Technical and Bibliographic Notes/Notes techniques et bibliographiques

The Institute has attempted to obtain the best original copy available for filming. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of filming, are checked below.

L'Institut a microfilmé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de filmage sont indiqués ci-dessous.

The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

New Brunswick Museum
Saint John

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol ➤ (meaning "CON-TINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

New Brunswick Museum
Saint John

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole ➤ signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents.
Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

NEWS BOY'S ANNUAL ADDRESS

TO THE

PATRONS OF THE

NEW-BRUNSWICK

ROYAL GAZETTE.

1829.

HAIL to NEW-BRUNSWICK's favor'd Sons, and Daughters dearest :
HAIL to the News Boy's Patron's kind—at dawn of this new year :
HAIL to the prosperity, opening mild upon our fertile Land ;
With grateful recollections due to Providence's Hand.

May the first Hail propitious be to Virtue, and to Love :
And the next inferior nothing prove—if any thing, above
The usual bouny of His Favour, who estimate aright
The visits of their New'st Day true, in dark or moonlight night.

May the third Hail awake find in every human breast
Within the precincts of our Soil, no prosperous and blest :
While the warm life blood animates each throbbing heart to beat
With loyal zeal to annul their gratitude complete.

To PROVIDENCE with reverence all should weekly bend the knee,
And own the MERCIES N bestows, which we so strongly see Marked in its present course through Time, dispelling every fear,
And ushering in, on Hope's bright wings, the prospects of this year.

Thus having made my bow in rhyme as well as I could do,
The rest more properly belongs, kind Patrons, unto you :
And if I might presume to judge from what the past has shown,
Reason I can have none to think, you'll now my claims drawn.

Indeed I've ever found you kind, considerate and fair :
Then why should I suppose you changed, or altered with the year ?—
But True to this, I know my FRIENDS too well to doubt their worth,
Their JUSTICE—LIBERALITY—which never knew a fault.

And so I'll venture to proceed, as custom hath enjoind
At this auspicious period, when Song impels the mind,
Solemnly or sprightly tuned, to celebrate the Day :—
Breviarily to recount the past, or purport of my lay.

Yet how can I, untaught, presume to steal the glittering hue,
The soft, sweet graces of a Bard—and I unlearned too.—
The brilliant splendour of whose thoughts incandescent breathes beam,
To decorate a News Boy's Verse, or this his humble Thome.

The forgery would apparent be, and therefore I forbear ;
At least no crude attempt of mine shall see the present year :
But like a prudent artisan, I'll to my trade be true,
By singing naught but that alone—and leave the rest to you.

And few but know, that, while without our presses and our types,
In some degree in vain would be the Poet's boundless flights :—
Nor types nor presses have such charms as to inspire the mind
Of Poet with a thought for these—whose thoughts are no roial'd.

And what reward might I expect, s'en were I to attempt To deviate from my beaten track, and to my thoughts give vent
In strains poetic ?—Why that all who now respect my name,
Would then strive only which should be first to denounce my shame.

Nay, the TYPES might e'en "uncase" themselves, and whizzing through the air,
As thick as hailstones, tempest-wing'd, reduce me to despair :
And PEARS of BROOKS' iron mould, hurl'd with the Devil's force,
Amalgamate both types and me,—and finish one of course.

No, no ; I'll not disgrace the fact, for Poet I am none ;
And were no other reason given, these lines were surely one,
Enough to prove the honest truth, so evident to all,
That I a simple News Boy am—but poet, none at all.

Yet simple though I seem, and am, and humble though I be ;
A friend my Patron off may find in one so poor as me :
For I can cheer their Winter's hearth ; and ease o' the tear to flow O'er lovely WOMAN's peach-like cheek, for Virtue's melting we.

And I can fire the PATRIOT's breast with sentiments so bold,
That nought on earth may fetter them, nor Death their influence hold Magnificently moving on, through Time, in Virtue's light ;
His COUNTRY's weal his noblest aim—soot to his MAKER's right,

I, too, can sooth the mind to rest, and tranquillize the heart ;
And dissipate the feverish dreams, which bear so great a part In the affairs of man's short life—full brief enough without His self-created phantasies, to wound the Soul with doubt.

And I can utter, silently, consoling words to read—
Imparting PEACE and HAPPINESS to all who these may need :
And sometimes I can incite the Truths, Divine and best,
Of man's immortal hopes and joys—EXULTATION's meek belies.

And—prest !—I can change the scene, and bring before your view
Many an Anecdote of old,—and frequently some new :
At which you're often grasp'd your ribs, and pour'd forth all your night,
In one far-reaching hearty laugh of rapturous delight.

Again I shift the scene—and lo !—the Armies on the plains,
Fighting in dense and distant clouds, for false or real claims :
Now thundering peals the dreadful note of Battle's crimson wrath ;
Now many a Patriot's gallant form writhes in the pangs of death.

And many other Scenes 'tis mine the privilege to show ;
"The tedious to make mention of"—Scenes not alone of woe,
As I above have verified—but those many now appear,
Sufficient for establishing my modest claim this year.

Then think what pleasures I impart, and look upon me kind !
And design a TRIBUTE to your true Purveyor for the MIND.—
Which all in this enlightened age should emulate to a'ore,
With KNOWLEDGE that may lead the Soul its MAKER to adore.

Twill serve more purposes than—one—believe me I'm sincere :
I'd not exalt yo' by sleek words ; though the privilege, I hear
To strain a point admitted is fair play such times as these,
When all but pots and frying-pans rollin' in jovial ease.

In parting for the current year, permit me to present
My plain but hearty wishes for your happiness—content—
(The purest happiness below)—prosperity—and health
To crown each bright Felicity—of all the richest wealth.

And now as I am quite aware how fruitful is my lay
In errors—are I close my theme, 'tis needful that I say,
I trust that you will smile upon this labor of our PRESS,
And scan, with generosity, the faults of my ADDRESS.
