Nova Scotia Public Archives

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

STANDING RULES
FOR THE
CONSTITUTION AND GOVERNMENT
OF THE

---

NAME.

1.—The name of this Society shall be "THE NEW-FOUNDLAND CHURCH SOCIETY."

OBJECTS.

2.—The objects of this Society shall be, (1) to contribute towards the maintenance of the Clergy and Lincenced Lay-Readers, (2) to assist in the erection, enlargement, or repairs of Churches, Parsonages, or School-Rooms, and in the purchase of Land for Glebe or other Church purposes, (3) to provide for sale a supply of Bibles, Prayer-Books, School-Books, and other Religious Books and Tracts, and (4) to create and maintain a separate fund for assisting the Widows and Children of deceased Clergymen of this Diocese.

MEMBERS.

3.—The members of this Society shall be, (1) all persons who shall have paid to their Clergyman or the Treasurer the two preceding years the annual sum of ten shillings for the objects of the Society; and (2) all Clergymen who shall have officiated in Newfoundland or Labrador the two preceding years with the Bishop's licence.

4.—All members shall have power to vote at the annual and other general meetings.

OFFICERS.

5.—The officers of this Society shall be (1) the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, President; (2) the Venerable the Archdeacon and the Rural Deans, Vice-Presidents; (3) a Treasurer; and (4) a Secretary; the last two to be chosen by the members of the Society at the annual general meeting.

MANAGERS.

6.—The Committee of management shall consist of the officers of the Society, and certain Lay-Members, elected as Representatives in each of the Deaneries; viz., four elected by Members of the Society resident in the Deanery of Avalon; three by Members resident in the Deanery of Conception Bay; three by Members resident in the Deanery of Trinity Bay; three by Members resident in the Deanery of Notre-Dame Bay; two by Members resident in the Deanery of Placentia Bay; and two by Members resident in the Deanery of Fortune Bay.

7.—The election of Representatives shall be as follows:—On some day in Easter Week, in the year 1859, and in every succeeding fourth year, a Meeting of the Members resident in each mission, shall be convened by the Clergyman in charge at some convenient hour and place, of which notice shall be given (with the Bishop's consent) in each Church in the Mission, (if possible,) on some Sunday in the previous month; at which Meeting the Clergyman, or in his absence, some other person then to be chosen by the Members shall preside, and the Members present shall vote seriatim for the prescribed number of Representatives

8.—When the voting (which may be continued, if necessary, six hours, but not longer) is completed, the presiding Officer in each Mission shall report the result to the Rural Dean, and the persons who have obtained a majority of votes in the Deanery, shall be elected Representatives; provided that every person to be a member of the Committee must be a Communicant of the Church of England.

9.—The Rural Dean shall report the result of the election in his Deanery to the Secretary in St. John's, the first convenient opportunity.

10.—The new Representatives shall be convened by the Secretary at the Michaelmas Quarterly Meeting; until which time the former Representatives shall continue in office.

11.—As often as it shall become necessary from the death, absence from the Colony, resignation, disqualification, or refusal to serve, of any of the Representatives, to appoint another or others in their place, a special meeting of the Members, in the Deanery where the vacancy has arisen, shall (as soon as the Rural Dean, or, in his absence the Clergyman next senior in standing in the Diocese may in his discretion appoint) be convened in like manner as the Easter meeting, when the required Representative or Representatives shall in like manner be elected.

12.—The President, or a Vice-President and six other Members of the Committee shall be competent to manage the business at every meeting duly convened.

13.—All Clergymen of the Diocese holding the Bishops's licence, shall be ex-officio honorary Members of the Committee with the right of speaking, but not with the exception of the Officers, of voting at its Meetings.

TRUSTEE.

14.—The Lord Bishop of the Diocese shall be the Trustee of this Society, and shall have power to let or to take houses or lands, and to receive all rents and interest of monies as the same shall fall due, and shall pay the same to the Treasurer for the time being, taking his receipt, and handing it over to the Committee.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

15.—An annual General meeting of the members and friends of the Society shall be holden in St. John's on the second Thursday after Trinity Sunday, or as soon after as the Bishop may appoint. The Secretary shall give notice to each of the Clergymen in St. John's, who shall publish it (with the Bishop's consent) in his Church on the previous Sunday.

16.—At the annual general meeting a report on the state of the Society, with the Treasurer's account duly audited, shall be submitted by the Committee, to be printed, or otherwise, as shall be then and there determined by the members.

17.—A special general meeting may be convened at any time, (1) by the President; (2) by a Vice-President and six members of the Committee; or (3) by any twelve members of the Society whose payments are not in arrear; provided notice of such meeting be duly given as in the case of annual general meetings.

18.—The Chairman shall not vote at any general meeting, except in the case of an equality of votes.

COLLECTIONS.

19.—It is expected that a Collection for the various objects of the Society will be made every year by every Clergyman in the Diocese, from every head of a family and every adult member of the Church in his Mission, assisted if need be by his Churchwardens and other respectable Members of his Congregation.

20.—Every Clergyman shall transmit to the Secretary, a list of the Contributors to the objects of the Society in his Mission, with the amount of their several payments, and to the Treasurer one-fourth at least of his whole Collections, on or before the last day in every year, or as soon after as practicable.

N.B.—This Rule does not apply to the Clergy of St. John's, who shall send in the whole of their Collections to the Treasurer.

21.—All Clergymen who have collected as far as possible from every head of a family, or from every adult Member of the Church in their Mission, towards the objects of the Society, for the two years immediately preceding, and who have remitted to the Treasurer one-fourth of the whole Collections, shall be entitled to assistance from the funds of the Society towards any of its objects in their own Mission; provided that no Clergyman shall make a collection for his own maintenance separate from, or independent of the general collection; and provided always that pew-rents and assessments be not considered as part of the said collection or collections.

GRANTS.

22.—It shall be the duty of the Committee to determine from time to time on the appropriation of the Funds, by making grants towards the objects of the Society under the recommendation and sanction of the President.

23.—No Clergyman declining or neglecting to collect for the Society, or to transmit a list of the contributors and their payments, and a fourth-part of his collection (as directed in Rule 20) shall be entitled to receive any grants from the Society, for himself, or for any of the objects of the Society, in his Mission; provided that where a collection has been duly made, and the list with the fourth-part of the collections transmitted for the two previous years by his predecessor, any Clergyman newly in charge may, before sending his first annual collection, ask and receive for any of the objects of the Society, excepting only his own maintenance.

24.—If a Clergyman leave his Mission before the time for sending in his annual collection, the Committee shall have power, on the recommendation of the President, to grant him a sum which shall appear equitable.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

25.—In the absence of the President, the Archdeacon, or, in his absence, the Senior Vice-President, shall take the Chair at all meetings of the Committee or Members, and shall have a casting vote.

26.—The Treasurer shall receive all monies forwarded to him for the objects of the Society, and shall pay or disburse the same as determined by the Committee, and shall furnish to the President and Committee a statement of accounts up to the day appointed for auditing the same.

27.—No money shall be paid or disbursed by the Treasurer except on a written order, specifying the amount to be paid, and its object; which order must be signed by the Chairman of the Committee at which the grant was made, or in his absence, by the Senior Officer of the Society in St John's.

28.—The Committee shall meet for despatch of business in St. John's, on the first Thursday after every quarter day, at 2 o'clock, P.M.

29.—A special Meeting of the Committee may be convened at any time, either [1] by the President, or [2] by two Vice-Presidents; or [3] by any five members of the Committee; provided due notice of such meeting with its object be given the day before to all the other members of the Committee in St. John's.

30.—At a special meeting to be holden seven days before the annual meeting, the Committee shall appoint two of their number to examine the Treasurer's account up to that season, which account examined, approved, and signed by the auditors as correct, shall be submitted to the Committee to be by them incorporated in or appended to the next yearly Report, and so presented to the members at the next annual general meeting.

31.—The Committee shall fix the salary of the Secretary, and shall provide for all the contingent expenses of the Committee and the Society.

DUTIES OF THE SECRETARY.

32.—The Secretary shall summon and attend all meetings of the Committee and Members, and shall arrange the business, and record minutes of the same, to be signed by the Chairman. He shall prepare the annual report, and superintend the printing of the same; shall conduct the correspondence with the Clergy and others on behalf of the Committee; and shall be responsible for the safe custody of all books, receipts and papers belonging to the Society.

PRAYERS.

33.—All meetings of the Society, or of the Committee, shall be opened and closed with the prayers used at the meetings of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, or others provided for the purpose by the Bishop of the Diocese.

ALTERATION OF RULES.

34.—These Rules may be altered, repealed, or added to by the Members assembled at any general meeting; provided the proposed alteration has been stated in writing by any person intending to propose it, to the Secretary at least a month before, for the information of the President and Committee, and that assent has been given to it by the President and a majority of the whole Committee convened for its consideration; and provided also, that it shall be competent to the President to propose any alteration to a general meeting, notwithstanding such alteration may not have received the assent of the Committee.

NEW DEANERIES.

35.—New Deaneries created by the Lord Bishop of the Diocese shall be allowed to elect Representatives; provided that in every Deanery there shall be at least two resident Clergymen, and ten Churches and Congregations.

NOTE.—While it is expected that every Clergyman in the Colony will make a yearly collection for the promotion of the objects of the Church Society, and impress upon every individual under his Pastoral charge, the obligations by which he is bound to contribute thereto, year by year,—the system of the Church Society does not require any Clergyman to withhold the ordinances of the Church in any case of refusal or neglect to pay towards his support.

---

The above rules were agreed to by the President and Members of the Church Society at an adjourned special general meeting held on Friday, July 16th, 1858.

EDWARD NEWFOUNDLAND,

President.

PROCEEDINGS

At the Twenty-first Anniversary of "The Newfoundland Church Society," held at St. John's, 26th June, 1862, the LORD BISHOP in the Chair.

The Report of the Committee having been read, and the Treasurer's Accounts submitted, it was moved by the Rev. THOMAS BOONE, seconded by F. B. T. CARTER, Esq:—

That the Report now read, with the Treasurer's Accounts, be adopted, and printed.

Moved by the Ven. the ARCHDEACON, seconded by the Rev. OLIVER ROUSE:—

That this Meeting desires to acknowledge, with reverence and gratitude, the mercy and goodness of GOD to the Church Society during the past year.

Moved by the Rev W. K. WHITE, seconded by the Rev. EDWARD COLLEY:—

That the circumstances of many of the Missions in this Diocese are such as to require increased provision for their spiritual needs; and that we pledge ourselves, in our vocation and Ministry, to do our utmost to supply the great wants under which so many are labouring.

Moved by the Rev. BENJAMIN SMITH, seconded by the Rev. G. NICHOLAS:—

That in the opinion of this Meeting, one great means to secure the establishment and extension of the Church, is the education of a larger number of young men, in the Colony, for the Ministerial office.

Moved by the Hon. the ATTORNEY GENERAL, seconded by Rev. F. C. JAGG:—

That thanks are due and are offered to the Officers and Committee, and that W. H. MARE, Esq. be Treasurer, and the Rev. JOHN PEARSON, Secretary, for the ensuing year.

Notice was given by the Rev. JOHN PEARSON, that at the next Annual General Meeting, he would move for an alteration of the Fourteenth Rule of the Clergy Widows' and Orphans' Fund; so far as it enables a Clergyman leaving the Diocese after seven years service to continue his connexion with that Fund.

Moved by JOHN TUNBRIDGE, Esq., seconded by KENNETH MACLEA, Esq.

That the thanks of this Meeting be respectfully offered to the LORD BISHOP, for his kindness in presiding on the present occasion.

R E P O R T , &c.

In presenting the annual Report of the Church Society, after a year of unexampled poverty and depression, extending from St. John's through nearly the whole Colony, the Committee desire to express their great gratitude to God that the Treasurer's accounts show no very great decrease. The Committee cannot but regard this as an evidence that a great degree of interest is really felt by many members of the Church, in carrying out those objects which the Society was formed to promote.

There has certainly been a considerable falling off in the gross income of the Society, so far as it is obtained from the Country missions, but this is due, not to the decrease of contributions in the individual missions, but to the fact that no return whatever has been made from five missions which appeared in the list last year. Although this consideration lessens the regret which all friends of the Church must feel, and though it may be, and is in some instances, out of the power of the Clergyman to unite with the Church Society, yet the Committee cannot refrain from once more expressing their earnest hope that all the missions and all the Clergy will yet unite together for carrying out the objects of the Society, so that in this way, under the sanction and guidance of our Bishop, we may concentrate the means and energies of the Church for religious purposes, and all work together and use our utmost endeavors to extend as well as maintain the ministrations of religion among the scattered population of this diocesc. Union is strength.

May God put it into the hearts of all to band together and act together for the sake of our common Lord and the common faith. Increased vitality and strength would, by God's blessing, follow our united efforts for his work and Kingdom.

The following is a summary of the receipts, as shown by the Treasurer's accounts:—

St. John's - . . . . .	£692	2	10
Outports - . . . . .	134	19	3
showing a decrease in St. John's of - . . . . .	£9	3	11
and in the Country missions of . . . . .	89	1	5
Total net Income . . . . .	£832	0	1
Net Expenditure . . . . .	897	18	2

Besides the usual appropriations to the support of the Clergy, the following grants have been made towards the other objects of the Society:—

Church purposes in Channel mission	£30	0	0
Repairs of Bonavista Parsonage	20	0	0
“ Moreton's Harbor Parsonage	15	0	0
“ Greenspond	20	0	0
Enlarging Hermitage Cove	25	0	0
New Church at Swain's Island	30	0	0
“ Salvage	50	0	0
“ Coley's Point	25	0	0
“ Topsail	20	0	0
Towards new Parsonage at Island Cove	37	10	0
Lay Readers	25	0	0
Towards expenses of the Bishop's visitation	50	0	0
Painting Pouch Cove Church	5	0	0
	£367	10	0

The Clergy Widows' and Orphan's Fund continues to work quietly and well, though here also it is to be regretted that the congregational collections have somewhat fallen off, owing doubtless to the poverty everywhere prevailing last year. Through the good providence of God no further claim has been made, and there is still only one pensioner upon the Fund. It is hoped that the Clergy will, where necessary, use some extra exertion to increase the amount of the congregational collections for this most beneficial object, and that the laity will continue to respond as cheerfully as in times past. The Treasurer's account will show the favorable state of the Fund, and the amounts invested on loan, or deposited in the bank. The actual income has amounted, during the past year, from the subscriptions of the Clergy, collections, and interest of loans, to the handsome sum of £248 5 8.

The following Clergymen, having complied with the rules during the past year, are entitled to the benefit of the Fund:—

The Ven. the Archdeacon	Rev. J. C. Harvey
Rev. T. Boone	Rev. G. Gardiner
Rev. M. Blackmore	Rev. W. J. Milner
Rev. T. M. Wood	Rev. G. Hooper
Rev. W. K. White	Rev. J. Darrell
Rev. C. Walsh	Rev. E. Colley
Rev. W. F. Meck	Rev. W. Hoyles
Rev. W. Shannon	Rev. J. F. Phelps
Rev. J. Pearson	Rev. W. Rozier
Rev. J. Marshall	Rev. B. Jones
Rev. J. Moreton	Rev. G. M. Johuson
Rev. W. Kirby	Rev. O. Rouse
Rev. A. Bayly	Rev. Malcolm Johnson.
Rev. E. A. Sall

It is a great source of satisfaction to your Committee to be able to report that, notwithstanding that several of the Clergy have, unhappily, left this diocese for other spheres of labor, the missions are all at present occupied, and regularly served by faithful resident Clergy. This is indeed a thing to be thankful for; but there is still much more to be done. There are many missions of such great extent, and whose scattered settlements can be visited only under circumstances of such great peril and difficulty, that it is impossible for any one Clergyman, however earnest and painstaking, to serve his cure with full satisfaction to himself or his flock. Two or three missions, as Greenspond, Trinity, Heart's Content, Harbor Buffett, and Cape Shore, the Bishop is most anxious to divide, and to make new centres of operation at Salvage, and at New Harbor, and at Oderin, and other places, and would gladly do so, at once, were it in his power. Here are hundreds of our fellow christians and brethren, of the same faith and having the same hope as ourselves, who, except for the very infrequent visits of the Clergyman, are cut off from the ministrations of religion, which so many of us have the blessing of enjoying in such abundance. It is impossible for any thoughtful person to contemplate, without pain, the state of White Bay, the Bay of Islands, and indeed the whole of the (so called) French Shore, along which our fellow countrymen and co-religionists are scattered, and which, except Codroy and Sandy Point in St. George's Bay, and about sixty miles included in the Forteau mission, is wholly untended and uncared for, save when the Bishop may be able to touch there in the Church Ship. Would it not be a blessing if some one or two men could be found to pass along these shores, to teach the articles of the faith, to minister the sacraments of life, and to keep alive in the hearts of men the knowledge of the Gospel of God? There is indeed a great dearth of religious ministrations along these distant and lonely shores as well as elsewhere on the island. And what is the cause of this? Is it the want of money to carry on the work? Not altogether. That we need not much fear, for if these people are served faithfully we may always be sure that those who are served and ministered to, for Christ's sake, will, for the honor of God and religion, contribute to the support of his ministers. The cause lies deeper, and is more difficult to remedy. We want an increase in the number of pious and earnest men, who will devote themselves with all the powers of mind and body to the office and work of the ministry of Christ. Here is that which is the source of weakness to the Church in this island, and until it please God to raise up more such men, of and belonging to the land, we shall, it is to be feared, be unable to carry the blessings of true religion and the riches of the Gospel of Christ to those who are now suffering hunger, not of bread, but of the Word of the Lord. Let all, in their several vocations and ministry, bear this in mind; above all, may parents be led to cherish in the hearts of their children early aspirations after the more immediate service of God. Well may we now, if at any time, pray the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth laborers into his harvest. May God grant that at our next annual meeting we may be gratified by hearing that our venerable Bishop has been enabled at last to carry into operation his long cherished plan of increasing the number of Clergy and the services of religion in some of the more widely extended missions of this diocese.

During the last year the Mission of Heart's Content, following the example of Greenspond, has assumed the responsibility of maintaining its own Clergyman, without external assistance. This example will, it is to be hoped, be followed from time to time by the more populous Missions: and indeed it must be admitted that in every case where there is a sufficient number of Church Members, it is their bounden duty to God, to the Church, and to themselves, to keep up in their own Parish and to help to extend the religious privileges which they enjoy. Your Committee cannot but allude to this on the present occasion, as they feel that this most important subject needs to be pressed upon the serious consideration of all thoughtful and religious men.

Since last year large and convenient Churches have been consecrated at Swain's Island, at Bay Roberts, at Coley's Point, and at Grate's Cove, to prove a blessing, it is hoped, to many yet unborn.

The Depository of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, which has, until this time, been kept up at the expence and through the kindness of His Lordship, the Bishop, is now about to engage the attention of the Committee, who feeling convinced of the importance of keeping up a supply of Bibles, Prayer-Books, and Books of devotion, contemplate making it an important feature of the Society, as it has always been one of its avowed objects. It is hoped that, in a short time, the Committee will be able to give this subject the attention which its importance deserves, and to adopt a few practical regulations which will have the effect of making this valuable aid more available than hitherto, and be the means of widely spreading the Word of God through the length and breadth of the land. The Clergy are invited to communicate with the Secretary of the Church Society, and make known their wishes for books which they may require, so that they may be obtained by the first opportunity.

Although departing somewhat from the affairs of our own Society, yet the Committee cannot refrain from mentioning one gratifying circumstance which has occurred elsewhere, and which is at once an evidence of the love of Englishmen to the Church of their fatherland, and a proof of the widely extending influence of our Communion. Within the last few months a gentleman residing in New South Wales has placed at the disposal of the Bishop of Newcastle, the munificent sum of £5,000, for the purpose of founding a new Bishopric to be detached from the still now but large Dioceses of Brisbane and Newcastle. This is a mark of liberality and devotion to the cause of religious extension, by no means common in the Colonies; and it is hoped that the boundless generosity which has led to the foundation of so many new Sees during the last few years, by pious individuals at home, will yet bear fruit in the Colonies, and provoke to emulation those whom God has blessed with wealth. Is it too much to hope that, even in Newfoundland, men may yet be moved to consecrate their wealth to the service of God and the extension of Religion, by helping to endow some of those great objects upon which, so far as we can judge, so much of the future welfare of the Church, and its extension, must depend? Such offerings to God, made in a truly Christian spirit, and with a desire to promote the cause of CHRIST, will, we may hope, both bring down a blessing upon those who are so benefited, and also return in a rain of blessings upon those who promote the cause,—and that not only in this world, but in the world yet to come.

In conclusion, then, the Committee would commend to the earnest attention of all Christian people the work and objects of the Church Society; for indeed it is a time when these matters cannot any longer be passed by, if the ministrations of religion are to be maintained and extended. And this duty must be undertaken and discharged by ourselves. Freely we have received from the bounty and devotion of the mother Church in England: freely let us give, both of ourselves, of our children, and of our substance, for the service of GOD and the salvation of the souls of our fellow men. And may GOD grant that our Church Society,—that organization by which we are joined to each other and to our Bishop,—may GOD grant that it may be more increasingly a bond of union among ourselves, and lead us to strive more and more for the great object of the Christian Church,—the salvation of the souls of men through JESUS CHRIST our LORD.

STANDING RULES

OF THE

Clergy Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

1.—THE NEWFOUNDLAND CHURCH SOCIETY'S Special Fund, for assisting the Widows and Orphans of deceased Clergymen of the Diocese of Newfoundland, shall consist of all monies paid to the Treasurer of the Society for that object.

2.—The Committee of the Church Society shall have the management of the Fund.

3.—Every Hundred Pounds of available surplus shall be invested by the Committee as opportunities occur. Smaller sums shall be deposited every quarter in the Savings' Bank.

4.—All Clergymen in the Diocese holding the Bishop's licence may secure the benefit of this Fund by contributing, within six months from the first day of this present July, or within one year of obtaining their licence from the Bishop, as follows:—(1) Unmarried Clergymen, and Widowers without a child, one pound (£1) per annum: (2) Married Clergymen, and Widowers with a Child, two pounds (£2) per annum.

5.—Subscriptions shall become due on the 31st day of December, each year. Thirty days grace shall be allowed; but every Clergyman neglecting to make payment within that time, shall forfeit his claim upon the Fund, to be recovered only upon payment of arrears with ten per cent thereon.

6.—Any Clergyman neglecting to subscribe according to Rule 4, may secure the benefit of the Fund, at the option of the Committee, on the payment of two pounds for each year from the first-day of the present July, or from the day of his being licenced by the Bishop.

7.—Every Clergyman securing the benefit of this Fund, will be expected to make, and forward to the Treasurer, a yearly special collection from every Congregation in his mission, and to solicit annual subscriptions from individual members.

8.—The Widow of Every Clergyman who shall have paid his annual subscription, and forwarded an annual collection, till his death, or till incapacitated by mental or bodily infirmity, shall be entitled to receive a yearly Pension of thirty pounds (£30) currency, during widowhood.

9.—If the Fund should at any time permit, the Committee may increase the amount of Pension to any sum not exceeding £50; such addition, however, being subject to be withdrawn wholly or in part, should the state of the Fund not warrant its continuance.

10.—If the Widow die or marry again, the Pension shall be paid to Trustees for the benefit of such Children of the deceased husband, as may be, if boys, under sixteen, if girls, under eighteen years of age.

11.—The Trustees named by a deceased Clergyman, in the event of the death or marriage of his Widow, shall be recognized by the Committee in paying the Pension for the benefit of the child or children; but if the Trustees so named are unwilling or unable to act, the Bishop of the Diocese shall act as Trustee in the application of the Pension.

12.—If the wife die before her husband, his child or children shall receive the Pension, so long as there is a claimant under Rule ten.

13.—The pensions shall be paid half-yearly by the Bishop's order on the Treasurer on the first of January and first of July. The first payment to be calculated for the interval from the husband's death to the day of payment.

14.—If a Clergyman removes, with the Bishop's consent, from the Diocese, after officiating in it not less than seven years, he shall be allowed his claim upon the Fund, on the payment of an annual subscription of three pounds (£3); or, if he desire it, may receive back half the amount he has paid; which repayment shall release the Fund from all his claims upon it.

15.—A yearly statement of the Treasurer's account with this Fund shall be published with the Society's Report.

16.—None of the above Rules shall be altered, or repealed except at a general meeting of the Church Society, and after a full years notice to the members of the proposed change.

The above Rules were agreed to by the President and Members of the Church Society at a special general meeting held on Wednesday, July 14th, 1858.

EDWARD NEWFOUNDLAND.

President.
