Which Was The Heir?

CHAPTER XXXI.

"PRISON?" he retorted. "Who talks of prison? What do you mean? I should think you had forgotten about that years ago. I have, at any rate. Seems to me once a man is down some folks like to keep him down. But you needn't be alarmed. I'm not down any longer—I'm on my feet and very much so. You might say that you're glad to see a fellow—might pretend to, anyhow."

"I'm—I'm glad to see you," she faltered, "for—for her sake. You frightened me, coming so suddenly. If you'd let me know—"

"I couldn't," he said. "I've just come from—the other end of the world. Are you all alone here?"

"Quite alone," she replied. "Will you have something to eat—drink?"

She rose as she spoke, with her hands outstretched, and he saw that she was blind.

He whistled between his teeth and raised his brows.

"Here, I'll get it," he said. "I remember the pantry."

He touched her arm to motion her back to her chair, and she shrank away from the touch as if it were that of a leper. He scowled at her again as he went to the cupboard, and finding some bread and cheese, brought it to the table. He searched in vain for something to drink, and, shrugging his shoulders, produced a spirit flask from his pocket. As he prepared to make his supper, the woman kept her face turned towards him, with the same expression of fear and dislike upon it. She had the appearance of a person listening intently to the movements of some dangerous animal from which she could not escape.

"And so you're all alone here, eh, old lady?" he said. "Where's Rachel?"

She was quite a moment or two before she found her voice. Then she replied:

"Rachel is in London. She is at a big school—a college. She is going to a school-teacher."

"Oh, is she? I don't think she is," he remarked, with a touch of contempt. "School teaching isn't good enough for my daughter. I'm sorry she's not here; I should like to have seen her. I suppose she's grown a strapping girl by this time? I must have her home—presently, at any rate. No, I don't think school teaching will be good enough for Miss Lane."

Mrs. Farren sighed as she noticed the self-confident tone of his voice.

"You have been prosperous, Henry?" she said.

"Yes, I have," he assented. "I am a man of position and means. He rattled some money in his pocket as he spoke. "I have done very well out there, and I've come back to look after you and Rachel. I've got a big thing on, so that it will make lords and ladies of us—or next to it."

"I am glad, for Rachel's sake," she said in a low voice. "I am contented to live on here in peace till I die. They'll bury me in the churchyard, near my old mistress, and near Rachel; the earl has promised that."

"Don't talk of death and churchyards, he said. "You've got ever so many years before you yet. I daresay you thought I'd forgotten you and the child; but I hadn't; I've been thinking and working for you; and now I've come home to make you comfortable, and to make a lady of Rachel."

There was doubt and incredulity on the woman's face, and she heaved a sigh which irritated the man.

He pushed the plate from him, gulped down some spirit and water, and lit his pipe. He sat smoking in silence for some time, glancing now and again at the silent figure beside him, with a curious kind of impatient interest.

"I'm staying at The Bull," he said at last; "thought perhaps you couldn't put me up here; seems that I was right; but I'll drop in and see you now and again; and I'll send you some things from the shops."

"I don't want anything," she said. "I have my pension from the earl, and I am content."

"Pension be d—d!" he retorted with a snap of his long fingers. "You won't want my pension. I tell you I've got plenty of money, and that I can look after you."

"Look after Rachel, that is all I ask," she said in a low voice. "She needs someone to look after her, for I am old and blind and helpless. She is young and somewhat flighty. They tell me she is pretty and much run after. It may have turned her head."

"Pretty, is she, eh?" he said, with a buckle and a touch of pride. "At the better; she'll make all the better lady. She must have got her good looks from her mother. I was never much of a Happpo. He chuckled again and puffed at his pipe with an air of satisfaction. "And so she's at college, eh? Getting a good education; quite the lady in style and manners already, eh? All the better. They won't be thrown away."

"He mused over the fire, smoking silently, but glancing furtively round the cottage with his small, alert eyes. Then he said in a casual fashion:

"The old earl—still alive, I suppose?" Mrs. Farren nodded.

"Yes, the earl is still alive," she said; "but I hear that he is very feeble. He must be getting old—but not so old as I am. Perhaps he feels lonely as I do. Rich and poor are alike in that."

"Oh, he's all alone at the castle, is he?" said Lane, with the same assumption of carelessness, but with his small eyes fixed intently and keenly on the woman's averted face. "He never married, did he? I've been away so long that I've forgotten."

She shook her head.

"No, he never married," she replied. At the mention of the earl, her face relaxed and her hands began to move over each other in an absent kind of way, as if she had forgotten the man's presence and her thoughts were straying far. "It would have been better if he had; there would have been a proper heir to Starborough."

"Who's the heir now?" asked Lane, with barely concealed interest.

"I don't remember. Let me think," she replied, putting her hand to her brow and rocking herself to and fro gently.

"You ought to know if anyone does," he said, encouragingly, in his soft, toneless voice.

"There was Master Edmund," she said, as if she were speaking to herself, her hands still going over each other in an absent-minded expression on her face. "He quarrelled with the earl and went abroad and got married. And then he was lost. I remember the news of his death coming to the castle."

"And weren't there any children?" asked Lane, noiselessly dragging his chair a little nearer, for her drooping voice was not easy to hear.

She shook her head.

"No, there were no children—least ways, they could not find any; and they sent a man out to Australia to search."

Lane pricked up his ears and held his pipe from his lip in suspense.

"In Australia?" he echoed. "Big place, Australia; easy to miss anybody there. What was the name of Master Edmund's wife, as you call him?"

"I don't remember," she said.

"Oh, come!" he said, encouragingly. "You've got a good memory for everything about the castle folks. You try."

She knit her brows and her hand went more quickly.

"I remember. It was Bligh," she said at last.

CHILDREN

In disorders and diseases of children drugs seldom do good and often do harm. Careful feeding, and bathing are the babies' remedies.

Scott's Emulsion is the food-medicine that not only nourishes them most, but also regulates their digestion. It is a wonderful tonic for children of all ages. They rapidly gain weight and health on small doses.

London some months ago and brought him down here."

"Oh, did they?" remarked Lane, puffing at his pipe and smiling significantly at the fire. "A cousin, eh? And he's living at the castle, is he? And he's the heir because Master Edmund has no boy? What sort of a man is he? You see, I'm interested in the castle folks because you've been connected with them so long—quite one of the family, eh?"

"He's a young man, a sort of clerk, they found in London," said Mrs. Farren, still with a vacant expression on her face, and in the dreamy, self-communing voice. They say—Mr. Goodley and Mr. Yates sometimes come up here and talk to me; they know I'm an old servant, and they are very kind to me—that he is not a gentleman—not like a Bassington; that he is wild and loose. He goes to the Hall and plays cards with young Rashleigh. No, he is not like a Bassington—not like the old family; but he is the heir, so they say."

"Oh, he's the heir, is he?" said Lane; and he's sprung from nothing, and he's a bit wild and reckless?"

He was silent for a moment or two, pondering over her words. Then he rose and knocked the ashes out of his pipe.

Snapshots Around the World.

(By the Man in the Moon.)

On the 13th of April the first keel-plate of H. M. S. Thunderer—the super Dreadnought—was laid in the shipbuilding yard of the Thames Ironworks at Canning Town. This will give a lot of much needed employment to the locality, and the event was hailed by general rejoicing. She will have a broadside of 8500 pounds.

Theodore Roosevelt is presenting to the British Museum a valuable collection of specimens obtained on his hunting expedition. He had received many kindnesses from the British officials during his tour in British territory, and the present to the Museum is intended as a recognition of the officials' courtesy.

Three thousand weddings are said to be solemnized every twenty-four hours "all around the world."

Jack Johnson recently sent Jas. Jeffries a congratulatory message on the latter's birthday. It would be interesting to know what he will send Jeffries on the morning of the 6th July!

Here is something interesting. A wedding took place recently in New York between Mr. Lawrence Swift and Elizabeth Marie Hurry. The bride's father is a member of the law firm of Hurry and Gallop. One would be inclined to say the whole bunch are a smart crowd.

All grades of refined sugar were reduced 10 cents one hundred pounds recently in New York. The tendency in St. John's seems to be upward, however.

A man in St. Louis is seeking a divorce on the grounds that his wife had not spoken to him for five years. Lots of men would consider that woman above price!

A woman in Chicago wearing a hat pin two feet long punctured the cheek of a man from Wisconsin with the "weapon" and was arrested and fined $1.00 and costs. It is likely if a hat pin three feet long can be procured, that lady will be more effectually armed next time the police try to arrest her.

Messrs. Richard Thomas & Co., Ltd., at Llanelli, Wales, are erecting eight new triplicate mills. This will bring the number of mills owned by the Co. up to thirty-eight. One would be inclined to say this company is possessed of much "tin" to use a slang phrase.

The race between sail cruising yachts from Sea Gate, New York to Bermuda, will take place on June 25th, and will be sailed under similar regulations as that of 1909. Entries are opened to any organized yacht club throughout the world.

The American Bank Note Company is giving the daylight saving plan a trial. The employees recently started going to work an hour earlier, and quit that much earlier in the evening. This is the first experiment in Canada, and if successful other companies will follow suit.

This is the way a French Journalist sizes up Col. Roosevelt:—"Certainly he is ambitious, no other man has such presumption, such energy, such force, makes so much noise or loves his own noise so dearly." Who will say that the wily Frenchman has not taken "Teddy's" true measure?

The Hon. W. S. Fielding has been presented with $118,000 from his personal and political friends. This fund will be invested and the Finance Minister will receive the interest. The fund was started to secure the minister against reverses of political fortune, and in the meantime to help him to give his undivided attention to affairs of state.

The West Indian Royal Commission has declared that Canadian business methods are unprogressive and unenterprising. Hard on the native!

Scientists have declared that dogfish is a fine food. When served right it is as delicious as any other. The manner in which we saw it served in a nearby settlement a few years ago would not, of course, appeal to the palates of the gentleman who gave out the above statement.

Commanded in Stirring Times.

Capt. Heard, of the S. S. North Britain, was in Japanese waters most of the time while the late Russo-Japanese war was in progress. The Japanese freight and passenger boats which ran between Tokio, Yokohama, and other Japanese ports to Great Britain before the war, were impressed by the Government of Japan at its outbreak and used either as converted cruisers or troop ships. Ships of other lines, notably the Aberdeen Line were chartered to fill the void, and one of these Capt. Heard commanded. He saw stirring times during the trouble and was in Japanese waters on several occasions when the fleet was laying for the Russian warships.

The Evening Chit-Chat
By RUTH CAMERON

The lady diagonally across the street from us has been in rather a d d e r e n t health since her last summer's vacation—despite the fact that that vacation was two months w a s p e n t at a beautiful mountain-resort.

My neighbour's vacations up to last summer have always taken the form of a month spent at a boarding house or small hotel somewhere in the country, but last summer she thought she would spread the same money over two months by having a cottage.

She took a cottage just far enough from the town so that all her friends could—and did—run down for the week's ends.

She had to leave her maid at home to look after the part of the family that could not be moved, so that meant she had her own work to do at the cottage.

Besides the family friends with their week-end visits, all of the four children had to have their respective friends visit them, of course. Only five days of the two months, my neighbour has since reckoned, was the menage' entirely free from company of some sort. And not that if you count Great-aunt Susan, whom she carefully avoided inviting, because she is a good deal of care, owing to the fact that she is deaf and sometimes has fits.

but who cheerfully descended upon them for a month, assuring them that she was sure they wouldn't mind because she'd be glad to pay good board.

The lack of running water and of the gas range my friend depends upon so much at home added to the joys of the situation.

And so, as I said at the beginning, the lady diagonally across the street from us has been in rather poor health ever since her last summer's vacation, despite the fact that that vacation was about two months spent at a beautiful mountain resort.

I am tempted to stop here and leave the point to sink in without any assistance on my part, but I suppose that wouldn't be quite according to Hoyle.

Any woman who has the cares of a house through the rest of the year owes it to herself to take some kind of a vacation which will be a complete rest from the routine of housework.

And the mere removal of the scene of her activities to a summer cottage certainly doesn't give that kind of a vacation.

There aren't always all of the attendant circumstances I have described in my diagonal neighbor's case, but anyone who has had any experience along this line knows that a good many of them are mighty apt to be present.

A month or two spent in the country is a very desirable thing for all the family, but I think that month should have some separate vacation entirely free from all household cares.

A Clean Man

Outside cleanliness is less than half the battle. A man may scrub himself a dozen times a day, and still be unclean. Good health means cleanliness not only outside, but inside. It means a clean stomach, clean bowels, clean blood, a clean liver, and new, clean, healthy tissues. The man who is clean in this way will look it and set it. He will work with energy and think clean, clear, healthy thoughts.

He will never be troubled with liver, lung, stomach or blood disorders. Dyspepsia and indigestion originate in unclean stomachs. Blood diseases are found where there is unclean blood. Consumption and bronchitis mean unclean lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery
prevents these diseases. It makes a man's insides clean and healthy. It cleans the digestive organs, makes pure, clean blood, and cleans healthy flesh.

It restores tone to the nervous system, and cures nervous exhaustion and prostration. It contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. Constipation is the most unclean uncleanliness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure it. They never gripe. Easy to take as candy.

HOUSEHOLD NOTES.

When a tablecloth begins to look thin in the fold, cut an inch off one side and also off one end and re-hem end and side; this changes all the folds when the cloth is laundered.

In making custards or other food stuffs calling for scalded milk, remember that if the milk is in a double boiler it reaches the right temperature as soon as the water in the outer utensil boils.

After thoroughly washing white lace curtains, put them in a solution of one teaspoonful of chloride of lime to three quarts of warm water. Let the curtains stand in the solution for about an hour.

When cooking an old-fashioned boiled dinner place the spinach in a cheesecloth bag; then when the dinner is done it can be easily taken out and the other vegetables will not be covered with bits of green.

If the seats of cane chairs sag, turn them upside down, wash well with soapy water, soaking so as to thoroughly wet them, and on drying they will stiffen to almost if not quite their normal condition.

If for any reason the red bricks in your fireplace become discolored or have white spots on them full of linseed oil giving them all they will absorb, and after a few applications the spots will disappear.

To clean a net waist, put it into a two-quart fruit jar filled with gasoline. Be sure that it is well screwed on. Let it stand over night. In the morning shake the can back and forth. The motion will clean the dirt out of the waist.

To prevent dresses and other articles from becoming yellow with age take a good-sized pillow case and blue it thoroughly, and place the dress in it. When you open the blue bag your dress will be as white as when you placed it in.

Punch holes in both ends of an empty baking powder can to keep scraps of soap in. This is handy for washing dishes, as the soap cannot come into direct contact with them, and in this manner every scrap of soap can be utilized.

To remove grease spots from wall paper take a piece of blotting paper and drop a few drops of benzine on it. Place the blotting paper on the grease spot and place a hot iron on the other side of the blotter, holding it there several minutes.

If apples to be used for salad have little flavour, sprinkle them after they are cut up with a goodly amount of lemon juice to which a few cloves have been added. At the end of half an hour add the mayonnaise. It will be a decided improvement.

AERONAUT FELL INTO SEA.

Nice, France, April 23.—Six aeroplanists made successful flights over the sea from Nice to Cape Ferrat and returned to-day, a total distance of about 16 miles. Hubert Latham made the best time—16 minutes, 46 3/4 seconds. A seventh aeronaut, M. Riemsdick, started but fell with his machine into the water, from which he was rescued uninjured by a torpedo boat.

Now Cured of Rheumatism

Cost him $100.00 for medicines which failed.—Cured by DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

Mr. James Clark, Mailstone, Sask., writes: "I suffered for four years with rheumatism in my shoulders and could not lift my arms above the head. I tried nearly all the advertised remedies but none of them gave me relief. It cost me at least $100.00 for medicines before I used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

"With the use of this medicine, I soon found relief. I followed up this treatment for six months and was then quite free from rheumatism. While using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills I also used Dr. Chase's Backache Laster when so stiff that I could scarcely bend. They always found the weak spot and gave relief while the internal treatment was bringing about a thorough cure."

The success of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills has been phenomenal. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers or Edmanon, Bates & Co., Toronto. Dr. Chase's Recipes will be sent free on request.

Water, Drains, and Other City Matters.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Reading over Mr. Coaker's appeal to the Municipality of St. John's, last night, I notice he is strong on the available water service of the city. I agree with him in this respect; but, then, what is the use of giving the consumers all its benefits when there is such a wanton waste going on with householders? I venture to say there is more water going to waste in this city than there is actually consumed. I have visited places in our midst, where there are two and three water taps continually on the run all the winter, and is still going on at present—notwithstanding that we have a Waste Water Inspector, to see if there is any defective pipes and taps. I doubt very much if all places are visited and looked after; the very fact of a person passing through our public streets and hearing the water rushing away continuously proves the contrary. Now, what is the use of spending a large portion of money for water service when the whole business is abused? I say, the Inspector should be more strict in insisting on regulations, or else the Council should provide the consumers with water-meters, or some other such means, so that the persons who use or waste more water than is necessary will save to pay according to what number of gallons they use. Until such means are adopted, the present system of waste will still go on. I cordially agree with him in the improvement of appraisements. For instance: if a poor man is fortunate enough, in this town, to be able to raise enough of money to build a shelter for himself and family to live in, and he happens to give it a lick of paint, up goes his taxes. Another man may possess three or four tenement houses, and a couple of them are not occupied; through no fault of his, it is a dead letter on his hands, with no income from them—only expense—to keep them in repair. His case is not considered, and he has to pay the taxes all the same. Where, I say, is the encouragement to build houses? And still there is a class of people all the time shouting about no small tenement houses. There is another point in Mr Coaker's appeal to the electorate that I am perfectly in accord with, and that is: concrete drains instead of the germ-collecting cobble stone. I can call them nothing else, as they are all laid with crevices, which are the means of collecting all sorts of obnoxious matter; whereas the concrete would be perfectly smooth and even and free from any obstructions in the way of flushing, with a very clean looking appearance. If Mr. Coaker should be elected (which I trust he will), I hope he will be assisted by other councillors in carrying his ideas into effect.

I remain, yours sincerely,
A CITIZEN.

Twitching of the Nerves

Wonderful cure brought about by DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

It is only by watching the symptoms of nervous exhaustion and applying restorative treatment that you can ever hope to ward off locomotor ataxia and paralysis.

Mrs. E. J. Vanderburgh, of Eastern Welland Ave., St. Catharines, Ont., states: "For twenty years I was badly afflicted with heart trouble, nervousness and cramps in the limbs, also twitching of the nerves and nervous headaches. I became weak, debilitated and emaciated. My condition was distressing and I was made worse through worry and loss of sleep.

"I tried a hundred remedies in vain. After having used half a dozen boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food my old trouble had entirely vanished, and I was enjoying better health than I had since girlhood."

Such cases as this prove the wonderful efficiency of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food. It cures in Nature's way by enriching the blood and for this reason by enriching the blood its benefits are lasting. 50 cts. a box, all dealers, or Edmanon, Bates & Co., Toronto.

"God Save the King"

The news of the illness of His Majesty the King will be a matter of much anxiety to British and even foreign people throughout the world. His Majesty is now in his 69th year and has been for some time subject to fainting fits and to throat and other ailments at intervals. At present he is confined to his room from an attack of bronchitis, and the gravity of the illness kept two physicians in attendance throughout the night, while a third one was called in. The three physicians are of the highest eminence and well acquainted with His Majesty's bodily constitution from attendance on him. The good spirits shown by the King is a gratifying feature of the intelligence, as worry might well have been expected. His Majesty is faced with trying political differences which will tax the nerve, tact, good humour, sound judgment and the general health of the high personage who must eventually adjust the differences, obviate the dangers and make peace between the warring constitutional elements. Such a situation calls for the best that is in a man in the best of health and is no situation for a sick man, and that His Majesty is seriously ill there can be no doubt unfortunately. His illness is considered grave enough for the issue of an official bulletin signed by the three physicians in attendance who express their anxiety as to the condition of the King. It is peculiarly unfortunate and distressing that the King's illness should assume a grave phase at a time when the constitutional struggle is assuming an acute form. The constitutional difficulties which the King apprehends, and which are more momentous than any which have occurred for many a generation, must intensify the trouble and aggravate the distress caused by bodily ailment. At the best of times, "Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown," as Shakespeare puts it, but much more so in times of political troubles. Hopes ran high that the King's personality, his remarkable tact, the high esteem in which he is held by all parties, his sound judgment would ease the situation and render the solution easier. But for such tasks health and strength are prime requisites. For these reasons and because of the love which goes out to the King, many thousands of prayers will go up on High that "God Save the King."

Western Notes.

Some good catches of codfish have been taken up to date. Fishermen say the prospects for a good voyage are encouraging. Herring is also plentiful at Black Duck Brook.

The indications of a good codfishery in Port au Port Bay, and in fact all around the Peninsula, are very promising. During the absence of ice, and other favorable conditions, our fishermen were enabled to begin operations at an earlier date than usual this year, and with remarkable good results up to the present. Herring are also plentiful. Along the North Shore of Bay St. George lobsters have already made a good showing.

Catch of Seals for Spring, 1910.

Herewith we give the catch of seals for the past spring with the weights, net value and total number of men.

The total catch for 1908 was 213,863. Gross weight, 4,537 tons, 10 cwt., 2 qrs., 16 lbs., net weight, 4,342 tons, 0 cwt., 1 qr., 21 lbs. Net value, $375,442.62. For 1909 the total was 269,302 seals. Gross weight, 5,776 tons, 4 cwt., 3 qrs., 9 lbs., net weight, 5,459 tons, 9 cwt., 1 qr., 25 lbs. Net value, $458,020.45. Twenty ships prosecuted the voyage these two springs, but last year the Virginia Lake and Vanguard were lost. It will be seen that this year's catch is greatly in excess of the past two years:

Total seals	333,849
Young harps	298,761
Old harps	10,951
Young hoods	6,389
Old hoods	4,043
Bedlamers	13,903

Gross weight, 7,627 tons, 19 cwt., 2 qrs., 28 lbs.; net weight, 7,303 tons, 2 cwt., 2 qrs., 27 lbs. Net value, $627,852.62. No. men, 3,363.

There were 20 steamers out; one was lost and one man also was lost.

Here and There.

C. C. BAND PRACTICE.—The C. C. Band will meet for practice to-night at 9 o'clock sharp; all must attend.

SIGN OF CODFISH.—There is a good sign of codfish at New Harbor. The fishermen caught about twenty each on jiggers this morning.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE.—Mr. W. Searle, contractor, has decided to come out as a candidate for the City Council in the coming election.

EXTENSION OF LINES.—The Postal Telegraphs will extend the telegraph lines to Fortune Harbor, Cow Head and Burnt Island the coming summer.

A VERY HEAVY HOG.—Messrs. Timothy Murphy and Jno. Bambrick killed a hog this morning which weighed 500 lbs. dressed. It was reared on their own farm.

FOOTBALL MATCH.—The Highlanders and Casuals had a well-contested football match on Llewellyn Grounds this morning. Next Tuesday morning they will play another as a test of strength.

PATIENT FOR HOSPITAL.—Mrs. Joseph Grady was brought in from Carbonear by train to-day in charge of her husband and Mr. Maddock. She is suffering from serious trouble and was taken on a stretcher from the train to the ambulance which was in waiting and conveyed to the Hospital.

SEEKING EMIGRANTS.—Two agents are here to-day from Canada seeking men to go to work at Springhill, N.S. They came from Carbonear to-day where they were looking for men. They have arrangements made to take whole families and say they can give steady employment.

AT THE DOCK.—The s.s. Adventure will go on the R. N. Co. dock next week for a thorough cleaning and painting. A batch of schooners will go on to-morrow when the s.s. Bonaventure and s.s. Erik will come off. The dock, it is expected will be kept occupied all the month of May without interruption.

TO SERVE FIVE MONTHS.—Yesterday Const. Quinlan arrived here from Birchy Cove with a prisoner to serve five months in the Penitentiary. The man was convicted for selling beer (an intoxicant) without a license and this was his third offence. Several others for the same offence are to be summoned by D. I. Bartlett.

HARD TO GET MEN.—As time goes on there is much difficulty in procuring every day in Trinity and Bonavista Bays in getting crews to man the schooners for the Labrador. In some cases planters have written to their merchants here in St. John's to sell their schooners as they are unable to get crews for the Labrador fishery. A large number of men are preparing to go on the railway.

MR. PETER QUIGLEY DEAD.—At his residence, Topsail Road, at 8.30 last night, Mr. Peter Quigley, a well-known farmer, passed away after a short illness. Deceased was in his 67th year and was a hard working, industrious man, well known in the city. He leaves a wife but no children. The funeral will take place to Belvedere next Sunday afternoon.

Train Notes.

By the Bruce express at 6 p.m. yesterday there went C. O'N. Conroy, C. Cahill, J. Kenny, E. M. Jackman, Mr. Black, Mr. Shillock, Rev. Dr. Whalen, M. Martin, Const. E. Quinlan, M. O'Brien and 150 others, mostly for Trinity and Bonavista Bays, including 50 men from Bell Island going home to engage in the fishery.

A special train went out at 7.15 p.m. in charge of Conductor Lee with 110 seelers of the Adventure, mostly going to Bay Roberts, Clarke's Beach and Carbonear.

The east bound express left Port aux Basques at 8.25 a.m.

The local arrived from Carbonear at 12.35 bringing 40 passengers including Mrs. J. Vetch, Mrs. M. Macbeck, Mrs. Seymour and Mrs. Joseph Grady.

Marine Notes.

The barq. Attila left Sydney this morning at 8 o'clock with coal for Bains Johnston & Co.

The Almeriana is due to arrive here tomorrow from Liverpool.

The s.s. Kamford leaves Sydney shortly for this port, coal laden.

The barq. Dunure left Cadiz for here with salt for Bowring Bros. on the 30th ult.

Labor Day Fetes.

At the meeting of the Trades and Labor Council held Tuesday night arrangements were practically completed for the Labor Day Celebration and fetes this summer. Labor Day will be observed on Tuesday, July 5, a special holiday for the occasion will be asked for so that this may not clash with the sports of any other club or society in the city. There will be a joint parade of all the unions in the forenoon, and the procession will be the largest ever seen in the city. Eight bands of music will accompany the demonstrators, and the Labourer's Union have imported 2,000 handsome badges for the occasion from the United States. The coopers, carpenters and firemen have done the same. A series of sports will be held at St. George's Field in the afternoon to conclude with a Marathon Race. At night over 600 guests will attend a banquet in the Star of the Sea Hall after which grand dances will be held in the various halls of the city.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

To-day Judge Knight had the bustle of it since taking up the duties of Magistrate.

Three drunks were discharged; a fourth was fined $1 or 3 days; 3 disorderlies were released with a caution; and 4 others were each fined $2 or 7 days; another was fined $5 or 14 days. Dinn arrested at midnight on a charge of being drunk and disorderly and breaking the door of Kennedy & Mully's office was fined $25 or 3 months.

Constable O'Neil summoned 3 young men for loose and disorderly conduct (and damaging the property of Wm. Taylor, on George's Street, one was fined $10 or 30 days, and two others, $3 or 14 days each; while a fourth, the ringleader in the affair, was fined $20 or 30 days.

Several civil cases for rents, debts, etc., were adjudicated upon in the C. D. Court.

Those Thefts.

The lad charged with stealing $80 from Mr. Morris, the sailmaker, and who left by the shore train yesterday morning was arrested by Detective Keit. Byrne on the railway last night and he will be brought to the city by to-night's train. His parents, like the other lads, are very respectable people and are to be sympathized with.

In the case of the boy from the Water Street Office, a search warrant revealed the fact that the boy had a lot of cash hidden away. The police found $485 stowed away in one place in his room, and $40 and $60 in another, while it was gleaned that he had given small sums to other boys, companions. He took the money within the last few days and certainly could not be in his senses. To-day the police are holding an enquiry into the case.

Coast Weather Report.

Burgeo—Wind from E. to S., weather foggy and raining; very little doing with fish of any kind.

Bonavista—Wind S.E. wind, foggy with rain and heavy surf; herring fairly plentiful.

Sound Island—Good sign herring; cod very scarce.

Lark Harbor—Schr. Cedella, Emmanuel Pike, Channel, owner, 40 men and one woman on board for Bartlett's Harbor, off Cape Gregory, distress signals flying, vessel in bad condition, foremast gone from deck and head. Crew all right; towed to Lark Harbor; halistorm, S.E. Fiona bound to Bonne Bay when vessel was sighted in distance; were prompt in rendering assistance. Captain wished to be towed to Lark Harbor. Birchy Cove—Wind E., strong, dull and cold.

GOING ON THE RAILWAY.

A large number of men of the Southern Shore are giving up the fishery this summer to go on the Branch Railway on the Bonavista Line.

Notwithstanding an occasional giting way of the voice Theodore Roosevelt made a deep cut impression in the audience which gathered to-day at the National theatre to hear the President address on International Peace before the Nobel Prize Committee. It was described by the members of the Committee as most notable. King Haakon and Queen Maud were present as well as all the members of the Government.

Elected an Associate.

Mr. W. J. Ellis, the prospective mayor, was recently elected an associate Honorary Member of the Church of England Temperance Society. Mr. Ellis has been a consistent total abstainer all his life and time and is the worthy President of the St. John's T. A. and E. Society and is well deserving of the honor conferred on him by the sister society of the Anglican communion.

Nine Elephants in Big Stampede.

DANVILLE, Ill., April 27.—Several persons were injured and much property was damaged to-day by nine elephants which stampeded just after they had been unloaded from a car. A large bull elephant made the first break for liberty and was followed by several other bulls and a few females. For several hours the elephants were at large, hunted by all the attaches of the circus, all the city policemen and the more venturesome citizens. The elephants stopped for nothing except brick and stone buildings.

At the home of Joseph Peebles, after overturning a shed and killing a horse, one of the animals attacked Peebles and hurled him against the side of the house. Peebles is in a critical condition. Barney O'Neill, a liverman was thrown from his wagon by the elephants and Karab, one of the keepers, was hurled against the side of a barn and injured. Several other persons were slightly injured. More than ten homes were damaged to some extent, but the total loss will probably not exceed $10,000. One elephant is still at large, and a force of attendants with trusty elephants spent many hours to effect its capture.

Series of Youthful Robberies.

Yesterday Mr. Morris, sailmaker of the West End, made a deposition to the police that a sum of $80 had been stolen from him by a lad who was in his employ. As far as can be learned the charge is as follows: The lad was sent Wednesday to change a cheque for the amount named. He said he could not get the amount but would hold the cheque and change it later. As a matter of fact he had changed the paper, and yesterday morning, as he did not turn up, the matter was reported to the police. Sergt. Byrne took up the case and found that the boy had gone away by yesterday morning's train. He boarded the train at Waterford Bridge, took a ticket for Placentia, but left the train at Whitbourne and boarded the express which left here at 6 p.m. yesterday to go abroad. A detective is after the lad and he cannot escape, as he is well known and the police authorities will have him detained at some of the stations along the line.

On the complaint of a business man in the city yesterday a young lad was arrested by the police last night. He is of very respectable family connections, has been only a few weeks with his employer, and some accounts are said to be several hundreds of dollars short. A thorough investigation of the case will be made. Much sympathy is expressed for his parents and relatives, who are grief-stricken.

Some few weeks ago a young man who had been some time in a city mercantile office disappeared and went abroad. After a while, when matters came to be examined, it was found that he had collected bills to the amount of several hundreds of dollars and appropriated the cash to his own private use. As his whereabouts were not known nothing could be done in the way of apprehending him. It is now known, however, that he went to the United States.

The employment of giddy youths, both boys and girls, in positions which none but steady, sensible men should occupy has been altogether prevalent in this city. They are placed in positions which entail great responsibility, are entrusted with large sums of money and in some instances succumb to the temptation to utilize their master's cash to satisfy an inordinate craving for sports and amusements now possessed by the youth of St. John's. It is unfair and unjust to place so much temptation in the way of the young.

Increased Their Wages

Last summer several of the firemen who were on the steamers Bellaventure and Bonaventure going south in the fruit trade left the ship and returned home, alleging that the heat was excessive while at work in the stokeholds in the tropics. The Union held that the men on these ships owing to this should receive more wages and yesterday Delegate Woods interviewed Mr. A. J. Harvey and stated the facts. Mr. Harvey saw the justice of the position and gave the men an increase of $5 per month, or $35 instead of $30, which they had been previously receiving.

Disorderly scene at Press Banquet.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The annual joint dinner of the Associated Press and the American Newspaper Publishers Association was thrown into riotous and prolonged disorder to-night when Thos. T. Williams, business manager for William R. Hearst, was refused permission to speak when he rose to reply to biting criticisms Mayor Gaynor had just made of Mr. Hearst's part in journalism.

For twenty-five minutes the uproar continued while men stood on their chairs and women craned their necks to see from the balconies of the banquet hall.

"Mr. Hearst is not here. I am his friend and have a right to be heard," shouted Mr. Williams, climbing upon the speaker's table and shaking his fist in the face of the Mayor.

"Put him out," "shut up," "free speech," came from all parts of the hall. Toast master Nat C. Wright of the Cleveland Leader called in vain for order, while Mr. Williams stood impassioned but obstinate and waited to be heard, with folded arms.

"This is a disgrace to the press of the United States, it must cease," shouted Alpha Achs, proprietor of the New York Times, as he stood on his chair behind the toast master and begged for a word.

"Mr. Williams, I promise you, has less than forty words to speak, let me say them for him."

"No, no," yelled the others.

"Mr. Williams says—" began Mr. Achs.

"No, no," broke in the thoroughly enraged diners with added insistence. Mr. Achs sat down while the orchestra played "Dixie."

Mr. Williams still kept his feet and a semblance of calm was not restored until Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hills, of Brooklyn, with a witty and felicitous speech brought laughter that drove out anger.

MARSHALL BROTHERS.

Nomenclature Board.

Interesting Meeting—Forebode Remarks by Chairman—Six More Settlements Re-named.

A very interesting meeting of the Nomenclature Board took place in the Postmaster-General's Office on Wednesday afternoon. His Grace Archbishop Howley presiding. The Board had intended to hold this meeting a fortnight earlier; but, owing to absence from the city of some of its members, it was found impossible to do so. As a result, a considerable amount of new business had to be disposed of, in addition to unfinished work standing over from the previous meeting.

On taking the Chair the Archbishop said:—"There appears to be a general sentiment of hostility to our Society, and to all our doings and deliberations. We are looked upon as a sort of enemies to all existing names of places in the country, and to have no other object in view than to abolish all existing names and introduce new ones; but especially if we can by so doing annoy or insult the people of any locality. By others, again, we are treated with supreme contempt, ridicule and abuse.

"This is all a very mistaken line of conduct. We are appointed legally by the Government to do the work of this Society. We give our time and talents freely, and without any expectation of reward or payment. We strive rather to conserve than to change names—especially when they have any historical, geographical or topographical meaning. We only admit changes when they are absolutely necessary for Post Office work, or where the names are silly, trivial or unbecoming, and generally at the request of the inhabitants of the various places. Our Society contains members of different denominations of experience and knowledge of every part of the country, and we give very mature consideration to every case brought before us.

"Now considering this, and that our decisions have the force of law, it is very disheartening to find that, instead of receiving encouragement and support from the Press, which ought to be the upholders of law and peace, we find either a total ignoring of our decisions, or a determined intention of opposing them. While such is the case, it is useless for us to strive to improve our nomenclature.

"Public advertisers should also be anxious to second our efforts. In this connection I would call attention to an advertisement in the papers at present by the Reid-Newfoundland Company, to the effect that 'the steamer Clyde left Botwoodville,' etc. At our meeting on the 12th January last the name of this place was officially changed to 'Botwood.' Possibly this is only an inadvertence, but we should expect more attention on the part of public advertisers.

"Indeed, if some remedy is not offered to prevent the opposition and to accept our decisions, I am seriously thinking of resigning my position on the Board. I am willing to give my services free in the cause of improvement of local names; but I scarcely ly see the advantage of setting myself up as a butt for the insult and ridicule of the Press and its anonymous writers."

His Grace's remarks were strongly and forcibly endorsed by the Board, and the Secretary was instructed to interview the Hon. Mr. Watson, Colonial Secretary, and respectfully request him to take such steps as may be deemed necessary to induce public advertisers (or advertisers in the public service, at any rate) to co-operate with the Board in carrying out the latter's decisions.

The first new matter for consideration was a petition from the inhabitants of Mosquito Cove, Conception Bay, asking that the name of their settlement be changed to "Bristol's Hope." The petition contained nearly one hundred signatures, and, as there are four other places in the Colony called Mosquito, and especially in view of "the convenience of the change preparatory to the approaching Guy celebration" there, the Board—on motion of His Grace, seconded by Mr. Jackman—experienced no difficulty in acceding to petitioners' request.

The Secretary then read several letters from Rev. Mr. Jeffery and others of Bay St. George, protesting against the re-naming of Crabbie's. These communications, however, were altogether unnecessary, as the Board never contemplated any change in the name of that place. It is true that letters had been received from individuals there suggesting that "Nell-burn" be substituted for Crabbie's; but none of these were of sufficient importance to warrant any decisive action in the matter. Even the distinguished Prelate in whose behalf the suggestion was made strongly objected to the proposed honor on the reasonable ground that "places should not be named after living men." The Board, however, decided to discriminate between the railway stations at Crabbie's Brook and Highland Brook, by calling them Crabbie's East and Crabbie's West, respectively.

A petition from Rev. Edwin Nichols and others of Brooklyn, B.B., (transmitted to the Board by the Hon. Sydney D. Blandford) was next considered. Petitioners want to have the Northwest Arm of Sweet Bay changed to "Winter Brook." Letters had previously been received by the Board from residents of the Arm in favor of the re-naming of that place, and it was accordingly decided to comply with their wishes and give them the desired change.

Some discussion then took place with respect to the re-naming of King's Cove, Trinity Bay. The people of that settlement wished to have the name changed to "Milton," as their letters and papers sometimes went to King's Cove, Bonavista Bay, and thereby occasionally caused them inconvenience. On motion of Hon. Mr. Woods, seconded by Mr. Jackman, the name of the great poet was adopted.

In compliance with the request of the people of Riverhead, White Bay District of St. Barbe (contained in a letter received by the Board from the Hon. Colonial Secretary) it was decided to change the name of that place to the more suggestive one of "Hampden."

The following resolutions were then read by the Secretary, unanimously passed by the Board, and ordered to be forwarded to the Colonial Secretary's Office for publication in the Royal Gazette, in accordance with Chapter 23, Edward VII., entitled "An Act to amend the Post Office Act of 1891":—

- (1) That Mosquito, Conception Bay, be renamed "Bristol's Hope."
- (2) That the railway station near Crabbie's Brook be called Crabbie's East.
- (3) That the railway station between Crabbie's Brook and the Highlands be called Crabbie's West.
- (4) That Northwest Arm, Sweet Bay, B.B., be renamed "Winter Brook."
- (5) That King's Cove, Trinity Bay, be renamed "Milton."
- (6) That Riverhead, White Bay, St. Barbe District, be renamed "Hampden."

THE KING IS ILL.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN EXPRESSES ANXIETY.

Two Physicians Remain at Palace—Third Physician Called in—His Majesty in Good Spirits—Easier at Midnight.

Special to Evening Telegram. LONDON, May 5.

The United Kingdom was thrown into consternation to-night by the sudden and totally unexpected announcement that the King was suffering from bronchitis in a form which caused some anxiety to his physicians, two of whom are sleeping in Buckingham Palace to-night in order to be on hand in case of any need. The first intimation that anything was amiss was the failure of the King to meet the Queen, who returned from the Continent this evening. It has been the King's invariable rule to be present on the Queen's return from a journey, and his absence was made the subject of general discussion. The Queen hurried to the Palace and soon afterwards the public learned by an official announcement that the King had been ill for two days. The fact that his illness had been thus concealed from public knowledge increased the alarm when once it became generally known. The King suffered from a similar attack at Biarritz, owing to the inclement weather and cold winds, but it was supposed that he had completely recovered, especially as he attended the opera, Covent Garden, within three hours of his arrival in London last Wednesday. On Thursday the King had a busy day, he gave an audience to Field Marshal Lord Kitchener and Premier Asquith and visited the Royal Academy. On Friday also he gave several audiences and entertained Viscount and Lady Gladstone at a luncheon on their departure for South Africa and visited the theatre in the evening. The social activity tended to reassure the public mind, but it was noticed that while His Majesty was viewing the pictures at the Royal Academy he looked pale and fatigued, and lacked his customary zest and sprightliness. The members of his entourage feared that this might be a token of a return of the throat and chest trouble. The King spent the week end at Sandringham with the object of combatting the threatened attack and returned apparently better but the sudden changes in the weather this week were very trying to His Majesty and finally compelled him to keep in doors.

He is still attending to state business however, and granted audiences including among others on Tuesday an audience to Whitefish Reid, the American Ambassador, and Lord Roberts. On Wednesday he entertained Grand Duke Michael at luncheon. In fact it was only to-day that his physicians were able to induce the King with great reluctance to keep to his bedroom and take rest. The bulletin issued at 7.30 o'clock this evening showed that Sir Richard Douglas Powell had been called in. He with the King's Physicians Sir Francis Laking and Sir James Reid signed the bulletin which read:—"The King is suffering from an attack of bronchitis and has been confined to his room for 2 days. His Majesty's condition caused some anxiety." The King is in good spirits despite his illness and in addition to long visits from members of the Royal Family, he received an audience this morning, Lord Islington the newly appointed Governor and Commander-in-Chief of New Zealand and other Colonial officials. Both Sir F. Laking and Sir J. Reid will remain in Buckingham Palace throughout the night. It is understood that this is merely precautionary as the King's illness is not grave. A consultation was held late to-night but no Bulletin was issued, it being merely reported that the King was resting comfortably. A Court Circular which was sent out about 8 o'clock states that his Majesty was unable to meet the Queen because he was suffering from a severe cold. The Prince of Wales has been in constant attendance for the past two days and this evening the Duchess of Argyll was summoned to the Palace. The Duke and Duchess of Teck also came but all visitors left Buckingham before 11 o'clock and according to the latest reports the King's condition was more reassuring at midnight. Anxiety will continue nevertheless for it is known that His Majesty is subject to serious fainting spells.

Peary Presents Sled.

Special to Evening Telegram. LONDON, May 5.

Found Frozen Stiff In The Rigging.

Captain Koehler and Two of His Crew Perished on Coast of Alaska.

Seattle, Wash., April 29.—A cable despatch from Seward, Alaska, gives details of the loss of the codfishing schooner Stanley, March 28, when the vessel went on the rocks off Sanak Island. When a rescue party reached the wreck they found the bodies of Capt. Koehler and Mates Bauers and Williams frozen stiff in the rigging. The cook had been swept overboard and drowned. Five of the crew who survived jumped overboard the day after the schooner went on the rock and were picked up by dories that were put out from the shore. The rescuers made valiant attempts to save the lives of the three men who were lashed to the rigging, but they were unsuccessful.

Capt. Koehler died just before the rescuers reached him.

The Herald Wins Again.

The Herald has won another fight for the people. As a fighting paper it stands alone, and when once it takes a stand on any question pertaining to the interests of the citizens, it fights right on to the bitter end. "No surrender," and "Might makes right," are its mottoes. Bold and fearless in its principles, it is now a great power in the city, and is fast being recognized as Montreal's greatest and ablest newspaper. Speaking for its latest victory for the citizens, it says:—

Back to Montreal.

The fight against the subway franchise grants has been won. The amendment introduced yesterday at the instance of Sir Lomer Gouin and the Cabinet takes away from the companies all the valuable privileges they sought by their bills to get at the expense of Montreal, and sends them back to Montreal to ask for what they want and arrange to give good value for the citizens before they get it.

That is what The Herald has been fighting for ever since these bills were printed, and, with the exception of rare support here and there, The Herald has made the fight alone. It makes a newspaper feel good to make and win that kind of fight. It means being right to begin with and getting right done to end with. The hearty support of The Herald's readers has had a lot to do with the victory. That kind of support is what a statesman like Sir Lomer Gouin needs to have at his back when he sets out to see right done, as he did in this case.

A Great Boon for the Children. There is a movement on foot amongst local societies interested in the youth of this city to provide free transportation to St. Helen's Island for all children who desire it, the provision to be at the cost of the city. Members of the Board of Control are understood to be favorable to the project.

In the case of the poorer classes, who have to pass the whole summer in crowded sections of the city, free transportation to the Island would be a great boon.

Many aldermen also have expressed themselves as thoroughly in favor of the scheme. Ald. O'Connell, of St. Ann's, to the children of whose ward such a project would be a great advantage, stated that if the project were legally possible it should certainly engage the attention of the civic administration.

The Sporting Season in Full Swing. The sporting season is in now in full swing. The revival in lacrosse among the boys, the going back to amateurism in the senior ranks are things which will certainly boom Canada's National Game. If anything like the programme outlined by the Senior Clubs among the boys Junior and intermediate leagues takes place why Montreal will see a sporting season never witnessed in this city before. The same may be said of baseball. Every vacant lot, Fletcher's Field, and even some of the larger parks are to be used as play grounds for the youngsters. Fletcher's Field is at present a busy place on Saturdays and Sundays with hundreds of men and boys playing the national game of the United States. The Montreal Shamrocks and National Lacrosse directors have so many requests from lacrosse clubs to play on their grounds that it will be a difficult thing to accede to all. The Baseball Park is being fitted up with extra seating accommodation, and Mr. Eddie McCafferty, the genial secretary-treasurer of the Montreal Baseball Club, who is on dock again after his long illness, expects to have to work overtime in counting the shekels taken in at the big baseball matches this season. Montreal has started well in the Eastern League by winning three straight games at Jersey City. The team carries seven first class pitchers, and great things are expected from them in order to capture the pennant. In lacrosse some say that Toronto will land the Championship.

Wants Extra Police.

Chief Campeau wants 200 extra police for the harbor and other parts of the city. Two-thirds of the present force have to do night duty all over the city. The Board of Control will grant Chief Campeau's request.

Honouring The Dead.

On Sunday, May 1st, the "Last Post" will be conducted with military honors, under authorization of Col. Gordon, D.O.C., the funeral of seven veterans, who at present lie in the vaults of Mount Royal and Cote des Neiges cemeteries. Five of them were Protestants and the other two were Roman Catholics, so that there will be two services, one in the Protestant cemetery and the other in the Catholic. The funerals will be carried out with all military ceremonial, firing parties being assigned to pay the last honors.

Wedding Bells at Salmonier.

St. Joseph's R. C. Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on the 20th ult. when Miss Mary A. Daly and Mr. William Gushue were united in hymen's bonds by the Rev. Fr. O'Flaherty, P.P. The bride looked charming in a very pretty princess dress of white net over pale blue silk muslin, with bridal veil and wreath of forget-me-nots. She was attended by Misses M. Nugent and G. Gushue, while Messrs. J. Gushue and P. Daly assisted the groom. The young couple are both residents of Salmonier and are universally esteemed. For the year preceding her marriage the bride had occupied the position of teacher in the primary department of St. Joseph's Superior School. After the ceremony the wedding party proceeded to the home of the bride where a reception was held, and the guests tripped the light fantastic till long after the break of day. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Gushue many happy years of wedded life.

Placentia Notes

Capt. Carroll's crew arrived by Saturday's train. Their bill, though small, will keep the bread box going. Come on now, boys! Give Carroll a chance! Give him a good ship! Then the Keans, Barbour and such like successful men won't be in it at all.

Messrs. Rd. and J. Wyse are now getting their boat ready for the fishery. They are the only two fishing out of Placentia Harbor at present. This is small compared with past years. May all good luck attend them during the season.

Mr. Collett was here the past few days. He reports bait plentiful in all the coves and bay. He also reports setting out some trawls near Point Brems and having secured 12 tubs, which is considered good.

Mr. J. Fitzpatrick and Dr. N. Kendrick are at present ill of lagrippe. Quite a number of others are also laid off with the disease.

To Find Lost Village.

Low Tide Near Supposed Site May Help Solve Problem.

Blackpool fishermen say that they never remember a lower ebb of the sea than that of recent Monday. The prevalence of land breezes for some days helped the low ebb in uncovering a larger area of sand than any Blackpool resident has ever previously seen. Advantage has been taken of the favorable conditions for an attempt to solve problems connected with Pennystone and the tradition as to the submerged village of Single Thorpe, which historians say exists seaward a mile or more from Blackpool. Those who have visited Pennystone in past year say there is an iron ring attached which was formerly used for tethering pack and saddle horses.

"Mary" and the Guy Celebration.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—Comets and celebrations are the order of the day here at present with an occasional Agricultural meeting thrown in to make weight. I am not well up on cometology, as they are out of my reach, but I have a nice bed of "straw" about all the gardening I can attend to. What I want to speak on is the much-talked-of celebration. Oh, there is going to be a grand time. A man with an air of authority called at our house to-night and wanted to know how many visitors I could accommodate. Be careful, my poor, worn-out sisters of Harbor Grace, or you may find yourselves some day in August trying yourselves out over a hot stove preparing dinners for the visitors while they are out about taking in the sights, etc. Of course your husbands, sons, daughters and even your domestic help will all want to celebrate and you will be compelled to cook, cook, and listen to the visitors saying what a grand display so-and-so was. There is to be a grand ball, so I am informed, to entertain the officers of the visiting warships. Everything is to be in style. I can imagine seeing a lot of the children of poor parents who will not be able to get sufficient clothes to parade the street and take in the sights. What's to be done with them? I think sufficient wire fencing should be purchased from Rutherford & Co. the agents for Pages and Pasha's Plain to the north of this town should be fenced and all the poor children put in there until the visitors are gone! No, Mr. Editor, I cannot and I will not agree with spending a large amount of money in entertaining officers of warships. Let that part of the programme be filled by a free dinner to all the poor children in the town, and if necessary supply some clothing, etc., to help the poor to have a good time. It is no disgrace to be poor and I make no apology for mentioning this, for the Scripture says:—"The poor ye have always with you." I suppose some of the kid-gloved people will think my ideas are ridiculous, but consider them well and perhaps a way will be opened up to meet some of my views at any rate. I am sure John Guy who left his comfortable home in Bristol and came out to this then desolate island, would not be satisfied to see no provision made in this Third Century of the less-fortunate inhabitants of the oldest settlement. I am surprised, Mr. Telegram, that the able intelligent and patriotic executive of the Guy celebration committee should forget the poor in their endeavour to cater to the officers of warships. The old story, "rubbing butter to fat hogs."

A dinner for the children.

In August or July

Would give us all keen pleasure.

And honor old John Guy.

No greater pleasure I would wish.

Than watch the poor enjoy.

A good square meal, with lots of fun.

When we celebrate John Guy.

"A Delightful Pastime"

is the verdict of those who have purchased a Columbia Zither. It is a very fine zither, graceful in shape, and in every way a charming musical instrument. It is finished in polished black ebony, the same as a fine piano. Makes a beautiful gift for holiday or birthday. In a few short evenings you can learn to play the Columbia Zither with facility and ease. The lower notes are tuned in groups of chords. The higher notes render the air while the chords produce the accompaniment. For sale by Arthur B. Walker, Sole Agent for Newfoundland and Maritime Provinces. One month's free lessons at the studio, 12 New Gower Street (Albion House). Note: Toy zithers and small autoharps cost less, but the Columbia Zither excels in size and durability, combines the tone qualities of the guitar and mandolin. Can only be obtained from Arthur B. Walker who imports direct from factory in U. S. A. and has handled them exclusively since 1899. Call and secure one now and get instructed for one month free of charge. Autoharps put in perfect tune for 10c. Pollos, strings, etc., at New York prices. A few piano folios 50 per cent off.—advtd. may 3rd.

Schooner Wrecked.

Pike's schooner of Channel, the Cedella, bound down to the Straits with fishing crews, was towed into Lark Harbor, Bay of Islands, yesterday evening by the s.s. Fiona. The Cedella left Channel last week with 49 fishermen and one woman on board for Bartlett's Harbor. When off Cape Gregory last Tuesday night she struck a piece of ice and a hole was stove at the water line. On hoisting distress signals the next morning the crew of the s.s. Fiona saw her, bore down and took her in tow and brought her to Lark Harbor. The Cedella is the vessel that was out to the seal-fishery in the Gulf and whose crew made a good bill.

Historical Society.

Mr. A. J. W. McNelly presided at the regular weekly meeting of the Historical Society held last night in the Court House. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read the Secretary arose and said that he had written to Bristol informing the parties there who were interested that the Guy celebration would take place on August the 10th. A letter was read from the committee at Cupids stating that the land had been secured for the memorial, etc., and that work would begin next week. The Secretary was instructed to write the committee to confirm the sale. Mr. McNelly gave advice on the matter. Mr. Shortis informed the meeting that he had been presented with a valuable diary of the seal-fishery by Mr. Collis of Queen's Road. The statistics covered the period when the seal-fishery was at its height, viz., during the fifties and sixties. The record was donated by Mr. Collis to the Historical Society. Mr. Nichols expressed the opinion that it was time to be up and going in the business of perfecting arrangements for the Guy celebration. The meeting closed at 9.15.

Sealers Discharged.

The steamers Aurora and Adventure finished discharging their seals yesterday afternoon. The Aurora's turn-out was 9,125 young harps, 66 young hoods, 795 bedlamers, 171 old harps, 7 old hoods and 3 square flippers, totalling 10,162 seals. The net weight was 212 tons, 6 cwt., 2 qrs., 9 lbs. The net value was $18,599.90, and her crew of 186 men shared $32.72 each. The Adventure turned out 7,742 young harps, 193 bedlamers, 1,640 old harps, 3 old hoods, totalling 10,578. The gross weight was 280 tons, 7 cwt., 4 lbs.; net weight, 262 tons, 3 cwt., 21 lbs.; average of young harps 47 lbs. Net value $21,119.61. Her crew of 203 men shared $34.50 each.

HEADACHE GLASSES.

The following is a quotation from a late work on the diagnosis and treatment of the diseases of the eye, by Edward Jackson, A.M., M.D.:-

"It ought to be universally recognized that eyestrain is the common cause of headache, and from headache produced from fever toxemia and organic disease of the brain and its membranes, eyestrain is almost invariably a factor in the production of headache. The headache of eyestrain is not of any special character—it may be constant or intermittent, slight or severe, felt only on the use of the eye, or after their use, continuous or recurring irregularly, or at certain intervals. It is aggravated by many other causes, such as hunger, exhaustion, exposure to heat or cold, or indigestion; or it may seem entirely independent of other influences. In the majority of cases eyestrain is not the only factor in the production of headache, but it may be the only factor of practical importance, because it alone can be removed and its removal will give relief. Such headaches are generally felt in the frontal, temporal or occipital regions."

The eyestrain mentioned above is remedied by properly fitted glasses. For over twenty years it has been my work to study the various cases that come to me, and fit those who need them with the proper glasses. All who were fitted were at once relieved of headache. I make no charge for examination. The best and most up-to-date methods are used. We have the only plant in Newfoundland for grinding lenses for special and difficult cases. We carry the largest stock of rimless and other glasses in the country.

A second's reasoning will supply the answer. Beef and pork are dear and getting dearer all the time, and the cost is out of proportion with their food-value.
