

Q.14 "You knew the enemy were in front of you as you advanced?"
A.14 "Yes, Sir."

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q.16 "Pte Timchuk made application to be paraded to the Major during the day. Was he paraded?"
A.15 ""He was, to the 2 i/c of the Coy, and asked to speak to the Major.

Q.16 "Do you know why Pte Timchuk dropped out of the line of march?"
A.16 "No, Sir. He had no permission from the Coy Comd or myself to do so.

Q.17 "Was there a Coy order calling the parade preparatory to moving into the line?"
A.17 "Yes, it was given verbally to Platoons."

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

B.78873 Sergeant Guillaumier, V.J., Irish Regiment of Canada, 11 Canadian Infantry Brigade, having been duly sworn, is interrogated as follows:

Q.18 "On the night of 21st April what was your official job in 'A' Echelon?"
A.18 "On the night of 21st I was disciplinarian in 'A' Echelon, and had been ordered by Capt Whyte, the Adjutant, to make sure a convoy would not leave before midnight. Therefore I remained to make sure of that job."

Q.19 "Did you see the accused on the night in question, the 21st April?"
A.19 "Yes, Sir."

Q.20 "Would you explain to the Court under what circumstances you saw him?"
A.20 "On the 21st, at 2300 hours, I was waiting at the B.O.R. to make sure the convoy would not go out too early. Pte Timchuk came into the Orderly Room and reported to the effect that while on his way out to the front with his Coy his pack became undone and he fell out to fix it up. In the meantime his Coy moved forward and he lost them.

He said he considered it wiser to make for 'A' Echelon rather to go on alone."

Q.21 "Do you know the order in which the Coys were proceeding to the front that night?"
A.21 "No, Sir."

The Defence declined to cross-examine the witness.

QUESTIONED BY A.D.J.A.
Q.22 "What was your Unit doing the night of the 21st"?
A.22 "Moving up to the lines from our reserve position."

Q.23 "From the Hove area?"
A.23 "Just pass the Hove area, Sir."

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT
Q.24 "Do you know whether Pte Timchuk dropped out of the line?"
A.24 "I cannot say, Sir.".

Q.25 "Was it you he reported to in the B.O.R.?"
A.25 "It was me, Sir.".

Q.26 "Were you alone in the Orderly Room at the time?"
A.26 "No, Sir, Sgt Jeffries was there."

Q.27 "What happened to Pte Timchuk after that?"
A.27 "I brought him blankets and put him up for the night and reported to the Adjutant the first thing in the morning."

Q.28 "Were you present when he was paraded to Capt Whyte?"
A.28 "I paraded him to Capt Whyte, Sir."

Q.29 "As a result of being paraded to Capt Whyte then what happened?"
A.29 "I warned him for close arrest after seeing Capt Whyte and later on Capt Whyte told me to put him under open arrest, and then later still, close arrest again."

Q.30 "Do you know what subsequently happened to him?"
A.30 "He remained in this area, Sir."

Q.31 "What condition was Pte Timchuk in when he returned?"
A.31 "Just normal as far as I know, Sir."

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
A/Captain F.C. Whyte, Adjutant, Irish Regiment of Canada, 11 Canadian Infantry Brigade, having been duly sworn, is interrogated as follows:

Q.32 "On the night of 21/22 April can you recall any special job the Bn was called upon to do?"
A.32 "The night of the 21/22 April the Bn was ordered to relieve the Perth Regiment in the front line."

Q.33 "In the course of this relief can you recall for the Court in what order the Coys moved into the line?"
A.33 "Not the exact order, but to my knowledge it was 'D' and 'B' Coys, 'B' and 'A' Coys in that order."

Q.34 "In that case, the accused man's Coy moved well forward in the column and numerous personnel should have seen him had he fallen out by the wayside?"
A.34 "Yes, Sir."

Q.35 "Will you tell the Court where the Padre's Jeep proceeded in the column, and for what purpose?"
A.35 "It was the last vehicle in the line, behind all marching tropps, for the purpose of picking up stragglers."

Q.36 "Were any stragglers picked up by this vehicle?"
A.36 "None were reported to this HQ."

Q.37 "Did you see the accused after the Bn moved into the line?"
A.37 "Yes, Sir."

Q.38 "Will you tell the Court under what circumstances you saw the accused?"
A.38 "On the morning of 22nd April at approximately 0900 hours the accused was paraded to me by Sgt Guillaumiere. Pte Timchuk stated that he had fallen out of the line of march the previous night to adjust his pack and having done so, foundxm himself so far behind his Coy that he had lost contact with them and could not find his way to the place where his Coy was going. He therefore returned to the unit 'A' Echelon. I placed him under open arrest and told him that he would go forward to join his Coy later. The evening of the 23rd April at approximately 1800 hrs I warned Pte Timchuk that he would go forward to rejoin his Coy on the Jeep train that same night. He refused the order point-blank and subsequently did not, as ordered, go forward to rejoin his Coy."

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

A.39 "No, he was not, Sir."

Q.40 "Regarding this Jeep that was travelling behind the column, in the normal course of events would you have been notified of any stragglers picked up?"
A.40 "It is possible, but it is not necessary that they would be reported at once, but it is possible that they would."

Q.41 "When Pte Timchuk said that his nerves would not take it, was his manner defiant?"
A.41 "No, not defiant. He refused the order on the grounds that his nerves would not take the strain of war."

Q.42 "In other words you would say that the terminology of the second Charge is not accurate - that he was not defiant?"
A.42 "He used defiance in his words, but I do not think that his attitude was defiant.".

Q.43 "Had you ever heard of Pte Timchuk before?"
A.43 "No."

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q.44 "On Pte Timchuk's first being paraded to you what was his attitude at that time?"
A.44 "Very much the same as the second time, Sir, in that he said that his nerves wouldn't take the strain and that he was of no use to himself being there, nor to anyone else."

QUESTIONED BY A.D.J.A.

Q.45 "You placed Pte Timchuk under open arrest?"
A.45 "Yes Sir."

Q.46 "Did he remain under open arrest until the 23rd?"
A.46 "Yes, he had to go forward, and as we were short staffed, I couldn't provide an escort for him."

A.47 "Yes."

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q.48 "Do you remember in what manner Pte Timchuk refused, that is, what words he used?"

A.48 "I cannot quite recall the exact words. It wasn't a case of 'go to hell, I won't take the order' - he refused the order and then explained why he refused the order."

QUESTIONED BY A.D.J.A.

Q.49 "Can you remember the approximate words he used?"
A.49 "I am sorry, Sir, I cannot."

SUBMISSION BY THE DEFENCE
"As in the previous case, I contend that the Evidence given fails to establish a case of Misbehaving Before the Enemy, on the grounds that all references I have been able to find in the Manual of Military Law indicate that the term 'before the enemy' means actually under shell fire, or during an attack. It is when the actual advance takes place and not an anticipated one. The accused, according to the Evidence, was not under shell fire, nor was there an attack going in at the time. On the strength of that, I would move that the First Charge be dismissed and I will make my statements later on regarding the other Charges."

The Court intervened and requested that the aforementioned statements be made at this time, rather than later.

The Court adjourned to consider the submission.

The Court re-opened.

The Submission was disallowed and the Court requested further Evidence. The Defence is ordered to proceed.

THE COURT QUESTIONED THE DEFENCE
Q.50 "Do you wish to call witnesses on your behalf, witnesses as to character only?"
A.50 "We wish to call witnesses, but not as to character only."

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE
B.127875, Pte Timchuk M.J., the accused, Irish Regiment of Canada, 11 Canadian Infantry Brigade, having been duly sworn, is interrogated as follows:

Q.51 "Had you ever been in action before the 21st April?"
A.51 "Yes, Sir."

Q.52 "Where was your last action?"
A.52 "The Orsogna Front, Sir."

Q.53 "Was there any incident at Orsogna that particularly sticks in your mind?"
A.53 "There was an incident at Orsogna Front, Sir. The last day before we moved out of that area we were mortared and shelled and one of my partners got killed-at the same time, I was knicked in the neck by shrapnel. Ever since then I have been shaky."

Q.54 "I understand that it was a reserve position that the Irish were occupying at the time of your alleged offence?
A.54 "It was, Sir."

Q.55 "Where were you at the time?"
A.55 "I was on top of the hill on the far side, and when Jerry started to shell our position, one lit not far from where I was, killing one of our lads, and after that my mind went back to the Orsogna Front where my partner was killed. My nerves went bad then, Sir."

Q.56 "Your Regiment was engaged in river crossing scheme one time recently?"
A.56 "Yes, Sir."

Q.57 "Is there any incident that comes to your mind?"
A.57 "There is one, Sir. We were crossing the river and one boat got away from the ropes in the swift current, and the boat tipped. We rushed to help out, as we were on the land by that time. There was a lad in the middle of the stream and he was yelling for help. As I didn't have a rope to throw, when I saw him go under and come up again, I jumped in and pulled him out."

(Aside to the Court) The Defence stated that all witness to this incident were in the line, and were therefore not available.

Q.58 "Was there any recognition made of what you did?"
A.58 "I believe it was a Sergeant of the Intelligence that came up to me and asked if I was the one that pulled him out. I said that it was me and he said that he asked because of a Merit that would be given.

Q.59 "Back to the 23rd of April. When Captain Whyte told you to rejoin your Coy and ordered you to get on the Jeep train, what did you say to him?"
A.59 "I told him that the way I was feeling that I couldn't go on, and said it would be all right for him to put me under close arrest."

Q.60 "What were your exact words?"
A.60 "I was notified that I was to go on the Jeeptrain that night, and I said I wished to speak to the Captain and seeing him, told him that I just couldn't go on with the Jeeptrain in the condition I was in. He tried to persuade me and I said that I just couldn't do it."

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION
Q.61 "You actually saw shells land the day in question in your area?"
A.61 "Yes, Sir."

Q.62 "You did move off with your Coy to go into the line that night, but you stopped off?"
A.62 "Yes, Sir, I stopped to adjust my pack.

Q.63 "But you didn't go into the line?"
A.63 "No, Sir."

Q.64 "Did you notice any shelling or bombing when you went to go forward that night?"
A.64 "No, Sir, I didn't."

Q.65 "Were you ever bothered with that funny feeling previously to the time in question? Did your nerves ever trouble you previous to this incident?"
A.65 "Yes, Sir, my nerves gave me trouble before, at Orsogna."

Q.66 "Why did you not report to the Medical Officer about your nerves?"
A.66 "We moved out of the line that night and I was glad to get out of that spot and we have never been in the line since, until going to this front here, Sir."

Q.67 "When you were in forward positions, were you subjected to shelling and mortaring?
A.67 "One day we were mortared on the front there, and I dropped even though the bomb fell 500 ywards to my left. I said to the others that they didn't know the effects of being hit.

Q.68 "Do you feel better in this area?"
A.68 "I do not, Sir."

Q.69 "Does the shelling still affect you?"
A.69 "It does, Sir."

Q.70 "After you could not proceed forward, how is it that you can stay around here, where there is shelling at times?
A.70 "I can't get away, Sir. I have asked to get sent back."

Q.71 "Captain Whyte ordered you into the line the second time?"
A.71 "Yes, Sir."

Q.72 "And you refused?"
A.72 "Yes, Sir, I refused."

Q.73 "You were insolent then?"
A.73 "I just told him to place me under arrest, Sir."

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT
Q.74 "How old are you?"
A.74 "Twenty-eight, Sir."

Q.75 "How long have you been in the Army?"
A.75 "Two years this coming May, Sir."

Q.76 "When did you come to the Irish Regiment?"
A.76 "Last July, I think, Sir."

Q.77 "Have you ever been paraded to an M.O. for this nervous condition?"
A.77 "No, Sir. I paraded to the M.O. but it was not for nerves then, after I was hit on the Orsona Front."

Q.78 "At that time did you complain to any Officer of your condition?"
A.78 "[illegible] I couldn't, Sir, we were just coming out of the line, and that was satisfactory to me at the time."

A.79 "It was just that one time you were troubled with your nerves, then?"
A.79 "I was nervous before but it didn't amount to much until I was hit..The other bad shelling finished it off."

Q.80 "Were you evacuated at that time?"
A.80 "No, Sir."

Q.81 "The afternoon of the 21st when shells fell in your Coy area, how far away did these shells fall from where you were?"
A.81 "I would say between 75 and 100 yards, Sir.

Q.82 "You were on the road?"
A.82 "No, Sir, I was not on the road, I was in my trench."

Q.83 "How far away from you were the casualties?"
A.83 "Approximately 75 yards, Sir,"

Q.84 "Did you help evacuate these casualties?"
A.84 "No, Sir."

Q.85 "Did you remain in your trench?"
A.85 "I remained for some time and then came down to look at the casualty, but he was covered with a blanket."

Q.86 "You didn't see the casualties occur, then?"
A.86 " I saw the bomb hit and saw the flash, Sir."

Q.87 "In this area where you are now shells fall from time to time, do they not?"
A.87 "Yes, Sir."

Q.88 "And shells fall within a reasonable distance of where you are, do they not?"
A.88 "Yes, Sir."

Q.89 "Since the 21st of April have you had any attacks of nerves?"
A.89 "Yes, Sir."

Q.90 "Have you complained to any Officers about your nerves since the 21st?"
A.90 "No, Sir."

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

Captain Page Statten, R.C.A.M.C., attached to the Perth Regiment, 11 Canadian Infantry Brigade, having been duly sworn, is interrogated as follows:

Q.91 "You are a Medical Officer?"
A.91 "Yes."

Q.92 "Have you had any experience with personnel who have, through nervous disability and other causes, been unable to perform their duties?"
A.92 "Yes, Sir."

Q.93 "In the case of a man who does an act of courage one day and an act of apparent cowardice sometime later, would you say that it was possible that this inconsistency could be explained in terms of a mental disorder, if the individual had a severe shock in the meantime?"
A.93 "Yes, I think it could be."

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION

Q.94 "Do you know the accused, Pte Timchuk?"
A.94 "No, Sir."

Q.95 "Have you examined Pte Timchuk medically?"
A.95 "Yes, to find if he were fit or unfit to undergo Trial by Court Martial. I found him fit."

Q.96 "As far as you know, there is no mental disorder in Pte Timchuk?"
A.96 "No, Sir."

RE-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

Q.97 "In this normal check for fitness to undergo Trial, do you make any sort of psychopathic examination at all as a rule?"
A.97 "Very roughly, yes. I make myself certain that they are of sound mind so that they can fully understand the Proceedings."

Q.98 "But nothing in detail?"
A.98 "No, just a rough check."

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q.99 "Do you remember this man complaining of any nervous disability when you were examining him prior to the Court-Martial?"
A.99 "He did mention nervousness at the time, but my rough examination would put it down to the usual nervousness that accompanies men that are up for Court-Martial. Most men I have examined have been in that condition before the Court/Martial."

Q.100 "How closely related are a state of nervousness and a state of cowardice?"
A.100 "It is my opinion that cowardice is not a state of nervousness, Sir."

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE DEFENCE

CLOSING ADDRESS OF THE PROSECUTION

"If it please the Court, I have a few points I would like to bring out in closing. The Prosecution feels, setting aside all personal feeling, that the First and Second Charges have been amply proven. With regard to the First Charge: Witnesses, backed up by the admission of the accused, have definitely proven that fire was brought to bear by the enemy on positions occupied by the Irish Regiment on the day in question, and that the Regiment was advancing toward the enemy when the accused failed to show up. The Defence points out an act of bravery on the part of the accused. It hurts me in any way to take away from this act, but as I said before, personal feelings have to be set aside when justice is to be done, at times, and the Prosecution must submit to the Court that there is absolutely no proof or evidence submitted to substantiate this claim of bravery. I would also like to point out to the Court, as in the previous case, the Medical Officer who gave evidence, has stated not evidence, but personal opinion, in that he stated to the Court that he did not know the accused, and that his casual examination has revealed no serious nervous condition. It is pointed out respectfully to the Court that each and every one of us [redacted], at one time or another been afraid, but it is our duty to overcome these fears and carry on. Evidence in this case definitely proves the accused was unable to do this. Regarding the Second Charge: The Witness for the Prosecution, A/Captain Whyte, on re-examination, stated the man's attitude was not insolent. - Quite true- [redacted] the accused is not charged with insolence. He is Charged with wilfull disobedience of an order, and I think the Court will agree that when a man is given a direct order, and says, I will not do it, nothing could be more wilfull. His mind was made up, it could not be changed. I ask the Court to consider the fact that this lad was given a second change, but he still could not make it. In conclusion then, Gentlemen, the Prosecution feels that all the points stressed in the Charges have been covered and verified by reliable Witnesses, backed up by the voluntary evidence, in some evidence of the accused

The Court adjourns whilst the evidence is considered.

The Court re-opened and stated that the accused was found 'not guilty' of the Third Charge. The Findings of the Court on the First and Second Charges to be promulgated later.

THE COURT QUESTIONED THE DEFENCE

Q.101 "Do you wish to give Evidence or to call Witnesses as to character?"

A.101 "No, Sir.

(Page nine cont'd)

Documentary Evidence is produced.

THE COURT QUESTIONED THE DEFENCE (Page Ten)

Q.102"Do you wish to address the Court on the Statementand Conduct Sheet?"
A.102"Yes, Sir."

"Sir, you will notice that this man has a clean conduct sheet, that he has been in the Army for over two years and has apparently been an exemplary soldier. Although it has not been inscribed in His Conduct Sheet, there is an entry for gallantry. The Court's attention has already been drawn to an act of bravery that the accused performed. Further, I would only say that this man volunteered to come Overseas and put himself in a position where such a thing as did happen to him could happen to him, The choice was freely made, and he made an attempt, where many others have not seen fit to make the same attempt.

THE AD.J.A.'S SUMMING-UP ADDRESS AND EXPLANATION OF THE POINTS OF LAW INVOLVED.

"As A.D.J.A. it is my duty to assist the Court in questions of Law and Procedure. In this present Trial, and in the First Charge, it is encumbent upon the Court to consider first, whether or not, upon the evidence submitted, the Charge is properly laid, and secondly, if the Charge is properly laid, whether or not the accused is guilty or not guilty. If, in the minds of the Court, there is any doubt whatever as to the guilt of the accused upon the Evidence submitted, then the accused is entitled to the benefit of that doubt, and the Finding of the Court must be 'not guilty'. If, however, the Evidence on both Charges, upon consideration by the Court, leaves no doubt whatever in the minds of the Court, as to the guilt of the accused, then the verdict must be 'guilty'. I wish to draw, in the First Charge, the attention of the Court to the fact that the substance of the Charge 'Misbehaving in the Face of the Enemy in Such a Manner as to Show Cowardice', forces the Court to decide if the accused was before the enemy in the true sense of the phrase, or, if not before the enemy, then the Charge must be dismissed. There is not one explanation, either in the Army Act or in the Manual as to what is meant by the phrase 'before the enemy' but I turn to Chapter 3, Section 20 of the Manual of Military Law and I read in toto.(Section 20 is read to the Court). The examples given in the Section are to be taken as examples, and I feel that the Court can justly consider whether the Evidence upon which the First Charge is laid is analogous to the examples given, and if so, then the Charge should have been one of Desertion, and as it stands now, should be dismissed. I feel that on the Second Charge it is a question of fact and that I need not labour it now."

The Court was declared closed, the Findings to be divulged at a later date.

F-68024 CPL BLUNDEN RJ, No 9 Coy Cdn Prov Corprs, sworn, states:-

Q. Will you show the Court your paybook and show us when you were promoted to the rank of Cpl?
A. (The witness shows his paybook to the Court and says:-) I am on the strength of No Cdn Prov Coy, stationed at Milford Station; this is my paybook; the Court will note that I was promoted to the rank of Acting Corporal on 14 Sep 44, which rank was confirmed on 14 Dec 44; since then at all times I have been a Corporal.

Q. Tell us what happened on the evening of 21 Oct 45?
A. On 21 Oct 45, at approximately 2130 hours, I was proceeding up High Street in Guildford, accompanied by L/Cpl Payette when I noticed two Canadian soldiers. I stopped the jeep and got out and checked the two Canadian soldiers; I checked Timleck the accused whom I recognize in this Court for a pass; he refused to show his pass; I also asked him for his service book and he refused to show it also; the accused then told me that it would take a bigger man than me to make him produce his identification/or pass. I then told Timleck that he was under close ar-)card rest and to get into the jeep; Tpr Smith and Tpr Timleck then started to walk away; Smith pushed me about a bit with his hands; I took hold of Smith and I noticed that Timleck was pushing L/Cpl Payette and I also seen him hit Payette in the mouth, that's Tpr Timleck, Sir. I also noticed that Timleck was on top of L/Cpl Payette in the centre of the road; I gave Payette a hand by pulling Timleck off the top of Payette; we then put Timleck under close arrest and put him in the jeep.

Q. Had you previously told Timleck that he was under close arrest?
A. Yes, I ordered him into the jeep and I said consider yourself under close arrest and get into the jeep.

Q. Where were you standing in relation to Cpl Payette and the accused?
A. Three or four feet away, Sir; High Street goes up a hill and we were just at the bottom of the hill.

Q. Did you think that Tpr Timleck was drunk at the time?
A. No, Sir; he had been drinking but looked quite capable of handling himself standing at the side of the road.

Q. What was Timleck doing when he was on top of Payette?
A. He was trying to hit, whether he was hitting him at that time I don't know but his arms were swinging.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Did you ask the accused to show you his book?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did you order him to show you his book?
A. No, Sir, I told him I was an NCO in the Provost Corps and to produce his paybook and identification card.

CROSS-EXAMINATION CONTINUED

Q. You didn't give him a direct order?
A. No, Sir, I didn't say, "I order you." or/words to that effect used like, "This is an order."

Q. I notice that on the summary of evidence you didn't mention anything about the accused saying that it would take a bigger a man than you to make him show you his paybook or identification card, is that correct?
A. No, I didn't

Q. Is it true?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Was Timleck improperly dressed?
A. I cannot recall, Sir.

Q. Tpr Timleck and L/Cpl Payette were together?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did you see Timleck strike Payette?
A. Yes, before Smith and myself fell to the pavement.

Q. Will you tell the Court what happened on 21 Oct 45?
A. I was detailed for a patrol in Guildford to accompany Cpl Blunden on 21 Oct 45; at 2130 that evening while proceeding on High Street, I noticed two Canadian soldiers; Cpl Blunden stopped the jeep and got out while I remained in the jeep; I saw that they wouldn't cooperate with Cpl Blunden and I got out of the jeep and I then overheard Timleck say, "It would take a bigger man than you to put me in the jeep."

Q. Is Timleck in the room?
A. Yes, Sir. (pointing to the accused) One of them, I forget which one, said, "I'll give you two second to get out of our road!" I grabbed Timleck and he struck me with his fist in the mouth. THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTOR ON THE FINDINGS

Here again Cpl Blunden, an NCO in the Provost Corps, asked the accused to produce his paybook and identification card and he in turn refused to show it. As for the second charge, you have heard L/Cpl Payette say that one of the two men said, "I will give you two seconds to get out of my road." They tried to pass on. Payette attempting to arrest Timleck was struck in the mouth. Blunden was standing only four feet away from Timleck and Payette and he described very well what happened and he was in a very good position to see what was happening. He said that he saw Timleck strike Payette in the mouth. As for the third charge, the evidence brought out that Blunden put them under arrest and they were going to pass on and Payette admitted that he was trying to apprehend and overpower Timleck whereupon he was struck in themouth and to the ground and Timleck was on top of him and attempted to him again. Because he is on a Canada draft, I mean the accused, he is still subject to Army regulations and military discipline; it is quite obvious that just because he was on draft and had been drinking a bit, he felt justified in doing that; it still does not justify his antagonism against the Provost; he received no cooperation from the Provost who were willing to cooperate. I think that Timleck should be found guilty of all the charges.

STATEMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER ON THE FINDINGS

As regards to the first charge, I think there is quite a bit of doubt there as towhether a command was given or not; in any event the charge sheet itself says "when REQUESTED" not "when ordered". With regard to the second charge, striking a superior officer and third, resisting an escort, I am convinced that if a man goes to a pub for 3½ hours and has not eaten for some time, it is possible that he got drunk in that period. From the accused story, I am fully convinced that they were blacked out and I ask the Court to take all this in consideration before passing sentence on Tpr Timleck.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. Statement with reference to charge by accused

When I was away from my unit I did not wilfuly go awl. I missed the unit truck at 0700 hours on the morning of the sixteenth as I was not wakened in time. I reported that day to the sgt of my unit with the detachment at the Canadian leave centre. I told him that I had missed the truck and asked him what I should do. He said that there was nothing he could do. He told me that if I couldn't find the officer that I would have to find my way back to the unit. I couldn't find the officer so I went down to the petrol points and other places where I thought I could get a ride but I couldn't get one. On the 23rd I ran into Cpl Davidson of 9 Cdn Fd Amb who said that I could go back with him. His truck was in the workshops and I waited for it to come out. When it came out on the 26th we could not go back till the 30th as the roads were out. We started back for Cattolico on the 30th. I returned to my unit from 9 Cdn Fd Amb.

FGCM proceedings in the case of D-93703 Pte J L Timon, 1 Can FDS RCAMC.

First Witness for the prosecution:- P-30240 S/Sgt C P Phillips, 1 Can FDS RCAMC, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecution:-

Q-1 Will you identify yourself to the Court?
A-1 I am P-380240 S/Sgt C P Phillips, 1 Can FDS RCAMC, the senior NCO of 1 Can FDS RCAMC.

Q-2 Will you tell the court what you know about the accused?
A-2 Pte Timon was granted 7 days privilege leave on 9 Nov 44 to 16 Nov 44, 2359 hours. Pte Timon absented himself from the unit from 0900 hours 17 Nov 44 until 1200 hours, 1 Dec 44.

Q-3 Was there any extenuating circumstances why the charge reads 0900 hours 17 Nov 44 and not 2359 hours 16 Nov 44?
A-3 When another unit is supplying transport we allow the man the extra nine hours to get back to the unit.

X'd by the defence

Q-5 The accused did return voluntarily to his unit?
A-5 Yes, he reported in on 1 Dec 44 at 1200 hours.

No re-examination.

In the opinion of the Court it is not considered necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

DEFENCE

First Witness for the Defence: The accused, being duly sworn, is examined by the defence:-

Q-6 Pte Timon, why were you in Rome?
A-6 I was granted leave from 9 Nov until 16 Nov 44.

Q-7 Was this the first privilege leave you have had in this theatre?
A-7 Yes.

Q-8 Where and when were you to meet transport to your unit?
A-8 I was to meet the unit transport on the morning of the 16th at 0700 hours, in front of the Canada Club. I got there about 0840 hours. I did not get there in time because they did not wake me up at the place I was staying. I tried to get lifts at the petrol points and so forth and I asked a few officers who were in charge of leave parties but they were not able to help me. They said they would like to help me but that they were all full up. There was no room to take me back. I went to the leave centre in the afternoon at approx 1400 hours. I tried to get a ride there. I reported to the sergeant who was in charge of the section of the FDS at the leave centre. The sergeant was there. I told him what happened and he said that there was nothing he could do about it and for me to make my way back as best I could.

Q-9 Did the sergeant say he would arrange a ride for you?
A-9 No, he did not.

Q-10 Was there an officer in charge of the section?
A-10 Yes, but he was not at the leave centre he was at the officer's club.

Q-11 Did you try to contact him?
A-11 I did but I could not find him.

Q-12 After you failed to contact the officer what did you do then?
A-12 I tried to get a ride. I met Cpl Davidson of 9 Cdn Fd Amb on the 23rd. I asked him to bring me back and he said he would.

Q-13 Did you try to get rides between the 17th and the 23rd?
A-13 Yes, I did. I tried every morning and every afternoon.

Q-14 Why did you not hitch-hike?
A-14 I figured it would take me four or five days to hitch-hike and I thought that if I got a ride I could make better time.

Q-15 Did you report to the MP's?
A-15 No, I did not want to have an AWL charge.

Q-16 Why did you not report again to the sergeant at the FDS section?
A-16 I asked him once and he told me he couldn't do anything for me so I did not want to bother him again.

Q-17 Did Cpl Davidson promise to give you a ride back?
A-17 Yes, I arranged to meet him later. We were both staying at the same place. We returned on the morning of the 1st of December at 0330 in the morning. We did not leave until the 1st as his truck had to go into workshops and when it was ready the bridges were out so we could not return on the 26th.

Q-18 Did you return with Cpl Davidson?
A-18 No, I returned in the other truck. We left about 5 o'clock in the morning.

Q-19 When did you return to the FDS?
A-19 The same day.

XX'd by the prosecution

Q-20 Pte Timon, you said that the truck was supposed to leave at 0700 hours and you did not report until after 0800 hours. The truck had left?
A-20 Yes.

Q-21 You were not staying at the leave centre?
A-21 No, we had permission to stay elsewhere.

Q-22 You reported on the afternoon of the 16th to the senior NCO of the detachment of 1 FDS who were working at the rest camp?
A-22 That is right, sir.

Q-23 Can you tell me just what the senior NCO said to you?
A-23 He said "There is nothing I can do about getting you transpo back home. You have to make your own way home".

Q-24 You did not try to contact Captain Luginsky?
A-24 Yes, I tried that morning and the next morning and afternoon.

Q-25 Did you see the senior NCO of the 1 FDS again?
A-25 No,

Q-26 Did you contact the orderly room at the rest camp?
A-26 No, sir. I was not booked there so I did not have any business there in the first place.

Q-27 Did you ever contact Captain Luginsky of 1 FDS detachment?
A-27 No, sir.

Q-28 You were in Rome from 16 Nov until 30 Nov and you never once after the first day contact the Sergeant or Captain Luginsky?
A-28 No, sir.

In the opinion of the Court it is not considered necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

Q-30 Were you to remain in rome to bring these people back?
A-30 No, I was to return the next day.

Q-31 Did you meet Pte Timon in Rome?
A-31 Yes, I met him the same day I arrived. On the 23 Nov 44.

Q-32 Did he ask you for a ride?
A-32 He asked me how long I would be there. I said the vehicle would have to go to workshops. I told him I would take him back when I went back.

Q-33 When was your vehicle repaired?
A-33 On the twenty-eight. I went down to the provost when the vehicle was ready as I heard the roads were out. They siad the roads were out so I stayed that day. I left on the morning of the 30th.

Q-34 Did Timon leave with you?
A-34 No. I could not get in touch with my unit so they sent another vehicle down to pick up the leave personnel. Both vehicles left the same day. I was going to take Timon back on my truck but told him he had better go back on the other truck to protect himself in case my vehicle should break down again.

Q-35 Did you see Timon at 9 Fd Amb when you returned?
A-35 Yes.

XX'd by the Prosecution:

Q-36 You say you first saw Timon on the 23rd. Did he ask you for a left then?
A-36 He asked me if I was going back. I told him that the vehicle had broken down and I did not know how long it would be. I told him that when I was going back I would let him know and he could go back with me?

Q-37 That was on the 23rd?
A-37 That was on the night of the 23rd, and I got the vehicle back on the 28th. I had seen him around and as we always me he was in contact with me. I did not return on the 28th as the provosts told me the roads were out and could not take vehicles especially big vehicles were not allowed out. They were Okaying all passes.

Summing up by the Prosecution.

According to the Accused, Pte Timon, Sergeant Noon-Ward told him he had nothing to do with him and that he could do nothing for him. Sergeant Noon-Ward on the other hand states that he told the accused, Pte Timon, to keep in touch with him, that he could not do anything at the present moment, but he could help him in the future. Pte Timon never reported back to Sergeant Noon-Ward again. Sgt Noon-Ward states that he made arrangements to get transport for Pte Timon, but Timon did not report back. If Pte Timon had reported to Sgt Noon-Ward at any later time or to the officer in charge of the section I submit that they could have arranged transport for him and have got him back to the unit without him being considered AWL.

The unit transport left Rome on the 23rd of Nov to return the section that was on duty and he could have returned with them. He did not do so. The section was in Rome during the period 16 Nov 44 to 23 Nov 44 and I submit he could have reported there to them and have worked there and would not have been considered AWL from his unit.

Statement in Mitigation by the Defending Offr.

The accused joined the Army in Jan 23 1940. He volunteered for active service. In canada he was reallocated as a medical corps rft and was trained at the medical corps training centre. He arrived in England in Aug 1940. From the holding unit he was posted to 9 Can Fd Ambulance and from 1940 to 1942 he had a series of minor crimes and he had several privilege leaves cancelled. Like all soldiers he had made friends. He went AWL to visit his fiance. There was a FGCM at which he was found guilty and punished. After serving his punishment he returned to 9 CFA. After an escapade with other soldiers he was accused of stealing two chickens. Again he served detn. From detn he was sent to the HU and posted to 15 Gen Hosp. Sending a category "A" man to a base hosp is considered degrading by the grounds that the unit was moving to another theatre of war. 15 Gen Hosp arrived in Africa. After ariving in Africa he again asked for a transfer to 9 CFA. He had several crimes while in Africa. If you remember 15 Gen Hosp was located quite a distance from a leave centre and when a person went down there there was always tpt difficulty getting back. 15 Gen Hosp came to Italy last July and set up in Casserta. He asked at various times to get back to the 9 CFA and through a minor offence was brought before his CO and took this opportunity of asking to get back. He was posted to a HU at Avellino. From there be was posted to 1 FDS just before Can Corps went through the Hitler line. He remained with the FDS through the Hitler line and after that the unit went to rest. Privilege leaves were laid on and as there was a surplus of personnel they had to leave the unit before getting leave. The accused applied for leave at Avellino and as he could not get it he again went AWL. After returning to the HU he was posted to 24 Fd Ambulance before 5 Div went into the Gothic line. Through a minor injury he was evacuated and he come to the 1 FDS and he remained with them from that time. Privilige leaves were laid on and he was able to get away to rome on leave.

D.J.A.G.

He was very happy in his unit and he is very happt to be in a field unit. He was trying for a year and a half to get back to the field His was not an intentional AWL. He reported to his section and through some misunderstanding he did not go back again. He finall contacted a solder he knew. Rome is a fairly large place and very difficult for a pte soldier to get around. In view of his previous punishments and AWLs he knows that he is guilty of a crime and did not want to contact the MPs. He had considered that he would be able to get back to his unit. While the accused was away the unit was in rest and when he returned they were still in rest.

ADDRESS DEFENDING OFFICER

Sir the witness is was brought in this afternoon to show certain discrepancies in evidence brought forward by the prosecution. It has been shown that the evidence of the witness Pte. Maitland was wrong when he stated that the accused was without doubt alone. It has also not been shown conclusively that the accused was placed under arrest properly and escorted to the orderly room at 2345 hrs on 11 Sept. 42. There appears to be some irregularity which raises the question that the accused might not have thought himself to be under arrest. The accused has made no statement Nothing has been said by the accused or on behalf of the accused that he did not leave the billet area at 1400 hrs but the witnesses produced by the prosecution have not upheld a very clear picture of everything that occurred on that day. I wish to draw attention to the Court that the charge as written varies in evidence regarding question of time. The accused is charged with being absent until 2230 hrs and the prosecution does not give any time between 1600 2345 hrs

REPLY BY PROSECUTING OFFICER

Sir, the slight discrepancy in the time as stated in the charge and referred to in the evidence is slight and quite within the limit of individual impressions. Whether the accused is not being tried as it has been established by the evidence of Sgt Heathcote, Pte Maitland and Pte Wilson that the accused left the barracks area at approx 1400 hrs on 11 Sept 42. Now L/Cpl Mooney at that time Pte Mooney states clearly and emphatically in the court that he told the accused he was under arrest and that he accompanied him to the Orderly N.C.O. I feel that the evidence is clear that the accused was under arrest and knew himself to be so, and that he left the billet area again at approx 0630 hrs 12 Sept 42.

The accused in mitigation of punishment says:— "Due to the fact that I had no leave for seven months, ~~(or hands in a written statement, which is read, marked signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings)~~ and could see no leave coming to me for at least six months, and due to the fact that I had undergone 7 odd punishments per 21 days, I got fed up and ran away. With regards to first charge, I had a brawl & to blame equipment and after I got through Ballaarat & left Ballaarat at 10.0 I have had only three leaves since November 1940."

Instruction.

Re: Pte Timm F.M. C 30130
S. D. & H. Highl's

I am pioneer officer for the S. D. & H. Highl's. The a/m soldier has served under me in a theatre of operations. I found him to be reliable and an above average soldier under fire. His conduct was good and I would be very willing to accept him under my command at any time.

Lieut. J. V. Andre.
S. D. & H. Highl's.

Plea in Mitigation

Gentlemen,

Pte Timm is on charge before you for being drunk. [redacted] I would like to make this plea on his behalf because I am personally convinced that he deserves to be treated leniently by this court.

Drunkeness is an offence with which I normally have little sympathy. However due to the circumstances in this case I believe that the court should be sympathetic to the defendant. Pte Timm is a soldier who has had long service in the Can. army. His work has always been good and he has proved himself in battle. The statement of his platoon commander speaks for itself. In action you could not find a better man. Unfortunately, Pte. Tims has a bad habit of getting drunk occasionally. This is a habit which some people find difficult to break. Pte. Tims is one of these people. Nevertheless it has never interfered with his work either in civilian life, or he held a responsible job or in the army.

After five years in the army a man is entitled to celebrate when the war finally ends and he can envisage himself going home. On the very same day Pte Tims committed the offence of getting drunk, people the world over and in every regiment in the Can. army were doing likewise. Why he should have been picked out among all the thousands and brought before you I do not know. Surely it is understandable that a man should want to celebrate at a time like that - particularly a man who has been through the thick of it and has earned the right to celebrate.

Gentlemen, before you stands a man who volunteered to serve his country. He gave up a good job and five good years of his life to help to bring this war to a conclusion. Now all he wants is an opportunity to return to Canada where he has a job ~~waiting~~ and many friends waiting for him. Surely in view of the circumstances of the case you will deal leniently with the accused and not prevent his early return to Canada to which he is entitled due to his high priority.

In conclusion I would like to say that Pte Timm has impressed me with the fact that he sincerely regrets his offence. If given fair treatment by this court I am convinced that both he and the Con. army would benefit.

I ask you to consider the Time's long service; his willing and good work in the army; the time at which the offence was committed; and finally the advisability of the defendant to get home as quickly as possible. If you will consider all these factors You convinced that you will be reluctant in handing out your punishment in case of the Time.

Statement re General Character of C30130 - Spr. Timm, F.M.

I have known Timm's Father for many years and have known of Timm's home life. He comes of excellent parents with good upbringing and education. He has held several good positions in civilian life.

His conduct sheet of course gives a record that no one can be proud of. I believe that these entries are due primarily to too much liquor and not any desire on Timm's part to deliberately commit any offence.

I have found him quite truthful and he has a good deal of ability.

EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER (IN MITIGATION) NOTE E-1

1st WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE AS TO CHARACTER

Capt J.D. Bryce on strength of No 1 CERU having been duly sworn states:

In 1943 I was 2 i/c of No 2 Tunnelling Coy. Spr Timm came to us in March 43 and remained to September 43 during which period he was a willing and efficient soldier with us. Sir, I know nothing of his record before or since. He was never up for Orderly Room during that period.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED (IN MITIGATION) NOTE E-3

Sir,

I came over in 40 and I joined the Tunnelling Coy in Aug. I was posted out to the Fld on coastal defence. I was with them for quite awhile travelling around the coast and I came into Headquarters. I was posted out to bomb disposal and while I was out on bomb disposal I was up on the East coast near Yarmouth and at that time, September, a draft for Gibraltar had left and I was left behind. I figured my job was every bit as important at that time so I came into Headquarters again. I was lying around for some time doing nothing and the inactivity was hard on me, Sir, and I got restless and fed up, and so I took to drinking a bit. When the boys came back from Gibraltar they transferred me to No 2 Tunnelling. I got along very well at No. 2 Tunnelling but there was a surplus of miners and they sent me to the Holding Unit. I tried every possible way and made every effort to be placed on a draft. I even went as far as to try to be transferred to a more active unit but it was the same answer, no. My trade of miner held me back. I was kept in reserve. It was quite stagnant around here and I got restless again so they sent me over to No 2 Construction Coy and there my trade didn't fit in so they sent me to No 2 CBRG so that I would get on a draft to France. With all my hopes and aspirations I was left behind again. I was just the overflow, in fact I never even left camp at No 2 CBRG in the hope of getting on. When I got back to the Holding Unit I was so mentally depressed that I took to drinking and got drunk and stayed drunk. I surrendered myself and went back to my unit this time. I am unmarried. I am a metalurgist in civil life. I worked with the Department of Mines and Resources at Ottawa. I have an excellent record all the way through civil life. I have my matriculation. Sir, I would like to make one last plea. I would like to get to France before this is all over.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

PLEA IN MITIGATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER NOTE E-3

Sir,

Judging from the prisoner's record he is of a nervous type, quite restless, easily upset, and he has undoubtedly tried to get overseas a good many times. I think he tried to bring out the point that he has done his best to do an active part in the war itself but has been turned down on several occasions due largely to circumstances, not to himself. He is twenty-nine years old, category "A". He is a miner "B", driller "C", a pioneer "C", an operator SEC "C", and also a driver "IC", five trades which are engineer trades. It has been proved by Capt

Of Course we can't be sure of that, but I would like to see that he is given the chance.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....(5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. No (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (no) opening address.(1)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. Evidence on Oath. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. Yes. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans. Yes.

(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

I have been with Bn Cas Coy since 12 Jul. 73 approx. On 17 Dec. 44 I got a 48 hr pass. Ex. "A" is the pass. It expired 2359 hrs 19 Dec 44. While on pass I had a bad cold. I had the cold when I left the unit. While proceeding on leave it developed to a worse stage. I had to stay in. This was in Brussels where I went because I had some friends there. I did not know any body in Brussels. I stayed in Brussels until 20 Dec 44. I stayed with some friends in Brussels. They looked after me. I did not see a Med. Off. or Civilian doctor. I thought I would be well enough to return from day to day. I got back on 30 Dec 44 and reported to Lieut. Bole at Main Bn Coy Office. I explained the reason I was late and handed in my pass. I told him that while away I was sick but failed to report to a M.O. I was put under open arrest until following day. Since then 31 Dec 44 I have been under close arrest.
Cross Exam.

while in Ghent my friends wanted to call in a civilian doctor but I told them I did not think it was necessary M. as I would be alright to return to my unit on following day. I was not sick in bed. I did not try to get in touch with my unit. I know that on back of pass it states, if sick, you should report to a M.O. I knew that there are Med. Units in Ghent.

I have been in Army since 8 Sep. 72 and Overseas since 1 Apr. 73.

I left unit in a 60 cwt and went to Brussels. I went by train to Ghent. I knew my pass was made out to Brussels. I did not report at Leave Centre in Brussels. A C.S.M. of R.C.E.M.E. ~~told~~ gave me permission to leave from Canada Base the Leave Centre. He did not give me permission to go to Ghent. I figured I could go any place in area of Brussels. I did not know that unit by troops are not allowed.

Address by Prosecuting Officer.

Sir,

The accused states that he was given leave to Brussels and instead of staying there proceeded to Ghent which shows that he must have had an intention of living A.W.L. as a pass to Brussels does not give him permission to go anywhere but to that city. In doing this he was taking the chance of not getting back to Brussels or to his unit.

He also states that he took sick and was unable to come back yet he did nothing about it by getting in touch with his unit or calling a Medical Officer either civilian or military. He thought he would be better from day to day but this went on for 12 or 13 days until he was taken ill.

* * *

In summing up all the evidence I find the accused knowingly was absent from his unit without leave and I think there should be no doubt in the mind of the court that the accused is guilty as charged.

SUMMING-UP /- DEFENCE

Sirs:

It is a [redacted] axiom of law that there are two elements in every crime - (1) the physical act and (2) the intention. Although I am not going to talk law as that is the province of the J.A., I have deliberately brought this to your attention in this case for it is my submission that the accused did not form the intent to go absent without leave.

I respectfully wish to bring to the attention of the court Pte. Timmings own statement. You have seen him and have heard him tell a straightforward story and I am sure that you cannot but be convinced of his sincerity. Let me capituate what are, I submit, the real facts: Timmings wished to go to Ghent but instead was sent to Brussels. He left at a time when he had a heavy cold and after the long cold drive in the back of a 60 cwt felt miserable. Knowing nobody in Brussels he decided to go to Ghent where he had friends -- a family whom he had met while stationed near there. When his illness got no better, these people looked after him. Granted he should have called in a medical officer or a civilian doctor, but reasonably enough he thought each day that he would be able to go the following day.

Now Sirs, I again want to stress Timmings whole attitude. When he reported back to Camp he told Lt. Bake that he was late and that he had been too ill to travel. Certainly this is not the attitude of a man who wished to lie about his absence. I submit that Pte. Timmings never had the intention of going absent without leave and since he did not have the intention that there is no offence, and consequently must be dismissed.

Referred because AWL 14 days after he should have returned from leave and because his officer stated that he at times had shown evidence of mental imbalance. Is reported to be a good workman.

Denies early timidity, instability, anti-social activity or alcoholism.

Passed grade viii at 15. Employed 11 years as driver and salesman for a fruit merchant. Subsequent occupational history rather shifting. Not married but lived with a common-law wife for two years before enlistment. States wife has drawn no allowance since he joined the army except for the two children.

States he has had only minor crimes previously. Was to have received good conduct stripe last September but has never received it. States that he spent his 48 - hour leave in Ghent instead of Brussels and while there took ill. Was afraid to report to an MO and stayed away for two weeks. States he was not aware that this was a serious offence or would lead to an FGCM.

Admits he is rather excitable and irritable at times. Admits that he has had some arguments with his officer but seems surprised at officers statement re his conduct. States there is no hostility between them and that he has always tried to please the officer and thought that he was doing so. Feels there has been no change in his conduct in the past few months.

Impression: There is nothing in this man's history to indicate any psychopathic tendencies except possibly his rather unsatisfactory employment just previous to enlistment and his unconventional domestic arrangement. There is no clear-cut evidence of maladjustment in the army previous to recent misdemeanour other than occasional outbursts or irritability, particularly after drinking. His present tension and anxiety are probably due to present situation. The most unusual features of his present reaction are his vagueness, apparent lack of insight and failure to justify or rationalize his actions in any way. (These may be due to reticence regarding his true motives.) Otherwise he shows no abnormal reaction.

Diagnosis: Situational anxiety.

STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT

Gentlemen, you have heard Lt. Black, the accused's platoon officer tell you that he was a conscientious and honest workman and that the only offences he committed were petty ones of a minor nature. This is corroborated by his MFM 6 which is before you. Outside of one 28 days forfeiture of pay, Timmings has nothing in his sheet which could be called serious, until the present. I would also ask you to note that this is his first trial by court martial.

You have heard Lt. Black say that he had no trouble with the accused up until August of 1944 when he started to get obstinate. Sirs, I am suggesting that the change in the accused's attitude was due to two causes: (1) worry over family matters which I understand are being looked into and (2) natural resentment at not getting his good conduct stripe when he was entitled to it.

Timmings was given a psychiatrist's examination a short time ago in an effort to determine if his troubles were partly from mental cause but as you can see from the copy of the report there is not much evidence.

Gentlemen, I would ask that you take into consideration the fact that Timmings is not a young man but is almost 37 years old. He has served in the army since 8 Sept 1942 a great deal of his overseas service being with his present unit. Because of his previous comparatively clear crime sheet, I respectfully suggest that a lenient sentence would do more to make this man a better soldier than a harsh one.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of evidence in the case of H.102217 Pte Timmings, J.J. 2 Cdn Corps Car Coy (RCASC), Canadian Army Overseas, charged with:

(a) Absence without leave from 2359 hrs, 16 Dec 44 until 2330 hrs, 30 Dec 44 (A.A. Sec 15(1).

A.20104 Sgt Robbins, W.T., 2 Cdn Corps Car Coy (RCASC), sworn, states:

I am A.20104 Sgt Robbins, W.T. of 2 Cdn Corps Car Coy (RCASC). The accused who I now recognize as H.102217 Pte Timmings, J.J. was granted leave from 14 Dec 44 to 16 Dec 44. He failed to return at the appointed time, 2359 hrs, 16 Dec 44. He was not seen by me until the morning of 31 Dec 44. At the morning roll call during his absence I called the name of the accused and he did not answer.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

Lieut L. Bake, 2 Cdn Corps Car Coy (RCASC), sworn, states:

I am Lieut Bake of 2 Cdn Corps Car Coy (RCASC). On the night of 30 Dec 44 I was seated in "A" Platoon Office when the accused, Pte Timmings, J.J. entered and presented me with his leave pass which I submit marked as Exhibit "A". Pte Timmings reported to me at 2330 hrs, 30 Dec 44.

The accuseddeclines to cross examine the witness.

.....L. Bake.....
(Signature of Witness)

The accused was warned as follows:

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence".

The accused elects to make a statement on oath.

The accused, H.102217 Pte Timmings, J.J. having been duly sworn, states:

I, H.102217 Pte Timmings, J.J. was granted a forty-eight hour leave pass from the said date, 14 Dec 44 to 16 Dec 44, proceeding to Brussels. On arriving in Brussels there was nobody there that I knew. I knew some friends in Ghent so I proceeded to Ghent. While proceeding on this leave I had quite a cold which developed into a worse stage. I overstayed my leave with the said people owing to the fact that I did not feel well enough to return. I failed to call in an M.O. and I did not go to see one. When I felt better on 30 Dec 44 I returned to my unit at 2330 hrs. I reported to Lieut Bake at Car Coy Office. I gave him the statement that I was absent and handed in the pass for which I was told that I would be under open arrest until I was called. I have witnesses to the effect that I was sick and unable to return to my unit.

.....J.J. Timmings.....
(Signature of the accused)

I certify that R.P.4 has been complied with.

I am Platoon Officer of No. (Transport) Div Tpo Coy. R.C. Timmins was a S.R. of 2 Lt. of that Platoon. I took over the platoon during the first week of February & have worked with him since then. I would say that he had discharged his duties very well as a S.R. ~~He has~~ My views on this particular man are that I consider he has done a good job and has been efficient. My only fault to find with the accused is that I think he was in with the wrong company. When he is given a job to do he will do it well, but it appears that after his work is done, he gets into company that isn't desirable & that's where the trouble starts.

Q. by prosecution. - I take from your remarks that Timmins was not altogether satisfactory.

A. His daily work was satisfactory but after hours he caused trouble.

Q. Does he drink to excess.

A. It is not to my knowledge.

Q. Is he reliable?

A. In his work yes

Q. And after work?

A. I would say, not as reliable.

Q. by court. Is by duty your group referring to him as being reliable during working hours?

A. There is a group of 4 or 5 who is a bad influence in this platoon & when he gets with them after hours he may get into trouble.

PLEA IN MEDIATION F.G.C.M. B46534 Pte GORDON LEONARD TINDALE

COTEAU BARRACKS
TROIS-RIVIERES, P.Q.

This soldier enlisted in Dec 1940 and came overseas in Dec 1941. He is now only 20 having said he was older in order to join the army. Since he came overseas he has seen about 6 months in the field and has been instructed in M.T. work at 4 CIRU having successfully passed courses in Oct 42 & Apr 43. Soon after he arrived in England he became friendly with a young lady & later got her into trouble. A baby was born in Feb 43. He applied for permission to be married in June but because of the delay he got a court license, under the circumstances, & was married on 24 July 43. When he returned he took steps to have the permission to marry granted and produced some of the letters of recommendation & doctors certificate etc. but the forms were not completed. Dr Riddle his wife and mother in law threatened to take the case to court & wrote to Ldn HQ. Apparently this letter did not bring any action. Tindale was given leave in October and while visiting his wife discovered that she had been placed on a year's probation for stealing a pair of shoes because she had no money. There was a considerable amount of blistering scurrilly from his mother in law regarding his not supporting his wife. Mention was made that the baby would have to be adopted by some one who could look after its welfare and Tindale did not take to this suggestion. He has since received a letter from the family solicitor asking him to sign papers for the adoption of his child by an uncle. His reaction is that he wants if possible to look after the child & bring it up with his wife provided the dependents allowance can be arranged.

Tindale is still very young. Before he came overseas he had a motor cycle accident at Grimsby, Ont & suffered head injuries which have since brought on frequent headaches. He was examined at No 1 Neurological Hospital Basingstoke in 1942 & 1943 when treatments were prescribed for his nervous conditions but which he did not receive. A letter from CO 11 H.Q. dated 31 May 43 recommended his transfer from 4 C[illegible] to the R Corps because of "chronic anxiety neurosis". This transfer was made in June 43. Pte Dale's crime sheet is not good but I believe that this has been caused by worry over the mix up he has made of his family affairs because of his youth. The fact that he is not supporting his wife & child causes him to brood & worry and because the Pathetic hopelessness of the case he went AWL. He finally realized that this action would only bring more trouble on & returned voluntarily on 3 Feb 44.

I would ask the court to be lenient in this case and ask that a recommendation be made to have steps taken for the completion of the required forms so that Dale's wife can receive the dependents allowance for herself & the child. With this worry off his mind the accused would no doubt be a better soldier. He is still shown at 64 A but in view of the above report it would appear that he should be re boarded or given treatment.

1. The F.G.C.M. proceedings of the marginally named are attached hereto.

2. You will observe what the accused says in mitigation with respect to the consent to his existing marriage. During the proceedings I took occasion to bring in the Pay Sergeant, and he informed me that the accused was indebted to the Government in his open account in a sum in excess of $280.00. I also called in Captain Donnelly, his present O.C., and he informed me that the application for the consent had been for some time awaiting the production by the accused of a medical certificate to the effect that his wife is free of venereal disease. Captain Donnelly further informed me that he had properly read correspondence by the accused, first with his wife to the effect that he wished to have nothing further to do with her, and second with another woman that he would like to extend his relations with her. He is, however, actually married to his present wife, and they have a child. I suggest that the accused should be paraded, given notice in writing that the delay in application is caused by his failure to produce the said certificate, and pointing out that if he doesn't produce it that he will have no one else to blame but himself. This will stop him from misrepresenting the position as he did to me on the day of the trial. On the other hand it would appear probable that insufficient attention has been paid to his application for consent, and generally I am of the opinion that it might tend to improve his attitude if his application for consent could be expedited.

Trial of B.46534, Pte. G.L. Tindale, 4 C.G.P.C.

Note E-3

Statement by the accused:-

I made my first application for permission to marry immediately after coming back from being married in August, 1943. That was held up because I had been in hospital and the hospital were trying to determine V.D.G. That held up the papers at that time. In any event this condition cleared up.

Later, about October 1943, I made further application for permission through my Company Commander, Major Gooding of 4 C.G.P.C. on a new form. Major Gooding went away on a course. I saw the papers with the Unit subsequently. They didn't go out of our Company office. After Major Gooding had gone away I saw Captain Donnelly. He said he would 'phone up the local officer and I didn't hear anything further about it for a while. About the middle of November, I asked Lieutenant Craven what was being done with my application. He said he didn't know anything about it and they wouldn't have to pay my wife until they got good and ready to pay for it. My wife was bound over on a years probation charge with stealing a pair of shoes. I found out about this about the end of October. My mother-in-law wanted her brother to adopt the baby. I think in November I saw the Paymaster about my application for marriage. He said he could put it through for me. I asked if I could assign $20.00 a month. He said I couldn't. He said the Army didn't consider me married. Inever told any of my officers about the incident of the pair of shoes. I don't think they have heard about it before. My wife is now 20 years of age. It is my child. I last saw my wife in October. I wish to continue to live with her and to get consent to the marriage. My wife is working in a wool factory. She lives with her mother and step-father in Radcliffe, Lancashire. I have about $200.00 deferred pay. I was buying War Bonds up until last October, $100.00 worth and they are paid for. I come from Toronto. My parents are alive. They are separated. I was living in a Working Home in Toronto when I enlisted. I went through Public School. I worked for Diamond Limited in Toronto, lithographers, before I enlisted. I am category "A". I was very happy when I was a motorcycle instructor at 4 C.I.R.U. and at 1 C.D.I.R.U. I think I would feel all right again if I had permission of marriage and Dependent's Allowance paid to my wife and assigned pay to her, and if I were back with my own Reinforcement Unit instead of in the Pioneer Corps.

PROCEEDINGS.

A. Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this Twenty-seventh day of April, 19 42.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of Royal Canadian Artillery 2 Canadian Division, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *[and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer.]

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank

* Omit if not applicable

*(1. ~~Three Officers to form the Court~~)

In my opinion, military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units, and difficulties of communication, and other difficulties, render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of these rules inconsistent with appendix "A" to S.R.O. 772 on the trial of the person named in the annexed schedule.

Question: Give your evidence.
Answer: I'm not just sure of the date Capt. Pegg reported to me the report of a loss of a barrel of mead.
The mead had been left by Mr. Wilson on requisitioned property.
The approximate date was the 6th or 7th of February.
Question: When did you next hear about the mead?
Ans: When Capt. Risley of the Provost Company came in and produced a letter telling where the barrel of mead was hidden.
I took along the Bty. Capt. and demanded of Tinderland that the barrel of mead be produced. This was done.
Ques: Where was the barrel of mead found?
Ans: In one of our stores.
Ques: Who has access to these stores?
Ans: The Q.M.S. and the storeman, Tinderland.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Question: This letter told where the mead was?
Answer: Yes, that it was in the stores.
Ques: You asked the storeman where it was?
Ans: Yes.
Ques: You said it was hidden. Was this because something was on top of it?

Question: Was any part of barrel visible?
Answer: No.

Ans: Yes, I do.
Ques: Did you have a barrel of mead in your surgery?
Ans: Yes, I did.

Ques: Did you recognize this as your own barrel of mead?

Ans: I don't know.

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

Question: Are you going to lay any civil charge?
Answer: No. I consider the matter closed as far as I am concerned.

The third witness, Capt. Pegg, D.M., 108 Cdn. A.Tk. Bty, 2 Cdn. A.Tk. Regt, RCA, having been duly sworn, states:

Question: When did you first hear about barrel of mead?
Answer: About two weeks after moving in about 31 Jan 1942.
Ques: Give your evidence in the case.
Ans: Our requisition included Wingrove House with one main building and all the out-buildings. At time of requisition we assisted Mr. Wilson to move his personal effects by supplying fatigue parties. On the date our troops moved in, on 31 Jan. to the best of my knowledge, all of Mr. Wilson's effects had been moved with the exception of some portable chicken houses, quantities of bottles and bundles of newspapers piled at rear of main building. Consequently, with Mr. Wilson's consent, we moved our troops in on this date. First heard of barrel of mead approximately two weeks after this date, when Mr. Wilson approached me and stated that a barrel of mead which had been left in one of the outbuildings had been removed. I drew to Mr. Wilson's attention at that time, that this was the first time I heard about the barrel of mead. These outbuildings of which there are five, we had planned to use at a later date. I knew they contained quantities of bottles and papers but that was all, to the best of my knowledge. This was reported to Major Quigley. I next heard of a barrel of mead on 18 March when Capt. Risley of 2 Cdn. Div. Provost Corps called and handed a letter to Major Quigley. I was present when Major Quigley interviewed Gnr. Tinderhand, whose christian name is Louis. Major Quigley, in my presence, ordered Gnr. Tinderhand to take us to the barrel of mead.

Question: When you walked into store, could you see barrel of mead?
Ans: No, I could not.
Ques: Was this the letter (Exhibit "A") that Capt. Risley brought in?
Ans: Yes, this is the letter.

(Letter submitted as Exhibit "A")

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Question: This room Mr. Wilson refers to as surgery was a part of requisitioned property. Was there any doubt about taking it over?
Answer: There was no doubt whatsoever. All buildings on premises were requisitioned.
Ques: Did Mr. Wilson make any mention of barrel of mead?
Ans: No.
Ques: Was there any unpleasantness between Mr. Wilson and yourself? Did you think he was friendly to the Battery?
Ans: I think his feelings were lukewarm to Battery.

EXAMINED BY THE COURT

Question: What was the building in which the mead was found, used for?
Answer: It was used for engineer's stores.
Ques: Did you examine the door to the building that was alleged by Mr. Wilson to have contained the mead?
Ans: Yes.
Ques: Could you state whether it had been forced?
Ans: No.

13

The fourth witness, M131 R.S.M. (W.O.II) Sharp, F.E., 108 Cdn. A.Tk. Bty., 2 Cdn. A.Tk. Regt., RCA., having been duly sworn, states:

Question: In what capacity has Gnr. Tinderland been employed since mobilization?
Answer: As a storeman for almost two years
Ques: What has been your employment?
Ans: I was B.Q.M.S. for 18 months.
Ques: Does the large "L" in signature of Exhibit "A" look like signature of accused?
Ans: I wouldn't say for sure.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Ques: Did I understand you were B.Q.M.S. before being R.S.M.?
Ans: Yes.
Ques: Accused was your storeman?
Ans: Yes.
Ques: Do you know him quite well?
Ans: Yes.
Ques: What kind of a man is he?
Ans: He is trustworthy and reliable.
Ques: Did you ever know him to do a dishonest act?
Ans: No.
Ques: Did he ever drink?
Ans: I've never known him to be intoxicated and if he drinks, it must be very slightly

NO EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

The case for the Prosecution was closed and the defence made a motion to have the case dismissed on the ground that no prima facie case had been established.

Points brought out by Motion of Defense:

(a) A letter has been produced in Court supposedly written by accused.
The only evidence of this is that it is signed "Louis" and no one has been able to identify it.

(b) Gnr. Tinderland, when ordered to take Major Quigley to the barrel of mead, did so willingly. The mead was in the storeroom and it is to be expected that the storeman would know of its existence there. No evidence has been given to show Gnr. Tinderland put it there.

(c) I maintain the Prosecution have made no case of stealing against the accused.

(d) I also maintain that the Prosecution have not proved that this letter "Exhibit "A" was written by the accused, or even if it was, how the statement mentioned could be construed as conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline.

The Prosecutor submitted no new evidence.
On the request of the Court the Prosecutor recalled Major Quigley.

EXAMINED BY THE COURT

Question: Tell the Court all you know of this letter, Exhibit "A".
Answer: This letter was shown to me by Capt. Risley and as Mr. Wilson had reported the loss of the mead, I called my storeman whose name was Louis and ordered him to show me where the barrel of mead was.
Ques: There is a 2nd A.Tk. Regt. Orderly Room stamp on the envelope. Was that there when Capt. Risley gave you the letter?
Ans: No.

Question: When was it placed there?
Answer: I reported this matter to Regtl H.Q. and when I next saw the letter, it was stamped with the Orderly Room stamp.

7. The Court is closed for finding.

8. The Court is re-opened.

9. The Court uphold the motion of the Defense and the finding of "Not Guilty" in all charges is read in open Court and the accused is Honourably Acquitted.

We are stationed at a very english and very small village. 3 Pubs., 1 chemist, 2 butchers, 1 Green grocer, and 3 gen. stores, 2 Cafes and 3 Hotels, plus about 50 houses that's the Village. No show, no dances no social centre, just the Y.M.C.A. for the troops, when films are shewn by the "Sally Ann" once a week. But there is large and small cities not far in the distance, a bare matter of 3/4 hour Bus-ride, so we can do our shopping, seeing shows and amuse ourselfs there. Just the same, I like this place and will be sorry to leave, - if and when...

I run about 2 miles every morn. to keep myself in shape, as otherwise I don't get any exercise. I look after myself good, and consequently haven't had a Cold this winter.

Civilians here are used to the unheated rooms, not so us. Most of us huddle in front of fireplaces when comminit to do so. I, and another chap, the one that lives with me, we have one nice room over the Stores. I think we're probably the best fire-place in England. It goes day and night, so we dont suffer from cold days. And of course I'm a heater in the R. N. Store. Perhaps you know this chaps father. His father is Harry Platt from N. Van., used to Longshore with the Empire up'til about 6 years ago when he got to be an inspector with the Govt. for fruit and vegtables. Still visits the ships, I suppose. This boy's name is Gordon Platt, and i/c of the technical Store for our Battery.

Hallo Fred.

Thanks a lot for the lb. of Fine Cut Tobacco and the letter I received from you a while ago. I know I ought to have written before, but I keep on putting things off, mainly because I am quite busy here, - and you know how it is putting things off; they never seems to get done. In fact I've kept very well this winter, I've put on quite a bit of weight, in spite of the army food. Am heavier now than when I joined up as a matter of fact. This winter has been one of the severest on known in England. Freezing at nights, and cold wind at daytime, not much snow though as most days are clear.

A STATEMENT ON OATH by the Case of [illegible]

Lieut. L.A. Robson is directed by the O.C. 2 Cdn. A.T. Bde. to take an abstract of evidence in connection with D.R.P. 77720

FIRST WITNESS - Mr. C.A. Wilson of Alfriston, Sussex, stated:

The 10C Cdn. A.T. Battery requisitioned my property, WINDROVE COURT HOUSE, the latter part of January. Captain Pegg sent some soldiers to my house to assist me in moving. I had moved everything but two chicken houses and some [illegible] at the time the house was taken over.

At this time I asked Capt. Pegg for assistance in moving the contents of my cellars to a safer place. Chicken Houses. He replied that he would be about at the time and help me with this work in the morning.

As the help was not forthcoming, by our Senior Officer, I eventually got my cellars cleared out. I found that the barrel of Mead which I had left there was missing.

I immediately found Captain Pegg in the R.C.A. Stores and reported my loss to him.

At a later date the barrel of Mead was returned to me and I considered the matter closed.

SECOND WITNESS - Capt. D.H. Pegg, 10C Cdn. A.T. Bty., 2 Cdn. A.T. Bde. Regt. R.C.A. stated:

WINDROVE COURT HOUSE, including all outbuildings was requisitioned by 10C Cdn. A.T. Bty., R.C.A. and occupied by troops on 31 Jan 40. Previous to moving in we had given assistance to Mr. Wilson, owner, by way of fatigue parties to help move his furnishings.

On the date of the move some portable chicken houses were still in the garden and large quantities of bottles and papers were accumulated outside the back of the house. Other than these [illegible] effects and I understood that all of Mr. Wilson's had been removed with the exception of items covered by the requisitioning. Consequently with Mr. Wilson's consent we moved the troops in on this date.

Approximately two weeks later Major Quigley, [illegible] looked out outbuilding along with [illegible] bottles and stacks of paper, [illegible] removed. Examination showed the door [illegible] to use but outbuilding is one of two which we [illegible] had not formally required. It is approximately 6 - ft. by 10 Ft. in size. This was the first time I heard of the existence of the barrel of Mead which Capt. I pointed out to Mr. Wilson at that time. I reported this matter to Major Quigley. I heard about the barrel of Mead was on the afternoon of 16 Mar 40. I was present when Capt. Risley of 3 Cdn. Div. Provost Coy. called at our Orderly Room on that date and handed Major Quigley a letter returned by courier which a barrel of mead was referred to. Capt. Risley

Prosecution

I am Pte Capell S. M. 48th Highs Comde. a transport driver: I identify the accused Pte Tingley. On my tour of duty 2 Mar. I was making my rounds on guard. As I came up to the corner I heard a scraping of metal. The corner was approx 60 yds from the transport office. This scraping drew my attention to take a quick look reading my rifle I approached the trucks; there I saw the accused standing by the right front door of the third truck was open. I gave him the challenge he did not answer. As I approached closer he then asked me if the password was "Coffee & tea" to I said "I did not make any difference I wanted to know what he was doing around the truck" At his feet there was a bag; at that time I did not know what was in the bag. Then he said "Good show" and started to walk away. As I was by myself I could not do much about it so I called two of the Ordnance Corp. guards which helped me take him to the Ordnance Corps Guard room and we left him in charge of the Ordnance Corps. It was a fairly dark night. The accused wore a dark cloak that came down to his knees and a balaclava. The driver of the truck he was near was Pte A.E. Smith. I left the bag of rations where it was until after the accused was in the guardroom then I and the R.S.M took the bag of rations to the guardroom. I saw what was in the bag when the R.S.M dumped it out and there was a coil of rope, rations and a sweater.

Q I produce Exhibit A to D. Do you recognize this sweater?

A It was a brown turtle-neck sweater similar to this sweater.

I could not identify the rations.

The accused did not appear to be drunk, he walked and talked alright. I was certain that the bag of rations which was at the accused feet was the same bag I took over to the RCOC guardroom. After I saw the accused in the guardroom I can recognize him now as the same person. I was certain that the man we apprehended was the same man I found at the door of the truck I had seven or eight vehicles to guard with a beat of 70 to 80 yds. It would take three minutes to go from one end of the beat to the other. The truck was at the end of the beat. There was very little traffic or no traffic on the street at this time

Cross-examined by the Defense.

Q Did the man you saw at the cab that night have anything in his hands or anywhere about him which did not belong to him

A No sir.

Q How far away from his feet was the bag

A Right beside his feet.

Q How long were you away from that bag with the accused before you came back to it.

A Approx 15 minutes

Q Was that man out of your sight at any time until you overtook him.

A No sir.

Q Did you at any time accuse the man of taking anything

A No sir!

Q But as you thought he was taking something

A Yes.

Q But you did not actually see him take anything

A No.

Q. Had there been any stealing going on in the 48th Highrs that you know of.

A Only from the trucks.

G 47354 Pte Longley J. E. being duly sworn

I am the accused Pte Longley J. E. a member of Motor Platoon Canadian York Regt. On the night of 2nd Mar. I was in Ortona. I was in Ortona with a few of the boys, having had a few drinks. I do not remember the exact time I started for my billets but I was walking along the road towards H.Q. Units I heard some body shouting: I did not know they were shouting at me at the time and they came up to me shouting at me to stop. I thought at first it was only a joke and they fired a rifle at me or in the air. I asked them what they were trying to do and they said they wanted me to go back with them. I was quite aware I was a bit abusive I did not think I should be taken. They took me back to the Ordnance Corp guardroom. A C S M brought a bag in and asked me where I got it I told him I had never seen it before and the C S M took my name and number and I remained there all night and the 48th Provost took me into the 48th guardroom and I was returned to my Company under open arrest.

Cross examined by Prosecution

Q Are the events of that night clear or hazy in your own mind

A The events I outlined were very clear

Q What part of Ortona were you drinking with these men

A. I cannot say not being familiar with the streets

Q How long did you live in Ortona while at all

A. Only a short time in the outskirts

Q. Were you wearing anything not army uniform at that time

Q Did you have permission to be in Ortona that night

A. Yes sir.

Q Do you remember being near any vehicles during the time you were drinking

A Yes sir, I remember being near vehicles

Q. Were these vehicles anywhere near the location described by the witness in the case.

Closing address by Defence. Dr

The man is accused of stealing or alternatively of being in unlawful possession of public property. The Prosecution has definitely failed to prove that he was at any time in possession of any of the articles which he is supposed to have stolen.

The only article identified as being in the bag, of which he was in possession is a sweater which he is not accused of stealing, the theft of which [illegible] cannot be denied, he proved to the Court that he never saw either Spell or this bag of goods until apprehended and taken to the Guard Room.

It was a dark night and Spell although he went for help, says he never lost sight of the accused. That, Sir, is ridiculous.

It has been shown that Pte Ivy is a good, trustworthy soldier and is of great value to the army. To convict an innocent man of a crime like stealing would be very harmful to the army at this time and alone all would probably ruin the man for life. I strongly feel, Sir, that the man should be acquitted.

Closing Address of the Prosecutor D3

in the case of

G 27354 Pte John Edward Tingley

The evidence adduced from the witnesses in this case is summarized hereunder:

1 The accused was found at the open door of a truck belonging to the 48th Highlanders of Canada. At his feet was a pack of rations which had only been in the car. When challenged by the guard he gave answers to questions. That was natural since he did not know the reason for being there at that time. He was dressed in a black cape which would assist, not only in hiding his identity, but would aid in blending with the darkness of the night. Hence he kept his presence to the guard.

2. The accused resisted arrest. This would indicate that he had something to fear from questioning. A man with the northern spear does not resent questioning.

3 The accused was not drunk. While he may have been drinking, his actions would indicate that he still had possession of his faculties and knew what he was doing. In fact all his reactions throughout the events of the evening were perfectly logical, unlike those of a drunken man.

4. The rations produced before the Court have been identified as those which were left in the car of Warwick on the 2nd of March, and which were found in a sack at the feet of the accused that night, and stood disguised beside the open door of the car. It is inconceivable that anyone but the accused placed them there, when all the evidence is taken into consideration. Is it likely that the victims were placed in the sack in the brief interval that elapsed between the challenging of the accused and the consequent apprehension, and the recovery of the sack by Pte Capell and the R.S.M. of the R.C.O.C.

5. The accused admits being in Ottawa that night without leave; he admits being dressed in a black article of clothing which fits the description of the one worn by the person found at the side of the truck in question; he remembers very clearly the events of that night which are not incriminating; and claims no knowledge of what happened before the apprehension. However, on cross-examination he stated that he definitely was not near the vehicle in question. It is evident that he remembers just what he chooses to remember.

Summary of Evidence in the case of G 27354 Pte John Edward Tingley, a soldier of the Carleton and York Regt, Canadian Army
Overseas CMF ~~charged with stating~~

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness for Prosecution B 72647 Pte Capell G.M., 48th Highlanders of Canada, having been duly sworn, states:

"On the night of 2 March 44 I was on guard over our trucks which were parked outside the Transport Office at Ortona. At about 2200 hours, I heard a noise near one of the trucks. I found the accused, whom I now recognize, at the cab of the truck. The cab door was open, and there was a sack of rations on the ground at his feet.

"When I challenged him, he said, 'I know the password is sugar and tea'. I demanded to know what he was doing around the truck. He said 'It's a good show', and started to walk away. As I was by myself, I called on two other guards of the RCOC workshops nearby to assist me. We caught up to him and he still wouldn't come to the guard room. However, after some persuasion, he did come to the guardroom of the workshops.

I then went to where the bag was left, and looked in it. There was nations, a sweater, and a coil of rope. I turned the box over to the provost of the R C O C. There was no indication that the accused was drunk. At the time, he was wearing a black cape over his uniform. The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

G M Capell.

A 59408 Pte Ochman, S. J. R C O C; 2 C I B Workshops, having been duly sworn, states:

"On the night of 2 Mar 44 I was a guard with Pte Canham. At about 2200 hours, we were asked to assist a guard of the 48 Highlanders, who was having trouble in apprehending a soldier. We ran up the road to catch up to him, and ordered him to halt. He halted for a moment, muttered a few words, and began to walk away again. When I saw that he was not going to halt, I fired a shot in the air. After some hesitation, he accompanied us to the guard room. The man was the accused whom I now recognize. He appeared to have been drinking but I would not say that he was drunk."

Question by accused: "You say I kept mumbling all the time?"

Answer: "You said so much that I can't remember your exact words."

Question by accused: "Where were you when you fired the shot?"

Answer "I was about three yards away from you on the road south of Orsogna."

Question by the Accused "How far from Jasper Junction were you at the time?"

Answer "We had to run some distance, but we were not out of the town limits."

J. J. Ochman

Third witness for the Prosecution L 84016 Pte Cameron, D. RCOC, 2 CIB workshops having been duly sworn, states:

"On the night of 2 March 44 I was on guard with Pte Ochman. At about 2200 hours, we were called on to stop the accused, Pte Tingley. He was down the road a few yards, but we caught up to him. Pte Ochman ordered him to ~~stop~~ return to the guard room. After refusing several times, he decided to head back to his barracks. Pte Ochman fired a shot to try to persuade him to come back with us. We took him to the unit guard room. I would say that he had been drinking, but he was not drunk."

Question by accused "How many yards down the road was I?"

Answer "I can't tell you the distance"

D. Cameron

Fourth witness for Prosecution B 2823 L/Cpl Templeton J. R. RCOC on strength of the 2 CIB workshops, having been duly sworn, states:

"I then went to where the 48 Highlanders parked their vehicles. The guard and I examined the sack left by the accused, and found rations, and a sweater in it. The sack had been left by the open door of the cab of the truck.

"After I saw the bag and the contents, and heard the complaints of the guard of the 48th Highlanders, I called our Orderly Officer of the day, who ordered me to hold Pte Tingley in close arrest. The man was quite abusive at the time, but was not drunk."

Plea of Mitigation in the case of C.4743 Pte. Tinney, N.F.

President and members of the court.

Pte Tinney pleads guilty to the charge of A.W.L. and as a soldier of long standing that he is he stands ready to accept his punishment. However in arriving at the sentence I would ask the court to review the past service of the accused very carefully.

The accused is 41 years of age. He served 18 years in the Permanent Force of Canada, in the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery as a bombadier. He enlisted on the 13th of September 1939 and arrived in England in December of that year. During his service in England he has one charge, in 1940, and two charges in 1942. That is all that is on this man's sheet in over five years of service during this war.

Pte. Tinney came to Sicily in July 1943 but on the way was torpedoed and returned to Algiers, his party was brought back and went into action with their Regiment, The P.P.C.LI. at D plus three. Fought through the Sicily campaign, and then landed in Italy with the invasion forces in the straits of Messina. He was wounded at Vincetura, in the hospital for eight days and then back into action with his regimer He has fought through all the battles that his regiment was committed during the Italian campaign. During this time the accused had Malaria twice but refused to leave the line for treatment.

After all this fighting the accused was given his first leave in this theatre in January of this year after the regiment had come out of the line for the last time. He went to Rome with a party of nine men with a corporal in charge. The corporal left with five of the men two days before the expiration of the leave and as all the names were on the same warrant the remainder were unable to get authorised transport back to the regiment. So he hich-hiked back up to the fron t but was unable to locate his regiment. Then he very foolishly, as he has told me in his own words returned to Rome. Where they spent a few days seeing the sights. He then realised that what he was doing was wrong so he went up to Leghorn to see if his Regiment were embarking from there. He was told by Americaan Police that his regiment was likely down in the south and that it had probably left the country. So he then beat his way down to this camp and turned himself into the Regimental police here.

About the previous charge of A.W.L. in 1942 I think I should enlighten the court. The Accused Divorced his wife in 1940. His four children were supposed to have been taken care of by the Army Welfare Branch. In 1942 he was informed by his mother that his children were not in the shelter where they were supposed to be being taken care of. He asked for leave on compassionate grounds at that time but it was refused and was promised that an investigation was being made. However no word was received by the accused so he tried to get home and staighter things out on his own hook. He was unable to get back so he returned to his Unit. I would like to inform the court that since the date of his divorce in 1940 he has not received one word about his children other than the letter of his mother's telling him that the children were not being taken care of. His chances for rotation leave at the completion of the five years and four months was prejudiced because of his past three crimes.

The accused has informed me that he is anxious to get back to his regiment and fight and I beleive the court would only be fair in giving this man with such a long and good service record a very light sentence and let him get back to his regiment and take up where he left off.

I also bring the attention of the court to the fact that the accused holds the 1939-43 Star and the Long Service and good conduct medal for 18 years P.F. Service.

The accused Pte Tinney has had an unhappy life. His father was gassed in the last war and became such a physical wreck that the accused left home at the age of 11 to find work. He has therefore had very little education and not much parental guidance. When he was 15 his father died and shortly afterwards his mother remarried. The accused could not get along with his step father and went back to work in the mines. Against the advice of his mother he married a girl whose family had a bad reputation and by her he had three children.

The accused came to this country with the 49 PER early in 1940 and [redacted] years as his conduct sheet shows he got into practically no trouble and did his job in a soldierly manner. In the spring of 1941 the accused was suddenly paraded before the unit paymaster and asked to sign over the dependent allowance to the Childrens Aid Society of Belleville. You can imagine his feelings. He immediately tried to find out what was happening at home. Before he had received a reply his brother who was with an AA Bty near London Eng was killed in an air raid. He then heard that his wife had left his children and was living with another man. Up to this time the accused had been living a very quiet army life but he decided that if his wife could play around so could he. He got into bad company and became involved in a civil charge for which he received quite a stiff sentence.

When he was released he was sent to the holding unit where he continued to receive disturbing reports about what was happening to his children. While at the holding unit he applied for transfer to the R.C.E.

where he believed his training experience would be of some value. Just as he was expecting his transfer to come through he was without any explanation at all shipped off to the R.H.L. field unit. This coupled with a letter he had just received telling him that his wife had the children broke with, how caused him to go AWL. When he surrendered he was fined £2 before an FGCM which awarded him 120 days detn. While he was awaiting transfer to the detn barracks in the Unit Guard Room, opportunity presented itself for him to escape in the form of a wide open door with no guard. As he felt that he had been very severely dealt with in view of his trouble at home and here, he decided to walk out. After he had been away some time, one morning he saw a policeman checking army personnel for passes, and that he wanted to wipe the slate clean, so he gave himself up.

Although his worries at home are far from cleared up, as his most recent letter from his mother states that his wife is now living with an RAF man, the accused assures the court that this is his last offence and the only thing he desires is to clear up his troubles at home and to get back to soldiering with a chance at active service with the least possible delay

Form for Assembly and Proceedings of Field General Court Martial on Active Service.

PROCEEDINGS.

On Active Service, this Twenty-ninth day of OCTOBER, 1942. — Order convening the Court

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of FOURTH CANADIAN INFANTRY BRIGADE Canadian Army Active., on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *[redacted]

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit if not applicable.

[redacted]

In my opinion, military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units, and the difficulties of communication, and other difficulties, render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of those rules inconsistent with Appendix "A" to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the person named on the schedule.
