Town and County News.

BUSINESS is said to be good in Palmerston.

A quadrille party is being organized in Drayton.

Mr. John Robinson, of Moorefield, intends going into the grain business this winter.

Robert Arbuckle, of con. D. Minto, thrashed from 5 acres 190 bushels, Treadwell wheat.

An engine got off the track at Harrison station last Sunday. All right in an hour or two.

Harrison people are talking about forming a society to get up amusements for the long winter evenings.

The Palmerston work shops are to be 240 feet long, by 40 wide, and will employ about 100 men.

Bear Shot. Mr. John McInley of Luther shot a bear lately on lot 23, Con. 10. It weighed over 200 lbs.

A SECOND ARRIVAL of new dry-goods in profusion is announced in Chance & Williamson's advertisement to-day.

Dwelling houses still continue to be scarce in Palmerston, despite the many new ones which have lately been built.

WEATHER. A steady rain this morning turned to an equally steady snow about noon, which is rapidly whitening the ground.

WHAT TO WEAR. Mr. A. O. Bacham, Upper Wyndham-street, sends a dissertation on this subject for our advertising columns. It will appear to-morrow.

UNDER cover of the darkness some rascals recently stole between 30 and 40 pieces of linen from Alexander Harvey's clothes line at Kinneltles, near Fergus.

The Fergus News Record is growing to big for its old shell, and is moving to new premises on St Andrew-st., where it will have about double its former accommodation.

For the last three weeks there have been about 90 men putting in new sidings at Palmerston. When completed, in addition to the main line, there will be over one mile of sidings.

LIGHT WEIGHT. A Mr. O'Neil, of Peel township, writes to the Fergus News Record, complaining of being cheated out of nearly three bushels of wheat in one load sold by him in Guelph.

TRAIN ALTERATIONS. Considerable alterations in the time of trains on the W. G. & B. R'y will come into effect on and after Monday next. We refer our readers to the advertisement for particulars.

THE RIFLES met in the drill shed last night, under command of Captain Bruce. There was a tolerable muster. We are informed that they drill again on Monday night, and that a shooting match is arranged for Thursday, Nov. 6th.

THE house and grounds of the late Mr. Thomas Saunders were offered for sale by Mr. S. G. Knowles, on Thursday, but as the bids did not go as high as the reserved price, the property remains still unsold. The chattels advertised were disposed of.

ZION CHURCH. Sabbath School anniversary sermons will be preached by the Rev. Mr. Howie, on Sunday next, at 11 a.m. and 6.30 p.m., in the above Church. On Tuesday evening a tea meeting will be held in the same place, when there will be singing and recitations by the children of the school, music by the choir, and addresses by Ministers and others.

HALLOWEEN. To-night the urchins—if it don't rain—will amuse themselves to their hearts' content doing a great many funny things, and no doubt a great many other things that they oughtn't to do. Many homes will be made happy by the old folks getting a bag of apples and a wash-tub—the boys know the rest. Candies and nuts will be in abundance, and the juveniles will hold high carnival.

OSTER SUPPER. On Thursday the boarders of the Scott House and a number of invited guests, about forty in all, assembled to give a complimentary supper to Mr. Stephen Prebble, who is about leaving Guelph. The guest of the evening was suitably complimented, and responded in a capital speech. Music and dancing followed, and a pleasant evening was spent.

Y. M. C. A.—The Ladies' Committee for the Bazaar of the Young Men's Christian Association held a meeting in the Association Rooms yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, which was well attended; particulars will be given in a few days. We are sorry to say that owing to the wet night, and other attractions in town and country, there were not enough members present to hold their regular meeting last evening, the President and only one or two others being present. Next Thursday, being Thanksgiving day, there will be no meeting of the Association. The Literary Committee are trying to get some good lecturers for the winter months.

London, Oct. 31.—A special despatch from Brussels to the Daily Telegraph says that all French officers who were there on furlough have left for France, under orders to rejoin their regiments.

Paris, Oct. 30.—M. De Chesnelong received a letter from Count De Chambord on Sunday last. He immediately returned it to the Count and wrote to him repeatedly urging him to modify it, but without avail. The Count insists on its publication verbatim.

Madrid, Oct. 30.—It has been definitely ascertained that 66 lives were lost by the sinking of the insurgent vessel Fernando El Catolico.

New York, Oct. 31.—Building firms, having determined to reduce the wages of masons and bricklayers to $3.50 and laborers to $2 per day of 8 hours, have provided against the prospect of a strike by obtaining the services of workmen from the Eastern States. Out of eight thousand in unions not more than half are now connected with them.

Ottawa Notes.

Correspondence of the Hamilton Times. OTTAWA, Oct. 30.

There is a lively fight over the money sent by Allan into Ontario. Sir John won't tell where it went to, but it is known that Coaling was the treasurer for the West, and handled a large part of the cash, but did not pay it out as agreed upon. He and others like him, having direct personal interests, ought not to be allowed to vote on the motion before the House.

The now somewhat renowned 14 had a meeting to-day, and resolved to have published 10,000 copies of Mr. Glass' speech on the situation in pamphlet form. The work will be done by the Halifax Chronicle, the organ of the Liberal party in Nova Scotia. The pamphlet will be chiefly for distribution in the Maritime Provinces, but a few hundred copies will be sent west.

Sir John, it is said, will not speak on the motion now before the House, as he fears the castigation he will receive from Mr. Blake, who will immediately follow him. It is likely, however, that if Sir John keeps quiet the member for Bruce will not take part in debate.

It is the impression that the vote may be taken at any minute. The position of the parties in the House is now clearly ascertained. Sir John and his friends manifest symptoms of demoralization. It is pretty generally expected that the vote will be adverse to Ministers.

Steps have been taken by Mr. Ira Morgan, Warden of the county of Carleton, on behalf of the county and the deputation from the City Council to purchase all the roads leading into the city, abolish tolls, and extend and improve the great highways of the county.

Induction in Puslinch. On Thursday, the 30th, the Presbytery of Guelph met according to appointment in Duff's Church, East Puslinch, for the induction of Mr. McKay, late of Elmira, Illinois, U.S., to the pastorate of that congregation, and for the transaction of other business. After occupying some time in considering a case brought before them from Waldemar, the Edict of Induction was called for, and handed in—duly certified as having been served on the congregation on two successive Sabbaths. Intimation was then made to the people assembled that the Presbytery was ready to receive any objections that might be offered to the life and doctrine of Mr. McKay, or any reason why he should not be inducted as their pastor. No objection appearing, they proceeded to the place of worship, where, after praise and prayer and the reading of the scriptures, an excellent sermon was preached by the Rev. D. D. McLennan, from John xii, 31, 32: "Now is the judgment of this world; now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me." Dwelling—first, upon the nature of true conversion to God, as implied in the words "I will draw all men unto me." And—secondly, on how the lifting up of Christ tends to effect the change. After the sermon, Rev. Mr. Torrance, who has been Moderator of Session during the vacancy, gave a brief narrative of the steps connected with the call to Mr. McKay, and then put to him and the congregation the questions usually put on such occasions. Satisfactory answers having been given to these, prayer was engaged in, in the course of which Mr. McKay was duly inducted into the pastoral charge of the congregation. He was next addressed on the duties of his office, the preparation he required for them, and the encouragements he had to be faithful in the discharge of them.—Rev. Mr. Wardrop then addressed the people in suitable terms, on the obligations they owed him who had just been set over them in the Lord. After these services Mr. Torrance withdrew with Mr. McKay to the door of the church, when the people had the opportunity of welcoming their new minister by taking him by the right hand. All the services were deeply interesting. The attendance was large. Mr. McKay enters upon an important field of usefulness. The Presbytery having returned to their former place of meeting, his name was added to the roll, and Mr. Wardrop appointed to introduce him to the Session. Mr. Ball reported that, according to appointment, he had moderated in a call in Knox Church, Galt, on the 29th inst., which had come out in favor of Rev. Mr. McPherson, of Hilltown Church, Dundee, Scotland; that the call had been signed, through want of time, by only two hundred and fifty members, and that the Session petitioned for an extension of time, that a greater number of signatures might be obtained; and moved that an adjourned meeting be held in Knox Church, Guelph, on Wednesday next at two o'clock p.m., to receive the call. On motion this request was granted, and the adjournment was shortly afterwards closed.

THE SCOTT MURDER. THE JUDGE'S DECISION IN FULL. Tuesday, Oct. 14. Court opened at 10.30 a.m. Mr Justice Betsworth on the bench.

More than usual interest was seemingly taken in this morning's proceedings, as instanced by the unusual number of spectators. The prisoner was brought into court about 11 o'clock, and on his appearance Justice Betsworth proceeded to give his decision as follows:— "This is a preliminary examination upon a charge of murder preferred against the accused, Ambrose Lepine. First on the part of the defence it was urged that there was no proof of the death of Scott. Second: That if Scott was murdered, there is no proof that he was murdered by Lepine, and that, besides, it was not an ordinary murder but the action of a then existing Government.

"Objection has also been taken to my having jurisdiction in the case. "As to the first point, there is conclusive proof of the arrest and imprisonment of Thomas Scott, and his detention by a party of whom Lepine was apparently the leader. It has been sufficiently established by the evidence that Scott was shot on the 4th of March, 1870, by a party under the command of the accused, who, it appeared, had charge of Scott on the occasion.

"As to the second point, the presence of the prisoner on the occasion of Scott's death, and his participation in the crime of which he stands accused, render him guilty of it; and, sitting as I do in the matter, I cannot recognize such a pretended government as that claimed by the defence. Now as to the question of jurisdiction: I cannot sustain the views of the defence; it is my duty under the law to see if a sufficient case is made out to commit. It will rest with a higher tribunal to determine the question of jurisdiction.

"I find a made-out case. Therefore my judgment is: That you, Ambrose Lepine, stand committed to the common goal of this Province until the next Criminal Assizes for the Province of Manitoba, of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery, when bills of indictment will be preferred against you for the offence with which you stand charged."

The plans of the new court-house in Chicago are severely criticised. One writer says: "The general effect is that of a cigar box with a pickle bottle at one end and a lot of pepper castors on top."

Only second in Toronto in interest to the meeting of Parliament is the local question of the new Water Works. An agitation has been commenced which, despite the course of the Globe, is sure to result in a change being effected in the location of the filtering basin on the Island. FIRE IN GALT.—Last Sunday evening about half-past seven o'clock, when the evening services were being conducted in most of the churches in Galt, the fire bell was rung and soon the streets were crowded with people hurrying to that part of the town where quite a large fire seemed to be in progress. It turned out to be an old stable owned by Mr. John Sanderson, near the lower bridge, which had caught fire. The fire engine was hurried to the place, but it was entirely consumed before the engine arrived. The loss will perhaps amount to about $70. It is supposed to have caught fire by some boys smoking in the stable.—Reformer.

FRIDAY EVEN'G, OCT. 31, 1878

The Great Debate.

No division has yet been taken at Ottawa. The principal feature of the debate yesterday was the able and comprehensive speech of Mr. Cartwright. As the struggle goes on, the prospects of the Opposition appear to strengthen. Those members whose names will go forth to the country as deliberate supporters of corruption in high places will not have an enviable position, and it will need all the blandishments of Sir John and the social amenities of the capital to reconcile them to themselves.

The English press continue to comment unfavorably on the conduct of the Dominion Ministry in relation to the Pacific Scandal. Full information has of course reached the old country papers since they first noticed this matter. The Pall Mall Gazette, the Times, and the Standard have the latest articles on the subject. Referring to Sir John's plea that "they do it in England," the Pall Mall Gazette remarks:—"This is more old than ingenious. Sir John forgot that the Prime Minister of England does not make himself the paymaster to distribute the funds which may be subscribed by the Carlton and Reform Clubs for whatever purposes."

The Comte de Chambord has written a letter in reference to the recent delegation from the Right of the Paris Assembly. He energetically refuses to relinquish the white flag. He indignantly repels the insinuation that mistrusts the valour of the soldiers; on the contrary, he seeks to confide to them all he holds dear. These and other expressions would show that he is as obstinate and impracticable as ever, and that his former small chance of filling the throne of France is becoming an infinitesimal one.

The London correspondent of the Globe says that the most disgraceful efforts are being used to bully Mr. Glass out of the position he has taken. Petitions, prepared in the office of the Government organs, calling on Mr. Glass to resign, and declaring confidence in the purity and integrity of the Government, are being sent to Ottawa to intimidate him. It is notorious that not one of the petitions went out of the city among Mr. Glass' constituents.

Political excitement in London was increased on Thursday afternoon by the appearance in the Advertiser of a telegram from Ottawa stating that the Treasurership of the Allan bribery fund, for Western Ontario was traced to Hon. Mr. Carling, and that he had not paid out the cash agreed upon. The citizens feel the disgrace brought upon them by having one of the bribery brigade representing them at Ottawa.

It now seems that after all Riel has not dared to show his face in Ontario, although he did commence his journey towards Ottawa. A Manitoba despatch says he remained over at St. Paul, Minnesota, "waiting for the Amnesty," probably. He knew better than to trust himself within reach of Ontario detectives, their observation quickened by Mr. Blake's $5,000.

The publication of Lord Dufferin's despatches at this particular juncture, when the Ministry is on its trial, is regarded in many quarters as a gross act of partisanship.

The report in circulation that Lieut. Col. Strange, of Quebec, is to be appointed Adjutant General, is thought to be quite without foundation.

The Ministerialists in Toronto who bet heavily on the Government's majority being numbers ranging from 10 to 20, were on Thursday endeavoring to hedge. One Tory who had bet heavily that the Government would have a majority of 18, positively refused, this morning, to bet that the Government would be sustained, and said if it were not for the disgrace of the thing he would bet the other way. Opposition stock is going up rapidly today.

THROWN FROM A WAGON.—Last week a young man, son of Mr. John Tiley, of Salem, drove a span of spirited horses to the field of Mr. Alex. Ewing, in Pilkington, for a load of turnips. About thirty bushes were placed across the wagon, when the horses started, and the unfortunate young man was thrown off the vehicle, the wheels passing over the lower part of his body. Dr. Paget was quickly in attendance, and late Monday evening had little hopes of his recovery.

Drayton Cheese Factory.

For the last few months the erection of a cheese factory has been talked of and strongly advocated, in the neighborhood of Drayton. Messrs. John and David Avery, two of the most enterprising men in the country, have taken hold of it, and the work is to be gone on with at once.

The factory will be built on their own farm, ready to commence operations on the first of May next. Two of the buildings will be 20x40, and one 40x60, at a cost of about $1,200. They intend putting in a steam power and machinery that will run it equal to any factory in this section of Ontario, which will add to the cost upwards of $1,000. Already they have received signers to supply two hundred cows and we have no doubt but the list will soon be raised to one thousand. The cheese will be manufactured by the Messrs. Avery at the rate of two and a quarter cents per pound, and each farmer supplying milk to the factory becomes a shareholder in the cheese according to the quantity of milk supplied; and receives his share, after sale is made, accordingly, out of the profits on the cheese over and above the two and a quarter cents.—Enterprise.

SHEEP KILLED IN LUTHER.—Within the last month a large number of sheep have been killed in North-East Luther, some by flaming dogs and others wolves for the depredations. David Boyle had three killed, Edward Colbeck 2, Wm. Colbeck 2 in daylight. While parties were on the watch for wolves they shot a dog which came to eat the carcase of a sheep that was killed two nights before. No sheep have been killed since.

COMBINATION

STEAM COOKER

Patented June 25th, 1872.

The most complete steam cooking apparatus for general use ever invented, and whose introduction supercedes all others. Made all sizes, and can be used over any heat that will boil water, is easy understood and does away entirely with heavy iron pots and kettles, substituting in their place light tin or earthenware. It cooks meats without their coming in contact with the steam, in the manner of the most improved Cookers in use. Will also cook meats by steam directly applied if desired, a combination possessed by no other article of the kind. With meat it will cook at the same time as many as four varieties of vegetables in separate compartments and also supply pure hot water for Coffee and Tea, without interfering with the process of cooking. The principle upon which meats, poultry and fish are cooked in this apparatus, is said to be the best known. The process renders the viands more tender, and retains those nourishing juices which escape in vapor when boiled in the ordinary way. Besides the actual saving in weight and bulk is over one half, also the perfect arrangement of the article for steaming vegetables, puddings, scalding fruits, steaming oysters, etc., etc., makes it invaluable to every housekeeper.

The Rival Clansmen :

A Scottish Vendetta.

CHAPTER V.

THE CATERANS OF BEN-A-SCHRUI—CAMERON AND IAN FLOT MISCHIEF—FLORA ALONE WITH IAN.

Led by Cameron, Ian and the others who had followed Hector down into the underground vault turned to the right at the foot of the stair after the latter had been led away, and walked in the direction from which our hero had seen the light proceed.

They moved forward cautiously, for they were still in total darkness, until at length Cameron halted, and struck two knocks on some door or partition in front. The hooting sound which was heard above was repeated, after which followed the single sharp knock from Cameron, and the door was flung open.

The sight disclosed was a strange one. They were in a large cave—a vault of spacious dimensions—dimly lit up by a number of lamps and torches. The walls were dark and gloomy, but the weapons which were hung upon them reflected the light in bright though weird-looking rays.

Around the room, some seated on rough wooden seats, others squatted on the floor, and others standing, were from twenty to thirty men, all dressed in kilts, and apparently fully armed. Wild and lawless-looking fellows were they, all of them, with their dark scowling looks, and their torn, tattered attire, many of them being shoeless, other capless, while numbers had simply a worried rag about their shoulders in lieu of a plaid.

A joyful expression crossed each face as Cameron and the others entered, and then the whole company with one accord sprang to their feet, and gave forth cheer upon cheer until the vault resounded again and again.

"Hail to the Cateran of Ben-a-schru!" shouted a voice, while another loudly exclaimed—

"Hail to the young chief of the M'Kenzie's!" and the others taking up the cries reiterated them until their throats were hoarse and dry.

At the far end of the room were two empty chairs, slightly raised above the floor on a low platform. To these Cameron and Ian advanced, and seated themselves.

When the vociferous cheering had subsided, Cameron rose with a smile upon his face, and addressing those before him, said—

"Clansmen, or rather Caterans of Ben-a-schru, we have again met together. Every face that I expected to see is before me. With that I am pleased, and it is well that it is so for another reason—your young Lieutenant will read in it a sign that your devotion to him as not decreased during his absence, and that you sympathize with him in the misfortune which have lately befallen both himself and his kinsmen. Caterans, let me tell you that he is here to-night to meet you when weaker men would have been prostrated with grief, for but yesterday, as you are doubtless already aware, his father's spirit winged its way from the land of his kinsmen to the home of the faithful clansmen beyond. But our brave companion chose rather to bury his grief, and come, as he had promised, to be with you this evening. And I have something else to tell you. You are all aware of the bitter feud which has existed between the M'Kenzie and the M'Leods, and of the vow of the old chieftain of the M'Kenzie that he would exterminate the stock of the M'Leods. That vow Ian M'Kenzie has taken upon himself, and the last of the M'Leod's sons (young Hector) is in his power—is in our power, for Ian and I brought him a prisoner with us, and at this moment he lies in the Speechless cell."

Cameron had to wait until the great burst of applause which arose had subsided. Then he continued—

"Yes, Rory M'Kenzie has him firmly bolted and barred by this time, and he awaits our doom. Shall you assist the young Chief to overcome his enemies or shall you not?"
