Appeal to Nation to Repel Germans From Riga

Occupation of Gulf a Hard Blow to Russia, Says Minister of Marine, But Fleet Was Unable to Make Defensive Move

Petrograd, Oct. 15.—The landing of German troops on Oesel Island could have been averted only by risking battle under unfavorable circumstances, which might have resulted in the opening of the Gulf of Finland to the enemy, Admiral Verdevski, minister of marine, said to-day. The blow is a hard one to Russia, but the Russian fleet apparently was in no position to hinder the Germans. "Since March," the Admiral said, "I have several times drawn attention to the possibility of such a blow, and I also discussed the situation with Premier Kerensky, but no one paid attention to the government's warning. Although we are at war, our political differences have been given first place in the minds of the people. The Germans take this in account and events show that they have been able to take full advantage of it.

"German naval power is four times greater than that of Russia," the Admiral continued. "The naval force in the Gulf of Riga did everything possible to prevent a landing of the Germans and will continue to carry out all the orders of the minister of marine.

The minister of marine says there is no immediate danger of a German attempt to enter the Gulf of Finland. He expresses the belief that owing to the lateness of the season, the German operations will be localized.

The Petrograd Council of Workmen's and Soldiers' Delegates has issued an appeal to the army and the fleet to obey their commanders and to fight to save the capital and repel the Germans in the Gulf of Riga.

PARLIAMENT POSTPONED

Petrograd, Oct. 16.—The provisional government has postponed the opening of the preliminary parliament from October 18 to 20. Premier Kerensky, who has recovered sufficiently from his recent indisposition to travel, will return to Petrograd to-morrow and will open the parliament.

Eight days before the opening of the constituent assembly, parliament will suspend its labors. Members of parliament will enjoy parliamentary immunity and be exempt from military service. Any measure adopted by this body must bear the signatures of at least 30 members in order to become effective.

The war ministry has sent special commissioners to each army at the front to make plans for revictualing all troops in preparation for the coming winter campaign.

Kerensky Better

Petrograd, Oct. 16.—Premier Kerensky has recovered sufficiently from his recent indisposition to travel. He will return to Petrograd Wednesday and open the Council of Russian Republic on Thursday.

Polish Independence

Petrograd, Oct. 16.—M. I. Terestchenko, minister of foreign affairs, at a meeting last night in observance of the one-hundredth anniversary of the death of Kosciuszko, the Polish patriot, declared that it was the conviction of the Entente Powers that any peace should recognize the independence of an undivided Poland.

This differs from the declaration issued by the provisional Russian Government last March in which it urged that Poland should be given autonomy under nominal Russian guidance.

The meeting, which was in the Conservatory of Music, was the climax of a day devoted to Polish ceremonies. Most of the diplomatic corps were present and several members addressed the meeting.

Not Wanted in Finland

Petrograd, Oct. 16.—Mlle. Viruhova, who has been called "the female Rasputin of Russia," and who was a close friend of former emperor's wife, has returned to Petrograd with the other exiles sent to Helsinki by the provisional government. They were returned by the Council of Workmen's and Soldiers' Delegates of Helsinki, which refused to permit them to stay in Finland.

WEATHER BULLETIN

Toronto, Oct. 16.—Pressure is highest this morning in the north-west in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Showers have occurred in Quebec and New Brunswick and locally in Alberta and Ontario.

Forecasts: Moderate to fresh westerly to northerly winds, fine and comparatively cool to-morrow and Wednesday.

OVER $800,000,000 FOR LIBERTY LOAN

Second Half of Drive Launched Throughout United States Today

By Courier Leased Wire
Washington, Oct. 16.—The second half of the liberty loan drive started to-day with an appeal from Secretary McAdoo to the governors of states to join in a national liberty loan day on October 24 to promote sale of the bonds in response to the president's proclamation.

Reports received at the Treasury department to-day indicated a sharp upward turn of the subscription curve. From a total of $399,000,000 Saturday night, the figures went up to $714,000,000 to-day and estimates at the liberty loan division were that more than $800,000,000 had been subscribed. This means that in two business days the country has taken as many bonds as had been applied for in the preceding 12 days.

BUSINESS MEN VISIT PORT DOVER

(Special to The Courier)
Port Dover, Ont., Oct. 16.—About five hundred men, representing public and business interests of Kitchener and points south along the L. E. and N. reached here at noon to confer regarding the speedy improvement of the docks and port. They were received by John S. Martin and the local board of trade and proceeded, led by the Dominion Rubber System band of Kitchener, to examine the ruins of the old transfer dock; howling stunts were performed. At times of writing the entire party are taking a motor trip about town. Capt. Robinson, of the Vigilant was honored by the party.

BRITISH CASUALTIES

MURRAY UNDECIDED, THOUGH ANXIOUS TO JOIN BORDEN

Government of Nova Scotia Meets Today to Decide Whether Premier of Province Will Enter Union Cabinet of Dominion

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 16.—At ten o'clock to-day the government of Nova Scotia was called together in a session which can well be called momentous for the announcement will be made whether Premier Murray shall enter the Borden union government or remain in his present position as head of the Provincial legislature. Hon. W. S. Fielding, who is not without great influence among the Liberals of Nova Scotia, came with Mr. Murray from Ottawa and was present at conferences held yesterday. Practically all of the members of the provincial government are in the city and with them have come a number of others prominent in the party councils. That Mr. Murray not only looks with favor on the question of union, but he would gladly take a share in the solution of the tremendous problems with which that government will be faced is generally understood.

"Among the Liberals who reached Halifax yesterday was E. M. MacDonald, who remains the uncompromising opponent of the union government, and who at the same time is said to be willing to assume the premiership of this province should Mr. Murray enter the federal cabinet.

A. K. MacLean is non-communicative regarding his position, the generally accepted opinion being that he would be willing to enter the Borden government, provided Mr. Murray yields to the pressure being exerted to have him remain in control of provincial affairs. Mr. MacLean would be Mr. Murray's first choice should the provincial vacancy be made, but there is a considerable element of the party to whom this would be objectionable. A story that gained considerable credence around the city to-day was to the effect that the present members of the Murray cabinet would prefer Mr. Fielding if an outsider were to be brought in.

After a short session the caucus was adjourned till to-night, because some of the members invited to attend had not been able to reach Halifax.

Duke in Halifax

Halifax, Oct. 16.—His Excellency the Governor-General of Canada, who arrived here at 11:30 o'clock last night, did not leave his private car until this morning, when he inspected H.M.C.S. Niobe and naval defenses. He will lunch with the admiral to-day. To-night, he will dine with Lieut.—Governor Great and on Wednesday he will inspect the military establishments and will officially open the exhibition of war trophies at the armories. Wednesday night he will dine with the commander-in-chief, and on Thursday he will be present at a joint luncheon to be tendered by the Board of Trade and the Canadian Club.

Quebec Kicking

Montreal, Oct. 16.—Le Canada, Liberal, says: "Take notice that there are seven-teen Protestants in the Union Cabinet and three Roman Catholics who are Doherty, Blondin and Sevigny, yet the Roman Catholics form forty-two per cent. of the population. It is quite clear, is it not, Rogers said; has been achieved by this popular Brantford Officer.

Belligerent Nations of World Pay $160,000,000 Daily

AMAZING STATISTICS

Four Years of War Will Cost World Hundred and Fifty Billion

By Courier Leased Wire
New York, Oct. 16.—The Associated Press to-day carries the following: "The war is costing the belligerent nations of the world at the rate of $160,000,000 a day—$6,500,000 an hour—and the United States is paying at least one quarter of this staggering sum, according to estimates made to-day by the Mechanics and Metals National Bank of New York. The estimated daily cost at the beginning of the war was $50,000,000 and a year ago it was $100,000,000. This country's rate of expenditure is greater than any other nation, Great Britain being second and Germany next.

By next August, according to the banks' figures, the total cost to the world will be $155,000,000,000. Already expenditures have exceeded one hundred billion dollars, all of which but a fraction, has been translated into national indebtedness. Interest on public debt is now calculated to be more than 10 per cent. of the normal income of the German people as compared with less than one half of one per cent. in the case of those who take up this country.

The developed national wealth of the allies is placed at $600,000,000,000 by the bank, while that of the Teutonic powers is given as $130,000,000,000.

About 53,000,000 men are to-day

ONE MANAGEMENT FOR CORPORATION

Bethlehem Steel To Consolidate All Shipyards To Expedite Output

By Courier Leased Wire
New York, Oct. 16.—In order to expedite the work on the present enormously augmented volume of ships contracts of its subsidiary companies, Bethlehem Steel Corporation has arranged to consolidate under one management all its various shipyards.

The demands of the government on the facilities of shipbuilding plants make it essential that all duplication of engineering and similar overhead work shall be avoided so far as it is possible, and the proposed consolidation is expected, through the ship standardization and the centralization of management, to increase the production of the yards affected.

NO BRITISH TITLES FOR HUN NOBLES

By Courier Leased Wire
London, Oct. 16.—Parliament assembled to-day after a recess of more than two months and began grappling with a big list of legislative and administrative work. Its most important duty will be passing of a new vote of credit. This probably will bring up for discussion the general war situation, but it will be a few days before that business is reached.

For to-day there is nothing more exciting scheduled than the second reading of the bill giving the Government control over all petroleum and the consideration of the titles deprivation bill, which is aimed at those who take up arms against Great Britain and her allies.

Chief interest centred in the prospect that the Government will take advantage of the opportunity to announce the general policy of its air service, a subject which has been brought into the foreground by the recent raids over London.

Germany Split Anew by Ministerial Crisis; Socialists Demand Retirement of Michaelis and Speedy Conclusion of Peace

Copenhagen, Oct. 16.—No steps in the ministerial crisis and no action on the resignation of Admiral von Capelle, the Minister of Marine, is expected by the German newspapers until Emperor William returns to Berlin from his Balkan trip. Dr. Michaelis, the Imperial Chancellor, has left the capital to study conditions in the occupied districts of Russia as if nothing was more remote from his mind than the thought of retiring.

Demand for the dismissal of Chancellor Michaelis was the leading theme at the opening session of the Socialist conference at Werzburg, Bavaria, Sunday, at which Philippe Scheidemann, the majority Socialist leader in the Reichstag, was a speaker. Frederick Ebert, a Socialist member of the Reichstag, assailed those members of the party, who attempt to prolong the war. He declared that advocates of the so-called German peace were working in their own pecuniary interests and not for the fatherland. Herr Scheidemann said that the war profiteers were investing millions of marks in the German press, which accounted for the increasing number of newspapers attacking the advocates of a moderate peace.

The convention was far less imposing in size than the peace time conventions. Foreign delegations were missing and there was barely 350 German delegates on account of the decrease in party membership through the defection of Independent Socialists and the absence of hundreds of thousands of Socialists at the front.

Amsterdam, Oct. 16.—In his speech at the Wurzburg convention here, Ebert, president of the German Socialist party, said speedy conclusion of peace was a vital necessity for workmen in all countries and that the policy of the mallet fist would disappear, after frightful horrors of the war.

"If a ballot were taken to-day," he added, "nine-tenths of the people would approve peace by agreement."

Herr Scheidemann, referring to the Capelle incident, said that unfortunately it could not be discussed in public.

"The fact is," he continued, "that if they wanted to catch all who were connected with similar incidents, they would have to take action against 30,000 persons simultaneously. Every day soldiers come to us with complaints and we have opened a special bureau to investigate them. The main thing is not to talk or write about grievances, but to combat them."

Amsterdam, Oct. 17.—Archbishop Alexandre von Laeksocki of Warsaw; Prince Lubomirsky, mayor of Warsaw and Josef Honostrowski, have been appointed members of the Council of Regency of the new Polish state by the emperors of Germany and Austria-Hungary, according to a telegram from Berlin. Emperor William of Germany has sent the following message to General von Beseler, the German governor-general of Poland:

"I have found it advisable, in agreement with my illustrious ally, the emperor of Austria-Hungary and in the spirit of article one of the decree of September 12, 1917, to install as members of the Council of Regency of the Kingdom of Poland the Archbishop of Warsaw, Alexandre von Laeksocki; the mayor of Warsaw, Prince Lubomirsky and the landed proprietor Josef Honostrowski."

The emperor requested General von Beseler to carry out the decree in conjunction with Count Szapocki, the Austrian governor-general. The decree of September 12 trans-

RUSSIAN CRISIS CENTRE OF CONCERN IN SITUATION TODAY

German Operators in Riga Gulf Constitute a Formidable Menace—Respite Enforced by Bad Weather on the Western Front

The German operations in and around the Gulf of Riga, which have centred attention upon the northern Russian front for several days past are not likely to be extended this fall to the Gulf of Finland, on this route to Ravel, Kronstadt and Petrograd, in the opinion of Russian naval authorities. The lateness of the season will have the effect of localizing the German effort, the Minister of Marine believes.

The situation created by the Teutonic move, however, is serious on the Russian front in its present aspect. With the great naval preponderance of the Germans in the Baltic there seems little to prevent them from making the Gulf of Riga, virtually a German lake and solidifying it into a strong naval base from which military operations as well could easily be pushed advantageously under propitious weather conditions.

The military situation on the various fronts in the western war area was virtually unchanged overnight, so far as the official statements reveal.

The German reports have begun to lay stress again on the great violence of the artillery fire in Flanders, but there are no indications that the bombardment has yet been worked up to the point where the British find themselves ready for a renewal of their drive.

Evidently much depends upon the weather in this region. In the light of his last week's experience with the handicap of the Flanders mud it seems probable that Field Marshal Haig will await the setting of the ground into a somewhat more passable state, although the hope of securing even ordinarily good conditions at this late season of the year seems now to be considered small.

Air Raids Continued

London, Oct. 16.—The aerial raids over Belgium were continued yesterday. In patrol encounters two German machines were driven down. The following official statement was made public to-day:

"A considerable number of patrols were carried out yesterday by naval aircraft, in the course of which several enemy airplane formations were encountered. Two enemy machines were driven down. One of our machines is missing.

"During 24 hours bombing raids were carried out on the following objectives:

"The Bruges docks, Varssener air-drome and Houtave air-drome. Large quantities of explosives were dropped with good effect, all of our machines returning safely."

French Official

Paris, Oct. 16.—A German attack on the Verdun front last night was repulsed by the French, it is announced officially. The communication follows:

"On the Aisne front the artillery fighting was less intense. We made two successful attacks on the German lines, one east of Rheims, the other in the Argonne, in the region of Bourneville. Our detachments destroyed numerous shelters and brought back prisoners."

"On the left bank of the Meuse (Verdun front) we repulsed a German attack north of Hill 304."

Denison, Texas. "After my little girl was born two years ago I began suffering with female trouble and could hardly do my work. I was very nervous but just kept dragging on until last summer when I got where I could not do my work. I would have a chill every day and hot flashes and dizzy spells and my head would almost burst. I got where I was almost a walking skeleton and life was a burden to me until one day my husband's step-sister told my husband if he did not do something for me I would not last long and told him to get your medicine. So he got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and after taking the first three boxes I began to improve. I continued its use, and I have never had any female trouble since. I feel that I owe my life to you and your remedies. They did for me what doctors could not do and I will always praise it wherever I go."—Mrs. G. O. LOWERY, 419 W. Monterey Street, Denison, Texas.

If you are suffering from any form of female ill, get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and commence the treatment without delay.

Medical Board Held First Session at Simcoe On Monday

BOARD'S PERSONNEL I. O. D. E. Busy Preparing Comforts For The Men Overseas

(From our own correspondent.)

Simcoe, Oct. 16.—The following constitute the local Army Medical Board, organized with headquarters at the Armouries, Robinson street:

Capt. G. W. Anderson, president. Capt. H. D. Stebbins, Dr. S. A. Richardson, Dr. D. A. Bowly.

The first man on hand for examination was Geo. Howie, who had come up from Port Rowan on the early morning train and he had to return without being examined.

The board sits daily except Sundays, 9 to 10 a.m., 2 to 5 and 7 to 10 p.m.

Those called up apply to the postmaster nearest home or service or exemption papers or both. Each is given papers certifying that he is reported on the same day to headquarters at Toronto. He will be advised by mail later as to when he shall appear for medical examination. As the routine was not generally understood there was no rush yesterday up to six o'clock. Postmaster Lawson has opened a temporary office at the rear of the hall and will be there during ordinary post office hours.

It is not likely that the doctors will have much to do till towards the end of the week.

I.O.D.E. Notes.

The boys overseas would surely have been heartened for their task could they have peeped into Lynwood yesterday, where some two dozen ladies were busy preparing garments for their use and comfort. Every department was humming with action and talk of Christmas boxes for the trenches was rife. Mrs. Farney brought her friends, Mrs. Abbott and Mrs. Bailey were shown through our spacious quarters with pleasure.

Donations—From St. Paul's, 2 1/2 dozen culs pyjamas, 2 dozen personal property bags, 2 dozen wash cloths, 15 pair socks.

Shipments—Fifteen pair socks each to Pte. G. Gloyer, Capt. E. E. Mason, Sub-Lieut. J. W. Adams, Lieut. V. Curtis. To Canadian Red Cross—Four dozen suits pyjamas, 5 dozen personal property bags, 4 dozen towels, 4 dozen wash cloths, 1 dozen housewives, 12 dozen handkerchiefs.

When called for a speech the other evening, one of the soldiers confided his remarks to praise of the women at home for the comforts sent to the boys. All seem speak very highly of the treatment received in France and all along; the routine homeward.

German Influence in France Delayed Victory of the Allies

By Courier Bessed Wire

Paris, Oct. 16.—Leon Daulet, editor of L'Action Francaise, who has taken a prominent part in the exposure of German intrigue in France, writes under the heading:

"I am feeling my duty in the plot against France," that everyone has noticed since the war began that "there was something rotten somewhere which delayed the victory of the allies." He continues:

"This something was German money employed within the Allied countries. There was a Bolo Pasha fund for corruption of the press, the von Buelow fund for diplomats, the intrigues, and the Hohenlohs fund for promoting crimes and sedition. The last named fund in my opinion was by far the most important. It was employed to promote the plot, carefully prepared for months, which broke out in both the army zone and the rear formations in May and June of this year. This plot nearly attained the results hoped for by the German government."

MURRAY UNDECIDED

To hell with Quebec; and Clifford Sifton; No more Catholics will rule in Canada. This then is the policy of the Union Cabinet. Then they announce the retirement of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, although he was never so solidly anchored in the affections of the people as at the present time. Imagine that he will be discouraged if they hold the elections in the month of January. Ask for Sir Clifford Sifton who excels in creating prejudices, he is organizing the protestants against the Papist Laurier. There is, however, even so public opinion in Canada, and it will be manifested at the polls by thousands of silent voters. All the Northcliffe, all the Atholstons and all the Siftons, in the world will not impose the union government on the Dominion."

FORTY CLAIM EXEMPTION

Out of Forty One Who Have Registered for the Draft Here

Forty out of the forty-one men who have registered at the local post office as required under the Military Service Proclamation, have applied for exemption. The recruits will be called up on the first draft office before November the 16th, but although over one thousand men have been examined by the medical board, only forty have registered at the postoffice since Saturday. The certificates to be filled out by claimants for exemption may be secured from the registered letters department, and the officials in charge of the work emphasized the benefit of coming early as a great rush is anticipated in the early part of November. Those wishing to report for service or to claim exemption, and have been examined by the medical board should bring with them, their medical history sheet which must be attached to the exemption certificate and be forwarded to the government.

Many men have unnecessarily called at the postoffice and Postmaster explained this morning that only those of first draft are required to make known their intentions before the 16th of next month.

BRANT CHAPTER HAS NEW REGENT

Mrs. Gordon Duncan Succeeds Mrs. H. Yates In I. O. D. E.

Brant Chapter, I.O.D.E., held its regular monthly meeting, Monday, Oct. 15th, at the home of Mrs. McFarland, Mrs. Gordon Duncan presiding. Routine business disposed of, a resolution was passed expressing sincere regret at the resignation of Mrs. Herbert Yates, whose continued illness has necessitated her giving up office. By the unanimous vote of the meeting, the first vice-regent, Mrs. Gordon Duncan, was appointed to the office of regent.

The sum of fifty dollars was voted towards the British Red Cross campaign fund in response to an appeal from Government House, also thirty dollars to purchase material for our Canadian soldiers in the trenches.

Final arrangements were made regarding the chapter members who are to act as waitresses at the luncheon in connection with the nightingale fund, and the same thirty members also volunteered to officiate the following day at the banquet for the Ontario Plowmen's Association.

The report of the visitors for the month to the Brant Sanitarium was given. As the need of a piano was urged for the entertainment of the patients it was unanimously decided that Brant Chapter purchase and donate the one at present in use at the institution. Donations of homemade bread are always acceptable at any time. A suggestion was made that Brant Chapter should hold annually a "Sanitarium Sunday" to solicit funds for the many needs. A committee was appointed to interview the Ministerial Alliance as to the feasibility of this project and ask for their co-operation in same.

Mrs. Harry Leonard reported for the Six Committee that 138 pairs of socks and four scarfs had been shipped through the Canadian Field Comforts Association.

The "Hambourg Trio" are contemplating putting on a concert in Brantford and have approached the chapter asking for the privilege of using their chapter name for which they will allow them ten per cent. of the gross receipts. It was decided to accept the offer.

Notice of a Talent Tea, to be given by the 12th Auxiliary in the Armouries was announced, also of the play to be put on by the South of France Relief Club and the patronage of the members was solicited.

Several more names, handed in their talent money, making a total sum of about $200, amongst them Mrs. John Seines, who handed in $25, the proceeds of her music lessons. This money to be used for Red Cross purposes.

A vote was taken as to the advisability of increasing our membership and holding the meetings in future at a central public place or continue to meet in the homes. It was finally decided to hold the meetings in the Y.W.C.A. club room and increasing our number to 150 members. Several more names were proposed for the waiting list.

Miss Pearl Brown, who was asked to assist as an assistant secretary, kindly consented to take office.

After the closing ceremonies the meeting adjourned.

THE SITUATION

The Russian Minister of Marine states that the Navy did everything possible to prevent the Germans from entering the Gulf of Riga but that they were over-matched. That is very evident from what is taking place and the land forces in their present condition of disruption are equally totally unable to check the foe. The arrival of winter is about the only thing which may help to stem any inroad the Teutons may wish to make. Signs of the army and the disruptionists awakening to any sense of the existing peril are certainly most woefully lacking.

Heavy fighting has taken place on the Italian front as the outcome of the Austrians launching several violent counter attacks. All of them proved to be futile.

Perry Robinson, a well-known war correspondent at the front, states that there are many signs that a mutinous spirit is growing in the German army. He says that this is particularly true of the Bavarian units and that officers are affected as well as the men.

Bulgaria is reported to be weary and anti-German reaction is stated to be apparent there.

On the Flanders front bad weather is retarding any operations of moment.

MAKE THE PUNISHMENT FIT THE CRIME

It is almost inconceivable that any paper in Canada should so far forget itself and a paramount duty owing to the State, as to seek to make damaging comments with reference to the operations of the "Military Service Act."

For instance, a Western weekly has the following:

"What about the Military Service Act? Can you doubt it? Sure you can if you are in politics, trusts or combines."

A more arrogant falsehood than the above was never conceived or penned.

The operations of this measure are beyond suspicion of the slightest possibility of favoritism in any respect. The entire administration of the machinery is on a thoroughly non-partisan basis and all classes are equally under its scope.

It is satisfactory to know that the authorities have decided to take stern action for the suppression of such comment as that quoted and so they should. It is also to be further hoped that they will make the punishment severe.

NOTES AND COMMENT

Instead of a Russian come-back it continues to be a case of more back-ing up.

Hon. Mr. Rowell has tendered his resignation as Provincial member for North Oxford. This would be a good chance for that constituency to send one of its own residents to the Legislature instead of continuing to act as a warning pan for outsiders.

The number of leading Liberals who each day are affirming their support of the Union Government must bring the fact further home to Laurier that he has taken a most mistaken course in this world crisis.

The Courier would like to see some representative labor man identified with the new administration.

The Waterloo County Council voted $10,000 towards the British Red Cross Fund and the Kitchener Council will recommend $5,000. Lagerloof is doing very well indeed in these respects.

The players in the championship baseball series take enough money on the diamond to buy their lady friends some.

A WAR COSTS

engaged in the war. To what extent the Entente Allies have gained superiority over Germany is shown by the bank in striking fashion. With no more than 2,000,000 of American manhood enlisted, the total military strength of the Allies is 33,000,000, against a total for Germany, Austria, Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey of 20,000,000. The population of 14 Entente Allies, from which the ranks of their armies may be replenished, is altogether 1,800,000,000 against a population of less than 150,000,000 in the Central European nations.

A CONTRAST

Sir Robert Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier will lead the two opposing sides in the forthcoming election contest. For a while it looked as if the "White Plumed Knight" might make way for someone else, but when it became clear that he intended to accept a nomination and to continue as the leader of the Quebec wing, that idea speedily became exploded. From first to last, Borden has had a far clearer insight with regard to war dangers and war necessities than has Laurier.

Take the introduction of the Naval Bill in 1912 as an example. During the speech which he made in connection with that measure, Sir Robert said:

"Upon the information which I have disclosed to the House, the situation is, in my opinion, sufficiently grave to demand immediate action. We have asked His Majesty's Government in what form temporary and immediate aid can best be given by Canada at this juncture. The answer has been unhesitating and unequivocal."

"These ships will constitute an aid brought by the Canadian people to His Majesty the King as a token of their determination to maintain the integrity of the empire and to assist in repelling any danger which may threaten its security."

"But to-day while the clouds are heavy and we hear the booming of the distant thunder, and see the lightning flashes above the horizon, we cannot and we will not wait and deliberate until any impending storm shall have burst upon us in fury and with disaster. Almost unaided, the Motherland, not for herself alone, but for us as well, is sustaining the burden of a vital imperial duty and confronting an overmastering necessity of national existence. Bringing the best assurance that we may in the urgency of the moment, we come thus to her aid, in token of our determination to protect and ensure the safety and integrity of this Empire, and of our resolve to defend on sea as well as on land, our flag, our honor, and our heritage."

Compare this present idea of the danger threatening with the attitude of Sir Wilfrid. Here is what he said in part:

"This document (the Admiralty memorandum) shows that there is no emergency, that England is in no danger, whether imminent or prospective."

"I charge upon the Administration, Sir, that they have submitted this measure to us under false pretences; and I do not consider that observation too strong. I charge upon the Administration that they put into the mouth of His Royal Highness the Governor-General, assertions which were absolutely unfounded in fact, when they placed in the speech from the Throne the assertion that a condition of things exists in Great Britain which make it imperative that the naval forces of the Empire should be strengthened. I say there is not the shadow of foundation for such an assertion."

"There is one fact in the situation which I think shows that there is no intention on the part of Germany to attack England, and that fact is the German Emperor. The German Emperor is undoubtedly one of the great men of the present age. By intellect, by character, by moral fibre, he has shown himself wonderfully endowed. In the first years of his reign, of his utterance sent a shiver through those who had the peace of the world at heart. Many believed that he was, perhaps, hankering for the glamor of military glory. But, as he advanced in years, and as crisis after crisis came, his patient influence was always directed towards peace. And the day may come when like his illustrious ancestor late King, he may be called the peacemaker."

On top of this talk, and after he had caused his majority in the Senate to kill the bill, the Liberal leader in the House of Commons, Jan. 19th, 1914, made a taunting speech in which he said:

"The German peril has disappeared, if, indeed, there ever was such a thing."

"We know now how much the country and the Empire and the civilized world has been deceived upon that question of so-called emergency."

"The Bill which was brought in last session (the Naval Aid Bill) was not even a measure of emergency, although it was so called. They introduced it upon the shallow pretence of emergency. Emergency? Who speaks to-day of emergency? Twelve months have passed since my right hon. friend the Prime Minister introduced his measure. Twelve months and more have passed since that time when he saw the German peril. He saw Germany almost ready to jump at the throat of Great Britain. He saw clouds on the horizon rent by lightning, and heard the murmurs and rumbling of cannon. But my right hon. friend must live in peace. The climate is moderate and the sky is clear."

Can anyone doubt as to which of the two men has the most grasp and the most purpose in this crisis, and is the most to be desired at the helm of affairs?

Most assuredly not, and the answer of the people at the polls will be overwhelmingly in favor of the statesman who has kept Canadian purpose and achievement so steadily in view on behalf of the Empire and the great cause of human liberty.

Mr. George Dowling has returned to the city, after an absence of several months spent on Manitoulin Island.

Head of C. P. R. Counsels French-Canadians To Accept Measure

By Courier Special Wire
 Montreal, Oct. 15.—A statement counselling French-Canadians to accept the Military Service Act, now that it is law, urging the extension of the measure, if necessary, to all branches of industry furnishing war material and suggesting punishment for all frothy jingoism whose only contribution to the war is their language, was issued to-day by Lord Shaughnessy, head of the Canadian Pacific Railway System, to the French press of this Province. His Lordship was urged by a number of French-Canadian gentlemen to define his attitude on conscription. He has frequently been referred to by a section of the French papers in Quebec as opposed to conscription.

The principal leave Hamilton to-morrow afternoon, bound for points east and last leave was given to the members of the unit on Friday night. A large number of Brantford boys, identified with the C.M.R., were in the city over the week-end, but returned to Hamilton on Monday morning.

POLICE COURT

On the three charges of theft, jail breaking and assault causing bodily harm, William Snow, alias Joseph Harris, alias Thomas Harris was committed for trial in the police court by Magistrate Livingston this morning. The first charge, preferred by County Constable William Taylor was for jail breaking.

Sergt. Detective Chapman was the author of the charge of theft of a bicycle. The most serious incident in connection with the gateway of the two desperadoes was the punishment given to the late Governor Brown, and in this connection, Goal-er Cook this morning added a third to the list of offences and charged Snow with assault causing bodily harm. In every case the erstwhile fugitive pleaded not guilty and elected to be tried by jury. His desire will be gratified for His Worship Magistrate Livingston committed the prisoner to trial before the first court of competent jurisdiction. In the meantime he will have time to re-appear quite familiar to him after his previous occupation.

HAZEN ENVOY TO WASHINGTON

More Direct Official Connection Needed With American Capital

HE IS LIKELY CHOICE

Securing More War Orders Will Be One of the Main Problems Immediately

Ottawa, Oct. 15.—Canada has to have a High Commissioner, a special envoy at Washington, and the man for the post is Hon. J. D. Hazen, ex-Minister of Marine and Fisheries. This is the most interesting report of progress emanating to-day from the new Government. The report is as yet unofficial, but is well founded.

The need of more direct official communication between Washington and Ottawa on matters affecting joint interests of the neighbor countries has been recognized for years. The creation of the International Joint High Commission furnished one medium. The British Embassy at Washington is another medium. But the war has created a new condition. Now that the United States has entered the war the economic resources of Great Britain, Canada and the United States have to be co-ordinated to the fullest possible extent. The purchase and output of war munitions of every kind, problems of exchange, credits, supplies of food, etc., have to be considered in the light of mutual needs and mutual effort. These problems involve important questions of Governmental policy demanding prompt action and quick understanding.

The need of a Canadian representative of quasi-Cabinet standing at Washington at the present time is if anything, more pressing than the need of a Canadian High Commissioner at London. Mr. Hazen as a Minister of the Borden Government for the past six years has intimate knowledge of Canada's war problems of finance, munitions, etc. He is a natural choice for the Washington position, a much more important one at the present time than the New Brunswick chief of the "Ship" for which he was first slated.

Five Officers and 51 Men Lost—Mine-sweeper Also Reported Lost

London, Oct. 15.—The British armored mercantile cruiser Champagne has been sunk and the mine-sweeper sloop Begonia is overdue and regarded as lost, says an official statement to-night.

The text reads:

"His Majesty's mine-sweeping sloop Begonia, R.N., is now considerably overdue, and must be considered lost with all hands."

"His Majesty's armed mercantile cruiser Champagne, Acting Captain Percy G. Brown, R.N., in command, has been torpedoed and sunk. Five officers and fifty-one men were lost."

M. MALVY IS ACQUITTED BY PREMIER

Paris, Monday, Oct. 15.—Premier Painleve communicated to the Cabinet to-day the result of his inquiry into charges against Louis J. Malvy, former Minister of the Interior, accused by Leon Daudet, of having betrayed secrets of Germany. The Premier said his investigation had shown all accusations, whether of communicating military and diplomatic documents to the enemy or of complicity in military disturbances, were quite unfounded.

The Premier said the Government was resolved not to tolerate with or tolerate interference with judicial procedure, which would be followed to its proper conclusion in conformity with the ministerial declaration. The Government considered it its duty, however, to clear up in the interest of internal peace and the nation's morale, accusations, the falsity of which had been established.

representative of the Westinghouse Company, who have the contract for the electrical appliances, was in the city a few days ago and assured Secretary Frank that the electrical equipment would be completed in abundant time.

LISTEN TO THIS!

SAYS CORNS LIFT RIGHT OUT NOW

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week inflicted an awful death on lockjaw or blood poisoning are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called Freezons, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out with the fingernail.

It is a sticky ether compound which dries the moment it is applied and simply shrivels the corn, without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of Freezons will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You are further warned that cutting at a corn is a suicidal habit.

CRIMINAL MOTORING.

Automobile thefts in Toronto reached the appalling number of over 500 last year, according to the recent presentation of the grand jury. What makes the prevalence of this offence still more dangerous is that many of the thefts were committed for immoral purposes. In their recommendations the grand jury offered the suggestions that wider powers be vested in the rural authorities to enable them to deal with parties of young people motoring through the outlying districts. The many and serious cases of criminal carelessness coming under their notice also received mention in the grand jury's presentation.

GOOD ADVICE.

The editor of one of our esteemed exchanges, evidently feeling the pinch of war conditions, formed the following: "If you have frequent fainting spells, accompanied by chills, cramps, corns, bunions, chilblains, epilepsy and jaundice, it is a sign that you are not well, but liable to die any minute. Pay your subscription, thus making yourself solid for a good obituary notice."

WHITE SOX ARE CHAMPIONS IN THE 1917 BASEBALL CLASSIC

Yesterday's Victory at New York, 4-2, Gave Chicago the Series; Record Crowd Saw Giants Humbled By Their Western Rivals Yesterday — Zimmerman's Three Star Bone Play Started the Scoring For the Pale Hose

New York, Oct. 16.—Coming out of the west, like Lochinvar of old, the Chicago Americans won the world series baseball championship here this afternoon, defeating the New York Nationals, 4 to 2, in the sixth and deciding game of the 1917 diamond classic. For the first time in almost a decade the titular banner will flutter over the fans of the middle-west metropolis next Spring, when the series' pennant is raised at Comiskey Park, as evidence of the superiority of the White Sox in the great national game.

After winning the first two games on their home field and losing the next two at the Polo Grounds, the Chicago clan clinched the consolation with two straight victories, one at Comiskey Park and the other at the fair of the Giants. The New York Club did not go down yesterday without desperate resistance. The battle was surcharged with sensational situations and thrilling plays, but the invading combination with the edge of a one-game lead, was not to be denied. It was the Giants who eventually broke under the strain of the conflict.

Faber vs. Benton.

With Rube Benton, the towering south-paw, waging a pitching duel for the locals again the curves of Urban Faber, the battle was fought through three full innings, without either team giving way the slightest margin either offensively or defensively. In the "fatal fourth," however, the Giants faltered for just a moment, and, seizing their advantage, the players of Chicago smashed the breach and captured the first world-series championship emblem won by the city on the shores of Lake Chicago since Frank Chance's Cubs defeated the Detroit Americans in the struggle of 1903.

While the Nationals made a gamely run in the fifth and the Sox added another run in the ninth, the three runs scored by the Chicago team in the fourth session were the deciding factor. The play in this inning convinced the thirty-odd thousand spectators present that, for this season at least, the pennant-winning club of the American League is better than that which won the six-month race in the senior organization.

That the championship should be decided in the fourth inning was in keeping with the feature and factor play throughout the series. The Chicago Club scored its winning run in this inning during the first game and collected five in the second contest in the same period. In the third and fourth contests, won by the Giants, the winning team scored the only runs of the battle in the fourth inning of the third, and the first of the five runs in the fourth, which was a five-to-nothing shut-out in favor of New York. The scoring of Saturday proved an exception, but yesterday the Sox reverted to the original system, and, aided by misplays by the Giants, closed the series with a decisive victory.

Largest Crowd of Series.

The largest gathering of spectators to witness any game of the present interleague contest was on hand when the rival clubs grappled. According to the official figures 33,969 persons paid admission to the Polo Grounds, their contribution totaling $73,348. Of this sum the stockholders of the two clubs will each receive $3,066.06 and the National Commission $7,830.00. The players ceased to participate in the gate receipts after the fourth game but they will receive $152,888.58 as their share, this amount being divided sixty per cent to the Chicago men and forty per cent to the New York players. The total receipts for the six games amounted to $425,878 and after subtracting the money paid to the players the two clubs are richer by $115,290.81 and the National Commission $42,587.80.

As was befitting the climax of the baseball year the day was the best of the lot through which the battle raged. There was an entire absence of wind and the sun shone from a blue Autumn sky with enough warmth to make outer wraps unnecessary. Under these favorable conditions the thousands of fans entered into the spirit of the play with more of the American baseball enthusiasm than has been the case in almost any of the preceding contests. As was natural they rooted long and lustily for the Giants but were quick to appreciate and applaud the winning work of the White Sox as well as to cheer down an attempt to boo Captain Eddie Collins of the visiting team.

Zimmerman Pulls Bone.

This vocal applause and support was particularly noticeable in the crucial fourth inning, although it must have been mixed with considerable chagrin at the peculiar defensive strategy suddenly uncovered by the Giants. Eddie Collins opened the inning by hitting a bouncer to third baseman Zimmerman who threw the ball low and wide of Holke, whereupon Collins romped merrily to second. Right-fielder Robertson next dropped Jackson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins perched on third. Felch hit to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the bag to help trap the White Sox while Zimmerman took upon himself to make the put-out and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins with Zimmerman man in his wake sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his pursuer was outdistanced in the dash.

While this diamond disaster was being enacted Jackson and Felch were also racing around the bases and were perched on third and second respectively when Collins dashed across the ungraded plate. Gandil promptly arose to the occasion by sending to right, scoring both teammates and went out when he tried to stretch his hit into a two-base drive. Robertson getting him at the midway with a fine throw. Weaver flew to Burns and Schalk singled in the same direction. Faber worked his rival for a pass and with two on, John Collins closed the run-getting by hitting to Fletcher, who tossed him out at first.

Kauf Failed in Pinch.

The Giants, awake to the possibility of losing the game and the championship, charged the Chicago's viciously in the succeeding session but their best effort fell one run short of the Sox trio. After Holke had fanned, Rariden was passed to first by Faber, and Wilhoit, batting for Benton, also received free passage to the home plate. With two on and one out the thousands began to root for a rally and the uproar was deafening. The White Sox were steady, however, even in the tumult and Burns forced Wilhoit at second. Weaver to Collins. Captain Herzog then came through with a screaming drive past J. Collins to the right field wall, scoring both Rariden and Burns. With the tying run on third the din was terrific, for Benny Kauf was seen striding to the plate, swinging three bats viciously. He failed to meet the emergency, however, his effort being a high foul fly which Gandil gathered in, leaving Herzog stranded. That was the finish of the Giants' offence but the Chicago Club added a final run in the ninth as a margin of safety should the home club start a belated rally.

Weaver opened with a single to left, took second on Faber's sacrifice and scored on Leibold's single to center. McGraw congratulates Rowland and after the game, which consumed two hours and eighteen minutes, both teams made a rush for their dressing-rooms, and half-way across the diamond Manager McGraw, of the losers, overtook and shook hands with Manager Rowland, while the fans gathered around. There were shouts of "Better luck next time," but the two team leaders hurried away without any further ceremony and one fan with a leaning toward statistics recalled that McGraw had won but one world series out of five, his victory coming in his first attempt against the Philadelphia Athletics in 1905, when Christy Mathewson and Joe McGinnity pitched shut-out ball.

According to the plans of the National Commission the two teams will play a special exhibition game at Garden City, N.Y., to-morrow for the pleasure of the thousands of soldiers and officers now training at various camps on the island. After this match the two clubs will disband, and there will be no further play by the members of either team this season. This will be in accordance with a resolution passed to-day by the commission, which ruled that it would withhold the sum of $1,000 from the world series prize money of each player until Jan. 1. If on that date the players have not participated in any exhibition play they will receive the withheld amount with interest at the rate of 6 per cent.

The Detailed Play.

John Collins bumped Benton's third offering to Fletcher, and was thrown out. McMullen fouled to Rariden. Capt. Eddie Collins sent a rattling single to centre field, but was left on the bag, as Jackson rolled out, Herzog to Holke.

For the Giants, Burns was an easy out, Collins to Gandil, and Herzog sent a zizzling single into left field. Kauf swung viciously at three pitched balls and struck out. Zimmerman filed to Jackson.

Opening Chicago's second inning, Gandil shot a base hit into centre field, and took second on Weaver's out after Felch had struck out Herzog to Holke. He got no further, as Zimmerman made a pretty pick-up of Schalk's grounder and tossed out the little catcher.

In New York's half of the second, Fletcher went out on a slow grounder, Shaik to Gandil. Robertson was easy, Collins to Gandil. Holke slammed a double against the left field fence, but Rariden was out. Eddie Collins to Gandil.

The third inning was lifeless. For the White Sox Faber struck out. John Collins filed to Herzog and McMullen fanned.

In the Giants' half Benton struck out. Burns and Herzog hit the ball square on the nose, but both were long fly outs to Felch, who barely had to move to get either drive.

Gandil's Hit Scored Two.

Then came the fourth inning, the inning in which five of the six games of the series were decided. Eddie Collins, first up for the Sox, was again "boomed" as he came to the plate. He fouled off the first two pitches, let the next one go by, which Rariden caught, and then struck a ball, and then sent a slow roller to Zimmerman. Heine ran in for the ball, and in making a quick throw to first, heaved it to the grass stand, and Collins pulled up at second base. Then Jackson lifted a high fly to Robertson, who brought dismay to the Giant rooters by making a squawky muff. Heine dashed to third, Jackson held first, as Robertson unavailingly tried to head off Collins. Felch fouled off one, and then chipped a grounder to Benton, who caught Collins between third and home. Runnelaz toward third, he tossed the ball to Zimmerman as Collins tried to get back, and then Collins reversed and shot for the plate with Zimmerman after him. Rariden was in line for a throw, but Zimmerman held the ball, and in the race to the plate Collins outstayed the Giant's third baseman and trotted across safely with Zimmerman more than a yard behind him. Jackson reached third and Felch second on this play. Zimmerman, "Chick" Gandil came across with the hit that won the game. It was a neffy slam to right field that scored the two base-warmer, but in trying to stretch it into a double Gandil was thrown out, Robertson to Herzog. Weaver filed out to Burns, and Schalk singled sharply to left field. He moved on when Faber walked, and John Collins ended the "money" inning for the Sox by rolling out Fletcher to Holke.

The Giants' half of the fourth was a quiet affair. Kauf grounded out. E. Collins to Gandil. Zimmerman sent a long fly to John Collins. McMullen's glove, but Robertson filed out to Felch.

Chicago went out in order in the fifth. Kauf got McMullen's short drive. E. Collins filed to Burns. Jackson rolled out, Herzog to Holke.

Faber Wobbled in Fifth.

Faber wobbled a bit in the Giants' half of the fifth, and the New Yorkers put across their only runs of the game. Holke struck out on three pitched balls. Rariden got a bessa on balls, the first off Faber. Wilhoit battling for Benton, also walked, but Faber kept his nerve. Burns forced Wilhoit, Weaver to Eddie Collins, Rariden going to third. Herzog then drove a three-bagger to the right field wall, scoring Rariden and Burns. With one run short of a tie score, the crowd appealed to Kauf to come through with a hit, but he could not rise to the occasion. He fouled out to Gandil.

That ended the scoring until the Sox half of the ninth inning. Ferrit went in to pitch for the Giants in the White Sox half of the sixth. Felch walked and was thrown out trying to steal. Rariden to Fletcher. Gandil struck out on three pitched balls. Weaver was thrown out by short duration. Collins grounded out to Holke unassisted. Jackson faced a single to right. Felch fouled out to Holke and Gandil sent a long fly to Kauf.

Weaver's Clever Play.

In the eighth Kauf, first up, filed to Leibold. Zimmerman was robbed of a hit by Weaver, who ran across to second, stabbed his fast grounder, and tossed the runner out while off his balance. It was the best infield play of the day. Fletcher grounded out McMullen to Gandil.

In the White Sox' last turn at bat Weaver singled to left. Schalk fouled to Zimmerman. Faber laid down a sacrifice bunt, and was tossed out by Perritt. With Weaver on second Leibold singled to centre. Kauf just missed picking the ball off his shoelaces, and Weaver scored to second, stalling his fast grounder. Leibold reached second on the play. McMullen ended the Sox turn at bat by going out Zimmerman to Holke.

The Giants' rooters pulled hard for a rally as the National League made their stand at the plate. Robertson was hit on the finger by a pitched ball and went to first. Holke was an easy out. E. Collins to Gandil, Robertson taking second. Rariden struck out. McCarthy, who had been out of the series since the second game at Chicago, when he was hurt, was sent in to bat for Perritt. He grounded out to E. Collins to Gandil and the Chicago Americans were proclaimed the monarchs of the baseball world.

Will Class One Provide The One Hundred Thousand Men?

It will be greatly to the advantage of Canada if the entire quota of 100,000 men to be raised under the Military Service Act can be secured from the first class; that is, from the men between the ages of 20 and 34 who were unmarried or widowers without children on July 6th, 1917.

This is almost self-evident for the following reasons: It is admitted that, between the ages of 20 and 34, the average man is at the height of his physical strength and is most adaptable to the change of conditions from civilian life; the military Service of unmarried men and widowers without children would occasion less distress than that of most others, since they are largely without dependents. Also, it would entail less financial burden for Canada, through separation allowances, etc.

Authorities estimate that, after all proper examinations have been allowed, Canada should be able to produce from the first class 100,000 men fit for service, so the drain upon the man power of the country will not be severe.

Members of Class One will be well advised to present themselves for examination immediately to the Medical Board in their district. Upon examination as to their physical fitness, they will be placed in one of the following categories:

- Category A — fit for service in overseas fighting units.
- Category B — fit for service overseas in Army Medical Corps, Forestry Battalion, etc.
- Category C — fit for service in Canada only.
- Category E — fit for military service of any nature.

If not placed in category A, the applicant will know that he is not liable for immediate service, but will go to the Post Office and send in a claim for exemption with his Medical Certificate attached, when he will receive in due course a certificate of exemption until those in his medical category are summoned for service.

Where a man, who is placed in category A, feels that exemption should be allowed, an application form can be secured from the postmaster. This form, when filled in, will be forwarded by the postmaster to the registrar of the district, and the applicant will be informed by mail as to the time and place for the consideration of his application by the Exemption Board.

With Weaver on second Leibold singled to centre. Kauf just missed picking the ball off his shoelaces, and Weaver scored to second, stalling his fast grounder. Leibold reached second on the play. McMullen ended the Sox turn at bat by going out Zimmerman to Holke.

The Giants' rooters pulled hard for a rally as the National League made their stand at the plate. Robertson was hit on the finger by a pitched ball and went to first. Holke was an easy out. E. Collins to Gandil, Robertson taking second. Rariden struck out. McCarthy, who had been out of the series since the second game at Chicago, when he was hurt, was sent in to bat for Perritt. He grounded out to E. Collins to Gandil and the Chicago Americans were proclaimed the monarchs of the baseball world.

BULGARIA WOULD GIVE TO AMERICA BALKAN CONTROL

Suggests Supervision of Situation There By The United States

AN IMPARTIAL JUDGE Ally of Huns Calls For Defence of Oppressed Rights

Amsterdam, Oct. 15.—American control or supervision of the Balkans is advocated by the Bulgarian newspaper Mir, in a long editorial which says in part:

"Of all the belligerents the Americans alone are in a position to form a true appreciation of the situation of the Balkans. They are disinterested and well acquainted with local conditions, and are in a position to give everybody his due. Having such a knowledge of the Balkan peninsula they ought to have the moral will to exert their authority on their allies in the interests of justice and democracy in the Balkans."

"We do not think that America should become an impartial judge between us and her allies. We desire that she should create a situation in the Balkans which will be in agreement with the principal of national unifications, international justice and true democracy. We would like to see the United States exerting their moral influence not only where their material interests are affected, but also where moral truth and sacred justice call out to them. Devastated Macedonia cries for justice to all the world. Can America remain a silent witness when other countries are endeavoring to subjugate Macedonia."

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and stay another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustreous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

CHUBBY BROWN BEAR

Chubby Brown Bear was only a little fellow when Mamma Brown Bear called him to her side by the fire to which she was tied.

"Better die of hunger in the woods than lead the hard life I've always led," said Mamma Brown Bear for she hated her life with the man who made his living by making her do tricks.

"Take to the woods while there's time for the master will soon put you in training and tie you up when you'll be beaten as I've been. Go at once and maybe I'll meet you in the woods," promised Mamma Brown Bear when she saw Chubby Brown Bear beginning to cry.

So that evening when the master was busy fixing things for their trip into the next town, Chubby Brown Bear bade Mamma Brown Bear good-bye and ran away into the woods and hid. As long as the berries were plentiful Chubby enjoyed his free life, but when they grew scarce and his mamma didn't come, Chubby grew hungry and lonesome.

One night a tiny light flickered among the trees. Chubby followed its welcome glow until he came to a little hut, where a old man lived.

When he saw Chubby Brown Bear he reached for his gun.

"Don't shoot me!" cried Chubby in a frightened voice. "Give me food and water, I'm famished."

"If I do you'll promise not to eat me!" said the old man, aiming his gun at Chubby's head.

"I wouldn't eat you," replied Chubby Brown Bear.

The old man laid down the gun and soaked a loaf of bread in some milk and handed it to his guest.

Chubby was so grateful that he turned a somersault just like he had when he was fed. This made the old man laugh. Chubby glad that he had pleased his audience, did the old man's tricks one after another.

"Great!" cried the old man, "where did you learn them?"

Chubby Brown Bear settled down on the rug before the fire and told him about his adventure.

"Our master was very hard with you to seek my fortunes," ended Chubby Brown Bear.

"If I wasn't so poor I'd ask you to share my hut with me," said the old man. "But, my nothing."

"You're good and kind—that stands for a great deal in this world so Mamma Bear has often said," replied Chubby Brown Bear.

SWEDEN AN EXAMPLE

Guards Posted Over Military Establishments and Factories

Christiana, Oct. 15.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Norway is making vigorous efforts to stamp out German espionage within its shores. The Swedish revelations have given a great impetus to the anti-spy campaign.

The interned German ship, "Berlin" is to be removed from Honnevik to Aasenford, further inside the coast line. It has been urged for a long time that the ship should be "Berlin" offered opportunities for espionage on shipping.

Guards have been placed not only over all Norwegian military establishments, but also at some of the large industrial works. Thus a military picket has been posted at Fredrickstad iron works, where the new ships for 1919 tonnage are now ready, and trespassers have been warned to keep away.

Under a law of July, 1917, the commune of Christiania has ordained that the chief of police may forbid persons who are not Norwegians to reside in the commune longer than a certain fixed period. A new law concerning the necessity of passports and the expulsion of aliens is to be rigidly enforced after October 1.

A spy case, which caused a great flurry for a time was that of a Dane named Kristiansen, who has now been expelled from the country. The whole affair developed into an impudent fraud, with one of the belligerent governments as the victim. Kristiansen was obtaining money from this government by giving or promising to give information of no real value about another.

EVERYWOMAN

One of the remarkable things about the wonder play of the world, "Everywoman," which Henry W. Savage will offer at the Grand Opera House on Thursday, Oct. 18th, is that each individual character is a study and a tribute to the deep insight into human nature that enabled Walter Browne to write the play. The accumulated breadth of thought that has gathered about and radiated from this play is suggestive in its immensity of the classic thought in the writings of Shakespeare, touching every phase of the relations that inspire the ambitions of every woman, or any woman, together with the zenith that may be reached by unbroken successes, until finally she calls away her youth and the strenuousness of her quest has caused the death of her beauty and she has left only truth and love.

Henry W. Savage has scored his greatest triumph in the presentation of "Everywoman." For in the maze and mesh of trudy theme and the solded trampery so common to the drama of to-day, "Everywoman" stands out as an epoch of truth and sincerity. Conceived and written on a plane infinitely higher than the average pay of the present age, Mr. Savage has spared no expense, overlooked no artifice and let escape no talent that would serve to make the presentation worthy of the subject. "Everywoman" is a great artist's conception of the chief aim in the life of composite womanhood—the quest of love. And the message lives and breathes with the high and sincere purpose dominating this wonderful plea in behalf of every woman.

THE BRANT

If you have ever been a boy yourself—or a girl either, for that matter—and cherish fond recollections of the days of real sports, you will do well to renew the days of your youth by a trip to the big top tents, where "Polly of the Circus" is playing. THE REX

Produced by Lasky, and comprising an all star cast headed by Fanny Ward, "On the Level," the headliner at the Rex theatre for the first part of the week is a play well worth seeing. The picture is on the western scale and depicts the struggle of a young couple, the man a dope fiend, and the girl a dance hall artist, back to the realms of respectability. The story is a circle drama and the many situations that develop are most effective. Fanny Ward is supported by a strong cast, including Jack Deane, Harrison Ford and James Cruze.

The Mizuma Japanese Trio provide a novel juggling act, in which some feats new to Brantford audiences were introduced.

A further adventure of Singapore, and a Fox film comedy rounds out an excellently balanced program.

BEAUTIFUL

The Sealed Valley

By HULBERT FOOTNER

Author of "Jack Chantly"

CHAPTER I
Romance.

One of the fairest paintings of nature was at that point among the mountains of the Canadian province of Cariboo, where the Campbell River takes the Boardman to its bosom and swings south on its pilgrimage to the Pacific.

Like all of nature's more dramatic compositions, by reason of its very effectiveness it was predestined to be smudged by a town, and the collection of shacks and tents known as Fort Edward was already begun. It was conceded that Fort Edward was bound to be a great city when the new trans-continental passed through.

To be sure, railroad was still beyond the mountains, a matter of two or three years' construction; but the noise of the town's greatness-to-be had been industriously drummed up by real estate operators outside, and many optimists had struggled up the three hundred miles of the Campbell Valley to be on hand in plenty of time.

On a day in June of the year when the "rush" began the settlement looked sodden and raw after much rain.

The two prevailing styles of dwellings were wet "A" tents with rusty stovepipes projecting, and new pine shacks of a crass yellow, having roofs of tar-paper studded with tin headed tacks as big as half dollars. A single two-story building loomed up in the middle like a packing-case among soap-boxes.

This was the Fort Edward Hotel, better known as Maroney's. The other habitations reached out on either hand in an irregular double row.

The space within the double row was going to be "the main artery of traffic" some day, but where the optimists (and the real-estate operators) fondly foresaw automobiles and trolley-cars rolling up and down, at present there was nothing but a parade of jagged stumps, among which muddy paths threaded their devious ways.

Below the hotel a tiny stern-wheeler of quaint, lubberly design lay with her nose tucked in the mud of the river-bank. At eleven in the morning there were few humans in sight, because the black flies were in murderous fettle, and, anyway, the principal industry of the place was—waiting for the railway.

One had only to raise one's eyes to receive a totally different impression of the scene.

Where man's work looked sodden nature's was deliciously refreshed. The world wore that honest look it shows after rain before the sun comes out, that calm openness under the pure light that casts no shadows.

The pine-clad mountains loomed near and clean and dark. The cloud-wrack pressed down close on their heads, giving the valley a confined and intimate look like a room. There were already rents in the ceiling, revealing a tender blue black-cloth.

The air was as sweet in the nose as the spring water in a parched throat.

Farthest from the hotel on the Campbell River side was a shack more of the dimensions of a chicken house than a residence for humans. Beside the door was nailed a little sign, obviously painted by an unprofessional hand, reading: "Ralph Conroy, M.D."

Within in the first of the two closets the shack comprised, sat the doctor and his friend, Dan Keach, the telegraph operator, the one with his heels cocked on the packing-cases that served him for a desk, the other with his lower extremities supported by the window-sill. From each ascended a column of smoke.

The only other furniture in the room was a little stand of pine shelves in the corner, bearing the doctor's slender library and pharcentical stock, books, and bottles, as new as the doctor's office and the doctor's office and the doctor himself.

The two men mustered forty-nine years between them, with the odd year on the telegrapher's side.

The doctor was a youth of middle height, with a strong, well-knit frame, and a comely head broadest over the ears, with a luxuriant thatch of dark brown. His face was strongly molded, almost too heavy in its lines for his years, but oddly redeemed by a pair of dreamy brown eyes.

There was an interesting contradiction here; nose, mouth and chin suggested a commendable hardihood, an honest obstinacy, while the eyes seemed to see through what they were turned on. Like all resolute young men, Ralph regarded the softer side of his character as a weakness and hid it close.

Like other young men again, he paid his way through the world with the same change of a facetious manner, which reduces all to a common, comfortable level.

Ralph and Dan killed time with endless, jocular quarrelling. Their dependence on each other's society in this dull little settlement had brought about an unusual degree of intimacy in a few weeks.

In other words, they were almost honest with each other. At present Ralph's facetious manner only half concealed a very real grievance against life.

"Romance is extinct like the dodo," he announced.

Dan was a tall, lean young man, inclining to the saturnine type. "That requires examination," he said judicially. "First, define romance."

"Romance," said Ralph, throwing back his head and puffing a tall column of smoke toward the ceiling—the dreaminess of his eyes had full sway at that moment—"romance is every man's unrealized desire."

"You contradict yourself," said Dan, with provoking exactness. "How can a thing be dead which was never realized?"

The question was awkward, so Ralph serenely ignored it. "Ever since I went into long trousers I've been looking for it," he went on lightly. "Nothing doing!"

"Maybe that's the trouble," suggested Dan; "maybe romance begins at home."

"Did you ever find it?" challenged Ralph.

"Never looked," returned Dan calmly. "Oh, you've no imagination!"

Dan chuckled. "According to that, romance is only imaginary then. Got you again, doc?"

Naturally, these discussions never arrived anywhere. When you were stumped for an answer you hit out on a new line. The thing was to keep the ball in play by any device until the next meal created a diversion.

"I thought college would be romantic," Ralph went on. "I had fun of course, hilly fun—but just the ordinary college fun. There were girls, plenty of 'em, dear little things!—transparent as window-glass. Gad! a man longs to meet a woman who can fascinate him and stir him to the bottom and keep him guessing!"

"Well, let me see what we've got in Port Edward," said Dan. "To be keen with there's Biddy Maroney."

"Cut it out!" cried Ralph. "Fatal to thoughts of romance! After college there was the medical school and the hospitals." He went on. "They knocked the spots out of romance. Say, a city doctor loses faith in his fellow men. I decided I'd hang out my shingle in the woods, and I came up here because it was the beyondst place I could hear of."

"Thinking you'd surely find romance somewhere back of beyond?"

LADY'S WAIST.

From a material point of view white crepe de Chine, with collar and cuffs of pale blue satin, makes this waist more than attractive. The world of fashion approves, too, of its semi-tailored simplicity for everyday wear. The fronts are gathered to the edge of the back, which extends over its whole effect. The closing edges are rolled back to form long, narrow revers. A tiny round collar comes just to the turn of the revers. The one button fastening is a smart touch which adds distinction. The long sleeves are gathered into a deep cuff, and these in turn are trimmed with a roll of the collar material.

The waist pattern, No. 8457, is cut in sizes 38 to 44 inches bust measure. The 38 inch size requires 2 ½ yards of 27 inch material, with ¼ yard 27 inch contrasting goods.

To obtain this pattern send 4¢ to the office of this publication.

TAKE OVER C.N.R. STOCK

Agreement Whereby Government Acquires Road To Be Completed

BOOKS BEING AUDITED

Railway Arrangement To Prevent Congestion Being Considered

By Courier Leased Wire

Ottawa, Oct. 15.—Two important events in so far as the transportation system of the country is concerned are expected within the next ten days. In the first place the agreement by which the Government will acquire, under the terms of the legislation of the last session of Parliament, the sixty million dollars of common stock of the Canadian Northern Railway Co. not already in possession will be completed early next week. Preparations for the final execution of the contract have been proceeding already. An audit of the railway's books on behalf of the Government has been under way. The final conferences between the representatives of the Government and of the stockholders are to take place at the close of the present week and the conclusion of the agreement is expected to follow immediately. The agreement will provide for the transfer of stock of the railway to the Government of Canada at a price to be fixed by arbitration, but not to exceed a certain specified maximum. With the transfer of the stock the control of the various Canadian Northern corporations will pass into the hands of the Government.

The latter will, therefore, very shortly appoint Hon. Frank Cochrane to the office of chairman of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Northern system. The personnel of the directorates will, it is understood, remain unchanged to the present with the exception of the measures for assuming control of the railway steps will be taken to constitute the board of arbitration which is to fix the valuation of the stock. On that board the Government will be represented, as already announced, by Sir William Meredith, Chief Justice of Ontario, who has held the office of general counsel of the Canadian Northern Railway Company. Sir William Meredith and Mr. Philippen, of Toronto, will act as arbitrator, and if they fail to agree, the selection will be made by the senior judge of the Exchequer Court of Canada, Sir Walter Sargent.

Co-ordination of Railways.

The other event which is looked for and the importance of which has been greatly emphasized, is the conclusion of an agreement between the railway companies of the country to ensure the prompt carriage of necessary commodities and to prevent congestions of traffic such as have taken place in the past.

Such an arrangement was suggested by Sir Robert Borden during the discussion of the Canadian Northern Railway Bill in the Commons as a means for improving transportation facilities in the Dominion.

It has been discussed by Hon. J. D. Reid, Minister of Railways, and Sir Henry Drayton, with representatives of the railway companies, who are now considering its details.

It has been suggested that the example set by the railways of the United States, may be followed in Canada, and that a board, composed of representatives of the various roads, may be constituted to carry out such co-ordination of efforts as may be necessary. It is pointed out that provision might be made for diversion of traffic or re-routing of freight in the event of a blockades on any road, and that co-operation between railways might serve to relieve shortages of cars or motive power. Compensation would, of course, be payable to a railway company which has to divert traffic to another. It has also been proposed that the railways should get together and agree to standards for rails and supplies.

At present the standards for rails differ for different railways. Rolling mills have to change rolls in filling cars of different companies. They, therefore, do not carry large stocks of rails. Had there been a standard pattern for all Canadian roads, it is said, they would likely have had stocks of rails on hand at the beginning of the war and it would not have been necessary to take up rails on constructed roads to meet the demand for material for the front.

FRENCH TROOPS HONOR FALLEN

Pay Respects to Their Fellows Who Fall in Battle

New York, Oct. 15.—With thousands of delegates from all the southern states in attendance, the ninth annual convention of the southern commercial congress was opened here to-day and will continue through Wednesday. The delegates were welcomed by Gov. Whitman and Mayor Mitchell. Senator Duncah U. Fletcher, of Florida, president of the congress, responded for the delegates. President Wilson was expected to send a message to be read at the convention.

After the introductory meeting, 300 editors and publishers were guests of the information committee of the congress at a luncheon. The speakers included Stephen E. Lauer, editor of the Paris Martin, and Dr. Toyokichi Lyemasa, managing director of the East and West News Bureau. Ambassadors, state governors and other distinguished men were also present. The congress during its session will address the congress during its session and thirteen allied diplomats have accepted invitations to the big banquet to-morrow night.

TWO LONG YEARS HE SUFFERED

"Fruit-a-lives" Made Him Feel As If Walking On Air

ORILLIA, Ont., Nov. 23rd, 1914.

"For over two years, I was troubled with Constipation, Drowsiness, Lack of Appetite and Headaches. One day I saw your sign which read 'Fruit-a-lives make you feel like walking on air.' This appealed to me, so I decided to try a box. In a very short time, I began to feel better, and now I feel fine. I have a good appetite, relish everything I eat, and the Headaches are gone entirely. I recommend this pleasant fruit medicine to all my friends."

To The Editor Of The Courier

THAT FUEL BY-LAW.

Sir: Coal and wood are as necessary for life in Brantford in winter as air and water. If we cannot get fuel in zero weather, we become sick, and the weak, the aged, and the children die or are stunted and crippled by lingering and wasting diseases. The citizens are, therefore, much indebted to the Trades and Labor Council with its sturdy apostle of co-operation for secretary, Mr. George Koen, and to Alderman McEwen, and to the City Council which has been put through by the City Council and every property-owner should vote for it.

When the Harris Company and its successor, the Massey-Harris Co. kept a large stock of wood in their yards to sell to their employees hard wood was sold at five dollars and soft wood at three dollars a cord. The coal dealers did a thriving trade in wood also. There is still plenty of wood in Canada as well as fuel which we distribute it properly. Slabs are being sold in Princeton now at three dollars a cord, but a quarter of a cord of slabs and refused to sell them a dollars worth, although they had a rig to cart away and had the dollar in their hands to pay for it.

Now, there is evidently something wrong in the situation when such a thing could happen in Brantford in winter. It is the treatment of the very poor which should be studied first and there can be no doubt that the sale of wood for years by the Massey-Harris Co. and the sale of coal once by the Waterous Co. and other firms presented great suffering and was good business for the firms mentioned as the high cost of living was reduced to their profit for a prime necessary of existence.

If the city of Brantford holds and sells a reasonable stock of coal and wood at a price for cash on delivery which will pay for the handling of the fuel without loss, the City Corporation will only do what the private corporations do for years. They will provide a good wholesale wood market, which can be supplied by farmers and which can give special railway rates. The coal dealers can. Their purchase of a stock of coal will also enable them to make sure that the schools, hospitals and other public institutions are properly supplied with heat and if they supply all comers with the quantities they require at one uniform price they will remove the danger of ill-treatment by monopolists of this prime necessity such as we have seen in times past. Let everybody who has a vote or who can influence a vote, vote for this by-law and then administer the fuel business by a Board of Commissioners like the Water, the Electric, the Railway, the Parks, the Library, and the Health Boards.

JOHN ROBERTSON.

WHY RESERVES ARE NEEDED

Military Service Council Explaining the Reason To Canadians

Ottawa, Oct. 15.—Ever since the Military Service Act has been brought forward, individuals have been asking how it is that, with over 100,000 English soldiers in England, reserves must be raised in Canada. The educational campaign now being conducted by the Military Service Council, a non-partisan body, is clearing this matter up.

It is pointed out that the Canadian points at the front would not come to Canada for reserves if they could not be taken in Canadian troops to meet the needs at the front. What makes the call in Canada imperative is the fact that only a limited number of Canadian troops in England are available for service in the field.

The Canadian troops in the Old Country include sick and wounded men, and other men who are reserved for many services required before the lines, men engaged in transportation, storage, headquarters, pay, and other units required to keep up the Canadian organization in England, and other necessary work. Besides, only men in the finest physical condition can be raised in Canada. In England only a limited number are available at any one time when the call comes.

NO BARNSTORMING FOR LEAGUE CHAMPS

Both Teams In World's Series Banned From Post Series Games

By Courier Leased Wire

New York, Oct. 16.—Players participating in the world's series will be forbidden to engage in post-series games, it was announced here today by the National Commission.

From each player's share in the world's series money the sum of $1,000 is to be retained until January 1, as a means of enforcing this new rule.

Heretofore, only the winning players have been barred from playing exhibition ball. The rule was amended to include the losing players.

If none of the men participating in the present series plays in games before January 1, his $1,000 will be refunded in full, together with interest at 6 per cent.

It was said, Manager McGraw of the New York Nationals had planned to take a team to Cuba for exhibition games. It was declared also that Eddie Collins, captain of the Chicago Americans, had intended taking a team made of White Sox players, to Upand, a Philadelphia suburb, and that $10,000 had been guaranteed for their appearance.
