SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of B-38184 Signalman TINSTON, David Cyril, (Royal Canadian Corps of Signals), on strength of the No. 1 Canadian Line of Communication Signals Unit, attached to No. 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the A/Commanding Officer, the summary of evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution

Detective Constable S. Mascall, of the Hampshire Joint Police Force, stationed at Farnborough, Hants., having been duly sworn states:

" I am Detective Constable S. Mascall of the Hampshire Joint police Force, stationed at Farnborough, Hants. At 11 a.m. on Friday, 16th July 1943, I was making inquiries in Deverille Camp, Cove, when I came to my knowledge that Signm. Dukelow had been found in unlawful possession of a revolver. I took possession of this weapon and found that an attempt had been made to obliterate the numbers in two places, but the third set of numbers, which were not exposed to view, had apparently been overlooked and were still readable. I made inquiries and found that Signm. Dukelow had purchased this revolver about three weeks previously from Signm. Croft. I interviewed Signm. Croft who made a statement admitting selling the weapon to Signm. Dukelow, which I produce (Appendix "A"). As a result of this statement I made further inquiries inquiries and interviewed Signm. Label at Eordon Camp. At first he denied all knowledge of the revolver and of the transaction relating to it. I questioned him further and he then admitted seeing the revolver. On Tuesday, 27th July 1943, in company with Sgt. Latta of the Canadian Provost Corps. I visited the Canadian Detention Barracks, Headley, where I saw Signm. Tinston. I informed him that I was a police officer and that I was making inquiries relative to a revolver which had been found in possession of Signm. Dukelow and which I had reason to believe he knew something about. He denied all knowledge of the revolver. I cautioned him and he stated that we had got the wrong man.

On Saturday, 31 July 1943, I again visited the Canadian Detention Barracks at Headley in company with Sgt. Latta. A military identification parade was held and Signm. Croft was able to pick out Signm. Tinston as the man who had sold him the revolver. Signm. Label then entered the parade room and identified Signm. Tinston as the man he had seen with the revolver. The number of the revolver was 926620.

S. Mascall
(Detective Constable S. Mascall)

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS for the prosecution

C-31808 Sigmn. Label, A., on strength No. 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:

" I am C-31808 Sigmn. Label, A. (ROCS), on strength No. 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit. One night, I don't know the date of it exactly, I came into my hut, Spider 3 Room 5, and I saw Sigmn. Tinston with a revolver. He was fixing it, and he had it apart. I had been drinking that night. As I was sitting on the bed, I took it for granted he wanted to sell it, from something we were talking about or something. That night I approached Sigmn. Croft and asked him if he would like to buy a pistol. Well, he said something about he could sell it, but not right now. About three days later Sigmn. Croft happened to mention that he had bought the pistol and I took it for granted that he had bought it from Sigmn. Tinston. A few days later I left for C.B.G.D., Bordon, and I had forgotten about the whole thing when Captain of the Provost and the C.I.D. man called for me and spoke about a pistol and I made a statement I thought was true (Appendix "B"). Sigmn. Tinston returned from Headley and was posted to L. of C. Signals about September 15th, 1943, where I was stationed. I spoke to him about the pistol. He told me that the pistol wasn't his that night, it belonged to a fellow who was going on draft and he had to take it apart and fix it for him.

A. Label
(C-31808 Sigmn. Label, A.)

The accused elects to cross-examine this witness.

QUESTION 1: Can you identify this pistol as the pistol I had that night?

ANSWER 1 : I'm pretty sure it isn't because when I walked in here and saw the pistol on the table, it looked very different to the Army Pistol. The pistols we had were different somehow. The butt was corrugated. I think I would have noticed the smooth butt.

QUESTION 2: Do you know anything about pistols?

ANSWER 2 : Nothing at all. I've only fired them once.

A. Label
(C-31808 Sigmn. Label, A.)

THIRD WITNESS for the prosecution

B-52023 Sigmn. Croft, C.D., on strength of No. 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:

" I am B-52023 Sigmn. Croft, C.D. (ROCS), on strength of No. 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit. I Can't remember the date, but it must have been about 1st July 1943. Sigmn. Label came up to me and asked me if I knew anywhere I could sell a revolver and I didn't at that time. He approached me two or three times asking me the same question, and then Sigmn. Tinston approached me about the same thing. I recognize the accused as Sigmn. Tinston.

Sigmn. Dukelow asked me if I knew where he could purchase a revolver and I said I did. He asked that I get it and he would buy it from me. I went to Sigmn. Tinston and told him I had found a purchaser for a revolver. He went to his kit bag and got one and handed it to me. I took the revolver to Sigmn. Dukelow for which I got three pounds ten shillings (£3-10-0). Before this Sigmn. Tinston told me that he wanted one pound (£1-0-0) for the revolver and that I could have any amount of money over that sum which I sold the pistol for. Directly after the sale of the revolver to Sigmn. Dukelow I went right to Sigmn. Tinston and paid him one pound (£1-0-0). The rest of the money I kept. This arrangement was satisfactory to Sigmn. Tinston.

x C. D. Croft.....
(B-52023 Sigmn. Croft, C.D.)

The accused elects to cross-examine this witness.

QUESTION 1: Were you drinking that night?

ANSWER 1: No, I was sober.

QUESTION 2: Is there anyone you have ever taken for me in the camp?

ANSWER 2: No.

x C. D. Croft.....
(B-52023 Sigmn. Croft, C.D.)

FOURTH WITNESS for the prosecution

B-102257 Sigmn. DUKELOW, Charlie, on strength of No. 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit, a Soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am B-102257 Sigmn. DUKELOW, C., on strength of No. 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit. On or about 2 th July 1943 I had made enquiries about purchasing a pistol. I had heard Sigmn. Croft had one to sell. I asked him if he could sell me one and he said yes. I bought a Smith & Wesson .38 calibre pistol from him for £3-10-0. I recognize the pistol now present as the one I bought from Sigmn. Croft by the filed serial number on the butt, the filed serial number on the cylinder and the two small filings on the hinge of the cylinder. I now see that the number on the pistol is 926620.

C. Dukelow.....
(B-102257 Sigmn. Dukelow, C)

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

FIFTH WITNESS for the prosecution

B-34012 A/Sgt. MC GRATH, J.M., on strength of No. 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am B-34012 A/Sgt. McGrath, J.M., on strength of No. 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit. I have been employed in Q.M. Stores since June 1942, and at other units in Q.M. Stores previously. I recognize Smith & Wesson .38 calibre revolver, no. 926620 as the property of the Canadian Government by the broad arrow and the "C".

J.M. McGrath
(B-34012 A/Sgt. McGrath, J.M.)

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The accused was cautioned as follows:- "Do you wish to make any statement or give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

"I am B-32184 Sigmn. Tinston, D.C., on strength of the No. 1 Canadian Line of Communication Signals Unit, attached to No. 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit. I wish to state that I have no knowledge of this pistol or of selling one to Sigmn. Croft, but there was a pistol I fixed for a fellow who was going on draft. He had it apart and couldn't put it together and I put it together for him.

About four weeks ago I was in Spider 3, Room 2 when Signm. Label, A. spoke to me and asked me if I knew anyone who wanted to buy a revolver as his chum had one to sell. I told him that I did not know anyone who wanted one. He inquired two or three times after that but I still did not know of anyone who wanted one. About three weeks ago Dukelow came up to Dolville Camp from Pepper Harrow and he asked if I knew of anyone who had a revolver to sell. I told him that I did. I went to the fellow who had the revolver, I don't know his name, and got the revolver from him. I told him that I knew someone who wanted one and he told me that I could have all I could get over one pound (£1.0.0.). I sold the revolver to Dukelow for three pounds, ten shillings (£3.10.0). Plea for mitigation of sentence
Sgtmx. Tinsdox, S.C.

Whereas the a/m sgtmx. is being tried by Field General Court Martial at #1 C.E.R.U. this 14 Jul 43, and whereas he is pleading guilty to two (2) charges of being A.W.L. from #1 C.S.R.U., Lieut. R. Charles of #1 C.S.R.U. do hereby plead for mitigation of his sentence for the following reasons:

1. Sgtmx. Tinsdox has, as will be attested by his M.F.M.G., committed no major crime during his Army Career. He has been found guilty of a number of minor misdemeanors for which, in his own mind he had just cause. This is the result of insufficient and improper training, inspection and advice in the Army. He was not adequately informed of the advisability of following the course of duty.

2. The immediate reason for his recent absences without leave are consequent upon three refusals of leave, with no apparent or given reason. His last privilege leave was in Nov. 1942. He applied for leave in March, April and June and each time was refused, being given no reason except that leaves were not being granted. For this reason he took his leave irregardless, if he had sufficient money to do so.

3. He asked for a transfer to Infantry and was refused.

4. On the occasion for which the first charge is being laid, he received a cheque, and as it was too late to apply for a week-end, he left on Saturday afternoon, hoping that his absence would not be noted and intending to return Sunday night. He did not find it possible to return until Monday morning, when finding that he would be punished in any case, he determined to leave again the following morning, as he knew that now it would be sometime before he saw the outside of barracks again. When his money was gone, he surrendered and was returned to his unit to face punishment

3. Sigmn. Tinston is a despatch rider and intend the service with an active career in view. He has been known as a good worker with his machine, and a good rider. His desire is to ride.

However, since February, when he came to this unit, he has had one week on his motorcycle - on a large scheme. Other than that he has had no riding at all. As in the case of scores of others in the unit in the same circumstances, he has been very dissatisfied and followed the course of numerous other D.R.s.

4. When Sigmn. Tinston returned to the unit from Detention Barracks, where he spent a great deal of his time in the parade square and the rest on fatigues, he found that instead of being allowed to ride and do his job again, he returned to the parade square and innumerable fatigues and sundry tripling duties.

Again, as in the case of the rest of the despatch riders who are penalised and awaiting posting, he was given just cause for discontent.

This situation, incidentally, is the result of insufficient equipment for continued training of qualified men, and is unavoidable at the present time. The problem of keeping these men occupied is acute.

5. While Signor Tinston was in detention his own pay was cut off but his assigned and deferred pay continued on with the result that, when he was released, he found himself almost hopelessly involved in a debt which was forced to repay to the government. Under these conditions it is not surprising that he felt that an addition to this debt would scarcely alter his plight. Hence his increased lack of self-control when he opportunity to go P.W.L presented itself and seemed attractive.

6. Signor Tinston feels that he has had a number of unjust and unfortunate circumstances in his disfavour.

He has not had the benefit of certain "treats" that are allowed and favours granted for satisfactory conduct to the average soldier. His career has consisted of a series of disheartening setbacks in the last 6 months. Each has added to his discontent. He has not had adequate opportunity to reconstruct his way of behaviour and life - and had little desire to do so, as a result.

His present attitude seems to be that he has involved himself too deeply in the past, that he has forfeited enough money, and that it would pay him well to do his duty as laid down and to try to extricate himself from his poor record and wipe off his debts for time wasted in detention. He has assured me that he does not see any advantage in his former behaviour and that he intends, on release, to make an honest attempt to soldier to the best of his ability.

7. One further assertion by the accused that speaks in his favour is that he wishes to continue in the Army, to perform his job, and to be sent to the Field. Here he will lead an active and interesting existence. He is not like a number of others who, in the same circumstances, feel that the Army has nothing but fatigues, regimentation and restrictions to offer them, and who are willing to go to almost any leg he to get a discharge or release from service. The accused wishes to remain in the Army, and to do a job of work — particularly that for which he has been trained.

He feels that he has wasted enough time in the past and wishes a chance to show that he can be a good soldier.

For these reasons, sir, and from the advice of others who have told me that the accused is competent to do a good job,
I plead for mitigation of the sentence in order that he may return as soon as possible to the proper fulfillment of his duties.

TRIAL OF

F-35923 PTE TIPPING ED CIC - 11 CDN REPAT DEPOT

PROSECUTION

FIRST WITNESS

F-82334 PTE GALLANT EJ, "B" Wing, 11 Cdn Repat Dep, sworn, states:-

Q. Will you tell the Court in your own terms what happened on the night of 19 Aug 45?

A. At about 2100 hrs I was lying on my bed when Pte Godin and Pte Tipping, the accused whom I recognize in this Court, came in together. Both men came over to my bed at one end of the hut, a Nissen hut, and they started to talk to me. Pte Godin remained talking with me while the accused walked toward the centre of the hut and started to throw a mess tin, a water bottle, a drinking mug, a drinking glass, some kind of a brick which he threw at the windows, different windows, three windows. At the same time he was saying he was practising playing ball. Pte Godin started to talk to me after that; I'd say it was about 2230. I think he went out and came back in and sat down on my bed and the Orderly Sergeant walked in.

Q. What was the conversation before this throwing started?

A. I don't think anything was said. I can't remember just now as I forget.

Q. Did you think the accused had been drinking?

A. I think, yes he was drinking; I don't know how much. He didn't appear to be drunk.

Q. Can you describe to the Court your impression of the accused's intentions while throwing?

A. As far as I know he was practising playing ball.

Q. Can you give the Court any opinion regarding the direction and his accuracy of aim at the object that he threw?

A. He got up to the centre of the room where the stove is and he started to "fly" at the windows; some did hit the windows some didn't.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Have you know Tipping very well?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Have you ever seen him drunk?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Would you know how he acts when he is drunk?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Did he appear to throw these things deliberately or just playfully?

A. He was laughing all the time and was playing ball; that's all I know.

Q. Will you tell the Court in your own terms exactly the happenings as you saw them on the night of 19 Aug 45?
A. At about 2300 hrs, on 19 Aug 45, I visited Nissen Hut No D-15 and found twelve panes of window glass broken and the glass lying on the floor of the hut. These panes were small panes.

Q. Were they on one frame?
A. No, Sir, there are four panes to a frame. Twelve panes were broken in all in three different windows. On the floor there was a broken drinking mug and one large meal plate.

Q. Where were these articles in relation to the windows?
A. The dishes on the floor were not near the windows. I saw the accused, Pte Tipping whom I recognize in this Court at the time. I asked him if he had done that and he said, "No". After questioning some other soldiers in the samehut, he was arrested.

Q. Why did you visit that hut?
A. On the occasion of taking the tatoo roll call as Coy Orderly Sergeant that night.

A. Yes, Sir, twelve window panes were broken; one pane is 18" x 6" and is valued at 3s.4d and for the twelve the cost of replacing them is £2 exactly. THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

STATEMENT BY THE DEF OFFR ON THE FINDINGS

On the evening of 19 Aug 45, as a result of having been in the canteen from shortly after opening time until closing time, and having consumed quite a lot of beer during this time, he seems to have become quite drunk resulting in his becoming playful and lively, so he naturally thought of his favourite sport - baseball. During the period when he was in this happy frame of mind his enthusiasm overcame him andnot realizing what he was doing began to practise baseball by throwing the nearest object to him, which happened to be the articles mentioned in the summary of evidence, thus causing damage unknowingly to public property. Such was his condition that he did not realize what he had done then nor has he since been able to recall his actions. All he knows about the happenings of that period is what he was told when he awoke in the Guard Room the next morning. On being stopped, by Pte Godin, his mind was diverted from baseball and it was then directed to food, as the mind of a drunken man may be diverted, so he left the hut and got some. It is very plain that these actions on his part were commited during a period when he was drunk and unable to control himself.

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTING OFFICER ON THE FINDINGS

I'd like the Court to bear in mind at this point that the case of the prosecution rests on the evidence of two witnesses who are reliable witnesses and who said that the accused had been drinking and that they didn't consider him sufficiently drunk to be non compos mentis.

THE COURT CLOSES

THE COURT RE-OPENS

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT BY THE DEF OFFR

Pte Tipping enlisted in the Cdn Army at the age of 18, while he was too you young for overseas service. After completing his basic and advanced training he was employed as a GD soldier until he was old enough for overseas service.

He was sent overseas where he completed his final training before being posted to the NOrth Nova Scotia Highrs on 6 Sep 44.

He performed his duty in the field with this unit faithfully until on 12 Oct 44 he was wounded in the ankle and evacuated to hospital, where on his recovery, he was medically boarded and his Pulhems Profile was altered to "1A". He volunteered for CAPF on 26 May 45. Since then he has been employed in the UK as a GD soldier. His manner is quiet and retiring and his record has been quite good. The accused by his own admission has been quite happy in the army and has never had any reason to cause any physical harm. He is, at times, inclined to be playful. He has played baseball and hockey but his activities along the lines of participating in his favourite pastimes have been curbed by the fact that his ankle causes him great pain when over-excited.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of No. F. 35923, Private Earl Douglas TIPPING, Canadian Infantry Corps, 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on Oath.

FIRST WITNESS: No. F. 82334, Private GALLANT, E.J., "B" Wing, 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot having been duly sworn states:

About 2100 hrs 19 Aug 45 when I was lying awake on my bed in Nissen hut D-15, "B" Wing, 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot, I saw No. G. 18888, Pte. Godin, S. and the accused whom I recognize as No. F. 35923, Pte. Earl Douglas TIPPING of 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot walk into the said hut together. They both came over to my bed and talked with me. Pte. Godin remained talking with me while the accused walked toward the centre of the hut and deliberately threw a water bottle, a stone, a drinking glass and a drinking mug at the windows at the end of the said hut breaking twelve panes of window glass saying at the same time "I am practicing playing ball". Godin stopped the accused. Godin and accused went out of the hut together and later returned with some food on a plate. I do not think he was drunk though he appeared to have been drinking alcoholic beverages.

EJ Gallant Pte.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

On the floor of the said hut were one broken mug drinking crockery large and one broken plate soup large. The accused whom I recognized as No. F. 35923, Pte. Earl Douglas TIPPING of 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot was then in the said hut. I asked him who was responsible for this damage. He replied that he did not know. As a result of further questioning of other soldiers in the hut the accused was then placed in arrest.

HM Knox L/Sgt.

THIRD WITNESS: Lt. J.A. Stouse, Barracks Officer, "B" Wing, 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot.

A written statement of this Witness's evidence purporting to be signed by him has been read to the accused and is included in the summary of evidence, as Exhibit "A". In my opinion the attendance of this witness cannot readily be procured owing to the exigencies of the service.

E.J. McCormick

First witness for prosecution. H 19527 SGT MAC BEAN A.L.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

I am a member of No 4 Provost Coy
At about 2300 hrs on 16 July 1942 I had been patrolling up town in Lewes and returned from billets Wharf Haulk Malling St Lewes. I found a crowd of soldiers gathered in front of our billets. I found them the members of 6 Fd Coy R.C.E. Causing trouble
I asked them their reason for gathering there. L/Cpl Tisdale (who I can identify) spoke up asking me what fucking business it was of mine and asked "Who are you anyway?
Hold him I was a Provost Sergeant.
Him and his mates laughed at me.
Seeing that I could not do any more by myself I called all available men
I had in our billets, five men & beside myself. I then ordered the Civilian to move on, they did not comply with my orders. A Civilian then drove up and wanted to pass but could not do so as members of the R.C.E were blocking the street

ordered them down off the street but they took no notice, they did not comply with my order. Ordered my men to place them under close arrest. When placing them under close arrest they resisted and offered violence. We were able to place five of those present, but many more who got away, but we arrested four and took them down to the police station. They were held in the police station until released by their unit at about 0130 hrs 17 July 1942

Q How many more than four were present at this time?

A When I first spoke to them there would be fifteen or eighteen there

Q. Did they all join in the resistance of arrest.

A. It was a case of free for all. Some of them got away.

CROSS-EXAMINED.

Q. Did you observe any indication of drunkenness

A. There was an indication of drunkenness.

Q. Did you see them run?

A. Not personally but they had passed us several times from time to time.

Q. Did you draw your gun at any time?

A. Definitely not.

Q. Did you kick a man?

A. Definitely not.

Q. How dark was it at this time?

A. Rather fairly dark you could recognise a man at fifty feet.

BY THE COURT:

Q. What do you mean by offering violence?

A. When I first came under ~~fire~~ close quarters my men used force and Sisco took a swing at me and one of his men took a beer bottle and was going to hit me with it.

Q. Can you swear that all these accused took part in the brawl?

A. Sisco and Tisdale I can swear to. The others were there when they were arrested by but I cannot be sure that they actually took part in the brawl

Q. Was there any hitting?

A. Yes with fists only. My men hit out after I had ordered them to arrest these men & after the engineers had hit at them.

Q Do you remember having had specific difficulty in arresting any of these men other than Sisco and Tisdale?

A. No except that we had to help them get into the truck, we had to take them by hand. They did not climb in voluntarily

ROLE OF PROCEDURE 83(B) COMPLIED WITH.

SECOND WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION. L22858 L/Cpl ZARBROOK. T. having been duly sworn states:

I am a member of No 4 Provost Coy I was returning from Court Police in town on 16 Aug 1942 and I entered our barracks at about 2300 hrs and noticed quite a few soldiers standing around outside. Sgt McBean had come in a few minutes ahead of me and I accompanied him outside. He asked the soldiers what they wanted around the billets at that hour of the night. The answer he got was "Who the fuck are you?" Sgt McBean's answer was "I am a senior NCO and should be respected as such." There were a few snickers and laughs. Sgt MacBean called out the rest of the boys that were in, when he came out again he asked the soldiers in the street if they were going to leave. I did not hear any answer given to that. There was a scuffle back. Saying to pass and they moved out of the street. Sgt MacBean then ordered us to put the soldiers in the street under arrest. I was standing behind Sgt MacBean while he was talking to Spr Sisco. I saw Sisco strike at the Sergeant. The Sergeant staggered back and I stepped in and hit Spr Sisco. I must have hit him two or three times I think. When that was over most of the fighting that had been going on was over two. Sgt Mackean then ordered two to put their soldiers in the truck and he took them up to the Lewis police Station and then returned to our billets.

Q. When Mackean first spoke to the men who was it that answered?

A. Pte. L/Cpl Tisdale who I can identify.

Q. How many soldiers were in this fight?

A. I would say about 10 soldiers when the fight started.

Q. Was there any un-cleanliness on the part of these soldiers.

A. Yes sir. I would say that they had been drinking.

Q. What sort of violence was used by the Provost.

A. Fist their fists.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Was it unusual for men to be in the street?

A. At that hour - nothing about the Barracks, yes definitely unusual, they were spread out along the street.

Q. How did your knuckle get sore?

A. When I struck him with my fist I did not kick him.

Q. Was this a civilian truck you speak of and where was it going?
A. It was a civilian vehicle going out of Lewis.

By The Court

Q. Did you see any of these men except Soto - Officer Tisdale resisting arrest?
A. No. I can't say I did.
Q. Can you identify any of these men other than Soto & Tisdale as having been in on the fight.
A. No I can not.
Q. Can you identify any of these men as having been in the crowd outside the house before the trouble started?
A. Yes Officer Russell & McKeiver.
Q. Do you know the 5th man at all?
A. No I don't.

F. 77488 L/Cpl HOLLINGSWORTH. S.T. having been duly sworn states:

I am a member of the No 4 Provost Coy. While coming off the Newtownards police into my billet I saw a number of boys standing outside my billet. Late L/Cpl Haggarty called me out as there was a disturbance outside. I went out to clear the boys; put them in a lorry and took them to the police station and returned to my billets.

I have no idea how many soldiers were outside the billets. We had to force by place those men under arrest. Just enough force to put them in the lorry, no weapons were used that I saw. I did not see any of the accused offer resistance or strike any of the provost. I can identify 5460 as having been taking part in the free for all. I saw him knock down one of our men L/Cpl Quarrillon. I heard the sergeant order the men to move on and they refused. I did not see a civilian hit. I could not say how hard it was.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q Did anyone challenge you with a bottle of beer.

A- Yes sir.

Q. Can you recognise him.

A- No Sir.

Q. Did you draw a gun

A No Sir.

Q How many men were working on B300?

A civilian truck came down the road accordin got by and the Sgt ordered them right off the road which they did not do. I also heard Gpn Sisco telling the sergeant to go back himself and he also took a swing at him. I did not see him, I cannot say who it was, but L/Cpl Hallenig swore he took a bottle.

I can identify Gpns Sisco, Hallenig and Russel as having been present before the fight started. Sisco took a swing at him but did not hit, the Sergeant. No weapons were used by the provost so far as I know.

FIFTH WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION

F.49995 L/Cpl LOWDEN. W.H. having been duly sworn states:

I am a member of No 4 Provost Coy. At about 2300 hrs on 16 July 1942 I had just put my kit away when the Sergeant came around and told me there was some trouble out in front of our Billets. Lt Heelbeam said there might be some trouble. There was a lot of talking going on out in front & they were creating a row in general. The other Provost the by myself & the Sergeant went outside.

The Sergeant asked them to move on and they refused to go. They were standing in the middle of the lane outside the house. A Civilian lorry came along & couldn't get by, so asked them to move on and they all moved except one. He would not move and finally Held him by out of the road and let-him the Civilian lorry by and he replied to one "Fuck the Civ. Con" and then took hold of him and moved him off the road. One that reached near the fellows shoulder and took a part at me and that caused the Civ Signal for Everyone to start Swinging.
Shortly there were quite busy for a while and some of them went away. What was left we took up in a lorry to the police Station.
I cannot be sure of who the man was who refused to move off the road.
I can recognise three of the occurred as having taken part in this ~~and~~ fire for

Ell. Dan Sutton ~~[illegible]~~ Capt Tisdale & Fisco both hit me. I recognized McKenzie as having been in the fight. The provost used no weapons.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q. Where were they ~~were~~ men?
A In the lane alongside our billet, it is not the main thoroughfare. The civilian road onto the side lane.

Q Did you see anyone threaten with a bottle of beer?
A. Yes but I cannot recognize him
Q. Did you take a bottle of beer from anyone?
A. Yes I did and threw it over the fence.

BY THE COURT:

Q. Did Sgt. Mac Bean give an order to clear the street when the civilian car approached
A. No. I requested them to clear the street and all but one of them did so.
Q. Did his fight start as a result of his Sergeant ordering your people to arrest that man
A No Sir. It started as a result of my trying to put this man out of the road. The Sergeant did not order them to undo arrest until after the fight was over.

Q. Do you know whether any of the accused offered resistance to arrest?

A. No I do not know.

D. 123232 BOEVILLON. a.s.f. having been duly sworn — states:

I am a member of the No 4 Provt Coy. On the evening of 16th July I was called out to help the boys who were having some trouble. Did not hear Sgt MacBean give an order to anyone to move on - there were about 10 soldiers outside and bullets at the time I got out there. A civilian truck was coming along the road and stopped. I recognised Pte Disco as having been amongst the men that were standing in the street. I tried to bring Pte Disco to the orderly room, he punched me in the nose and we fell to the ground. I did not see anyone else as it was too dark

I did not see any of the Provost use any weapons. I thought that Sisco had been drinking but he was not drunk.

CROSS. EXAMINED

Q. Who hits you down?
A. We tripped down together. It was not from a blow.
Q. Did you hear your own Sergeant give the order [redacted]?

I am a member of the 6th Fld Coy R.C.E. On the evening of 16 of July last after having been to a show I was proceeding along past the Provost Barracks. Everything seemed fairly quiet there. I had been there about a minute when a provost in a motor car pulled up at the side and asked a group of R.C.E. what they were doing. There was then a number of cars passed but the Provost was questioned as to his authority. The Provost then turned on his heel and went into the barracks and I continued on my way. I had hardly got up the road more than 30 or 50 yards when I heard a truck start up and go again. I heard a lot of scraping of feet & pushing & shouting. That is all I know about it. There was no traffic on the road and I did not hear a horn blow. It was very dark, I could not see for more than 4 yards before me.

Then the Provost sick pulled up & I started to load the fellows into it. They did not just help them in they picked them up & threw them in. I then talked to the Provost Sergeant & he said "Get to Hell home as well then you can too" and then the kick pulled away. There had not appear to be any traffic on the street at all. There were no other soldiers around and no other people there were a couple of civilian women. The engineer appeared to be under the influence of liquor.

D2. THE PROSECUTOR MAKES AN OPENING ADDRESS

"Mr President and members of the Court. I should like to draw the attention of the court to the particular wording of the charge sheet wherein it sets out the three portions requiring proof on the part of the prosecution to substantiate a charge of desertion. These are in turn: the warning for draft, the absence as alleged in the charge sheet, and that the accused so absented himself with the intent to avoid proceeding on draft. These three points will be dealt with in turn by the evidence of the prosecution".

D3. FIRST WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION — D71493 Sgt McIlroy A N, 4 Cdn Rft Bn having been duly sworn, states:

I am Sgt McIlroy A N, D71493, P E Sgt and handle the X-List of the HPER and RCR of 4 Bn. I recognize the accused to be Pte Titchnell. As Orderly Sgt of "B" Coy it is my duty to take roll calls, check all incoming men and outgoing men. On 16 Oct at approx 0800 hrs the personnel of the HPER were all warned for draft. I then proceeded to call their names and told them to fall out on my left. My roll call and warning for draft was given out. The name and number of Pte Titchnell was on that draft. He answered his name and number and fell out. After I had a full quota of my draft I counted and reported my draft all present. I then warned him to go through draft proceedings which is past the Medical Officer and the Dental Officer. The accused did this. At approx 1400 hrs 16 Oct the performance of my duty was to call the roll, also muster my draft. The name and number of Pte Titchnell was called. He failed to answer. I asked his whereabouts and then searched the coy lines, also the billets, calling out his name. I could not locate him. I placed him on the absentee report as absent from 1400 hrs 16 Oct. On 17 Oct, in the morning, the draft pulled out. Pte Titchnell's name was called. He did not report for the outgoing draft. I have not seen the accused in the coy lines or camp area since this date.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENCE

Q 1 If the accused answered his name and number when he fell out, you would have no particular reason to take particular notice of the accused?

A 1 No Sir, they fell out to my left.

Q 2 Approx how long had the accused been in the coy?

A 2 I think between 5 and 7 days, Sir.

Q 3 In that time you are quite satisfied you recognize him and know his appearance personally?

A 3 I would.

RE-EXAMINATION BY PROSECUTION

Q 4 Are you definitely certain that the accused was on parade and was warned that morning?

A 4 Yes Sir.

R P 83B complied with.

SECOND WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION — H40829 Sgt Wetherall L C, 4 Cdn Rft Bn having been duly sworn, states:

I am H40829 Sgt Wetherall L C of 'B' Coy 4 Cdn Base Rft Bn.

At 0800 hrs 16 Oct I was called to witness draft warning in all units of 'B' coy. Draft and muster was called and Pte Titchnell's name was on the draft roll. Although I do not recognize Pte Titchnell personally, his body was accounted for on this particular parade. He was put through proper draft procedure and warned to be prepared to depart for the field on the following morning at 0900 hrs.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENCE

Q 5 What is meant exactly by draft procedure?

A 5 We hold a muster parade and the men are warned that they are going forward in the presence of all the Sgts W.O's and Company Commander in the coy. They are then taken to the Medical Officer, Dental Officer and Q.M. Stores.

Q 6 Would the accused go through the Q.M. Stores that date?

A 6 Yes, normally he would, Sir.

Q 7 Do you know of any reason why a man who would be on parade on 16 Oct for draft on 17 Oct - any reason why he should go through the Q.M. Stores on 14 Oct?

A 7 It is quite possible that the man came in on the 14th. Men coming into the battalion are put through Stores immediately upon arrival and on departure they are put through again, which is in accordance with the R.O's of DAQMG Rft Group.

Q 8 Approx how long was Pte Titchnell in 'B' Coy?

A 8 I couldn't say that, Sir.

Q 9 What are your duties Sgt in 'B' Coy?

A 9 I have charge of the 48 Highrs and the 4 PLDG.

EXAMINATION BY COURT

Q 10 Who made the roll call on the morning of 16 Oct?

A 10 Sgt McIlroy in the presence of 3 other Sgts, a W.O. and the Company Commander.

Q 11 Were you again on parade in the afternoon and the next morning and Pte Titchnell's name was called?

A 11 I don't know. We were present when the draft warning was called and on the following parades take care of only our own units.

Q 12 You said previously that the accused had been warned he was leaving for draft. Was that warning given immediately after the nominal roll?

A 12 Yes Sir. It was the original muster parade in which the man was called forward in order to account for the body. Immediately having been called forward the draft warning was read to them with extracts from Camp Standing Orders as well.

R P 83B complied with.

THIRD WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION — P9577 BSM McDermott M M, 4 Cdn Rft Bn having been duly sworn, states:

I am P9577 BSM McDermott M M of 'B' Coy 4 Cdn Rft Gp (P E).

Sir, on 16 Oct at about 0800 hrs I was present on parade when Sgt McIlroy called the roll of the HPER personnel and the accused's name was on that roll. Sgt McIlroy reported all present, and also were warned for draft in my presence. Pte Titchnell's name was on the draft nominal roll and he was not reported absent. The personnel on this draft nominal roll were warned that morning in my presence.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY DEFENCE

Q 13 Do you actually renember the name Titchnell from this list or do you have records to refer to it?

A 13 These rolls are my nominal rolls and I know that Pte Titchnell was on that roll.

Q 14 Your knowledge of Pte Titchnell on draft comes merely from reading the nominal roll handed to you by the Sgt in charge of this particular draft?

A 14 Yes Sir.

EXAMINATION BY COURT

Q 15 Were you present at the nominal roll?

A 15 Yes Sir.

Q 16 And he was reported absent to you or did you notice it yourself?

A 16 Sgt McIlroy reported his draft all present.

Q 17 When was he reported A.W.L.

A 17 On 1400 hrs parade the same date.

Q 18 He was reported to you as absent?

A 18 Yes Sir.

R P 83B complied with.

FOURTH WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION — A22296 Sgt White J P, 4 Cdn Rft Bn having been duly sworn, states:

I am A22296 Sgt White J P, Bn Orderly Room Sgt 4 Bn. I produce certificate under A A Sec 163 (1) (jj) purporting to relate to the accused and showing that B62291 L cpl Titchnell L L was arrested at Cava at 1130 hrs 23 Nov 44.

CERTIFICATE MARKED EXHIBIT 'A' AND SIGNED BY PRESIDENT

R P 83B complied with.

D4. SUBMISSION BY DEFENCE

Sir, I would like to say that in my opinion in listening to the witness for the prosecution there is some doubt as to whether Pte Titchnell was on parade on the morning of the 16th and the evidence of Sgt McIlroy who claims to have recognized the accused on parade. He had been in the coy for 5 to 7 days. Later in the evidence Sgt Wetherall stated that incoming drafts were put through the Q.M. Stores on arrival and also before they left on draft. In this case, Pte Titchnell went through the Q.M. Stores on Oct 14th which would at least suggest that he arrived on the 14th which was 2 days before the draft was called and I suggest to the court that Sgt McIlroy must have a remarkable memory for faces to be sure that this man was present on draft that day. The BSM's evidence is purely from records with no certain knowledge of intent so I suggest to the court the proof of having been warned for draft has not been proved by the prosecution and the charge of desertion be changed to Absent Without Leave.

D6. RESPONSE BY PROSECUTION

Mr President and members of the court. We have the undisputable testimony by Sgt McIlroy that he warned the accused for draft. Any supposition on the part of the defence does not shake this testimony. The prosecution demands that the accused be put on his defence to answer the charge.

THE ACCUSED, PTE TITCHNELL HAVING BEEN DULY SWORN, STATES:

I arrived in 4 Bn on 14 Oct, 2 days before I am supposed to have been warned for draft. That was on a Saturday and I got paid. On Sunday 15 Oct in the afternoon about 1600 hrs I went A.W.L. I was not present that night or the morning of the 16th in 4 Bn.

SUMMING UP BY THE PROSECUTION

Mr President and members of the court. I should like to draw the attention of the court to Sec 17 and 20 of the M M L, Chap.3, page 19 (reads) and Sec 13 page 73 (reads). The prosecution has established by unshaken testimony that the accused was warned for draft on 16 Oct. It has further established by unshaken testimony that the accused absented himself as alleged in the charge sheet on the afternoon 1400 hrs on the 16th. The prosecution has now to prove the intent on the part of the accused. This intent is incapable of proof by the prosecution. It must be assumed from the actions of the accused. In the face of no explanation by the accused, the court may rightly assume that the accused absented himself with the sole intent of avoiding this draft. If the court believes the story given by the accused under oath, then they have no alternative but to find the accused Not Guilty of desertion but Guilty of A.W.L. If they do not believe the story then the prosecution calls for a conviction on desertion by the court and a severe sentence.

SUMMING UP BY THE DEFENCE

The defence of Pte Titchnell is of course built on the fact that he was not present on parade at the time draft was warned. He has stated on oath that he left the camp on Sunday the 15th of Oct. The prosecution has produced one witness who is able to state that he recognized the accused on the parade. This witness, however, was incorrect in his judgment of the length of time the accused was in camp by a considerable margin. He arrived here at 4 Bn on 14 Oct and the parade was held on the morning of the 16th. One point strikes me that it was extremely handy that there was a pay parade on the Saturday. To a man who intends to absent himself without leave, Sunday appears to be a logical time to go, having just been paid. It is incumberant upon the prosecution to prove beyond all reasonable doubt that the accused was guilty with intent to miss a draft, in this case, and this can only be done by proving conclusively that he was present on Oct 16. I suggest proof of one man where a memory is involved is not conclusive proof of his presence on parade. In the absence of this I ask the court to find him Not Guilty of desertion.

E3.

PLEA OF MITIGATION

I would just like to draw the attention of the court to the military history of the accused. He is, or was until he joiued the army, an American citizen. He never lived in Canada at any time until he crossed the border and joined the army in Toronto in 1941. At the date of enlistment his actual age was 16 and this has since been correctly entered in his book. The change was made in England. He gave an incorrect age on attestation. He has held the rank of L cpl almost consistently since he joined the army and was Conducting Sgt with pay of rank on overseas draft he came over with in 1943. He came to the HPER in this country and served with them in action in the Gothic Line. He was evacuated to hospital and then to convalescent camp prior to his arrival in this unit. I ask the court to take into consideration his rather good record with the army and also the fact that he as an American citizen joined the Canadian army, and perhaps owing to his age, the fact that he may not feel quite the same loyalty shall we say, or take the seriousness as seriously as if he was a Canadian subject from birth.

D.2 Prosecuting Officers Opening Address

The accused is charged under AA 178(4) with stealing a watch belonging to Cpl Sproule. I will call Capt Wilson who will give an account of the action taken when the loss was reported. A/Cpl Sproule the owner of the watch to identify it and P.C. Garrett who investigated the case and took a statement from the accused which statement was voluntary. I will produce the watch in question.

D3 First Witness for Prosecution

H. 77418 Cpl Sproule, E. L. sworn states

I discovered my watch was stolen about 1230 hrs 3rd Oct. I reported it to Capt Wilson who called a parade at which every one turned out their pockets. The watch was not found. There were a few men missing from this parade one of whom was Tpr Tilly whom I recognise here as the accused. I went out on the main street and found Tpr Tilly and ordered him to report to Capt Wilson. I asked Capt Wilson to turn the investigation over to the civilian authorities which was done. The constable questioned a number of men at the house and the following day he asked me to bring Tpr Tilly to the ~~police~~ police station for questioning. About 1200 hrs 8th Oct. I saw the constable again and he had my watch. Capt Wilson & I went to the police station. I identified my property. The P.C. took a statement which Tpr Tilly signed.

Prosecutor produces watch which ~~accused~~ witness identified by its make and the fact that the glass is cracked.

The watch is marked Exhibit "A"

I last saw the watch at 0945 on 3rd Oct. ~~It was~~ That was the last time I saw it. I discovered it missing at 1230 hrs. It was 1330 hrs when I found accused on the street.

No cross-examination

R.P. ~~§~~ 3 (b) complied with.

Second Witness for Prosecution

Capt. J. L. Wilson, sworn states

I called a special parade. Several chaps were missing from the parade. Tpr Tilly was one of them. The watch was not found on a turn out of pockets of those on parade. I ordered Cpl Sproule to go out and look for those missing from parade. Later Tpr Tilly appeared in the orderly room. I explained to him that a watch had been stolen and ~~he~~ ~~wanted~~ the rest of the party had turned their pockets out and I wanted him to do the same. He turned his pockets out but the watch was not found. I then gave permission to Cpl Sproule to turn the matter over to the civilian police.

The next day about noon the P.C. and Tpr Tilly arrived at Burnhurst, this place. The P.C. produced a watch. The P.C. and Cpl Sproule the accused and myself went to Hurst Green police station. At the police station a statement was taken from Tpr Tilley but before he made the statement he was warned by the constable that he did not need to make a statement but if he did the statement could be used as evidence against him later.

Tpr Tilley then related that he had stolen the watch and threw it into the bushes when told by Capt Sproule that he was wanted in the orderly room. The watch was produced by the constable and Capt. Sproule identified it as his property. The statement was a free statement. No pressure whatever was brought to bear.

Cross-examination:

I do not recall any promises made to accused that he would get off with a lighter sentence if he made a statement.

R.P. 13(B) complied with.

Third Witness for Prosecution

P.C. 77. Harry Garnett. sworn states

At 1.30 P.M. on 3 rd Oct Capt Sproule reported to me that he had had a watch stolen from his room and asked me to make enquiries with a view to recovering it. I made enquiries at the unit that afternoon. I interviewed numerous men and ascertained that Pte Tilley was absent from the unit. I recognise the accused as Pte Tilley. There were also other men whom I was unable to interview at this time. About 0930 AM on the following morning I came to the unit and had Pte Tilley brought to the police station. I questioned him and asked him if he knew anything regarding the watch. I had previously told him I was making enquiries in connection with a watch which had been stolen. Not being satisfied with his answers I questioned him further and as a result we came to the entrance to Barnhurst and searched in the bushes. Tpr Tilley on the inside of the hedge and I on the outside. Lying at the bottom of the hedge on the grass verge I found a watch answering the description of Capt Sproules' which is the watch here Exhibit 'A'

I returned to the police station and in the presence of Capt Wilson and Capt Sproule I cautioned Tpr Tilley and he made a statement which I recorded in my notebook and which was signed by Tpr Tilley.

I told him that ~~he did not~~ he was not obliged to make a statement unless he wished to do so but that whatever he did say would be taken down and might be used as evidence. He made a statement which I took down in writing. After I had written it I handed him the book and invited him to read the statement and told him I would make any corrections he wished and initial them. He read the statement but made no corrections and signed the statement in my notebook. as follows.

" I have been cautioned that I am not obliged to make a statement unless I wish to do so and that whatever I may say will be taken down and may be used as evidence. Yes I will tell you the truth I did take it I threw it in the hedge when a Sgt came out and told me the Captain wanted to see me yesterday"

Later that day the watch was identified by Sgt Sproule as his property.

No Cross-examination

R.P. § 3(b) complied with.

D-6 1st Witness for Defence.

H. 77907 Pte Donald Thompson Tilley sworn states.

On the day the watch was taken I went into Sgt Sproules room and lay on his bed as I was not feeling very good as I had been drinking heavily the night before. I did not have any intention of taking the watch In fact I didn't know I had taken the watch at the time. At the time I lay on his bed I was feeling pretty fed up and if I had any intention of getting rid of the watch such as selling it I would have taken the chain and all. I did not intend to keep it when I found it on myself. After Sgt Sproule had told me to report to Capt Wilson which I did. Before I went to be searched I put the watch in the hedge. I was figuring on replacing it the following night after things had quieted down. I could not do anything else as it was mentioned that I was the last one seen coming out of Sgt Sproules room after the watch had been taken.

I threw the watch away so I would not be caught with it at the time of search I figured on replacing it the following night when things had quietened down. I don't know how someone knew I was said to be the last one in the room. Sgt Sproule told me.

The policeman asked me if I knew anything about the watch. I told him I did not know anything exactly about the watch. He said it would be easier on me if I did make a statement and sign it. He said it would be easier on my sentence. When I found the watch in my pocket I wondered how it had got there. If I had been intending to take it altogether I would have taken the chain and keys that were with it on the windowsill. The windowsill is just above his bed. I went to sleep on his bed just for a little while when I got up I wasn't feeling very good.

Cross Examination

I disconnected the watch just before I went in to see Capt Wilson. I reached in this pocket (upper left jacket pocket) for my notebook and put the watch. This was about 5 minutes before I went in to Capt Wilson to search me.

I went to lay on Cpl Sproules bed just a little before dinner. I did not feel like eating at the time.

I went in there. There is a friend of mine Tpr Hofstetter whom I was waiting to see and before I got to see him I went over to the lavatory across the aisle because I wasn't feeling just right. Then Cpl Sproule said I was the last one seen leaving the room before the watch was stolen. Cpl Sproule said this before the watch was found after he had questioned every body else.

I saw the watch on the windowsill when I went into Cpl Sproule's room. The next time I saw it was when I disconed it on myself. Cpl Sproule had the chain in his hand and I heard him say the only thing that was left was the chain. I do not know the name of the man Cpl Sproule was talking to.

I did not go for dinner that day at all.

By the Court

The watch was attached to the chain when I saw it on the windowsill. I was not in the habit of going into the Cpls Room. This was the first time I had been in it. I am not in Cpl Sproules squadron I am in Headquarters. I dont remember how I got the watch in my pocket because I was drunk. I was sick. I was not ~~not~~ on parade that morning. I do not know how the watch was attached to the chain there were three keys on the other end. Cpl Sproule told me to report to Capt Wilson. Capt Wilson said this had been a watch taken. Cpl Sproule said I was wanted to be searched and that his watch had been stolen. He said I was the only one who had not been searched. I did not want to be searched and the watch found on me so I put it in the hedge. I did not know it was Cpl Sproules watch I put in the bushes. I found out it was Cpl Sproules watch when I went down to the police station. I do not know how it got in my pocket. The I had been celebrating. The liquor did not effect me until that morning. Reveille is at 6 o'clock. I had breakfast, porage and tea. I was talking with the Cook for a few minutes I was talking to L/Cpl Barclay. I was talking with L/Cpl Manton. I went back to the Cooks + got a ham out then he asked me to go and get him a paper. I didnt go over to the store. I stayed in Camp. I went into Cpl Sproules room a little before dinner. I went upstairs to see Tpr Hofstetter to see if he would go to Robinsford with me. I didnt remember taking the watch at the time I sig ned the statement. I was looking at some pictures I had just got got from a fellow and was putting them in my book. We were at the pub until closing time I got in around about midnight.

D-L Prosecuting Officers closing address.

Accused is charged with stealing. I should like to read to the court paras 32 and 33 of ch VIII found in MML p 22. Reads.

Defending Officers closing Address

From the evidence of the accused it appears that he had no intent to steal or deprive the rightful owner of his property. In view of the fact that he said an inebriated condition existed at the time of the alleged offence would bear out the above statement that the accused not having the proper faculties of his mind had no intent to deprive or steal the property of Cpl Sproule. There is a question whether or not the statement to the police was voluntary or not. From the accused's evidence it would appear that the statement was not voluntary and that should be taken into consideration. Not knowing how the wallet had got into his possession after finding it he became alarmed and threw it away the reason being that he had thought somebody might have put it upon his person and did not want to be crimed because of that.

~~closing Address~~ SS.

Summing up by Judge Advocate

The court is the ~~sole~~ judge of the facts and of the legal consequence of such facts as are found proved. The credibility of witnesses and the weight to be given to the evidence of any witness is a matter for the court alone to decide. The prosecuting officer has read to the court the def. of theft and left for the court to decide whether or not the accused took the wallet and whether or not at the time he took it he had the intention permanently to deprive Cpl. Sproule of the wallet.

The court must keep in mind that every man is presumed to be innocent until he is proved by evidence given before the court to be guilty.

I should like to read to the court para 66 Chart 7 found in M.M.S. page 124. Reads.

The defence is that the accused did not know that he had taken the wallet and that he could not form the necessary intent to deprive the owner permanently of the wallet because he was under the influence of liquor.

It is a question of fact for the court to decide whether or not the accused is guilty before finding the court in this respect that he had taken it. If the answer to that question is yes that he did not know the difference that he could not tell formula the essential point of the answer to that question is that he did know then the alcohol can in effect be was so under the influence of drink that he could not form the essential point of direct evidence can be given of the state of a man's mind that must be inferred from the evidence of overt acts.
Burden in court to para 9 chapt 7 page 106 M.M.J. Ready.
It is for the prosecution to prove it case beyond all reasonable doubt. The onus of reasonable doubt is as difficult as the onus of reasonable man. To warrant an acquittal the doubt must not be light nor capricious such as timidity or passion prompts or conviction readily adopts. It must be based upon or upon a calm view of the whole evidence a rational understanding will support to an honest heart. A conscientious conviction of minds that are not influenced by party pre-occupied by prejudices entertained by fear but if there is a reasonable doubt in the mind of the court the accused must be given the benefit of that doubt and be acquitted.

Character Evidence for accused

Capt. J. L. Wilson, already sworn as to ~~found~~ witness, states.
As far as I can see he is rather an irresponsible individual. I don't say he is a poor worker but he is not as good as the other chaps I have with my party. I do not know a great deal about T per T Utley. He came to the advance party and to the regt.
just before the unit left on an express. He seems to be suffering from an illusion that he is being persecuted and this is not so.

H. 77026 Cpl. Vans Somerset, T.W.I. sworn states.
T per T Utley has been under my orders for the past three months. I have found him ~~[illegible]~~ while not reliable, seeming by suffering from a persecution complex. He seemed to think that he was being picked on. If he could be interested in any thing his work was quite satisfactory but his interests seemed very few as to army work.

E-3. The defending officer reads and hands in a statement in mitigation of punishment

Defending Officers Plea of Mitigation

In view of fact that the accused has stated in his evidence that he had a temporary lapse of memory due to ~~had~~ liquor at the time of the theft and no intent to steal or deprive Cpl Sproule, E.L. of his property, I wish to put in a plea of mitigation. I further strongly suggest that the court recommend to the convening officer that the accused, Pte. Titley, D.F., be examined by an Army psychiatrist and the results of this examination, if adverse, be taken into consideration by the court. By his actions before the court, he has shown that his mental calibre is not high. I recommend that this examination should be conducted with a view toward recategorization.

GENERAL REPORT AND OBSERVATIONS.

(Additional sheets may be used)

Upon receipt of information I made enquiries at the unit, and ascertained that Trooper TITLEY had been in the room from which the watch was stolen, during the morning of the 3rd inst.

When the watch was missed a roll call was made, and each man was questioned and searched. The only man absent at this time was Tpr Titley. He was subsequently seen and he was then questioned and searched by his Officer, Capt Wilson. He denied all knowledge of the theft and the search proved negative.

At 10 am on the 4th October 1943 Tpr Titley called at the Police Station.

I informed Trooper Tilley that I was making enquiries into the theft of a watch from his unit on the 3rd inst. and asked him if he knew anything about it.

He stated he knew nothing about it.

I questioned him regarding his movements on the day in question. He gave me an account of his movements and denied either having seen or touched the watch.

I was not satisfied with his answers and questioned him regarding his movements between the time the watch was last seen and was missed. He then said "I don't know the name of the chap who took it, but I can get it back, I know where it is." In consequence of this statement I went with Tpr Tilley to the entrance to "Bernhurst" in Station Road.

We searched the hedge at the entrance, and I found the watch lying in the grass at the foot of the hedge.

I took possession of it, and returned to the Police Station with Tpr Tilley.

At 2.40 on 4th October 1943 at the Police Station in the presence of Capt Wilson and Corporal Sproule, I cautioned Tpr Tilley, and made the attached statement. In consequence of the statement, Capt Wilson requested the custody of Tpr Tilley and placed him under close arrest. I informed him he would be reported for stealing a watch valued at £12.0.0. The watch is retained at this Station.

Capt Wilson is communicating the facts to his Commanding Officer.

Summary of evidence in the case of H77907 Tpr Donald Thomas TITLEY, 18 Cdn Armd C Regt (12 D), Canadian Army Overseas, charged under A.A. Sec 18 (4) with stealing a watch the property of H77418 Cpl Sproule, E.L.

The Commanding Officer directs the evidence be taken on oath.

Capt J.L. Wilson, 18 Cdn Armd C Regt (12 D), sworn states:

I am officer in charge Advance Party 18 Cdn Armd C Regt (12 D), at Hurst Green Camp. On the third October 1943 at approximately 1245 hrs Cpl Sproule reported to me that his pocket watch had been stolen from his room. I ordered a special parade immediately in the hope that the missing watch be found. Several chaps were missing from this parade, Tpr Titley being one of them. Cpl Sproule was then instructed to look around the vicinity of the quarters and send any of these missing chaps he found to the Orderly Room. Later Tpr Titley reported saying he had been sent back by Cpl Sproule. When told about the missing watch he turned out his pockets for me to see their contents. As he did this he made the following statement "I get blamed for everything that is pinched around here". I then gave Cpl Sproule permission to turn the case over to the Hurst Green Police.

At approx. 1200 hrs on 4th Oct 1943 a police constable and Tpr Titley arrived at Bernhurst. The constable showed me a pocket watch and said "This is it," and asked me to come over to the Police Station. At the station he took a statement from Tpr Titley but, first warned him that any statement he made could be used as evidence against him later. Tpr Titley then related that he had stolen the watch and later threw it into the bushes when told he was wanted in the Orderly Room. This statement was read back to the accused who then signed it. I requested that the accused be given into my custody. I then placed him under close arrest.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Second Witness

H77418 Cpl Sproule, E.L., 18 Cdn Armd C Regt (12 D), sworn, states:

On October 3rd 1943 at approx. 1230 hrs I returned to my room after lunch and found that my pocket watch had been stolen from the window ledge where I had left it. I reported to Captain Wilson after I had made a thorough search. The Captain called a parade and everyone turned out their pockets but the watch was not there. From this parade some men were missing and I was instructed to go out and send any of them I found back to camp. I found Tpr Titley on the street not far from camp and sent him back to Cap tain Wilson. The watch was still not found so I asked permission to turn the case over to the police and it was granted.

At 1000 hrs on October 4th 1943 the Police constable asked me to have Tpr Titley sent to the station for questioning. I sent Tpr Titley to the police station and at 1200 hrs I again saw the constable and he had my watch and Tpr Titley with him. I identified my property and then Captain Wilson and I went to the Police station. The accused was warned that anything he said could be used as evidence against him and then in the presence of Captain Wilson and myself a statement was taken from Tpr Titley and he signed it.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

Evidence in the case of A-4435 Tpr. Lorne Edward TITUS, 12 Cdn Armd Regt (TRR).

Opening Address by the Prosecution:

Sir, gentlemen of the Court. The accused, A-4435 Tpr. Titus, L.E., 12 Cdn Armd Regt (Three Rivers Regt), has been charged with committing a civil offence, that is to say: In that he, in The Field, ITALY, at about 1715 hrs on the 8th Feb 45 stole approximately 7,700 lire from a civilian, Signor Panchetti Arrigo. I shall attempt to prove beyond the slightest doubt, by the two witnesses I shall bring before you, that this money was stolen by Tpr. Titus and by Exhibit 'A', the afore-mentioned money, and by the statement of 10685090 Dvr. Coulston, E. of the 294 Inf Bde Tpt Coy, RASC, which proves that the accused committed the afore-mentioned crime. I have evidence here that this witness is unable to be here due to the exigencies of the Service."

First Witness for the Prosecution: Signor Panchetti Arrigo, of Luciano, near BORGO SAN LORENZO, ITALY, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am Signor Panchetti Arrigo of Luciano near BORGO SAN LORENZO.

Question by the Presiding Officer.

Q. Do you recognize the accused?

A. Yes. (Points out the accused.)

Questions by the Prosecution.

Q.1 Will you tell us briefly just what happened on the evening of this incident?

A. At about 1700 hrs when I was giving the tickets for drinks to the soldiers, a soldier came and took from the cash register some money and I ran after the soldier and I found him in a street near Piazza Del Marcato and with the help of a British and Italian soldier took the money from his hands. In the meantime, a C.M.P. Sgt was at the place and he took the soldier and the money to the Police Station.

Q.2 Approximately how much money was there?

A. I have a receipt for 7,700 Lire.

Q.3 Do you recognize this money?

A. All the money is the same and you cannot say 'this' is the money.

Q.4. Was it British money or Italian money?

A. British.

Q.5. Did you and the British and Italian soldier take the money from the accused?

A. Yes Sir, and in the meantime the C.M.P. Sgt was there and I gave it to him.

Q.6. Do you recognize the accused as the soldier who took the money from the till?

A. Yes Sir.

The First Witness is cross-examined by the Defence.

Q.6. Did the Sergeant from the C.M.P. arrive on the scene before or after the Italian soldier and the British soldier are stated to have removed the money from the defendent?

A. Approximately at the same time. Maybe after half a minute.

The Prosecution does not wish to re-examine the First Witness.

Question by the Presiding Officer.

Q.7. Approximately how far did the soldier get from the store or wine shop before he was caught?

A. Approximately 250 metres.

Second Witness for the Prosecution: 6024177 Sgt. Matthams, J., No.10 Coy CMP (TC) after being duly sworn, states:-

Q.8. Will you please give your correct Number, Rank, and Name?

A. 6024177 Sgt. J. Matthams.

Q.9. What is your job?

A. Traffic Policeman.

Q.10. Do you recognize the accused?

A. Yes Sir.

Q.11. Will you tell the Court briefly just exactly what happened on the evening of the incident?

A. At approximately 1715 hrs on the 5 Feb 1945 I was called upon by some civilians to investigate an occurence in a cafe at BORGO SAN LORENZO. On reaching the roadway I saw a Canadian soldier being chased by a considerable number of civilians. I stopped the soldier and asked what the trouble was to which he replied, 'Nothing.' Another soldier, Dvr. Coulston of 294 Inf Bde, came to me and stated that the Canadian soldier had stolen money from the canteen belonging to a civilian whom he was also with. I cannot give the name at the present time of the civilian to whom the money belonged. The civilian then handed me a bundle of notes which totalled the sum of 7,700 Lire. I requested the Canadian soldier, together with Dvr. Coulston and the civilian, to accompany me to my Company HQ which they did. In the presence of my CSM I requested the Canadian soldier's particulars but could get no sensible answers to my questions. I then formed an opinion that he was drunk. I obtained his particulars from his AB 64. I then escorted him to his unit and handed him over to the unit Guard Room.

Q.12 What did you do with the money?

A. I had it sealed in an envelope in the presence of my Company Commander and it was handed over to the Company Quartermaster for safe keeping. A receipt was given to the civilian for the money.

Q.13. Was the money British or Italian?

A. Italian lires.

Q.14. Do you recognise the accused as the soldier who was involved in this incident?

A. Definitely Sir.

The Presiding Officer, after questioning the Second Witness for the Prosecution, ruled that for the purposes of the Court, "Italian Lires", as stated in answer to Q.6., was AMG currency.

The Second Witness is cross-examined by the Defence.

Q.15. You state in your evidence that you were the man who stopped the accused when he ran away?

A. Yes Sir.

Q.16. You did not see the Italian soldier or Italian civilian stop him before you did?

A. No Sir. I saw one civilian just touch him, that is all, and that is the reason why I said, 'What is the trouble?'

Q.17. Did you see anybody take the money from the defendant?

A. No Sir.

Q.18. When you first saw the defendant running, how far was he from the Imperial Bar?

A. I should say approximately 500 yards.

Q.19. to the Court.

How far is a meter?

A. A meter is 3.37 feet.

The Prosecution re-examines the Second Witness.

Q.20. Reasoning that 500 yards is more than a quarter of a mile, do you know the location of the Bar in question?

A. Yes.

Q.21. Do you recognize this money as the money in question and have you any way of knowing it?

A. I can say that I recognize it as being similar but cannot swear that it is the money.

The Prosecution submits the money to the Court as Exhibit 'A'.

The Presiding Officer questions the Second Witness for the Prosecution.

Q.22. Who handed you the money?

A. The proprietor of the Cafe, Sir.

A written statement is handed to the Court by the Prosecution with reference to the evidence of Dvr. Coulston who was unable to attend as he has been posted to another locality.

The Defence calls on the accused, A-44935 Tpr. Lorne Elward Titus, 12 Cdn Armd Regt (ZRR).

Q.23. Would you tell the Court your Rank, Name, Number and Unit?

A. A-44935 Tpr. Titus, L.E., 'B' Sqn, 12 Cdn Armd Regt.

Q.24. Would you tell the Court slowly and in your own words what happened from the time you received a pass from the Squadron Leader on the 5th Feb on?

A. On February 5th, 1945, I received a pass to BORGO SAN LORENZO. I stopped first at the Mobile Bath. I left there about 2.30 for a little walk around town. I could not see much to do around there so I stopped in at a Cafe for a few drinks. After drinking for some time I become quite drunk and cannot remember anything after that. When I next remember anything I woke up in the back of a truck about 1930 hrs. At the time I was accused of stealing the money I remember nothing.

The accused is cross-examined by the Prosecution.

Q.25. Do you remember going into the bar?

A. Yes.

Q.26. Do you remember leaving the bar?

A. No, I don't.

Summing up by the Prosecution.

Sir, gentlemen of the Court. The evidence which the witnesses for the Prosecution have given the Court proves beyond a doubt that Tpr. Titus is guilty of stealing approximately 7,700 Lire in A.M.G.A. notes from the bar of one civilian, Mr. Panchetti Arrigo. First, Mr. Panchetti Arrigo states that the accused, whom he recognizes, took an amount of money from his till and ran away with it. He chased the accused and when he caught him retrieved the money. He states that it was British made lire. Secondly, Sgt. Matthams, J. states he saw the accused being chased by civilians and by a Dvr. Coulston. He arrived on the scene and was given the situation by Dvr. Coulston, received the money, and took the accused to his HQ. He states it also was British made lire. While the statement of Dvr. Coulston is secondary evidence, it does agree with the evidence given by the two witnesses brought before this Court and states the accused took the money and ran away with it. Finally, the accused himself admits that he does not remember leaving the bar so drunk was he and, therefore, cannot deny definitely that he did take the money. Therefore, the evidence is conclusive with nothing to the contrary that Tpr. Titus, L.E. stole approximately 7,700 lires on the 5th February, 1945 from the bar of Mr. Panchetti Arrigo.

Summing up by the Defense.

Sir, and members of the Court. The accused pleaded 'Not Guilty' on this first charge notwithstanding the fact that he was under the influence of alcohol but did not know what he was doing at the time because it is the basis of British Military Law that a man is innocent until proven guilty, and I maintain that the Prosecution has failed to definitely establish through two witnesses brought here today that the accused stole and ran away with the money from the Imperial Bar. The first witness, Signor Arrigo, stated that the accused took the money, ran down the street with it, was caught by himself with the aid of an Italian and British soldier, stating at the same time that Sgt. Matthams of the C.M.P. arrived on the scene at or about the time that Signor Arrigo was removing the money from the defendant. Now the second witness for the Prosecution completely refutes this in his statement. He says he saw the defendant running down the street; that he, Sgt. Matthams, was the first man to stop him. In fact, in answer to a question of mine, the only other person who as much as touched the defendant was an Italian civilian who only brushed his shoulder and the main point that Sgt. Matthams brought out was that though he were the first man to stop the defendant, the defendant did not have the money with him and that the money was in the hands of Signor Arrigo at the time that the defendant was stopped. I ask the Court to consider then how it is, that if Sgt. Matthams was the first man to stop the defendant, why [illegible] it that the defendant did not have the money on him? I maintain that the defendant did not leave the Cafe with the money in his hand at all and that, through the contradictory evidence given by the two witnesses, the Prosecution has completely failed to establish a case against the defendant.

Plea of mitigation of punishment by the Defence.

Sir, and members of the Court. I would like you to consider the case of this soldier who, given an afternoon off in BORGO SAN LORENZO, finds himself, having had a shower, with little or nothing to do except for a few drinks at some bar or cafe. He goes to the Imperial Bar, the proprietor of which is Signor Arrigo, and has a few drinks. This Signor Arrigo is making a good living out of selling inferior drinks to soldiers at fairly high prices. Is it any wonder then that after drinking this alcohol all afternoon the defendant becomes very drunk? I claim that the real blame in this case does not fall on the defendant but upon this Signor Arrigo, the proprietor of the bar, who, by selling this inferior alcohol to the soldiers, causes them to become so very drunk.

I certify that the above is a true transcription of the evidence taken down by me on 25 Feb 45 in the case of A-4435 Tpr. Titus, L.E.

At about 1715 hrs. on the 8TH Feb. 1945 I was called from my billets to investigate an incident in a cafe in Borgo San Lorenzo. I saw a number of civilians chasing the accused, whom I now recognize, I stopped him and asked what the trouble was. 10685090 Driver Coulston B. of 294 Inf. Brigade Transport Coy. R.C.A.S.C. and a civilian Panchetti Arrigo of Luliano, stated the accused had stolen money from the cafe. The civilian then handed me 7700 lires, and they stated this was the money that was stolen.

I ordered the accused, the civilian and Driver Coulston to accompany me to Company H.Q. I got a statement from the civilian and Driver Coulston, but the accused was unable to give any sensible answers to my questions. In my opinion the accused was drunk.

I then arrested him and conducted him to his unit, where I handed him over to the Unit Guard Room.

Answer. Yes Sir.

Question. Previous to pay day would they be ordinarily poor days?
Answer. Yes.

Question. On the 2nd, the day before, Sgt. Titus reported the loss of the money stolen from his pocket?
Answer. Yes Sir.

Question. Do you know if it was the result of Sgt. Titus' report that the stocktaking took place?
Answer. Not exactly.

Question. After Sgt. Titus reported the matter to you, what did you do?
Answer. I went with him to the Paymaster to fix things up, because he was willing to do so.

Question. Whose suggestion was that?
Answer. It was mine, because I was stationed at one barracks for about 7 months, and lots of caterers were short and the case was fixed by the Paymaster, R.S.M. and the caterer who had run short, and no crime was made except one man. The same thing happened with me in 1927/8 when I was caterer; I was short about $20, and the treasurer gave me 24 hours to find the money, and no crime was made against me. The first thing, when Sgt. Titus reported the thing to me, he said I am willing to go to the Paymaster to make an assignment to save my stripes, because he was personally responsible for the stock and was willing to pay.

Question. Do you have anything to do with the quarters that Sgt. Titus lived in?
Answer. Not at that time.

Question. Do you know how many men, if any, were in the same room with him?
Answer. I went to Sgt. Titus' quarters and I think there were about 16 in that room.

Question. Did you go to the room across the hall from him?
Answer. Yes.

Question. How many were in that room?
Answer. There were men in there.

Question. Do you know if any other thefts in the building have been reported recently?
Answer. Not to my knowledge.

Question. Do you know whether the men around were in the habit of walking in this room where Sgt. Titus is or was living?
Answer. There was traffic in and out every day.

Question. Who arrested the accused?
Answer. I had orders to place him under arrest Sir, from superior authorities.

Question. Was any search made to discover the money?
Answer. No Sir.

Question. Was any investigation made as to where the money might have gone?
Answer. No Sir.

Question. Did you have any dealings with Sgt. Titus in the course of your regular duties?
Answer. No Sir.

1st Witness for the Defence.

Question. What is your full name, regimental number and unit?
Answer. F.39795. Cpl (A/Sgt). Titus, Raymond White, No.2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit (West Nova Scotia Regt).

Question. I believe you were appointed caterer of the sergeants' mess, when?
Answer. 25th August.

Question. What day of the week?
Answer. Sunday.

Question. When did you take over?
Answer. Monday.

Question. Did you take over any stock?
Answer. A small tobacco stock.

Question. Tell the Court what money you received.

Answer. On Monday the 26th I got the stock, which was a small stock of tobacco. R.S.M. Gravel gave me instructions that I was to do all the buying and allow no credit, and that the treasurer would collect the money daily. I purchased stock on Monday and it came in Monday afternoon of the 26th. Pay day commenced on Thursday, and Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday there were very little sales, on Tuesday about £2.0.0, on Wednesday about £3.0.0; on Thursday night about supper time I think there was about £10.0.0. I had to get some change from the treasurer, because everybody came in with pound notes and the change did not last very long, so I asked the treasurer to give me some change, and he gave me £2.0.0. in change. On Friday sales were going up as Thursday was pay day. So Friday noon the treasurer came up to go to dinner, and I said to him, "tomorrow is Saturday and you had better come and get this money because I do not want to carry it on my person, and I have no other place to put it, and he told me he would. Previous to that I asked CSM.Belyea if he could not supply me with something to keep the money in, because all I had was cigarette boxes; he said they would supply me with something to keep the money in, and I also asked him for something to keep my stock-book in, because I could not check the stock without some books or something to go by; he said they he would see, but they never came forward. Wednesday I asked Sgt. Guay, who was on the mess committee if there was not any possible chance of having quarters by myself, as I was sleeping in "C" block with privates and sergeants and because it was dangerous carrying money on my person in a place like that. On Saturday night nobody came, the treasurer never came, and I had about £45.0.0. in my pocket. So I went up to my quarters between 10.15 and 10.30 p.m. I went from the canteen to my quarters and went to bed with the money in my pants pocket. I also had £3.9.0. in my pay-book from my pay. I hung my pants on the rail on the locker door. In the morning when I woke up I went straight for my money, but the money was gone.

Question. What time did you get up?
Answer. 8.15 a.m. so I immediately came downstairs and tried to locate the Provost Sergeant.
Question. Who was the Provost Sergeant?
Answer. Sergeant Odlum. After a while I located the Provost Sergeant and reported to him, and he said he would see what he could do. However, I think he mentioned these words "I would not say too much about it because you might spoil our chances to get it". On Monday morning I went to the R.S.M. and reported it to him. He said "what are you going to do", I said "well Sir I suppose I am responsible for it and will have to pay. He said "well, we will go and see the Paymaster". The R.S.M.

CSM. Hopper and I went to the Paymaster to see if we could arrange to pay. He said he would look into the matter. The next thing I knew I was arrested for embezzlement.

Question by the President. What did the Paymaster say?
Answer. You will have to take the matter up with Aldershot.

Defence resumes.

Question. You offered to pay?
Answer. Naturally, as I was responsible for the money.

Question. Are you still willing to pay?
Answer. Yes, because I am responsible.

The Saturday sales I never made up until the morning following, so I had £35. to £40. on Saturday when I started, so Saturday sales would bring it up to £48. to £50.

Question. You reported to the Sergeant-Major that you had lost about £35.0.0?
Answer. £38.0.0. to be correct.

Question. You found you had lost the money on Sunday morning, 8.15.a.m. about £48.0.0.?
Answer. Saturday sales would bring it up to £48.0.0.

Question. Sunday morning you say, at 8.15 a.m. you found you had lost money which was probably about £48.0.0. On Monday morning you reported you had lost £35.0.0.
Answer. £38.000. was the amount I reported to the R.S.M.

Question. Why would it be less than the day before?
Answer. That was Saturday sales added to the £38.0.0. I made my cash up in the morning for the previous day.

Answer. At that time 14, and across the hall 18 privates.

The Prosecutor addresses the Court.

Fool or rogue? I fail to see anything to support the alternative that he is a fool, because he is a man of about 42 years of age, has had some experience in handling cash, and it is unbelievable that he could act in the manner he has acted to protect the interests of himself and the sergeants' mess, in the light of his experience and as an intelligent soldier. I am driven to the conclusion that the man before you is guilty of the allegation in the charge, and in support of that, apart from all the evidence and the circumstances that have been unveiled before you, I would like to point out discrepancies in the evidence of the two witnesses for the defence.
Sgt. Odlum's evidence is the same as that of the R.S.M as to the amount involved, £35.0.0. This contradicts the accused in that he said he told Sgt. Odlum the exact amount by adding the amount he had in his pocket. Both of these witnesses are disinterested, perhaps Sgt. Odlum more so. Their evidence jibes, and contradicts that of the accused. The accused simply did not know how much he had lost, and reporting the theft, did not give it accurately, although he should have. What was his motive im not, after he was suspicious he might be robbed, and was not satisfied where he was situated, particularly that Saturday night, he did not tell the Provost Sergeant; why did he not entrust the money to the Provost Sergeant from his fears that he might be robbed.
The Provost Sergeant told him to report to the R.S.M. immediately. He tells us he was told to keep it quiet, and he did not report to the R.S.M. and did not say anything to him until the Monday, and it was on that occasion he told him that he had been robbed of £35.0.0.
The whole story of the accused to me does not ring true.
It is a matter for you whether you accept his story or not, but his actions throughout were not consistent with those of a man he appears to be.

The Defence addresses the Court.

I do not agree with what the Prosecutor said. He suggests that the fact that the accused did not entrust the money to the Provost Sergeant, which he should have done or might have done, is cause to find this man guilty. That might be evidence of a certain amount of neglect but not of embezzlement. As far as Sgt. Odlum telling him to report to the R.S.M and telling him also not to say too much about it, that is the reason he kept quiet on Sunday. We admit that the money is lost and the accused is responsible. At the same time there was also neglect on the part of the treasurer and also those in charge, the mess committee, because he had been asked to be moved to quarters where he would have a chance to look after the money, and he had also asked, which is not denied by the treasurer, that the treasurer call on Saturday, which the treasurer did not do.
I do not see how the accused can be blamed, because it is certainly not the action of a guilty man, after embezzeling £50.0.0. the night before, to report to the Provost Sergeant the next morning.
He made out a slip for the full week including Saturday; the only entry not made was Saturday. If he intended to steal the money, would he have filled in the amounts, and everything was filled in up to Friday.
I think that is one of the strongest points in the accused's favour.
I cannot understand why would a man who had just taken this money, immediately report to the Provost Sergeant, and then go up to the Paymaster to pay it back; there was no point in stealing. He had not been out of the camp for a week.

I submit there is very grave doubt in this matter; there may possibly be a little neglect, but more than himself can be blamed for the neglect. Lastly, there is quite a difference of opinion as to whether the treasurer should go for the money or he go to the treasurer. There is certainly a very grave doubt, and if there is any reasonable doubt, the prisoner is entitled to the benefit.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

The Court find that the accused is GUILTY.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE.

in the case of

Number F39795 Cpl. (A/Sgt.) Raymond White TITUS, Est Nova Scotia Regiment. (No.2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit.)

1st Witness for prosecution. Number G45502 Sgt. Firlotte, R.B. Carleton & York Regt. (No.2 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit./ being duly sworn, states:-

I am the treasurer of the Sgts' Mess (No.2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit.) and as such it is my duty to collect the money of the sales made at the Sgts' Mess by the Sgt. Caterer.

A/Sgt. Titus was appointed Caterer of the Sgts' Mess on 25 Aug 40. A copy of the Sgts' Mess Rules and Regulations are posted in the Mess where they can be seen and read by all members, therefor, Sgt. Titus must have been aware of the reO regulations concerning the money collected out of the sale of refreshments.

On the evening of the 28 Aug 40 he said that very little sale had been made, being just before pay day, he had only a couple of pounds. He asked me for two more pounds for change as he claimed he did not have enough to carry on. I gave him two pounds out of the money of the Sgts' Mess which I had on hand. A/Sgt. Titus did not in accordance with the Mess Rules h and in any money collected from the sales of refreshments at any time.

During the day of the 3 Sep 40 R.S.M. Gravel informed me that A/Sgt. Titus had been drinking whilst acting as Caterer. He had lost some money and that he would be replaced by another caterer. He ordered me to be present at the stock taking that same evening.

As ordered I went for the stock taking that evening but was told that two independent members would check the stock.

The two members were CQMS Hopper, CQMS Brennan & A/Sgt. Anderson, the caterer taking over and A/Sgt. Titus the caterer handing over.

After the inventory of the stock had been taken A/Sgt. Titus handed over to me the sum of £11-12-6½ for which I gave him a receipt.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

2nd Witness for prosecution. F29610 CQMS. Hopper, L.F. West Nova Scotia Regiment, No.2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit.) being duly sworn, states:-

On 3 Sep 40 I was asked by Major Morgan to take the Inventory of the stock of the Sgts'Mess.

Assisted by CQMS. Brennan and the incoming caterer A/Sgt. Anderson and in the presence of A/Sgt. Titus, the Mess caterer, the stock on hand was checked by each and every one of us.

The total stock received from the date that A/Sgt. Titus took over as caterer plus the stock on hand on taking over was compiled. To arrive at the total amount of sales, a deduction was made from total stock received plus the stock on hand on taking over which amounted to £61-7-3½ together with £2-0-0 handed to the caterer to make change making a total of £63-7-3½.

I then instructed Sgt. Firlotted the Treasurer to collect any money A/Sgt. Titus might have in his possession. A/Sgt. Titus handed over the amount of £11-12-6½ thus leaving a deficit of £51-14-9.

At the time that the inventory was taken, about 1800 hrs. on 3 Sep 40, A/Sgt. Titus was under the influence of liquour, but he could still carry on with his work.

As an explanation to this alleged deficiency he said that a certain amount of money was in his pants pockets when he arrived on the night of 31 Aug, when he got up, the next morning he found that his money had gone.

2nd Witness for prosecution.

He mentioned that had the treasurer collected the money on Saturday 31 Aug. he would not be in such a difficulty.

A/Sgt. Titus did not mention any thing about the disappearance of money from his pockets until the alleged deficiencies were discovered.

On rechecking the sales and the stock with the new caterer A/Sgt. Anderson it was discovered that the amount of £1-6-0 had been overlooked thus leaving a deficit of £50-8-9.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

3rd Witness for prosecution.

G45503 CQMS. Brennan, C. E. No.3 Coy. (No.2 Cdn. Inf.Holding Unit.) being duly sworn, states;-

I corroborate CQMS. Hopper's statement with the exception that the accused did not mentioned any thing before me regarding his money having been stolen, from his pants pockets All he said in front of me was that he had lost the money belonging to the Sgts' Mess.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

4th Witness for prosecution.

F54696 L/Cpl.)A/Sgt.) Anderson, A.J. (No.2 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit.) being duly sworn, states;-

On or about 1800 hrs. 3 Sep 40 I took over the charge of caterer in the Sgts' Mess (No.2 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit.) As such I was present when the inventory of the stock on hand was made by CQMS. Hopper and CQMS. Brennan in the presence of A/Sgt. Titus who was handing over.

To my estimation A/Sgt. Titus was under the influence of liquour when he handed over the stock.

After the inventory of the stock on hand had been completed, I was handed in a complete list of the stock for which I signed a receipt.

No money was left over in the till except two pounds for change which were given to me by the Treasurer.

On the 5 Sep 40 I discovered that five small packages of Woodbine Cigarette were missing from a cartoon which had been counted at the stock taking as a full cartoon. Since then no other shortages have been discovered.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

5th Witness for prosecution.

F43670 C.S.M. Leask, W.A. West Nova Scotia Regiment, (No.2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit.) being duly sworn, states;-

On the afternoon of the 4 Sep 40 I was asked by Major Morgan to assist CQMS Hopper in rechecking the stock on charge to the cate rer of the Sgts' Mess.

After the closing of the bar for the day's business, the inventory of the stock was taken by CQMS. Hopper, A/Sgt. Anderson and myself.

After checking over and according to the list of articles produced by CQMS. Hopper, a deficiency of £50-8-9, existed.

On the 3 Sep 40 I would say that A/Sgt. Titus had been drinking and at noon on that day he should not have been ca tering.

6th Witness for prosecution. P48067 R.S.M. Gravel, X.C.A. Royal 22e Regiment, (No.2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit.) being duly sworn, states;-

A/Sgt. Titus took over the duties as Mess Caterer at the Sgts' Mess, 2 Cdn. Inf. H.U. on the 25 Aug 40 from Sgt. Pineau. On taking over he was instructed that he was personnally responsible for the stock on hand and any additional stock that may be purchased. I also instructed him that he was to hand over the money from the previous daily sales to the Treasurer. Furthermore he was told not to make credit to anyone.

About lunch time on the 3 Sep 40 I went to the Mess and I found A/Sgt. Titus asleep in the bar room. He was under the influence of liquour. I immediately took necessary steps to have him replaced as Caterer.

It was only about 1800 hrs. that day that the change could be made. I ordered CQMS. Hopper & CQMS. Brennan to carry out a complete checking up in the presence of A/Sgt. and A/Sgt. Anderson which was done.

This checking up revealed taht A/Sgt. Titus was short of £50-8-9.

The matter was immediately reported to the C.O.

On the morning of the 2 Sep 40, A/Sgt. Titus reported to me that he had money stolen from his pockets, the amount mentioned was about £35-0-0. At first I thought it was a joke because the previous night, that is, on the 1 Sep 40. I asked him in the presence of CSM. Berry if he had lot of cash on hand. He smiled and said that he had just a few pounds. I told him then for his own protection to hand over the money to the Treasurer. He said he would.

X.G.R. Gravel

7th Witness for prosecution. D81769 C.S.M. Berry, W.C. (No.2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit., being duly sworn, states;-

On Sunday 1 Sep 40 after supper R. S.M. Gravel and I were just on the point of leaving the Mess when the R.S.M. asked the accused how much money he had on hand. I heard him distinctly saying that he had a pound or so and in the course of the conversation he asked permission to sleep in the Mess as he was afraid he might be robbed.

Q.- by the accused.

At any time between the 25th Aug and the 2 Sep 40 whilst acting as caterer, did you see me drunk?.

Ans.- I would say that he did drink during that period but I could not say that he was drunk.

W. Berry

The accused declines to ask any further question to this witness.

The accused was given the following caution.
Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath?. You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

R. P.4 (C)(D)(E)&(F) were complied with.
The accused reserves his defence.

C-32202, Pte. Tobias, D., (C & Y Fd. Unit) No. 2 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, tried by Field General Court-Martial at Witley, Surrey, on the 27th day of February, 1941.

The order convening the Court, the charge-sheet and the summary of evidence are laid before the Court.

Prosecutor - Lieut. G.A. Addy
Defending Officer - Lieut. B. Wallace

At 1000 hours the Trial commences.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused and they severally answer to their names.

Q1 - Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1 - No, sir.

The President and members are duly sworn.

Q2 - Do you object to M-15577 Sgt. Stanley Fidler, The Edmonton Regiment, C.M.H.Q., acting as Court Stenographer?
A2 - No, sir.

The Court Stenographer is duly sworn.

The charge-sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon each charge in the above mentioned charge-sheet.

Q3 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 - Guilty, sir.
Q4 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the second charge against you, which you have heard read?
A4 - Guilty, sir.
Q5 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the third charge against you, which you have heard read?
A5 - Guilty, sir.
Q6 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the fourth charge against you, which you have heard read?
A6 - Not guilty, sir.

R.P. 35(B) is complied with in connection with the first three charges.

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for the prosecution, G-45503, C.Q.M.S. Brennan, C.E., No. 2 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

A9 - Yes, sir.
Q10 - Is this your signature? (Indicates summary of evidence)
A10 - Yes, sir.
Q11 - Is that a correct list of his deficiencies?
A11 - Yes, at that time.
Q12 - Has he recovered any of these articles to your knowledge?
A12 - Yes, sir, I made a kit inspection on the 25th and he had recovered the boots ankle, drawers woolen and belt waist web, therefore he is still lacking the bage ration and the clasp knife and the two shoulder straps.

The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine this witness.

Lieut. G.A. Addy, being duly sworn, states: I have checked the prices on this charge and they are correct except for the straps haversack which are 4s 0½d each. That would make it 6s 1½d.

R.P. 40 is complied with by the Court and the accused elects to make a statement which is not given under oath.

G-32202, Pte. Tobias, D., No. 2 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, states as follows:

When I was apprehended my clasp-knife was taken away by the provost sergeant and put in a box and I forgot about it until a few days ago when they were going through the box and found my clasp-knife. (The clasp-knife is produced for the inspection of the Court)

Defending Officer - Were you issued that knife by the Carleton & York Regiment?
Accused - No, sir, it was issued to me by the St. John Fusiliers, they do not issue that knife now, it is a smaller knife.

First witness for the defence, G-45401, Sgt. Allen, E.W., No. 2 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q13 - Do you know the accused?
A13 - Yes, sir.
Q14 - As provost sergeant did Tobias come under your observation?
A14 - Yes, sir, since the 15th December. We were moving from Bordon and took all the prisoners pending the removal.
Q15 - How has behaved while in detention?
A15 - He has been very good and worked well
Q16 - Has he given you any trouble?
A16 - No, sir.
Q17 - Is he a very good worker?
A17 - An exceptionally good worker.

The prosecutor declines to cross-examine this witness.

Second witness for the defence, P-43067, R.S.M. Gravel, X.G.A., No. 2 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q18 - In your capacity as R.S.M. do you know the accused?
A18 - Yes, sir.
Q19 - Would you the Court how he behaved under your observation?
A19 - He was a very good prisoner and volunteered for work and and for service as a fatigue on many duties carried out by the prisoners. His conduct was very good.
Q20 - No complaints at all?
A20 - No, sir.
Q21 - An exceptionally good worker?
A21 - A good worker, sir.

The prosecutor declines to cross-examine this witness.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

Lieut. G.A. Addy, No. 2 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, is duly sworn.

Q22 - Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A22 - I produce A.F.B. 296 and M.F.M. 6 of the accused.
Q23 - Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A23 - Yes, sir.
Q24 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A24 - Yes, sir.
Q25 - Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A25 - Yes, sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Q26 - Do you wish to address the Court?
A26 - (Defending Officer) Forthe information of the Court, this is the third time Tobias has been arraigned before a court-Martial the first two times were thrown out at the behest of the Court or the prosecutor and we are anxious to have this dealt with.
Q27 - Why?
A27 - They couldn't determine at first whether he belonged to the Carleton and York Regiment or the St. John Fusiliers. Capt. Price, who defended Tobias the last two times states they were thrown out for technical reasons and the case was postponed because of one or two technical discrepancies. Tobias has been in detention five months. He has pleaded guilty to three charges before him. It has been declared by the R.S.M. and the provost sergeant that to make amends he has been going out of his way to pay for his punishment. The five months detention should be taken into consideration and I think it is very serious. That is all, sir, I would just ask the leniency of the court in that regard.

Questions to the accused by the President.

Q28 - When did you join the army?
A28 - August 27th, five days before [illegible]
Q29 - How old are you?
A29 - Nineteen.
Q30 - Married?
A30 - No, sir.
Q31 - Where did you join up?
A31 - St. Johns, N.B.
Q32 - When did you come to England?
A32 - 22nd May, sir.
Q33 - Did you get landing leave?
A33 - No, sir.
Q34 - Why?
A34 - I don't know.
Q35 - Any trouble then?
A35 - No, sir.
Q36 - When did you first get leave?
A36 - I haven't had any since coming over, sir, I was with the reinforcements for two or three weeks and then transferred to the regiment.
Q37 - At that time you were moving about?
A37 - Yes, sir.
Q38 - All leave was cancelled and you couldn't get any. Why did you go absent on the 2nd July?
A38 - I went on the 29th June, Saturday, to Oxford and at one o'clock in the morning I missed my train by five minutes and grabbed another train and the next think I knew I was in Reading. I figured I was in for it then and that I might as well make a week of it. Then my regiment, moved. I was apprehended in Nottingham by the civil police and they asked me what my regiment was and I told them the Carleton and York and in my pay book it still showed the St. Johns Fusiliers and they wanted me to confess what regiment I belonged to. Then I tried to go out and find my regiment myself. I came back to Reading and saw Sgt. Butler and asked where the regiment was and he told me he didn't know because he was on the Odiham guard.
Q39 - First of all you broke away from the Nottingham police?
A39 - Yes, sir. I was picked up by the civil police and they turned me over to the military police. Then I was picked up and brought back to Bordon and I was there about two weeks and opportunity knocked at the door and I walked out. The way I escaped down there was they were bringing in a drunk and the door was left unguarded and I walked out of the door. I shouldn't have, sir.
Q40 - What have you been doing since the 26th September?
A40 - I've been in detention since that time.
Q41 - Have you been tried before on any of these offences?
A41 - Yes, sir.

The Court is closed forthe consideration of the sentence.

SUMMARY of EVIDENCE

in the case of

G 32202, Private David Tobias, Carleton-York Regiment Field Unit (No. 2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit), a soldier of the Canadian Army (Overseas).

Evidence taken on oath by order of the Commanding Officer.

First Witness Prosecution

Lieut. W. H. DeVeber, being duly sworn states: I am Acting Records Officer of No. 2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit. I produce herewith:

(a) Certificate by Major F.D. Tweedie, 11-9-40
(b) A.F.B. 252
(c) Statement by Lieut W.H. Bolton, 10th Bn. The Sherwood Foresters, 10-8-40.
(d) A.F.B. 252, 2-9-40
(e) M.F.B. 264, 27-9-40.

All concern the accused, whom I recognise.

W H DeVeber Lieut.

Accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Second Witness Prosecution.

G 17763 Cpl. Orr, J.A., being duly sworn states: On Sunday night, September 15th, 1940, I was Guard Commander at the Guard Detention Room, No. 2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit, Louisburg Barracks, and as such I was responsible for those in confinement in the Guard Room. Some time during the night of 15th/16th September, 1940, the accused escaped. How it did happen, I cannot say. At that time, there were about twenty-five men in the Guard Room, and it was difficult to handle due to the Black-out.
Any time a man in the Guard Room wishes to go to the latrines he had to go to the next building, and it is extremely difficult to check and keep proper supervision. The men on guard were practically all inexperienced and new at this kind of work and it is possible that the accused may have slipped away without being noticed.

J A Orr Cpl.

Accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Third Witness Prosecution

G 45503, C.Q.M.S. Brennan, C.E., being duly sworn states: I am C.Q.M.S. of No. 3 Company, No. 2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit. I made an inspection of the kit of G 32202, Pte. Tobias, David on 7 February, 1941, and found him to be deficient of: 1 pr. Ankle Boots, £1-2-6; 1 pr. woollen drawers, 6s 3d; 1 clasp kinfe, 3s 4d; 1 ration bag, 2½d; 1 belt waist web, 5s 4d; 2 shoulder straps haversack, 4s 2d.
Total value, £2-1-8½.

E C Brennan C.Q.M.S.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Compliance with R.P. 4 (c) (d) (e) certified.

Case of: Sigmn Tobin, E.

Sigmn. TOBIN, E. regimental number D-24184, the accused pleads guilty.

The accused joined the army the 15 Sep 1939 and until 17 Mar 1943 when he absented himself had never committed a crime. He was awarded a good conduct stripe 15 Sep 41. I have known the accused from joining date onwards. I can say his sense of duty, and character, is of the very best.

He has been employed at the following trades cook, driver i/c, carpenter and technical storeman. These he has worked at and given a very satisfactory account of himself.

I know the accused has undergone a mental strain over a period of three years.

He arrived in England 7 Sep 1940 with 2 Divisional Signals. About January 1941 he received a confidential letter from Dependents Allowance Branch stating, his wife was living with another man. The Dependents Allowance Branch requested him to sign forms and terminate his separation allowances. The accused has been married for fourteen years, is the father of two boys, thirteen years and eight years of age. He has never had reason to ever doubt his wife. So refused to terminate the allowances and to send his children to an orphanage. The matter appeared to be cleared at that time. However in September 1941 his wife wrote and said, "She suffered stoppages of $150.00 due to Dependence allowance Branch action." The accused saw the Paymaster and had this rectified, after several ~~incidents~~ interviews.

In December 1941 just before Christmas the accused suffered injury to his right hand and arm due to an accident, was sent to the hospital. His right arm has had a tremor ever since. The man's civil trade, Watch Mechanic, is lost to him.

Correspondence from Canada since 1942 has not been all that could be desired. All the various incidents related have preyed on this man's mind. He has suffered them in silence.

On 17 Mar 1943 his trades pay, or proficiency pay was withdrawn. So far as accused knew for an unknown reason. Yet, two other men who were working at the same trade, Technical Stores, received it.

The accused finally feeling he was useless to the Army, to himself, and family, was at his wits end as to what to do. I believe the accused was mentally stressed. He did not realize the seriousness of his misdemeanour.

I plead with the court for leniency in this case on the stated grounds, ~~Further details should be entered in confidential envelope in civil life and Army records.~~

Summary of Evidence in the case of F97503 Pte Tobin, N.H. a soldier of the Carleton & York Regiment, Canadian Army Overseas, on Active Service.

By direction of the Commanding Officer this Summary of Evidence is taken under Oath.

First Witness for Prosecution

Capt. D.R. Sharpe, Carlt & York R having been duly sworn states:

I am and was at all times material hereto Lt., A/Capt D.R.Sharpe, Adjutant Carlt & York R.

On the morning of 15 Nov 43 I issued an order to all companies to collect any of their personnel who were in the unit Guard Room because the unit was ordered to move forward and we had no facilities for handling prisoners who were under close arrest. At about 1430 hrs that day I was told that some of the prisoners had refused to leave the guard room. I sent the RSM to the guard room to investigate. As soon as possible I went to the Guard Room myself and when I arrived at the Guard room the accused were being brought into the presence of RSM Jessome, CSM Lawson and CSM Barr and these men were ordered one at a time to leave the guard room and return to their companies immediately. The accused was one of these men. Each one refused and was taken back to the cell. In order that there might be no misunderstanding I had the men among whom was the accused brought in again and explained to them that a man under arrest could be required in the field and on active service to bear arms, attend parades and perform other duties and I also explained the seriousness of the charge to which they were laying themselves open. Each man was then again ordered by RSM Jessome to leave the guard room at once and return to his company. The Accused was one of these so ordered and a full opportunity was given the accused to obey the order. They did not do so but each said, "No, I will not go" or words to that effect. The accused was one of these men. The accused then went out under escort. These men to whom I have referred above, were in the guard room awaiting the outcome of legal proceeding, which had been instituted against them, and the accused was one of them.

The First Witness for the Prosecution, 6192606, Sgt. Young, R. C.M.P., having been duly sworn, states:

I am stationed at Aldershot. On 14th April I was out on patrol and I saw the accused on that afternoon and I recognize him. It was about 1530 hrs. He was in Victoria Road, north of the C.P.O. I saw an A.T.S. patrol approaching him and I noticed him stepping back a pace and preventing them from continuing this patrol. He crossed the street to accost the patrol. He had the two buttons from the top of his blouse unbuttoned and his hands were in his trousers pocket.. I called his attention to this and told him to carry on. He slowly started to fasten one of the buttons and then said "what will you do if I don't button this up." He said this to me in a very insolent manner. I told him to carry on again and he said the second time "And what will you do if I don't?" I then went to take him along to the station, he swung with his left arm in an attempt to strike me. L/Cpl Ingram, who was there, prevented him from hitting me. P.C. Kidd, I think it was, also assisted me with P.C. Peters. The accused was struggling violently. He kicked Ingram on the hand, and it required the assistance of four police officers and others to put him in the truck. We then asked the driver to take him to the barracks. I reported the matter to the Cdn Provost. The street was very busy at that time. The A.T.S. police were dressed properly and complete with red caps and arm bands. L/Cpl Ingram of the C.M. Police and Sgt. Dugan of the A.T.S. police were with me at the time. The accused was normal as far as his condition was concerned. He was not drunk.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q 1 How far away were the A.T.S. patrol whenyou first saw them?
A 1 About 20 yards.
Q 2 Did you hear the accused speak to them?
A 2 No, I didnot.
Q 3 Why did you approach the accused?
A 3 I thought there was going to be trouble.
Q 4 Did you think he was annoying them?
A 4 Yes.
Q 5 What did you first do?
A 5 I told him to get a move on, button up his blouse and take his hands out of his pockets.
Q 6 Did you tell him again?
A 6 Yes, then he ripped his whole blouse open and struck a defiant attitude.
Q 7 Did you find the Sgt a strong man?
A 7 Yes, very strong.
Q 8 How did you hold him?
A 8 By what is called the "policeman's grip" (Demonstrates on Defending Officer)
Q 9 You say it required four additional men to put him in the truck?
A 9 Yes.
Q 10 Were his legs twisted?
A 10 I don't think so, the P.C. had hold of his legs.
Q 11 Was he violent?
A 11 Yes, he was.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q 12 Was the accused wearing a cap?
A 12 Yes, he was wearing a regulation tam-o-shanter.

The Second Witness for the Prosecution, 7o89202, L/Cpl Ingram, A., C.M.P., having been duly sworn, states:

I am stationed at Aldershot. On the afternoon of the 14th April I was with Sgt. Young and Sgt. Duggan of the A.T.S. I recognize the accused. I saw the accused near the G.P.O. standing in front of two L/Cpls of the A.T.S. police. They were properly dressed as such. Sgt. Young went over to the accused and the A.T.S. Provost. I was driving the truck and Sgt. Young got out of the truck. I followed him and I heard Sgt. Young talking to the accused to correct his dress. Before we arrived the accused was talking to the A.T.S. Police but I did not hear what he said. His blouse was open at the neck and as fer down as two buttons. He had his hands in his pockets. The A.T.S. patrol looked as if they were going about their duties. It appeared to me as if he was hindering the girls in their duties. I heard

Sgt. Young tell the accused to button up his blouse, take his hands out of his pockets and carry on. The accused said to Sgt. Young "What if I don't" and then opened his blouse again. He spoke in a sarcastic manner. He was asked to do his buttons up again and the accused waved his left fist and I thought he was going to strike some one. Sgt Young took hold of the accused and asked me to help him with the truck. Sgt Young said "you come along with me" to the accused. He resisted arrest and we had to have the help of the civil police in getting him into the truck. Just before we got to the truck the accused kicked me on the right hand (shows cut). The accused was sober at this time, but he may have had a drink from the smell of his breath.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q 12 Do you agree if I tell you that Sgt. Young said he was sober?
A 12 I agree with Sgt Young.
Q 13 But you now say that you smelt liquor on his breath?
A 13 Yes, but he was not drunk.
Q 14 How far away were you from the accused when Sgt. Young approached him?
A 14 About 18 or 20 yards.
Q 15 How far away were you from the accused when Sgt. Young spoke to him?
A 15 About three paces away. I did not notice the accused's breath until I was quite close to him, not when I first got out of the truck.
Q 16 What was the weather like?
A 16 It was a nice day.
Q 17 What did Sgt. Young do when the accused raised his fist?
A 17 Sgt. Young took hold of the other arm of the accused. Then I came to the assistance of Sgt. Young and helped him to put him on the truck.
Q 18 How did you assist?
A 18 I took hold of the accused's arm like this (demonstrates). I didn't use the policeman's grip.
Q 19 When were you kicked?
A 19 On the way to the truck. It was a struggle to get him into the truck and the civil police had to come and help us. He was struggling violently and we literally carried him. He locked his arm on the side of the truck and we had to lift him bodily into the truck. I do not think that the accused was hurt at all in our struggle with him. He certainly needed holding and was resisting violently.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q 20 If the accused had not struggled when first taken hold of by Sgt Young and yourself, would it have hurt him?
A 20 If a man struggles he may get hurt, but if he does not he shouldn't get hurt.

BY THE COURT

Q 21 Do you know if the accused was injured in the struggle?
A 21 I don't think he was.

Third Witness for the Prosecution, P.C. N.15, Peters, W.F., Aldershot, Hants Constabulary, having been duly sworn, states:

I saw the accused on the 14th April near the G.P.O. He was crossing the road toward two A.T.S. Provost. He looked as if he was going to annoy them. Both Sgt. Young and L/Cpl Ingram were properly dressed with red caps and arm bands. I saw the accused open up his blouse to the very bottom. Then there was a struggle and I saw Cpl Ingram getting kicked. Then we went to help. The attitude of the accused was aggressive.

AKP

I don't know the names of the two A.T.S. Provost. He had been drinking but he wasn't drunk. Sgt. Young was also wearing his stripes.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q 22 When did you first see the struggle?
A 22 When the accused first resisted Sgt. Young and Cpl Ingram, Q 23 How far away was he from the G.P.O.?
A 23 Right outside of it.
Q 24 You are sure the accused was sober?
A 24 I do not think he would have done what he did if he had not had a drink, but he was not drunk. The two girls were across the street from the G.P.O. when first accosted.

The Prosecutor then produces and files a certified true copy of extract from Standing Orders 3 C.I.R.U. (Exhibit 1).

The Court close at 1205 hours.

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution, W.O./64074, Sgt. Dugan, P., ATS P/W, being duly sworn, states:

I am one of the A.T.S. Provost. I was on duty on 14th April and in the afternoon I was going round to contact the A.T.S. patrol. I was with Sgt. Young and L/Cpl Ingram. Near the G.P.O. offices on Victoria Road I saw L/Cpl Hill and L/Cpl Latimer of the A.T.S. Provost. Sgt Young at this time was not wearing his red cover on his cap and was not wearing his arm band. I saw the accused talking to my patrol. I noticed the accused had his battle dress blouse open at the neck and he was talking to my patrol. Then the accused and Sgt. Young had a struggle and he tried to strike Sgt. Young. Before this started I noticed that he appeared to be just gossiping with the patrol. They were standing on the corner there I did not pay much attention after the struggle started, because I was busy with my signing of my book.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q 25 Do you know what the accused said to the A.T.S. Provost?
A 25 No.
Q 26 Did the Provost L/Cpls look troubled or afraid?
A 26 No.
Q 27 If an A.T.S. Provost is stopped and a question is asked of them is it not usual for them to stop and reply?
A 27 Yes, it is usual. Sgt. Young had on his military police service cap and badges but no red top on it.
Q 28 Would you say the accused was interfering with the girls on their duty?
A 28 If he was not asking them directions or something like that, he would be interfering with their duty,
Q 29 Was Sgt. Young on duty at the time?
A 29 Yes, but I do not know why he was not wearing his red cap and arm band.

BY THE COURT

Q 30 Is it customary for military police to be on duty without their red caps and arm bands?
A 30 It is not customary but not unusual. Sgt. Young was wearing his proper cap badge and shoulder badges of the Corps of Military Police.

Fifth Witness for the Prosecution, 665818, L/Cpl Hill, P.M., A.T.S. F/W, having been duly sworn, states:

I was on duty on the 14th April with L/Cpl Latimer. When we were near the G.P.O. on Victoria Road I saw the accused cross over the road and he said that the A.T.S. patrol was very smart. He did not ask any other questions. I told him we were on duty and to please go and he turned to go away. Then Sgt. Dugan came along and all I heard was Sgt. Young asking him to do up his blouse twice and the accused refusing the first time. Then Sgt. Young caught hold of the accused and the civil police came. L/Cpl Ingram came over to help Sgt. Young. The accused had been drinking but he was not drunk. Sgt. Young had no red top on and no arm band. He was wearing his Sgt's stripes. He had C.M.P. cap and shoulder badges on.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

The accused commented on our smartness. He was neither rude nor vulgar. We did not resent anything he said to us. He was not standing near us until he crossed the road. He crossed the road to speak to us.

BY THE COURT:

Q 31 Did the accused do anything to embarrass you or interfere with you or your duty?

A 31 The accused did nothing on that day to embarrass me or interfere with my duty.

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

The Prosecutor replied to the submission.

The Court is closed to consider this submission.

The First Witness for the Defence, C4945, Sgt. Bidale, R.W., Essex Scottish Regiment, 3 C.I.R.U., having been duly sworn, states

I was with the accused on a certain day about one week ago from today in the quarters of the accused. I remember seeing the accused on the day in question and I would say that he was in a drunken condition. I did not know whether he had been in a fight or not. It is possible that his condition may have been due to other causes but I didn't mean to indicate that.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

There were no marks on him, only the back of his uniform. If the accused had been injured I would have taken him to a doctor, but I did not do so during the 24 hours I held him.

BY THE COURT:

By drunken condition I mean he was not his normal self. I do not think I would have entrusted him with a duty while he was in that condition. The accused was placed in my custody at about 1620 hours on that Wednesday. I am not sure of the date.

Second witness for the defence, A22281, Sgt. Manning, E.P., Essex Scottish, 3 C.I.R.U., having been duly sworn, states:

I saw the accused on the afternoon of April 14th. We went out at 1200 hours and I was with him in the Queen Hotel, where he had two drinks. We spent about 1/2 hour there and then I left; he had told me before that that he intended going to the Post Office, as that day was his wedding anniversary. The accused was properly dressed whenI last saw him.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

I left the accused at 1245 hours that day. I do not think that two drinks would affect the accused. He had his blouse done up at that time.

Third Witness for the Defende: (Character only) Lieut. F.A. Tilston, Essex Scottish, No. 3 C.I.R.U., having been duly sworn, states:

I have known the accused since he was a corporal in the Essex Scottish. I have known him since 20 Aug 42. During the time he was under my command he was a first class soldier with good instructional ability. He was always a willing and capable N.C.O. I would be more than pleased to have him again in my platoon. Sgt. Tobin has been considered by the unit as an O.C.T.U. candidate. The only reason he is here is because he is awaiting embarkation to Canada.

CAP

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

I do not know anything about the conduct of the Accused since he has been at 3 C.I.R.U.

Address of Prosecutor

In reply to certain statements made by the defending officer and in closing I should like to bring the attention of the Court to a few briefly stated facts concerning the record and their charges.

The accused has not brought forth any evidence to refute the evidence of the prosecution. However the conduct of Sgt Young has been attacked. I would like to point out that his story is fully backed up by L/Cpl Ingram and will bear the closest scrutiny for propriety and good sense. His words were not "push off" but "Do up your battle dress blouse, take your hands out of your pockets and carry on." Had that good advice been taken on the first or second occasion the accused would have been quite free. He chose to be aggressive in a public place in the presence of many people. Only one course was left open to the Provost - which he followed.

From the point of view of

Constable Peters, a civilian and an independent witness, here is what happened.

The accused crossed the street improperly & veered to intercept an ATS Patrol in distinctive uniform. Such should not be the actions of a man on his wedding anniversary. The theory that his blouse was open to give access to a wallet in the inside pocket breaks down on the fact that the collar hooks were undone. The accused then appeared to the constable to intend fire with the ATS Patrol.

Then had the accused asked Sgt Young who he was or why he should "carry-on" a proper identification, if any was lacking, would have been made. Instead the accused, who was not intoxicated became defiant and aggressive.

The accused was taken by the arm. He attacked the escort and so violent were his actions that 3 civil cum policemen were needed to help subdue him. Such is not the conduct required of a Senior N C O.

The accused must have known he was improperly dressed because he left camp with the collar of his blouse turned up and in the words of his friend "properly dressed".

Had the accused used reasonable common-sense he would have gone quietly then straightened out the trouble with the provost off the street. His whole conduct was improper and not soldierly.

It is submitted that the Court has charges are fully proven in every detail and that the accused has not refuted by his defence any material point in the case for the prosecution. All of which is respectfully submitted

W.J. Macpherson Capt

Regt'l No. "2I223 Sgt Tobin, R.T. (Essex Scot Regt.) 3 C. I. R.U

Lieut - Defence

Gentlemen:

You have heard the evidence for and against the accused and on that evidence your decision concerning the innocence or guilt of the accused will rest. With your permission I wish to submit the following:-

Sgt Tobin joined the Essex Scottish in 1935 as a private. As soon as war was declared he went active, on the 14th of April 1940 at the age of nineteen he was married and two months later came to England. While in England he worked hard with his Unit and eventually arrived at his present position as a Sgt. He was on the first trial for the Dieppe raid which was later postponed until the following month. During these manoeuvers his knee was injured and two days before the actual raid came off he was sent to hospital. In view of the fact that a short time later he was recommended by his O.C. to go to Officers O.C.T.U. in Canada there is every reason to believe that he was considered most capable and would most certainly have been sent on the Dieppe show with his unit, and whether or not he would have been amongst the fortunate fifty or so who returned out of the whole battalion cannot be stated.

Sgt Tobin returned to 3 C.I.R.U. to await his embarcation to Canada and on the 14th of April the ~~REMARK~~ circumstances resulting in the present charges occurred. Again with your permission I would like to review the events of that day with you.

On the day in question Sgt Tobin who is only twenty-two realizing that not only was he going back to Canada to see his wife after three long years of hard workand that he was also going to have an opportunity to receive a Commission as an Officer, but also it was his wifes anniversary. Excited and happyhe proceeded/down in the company of Sgt Manning who was also going to C.C.T.U. with him in order to send his wife a telegram. On the way down they stopped in at a pub for a few drinks to celebrate the occassion, and I would at this time draw to your attention the testimony of Sgt Young and L/Cpl Ingram the C.M.P who have charged Sgt Tobin, that he was sober, when the events involving this trial occurred.

Sgt Manning left the pub to visit his fiancee and Sgt Tobin proceeded to the post office at which place he sent his telegram. Feeling gay and light hearted he came out of the post office and almost immediately ran into two A.T.S. Provosts. Possibly with the thought of his wife still in his mind and the excitement of seeing her, he in broad daylight at one of the buisiest corners in Aldershot goes over and comments on their smart appearance. Here I would draw to your attention the testimony of L/Cpl Hill A.T.S. Provost who corroborates this and states that after saying he turned to go awaybut was approached by Sgt Young of the C.M.P and Sgt Dugan A.T.S. Provost. Sgt Young, who did not have red cap or M.P. badge on reproached Sgt Tobin for having his tunic unbottoned words were passed a fight ensued involving Sgt Young, L/Cpl Ingram and constable Peters.

The fact that Sgt Tobin appeared on the street with his coat undone I suggest can be explained by the fact that he carried his wallet inside his tunic and when he went to pay for his telegram he necessarily had to undo his tunic to get his money, in his excitement he omitted to do it up when he came onto the street and I suggest that if after he had spoken to the A.T.S. Provosts he had been allowed to turn awayand had not been prevented from so doing he would have in all probability noticed the condition of the coat and done it up, but was prevented from so doing by the interference of Sgt Young.

I also submit that the argument and subsequent fight which ensued was due to the following reasons.

Here was a young man who was happy and excited, he had done no harm nor meant any harm by complimenting the A.T.S. prov-ost on their smart appearance. He had after all gone up to two military woman, soldiers, wearing M.P. badges, in broad daylight on a very busy street and spoken to them. He did not pick two young civilian girls, nor pick a side street, which I suggest would have in all probability have done if his intentions were inclined in that direction. Suddenly out of the blue he is approached by Young who in front of the woman, whether because he wanted to exercise his authority or because he wanted to show off in front of the women, gruffly tells Sgt Tobin to do up his tunic and move along. Immediately all his gayety and excitement turns to anger, he commences to do as told and then possibly feeling angry at being spoken to in such a manner in front of the A.T.S. who he felt were his friends asked XXX Young what he would do if he did not do so: whereupon according to L/Cpl Hill's testimony young made an attempt to catch ahold of Sgt Tobin, Sgt Tobin being a man who has been trained to fight for three years and taught to act quicklydefended himself from this assault on his person and immediately L/Cpl Ingram jumped in and finally Constable Peters, with the result that L/Cpl Ingram got clipped on the hand. Sgt Tobin says that he had his legs twisted and his head bumped.

I submit gentlemen that viewing the evidence and the surrounding circumstances that the accused is innocent on all charges. If Sgt Tobin had been allowed to continue on his way as was his intention after speaking to L/Cpls Hill and Latimer there would have in all likelyhood been no trouble and instead of sitting here before the court an accused man he would be free and ready to move on to take new successes and to return to England as an Officer and a leader of men as his C.C. and other superiors in his unit had recommended and desired.

I succeeded in sobering him to the extent that he could eat his supper. I then brought him to his room. He lay on his bed and fell into a deep sleep. At approximately 2130 hrs I attempted to awake him but failed, so I took off his boots and covered him up with some extra blankets. He awoke at about 0240 hrs and we had a short chat. He appeared sober and asked me what he had been doing and if he was under close or open arrest. I told him close arrest as he was in my custody. He then went back to sleep.

PLEA OF MITIGATION

The accused soldier, Pte R.T. Tobin has been a soldier in the Canadian Army since the fall of 1939, practically all of which has been spent with the Essex Scottish Regiment, which, plus time spent with the Reserve Army gives him a total of 12 years service. He landed in France with this unit early in July, and with the exception of the 15 days 13 hrs A.W.L. as charged has seen continous service since that time. His work with the Pioneer platoon and later with the R.A.P. was highly commendable and never at anytime has he been accused of shirking his duties. In both units he was under enemy fire on numerous occassions and I would like to point out that his period of being A.W.L took place after he had been told that he would not be required for the operation that was about to start. Also that when the unit moved out from the rest area on Nov 8, he had reported back for duty before then. In view of his long army service and the fact that he obviously did not wish to miss any operations in which the unit was engaged I would like to ask that the court be lenient in their decision. Attached is a statement from Capt S.B. MacDonald, C Coy. Commander who had volunteered to act as a character witness.

A'Bond Lieut

I, Capt. S.B. MC DONALD, of the Essex Scottish Regiment have known Pte. TOBIN since Sep, 1942. He was at that time an acting lance corporal in 'C' Coy. He was one of the best junior N.C.Os. in the coy and in a short time was promoted to the rank of A/Sgt. He was admired and respected by all of 'C' Coy and at all times did an excellent job. He was recommended for OCTU, passed his pre-OCTU and during the period of waiting to go to OCTU, got into some trouble with the provost, who placed him under close arrest. He eventually came back to the unit and from then on did not seem to have much sense of responsibility and did not exercise much control over himself. When the unit came overseas, I think Pte. TOBIN was in the pioneer platoon. Shortly afterwards while we were in the CAEN AREA he again ran into trouble, with the pioneers, possibly due to the fact that he knew more about explosives etc., than all the rest of the pioneer platoon together. He then went to the R.A.P. where he did a very good job attending wounded, bringing in casualties and evacuating them though all kinds of shell fire. Since then his behavior when on duty under fire has been most excellent All the way from ANTWERP to WALCHEREN he remained on duty and did an excellent job, even refusing to go on 48 hr leave while we were in action. However when we returned to a rest area he almost immediately went A.W.L., which of course there is no excuse or reason. One th ng I will say is that as soon as he heard that the unit would be moving soon to the front he immediately returned of his own free will. I do not know what caused Pte. TOBIN to get into trouble back in 1943 but I am certain that there must have been some reason for it. In conclusion I might say that when in action and under fire there is nobody I would rather have in my company that the accused Pte. TOBIN.

S.B. McDonald

(S.B. MC DONALD) Captain.

Dr. J. Am

Character Witness for A 21223 Pte Roy Thomas TOBIN.

Capt. Cardy J. (Padre) having been duly sworn states:

I am padre of the Essex Scot. and have known Tobin ever since he has been with the Regt. His first connection with the R.A.P came when he volunteered to drive a jeep into the German lines to evacuate casualties. The med. off. subsequently asked him to remain on the R.A.P. staff, because of his good work. At all times in action, and around the R.A.P. he has conducted himself as a good soldier.

Capt C.A. Richardson, Medical Officer, 1st Bn The Essex Scottish Regiment, (sworn) states:

On 23 Oct 44 I was Medical Officer IC Medical Section, 1st Bn The Essex Scottish Regt and Pte Tobin, the accused, whom I recognize was a member of that section. In the afternoon of that day at about 1300 hrs I authorized a 48 hr stay L.O.B. for Pte Tobin because he was not required for duty in the impending armoured drive. I instructed him to report to 'B' Ech for his L.O.B. stay giving him a note to take to 'B' Ech. He had to do some work at 'A' Ech before reporting to 'B' Ech, but should not have taken more than 6 hrs to accomplish all this. I did not see Pte Tobin again until we were in Bonheiden on 7 NOV 44 at about 1700 hrs. He reported for duty the morning of 8 NOV 44.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No Sir.(5)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans No Sir.(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)
NB. If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?

Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?

(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

Q.1 - Will you give the Court your correct number, rank and name?
A.1 - I am A-50489 L/Cpl Myers, R, Pro Sec, Essex Scot.
Q.2 - Are you on the Regimental Police Section?
A.2 - Yes, sir.
Q.3 - Will you tell the Court in your own words exactly what you know of this case?
A.3 - Yes, sir, on 26 Feb 45 at about 0230 hrs I was on duty in the door of TAC BHQ. I heard a slight disturbance in the RAP. I went in and found Pte Tobin, whom I now recognize. He was intoxicated so I took him outside, then went back in and straightened up the furniture. When I came out, Pte Tobin was gone, sir. That is all I have to say, sir.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.4 - Have you any idea where Pte Tobin went?
A.4 - No, I have not, sir.
Q.5 - Could he have been in the unit lines?
A.5 - Yes, he could have been, sir. It was dark, and I went up and down the road looking for him but he must have been there somewheres.

The Prosecutor declines to ~~cross-~~re-examine the witness.

By the Court -
Q.6 - Where did this take place?
A.6 - Outside TAC Bn HQ, sir.
Q.7 - When you looked for him, did you look in the unit compound?
A.7 - Well, I had an idea he was down the road and looked about a mile in either direction, but he was not there.
Q.8 - Did you look in the unit lines?
A.8 - In the position we was at we used houses and all around the area was full of troops, the Arty was around the building, and you couldn't identify anybody.
Q.9 - The Coys were disposed tactically, not coupled together in nice little houses on one street, weren't they?
A.9 - Yes, the coys were more or less in billets, I think. I am not positive.
Q.10 - Well the weren't all grouped around one spot were they?
A.10 - I couldn'd say, sir.
Q.11 - Where did you leave Pte Tobin when you went back into the RAP?
A.11 - I left him by the door of TAC Bn HQ sitting in a big chair.
Q.12 - And when you came back you didn't see him and don't know where he went?
A.12 - That's right, sir.

In the opinion of the Court and JA it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Second Witness for the Prosecution, B-44317 Pte LePage, J W, Essex Scot, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.14 - In your own words will you tell the Court what you know about this case?

A.14 - Yes, sir, I was on guard in the door of BHQ on the morning of 26 Feb 45. I had been on during the night and was called upon by L/Cpl Myers to assist him when Pte Tobin was under the influence of liqour. The last time I saw him this night was with Cpl Myers. I went to bed before he left the place. He reported to me at a quarter to 8 in the morning. He was sober then.

Court

Q.15 - Do you know where this action took place?
A.15 - In our billets, at BHQ.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.16 - Have you any idea where Pte Tobin had been after he reported to you?

Q.18 - What was his condition then? Was he sober?
A.18 - I would not say he was drunk, but he was in high spirits.
Q.19 - Was he walking steadily or staggering a bit?
A.19 - I never seen him staggering.
Q.20 - You think he was under the influence of liquor, though?
A.20 - Yes, he had been drinking some, sir.
Q.21 - He reported to you at 0745 hrs next morning?
A.21 - Yes, sir, I was on guard at the door when he came in.
Q.22 - Where did he come from?
A.22 - Well, when I first saw him he was about 5 feet away.
Q.23 - Did he say anything?
A.23 - The MO was in and Pte Tobin said, Good morning doc. And the Adj had told me when I seen Tobin to tell him the Adj wanted to see him, so when I seen Pte Tobin I told him, the Adj wanted to see him.

In the opinion of the Court and JA it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The Defending Officer makes the following plea in mitigation.

Pte Tobin has been in the Essex Scot since 5 Sep 39. He came over with the unit into France when we landed and he has done a good job of work with the regiment. Personnally, I cannot understand why a man is brought up before a court-martial for drunkenness, as in this case. Since he has already been 24 days in close arrest, I would as the Court to take that into consideration when awarding sentence.

F 88639 Cpl Snow H having been duly sworn states. I have known Pte Tobin since Oct 1942 and my opinion is that he is a good soldier. I was with him in action and he caused no trouble. My opinion of a good soldier is that he carries out his duties without any complaints and does what he is told.

RP/83/B complied with.

Statement in mitigation of punishment.

E3 I would like the court to take into consideration the following facts:- The accused enlisted voluntarily in 1940 at the age of 18. Of these 4 yrs of service 3 were spent overseas. The accused has seen action and has had no complaints from the service. He was wounded due to enemy action was sent back to Canada requested more than once to go back to his regt. but refused. The accused has had no leave since his arrival in Italy. Here is another circumstance of friendship in the life of the accused pointed out to the court in the fact that he is supporting his Mother. In view of what I have stated I make a plea that the accused be dealt with lightly as possible.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans.....(1)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?
Ans..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?

The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. PLEA OF MITIGATION IN THE CASE OF:

C.80805 Pte TOBIN V ----- 8 CDN REPAT DEPOT

Pte Tobin joined the Cdn Army of his own free will and initiative in Nov 42 and proceeded overseas in Apr of the following year.

Pte Tobin tried several times to be sent to an operational theatre but was refused on account of repeated admittances to Hospital on account of strictures, 60 times in all, so that he could join his comrades over there in the fighting for which he had joined the Army to participate in, unfortunately however, he was turned down on each occasion due to his medical category which prevented his leaving this country.

Pte Tobin had been quite depressed and worried for some time due to the fact that he had received no mail from either his wife or anyone else since the end of the war. When the Christmas season approached and he noticed everyone else feeling so carefree and gay, the loneliness cooped up inside of him overcame him, and he decided to go up to Derby and visit some of his friends there whom he had soldiered with, as these were about the only real friends he had here in England, [illegible] were either back home in Canada or over on the continent at this time.

After he had been up there a few days and felt in somewhat better spirits he returned to his unit voluntarily and gave himself up at the unit guard room. He has already spent 10 days under close arrest awaiting trial.

He would like to get home as soon as possible in order to see what has happened to his wife to cause her to suddenly stop writing to him and if it is at all possible straighten out any problems or difficulties and get his marriage back on a firm footing once more.

I think Pte Tobin deserves every possible consideration, for he tried on several occasions to get over on the continent and really fight for what he thought was right and now he became somewhat restless and discontent because he was not allowed this privilege due to his low medical category.

If he can get back now to see his wife and get his marital problems off his mind I think that he will be ready for his place as a Canadian Citizen.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of G-50285 Pte Vincent TOBIN RCASC on PE strength of 8 Canadian Repatriation Depot ("1" Wing) a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

"I produce the following documents pursuant to ORO 5352 which have been read over and shown to the accused and which are attached hereto as exhibits. "

(1) Certified True Copy of extract from 8 Cdn Repat Depot daily Part II Order No. 2 dated 3 Jan 46, showing G-50285 Pte Tobin V. as absent from 1000 hrs 20 Dec 45 to 1500 hrs 29 Dec 45 at which time he surrendered himself which I produce as exhibit "A".

The accused was cautioned as follows [redacted]

"Do you wish to make any statement or give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

The accused requests to give evidence on oath in his defence.

G-50285 Pte Tobin V having been duly sworn states:

"I haven't been getting any mail from my wife, Christmas and New Years came around and I did not even get a post card, in fact I have had two letters during the last nine months. Since the war ended I have not had any mail at all.
The reason I did not get the Army to investigate into it is because I thought I would be home shortly. Since I have been in the Army I have had very little mail from my wife, and that has caused me a great deal of worry.

T. Tobin V.

(G-50285 Pte Tobin V)

The accused does not call any witnesses.

"I certify that the above summary of evidence consisting of one page, was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused and that Rules of Procedure 4 (c), (d), (e), and (f) have been complied with."

PLEA OF MITIGATION IN THE CASE OF:

C.50285 Pte TOBIN V ----- 8 CDN REPAT DEPOT

Pte Tobin joined the Cdn Army of his own free will and initiative in Nov 42 and proceeded overseas in Apr of the following year.

Pte Tobin tried several times to be sent to an operational theatre but was refused on account of repeated admittances to Hospital on account of strictures, 60 times in all, so that he could join his comrades over there in the fighting for which he had joined the Army to participate in, unfortunately however, he was turned down on each occasion due to his medical category which prevented his leaving this country.

Pte Tobin had been quite depressed and worried for some time due to the fact that he had received no mail form either his wife or anyone else since the end of the war. When the Christmas season approached and he noticed everyone else feeling so care-free and gay, the loneliness cooped up inside of him overcame him, and he decided to go up to Darby and visit some of his friends there whom he had soldiered with, as these were about the only real friends he had here in England, for theothers were either back home in Canada or over on the continent at this time.

After he had been up there a few days and felt in somewhat better spirits he returned to his unit voluntarily and gave himself up at the unit guard room. He has already spent 10 days under close arrest awaiting trial.

He would like to get home as soon as possible in order to see what has happened to his wife to cause her to suddenly stop writing to him and if it is at all possible straighten out any problems or difficulties and get his marriage back on a firm footing once more

I think Pte Tobin deserves every possible consideration, for he tried on several occasions to get over on the continent and really fight for what he thought was right and now he became somewhat restless and discontent because he was not allowed this privilege due to his low medical category.

If he can get back now to see his wife and get his marital problems off his mind I think that he will be ready for his place as a Canadian Citizen.

F.G.C.M. IN THE CASE OF

H-11177 PTE. TODD, A. No.2 Instr. 1 Cdn NETD.

PLEA IN MITIGATION NOTE E-3

Sir:-

I have a statement made by the accused to the Canadian Provost Corps, which I will hand in to the Court for the record. In view of this statement and as can be seen from this statement, the accused must be in a very confused state of mind. His wife knows nothing of the situation in England. He has a good record of service in his 5 years in the army. He will not bear any malice towards the army in regards to his punishment. This man, at the time of his absence was DOWN and not going to Canada for discharge. He is Category "A" and would the Court consider that he is very willing to go to either France or Italy in any capacity. His record showed him to be a competent Medical Sergeant until this domestic worry became to much for him. As he pointed out to me, he would rather go to France or Italy than to a detention barracks, because he feels that he can still do a job. As proof to this man's realibility and willingness to work, I would like to bring in Sgt. Windeyer.

EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER E-1

FIRST WITNESS AS TO CHARACTER.
B.52360 Sgt. WINDEYER, R.C. on strength of No.1 Cdn NETD having been duly sworn states:-

I am B-52360 Sgt. WINDEYER, R.C., Provost Sgt at No.1 Cdn NETD, On September 25th, Pte. TODD was brought into the Guard Room at Superior Camp, and while awaiting trial by Court Martial, he asked to be sent out on work parties. I found him a very willing and conscientious worker, and on two occasions Pte. TODD was sent out on jobs without an escort and on both of these occasions he returned to the Guard Room.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R.P. 85(2)

DEFENDING CONTINUES HIS PLEA OF MITIGATION: E-3

Then, sir, in view of his record of service, his complicated domestic troubles, his open mind in regard to any punishment he might receive and his willingness to again prove his worth as a soldier, would the court give his case their careful attention.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SENTENCE.

Sir:

On making a plea of mitigation for the accused I would like to point out one or two facts dealing with this man's army career.

With the courts' permission I would like to read a statement made by the accused and then very briefly sum up his case.

Reading of statement

As can be seen by this statement this man must be in a confused state of mind. As read in the statement, this man's wife knows nothing of his situation here. Frankly, he should have informed his wife of his intentions long ago but being human he kept putting it off from time to time and the longer he put it off the easier it became to put off and the more confused he became.

I have talked to the accused and pointed out to him that the only fair thing to do was to write and tell his wife of his situation now thereby getting it off his chest, and preventing a re-occurrence of this, or any other crimes.

This man has a good record of service in his five years in the army. In his plea of guilty he admits his wrong-doing and will not bear any malice towards the army in regards to his punishment.

This man at the time of his absence was POWE and not going to Canada for discharge. He is Cat. A and would the court consider that he is very willing to go to either France or Italy in any capacity. His record showed him to be a competent medical sgt. until this domestic worry became too much for him. As he pointed out to me he would rather go to France or Italy thanto a detention barracks because he feels that he again can do a job.

As proof of this man's realiability and willingness to work I would like to bring in Sgt. Windeyer, the Provost Sgt. at 1 Cdn N.E.T.D. who will make a very brief statement in this regard.

Sgt. Windeyer, R.C.

Then, sir, in view of his record of service, his complicated domestic troubles, his open mind in regard to any punishment he might receive and his willingness to again prove his worth as a soldier, would the court give his case their careful attention.

Continued.

In this time I put up a Morrison shelter for her. I attribute all my troubles to family trouble at home and the difficulties in which I have became with the girl at Croydon and have been going from pillar to post trying to figure out the best thing to do to right the whole affair. I have not written my wife for over a year and have had only about 3 letters from her during that time. I have been worried about the children in Canada. My wife resides at 604 Gore street, Fort William, Ont. and works at the Canadian Car and Foundry Co. Fort William. The ages of my Canadian children are, Shirley 9 years, Margaret 7 years, Carole 5 years. The ages of the English children, Hamilton and Alexander twins 22 months, David about 9 months. I worried so much about the whole thing when I was in Italy that I did a great deal of drinking when we were in Rest with the result that I lost my Sergeants stripes. There is nothing further I wish to add. I have read over the above statement and to the best of my knowledge it is true.

(Signed) Alex. TODD.

Witnessed:- H. MACFARLANE.
29th Sept. 194 .

4. TODD appears to have been a good soldier until this episode and went up through the ranks gradually, L/Cpl. Corporal and Sergeant until 17th February 1[illegible] when he was reverted to Private. However it cannot be held that his morals were good during the last two or three years and no doubt the cause of his going A.W.L. Apparently he was living off this girl and her mother while he was away and as far as I could ascertain he was not involved in any criminal activities and had only own personal equipment in his possession. As no further useful information could be secured from him he is being returned to his unit.

ABSENTEE.

SIS/D-7-337 The above mentioned soldier went absent without leave from his unit on 11th August 1944 and remained absent until 1730 hrs. 22nd September 1944 when he surrendered to the C.M.P at Nottingham, England. He was escorted to London where he was detained by No 6 Provost Company.

2.

Pursuant to instructions I interrogated TODD at 30 Henriette Street on this date and obtained the following statement from him.

Begins:-

" I have been cautioned by Pte. MACFARLANE M. S.I.S. Canadian Provost Corps, that I need not say anything unless I wish to do so but whatever I do say will be taken down in writing and may be used as evidence. To show that I understand this caution I sign my name here.

(Signed) A. TODD.

First I was born in Canada 23rd September 1911 at Fort William, Ontario. I enlisted on the 13th November 1939 at Fort William in the 4th Canadian Field Ambulance and landed in the U.K. on 30th December 1939. After a spell in England I saw service in France for a short period in June 1940 and returned to England a few days later and remained there until I went to Italy in 1943. I remained there until July 1944 when I returned to England as a prisoner of war escort. I went A.W.L. from No 1 R.C.T.U. near Worksop, on 3rd of August 1944. I had a 24 hour pass from the 2nd to the 3rd of August 1944 to Croydon and did not return when it expired. From then on I stayed with my girl friend at 1 West Way, Shirley, Croydon. Her name is Miss Nancy SANDS and I gave her to understand that I was on leave during the time I was there. On the 22nd of September 1944 I left Croydon to return to my unit at Worksop. When I got there I discovered the unit had moved and British troops were there. Their number was 89. I went into their orderly room and enquired the whereabouts of my unit and they could give me no information regarding its location. Then I surrendered to the C.M.P. at Nottingham on the 22nd September 1944. I was escorted to London by the C.Pro. C. on the 23rd September 1944. I am a married man, married in 1933 and have 3 of a family in Canada. The girl in Croydon has 3 children which are mine. My wife and I have not got along for some time and I intend getting a divorce if possible. I get along very well with the girl in Croydon and intend to marry her if I get my divorce. This girl lives with her mother. The reason I went absent was at the time the buzz bombs were very bad in the East Croydon area and I did not like to leave her alone with the children. I only intended to stay until the next day but kept putting it off from day to day.

Continued Overleaf.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). He enlisted 20 May 42.
arrived in the UK in July 43 from Canada.
Landed in France 21 July 44 with his unit.
He fought with his unit from 21 July 44 to 13 Feb 45 as sec 2/c for part of the time.
This soldier has fought well with his unit causing no trouble whatever.
He was granted 9 days leave in England and it was then that he absented himself. While on leave he met several of his old friends and took a few extra days.
The accused was most willing to return and surrendered himself at Victoria Station in London.
This soldier has had one minor A&W during his career in the army.
His category is A-1 and wished to return to his unit

Because of the accused's good service while in the line and his clean record the defence asks that the Court give the minimum punishment and allow Pte Todd to return to his unit at once.

The Defending Officer in mitigation of Punishment states:-

I would like the Court to take into account the accused's army record. He has been in the army over 2 years - 10 months of which have been spent at this unit. He has had no charges against him in this time which proves that he is not a criminal. This charge which is admitted by the accused is more a slip on his part than one of many crimes. The ~~Officer~~ NP defence acknowledges that the accused must be punished but asks the Court for leniency for it is felt that a severe sentence which is not warranted may turn this soldier on the wrong track.

SUMMARY of EVIDENCE

in the case of H66668 Gnr Todd, E.V. of Headquarters First Canadian Army. By order of the Commanding Officer the evidence is to be taken on oath.

A.J. Swan Major
D/J.A. Judge Advocate

FIRST WITNESS C30818 Sgt Tait T.B. #1 SIS First Cdn Army
Having been duly sworn states:

On the afternoon of Nov 29, 1943, in Company with Sgt. Jackson, I conducted inquiries at First Cdn Army HQ regarding the theft of a pair of brown shoes from the billets there. As a result of these inquiries I interviewed Gnr. Todd whom I identify as the accused, I cautioned the accused in these words, "You do not have to say anything unless you wish to do so but anything that you do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence". The accused did not make a statement at this time.

At about 1600 hours 29 Nov 43, I was informed by Sgt. McKee that the accused wished to see me. I saw the accused and interviewed him at the guard room First Cdn Army HQ. I said to the accused "Well." He replied " I am sorry to have caused all this trouble Sgt. I admit that I took these shoes." I asked the accused where he had stolen them from and he replied. "From Hut 1". I then took the accused immediately to the Camp RSM when Gnr. Todd repeated his admission in our presence. A SECOND WITNESS H26267 Sgt Jackson J.C. of Headquarters First Canadian Army.

Having been duly sworn states:

At approximately 1145 hrs Saturday 27 November 1943 L/Cpl Carson reported to me the disappearance of a pair of his shoes from his quarters in hut No. 1. In company with him I conducted an investigation throughout the camp lines including the Car Park quarters. At that time no trace of the shoes was found.

At approximately 1100 hours Monday 29 November Sgt McKee informed me that the shoes had been turned in by Pte. [redacted]. After further investigation Gnr. Todd was placed under close arrest. I was present when S/Sgt Taite of the SIS questioned the accused and the shoes were shown to him. At first the accused denied knowledge of the shoes but after Sgt Taite had left for further investigations the accused asked to see him again. Sgt Taite took the accused to RSM McArthur. As a result I was told by the RSM to keep Gnr Todd under close arrest. I initialed the shoes for further indentification and and produce them now to the court.

Accused - No questions.

(Sgt. Jackson, J.C.

THIRD WITNESS B15334 Pte Wray L.H. of Headquarters First Canadian Army.
Having been duly sworn states:

On Saturday morning 27 November 1943 Gnr Todd brought a pair of shoes to the M.T. Park where I was working. I took them from him and was to pay for them the following Tuesday. After I had received the shoes I sold them to Pte Renaud[illegible] and he gave me ten shillings then and was to pay me the balance of five shillings on the following Tuesday which was pay day.

When he took the shoes to the camp shoe repair shop he was told that the Regimental Police were looking for this pair of shoes. He returned and told me about it, and I gave him back the ten shillings and told him that if I had known the shoes had been stolen in the first place I would not have sold them to him. The shoes had been taken by the Regimental Police from the repair shop.

QUESTION BY THE COURT Do you identify this pair of shoes as the ones sold to you by Gnr. Todd? * (Exhibit X to proceedings)

(Pte Wray L.H.)

FOURTH WITNESS L12791 L/Cpl Carson G.R.F. of Headquarters First Canadian Army.
Having been duly sworn states:

When I returned from Training Camp Wednesday night 24 November 1943 I took my shoes which had been stored in my kit bag and placed them under my bed. Thursday morning when I made up my bed I placed the shoes on the bed.

As far as I can remember they were there until Friday morning. As a rule I do not place my civilian shoes on the bed and that is why I did not miss them until Saturday morning. About 1130 hours Saturday 27 November 1943 I reported to Sgt Jackson at the Mess Hall that the shoes were missing. Sgt Jackson went with me to all the huts in camp and the Car Park. We could not find the shoes.

About 1300 hours Sgt Jackson told me he would keep a lookout for the shoes. Monday morning 29 November 1943 L/Cpl Chisholm of the Regimental Police came into G. Branch where I work and said that he had a pair of shoes in the R.P. hut. He asked me to go down to see if they belonged to me. I went down and the shoes there, were mine.

QUESTION BY THE COURT Do you identify these shoes as the same pair and as being yours?

Witness These are my shoes

(L/Cpl Carson G.R.F.)

FIFTH WITNESS C12474 Pte. Renaud, W.G. of Headquarters First Canadian Army.
Having been duly sworn states:

On Saturday morning 27 November, 1943 at about 1030 hours Pte. Wray offered to sell me a pair of shoes. I said that I would buy them. He wanted fifteen shillings so I gave him ten shillings and the remaining five shillings would be paid on pay day. I received the shoes Sunday 28 November. When I tried on the shoes they were too large for me so I decided to have them repaired with the view of re-selling them to someone else.

Before taking them to the shoemaker I was told that the shoes resembled a pair that had been stolen.

I took the shoes to the Regimental Police where they were identified as being the stolen ones. The Regimental Police kept the shoes and I went back and told Pte. Wray. He said that he had bought them from another person and did not know that they had been stolen. He returned to me the ten shillings.

QUESTION BY THE COURT Do you identify these shoes as the same pair that you bought from Pte. Wray.

Witness They are the same pair of shoes.

Accused - No questions.

H65638 [redacted] in [redacted] E-6

Pte Todd, Frank.

Gentlemen, Private Todd and I wish to present the true facts concerning his present unfortunate case.

First may I give a short history of his life so far.

Frank Todd was born in June 1900 at Southport Lanc., where his father was a dairyman. At 16 years he left school and helped with the business and his family life was a happy one. He enlisted on Jan 6th 1918, (at 17 years) served in France and Germany and was demobilized in June 1919 with an unblemished army record. He reentered the dairy business but endowed with a pioneer spirit and having studied geology and mineralogy in England, he left in 1927 and went to Manitoba where he became a prospector. He worked at prospecting and construction until he enlisted again in June 1941

Right now, Todd is anxious to get back to his claims and his work in Canada.

In this war, Todd has definitely soldiered and worked hard. In Canada he became a Corporal and was employed at Portage la Prairie and Red Deer Alberta, as a platoon Cpl, small arms & bayonet fighting instr.

In March 1942 he arrived in the U.K. where he had to take down his stripes, regaining them in 2 weeks.

In May he reverted to proceed to #33 Coy corps troops supply. R.C.A.S.C. where he was employed as storeman and A/A L.M.G duties.

From this coy. #34 Coy was formed and Todd was attached to it. He worked hard and was well thought of by his officers and N.C.O.s.

In sept 1943 when the S.P.O. assigned Todd to H.Q. 1st Can Army, he being over 40 years, both his O.C. Major Morris and his platoon officer tried to retain him but without success.

He was transferred and served with #1 Can Car Coy. and his O.C. Major Shepherd asked him to remain in England when the unit was going overseas, and expressed his pleasure when Todd told him no.

Todd served through France and Belgium with this unit and on 28th Sept 44 received a back injury at Ghent. He was flown back to England having spent 36 days in hospital he was categorized PSLS under pulhems and he is to undergo a spinal operation in Canada. He was told he would be in NETO only 3 to 4 wks during which time he would be given a 7 day leave.

It was unfortunate that Todd waited eight wks in Superior Camp before being granted his leave. Todd applied for his leave every week whilst at 2 inc. 10 C. Repat. Depot.

During this time gentlemen, Todd, who had all his life been accustomed to a healthy active routine, developed what might be termed extreme mental depression. It was during the cold spell of the winter with fuel shortage, cold barrack rooms. Todd suffered from recurrent chest colds and pains in his back resulting in sleepless nights, naturally his peace of mind was a thing to him, of great importance. The medical officer wanted to give him deemed duty on the basis of his age and service rather than the disability.

Todd went on leave on 9th Jan 45 and found his mother who is 74 years of age, ill with rheumatism and stomach trouble. His mothers illness became worse and on the 15th Jan (7 days before his leave was up) he went to the G.P.O. and wired the O.C. for an extension of leave due to his mothers illness. It was a very cold day and he developed a further cold and cough. stayed at home to cure it and await the reply to his telegram which never arrived even though Todd checked that his wire had been accepted

On two days later, Todd, whilst lying in bed contracted sciaticia and bronchitis.

I present a letter from Todds sister, who is a fully qualified nurse, who nursed him during this illness. She insisted on calling in her doctor but Todd preferred the advantages of home treatment, warmth, proper food and nursing care with peace of mind, to the emergency hospital 2nd Mar.

I also present a letter written by Todd to Chief paymasters office, later sent to the repat. depot, also a letter from Todds mother.

On this time gentlemen, this soldier was very ill towards the end of Feb his chest cough returned.

On 5th March, a p.c came to the home with instructions to take Todd to Ravenscourt escorts, he found him in bed and decided Todd was not fit to travel.

On 8th March Todd, reported to the emergency hospital, Southport, was examined by an MO and was given the cert. (enclosed) stating he was fit to travel. He arrived back and reported into camp on 9th March, and was placed under arrest. He still suffers from colds and has been awaiting trial in the guard room 24 days.

Todd has - been away record gentlemen, it is far from his intention to commit any offence and it is unfortunate that the circumstances of his illnesses NOT home and the advantages in some respects, have brought about this state of affairs.

Todd cannot consider himself guilty of this charge, gentlemen, he had no intention of being AWL. S have explained his reasons for not going to the emergency loop, or informing through his unit, in truth this is what he feels he is guilty of rather than being absent

S trust you will fully appreciate the psychology of this case gentlemen, which to my mind, S have only crudely brought out, the illness, frustration, loneliness and mental depression and circumstances of the past months in this soldiers case. Fundamentally he is guilty of no offence. He is very anxious that his army record be unblemished and wants to get back to Canada. S ask the mercy and justice of the court gentlemen and plead that this charge be completely dismissed on the grounds that he was so ill that it was impossible for him to return willfully thus endangering his [illegible] protests about my calling in my own doctor, who could have given me a definite diagnosis of your back, stomach & chest, but at the time home treatment, dieting, & nursing seemed adequate. The last war left a lot of sick & badly injured men who gave me plenty of experience in cases like yours.

You are the third of the family who has needed careful nursing. It was "touch-&-go" with John before his operation - his surgeon explained his case to me at the time — then Dad in 1939. A strange nurse, however willing, could have done what I did; there again diet was very important.

My Dear Frank,

Mother & I were relieved to get your letter, & to know you had a good journey south. I am glad you are feeling better, but that is due to a few weeks' home treatment. You appeared to me a very sick man when you came home with that dreadful cold, but what was worse to my mind is that sciatica apparently caused by your injury. Rest & warmth indoors have certainly improved your appearance of better health. You can't be really well until your back has been attended to. So many English doctors have a home unable to sit down with comfort for any length of time, and with a very bad cold. In about six days you got another, which definitely became bronchitis. Your expectoration almost made me suspect something much worse. You have also some gastric trouble that may need attention, unless careful dieting has relieved it. Your pulse & temperature were up, but not high enough to indicate possible lung trouble. A journey back to camp at that time could have aggravated your condition to pneumonia. I have not forgotten you had a severe dose of pneumonia when you were a schoolboy. I am sorry now I did not over-ride your very high opinion of medicine & surgery in Canada that I am glad to know you will get the best possible treatment, & you will soon be as well as ever, & "back on the trail," hey?

I am sorry you have got into trouble for over-staying your seven-days' leave. But it was quite impossible for you to return in that state. If you had been in Canada they would not have operated on account of the bronchitis you have had, so don't worry about missing a draft.

Would it help if I gave you particulars to show your officer?

I am a fully-trained nurse in every branch of the service — even to district nursing you came

And now for news.

Mr. Lloyd came in to see you the ~~day~~ evening after you left, & looked surprised, knowing how ill you had been. The old man likes a chat on gardening, the grandchildren, the weather, the — well anything to pass an evening. I am to give you his best wishes for a good recovery.

Stephen Frank has gone abroad. My parcel of a book & drawings was returned; I am sorry he didn't get them. I don't know now whether I can repost the parcel in fresh wrapping or not, you saw the contents. When I get an address, can I send them on, or will it be stopped? I spent an awful lot of time over those instructive sketches.

The children round about miss you — Barbara, Babbie, Beryl, Ann, all want to know when "Uncle Frank" is coming back — already! Well, Sister Ellen & Mother would like you back as well. We miss you, badly. — John has got his new bottle-washer fixed up. He has shown me the architect's plans for further development of his premises. He badly needs a few of his good men back from the various services. I sometimes wonder how Mrs.

First Witness for the Prosecution.

Kate Futterer, Beckhorn, Germany. married woman, wife of Hans Funkhaken having been duly sworn states:-

night of 11/12 May 45 at about 1 a.m. I was awakened by my house maid coming into my room. I heard Hans Koukken who lives upstairs talking to someone outside. After everything was quiet. Later I heard a window being broken. Shortly after a man was standing in my bed-room. He was dressed in pants and shirt, no cap. I told this man to leave the room and pointed to the door. The man took cigaret-lighter and tried to light it and held it in my face. He got it lighted. I called for help. There was sound of someone coming downstairs and man left my bed-room. I then saw Hans Koukken fighting with man who had come in my bed-room. Mrs. Koukken who lives upstairs with her husband came down to my bed-room. I asked Mrs. Koukken to go out and call for help. It took quite a while as I decided to go through the corridors myself meanwhile. Then I met Mrs. Koukken coming with two soldiers.

X-examination.

My bed-room is on the ground floor.

I don't know what the conversation was between Hans Koukken and this man outside. I don't know if it was in German or English. I saw the man and broken in the maids room. One large square of glass was broken.

The type of catch is one that is a lever. It must be pulled out by a slot, then swung up which withdraws the locking bars. Then the lever is turned inwards to allow the windows to swing.
To get from maids room to mine a person would have to go down the hall and kitchen.
I do not know how long it was between time window in maids room was broken and time man came into my room
The maid and my son were sleeping in maids room. Maid and son left maids room before window was broken and came into my room.
I did not call for help when I first heard the window broken. I was very excited. I called for help when man entered my bed room. Person going for maids room to mine would go down stairs doors and make turns.
There is no furniture in kitchen to get in the way. I did not hear anything between breaking of window and man coming in my bed room. My bed room door opens into the kitchen. It was very dark. I could not see anyone in the kitchen. I only saw the man using a lighter in my room. Nothing was missing from my house after this affair. When he light the lighter I saw it was a man. He had on trousers and shirt. No hard dress. I do not know if he had a tie on. His hair was dark. I do not know if he had a moustache. There were five people in my room. He went to each bed and used lighter to see who was there. I cried for help because man came to my bed room.

The man said nothing. I could smell liquor in the room. I am not sure I would recognize the man who came into my bed-room.
(Witness points at accused) I think that is the man. The reason I think so is because the expression in his face is the same.
~~yes I said in the summary~~ at present
I don't remember exactly what I said in the summary.
It is true that I was very frightened. ~~that~~ The man was standing close to me - fell to pole.
I could hear that the accused is the man.
A few seconds elapsed from time I called for help till Knudsen came down stairs.
Meanwhile man left my bed-room quickly.
He did not knock over any furniture. I don't know if my light was still lighted.
The two people struggling in the hall were Knudsen and man who had been in my bed-room. Here Knudsen is the man living upstairs. I did not pass Knudsen and man when I left the house. I left to see if Mrs Knudsen was getting help. Mrs Knudsen had come into my room & right after the man left my room. The men were struggling in the hall at least 10 minutes. The men spoke when they were fighting in both English and German. I drink understand what they were saying. About 10 minutes elapsed for till soldiers came.
By the Court -
The door of my room in passage was not locked before man came in my room.
It would take me about the same time to walk around the house into the hall.

By the C.d.
The window of the maids room was closed and locked & up & the grass unbroken and the grass unbroken
I saw Hawe (Konken when I reached there with soldiers. The man he had been slung q eng with was gone. (Konken's shirt was torn - he was bleeding a little somewhere on his hands. (R P 8 3 is complied with)

Second Witness for the Prosecution
Hans Konken, Bockhorn, Timmerman, Office clerk,
having been duly sworn states:
On the night of 11/12 May 45 I was awakened where I live in rms. I understand by someone home (Knocking on door. I asked in Eng who was there. Someone answered in German open the door." I told the man outside Dgo house and I went back to bed. I heard nothing for a few minutes. Then I heard rms. I understand call for help so I went downstairs. The kitchen door opened and a man came out. I opened the outside door and told the man Dgs outside home. The man lit his cig. lighter and drew a pistol and pointed it at me. I grabbed his arm and took the pistol from him.
Then rms my wife came down stairs and I told her Dgs over at the first and first nearby. The man wanted Dgs put and tried to get the pistol back. I told him to wait until his comrades came over. We stood Dgs for several minutes. The man grabbed my shirt.
This lasted till my wife came back with Dgs.
When the man heard the others coming he ran outside, around house and disappeared
I gave the pistol to the soldiers.
It was about 1230 A explosion I first heard

Kneeling. The man was dressed in khaki and pants. He had on a belt and German pistol holster. I don't know what kind of shoes. I can't say the accused as the man
I fought with that night. (Witness points to the accused)
X - examination -
I called out in English when I first heard knocking because no one but Can soldier could be on the street at that time of night.
I know a little school English. I asked who was there. The answer was in German -
"Open the door". I then said in English
"Go home to your comrade". I did not hear a window break. Mrs. Fuhrken cried -
"Mr. Fuhrken helps me". The time between was 3, 4 or 5 minutes. I put on my pants and went downstairs. I was able to find the stairs and get down. At the same moment I got down the man climbed out of the kitchen. I was standing in the hall-way when I first saw the accused. I was able to see because first I opened the outside door, the accused lit his lighter, the floor is quite a light color. I could see him draw his pistol. He pointed the pistol at me. He did not say anything. I grabbed his arm, pushed it away and got hold of the pistol.
The accused was standing about 1½ metres from me. There was nothing missing from the house afterwards. When I got the pistol
I held it down by my side. The accused spoke in German and English. The accused said "No comrades". I told him in English my wife goes & your comrades & bring them here". I hit the accused on the jaw with my right hand and my left. The fight would stop and start again. I knew that the accused was intoxicated so I would ask for his pistol. I could smell alcohol. The accused was struggling with me and got pistol back. It was about 2 A.M. when the accused ran away. He went because he heard Mrs. Coulter coming back with help. The accused went out the main door. He went quickly. I gave the pistol to the soldiers when they came. They tried to follow the accused, did not get him and came back to the house. They looked everything over. I heard shots fired when they were away. They came back to the kitchen. They said they would return the next day.

I saw the accused point the pistol at me.
(The Prosecution produces a pistol marked "A" for identification)
I think the pistol I took from the accused was a German pistol. 8 mm and that was the pistol. I turned over to the two soldiers.

By the Court.

The accused spoke broken German.
The door was always open while we were fighting. We were fighting at all times in the hall way. There was enough light for me to see how the accused was dressed.
The accused was intoxicated that I can only tell because he was smelling of alcohol and his hair was messed up.
The accused did not identify me before I took the pistol from him.

The accused struck me later.
(The witness is shown pistol marked A)
The hammer is the same. I did not look at the pistol closely. May be this was the same pistol I took from the accused. May be the one I took was a little bigger. In the fight I had a cut on my right hand and the accused had a cut above his left eye. (RP 53B complied with)
Third Witness for the Prosecution.
F29841 Gnr. Conrad A.D. 22 Can Armd Regt. having been duly sworn states:-
On night 11/12 May 45 0035 hrs. I was awakened Gnr Mayhew. I went with him and a civilian woman to a house. There I saw Hans Koulen, a German civilian who was standing base footed and with underwear down on the doorsteps. He handed Gnr Mayhew a pistol. Mayhew and I went around the house and heard footsteps running down the road away from us. We called out to halt and fired 2 shots. We returned to the same house and saw 2 broken windows, one in the hallway and one into another room. The broken glass was there. When we returned to RAP the accused was helped in without boots or tunic. His left leg appeared to be cut and blood around his face. He seemed to be in a dazed condition. It was a 9 mm Browning that Koulen gave us.

X - examination.
I don't know whether accused was in danger because of drunkenness or an accident.
I didn't notice whether he had a belt or holster. He didn't speak to me. I didn't examine the cut over his eye. He was helped into the jeep. The steps running away from the house were shady pool steps.
The pistol taken from Hankin was turned over to Cpl. Best (A1-8313 Corporal Best)

We talked and argued about various things. After awhile I got tired and suggested going back and going to bed. The accused said he would rather stay out for awhile. I went in and went to bed. We weren't arguing about anything unpleasant. The accused said he was looking for girls. I said there were no girls around and it was fairly late. The only ones were Police girls around. We didn't find the camps. I don't know when I got back.

Defence.

B 112048 Edwin Todd / W 2nd Edmund Regt. having kindly sworn 6 shots + night 11 May 45, we started drinking, I was warned about Brocklebank home. Apparently I drank more liquor than I could handle as far as breathing and walking is concerned. I don't remember being there at all. After leaving the billets and walking with Edwin Bowman, I don't remember anything until the next morning. I have not seen the Civilian house where this is supposed to have happened. I had seen the civilians who gave evidence here prior to taking summary of evidence. It was when I was first up for these charges that is the first time I ever saw them. I don't remember going down + got back that night. I don't remember being shocked. I don't remember loosing my web belt pistol + holster during the night. Ex. A is the same as the pistol I was issued with. I don't know the number of the one I had. I don't know pistol loaded around with 6 rounds. don't have many in. I am not short of money.

I can speak German. I can say open the door in German. I received basic training in C.C.P. I was put under close arrest at 1400 hrs 12 May 45. I don't know what I was drinking. It was German liquor. I had never had any German liquor before. I have never been up on drunk charge before. My youngest daughter is ill with ear trouble. My wife who is blind She is having doctor and specialist. At present I send her money.
The only entry in my A & E 6 is an admonishment for an accident.
I volunteered for service in East Pacific because I can get home and see the family quicker that way and also I figure my brother will go and I want to be with him. I had a Canadian holster on my belt might in question.

X examination.

I lost my belt holster + pistol that night.
I never had drunk German liquor before.

By the Court.

I drive the CO's jeep. I turned in the rifle that the shells was + untangled with.
The Quartermaster himself issued me with the pistol when we first arrived in Germany.

By the J.A.

I am married and have 2 daughters 7 and 3 years of age.
I was a transport driver in civil life and worked in numerous jobs before I entered army. My home is Toronto + I worked really outside Toronto (R.R. 830 Lambton)

Capt. E W S Bignell, adjt. 22 Can Mtd Regt having been duly sworn states. I have known accused since Nov 44. He was 1 i/c 4 gun 2 pdr Tk & I was 2 i/c. He served faithfully - carrying out all orders given to him sometimes under enemy fire. He was absolutely dependable and his conduct was satisfactory. His conduct was always good. Previous to this occasion we were billeted and messed with him. When 00 4 gun became CO he requested that accused be transferred to A Tk & and he has kept him as his 1 i/c ever since. (RP 83 B completed)

J. A. Lecture Notes

1. Innocent until proven guilty
2. Doctrine of reasonable doubt.
3. Court finds the facts
4. J. A. advises on law - advice to be followed.
5. Housebreaking with unlawful —
   (a) must be a dwelling
   (b) — must be actual breaking
   (c) intent must be proven.
6. Common assault —
   — menacing with a pistol with presence
   - ability to carry out threat is an essential
7. Drunkenness — — needs no elaboration.

Plea in mitigation.

The accused has served over three years. During that time he has never been charged. The only entry on his sheet is an unimportant one as much as an admonishment should not be entered. His services are so highly thought of in this unit that the C.O will have no objection to his continued service. He is an expert marksman - a sane and sober family man. He has never been guilty of drinking even in a small way. The reason for his misbehaving that night can have been no other than the fact that his daughter was very ill at home. His family life is beyond reproach and he has volunteered for Active Service with no other reason in mind than that he be able to get home that much sooner. His record as a soldier is excellent. He has shown for the C.O - in an open boys in trenches that have been under enemy shell fire. He is highly respected amongst his comrades and highly thought of among the officers of his Regt. as a sober and reliable soldier. His testimony of temporary intoxication can only be the direct cause of not knowing what the effects of a strange liquor can be.

It is reasonable to assume that the unknown potency of this liquor caused him to lose control of himself where a similar amount of a known brand would have no ill effect.

(Plea in mit cont'd)

He is not belligerent by nature and to threaten another person is not something that he would do in full control of his senses.

In case during the sentence it is to be hoped that the Court will take into account that a serious and sober family man with an excellent service record who has volunteered for continued service as soon as he has helped the difficult situation at home, will be determined by the opportunity of the army having conducted his case in his own home and continuing his service U. S.

In the case of H16400 Pte (A/Cpl) Todd L.E. 1 C.I.R.U. (P.R.C.A.)

1st Witness as to character. Capt. R. M. Hosken 1 C.I.R.U. (P.R.C.A.)

having been duly sworn, states.

I have known the accused since 1939 and I met him again in 1940 in England where he was employed as a clerk. He was a very efficient clerk, was promoted for good service in 1941 and I know that he has always behaved himself and did a thoroughly good job. I have had knowledge of him every thing is right at any time and was always on duty. On one occasion he voluntarily took down a subject to carry on with a job at the reinforcement unit. I know that he was thoroughly reliable.

2nd Witness as to character

No cross-examination. Capt. C.B. Harvey H.Q. 1 C.I.R.U. (P.R.C.A.

having been duly sworn states.

Cpl Todd was a clerk in my office. I have known him for about 2 years and he is an honest, efficient, dependable man. He was recommended very highly to me by other officers. He was employed at one time at the Cabinet. He was good and reliable at any time and I would be sorry to lose his services.

No cross-examination.

2nd Character Witness Major J.A. Early, No 1 C.I.R.U. (P.R.C.A.)

having been duly sworn, states.

I've known the accused since Nov. 1939 except for a very short time. He has an excellent character and has never been in trouble. He was very young about 17 in 1939 and at one time he voluntarily gave up his subjects to

(over) CHP

Carey as with this pris. I've always thought he was good NCO material and his 4th C thought they good men.

Gl. Tould

Now I will lay it before the court as my address, We have nothing but their own word that they are of all culpable.

As you will see, these men, both of them N.C.O.s with hitherto unblemished characters, got out and had a few drinks after working for long hours, especially got a few drinks under their belts and thought they'd go to London; but before they got very far they realized the seriousness of their action and turned back of their own accord and were on their way to Aldershot Barossa again when the mishap occurred. They could have left the car there and the blame could have been laid. But They confessed the They immediately came and confessed what had happened

They are both excellent soldiers - N.C.Os. and in view of their own confession and especially as they voluntarily, as soon as they realized their offending heads they had not been apprehended, returned and the realized what they had done, I plead that the utmost mitigation be accorded them in this case.

It will be noted that Pte. (A/Cpl. Todd) was confirmed in the rank of Sgt. 1 Nov 41, his previous conduct sheet being destroyed at that time. He then reverted at his own request.

By the direction of the Commanding Officer, this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

Capt. C.B. Howey, R.C.E., Q.M., 1. Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Capt. C.B. Howey, the Quartermaster of 1. Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit. At approximately 0730 hrs. Saturday, the 17th. April, 1943, No. A-3919 Sgt. Mansell, W.A., a member of my Q.M. Staff, came to my quarters and reported that he and No. H-16430 Cpl. Todd, L.E. had been in an accident with an 8 cwt. truck, the property of 1. C.I.R.U. The truck was taken from the No. 1. Coy., M.T. Compound, at Barrosa Barracks (1 CIRU). Sgt. Mansell told me that they were returning to Camp when the accident happened. He stated that they had started for London, but having realized the offence they were committing, had turned around and started back to Camp.

I reported the accident to Regimental Headquarters, 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, and to "A" Wing, 1 CIRU.

When I went to the office, I spoke to Cpl. Todd, who told me the same story I had heard from Sgt. Mansell.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Prior to proceeding on leave, I had a tool check at 1630 hrs. on the 16th. April, 1943, and turned in my keys to the M.T. Office. At that time, I left the vehicle parked in the lines between "F" and "G" Blocks, Barrosa Lines, at the north end. It was the last vehicle in the row. I have not seen the vehicle since.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

4TH. WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Lieut. James, H. Ross, Officer Commanding No.65, L.A.D., having been duly sworn, states:

I am Lieut. James H. Ross, O.C., No.65, L.A.D., RCOC, stationed at Cove, Hants. On the afternoon of 17th. April, 1943, I proceeded to West Mosely, near Kingston-on-Thames, where I found vehicle No. CZ-4205294, in an allotment at a roundabout. The vehicle had gone through a wood and wire fence, and was facing the road, thirty to fifty feet from the pavement. I removed all small articles from the vehicle and informed the Police at West Mosely. On Monday, the 19th. April, 1943, I recovered the vehicle and had it taken to No.4 Sub-Depot, 1. CBOD for repair. From examination, the following damage was evident:

Front springs and shackles broken, windshield in rear window broken; there is extensive body damage and transmission and steering were injured. The headlights and bumper were broken.

I estimate the cost of repair at £20-10-0, £8-10-0 being the cost of parts, and £12-0-0 for labour.

The accused, H-16430 Cpl. Todd, L.E., Administration Wing, (PPCLI) 1. CIRU, states:

In company with Sgt. Mansell, W.A., A-3919, I was drinking on the night of the 16th. - 17th. April, 1943, and very late, I do not recall the exact time, we walked down to the Signals vehicle park, and got into an 8 cwt. truck, and drove off. We had planned to go to London. Soon, we realized what we had done, and turned around and started back. Near a roundabout, the truck got out of control and crashed into a field. I struck my head and do not recall exactly what happened. However, we got back to Camp as soon as possible, and Sgt. Mansell went to find Capt. Howey. I reported to the F.A.P. and then went to the Q.M. Office, where I informed Capt. Howey of what I had done.

PLEA of DEFENDING OFFICER IN MITIGATION of PUNISHMENT

The accused has been Cpl + Sgt in the Regt + is fully aware of the gravity of this charge. He has been through Sicily and Italy with the Regiment + therefore it is not fear which made him do this. The fact that he voluntarily surrendered is another point in his favor. In his statement to me as Defending Officer I have gathered that he felt that his nerve was going to crack. All the members of this Court have been under shell-fire + are aware of this feeling I submit that this man was taking steps in his own interests to preserve his nervous well-being. I would also in closing draw the Courts attention to the mans Comparatively clean record of service.

B·2 Statement by deceased

On the night of 8 Apr I had an opportunity to go to see friends in Nijmegen. I had three bottles of cognac which I took with me. On the way down I had quite some of it. I remember getting to Nijmegen. I continued to drink and sometime during the evening everything went blank after that I have only vague recollections when I was. Tuesday afternoon I came to my senses. I found I was near Venlo. I went into a farmhouse feeling very ill. The people put me up and I stayed there until Thursday afternoon when I felt somewhat better. I left there to work my way back to camp which I arrived about 1330 hrs. When I was in Venlo I talked to an American MP. but he said he couldn't do anything for me. Spr Arsenault. Webber saw me with the cognac.

Due to circumstances of this case it is hoped that the Court appreciates the disadvantage the defence accepted by his plea of guilty. He was scheduled for leave to the UK. in three days. I ask the court to be lenient with this type for his lapse.

B1. The President ~~of the Court~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1] and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), to call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No .....[5]

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex C , initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?

Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

FIRST PROSECUTION WITNESS

JOHANN HENDRICK ISREAL, 89 PALMBOOM STRAAT, s'HERTOGENBOSCH
sworn states through the interpreter.

I live in s'Hertogenbosch, Holland.
About five weeks ago about 1500 hrs, two Canadians, one of them the accused came to my house and asked for two glasses. They sat down and started to drink their cognac. He talked for a while and then I played the piano. The accused asked for a photo and we gave it to him with our address. The other boy went to sleep. The accused kept going in and out of the house. The accused eventually went to sleep too. I went to the work room to fix my bicycle. About 15 minutes later the accused came into the room where I was working. He asked me about a chisel I had. Then he took up a hatchet and he hit me on the head with it. I was bleeding, but was not unconscious. I pushed him out of the house. I took the axe from him. Some other Cdns took away the accused, and the other boy.

X examination.

I have had other soldiers in my home including English soldiers. I have never had trouble with other soldiers. I had nothing stolen from my home by the English, when I was away from it during the fighting. When I was in the work room I heard accused and my wife talking but couldn't tell what they said. My wife had told me that the day before the accused had made improper advances to her.
I was standing up when the accused hit me. I was hit on the back of the head (Witness shows court the mark). I didn't strike the accused just took the axe away. When I was hit I shouted for my wife. The soldier was drunk. I had no idea he was going to strike me before he did so. Before I went to the workroom accused took his penis out of his pants, but I told him to put it back and he did so.

RP 83 (B) complied with.

2nd PROSECUTION WITNESS

CATHERINIA LOUISA CREDT, 89 Palmboom Straat, s'Hertogenbosch
sworn, states, through the interpreter -

The day the boys came to the house, they had a bottle of cognac and asked for 2 glasses which we gave them. They started to drink and my husband played the piano. The friend of the accused got drunk and went to sleep on the floor. Accused was also getting drunkr all the time and kept going in and out of the house. Finally he went to sleep on a chair, but just before he did he took out his penis and showed it to me. When he went to sleep my husband went to the back room to work on his bicycle. I then saw the soldier was awake and he asked me to give him a kiss. I said I couldn't as I had a husband in the home. He took his penus out again. I told him my husband would hit him if he saw that. The soldier asked me if my husband had a gun and I said no. The soldier approached me and asked me if my husband was a good husband and I said yes. He then asked me to kiss him and he took his penus out again. I told him to go away out of the house, because I had a husband. He then went into the backroom and a while later I heard my husband cry for me. I went and saw the accused and my husband struggling and ~~xxy~~ my husband's head bleeding. I went and called some Cdns and they parted them and took the accused and my husband to hospital.

X examination

My husband did not see the accused making improper suggestions to me. The soldier and I talked, he in English and I partly in English, partly Dutch. I didn't see accused strike my husband.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of C-8445 Pte Tolmie J.R., "B" Company, Lake Superior Regiment (Motor), CAO, charged with:-Committing an offence against the person of an inhabitant of the country in which he was serving. (AA Sec 6(3)(d).

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS

Johann Hendrick Isreal, 89 Palmboom Straat, s'Hertogenbosch a native of Holland, a resident of s'Hertogenbosch, having been duly sworn states:

At approx 1430 hrs, 14 Nov 44, two boys came to my house to ask for two glasses. They had a bottle of Cognac. We thought, (my wife and I), that the soldiers wished to drink the Cognac in another house, but they took off their coats and asked me it it would be all right to drink the Cognac in my house. I told them, yes. They were sitting drinking and we got along all right and the soldiers gave us cigarettes and we had conversation. I told them of my experience in Germany and they told me about Canada. I played the piano and sang for the boys. The soldier, Tolmie, asked my wife for a photo, and she gave one to him and I wrote my address on the back of the photo. Then an officer came and told the boys that they must come for a parade and they left their coats in the house. The boys returned in ten minutes and Pte Delaney fell asleep in a chair. Pte Tolmie passed in and out of the house several times and finally sat down in a chair. I wished to go into the next room to work on my bicycle but my wife asked me to remain, as she was afraid to be alone with Tolmie, as he was trying to kiss her and was taking his penis out of his trousers. Then he fell asleep, so I went into the other room and told my wife, that when Tolmie awoke, she must call me. A quarter of an hour later, Tolmie came into the room where I was working. At first I thought that he wished to go to the UC, but Tolmie picked up a chisel and asked me what it was for. I told him. At the time I was rather worried that he might be dangerous, with this tool, but I did nothing about it. Then he found the hatchet, and asked me of its use, and then without warning he struck me on the head with the hatchet. I cried to my wife, in the next room, "He is beating me up". I was conscious, I felt my head, it was bleeding, I realized that I must get the hatchet away from the soldier. I pushed him out of the house. We struggled for the hatchet. During this time my wife, was screaming for help, from the other soldiers, and I managed to get the hatchet away from Tolmie. Then two Canadian soldiers arrived, and took him away. They also took Delaney, who was lying on the floor sleeping, during all this.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

(Signed) Johann H Isreal.

Catherinia Louisa Gredt, 89 Palmboom Strast, s'Hertogenbosch a native of Holland, a resident of s'Hertogenbosch, having been duly sworn states:- through the services of L 64747 Pte Vangeluwe F. "interpreter" who has been duly sworn: On 14 Nov 44 I was at home with my husband. At about 2.30 P.M. 2 soldiers came to our house and had a bottle of cognac under their arms, and asked for two glasses. I gave them the glasses thinking they wanted to drink their cognac elsewhere, but instead they took off their great-coats and seated themselves on two chairs. They then asked if they could drink their cognac here which my husband agreed to. My husband talked to them a little in English and I went on with my work. I asked my husband to play the piano for entertainment as we were pleased to see the Cdn soldiers. My husband played for about fifteen minutes then one of the soldiers became sick through drinking so laid on the floor and went sleep, while the other soldier walked up and down to the back yard, after awhile he came in, sat down and fell asleep also. My husband went out [illegible] backyard to repair his bicycle and I kept on with my household work. At about 4.30 P.M. the soldier that was sleeping on the chair awoke, the other soldier still sleeping on the floor, at that moment I was alone in the room washing dishes - except for the soldiers. The soldier that awoke winked at me and said "Kiss me", I refused. Then he took out his penis. I then called my husband. He asked me if my husband would shoot him; I replied "My husband has no gun". Before my husband came in he tried to put his penis in my hand saying "Kiss it". At that moment I said "Out, get out of my house". He then went out the back door to my husband and I intended to go and tell my husband in Dutch what had happened. When I got to the back yard I heard my husband screaming in Dutch "He is trying to smash my head with the axe". I saw then that my husband was bleeding from his head so I started shouting for help to other soldiers in the area. All I could see was my husband struggling on the ground with the soldier. Two other Cdn soldiers came running up to pull the soldier off my husband - just then my husband took the axe away from him. The two soldiers then took him away. I later saw him on the street. The other sleeping soldier was carried away also.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

I want to make a statement, on oath.

The accused, sworn, states:-

I, C-5445 Pte Tolmie J.R., and a friend shd a bottle of cognac. We went to a civilian house and ask him if we could drink it there. They supplied us with glasses and we proceeded to drink. We had a conversation with the people of the house and during that time we finished the bottle. We were called out on parade, later returning to get out coats. We sat around for a while and my friend Pte Delaney, fell asleep, we laid him on the floor. The husband left the room to work on his bicycle in another room, I was left in the room with is wife. I asked her if I could sleep with her, she said "NO", I beleive her husband over heard me. She seemed to be frightened of me and told me to leave the room, which I did. I then went into the workshop where her husband was standing, and in his broken English, he accused me of playing around with his wife. I said, "Get out of my way and let me out of here". He had a chisel in his hand and struck at me, it just touched me, and in the process I ducked down and picked up a hatchet and swung the flat part and he stooped to dodge it. It struck him a glancing blow. We then grappled over the hatchet, by this time we were out in the yard. He was getting the better of me when Sgt Carlbom and a Cpl arrived and dragged him off. They then escorted me to my billets under close arrest.

FIRST PROSECUTION WITNESS

JOHANN HENDRICK IJSEAL, 89 PALMBOOM STRAAT, s'HERTOGENBOSCH sworn states through the interpreter.

I live in s'Hertogenbosch, Holland.
About five weeks ago about 1600 hrs, two Canadians, one of them the accused came to my house and asked for two glasses. They sat down and started to drink their cognac. He talked for a while and then I played the piano. The accused asked for a photo and we gave it to him with our address. The other boy went to sleep. The accused kept going in and out of the house. The accused eventually went to sleep too. I went to the work room to fix my bicycle. About 15 minutes later the accused came into the room where I was working. He asked me about a chisel I had. Then he took up a hatchet and he hit me on the head with it. I was bleeding, but was not unconscious. I pushed him out of the house. I took the axe from him. Some other Cdns took away the accused, and the other boy.

X examination.

I have had other soldiers in my home including English soldiers. I have never had trouble with other soldiers. I had nothing stolen from my home by the English, when I was away from it during the fighting. When I was in the work room I heard accused and my wife talking but couldn't tell what they said. My wife had told me that the day before the accused had made improper advances to her.
I was standing up when the accused hit me. I was hit on the back of the head (Witness shows court the mark). I didn't strike the accused just took the axe away. When I was hit I shouted for my wife. The soldier was drunk. I had no idea he was going to strike me before he did so. Before I went to the workroom accused took his penis out of his pants, but I told him to put it back and he did so.

RP 93 (B) complied with.

2nd PROSECUTION WITNESS

CATHERINIA LOUISA GREDT, 89 Palmboom Straat, s'Hertogenbosch sworn, states, through the interpreter -

The day the boys came to the house, they had a bottle of cognac and asked for 2 glasses which we gave them. They started to drink and my husband played the piano. The friend of the accused got drunk and went to sleep on the floor. Accused was also getting drunk all the time and kept going in and out of the house. Finally he went to sleep on a chair, but just before he did he took out his penis and showed it to me. When he went to sleep my husband went to the back room to work on his bicycle. I then saw the soldier was awake and he asked me to give him a kiss. I said I couldn't as I had a husband in the home. He took his penus out again. I told him my husband would hit him if he saw that. The soldier asked me if my husband had a gun and I said no. The soldier approached me and asked me if my husband was a good husband and I said yes. He then asked me to kiss him and he took his penus out again. I told him to go away out of the house, because I had a husband. He then went into the backroom and a while later I heard my husband cry for me. I went and saw the accused and my husband struggling and saw my husband's head bleeding. I went and called some Cdns and they parted them and took the accused and my husband to hospital.

X examination

My husband did not see the accused making improper suggestions to me. The soldier and I talked, he in English and I partly in English, partly Dutch. I didn't see accused strike my husband.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of C-5415 Pte Tolmie J.R., "B" Company, Lake Superior Regiment (Motor), CAO, charged with:-Committing an offence against the person of an inhabitant of the country in which he was serving. (AA Sec 6(3)(d).

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS

Johann Hendrick Isreal, 89 Palsboom Street, s'Hertogenbosch a native of Holland, a resident of s'Hertogenbosch, having been duly sworn states:

At approx 1430 hrs, 14 Nov 44, two boys came to my house to ask for two glasses. They had a bottle of Cognac. We thought, (my wife and I), that the soldiers wished to drink the Cognac in another house, but they took off their coats and asked me if it would be all right to drink the Cognac in my house. I told them, yes. They were sitting drinking and we got along all right and the soldiers gave us cigarettes and we had conversation. I told them of my experience in Germany and they told me about Canada. I played the piano and sang for the boys. The soldier, Tolmie, asked my wife for a photo, and she gave one to him and I wrote my address on the back of the photo. Then an officer came and told the boys that they must come for a parade and they left their coats in the house. The boys returned in ten minutes and Pte Delaney fell asleep in a chair. Pte Tolmie passed in and out of the house several times and finally sat down in a chair. I wished to go into the next room to work on my bicycle but my wife asked me to remain, as she was afraid to be alone with Tolmie, as he was trying to kiss her and was taking his penis out of his trousers. Then he fell asleep, so I went into the other room and told my wife, that when Tolmie awoke, she must call me. A quarter of an hour later, Tolmie came into the room where I was working. At first I thought that he wished to go to the UC, but Tolmie picked up a chisel and asked me what it was for. I told him. At the time I was rather worried that he might be dangerous, with this tool, but I did nothing about it. Then he found the hatchet, and asked me of its use, and then without warning he struck me on the head with the hatchet. I cried to my wife, in the next room, "He is beating me up". I was conscious, I felt my head, it was bleeding, I realized that I must get the hatchet away from the soldier. I pushed him out of the house. We struggled for the hatchet. During this time my wife, was screaming for help, from the other soldiers, and I managed to get the hatchet away from Tolmie. Then two Canadian soldiers arrived, and took him away. They also took Delaney, who was lying on the floor sleeping, during all this.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

SECOND WITNESS

Catherinia Louisa Gredt, 30 Palmboom Straak, s'Hertogenbosch a native of Holland, a resident of s'Hertogenbosch, having been duly sworn states:- through the services of L 64747 Pte Vangeluwe F. "interpreter" who has been duly sworn:
On 14 Nov 44 I was at home with my husband. At about 2.30 P.M. 2 soldiers came to our house and had a bottle of cognac under their arms, and asked for two glasses. I gave them the glasses thinking they wanted to drink their cognac elsewhere, but instead they took off their great-coats and seated themselves on two chairs. They then asked if they could drink their cognac here which my husband agreed to. My husband talked to them a little in English and I went on with my work. I asked my husband to play the piano for entertainment as we were pleased to see the Cdn soldiers. My husband played for about fifteen minutes then one of the soldiers became sick through drinking so laid on the floor and went sleep, while the other soldier walked up and down to the back yard, after awhile he came in, sat down and fell asleep also. My husband went out to the backyard to repair his bicycle and I went on with my household work. [illegible] P.M. the soldier that was sleeping on the chair awoke, the other soldier still sleeping on the floor, at that moment I was alone in the room washing dishes - except for the soldiers. The soldier that awoke winked at me and said "Kiss me", I refused. Then he took out his penis. I then called my husband. He asked me if my husband would shoot him; I replied "My husband has no gun". Before my husband came in he tried to put his penis in my hand saying "Kiss it". At that moment I said "Out, get out of my house". He then went out the back door to my husband and I intended to go and tell my husband in Dutch what had happened. When I got to the back yard I heard my husband screaming in Dutch "He is trying to smash my head with the axe". I saw then that my husband was bleeding from his head so I started shouting for help to other soldiers in the area. All I could see was my husband struggling on the ground with the soldier. Two other Cdn soldiers came running up to pull the soldier off my husband - just then my husband took the axe away from him. The two soldiers then took him away. I later saw him on the street. The other sleeping soldier was carried away also.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

(Signed) C.L. Israel-Gredt.
(Catherinia Louisa Gredt) Housewife.

THIRD WITNESS H-16188 Sgt Carlbom E.E., "B" Coy, Lake Superior Regiment (Motor), having been duly sworn states:-

I am H-16188 Sgt Carlbom E.E. "B" Coy, Lake Superior Regiment (Motor). At approx 1600 hrs 14 Nov 44 I was walking down a back lane between two rows of buildings in our platoon area, in the town of s'Hertogenbosch. My attention was drawn to a distrubance, on investigating I found Pte Tolmie arguing with a civilian. The civilian appeared to have a head injury. I placed Pte Tolmie under close arrest, as in my opinion he was drunk.

The accused declines to cross-examin this witness.

(Signed) E.E. Carlbom

FOURTH WITNESS H-40207 Cpl Delorme M., "B" Coy, Lake Superior Regiment (Motor), having been duly sworn states:

I am H-40207 Cpl Delorme M., "B" Coy, Lake Superior Regiment (Motor). On the 14 Nov 44 at approx 1600 hrs I was in the company of Sgt Carlbom, when we heard a disturbance in the vicinity of our platoon area, in the town of s'Hertogenbosch. On checking we found Pte Tolmie arguing with a civilian. Sgt Carlbom placed him under close arrest, and we escorted him to our billets. In my opinion Pte Tolmie was drunk.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

(Signed) M. Delorme

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

I want to make a statement, on oath.

The accused, sworn, states:-

I, C-5445 Pte Tolmie J.R., and a friend ahd a bottle of cognac. We went to a civilian house and ask him if we could drink it there. They supplied us with glasses and we proceeded to drink. We had a conversation with the people of the house and during that time we finished the bottle. We were called out on parade, later returning to get out coats. We sat around for a while and my friend Pte Delaney, fell asleep, we laid him on the floor. The husband left the room to work on his bicycle in another room, I was left in the room with is wife. I asked her if I could sleep with her, she said "NO", I beleive her husband over heard me. She seemed to be frightened of me and told me to leave the room, which I did. I then went into the workshop where her husband was standing, and in his broken English, he accused me of playing around with his wife. I said, "Get out of my way and let me out of here". He had a chisel in his hand and struck at me, it just brushed me, and in the process I ducked down and picked up a hatchet and swung the flat part and he stooped to dodge it. It struck him a glancing blow. He then grappled over the hatchet, by this time we were out in the yard. He was getting the better of me when Sgt Carlbom and a Cpl arrived and dragged him off. They then escorted me to my billets under close arrest.

(Signed) J.R. Tolmie
(C-5445 J.R. Tolmie) Pte.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. NO sir .....(5)

(1. Court may be cleared to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. At approx 0700 hrs, 3 Dec 44, L/Sgt BARNETT reported Gnr TOMA's absence from quarters. I instructed him to make a thorough search of our billets and wagon lines. This was done. Field General Court Martial of D126860 Pte Joseph John Timachevsky,
ROOC, #1 CORU, held on 10 Jan 44.

OPENING ADDRESS BY PROSECUTION:

I have nothing other than to proceed with the prosecution by calling of witnesses.

FIRST WITNESS:

Mr Andrew Fry, gardener, Elmtrees, Green Cross, Churt, employed at "Bluehills" Hindhead having been duly sworn states:

Q1 Do you recognize the accused?

A1 Yes I do (looking at accused).

Q2 Will state just what you had to do with accused?

A2 He came over with some boots and I looked at them and saw no mark on them. There was no government mark. I looked at the top, there was no mark and inside there was a civilian mark, that of a Canadian civilian bootmark. I also asked if they were his own and he said yes. I took it for granted they were his own, and bought them.

Q3 You remember having asked him if they were his own?

A3 I stated that in my first statement.

Q4 Would you recognize as an exhibit, the boots, if you saw them again?

A4 (Shown a pair of boots) "Those are now the boots, sir." On further examination of boots Mr Fry states that they are the boots.

Q5 I understand that there was a sale as far as the boots were concerned. What value did you give for the boots?

A5 I gave 15 shillings to the accused for the boots.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q6 Did you wear the boots that you bought?

A6 No, I took them home and put them away and never looked at them till I gave them to the police.

BY THE COURT:

Q7 What day?

A7 I believe that it was 8th November 1943.

Q8 Where did the transaction take place?

A8 In the garden where I work.

Q9 Where is that?

A9 "Bluehills", Hindhead.

CROSS EXAMINATION CONTINUED:

Q10 Was that the same day the police came?

A10 No. It was a week or two after.

Boots marked 'A' for identification.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

SECOND WITNESS:

C70621 Tpr Cooper, J L, #1 CACRU, having been duly sworn states:

Q11 Do you recognise the accused?

A11 Yes, sir (looking at accused).

Q12 Would you tell the court just what association you had with accused?

A12 It was on or about 8 - 9 November 1943 at the Beacon Hotel, Hindhead, approximately 1500 hrs when this soldier approached me and asked where he could sell his boots; whereupon I introduced him to Mr Fry.

Q13 Did you see any transaction take place?

A13 Yes, sir.

Q14 Could you give us some particulars?

A14 He went over to Mr Fry at the green house and I went into the green house and called Mr Fry. The soldier here asked him to buy boots; whereupon he sold them to Mr Fry.

Q15 What did he get for them?

A15 He received 15 shillings.

Q16 Can you identify the boots?

A16 I cannot swear but it was a brand new pair.

(Shown boots marked 'A' for identification). They appear to be the same boots that were sold.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q17 The Beacon hotel you referred to is kept by military as a Convalescent hospital?

A17 Yes, sir.

Q18 Did the accused tell you what boots it was he wanted to sell?

A18 No, sir.

Q19 He had them in his possession?

A19 Yes, sir.

Q20 Did he tell Mr Fry when you were there where he got the boots?

A20 I cannot say definitely.

Q21 He did tell Mr Fry something about the boots?

A21 I did not hear what they said.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

THIRD WITNESS:

B2/125 Pte Arscott J F, Cdn Provost Corps, on strength of DAPM's office, HQ CRU, having been duly sworn states:

Q22 Do you recognize the accused?

A22 I do, sir (looking at him).

Q23 You have had certain associations with him in the case of the sale of army boots. Will you explain to the court just what these associations were in this case?

A23 During an investigation at #2 Convalescent Depot I had cause to speak to Tomachevsky at the request of the adjutant. Tomachevsky came to me and stated that he knew quite a lote of what was going on in this particular unit re sale of WD property. From information acquired I informed the civilian authorities and accompanied them to Mr Fry's home at Churt and found in his possession a pair of WD boots. I secured them and turned them over to the civilian police. The boots were kept in the custody of the civilian police.

(Shown boots marked 'A' for identification). "Those are the boots taken from Mr Fry's home".

CROSS EXAMINATION: NIL

Boots marked 'A' for identification offered and received in evidence and marked exhibit "X".

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

FOURTH WITNESS:

B135900, Pte Farnworth, W H, RCAMC, on strength 2 Cdn Convalescent Depot, having been duly sworn states:

Q24 Do you recognize the accused?

A24 Yes, sir (looking at the accused).

Q25 Where did you see accused?

A25 At 2 Convalescent Depot on the switchboard in the orderly room.

Q26 (Shown pen and pencil set). Do you recognize either of these articles?

A26 Yes, I recognize them.

Q27 Can you state anything with respect to these articles. Who is the owner?

A27 They are my property, I brought them from Canada.

Q28 When did you first lose them?

A28 Around the end of November sometime. About the 25th of November 1943.

Q29 Just what happened. How did you lose them?

A29 To the best of my knowledge I left them in the orderly room beside my typewriter and did not miss them till next day. I thought I had left them in my uniform. When I did miss them I informed various people around the orderly room but no one had seen them. The next time I saw them was when Private Arscott showed them to me and I identified them as my property.

Q30 You have left your pen and pencil in the orderly room before and always had them again when needed?

A30 Yes, sir. I have never had any trouble with anything going missing in the orderly room.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q31 When did you go to this Convalescent Depot?

A31 On the 18th of November 1943.

Q32 How long have you been working in the orderly room?

A32 One week.

Q33 You say Tomachevsky was working on the switchboard?

A33 Yes, sir.

Q34 Did you ask him if he had the pen and pencil set?

A34 No, sir. At the time I missed them I informed various people in the orderly room but Tomachevsky was not there.

In the opinion of the court is is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

B25125 Pte ARSCOTT J F RE-CALLED:

Q35 (Shown set - pen and pencil). Do you recognize these exhibits?

A35 Yes, sir.

Q36 Tell the court how you came by the pen and pencil?

A36 During the course of questioning Tomachevsky I asked him if he had anything else on his person that did not belong to him and he produced the pen and pencil saying that he had picked them up in the orderly room of the

#2 Cdn Convalescent Depot where he was employedas telephone operator at the switchboard.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q37 Did the accused not tell you that he had found these articles in the orderly room?

A37 That is what I stated.

Q38 He produced them himself?

A38 Yes, sir.

Q39 You asked him what he had done about finding the owner?

A39 Yes, sir.

Q40 He told you that he had not had time to make inquiries?

A40 Yes, sir.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

BY THE COURT:

Q41 Where did he have them?

A41 In an inside pocket. He had a greatcoat on at the time.

Q42 Were you inquiring particularly abou the pen and pencil set at the time?

A42 No, sir, it was incidental.

Pen offered and received in evidence and marked exhibit 'Y'.

Pencil offered and received in evidence and marked exhibit 'Z'.

DEFENDING OFFICER: The accused is charged with selling boots. I will admit that these are public property, but there is no evidence to show that these are regimental necessaries of the accused or articles which were issued to him in the meaning of the section. The court will observe that it is essential that the articles should be issued to him for his military use. The charge is not a charge of selling military property. I can produce evidence that the accused has all articles issued to him as regimental necessaries and which are on charge to him. It may be that it is an offence to sell government property. With regard to the second charge. The evidence of the prosecution negatizes stealing or intent to steal. The accused when asked about another matter did produce these articles and stated that he had found them and had not had time to find the owner. He said that he was working in this orderly room but had not been there when the mention of the loss was made. That would negatize his idea of stealing.

PROSECUTION: In the case of the pen and pencil set. I definitely stated that one might pick up a pen to write with it, but one does not take the complete set. Farnworth is a tradesman, a clerk, and is entitled to leave his tools as any tradesman is in his place of work. He has to have the protection of the people in charge of his place of work to see that his tools remain there. I grant you one might mistakenly take up one article but one does not take up two articles to use and to walk away with.

1st Witness for Defence

The accused D126860 Pte J J Tomachevsky, having been duly sworn states:

I found the pen and pencil set on the switchboard desk.

Q43 What were you doing on the switchboard?

A43 I was runner and switchboard operator at the same time.

Q44 Why did you not report you had these articles?

A44 The adjutant called me one morning and asked me to call the DJA's office which is Aldershot 380, Extension 0453 and I used the pencil which was on the switchboard to take down the number. I also used it to take down outside calls and register them in the book. Then as usual I put the pencil back in my pocket. Then I was called out on a message. I went to the Beacon Hotel.

Q45 Is that another building?

A45 It is about a mile away. At the same time I took up the pencil which I thought belonged to Morrison. I did not have time to see Morrison because he was always away.

Q46 Who was Morrison?

A46 He was the other operator. I kept the pen and pencil in my possession and forgot all about them. One eveing I went to Hazelmere to the cinema. While there I met two friends and we went to the YMCA after the movie. There I discovered I had the pen and pencil in my possession. Then I told them I could get a pound for this set and one of the chaps offered me a pound spot cash right there. I told him that the set did not belong to me.

Q47 Who was this man?

A47 I do not remember his name. His friend was Hardman.

Q48 Who were they?

A48 One was from the Convalescent Depot; one was on leave.

Q49 Do you know where they are now?

A49 I could not say.

Q50 Then when was it that Pte Arscott spoke to you about the boots?

A50 A few days after Pte Arscott spoke to me about the boots and while taking me down to Farnham he talked with me. I then recalled I had the pen and pencil. I told him that I was talking on the subject with a lad and that he offered me a pound.

Q51 You did state that you gave him a pen and pencil enroute to Farnham?

A51 Yes, sir.

Q52 You understand that what I am asking you is that you gave him the pen and pencil while in a car travelling to Farnham, in which car I presume he was questioning you?

A52 Yes, sir. I told him then and there that I could have sold pen and pencil long ago.

Q53 That was on the trip to Farnham?

A53 Yes, sir.

Q54 Is there any reason why you actually needed the two articles to do work rather than one article?

A54 I have never seen the set - pen and pencil - in the orderly room because I used to borrow pencils from Sgt Creighton and other fellows in the orderly room and that is the first time I had seen that set.

Q55 Was there any reason why you needed a pen and pencil to carry out your work to take down telephone numbers which came in?

A55 I needed the pencil but [redacted] the pen. I took the pen so that I would not be accused of stealing the pencil and having sold it.

Q56 You had fear in your mind that you might be accused of stealing.

A56 I thought that if I was found with one in my possession and not the other they would accuse me of stealing it.

BY THE COURT:

Q57 How long had you had pen and pencil before giving it up.

A57 About 3 or 4 days.

Q58 Do you know the day on which you gave it up?

A58 I do not remember. It is on the pen 29 November but it could not be as I was discharged on the 30th November 1943.

Q59 What unit were you on strength of when this happened?

A59 I was on strength of the Ordnance Corps.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 838 be complied with.

PRIVATE ARSCOTT RE-CALLED:

Q60 Where was the pen and pencil actually produced by the accused and taken over by you? Will you definitely identify the place?

A60 It was given to me in the HQ CRU in our hut there.

We have a little room alongside of HQ CRU. It was in that billet supplied by DAPM for us. We go over there when there are too many personnel in the DAPM's office.

Q61 You are quite definite that it was in a proper room and that it was during the investigation that these articles were turned over.

A61 Yes, sir.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q62 Had there been any mention of the pen and pencil set till you reached this room?

A62 Nothing at all.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

PROSECUTION:

The prosecutor submits to the court that the accused was improperly in possession of Waterman's pen and pencil set, the property of B135900, Pte Farnworth, W.H., RCAMC, on strength of #2 Cdn Convalescent Depot, and that the accused did not explain why two articles were taken rather than one except that he was afraid that if he was found in the possession of one and not the other it would be assumed that he had sold one.

The accused is not s[redacted] fact when he states that he voluntarily [redacted]e up the pen and pencil to an investigator in a place other than where he knew he would be subject to search. I ask that the court take this point into consideration and at their discretion deal with it.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

DEFENDING OFFICER:

The only point for the court to consider is that are they satisfied with the accused not reporting the possession of these two articles before he did.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

BY THE COURT:

Found not guilty on all charges and released forthwith.

The exhibits will remain with the court and the owner will apply to the convening officer to release them.

The prosecutor states that the boots being exhibit 'X' are required for use on a case before the civil court and boots are accordingly released to the prosecutor.

I hereby request that the Convening Officer appoint Major E.M. Miller to represent me at my forthcoming Court Martial.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

1st Pros. Wit: Pte. H. F. Carter, Onte House, Reeves

Onte, having been duly sworn is examined.

I recognise Acc. On 11 Jan about 630 A.M. I found a milk pail, left close overnight, badly bent and covered with cow manure. It looked to me as tho' someone had been standing on it. Enters that morning I found this hat. (Hat produced as Exh A) On 16 Jan I found a milking stool in some state. On 28 Jan towards 730 PM a soldier came to the door of the barn. Said he was lost. Played with me till I finished milking and carried a pail of milk with me up to the dairy. Him soldier was the Accused. About 815 I left him at the dairy. I told him his quickest way was to go by the road but he said he'd take the track way to avoid the guard as he had no pass with him. I followed him down in about 5 minutes. I went quietly to the cow shed door. I shined my torch in & saw him standing on a white pail. He got off the pail and his clothes were undone in front. The pail was in the drain immediately behind the cow. I spoke to him & he buttoned up his fly while I stood there. His fly was open. He stood facing me

(Pros. warned re leading questions)

He buttoned up his fly & got the pail out of the drain & left the shed with me. He apologised and said he would come back and apologise again the next day. He offered no reason for his conduct.

On 30 Jan I saw the same man there again at the same stall. The same cow was in the same stall. I recognised the Acc. by shining my torch on him. He said nothing. He had behind his coat. I hit him with a groom as he came out. A stud was dirty. On the 16 I saw some stones on the floor.

Passing my house would not be a short cut for the Acc. on his way to camp. The fields there are muddy [redacted] followed Acc. as I was suspicious of him. What he made was first.

[redacted] Before X Ex Def M. objects to the evidence put forward on other occasions than the date forming the subject of the charge. Asks it be struck out Prosecutor replies he thought this evidence as it is relevant and shows why he followed him to town.

The Court is closed to consider the objection.

The objection is allowed.

The Judge Advocate advises the Court that all evidence relating to events other than the event occurring on the 26th June 44, are to be entirely disregarded and are not to influence the Court in any way.

The trial proceeds.

Cross Ex — It was about 7.30. If a man was going from the pub to one of the near huts of the camp it is possible that passing the house might be a short cut. Within the last month I had a new calf born. I pointed it out to the Acc. I don't know if Acc. ever saw the calf.

Re Ex I left things where I knew where they were. I advised police.

By Court I was at an identification on 16 July. About 70 to 80 men were there. The Acc. was one of them.

identified him very easily. I had no other visitors from the 44th Fd Regt.

2nd Pros Wit C 18691 RSM. Hanks, A.C. 44th Co Rd Regt duly sworn is examined.

On 31 Jan 44 on information received I got together six men for identification parade. Formed into line. All dressed alike. Mr. Carter came & identified the Accused.

Acc's clothing was brought to Office. I found three hairs on the front of the trousers. These three hairs are similar. To the best of my knowledge these are the same hairs ~~Produced as Exh B~~

(The Court refuses to accept these hairs as Exhibits)

I recognize Acc. On 26 Jan Acc was in Comp. Lot absent, not on pass. He is allowed outside pass ~~from~~ to camp station.

Defence

1st Wit. The Acc being duly sworn is examined by Def Co.

On 26 Jan I went to canteen. Went to have drink at Dun horse. Got about half way & changed my mind I took short cut through the field. Saw a light on & wanted to ask way tho' I really knew it ~~wanted~~ in a vague way. Very murky evening. Mr. Carter came to the door of the barn and told me to stick by the ~~boards~~ post boards to mend the mud. Told me to go thro wire, I talked to him. I noticed a newly born calf. He milked a cow. I helped him carry the pail to ~~the~~ a shed about 20 yds from the cow shed. I left him. I came straight back to camp. Arrived in Camp about 8.15 PM Cow lecture was still open. I saw Sgt Dale in the cow lecture.

Cross Ex I didn't lose my hat. I had it when I came back to camp. Mr Carter is a liar. I was near the post office when I changed my mind. There is a good fenced road from post office to the cow lecture. I went dead straight down going straight to cow lecture. I didn't. I thought a gate past the dairy. It a straight line to my hut. I'm sure it's shorter.

Re Ex - Nil

By Court No idea why Carter ~~said~~ makes these statements these charges. Never saw him before. I admit I spoke to Farmer when milking cow. He picked me out at the identification parade. Court see how or why Carter says what he does. I didn't see him before identification parade. But then I mean I saw him on the 20th and didn't know who he was at the ident parade. I had forgotten him. I took a short cut. At 1600 hours Court adjourns to visit the farm and to ascertain if the Acc took a short cut or not. The Accused also proceeds to the Farm.

at 1615 hours the Court reassembles present the same members as when adjourned.

Examination continues

I have been to this Camp since Oct May. I never had used the short cut before. Very dark that night. The boards were about 10" wide & 2" thick

Carter must have made up the whole story

why he says it.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF B.6915 Gunner David Eric Tomkinson, 2 Cdn Fd Bty, 4 Cdn Fd Regt RCA, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The Accused is informed of his rights.

The C.O. directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION Capt A.B. Smith, Adjt, 4 Cdn Fd Regt RCA sworn states:

I present:
Cap F.S. purporting to have been found by Mr Carter. (Exhibit A).
Identity bracelet the property of the accused (Exhibit B).
Hairs found on the trousers of the accused purporting to be cow-hairs (Exhibit C).

On 1 Feb I held an identity parade which included the accused. Mr Carter identified the accused instantly as the man he had seen in his stable on the nights of 26 and 30 Jan. The accused denied this until the summary of evidence was taken.

I examined the clothing of the accused on 3 Feb 44 and found 3 coarse white hairs on the front on the trousers. This clothing had been hanging by the kit of the accused.

Accused declines to cross-examine.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION Statement of Mr H.F. Carter, Oak House, Monk's Gate:

I recognize the accused.

On 11 Jan 44 at 0600 hrs I found a milk pail had been bent and the bottom dented in. The pail was covered with cow manure. On 11 Jan I found a soldier's hat with an artillery badge, under one of the cows (Exhibit A). On the 16 Jan 44 I found a milking stool with cow manure on it as if someone had been standing on it. Both had been clean the previous nights. On 26 Jan 44 at about 1930 hrs I was milking when the accused came in and said he had lost his way. He stayed and talked to me for about three quarters of an hour. During the conversation he mentioned that he drove a truck, that he had been married about seven months ago and that his wife was living at Bromley. He said that he had been to Bromley for New Years and was going back about 16 Feb on leave. He said that he belonged to 4 Fd Regt and had been out in the nearby field with guns. He was about 5'9", fair hair and a fair, curly moustache, fairly well built, about 24 or 25 yrs old. He wore an identity bracelet on his left wrist on a fine chain. After I finished milking we both went to the dairy where I left him. He returned to the cow stall so I followed him down. I opened the door and saw him standing on a pail at the rear of a cow. He stepped down and I noticed that his fly was unbuttoned. I gave him a good sound talking to. He broke down and said he'd come back and apologize, and went away. On the 30 Jan at 2315 hrs I was passing the cow stall and heard a fork knocked over. I looked in and shone my flashlight. I saw the same man standing just behind a cow. He had his tunic collar pulled up, but I recognized him by his moustache. I picked up a broom and hit him across the head. He ran out the door and across the meadow.

On 1 Feb 44 I was present at an identification parade of eight men of the 4 Fd Regt, and recognized the accused as the man I had talked to on the night of 26 Jan.

Cross-examined by the Accused

Q 1 You say that on the 30 Jan you saw me at 2315 hrs and you swear that it was the same man as on the 26 Jan?
A 1 Yes.

Q 2 Was I drunk or was I sober?
A 2 I should think you were sober.

Q 3 How far away was I when you hit me?
A 3 About two paces.

Q 4 Do you think you would have done me some damage?
A 4 I might or might not have.

Q 5 How did you identify me?
A 5 By your moustache, your hair, and your whole face.

Q 6 Where did you see me, in the dark?
A 6 I saw you in the cow stall with the lantern and in the dairy with the torch.

(Sgd) H.F. Carter

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION C.18607 BSM Blodgett, E.H., 4 Cdn Fd Regt RCA, sworn states:

"The accused is a member of 2nd Bty, of which I am BSM. He was on a 36 hr pass over New Years, but the pass stubs do not state his destination. The accused is next due for privilege leave approximately the 16th Feb. The accused was given a warrant for Southport on his last leave. The accused was employed as a driver until Dec 1st when he was made a gun number, and spare driver. On 1[illegible] Jan the accused dismounted regt guard at approximately 1630 hrs.

On 25 and 26 Jan the accused was not on pass nor was he reported absent. On 30 Jan the accused was in the kitchen until after the evening meal. He was not reported absent at tattoo."

The accused declines to cross-examine. E. Blodgett

(Sgd) E. Blodgett

FOURTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION C.18502 BQMS Duncan, A.B., 4 Cdn Fd Regt RCA, sworn states:

"I am BQMS of the 2nd Bty. The accused, whom I recognise, last drew a cap F.S. from bty stores between 20 and 27 Jan 44. I think that the reason he gave was that he had lost his cap. The cap exhibited is an ordinary Canadian issue. These hats vary in size from that stamped in them. This hat would fit the accused in my estimation.

Cross-examined by the Accused.

Q 1 Is it possible that I came in previous to that to try and get a hat and there was none in my size?
A 1 Yes.

(Sgd) A.B. Duncan

The accused, having been duly cautioned in accordance with RP 4(M) says:

"On the 30 Jan I was out with Gnrs Pope and Vardy. I met them in a pub in Horsham about 8 o'clock. We made the rounds and got feeling pretty good. When the place was about to close we went outside. In the dark we got separated and I stayed with Pope. We walked to try and catch the bus and met a 15-cwt from the regt driven by Gnr Sanders. He brought us back to camp and Pope and I went to the kitchen to get a cup of tea. I went back to my hut and Pope went to his. I went to bed just before roll call at 2300 hrs. I went outside once to go to the latrine and was gone about five minutes. I had no clothes on except my underwear and my rubber boots. On my New Year leave I was in Bromley and spent the weekend with friends.

On the evening of the 26 I was going down to the Dun Horse pub, and about half way down I figured it wasn't worth the walk for a couple of drinks so I turned around and came back. I was making a short cut past the farm and saw a light in the barn and knocked on the door. I asked the man who came to the door how to get out of there and he showed me the short cut and said the mud was terrible. He said I could go out the front way. Then we got talking and went back into the barn. We talked for about ten minutes while he was milking. He had three pails and I helped him carry one up to the house. I talked to him while he strained the milk and then left. I went back past the barn to get out into the field. I did not go into the barn. I didn't see anybody around the barn. I went home across the field and stopped at the washroom, washed the muck off my boots and went over to the canteen."

(Sgd) D.E. Tomkinson

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE B.9101 Gnr Vardy, A., 4 Cdn Fd Regt RCA, states:

"I met the accused on Sunday night (30 Jan) in a pub in Horsham about 1930 hrs. I was with him until the pub closed. When we left the accused walked and talked alright, and seemed alright to me. We had about six or seven pints of bitter during the evening. I left the accused and Gnr Pope and came home on the bus."

Cross-examined by the Accused

Q 1 Did I lose my hat that night?
A 1 I don't think you had your hat in the last pub we were in.

(Sgd) A. Vardy

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE B.9184 Gnr Pope, R.M., 4 Cdn Fd Regt RCA, sworn states:

"On the night of Sunday the 30th I was with Gnr Vardy in Horsham, and met the accused in a pub. We drank beer till the pub closed and then we came home in one of our own trucks, I imagine it was the duty vehicle. It would be about 2230 hrs when we got here. We went to the kitchen and then I went to bed about 2300 hrs."

Cross-examined by the Accused

Q 1 In what condition were we when we got in?
A 1 We drank considerable beer and were feeling pretty happy. The accused was walking O.K. and seemed to be alright.

(Sgd) R.M. Pope

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE K.91874 Gnr Walkden, W., 4 Cdn Fd Regt RCA, sworn states:

"On Sunday night the 30 Jan the accused came into our hut between 2230 and 2315 hrs. I think it was before roll call. I asked him for a light, smoked a cigarette and then went to sleep."

Cross-examined by the accused

Q 1 What time did you go to sleep?
A 1 About 10 or 15 minutes after I asked you for a light.

Q 2 Was I in bed then?
A 2 Yes.

Comments of the Convening Authority.

1. After consideration of the proceedings of the case against Pte Tomlin in the light of the court's remarks, and after investigation, the following facts become apparent:-

(a) There appears to have been a miscarriage of justice against the accused in that he was held an inordinately long time (6 months) without being brought to trial.

(b) Preliminary investigation tends to show that the case was turned over for summary in the middle of January and the summary was taken 2 days later. By this time the two Provost witnesses who were essential to the case had already been repatriated.

(c) An advice was given at this time by Capt P.T.H. O'Neill to Lt-Col Payan, AA & QMG Cdn Army Staff Brussels, that if the witnesses were not returned here to establish the fact as to Tomlin being thedriver of the Veh in question, there was no case against the accused.

(d) This report was fwd to CAOF for their decision as Tomlin was a CAOF soldier. After a considerable period of time this was returned from CAOF for the taking of an additional summary without the two witnesses. At this time Cdn Army Staff Brussels was in the process of liquidation so the accused together with the docs were forwarded either to Nijmegen or CAOF. The accused was then after a few days returned to Cdn Army Staff Paris for their disposition.

(e) Lt Abbey, finally, was despatched from 3 Transit Camp Alverna, to take the additional summary after which the accused was returned to Paris to await trial.

(f) Two officers in this theatre appear to have some knowledge of these facts:-

Capt M.A. Cardinal, Cdn Army Staff Paris.

Capt P.T.H. O'Neill, Inquiry Sec HQ CFN

2. Recommendation. That a central convening authority be set up in North West Europe with power to delegate, and that all Units and Provost Detachments and Establishments having men in custody awaiting trial, summary of evidence or Court Martial be required to report weekly to such authority, all men in the above categories giving date of apprehension, reason for any delays and probable date of trial. If this is not possible due to conflicting Commands a similar return could well go to CMHQ, thus avoiding long delays due to change of venue, etc.

"I am Joseph KLEYNHAERT. We were coming back from the pictures with my brother-in-law, sister and wife. Arriving on Rue des Lombards, we saw an ambulance pass. We heard a noise like a bomb. As I thought there would be wounded inside I hurried to the place. I arrived at the car. I tried to talk to the Driver, but he seemed dazed, having not reply I went to the back of the ambulance. I opened the door and saw 3 or 4 women and some soldiers. Then my wife & brother-in-law and sister had arrived at the place. My wife shouted to me "Joseph, come here, there is a person squashed in front of the car." I went to the front and tried to pull him out. He was bleeding. I worked for 20 mins. to free him and the Belgian Police arrived and we were able to pull him out. We put him in a Belgian ambulance and he was taken away. I did not notice anything about the ambulance when it passed us. I did not recognise the chauffeur. He was a young man dressed in Khaki. There was no one else hurt that I saw near the ambulance except the youth. An American soldier helped me open the door of the ambulance. There might have been a woman with him."I swear that I saw 3 or 4 women in the ambulance."

1st Witness

M. Joseph Klaymaert 21 Rue aux Boyaudes Brussels, having been duly sworn states;

I was coming back from the cinema one evening with my wife, my brother in law and myself. When we arrived at Longue St. we saw on our left from the Croix Rouge, shortly after the patrol passed us we heard a disque noise of the lorry coming into a buisson at 2 Rue au Marais. As I reached it was a Red cross I turned to help in a course At that I turned to the owners wife, I wanted to speak to the owner but he could not answer, I then thought he was unconscious. Again I was not getting any answer I went to the back and opened the door and the help of a canadian Engish or American. As I opened the door I then saw some women with nurses, they as I entered my car, I did not realise how many there were

During this time as I was looking at the boat my wife and brother-in-law had reached the car and they found a man who was caught between the wall and the mechanism. He was caught between the rubber and the [illegible] opening, his two legs were caught between the motor and mudguard and he had fainted back.

My wife then called me and asked me to come and help get this man. It was about 15 - 20 minutes to get the man out of the position upon the Belgian police arrived on the spot. Whilst the help of the Belgian Police was necessary to get him out. The Belgian Red Cross came along with the police and put him on the Red Cross car. That is all I can say.

I say this during (remainder the evidence) because I have seen how some persons he was then to my home & [illegible] I received will know.

Cross Examination

The accident happened around 10 pm at night. Before the car there were lights but now it is rather broken

I could see by the light in the back of the ambulance.

The driver was at the wheel. I thought he had fainted

It was perhaps a minute or less until I reached the accident [illegible] the crash, it happened 100 meters away from me

The coroner came to my home twice on visit the Murray Tubbs it come to my mind and I thought to my self it must be the coroner.
Apart from my conversation with the M.P.
I wondered not this he was the coroner - he was too serious to pay any attention to wife woes of the subject.

It was a very large audience. I did not try it was a Canada Red Cross car but found out later it was Con. I wondered not know the ~~difference~~ between Con. Coroner Explain.

SUBMISSION

at close of case for the Prosecution

Pte. Temlin J.A.

Sir: It is respectfully submitted that the evidence which has been produced to the Court is not sufficient to establish a prima facie case on any of the charges against the accused.

The only evidence before the Court that the accused had any dealings with any ambulance on the night of 18 Oct 45 is that of the witness, Dvr. Milks. His evidence is merely to the effect that the accused agreed to take an ambulance to the car park. There is no evidence whatsoever, as to what happened to that particular vehicle after Dvr. Milks left the accused.

With respect to the first charge the evidence is to the effect that an ambulance had an accident and that a young man was injured. There is no evidence as to who this man was and there is no evidence as to whether or not he died as a result of being struck by the ambulance. When he was placed in a Belgian vehicle to be taken to the hospital he was alive. Further there is no evidence to establish the identity of the vehicle which was involved and not one witness called by the prosecution could assist in any way to establish the identity of the driver.

The second and third charges have not been established as no evidence has been produced to indicate that the ambulance which the accused was to take to a car park, did not in fact reach a car park, but was involved in an accident. There is no evidence whatsoever that the vehicle, numbered as in the charge sheet, sustained any damage.

For these reasons, Gentlemen, I submit that the charges fail and the accused must be found Not Guilty on all charges.

(B.164455, Pte. Tomlin, J.A.)

To the Convening Officer.

Remarks by the Court.

The case broke down due to insufficient evidence.

Canadian provost and other military personnel who, according to the evidence, were on the scene almost immediately, since that time (6 months ago) have been repatriated, and ~~the~~ it could NOT be established that the accused was driving the veh at the time of the accident nor that the veh mentioned was involved in the accident.

The court notes, with considerable concern, that the accused has spent 6 months in custody.

I recall on the 3rd July 44 at approximately 1015 hrs, I was patrolling the north end of the camp on the main road by the cinema and I noticed a soldier coming out of the bushes. I recognize the accused as being that soldier. He carried a kit bag on his shoulder and was approximately 200 yards from him behind a hedge. I knew I would not catch him by running across so I called his name and he stopped. I ran to catch him up. He ran approximately only a mile before I caught him. I asked him where he was going and he replied "camp". I made him empty the contents of the kit bag and made note of the articles mentally. I then took him with the articles to the Corporal of the R.P.

~~I identify the articles~~ (illegible) NB

The following articles were produced and identified by the witness:

A29 - I had to comply with regulations, doubling on the square and drilling in quick time.

Cross-examination by the prosecutor.

Q30 - About this leg of yours. What date was it you hurt it originally?
A30 - March 23, 1940.
Q31 - What were you told about the leg at that time?

Q41 - It was never suggested that you were anything but category "A"?
A41 - No, sir, not in so many words.

A42 - It never was because I didn't want to go back.
Q43 - Did you escape from No. 1 Convalescent Depot, Brixham?
A43 - I didn't escape, I wasn't under arrest.

Re-examination by the defending officer.

Q44 - In the last charge you are charged with being in possession of a R.A.F. sick report in the name of Walmsley. Did you make an attempt to use that pass?
A44 - No, sir.

Re-examination by the prosecutor

Q45 - Were you in possession of that R.A.F. sick report?
A45 - Yes, sir.

Second witness for the defence, P/12966, C.S.M. Fosler, G.M., No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q48 - During that period you had men of H.Q. Company under you?
A48 - Yes, sir.
Q49 - Do you recognize Tomlinson?
A49 - Yes, sir.
Q50 - Can you give the Court an idea of his character?
A50 - To the best of my knowledge he was with me for two months, as near as I can recall. I do recall Tomlinson and he came to me specifically to ask for a job -- something to do with telephone exchange work.
Q51 - At what particular time?
A51 - I couldn't state the time because I had a big company and a terrific lot of work to do and I said I would do my best for him and his name would be kept in mind and it was put on my file but there was nothing I could do. Other jobs I gave him to do, to the best of my knowledge, he did to the best of his ability and, as far as I can recall, he never gave me one bit of trouble.
Q52 - I would like particularly to remember what time Tomlinson volunteered for the job as switchboard operator in London. Was it towards the end of his period with the company?
A52 - That I can't swear to.

Cross-examination by the prosecutor.

Q53 - Do you know anything about the accused apart from the two months he was with you?
A53 - No, sir.
Q54 - Do you know anything about his qualifications as a signaller?
A54 - No, sir.
Q55 - Were you going to train him?
A55 - No, sir, we were going to submit his name if any requests had come from London for telephone operators. Periodically we used to get requests which apparently came from London asking for men of different professions but we couldn't vouch for a man's ability at all.

Lieut. F.S. Weatherston, No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, is duly sworn.
Q56 - Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A56 - A.F.P. 296 and M.F.M. 6, sir.
Q57 - Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A57 - Yes, sir.
Q58 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A58 - Yes, sir.
Q59 - Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A59 - Yes, sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Q60 - Do you wish to address the Court?
A60 - (Defending Officer) I have been rather tempted when given this case to defend to raise the defence of provocation in behalf of the accused but eventually the accused has decided to go ahead with the plea of guilty and I have raised in this case what I would normally have put forward as provocation sufficient to support a plea of not guilty. I think it has been shown by Sgt.-Major Fosler and the evidence of the accused that he has been of good character as long as he had something to do. He joined up as soon as war broke out and went to the field unit and was getting on quite well and was of good character. Then, in the course of military duty, he broke his leg and was given to understand that he would soon be back with the regiment again on full duty and the leg got worse and the Court is in a position to see his leg at the present time. This was enough to make anybody feel thoroughly disgruntled, particularly in view of what happened when he went into detention. At that particular time the medical authorities failed to examine him and when there they failed to examine him and he was within his rights in asking for it to be done. Both constitute serious breaches of army procedure. It has been brought out that during the time the accused was in his company he volunteered as switchboard operator in London. I should have got him to make a statement in his evidence in support of that. It was actually at the time of the London blitz that he made this application. I feel that as long as this man has something worth while to do he will soldier and behave in a soldierly manner. I would again point out that he has now been in this condition for a year and a month approximately. The accused has spent a total of ninety days in custody with regard to these charges.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

No. A. 3284. Pte TOMLINSON. M.,
B. Coy., Royal Canadian Regt., REIGATE. Surrey.
c/o 1st Canadian Convalescent Home,
Brixham, Devon.

Sir,

At BIRMINGHAM on 1.3.41. about 22.45 hrs. I was in the SERVICES CLUB, EASY ROW, where I saw the above named soldier. I asked if he was on leave and he said "Yes; I'm on four days leave." I asked to see his Pass and he failed to produce it, saying "I had it stolen with all my other things, last night." I asked his name and he said "Tomlinson" and then produced the attached RAF. Sick Report in the name of "Walmsley," which he said he had had given him. I knew he had slept in the SERVICES CLUB the previous night but could not find any entry in his name in the Register, and he then pointed out an entry in the name "J. Smelyn" which he said was his. I asked why he had given me the name "Tomlinson" as his and he said "I wanted a bed, and thought I would get away with it." I then asked him again for his name and particulars and he said "B. 7714423. Pte. J. Smelyn, B. Company, Royal Canadian Regt., Reigate, Surrey." He stated further that he had just left the Canadian Hospital, Bramshott, Surrey.

I was not satisfied with his statements and conveyed him ~~remarks~~ to the CENTRAL LOCK UP, BIRMINGHAM, to be detained pending enquiries.

Enquiries were then made at the Canadian Hospital, Bramshott, and it was ascertained that no-one of the name "Smelyn" was known there.

Please see attached sheet

No. A. 3284. Pte. Tomlinson. Royal Canadian Regt.

I subsequently saw the soldier at the CENTRAL LOCK UP and questioned him further, and he admitted that he was an absentee, and informed me that his correct name was MELVILLE TOMLINSON, and that he was a Private in B. Company of the Royal Canadian Regt., and that he had absented himself from the Canadian Convalescent Home at Brixham, Devon.

He was detained at the CENTRAL LOCK UP, BIRMINGHAM to await escort.

On the summary of evidence being read it is noted and pointed out by the president that the summary is insufficient in that it shows that the A.W.L. commenced at 0545 hours 28 Feb 43 and not at 0600 hours 1 Mar 43. The Court was adjourned until 1000 hrs. 13 Dec 43. To permit pros. to obtain necessary evidence. In the meantime by arrangement with the convening officer the charge sheet was amended, by the convening officer & initialled by him, to conform with the summary.

The Court reassembled at 1004 hours 13 Dec 43 at the same place with the same Pres. Members. Prosecuting Offrs & Defending Offr present.

Capt R. H. Craig, CARU sworn states:

During Dec 43 I as pres. of a court of inquiry have been investig-ating a matter which has to do with the escape of a prisoner. During the course of the investigation the accused volunteered information which was most helpful & which has, in my opinion, turned out to be true. Second Character witness:

Capt. W. F. Graham, CARU sworn states:

I have known the accused since May 41 & was familiar with his duties for about 5 mos commencing Oct 41. During that time he was no trouble & carried out his duties in a soldierly manner. I knew he was in domestic trouble, but was not myself approached by him regarding it.

L6055 Gnr TOMLINSON, Stanley Elmer.

PLEA IN MITIGATION of punishment.

As in most such cases a knowledge of the Accused's background and history is essential to intelligently come to a decision as to the most suitable punishment for his crime. As his carreer has been rather involved and cannot be seen in true perspective from a mere study of the various record sheets and statements of particulars, I must ask the Court to bear with a fairly lengthy recounting of his life.

Gnr Tomlinson has been accused of absence without leave and, on his own admission of that actual absence, has been found guilty. I am convinced that he frankly admits his crime in his own mind and stands mentally prepared to accept his punishment, which attitude of mind is in full accord with his early life.

He comes from a home possessing none of those advantages which come with a more ample financial state. His father was a long distance truck driver away from home much of the time and unemployed extensively during the depression years. His mother was, and is, an invalid. Hence it is obvious both that he was subject to little control at home, and that he early fell in with questionable company, which latter is supported by the fact that he was a chronic truant from school which he hated and left at the entrance to Gr VII at fourteen and a half years of age to work for two years on a farm for his board only. He left this in his seventeenth year and soon got in with a gang of hoodlums who ran foul of the police on a car theft incident in which the car was wrecked, and for which all six youths underwent three months imprisonment. His boyhood up until this time appears to have been one round of monthly beatings at school and at home followed by two years of unpaid work living with an Aunt with whom he could not get along.

I submit that such a background where he had clearly not received the interested sympathy that both the school and home should provide was a poor foundation on which to build a life; and that it is greatly to his credit that

- he apparently saw the error of his ways at sixteen years of age;
- and from then on not only possessed a clean record, but kept himself in almost continuous employment until being attested (AF) at the outbreak of war, and during most of which time he turned over half of his earnings to his mother;
- and for the four years prior to the war held continuous employment with a reputable firm,
- during which time he married and set up a home, having now two children;
- and, finally, that he voluntarily enlisted in the NPAM (Arty) in the winter of 34-35 and served faithfully until the outbreak of war at which time he was an NCO.

I further submit that his life in the army (AF) to date has been in a sense a repitition of what might be termed phase one of the above (his civil life). He was attested 7 Sep39 and came overseas with the first contingent in Dec 39. His first trouble came after five months of service when, as a batman, he became involved in a questionable case regarding a respirator, and for which he was awarded twenty-eight days in the Aldershot Military Prison. I submit a written statement from LieutE.W. Goalen regarding this case, and suggest that this constituted a most unhappy beginning. It should be noted, however, that in spite of a definite feeling (either correctly or incorrectly) that if he had not been unjustly treated, he had at least been unnecessarily harshly dealt with, Gnr Tomlinson took his punishment in the spirit in which he had taken his boyhood threshings, served his term and carried on as a good soldier for almost a full year until, on 25 Nov 40, he was crimed on another charge in connection with which there appears to have been some conflicting evidence and for which he received five days FP and a stoppage of pay of $60.00 (later reduced to $35.00) as payment for the loss of a spare wheel and tyre. Then on Xmas day a month later he committed an offence of using his vehicle for a short unauthorised trip and was justly punished. I would draw the attention of the Court, though, to the laxity that prevailed generally with Units in the field at that period in such matters, and feel that there must exist a strong probability that he was only one of many guilty of such an offence. He appears to have borne no particular malice for any of these punishments and, being employed as a driver when not as a cook, seems to have enjoyed a reputation as an excellent carrier driver and MT man during the ensuing year when he again had a clean record. To sum up, in the first two ~~and a half~~ years in the army he had three crimes, in two of which cases there appear to have existed certain doubts as to his guilt, while the third case was a commonly unchecked crime of no great seriousness.

However during this latter year, he became aware of his wife's conduct at home (facts which have since been confirmed by official investigation,- and divorce proceedings instituted), and it may reasonably be assumed that his judgment became unbalanced. He had apparently made representations to his officers without any results or even advice being forthcoming; and on 22 Nov 41, he went absent for twelve days and returned. On this occasion he was dealt with remarkably leniently, receiving a mere fourteen days CB (in the field). The inconsistency of this punishment with his previous ones is obvious, unless there were strong mitigating circumstances.

He again settled down, and another year passed without any entry except for a late return from pass on one occasion. However, during this time, he was taken into civil custody on 14 Jan 42 and sentenced to imprisonment for obtaining and passing cheques during his previous absence. He obtained full remission on this sentence and was released to this Re-inforcement Unit on 16 May 42. He had apparently learned his lesson and here he became a carrier instructor and was so employed until 16 Nov 42 when, still worried over his domestic affairs at home, he went absent with the foolish idea that he would return to Canada as a stowaway or by other means and straighten out these affairs and then give himself up. After getting nowhere for four months during which time he met an English girl of whom he has now become fond, he gave up the idea and surrendered himself to the civil authorities.

He was returned to this Unit and tried by court-martial. While awaiting promulgation of the findings and sentence of that Court he became associated with a very bad character, a Gnr Massey, in the guardroom of this Unit, and was persuaded by him to escape which they successfully did on 1 Mar. Being without money, they rifled a meter from which they took a few shillings and which eventually led to his apprehension by the civil authorities on a charge of petty larceny on 26 Aug. He was again imprisoned at Wormwood Scrubs, being released to this Unit on 11 Nov last.

He appears to have done a great deal of thinking while in prison and to have really seen the error of his ways; while at the same time the matter of his divorce has at last been taken in hand and he should have little further worry in that direction. He has already paid for the civil offences and is quite prepared to pay for his absence. In view of his impending divorce which should remove the apparent cause of much of his former conduct, and the expense connected with it, he is especially conscious of the loss of pay which he has rightly forfeited already; and I really feel that any consideration the Court can give to the time he has already spent confined and his loss of pay in determining punishment will be truly appreciated by the accused. An indication of his changed attitude was his willingness to be of assistance in the investigation of the Tabor escape case, in which connection Capt Craig will give evidence.

I ask the court, therefore, to consider,

- his lack of opportunity in early life, and the manner in which he overcame his handicaps,
- his NPAM service and record,

Plea in Mitigation of Punishment - Gnr Tomlinson S.E.

- the severe treatment he received in his early army days,
- his domestic troubles, and the lack of sympathy meted out to him in this connection,
- his apparent change of heart and avowed intention to accept his share of responsibility in the future,
- and the encouragement he would receive from being given as light a sentence as is compatable with the facts of the case.

h

I do not ask, nor does he expect to get off free by any means.

Respectfully submitted.

(G.C. D'Arcy)

No. 1 CARU
7 Dec. '43.

I first made the acquaintance of Gnr. Tomlinson when he came to the 77th. Fd. Bty. R.C.A. just prior to its' leaving for overseas on 8 Dec. '43. On our arrival in England we were stationed in Lille Barracks, Farnborough, Hants.

At the time of Gnr. Tomlinson's sentence to 28 days detention in January, 1940 it seemed to be the general opinion in the ranks that the sentence was unjust, and that he alone was not to blame.

Gnr. Tomlinson was with our regiment until Nov., 1941. I was also given to understand that he did have marital difficulties.

F.C.C.M. ## L 6055 Gnr. Tomlinson, S.E.

Statement of Mitigation - on oath.

I enlisted in the Artillery on Sept. 7th 1939. Previous to that I was in the M.P.A.M. since 1934. I was married in 1937 and when I left Canada in 1939 I had a daughter. The following year I had a son. At that time I was getting mail regularly until about June 1940. Then I didn't receive any mail or parcels from my wife up until this day and I haven't received any yet.

I got in touch with my Padre, Capt. McKinney, 3 Fd. Reg't. who got in touch with Major Farley, who got in touch with my wife. I was taking a course at C.T.S. last August when I had a letter come from C.M.H.Q. with a letter from my wife and a notation enclosed from Padre McKinney. The letter is about eight pages and states she had a baby by another man over there. I have the letter with me. She puts dates and everything in this letter. I saw the Padre at C.T.S. and he said I should wait until I got back to my Unit, 1 C.A.A.U. When I got back I saw Major Hallet who said there wasn't much I could do about it. I then saw the Padre again but he just didn't seem to be able to help me, Sir.

I let it go for about a month and half carried on with my work, but I just couldn't get it off my mind so I just took off, Sir, and tried to get home myself.

I tried pretty hard but just couldn't make the grade. I heard the boys might be going into action pretty soon so I surrendered myself to the Harrow Rd. Police Station.

I still don't know where my wife and kiddies are, Sir, and I was wondering if this Court might be able to do something about it, Sir.

That is all.

Cross examination:

Pros: "Gnr. Tomlinson, do you feel that you've helped yourself by going A.W.L.?"
Acc: "I had to Sir, it played on my mind so much."
Pros: "Have you heard any complaints from your wife or anyone as to complaints about you?"
Acc: " I don't think so."
Pros: "Have you the letter you mentioned?"
Acc: "Yes, Sir."
Capt. Sale: " Was an address given in the letter?"
Acc: "Yes, but my wife is evidently not there now."

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....(5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex.....initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. Neither. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. Yes sir. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans. Yes sir.

23 apr 45 I was comd. 16 Pl "D" Coy Alg. R.
The accused Pte. Langevin was a member of my Pl. At about 1800 hrs 23 apr 45 I personally ordered accused to proceed to Coy HQ to clean a Bren gun. Accused complied with order. The accused did not return to Platoon until 72 hours later. At that time 23 apr 45 at 1800 hrs.
my Platoon was committed in battle.
The absence of the accused was needed the Platoon had to carry out Task without assistance of accused.
X-examination.
After sending accused away I did leave the Platoon area. I don't know of my own knowledge whether accused returned to Pl area during my absence. We picked up a Bren gun we believed to be the one the accused took down, at Coy HQ at latter time.
By the Court.
We had taken a bridge position the night before. We had advanced a bit during the day and taken some prisoners. We were under small arms fire We were a forward company.
The accused did not return Bren gun.
We had four Bren guns - they all got back to Coy HQ during the day.

the Bren gun in guns could have been returned by accused in my absence.
By the Pd.
Coy HQ was 1500 yds in rear of town from which I met accused back.
We didn't clean guns where we were as it was much more convenient to clean them at HQ. I met accused back because he was good at cleaning Bren guns.
Accused was paid by A/C HQ (RP 83 B completed with)

X-examination.
I don't know accused prior to 17 May 45.
By the Court.
Our Coy was in Wood Farmers when accused returned. He did not report to Bren HQ then as far as I am.
By the Pd.
The accused was not with our Coy from 3 May to 17 May 45. (RP 83 B completed with)
Third Witness for the Prosecution
D.A. Forestell, RSM, the Algonquin Regt having been duly sworn states:
I was CSM D Coy Adv. H.Q. 23 Apr 45.
I was at Coy HQ most of the day. I did not see accused coming in a Bren gun carrier towards Coy HQ for purpose of clearing it. I could have recognized accused as I know him quite well. At 1700 hrs I first received information about accused. A fairly close check was then made of cleared. I cleared this ~~person~~ The accused was under close arrest when I next saw him 17 May 45.

X-examination.

The day the accused went absent the Coy was busy ~~Burning~~ Cleaning Ops backlog Vacation. The accused was not in Coy area to my knowledge 17 May 45.

By the Court.

The Coy was in contact with the enemy. Coy HQ was 1500 yds from forward platoons. I think it highly improbable that the accused could have run Taken this course under conditions and circumstances prevailing at the time as a rule an old accustomed soldier back to clean a weapon. I could remember seeing accused around Coy HQ at all the days in Ques.

P. 6

B-134350 - Pte Tompkins A.H.

Before us stands a man young in years as well as experience, who came away from School & joined the Army as an Active Service soldier. This soldier fought near Com. at Zabal & Messines, and was wounded, as a result he spent several months in a hospital. After a short period of conv. he returned to the front.

During this time he has proven himself in many ways to be an exceptionally good soldier, and more than willing to volunteer for difficult tasks.

In the past his record shows that the accused has only one minor charge against him and as can be seen is not in the habit of committing offences.

During the period of re-allocation we find the accused has again seen fit to offer his life by re-enlisting for the North East Coast Defences. Surely a man of this character would not be guilty of wilful desertion. He was at the time obviously in a state of mental confusion, and suffering from battle strain which caused him to temporarily lose his self-control, judgment, later realizing his error, returned, surrendered and ~~at~~ his own free will.

This man has grown up in the last three years prior to joining the army without the guidance of his parents, who are both deceased. His has a strict bearing as his stability in difficult times. I am confident he will return in this regard.

It is hoped that considering the circumstances surrounding this case that the court will ~~accord~~ accord it ~~as not guilty~~ for the accused. as lenient as possible in sentence to be issued. A Tompkins

Stores, Overbury Ave. When I personally ordered the accused to take the gun back to Tp. Stores he said, "I won't do it and you go fuck yourself." He did not take the gun back but turned around and walked away. L/Bdr. Scott took the gun back, after the accused had turned around and walked away. I reported this to my Tp. Sergeant, Sgt. "I am in No.1 Detachment, "A" Tp., 42 Lt.A.A. Bty. Yesterday afternoon we were out firing the Bren gun and after firing we were detailed by Lieut. Ferris to clean the gun. I took the gun down to the cook-house, 48 Wickham Rd. and the accused Gnr. Toms was sent over by Bdr. Whitehead to Tp. Stores to get some 2x4 to clean it. We waited around for about half an hour for him to show up with the equipment and he never turned up. So another man was sent after him and brought back the equipment to clean the gun. The accused came back about the same time, and was personally ordered by Bdr. Whitehead to take the Bren gun back to Tp. Stores. This Order was given at 1645 hrs. After an argument with Bdr. Whitehead the accused told Bdr. Whitehead to fuck himself and said he would not take the gun back. He went into the line-up for supper, and I myself took the gun back."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Statement in Mitigation of Punishment by Lieut. J. H. Buck.

Defending Officer:- Mr. President and Members of the Court. The accused has pleaded guilty to a serious charge, of disobeying a lawful command. You have the summary of evidence showing nothing in the accuseds' favor, and if possible, I would like to assent this story.

The accused was ordered by Sdr. Whitehead to go to Troop Stores and get some two by four for cleaning the Bren Gun. He did this and took the two by four to his own quarters where he thought the Bren Gun would be brought, after it had been cleaned with hot water at the Kitchen. This was a misunderstanding on the part of the accused. Result was that Sdr. Whitehead, waiting at the Kitchen had to dispatch another man for more two by four's. This other man met the accused and informed him that the Bren Gun was at the Kitchen. As it was nearly supper time, the accused went to the Kitchen with two by fours and also took his mess tins. After delivering the two by fours, the accused walked away to fall in in the line up which was forming for supper, thinking of course, his job was done. Sdr. Whitehead, possibly not knowing why the accused had taken such a long time delivering the two by fours, then ordered Gnr. Toms to return the Bren Gun to Troop Stores. Gnr. Toms said that he would take charge of the Bren Gun but wished to remain in the supper line up and after he had his supper, he would return the gun to Troop Stores. Sdr. Whitehead then ordered him to return the gun to Troop Stores immediately. The present charge results. In summing up, the accused felt that he was given the job of returning the Bren Gun as a sort of punishment for his tardiness in securing the two by fours, which was caused by a misunderstanding on his part and he also felt that his suggestion of taking charge of the Bren Gun and returning it after supper, as he was already in the supper lineup, was not unfair. There is little more that I can add, other than he realizes the seriousness of his mistake that he had made, and can attribute it, possibly, to his losing his temper.

The Prosecuting Officer is called and takes oath.

EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER note E-1

1st CHARACTER WITNESS
B 28638 Cpl MURRAY, M.J., on strength 5 CAWC, having been duly sworn states:

I am Cpl of the guard at this unit, I have known the accused for some time and as far as I have known him he is a good soldier he always appeared to be co-operative and willing to do his share of the work. I have never noticed any signs of instability or nervousness on his part.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

E-1

EVIDENCE BY THE ACCUSED

The Accused duly sworn states:

Sir,

Before joining the army I was a tile setter by trade. I left my job and joined the army. My parents are Italian, I volunteered because my country was at war, my Country is Canada and I wanted to help if I could. At first the boys used to rag me about my nationality but I could do nothing much about it and left them alone, everytime the Italians retreated or advanced they used to say abusive things to me, and call me names. I was in the 7 Cdn Recce Regt at the time and after a few months they became better but I never had any real friends or close pals. I met a girl in Brighton and she finally had a baby that I was the father of, at the time I last went AWL it was just before the baby came and she had no one to help her or to take care of her so I went and did what I could, after she was able to care for herself I returned to the unit. When I got out of detention I went to 1 CERU and took a briklayers course, I worked hard on that and passed it and then to the CAWC. It was from there that I went absent again, this time. I did not want to go away again but I was so lonesome and I wanted to see the girl and the baby so when I could stay away no longer I left. I got my full time off for good conduct while in detention all except one day. While I was away I got work to do and this went to keep the woman and baby, I intend to marry her as soon as it is possible, when I came back I had money and hated to leave her but I felt it was my duty to come back to my unit so I came. We were very happy together and I think a lot of the baby. I used to drink but since knowing her I have stopped and have not done so since, a period of about two years.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

The Def Offr requested that he be allowed to give evidence on oath: Request granted by the Court:

The Def Offr duly sworn states:

Sir,

Last week I went down to see this girl with whom the accused has been living. I found that he has been with her for about one and a half years and they are mutually happy, I found out from her the circumstances of their life together and also confirmation of the statement he made to me. The accused wife was very frank and she explained that she was estranged and separated from her husband and met the accused and he helped her out and he found in her a home and among her friends and relations the companionship which he failed to find in the barrack room and in the unit.

They lived happily together for seven months or so and during that time he worked and supported her. When the baby was born he felt more or less obliged to help her out and among her friends and relatives he passed as a decent Canadian soldier, he is a neat and good looking chap, and during the time that he took care of her he kept the flat neat and tidy. I only ask the Court to understand that this man found in this [redacted] woman and her friends the companionship that he did not find among his own people, that is the members of his unit, his longing to go back where he was sympathized with and loved was to strong to control. His family at home consider him to be married. This girl also told me that the accused often seemed worried and troubled and at times a bit unsound in some of his reasonings, as a matter of fact she feels that her care of him is as necessary for his welfare as his care of her is to hers. She told me that she thought him very unstable, this is all confirmed by the Pulhem's Profile and SPO's report. He is M2 and S3, and it is my opinion that with that category he is more apt or liable to do rash things than an ordinary person.
He is a good man in his trade and while at the CERU he worked hard and passed his course very well, his work at the unit is satisfactory, but he is unstable and I truly mentally unbalanced.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

Plea in Mitigation F.G.C.M

D 3337 Spr TONAKINO, A. 5 CDN

ARTIZAN WORKS COY. R.C.E

President and Members,

Sirs;

I hope your Court will not be unduly influenced by the fact that the accused went A W L shortly after a Courts Martial for a prior unauthorized and prolonged absence.

There are many factors that should be considered. Firstly, the accused served honourably with the Recce Regt. for two years. His conduct was exemplary, despite many provocations. Because of his Italian parentage he suffered numerous jibes from his comrades. He felt he was an alien in Canadian uniform. The fact that he had volunteered after throwing up his job was forgotten by his comrades and he had to suffer cruel jokes and contempt during the African and Italian campaign. There was no redress. He could not come whining to an officer and he could not beat up an entire barrack room. The only redress was to "kid" back and this man was mentally incapable of returning jibes thrown at him. It is not surprising therefore if he lost the feeling of loyalty which he had when he joined the army.

Secondly, the accused was worried about his woman and year old daughter. His concerns over his family outweighed his sound judgment and he went AWL. This is not the usual love of a man for a woman and child; it is a case of a lonely soldier of limited mental outlook and low stability whose entire interest was wrapped up in his family. Among this woman and her family he found the companionship which he failed to find in the army. only after a few weeks at home did he realize the seriousness of his crime and then surrendered himself.

Thirdly, the accused's category is M 2 and S 3. The two characteristics of limited mentality and instability made him incapable of sound judgment and he committed such a stupid crime as going AWL so soon after a F G C M.

I trust therefore that the Court will be considerate and mete out a moderate or even light punishment for the following reasons. In this case the motives were too powerful for a person of limited mentality and low stability to resist. Furthermore the accused is becoming adjusted to his present unit has qualified in his trade and is really trying to soldier. A mild punishment in this case, would be a powerful incentive for him to continue the exemplary conduct of the first two years of his service.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

IN THE CASE

D.3337 Spr Arthur TONAKINO --- 1 Can Repat Depot

Gentlemen of the Court, Tonakino came overseas to England here in April 41, very shortly after arriving here he fell in love with a girl. This lady had a legal separation from her husband. For the last five years she has never seen nor heard of her husband. She is not receiving a cent from this man at all. Tonakino happens to be in love with this lady and has lived with her as her husband for the past five years. They have a little girl of three years and a little boy of seven months. He tried to have some of his deferred pay signed over to this lady but because the children were in the ladies name it was not permissable. She was unable to work on account of the baby and was up against it and Tonakino took it on himself to leave the army which he had no business doing we understand but owing to circumstances he felt it was the only thing he could do. He took a job to support this woman and the children and as you know he had no registration papers or anything else. He has had to chase from job to job in order to stay out of the hands of the law as it were to support this woman. This is the only crimes he has had in the army, in every case he has left in order to support this woman and earn money. As far as his people in Canada are concerned, he is married to this woman, they write her and send her parcels and up to the present time they thought he was married to her. When you are passing sentence on this man I would like you to take into consideration the reason for it and be as lenient as possible. He has to go back to Canada and as soon as possible he is coming back to this country to marry her and when the seven years is up he hopes to marry this woman. All that I have said can be proved and if the Court wishes proof, proof can be brought.

Will you kindly take all this into consideration when passing sentence.

At the time of the offence Capt. Honeyford who sat on the Court was in 14 Bty 5 A/TK Regt
The accused is in 3 Bty.

As Bty-s are almost as separate as Regiments in infantry it is not thought that Capt. Honeyford is disqualified in any way although he is from same Regt viz 5 A/TK Regt. and had to be withdrawn to availability of Officers.

The fact that accused plead guilty, it is felt, also makes the question of very little importance.

First Witness D9518 RSM Brown M.V., 8 Cdn Pro Coy, Cdn Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:

"On 11 Nov 45, at approx 2130 hrs, while returning from Amersfoort, I noticed a soldier in the middle of the road with both arms up for me to stop. I stopped my jeep as the road was narrow and I could not pass him. He came very close to the jeep and said something which I could not understand. I informed him that we were Provost. He said "I don't give a damn if you are Provost or not." He asked me if I was armed. I told him I was not and he said "But I have a gun; stick 'em up." On hearing him say that, I had my leg out of the jeep at the same time talking to him, but he closed in, pressing something against my body and saying "Get out and get out fast if you don't want your body full of lead". I answered him again and told him not to be foolish. He then said "One word more and I'll pull the trigger". At that time I was fully out of the jeep, with him very close. He turned to the other passenger in my jeep, A.J. Jansen, Interpreter, who was still in the jeep and said "That goes for you too; get out of the car, I'll take it over. Don't either of you try anything". During this time he had his right hand inside the front of the fur jacket which he was wearing. In a matter of seconds he was in the driver's seat, after giving me a slight push. The motor of the jeep was still running. He threw it into gear and started off, but I managed to seize the two upright bars of the jeep. I managed to hang on for about a quarter of a mile, while he made every effort to throw me off.

During this time, the speed of the vehicle was so high that it was extremely difficult for me to hang on. He was swerving from right to left with no regard to pedestrians or other motor traffic. When he reached the round-about in Amersfoort, he made a big swerve to loosen my grip on the jeep. I couldn't hold on any longer and was thrown off, landing up against the curb. The jeep drove on. There was a good deal of traffic in the town of Amersfoort at this time and numerous pedestrians. I immediately pulled myself erect from the gutter, and began to look for Provost assistance. I stopped a passing jeep to give chase to my own vehicle, but the driver was a Dutchman and could not understand me. After about ten minutes elapsed, I contacted a 3 Coy Provost jeep, driven by F77487 Cpl Buchanan, H. With him, I cruised around to see if we could locate my jeep. We finally stopped at the round-about again to plan further action, when the Cpl on #3 Coy brought to my attention an 8 Coy jeep (Ser 43) passing the round-about at a terrific speed. I recognized it as my jeep and the driver as the man who had held me up. We gave chase, and followed him for approx fifteen miles along the highway to Apeldoorn. During the chase from the round-about in Amersfoort, Cpl. Buchanan started his siren to clear the streets of civilians and other traffic. At no time was it possible to pass him owing to his reckless driving, going from side to side. We were forced to stop finally, owing to the jeep we were driving running out of petrol. We jumped out of the jeep and stopped some passing cars. Finally we got a four gallon can of gas off a staff car. We told the driver of the staff car our story, and he told us that he had just passed a jeep bogged down off the road. I told the cpl then that we should go back to Amersfoort and get the Mobile Patrol. We found the Mobile Patrol from #8 Provost Coy in Amersfoort. I told the patrol to take off their white web so as not to unnecessarily alarm the man we were after, as he was thought to be armed. On arriving at the spot, I ordered two cpls to go to the left of the jeep and one cpl and myself went to the right side of the jeep. We closed in on the jeep. The driver was still sitting in the jeep. Immediately we closed with him, a struggle started. During the struggle, he threatened to shoot us all as soon as he was free enough. Also we made a quick search of him while he was struggling, and pulled him out of the jeep. We then made a thorough search, but could find no gun. I asked him where his gun was and he made a remark to the effect that he was too smart for the Provost. He said "I threw it away miles from here". He was still very abusive and insulting in his remarks to Provost present. He continued to say "Let my wrists free and plug the works of you". I then ordered him to be put in the jeep and taken to #3 Provost Coy HQ in Amersfoort. The struggle continued while we were putting him in the jeep but finally we got him in the jeep, with three men holding him down. His attitude remained threatening towards the Provost. I then started to get my own jeep out of the hole with the assistance of Lieut. Rintoul, 3 Pro Coy. Who had then arrived on the scene. I got it out and proceeded back to Amersfoort to #3 Provost Coy HQ to pick up the man in custody. I searched him for identification, but found only a civilian card bearing the name Gnr. Toner, W.F., Regt'l No. C79675. He had no MBM-1, no Army Identity Card and was wearing no tunic. In lieu of his tunic, he was wearing a short fur jacket. I had his shoe laces removed and his braces taken off and taken to a special cell in the Amersfoort Police Station. I told the police that I would pick him up in the morning at 0900 hrs. This morning, 12 Nov 45, he was picked up and removed to the Civil Police Stn., Hilversum. He was interrogated as to name, number, and unit. His unit was phoned and the Adj. advised us that they had such a man on strength. Unit was advised that he was being held in close custody in the Hilversum Police Stn. and was given a brief resume of the circumstances.

At no time did I actually see a gun in the hand of Gnr. Toner.

Second Witness

A.J. Jansen, Dutch Interpreter, employed by #8 Cdn. Provost Coy., having been duly sworn states:

On 11 Nov 45, at about 2130 hrs, I was riding in a jeep with RSM Brown, returning to Hilversum from Amersfoort. Suddenly, in the middle of the road, I saw a soldier in a fur coat waving both arms. We stopped the jeep as the road was very narrow. The soldier came beside the jeep, in the meantime slapping the door and mumbling something. I could not understand him as the motor was still running. The RSM said "Wait a moment, son, you are talking to Provvost. His reply to this was "I don't give a damn if you are Provost or not". "Have you got a gun?" "No", said the RSM. "I am unarmed". The soldier then stated "Well, I have a gun. Stick 'em up". The RSM said, "Wait a moment, you can't do that". The soldier said, "You get out of the car or I'll pump lead into you". In the meantime, the RSM got out of the car and said something again, trying to quiet him. The soldier answered however "One word more and I'll pull the trigger". He then turned to me and said, "You get out of the car too. I'll take this over". I got out. He jumped quickly into the car, shifted into first gear and drove away. In the moment he started the jeep, the RSM jumped on the jeep and seized the two upright bars on the right side of the jeep. I saw that the jeep was going at high speed, swerving from side to side of the road. That is the last I saw the Sgt. Major. He was still holding on to the jeep. I ran to the round-about, about 500 yds away and asked people there if they had seen a jeep pass with a man hanging on the side. They all pointed in the direction of Amsterdam main road. I stopped the first passing car, a civilian vehicle, and standing on the running board, ordered them to drive me down to #3 Provost Coy HQ. I informed the Provost in the Orderly Room what had happened. Whereupon #8 Provost Coy was phoned up and asked to send a jeep down. They said that was all they could do as they had no jeep available at the time. I waited for about ten minutes, when a jeep with a cpl and 2 L/cpls from 8 Provost Coy came down. We started right away on the main road to look for the RSM and his jeep. About 500 yds from the round-about I asked two Dutch soldiers, hitch-hikers, if they had seen a jeep passing, swerving from side to side. They replied yes and pointed in the Utrecht road direction. About five miles from the same spot on the Utrecht highway, I asked another Dutch soldier and his girl the same question. Their answer was yes, pointing in the Utrecht direction. Coming to another round-about before Utrecht, we stopped by a Provost jeep and asked for their assistance in looking for a Provost jeep (ser 43). We turned back toward Amersfoort again and stopped at a dance hall marked Spot 2 on diagram attached, to look for the soldier with the fur jacket. Coming out of the dance hall, without finding the soldier, I saw RSM Brown sitting in a #3 Provost Coy jeep. He ordered us to follow him, because he knew where his jeep was. He also ordered his men to take off their white web and put their guns in their pockets, thus avoiding more trouble, as he expected the soldier to be still armed. We went back to a point on the road about fifteen miles toward Apeldoorn. Here we located the RSM's jeep, with the soldier in the fur jacket still at the wheel, bogged down by the road. After a struggle, the soldier was overpowered and was taken back to the Civil Gaol in Amersfoort.

At the point where the soldier first stopped us, I saw a dark object in his xxxxx hand, which appeared to me to be a gun, pointed at us. It was quite dark and I could not describe the weapon.

Third Witness

At approx 2115 hrs 11 Nov 45 at "D" Section HQ in the town of Soest, I received a phone call from 8 Cdn Pro Coy HQ to report to 3 Cdn Pro Coy HQ in Amersfoort, on a case of theft of a car 5 cwt. WD No. M-5844537. Accompanied by L/Cpl Hume, E.I. and Pte. Perrine, J., I proceeded to 3 Cdn Pro Coy HQ where I contacted A. J. Jansen, a Dutch interpreter, from 8 Cdn Pro Coy. He had been travelling in the a/m WD vehicle accompanied by RSM Brown. A.J. Jansen informed me of what happened and accompanied by L/Cpl Hume, Pte. Perrine, and the Interpreter, we proceeded to search for the vehicle and driver. At approx 2230 hrs, I contacted RSM Brown at the entrance to the SUNGLOW DANCE HALL, Amersfoort, who instructed us to remove our white web and place our pistols in our pockets, as the man who stole the car 5 cwt was arm ed. We then followed RSM Brown and the Orderly Cpl. from 3 Cdn Pro Coy to where the stolen veh was sitting on the Amersfoort - Apeldoorn highway approx six (6) Kms from Amersfoort. On approaching the veh, Gnr Toner was still sitting in the veh trying to start the motor. Accompanied by L/Cpl Hume and Pte Perrine, we approached the car 5 cwt and removed Gnr. Toner from the veh. While doing so, Gnr Toner struggled quite a lot and stated that if he had his gun he would shoot all of us. He also stated that if we wanted his gun, we would find it in the river. After removing him from the veh, he was searched for fire arms but we could not find any. We then escorted him to 3 Cdn Pro Coy HQ in Amersfoort, where he was thoroughly searched again but nothing was found. While at 3 Cdn Pro Coy HQ, Gnr Toner talked a lot of shooting us if he had his gun. On the arrival of RSM Brown at 3 Cdn Pro Coy HQ, I was instructed to escort Gnr Toner to the Civil Police Stn in Amersfoort to be held in safe custody until the morning of 12 Nov 45. At approx 0900 hrs, 12 Nov 45, accompanied by L/Cpl Hume and Pte Perrine, we proceeded to the Civil Police Stn in Amersfoort and escorted Gnr Toner to 8 Cdn. Pro Coy HQ.

At approx 1000 hrs, 12 Nov 45, I was instructed by RSM Brown 8 Cdn Pro Coy, to proceed to the place where Gnr Toner was apprehended and recover the car 5 cwt. I was also instructed to search the surrounding area for fire arms which Gnr Toner might have had in his possession at the time he stopped the jeep on the Amersfoort - Apeldoorn highway. At approx 1330 hrs, 12 Nov 45, I proceeded to the spot where the jeep was stopped and searched the area, but could find no trace of any fire arms. I returned to "D" Section HQ and reported the results of the search by telephone to 8 dn Pro Coy HQ. At approx 1030 hrs, 13 Nov 45, I was instructed by RSM Brown to proceed to 5 Cdn A/Tk Regt.RCA to search the kit of Gnr Toner for fire arms.

At approx 1400 hrs, 13 Nov 45, accompanied by L/Cpl Hume, E.I. I proceeded to the Orderly Room, 65 Bty., 5 Cdn A/Tk Regt.RCA and informed them that I had come to check the kit of Gnr Toner. Accompanied by L/Sgt. McInnes, A.M., of that unit, we checked Gnr Toner's kit and could find no trace of any fire arms.

Fourth Witness — F77487, Cpl. Buchanan, H., #3 Cdn Pro Coy., Cdn Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

On the night of 11 Nov 45, at approx 2200 hrs., I went to the SUNGLOW where I met RSM Brown of #8 Cdn Pro Coy, who informed me that he had been held up on the road by a Cdn soldier and relieved of his jeep at the point of a gun. While in conversation with RSM Brown, I observed an 8 Cdn Pro Coy jeep passing by and remarked to him that one of their jeeps was passing by, to which the RSM observed was his own jeep. Accompanied by RSM Brown, we gave chase in my jeep through Amersfoort on to the Apeldoorn Road where it was run off the road and ditched. Later, the driver was removed by four men from #8 Pro Coy and taken [illegible] to Amersfoort where he was put in the civilian jail for the night. Obtaining his particulars at the civilian jail, it proved him to be: C75675, Gnr Toner, W.F., 5 Cdn Anti-Tank Regt.RCA. Gnr. Toner was placed in the civilian jail by RSM Brown, who informed me he would escort him to his unit and lay the necessary charges himself.

Life of Pte Tyler on Half of Pte. Toner

Pte. Toner joined the Belgian Army on 17 March 1942 at the age of 19 years. He came overseas 28 Dec. 1942. On the 28 July 1944 he landed in France with the 5 A/TK. and with that regiment saw thru out the N. W. European campaign. During this campaign I (Lt. J. H. Hagan R.C.) had Pte. Toner under my command. There was no man in my troops who served more bravely, more cheerfully, or more willingly than Toner. In the capacity of a Dr. D/C. Toner carried out any tasks assigned to him most willingly and with the utmost regard to duty. At the ~~conclusion~~ cessation of hostilities he was awarded the 39-45 Star, F.S. Star, and C.V.S.M. & Clasp. ~~Up until the present time Toner had no Crime other than one of the latter~~. During that difficult period between V-E Day and the departure of our troops Toner's behaviour had been exemplary until that unfortunate night of 4 Nov. 45.

On the night of 8 Nov. Lt Toner accompanied by a few of his close friends went out to celebrate his departure for Canada in the very near future. During the evening he became involved in several very unfortunate incidents. and I ask the court when passing judgement to please bear in ~~my~~ mind that any acts committed by Lt. Toner of on that evening were done so while he was ~~unconsciously~~ under the influence of liquor.

In view of this mans excellent qualities as a fighting solder and bearing in mind his record during 4 yrs. service in the army I humbly beg the mercy of this Court in passing judgement.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). APPENDIX 1 wf

With reference Pte LR Longue K 75688 plea in mitigation of sentence.

This soldier sir has a good record of service he joined June 19/1941 Conv overseas Aug 27/42 went to Italy 13 June/43 served through the Sicilian campaign and came with the first Div when they came to Holland & Germany 20 Sept 45 and has served in this theatre ever since. When in Italy he received word from his wife that she wanted to divorce him. This news coupled with the strain of service in this theatre caused him to suffer from nervous fatigue so he was removed from the front line. He tried through the Padre & straighten out his family life but could find out nothing definite. When he came to France he received no word at all from his wife in Canada. When the war was over and there was nothing to do this played on his mind and when units started to go home he felt he would rather go on the boat then go home to his wife assuredly he was wrong in this reasoning gentelmen but consider his predicament. He had been working under a nervous strain for months and inactivity only intensified the nervousness so he went AWOL as a means of relief for his feelings. This soldier is repentent now gentlemen as shown by his surrender is timely his only thought now is to return to canada and straighten out his life True gentlemen his past record is not good but I would point out that all his past crimes spring from the same cause. Therefor gentlemen

I would ask that you be as lenient as possible when you sentence this man, give him a chance to return to canada as at an early a time as possible so he may become the good canadian citizen it is our hope every soldier will become

The Accused was warned as follows "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath. You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence"

The accused: I desire to make an unsworn statement.

The accused K-76688 Pte Tongue, E.H. 12 Can. Arm'd Regt states:

At or about 0200 hrs 3 Aug 44, I judge this time by the moon, I was awakened by Tpr Murray, J.J. and handed a bottle of wine. Tpr Murray asked me "Have a drink." I took a drink and handed him the bottle. He took a drink and handed the bottle to me again and said "Finish it." I finished the bottle, then. We sat around and chatted for about ten to fifteen minutes and then Tpr Murray suggested that we leave the camp. I hesitated at first but later decided to do so. We picked up cigarettes and I took my razor and shaving soap and left camp.

We had proceeded quite a ways and as yet had not decided on a destination Tpr Murray passed out in a ditch by the road-side. I went to a farm-house about 75 yds away and got a bucket of water which I poured on his face. I shook him but all he would say was, "Leave me alone, I want to sleep." After that I left him and went to Sienna as I figured it was too late to redeem my mistake. I stayed around Sienna as I knew our own Provost would sooner or later pick me up, knowing that they patrolled the town. Sgt Huard picked me up at 1000 hrs the 3 Aug 1944.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT AND EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER GIVEN BEFORE THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE

TO THE PRESIDENT & MEMBERS OF THE COURT

In asking the mercy of the Court for the accused, Gnr. Tonti, there are a few points I wish to plead in mitigation of his offence in absenting himself without leave.

This man is not of our tongue. He is a Maltese - and prior to the war was a merchant seaman. Finding himself in Canada after the outbreak of war he enlisted in the Artillery with the set purpose of fighting Germans. He came overseas to England and, with the exception of a few lapses due to a restless desire to be at the job he enlisted to do, was a good honest soldier.

A domestic angle then introduced itself. Tonti has a wife in Malta, with two small children. He has been the only means of support for years and continued this support by assigning $20.00 a month to his wife. But apparently something went wrong with the Pay Office machinery and she never has received more than the bare assignment which is insufficient to keep them in proper food and comfort.

With his poor command of the English language he was unable to express himself, it would seem, to the point where the matter could be adjusted. And it was then, in his queer, bewildered way that he took "French Leave" with the foolish idea of earning money in a civilian capacity and sending it back to Malta. While A.W.L. he managed to scrape £12.0.0 together and send to his wife.

It was finally borne in upon his confused mind that he was going about things the wrong way and he decided to surrender himself and face the music.

Now, Gentleman, it is unfortunate for all concerned that this man could not have served where he really belongs - in the Merchant Navy. He tells me he has tried on several occasions to secure a transfer to the Merchant Service, where he could join the Malta convoys, which would enable him to visit his home town and see for himself how matters stood regarding his family.

I ask you to take all this into the fullest consideration and readjust this soldier's mental outlook, already warped by his domestic troubles. Send him, if you can, back to the Merchant Navy where he belongs - where he can and will make a valuable contribution to the Allied war effort. Again I ask you to be lenient - not punitive.

When a person surrenders himself to a constable as being a deserter or absentee without leave, the officer of police in charge of the police station to which he is brought shall forthwith inquire into the case, and if it appears to him from the confession of that person that he is a deserter or absentee without leave he may cause him to be delivered into military or Air Force custody without bringing him before a court of summary jurisdiction.

In such a case a telegram should be despatched to the Officer Commanding the Man's Unit*† in the case of soldiers and in the case of airmen the O.C. the station at which the airman last served, notifying that he has surrendered, and stating the number, rank, name and unit of the man, and that officer will at once arrange to send an escort for the man to be taken into military or Air Force custody. Where an absentee's unit is stationed overseas (outside Great Britain, Northern Ireland District and the Channel Islands) the telegram will be despatched to the O.C. Regimental Depot in the case of a soldier and in the case of an airman to the O.C. No. 1 R.A.F. Depot, Uxbridge, who will arrange escort. This certificate will be handed to the escort on arrival.

† NOTE.—Special instructions apply in war for the disposal of absentees and deserters from the Army, who surrender to the civil police; e.g., such persons will be taken over from the civil authorities by the O.C. the nearest military unit or the O.C.
