restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkned, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks failing of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurt and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the sealp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the ViGon is unequalited; it contains neither oil nor dye, resuders the hair soft, glossy, and stiken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfune.

Now, Baccelli has set to work, and as he always thought that the tomb of the "liberator-King" should be placed in the centre of the "temple," where it will constitute "an altar for Italians," and be consecrated to the love of country, he summoned the sculptor, Monteverde, to prepare a design for the monument. (For the Herald.) Grand Concert at Rustico.

Mgr. Griver, Bishop of Perth, Ausralia, who was received on Tuesday norning by his Holiness, is about to eturn to his diocese.

The report which has been circulated

On the night of Thursday, the 1st inst., a Concert, in aid of the Convent, was given in the Hall of the Farmers' Bank, Rustico, by the Choir of St. Augustine's Church and a few of their friends. It concerning the recent Italian pilgrimages, is denied by the Moniteur de Rome, which says no such note has been sent up to the present time. The same journal also denies the assertion that the post of Sub-Archiviste of the Holy See has been provided for.

The address of full adhesion to the teachings of the Holy See and of absolute devotion to the Sovereign Pontifi, as it was voted and signed by the Italian Catholics assembled in Congress at Naples, was presented to his Holiness Leo XIII, by the Cavalier Paganuzzi and Dr. Venturoli, Vice-Presidents of the Permanent General Committee for Catholic Congresses. The Holy Father received with the deepest satisfaction this new testimony of filial attachment of the Catholics of Italy, and accorded the Apostolic Benediction to all the signers of the address.

At the close of the Concert the large audience quietly dispersed to their respective homes, evidently very highly pleased with this enjoyable and very the praiseworthy and unselfish efforts of Mr. Gallant and his worthy associates.
