THE CANADIAN PATENT OFFICE RECORD AND MECHANIC'S MAGAZINE.—We have received from the publishers, Messrs. Geo. E. Deslaurats, of Montreal, the prospectus of the above Magazine, which will be published monthly. The official portion will cover from 16 to 32 pages, comprising from 100 to 240 patent claims, specifications and diagrams. As the publication will commence with the patents issued under the new Act, which came into operation September 1st, 1872, the first four issues will contain 240 patents each, and each successive number will contain the patents issued during the preceding month. The unofficial portion, or Mechanics' Magazine, will give in each number thirty-two pages of carefully selected articles and items, gleaned from the very best technical papers. Every branch of engineering, mechanics and manufactures will be treated, especially such as have a practical application in Canada. The Magazine will be published at $1.50 per annum. The first issue will appear on the 1st of March. (dw)

PETTY LARCENY.—An exchange says, with a good deal of truth, that there is a practice of the Post Office Department which we can characterize by no other name than that which heads this article. We refer to the mean swindle by which a party receiving an unpaid letter is charged nearly double postage and also where a letter is insufficiently prepaid, where the double rate is exacted, and no credit given for what is prepaid. This a person may send a letter on which he should pay two cents, as it is a trifle over accurate scales he may judge that fifteen cents is enough. The letter arrives at its destination, the Post Office Department gets the benefit of the fifteen cents prepaid, which it commences, and charges the receiver of the letter thirty cents, thus clearing the difference between forty-five and eighteen cents. The just way would be to charge the three cents unpaid to the receiver, and there let the transaction end. The Government get all they are entitled to, viz., eighteen cents, fifteen in advance and three on delivery. This matter should be attended to next session, as no injustice, however small, should be allowed to continue. (dw)

ON MONDAY MORNING at two o'clock a fire broke out in the treating house of Messrs. S. A. Adams & Co's oil refinery, London, completely destroying it, with the whole contents, as well as 250 barrels of machine oil. The loss is about $5,000. No insurance. (dw)

TUESDAY EVENING, FEB. 25, 1873.

Town and County News.

CONCERT TO-NIGHT.—The concert to be given this evening in the Town Hall, by the Ventili Horn Band, promises to be a very successful affair. Secure your seats early.

EMIGRATION.—Remember the meeting in the Council Chamber this (Tuesday) evening, at seven o'clock, for the encouragement of the emigration of farm laborers.

THE BOARD OF SCHOOL TRUSTEES could not meet on Monday night, as the Council Chamber was occupied for other purposes. Some of the members who came, and were obliged to go home again, were not very well pleased.

MADE AN ARRANGEMENT.—We understand that John A. McMillan, who was arrested on Thursday last for concealing his assets, has effected an arrangement by which the estate will pay all claims in full with perhaps a handsome surplus over.

"MAZEPA."—The Hamilton Standard says this fine trotting horse which did a mile in 2 min. 29 seconds at the late Toronto races, was sold on Friday to Mr. Mitchell, of Guelph, brother-in-law of the owner, Mr. McElroy, of that town, for $800. She was sold by a bailiff under a chattel mortgage now overdue, amounting to $1,100.

GRAND ORANGE LODGE.—The following is a list of the Grand Officers for the ensuing year elected at the annual meeting held at Orangeville on Tuesday last:—D'Arcy Boulton, W.G.M.; Wm. Parkhill, 4th Deputy; James Bennet, 2nd do.; Rev. John Cary, G.C.; Thos. Ross, G.S.; Jas. H. Bessey, G.T.; John Orr, D.G.S.; James McClure, G.L.; Thos. R. Brownlee, G.D.C.

THE ROARING GAME.—On Monday a point game was played in the covered rink here, twenty-five members of the Club taking part in it, for a handsome album, the gift of Mr. John Anderson, bookseller, and other presents from Messrs. Roper and Anderson, of the woolen mill. Play commenced at one p.m. and closed at five. The ice was in good order, and some excellent playing was the result. The highest number of points, nine, was made by Mr. A. Congalton, who secured the album. Mr. B. Emslie, second prize, 7 points. Messrs. D. Kennedy, W. T. Hepburn, James and Thomas Dobbie were ties at six points. The first four issues will contain 240 patents each, and each successive number will contain the patents issued during the preceding month. Local and Other Items.

WE regret to learn of the death of Mayor Archibald Douglas, for many years a resident of Ottawa, and one of the staff of the Ottawa Custom's House. Mayor Douglas' death occurred on the sixth inst., at Glasgow.

TESTIMONIAL TO DR. PUNSHON.—The Westlons of Nanapan, in conjunction with their brethren throughout Canada, are preparing a money testimonial to present to the Rev. Dr. Punshon at his final departure from the Canadian Conference.

POOR FELLOW.—The bones which were lately announced as having been brought from the Arctic regions by an American explorer are believed to be the remains of Lieut. Le Visconte, one of Franklin's officers. They are to be immediately interred in the mausoleum of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich.

THOUSANDS OF ACRES of land in Michigan are covered with a growth of sweet fern, which has hitherto been supposed to be worthless, but it has been found that for tanning purposes it is unequalled, and that it yields forty per cent of tannin, while hemlock yields but fourteen. It promises to be very valuable.

PRICES OF POTTERY.—Prices of china and earthenware of every description have advanced during the past twelve months. China is 15 to 25 per cent higher at the potteries in England, and earthenware 20 to 45 per cent. This is caused by a simultaneous advance in every article used in the manufacture of these goods.

THE ST. CATHARINES NEWS says:—Mr. John McMillan, of Niagara, the Ontario Emigration Agent to the North of Ireland, has been writing to a friend here, and gives a glowing account of his success there, and says that he is sure to bring out several hundreds of his hard working countrymen in the spring, "to assist in building up our Dominion."

A YOUNG LADY KILLED AT A FUNERAL.—On Saturday, the 15th inst., Miss Mary Smith, daughter of Mr. John Smith, living a few miles from Morpeth, in the Township of Howard, met her death in the following manner: The unfortunate young lady was seated in a buggy forming part of the funeral procession of the late Mr. Adair, and the horse having been started by the sudden halting of the carriage proceeding, made a jump to one side, whereby she was thrown out upon the frozen ground. Miss Smith was taken up insensible, and the sad accident terminated fatally in about ten hours afterwards.

DISASTROUS FIRE.—About nine o'clock on Monday morning a fire broke out in the Dominion Hotel, Listowel, owned by Geo. Zellax, from a defective flue. The wind being high the fire speedily spread Mitchell's and Winter's groceries, which soon burned to the ground. The W. G. & B. Railway office was also burned, and much of their property destroyed. In a short time Hogan's and Harvey's stores were also consumed. The Montreal Telegraph office was saved with great difficulty, as was also Zink's general store. Water could hardly be obtained. The loss is about $18,000, with very small insurance.

A WOMAN NEARLY BURNED TO DEATH.—On Friday afternoon, in Buffalo, as Mrs. McGowan, a wet nurse at Mrs. Wm. T. Fargo, jr's, was rekindling a fire, the fragment of a lighted paper fell unperceived upon the skirt of her dress and immediately set fire to her clothes. She rushed to the bath-room, where Mrs. Fargo's mother turned on both streams of water, and also tried to smother the flames with a blanket, but all to no avail. The flames soon enveloped her and were remorselessly eating their way into her lungs, shoulders and body. In her struggles she freed herself from the bath tub and fell lifeless upon the floor. The flames soon communicated to the room, and it was with great difficulty that Mrs. Fargo and the twin babies were removed and the fire extinguished.

DIX GOATS.—The Montreal Witness of the 21st inst., says that travellers continue to report pretty heavy stocks held in the country, but are receiving fair orders, not so heavy perhaps as usual in staples, but about equal to other seasons in style and fancy goods. Importations are now arriving freely, and in about two weeks stocks will be pretty complete. There is nothing now to note in prices. Linens are perhaps a shade easier than last year. Cotton goods without change, and woollens firm with respect of any lower prices in any line; collections are rather irregular, some houses reporting an improvement during the last two weeks, others the reverse. In Canadian woollens a fair trade has been done so far, but some think it will close earlier than usual. In fancy dry goods the fine weather has caused some enquiry, but nothing has been done yet. Travellers will start out during the coming week. In fancy goods business is quiet; much delay will be caused in this line by the steamer Hedaway, of the London line, having to put back to Plymouth, on account of the loss of her rudder, as she had a large cargo of fancy goods on board. She is not expected until about the middle of next month. In clothing, trade is very good, and few orders coming in for spring lines are quite up to the average.

"CANADIAN FARMER."—This periodical which has proved so valuable to the farming and gardening community, is to be hereafter published twice a month. The old staff of editors, with several additions have been re-engaged. It is to be illustrated with cuts, and will be a most interesting and valuable work.

John Bright took his seat in the Commons last night, for the first time since his illness.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

Return of the Austrian Ambassador.

Opposition to the Ministerial Education Bill.

The Strike in South Wales.

Death of Rev. Thos. Guthrie.

Industrial Home Burned.

Loss of the Steamship Glasgow.

Prince Alphonso for the Throne of Spain.

Reconciliation of two "Old" Families.

London, Feb. 24.—Count Von Benst, the Austrian Ambassador, has returned to his post at the Court of St. James.

The meeting of the Conservative leaders, which was announced to take place on Saturday last, for a lengthy sitting, came to a unanimous determination to oppose the Ministerial Education Bill. The course to be pursued in carrying on the Opposition to the Government was not definitely decided on.

The strike of the South Wales miners will probably be brought to an end by a compromise to-day. It is thought that 60,000 of the strikers will return to the mines to-morrow.

Rev. Thos. Guthrie, the English author, is dead.

Washington, Feb. 24.—In the House to-day the Speaker laid before the House a message from the President, reminding Congress of that portion of his annual message which recommended legislation to bring into operation articles of the Treaty of Washington of May 8th, 1871, relating to the fisheries and other matters touching the relation of the United States with the British North American possessions, and calling attention urgently to the importance of that legislation.

Columbus, Feb. 24.—The Industrial Home for girls, at White Sulphur Springs, Delaware County, was burned yesterday. Much of the furniture destroyed. Loss not stated.

St. Louis, Feb. 24.—Despatches from Bayou, Louisiana, reports the sinking of the steamer Glasgow, and says she will be a total loss. Cargo valued at $75,000.

New York, Feb. 24.—A special from London says an agreement has been made between the Duke de Montpensier, and the adherents of ex-Queen Isabella, to place Prince Alphonso upon the throne of Spain. The Duke to be regent during the Ministry of Prince Alphonso, and the latter to marry the youngest daughter of the Duke. Isabella accepts the programme, and two important parties therefore, will act together in the present crisis.

Ontario Legislature.

Feb. 24.

Attorney-General Mowat introduced a Bill to amend the Act respecting the registration of co-partnership and other business firms.

A number of private bills were advanced a stage.

Mr. Cameron moved for a copy of the Order in Council passed on the 24th day of June, 1872, authorizing the sale of timber on the North Shore of Lake Superior at fifty cents per acre.

Mr. Rykert moved for a return showing—

1. The names of all townships in which reductions have been made, in either the principal or interest due upon Crown, Clergy, or Grammar School lands since February 15, 1871.

2. The date of such reductions.

3. The names of all persons to whom the reductions have been made.

4. The price originally agreed to be paid upon each lot.

5. The amount of reduction for principal interest respectively.

6. The price at which the several lots were valued by the Government Inspector.

7. Copies of all Orders in Council respecting said reductions.

Hon. Mr. Scott said that his honor- ary duties would prevent him from waiving the prosecution of my bill this year. Legislation in 1874 will be in ample time for the next general election, which will take place in 1875; and I believe that the cause of secret voting has gained rather than lost by a delay, which cannot, under the circumstances, be productive of injury.

Hope that you will find room for this brief explanation in your next issue. I have the honour to be, Your obedient servant, CHARLES CLARKE, Toronto, Feb. 14th 1873.

Prince Edward Island.

Hon Messrs. Haythorns and Laird had an audience with His Excellency the Governor-General, at Ottawa, on Monday, in reference to the Island of Prince Edward being admitted into the Union. In a few days some further light may be thrown on the question. The issue is purely one of material business arrangement: the question upon which the negotiations were before broken off will be the leading one now to be discussed.

The land tenure of the Island is in an unsatisfactory state, the whole of the lands being held in large blocks by non-residents, who, through their impracticable policy, make the condition of the holders, and their relation to the country, in effect not unlike the state of things created by the seigniorial tenure of Lower Canada. About $800,000, it is estimated, will be required

The Prohibitory Bill.

We have received a copy of the Prohibitory Bill, introduced by Mr. Clarke, into the Ontario Legislature, which is one of the most stringent measures it is possible to conceive of. There was a time, not long since gone by, when the small bands of temperance advocates were sneered at as visionary enthusiasts—when any scheme for the removal or amelioration of the acknowledged evils of intemperance was regarded as Utopian and utterly impracticable. Those having the slightest acquaintance with the history of our country must be well aware that all great reforms are accomplished gradually. The public attention must be thoroughly aroused—the extent of the evil plainly pointed out and thoroughly understood by the people, before steps are taken for their removal. It is a well known fact that the liquor traffic is the direct source of nearly all the crime and misery to which the human family is heir, and any steps taken for the prohibition of its sale must be looked upon by every lover of his country as a move in the right direction. The earnest and continued efforts of temperance reformers are doing much to educate the public sentiment and prepare it for the change that is inevitable. The bill introduced by Mr. Clarke, provides that no person shall sell, barter, or in any way dispose of any spirituous, fermented, or intoxicating liquors of any kind within the Province of Ontario, except for medicinal, chemical, mechanical and scientific works, employments and purposes. No certificate for a license to retail intoxicating liquors of any kind in any tavern, alehouse, beer-house, place of public entertainment or shop shall be granted to any applicant for such license by the Council of any township, incorporated village, town or city within the Province of Ontario; and any by-law for granting such certificate, passed or to be passed by any such Council shall have no force or effect whatsoever. Any member of a Municipal Council voting for or issuing a certificate may be imprisoned in the County jail for three calendar months, or be obliged to pay a fine of $100. Municipal officers, convicted under the act shall forfeit office and be disqualified to hold any office in any municipality in the Province for one year thereafter; and if any person after the forfeiture aforesaid shall discharge the duties of such municipal officer, a penalty of $40 will be incurred for every day he may sit or vote, or he may be imprisoned for a number of months at hard labor. The penalty for selling liquor contrary to the act shall be for the first offence not less than $20 besides costs, and not more than $50; for the second offence incarceration for three calendar months; for the third offence six months at hard labor. All prosecutions must be commenced within sixty days after the commission of the offence, and any person may be the prosecutor or complainant. Peace officers have the power to search all places where liquor is supposed to be sold, and should any be found therein they shall seize and destroy it. Persons obstructing constables in this duty shall be liable to a fine of $50. A penalty of $50 is imposed upon persons tampering with witnesses. Any person who, having violated the provisions of the act, shall compromise, compound or settle the offence, shall be imprisoned at hard labor, for three calendar months; and any person being a party to such compromise shall be similarly dealt with. If any one becomes intoxicated from liquor furnished him, where liquor is sold or disposed of, and whilst so intoxicated sustain injury, he may bring an action against those furnishing the intoxicating draught; and in case of death his representatives may bring an action against the person from whom he received the liquor. Any person injured by one intoxicated shall not only have an action at law against the person doing the mischief but also against the vendor of the liquor. Relatives of a drunkard have the power to sue those who supply him with liquor and may recover a sum of not more than $500. Registered druggists may, by prescription from a duly licensed physician, sell intoxicating liquor for medical purposes only; the date of sale, name of the physician giving the prescription, name of the party purchasing such liquor, shall be entered in a book specially kept for the purpose; a weekly report of such transactions, under affidavit, duly signed and sworn to, must be sent to the Treasurer of the Province. Municipal Councils shall appoint a detective officer at their first sitting in January of each year for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the act. The name of the informant giving information to the detective officer, shall be kept strictly secret by him. The County Attorney within the County in which the offence may have been committed shall attend to the prosecution of all cases committed to him by such detective officer or any other complainant. The act if sanctioned, will go into force on and after the first day of January next. When this bill comes up for its second reading the strength of the prohibitionists in the House will, no doubt, be fully tested. The member for Norfolk, should this bill become law, will have been instrumental in introducing one of the greatest and most desirable reforms of the present century. Slavery, with all its attendant horrors has been well nigh banished from the face of our earth by the onward march of civilization, and we sincerely hope and trust that the greater curse of the two may not be allowed to remain in existence longer than 1st January, 1874.

DEATH OF DR. GUTHRIE.—The telegraph informs us that this well known author, divine and philanthropist is dead. He had been in poor health for a long time past, and was almost altogether laid aside from work, but until two months ago continued his active duties as editor of the Sunday Magazine. Dr. Guthrie was well known as one of the most eloquent and hard working ministers in the Free Church of Scotland. He took an active part in the great controversies which preceded and attended the Disruption and the subsequent formation of the Free Church in 1843. After that date he was for many years pastor of St. John's Church in Edinburgh, until he was obliged to relinquish his post on account of ill health. During all that time, and until the day of his death he was actively engaged in every kind of philanthropic work. He was an active promoter of the temperance movement, and for the consideration of the condition of the working men. He was the founder of the Ragged Schools, which have done so much to reclaim the poor and destitute children in large cities. His sympathies were at all times extended to the weak, the erring and the fallen, his religion had no taint of narrowness or selfishness, and he was emphatically the poor man's friend. In his death Scotland loses one of her most gifted, as he was one of her most active sons, and to the world an eloquent preacher and writer, and a pure minded and most Catholic philanthropist.

A LEVEL TOWN.—According to a census carefully taken by Mr. A. McIntyre, St. Thomas has a population of 4,081. This includes only actual residents of the town. There is a floating population in addition of about 500. Two years ago, says the Journal, when the Dominion census was taken, our population was 2,197, and at the census of 1861 it was 1,641. The increase from 1861 to 1871 was 266, or 24 per cent. in ten years. The increase from May, 1871, to the present has been 1,884, or 85 per cent. in less than two years.

CHAPTER VII.
"THE DOINGS OF THE REV. BARTHOLOMEW KIDD."

"Unless, indeed, ma'am," he added, "that you have a quieter chamber more to the rear. I do not mind telling you, Mrs. Dobson, that the business which has brought me to Liverpool is literary. A little work of mine is going through the press, and to have accuracy I have come to revise the proofs on the spot. I do so desire it to be accurate, Mrs. Dobson, for I hope and trust it will prove a precious blessing to many an anxious one. It is called 'A Solemn Warning to the Profane,' and I hope to have the pleasure of presenting you with a copy, Mrs. Dobson."

"Oh, dear me, this is such a kindness, Mr. Kidd. I shall be sure to read every word of it, sir, and all the more so as I will know who wrote it. But as for a quieter room, sir—"

"Oh, ah—yes; but let me explain. I will need great quietness, and though the street is not a noisy one, yet a room at the rear will be quieter still."

"Dear me, sir, I'm sure I wish I could accommodate you, sir. There is a sitting room and bed-room upstairs back; but—"

"The very thing," interrupted Mr. Kidd eagerly. "We shall go up and look at them, ma'am, if you please?"

"They are very poor rooms, sir—much too humble for a minister like you, sir."

"No, Mrs. Dobson; not at all, ma'am. Nothing can be too humble for a minister. Our curial nature is apt to be proud and nothing is better for us than to strive against it."

"Quite beautiful, sir; and just like a minister as is the right sort. The poor-ness of the rooms is not the only thing I was going to mention, sir; but the other two rooms on the same floor are took by a young lady as is a teacher of music and when she is in she needs constantly to practice on the piano. Now, sir, the noise—"

"Music!" exclaimed Mr. Kidd, with rapture. "Shall I have such felicity as music? You think it will annoy me, ma'am. No, it will be an exquisite delight. It is the only earthly pleasure I permit myself to enjoy, Mrs. Dobson, and I hope the young lady will practice often while I am here. It will not interfere with my work at all, ma'am; it will rather soothe me in my labours. I look upon this as a double felicity, ma'am—the double felicity, who could resist such sweet complacencies as this? Not certainly Mrs. Dobson, whose admiration of the reverend speaker grew every moment, and with it the anxiety to have him for a lodger, if only for a few days. It would sanctify her house for all time coming to have such a saintly man under her roof. She would rather, indeed, that he had taken the rooms on the first floor, which seemed more in keeping with his clerical position, but since, for quietude and meditation, she preferred the second floor back, she would only be too glad to have him ensconced there. Accordingly she conducted him up the second flight of stairs, and showed him into a small sitting-room adjoining the parlor occupied by Annabel. The window look out upon a back court, the minister glanced round and peeped into the little bed-room which opened from the larger chamber then he declared with rapturous satisfaction that he could have found nothing better for his purpose in all Liverpool.

Which statement had more truth and meaning in it than Mrs. Dobson had any idea of.

"I will take the rooms, Mrs. Dobson," he said, "and consider myself fortunate in obtaining such a sanatorium. My business here may not occupy me an entire week, but for a week I shall take them. Would you be kind enough to state, Mrs. Dobson, what the rent will be?"

"Oh, dear me! I'm sure I don't know, I oughtn't to charge much to a gentleman as is a minister; and if my first floor had only been let—which it ain't just now, as you saw, sir—it would have been a pleasure to me to let you have the lodgings free."

"Nothing of the kind, Mrs. Dobson—nothing of the kind. We clergymen of the Nonconformist persuasion are not, it is true, largely possessed of this world's goods, but I make it a point to receive nothing for which I do not give adequate return. Shall we say a sovereign, Mrs. Dobson? Will a sovereign be sufficient to compensate for the use of the rooms for one week?"

He took from his purse the coin he had named and laid it on the table, Mrs. Dobson being too much lost in surprise at the munificence of the sum to be able for some moments to utter a word.

Mr. Cardwell, Secretary of State for the War Department, presented the army estimates for the year 1873. 74, and proceeded to explain them in detail. The total expenditure is £14,416,000, which, despite the prices of coal, provisions, clothing, and other supplies, is the lowest since the Crimean war. The regular army at home and abroad numbers 125,000 men, of whom 63,000 constitute the home force. Besides these the estimates provide for 130,000 militia, 13,000 yeomen, 161,000 volunteers, 10,000 of the first reserve, and 20,000 of the second reserve. The recruiting service is in a satisfactory state of efficiency. The total number of deserters from the regular forces during the past year was 4,000, not 8,000 as reported in the public prints. The Secretary concluded by recommending legislation to prevent the pay of privates ever becoming less than a shilling per day.
